MRS. THOMAS JERRY MUSGROVE JR.

Vows Repeated

Miss Elizabeth Ann Ledbetter and Mr. Thomas Jerry Musgrove Jr. were united in marriage on Saturday evening July 15th in the sanctuary of Crestview Baptist Church in Lamesa. Rev. Roy Haynes officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ledbetter, Route 1, O'Donnell and Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Musgrove, 1312 Stadium, Big Spring.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Leroy Chapman organist. Prelude music was presented by Miss Catherine Jackson, Miss Kristy Smith and Miss Lesa Hensley. They sang

The Wedding Song. Miss Karen Cox sang Evergreen and The Twelfth of Never accompanied by Mrs. Chapman.

The bridal aisle was appointed with tall brass hurricane candelabra with greenery and apricot satin ribbons. Vows were exchanged before a gold gothic archway covered with ivory, apricot and yellow silk gladiola, daisies and peonies with greenery. Candle tree stood on each side of the archway and held ivory cathedral tapers and apricot tapers and a white memory candle stood beneath the archway on a marble column.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory chantilly fashioned with a scoop neckline edged with a double ruffle of Val lace. The long slender sleeves had a ruffle at the wrist. The full traditional tiered skirt flowed from the natural waisted bodice. A ruffle of narrow Val lace formed the hemline of the skirt, tiers and train. A satin ribbon accented with Venice lace encompassed the waistline. The headpiece was a Juliet cap of matching lace holding a lace edged veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of silk apricot, and ivory roses, daisies, poppies, mustardhush and babies breath, on top of a white Bible.

For something old the bride wore a gold heart shaped locket which belonged to her maternal grandmother. Something new was her gown. Something borrowed was a linen embroidered handkerchief belonging to her paternal grandmother. Something blue was the traditional blue garter. She wore a sixpense in her shoe. The bride presented her mother a silk rose as she entered and the grooms mother one after the ceremony.

Mrs. Mary Bond, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Linda Fields, of Clint, and Susan Musgrove, sister of the groom, of Big Spring. They wore full length gowns of apricot dotted swiss fashioned with a square neckline outlined in white Val lace. A ruffle of Val lace on the empire bodice formed a pin-afore effect. The skirt was fully gathered in three deep tiers of ruffles. A band of lace encircled the high rise waist. They wore summer design hats with flowers to match their bouquets. They carried wicker arm baskets filled with apricot and ivory silk roses, poppies and daisies with babies breath.

Terry Bond, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Bobby Rogers, of Dallas, and Pat Ray of Big Spring. Ushers were Ted and Gene Cooley of Borden County and Kenny Scott and Greg Stephens of Big Spring.

The groom was attired in a ivory tuxedo with ivory ruffled shirt. The bestman, groomsmen and other male attendents wore ginger seville tuxedos and apricot ruffled shirts.

Candlelighters were Kathy and Paul Durham, cousins of the bride. Kathy wore a dress and hat identical to the bridesmaids.

Rings were carried on a ivory satin pillow by Shawn Tuscana, cousin of the bride.

Flower girls were Misty Stubblefield, cousin of the bride, and Jacquelyn McPiani. They carried wicker baskets filled with rose petals.

Guests were registered by Sue Hancock from a table covered in a ivory lace cloth with a apricot undercloth. A apricot silk flower in a bud vase centered the table.

The brides mother wore a full length gown of jademist chiffon and corsage of apricot, ivory and mistgreen silk roses, poppies and daisies. The grooms mother wore a pastel yellow chiffon formal length gown and a corsage of apricot, ivory and yellow roses, daisies and poppies.

RECEPTION

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the

Local AJRA News

Borden Co. is well represented this year in the American Junior Rodeo Association. There are sixteen members: Talley Griffin, Becky Miller, Gayla and Cody Newton, Sandra and Debra Kountz, Keil and Kelly Williams, Tracy and Mayme McLaury, Dana and Glenn Gray, Travis Rinehart, Ben Murphy, Brice Key and Perry Smith.

Some have traveled all year in competition and others have made only the closer shows to home.

We have four new members this year. Brice Key, Dana Gray, Tracy and Mayme McLaury. Mayme competes in 16-19 age groups and the others are in the 12 and under age group.

At this time, we do not have a complete list of those who have qualified for the AJRA Finals but will be keeping you posted as we hear.

Borden County does have three members who are competing in top four for World Championships, Gayla Newton, Talley Griffin, and Mayme McLaury. You will want to keep up with their standings and wish them all well. Once the Finals start, their standings will be posted daily at the coliseum in Snyder.

It is impossible to give you their most recent standings for they have competed in several shows since the last standings were issued and still have four more shows to make. Our members know their winnings, but its hard to keep up with their closest competitors winnings.

At present Gayla Newton is leading the (13-15) optional race, 7th in optional roping and possibly higher now and is in 2nd place for All-Around.

Talley Griffin was setting 3rd in (13-15) Barrell Race and possibly higher now, 8th and possibly higher in optional roping and in the top four for All-Around.

Mayme McLaury is setting 3rd in (16-19) Barrell Race. Mayme has only traveled to the closer shows and won everywhere she entered so her closer competitors better look out-There are four more shows.

Shelley White, now of Dublin, Texas and formerly of Gail (we still claim her anyway) is leading the (13-15) Barrell Race competition.

Around Town

Correction: Sterling Williams has not had his surgery as was reported recently. Sterling is home and awaiting his surgery. It is scheduled for later this month.

James McLeroy, Ann and girls were in Austin this last week on school business.

Frances Bennett and her sister, Cloda, spent the week in the tall, cool pines of Ruidoso, N.M. this past week. Seems a nice place to be since we have been having such hot weather here.

What's Hapin would like to welcome two new families to Gail.

The two new coaches moved in this past week.

Randy and Cynthia Roesmich from Divide, Texas in Nolan County. Randy is the boys football coach.

Lynn and Penny Maxwell and children, Michael and Kim. Lynn had been teaching at Kappinal, Texas. I'm sure quite a few folks will remember the Maxwells from Ackerly, Tex. Lynn's father M.B. Maxwell was superintendent there for over 20 yrs. Lynn use to play ball against some of our young people--Don Nunnally, Tony Issacc and Brent Williams--oops!! I better watch it I'll be telling Lynn's age- Sorry about that Lynn!!

Anyway we say "Welcome" to Gail to these new families.

Norval and Christine Cunningham have been in Wichita Falls for several days visiting heir sons, Kenneth and Ricky and families. Didn't get hot by any chance there Sat. did it? I heard the news say it was 114 degrees and broke the record. I bet even the temperature here in Gail felt good after 114 degrees at Wichita Falls.

RECENT MUSEUM VISITORS

Pictured: Mr. & Mrs. Lorell Summerald and family from Pasadena, Texas. They were visiting in Snyder to attend 1958 Class Reunion. Also in picture, Mrs. Bennie Summerald of Snyder.

Other visitors not pictured: Mr. Earl Cary of Snyder; his daughter, Norma Reed of ASandi, Utah; son, Don Cary and grandson Jothanan of Leonia, New Jersey; and Terri Glasscock, granddaughter from Snyder.

Visitors from El Paso, Mr. & Mrs. J.E. Wilbourn. Mr. Wilbourn is related to the original family who gave the land which became the townsite of Gail.

Ambulance News

Have been on vacation, but since the last publication of news on the Ambulance, we have had only one run. Tim Taylor and Michael Vaughn had an accident in Tim's car, both boys were taken to the Medical Arts Hospital in Lamesa, Texas. The boys were released the next day.

MEMORIAL; Richie Everett, from The C. A. Chambers'.

DONATIONS: From Larry A. Tubbs, M. D., Post, Texas.

I was informed that they had a good meeting last Wednesday at the High School. Everyone please remember that these meetings are held every 2nd Wednesday of each Month in the Conference Room in the Borden High School Building, PLEASE come if possible.
