Boy Shoots Father in Defense of Mother

No Charges Are Filed In Killing

Frey, 14-year-old Junior High School student, shot and killed his father. Jack Frey, 52, at 8:45 p.m. yesterday, apparently in defense of his mother, in the vard of their home on the Saunders Shamrock lease five miles south of Pampa.

District Attorney Tom Braly quoted the youth as saying:

"I was afraid he was goiez to kill mother with the shotgun and I just shot. I don't remem-ber whether I pulled the rifle to my shoulder or just lifted it

Larry was still in "out-custody" of Sheriff G. H. "Skinner" Kyle this morning pending an examining trial before Justice of the Peace D. R. Henry.

The shooting climaxed a family fight brought on, officers said, by the older Frey's drunken abuses and whipping of hi wife Mabel, 43, a few moments

Mrs. Frey, and Larry, who called the sheriff himself, told officers Frey had been drinking heavily for several days and was cursing and "whipping at" both of them in the house last night, Frey, during the row, went to a tool box on the back porch and got a hatchet. Mother and son managed to get the hatchet and throw it in the front yard. Frey next went after a ball-peen hammer in the tool box and they managed to get that away from nim. As the father and husband became more violent and utter ed other threats, the mother told Larry to take the .22 rifle from the closet and hide it in the garage or wash house that stood about 23 yards in the rear of the house. As the boy from the house to hide the rifle, Frey grabbed a 20 gauge shotcloset with the rifle and yelled, "I've got a bead on you" or words to that effect, Braly said that currently changing business conditions will stabilize at healthy normal levels which will assure sustained satisfactory volume was expressed by speakers at two automotive trade meetings here.

Leading automobile parts and equipment jobbers and manufacturers representatives of the Southwest were on hand for the sessions in a foregathering of the trades for the seventh annual Southwest Automotive Show.

Some 500 exhibits were the automobile building in readiness for one of the largest industrial equipment shows held in the country.

Gathering for separate sessions were the Texas and Southwestern members of the Motor and Equipment Wholesalers Assn., a whole salers organization, and the Na-tional Standard Parts Assn., an organization of manufacturer and wholesaler executives.

Addressing the motor and equipment wholesalers, J. Howard Reed, merchandising and legislative counsel of Chicago, said that changing conditions should only create new sales opportunities for those who organize their thinking and adjust their management policy to conform to more competiive conditions.

VA Places Big Tag on Vets' Pension Bill

WASHINGTON - (AP) - Congressional backers of a proposed "low-cost" veterans pension bill were somewhat disturbed by a billion dollar price tag put on it by the Veterans Administration. They called in more veterans representatives for advice.

The House Veterans Committee is considering a bill by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) as a successor to one killed by the House two weeks ago.

The new bill as it stands applies only to World War I veter-ans and reduces the proposed pension payment from $90 to $72 a month. However, a pending proposal would also include World War II veterans. The Veterans Administration said the combination would cost 77 billion dollars in the next 50 years; one for World War I alone, 17 billion

The committee heard from John Thomas Taylor, legislative representative of the American Legion. Taylor was taken to task by Rep. Teague (D-Tex) for advo-cating pensions regardless of cost. "I can't agree with you," Teague told him. "I think cost is a very important factor for consideration.

At the same time, Teague proposed broadening pension legisla-tion to include World War II

"I didn't dream the cost would be what it is," Teague remarked later in obvious surprise.

He said he had proposed to amend the bill to include the younger veterans "because I thought if we pass a law at all, we ought to put World War II men in it now, and clean up the whole thing."

Officers said the bullet entered the right side of Frey's forehead close to the hairline. The youth was questioned by friends until the examining trial held sometime today.

No charges against the had been filed by the District Attorney's office by noon today. The body was examined by County Health Officer Dr. Juian Key this morning at the Duenkel · Carmichael Funeral Home.

Neighbors of the Freys scribed young Larry as a very good boy, always courteous and the type who stayed at home with his parents at night. Frey was described as an excellent husband when sober, but a "bear cat" when drinking. He recently returned from a hospital in Kantreatment for an ulcerated stomach. He was warned by physicians then, officers said, to cease drinking.

Defense Argues In Owen Case SPRINGFIELD, Mo. -(AP)- The

efense begins its case today in a Federal Court suit in which Jorge Pasquel, former president of the Mexican Baseball League, is asking $127,500 from ex-major league catcher Mickey Owen. Owen, who jumped to the Mexican League following stretches in the majors with the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers and service in the U.S. Navy, has counter claim of $93,000 against Pasquel. Harry Feldman, former N.e.w. York Giant pitcher who jumped to the Mexican League along with Owen and several other major leaguers, was to testify for the former Brooklyn gatcher to-

Owen yesterday contended that Pasquel, in firing him, owed him $51,428.50 on the contract alone. He charged the Mexican millionaire was the one guilty of breach of contract.

DALLAS —(R)— If experience means anything, Dallas' Eagles are going to cut a caper in the 1840 Texas League baseball chase. For the Burnett boys have experience in abundance.

Another wicked six-man tag but Nenoff will have to prove match will feature the card at that he is in their class. The other three boys are all good wrestlers, who don't refer to unorthodox tactics unless forced to do so.

Sandow and Kasaboski have so battled the past two weekends, with Billy losing last week in the main event, but whipping here is and Sharman are rough.

Back on hand to lend punch and experience are Rusty Burns, the league's leading slugger and home run king batted in 113 runs last season batted in 113 runs last season while playing right field, and the invaluable Billy Capps, steady-playing third baseman who hit .295 and was particularly rough in the play-offs.

Also on hand from the fine

1948 team are pitchers Bud Byerly, who topped the league in lowest earned runs with 2.13 and young Dave Jolly, used mostchores when called from Columbia of the Sally League. The same wiley leadership will be provided by Al Vincent, sen-ior pilot in the league and a fellow who is generally recog-nized as a master at getting a smart and hustling effort out of voungsters and vets alike.

This upcoming 1949 race is expected to be tougher and closer than was the case last year when Fort Worth, Tulsa and Houston clinched play-off sports early with only the fourth-place battle between San Antonio and Shreveport carrying right down to the final day of competition to find the Sports copping the fourth position by one-half a game.

Cincinnati has already moved to supply some replacements of experience and quality in catcher Dewey Williams and pitcher Tommy Hughes, both of whom will help this young club.

To plug the shortstop post—a position which has lacked consistency and polish ever since the reactivation of the leaguethe Reds have optioned down Harry Donabedian from Syracuse and this fellow would give the Oilers the best play they've had at shortstop in a decade. He replaces Elbie Flint who went to Syracuse in a trade and who then was drafted into the Army. Donabedian may not hit much but his field leaves little to be

Thus, through the middle, with Williams behind the plate and Donabedian at short, the Oilers are lacking only a polished sec-ond-sacker. He could be on hand right now in youthful Jack Baumer, Broken Arrow, Okla., ace who batted .318 for Ogden in the Class C Pioneer League last season. The youngster has the best arm in camp and is perhaps the fastest man on the squad. He's a glittering major league prospect but might be too much of a gamble in Double A right now. Also on hand for infield duty is Roy McMillan, another youngster up from Tyler of the Big State Class B circuit where he hit .307 and was considered the best infield in the league.

The first base problem is the most difficult right now with only gangling Joe Adcock, a Columbia, Sally League, star on hand at the bag. Adcock, cer-tainly a prospect, might be a year away from this competition but he's the only possible man for the post at the present writ-

State to Inspect All Institutions

AUSTIN — (P) — The Senate has asked that all state institutions be inspected immediately for fire hazards. The resolution, by Senator Fred Harris of Dallas, was prompted by news of the midnight fire that swept through St. Anthony's Hospital in Effingham, Ill., trapping many bed-ridden patients and nurses. The resolution must go to the House for approval before it beomes effective. "We feel that such a catastrophe shall not happen in our great state if it is at all possible to prevent it," Harris' resolution said.

Another 12 Months Of Hard Labor

Face Britishers LONDON — (P) — Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the ex-chequer, sentenced the British taxpayer to another 12 months of hard labor.

He presented Parliament with a 1949-50 budget denying any substantial tax cuts and raising the basic prices of some kinds of food. He defied the powerful Trades Union Congress, one of the principal supports of the Labor government, by declining to lower the stiff purchase taxes which range from 33, 1-3 percent to 100 percent on most things sold at retail.

He presented an economic survey describing 1948 as a year "of great achievement for the British people,"

Commons "there is no doubt whatever" that Britain needs continued American aid.

Editor Resigns From Wife's Paper

NEW YORK -(P) — T. O. (Ted) Thackrey resigned as editor and publisher of the New York Post Home News, owned by his wife, because of differences on policy questions.
His wife, Dorothy Schiff Thackrey, said in a statement on be-half of the Board of Directors that "irreconcilable differences on fundamental questions of policy made a request for his resignation inevitable." She took over today as publisher.

The belief that probably causes more trouble and misery and confusion than any other belief is that a subdivision of the state has a right to force people to pay for schooling or what they call education. Yet they admit that no individual would have a right to initiate force to make another individual pay for his ideas on education. It is no more logical to minority of people in this community should be forced to pay First and foremost among the instance, a workman approaching for this newspaper because the majority so orders.
