Rommel Forced To Withdraw; Violent New Battle Raging

'Pressure Group Tactics' Hit By FDR

W. Lee Lined Up With Nye, Says Allred

WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—President Roosevelt stepped into the congressional scrap over the deadlocked agriculture appropriations bill today to assail "pressure group tactics" and declare that the only real issue involved was "whether the government should be free to use its feed resources to produce food for wartime effort."

He strongly supported the administration's demand that congress authorize sale of 125,000,000 bushels of wheat for feeding purposes at prices under parity.

Mr. Roosevelt gave his views in a letter to seven farm, labor, and religious organizations, who had written to him June 20 in behalf of the wheat proposal and in support of larger funds for the Farm Security Administration.

The farm appropriation bill has been firmly deadlocked because of inability of the senate and house to agree on selling wheat for feeding livestock.

"The authorization to sell some of the government's holdings of grain for feeding purposes at 85 per cent of the parity price for corn," the president wrote, "is essential if the armed services and the civilian population are to be assured adequate supplies of pork, beef, milk, chicken and eggs at prices that will neither break through the ceiling nor require excessive subsidies."

"The government will continue to assure fair prices to farmers for their products. . . . Certainly, the government organized for total war must have the authority to employ its resources promptly and in sufficient volume to speed victory. We have surplus of grain; we have no surplus of meat, and shortages in certain meats, fats, and oils."

Topsy Cowboy Convinces Cop He Roped Lion

MUSKOGEE, Okla., July 3 (AP)—Arresting a tipsy cowboy, Police-man James Hunter made a routine search of his prisoner's automobile.

He raised the lid of the trunk compartment, peeked boldly into it, and found a lion with a howl inside, securely tied by his lion, alive and growling.

"Where did you get that thing?" Hunter demanded. "Why, me and John just roped it down the road."

"I got out on the running board and John drove alongside him and I got a rope on the sucker. When I reared back that big boy came up and slapped me with his paw and I knew then that I had hold of a lion, shore enough."

"Reckon I'd have been chewed up if John hadn't jumped out and got another rope on him and took a hitch around a tree. Then we tied him up and pitched him in the car."

Police finally informed the cowboy he was free to go on his way. "I got out, he would take the lion with him."

By ROGER D. GREENE, Associated Press War Editor. Britain's Egyptian armies clashed with the Axis in violent battle west of El Alamein again today after driving Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's Africa corps into at least temporary retreat in the three-day-old "battle of the bottleneck."

British Attack Nazis From Rear

Dispatches from the front said the British, rallying at the eleventh hour, were striking furiously at the Axis invaders.

Details were lacking as to whether Rommel had returned after withdrawing last night or whether the British, seizing the initiative, were pursuing the Axis forces.

A bulletin from British imperial headquarters said Rommel's army "withdrew to the west, leaving our positions intact," after a fierce tank battle last evening at El Alamein, less than 70 miles west of Alexandria.

Italian headquarters claimed the capture of El Alamein, which was described as the last British stronghold guarding the great Alexandria naval base.

Front-line dispatches said the twilight tank battle in the desert, the first major setback for General Rommel's armies in their sweep toward the Nile, climaxed bitter all-day fighting in which the invaders launched a general attack against El Alamein.

"Our mobile and armored forces counter-attacked the enemy flanks," a British communique said, inflicting such heavy losses that Rommel called a retreat.

By HENRY C. CASSIDY, MOSCOW, July 3 (AP)—The greatest tank battle of the current German offensive, with hundreds of machines engaged on both sides, is in progress east of Kursk, while 75 to 100 miles to the south Nazi shock troops are attempting to outflank and separate the Russian central and southern armies, Soviet military dispatches reported today.

Great Tank Battle Rages Near Kursk

The battle on the Kursk front began Wednesday morning with an attack by about 200 German tanks, the dispatches said.

These were hurled back, and then the real mass engagement began at noon that day.

The Germans have suffered tremendous losses, and in the thick of battle the Red army has managed to increase the fortifications of its already-strong positions, said Red Star, the army newspaper.

Few details were given, but the Russians were said to have recaptured several villages.

Kursk, a key front in the present conflict, is about 280 miles south of Moscow and 125 miles north of Kharkov.

To the south, the new German thrusts were in the Belgorod and Volchansk sectors, 50 and 35 miles north and northeast of Kharkov.

By EDWARD KENNEDY, CAIRO, July 3 (AP)—The battle of Egypt was re-joined today with unrelenting fury today west of El Alamein in the bottleneck of the coastal approach to the Nile valley, with the resurgent British eighth army striving to exploit its first successful counter-stroke since the Axis invasion started.

By WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—The army announced intention today of starting the induction of regular quotas of men placed in the deferred I-B selective service class because of minor physical defects.

Men With Only One Eye To Be Inducted

Beginning August 1, men with only one eye or complete deafness in one ear, among others, will be inducted for limited military service, provided they otherwise meet requirements.

They will be assigned to duty with corps area service commands and the war department overhead organization, and thereby release an almost equal number of fully qualified soldiers for service with task forces.

Induction, under the new standards, "will be limited to those with minor physical defects who are able to bring to the army a useful vocational which was followed in civilian life," the war department said.

Men found upon re-examination to be qualified for full military service will be inducted as I-A registrants.

Among those now classified as I-B who would be eligible under the new ruling for limited service status are men: whose weight and chest circumference do not meet I-S standards but do meet for a class 4; who have minimum 20-400 sight in one or both eyes if correctible with glasses to 20-40 in either eye; whose hearing in one or both ears is not less than 5-20, with complete deafness in one ear permitted if hearing in the other is 10-20 or better; who have insufficient teeth, if the defect is correctible by dentures.

33 Lives Lost In Atlantic Sinking

(By The Associated Press) The sinking of another United Nations vessel—this time taking the lives of 33 of its 47-man crew—disclosed today (Friday) by the navy, raising to 332 the unofficial Associated Press tabulation of sinkings in the western Atlantic.

The 14 survivors of the torpedoing of a medium sized British cargo ship said 33 either burned to death in their bunks or lost their lives when two lifeboats were destroyed by fire.

The survivors who got clear in another lifeboat said a submarine fired the ship with two torpedoes in the Gulf of Mexico last Monday.

Meanwhile, the navy announced that British and Canadian warships had joined with U. S. vessels in an intensified campaign against submarine depredations in American waters.

"The vessels have been operating both on escort duty and in the campaign against enemy submarines along our Eastern seaboard," the navy said.

Serious Injuries Suffered By Worker

Robert A. Dyson, 621 North Hobart street, employe of the Cabot Shops, suffered serious but not critical injuries in an unusual accident yesterday afternoon.

He was taken to a local hospital in a Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home ambulance where it was reported he had suffered a broken pelvis, army injury, and bruises.

Mr. Dyson fell into a 16-foot pit at the new ordnance plant being constructed by Cabot. At the time of the accident he and other workmen were on top of a concrete wall, removing dirt when a bulldozer moving dirt shoved several large clouds of earth over a small rise.

One of the clouds struck Dyson, knocking him into the pit. The accident occurred about 5 o'clock. His condition was reported favorable today.

Fourth Fireworks Displays Canceled

(By The Associated Press) A nation fighting to protect the freedom won in other wars celebrates tomorrow its first wartime Fourth of July in a quarter-century under conditions that may make it really "safe and sane."

Most war factories will hum on, many fireworks have been abandoned, and the populous eastern seaboard, the gasoline rationing will keep the greater part of the area's 10,000,000 motorists off the highways.

True, many of the 54,000,000 residents of the 17 gas-starved Atlantic coast states plan to make their usual holiday trips by train or bus, and some municipalities, mostly in the Midwest—are to stage huge fireworks displays, but travel generally will be in the form of parades and fireworks in the form of speeches.

Army warnings that fireworks displays and large gatherings might present opportunities for token air recruits.

raids and for saboteurs and actual bans on such celebrations on the east and west coasts as well as the Gulf states indicated that those areas would observe the holiday quietly.

Congratulations

Central Baptist Services To Include Deacon Ordination

"Contending for the Faith" will be the main subject at 11 o'clock at Central Baptist church by the Rev. T. D. Sumrall, pastor.

"This is a day of broken confidence and falling faith, and yet faith in God and confidence in our fellowmen are the bulwarks of our progressive religion. Without faith we cannot please God. We will do well to turn to the word of God for research and counsel and find that faith is like a light in a dark night—it shows the path and guards on it," Rev. Sumrall stated.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock an ordination service will be held in which three men of the church will be honored to the office of deacon. A number of visiting preachers will attend and assist in the service. The Rev. R. C. Brister of Skellytown will preach the ordination sermon and the council will be composed of the Rev. Dan Beltz of LeFors, the Rev. R. A. Briggs of Pampa, and the Rev. E. M. Dunswoth of Pampa. Immediately after this service the Lord's Supper or communion will be observed.

At the evening worship hour, Rev. Sumrall will speak on "The Day of the Lord." This sermon will give scriptural facts relating to the hour in which we live; also the second coming of Christ will be discussed as well as related events.
"We do well to search the scriptures on the age and hour in which we live and be ready for the coming of the Lord which seems very near," he pointed out.

The public is invited to hear these sermons and engage in the worship.

Rev. Gilpin Will Deliver Series Of Evening Services

Believing that great art masterpieces not only inspire men but also preach great sermons to them, the Rev. R. L. Gilpin, pastor of the McCullough Methodist church, will deliver a series of evening sermons during the month of July based on four beloved pictures.

The four to be considered are three by Hofmann, "Christ in the Garden," "The Rich Young Ruler," "Christ in the Temple"; and one other, "The Lost Sheep." A limited number of beautiful copies of each picture, suitable for framing, will be presented to the congregation. Appropriate hymns will be selected and a brief review of both the artist and the canvass will be given.

The service for the evening of July 5, based on Hoffman's "Christ in the Garden," will be further enhanced by the hanging in the church of a beautiful replica of this canvas by the talented young Texas artist, Miss Inez Smith, of Palestine.
The public is invited to attend these services.

National Leader To Speak At Church Of Brethren Sunday

At 11 o'clock on Sunday morning the Church of the Brethren will have as guest speaker, Robert E. Moller of Kansas, national executive secretary of the Brethren and assistant to the president of McPherson college.
He has just returned from the annual conference of the church at Asheville, N. C., where 2,500 people gathered in commemoration of the founding of the institution of a general conference 200 years ago.
The pastor of the church, the Rev. Russell G. West, also announces that he will be assisted in the worship service by the Rev. John W. Deeter, pastor of the Ingwood Church of the Brethren in California. And since many of the members of the church will be busy in wheat harvest, the pastor would like to see in the audience at least 100 visitors from within Pampa, who had not otherwise planned to attend a church.

Mrs. Kelley Speaks On Durable Items In Clothing Budget
"Every woman wants to buy the best dresses her means will permit. Whether she has much or little to spend, the ability to make a wise choice means a great deal from the standpoint of money outlay and of satisfaction. For the cost of dresses is a very important item in the clothing budget," Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, county home demonstration agent, stated at a recent meeting of Wayside Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Lowell Osborne.
"Good dresses last longer, look better, and are more comfortable to wear," continued Mrs. Kelley. "So a woman has to pick carefully to get the ones best suited to her needs and her pocketbook. Few of us, however, are expert judges of fabrics or of the construction of garments.
"So, as an aid in judging quality, learn to feel and see the differences between fabrics; examine raw edges inside the dress where yarns may be seen separately; note firmness or tendency to fray or stretch and likelihood of snagging, fuzzing up, or pulling at the seams," she added.
During the social hour, refreshments were served to members and two guests, Mrs. Julia E. Kelley and Miss Margie Faye Taylor.
Mrs. J. W. Condo will be hostess to the club on July 10 at 2 o'clock.

Onions Will Give Meals New Flavor

On the market now is one of the largest crops of mature onions ever produced. Now that they are plentiful, try them in soups, serve them with meat, mix them with other vegetables in all sorts of dishes.
Onion Soup
Try appetizing onion soup made with meat broth.
Chop 6 medium onions fine. Brown them lightly in 2 tablespoons fat. Add 1 pint boiling water and simmer the onions for about 20 minutes, or until they are tender. Add 1 quart meat broth. "Thicken the soup with a mixture of 4 tablespoons flour mixed with 4 tablespoons cold water. Add salt and pepper, cook for a few minutes. Pour soup into bowls, put a slice of toasted bread on top, sprinkle with cheese, if you like. This makes 6 servings.

SOUP IS GOOD MIXED WITH POTATOES
For a quick onion and potato soup, use this method: Dice 3 tablespoons onions, and 2 cups potatoes. Add 1 quart milk. Cook slowly until potatoes and onions are tender. The starch from the potatoes will thicken the milk somewhat. Thicken more, if you like a soup with a little more body. Season to taste.
Some families like a salad of very thin onion slices, with or without cucumber slices, served with a little vinegar over them. If you want to take out some of the strong onion flavor beforehand, soak them for a while in salt water. Add these "vinegar" onions to other salads for a little different taste.

Lots Of People Are Bringing On Gas Rationing

If nation-wide rationing of gas does have to be resorted to there are a lot of folks who will have the satisfaction of knowing that they asked for it.
There is the family of three which has kept two cars and a station wagon just as they did in the good old days.
There is the couple who started running the tires off their car the minute they first heard that cars might be requisitioned by the government.
"We'll enjoy it while we have it," is their philosophy.
Then there is the father who has let his college son keep his roadster, even though he has no need for it except for getting out to a beer joint and back, and to dances in nearby towns.
THEY WON'T SAVE "FOR POLITICIANS"
There is also the family which is so dependent on doing things the easy, convenient way they haven't as yet made the acquaintance of the town's buses and street cars. They can't imagine having to do so. Then there are the people who blame the government for the rubber shortage and so don't feel any responsibility for conserving the rubber in their possession. They are sure that if they do save their tires they'll eventually go to "some politician."

Boyce House Will Be Here For Two Days

Boyce House of Fort Worth, candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas, will arrive in Pampa Monday night and will spend Tuesday morning in Pampa where he is well known. A former newspaperman, Boyce House "covered" Pampa's early pioneer celebrations and fiestas for the Fort Worth Star Telegram.

Mr. House assisted in the making of the picture "Boom Town." He was one of the advisers named by the governor to assist in the filming of the famous picture.

Since announcing for lieutenant governor Mr. House, whose slogan is "Put House in the State House," has received thousands of letters and cards from supporters over the state, according to word received here. He is the originator of the Sunday morning radio program, "I Give You Texas." He is probably more familiar with Texas and Texas history than any man in the state.

Pampa Wheat Market
A few wheat farmers started cutting today but fields were still wet from week-end rains and two tractors were being used to pull combines in most cases. Local market was 89 cents today.

NEW YORK, July 3. (AP)—The stock market lost some of its early buying enthusiasm today but there still were enough bidders in the arena to keep prices generally in the advancing column.

In the closing hour there were scattered gains of 1/2 or more points. Most plus marks were relatively small and there was a smattering of minor declines at the last.

Henderson Explains Employee Selections

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—Leon Henderson, who has not always seen eye to eye with senators on personnel matters, had an opportunity today to explain to a senate appropriations subcommittee just how he went about selecting state and regional employees of the Office of Price Administration.

Summoned for further testimony on his request for an $86,000,000 increase in the $75,000,000 OPA fund voted by the house, the cigar-chomping price administrator was expected to outline in detail the problems he has faced in setting up an organization that already embraces 34,576 employees.

Some instances filling jobs with that Henderson placed too much of the responsibility for selecting field employees on state governors, in some instances filling jobs with the legislators' political enemies.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Happy Birthday To The U. S.

At this moment we are going through one of our periods of gloom, as the result of a series of setbacks by the Axis powers. We are inclined to feel that this, the 166th birthday of the United States of America, is the most critical since the first.

That is not a bad national psychology. Surely it is much better than overconfidence. A man who possesses real intestinal fortitude fights best when the odds seem against him. So does such a nation. With all our many faults, the people of the United States have no rabbit blood in them.

Remember 1814, when the nation's 38th birthday saw our fortunes at so low an ebb that 51 days later invading British actually burned the White House in Washington. Pass on to 1861, when Independence Day found the North stunned by the disaster of the first Bull Run.

But, on this birthday, let's not be too pessimistic. Let's remember that, actually, our forefathers passed through many fourths of July when there was more cause for gloom than we can find today.

These were truly critical fourths of July in our nation's history. In comparison, the misfortunes of the United Nations have suffered during the past few weeks are negligible.

From our details thus far we can, if we will, learn many lessons which will help toward eventual victory. Not the least is that moral victories, potential armies, armaments on the production lines, contempt for the enemy, strategic withdrawals, ostrich-like confidence unbacked by deeds, do not win wars.

There is a rumormongering actual shortage of rubber and the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey owns a lot of patents for the manufacture of synthetic rubber. Hence some of the highest officials in the Washington government jump to the conclusion that if Standard Oil did not own those patents the country would be producing millions of tons of synthetic rubber and there would be no possible danger of a rubber shortage.

Common Ground

By W. G. HOLLES
"I speak the paradoxical: I give the sign of democracy, by God! I will accept nothing which cannot have their counterpart on the same terms."

WE WOULD FINE A SUCCESSFUL RUBBER PRODUCER

A nice illustration of the absurdity and effects of our taxing system, comes to point in our rubber shortage.

Under our taxing laws, if a man should discover some way of supplying us with rubber to keep our automobiles running and to win the war, for this service we would take from this man 80 per cent or 90 per cent of the rewards he voluntarily gave him for rendering this great service.

There is little natural incentive for a man risking his time and energy and his wealth in attempting to do something difficult when the government tells him "if you do it and lose, your loss belongs to yourself and if you are successful, we will leave mighty little of it for you.

And yet, we parrot-like repeat the statement that this is the land of the free and that we still have the American way of life. We truly did have an American way of life before we started discriminatory laws in 1913 and then regarded the impersonal, universal rule on which this government was founded.

And if it seems foolish to penalize and fine a man who would furnish us with rubber, it is just as foolish but not so obvious to fine a man for serving us in any other line and having something left over for his labor.

We need to return to some universal, eternal principle that does not make classes out of our citizens and, above all, does not penalize the man who serves us most from a material standpoint.

Many people think that our unemployment in the past has been due to the selfishness and the shortsightedness of big business. But when these people are asked to name one single, solitary federal law that has been passed in the last quarter of a century, that made it possible for men of genius to better serve their fellowman, these people cannot name one single law of this nature.

But laws passed by the government planners have so thrown the relative values of labor out of parity that we have had more unemployment than any time in our history. We would still have it, if it were not for the war causing an artificial demand where the relative values of things are not taken into consideration.

Some of the planning the Federal government did with their laws, were: Discriminatory tax laws that taxed one man many times more for a service which the government rendered to him than it did another;

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON
HOLLYWOOD, July 3—You'd be flabbergasted by a first glimpse of the woman chosen by Paramount to play the role of Pilar in "For Whom the Bell Tolls." The indomitable Spanish rebel of the Hemingway novel was a broad, powerful, heavily-legged, ugly-faced creature of about 50. The Pilar of the movies is a slim, graceful Greek who's probably in her middle 30s. And she isn't ugly.

Director Sam Wood and the others had a time finding her. They interviewed all the possible character actresses in town, looked at hundreds of photographs, and then Katina Paxinou, first lady of the classic Royal Theater of Greece, was seen on the New York stage and people began telling her she should have the Pilar role. After a silent screen test, without adequate makeup, there was no doubt about it.

Some of the planning the Federal government did with their laws, were: Discriminatory tax laws that taxed one man many times more for a service which the government rendered to him than it did another;

Our lesson begins with the four most significant and important words ever written, "In the beginning God." These words mean much in human life and history. It is true that they leave the thoughtful man out in a sense of unsolved mystery, for in a word "beginning" is inconceivable because one inevitably asks, What was there before the beginning?

The idea of building up stockpiles of sugar and scattering them in various places around the country, so as to be handy no matter what happens, is running into complications.

Originally it looked like a brilliant conception. Instead of keeping the stocks of raw sugar at the refinery, it was planned to process it as fast as it came in, then ship out the refined sugar to principal marketing area cities for storage. Then if a transportation crisis came along, no one would have to go sugarless.

Under normal sugar business conditions, raw sugar is stored at the refineries. As white sugar orders come in, this raw is refined and shipped out to meet the demand. Under favorable price conditions, wholesaler-bakers, confectioners, hotels, grocery stores and even a few consumers buy ahead and put in reserve what is known as the "invisible" stock.

KEN WYATT BREAKS RECORD THAT HAS STOOD FOR 30 YEARS

Lamesa To Be Here Tonight And Saturday

Leave it to the West Texas-New Mexico baseball league to do things in a big way. Teams and players have been setting new records of all kinds and last night was no exception. Here last night, was Lefty Ken Wyatt, 22 years old, of the Clovis Pioneers who defeated the Pampa Oilers 4 to 1 to win his 77th consecutive game this season and break a professional baseball record that has stood for 30 years.

Wyatt had a mighty close call last night when he was out-pitched by big Ernie Myers of the Oilers after the third inning. The Oilers got to Wyatt for seven hits while the Pioneers got only five off Myers, three in the first inning when Frierson hit a home run with two teammates on base, one in the second and one in the third, Frierson's second home run which soared over the right centerfield fence within six feet of where his first had gone out of sight.

Wyatt was nicked for seven hits, three in the first inning and three in the fifth, when the Oilers scored their lone run. Only other threat to Wyatt's record was in the ninth when Radtiff, pinchhitting for Bailey, walked and Schmidt, hitting for Diers, singled. Both died on base.

Clovis scored three in the opening inning. After Harriman had grounded out, Harrison walked, Steiner singled and Frierson followed with his first home run. In the second, Harriman singled but died on base. Then in the third Frierson parked his second home run, hitting for the Pioneers.

The Oilers scored in the fifth after two were out. Myers dunked a looping single over first, Timmons singled him to third and Cunningham singled to send Myers home. Isaacs ended the rally by grounding out.

Walter Buckel had a big night for the Oilers defensively. He made two putouts and handled five assists, one of them when he knocked down Steiner's liner labeled for extra bases and then threw him out at first.

Timmons and Isaacs paced the Oilers attack with two hits each. Timmons' first ground for two bases. Two of the largest crowds of the season are expected to witness tomorrow's games. Baseball will be the only activity in Pampa on the Fourth. Manager Radtiff will use his two leading pitchers in an effort to give fans great ball games. Andy Mohrlock has won nine and lost one while Joe Isaacs has won eight and lost only three.

On Sunday afternoon the Oilers will be in Amarillo for a double-header.

Jaycees Win First Game Of Season; Leaders Win

Batting Orders Announced For All-Star Game Monday

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—The public was given a peek today at the probable starting lineups for the major league all-star show that will be staged in the gloaming at the Polo Grounds Monday.

Neither Joe McCarthy nor Leo Durocher, the rival managers, was able to name his starting pitcher because of the two doubleheaders that face every club in the big leagues this week-end. But assuming that right-hand hurlers are on the mound at the beginning, the batting orders tentatively will be:

American League: D. DiMaggio, Boston, rf; Boudreau, Cleveland, ss; Williams, Boston lf; J. DiMaggio, New York, cf; McQuinn, St. Louis, 1b; Gordon, New York, 2b; Keltner, Cleveland, 3b; Dickey, New York, c; National League: Brown, St. Louis, 2b; Vaughan, Brooklyn, 3b; Reiser, Brooklyn, lf; Mize, New York, 1b; Ott, New York, cf; Medwick, Brooklyn, lf; Miller, Boston, ss; Cooper, St. Louis, c; Mort Cooper, star of the St. Louis Cardinals, is almost certain to be the opening pitcher for the National League and Durocher specified that his younger brother, Walter Cooper, would do the receiving. However, if something should prevent starting the Redbirds' big right-hander, who has won 11 games and scored six shutouts, Mickey Owen of the Dodgers will be the catcher.

The identity of the American's starting pitcher is a deep-eyed mystery and the assignment might fall to almost anyone of the nine hurlers on the squad, with one of the Yankees, Red Ruffing, Ernie Bonham or Spud Chandler, favored. Bucky Harris, Washington manager and one of the all-star coaches, has announced he will save Sid Hudson, and since big Al Benton of Detroit worked yesterday he also is sure to be ready.

The National league lineup has a powerful raiding party ready for any right-hander who might be sent to the field. Five batters are left-handed swingers.

However, Durocher is prepared for the remote possibility that the American league might lead off with one of its left-handers, unlikely Edgar Smith of the Chicago White Sox or young Hal Newhouse of Detroit. Brown bats from either side of the plate, but in the event a south-paw starts, the National league will use Billy Herman, Brooklyn, 2b; Bob Elliott, Pittsburgh, 3b; Terry Moore, St. Louis, cf; and Frank Mack, Cincinnati, 1b, all right-handers at the top of the batting order.

Abilene Coaching School Will Go On As Usual

ABILENE, July 3. (AP)—The world's largest coaching school will go on as usual and no decrease in attendance is anticipated. President Eck Curtis of the Texas High School Association said today.

The tenth annual school is scheduled here Aug. 3 to 8 and while two of the instructors have entered the armed services they are due to obtain leaves that will enable them to carry out their duties.

Frank Leahy, young coach of Notre Dame, and Wallace Butts, whose Georgia team won the Orange Bowl classic, are the head instructors and will coach the all-star outfits that clash the night of Aug. 8 as the climaxing feature of the school.

SAM CHAPMAN, former all-American halfback at California and slugging outfielder for Philadelphia Athletics, enters Navy Air corps as flying cadet after serving as chief specialist in athletic training division.

Not long ago the Exporters had many Texas league fans persuaded they couldn't be beaten by the New York Yankees once out of four teams. But today the league-leading Beaumonters find themselves chivvied by the second-place Shreveport Sports.

The Sports inched up in the standings last night by trouncing the Shippers 3-1 for the second time in a row on the latter's home grounds. Neither team scored until the ninth inning, when the Sports capitalized on four singles and two errors for all three of their runs.

Paul Dean's three-hit twirling led Beaumont to victory over San Antonio, Frank Mancuso's round-tripper in the eighth was the only tally off Dean.

Never Pitch Black

Winter night in the polar regions is not pitch black. Even when the sun is at its greatest distance below the horizon, the night is a somber gray.

Jack Sisco of North Texas State and Marty Karow of Texas A. and M. are scheduled to teach defensive line play and backfield play respectively. They have entered the armed services but Sisco has obtained leave and Karow is working on one.

Many coaches have been called to the service but assistants and former coaches have been moved into their places so the usual 300 to 400 are due to attend the school.

Little legislation is expected to be discussed but the question of abolishing spring football training may be brought up. The association generally is expected to oppose such a move.

The school will be held at the Hardin-Stimmons university campus and Curtis says the coaches will not need their automobiles.

Drawing Jess Neely, who now is not only football coach at Rice but athletic director as well, thinks next fall's campaign will be more interesting than in the past and here's why:

"We'll have a bunch of youngsters out there on the field, a far larger number of sophomores than on previous days. That makes for interesting football. It won't be as mechanical. The boys will be on their own more, not only because of their lack of experience but because they won't be given as much individual instruction (The coaching staffs are going to be short)."

"We won't know what those boys will do on Saturday to Saturday and the fans won't either. In other words, anything can happen."

Starr Throws Nothing--That Rivals Can Hit

By BURTON BENJAMIN NEA Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 3—National league baseball connoisseurs, of both the active and lounging variety, have blatantly labeled Ray Starr of the Cincinnati Reds as a nothing-ball pitcher with a particularly fervent prayer.

Among those who have belittled the 35-year-old rookie whose baseball Cook's tour took 16 years, included seven minor leagues and a whistle stop on three National league clubs, are some of the senior circuit's hitting elite.

Ray Starr, a broad-shouldered, drawing Oklahoma of 6-foot 1-inch and 178 pounds, is quite content to be maligned.

"I'm happy if everyone in the league figures I'm throwing nothing at them," he says wryly. "That makes it a lot easier."

Pressed for a rebuttal, the Rhinecliff rlf offers this sage bit of logic:

"If I'm throwing nothing, they sure could use some hitters in this league."

Starr, who won 10 of his first 12 games, lost one in 13 innings to the Chicago Cubs, a take's his major league success with a shrug.

"I've been a winner all my life," he points out. "In 17 years I have averaged 16 victories a season. I'm not surprised this year. I think I could have been a winner up here since 1931 if they'd ever given me a chance."

Starr is one of those unfortunate ball players so valuable to a minor league club they had to lose him. Since the halcyon days of Iron Man Joe McGinnity, there's been nobody like him.

Starr joined the Reds at the end of the 1941 season. He lost his first game, 1-0. He pitched shutouts in his next two starts.

This season he pitched four shutouts in his first 12 starts. In seven games, he allowed 10 opposition hits but five runs. The enemy Reds gave him only one-run games in four games, two-run leads in three contests.

Labelled as a trouble-maker in some circles and as anything but a teetotaler in others, Starr has never missed a turn on the mound in his life. His best season was in 1929 when he won 28 and lost 12 for Shawnee, Okla., of the Western association.

In 1932, Starr had his first major league whirl with the St. Louis Cardinals at the tag end of the season. He pitched a two-hit shutout in his only start, was traded to the New York Giants during the winter.

Starr pitched two games for the Giants and was traded to the Boston Braves. In his two-hitter, then, for some unaccountable reason, the Braves sold him to Minneapolis.

He won 16 games in the Twin Cities by July 16 but became entangled in contractual difficulties and left the team.

WINS DOUBLE-HEADER TO PUT TEXANS IN PLAY-OFF. His outstanding iron man stunt was with Fort Worth in 1939. He won 19 games, lost-6 in three months and three days. He pitched a double-header the last day of the season to get his team into the play-off with Tulsa by a percentage point. He won four playoff games, then pitched two shutouts in the Dixie series, which Fort Worth won.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. Wife World Sports Columnist NEW YORK, July 3—Reminder: Tomorrow is Independence Day, traditionally given over to recreation and patriotic observance.

It also is USO day, when spectators at sports events in many places will be asked to contribute, and the day when most tennis and golf clubs will hold Red Cross tournaments.

Get the idea? . . . The famous battery of George Earnshaw and Mickey Cochran will be reunited when Mickey's Great Lakes navy players get workout against Fort Custer, reinforced by army members of the all-star service squad, at Detroit tomorrow. . . . Fourteen Marquette footballers are working this summer in Milwaukee breweries.

If that's the way to toughen up, they'll just grin and bear it.

Short Sport Story Last spring 20-year-old Bob Chesnes failed to make the grade as a pitcher with the San Francisco Seals and was farmed out to San Jose of the California league. . . . He didn't get much fielding support there and one day, right in the middle of a game, he stalked off the mound. . . . "I can play shortstop better than that," he growled, taking his place in the infield. . . . He did. Now he's regarded as a very promising short fielder.

Service Dept. Golfer Frank Starfield, now serving with the quartermaster's corps in Australia, writes home that he shot a 70 his first round down under. . . . Lot of guys down there would like to do it with a machine gun.

Early in 1941 a full team of Mississippi freshman footballers enlisted in the marines for regular duty. Of these, Les Smith, guard, is a flier at Norfolk, Va.; Bubber North, end, has completed his officers' training course and Herbert Breeden, guard, has just applied for officers' training.

Today's Guest Star Jimmie Murphy, Canton (Ill.) Daily Ledger: "What's wrong with the Cardinals? That question is being asked wherever baseball is discussed. The answer is found in the National league statistics—runs batted in. Mize, New York, first; hits: Mize, first; home runs, Mize, first; runs scored, Mize, first. The Cards certainly cannot be called Mize-ry this season."

The left-handed hurler limited Pampa to seven hits for a 4 to 1 decision last night and his 17th victory this year in the West Texas-New Mexico league, a circuit which sprouts wonders like prickly points on a cactus.

Wyatt entered organized baseball only a year ago. He played one game in the Western International league before joining the House of David club. He came to Clovis in time to help the Pioneers win the pennant.

Wyatt's home is Ellensburg, Wash., and he is no relation of Whitlow Wyatt, major-league fame.

CHAPTER IX

FOR the next few minutes they alternated their conversations between whispers and loud talk.

Her eyes lighted with a smile. Without making a comment she put her hand into her purse and drew out the small automatic.

"Did I ever tell you, Judith Kingsley, that you are the most wonderful creature on earth and the loveliest?"

He snatched a kiss from the upturned face. She drew back quickly, her heart racing and her eyes soft.

"Are you ready to talk, Mr. Burke?" Karl repeated. His voice was a bit high as if he were exasperated at having to ask his question again.

Burke's lean, sun-tanned face gave no hint of his thoughts, but Judith detected the stubborn set of his jaws.

"I have nothing to say now, or at any other time."

"Not? Perhaps in a little while, my friend, you will be glad to tell all I want to know."

There was a savageness in Karl's eyes and his hands drew into tight fists at his side.

mask of a moment before. A man standing back of Judith spoke: "The dame is made of ice."

NOT once did Heavy relax his vigil with the gun. Burke kept his gaze fastened on Karl though Judith knew he was watching the other man from the corner of his keen eyes.

Judith looked at him but did not offer to answer his question. Instead, she turned her blue eyes on Tom. He moved his steady gaze to her face for an instant.

"Your nose is shiny," Tom said critically. Judith's mouth fell open and for a minute she had the mad desire to slap him.

Just as she finished her meal another man came in the room and whispered to Karl, excitedly. He spoke in a foreign language, but Judith guessed from their manner that the matter was serious.

Sharp commands were given at once, and she and Tom were pushed roughly through a door and down a dark hall.

JUDITH sat between Tom and Karl as they sped away through the night. Two other men sat on the little seats in front of them and Judith could guess they held guns on them.

"If you persist in talking, you will be gagged," Karl threatened. At the threat, Tom's body had grown rigid and the grip of his fingers had almost paralyzed her hand.

"Without answering, he reached up and pulled the fold from around her head. She rubbed her eyes and then took in the gunmen watching her closely, guns in sight.

Finally, the car turned toward the shore where Judith could hear the roar of the breakers, and stopped at a deserted dock.

Again Tom's hand found hers and their fingers twined tightly as they walked down the boards over the water.

They went under with a mighty splash and the cold Pacific was breath-taking, but only for a second. She was an excellent swimmer and with Tom's hand to guide her, they dived for the protection of the wharf.

Epic Story Of Flying Tigers Ends Today

CHUNGKING, July 3 (AP)—The epic story of the Flying Tigers, a thrilling tale of achievement by a handful of brave men against overwhelming odds, ended today with the dissolution of the American Volunteer Group.

Its sequel, with the promise of more and more headaches for the Japanese, begins tomorrow when the daredevil corps joins wings with the regular United States Army Air Force in China.

The final chapter in the unique story of the volunteer fliers, one of the most sensational of the whole war, was a singularly humane document issued today which reviewed their accomplishments, their honors, their grief, and their tribulations.

Only at the end did the official history hint of the Flying Tigers' sacrifices in offering their services in a far-off country against a powerful foe.

"Some of the Tigers," it said simply, "have wives and children in America and miss them quite a bit."

From the time the AVG first went into battle on Dec. 20, 1941—less than seven months ago—the announcement said its fliers shot down or burned on the ground 284 Japanese planes definitely, probably destroyed almost as many more and "was responsible for what is believed to be the demoralization of the Japanese Air Force in China."

This was the record of a group which never had more than 250 men, of whom only 15 were lost in action and another nine in accidents.

The review's explanation for its spectacular record was that "each man was a specialist" in a streamlined corps of extraordinary spirit which "exerted efforts far beyond what would have been expected."

Besides fighting off Japanese raiders, which the AVG did with a daring and skill which drove the enemy to cautious night operations, it fitted out its little fighters as bombers and served as air scouts for the Chinese.

Particularly when the Japanese pressed from Burma into western China with a suddenness and power which surprised the Chinese, the summary related, "it was only due to the AVG's continuous bombing and strafing attacks, which broke up the Japanese armored columns, that the Chinese were able to consolidate their positions... and halt the advance."

Now, it said, the Japanese have broadcast that Brigadier General Claire L. Chennault, the AVG's skillful chief, will return to America but they will "be disappointed to know that he will return to America only when they are defeated and that the majority of the members of the AVG also will remain in China."

Flier Tells How He Flew Over Mountains 20,000 Feet High

SEATTLE, July 3. (AP)—A dramatic story of dodging Jap fighter planes and towering mountain peaks and of battling desert heat was unfolded today by a pilot home from the far-flung airways of Asia and Africa.

Bob Carstensen, 22-year-old former University of Washington law student, came without injury through thrilling aerial experiences with overloads of freight and human cargoes.

In India, the one-time army pilot who shifted to the transport service, refueled at a temperature of 145 degrees. When he took off, the throttle handles were so hot he had to hold wads of paper over them to operate the ship.

The chunky flier made 11 flights to a mountain-bound Burma airfield to take out refugees. He flew three hours over a mountain range at 20,000 feet after his co-pilot became unconscious in the rarefied air. Now he's home on a month's leave.

"We were flying freight into some mountain fields I can't tell about," he related at his parents' home here. "My co-pilot, Ridge Hammell, passed out at 16,000 feet. He just hung in the seat for three hours with his head on his chest. The radioman went back in the cabin and didn't have strength enough to crawl back. I only kept conscious by fighting all the time."

"It was just like driving a car when you're so sleepy you can't stay awake. It was terribly cold. There was ice all over everything, an inch and a half of it over the windshield, and the prop kept throwing chunks of it against the fuselage."

It was full of dents when I came down. "At the end of the three hours I started stalling out. We were over mountains and in heavy, turbulent clouds. The ship lost flying speed three times and the third time it went off on a wing. I let it go then, and dived to pick up speed. Then things opened up a little and I went down and found myself near the field I was heading for."

Food Production Faces Disruption

By OVID A. MARTIN WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—War food production programs faced a disruption today as congress went into recess until Monday without acting on the agriculture department's $680,000,000 appropriation bill.

The department, which has instituted plans for record production of food for the military and domestic needs of the United States, has been without funds since Wednesday, when the new fiscal year started.

Senator Russell (D.-Ga.), floor manager of the annual departmental supply bill, told colleagues it was his belief that failure of congress to resolve differences on the measure would "simply tie up all the department's activities" until an appropriation measure is passed.

The department continued to function in a nominal way, but officials made no commitments. Budget officials were in a quandry. They were particularly perturbed about a payday for 80,000-odd employees coming up on July 8. They said that unless funds were voted by July 6, checks could be made out only for the last week of June.

The house attempted vainly yesterday to provide funds. It passed a new appropriation bill carrying items on which both houses were in agreement, and granting money for a two-month period for agencies involved in disputes. A third bill made no commitments. Budget officials were in a quandry. They were particularly perturbed about a payday for 80,000-odd employees coming up on July 8. They said that unless funds were voted by July 6, checks could be made out only for the last week of June.

Stephan Convicted After Krug Talks

DETROIT, July 3. (AP)—German-born Max Stephan sat in a prison cell today convicted of the highest crime in the land—treason—while Federal Judge Arthur J. Tuttle pondered the punishment, which could be execution.

A jury yesterday finished one hour and 23 minutes of deliberation with the declaration, "We find the defendant guilty as charged."

Stephan, a naturalized citizen who was arrested on 12 overt acts of assistance to a fleeing German war prisoner, met the verdict with the same cold expression he had adopted on his first entrance to the courtroom three days previously.

Government Attorney John W. Babcock said Stephan was the first man to be convicted of treason in the history of the United States. It was Stephan's assistance to Oberleutenant Hans Peter Krug, an escaped prisoner from the Bowmanville (Ont.) prison camp, on April 18 and 19 that provided grounds for his indictment and conviction.

Krug had been brought to court by the government, and he freely testified that Stephan had given him money, food, clothing, entertainment and finally a bus ticket to Chicago.

Treasury Officials In Huddle Over Tax

WASHINGTON, July 3 (AP)—Indications that large numbers of automobile owners were staying away from the $6 federal use tax stamp window sent top treasury officials into a huddle today over various proposed methods of enforcing the levy.

Technically, persons who do not show the stamp on their windshields are liable to a fine of $25 or a jail term of 30 days. Actually, the treasury has no adequate funds to police the millions of cars. A few arrests were made because of failure to exhibit the first sticker, but the treasury has no reports of anyone going to jail for the offense.

British Seamen Burn To Death

A GULF COAST PORT, July 3 (AP)—Most of the British seamen aboard a medium sized British cargo ship were burned to death in their bunks or in lifeboats when two torpedoes from a submarine touched off violent explosions and fire that took 33 of 47 lives in the Gulf of Mexico June 29.

Fourteen survivors who managed to get clear in one lifeboat were brought to port the following morning, according to an announcement by the eighth naval district today. The other two lifeboats with their occupants were caught in the flames and destroyed.

Captain Hugh Bradford Bentley reported that the ship was moving too fast to permit launching lifeboats as she was hit in the bright moonlight. He singled out the third engineer J. Steel, who was lost, for particular heroism in stopping the engines so that the lifeboats could be launched.

The gun crew had no opportunity to use their gun and a general ship's alarm was impossible because the first torpedo knocked out the communication system.

Emmie just had a baby, and she and her husband were going to make the first payment on a little house out ways from town. But now Emmie has a different job to do. A neighbor takes care of the baby, and Emmie works in a defense plant. America is Susie Brown. Susie doesn't quite know what it's all about. She's studying her Country's history in school, though, and she's proud of it and wants to help now and so on Saturdays she helps her mother sell Victory stamps. AMERICA IS AMERICANS . . . Americans with a job to do. Joe Smith, Emmie Grant, Susie Brown . . . fighting, working, living, and maybe dying for a single purpose—to keep alive that precious Freedom Americans fought for one hundred and sixty-six years ago . . . to keep alive that "one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." On July 4, 1776, they established a free country . . . and, on July 4, 1942 Americans with the same blood in their veins, the same spirit in their hearts are fighting to keep it free.
