Foster Brooks to visit

Headlining the Gala Evening benefiting the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center will be Foster Brooks. The benefit is to be held Friday, Nov. 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the new Dorothy Garrett Coliseum at Howard College.

Best known for his "slightly tipsy" sophisticated gentleman act on the Dean Martin Roast show, Brooks has captured the hearts of millions. His night club act in Las Vegas is the highest paid opening act to appear.

His career began when he agreed to appear at a benefit dance in Las Angeles. "The 'lush' was something that just came into my head", claims Foster. "I hadn't given it a thought, but as I was approaching the microphone, still unsure, I suddenly remembered my father & the way he made us laugh acting like a man who had had one too many, but was trying to behave as if he hadn't had a drop."

At first, the audience was embarrassed for him, for Foster's act was that convincing. Soon, however, the crowd realized that they were being entertained, not intimidated, and their reaction was overwhelming. Foster Brooks, the comedian, was a smash success.

Everywhere he appears he usually receives a standing ovation. He has been lauded by such greats as Bob Hope and Jack Benny. His shows are noted for their good clean family entertainment.

Not only is Foster Brooks a remarkable comedian, he also has a fine rich singing voice & now ends his comic act with a splendid rendition of "My Way" or "I Love Her So".

The New Christy Minstrels, who deliver exciting performances with the basic belief that people appreciate good entertainment, will also appear with Foster Brooks during the Gala. And Jana-Lou, a vivacious blonde "show stopper" with the winning combination of beauty, talent, musical variety and song, will round out the evening. Background music will be provided by the Gary Lee Orchestra of Dallas.

Tickets for the Gala, which are being sold at $10.00 a ticket, are available at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, Swartz, Blum's Jewelers, Citizens Federal Credit Union, and the administration office at Howard College, all in Big Spring.

Tickets can also be obtained by writing Mrs. Rich Anderson, Box 136, Gail, Texas 79738, or by calling 915-399-4471.

All checks are tax deductible and should be made payable to: Endowment Fund, Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center.

Jay Smith's mother, Bess, and Martha Couch's Mother and Day also attended as well as many other parents.

ONE OTHER GOOD THING ABOUT BONFIRES IS--They help clean up lots of trash around the neighborhood. This is the Homecoming Bonfire 1978 with Herbie perched on top.

Queen, Sweethearts and Beau Presented

Miss Vickie Jones was crowned Homecoming Queen during halftime activities last Friday night. She is the daughter of Mrs. Betty McMurrin of Fluvanna. She received a crown and a bouquet of red roses. Other candidates for Homecoming Queen were Miss Lisa McLeroy and Miss Rhesa Wolf. The Homecoming Queen is chosen by the student body. Miss Jones was escorted by Ben Murphy, Miss McLeroy was escorted by Perry Smith and Miss Wolf was escorted by Jym Rinehart. All escorts were candidates for Football Beau.

Miss Rhesa Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wolf of Vincent Route, Coahoma, was crowned Football Sweetheart. Other candidates for this honor were Miss Lisa McLeroy and Miss Vickie Jones. The Football Sweetheart is chosen by the Coyote Football team. Miss Wolf received a crown and a bouquet of red roses.

Perry Smith was presented as the Football Beau for Homecoming 1978. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith of Gail. Other candidates were Ben Murphy, Junior; and Jym Rinehart, Freshman.

The Coyote Marching Band always chooses a Band Sweetheart to be presented during Homecoming. This year the recipient of this honor was Miss Penny Thompson, a senior and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Jones of O'Donnell. Penny has been the drum major for the past two years. She was presented a bouquet of red roses by Mr. Jim Parker, band director.

Following precision marching Band and a twirl-by-black light routine by twirlers Kay Copeland and Stephanie Stephens, the football game resumed.

A reception followed the game honoring the class of 1968. The reception was sponsored by the Beta Club and Student Council.

Ben Murphy presents the plaque for contributing the most loads to the bonfire to Perry Smith for efforts of the seniors and freshmen.

Receiving special recognition during the pep rally was Coyote Captains Craig Peterson, Blane Dyess and Perry Smith.

Chili Supper

The Borden County School cafeteria was crowded with chili lovers before the Homecoming football game last Friday night.

The supper, sponsored by the Borden Booster Club, netted that organization about $450.00. The funds will be used for weight machines for the boys gym or another project benefiting the athletic department.

The chili was prepared by Mrs. Ralph Miller and renown chili cook R.T. (Nachlinger) Bell. It was indeed some of the best chili in Texas.

The Booster Club is a very worth while organization to help with all athletic activities. They meet every Tuesday night in the conference room. Their deeds often go unnoticed so the coaches and football team wish to thank those persons who take the time to run the chain at the football games and guard the corners as officials during the games. Come rain or snow there they are--volunteering to help.

Bonfire And Pep Rally

As one of the largest bonfires in Borden County School's history burst into flames, cheerleaders Lisa McLeroy, Vickie Jones, Rhesa Wolf, Karen Williams, Gena McLeroy and Suzanne Walker yelled a warm welcome to the Coyote football team. The Coyotes filed in to become part of the activities held in their honor. The flames and smoke had already engulfed Herbie, a dummy Jaybird made by Van York for the occasion and was spreading to the out-houses bordering the pile.

During the pep rally, the Freshman and Senior classes were presented the plaque for contributing the most loads of lumber for the bonfire. The plaque was presented to Perry Smith, the lone senior football player.

High School

Last Friday night the Lorraine Bulldogs came to Gail to play the Coyotes on Borden's Homecoming. The Bulldogs spoiled the Coyotes Homecoming by taking home a 25-0 victory.

The game was a hard hitting one and both teams played good defense. The Bulldogs scores came on a sweep of 60 yards, a punt return of 60 yards, a fake field goal, which turned into a 20 yard passing score and a 20 yard run from scrimmage.

The Coyotes could not contain a consistent drive and were unable to score but the defense of the Coyotes was very good. They hit hard and caused 3 fumbles.

The rushing yards was in the Coyotes favor. The Coyotes rushed for 178 yards to 150 for the Bulldogs.

The Borden Coyotes play host to Garden City this Friday. Game time is 7:30.

player, by Ben Murphy. Receiving the spirit star during the outdoor pep rally was Junior Benavidez. Junior has been doing an outstanding job for the Coyotes in past games and has real Coyote spirit. Receiving special awards were captains Blane Dyess, Craig Peterson and Perry Smith. These outstanding football players received a star to wear on their helmets.

Adding garnish to the activity was Troyce Wolf, who gallantly received a pie in the face from Rhesa Wolf. Troyce played the part of a Jayton Jaybird while Coyote Rhesa Wolf held the pie and inched closer as the crowd yelled their approval.

Jerri's Gottings

While most of us played house and be'd girls all summer, the libbers were hard at work. That's why they always win, I suppose-they never let up-never take a sabbatical. Even tho we are Doing what we beleive in, we are not convincing the law makers that ours is the proper role of womenhood. Actually the very nature of our argument-that the place for women is in the home-is self defeating. We automatically acquiese to the activists.

Well, here's what happened while we purred like kittens and acquiesed. The House of Representatives make four decisive votes concerning ERA. And now the Senate has also knuckled under. The 1st vote was whether to allow the House to vote on requiring a 2/3 majority in order to pass ERA Extension. The vote lost. Seems funny, doesn't it, that a Constitutional amendmetn requires 2/3 vote, but abill which would extend the time of voting upon such an amendment would not? In fact, the whole procedure was unprecedented.

Next was the redundant vote asking that a 2/3 majority be required for Extension. This also lost. Then came vote #3-the biggy. It was the Fair Play Amendment which would allow states who had previously ratified ERA to rescind their action. This lost-. Peculiar-it's ok to extend in order to coerce but it isn't ok to be able to rescind. Finally the House voted to extend the time of ratification of ERA by 3 years, 3 months and 8 days. Yes-sir, they passed it-as has the Senate.

The most important vote was #3. The ERA backers had already said that should states be given the right of rescission during the extended time, that they would withdraw their bill for Extension. Simple as that. What's fair about allowing states to switch from no to yes for an extended length of time, yet not allowing a yes to no switch? Talk about discrimination.

Let's take a look at a few voting records. You see, the whole of the House voted-and all with the exception of those retiring and those running for higher office, are standing for re-election. Praise be-Mr. Burleson voted for the gals in every instance. Vote #1, yes, #2, yes, #3, yes, and #4, no. Such a pity that he is not running again. Look at Mr. Mahon-almost a perfect score. He voted against #1 for some reason. But looky here-that fella from New Braunsfel, Krueger is it? Now for someone who is trying to move up in the political world, he voted mighty peculiarly. According to my way of thinking, he is batting 0-No to #1, No to #2, No to #3 and Yes to #4. Can it be that he thinks the little ladies back in the kitchens don't pay any attention to the goings on in Washington? Or is he of the opinion that those of all sexual preferences need a ERA? Ask him.

Oregon Trip

While in Oregon we saw many interesting and pretty places.

We went to Timberline Lodge, on the southside of Mt. Hood. That is where the timber stops, and the glaciers begin.

Started to go to a lodge on the north side, but met several obstacles. First was a machine loading logs on a truck. The logs were stacked in the road. It would reach down two arms, and pick up one to three logs and place them on the truck. A very smart machine! We finally came to a tree blown down across the road - returned back.

June 28. We, Clyde, Florence and their daughter, went to Newport on the west coast. We walked on the beaches looking for shells. This is where the sea and mountains meet. There are high cliffs caused by the waves breaking against the mountains.

We ate clam chowder at the "Dory" where they make the best clam chowder on the west coast!

Pauline said she didn't like fish and was not going to eat any clam chowder. And so of all things - she ordered a hamburger! But after taking a bite of my clam chowder, she ordered a bowl! Then as grub is so high - we couldn't afford to waste the burger - so we cut it into five slices, and each ate a slice!

We bought several things made of Myrtle wood. It is a very beautiful wood. The Myrtle tree only grows two places in the world - on the west coast of Oregon, and in the Holy Land. It is mentioned several times in the Bible.

We watched them unload fish off a boat. One salmon weighed 33 pounds, and they said it was worth $2.00 a pound - making it worth $66.00 on foot. No wonder canned salmon is so high.

July 1. We went to a place called "9 Tides". There is a restaurant and several other things there. They have a little train that takes people around. We rode it but soon ran out of gas. Rick, and the engineer pushed the engine to the gas station while I held the coaches to keep them from rolling down the hill!

We went to Portland two or three times. Went to a Mall where Florence used to work. Rick took us through the place where he works, and Chris through the Tandy store which she manages.

We visited a place called "The Sanctuary of our Sorri-ful Mother." It was built by and is maintained by the Catholic Church. A very beautiful and interesting place, but I won't try to describe it. A person would just have to see it to know what it is like.

We went through a place, called the "Forestry Building." They have all kinds of woods that grow in Oregon. There is a "talking tree" in the building that tells all about it!

July 3. Pauline painted a picture her first. Did real good. We now have it in our "Den."

July 4. There was a fire works display, up the canyon a short distance from Welches. I had on two sweaters and was still cold. First time I ever wished for an overcoat on the Fourth of July! In Texas it was 105 degrees.

Next day we went through a saw mill. Florence's nephew is foreman there. We took us all through it. It is a big place. They cut lots of lumber, and ship it all over the world.

July 9. We all went to the zoo. Feed the animals for awhile, then rode a little train to the rose gardens. They are on the side of the mountain and have every kind of a rose imaginable. They call Portland, "The Rose City."

Well we visited several other interesting places-such as the Pittock mansion, and museums.

Went fishing but didn't catch any fish.

Took metal detectors to the

Anderson Roasted

A large crowd assembled last Saturday evening in the High School Cafeteria in honor of Rich Anderson.

The surprise Ice Cream Supper was held in appreciation of Rich's many years of service to the Borden County School and community. It was sponsored by James McLeroy and Brent Murphy.

Upon arriving at the cafeteria the Andersons were met with a standing ovation. Rich was taken completely by surprise and over-come by the generosity of their many friends.

The four Anderson children, Martha, John, Mary Hiatt, Sally and John Bland and their two children, John and Sarah added to the surprise. Also attending were Rich's sister and her family, the Don Greens from Midland.

Acting as Master of Ceremonies, James McLeroy ask Ben Jarrett to give the invocation.

Judge Jim Burkett, as spokesman for the county, applauded Rich for his "untiring efforts and untold hours in working for the betterment of the county. He is a leader in the community," he said.

Representing the American Cancer Society, Sue Smith gave a short history of the society and told how the Borden County chapter had gained statewide fame with the success of their annual Barn dance conceived by the Andersons six years ago. Before the county barn was built the dance was held at the Anderson ranch.

Doris Rudd, representing the American Heart Association, also toasted Rich for his support of the Heart Fund. Recalling the many times that he had participated in or acted as M.C. for the fund raising program, Doris voiced the appreciation of the Association for its most successful year.

Next on the program was Brent Murphy speaking for the Gail Roping Club. Rich was recognized as a founder of the club as well as an active supporting member.

Roast time came with Shorty Farmer "I remember the first time I met 'that rancher from down under' - it was when we were all fifty pounds lighter and were out on the court playing ball and he thought he knew more about the game than I did. It wasn't long before Sally started playing Jr. High ball and I looked up & saw that 'soft spoken' feller telling the referee how the game was played." "I don't know how it happened that a man like that can have a family like this," Shorty said. "And I know what they are like cause we practically raised one of 'em", he continued. After several more jibes that had the audience in stitches, Shorty ended his roast by saying "I have learned to respect and love that man and his family."

James McLeroy then spoke on behalf of the Borden County School district. He cited the twelve years Rich had served as trustee and as acting president for nine- "Rich is a strong leader...I found him to be just in his thinking and to always consider the welfare of the school first," Mr. McLeroy said.

In accepting a beautifully engraved plaque from the county Rich responded by saying "Borden County is unique. We count our blessings everyday that we are able to live in such a community. Anything we have done has been a labor of love for the people in it."

After a benediction led by Mickey McMeans, homemade ice cream, cookies and coffee were served to over 50 friends.

The tables were covered with red bandana cloths and decorated with arrangements of dried flowers in oaken buckets.

VIVIAN and PAULINE CLARK, CHRIS FORBES, CLYDE WOODARD and RICK FORBES visit the Pittock Mansion in Oregon.

JIM BURKETT and SUE SMITH applaud as RICH ANDERSON receives APPRECIATION PLAQUE from the County. MR. JAMES McLEROY and BARBARA ANDERSON visit in the background.

ALL ABOUT PUMPKINS

When trick-or-treat time rolls around, be ready with a grinning jack-o'-lantern. Carving it is fun for the whole family and there's a bonus: the scooped-out pumpkin pulp can be cooked and served in a variety of ways, seeds can be dried and toasted for snacks.

CHOOSE THE PUMPKIN CAREFULLY. Find the size and shape you prefer; then make sure the rind is firm, with no cracks or soft spots. Check the bottom since this is where decay begins; if it is soft, discard the pumpkin.

TO CARVE THE PUMPKIN'S FACE, use a sharp knife with a thin blade. With short, straight strokes, cut a circle around the stem, making a "lid" big enough so you can reach in and scoop out the insides. Scrape out strings and seeds (discard strings and save the seeds). Then scoop out pumpkin pulp, leaving a 1/2- to 3/4-inch shell-the thin shell will dry out and protect the jack-o'-lantern from decay for a month. Set pulp aside in a bowl.

Next, draw the face with a magic marker or pencil; cut out face using the same short, straight strokes. Peel the cut-out pieces and add them to the reserved pumpkin pulp; cover and refrigerate to cook later.

If you want to place a candle in the pumpkin, choose a short, fat candle so the lid won't scorch. Heat the base of the candle briefly with a match to soften the wax and set candle firmly on a disposable foil pan, small enough to set inside the pumpkin.

USE THE jack-o'-lantern as a traditional decoration. Or line it with foil and fill with seasonal fruits and nuts and use it as a table centerpiece. If the pumpkin is big enough, place a mixing bowl or small punch bowl inside and use for serving chilled party beverages.

COOK SCOOPED-OUT pumpkin pulp by placing it in a saucepan over medium heat, in one inch boiling salted water. Heat pumpkin to boiling; cover and cook for 25 to 30 minutes until fork-tender. Drain well. Serve at once; or cover, refrigerate, and use within three or four days.

SERVE COOKED pumpkin hot, with butter or margarine, as a vegetable. If you like, mash it, drain again if too watery, then stir in a little brown sugar, honey, maple syrup, light molasses or ground allspice to taste. It's great accompaniment to pork, ham, seafood or frankfurters.

Or mash, drain and use in your favorite pumpkin or squash-pie recipe, substituting for an equal amount of canned or frozen vegetable.

BEFORE toasting pumpkin seeds, be sure to dry them first. Wash to remove strings; pat dry with paper towels; spread in a single layer on a cookie sheet and let stand a few days, stirring occasionally to prevent mold. To toast the seeds, spread them in a jelly roll pan and bake in a 350 degree oven for 15 minutes or until lightly browned, stirring occasionally. Or, in a small skillet over low heat, in a little hot butter or margarine, cook seeds until browned, stirring constantly.

The national goal for Sunday School High Attendance Day 1978 in Southern Baptist churches is five million.

Stenholm Caravan Visits Gail

STAMFORD--A bus caravan loaded with supporters of Charles Stenholm for Congress will visit Gail Monday, Oct. 30. The bus will be met by local Gail volunteers for Stenholm when it arrives. The visit has been arranged by J.B. Cooper of Roscoe, area coordinator, and Mrs. Pat Murphy of Ira Borden County coordinator for Stenholm.

According to the news release, the bus will arrive in Gail at 12:00 noon and depart at 12:45.

Stenholm and his wife Cindy will accompany the group of volunteers meeting the people, answering questions and passing out campaign literature concerning Stenholm. Stenholm is the Democratic nominee for the 17th Congressional District. He is being opposed by Bill Fisher, Republican, of Abilene.

Stenholm, a farmer-businessman from Stamford, won the Democratic nomination in a landslide, two to one victory in the June 3 runoff. He is seeking the post being vacated by the retiring, veteran legislator Omar Burleson.

Stenholm, 39, has based his campaign on seven major issues facing America: inflation, agriculture, paperwork, energy, free enterprise and defense. "The direction of our country must be changed," states Stenholm.

"Government spending must be reduced. Taxes must be cut substantially to provide private investment capital. The Federal budget must be balanced," Stenholm has repeatedly told his followers.

Speaking of agriculture, Stenholm states, "The most critical problem facing agriculture today is low farm prices received vs. high cost of production. Supply management and improved marketing are vital to a profitable agriculture."

"Government 'red-tape' will cost the American public over $100 billion in 1978. Government bureaucracy that restricts or hinders private initiative must be eliminated."

"We must deregulate domestic oil and gas production and support development of non-depletable resources such as solar energy for our future needs," Stenholm says on energy.

"Freedom for individuals to succeed or fail by their own efforts must be preserved," comments Stenholm, a strong believer in the free enterprise system. "Competition is healthy for our country and must be encouraged. Profit is not a dirty word in my vocabulary," he states.

Taking a stand on our Nation's defense, he says, "If we do not maintain our position as Number One in military strength, all other problems become secondary. We must maintain a strong defense."

Stenholm, the father of three, attended Tarleton State Junior College and received his M.S. in agricultural education from Texas Tech University. He has taught vocational agriculture, served as the executive officer of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, general manager of Stamford Electric Cooperative and is a director of the First National Bank of Stamford.

He has served as president of the Stamford United Way, Stamford Little League, Texas Electric Cooperatives, Rolling Plains Cotton Growers and the Stamford Chamber of Commerce. He is a former member of the Texas State ASC Committee and State Democratic Executive Committee.

Active in business and community affairs, he and his family are active members of the Bethel Lutheran Church.

Republicans Named Charimen

Gubernatorial candidate Bill Clements today announced that Mr. and Mrs. Rich Anderson are serving as Borden County chairmen for Bill Clements for Governor Campaign.

"Clements campaign organizations have now been established in all of the state's 254 counties. This is an unprecedented accomplishment in a Republican gubernatorial campaign in this state," Clements said.

"And, it points up the fact that my campaign is not a one party effort. My candidacy is attracting Democrats, Independents and Republicans alike this year because Texans are realizing that the governor's race is not a case of Democrats versus Republicans, but a case of conservatives versus liberals," he added.

"This statewide organization clearly shows the strong momentum of my campaign and the widespread support for my candidacy," he stated.

"Many Texans realize that my opponent is a liberal, as shown by the 300 percent and the 600 percent increase in his budget during his term as attorney general. His record speaks for itself and it clearly says that he is not a good manager of the taxpayers' dollars," Clements said.

"Texans want another conservative governor in Austin--like they have always had--and they want someone who will safeguard their future from excessive taxation and government spending. I am committed to that and I have proposed a Taxpayer's Bill of Rights to ensure it," Clements said.

"The Tax Relief Amendment" Of 1978

It's not often that we have a chance to vote to lower our taxes, but Texans will have that opportunity on Nov. 7. In the section of the ballot on constitutional amendments, the first item will be "The Tax Relief Amendment" which was authorized by the special session of the Legislature last summer.

It is far-reaching and addresses tax relief in six major areas--all of the balanced and designed to help all segments of the economy as well as individual tax payers.

A statewide committee known as "Texans for Tax Relief" is being formed to promote passage of the amendment. Co-Chairmen are Mrs. Marcella Perry, widely known Houston business and civic leader, and Ray Hutchison of Dallas, former member of the Texas Legislature and former Chairman of the Texas Republican Party.

Dozens of other business, professional, educational and civic leaders throughout the state are participating as committee members. "We believe this amendment is the most important item ever to come before the voters in the area of tax reforms," Mrs. Perry and Hutchison said.

The six major areas of tax relief provided in the amendment are:

--Removal of intangibles from the mandatory tax base to allow the Legislature to clear up the constitutional problem which now exists. The Legislature is not required to tax intangibles.

--Removal of the current $250 limit on household goods and personal effects which are exempt from ad valorem taxation. If the amendment is passed, it would exempt all household goods and personal effects from taxation which are not held or used for the production of income and would permit the Legislature to exempt all or part of the personal property homestead of an individual family.

---Granting a $5,000 exemption from the market value of a residential homestead for school tax purposes. It also allows the Legislature to grant an additional exemption up to $10,000 for citizens 65 or older and for disabled citizens. Property taxes for residential homesteads of 65 or older would be frozen and may not be increased during the period of time than residence remains a homestead of that individual.

---Providing for the taxation of land devoted to farm and ranch use on the basis of productive capacity rather than simply market value.

---Places a ceiling on spending by the State Legislature and stipulates that the state budget may not grow faster than the state's economy.

---Provides for "Truth in Taxation" which means that property taxes may not be increased without full public hearings beforehand. The provision also says that if property is revalued, the owner must be given notice not only of the revaluation, but also of the amount of taxes which would result from the evaluation if neither the tax rate nor the ratio of assessment is offered. Many people think this is perhaps the key portion of the entire amendment.

Every night we would tune up the fiddle, banjo and mandolin and have music. We had an audience of two- Florence and the cat. The cat slept through it and Florence suffered through it!

July 15. We started back home. Chris came home with us and did most of the driving. We stopped at Salt Lake City, and visited the Morman Tabernacle and other places.

We went through Indian Cliff dwellings-close to Durango Colorado. The Mesa Verde. Had to climb down the face of a cliff. Partly on stonesteps, and partly on ladders. Paulines rheumatic knee gave her fits, but she made it!

We did some more sight-seeing and got home the twentieth of July.

Then, as Chris, wanted to go to the Tandy plant in Fort Worth (for business reasons) we made a three day trip down there.

So we had quite a vacation. Well some people like to visit foreign lands, but I say they will have to "Go Some" if they have more to offer than this - our own wonderful country!!

Meet 'N' Treat Survey Shows Fewer Tricks

WWHOO's taking the trick out of Halloween treating?

Almost everyone!

According to a survey conducted by the National Confectioners Association, more than 90% of American cities are reporting fewer Halloween tricks and incidents of tainted treats than a year or two ago. The same percentage also reported a decrease in or absence of hoax calls to police about tainted treats.

The survey polled police chiefs across the country to learn more about community efforts to make Halloween a safer holiday for all family members.

More than half of the cities indicated a definite trend toward organized treating hours. Community parties, neighborhood events, parades, contests, carnivals and haunted houses were also on the upswing.

The survey was conducted as part of the NCA's "Meet 'n' Treat" program, which began in 1972 to curb the rise of tainted treat incidents and encourage accurate reporting of them. The program urges families to make treating rounds together and organize neighborhood parties. It is being publicized this year in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

THREE GO TO STATE CONVENTION

Mrs. Ben Weathers, Mrs. J.D. Blankenship and Mrs. H.M. Bruner, representing Scurry County, traveled to Dallas by chartered bus, along with thirty-four other women from the West Texas area, to the Baker Hotel for the fifty-second Home Demonstration State Convention, October 3-5.

There is always fun and fellowship on the buses that take the women to these conventions then after arrival there is much renewing of acquaintances. Registration was Tuesday afternoon then Tuesday evening the women were entertained by the singers from the Christian Academy of Oak Cliff followed by an address by Mr. Glen Scott, Dallas, who gave a short history of the Bell Telephone system and said we had not seen anything yet in telephones.

Door prizes furnished by the Dallas Clubs were given throughout the convention. The Texas Extension Service presented a Centennial quilt to the Historical Society which was established in 1976 and now has more than two thousand items.

Mrs. Harold Preston, State president, presided at the sessions held on Wednesday in general assembly in the Crystal Ball Room of the hotel. Invocation and Devotion was given by Rev. Stanley Meyer of the Lutheran Church, Greenville. Greetings, rules of the convention and two addresses were given.

Dr. Wm. Entzinger, Professor of T.W.U. talked on the family life. He said women should be knowledgeable, have good communications, and be positive in their thinking and action and say "I" once in a while.

Mr. Gil A. Stricklin of Dallas also spoke on family living and said women should have motivation, hold hopes high in a changing society. He said to have laughter, flexibility, have a love affair with love and take time to live NOW one day at a time.

Thursday was election day. Mrs. Blankenship was THDA delegate and Mrs. Bruner was a County delegate who had voting rights. The following State officers were elected: Mrs. Charles Warminski, President; Mrs. N.E. Holloway, Vice President; Mrs. Lucille Whitten, Secretary; Mrs. M. Richards, Jr., Treasurer.

Workshops were attended on Cultural Arts & Recreations; 4-H; Family Life; Safety; Health; and Citizenship. The Scurry representatives brought back much valuable information to share with the local clubs.

Thursday evening was a time to dressup and go to the banquet where the group was served a delicious meal, entertained by the "Sweet Ciders" and installation of officers which was centered around changing the leaves on the old oak tree, directed by Mrs. Clinton Wright, immediate past president.

Due to the resolution to change the name of Texas Home Demonstration Clubs it shall henceforth be called "Texas Home Makers Association".

Mrs. Weathers, Blankenship and Bruner are all members of the Knapp Home Demonstration Club.

75th Anniversary

Of Farm Teaching

Method

LUBBOCK--October marks the 75th anniversary of the completion to the first successful farm demonstration in the nation.

It was the success of this venture on the Walter C. Porter farm near Terrell, east of Dallas, that led to the creation of the Cooperative Extension Service nationally and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in this state.

Farmers, ranchers and homemakers in West Texas will join in recognizing this milestone in agricultural history by holding a special observance here Tuesday, October 31.

The South Plains observance will be held in the board room of the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, 2901 Avenue A. It will begin at 9:30 a.m. with a coffee and includes a ceremony recognizing outstanding farm demonstrators and home economics cooperators from each of the 20 counties in Extension District 2.

The recipients are representing the more than 375 producers and homemakers in the district who conducted demonstrations this year in cooperation with their county Extension agents, said Billy C. Gunter and Mrs. Catherine Crawford, district Extension agents.

A documentary film on the Porter Farm, "I Am Thinking of the Harvest," will receive its premiere showing in the area.

A similar program for the 20 Panhandle counties which comprise Extension District 1 also will be held at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 31. It will be at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, 6500 Amarillo Blvd. West, Amarillo.

Many other observances of Farm Demonstration Month are being held throughout the state. A special statewide salute was held Oct. 12 in Dallas and at the Porter Farm.

Dr. Seaman A. Knapp, a former president of Iowa State College and a special agent for the U.S. Department of Agriculture, went to Terrell in 1903 at the request of area citizens to set up a demonstration to "improve farming methods."

Knapp asked them to find a demonstration site and a farmer who would farm precisely as he recommended. Local citizens selected Walter Porter from several volunteers and also quickly raised $1,000 to cover any losses that might arise from farming with "the new methods." But the money was not needed.

The farm demonstration was a financial success, and the technique spread rapidly to other areas. Soon, farm demonstrations were evident in many counties. And they are still popular! There were 4,300 established in Texas last year, including every county in District 2.

LOW INTEREST DISASTER LOANS

Borden County has been declared a disaster area due to the drought.

Producers may file applications for Emergency Loans through the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) located in the Federal Building Lamesa, Texas or through the Small Business Administration (SBA) located at 1205 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas.

Emergency Loans under the FmHA are based on drought conditions during the period May 1, 1978 through Sept. 1, 1978. Emergency Loan Applications will not be received after June 4, 1979 for physical losses and September 6, 1979 for production losses.

Loans obtained from SBA are based on drought conditions during the period Oct. 1, 1977 through August 24, 1978 and producers must have application on file by March 6, 1979.

The interest rate for both FmHA and SBA Loans will be 3% based on losses suffered between the program yields and actual yields. Amount of Loan eligibility cannot be determined until final disposition of the crop. (plowed up, harvested, or both) (pasture losses may be determined now)

1979 WHEAT PROGRAM

The 1979 Wheat Program contains the same 20 percent set-aside requirements as the 1978 Program. The $2.35 per bushel wheat loan rate and $3.40 per bushel target price are both the same as this year's program.

Program participants who reduce their 1979 wheat acreage by 15 percent from the 1978 wheat plantings will be eligible for target - price coverage on 100 percent of the 1979 planted wheat acreage.

Unlike the 1978 Program, the 1979 Program does not provide payments for grazing out or haying of planted acreage. However, producers may graze their 1979 set-aside acreage for a six-month period.

ASCS COUNTY COMMITTEE ELECTION

The ASC County Committee Election will be conducted from Nov. 24 thru Dec. 4 by mail ballot. Farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice to be on the ASC committee ballot.

Farmers have received petition forms by mail. The Borden County ASCS office welcomes all valid petitions. The opportunity to nominate, vote, and be elected to office is guaranteed to all farmers regardless of race, religion, sex, color, or national origin.

ASC Committees are responsible for managing government farm programs on the local level. A list of the names of all known eligible persons to receive ballots in the upcoming election is available in the county ASCS office.

1978 DISASTER PROGRAM

You are reminded to file for disaster credit no later than 15 days after the crop is harvested. If you decide not to harvest the crop, you must file an application before mechanical destruction or any other use is made of the crop.

John Hill calls for state tax freeze

"Our state taxes in Texas are among the lowest in the nation, and I want to keep them there. As I've said many times, I'll veto a tax increase before the ink dries on the bill."

As Attorney General, John Hill proved he could increase the efficiency of his office without any unnecessary budget increases. He absorbed a three-fold increase in his office caseload by hiring top legal talent capable of higher productivity. The result: his staff lawyers doubled their average workload, and the increased court judgments and enforcement of civil penalty laws returned $25 for every $1 of state funds spent on his office.

As Governor, John Hill will insist on this same type of increased productivity for all state agencies. He will institute new controls over federal funds, demand that we follow our "pay-as-you-go" budget policy, and use zero-base budgeting to eliminate unneeded programs before any new programs are added. And he'll block any state tax increase — there won't be any new taxes under John Hill.

A TAXPAYER'S BILL OF RIGHTS IS PAST DUE

Bill Clements believes we still have a chance to preserve our future by establishing constitutional protection against excessive taxation and runaway government spending.

Bill Clements believes the people of Texas should have the power necessary to ratify or reject tax policies made by legislators.

To establish this power (of the people), Bill Clements will introduce an amendment to the Texas Constitution that would give the people of Texas this right.

Bill Clements' "Taxpayers' Bill of Rights" would:

- Give Texans the right of initiative and referendum, a phrase that means we, the people, have a right to vote on the taxes to be levied on us.
- Place a ban on corporate or personal income tax in Texas.

Don't Forget

The day of our annual set-back cometh; Sunday, October 29, to be precise. That day ends Daylight Savings Time.

So at 2:00 a.m. on Sunday, be sure to TURN THE CLOCK BACK ONE HOUR. That not only will put you in step with all the other people in the country, or at least those who remember with you, but will give you an extra hour of sleep in case you've been yawning over that lost hour ever since you set the clock forward on April 30.
