

U.N. Chiefs Make Berlin Appeal

New Action Taken Midst Bitter Clash

PARIS (AP)—Two top United Nations chieftains appealed directly and urgently to the chief executives of the four big powers over the heads of their U.N. delegations Saturday to settle the Berlin dispute for world peace.

The unprecedented action was taken by Dr. Herbert V. Ewart, of Australia, president of the General Assembly and Trygve Lie, U.N. secretary-general, in the midst of a bitter East-West clash over arms reductions.

The new fight took place in the assembly's 58-member Political Committee where Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei V. Vishinsky shook his pen at the U.S. delegate, Frederick H. Osborn, and shouted:

"You are preparing a Pearl Harbor for the Soviet Union, aren't you?"

The Political Committee rejected Russia's proposal for a one-third slash in the air, land and sea forces of the big powers within a year and prohibition of the atom bomb. The vote was 6 for to 36 against, with seven abstentions.

The committee then approved 40 to 6 a Belgian proposal calling upon the Security Council's Commission for Conventional Armaments to continue work on the general question of arms reductions.

In another major U.N. development, a seven-nation committee of the Security Council approved a plan submitted by the acting Palestinian mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, to repair the broken truce on the Negev front. The plan apparently would demilitarize and place under U.N. control most of the disputed western desert region.

The Lie-Ewart appeal was transmitted to President Truman, Prime Minister Stalin, Prime Minister Churchill and the heads of the respective delegations.

It was known by many that Lie and Ewart were in consultation, but few expected them to deliver an appeal above the level of the delegation chiefs.

Le and Ewart said: "Every day that the deadlock over Berlin continues, the danger to the world grows."

Girl Scout Fund Drive Still Short

The Pampa Girl Scout tenth annual fund drive lacks $1,574.12 of its goal, Jimmy Massa, general chairman of the drive, said yesterday.

"Several people have asked me where they may send contributions, since they were not contacted by volunteer workers," he said.

Anyone who wished to aid the drive can send or take his contribution to the Girl Scout office in the City Hall, he added.

There are now 28 intermediate troops in the Pampa Scouting program. This is the largest number ever to be in operation at one time in Pampa, Massa said.

The entire Pampa troops and leaders are as follows: Troops 2, Mrs. Noel Dalton; 5, Mrs. Tom Manning; 7, Mrs. Betty Howell; 8, Mrs. Joe Looper; 8, Mrs. R. L. Ewing and Mrs. D. C. Culley; 9, Mrs. Archie Bullard; 10, Mrs. Ervin Pursley; 15, Mrs. M. S. McDaniels; 15, Mrs. L. Hale and Mrs. W. L. Hill; 16, Mrs. W. F. Wilson and Mrs. J. M. Weathers; 18, Miss Helen Dudley and Miss Jaunell Shelton.

Troops 20, Mrs. H. Nenstiel and Mrs. Leon Cook; 24, Mrs. C. D. Herring, Mrs. C. W. Couch and Mrs. Don Robinson; 25, Mrs. O. L. Station, Mrs. Dick Pepin and Mrs. E. T. Parker; 28, Mrs. W. E. Injunction Issued In Eviction Suit

Federal Judge Joe E. Dooley of Amarillo yesterday issued a temporary injunction against Mrs. A. Viola Brock, 1102 E. Browning, restraining her from evicting her tenant Roy L. McDaniel, 1100 E. Browning, until or unless she has fully complied with the eviction provisions of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947 as amended.

The temporary injunction was sought by Fred C. Ward, litigation attorney for the office of housing expeditor of Dallas.

The case was set for trial Tuesday to show why the injunction should not be made permanent.

Two Killed in Mystery Fire And Explosion

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—An unexplained explosion, followed by fire, killed two men and injured at least six others Saturday as the last six Swedish Motorship Los Angeles prepared to sail for Europe.

The body of one man, identified only as Mr. Olson, guaranty engineer for the builders, was taken from the engine room after the fire. A refrigeration engineer, Ralph De Floer, died at Tacoma General Hospital. Their home addresses were not available.

Ambulances and every available piece of Tacoma fire equipment rushed to Port Tacoma Pier No. 2 when the alarm came in at 10:32 a.m. Bluish smoke poured from the diesel-driven luxury ship, queen craft of the Swedish Johnson Line and termed by her owners the fastest cargo vessel 23.6 knots.

The blaze was checked in about an hour.

Capt. Y. R. Greenwall of Gothenberg, Sweden, refused to talk to reporters. An unidentified stewardess, said her first warning of the blaze came when she noted smoke rising from the engine room. Earlier she had seen several engineers go below to make pre-sailing checksups.

The Los Angeles was on her maiden voyage. Her first port of call on the West Coast was Tacoma (See TWO KILLED, Page 16)

Dr. E. K. Fretwell

Busy Day Is Planned for Chief Scout

The Adobe Walls Area Council has arranged a busy day for Dr. E. K. Fretwell, chief Scout of America, when he arrives in Pampa at 8 a.m., a week from tomorrow.

Club and Boy Scouts, community leaders and Scout leaders will meet Dr. Fretwell at the Santa Fe station and the Scouts of Troop 80 will have a camp breakfast awaiting him.

Knox Kinard, superintendent of schools, said Scouts in full uniform will be excused if tardy to school in the event the train is late. Kinard will show the chief Scout through the Pampa schools after his welcome at the station.

Troop 80, with Flaudie Gallman, will set up a model campsite Sunday afternoon preceding Dr. Fretwell's Monday morning arrival. The Scouts will spend the night at the camp.

Harold W. Lewman, regional Scout executive of Region 9, will arrive from Dallas at 7 a.m. to be on hand to greet Dr. Fretwell.

Monday noon the chief Scout will address a luncheon-meeting of school administrators from 40 Panhandle towns in the Palm Room, City Hall. The committee in charge of the luncheon is headed by Huel Laycock. Committee members include Kinard, Lee Johnson, superintendent of Phillips schools, and Rex Reeves, superintendent of Lefors schools.

Providing the entertainment at the school administrators meeting will be the sextette of Pampa High composed of Arvilla Patterson, Naneen Campbell, June Ann Fahle, Barbara Blair, Johnnie Sue Hart and Betty Joyce Scott.

Executive Board members of the Adobe Walls Area Council will take Fretwell and Lewman on a tour of the major industries in this area Monday afternoon.

At 4 p.m. the chief Scout will address approximately 400 Club and Boy Scouts at Phillips High School. Climaxing the day's activities, Dr. Fretwell will be the principal speaker at the 20th annual banquet of the Adobe Walls Area Council.

Canadian Works on Gutters and Curbs

CANADIAN (Special)—Construction of gutters, curbs, and sidewalks along Second Street, which carries Highways 80 and 82 through the city, is being pushed toward completion.

This work has to be done before the Highway Commission will agree to widen the pavement. Bids for concrete pavement work have been called for, and the contract is to let Dec. 1.

Panhandle Child Succumbs Here

Ysidro Garcia, Jr., four months and seven days old, died in a local hospital early yesterday morning. He is the infant son of Ysidro Garcia, assistant foreman on the Santa Fe, who was killed in a switching yard accident near Panhandle Aug. 26.

The infant is survived by his mother, Mrs. Benecion Garcia, one brother, Joe; by two sisters, Josephine and Fatsy, all of Panhandle, and by three uncles.

Funeral arrangements will be under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home, which was announced.

Embargo on Exports to Be Extended

NEW YORK (AP)—The rail embargo on export freight was extended to all major East Coast ports Saturday as the dock workers' strike immobilized almost 200 ships.

The Association of American Railroads placed a ban on nearly all good destined for overseas shipment out of Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wilmington, Del., and Hampton Roads, Va.

This was an extension of the embargo clamped Friday on freight moving to New York and Boston.

The usually teeming waterfronts are expected to be deserted Monday. Marshall Plan shipments as well as ordinary commercial maritime businesses will be hit drastically if the walkout is a long one.

A survey indicated these ships were tied up by the strike: E. H. Ryan said Monday in Philadelphia 32, Boston 8 and Hampton Roads 3.

Joseph P. Ryan, president of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, who called the strike, said he expected no developments until Monday when two union meetings are scheduled.

One of the sessions will involve all AFL maritime unions.

Mayor William O'Dwyer, who has interrupted a California vacation because of the tieup, is due here this morning by plane.

Ryan said Friday the necessity for the walkout was "national calamity." He called it after IAA members had voted a large margin to reject a large settlement negotiated with shipping operators.

Federal mediators got the parties together after the union vote was announced but the employers said they would not raise their 10-cent-an-hour increase of pay.

Originally it had been indicated the strike would be extended to South Atlantic and Gulf ports but union leaders said the men would stay at work there for the present.

Youth Fined $102 Total

Fines and costs totaling $102 on three charges, were imposed Saturday morning on Bill "Junior" Smith, Hillison Hotel Annex, by Justice of the Peace D. P. Henry.

Smith was charged by Highway Patrolmen with driving on the left, no operator's license, and defective brakes following a two-car smashup on the Lefors Highway early last Sunday that sent two men to hospitals, one in critical condition.

Smith pleaded guilty to the three charges late yesterday morning.

Owner of the car Smith was driving, Albert L. Crowell, Hillison Hotel Annex, also pleaded guilty to Highway Patrol charges of permitting an unlicensed driver to operate a motor vehicle and permitting a motor vehicle to be driven with defective brakes. He was fined $5 plus costs on each count.

Critically injured in the collision was Guy Warren Nolan, 18, 536 S. Ballard, who was taken to Pampa Hospital in an unconscious condition. He remained unconscious for 80 hours physicians said, but had shown good improvement by the end of the week. Also hospitalized with a serious back injury was Alvin L. Hilbrunner, 29, Lefors, who was taken to Worley Hospital.

Wholesale Price Index Drops From Last Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The Associated Press index of 36 wholesale commodities declined to 179.14 this week from 179.48 a week earlier and 199.55 a year ago.

In the index, the base year 1957 equals 100.

The only individual component of the index to decline this week was livestock, which fell to 281.46 from 286.22 the previous week.

French Have Own 'Little Cold War'

PARIS (AP)—A dangerous showdown in France between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and the Communists appears to be growing nearer.

Frenchmen refer to the conflict between the two as "our own little cold war."

The antagonism between De Gaulle and the Communists has recently flared into scattered riots, and cost one death. Many Frenchmen fear a broadening of such clashes into what they loosely describe as "civil war."

The De Gaulleists and Communists may never reach that bloody stage, but events seem to be moving rapidly toward some kind of tenuous climax.

Gen. de Gaulle just won a big election victory. His party—Rally of the French People (RPF)—last Sunday won 40 percent of the seats in the upper House of Parliament, the Council of the Republic.

The Communists criticize the electoral college system of choosing the Upper House which is selected by 100,011 electors. Flornond Bonte, a Communist spokesman, has castigated the indirect method of voting for the council as "anti-democratic."

De Gaulle's party has two main plank: 1. Change the Constitution in order to give the executive stronger powers. 2. Oppose communism.

Meanwhile, the Communists went ahead winning the backing of 5,000,000 voters and are the largest of the political parties.

Sophonis told newsmen he would accept a mandate to form a cabinet only if he had a free hand to choose men from all parties.

Earlier he had said the only solution was Tsaldaris to reach agreement with former opposition parties, but it seemed he had been won over to the Venizelos viewpoint.

Tsaldaris got his mandate from the Junior Class. He was a member of the summer staff at Camp Ki-O-Wah during the past summer.

The principal speaker at the court of honor will be Flaudie Gallman, Scoutmaster of Troop 80.

D. E. Wallace, Scoutmaster of Troop 5, Burger, will award Bokwell his Eagle badge. Scoutmaster Before receiving the highest award in Scouting, Bokwell will be presented with friendship, camping and civic merit badges. He plays tackle and center of the Harvesters and is a member of the Junior Class.

The banquet will start at 8:30 p.m., followed by the awarding of merit badges to Scouts of Explorer Post 80.

Paul Boswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Boswell, 1125 N. Starkweather, will be awarded his Eagle Scout badge at the banquet and court of honor of Explorer Post 80 Tuesday at the First Methodist Church.

Reburial Set For War Dead

Funeral services for Robert Lee Lambright, Jr., of Panhandle, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday from the Panhandle Baptist Church with the Rev. James Todd, pastor of the First Christian Church of Panhandle, officiating.

The body of Pfc. Lambright will arrive early Tuesday morning for permanent burial in a temporary military cemetery in Europe. Lambright, a member of the 90th Infantry Division of the Third Army, was killed in action at Nancy, France, Oct. 3, 1943, less than two months after he started for overseas.

A member of the Panhandle Christian Church and a graduate of Panhandle High School in 1938, Lambright worked for the Danville Oil Company of Berger before he enlisted in the Army on Nov. 19, 1942. He was born at Panhandle on Dec. 31, 1921.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lambright, Sr.; by two brothers, W. E. of Tulsa, and Tom of Panhandle; and by one sister, Mrs. Frank Crist, also of Panhandle.

Military services will be held at the graveside in Panhandle cemetery, where burial will be under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Greeks View Two Possible Solutions

ATHENS (AP)—Two possible solutions of the Greek government crisis emerged last night from negotiations of political leaders.

First of these was that Constant Tsaldaris, foreign minister in the resigned coalition government of Themistokles Sophonis might form a cabinet from his Populist (Monarchist) and former opposition parties. This would be to push a measure for establishment of a Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) or any anti-segregation proposals. Dixie senators might agree not to filibuster some other measure.

He mentioned anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills in the latter connection.

But Senator Stennis (D-Miss) said he doubts that any such measures could be drawn in connection with the program.

He and Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) agreed in separate interviews that there will be a last-ditch fight by the Southerners against FEPC.

Woman Dies After Rites for Mother

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow for Mrs. Lulu M. Stubblefield, 56 of Berger, who collapsed following the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Nettie B. Julin, yesterday morning.

Mrs. Stubblefield has been ill about five years with a heart ailment. She collapsed after attending services for her mother and died at 10 a. m. yesterday.

Services for Mrs. Stubblefield will be held from the Duenkel-Carmichael Chapel with J. P. Crenshaw, pastor of the Francis Avenue Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, Leroy; by a sister, Mrs. Roy Whitlock of Pampa; a half-sister, Mrs. Cora Carpenter of Kansas City, Mo.; and three granddaughters.

She had been a resident of Berger for the past 13 years, following a four-year residence at Panhandle.

Military services will be held at the graveside in Panhandle cemetery, where burial will be under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Carbon Monoxide Poisoning Fatal

SHAMROCK (Special)—Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. today at Ranger, Tex., for Charles Douglas Jones, 24 victim of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Jones, a first-year teacher and bus driver at the Samnorwood School, 15 miles south of here, was found dead in a teacherage at the school. A coroner's verdict was that he had died when two gas stoves consumed all the oxygen in the light room where he was sleeping. His body was found Friday by the wife of another bus driver, who investigated after Jones had not reported for work.

Survivors include his parents, of Ranger; three brothers and two sisters. The body was taken overland to Ranger from Shamrock by Womack Funeral Home.

Reds Shooting The Works in Central China

SHANGHAI (AP)—Scouting a chance to win the civil war quickly, the Communists appear to be shooting the works in the great battle around Suchow.

If the Reds win the battle, it seems that the Chiang Kai-shek government must either fall or flee.

If they fail and the fighting bogs down, the two enemies may slog around that north-central region a 11 winter inconclusively. This would give Chiang a chance to get his wobbly government back on its feet.

The fog of war is so thick that only one forecast now is safe: the immediate fate of the nation rides on the outcome at Suchow. There, where the Honan and Kiangsu plains are transected by the Pukow Railway and the Grand Canal, three top Communist generals are making their bid.

Both sides have claimed big successes, with huge casualties inflicted on the enemy. Nobody accepts either at face value, but the burden is on the Communists. While they retain the initiative, they need a clear-cut victory to avoid a winter stalemate.

Reporters, as usual, are prevented from reaching the battle zone. Neither side wants or will permit impartial onlookers. There is nothing to do but wait and see.

Harold K. Mills, AP correspondent in Nanking, reports that Chiang alone is holding the national government together by his fierce insistence on continuing the fight in the face of repeated military and economic disasters.

Teachers to Hold Banquet Meet Tuesday

Dr. James B. Boren, president of Hardin College, Wichita Falls, will be the principal speaker at the Gray-Roberts County unit of the Texas State Teachers Association's first fall banquet-meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the High School cafeteria, Frank Wilson, president, said yesterday.

Dr. Boren will be introduced by Logan Cummings, superintendent of McLean schools, after Knox Kinard, superintendent of Pampa schools, gives the welcoming address. J. L. Spencer, president of the Pampa Classroom Teachers Association, will give the invocation and Wilson will serve as master of ceremonies.

The Pampa Classroom Teachers Association has made plans for the program, Spencer said. Mrs. Lois Turner, program chairman of the Pampa group, will present the High School A Cappella Choir under the direction of Kenneth Baumgardner. Charles Meech, arrangement committee chairman, will decorate the cafeteria.

Huel Laycock, county superintendent of schools and secretary of the Gray-Roberts County unit group, will give the benediction. The executive committee has opened the meeting to the public. Persons may make reservations and purchase tickets until noon tomorrow at each of the respective schools.

The Gray-Roberts County Unit of the Texas State Teachers Association is composed of teachers from Pampa, Lefors, McLean, Miami, Alameda and all of the Gray County rural schools.

Gas Heaters Start Blaze

Firemen responded to a call from 113 1/2 S. Cuyler at 8:55 a.m. yesterday to the Beaux Arts Dance Studio where a gas hose attached to a gas heater had caught fire.

No one was at the studio when firemen arrived. After prying open the door, they found a second gas heater about to start a fire.

Firemen extinguished the flames before much damage was done. "People should be careful when installing gas heaters," Fire Chief Ernest Winborne, said. "Leaving them lit overnight is dangerous."

Navy Softens Records of 2 War Admirals

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has added a softening footnote to the Pearl Harbor records of Admiral Harold E. Stark and Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel.

On the recommendation of Fleet Admiral Ernest J. King, wartime chief of Naval Operations, the Navy altered King's original criticism of their actions prior to the sneak Japanese attack at that time. Kimmel was commander in chief of the Pacific Fleet, and Stark was chief of Naval Operations. They were charged with "dereliction" of duty.

The Navy Wednesday night released a letter King wrote Secretary Sullivan last July in which King said that some of his comments during the Pearl Harbor investigation three years ago "stand out as not being in accord with the realities of the situation."

Accordingly, King urged that Stark be awarded a second distinguished service medal. It was presented to the retired admiral about two months ago.

King noted that in Aug. 1945 he had said that the "derelictions" of Stark and Kimmel "indicate lack of a superior judgment necessary for exercising command commensurate with their rank."

But in view of Stark's "outstanding" service in Europe as a fleet admiral during the Pearl Harbor disaster, King asked the Navy to alter his remarks to read:

"The derelictions of the part of Admirals Stark and Kimmel were of omission rather than of commission, errors of judgment distinguished from culpable in-competence."

"Since the evidence adduced in warrants never tried by general court-martial nor punishment in confinement but since their usefulness in the battle assigned was impaired by the course of events, I am of the opinion that their assignment to other duties, then and now, represented appropriate administrative action."

Experts Now Telling Why Truman Won

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Some of the political experts who called the shot wrong on President Truman's election are back in business, explaining now why Mr. Truman won.

Labor did it, says one. The farm vote did it, says another. Actually, there's no single answer to the election.

The majority Mr. Truman got was due to a combination of things in the heads of many people.

Not all farmers and union members who voted for him did so simply because they were farmers or union members.

And Mr. Truman couldn't have won at all if millions of people who are not farmers or union members hadn't voted for him.

But what about the personal reasons of some of the farmers, some of the labor people, and those non-farm and non-union millions who voted for Mr. Truman? For example, people like these:

The ones who voted a straight democratic ticket simply because they always have voted that way, and their families before them.

And those who Mr. Truman pumped full of fear of Wall Street, or a bust, if the Republicans won.

And the ones who admired Mr. Truman for his upstart fight and gave a sympathy vote to the underdog because they didn't see much other ground on which to choose between the candidates.

Or those who felt insulted by Dewey's program, which is a New Deal program, or those who accepted Mr. Truman's description of the Republicans as a bunch of deplorable obstructionists.

Or those who resented what they thought was Dewey's coldness and his failure to state his case clearly.

Or those who felt insulted because they looked upon what he said as pious generalities and platitudes.

Or those who voted against Dewey because he had a mustache. Think that's a silly reason?

Thomas J. Bailey, analyzing why people voted as they did in past elections, says in his latest book, "The Man in the Street," "Some of the most personal reasons are trivial if not frivolous, ranging from the illegitimate child of one candidate (that was years ago) to the mustache of another."

After Pearl Harbor, Kimmel was on duty in the 11th and 12th Naval districts until he retired in March, 1942. He now lives in New London, Conn.

Stark was assigned to the European command on orders of President Roosevelt. He now lives in Washington.

Texas Today

By The Associated Press
Want to be a successful rancher? Here are tips from three old-timers at the game—a Texan, a New Mexican and a Scotsman who insist there is a precious little difference between a Texan and Scotsman.

George W. Evans, president of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association, is a firm believer in large ranches for which his state is noted.

His four pointers are:

1. Have a large ranch of about 50 sections, so that some portions will receive rainfall even during dry years.
2. Keep the herd "liquid" so that livestock may be sold at anytime.
3. Operate the ranch economically. When prices are high pay debts, make improvements, build up the calf crop, replace heifers and don't overstock.
4. Keep breeding herds intact.

The good years will take care of themselves," he said. "It's the bad years we must guard against."

John P. Lee, 73-year-old rancher from Tankersley in Tom Green County, thinks ranching is a good business for Texas youths.

The livestock industry offers a wonderful opportunity for the boys of Texas," Lee said. "It looks like Texas must feed not only a lot of our own people, but also help feed the whole world."

Lee, who recalls shipping steers to Chicago in 1880 for $8.28 a head, said it is comparatively easy to stay in the livestock business under present record high prices.

But he doesn't think this will last.

"Things have got to level off," he said. "Everything has been too high."

The advice from Scotland comes from James Wright, director of the Matador Land & Cattle Company, Ltd., a Scottish corporation that owns almost a million acres of ranchlands in eight West Texas counties.

The 68-year-old Scotsman spends three months out of every year in Texas, and feels right at home as indicated by this observation: "Texans are just as close with their money, despite all those vaudeville jokes. Both Scotchman and Texans are fast thinkers and slow talkers."

"Our policy on meat production is to sell as many cattle as we can when the price is too high," Wright said in explaining his company's policy. "When the wholesale market is too weak, we hold back all the cattle we can so as to help the small ranchers."

He mentioned that Matador now has its V-shaped brand on 50,000 head of cattle, grazing on about 1,800,000 acres of owned and leased land. The calf crops run to about 18,000 annually. About this number is sold each year.

"We've sent more than a million cattle to market since a bunch of Dundee merchants bought the Texas land in 1887," Wright said.

Princess to Share Presents With Subjects

LONDON (AP)—A world record baby shower for Princess Elizabeth's first born may overflow into many humbler British homes.

The princess has let it be known she would like other babies arriving the same day as hers to share many hundreds of lavishes given to her by local subjects and admirers on the world over.

The birth of Elizabeth's baby is expected some time this weekend.

A similar course with wedding presents was followed by the princess when she married last November. Overwhelmed with gifts, she gave all over the world the same away some two dozen trucks and suits to other late November brides of her own age.

$20,000 for Shamrock People Observe Good Deed 67th Wedding Anniversary

CAMDEN, N. J. —(AP)—A barber and himself heir to a restaurant and the bulk of an estate valued at more than $20,000 because he extended a helping hand to an 87-year-old boy 44 years ago.

Filing of the will of Charles Marion, Camden cafe owner and sports man who died at the age of 87, disclosed he made four bequests totaling $8,000 and left the rest of his estate to Pasquale (Pat) Taroni, Camden, "My good friend through life."

Friend said Taroni gave Marion home when he arrived in Camden 44 years ago from Chicago. Marion never forgot the hospitality when he became one of south Jersey's most successful men.

Marion was reported to have

SHAMROCK —(Special)— With laugh wrinkles around her sightless eyes, Mrs. W. A. Nelson beamed as she said: "Sixty-seven years is a long time, with ups and downs, but we've been mighty happy together."

The Nelsons observed their 67th wedding anniversary quietly at their home on South Main the other day. Friends sent flowers, greetings and called during the day.

Mrs. Nelson, 87, was born in Van Buren County, Ark. She remembers "finger-picking" cotton and spinning thread to help her mother make clothing for the turned down an offer of $90,000 for the restaurant and bar about a year ago.

family.

"I've helped my mother weave hundreds of yards of rag-carpeting on a loom," she declared.

Mr. Nelson, 90, was born in Pike County, Ala. His mother died before he was two, and he went to live with his grandmother. When he was seven his father re-married and he moved with his father and stepmother from Alabama to Louisiana. Coming to Texas in 1875, the family settled in Denton County.

"We drove across the country in a two-horse covered wagon, camped out at night and cooked our meals on a campfire," the old gentleman recalled. In 1876 he and a brother went west to work on a ranch northwest of Abilene.

Mrs. Nelson, who was Miss Sarah Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Montague County, recalls riding horseback behind her mother and holding to the saddle when she was just a little girl.

"Mother rode a side-saddle and I rode side-ways behind her, because it would have been a disgrace for a woman or girl to ride astride in those days."

Mrs. Nelson has been a member of the Methodist Church since she was 11.

"I just went to school six weeks," Mr. Nelson commented, "but I had a cousin who was a school teacher and taught me at night."

Mrs. Nelson attended school six months. They both learned to spell out of an old blue-back speller.

Although Mrs. Nelson's eyesight has been gone for more than 20 years, her outlook on life has not been dimmed. She is one of the happiest people in town. She sits by her radio and keeps up with world affairs. She and her husband went to the poll to vote in the recent election. She has good health and spends much of her time in knitting baby shoes for her grandchildren and friends. Not long ago she made herself a dress by hand and with handmade buttonholes.

Mrs. Nelson has a hobby of saving pennies. She puts them in a china pig-bank and each year donates them to the fund for crippled children.

All Right for Heart to Skip, Says Physician

Your heart can have abnormal rhythm and still be okay, the Southern Medical Association was told the other day in Miami, Fla. but you should have a checkup, just in case.

Dr. David A. Nathan of Miami said abnormally rapid and slow beating of the heart, as well as "pounding" or "flutter" can occur in normal hearts as well as in hearts afflicted with organic disease.

In fact, he told a session of the association's 42nd annual meeting, virtually all the abnormal types of rhythm found in organic heart disease have been demonstrated in normal hearts.

A normal rhythm in otherwise healthy hearts, he said, are due to such things as worry and fear; acute infections in another part of the body, such as severe tonsillitis and pneumonia; bodily disturbances resulting from over-indulgence in alcohol, coffee, tobacco or drugs; and over-activity of the thyroid gland.

Vendor Day Late For Retirement

HOUSTON —(AP)— A 65-year-old newspaper vendor dropped in to a cafe for his regular morning coffee and told the cashier: "There will be another man on the corner tomorrow. I'm quitting."

A few minutes later the body of the man, identified as Alva Charlie Parker, was found on a sidewalk a block from the cafe.

Police said he apparently died of a heart attack.

Emerald production has long been a virtual monopoly of mines near Bogota, Colombia, although small quantities are mined elsewhere. But the Colombia mines have been idle for the past 10 years.

The couple moved to Wheeler County in 1919 and settled on a farm in the Center community near Twitty. About four years ago they moved to Shamrock.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are musically inclined. For many years he was a songleader in his church and led the singing at many community meetings. Mrs. Nelson played an old-fashioned accordion. She bought her first instrument when she was 11 years old with money she had earned pulling fodder.

The interesting old couple have reared eight children and they have three sons and three daughters living.

Duty Free Goods Seen for Mexico

MATAMOROS, Mexico.—(AP)—U. S. goods soon may be imported duty free into Matamoros and three other border towns under an order of the Mexican Treasury Department.

Word was received here that Matamoros, Piedras Negras, Nuevo Laredo and Ciudad Juarez had been designated as free ports.

The Matamoros Chamber of Commerce said that when the zone is set up, U. S. merchandise of all types can be imported into the designated areas duty free. The chamber said the effect of the zoning here would be the moving of the customs inspection headquarters from the border to the southern limit of the zone which probably will coincide with the southern city limits of Matamoros.

The Loves of Carmen

By SOPHIE KERR
Copyright, 1948, NEA SERVICE, INC.
Spiritalization of screenplay from a novel by Prosper Merimee

XXVIII
THE bull-fighting procession moved through the tunnel that led into the arena with Lucas walking arrogantly at the head. Friends and hangers-on scattered, hurrying up the steps that led to the grandstand. Carmen stood at the mouth of the tunnel, waving after the matador. "Bring me his ears, Lucas," she called out.

When the procession had nearly disappeared, she turned and started toward the steps herself. Her face was alive with anticipation of the thrills to come. Suddenly she stopped short and the laughter choked in her throat. A black cat had run in front of her, right over her feet.

She shrank back, frightened, and crossed her fingers in an automatic sign against bad luck. A figure loomed in her path. She looked up and there, before her, close, close, was Jose.

Only his feverish eyes betrayed the fact that this battered, filthy beggar was the once proud young dragoon from Navarre.

After the first shock of recognition, Carmen glanced quickly around. "What kind of a fool are you to show your face in Cordova?" she snapped. "You'll be caught."

"Carmen—" his voice was unsteady.

"Did you see that black cat? It means serious trouble every time, Jose. If you have any sense at all, you will."

He took her hand. "Carmen, let's go home," he implored.

"Please, Carmen. I can't stand it any longer—waiting, waiting, waiting. Please, Carmen."

With a sidelong, wheedling look and a broad, empty, promising smile, she started to back away from him. "Tomorrow, Jose. Maybe I will be back tomorrow. Wait another day, one more day."

"Like a worm. Cut him in half and he still crawls."
A sudden roar of the crowd in the arena made her lift her head in excitement. "Ah!" she cried. "They've let the bull in." She pushed him away impatiently. "You'll keep me from seeing the fight!"

SHE ran up the steps, Jose behind her. He was shouting, almost insane with pain and rage. "You're not going to get away with it, Carmen, not this time you're not. I'll kill you, do you hear? I'll kill you!"

Over her shoulder, Carmen called scornfully, "I used to think you would. But I don't any more. You're not man enough."

Jose pulled a knife from his belt, all control gone, his face insane. He caught her shoulder, whirling her around. "For the last time, are you coming back with me?"

She bit at his hand savagely, trying to get loose. "No, no, no, no, no." Unable to free herself, she spat in his face.

In one swift movement, Jose whipped the knife high over his head, bringing it down furiously into her bosom.

From the balcony above them a rifle rang out. The policeman was a good shot. His bullet found its mark.

Jose held Carmen's limp body in his arms, looking down at her, bewildered that she was dying—and so was he. His voice broke in weakness. "I love you, Carmen. I didn't want to hurt you."

Carmen looked up at him, bewildered too. Her eyes were dark with pain and tears. "I didn't want to hurt you either, little soldier," she said wonderingly. Her lids closed and she put her face against his breast. They sank back onto the steps together.

The policemen, followed by Pablo, came running up, guns ready. But the guns were no longer needed.

The black cat came out of the niche in the wall and stalked, deliberately and inevitably as the doom it symbolized, across the steps.

THE END

61st Wedding Anniversary Is Observed by Couple

SHAMROCK.—(Special)—J. L. Nunn, widely known in Shamrock, has laughed his way through life. He can laugh louder and longer than any man on the street.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunn celebrated their sixty-first wedding anniversary Monday at the U-Drop Inn when 51 friends and relatives gathered for the annual dinner which has been their custom for a number of years.

Mrs. Nunn, in her quiet, unassuming manner, spends much of her time in making hand-embroidered pillow cases, crocheted rugs, and quilts for her children and grandchildren.

Mr. Nunn, a hide-bound Democrat, recently remarked: "I'll never vote for anybody but a Democrat—and I vote her straight." He continued: "Why, I wouldn't vote for my wife for any office in the world, fact is, I wouldn't vote for any woman I ever saw, that's not a woman's place."

Although Mr. Nunn is 80 years to work and work hard every day, and I want to earn my money, but I'm telling you a lawn mower runs into work."

Mr. Nunn is a native of North Carolina and Mrs. Nunn was born near Savannah, Tenn. The couple came to Wheeler County in 1928 from Fayetteville, Ark., and settled on a farm north of town. They moved to Shamrock about six years ago.

Nunn made a trip to North Carolina recently and went over an old road by bus that he had traveled along in a stage coach 70 years ago. With a ringing laugh he described the trip as "the wildest ride I ever took in my life."

"That bus man gave me a ride for the money as he zigged and zagged down that 20-mile run of mountain road. I wasn't scared, but I was afraid all the time I was going to get scared," he chuckled.

The first voting machine was used in Rochester, N. Y., in 1898.

Mrs. Nunn is an ardent church worker and likes to cook. "My wife and I disagree over what we eat," he laughingly remarked. "She makes chocolate pies but she can't make me eat 'em, and I can't go oatmeal, and there's nobody goin' to make me swallow that stuff."

An interesting observation in the Nunn family is that there are 67 members in the group and the first death occurred 10 days ago when the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Mantooth, died in McLean. The child was a great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Nunn.

"All the folks who helped to raise me are gone," Mr. Nunn said, "but I'm still here and glad of it, because I get a lot of fun out of living."

"We've always tried to treat our neighbors right, and when we were young folks, my wife and I spent half our time waiting on the sick," he recalled.

Mr. and Mrs. Nunn are the parents of two sons and five daughters.

Good rubies or emeralds of four carats or more are usually more valuable than diamonds of the same size.

Confederate, Wounded, Lived To Fight Again

AUSTIN — A Texan is a hard man to kill!

A Montague County Confederate soldier was shot in the stomach, existed in a damp cave four months with virtually no medical aid for his wound, recovered to fight the war and lived to the ripe old age of 83, according to an article in the current "Junior Historian," publication of the Texas State Historical Association.

Writing his story for the magazine that has headquarters at the University of Texas, Clyde Terry of Wichita Falls High School, relates that the facts were furnished by the soldier's grandson, Earl Renfro of Belcherville. The Confederate soldier, W. E. Renfro, was returning home for a visit during the second year of the war when he was shot in the stomach. He plugged the wound with a piece of cloth from his shirt and rode 20 miles to his cabin home. His wife gave him what medical aid she could, then moved him to a nearby cave to protect him from roving Indians who were selling Confederate scalps to the Yankees for $20 each, Terry writes.

For four months Renfro's wife took food and medicine to the cave, always going by night. Renfro recovered and rejoined his regiment, then came home after the war and lived the life of a Texas frontiersman until he was 83, the author relates.

Indian Skeleton Is Uncovered

AUSTIN — Archaeologists have excavated an Indian skeleton on the University of Texas campus.

The "dig" took place in a large wooden box at the University Extension Service with advanced archeology students participating under the direction of Anthropology Department Chairman T. N. Campbell.

The skeleton was found near Leander before the war by a Southwestern University archaeologist, and was recently given to the University of Texas. It had been removed from its original site in the block of dirt in which it was found, and was placed in a large box.

The box was brought to Austin by Dr. J. C. Kelley of the University of Texas Anthropology Department. Students went to work with cameras, notebooks and excavation tools to remove the skeleton in the most scientific manner. The bones and artifacts are being added to the University Anthropology Museum.

HARVESTERS ARE OVERCOME BY SANDIES, 32-7

SPORTS

Pampa News, Sunday, November 14, 1948

Wheeler Downs Panthers

PANHANDLE — (Special) — Wheeler's Mustangs defeated Panhandle's Panthers by a score of 19-3 in a hard-fought battle in Panhandle Friday night.

In a half-time ceremony, Christine Cummings, sophomore, was crowned queen of Panhandle High School. Attended by members of other classes, Miss Cummings was crowned by Joe Knapp and W. A. Mitchell, co-captains, while the Shamrock High School band played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

In the first two minutes of the first quarter, Corky Robertson, Wheeler quarterback, took the pigskin over for the first marker from Panhandle's five-yard stripe. Parker failed on the conversion.

Amarilloans Turn on Heat in Second Quarter to Clinch Title

BUTLER FIELD, Amarillo — A potent Amarillo Sandie steamroller powered its way to a 32-7 victory over a fighting Pampa Harvester aggregation yesterday afternoon to annex the 1948 District 1-AA championship.

The Sandies turned in what many think to be their best game of the season and appeared practically "unbeatable." Their passing was something to behold, as expected, and their running and blocking was magnificent. But the Pampans aren't to be sold short.

Wesley Kleth, Jack Williams, and Derral Davis played spectacular ball for all 48 minutes, and the remainder of the Harvester teammates also played a rugged type ball. But the Sandies had too much overall strength.

But grid enthusiasts found out one thing, the Marvin McNeill-to-James Garner pass combination is all it's cracked up to be, and maybe more. Although Garner dropped two aeriels right in his hands, he managed to hang on to two that went for touchdowns.

The fracas started off in bang-up fashion. The Harvesters won the toss and elected to take the wind, and kick-off. Fourteen plays later, McNeill hit Garner with an eight-yard pass that was good for the first counter. Hudgins' kick was good.

The Harvesters received on their own 28, and on the first play, Carroll Smith shot a 32-yard pass to Kleth on the Amarillo 40 and he "wormed" his way to the Sandie 32. After five more plays, featured by the driving of Kleth and Williams, the latter dashed across for the score from the eight yard marker. Davis added the extra point and it was a 7-7 ball game.

Again the Harvesters received, and again they failed to gain. Davis was forced to punt and McNeill returned from the Sandie 40 to the Pampa 31. After Claude Fox drove to the Pampa 9, and Priolo lost four, McNeill again passed to Garner for the tally. Davis broke through to block Hudgins' attempted conversion.

The incidents were again repeated for the third consecutive time. The Harvesters received, failed to gain the needed ten yards for a first down, and Davis punted, this time to the Amarillo 36.

The Harvester line stiffened, and the Sandies stalled on their own 43. Newby kicked over the Pampa goal and it seemed as if the Harvesters were on the march. Harbord Cox and Williams drove for two first downs before Bobby Moore intercepted Smith's pass on the Pampa 46. Bill Bond tossed McNeill for a 12-yard loss, but on the next play, the shifty aerial artist tossed a 54-yard heave to Newby for another six points. Hudgins' kick was low, and the evening's scoring was completed as the half ended.

In the final half, neither team ever seriously threatened although the Harvesters did penetrate beyond the Sandie 20, once.

The Sandie win clinches the 1-AA crown for them and assures them a chance in the State quarter-finals. The winner of this district has a bye to the quarter-finals and will meet the winner of the game between the 2-AA and 3-AA champions.

The statistics were as follows:

Schepps Will Head Hubs Next Season

DALLAS — (AP) — George Schepps said last night he and associates had purchased the Greenville baseball club and that he had completed arrangements to operate the Lubbock Hubbers as general manager.

Schepps is former president of the Dallas club of the Texas League. The Greenville club is in the Big State League. Lubbock is in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

He said that in the Lubbock operation he would be in full charge by agreement with Mrs. Sam Rosenthal, major stockholder in the club.

Greenville is a Class-B club. Lubbock is in Class-C. Greenville finished out of the money last season. Lubbock wound up third in its league, but lost in the second round of the Shaughnessy playoff.

Schepps said he would leave Dec. 4 for the annual minor league convention in Minneapolis, where he would secure player strength for both clubs.

He said Jack Sullivan would remain manager of the Lubbock team and that a successor to Nat Love as manager of Greenville would be named within the next few weeks.

1-AA District Is Reshuffled

LUBBOCK — (AP) — A realignment of at least two West Texas Class AA interscholastic League football districts has been ordered, according to information received by Lubbock High School officials here last night.

According to a letter from University of Texas Interscholastic League officials, a new lineup in District 3-AA in West Texas will place Lubbock, Odessa, Lamesa, Midland and Brownfield in the same district. Lubbock has been a member of District 1-AA for more than 20 years, Brownfield joining the district several years ago.

MUSTANGS RETAIN LEAD IN SOUTHWEST BY SUBDUING STUBBORN HOGS, 14-12

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — (AP) — Southern Methodist University's Mustangs scored on the last play of the game to defeat the Arkansas Razorbacks, 14-12 here today.

An Arkansas homecoming crowd of 22,000 watched Halfback Paul Page snag a 16-yard pass from Gilbert Johnson and fall into the end zone as the final gun sounded.

The win was the Mustangs' fourth against no losses in their bid for a second straight Southwest Conference title.

An expected duel between SMU's Dock Walker and Arkansas' Clyde Scott failed to materialize. Scott was carried from the field with a knee injury in the first quarter.

Scott netted 31 yards on the five times he carried before leaving the game. Arkansas was hurt seriously by 14 penalties for 121 yards.

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Texas' bruising power paid off with two quick touchdowns in the third quarter and the Longhorns plugged their leaky pass defense enough to dump Texas Christian University, 14-7, here yesterday.

The pin-point passing of Lindy Berry sent Texas Christian into a second-quarter lead but big Ray Borneman and Randall Clay tore the Horned Frog line to bits.

On the third play of the third quarter, Borneman broke through

Bucks Tounce Canadian in District Tilt

CANADIAN — (Special) — The White Deer Bucks' shutout victory over the Canadian Wildcats, 29-0, put them on top in 1-B competition.

In Friday's game, White Deer scored on the second play of the game when the Wildcats fumbled the kickoff. White Deer recovered, and Hoyt Taylor, Bucks' quarterback, went over center. Ronnie Buchanan's attempted conversion failed.

Following the next kickoff, Canadian ran one play and lost the ball on a fumble on its own 41-yard line. White Deer recovered and took six plays to score again. Harvey, substitute halfback, picked up 17 yards and Taylor's 18-yard run put the Bucks on the 2-yard line, where Harvey went over. Ronnie Buchanan's try was good.

Canadian's Johnny Farnsworth took the third Bucks' kickoff to his own 31, where the Wildcats made one play before losing the ball again. Bobby Hernandez, Wildcat quarterback, shot a pass straight to Harry Buchanan. Five plays later, Harry went over for the score.

Lefors' 14-6 Win Takes 2A Title

McLEAN (Special) — Lefors High School won the District 2 A championship at McLean Friday night by beating the home team, 14-6.

McLean scored first in the first quarter after a sustained march from its own 36 to the Lefors 2, where L. M. Watson went over from the one-foot line. His try for the extra point failed. Neither team scored in the second quarter and the half ended at 6-0.

In the third quarter, Watson punted to Don Rice on Lefors' 29-yard line, where Rice fumbled. Lefors' flashy Freddy Newsom grabbed the ball and raced 78 yards down the sidelines to score. Newsom also took the ball over for the extra point to make it 7-6.

Also in the third quarter, Lefors took the ball on a punt on the McLean 48 and worked it to the 6-yard line where Friday Todd circled right end for the score. Newsom again made the extra point.

Although Lefors won the game with its flashy star, Freddy Newsom, McLean's Watson was the outstanding player in the opinion of several who attended.

McLean was crippled by the loss of five of its regulars, who were sidelined because of injuries. Watson almost made up for the loss by carrying the ball 30 of the 35 times that McLean had it; he threw all 8 of McLean's passes, three of which were completed. He punted five of his team's six punts; and he made 126 of McLean's total of 132 yards gained rushing.

Guerillas Win By 25-6 Upset Over Amarillo

A streamlined Pampa aerial attack hit the Amarillo Yannigans right between the eyes Friday afternoon in Harvester Park, and the result was a resounding 25-6 upset victory for Coach John Bond's Guerillas. The only thing to war the victory was G. D. Holmes' injury. His left ankle was broken in a pileup in the first quarter.

Rated as a two touchdown underdog, the Guerillas scored early in the first quarter, and from there set a torrid pace that the Amarilloans could not match.

Big gun in the attack was fullback Charlie Smith, who ran magnificently snaring passes at all angles and scoring two touchdowns. Thurmond Weatherred and Paul Musgrave also turned in a lion's share of the Guerilla work as the pair collaborated in 10 of 16 passes.

Weatherred hit End Gerald Matthews with a nine-yard jump pass for the first tally. The counter was set up when Weatherred found Smith with a 24-yard pass to the Yannigan 10-yard stripe. Two plays later Weatherred again connected this time with Matthews for the score. Musgrave ran the extra point over.

In the second quarter, Charlie Smith sliced off right tackle for 12-yard and the touchdown, culminating a 33 yard sustained drive, sparked by him and Johnny Baines. The try for the extra point was no good and the score stood 13-0 at the half.

Smith again broke into the scoring column in the third period, dashing off right tackle for 16 yards and another six points. The play again ended a sustained drive, sparked this time by Weatherred's and Musgrave's accurate passing. The attempted conversion was no good.

Jerry Raines and Bob Beverley, hard running Yannigan backs, kindled a Yannigan spark in the final stanza that carried the visitors to the Pampa 26. At that point, Frank Littlefield intercepted Beverley's pass on the 20 and raced all the way to the Amarillo 16-yard line before finally being brought down by Jimmy Farmer.

The Guerillas drove to the 10 but fumbled and the Yannigans recovered. Two plays later, the Guerillas regained the ball when a Yannigan miscued on a hand-off. From the 12-yard stripe, Halfback Jimmy Baines crashed over for the tally. The extra point failed and the Pampans led, 25-0.

Coaches Bond and Frizzell substituted freely after that, and a series of passes from Beverley to Farmer put the ball on the five where Beverley drove over. Farmer's conversion was good and all scoring was completed.

The Guerillas outplayed the visitors in every department, piling up 12 first downs to their seven. The Guerillas' passing attack netted them 166 yards, out of the 10 completed, while holding the Yannigans to 63 yards passing out of the five they completed. The Yannigans also threw 16 passes. On the ground, the locals outplayed their Amarillo rivals, 141 yards to 126, total gains.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (AP) — Two substitutes, William Gay and John Landry brought Notre Dame from behind to defeat Northwestern, 12-7, yesterday.

Wrestler Hurt In Fracas at Sportatorium

Marred by two disqualifications by the referee and an injury that may be serious, Promoter Vic Burnett's Sportatorium wrestling matches were packed with excitement and thrills Friday night.

In the first match of the evening, bearded Benny Trudell of Montreal, Canada, aimed a danged right eye at his opponent, method against Dory Funk, graduate of Indiana University in Hammond.

The stockily built Canadian truned and groaned throughout 15 minutes of the first fall before succumbing to Funk's painful knee lock and toe twist. The handsome Hoosier liberally mopped the canvas with the Canadian before applying the winning hold.

In the second falls, mayhem ruled supreme with the Canadian being disqualified, much to the approval of the crowd, after gouging Funk in the eyes until he was nearly blinded.

Funk started slapping Trudell across the face until Benny got mad and started his gouging tactics. He would force Funk into the ropes and then apply a headlock with one arm and gouge his eyes with the other. He made the mistake, however, of slugging referee Vic Weber—and he was finished for the evening. Weber awarded the match to Funk and almost had to subdue Trudell himself to get to the dressing room.

Trudell's buddy, burly Rod Fenton, didn't show up for the matches and Pittsburgh Al Getz, ex-Southwestern States Champ, appeared in his place. Pittsburgh Al was disqualified for two falls, although only wrestling one.

Grapping with Dick Trout, personable young gladiator from Hollywood, Calif., Pittsburgh Al bullied Trout all over the ring with tactics that were certainly "not in the book."

After slugging, pinching, pulling hair, gouging eyes, and biting, Al tossed Trout into the ropes, slugged Referee Weber and twisted the ropes tightly around Trout's neck slugging Weber again, and began kicking Trout in the face.

Between kicks, and slugging the referee, Getz had time to show off his muscular build to the disapproving audience by stalking around the ring with his arm upraised.

After Weber regained his balance enough to free Trout, he awarded the fall to Getz' victim. Although disputing the decision with all his fury, Getz walked to his dressing quarters while Weber and a few onlookers had to carry Trout out of the ring.

The California lad could not recuperate in time for the second fall and Referee Weber awarded the complete match to Trout, due to Getz' foul methods.

The extent of Trout's injury is not known, but he left immediately after the matches to see a chiropractor in Amarillo. It is believed that the muscles in the back of his neck were "tied in a knot" and the slightest jar might break his neck.

33 Girls Turn Out For Cage Practice

CANADIAN (Special) — Thirty-three girls reported for basketball Wednesday afternoon, Coach Mrs. Bill Curmitt announced. Only three of the girls were on the team last year but the prospect looks good "I think we are going to have a splendid team this year," Mrs. Curmitt said.

Consuela Parra was elected student manager for the team. A captain has not been elected, but will be chosen in the near future.

Synouse and Penn State, at the start of the season, had broken even on the gridiron, each team winning 10 games. Five were ties.

Police Hunt for Mount Lion for Danville

DANVILLE, Va. — Police hunted for a lion in the Danville area today, looking for a lion that was reported to be in the area.

The lion, young but growing, first came to the attention of the police when an agitated citizen phoned to report he'd seen a lion roaming near the city reservoir. Police cruisers howled to the scene. They found the lion all right in Payne's back yard.

Payne explained that he'd always had a way with animals. That's when the authorities started dragging out the statute books.

No luck so far. The nearest applicable law they've been able to find was an ancient one forbidding the exhibition of jack asses.

GOP Faces Rebuilding Task, Strassen Says

PHILADELPHIA — The Republicans would have won the Presidency, says Harold F. Strassen, if they had contained the American people their party was liberal.

They didn't. Now, adds Strassen, the Republican Party needs to be rebuilt "from the people on up and this is the time to do it."

Pensacola Takes Many a Blow From Navy Before Going Down

SEATTLE —(AP)— The heavy cruiser, Pensacola, survivor of an atomic bombing, took every punch the Navy could throw for six hours and 30 minutes Wednesday, and then went down quietly bow first.

The gallant old veteran of 12 battles with the Japanese when her guns were good and she could fight back was listing far to port and her nose was taking water. Then, as if tired of taking further punishment, she slipped into the grey water of the Pacific, leaving behind hardly a splash.

The first Task Fleet began at 8 a. m. to flex its explosive muscles with the Pensacola as the lone target. Towed to a spot some 90 miles off the Washington Coast, she didn't have the company of other condemned warships which were around her when she survived the atomic blast at Bikini.

"Heavy cruisers were pouring shells into her at long range when we arrived about 8:40," said Paul Wagner, Associated Press photographer. The Navy flying drew a steady figure-eight pattern over the target as the bombardment ran through the day.

"They moved up, swung into single file past the Pensacola and poured broadsides into her. Dive bombers, rock-firing planes and destroyers all had their turns."

A torpedo finally ripped her bow away, but she stayed afloat for 64 minutes although her No. 1 gun turret was nearly awash. A second torpedo was fired but, with the stern forced up, it ran under the ship.

"At one time a direct hit from a bomb struck her amidships, blossoming in a flash of fire, but when the smoke drifted away, the Pensacola was still there," continued Wagner.

"Three times she seemed to be afire, once after that bomb hit and twice after diving planes had peppered her with rockets. Twice the fires appeared to die away of their own accord. She was smoking from the third when our plane had to head back for the Washington Coast, low on gasoline."

The Navy said the maneuver first of its kind in the Pacific Northwest, was designed to test fleet tactics, weapons and personnel. The USS Salt Lake City, sister ship of the Pensacola, was sunk in similar exercises off Southern California last May.

Palaver de Pampa

PRELUDE TO CHRISTMAS—Reading a magazine this week, I came across some interesting notions that one might consider for Christmas. I made a few notations on items that were new to me. Though they may be old to you, here they are: if he's the outdoor type (the article says) there's a little gadget that will catch his eye... a pocket stove that runs on just a few drops of gasoline... when closed it measures about 4 inches by 5, and of course, fits into the glove compartment of the car... it'll burn for 100 minutes and will boil water in seven minutes. I'm thinking how nice it would be for warming one's bottles while traveling... There's also a record-size-out-now—a combination radio-phonograph that weighs less than 18 pounds. With it you can take symphonies off the air, record the voices of your children, send voice letters to far-away friends... But here's one that really took my eye: for the little ones, a telephone radio in red plastic that a child listens to by putting the receiver to his ear... On one side of the station, and the aerial permanently connected to a metal box top, and the other end clips to any metal ground... If you're getting now, with next summer in mind, there's a unique idea carried out in a "tour table." Closed, it's a compact picnic kit with two quart-size vacuum bottles and two stainless steel sandwich boxes; opened, it becomes a table with four pull-out legs... And for those interested, I'm making up my gift list now, and will publish same next week.

SIGN OF THE SEASON—It's that time of year again. The town was all aglitter yesterday morning and into the afternoon while Pampa fans were loading into cars and buses headed for Amarillo. Cabot had a bus packed full of anticipating fans... cute Betty Hooper was one of the most enthusiastic. (I tried to get this column heaped up to get the score in, but they wouldn't stand for it down at the News. On some things I had to say in the Sports Page for the results.)... there's no need mentioning how everyone looked... I saw a gala array of smart fur coats... asked "John," our friend at the Laundromat, if he was going to the game, and he said he was going to sit on the 62-mile line.

OBSERVING, ETC.—Saw the Fred Thompsons entertaining the Garnet Reeves a week ago last night at the Country Club... Garnet Reeves, Jr., played end on the Lubbock team against Pampa. He's certainly turned out to be a fine looking boy... a few couples I haven't seen in some time at the CC dances are Dallas Bowshers, K. E. Thomtons and the Jack Dumps. It was good to see all of you there... there was a lot of discussion in the "back room," mostly about politics... by the way, what's a Kiplinger letter? mostly anybody and one... I heard that Shirley Morgan's houseguest, Miss Thelma Norton, was one of those charming people you hear about, but rarely are fortunate enough to meet. Miss Norton is with the American Red Cross and has traveled extensively.

ROTARY-ANNES have a lot to look forward to, from what I overheard: seems there will be an apron and overall dance with games, etc., on Thanksgiving... and will follow up with gala "sweet-heart" affair on the first of the new year. I'm still listening for more info on this... Mrs. Joe Wells is active in the Pampa about town, what with being president of Woodrow Wilson P.T.A., superintendent of the Primary Department at the First Methodist Church, a member of the Do-si-do Club, and energetic Kiwanianne, besides holding down the all-important job of mother and wife. She would be a good prospect for Woman of the Year, BSPs... Mable and Jerry Travis are the happiest couple in town: after five years of wishing thinking "yes, it's no more," they are now Mrs. Loretta Robinson makes your notes a pleasure at the First National.

NOTE ON REPORTS—Winner, S. D., will be host to George Scott, Faris Oden, Red Weathered and Joe Gordon this week, while these hunters try their hands at a little pheasant hunting... Dr. Calvin Jones, Eddie Dunigan and Dr. H. H. Hicks are deer hunting.

PAMPA PANORAMA—Did you know that Brother Fort from Alameda is our own, well-known L. P. Fort of the Texas Employment Service?... Saw G. K. Reading driving a flashy new Lincoln... Irv and Marguerite Akl made a fast trip to Austin last weekend... How many minutes did you spend in Austin, Irv?... the best pitcher at Sam Houston, I noticed in passing the school, was Bernie Larkh, who plays baseball with her kiddos. She's a good pitcher, to boot... speaking of baseball, I saw Mickey Frigmore, Husky Father's Night this past week: aren't we lucky young matron... Laycock, Herman Foster and others making preparations for P.T.A. Charles and Jean Duenkel made a trip to Dallas, but arranged to be back in Amarillo for the game yesterday... another victim of the measles is Kay Layne, young daughter of Ellen and Shotgun Layne... Dollie Studer is spending the weekend in Albuquerque... Saw Wilma returning from the wrestling matches still put out about the short match... W. D. Kelley has been moved from Amarillo to a Dallas hospital and is improving nicely... reports say... Bill and Carmen Henderson are spending the weekend in Fort Worth to see TCU and Texas play... the Aubrey Joneses combined several celebrations over the weekend: family reunion, Aubrey's birthday, and the football game of the year... Bud Boyles, we hear, soon will be off for a game, for 18 months, but we don't know the details. If we had asked any questions, somebody would have wised-up about me... Well, this is PEG signing off here on the eve of Thanksgiving, which is but 10 days away—and Christmas, which is, oh, so, so near. PEG O' PAMPA.

WES IZZARD OF AMARILLO GIVES TALK ON U.S. HOMES

Speaking before a large crowd in the Junior High School auditorium Thursday night, Wes Izzard of Amarillo told members of four local P.T.A.'s "The home is the Democratic unit for world peace."

P.T.A.'s in the joint meeting were Woodrow Wilson, Horace Mann, B. M. Baker and Junior High.

Izzard compared what different people do with the time they save by using the many modern gadgets. He raised the question, "Are we using the gadgets and the time we save to a good advantage to help develop good citizenship in our children?"

He said we need to have discipline in our homes and we need to cultivate the respect of our children.

"If we do not, they are going outside of the home for it," he said.

He said give a child responsibility—something concrete for him to do. If this is begun in childhood, it will become a habit in manhood.

The spiritual foundation a child receives in the home was another point Izzard brought up. Perhaps as the old time devotional reading in the morning and evening, but good Christian living will be absorbed by the child and contribute much to his character as he grows older.

"Teaching patriotism is another big factor," he said. "Beginning in the home, school and community."

Best Safecrackers in Business Are Working for Manufacturers

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The best safecrackers in the business aren't in business for themselves. They are a secret corps of experienced men trained by safe manufacturers to foil professional yeggmens, help and advise police—and open locked strongboxes themselves in case of emergency.

"It takes 10 years or more to school a good safecracker," smiled John Mosler, 26. He is a fourth-generation member of a family which has been making safes and bank vaults for 100 years.

"We get calls all the time to open safes for people who forget the combinations.

"We keep the identity of our men secret, and we don't like to divulge much about them. We don't want them kidnaped."

That isn't an idle fear. Once a group of Chicago gamblers learned the identity of a Mosler expert and summoned him in the dead of night to a downtown business. He was then forced into a car and driven to a gambling den operated by the gang. It turned out the gamblers had lost the combination to their own safe. The expert drilled it open for them. The gamblers handed him a $50 bill and sent him on his way.

"Any safe built before 1920 isn't likely to be very safe either from fire or burglary," Mosler said. "We've learned a lot in the last quarter century.

"A smart yegg might be able to open an old safe by touch, but it is impossible for him to do so with a modern safe. This Jimmy Valentine stuff is pretty much baloney."

Where is the best place to keep a safe?

"If it is a large safe with a money chest welded inside," said Mosler, "don't hide it. Put it out in the open under a spotlight if you want to.

"Unless he can cart it off to a place where he can work at it at leisure, any smart safecracker will take one look at it and pass it by. He'd rather tackle one of the old cheeseboxes—there are plenty still around."

The Mosler firm, largest in the world, built the door for the vault at Fort Knox that guards the nation's gold. It also turned out the safe that held George Washington's wooden false teeth at the New York World's Fair.

"We've kept at least one step ahead of the burglars," said Mosler. "Our biggest problem now is to build safes and vaults against the atom bomb."

A-Bomb Rescue Work Not Too Dangerous

BOSTON (AP)—An Army atom bomb expert said that if an A-bomb bursts in the air, rescue of the wounded is no worse a risk than on any other battlefield.

Rescuers in that case don't have to worry about radiation as any special risk, Col. James P. Cooney, chief of the Special projects division of the Surgeon-General's Department, declared in an interview.

White Deer FFA Worker Is Honored by School, Santa Fe

WHITE DEER (Special)—Among the Future Farmers of America leaving Pampa Saturday night for the National FFA Convention in Kansas City was Leroy Thornburg of White Deer, who Friday, in a special assembly at the high school, was presented by the Santa Fe Railway Company with a certificate for outstanding achievement and a check to cover his expenses for the trip to Kansas City.

Making the presentation were Ralph W. Ater, of the Public Relations Department of Santa Fe, and Ronald Cross, agricultural agent for the Santa Fe. They were introduced by Bob Ewen, vocational agriculture teacher in the White Deer High School, who also gave a brief summary of Thornburg's achievements.

A 1947 graduate of White Deer High School, Thornburg was active in FFA work throughout his high school days. He was president of his chapter one year; during his Senior year, he was vice-president of the District FFA and historian of the Area FFA; last year he was president of the area; and this year he is one of the vice-presidents of the state organization.

Through his FFA work, he has developed an outstanding farm program, including hogs, sheep, and Hereford cattle, and well as assuming a large portion of the management of his mother's farm.

Within the last few months, he has exhibited his hogs at the Lubbock, Amarillo, and Dallas Stock Shows and has won numerous awards, including more than $300 in prize money.

At Kansas City this week, Thornburg will be among the candidates for the American Farmer degree, one of the highest awards in the Future Farmer organization.

He is the son of Mrs. Alma Thornburg of White Deer.

Old Enough to Tie—Too Young to Untie

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 19 year-old model found herself in the fix of being old enough to marry but too young to divorce.

Mrs. Lorraine Carroll Conley's divorce suit against Albert J. Conley, Jr. was put "off calendar" in Superior Court. The couple was married a little over two months.

Judge Frank Swain said a guardian must be named for the bride before the action can go ahead. Age of consent for girls to marry is 18 in California.

Government to Sell Mineral Rights to Camps

DALLAS — (AP) — Oil and mineral rights to 2,420 acres of former Camp Fannin near Tyler are to be sold by the government.

The regional office of the War Assets Administration Thursday announced the rights would go to the highest bidder subject to priority claims beginning Nov. 19, transferred to the state for use as an East Texas tubercular sanatorium, but the federal government retained oil, gas and mineral rights.

The property consists of the Camp Fannin area lying north of the south line of the proposed Highway 155 encompassing 2,389.10 acres which have been conveyed to the State Board of Control, and two tracts lying south of the line totaling 31.46 acres. Sale of the government's interests will include rights of exploration, drilling, storing and removing all oil, gas and mineral materials, except fissionable materials.

Newspapers Did Too Much Telling, Too Little Explaining, Says Editor

MILWAUKEE — (AP) — The bulk of American newspapers guessed wrong on the presidential election because "all of us were guilty of doing a little too much telling and too little explaining," Roy A. Roberts, Kansas City editor, said. "Frankly, the mass public doesn't like to be told by news papers or anybody else, for that matter, what they should do and think," Roberts, president and general manager of the Kansas City Star, said in an address prepared for the 25th national convention of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic society.

The speech was to be delivered by Robert W. Reed, assistant managing editor of the Star, in Roberts' absence due to illness. "It's a prime function of a newspaper to lead, not to follow," Roberts said. "But over the years I have sort of come to the conclusion that you serve your purpose more effectively by setting forth the facts and letting the public make up its own mind than by overstressing your own conclusions and expecting the mass public to accept your opinions."

He said that if a decline were indicated, supplementary sources—such as large reserves of natural gas, oil shale and coal—could be synthesized into liquid fuels. The petroleum industry will produce 48 percent more oil this year than it did in 1941, and 21 percent more than in the peak year of 1945, McCollum said.

Roberts said "most of our faces are red" because of failure to sense the trend to Truman. "We didn't do the job of old fashioned reporting we should have," he explained. "It wasn't intentional, I am sure."

Number of Federal Jobholders Drops

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The number of federal jobholders dropped in September for the first time since last December. Senator Byrd (D-Va.), reported this as chairman of the joint committee on reduction of non-essential federal expenditures, and said however the 5,876 decrease still left 2,114,994 persons employed in the Executive Branch.

API Committee Says U.S. Is Not Running Out of Oil

CHICAGO — (AP) — The United States—contrary to "periodic rumors"—is not running out of oil, a committee of the American Petroleum Institute reported Thursday.

L. F. McCollum, chairman of the API's committee on long term petroleum availability, said the group has found that "substantially increased amounts of petroleum from natural sources" will be available in the United States in the next few years.

McCollum, at API's 28th annual meeting, said that after a study of the nation's petroleum resources the committee forecast this outlook for 1949-53:

"By 1953 the availability of natural petroleum produced in the United States is estimated to reach an upper range of 7,500,000 barrels a day. That figure would be 2,300,000 barrels a day more than actual production in the peak year of 1945.

"And, related to population, the availability for all of 1953 would be equal to almost 80 gallons for each person—about 80 percent higher than it was in 1941."

McCollum, president of the Continental Oil Co., Ponca City, Okla., added:

"It is still impossible to foresee definitely the probable trends beyond 1953. From the best data now obtainable, no significant decline from that year's estimated rates is anticipated during the following five years."

He said that if a decline were indicated, supplementary sources—such as large reserves of natural gas, oil shale and coal—could be synthesized into liquid fuels. The petroleum industry will produce 48 percent more oil this year than it did in 1941, and 21 percent more than in the peak year of 1945, McCollum said.

Canadian Bank Holds Open House Following Extensive Redecoration

By CARL ZYBACH
News Correspondent

CANADIAN (Special)—"Grandpappy" H. S. Wilbur, president of the First National Bank, and other members of the staff were all smiles as the institution held open house Thursday afternoon and evening after a most extensive remodeling and redecorating job.

The beautiful new interior was made more beautiful with many baskets of chrysanthemums, gladioli, roses and carnations. Organ music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Helen Lockhart and Mrs. Natalie Sanders. The Hammond organ was loaned to the bank by Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Morris.

Low, clear-vision type fixtures have been installed throughout the bank. Partitions are faced and trimmed in Tennessee marble, and all woodwork is solid mahogany. Walls have been redecorated a dusty green, which, with the new fluorescent tubes gives an abundance of non-glaring light.

An additional room has been provided for the bookkeeping department. This eliminates the noise of posting machines which formerly were near the tellers windows.

All the old-type sash windows have been replaced with glass brick that extends above the ceiling which was lowered about five feet and finished with acoustical plaster tile. A unique installation of vari-colored neon lights above this ceiling produces a rainbow lighting effect as one views the outside of the building at night.

Year-round air conditioning is provided by Chrysler Air-Temp units installed in the basement. This is not the conventional expansion-type cooler. It provides electrically controlled refrigeration or heating as might be needed to keep the entire building at a constant temperature winter and summer. The bank is equipped with the most modern of office appliances and accounting machines. The newest addition is the International Business Machine the "super-human" thing that sorts and lists checks, totals the various items and proves the work of the day.

The officers and employees of the bank are: H. S. Wilbur, president; Harry S. Wilbur, Jr., vice president and cashier; C. W. Isaacs, vice president; A. V. McQuiddy, chairman of the board; Helen Lockhart, secretary; Paul Patton, discount teller; Pearl Teague and Betty Ward, tellers; Irma Wood, Virginia Crawford, Patricia Magill, Louise Wyatt and Carol Sprague, bookkeepers; Mildred Morehead, insurance.

Paroled Convict Honeymooning With Woman Who Sent Him Up

CARSON CITY, Nev., (AP)—Walter W. Witkowski, a Nevada convict freed on parole, honeymooning with the woman who sent him to prison.

Witkowski married Mrs. Francis Taft Pollock, former wife of Woolsey M. Pollock of the Chicago Social Register, in a quiet informal ceremony in Reno Wednesday night. A few hours earlier she had met him here and presented him with a big, new automobile to celebrate his freedom.

It was the second time the couple had been wed in Reno. A year ago they were married a day after Mrs. Pollock's divorce from her Chicago mate. When she learned that Witkowski, a onetime Los Angeles police officer, already had a wife she filed a bigamy complaint against him.

He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to prison. Mrs. Pollock obtained an annulment and began living on a dude ranch near the prison. Witkowski's first wife, Elaine, obtained a divorce.

HST Missouri's First President?

They'll give you an argument in Missouri if you tell them President Truman is Missouri's first president. Sen. Kenn (R., Mo.) has revealed. A lot of Missourians think Missouri's first president wasn't piano playing Mr. Truman but David R. Atchison.

Kenn didn't say yes and he didn't say no to Mr. Truman. He just placed the facts before Congress as he got them from John T. Barker, former attorney general of Missouri.

Here is what Barker says: "While history records that Harry S. Truman is Missouri's first president, some historians disagree. Ninety-nine years ago David R. Atchison, Missouri's senator, had the peculiar experience of filling the shoes of a

Moscow Press Gives Big Play To Possible HST-Stalin Parley

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Speculation over the report of a possible meeting between President Truman and Marshal Stalin in Moscow has swept both hemispheres like a prairie fire, demonstrating anew the intensity of world-interest in any such parley. It's not worthy that the Moscow press has given heavy play to this report.

U. S. Undersecretary of State Lovett said Wednesday he knew nothing to substantiate the idea of such a meeting. Presidential Press Secretary Eben Ayers, who is with the chief executive at Key West, offered no comment but recalled Mr. Truman's repeated assertions that he would be glad to talk with Stalin any time the Soviet chief wishes to come to America.

From well-informed American sources in Paris comes the sidelight that Messrs. Truman and Marshall are expected to confer shortly after the whole field of America's relations with Russia. What of the advisability of a Truman-Stalin meeting—assuming that it could be arranged.

Most observers appear to regard the proposition with much doubt, as being a two-edged sword which might do some good but could do much harm.

On the credit side one can see that it would give vast satisfaction to those who feel we are missing a bet by not attempting such a direct approach. Furthermore it would put America on record as having gone the limit in trying to achieve peace, even though the effort failed.

On the other hand there would be the danger that the move would be interpreted as appeasement—a term which forever will be associated with British Prime Minister Chamberlain's efforts to placate Hitler. Such an interpretation would give Moscow grand propaganda with which to convince their own people, and doubtful foreign nations, of Red Russian supremacy.

fact of amity with the western nations, "calling off" the cold war? What then?

I think you will find the consensus of observers is that we might have a period of pseudo-peace but that most assuredly this would be followed by a resumption of the Bolshevik world revolution. It would be most unwise for us to believe that communism will abandon its offensive.

Bashful Burglar Scorns the Nudes

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — A bashful burglar entered a calendar art store through a skylight, looked over the stock of nudes thoroughly and left this note: "I didn't have the nerve to take anything; I will try the gas station."

He tried the gas station, all right. He got $30.

No note, this time.

London Mother Lays Claim to No. 1, GI Mother-in-Law Title

Widowed Mrs. Margaret Ridge, who lives in a brick house near beautiful Kew Gardens, London, modestly lays claim to a hand-across-the-sea record—the world's champion GI mother-in-law. Mrs. Ridge has three daughters who were married to American soldiers and who now live in New York, Pennsylvania, and Alabama.

There's another aspect of her championship that makes her proud. She is grandmother to three Anglo-American children, each of the daughters having presented her soldier with a child.

Back in the days of the blitz this house always looked something like an American military headquarters," says Mrs. Ridge. "Always a jeep out in front and the kitchen cluttered with ration tins."

"Gen. Eisenhower, you know, wouldn't let the boys go visiting unless they took their own food with them."

The house was full of attractions for American soldiers in those days. It rang with the chatter and merriment of six daughters. Sen. Atchison and many historians have always claimed that the presidential succession law made him president for that one day.

ters, and the United States Army made off with three of them.

Three daughters still are with Mrs. Ridge, one the widow of a British soldier killed in Burma, another the wife of an Englishman in London, and young Doris, who lives at home.

Mrs. Ridge's husband, who served as a fire watcher during the blitz, was killed by a buzz bomb in the closing days of the war.

"The war certainly has changed this household," explains Mrs. Ridge. "It caused much sorrow, but it brought some good things too. The girls in America are happy, maybe even lucky. But why must the United States be so far away? Separation—that's the biggest ache in my heart now."

Separation keeps her writing until her fingers get cramps. She does it in order, each daughter getting a letter in her proper turn. They are:

Mrs. Winifred Burns, Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Alice McBride, Riverhead, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary Farrell, Germantown, Pa.

Back from America come letters mostly always cheerful and exciting. Also packages, and some of them mystify Mrs. Ridge. Sweet potatoes, for instance.

"My Winnie writes that the people in Alabama are fond of sweet potatoes," Mrs. Ridge says, "but I tried them every which way, including a smart dash of curry sauce, without getting a thrill."

May Accept Invitation Winnie and Alice have been back for visits since the war, smart in their nylon and snappy pumps. The girls always are suggesting that Mother Ridge make a trip to America to get some expert instruction on how to treat a sweet potato. There still are many difficulties and heavy responsibilities in London, I ho, says Mrs. Ridge. But she may be persuaded to make the trip, and has interested herself in the United States and Canadian Brides' Parents' association, which is devising plans to finance visits by British mothers to their daughter overseas.

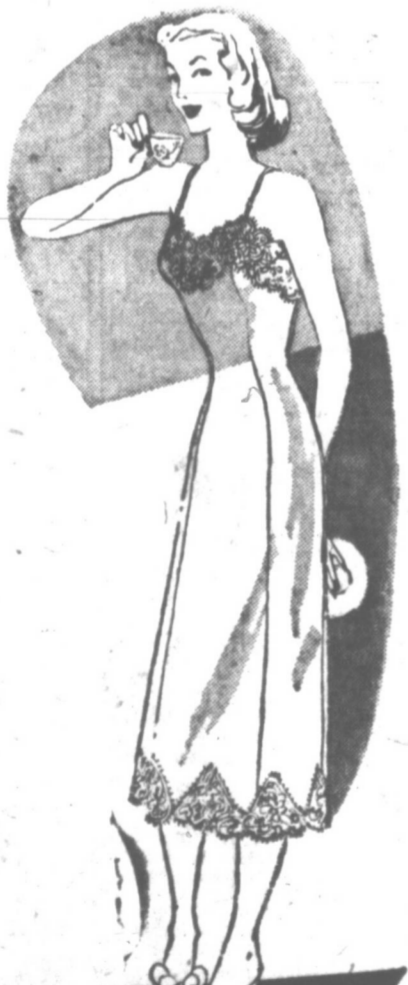

There are 80,000 such daughters in the United States and Canada, and almost as many mothers alive in Britain. But Mrs. Ridge thinks she is the only triple-GI-mother-in-law in the whole lot.

Police Eye Picket Line at Hospital

DETROIT—(AP)—Police watched an AFL picket line at Harper Hospital today to ward off any renewal of trouble in a four-day-old strike of service workers.

Two women pickets, accused of knocking down a nurse, were arrested yesterday and charged with assault and battery.

It was the first instance of violence to mark the strike, called Monday by the AFL Hospital Employees Union in an announced effort to force recognition.

Hot Idea Heats Floor Too Good

LEAVENWORTH, Kans.—(AP)—R. B. Smith had an idea about conserving heat in his home.

He placed a wall heat conductor around his coal furnace in the basement with the idea of directing all the heat to an opening leading to the first floor.

Firemen agreed the idea worked wonderfully. The floor above the furnace heated so well it caught fire. Firemen extinguished the flames without heavy damage.

Axe Falls This Week on Texas Crude Production

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON—(AP)—The axe is expected to fall Monday on Texas crude oil production.

That is the day the State Railroad Commission has indicated orders will be signed shutting down 17 fields producing approximately 400,000 barrel of crude daily.

The conservation-minded commission last Wednesday authorized preparation of the orders, the shutdown to remain effective until wasteful flaring of oil well gas is halted.

The shutdown would drop the nation's daily crude production from an all-time high of 5,320,000 barrels (as of the week ending Nov. 8) to approximately 5,225,000, a figure about 15,000 barrels less than the daily average a year ago.

Texas' production would fall to around 2,125,000 barrels daily, the state currently producing about 44 percent of the nation's crude.

In Texas, it long has been the practice to flare, or burn in the open field, gas produced in solution with oil. This is the gas that supplies energy to force oil to the ground's surface.

The commission wants the gas processed or returned to the ground. Previous shutdown orders designed to force such conservation have been upheld by the State Supreme Court.

Operators in many of the state's fields have complied through building recycling plants to process the gas and permit it to be sold to gas companies.

The commission maintains it is a different story with the 17 fields involved in the pending orders.

"This shutdown will be purely a conservation measure," Chairman Ernest O. Thompson said. "For three years the commission has been warning the operators to conserve flare gas or have their wells shut down."

Just how will the closing of the fields affect the nation's consumers of petroleum and petroleum products?

The commission apparently is confident the industry's supply-demand situation is in excellent condition, despite the coming winter demands for heating fuels.

Several speakers at the American Petroleum Institute Convention, which concluded Thursday in Chicago, released industry statistics which probably were available to the commission before its course of action was set.

Fred Van Covern, institute statistician, said an all-time high of above-ground stocks for all oils on Oct. 31 totaled 582,000,000 barrels, compare with 514,341,000 barrels a year earlier.

He said crude production has increased 780,000 barrels daily since the war, and that between 38,000 and 39,000 wells will be drilled this year as compared with 33,178 last year and 35,911 in 1920, the previous record.

William R. Boyd, Jr., New York City, institute president, said the supply-demand situation is "most optimistic."

John W. Boatwright, general manager of the Distribution Economics Department, Standard Oil Company (Indiana), said supply of residual fuel oil is outstripping demand and that only in the field of kerosene and distillates does the industry face a challenge.

The head of API's committee on long-term petroleum availability, L. F. McCollum, president of Continental Oil Company, said:

"By 1953 the availability of natural petroleum produced in the United States is estimated to reach an upper range of 7,300,000 barrels a day. That figure would be 2,300,000 barrels a day more than actual production in the peak war year of 1945."

The industry also received a bit of encouragement last week from Washington.

A Senate Commerce Subcommittee dropped plans for an inquiry this fall into oil supplies.

Senator Erien McMahon (D-Conn.), acting chairman of the group, said the action results from reports there will be sufficient heating oil and gasoline to meet winter demands.

He said industry and government officials "seem to be practically unanimous in the opinion fuel supplies will be adequate to see home owners through the winter."

It is the larvae of moths—not the adult miller—white-coring winter. They come from eggs which the moth lays in clothing and use the cloth as their food.

The larvae of one moth can destroy as much wool in one year as twelve sheep can produce.

Shutdown Order Hits 17 Texas Oil Fields

AUSTIN—(AP)—Railroad Commission technicians today were working on an order designed to halt the wasteful flaring of gas from 17 Texas fields.

Jack Baumel, chief engineer of the Oil and Gas Division, said the order would follow the pattern of the Seeligson Field shutdown directive.

MEET THE Star Performer for '49!

You're invited to drive the New Hudson—the car that's nimble and rugged beyond anything you've known before!

Come in, try Hudson with the all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine (the most powerful American six built today) or the masterful Super-Eight. Both provide wonderfully alert power for a new type of motor car with an exclusive "step-down" design.

Millions say the New Hudson is the reigning beauty in the automobile parade—but you can't really know this great car until you drive it—and you're invited to do just that—now!

Hudson, with the new, 491 h.p., high-compression Super-Six engine or the masterful Super-Eight, takes you away with new zip, and outstrips the field with staying power.

But amazingly alive engines aren't the whole story of this star performer for '49. Hudson has a new hug-the-road way of going in cross-winds and on every conceivable kind of highway.

This all happens because—as is widely known—the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have. Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car!

This remarkable car has floors recessed down within a base frame (Hudson is the only car you step down into), enabling Hudson to build the lowest car on the highway, only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more than adequate head room!

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin to ride, and this gives you a grand feeling of safe well-being! This feeling is further enhanced by the ease with which this car is operated, and by the quiet with which Hudson glides along.

Come in, let us show you why Hudson's great engines and fabulous "step-down" design principle* put this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor car value!

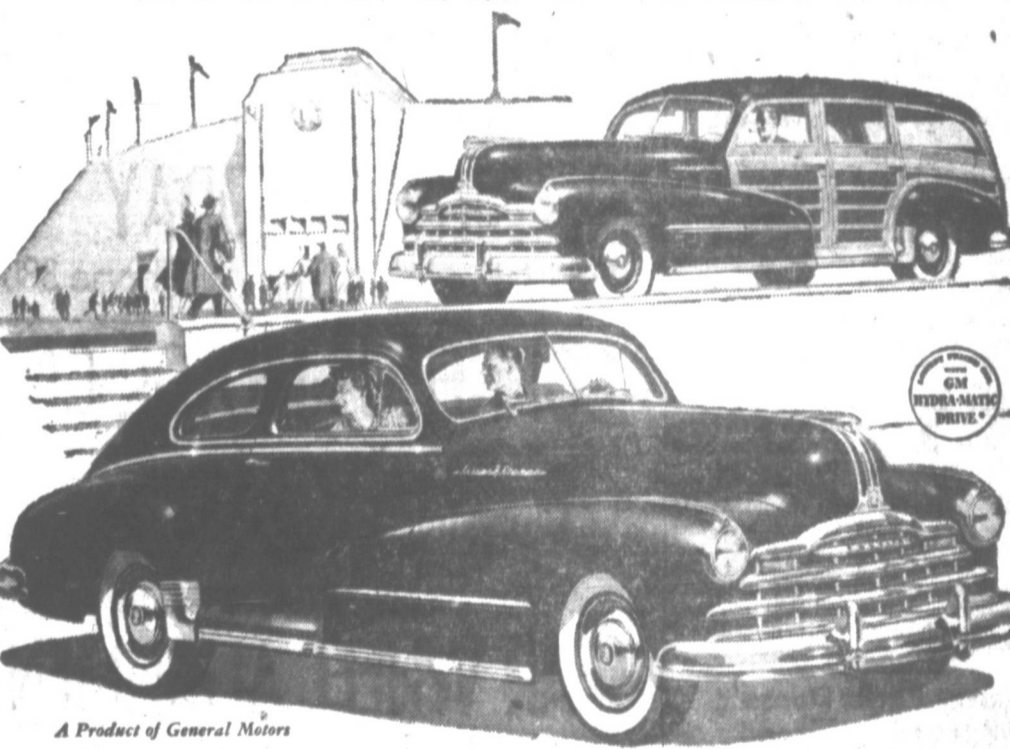

*The most important advantages in Hudson's new "step-down" design are explained in a booklet available at the nearest Hudson dealer's.

NEW Hudson The only car you step down into

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO SEE AND DRIVE THE AMAZING NEW HUDSON

PONTIAC

Above everything else.. a good car!

Pontiac has one manufacturing principle which takes precedence over all others: Pontiac must always be a good car!

There is no other motor car quality which people value so much as goodness. That's why Pontiac engineers and production specialists spend so much time and energy and money to insure Pontiac quality. Pontiac cars must last long—and they must last well—and they must function through the years with a minimum of upkeep cost.

Owners have been quick to appreciate this. Some of the testimonials they send to the factory, and to Pontiac dealers, tell of performance feats that seem almost impossible of attainment.

Pontiac has many other outstanding virtues, of course. It is a wonderful performer. It is a delightfully comfortable and easy to handle. It is a great beauty, and unusually distinctive in appearance.

But its greatest virtue is goodness. This year, or any year, you just can't beat it for faithful performance.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE NEW YORK—The crown prince of the radio galaxy shows passed out more than $1 million a year. And this queer variety of wireless philanthropy pays Mark Goodson at the age of 33 more than the President of the United States gets. His net take is better than $100,000. How much better is his own secret. Goodson won a Phi Beta Kappa key at the University of California in 1937 for knowing the right answers. But today his six-figure income comes from asking questions on the air. He has six network quiz programs and is probably the most successful young radio producer in the business. Among his shows are "Hit The Jackpot," "Time's Award," "Winner Take All," and "Stop The Music." But today Goodson's invisible realm, like the British Empire, has its troubles. Comedian Fred Allen and the Federal Communications Commission are threatening to stop the music of his private cash register. The FCC has under consideration rules to ban or regulate programs which "but the audience" by inducing listeners to tune in chiefly in the hope of winning prizes. Allen is currently engaged in a one-man war against the give-aways. He has posted $5,000 bond to insure any of his listeners against the loss of any prize they might have won by listening to any rival program. Goodson thinks Allen's campaign is only a reflection of the comedian's annoyance because he has "Stop the Music" aired over a competing network, knocked the funnyman out of a top Hooper rating last spring. The most recent Hooper poll, however, showed Allen again ahead of the musical quiz show. "Frankly, I was flattered to have one of America's best comedians throwing rocks at us," said Goodson. "But we aren't going to throw any rocks back at him over the air. "We feel that the man at the dial is the one who should decide what he listens to not a comedian or a federal bureau. "It's my honest belief that quiz show audiences are considerably above the national average in intelligence and educational background."

Larry Parks Doesn't Want to Be Typed As an Al Jolson By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Far be it from Larry Parks to get typed as Al Jolson's film ego. He's seeking an action story for his next film. Under his new Columbia contract, Larry gets 35 weeks as a free agent after he finishes "Jolson Sings Again." He wants to use at least part of the time in producing his own pictures, which is the only way for a star to make real money in this town. Despite rising costs, the "Jolson" sequel will cost less than the sensational original. There will be no production numbers. Jolson's voice and Parks' face will have to put over the songs. Gene Kelly turned down a film treatment of the "Jolson" song-and-dance, famed theatrical team. MGM would have bought it for him, but Gene figures he's too young to play it now.
