Police Kill 11 Of Dead Man's 'Best Friends'

AVENUE N. J., Jan. 17 (AP)—Four policemen laid a shotgun and revolver siege today to a shack sheltering a pack of hunger-crazed dogs, killing 11 of them before they could remove the body of a man who in life had loved them but in death was powerless to aid.

William Blair Woodruff, tall, lean and 72, had little left in life except his dogs, and there were 13 of them. (In his pockets police found $8 and an expensive watch, perhaps a souvenir of the days when he was a moderately prosperous manufacturer.)

He had built an eight-foot corrugated metal fence around his shack so the dogs could not escape into the surrounding woods. And he had cut a hole in the one-room dwelling so they could come in as they pleased. It was in this 12-by-10 room that death overtook him, apparently from natural causes, several days ago.

Woodruff's income of late had depended on his work as a handyman at a diner on S. Route 1, New York-Philadelphia and metropolitan New Jersey traffic make this Woodruff's busiest highway, but the nation's police was missed along its fringe. Police went to his shack to investigate a dog.

Dozens of dogs ran barking between yard and house, fiercely threatening to attack at every advance by the officers. Captain Benjamin Parsons gained the roof and shot dogs which ran out of the building. Captain Jack Egan ripped a clapboard from the dwelling and pumped lead into dogs snarling and growling. Two patrolmen joined the fight.

When it was over, Woodruff's body was found inside the door. And on the table, in Woodruff's handwriting, were poems eulogizing dogs as man's true friends.

Mrs. Francis Brehme of Takoma Park, Md., daughter of the dead man, came here with her husband to make arrangements.

Nelson Cuts Red Tape And OPM Tangle

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Plans for a $400,000,000 to $600,000,000 relief appropriation for workers temporarily displaced by the shift to war time production came out of a white house conference today, while plans progressed for expediting the conversion process.

President Roosevelt discussed the relief problem with congressional leaders and obtained their agreement with apparent ease. The shift to war production, it was estimated, would throw 4,000,000 men out of work for varying periods of time.

While they are laid off they will receive 60 per cent of their normal salaries, to a maximum of $25.00 weekly. If they receive state unemployment compensation, the government is to make up the difference between that and the 60 per cent of salary standard. To be eligible for the payments, displaced workers will have to enroll for training in needed new skills.

Mr. Roosevelt, it was said, will transmit a message to congress on the subject next week, and legislation, originating in the house appropriations committee, will be introduced and pushed through as swiftly as possible.

Donald M. Nelson, the director of war production, meantime was understood to be perfecting plans for streamlining his organization, with a view to simplification and the elimination of any cumbersome administrative machinery that might hamper production by unnecessary red tape.

It appeared that the Office of Production Management would be virtually dissolved, a prospect made the more unmistakable by the transfer of William S. Knudsen, its director general, to the army with the job of seeing to it that industry produces the things the army needs.

Speculation was that Knudsen's principal task would be supervising the conversion of the automobile industry into a rapid-fire producer of airplanes, guns and tanks, a job for which he is considered eminently fitted.

His new post carries with it a commission as lieutenant general. Only two army officers outrank him—General George C. Marshall, the chief of staff, and General Douglas MacArthur, in command of American and Filipino forces in the Philippines.

PATRIOTISM PLUS is exemplified in the record of Darrel Hogsett, and of all the other Pampa News carriers, who have given other carriers—and other Pampans—an outstanding achievement to compete against, in selling $2,300 worth of defense stamps since December 20.

Leading the field for the past week is Darrel Hogsett, above, who ranks No. 1 in sales with $279. The carrier boys are volunteering their time to sell the stamps that buy ships, planes, and guns for America. They receive not one cent for this work; it's all in addition to the hard work they put in as carriers.

Finis Stilwell, assistant manager of the Griffith Amusement company's theaters, will leave next Saturday for Midland, where he and Mrs. Stilwell will make their new home, and where Mr. Stilwell has been promoted to assistant manager of the two Griffith theaters there.

Mr. Stilwell was chairman of the float committee for the 1941 'Top O' Texas Polka Fesiva. He is a member of the board of directors of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce. He was recently chosen as one of the three men to direct the 1942 celebration. He was publicity chairman of the 1941 Red Cross roll call here.

John Lewis Asks AFL-CIO Union
By JAMES J. STREIBIG
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—John L. Lewis called tonight for a joining of the CIO and AFL under "united and competent leadership," and met a ready response from President William Green of the AFL.

In an open letter to Green and President Phillip Murray of the CIO, Lewis said, "Labor imperatively requires coherency in order to give maximum assistance to the nation in its war effort to defend American liberties and American institutions."

He proposed a resumption of the negotiations between standing committees of the CIO and the AFL, which he himself caused to be broken off in April, 1939.

"Our peace committee stands ready to meet with a committee from the CIO at any time," Green replied in a statement.

Actress Returning From Bond Sale

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 17 (AP)—Brazilian Foreign Minister Oswaldo Aranha said tonight that the conference of American foreign ministers was "near agreement" on accepting the proposal for severance of relations—including diplomatic—with the Axis.

A proposal to this effect offered by Mexico, Colombia, and Venezuela has been opposed by Argentina. Aranha, who is chairman of the Pan American conference, told the Associated Press he was surprised the proposal had been published.

Chile's delegation here declined to throw any light on the subject and the Santiago regime's attitude is not expected to be clarified until today, Jan. 18, when the resolution sponsored by Colombia, Mexico, and Venezuela for a unanimous break with the Axis by all 21 American republics.

The resolution calling for a unanimous break with the Axis declared that Japanese, German and Italian aggression against the United States was part and parcel of their "concerted plans for world conquest."

The resolution, introduced yesterday but not made public until today, proposed further that western hemisphere nations consult with one another before re-establishing relations with the aggressors. It was presented by Colombian delegate Gabriel Turbay on behalf of the three sponsoring republics.

Boys Make Up Weight To Get In Air Corps

The United States Air Corps is, and always has been, the best in the world. Exemplifying that tradition is the action of two Pampa youths who were determined to join the air cadets and fight for their Uncle Sam.

They were Bob Bowerman and Bill Taylor, both employed in the composing room at The Pampa News. After the examining board was here but both were turned down because they were under weight, Bob by 10 pounds and Bill by five pounds.

But that didn't stop the pair. They started to drink water and eat bananas, and on Friday morning Bill had made the weight. He was jubilant, but soon his bubble was burst when the examining board revealed that one eye was weak.

Bill was told to rest that eye and in six weeks to try again. Bob tried to make the required weight early Friday afternoon, but failed. Undismayed, Bob continued to drink water and Friday night he was a half pound over the required weight. The rest of the way was easy, and Bob was enlisted as a cadet, subject to passing his mental test at a later date.

The examining board moved to Berger Saturday but found so many

Thirteen Panhandle Wells Given Open Flow Potentials

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 17 (AP)—Clarification and amendment of recent OPM orders restricting the use of oil field equipment was asked today in resolutions passed at a meeting of oil men from seven states.

The oil men, members of the production committee of district 2 of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator, asserted that confusion over the orders was causing serious delay in oil field operations.

Thirteen new wells were gauged and given open flow potentials in the Panhandle field last week. New oil added to the field potential totaled 2,838 barrels. Ten new locations were staked.

All wildcats in the field are drilling ahead with companies not issuing reports as to progress.

During the first 16 days of 1942, there have been 26 wells completed, all for oil, while only 15 locations have been staked, one of them a wildcat in southeastern Wheeler county, which is waiting the go-ahead signal from the Office of the Petroleum Co-ordinator.

Panhandle operators are still fighting for an increase in the price of crude, at least equal to that in the rest of the mid-continent area which is 10 cents a barrel more than that in the Panhandle. The operators claim that if given an increase in the price of crude they will be justified in cleaning out wells which will give them more production in this time when more oil is needed.

Gray county reported eight of the new wells and two of the new locations last week. Hutchinson county registered four new wells and eight locations. Carson had the other new completions.

Completions by counties follow:

In Carson County
Skelly Oil co., No. 144 Schaffer ranch, section 196, block 3, I&GN survey, gauged 68 barrels.

In Gray County
Skelly Oil co., No. 8 W. H. Taylor, section 7, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 70 barrels.

Dorsyann Oil co., No. 3 Bull, section 3, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 70 barrels.

Daniger Oil & Refineries, Inc., No. 26 Powell "B", section 28, block B-2, H&GN survey, was given a potential of 721 barrels.

Daniger Oil & Refineries, Inc., No. 24 Powell "C", section 28, block B-2, H&GN survey, tested 53 barrels.

Daniger Oil & Refineries, Inc., No. 5 McLaughlin, section 33, block B-2, H&GN survey, gauged 46 barrels.

E. B. Fringle No. 16 N. Vollmert, section 140, block 3, I&GN survey, was given a potential of 47 barrels.

Archie Carpenter Seeks Office Again

Archie Carpenter of LeFors, today authorized the Pampa News to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of County Commissioner of Precinct one, Gray county, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, July 25.

Mr. Carpenter has been a resident of Gray County for 15 years, all of that time spent at LeFors.

In announcing his candidacy Mr. Carpenter stated that he believed his past experience as a county commissioner makes him capable of conducting the duties of the office both to his precinct and to the county.

"I appreciate the support given me in the past and I again solicit the favor of voters of the precinct," Mr. Carpenter said.

Why is thrift more important now than ever?

DAILY WAR BOND $5 BILLION

In the first place America needs sums of money to fight the war. This will come from the sale of Defense Bonds to the public. Taxes are mounting and require thrift to be met in an orderly, sensible manner. Personal thrift is important to ward off inflation. Thrift is desirable because it is the opposite of spending, which would compete with our defense effort. It is a means of providing for emergencies that may arise during the war, and for the period of adjustment after peace comes. We welcome the accounts of earnest savers.

Oil Producer Hampered In His Assignment

Newspapers of oil producing states, alert to conditions in the industry, have been increasingly outspoken in recent weeks concerning the dilemma of the independent oil producer. A typical expression is that of Editor H. A. Meyer, of the Independence, Kansas, "Daily Reporter."

"The known oil reserves are being depleted because the combination of high costs of exploration and low price of crude discourages the venturesome wildcatter who must be depended upon to discover new stores of this vital necessity for modern war," said Mr. Meyer.

"Along with their other oil problems, oil producers are confronted with this dictum from Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Jakes: Step up oil output to 1,500,000,000 barrels a year; increase their drilling program to meet that requirement; operate that program on an efficient basis to avoid waste, and conduct explorations for new reserves—all of this to be done on limited supplies of equipment, and no mention made of an increased price for crude."

In this day of mechanical armies, swarms of warplanes and oil-burning warships, there is no question of war more important than the petroleum from which comes the lubricating oil for the machines and the gasoline to run them.

"No consideration of price control should be permitted to operate against ample production and an amount of exploration which would prevent any depletion of our reserves of oil."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (AP)—The stock market today finished a generally irregular week suffering mainly from "blue chip" sickness.

While the majority of declines were in neighborhood fractions, some of the high-priced group fell 1 to 3 points. Chemicals were principally affected. Ralls did fall by well and extreme declines, in most instances, were reduced at the close.

The ticker tape revealed the greater part of the time and transfers of 221,710 shares were the smallest for a brief session since the week ago.

The Associated Press average of 69 stocks was off 2 1/2 points at 377 1/2 on the week showed a net gain of 1. There were only 522 individual issues traded.

Rails were aided by forecast higher passenger and freight rates would soon be granted. Stocks, oils, rubbers, mail orders, aircrafts and coppers held to an extremely slim groove.

The Point, a soft spot yesterday, dropped more than 2 points at the worst and recorded a new 1941-42 bottom. It eventually halved the setback. Eastman Kodak was down 3/4, Dow Chemical 2 1/2 and Nat Dairy 1 3/8.

Finishing slightly ahead were Santa Fe, N. Central, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, Goodyear, Phillips Dodge and Air Reduction.

Bonds and commodities steadied after early buoyancy.

In a static curb market signs were shown for American, Gulf Oil, Aluminum of America and Panhandle. Humble Oil led up a shade, along with Electric Bond & Am T&T.

Gray County Bar Elects Officers

Officers of the Gray County Bar association for 1942 were elected at a meeting held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the 31st district courtroom in Pampa.

Newton P. Willis was elected as president, succeeding William Jarrell Smith. Elected as vice-president was Clayton Haire of Shamrock, a director during the past year. R. F. Gordon, Pampa city attorney, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

New directors are W. R. Ewing, 31st district judge, County Judge Sherman White, and John V. Osborne, all of Pampa, and J. E. Kinney of Miami.

Although technically called the Gray County association, membership includes lawyers over a wide area. It has been decided to invite membership from the 31st and 84th districts. There is no bar association in the latter area, which includes Borger, Canadian, Spearman, and Perryton.

Due to the war, the annual banquet, ordinarily held in December was cancelled last month. At the meeting yesterday morning there was a discussion of holding a smoker once each month or each six weeks, but no action was taken. There were 16 lawyers attending the meeting, all but two of Pampa.

The Associated Press, however, said the ships were the 7,872-ton Italian steamer Duchessa D'Aosta and two German freighters owned in Hamburg but not otherwise identified. It said the attack occurred at midnight, Jan. 14.

Although drawn from the Arriba report, the German broadcast called the raid a British violation of Spanish neutrality, contending "there is no excuse in the fact that the attacking British destroyer was manned with De Gaulleists."

Kiwanis Club President Names 1942 Committees

Chairman of club committees and club officers will be instructed in their duties when a meeting of Kiwanis officers and chairmen is held at 7:30 o'clock on the night of January 23. The place is to be announced later.

Notice of the meeting was given at the Pampa Kiwanis club's regular weekly luncheon at noon Friday.

The program consisted of a talk by Captain Perry Euchner, head of the army examining board, in Pampa last week to examine prospective recruits for the U. S. air corps.

Dan F. Williams, chairman of the Pampa Keep 'Em Flying club, introduced the group, which consisted of Captain Euchner, from Fort Bliss, and Captain Hensley S. Johnson, medical corps, Lieutenant Dan Bray, Jr., Sergeant J. T. Hukabay and L. W. Bobb, and Private C. M. Grigg, all from Goodfellow field.

Received as a transfer member of the Pampa club was Marion Allen, formerly of Canadian and Amarillo. Kenneth Carman, Sain Houston school principal, was welcomed as a new member.

Attendance at the luncheon totaled 54. Warren Finley of Pampa was a guest.

Flight D Will Take Instruction This Morning

Members of Flight D, Texas Defense Guard, aviation branch, will meet at 9 o'clock this morning at the municipal airport for their first instruction in checking, servicing, and tying down airplanes.

Other weekly meetings will be held on Tuesday night with a non-commissioned officers' meeting on Friday nights.

While the order came through for Sunday morning instruction, Captain Foster Fletcher anticipates little trouble in getting the time changed to afternoon, by next Sunday, in order to eliminate any conflict with church services.

As very little night flying will be done here, any training around airplanes must be in the daytime, therefore Sunday is the only day available for such training.

Selection of non-commissioned officers of the local flight will be announced at this morning's meeting.

Induction of the enlisted men of the flight was held Friday night at the high school. Conducting the ceremony were Major Art Hawks, Amarillo, commanding the 11th squadron, Captain Jack Lister, a flight commander, and Captain Ed Foxall, commanding B flight. The three are from the headquarters staff.

Governor Must Be Consulted Before Blackout Is Held

Mayors of Texas cities desiring to hold practice blackouts must now contact the governor first, instead of going ahead on their own, according to a memorandum addressed to county and municipal defense coordinators from Governor Coke Stevenson.

Only one blackout has been held to date in Pampa. The demonstration was held on the night of September 28.

The new blackout plan, as announced by the governor, calls for mayors to contact the governor, who is chairman of the Texas defense committee.

After that, the governor will immediately transmit these requests to the regional office of civilian defense and that agency will notify the third interceptor command of the army air force.

A copy of these instructions was received here by County Judge Sherman White. The judge, who is county defense coordinator, also received a memorandum from the regional office of civilian defense stating that civilians should not seek to buy equipment providing protection against air raids until directed to do so by the air raid wardens in the area where they reside.

Gene Worley Did The Only Thing He Could Do

A few people who are criticizing Congressman Gene Worley for joining the navy should reserve their opinion until all the facts are known. It is expected that Gene will soon make a statement regarding his duties as a lieutenant commander, and it is only fair that people await a statement on his true plans.

One of his critics said that he "was sorry that Gene felt he should enlist in the armed forces." Practically everybody agrees that Gene did the only thing he could do. While he was running for office he said in every speech that if he voted for war he felt that it would be his duty to join the armed forces.

If Gene had not offered his services to his country he would have been in the unsavory position of repudiating a vital campaign promise which the people took seriously. As for his joining the navy as a lieutenant commander, he had nothing to do with the rank given him. They wouldn't take him in the army because he was a married man and because he was more than 28, and they turned him down for the air force.

A number of other members of congress were definitely rejected. Gene asked only for active service. The grade in the navy they gave him was neither requested nor expected. They just put him where they wanted him and he did what they said, which is, one supposes, the way things should be run.

Besides that, Gene had a time-honored and popular precedent to go by: Marvin Jones who joined the army and continued to let his able office force run his office with remote control suggestions from Marvin.

The Nation's Press

THE BRIDGES BAROMETER (Chicago Tribune)

Astute students of foreign relations look to Harry Bridges to discover how we are getting along with Russia. These days we are getting along nicely as is indicated by the finding of the board of immigration appeals, which has just reversed the recommendation of Judge Charles B. Sears that Bridges be deported to his native Australia as an undesirable alien.

Bridges has long served as a barometer. It may be true, as the appeals board says, that Harry does not follow the party line—altogether there is room for a reasonable doubt—but there is no question that the administration's treatment of him follows the developments of foreign policy. If everything is dandy between Washington and Moscow, we are most kind indeed to Harry. But if there happen to be flies in the ointment, the New Deal promptly rediscovers that Harry is a Red. How red he happens to be at any given moment is a matter of caprice, like the changing shades of fingernail polish.

In 1934, a year after Mr. Roosevelt had reversed the foreign policy of 16 years by granting recognition to Russia, Harry was privileged to the west coast shipping in knots with his longshoremen's strike. The shippers howled for action, but Mrs. Perkins just smiled enigmatically like Mona Lisa, the resemblance ending with her hat.

Common Ground

I speak the plain-world proverb, I give the star of Democracy. By God! I will accept nothing which all cannot have their counterpart of on the same terms. WALT WHITMAN.

CONSISTENCY WITH WHAT?

A reader challenges my consistency. He contends his statements are freer from contradiction and more consistent than mine. It is not important, of course, whether another man is more consistent than I am; it is important whether or not I am consistent.

I will admit that I am not consistent, if blindly following the lead of those who happen to be in control of the government, is the test of consistency. The critic seems to use as a test of consistency the endorsement of the present Federal officials in their foreign policies.

If our people do not have a right, but also a duty, to let our leaders know whether we want tariffs, immigration laws, discrimination against nations and wars, then we truly do not have a government with the consent of the governed. Then we do not have a true democracy, but a collectivist state where the state tells the citizens what they must do.

The critic seems to think his wisdom and that of our officeholders has been vindicated from the fact that we are in war. I only hope time will not prove that his confidence in our leaders was not misplaced.

I will be under great obligation to the critic, or any other reader, who will point out where I have contradicted myself from the principle that all men should be equal before God and before the law.

Certainly, error in judgment as to the time we were attacked is not proof of inconsistency and contradictions.

Will the critic set forth the rule, the immutable law, with which he has been consistent?

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S STANDARD OF FAIRNESS

The Associated Press carries a news item out of New York, stating that Mrs. Roosevelt had received her money back for three theater tickets because the theater was being picketed. She is quoted as saying, "I can't cross a picket line, fair or unfair."

This is not surprising to people who have observed Mrs. Roosevelt. She evidently has no standard of rightness, other than what the changeable will of labor unions dictate. No matter how unfair picket lines may be, she sides against the employer by refusing to patronize him. She, in reality, says "you must acquiesce to any demands made by labor unions, no matter how oppressive it is to some labor, or I will not patronize you."

We are fighting oppression in foreign lands, but the head lady, instead of fighting them here, sides with them. We could not expect much more from her. Anything that will make her appear to be humanitarian and keep her in the limelight, she will do. The city is that so many people have the same standard of rightness—that is, that organized labor can do no wrong.

If Mrs. Roosevelt were a woman of honor, she would bow her head in shame to have made the statement that she would not pass through a picket line, fair or unfair. It demonstrates that she has no immutable standard of fairness which she will live by.

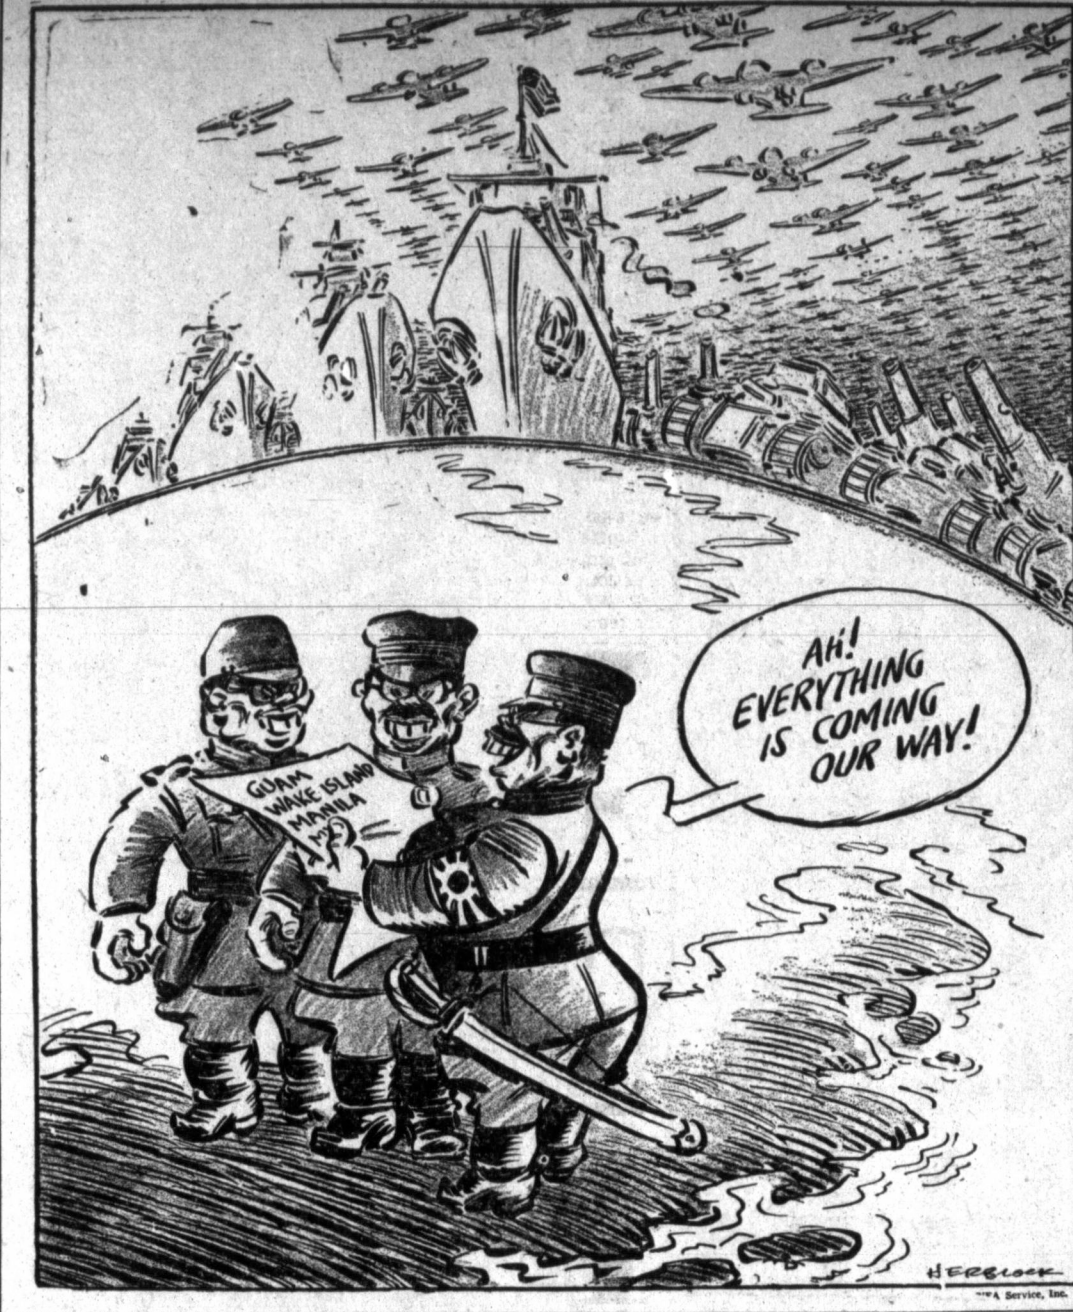

FACTS DISPEL FEARS

HYSTERIA HAS NO PLACE HERE (Los Angeles Examiner)

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, heeding the constructive instructions of President J. A. Hartley, has launched a campaign of factual truth telling to quash promptly and permanently the exaggerated fears and alarms that have arisen in other parts of the country regarding Southern California's situation in the Pacific war.

"What is the best answer to calm the unreasoning fears of people in other states—people who have planned to do business here or make investments or come as tourists or convention delegates? The best answer is the truth. To tell the truth about Southern California's position and service in an hour of real need," said Mr. Hartley. "Southern California is 6000 miles from the nearest enemy base. We feel as safe as the Atlantic coast, which is 3000 miles from the nearest enemy."

THEY DON'T KNOW THE HALF OF IT

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON NEA Service Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 17—This is, as may have been observed before, a funny town. It is almost as odd as the industry supporting it. It's the only place in the world where you can see a cowboy, completely costumed to sixgun and spurs, riding a bicycle. Or a woman wearing pajamas and a mink coat on a shopping trip.

Actually, Hollywood isn't a town, but an unmarked, indistinguishable hunk of northwest Los Angeles with no official status except for a branch post office. Incidentally, after the new post office was built and dedicated, it was discovered you couldn't mail a letter there. At least, it had no letter drops.

Hollywood has four movie studios, but most of the pictures are made in Culver City, Beverly Hills, Burbank, Universal City and North Hollywood. The latter is a civic entity with its own mayor and cops. Scarcely any real stars live in Hollywood, and not a single prominent movie personality lives on famed Hollywood Boulevard.

Except for a half a dozen office buildings, three department stores and four big theaters, the boulevard's business section is mostly one-story shops in which a cinema queen wouldn't be caught dead. Cheap perfumes, frocks and cosmetics sold to be like those worn by your favorite stars. Sight-seeing buses, and a shoeshine by a Negro in top hat and tail coat.

This midway is a mile and a half in length. Tourists drive slowly, bump fenders and jam traffic as they peer at the pedestrians, some of whom are extras and chorus cuties who deliberately make themselves up to look like stars. Five fancy colleges flourish in flash second-story quarters on the boulevard. There are several dancing schools, a couple of figure-forming establishments, and a brasserie factory.

At the intersection of the boulevard and Western avenue (which is over to the east) is the building occupied by the Producers Association and the Hays Office. Sculptured into the balconies and cornices are small figures of considerable more nudity than the Hays Office would allow to be photographed on a movie set.

AUTRY UNKNOWN

Until a few months ago, one of the four or five biggest box office attractions in movies was virtually unknown in Hollywood, and none of his pictures ever had been shown on the boulevard. The star is Gene Autry. Finally one of the smaller theaters renamed itself the Hitching Post, began showing nothing but westerns, and has been jam-packed ever since.

Fortune tellers flourish here, advertising their intimacy with the stars and spirits with Neon signs. On the lawns of private houses are signs offering all manner of baths, massages, reducing treatments, bust development and hair dyeing. Incidentally, Hollywood is the only place where nobody is surprised when a man asks for a permanent wave.

Dismal little night spots and cocktail bars are scattered pretty much all over Hollywood. They're always giving, broke, changing hands, and being raided for selling drinks after 3 a. m. On Vine street, just south of the boulevard, begins the real night club row, where a few plushy establishments, including the busy Brown Derby, are mingled with honky-tonk drinkeries, and where movie celebrities really touch elbows with the big-talking little chisellers and the would-be and has-beens who are the colorful fringes of the picture industry.

People You Know

By Archer Fullingim Early in December, when all the troop trains were coming through here, Foster Kliner, son of Eli Kliner of Pampa, threw a letter addressed to this columnist off one of the trains. He was en route to the Pacific coast from Port Benning, Ga. Well, last week, his folks received a letter from Foster and he was in Hawaii.

A hobby of Mayor Bill Walker and Mrs. Walker of Shamrock is children, just kids, if you want to put it that way. They are personally interested in the progress and well-being of scores of kids, and down in Shamrock their neighbors say the Walkers do a lot for youngsters—though you couldn't drag it out of the Walkers. But tell-tale evidence of this hobby are the dozens of pictures of youths massed on a wall of their appetizing dining room, and I do mean appetizing. It's not just an ordinary dining room. One wouldn't want to eat too fast in it—though one might eat too much. It's made out of knotty pine (it may have been cedar), and it has low lounging chairs in it and a divan, and a lot of windows that face the east. You have to go through the kitchen to get to it, and Bill and the Missus can look through the windows and see their two large blue-blooded white collie dogs. Boy, that's the most practical and most inviting dining room I ever saw. Some of these days I'm going to try to wheedle an invitation out of the Walkers to eat a meal in that dining room.

The last time I went to Oklahoma to see my Uncle Bunch, who lives at Mountain Park. The fellow who was with me, named Clifford Alexander, of Stafford, Okla., wanted to stop at every honky-tonk and cafe to play the Tulsa Toscanini's (Bob Wills) version of "I'm Walking the Floor Over You" on the juke box, and I heard it so much it's now my favorite song, and to the funny person who sent this column a petition wanting it banned from local juke boxes, I'd like to say to him that I'd put that song up any day in a week against "Alexander Is a Swouse!"

Early in December, when all the troop trains were coming through here, Foster Kliner, son of Eli Kliner of Pampa, threw a letter addressed to this columnist off one of the trains. He was en route to the Pacific coast from Port Benning, Ga. Well, last week, his folks received a letter from Foster and he was in Hawaii.

Next step was simply to set up a factory in Mexico. The concentrates were diluted and properly mixed, and from the Mexican plant could be shipped at will to "dummy" receivers in other Latin American countries, what then turned out to be the products to the old distributors.

THE CORK SINKS

Washington Lawyer Tommy Corcoran's reputation as a great miracle worker and fixer was thrown for a reasonable doubt in the case which the ex-brain trust tried to handle. One of Tommy's prize clients was a company with considerable business in South America, trading with firms which were blacklisted. Tommy tried to get the names of these agents removed from the list of blocked nationals, and made one call in the Commerce building with that objective. The net result was that when the next blacklist was published, the names of other agents of his client were added for the first time.

TINGING JOB

The problems of retreading tires continues to pile up. Best guess now is that there are about 4,500 shops in the country equipped to retread tires, and they have about 10,000 machines available in the country for the recapping job. Working 24 hours a day, each machine can retread six new tires. Allowing for breakdowns and a few holidays, the maximum capacity would be about 20 million tires a year.

FAST RUBBER

Two systems of planting and harvesting guayule must be tested this year before any definite estimates can be made as to how much raw rubber can be obtained from this California bush. Under the one system, if 75,000 acres are planted to guayule this year, then harvested for seed and replanting only, at the end of four years there might be harvested 75,000 tons of raw rubber. The rule of thumb is one ton of rubber per acre after four years.

Behind The News In Washington

By PETER EDSON WASHINGTON, Jan. 16—The big question now is how fast and how much the automobile industry can convert to war production. In that connection, listen to a little story from William S. Knudsen, head of OPM.

"I used to be the president of General Motors up to a year and a half ago, and we had two factories in Germany. One was a truck factory in Brandenburg; the other was a car factory near Welsbad and Brunselsheim, which made 130,000 passenger cars a year.

"The passenger car factory that had 22,000 employees was shut down. The men were carried everywhere. The forging machines were put to work making small forgings and airplane parts and 2,000 women were put into plants making airplane parts. That made a total of about 4,000 people out of the 22,000 they had before. The balance were carted away to some other place."

This statement from Knudsen, made before Congressman Tolson's committee investigating defense migration, may give a tip on some of the difficulties to be encountered in the conversion of the auto industry to total war production, which is being boomed so enthusiastically by the Washington amateur production experts who have now become more numerous than military experts.

It is Knudsen's belief that the English method of bits and pieces manufacture has not been successful, and that direct subcontracting by the procurement branches of the services would scatter responsibility and require a thousand inspectors to follow up the execution of the subcontracting. And the danger of the "explosion" of exploding model plane or tank and having various manufacturers produce parts is that when the product is assembled, according to Knudsen, "it might explode in the wrong way."

NAZI PILL PUSHERS

All kinds of slick efforts are being uncovered to beat the "blacklist" barring Latin American firms supposed to have Axis leanings from trading with United States concerns. One of the smoothest was used by a drug manufacturing company whose supplies had been important German connections.

When this company was prevented from making shipments of proprietary pills and medicines to the German agents below the Rio Grande, it hurried the restriction by preparing containers of the drugs and shipping them by air in small packages valued at less than $10 each. Export licenses aren't required for shipments valued at less than $10, so the stuff went through in a hurry and there was nothing that could be done to stop it.

"What happened when the burglars broke into your home?" asked Mr. Jones of his neighbor. "My wife's relatives yelled, 'We were here first!' and chased them out."

A FAMOUS alienist was visiting Bermuda and a certain prominent official happened to meet him. The official, after discovering that the alienist was an authority, not on immigration, but on the mentally unsound, asked:

"Doctor, how do you really tell if a person is insane?"

"Oh, we merely ask him a few ordinary questions which ordinary people can answer correctly."

"What type of question?"

"Well," replied the alienist, "this is the sort of thing a Captain Cook made three voyages round the world and died on one of them, which was it?"

"Oh, I say," objected the official, "I think that's a bit steep. I'm not very good at history."

DO YOU know that there is one school of thought which thinks we should forget Pearl Harbor instead of remember it? . . . That's because it was such a debacle and disgrace to U. S. and because it was allowed to happen. . . . Well, would you say that it probably should be remembered if for no other reason than to see that it doesn't happen again. . . . It has just occurred to us that the Army might like to use women's hats for camouflage purposes. . . . They say there is a new invention just out—a barber chair with a seat for the barber, too. . . . Wonder if it has sound attachments? . . . When the Japanese finally get smart to their ABC's (American, British, Chinese, and Dutch) they'll find. . . . The government is conserving the supply of lead. . . . Ought to get a pretty good pile of it from people who have it in their shoes.

They will follow Hitler as long as he seems to be victorious, but with their fingers crossed. If disasters come, if they face defeat, then the latent, hidden distrust will rise quickly to the surface. Then the moral defeats of the Nazi system will be felt in widespread betrayal and repudiation of National Socialism. . . . And look what's happening in Russia. . . . That ain't no victory!"

IT HAD to come some time. We have had a detective stories with scenes laid in hotels, summer resorts, offices, public libraries, homes, and ships. Now comes one whose action takes place in an insane asylum, with most of the witnesses mad. . . . Far be it from us to draw any invidious inferences. However, the world of mystery stories has always been more or less topsy-turvy. . . . We doubt very much if the police force of Pampa or any other town, would be willing to sit at the feet of any book-detective, no matter how gifted. Maybe the lunatic asylum is where the whole detective story idea started. . . . But for some strange reason mystery fiction gives release and refreshment to some of the sanest and strongest minds.

Teacher Scores A Cappella Singing In Texas As 'Whispering, Mooring'

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Are you tired of the "whispering and mooring" which so many of our young people are doing in the name of a cappella singing? Do you yearn to hear honest choral singing in which students open their mouths and sing with their natural voices? If so, you will enjoy the following article in "The Texas Outlook," written by Wm. R. Dawes, a teacher of music theory. It was re-printed this week in The McLean News.

The article follows: "What we in this state need is a savior—a savior for honest choral singing. We need it badly and we need it quickly. Irreparable damage is being done now in our schools and colleges.

The children in our section of the country have as fine voices as can be found anywhere. They also speak the English language as well as, and in many respects better, than is spoken in other sections of the country.

And what is being required of them? In the first place, they are not permitted to sing English. They are required to sing a mixture between English vowels and German umlaut vowels. "A" should be a diphthong combining "eh" and "ee" in the English language, but choral tone, so we are told, requires that it be made a combination of "oo," "eh," and "ee." "I" in the English language, is a diphthong combining "ah" and "ee." But the choral experts require it to be sung "oi." Before they're done, they'll have our young people mooring their songs like Daisy, the cow.

Second, the children are required to sing everything a cappella. The voice is used as its own accompaniment. And when so used, it is invariably treated as an instrument. And when treated as an instrument it ceases to sing, it vocalizes. And when it vocalizes, it is detached from the human being who owns it and used for effects to astound the public and aggrandize the choral director.

Our children deserve better than that! They know it, too. I've seen them rebel at choral clinics when some tradition-bound expert tries to pound a dozen choral tricks into them in one rehearsal. I've seen them cuss and get up and walk out, and I glory in their spunk. I wish they had their own music teachers as much guts.

The choral experts who come to us from out-of-state have the opportunity of twenty thousand lifetimes. (I'm talking about the children's lives, not the directors'.) If they just had sense enough to realize that they're treading on virgin soil and chuck the choral traditions that they learned like parrots from somebody else who learned them in Russia or Scandinavia or England, and learn something from these American children, they could revitalize the choral singing of the whole nation.

Another crime against honest choral singing to which our students are subjected is the inevitable "rush-jerk"—the long drawn-out pianissimo—with absolutely no justification in the words or the score, and in many cases in absolute negation of the words and score. The choral specialist makes all choral literature, honest and otherwise, fit the same sequence of effects which he expounds.

Artistic integrity! Human integrity! Educational integrity! Where do they enter into it? Well, most of these redoubtable choral experts are definitely not educators, few of them are artists, and our young people have far more human integrity than these choral ditties—and they sense it!

Every time a new man has been brought into the growing music departments of our institutions of higher learning, I have hoped that the Messiah had arrived; that someone with the voice of authority, before whom we all bend the knee, would take advantage of the freedom from tradition and do away with the choral trickery and sham, and forgo a little personal vanity in order that the poem and the music might speak to the child and stir the childish imagination and fire their willing hearts. But, no; without exception they are tradition-bound. Ego is in their right fist, effects is in their left, and with the two they pound their youthful subjects into justifiable indifference or revolt.

If the whispering and mooring which so many of our young people are doing in the name of a cappella singing is a true reflection of the spirit of our youth, then we need more than just a choral savior.

But it can't be. It must not be. Won't somebody with the proper authority please wake up and champion honest choral singing in our schools?

Treasury Receives Marshall Check

MARSHALL, Jan. 17 (AP)—The treasury department in Washington today acknowledged receipt of a check for $549.61 from the Marshall a-penny-a-plane club with these words:

"The patriotism evidenced by you is a source of great gratification to your government."

Marshall has contributed more than $644 to the government for the purchase of planes.

The treasury department also said that "while your donation can not be set apart for the purchase of planes, the effect will be the same inasmuch as your contribution has been credited to miscellaneous receipts donations to the U. S. for national defense and becomes a part of a fund from which planes are purchased."

It Was Sad Business At Gable's Ranch

ENCINO, Calif., Jan. 17 (AP)—A sad-faced negro butler wandered around the Clark Gable's model ranch today, so overcome by grief that he was unable to perform his regular duties.

A negro maid, hoarse from crying, was almost unable to answer the telephone; it rang every few minutes.

"I can't believe it," they said over and over again. "I can't believe Mrs. Gable won't be back."

In the stables, the favorite mounts of Carole and Clark seemed restless. On former mornings the ranch has abounded with gaiety. Carole and Clark usually hastened through breakfast to see who'd be the first outside to drive the tractor. Carole fed the chickens while Gable—"Pa" or "Pappy" as she called him—curried the horses and performed other chores.

The ranch, 20 miles from Hollywood, is small and Gable is no gentleman farmer. He has help, but he took an active part in the work. When she was free, Carole always helped.

Home Economists At Canadian Form Group For Defense

CANADIAN, Jan. 17—A half dozen graduate home economists met Tuesday night in the office of Miss Vivian Winston, Hemphill county home demonstration agent, to discuss what they might do to help in defense work.

Miss Winston was named chairman for the group and Miss Georgia Engle, secretary. Others present were Mmes. John Stovall, H.

E. Hill, W. H. Drake, and C. W. Allen.

Other home economists in Hemphill county who will likely add their strength to the group are Mmes. Carl Studer, Lee Kilker, Meeks, Harry Wilbur, Jr., and C. W. Britie.

A monthly meeting was planned for the duration of the war. An all-day meeting the first Saturday in February was planned at which time a program of much helpful information about the use of foods, their preparation, and the best combinations, and conserving food while supplying needed vitamin content will be given.

The Women's club, of which Miss Georgia Engle is president, will join with the home demonstration clubs for this all-day program.

Today's War Analysis

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Wide World War Analyst

Six weeks from its grim opening in the Pacific that war area still grips major American attention but the most important and possibly decisive front of the Axis-Allied conflict still is in Russia.

The Red armies opened a new and little publicized offensive on a wide front northwest of the Moscow sector this week which could prove more disastrous for Hitler than any other phase of his great winter retreat. His whole grip on northwestern Russia, from the great bend of the Dnieper west of Smolensk to the Baltic, is menaced by Russian thrusts.

Like Ilnen, southwest of Leningrad, the Valdai plateau, south of the lake, and the springs of the Volga river on the southern slopes of the plateau, are vital strong points for the whole northern flank of the German winter line. Down the Volga the northern flanks merges with the Moscow central sector in the Rzhev region.

That upper sector, from Rzhev to the Volkhov river north of Lake Lamen, is the most rugged and difficult for military operations in all western Russia. Despite that and the added handicap of a Russian winter, Red armies have developed within the last week attacks of even greater strategic potentialities than the grinding battle of the Moshaisk bulge before Moscow.

Except for the Russian drive which broke the German hold on Rostov and Russian re-entry into the Crimea by sea, nowhere on the Russian front are there such dazzling possibilities of decisive action as in the Rzhev-Volkhov sector.

A deep Russian break-through either above or below Lake Ilnen, down the Lovat valley south of the lake, or along the southern flank of the Valdai plateau would leave the whole German line about Leningrad up in the air. It could force Nazi retreat from all northwestern Russia into Esthonia through the narrow land corridor between Lake Peipus and the Baltic at the Russian-Esthonian border.

County-Wide Bangle Sale To Be Planned

To plan a county-wide sale of bangles, a meeting of Pampa school officials and the president and treasurer of the Gray County Tuberculosis association has been called for 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the office of L. L. Stone, superintendent of the Pampa Independent school district.

Supt. Stone's office is located in the Junior High school building, formerly the high school.

At the meeting, superintendent will outline plans for the sale of the double-barred red celluloid crosses to the principals of Pampa schools.

W. E. James is president and W. B. Weathered, county superintendent of schools, is treasurer of the Gray County Tuberculosis association. One of these men will visit schools over the county in the interest of the sale.

President James said Saturday sale of Christmas seals had reached a total of $1,200, and that he hoped to conclude the association's campaign by February 1.

Proceeds of the sale of bangles, like proceeds from the sale of seals, goes for the purpose of tuberculosis prevention and cure within Gray county.

That Appointed Explosives Licensing Agent For County

County Clerk Charlie Thut received notice yesterday of his appointment as explosives licensing agent for Gray county, under a law passed by congress on December 26 of last year.

The appointment means that all sales of explosives within the county will be subject to licenses issued by the county clerk. A fee of 25 cents is charged for each license.

Not included in the term explosives are cartridges for small arms or shotguns.

Purpose of the law is to regulate the purchase, sale and use of explosives to the end that accidents may be reduced and anti-sabotage measures enforced.

Appointment of the county clerk was by R. R. Sayres, director of the bureau of mines, U. S. department of the interior.

PAMPA BEATS THALIA 34-26 TO WIN SHAMROCK MEET

Borger Girls Rap Mobeetie In Thriller

The up-and-down, off-and-on Harvester basketball team which some nights looks like a million dollars and other nights like two cents, looked like the million last night when it flashed over a valiant, understated Thalia team 34 to 26, to win the Shamrock basketball tournament and the $25 Defense Bond that went with the victory.

The Borger Redbirds were lucky to nose out Mobeetie 23 to 22 to win the girls' title and a bond of the same amount.

The most valuable girl player of the tournament was Velma Fickett of Mobeetie, chosen unanimously, James Adkins of Thalia was unanimously chosen the most valuable boy player in the meet in which more than 20 teams competed.

Adkins won a guard position on the all-district team, which included Johnson of Thalia, forward; Scott, Lakewick, forward; Flanagan, Pampa, center; McBeth, Thalia, guard; and Halter Pampa, guard.

The all-star girls team had Vann of Borger, Taylor of Borger, Miller of Borger, Shelton of Mobeetie, Fickett of Mobeetie, and Clay of Kellon.

Borger's Bulldogs who nosed out the Harvesters Tuesday night at Borger, 21-19, lost in the first round to Lakeview, but came back to beat McLean 33 to 22 for the consolation prize.

The most valuable players received $5 in Defense Stamps. The consolation winner and runner-up each received $10 in Defense Stamps.

In the semi-finals Pampa defeated Kirkland, and Thalia defeated Lakeview. Previously, Thalia smothered Memphis, Kirkland nosed out Shamrock, and LeFors wrecked Canadian. Pampa beat McLean in the first round, 38 to 28.

Coach Francis Smith of LeFors and Stina Cain officiated.

The Thalia team from Ford county, the "Lil Darlins" that played here two years ago, was the people's choice. They were small but they passed brilliantly, and passed with a split-vision that was uncanny.

The Harvesters looked like champions in every game despite the loss of Tom Cox, starting forward, who was dropped from the team Friday. Flanagan, who couldn't hit the hoop against Borger, and Halter, more than made up for their performance against Borger—except that the Borger game counted and the Shamrock tourney didn't.

However, the Harvesters now feel confident they have Borger's number and will smash the Bulldogs when they return the game here.

On top of the standings in the district conference race is Amarillo who Friday night nosed out the Westerners in an overtime game at Lubbock. The Sandies are undefeated, but the Harvesters are now poised to assume the role of giant-killers.

Nelson Clings To Lead In Tourney

By RUSSELL NEWLAND OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 17 (AP)—Cracking par and the hopes of his rivals for par and the hopes of his rivals for the third successive day, Byron Nelson raked up a 89 and a three-round total of 205 today to cling to his lead in the 72-hole $5,000 Oakland Open Gold tournament.

The two-time national champion—Open and P.G.A.—left no doubts as to who was the best golfer in a field of more than 100 hot-shots. He coupled sensational performance with some duffer brand golf but in the end walked off the 18th fairway still holding a four-stroke advantage over his closest rival.

LeFors Wins 8 Out Of 10 Ring Bouts From Memphis

LEFORS, Jan. 17 (NS)—LeFors high school boxers opened the 1942 school boxing season by winning eight out of 10 bouts from Memphis boxers Friday night in the LeFors high school gymnasium which was packed for the occasion.

The card was studded with brilliant exhibitions of boxing and slugging, no less than six bouts ending in knockouts or technical knockouts.

In the only exhibition of the night, Bob Delver of LeFors ran into one of Leo Thompson's pet lefts in the closing seconds of the fight and was on his back at the gong.

The program opened with Jack Carey of LeFors taking a decision from Adair Gilbert. Then Bobby Dunn worked like a trip-hammer to outpoint Eddie Gilchrist. Eugene Cooper was having trouble with Clark Hubbard until he switched from the head to the body and the LeFors boy won by the TKO route.

Lovell Hughes worked his pet uppercut to the right advantage to drop Clark Hubbard. Noel Clemmons gave LeFors its third straight TKO by dropping Blackie Gilchrist. Donald McLaughlin, always a defensive fighter, stunned the large home crowd when he turned on the power and parked one on Leslie Brown to end the fight early.

All that happened before intermission and Memphis hadn't won a fight.

The second half opened with Coach Toby Waggoner presenting a new boxer named Allan Krause and he immediately became a crowd pleaser by defeating Bill Bolls. It was Krause's first fight.

W. L. Hughes became the first LeFors fighter to lose when Coach Waggoner threw in the towel in his fight with W. H. Maxwell. Walton Hughes, ace of the LeFors team, beat Joe Lewis' record when he kayeod Weldon Grimes in 15 seconds with a single blow to the right spot.

Jackie Jackson was the other LeFors fighter who bowled out before Troy Romines in a nip and tuck battle.

Big Name Athletes Dime A Dozen At Norfolk Station

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 17 (AP)—In the interest of safety on the front, athletic opponents of the Norfolk "navy" training station would like to see its teams labeled plainly: "Danger—high explosives."

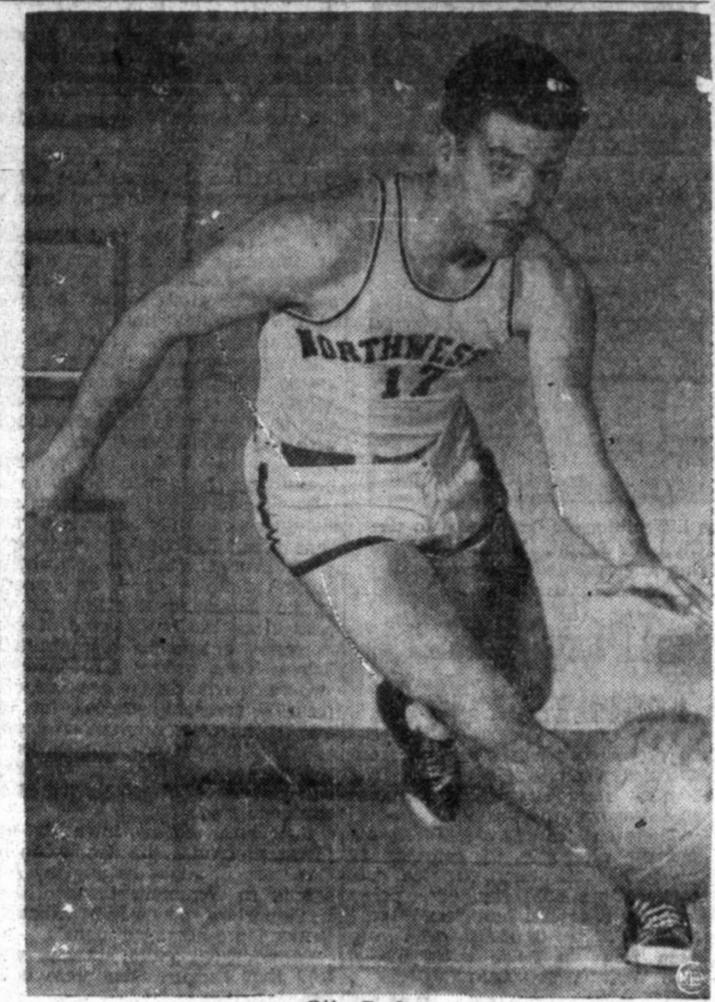

Big name athletes are a dime-a-dozen here these days, nearly all of them entering the service under Gene Tunney's physical fitness program. Fitcher, Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians reported here. So did boxer Fred Apostol and footballers Don Vossberg of the New York Giants and Dan Hill, captain of Duke's 1938 Rose Bowl team.

Billy Conn, challenger for the heavyweight boxing title, probably will be sent here if and when he enlists, and Claude Corbit, tagged for shortstop duties with the Brooklyn Dodgers, is expected shortly.

The naval training station basketball team has lost but one game in 15 starts, playing against the stiffest opposition available. The first team includes Ed Jucker and Dick Powell of the University of Cincinnati, and Don Blemer and Clayton Reckenback of Purdue, all regulars at college. Blemer was to have captained Purdue's 1941-42 team.

Baseball? The post team won 66 and lost 12 last season—an average of 846—and accumulated a winning streak of 33 in a row.

Plans are being discussed now for a possible service baseball league, which would include Camp Lee at Petersburg, Va., Fort Eustis at Williamsburg, Va., Camp Pendleton at Virginia Beach, Va., and the naval training station. Proponents think it would produce some fine baseball, arguing that many minor leaguers and at least a few major league players are stationed at the various camps.

Otto Graham

Northwestern's Graham Follows Football Success In Basketball

By BURTON BENJAMIN NEA Service Staff Correspondent NEW YORK, Jan. 15—Hoopla from Hoopville!

GRAHAM CRACKER: Hottest item in the Western conference basketball belt is Northwestern's Otto Graham, fresh from football triumphs.

In his first six games automatic Otto scored 106 points for an average of 17 2-3 points per game.

Basketball devotees are comparing him to another Northwestern great, Joe Reiff, who starred in 1931, '32 and '33, and was instrumental in bringing the Wildcats their only two conference titles.

Dutch Lonborg's lightly-regarded quintet—his 1941 edition finished ninth with three victories against nine losses—opened its conference schedule in a blaze.

Against dangerous Indiana and undefeated Minnesota, Graham scored 16 and 20 points, respectively, as the Purple breezed to 50-40 and 49-28 victories.

The Hoosiers held Otto to one point in the first half, but he succeeded in 15 markers in the final 20 minutes. His best shot is a one-handed hook while moving away from the basket.

Twenty-year-old Graham is 6-1, weighs 185.

He prepped at Wakeglen High school, where he averaged 14 points a game as a senior.

Big Ten football coaches rated him one of the finest sophomore backs in a decade.

Basketball mentors are frantically devising special defenses.

Otto, it seems, is slightly terrific.

WEST HIGH FOR GREEN; TOLEDO HAS HOME TOUCH

BULL SESSION: Talking it over with some of the Eastern basketball coaches.

Ossie Cowles (Dartmouth): "Every team we met out west seemed to be needed. Sell-out crowds everywhere."

"Wisconsin is not the club it was last year. Johnny Klotz is great, but they miss Gene England."

"Toledo is very strong. 'I can't see how they'll ever lose at home. Their co-captains—Bob Gerber and Bart Quinn—were pros before they ever came to college. They have the touch at home.'"

Howard Cann (New York University): "How good is Washington? (The Huskies set a Garden record of 72 points against N. Y. U.) I don't know. They were all so fast I couldn't tell one from the other."

Texas Relays Will Be Held

AUSTIN, Jan. 17 (AP)—The show must go on, the University of Texas athletic officials decreed here this week, so once more the nation's track and field stars will converge on Austin for the first major outdoor track carnival of the year.

The Texas relays, youngest of the major track and field shows, will be produced for the fourteenth time in Memorial Stadium on March 19 in conjunction with the University of Texas' annual round-up, homecoming event for the alumni.

For obvious reasons director Clyde Littlefield doesn't expect his annual carnival to attract as many big-name performers from leading universities. Nor does he expect any approach to the 1941 relays which produced eight new records and one world's mark.

But he's determined that the relays shall keep pace with other big meets. And since the university and college divisions can't be expected to match the standards of recent seasons, he's added an event for the high school participants, a field that will not be weakened by war developments.

The new event will be the 440-yard relay, a popular team race that replaced the javelin throw on the interscholastic league program last May satisfactorily.

Although fewer out-of-state teams are expected this season, one big contingent already is assembled. Twelve members of the University of Minnesota squad will come here for a week of training that will be climaxed by participation in the relays.

Additional of this event gives the Texas carnival fifteen relay events—seven in the university division, three in the college division, and three for high schools. Fourteen special events round out the program.

Nazi Field Marshal Dies Of 'Apoplexy'

BERLIN, Jan. 17 (Official broadcast recorded by AP)—Field Marshal General Walter von Reichenau, who since June 22 had commanded a German army on the southern wing of the sweep into the Ukraine, has fallen to a fatal stroke of apoplexy while returning from the eastern front, said an announcement today.

The death of von Reichenau will involve a further reorganization of the German high command, which roundabout reports say has been underway since the removal on Dec. 19 of the commander-in-chief, Field Marshal Gen. Walther von Brauchitsch, and the personal ascendancy of Adolf Hitler as supreme commander.

(Practically every high German general is involved in the shakeup, according to the various rumors, some of which claim well-posted agents on the continent as their source.)

(Von Reichenau was a protégé of Marshal Werner von Blomberg, who was ousted as minister of war in 1938 because of his allegedly indiscreet marriage but reportedly because of a split in the high command over the advisability of invading Austria—a coup which Adolf Hitler carried through soon after.)

Adolf Hitler at once appointed Reichsmarschall Hermann Goering to represent him as field marshal at a state funeral for the 57-year-old von Reichenau, it was announced.

TCU Wins First Conference Cage Game Since 1930

FORT WORTH, Jan. 17 (AP)—For the first time since mid-season of 1930, the T. C. U. basketball team won a Southwest conference game here tonight. The strengthened Purple team, making its home bow under the veteran Hub McQuillan, nosed out the University of Texas' Longhorns, 33-31.

It was a wild, rough battle that had a crowd of 1,000 fans, the best in many years, roaring to the very last. In all, 35 fouls were called, 19 on the Steers. Five players left the court for too many personals.

The Frogs led most of the way. After the score was tied five times in the first 10 minutes, the Christians spurred into a 23-17 margin at the half. Bob McHenry, a Kansas boy, did some deadly firing in this section.

In the last half, the Steers moved up steadily and finally took the lead at 30-29 on a tip-in by Hargis. But a free pitch by McHenry tied it at 30 all with four minutes to play. With two minutes to go, Max Humphries, another transfer from Idaho, made a bat in for the Frogs and Jarma Peto followed with a free throw. The brawl was really wild from there on in but all Texas could add was a free toss by Hargis.

The T. C. U. campus went wild over the conference triumph.

Waggoner Named State Golden Glove Referee

Toby Waggoner, boxing coach at LeFors high school, has been selected as one of the referees to officiate at the state Golden Gloves Boxing tournament to be held in Fort Worth next month.

Word of his appointment was received yesterday from Clem Hall, sports editor of the Fort Worth Star Telegram, sponsors of the state tournament.

Waggoner is a graduate of West Texas State college at Canyon. Before moving to LeFors three years ago he was coach at Canadian. His boxing teams both at Canadian and LeFors have been outstanding. He is also president of the North Plains School Boxing league.

The newly appointed referee officiated at several tournaments in Pampa, Amarillo, Pollett and other tournaments in Texas and Oklahoma where his work was outstanding.

It marks the first time that a referee other than from Fort Worth has officiated in a state Golden Gloves tournament.

Longhorn Stars Join Air Corps

Austin, Jan. 17 (AP)—Without waiting to get their degrees next May, Pete Layden, Chal Daniel, Preston Flanagan and Les Croucher, University of Texas letterman athletes, are quitting school to join the army air corps, University officials said today.

The quartet will follow more than a dozen other well-known Longhorn football, basketball, baseball and track men into the nation's armed forces. Inducted at Randolph Field yesterday, they will take the University term examinations and report to Kelly Field Jan. 30.

Fullback Layden, Guard Daniel and End Flanagan were members of last season's Longhorn team hailed by many as the greatest University of Texas team in history, while Croucher is a two-letter man on the basketball squad.

Other Longhorns who recently found a place in the nation's defense effort include Grid Guard Buddy Jungmichel, Tackle Bo Cohenour and Tackle Julian Garrett, now working in the shipyards at Orange; Football Wingmen Jack West and Joe Schwartzing and Second Base-man Jack Stone, who have enlisted in the naval reserve, and Jerome Hajovsky, baseball outfielder, who enlisted in the naval air corps.

A number of 1940-41 University athletes long since have been members of various branches of service.

Reapers Beat Amarillo's Central Whirlwinds 27-11

The Pampa Junior high Reapers won their opening game in the Panhandle Junior High league here Friday afternoon when they swamped the Central Whirlwinds of Amarillo 27 to 11. Next Friday the Reapers will go to Amarillo for a game with Horace Mann, a team that has nosed them out twice in exhibition games.

Billy Coy Sheehan, Pampa's only letterman, led the scoring with 10 points. Randall Clay, reserve forward, was next in the shooting line with six points.

Hazelwood, with four points, paced Amarillo with Babb second with three points.

The Reaper defense, which had been ragged in pre-season games, looked much better in holding the visitors to three field goals, two of them by Hazelwood. The Reapers, on offense, continued to be too slow in passing the ball and getting it away. It was their inability to break fast and pass the ball faster and more accurate that kept them from getting a single crisp shot against Horace Mann last Tuesday.

Coach C. P. McWright plans to spend this week working on offense, especially ball handling and passing which must be improved.

British Bomb Jap Convoy And Barges

By C. YATES McDANIEL
SINGAPORE, Jan. 17. (AP)—Relays of British fighters and bombers, which have been long in the air, have found their opportunity and wrought havoc among troops, freight cars and truck convoys along the Gemas-Tampin line, 110 to 120 miles north of Singapore island, an official statement said tonight.

As this vigorous air attack was proceeding inland, other airmen struck at concentrations of barges and small ships along the west coast where a picked Japanese spearhead was attempting to enlarge its foothold among the mangrove swamps south of the Muar river, within 90 miles of Singapore.

"While our bombers were plastering the marshalling yards at Gemas, fighters were machine-gunning a long serpentine line of transport vehicles from a low altitude" on the Gemas-Tampin road, the statement said.

The pilots said they caught the motor transports stretched for two miles along the narrow road from Tampin toward the east, and that they left many fires among the 1,000 or more vehicles.

Bombers unloaded scores of large caliber bombs on the railway yards and convoys at Gemas, scoring hits and starting more than 50 fires, the pilots said.

Swarms of British fighters dived on clusters of enemy launches and barges in the mouth of the Muar, littering the dank waters with wreckage and bodies. At least one launch blew up under the spray of machine gun fire from the low flying attackers; invading troops packed tightly into the barges were cut down like wheat.

The fighters came back with bombers to blast and strafe those mechanized enemy forces which managed to reach the south bank of the stream to form a bridgehead there.

To the east on the short fighting front, in the sector where fresh Australian troops have checked the Japanese advance and smashed some of their tanks, the Japanese limited their activities to cautious patrols.

The Japanese still were trying to feed fresh troops and supplies into their western Malacca columns from ships in the Malacca strait, and these were getting careful attention from the British bomber command.

explosive crash and a pilot of another airplane had spotted the blazing pyre.

Aboard the west bound craft, which left Las Vegas at 7:07 p. m. were three civilian passengers beside Miss Lombard, 15 soldiers attached to the army ferry command, and three crew members.

With Miss Lombard were her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Peters, and Otto Winkler, M-G-M publicity man and close friend of the Gables. Winkler drove the couple to Kingman, Ariz., to be married two years ago.

The air corps ferry command at Long Beach, Calif., said the soldiers were returning to the coast for new assignments. All boarded the plane at Albuquerque, N. M., where four civilians left the plane to make room for the military party.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17. (AP)—Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, said today "Carole Lombard has given her life in the service of America. She is a first-line casualty of the war."

In a telegram Thursday to Clark Gable, Hays said he told the film star's husband that "Carole was perfect. She was gay and radiant, but tears came to her eyes as she voiced her appreciation of the reception she had received from the people of her home state."

Certain Types Of Quiz And Request Programs Banned

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17. (AP)—Regulations to keep enemy spies from broadcasting military data to lurking submarines or secret stations over impromptu radio programs were issued today by the Office of Censorship.

Censorship Director Byron Price called on broadcasters to ban certain types of quiz and request programs and conduct forums and audience interviews with caution.

In response to specific inquiry, the censorship office explained informally that such programs as "Pop Vox, Dr. I. Q., Take It or Leave It, and Double or Nothing" could be continued.

The broadcasting industry, the office said, has abandoned the "Main-in-the-street" and informal types of quiz.

It was asked that no telephone or telegraph requests for musical numbers be accepted during the war, and that no given request be given at the requested time.

Request was made that "all audience-participation type quiz programs originating from remote points, either by wire, transcription, or short wave, be discontinued" with certain qualifications.

It was noted that any program permitting the public access to an open microphone "is dangerous and should be carefully supervised" and that generally speaking "any quiz program originating remotely, whether in the group is small, and where in no arrangement exists for investigating the background of participants, should be discontinued."

When large groups are involved, "where participants are selected from a theater audience, for example, the danger is not so great."

In studio audience quiz shows no individual seeking participation should be guaranteed participation, the code said.

Such quiz, request, interview, and forum programs, the censorship office warned, might be used by Axis agents to communicate with their headquarters or with saboteurs through pre-arranged signals.

In addition, radio stations were told that because they were being heard abroad by Axis intelligence operatives, "certain material which may appear on the news service wires as approved for newspapers may not be appropriate for radio."

Price explained that while printed matter is censored at the national borders, "no such post-publication censorship is possible in radio." He announced that J. H. Ryan of Toledo, O., assistant director of censorship, would administer the radio code.

and took their heaviest toll of civilian casualties, with at least 150 civilians either killed or wounded.

The war department's report on the situation in the Philippines said only that there was heavy pressure on MacArthur's right flank. It was a laconic reference to a vital struggle, for it is the American-Filipino right flank at the neck of Batan peninsula that guards the coast road leading south toward MacArthur's possible embarkation point at Mariveles and, from there, to the island fortress of Corregidor.

Elsewhere in the southwest Pacific theater, there was only sporadic action. There was no further word of the Japanese forces which have made landings in the Dutch East Indies, though the succession of bombing attacks on the air and naval base of Ambon may be a hint of another Japanese move to come.

The island had its third successive air attack yesterday (Saturday), by 16 bombers, but the Dutch reported the planes had to fly high and their bombs caused no appreciable damage.

The latest Japanese thrust into southern Burma had the look of a small-scale operation. The British said only some 250 Japanese troops were involved, and that the British position was "developing favorably."

Rotarians Hear Canadian Priest

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
CANADIAN, Jan. 17.—Father Lewis, resident priest of the Canadian Catholic church, was guest speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon in the dining room of the WCTU building Tuesday.

Father Lewis was a missionary priest in China for seven years, then a furlough in the United States was followed by two more years of missionary work in China. He told of China—the country, the people, customs, and general conditions there.

Father Lewis is an educator, having been an instructor in De Paul university, Chicago, and the seminary at Perryville, Mo., before coming to the Canadian church three weeks ago.

Wills Says He'll Direct Playboys Throughout Dance Tomorrow Night

With fiddle tucked under his chin and his head bobbing to the rhythm of the music, Bob Wills will personally direct his nationally-famous Texas Playboys at a dance tomorrow night at the Southern club, according to a message received by Dave Slaughter, operator of the club.

Mr. Wills, whose band has starred in two movies, said that he would direct the band throughout the entire evening.

Bill Jesse's five-piece string orchestra will supply the music that will set the dancers whirling in the old time dance.

The dance will be one of three held in Pampa in celebration of the President's birthday and for the benefit of the Gray county chapter and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Arrangements for the old times dance are by the Pampa Lions club committee, headed by R. E. Watson, Chairman. Watson said yesterday that "although our club is not famous for having many members who like to dance," the Lions club were backing the dance 100 per cent.

Time of the dance will be from 8 p. m. to midnight. Following the usual practice, invitations have been sent to 75 persons in towns near Pampa. This does not mean that only 75 will attend; only that these 75 persons are to "bring their gang" to the dance.

Mr. Watson has previously served as county chairman for the celebration of the President's birthday. Last week he received a handsome plaque as a trophy of appreciation for his work.

"March of Dimes" Arranged Sponsored by the Kiwanis club committee, headed by L. N. Atchison, another dance will be held from 9 p. m. to midnight at the Southern club, with music by Pinky Powell's orchestra.

The third dance will be one in charge of the Pampa Rotarians, and will be held, starting at 9 p. m., at the Pampa Country club.

Ray Kuhn, county chairman, said today that arrangements had not been completed yet for the observance of the President's birthday in the southern part of the county.

Motion picture theaters of Pampa, Skellytown, LePors, Wheeler, Mobeelle, and Perryton, have been "lined up" by Carl Benefield of Pampa, to take part in the "March of Dimes," sponsored by the motion picture committee of the celebration. This "March" is to be held from January 22 to 29.

Mr. Benefield is in charge of arranging for theaters participation in the Pampa territory, having been appointed by the state chairman.

Old-Time Dance To Be One Of Three On President's Birthday

That dance-compelling music of an orchestra playing the old time tunes will be heard when the old times dance, one of three to be held here January 30, is heard in the gymnasium of the Junior High school.

Aviators Trained In Texas Killed

(By The Associated Press)

Texans and Texas-trained army aviators figured largely in the home-front war news Saturday, with several listed among the passengers of the Nevada air liner crash, and a student flier killed in an accident near Brady.

Meanwhile, from eighth corps area headquarters at Fort Sam Houston came an urgent reminder to members of the enlisted reserve corps of the U. S. Army and members of the national guard on inactive status to notify the proper officials of any change of address "so that they may be called to active duty when required." Corps area commander and state adjutant generals should be notified.

Killed in the crash of a training plane near Brady was Houston Wilson Savage, 20, son of Mrs. Maude Savage of Port Lavaca. He was an aviation student at Curtis Field. The cause of the crash was not revealed.

Among the passengers on the airliner that cracked up on a rugged Nevada mountain peak were two Texans.

They were First Lieut. Hal Browne, Jr., son of a prominent San Antonio attorney, and Second Lieut. James C. Barham, son of Mrs. T. P. Barham of Waco.

Browne attended high school in San Antonio, St. Mary's university and the University of Texas, and was recently stationed at Brooks Field, San Antonio. His survivors include his widow, Mrs. Fatti Nolan Browne and a son, Hal Browne III, both of Long Beach.

Also passengers on the airliner were three who received their basic flight training at Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, and later training at Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La.

Just Between Us Girls

BY JOHNNIE DAVIS

No cloud across the sun but passes at the last, and gives us back the face of God once more.

—Charles Kingsley.

Pampa's women are finding a place to serve in a nation at war...

There is the group of women who announced that they were going to wear black dresses until the war is over.

Then there are the women who have decided not to entertain now that the country is at war.

There are also the women who think that they have to talk poor now that living costs and taxes have climbed.

Then there are the "intellectual" women who feel that any light-hearted talk is decidedly out of place.

All of those women are taking themselves too seriously.

They aren't going to help win any war by wearing black dresses, long faces, and turning up their noses at any but headline conversation.

So they might as well try to be gay, cheerful, attractive women.

It's time enough to get grim when they are called on to shoulder guns.

Any job they have to do now—they can do wearing a pretty dress and a smile.

In the war year we have swung into, American women are going to pattern themselves along new lines.

Take some part, however small, in the welfare or defense work of her community.

Realize that she can no longer get by on glamor alone.

Budget her time, her energy and her money as to get the most out of all three.

Put what money she manages to save into defense stamps, instead of small luxuries.

Feel that it is her job to encourage the men of her family to do without complaint whatever job falls to their lot.

Manage to become a more efficient person.

Inform herself on the issues of the day.

Learn not to worry and fret over small disappointments and inconveniences.

Regard waste as stupidity.

Do all that she can to keep her home a cheerful, happy place.

Pay taxes without complaint.

Refrain from criticizing the way those in authority are fighting the war—since she can't possibly know much about such matters.

Manage to be just as much a woman as she ever was—even though she may be called on to do a man's job as efficiently as any man could do it.

Pretty little Marilyn Myatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Myatt, celebrated her first birthday last week.

When Evelyn Wilson left Thursday morning for Washington, D. C., she had a 48-hour trip on the train ahead of her.

Cosmetic sales tax of 10 per cent has had little effect on co-ed consumption of make-up raw materials in Texas colleges.

In the outlay of cosmetics in one dormitory, a student reporter writes, "there's enough lipstick to paint New York and all its suburbs a bright fireman's red, enough powder to blow up the whole German army (if it were of the explosive type), and enough cream to have a greased pig contest in every state in the union, including Arkansas."

She terms the hour 7 to 8 a. m. as "Girl's Defense Hour," when roommates fight over mirror space and work with the intensity of inspired artists, to achieve an effect that bears slight resemblance to the raw product.

Lois Hinton Hughes, who moved to Corpus Christi following her marriage here last month, dropped this writer a note last week just to make us wish we were in South Texas rather than in the Panhandle.

They Travel Light—Women who find it necessary to take two or three bags when they spend a week end away from home might take a tip from the young men who leave to enter their country's service.

The young men just plain don't want to be bothered with a lot of junk, even if they were permitted to have it.

Uncle Sam says these rules will help his war effort and his housewives' pocketbook:

- 1. Keep adequate food storage space. 2. Plan meals to use left-overs for economy. 3. Always keep foods covered. 4. Buy exactly what's needed for week's menus. 5. Cook vegetables with as little water as possible. 6. Use bones and water in which meat is boiled for soup. 7. Peel fruits and vegetables carefully. 8. Buy foods in season. Plan to use plentiful and cheap items. 9. Follow recipes carefully. 10. Learn the nutritive value of foods.

Almost every woman has a hobby of some description whether it is collecting salt and pepper shakers, vases, poems, handkerchiefs, demitasse cups, or what have you.

When a girl is 16, her friends tell her: "My, but you look very grown up and mature!" At 25 they say: "You still look like a kid to me."

Never go out to meet trouble. If you will just sit still, somebody probably will intercept it before it reaches you.

Gayly Decorated Country Club Is Setting For Cowboy Dance

Our Latin American Neighbors will be the theme of the 14th annual Founders' Day dinner of the Pampa branch of the American Association of University Women at the Schneider hotel, Jan. 26, at 7:30 o'clock.

Each year the local A. A. U. W. tries to secure an outstanding speaker in the field of international relations for its Founders' Day dinner, which is observed as husbands' and guest night and to which the public is also invited.

Speaker for this year will be Dr. Anna Powell of Denton, a vivacious, black-haired, bright-eyed woman who has traveled widely in South America and Mexico and has long been a student of Latin American affairs.

Most of the men's service clubs as well as the women's clubs are placing special emphasis this year on the Good Neighbor policy and getting better acquainted with the other 20 countries that, with the United States form the Pan-American Union.

Reservations for the dinner and address must be made in advance. As at previous A. A. U. W. Founders' Day dinners, a capacity crowd is expected.

GOOD GANGLAND COMEDY with a fresh story angle, action, laughs, and romance give a sound fan appeal to Paramount's "Buy Me That Town," with Constance Moore and Lloyd Nolan, pictured above, showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Rex.

Fictitious pokes a lot of fun and satire at racketeers, at the same time unfolding action drama and a much more appealing thread of romance than is usually found in attractions of this type.

FAST AND GAG-LADEN COMEDY is Paramount's "Nothing But the Truth," featuring Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard, above. Plot discloses a big business man's niece entrusting $10,000 to Hope, who wagers it with three commercial colleagues that he can go 24 hours without telling a lie. He does it, but with devastating consequences. The comedy is on the LaNora screen today, tomorrow, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

COMEDY SALIENT ON WEEK'S FILM BOOKINGS IN PAMPA

Bob Hope And Paulette Goddard Featured In "Nothing But The Truth"; "Appointment For Love" Teams Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullivan

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON Comedy with several capital Cs dominates the film menu in Pampa this week, with adventure-action as runner-up. Fast-quipping Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard take the leads in "Nothing But the Truth," opening a four-day run at the LaNora today. On the Rex screen is opening a comedy of high school life, "Henry Aldrich for President," featuring Jimmie Lydon and June Preisser.

Comedy with a sophisticated angle is found in "Appointment for Love" with Charles Boyer, and Margaret Sullivan showing at the LaNora Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Gangsters buying a town provide the plot of "Buy Me That Town," with Constance Moore and Lloyd Nolan, at the Rex Wednesday and Thursday.

At the Crown today, tomorrow, and Tuesday is a story of prison life on Devil's Island, "I Was a Prisoner of Devil's Island," starring Sally Eiler and Donald Woods.

Another is the detective-thriller series that comes to the Crown Wednesday and Thursday, in "Elery Queens Perfect Crime," with Ralph Bellamy.

"Our America At War" To Americans, stunned by events in the Pacific, this month's March of Time, "Our America at War," carries a heartening message. In the film which opens at the LaNora theater Thursday, the editors of the March of Time show how this country, in the last war, came through to win final victory. And the picture presents a convincing argument that today's fighting-mad Americans will do it again.

In swift highlights, the film sketches the main events and phases of the last war. Britons even then were watching a young First Lord of the Admiralty, Winston Churchill, looking awfully youthful upon the screen today. And in America, a youthful Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, was embarking upon a career that was to be dedicated to upholding America's doctrine of freedom of the seas.

As today, the film shows, U. S. industry dedicated itself to the prime task of equipping the greatest army in American history. Because of the swiftness of the war announcement, this particular issue of the March of Time was completed in circumstances that allowed of last-minute news spots, a practice not ordinarily possible.

Altogether, "Our America At War" is a graphic confirmation of the assurances given by President Roosevelt in his radio speech to the nation that ultimate victory will be the fruit of its war effort. And it can be said with equal certainty that no audience that sees this film will leave the theater unmoved.

Boyer-Sullivan Team "Appointment for Love," with Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullivan, Rita Johnson, a Universal picture, at the LaNora Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, is an amusing comedy about a woman doctor who marries a playwright.

"Henry Aldrich for President," Paramount picture with James Lydon, Charles Smith, June Preisser, and Mary Anderson, opens a three-day run at the Rex.

This is a good family-audience comedy with lots of laughs and youthful zip, plus human interest. Theme of the story is a high school class presidential election. Finale is uproariously funny, witnessing Lydon piloting a plane whose passenger is the Henranch printer whom Lydon's rival had employed to turn out fake election ballots.

"Ice-Capades," with Dorothy Lewis, James Ellison, and Jerry Colonna, Republic film on the State screen Wednesday and Thursday, is easily one of the best turned out by the Republic studios.

Ice skating star Lewis is featured and around her the plot revolves. Ellison and Colonna miss their news-reel assignments in obtaining clips of an international skating star. Instead they go to Central park and shoot an attractive girl and pass her off as the star.

New Elery Queen Third in a series of 13 Elery Queens, Columbia's "Elery Queen's Perfect Crime," comes to the Crown Wednesday and Thursday. Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay head the cast. Elery (Bellamy) is going fishing with his father and sergeant pal when a murder is committed involving his friends. One of the friends had been accused of murdering a business associate who swindled him in a power deal. George Huston goes out to avenge the death of a friend whom a promoter has swindled out of a mine in "Producers" "The Lone Rider Fights Back" on the Crown screen Friday and Saturday.

CORRUPT PRACTICES of the officials who run the prison at Devil's Island is the theme of Columbia's "I Was a Prisoner on Devil's Island," opening a three-day run today at the Crown. Sally Eilers, Donald Woods, and Edward Brodell head the cast. Sally, married to Cianelli, the prison doctor, meets Donald Woods at a village carnival. He falls in love with her without knowing who she is. Woods lands on the island after he accidentally kills his ship captain. There he helps expose Cianelli when an epidemic breaks out and it is disclosed that the prison doctor sold drugs for an illicit profit.

Home Economics Class Hostess At Luncheon Recently Special To The News CANADIAN, Jan. 17.—First year girls in the Home Economics department of the Canadian High school, pupils of Mrs. Jeanette Hill, were hostesses at a luncheon served in the dining-room of the department this week.

Mothers of these 10 girls were guests. The meal was planned and prepared by the girls under supervision of their teacher. Today the six boys taking first year work will prepare and serve a three-course luncheon to four faculty members. J. M. Carpenter, superintendent of schools, L. E. Cooper, director of music, Bill Mac Gibson, athletic coach, and J. E. Ward, industrial arts and former coach, are invited guests.

These luncheons are part of the term tests in the foods course and in each instance the students decide on a menu, make out a grocery list, and prepare the food using recipes they have not previously tried out.

Mrs. Hill says that using unfamiliar recipes demands their undivided attention and gives them confidence to undertake preparation of food at home.

 BY SAMUEL HOPKINS ADAMS

THE STORY: Mom Baumer sets up "Feederia" lunch wagon at run-down Tamba Bay Plantation. Formed by her, she is joined by her sister, Juddy, and her mother, Mrs. Baumer, who is a widow. Mom tells Juddy she has a daughter, Carolyn, who is a beauty. Mom of a lovely childhood. Other characters: Loren Oliver, Welliver, who is a doctor; Juddy, who is a nurse; and Tamba Bay, who is a doctor. CHAPTER XII
 "WHERE is your daughter now?" Juddy asked. "Show business," I said. "She's all right. We don't see each other much. There's reasons. Skip Carnie."

She nodded. I went on. "After Baumer eloped I carried on awhile with the animal act. One of the cats went batty on me and I got fed up with the smell of the trained seal. Then an old yen for cooking that I'd always had hit me again. All of which adds up to the Feederia."

Juddy sort of sighed. "There's things to be said for a camp, too," I said. "Instead of going along with the big show you watch it roll right up to your door. I've had people die and get born right in the shadow of the grubwagon, and I've seen hate and love and the meeting of sweet-hearts and the break-up of families, the whole human show. From the great deep to the great deep they go, and every now and then you see something that makes life look bigger. Excuse me waxing eloquent on you, pal."

"I like it," she said. "Well, if you think I'm the kind of aunt you can use, I'm your aunt," I said.

"What I don't quite get," I told her, "is this year, Mom, my life here. You never saw it till a few months ago, did you?"

After a long pause she said: "Yes. I was here when I was a child. It's the only place I've known that had any permanency for me. You had people die and get born right in the shadow of the grubwagon, and I've seen hate and love and the meeting of sweet-hearts and the break-up of families, the whole human show. From the great deep to the great deep they go, and every now and then you see something that makes life look bigger. Excuse me waxing eloquent on you, pal."

Loren Oliver wasn't Juddy's only worry about Tamba Bay.

Sheriff Holtster Mowry was now one of our regular customers. He'd drop in for lunch, sometimes for dinner, and sit around with that silly, fat grin of his, dishing out local gossip and trying to pump us about Tamba Bay in general and specially on what was going on inside Loren Oliver's stockade. Doc was polite enough to him, but there it ended. As for Juddy, she just walked out on the fat man whenever he showed up.

He put up a little plaint about it to me. What was the matter with her, to be so stand-offish? All he wanted was to help us; we might be glad of his help one of these days. "How's that, Sheriff?" I asked him. "This Professor fella," he said. "What do you have his up to?" "What do you?" I said. "He's right secret about it," he said. "I don't look good to me." "What's your worry?" I said. "Family feelin'," he said. "I ain't the man to stand by and see my kin cheated by a Yankee. Any gold that comes out of there belongs to Tamba Bay."

He winked and tapped me on the knee. "I've read the lease," he said. "It runs out this fall. Then the ground reverts. As a business woman, Mrs. Baumer, you can appreciate that when the time comes, I can be of use. On a business basis, of course." "Right there I made my mistake," Sheriff, I said, "we're only a couple poor, footless females, but I kind of reckon we can run our own business."

Well, he didn't take any offense. Not openly. "I'll be secin' you soon, Ma'am," he said.

It was too soon. That very afternoon, in fact, he was back at Tamba Bay. Not to see me, though. He was down by the river, putting Old Swoby over the jumps, and the little man trying to understand him, and Dolf sitting up and watching them and nobody getting anywhere till I showed up.

"Glad to see you, Mrs. Baumer," he said. "Maybe you can make this loony understand that I want to know whether he's seen a hurt nigger coming down the stream bed?" Swoby shook his head when I put it to him. "No," I said. "What's up?" "A killing," he said. "Who killed who?" "You wouldn't like the details. The nigger got away into Tawney's Tangle."

"I haven't heard anything about it."

Well, I hated to tell Juddy. I

Texas Woman Joins Navy

(By The Associated Press)
 A woman joined the navy, educational courses were speeded, and World War II Mothers' organization was chartered as Texans pushed along their many-sided war program.

Miss Allene Schoffstall, the first Texas woman to join the navy, went to work in the office of Ensign Bryan Coyne, zone public relations officer, at Houston.

The University of Texas announced it would cram two-semester physics courses into one semester and speed freshmen and sophomores on their way to advanced defense training.

Mr. Ovid Ferguson Raser of Austin is president of the Mothers of World War II, an organization which received a state charter. The purpose of the group was to aid families of avian men.

The Mineral Wells Independent School district $70,000 bond election carried, 294 to 24. The money will be used for a school enlargement program necessitated by increased scholastics due to Camp Wolters and defense workers.

State park board officials invited soldiers, sailors, marines, and defense industry workers to make use of state parks for recreational purposes during their leisure hours.

Private Daniel E. Dockery of Dallas, first 36th division selectee to be released under the 29-year age rule, is back in uniform. He said he enjoyed his return to civilian life, but is glad to forego his job to do his part in the army.

There were increasing calls from Dallas defense plants for women workers. Texas State Employment service agency managers said the demand for women had resulted in the draft of men for the army, rather than a general business expansion.

Panhandle Sends Enough Men To Man New Destroyer

Enough enlisted men to fully man one of America's new destroyers will be recruited through the Amarillo station during January, Chief Torpedoman C. E. Norman, foretold, after totaling the half month's enlistments.

More than 115 men have been transferred and enlisted at the Dallas main recruiting station since Jan. 1, Chief Norman stated. By the end of the month a destroyer's full complement will be reached.

Pampa, along with other Panhandle cities, has contributed in this drive for navy manpower. Among those who have already been enlisted this month are Glen Leon Leach, Harrison Wesley Farmer, Richard E. Wright, Kenneth William Grossman, Royce Talmadge Bailey and Clarence James Smiles. # Lubbock And Amarillo Have Lowest Tax Rates In State In Brackets

By BRACK CURRY
Associated Press Staff

Texas cities general have a lower adjusted property tax rate than the nation as a whole, the National Municipal League reports in its annual tax report.

Among Texas municipalities of more than 30,000 population, Corpus Christi has the highest adjusted property tax rate and Dallas (exclusive of Highland Park and University Park) the lowest.

Prepared by Rosina K. Mohaupt of the Detroit Bureau of Government Research, Inc., the survey pictured the property tax situation in 1941, revealing that real property tax rates and assessed values of American cities—including Texas—remained virtually unchanged during 1941.

Substantial rate increases in almost all other forms of taxation were reported.

The survey—the 20th annual compilation of tax rates of cities over 30,000 population—is made possible through the cooperation of city and county officials, chief of governmental research, data for the compilation are obtained by questionnaires mailed to these sources.

Figures are shown for 311 cities—295 American, including 15 in Texas—and 16 Canadian.

The survey showed that Amarillo has the lowest adjusted tax rate among Texas cities of 50,000 to 100,000 population and Corpus Christi the highest in this bracket and in the entire state.

On a nationwide survey of comparative tax rates, it is necessary to "adjust" the reported actual rates of cities included to a uniform 100 per cent basis of assessment because of widely divergent assessment practices.

(In a majority of states the law prescribes a legal basis of assessment at 100 per cent of true value. There are, however, a few states where the legal basis is less than 100 per cent. It is obvious that tax rates levied in these states cannot be compared with rates levied in states where property valuation is legally required to be at full value.)

(Converting all assessments to a 100 per cent basis when the law authorizes a lower ratio results in the "adjusted property tax rate.")

In the 30,000 to 50,000 population group, Port Arthur had the highest rate and Lubbock the lowest.

For the nation, Atlantic City, N. J., for the third consecutive year, had the highest adjusted property tax rate—$59.80 a thousand—while 66 cents under Atlantic City's 1940 rate.

Montgomery, Ala., with an adjusted tax of $8.13 had the country's lowest rate.

Corpus Christi's rate—Texas' highest—was $30.98, a figure $28.82 and $22.85 above the lowest.

Dallas' adjusted tax rate—lowest among Texas cities but not including adjoining corporate cities—was $19.88, or $39.25 below Atlantic City's nation-high figure, and $11.75 above the lowest rate for the nation.

Rates for other reporting cities in Texas were: Houston, $21.43; San Antonio, $26.71; Fort Worth, $29.35; El Paso, $25.90; Beaumont, $28.25; Amarillo, $22.25; Port Arthur, $28.80; Laredo, $27.15; and Lubbock, $20.66.

Austin, Galveston, Waco, and Wichita Falls were included in the survey but did not report their adjusted tax rates for 1941.

The average tax rate in the 311 cities surveyed increased only two cents a $1,000 over 1940.

Average assessed value in these cities increased only one-tenth of one percent, larger cities showing a decrease of six-tenths of one percent, and smaller cities an average increase of about one per cent.

KPDN Radio Chat

It will no longer be possible for just anyone to gain access to the microphones of America's radio stations. KPDN has already taken steps to prevent any unauthorized remarks being made over the air. The "man on the street" program has been made into a studio program with only invited participants being allowed access to the microphone. The all-request programs have been discontinued. The program department is working now on ideas for a substitute program to replace the popular all-request programs. But care must be taken not to permit any listener to have his own message broadcast. The danger, of course, is of Axis agents sending code messages by radio.

A new announcer's voice is being heard by KPDN listeners. It is that of Keith Sutton, who has come to KPDN from Iowa City, Iowa. Sutton is a graduate of the University of Iowa.

He replaces Ray Monday, who has accepted a position with Station KBWD in Brownwood, Texas and will leave Pampa next Thursday.

Johnny Wells, former commercial manager at KPDN, has already left the station staff, having enlisted as a flying cadet.

Lovers of western music will welcome two new noon-hour programs on KPDN's schedule tomorrow. "The Ten-Two-Four Ranch," starring Dick Foran, a Hollywood fame, as master of ceremonies or ranch boss, and Martha Mears, popular radio singing star.

Foran has appeared in the almost incredible total of 43 films in the past five years, including "Riders of Death Valley," "Mob Town," "In the Navy," "Ride 'Em, Cowboy," and "Unfinished Business" with Irene Dunne and Robert Montgomery.

Miss Mears came to radio after being voted "the girl with the best voice" by her University of Missouri classmates. She has been heard on such programs as "It Happened in Hollywood" and "Hit Parade."

"The Ten-Two-Four Ranch" is serial musical comedy of ranch life. It will be broadcast over KPDN each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 12 o'clock noon.

Then at 12:45 each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday there'll be a recorded program of the music of Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys. This program starts the day that Bob Wills and his popular band play here in Pampa in person—tomorrow.

The time of "I Parade of Business" has been lifted to one o'clock each Wednesday afternoon; so for authoritative analysis of business conditions in America, listen to this broadcast each week.

"Pasteurization for Purity" is a new KPDN program that mothers and housewives will want to hear each morning. It comes on at 9:40 and consists of an educational talk by G. C. Heard, local dairyman. This is an instructive program that ought to be a "must" on the listening schedule of every woman who uses milk at home.

Listeners to KPDN's Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday feature, "Checkboard Time," have been delighted with the return to that program of the popular "Cackle Sisters," who are known from coast to coast for their clever musical cackling. They

Britons Cheer Churchill On Arrival Home

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Jan. 17 — Winston Churchill came safely home by flying boat today from his historic trip to the new world, and the happy cries of "good old Winnie" which welcomed him subdued, for the moment at least, British recrimination over Singapore's plight.

It was apparent that the Prime Minister would lose no time in moving to assuage the distress of both nation and Parliament over the humiliating defeats in Malaya. Most of the newspapers looked for some sort of a cabinet reconstruction, but their speculation as to its nature was very vague. Major government changes are not now anticipated.

Certainly there was no sign of uneasiness in the joyous scene at London's grimy old Paddington station when Churchill and his entourage arrived by train from Plymouth, the terminus of his flight, in an American-made flying boat, from Bermuda.

Week-ending travelers at once spotted Churchill's familiar reef jacket and nautical cap and descended upon him with un-British abandon. The official welcoming party had to form a bodyguard to clear a path through the cheering crowd, and black hats went flying from ministerial heads in the cheery jostling.

Mrs. Churchill had hurried in from the England-Scotland football match at Wembley to greet her husband. The 60,000 in the stadium roared a mighty cheer when she told them, over the loudspeaker system: "My husband arrived this morning in Plymouth . . . I have not seen him and I know you will forgive me if I go to him."

With Churchill on the transatlantic trip were Lord Beaverbrook, his minister of supply; Admiral of the Fleet Sir Dudley Pound; Air Chief Marshal Sir Charles Portal and Sir Charles Wilson, the physician. They flew from the western

Ray Monday Will Go To Brownwood

Ray Monday, for more than five years an announcer at KPDN, will leave Pampa Thursday to take over announcing duties at Radio Station KBWD, Brownwood, Texas. KBWD is a 1,000-watt station in the city at which Camp Bowie is located.

During his five years' service at KPDN, Mr. Monday has worked in many capacities and he has become widely known over the Pampa area. He is married to a Pampa girl, the former Miss Vivian Earson, local dancing teacher.

With Bill Karn and Joe Bryant, Monday was one of the announcers with whom KPDN started operations in April, 1936.
