WAGNER LABOR BILL PRAISED BY PRESIDENT

'MAGNA CARTA' TO BE CLAIMED BY INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—Signing the Wagner labor bill, President Roosevelt today described it "as an important step toward the achievement of just and peaceful labor relations in industry."

Among other things, the measure guarantees labor the right to bargain collectively. In an accompanying statement Mr. Roosevelt explained that the new national labor relations board provided by the legislation would serve purely as a quasi-judicial body to assure employees the right of collective bargaining.

The president expects to name within the month this new important board, replacing the present labor relations board which goes out of existence.

It gives the labor organization chosen by a majority of employees in a plant the right to speak for all the employees, and forbids employers from interfering with the self-organization of employees.

The labor board may order employment elections if there is a dispute over what organization or individual represents a majority of employees in a plant for collective bargaining.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, calls the act "Labor's Magna Carta." Industry generally opposes it, and its enactment probably will result in a long series of court tests of its constitutionality.

Steel, automobile, and rubber manufacturers already have let it be known they intend to challenge the act in the courts if and when the new labor board hands down any decisions against them.

The measure was signed without ceremony.

The statement of the president follows: "This act defines, as a part of our substantive law, the right of self-organization of employees in industry for the purpose of collective bargaining, and provides methods by

EXILE CLAIMS CALLES' EXIT ONLY A RUSE

WANTS TO SEE SON BE- COME PRESIDENT, SAYS PRELATE

SAN ANTONIO, July 5 (AP)—Archbishop Ruiz y Flores, exiled apostolic delegate to Mexico, said today the withdrawal of General Plutarco Elias Calles from the Mexican political scene "is merely an interlude in a plan whereby he hopes to see his son become president of Mexico."

The archbishop said General Calles supported the candidacy of President Lazaro Cardenas because he knew that Cardenas was the only one strong enough politically to be elected.

General Calles, said the archbishop, had hoped from the beginning that the governors of the various states and the ranking army officials would support his son for the office.

In a statement the prelate said he had received reliable information from Mexico that Cardenas has definitely resolved to continue the same policy in regard to schools, religion, and property.

Such being the case, he said, all hopes of relief from religious persecution are still as far away as ever for the time being. He said that he was anxious to return to Mexico as soon as he is convinced that more religious freedom will be permitted. At present, however, there are small hopes for any such leniency in regard to religious matters.

PERRY REPEATS AS NET CHAMP AT WIMBLEDON

Moody and Jacobs to Fight It Out For Women's Title

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 5 (AP)—Fred Perry, dashing British star of the courts, captured the all-England tennis championship for the second successive year today, defeating Baron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 in the final round.

Although Von Cramm battled the Briton every inch of the way, he never had a chance against the black-haired champion. At every vital point, Perry had the shots he needed to win and Von Cramm consistently was caught flat-footed by the Briton's smashing drives.

Perry, a heavy favorite from the start, lived up to his reputation as the world's greatest amateur.

Von Cramm, first German to reach the finals since Otto Froitzheim was beaten by the Great Australian, Norman Brookes, in the 1914 championship round, definitely was outclassed by a player who could make no mistakes today.

Perry's victory enabled Great Britain to salvage one of the two major Wimbledon titles. The other, the women's singles championship, definitely is lost to the home land for the finalists tomorrow will be America's two great feminine ace, Helen Jacobs, United States champion, and Helen Willis Moody, former world's title-holder.

Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn of the United States continued their match through the men's doubles by defeating the crack English pair of G. F. Hughes and G. R. D. Tuckey in a quarter-final match, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2. Hughes and Tuckey had been named to represent Cars Kill 83, Drownings 79, While Fireworks Take 3 Lives in United States.

By The Associated Press
At least 201 deaths and thousands of injuries took today as the price paid by the nation for the celebration of its 159th birthday.

The Independence day casualty list, while the largest since 1932, was still under the average for the previous seven years.

From 1928 to 1934 the July Fourth accidental death total was 1,630, an average of approximately 233 deaths for each year.

Yesterday's death list compared with the 177 recorded last year, the fewest since 1929, and 483 killed on the fourth in 1931, the costliest in recent years.

The mid-west, with 82 deaths, led the holiday mortality roll. Only 10 deaths were reported in the mountain states; New England had 10 also; the mid-Atlantic group had 29; the south 28; the southwest 28; and the Pacific coast 14.

Only three deaths were directly attributed to fireworks, an Associated Press survey showed. The majority of deaths were due to automobile accidents and drownings. Autos killed 83 and 79 were drowned.

Sprinkled through reports were accounts of deaths from airplanes, train wrecks, electrocutions, shootings, falls, and the heat. Deaths from such causes totaled 34.

Added to those dead were the injured, estimated in the thousands from many causes. New Jersey reported 325 persons treated in hospitals from fireworks burns, while Chicago police received reports of only 25 persons so injured. St. Louis had 312 known fireworks victims.

Chicago counted one of the two killed directly by fireworks. The victim was Chester Bulwick, 17, whose windpipe was collapsed by a firecracker which exploded on his chest. The other fireworks fatality occurred in Kansas.

Among the spectacular accidents was one at St. Clair Shores, Mich., in which a man was carried 2,000 feet into the air as he held onto the guide rope of a balloon and then dropped to his death.

At Ho-Ho-Kus, N. J., a boy watching an automobile race was killed when one of the racing cars threw a wheel, and four automobile racers were killed in speedway mishaps.

Six deaths resulted from celebrators' use of firearms and two more were shot to death while hunting.

The heat took three lives in Minnesota and Michigan, while trains killed several in Utah and Minnesota. A North Carolina boy was killed when struck by a baseball. Lightning killed two in Indiana.

Deaths reported by geographical sections showed:

Autos	Drownings	Fire	Other
New England 2	7	0	1
Mid-Atlantic 13	8	0	5
South 12	11	0	5
Southwest 17	7	1	3
Midwest 22	43	1	16

ASK KINGFISH TO AID FOR'S PENSION PLAN

SENATOR IS BEDEVILED BY HIS ENEMIES IN LEGISLATURE

BATON ROUGE, La., July 5 (AP)—Senator Huey P. Long's satirical note to President Roosevelt asking his support of Louisiana legislation to forbid politicalization of federal relief funds was followed today by an appeal to the senator by anti-Long legislators to support the president's old-age pension law.

Three of Long's bitterest house representatives opponents drafted a resolution, couched in ironic phraseology, asking Long as the "aide and ambassador of the president" to bring about the culmination of the president's program and distribute a portion of the wealth of this state to the needy aged.

Long has repeatedly declared himself in favor of distribution of wealth and old age pensions.

The anti-Long legislators were Reps. Dudley Lang of Winn, Norman Bauer of St. Mary, and Rupert Peyton of Caddo.

BATON ROUGE, La., July 5 (AP)—With Senator Huey P. Long at the helm, the house ways and means committee today gave speedy approval to the 26 newest and, in many respects, most stringent "dictator" bills he has yet conceived.

The senator stalked into the committee room, smiling, and with the remark he was "representing some of my constituents," took charge of proceedings.

He gleefully discussed his bills providing a fine and jail sentence for anyone using federal relief funds for political purposes.

"You want to make this bill any stronger?" he asked Rep. Jack Williamson of Lake Charles, the only anti-administrationist on the committee.

"I'd like to put in some amendments to apply to state funds," he replied.

"That's already the law," Long shot back, grinning.

The senator then took up the bills one by one and after his brief explanations they were reported favorably.

100 Hurt as Alaskan Miners Battle Pickets

The rough and tumble days of the gold rush, when disputes were settled with fists and guns, were briefly revived at Juneau, Alaska, when townspeople battled union pickets who sought to prevent reopening of the Alaska Juneau gold mine, second largest in the world. More than 1,000 persons joined in the fracas, in which more than 100 were injured before police dispersed the battlers. This remarkable picture gives a bird's eye view of the riot. Knocked out rioters lie on the sidewalk. Others scurry to other sectors of the fighting front.

New Monarch Predicted

Royalist Predicts Otto of Hapsburg Will Occupy Austrian Throne Soon.

By EDOUARD TRAUSS
Associated Press Foreign Staff
BRUSSELS, July 5 (AP)—A Royalist close to young Archduke Otto of Hapsburg, predicted today early restoration of the monarchy.

While negotiations for an enthronement of "Kaiser Otto I" in Vienna swung to his seat of exile here, the Royalists said all obstacles to prompt restoration have been cleared but one—the opposition of Prince Ernst Von Starhemberg.

The 22-year-old pretender himself said, "I do not deny that negotiations are in progress, but I regret that I cannot now discuss the matter."

The archduke conceded, however, that he had been "pleased to shake hands" with Baron Karl Karwinsky, undersecretary of the Austrian department of justice.

His remark aroused reports that a council of Austrian Royalists was held at Steenokkerzeel Castle, where Otto is living in exile with his mother, the former Empress Zita, and other members of their family.

Baron Karwinsky, however, professed to be in Belgium on a visit to relatives.

The Royalist whose identity was withheld, but who said he was in close touch with Otto, asserted: "We count on his return to Austria within a few weeks after the anti-Hapsburg laws are abolished."

After Otto's return, the restoration of the throne itself may not be a matter of more than a couple of months.

NO CASUALTIES REPORTED IN PAMPA AFTER 'BOMBARDMENT'

CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—Wheat prices dropped five cents a bushel today in a wave of liquidation that accompanied expressions of fear on the part of some traders that the Canadian government's grain policies might be changed abruptly, with the dumping of Canada's huge wheat surplus on the world market a possibility.

HOUSTON, July 5 (AP)—After long and heated discussions, the Texas Bar association voted today, 107 to 74, to recommend enactment of a law prohibiting attorneys from "looming" with judges concerning pending cases. Another proposal advocating a statute requiring judges to disqualify themselves in cases in which a blood relative within the third degree is one of the lawyers was defeated, 95 to 80.

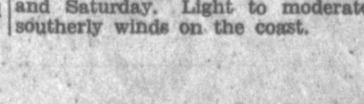

BAINVILLE, Mont., July 5 (AP)—The Great Northern Railway's Empire Builder, transcontinental passenger train, plunged into a washout and was derailed early today, injuring 24 persons, at least 20 seriously. Eight cars of the 16 coach train jumped the tracks, four rolling over. The engine remained upright.

CINCINNATI, July 5 (AP)—Cast off by the Chicago Cubs, Hazen (Rik) Cuyler signed today with the Cincinnati Reds.

Cantrell Given 99 Year Sentence

Sheriff Earl Talley has returned from Tyler, where he was a witness in the trial of Jimmy Cantrell, charged with slaying Joe Logan, 16-year-old Tyler butcher boy, during a bus holdup February 3.

Cantrell was given a 99-year sentence for the murder. He was tried in Gray county for robbery of a LeFors store, and given 15 years on that indictment.

TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday. Light to moderate southerly winds on the coast.

Many Pampans Observe 4th In City; Others Go to Nearby Celebrations.

Although the fireworks display was "terrific" here, Pampans observed the Fourth of July with a minimum of injuries. Sunburns were among the most "serious" consequences of the day.

While hospitals, ambulance men, and many physicians were ready to render first aid on a moment's notice, they might as well have gone fishing, as one man expressed it. The Panhandle generally shared this sadness.

Locally, observers marveled at the lack of accidents. Young and old alike had a field day with firecrackers, most of which seemed to be of the "cannon" type. Rockets were unalarming and sparklers seen on every street. But, despite the fact that the streets were covered with unlighted bicycles last night, speeding cars managed to avert accidents. The municipal swimming pool claimed the attention of many Pampans, while others saw the Road Runners take two games of a series of three with the Halliburton Cementers of Duncan, Okla.

Hundreds went to Canadian, where the annual Anvil Park rodeo staged an excellent show. Six thousand persons were admitted and perhaps a thousand turned away. Past times were recorded in the events. Clowns and trick riders entertained, sharing acclaim with Cherokee Indians imported for the event.

Borger's Junior chamber of commerce had a big crowd for the all-day program, featuring a western

Tom E. Rose Is Critically Ill After Operation

Tom E. Rose, prominent local man and automobile dealer, is critically ill in Baylor hospital at Dallas, following an operation for appendicitis.

The operation was made early Thursday morning following an automobile trip from Mineral Wells, where Mr. and Mrs. Rose were vacationing. Mr. Rose had been advised to take a rest. He had visited at Waco and Abilene while away.

A gangrenous condition was found when the incision was made. A telegram from Mrs. Rose this morning said her husband had a satisfactory night. Mr. Rose became ill Tuesday.

Music, Pictures On Program for Amateur Night

Cartooning, crooning and "quartetting" will feature the amateur night program at the gym tonight. The program will be in charge of Jack Kretzinger, and will be held under the auspices of the summer recreation program.

The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock. A negro quartet from the Macedonian church will sing spirituals.

A cartoonist will draw and talk at the same time.

A crooner will sing "What's the Reason?" and other request numbers. A pianist will add her share to the program.

Amateurs who would display their talents are asked to see Ben Still, director of the summer program.

Contributions To Recreation Program Listed

Contributions to the Pampa summer recreation program today totaled $295.

Of this, $200 was given by the Board of City Development and specified for salaries. The rest was contributed by women's clubs, as follows:

Council of Clubs, $50; 20th Century, $1.50; 20th Century Forum, $5; 20th Century Culture, $15; Civic Culture, $2; Child Study, $1.50; Art, $5; El Progresso, $5; B&P, $10.

Civic clubs are expected to add to the fund soon.

He's Menaced

With opposition reportedly increasing both within and outside of Russia because his policies permit the Soviet Union to drift farther away from the principles of Marxism, Josef Stalin—shown here in characteristic photo-study—prepares for a bitter struggle to perpetuate his dictatorship. Leon Trotsky has moved to Norway, to be closer to elements seeking the dictator's overthrow.

Money is the root of all evil, and the republicans hope it is at the grass roots.

We're brushing up on our Spanish so that if we're held for ransom in Mexico we'll be able to tell the bandit chieftain that he's wasting his time in asking a reward for our release.

After seeing Will Rogers and company in the new picture, we're convinced that to be lightning struck is less dangerous than to be stage struck.

Skippy, the family pup, has a new pal and also has fleas. There may be a connection.

Truth, crushed to earth, will rise again. But truth usually isn't crushed; it's merely neglected.

Misings of the moment: Propaganda, another method of telling half-truths or less in the name of news, is becoming an international crime. Nobody ever accused the most ambitious chamber of commerce of making the exaggerations and peddling the deceit that governments are spreading today. The worst American newspaper is better than the best papers in countries where censorship is in force.

Brevitorials

THE NEW PAMPA Credit association, owned and operated by Pampa merchants, is away to a good start with an experienced and courteous manager, W. J. Daugherty, in charge. It is a Texas-chartered, non-profit corporation. Its influence should be for civic betterment, cooperation in local business, and service to the public. All but the wrong-doers will profit by its work.

ONE ACTIVITY of the association will be through an advertising and sales committee. Trading at home is an ideal which his often violated by thoughtless persons and organizations. Local firms contribute to the support of churches, schools, organizations, and other desirable institutions. It is remarkably ungrateful for beneficiaries of these gifts to sponsor sales of outside articles for the small profit they make at the expense of their merchant friends. No organization for a percent of sales or a stated sum, should bring in outside salesmen who, after all, are the chief beneficiaries of the scheme.

THE PAMPA Credit association committee will be fair and courteous. We are sure of this, knowing the officers of the association, though we do not know the personnel of the committee. Before any sales scheme or advertising scheme is patronized or launched, the PCA should be consulted. Solicitors should be asked to show a letter of approval from the Credit association. Legitimate solicitors will welcome such approval; the other kind will of course make all manner of excuses. To follow this advice is to avoid many losses through purchase of fraudulent or mediocre merchandise or services.

I Heard...

More noise coming from one dog, and a small one at that, than one could imagine. The cause was justifiable, however, since the dog picked up a giant firecracker in his mouth just as it went off. The last time seen, the dog was heading south with about a dozen kids on its trail.

EX-SENATOR BINGHAM'S SON ARGUES FOR THIRD PARTY IN CONVENTION OF RADICALS

'New Social Order' Is Key- note of Discussion; Reds Barred from Meeting.

By ROBERT M. YODER
Associated Press Staff Writer
CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—A national conference of self-styled radicals opened today with its leaders predicting they would put a "left wing" third party into the political field in 1936, with a "new social order" as its platform.

"We feel that capitalism is disintegrating," said Howard Y. Williams of St. Paul, national organizer of the farmer labor political federation, "and we are meeting to face the question of what shall replace it."

"We want a new party to build a new social order," said Yoder. Sponsors of the movement said 200 conferees gathered at a downtown Chicago hotel, at the call of an "inviting committee" of five members of congress. They were described as "radicals of a typical American strain" by young Alfred Bingham of New York, son of former republican Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut.

"Production for use"—with the profit system private industry discarded—was the goal uniting the various state groups, and on this plank they had a pledge of support from Gov. Floyd Olson of Minnesota, regarded as a possible third party presidential candidate.

The keynote of the discussion as expressed by Bingham was "the party system has failed. There is no hope for the present national leadership. What steps shall we take toward launching a third party movement in '36?"

What to call the new party, if it is launched, was one point at which the conferees were at odds. Mid-westerners urged the name "farmer labor party," and easterners wanted it called the "commonwealth party."

Communists were banned from the meetings, its leaders said. Economic or political organizations unaffiliated represented included the farmer labor political federation, the national farm holiday association, the farmer-labor party of Minnesota, Wisconsin's progressive party; various divisions of the continental committee of technocracy; the commonwealth federation of New York; Washington state's commonwealth builders; the socialist party of America; and the Pennsylvania security league.

Amie said some 30 states were represented, including all of the midwest and western states, except California; and many of the eastern states. No delegates registered from the deep south.

Ethiopia Appeals To U. S. Against Italy's Aggression

Europe Declines to Sell Munitions To Blacks

ADDIS ABABA, July 5 (AP)—Ethiopia's hope of keeping peace with Italy was in the hands of the United States today.

The African empire, in a note delivered to William Perry George, the United States charge d'affaires here, asked America to invoke the Kellogg-Briand pact under which Italy renounced war as an instrument of national policy.

The 5-page communication, citing the massing of men and munitions in African colonies as evidence that Italy has warlike intentions, urged that the United States seek to make Italy adhere to the pact.

The note reiterated the determination of Emperor Haile Selassie, king of kings and conquering lion of Judah, to defend the integrity and independence of his empire by legal methods in an effort to settle the issues peacefully.

Tracing the development of the Italo-Ethiopian controversy from scattered border incidents to a major problem, the note contended that Ethiopia's independence now was being threatened with conquest by Italy.

(The United States state department, which has twice taken the lead in representations for peace since the signing of the Kellogg-Briand pact August 27, 1928, declined comment pending receipt of the Ethiopian note.)

Simultaneously with delivery of the note, Ethiopian authorities disclosed that they are having difficulties in obtaining munitions from European manufacturers.

They asserted that Denmark refused to deliver munitions after accepting an offer; the Skoda works of Czechoslovakia refused to deliver artillery after taking an order, and French munitions factories declined Ethiopian orders.

Belgium, they said, put an embargo on export to Ethiopia of 7,500,000 cartridges after delivering the first shipments of an order for 10,000,000.

Although still officially unconfirmed, details of a reported conflict between Ethiopian and Italian forces on the border of the Italian colony of Eritrea were reaching this capital.

The rumors said that Italians crossed the Eritrean border and disregarded orders from the Italian Ethiopian provincial governor entrusted with frontier defense, to withdraw heavy casualties were said to have been incurred and the Italians were beaten back in the resultant battle.

An Italian government spokesman asserted at Rome that Ethiopia's appeal to the United States under the Kellogg pact would not change Italy's attitude toward the African empire.

The spokesman said that, for the moment, no official notice will be given the appeal.

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic:—Moses (Leader and Lawgiver).
Scripture Lesson:—Exodus 24:3-8, 12-18.

Exodus 24:3. And Moses came and told the people all the words of Jehovah, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which Jehovah hath spoken will we do.

4. And Moses wrote all the words of Jehovah, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the mount, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5. And he sent young men of the children to Israel, who offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto Jehovah.

6. And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7. And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people; and they said, All that Jehovah hath spoken will we do, and be obedient.

8. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which Jehovah hath made with you concerning all these words.

12. And Jehovah said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there; and I will give thee the tables of stone, and the law and the commandment, which I have written, that thou mayest teach them.

13. And Moses rose up, and Joshua his minister; and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14. And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for me, until I come again unto you, and behold, Aaron and Hurr are with you; whosoever hath a cause, let him come near unto them.

15. And Moses went up into the mount, and the cloud covered the mount.

16. And the glory of Jehovah abode upon Mount Sinai, an oblong cloud covered it six days; and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17. And the appearance of the glory of Jehovah was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18. And Moses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up into the mount; and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

Introduction
For the history of the people of Israel and of the Hebrew religion Exodus is one of the most important of the Old Testament books. It also is a "Genesis," for it recounts the real beginnings of the nation and its organized religion. In every national struggle for liberty the phraseology of Exodus has been largely employed: bondage; the hated forced task; the oppressor; a Moses liberator; a Red-Sea deliverance; a wilderness-experience of reconstruction and constructive state building.

"Moses there on the mountain top, alone with God, is elevated into a greatness that is almost superhuman; the tallest figure in the world's history is he—excepting only Christ—rising above David and Paul, Plato, Aristotle, and Alexander, Caesar, Napoleon and Washington."

Moses in Pharaoh's Court, Forty Years
Nothing is known of Moses' forty years in the court of Pharaoh, except the comment of Stephen, that he became "learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and mighty in words and in deeds" (Acts 7:22). It would be natural for the adopted son of Pharaoh's daughter to be educated in such a way that, ultimately, he could take any great position in the mighty Egyptian nation. While being educated as an Egyptian, in an Egyptian environment, with the prospect of a great place in Egyptian affairs, Moses nevertheless was a Hebrew of the Hebrews, and the blood that ran in his veins became a more powerful factor for him than the education that was fitting him. One day, beholding one of his own brethren being mistreated by an Egyptian taskmaster he hastily slew the Egyptian and buried him in the sand.

Moses' Wise Choice, Heb. 11:23-27
"Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." Moses (1) refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter—which would have obtained for him a life of ease and power; (2) refused to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season—for which the court at Egypt offered unlimited opportunities; (3) refused the treasures of Egypt; (4) and, burning his bridges behind him, he literally forsook the land of Egypt. Such a decision was made, not because of any eccentricity of his own, or through incapacity, or a warped temperament, and certainly not through compulsion, but (1) because he deliberately chose to share the ill treatment of God's people who were his brethren; (2) because he had turned his eyes away from material and temporal things, and had fastened them on future, more spiritual, and abiding objective; (3) and, most of all, because he saw God eternal, holy, and righteous. One who could make a decision like this is one whom God can trust in the stupendous work of emancipating his people when the opportune moment arrives. From Egypt Moses fled to Midian, an area in northwest Arabia, where he would be beyond Egyptian jurisdiction and out of danger from the King.

Moses in Midian Forty Years
In Midian for forty years, in the solitude of the wilderness about Sinai, Moses walked with God, and God prepared Moses for the great work that was before him, though Moses did not know it. "It would almost seem that, whenever God had a great new work for any man to do for him, he withdrew him for a while into the solemn sanctuary of the desert—David, Elijah, Amos, John the Baptist, Paul—like these name out of the Bible and ask how much remains. The vast empty spaces, the profound silence that broods over them, the untold grandeur of their scenes, the translucent air, the flood of light, the absolute solitude, all together bring to many minds the singular presence of the glory of God."—D. S. Cairns.

Here in this very desert at the foot of the mountain on which, not many months later, God was to appear to Moses for weeks at a time, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him out of an acacia bush, aflame with fire, but not consumed. As Moses turned aside to behold this miracle of a burning but unconsumed bush, God called to him and declared himself to be the very God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, that he had seen the affliction of his people in Egypt and was come down to deliver them, and that it would be he, Moses, whom he would send to Pharaoh "that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."

Moses, The Wilderness Leader, Forty Years
The last forty years of Moses' life are so closely identified with Israel's history that it would necessitate the writing of the entire nation's experience to adequately record the life of this greatest of Old Testament characters. In the Exodus, everything is done by the power of God, yet through the agency of his servant Moses. Moses is more often called "the servant of the Lord" than any other character in the Bible. Nevertheless, he was not an automatic force in God's hands, for surely none but a great leader, with a personality of power, with great courage and vision, could possibly achieve what Moses did in leading out 600,000 people, quarrelsome, murmuring, narrow-minded, jealous, idolatrous, sensual, from a land of pagan culture and bitterest bondage through the disappointments and hardships of forty years in the wilderness.

The Last Days of Moses
Deut. 32:46-52
The closing days of Moses' life are majestic and mysterious. They are majestic in the revelation of his marvelous confidence in God's faithfulness, in the vision which he is accorded of Israel's future, looking down through centuries of time, in his massive instructions to his people at the close of a memorable life of one hundred and twenty years. We behold the greatest man of ancient history uttering his final instructions to the most precious people the earth has ever seen.—Deut. 32. Appropriately his life closes in mystery, for in solitude, like that which had marked most of his great crises, Moses goes up to die in the arms of God, and to be buried by Jehovah's minister, to whom he had been so faithful a servant, truly a mediator from the hour when God had spoken to him from the burning bush, at the foot of holy mount. "So Moses the servant of the Lord died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord. And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Bethpeor; but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day."—Deut. 34:5, 6.

The Burial of Moses
"By Nebo's lonely mountains, On this side Jordan's wave, In a vale in the land of Moab There lies a lonely grave. And no man knows that sepulchre And no man saw it e'er. For the angels of God overturned the sod And laid the dead man there."— Cecil Frances Alexander.

Road Runners Win 2 Out Of 3 Games from Duncan Team

First Two Tilts Are Won By Large Scores

The Pampa Road Runners won two out of three games from the Halliburton Cementers of Duncan, Okla., in a holiday series here. The Pampa team opened with a 10 to 6 victory on Wednesday night, took yesterday afternoon's encounter 10 to 9, and lost a 10-inning thriller 10 to 8 last night.

All games were hitting affairs, with many sensational fielding gems mixed in with the base knocks. The visitors led the hitting, getting 50 bingles in the three games to 46 by the Road Runner batters. Sam Sealing, Road Runner third baseman, and Lowry, hot corner artist for the visitors, staged the hitting contest in the lead slugging with eight hits each out of 15 times at bat. Freddy Brickell, Road Runner leftfielder, collected seven hits in 14 trips to the plate and Lowell, Halliburton first sacker, had the same average with eight hits in 16 times at bat.

Big Overly Seitz of the home club and Coleman, visiting catcher, collected two home runs each during the series. Patton led in doubles with three and tied with Horton in triples with one each. Egg Dancy pitched masterful ball in the opening game. He allowed the Cementers 16 hits, but kept them well scattered except in the sixth inning, when five runs crossed the plate. The Road Runners staged a four run attack in the eighth inning to untie the score and win the ball game. A three-run attack by the home club in the fourth was featured by some nice bunting, which caused White, starting pitcher, to be relieved by Johns, veteran portsider.

Dancy fanned seven of the visitors and came back in the fifth inning of the last game to fan seven more. Lowry led the hitting with four out of five. Sealing followed with three for five.

Bill Hardin pitched winning ball yesterday afternoon at the Pampa ball park. He was relieved in the ninth by George Bulla. Halliburton started on a hitting spree in the ninth inning. Five runs had crossed the plate before the last man had been retired. Coleman, pinch hitter, Brown and Lowry hit home runs off Hardin in the ninth before he was relieved. Bulla allowed one run and one hit before retiring the side.

Pruitt, a portsider with a slow ball, started on the mound yesterday afternoon and had fair luck for five innings, as the Road Runners batters tried to "kill" the ball. In the sixth and seventh the home club scored twice. Then came the barrage in the eighth which saw Seitz hit his home run with two men on base and Pruitt being left in to take his bing.

Sealing led the Pampa attack with four hits on five times at bat. Summers pulled his fifth double of the season by tagging the runner between first and second and getting the hitter at first.

Halliburton won the third game by getting to Stewart early and then pecking away at Dancy's offerings. The visitors tied the count in the last half of the ninth when George took an easy grounder and then threw the ball away. The complete play would have ended the game, since two were already down. Two singles followed and the tying run crossed the plate. Halliburton won in the tenth on consecutive singles by Lowell, Holley and S. Jones, and a wild pitch.

The Road Runners sent 11 batters to the plate in the lucky seventh to score five runs and go into the lead. Dancy fanned three in the eighth and appeared on the way to his second win in two nights in the ninth when George's bobble wrecked his chance. Stewart left the game in the fifth. John Paul Jones, Halliburton underhand artist, lasted until the seventh when he was relieved by White, who pitched great ball the rest of the game.

Gordon Nell pulled one of the outstanding plays of the series when he reached high for a one-handed stab of Brown's line drive in the fourth and beat S. Jones to the bag for a double play. The liner almost tore Nell's glove from his hand. Patton also provided a thrill when he fouled back first for a putout.

The Road Runner big guns were silenced in last night's game when Nell and Seitz each fanned three times and Summers went out swinging twice as 12 road Runners went down swinging. Dancy fanned Brown and Adair twice after taking the mound.

Wrestling Card Will Be Staged On Monday Night

Promoter G. B. Garrison is going to fool the weather next week by staging his wrestling card on Monday night at Road Runner park. Rain has interfered with wrestling since it was taken out-of-doors this summer.

The card to be presented is one of the best of the year. It is claimed. In the main event, Buck Weaver, the Indiana speed demon, will tangle with Tony Piluso of Detroit, one of the classiest grapplers in the game today. Weaver is a former world champion athlete, having been sensational in swimming, track and field, football, baseball, and wrestling.

COLTEXO WILL MEET LOCALS NEXT SUNDAY

Pampa's Road Runners will invade LeFors for the second time this year on Sunday afternoon for a scheduled game with the Coltexos of LeFors. Game time will be 3:30 o'clock at Shaw park.

The Pampa aggregation won the opening game of the season in LeFors, but the last four straight encounters at Road Runner park before breaking into the win column against Coltexo. A recent game, scheduled to be played in LeFors, had to be transferred to Pampa when the Red River overflowed and flooded the LeFors playing field.

Although neither Manager Freddy Brickell of the Road Runners or Manager Sammy Hale of Coltexo have made any statements about the forthcoming affair, it is the prediction of fans that Lefty George Bulla was driven from the mound in his first attempt at the Coltexos. Since that time, the little portsider has been doing some nice hurting.

Tiger Joe Berry was scheduled to hurl Sunday but word was received here yesterday that he had joined the Ponca City Angels of Earl Hamilton. Berry was to have pitched one of the games last night but no word has been received here on the outcome of the game.

It was the Tigers seventh victory and their fifth over the Indians, who sank to fourth place as Chicago's White Sox belted over the Browns twice, 11 to 6 and 4 to 0. Silent John Whitehead broke his six game losing streak, but he failed to finish the opener and Les Tietje followed with a 5-hit flinging job. The Athletics also were double winners, beating Washington 6 to 2 and 2 to 1 to take sixth place away from the Senators.

In contrast to this struggle the Giants' National league lead stretched to nine games—the longest so far—as they trimmed the Braves twice, 11 to 6 and 4 to 0. The Cardinals rounded the Cubs to climb back into second place and drop Chicago to fourth. The Pirates moved up a notch to third by splitting their bargain bill with Cincinnati.

The Giants had a bit of a struggle in the opener when Boston bowled Clyde Castleman over with a 5-run fifth inning, but they rallied to win 10 to 8 and went on to hammer St. Louis 12 to 3.

After three hits off Charley Root in the twelfth inning, the Cards a 5 to 3 triumph over Chicago, they went on to win another close one, 6 to 4 for Dizzy Dean, who chalked up his twelfth hurling triumph with the aid of Cub errors.

The Pirates belted out 15 hits in the opener, 9 to 5, but failed to survive Cincinnati's seventh inning attack in the after-piece, and Billy Myers smashed a homer with two on to win for the Reds, 5 to 4.

The Phillies rounded out a big day for the Quaker City club by taking two hard games from Brooklyn by the home run route. John Moore's fourteenth homer brought a 3 to 2 victory in the opener and the Cards a 5 to 3 triumph over Chicago, they went on to win another close one, 6 to 4 for Dizzy Dean, who chalked up his twelfth hurling triumph with the aid of Cub errors.

SOONER TEAMS TAKE LEAD IN TEXAS LEAGUE

MISS ALTA MAE SEXTON AND EMMITT SMITH MARRY AT TULIA

MR. SMITH AND BRIDE TO LIVE IN BROWNFIELD

COUPLE WILL SPEND A HONEYMOON IN COLODARO

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Alta Mae Sexton of Tulia and Emmitt Smith, teacher in Pampa schools for several years past, is made in the following story from the Tulia Herald:

Miss Alta Mae Sexton of this city and Mr. Emmitt Smith of Pampa were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 2 o'clock Sunday, June 30. Rev. Ackers, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Happy, officiated at the ceremony which took place in the living room which was tastefully decorated with bouquets of sweet peas, baby breath, and pink larkspur. Mendelssohn's "Morning Song" was played softly by Miss Grace Sorrenson during the ceremony.

The bride wore a two-piece dress of pastel pink crepe with white accessories. She wore a lovely corsage of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. After the ceremony she changed to a going away navy blue with white accessories.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sexton of this city. She is a graduate of Tulia high school and will soon have her degree from W. T. S. T. C., Canyon. For the past six years she has done very successful work as first grade teacher in the Happy schools.

The groom has been employed in the Pampa schools for the last five years. He will take his degree from W. T. S. T. C. at the end of the summer. He has been elected principal of the Brownfield schools for the coming term.

After the bride had cut the first slice of the beautiful wedding cake, refreshments consisting of punch and cake were served to the following guests and relatives: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sexton, Rev. and Mrs. Ackers of Happy, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sexton of Happy, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sorrenson, and Miss Grace Sorrenson.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy bride and groom left for Denver, Colo., where they will attend the meeting of the N. E. A. They will be at home in Canyon after July 6. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be in school the remainder of the summer. They will then go to Brownfield where both are employed in the Brownfield schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have a host of friends who wish for them the best of everything in life.

Relieves Sluggish Feeling

Night or day, when you first begin to feel sluggish and need something to straighten out your bowels (to relieve constipation)—take a dose of reliable Theoford's Black-Draught.

"We take Black-Draught for biliousness, constipation and any bad feeling that comes from these conditions," writes Mrs. Luvena Owens, of Springer, Okla. "Black-Draught cleans the system and makes me feel much better after taking it."

Freshen up by taking this purely vegetable laxative, if you have a tendency to constipation or sluggishness.

Heckscher Gives Bride Away

In one of the most picturesque country weddings of the year, Nancy Heckscher became the bride of Theodore H. Price Jr. at Lattin.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Writer.

Lucky is the bride who numbers a waffle iron among her wedding gifts. Crisp, golden waffles delight the diner from breakfast to the after-movie party and even have a place in the main course or dessert.

Rice waffles and creamed chicken or creamed fish, plain waffles and maple syrup or honey; waffles and crushed berries; chocolate waffles and ice cream, ginger waffles and whipped cream and later in the season, green corn waffles, are just a few of the luscious combinations possible.

And more important, waffles always can be made at the last minute, so they hold first rank of emergency dishes.

Because waffle batter is a pour batter, it's much more convenient to mix it in a pitcher and pour it on the waffles rather than dip it with a spoon from a mixing bowl. The lipped bowls are attractive and I find them easier to beat in than a straight-sided pitcher.

Wipe, Don't Wash. Never wash a waffle iron! The metal must be seasoned before using, but after that, even this material should not be washed. After each baking wipe with soft crumpled paper and remove all crumbs with a stiff brush kept for the purpose.

Plain waffles with creamed salmon and fresh peas make a delicious luncheon for a summer noon when the weather suddenly turns cool. I remember one evening I had planned to serve Boston coolers because the weather had been almost unbearably hot. Early in the evening a thunder storm came up and

WHEELER PAIR GIVEN SHOWER BY CLUB FRIDAY

Demonstration Club Honors Witts With Gifts

WHEELER, July 5.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Witt, whose home was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, were given a miscellaneous shower by the Wheeler Home Demonstration club in the club room of the court house last Friday afternoon. They were the recipient of many gifts.

After several games were played, punch and cookies were served by the refreshment committee, Mmes. Jim Risner, Jess Carver, and C. B. Witt, to Mmes. M. E. Red, E. G. Pettit, F. M. Robison, and Earl Taylor, all of Corn Valley, Mmes. Elton Myers, Jim Risner, Jim Porter, Jess Carver, H. Flanagan, M. L. Gunter, C. B. Witt, Mmes. Emma Lee Myer, and Evelyn Taylor, and the honoree, Mrs. J. F. Witt.

Those who sent gifts were Miss Tamsey Riley of Briscoe, Miss Jennie Riley of Amarillo, Mrs. Perry Riley of Briscoe, Mrs. J. E. Willard and Mrs. Bill Owen of Wheeler, and Mmes. Guy Hunter, Morris Boone, Whorton, E. E. Farmer, J. H. Creekmore, J. L. Bailey, Eldred Farmer, Jack Beck, Hessa Biggers, Carroll McClendon, McGee, and Misses Lois Farmer, Joyce Bailey, and Thelma Bell, all of Corn Valley.

League Elects.

For the purpose of electing new officers for the next year, eighteen members of the senior Epworth League met in the basement of the Methodist church Tuesday evening. The president for last year, Fay Picke, was retained, while Louise Craig was elected as secretary, H. E. Young and Guy Robison as treasurers, and Miss Picke as publicity superintendent. The chairman of each committee and the president met at the church Wednesday night to select officers for the committees.

After the business hour and ping pong and other games had been played, refreshments of sandwiches and fruit were served. Those present were Charles Hix, M. L. Gunter, Walter Adams, Coy Hix, Hobby Kirby, H. E. Young, Joe Meek, Guy Robison, Wayland Merriman, Parrel Wallace, Inez Shipman, Edie Creekmore, Ferrol Picke, Louise Warren, Potts, N. N. Gault, N. P. The Girl Scouts met at the Methodist church with their leader, Mrs. C. J. Meek, last Monday night to make further plans for a trip to Palo Duro, where they plan to spend a week in camp some time this month.

Club Meets at Twilight Hour

Cool evening hours have been chosen by Eight Hearts Contract club for its meetings this summer. Mrs. Fred Bozeman was hostess at Dora Mae Wilson's evening to two tables of members.

Mrs. Dallas Culwell scored high in the games, Mrs. Frank Roach second high, and Miss Verna Fox low. Travelling prize went to Mrs. Rabin Burke.

NAMED STAFFORD HALL
CANYON, July 5.—Stafford Hall will be the name of the men's dormitory which is now being erected on the campus of the West Texas State Teachers college through the aid of PWA funds. The dormitory, which is a $40,000 structure, is named for Prof. E. A. Stafford, a member of the first faculty of the college. He came to Canyon in 1910 as head of the Latin department and was vice president under President R. B. Cousins. He continued on the staff until his health forced his retirement. His fine classical library now belongs to the college.

Black Lace

A neat little suit to wear on summer trips is made of black silk lace. It includes a plain skirt, single-breasted jacket and a flattering blouse of triple sheer. A shoulder corsage of pink carnations with ragged edges adds a touch of gaiety.

SPECIAL MOVIE PROGRAM HAS BEEN BOOKED

"GOLD MEDAL" SERIES BRINGS BERNIE AND HIS BAND

La Nora theater today and Saturday presents the first of a series of Gold Seal road show (screen) programs, hand-picked as to feature and short subjects.

The short subjects will include Popeye in "Hip Nut Tist" and Charlie Chase in "Okay, Toots." The feature is "Stolen Harmony," featuring Ben Bernie and his band. Bernie and his lads took the cast of "Stolen Harmony," a medley of comedy, thrills and melody, with George Raft sharing the starring billing.

The picture is the story of a maestro who tours the country with his band in an enormous bus. In his company is George Raft, a reformed convict trying to go straight. Strange things occur during the voyage that make Bernie think that Raft has reverted to his former ways, and Raft smarting under the injustice of his suspicions wants to quit the company. Only his love for the troupe's little dancer, Grace Bradley, keeps him with them.

On the road, the troupe is overtaken by a desperate outlaw band and forced to hide out with them. Raft's knowledge of these shady gentlemen enables him to save the band, vindicate himself and win the hand of the girl he loves.

The musical score of "Stolen Harmony" was written by Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, Hollywood's champion tunesmiths, and includes "Would There Be Love?" and "Let's Split the Beans," two new tunes. LeRoy Prinz is responsible for the dance routines which appear in the picture directed by Alfred Werker.

Amarda Mission Conducts Revival

An invitation from Amarda Baptist mission to revival services being conducted daily is issued by Harold Holmes, pastor, and members of the church.

The Rev. Mr. McClung of Panhandle is preaching each day at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. Everyone is invited to this mission near the Merten school.

Coltexpo Routs Amarillo Nine In Twin Bill

Coltexpo of LeFors broke the Amarillo Shamrock's six-game winning streak by taking both ends of a doubleheader yesterday afternoon at Metro park in Amarillo. Coltexpo took the opener 5 to 1 and came back to nose out winner in the closing contest, 7 to 6.

Phisher Brierley not only held Amarillo's hits well scattered in the opening affray, but won his own game by accounting for all the Coltexpo runs. In the third inning, Brierley hit one over the fence with two men on base. In the seventh he singled to send the other two runs across the plate.

Colburn lasted the distance in the nightcap affair although hit hard and often. Dorman, who went the route for Amarillo in the first game, also started the second game. He lasted only two innings, being relieved by Gray Pachak, slowball artist who throws from the wrong side, finished on the mound.

Pachak was the big hitter of the series, gathering five hits in seven trips to the plate. Spencer and Bennett hit doubles in each game for Coltexpo.

EXPORTS DECREASE

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—Reporting that for the second successive month the United States bought more than she sold during May, department of commerce officials said today that increases in agricultural imports and decreases in exports of the same class were partly responsible.

BRIDE CHANGES MIND

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—Max Baer's bride, the former Mary Ellen Sullivan, has changed her mind and now favors her husband's return to the fistie wars, with the objective of regaining the world's heavyweight title, the World-Telegram said today in a copyright story.

PIONEERING NEVER WAS A HOLIDAY AFFAIR

Glancing in the direction of Alaska's Matanuska Valley, one is compelled to wonder just what has happened to the old-time pioneering spirit in this country.

The Matanuska Valley harbors several hundred homesteaders who were moved from farms in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota and sent to the northland to carve new homes out of the wilderness.

They were victims of the depression. There was no hope for them if they stayed at home. Unable to support themselves where they were, they had to move or sink into pauperism. The Alaskan venture, subsidized by the government, offered them a chance to make a new start.

When they set out for Alaska we heard a great deal about the new pioneers, about the revival of the old days, and about the rediscovery of the frontier in the twentieth century. Everybody sat back and wished the colonists lots of luck.

But lately the welkin has been ringing with all manner of complaints. These range all the way from protests over a shortage of farm equipment to moans about the excessive number of mosquitoes in Alaska's fair valleys.

Cabins that were to have been built to house the colonists are far behind schedule. The colonists are still living in tents, and are not enjoying it. Sanitation is imperfect, roads are practically non-existent, tools have not been delivered and political bureaucracy does not seem to be functioning very well.

Now these charges, having been aired on the floor of the Senate, deserve and should get a complete, impartial investigation. And yet, when all allowance is made, one does have to wonder—what has happened to that old-time pioneer spirit?

These colonists were right back of the eight-ball, before the Alaskan venture started. They were broke and had no chance of remedying their condition. They were given a chance to better themselves by indulging in a little pioneering—and pioneers never did have it soft. All of America was developed by people who lived in imperfect houses, lacked proper tools, suffered plagues of mosquitoes, toiled over boggy roads and in general had to put up with a whole host of annoyances and inconveniences.

It seems likely that a small minority is doing most of the complaining. Most of the settlers, one suspects, are plugging away and saying nothing. The majority, probably, realize full well that the pioneer never did have a picnic.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, July 3. (AP)—Governor Alford is happy over beautiful saddle presented him recently by Jay Taylor of Amarillo, president of the Panhandle Cattlemen's association.

He is an eager horseman, obtaining most of his outdoor recreation riding national guard cavalry horses maintained at Camp Mabry, over the hills west of Austin.

The governor enthusiastically informed press correspondents of the gift at a conference and planned to "try it out" the next day.

"Governor," piped up Edward Clark, his secretary and, most frequently, his riding companion, "if you don't like that saddle may I have it?"

"What!" shouted the governor. Then he laughed.

"Yes, Ed," he agreed solemnly, "you may."

Secretary of State Gerald Mann, one of the most popular "talkers" in Governor Alford's administration, has had many speaking engagements recently.

He is looking forward with pleasure to another at a confederate veterans reunion next August in Hays county. He will be the principal speaker.

A patriotic address on the old south is right down his alley for he is southerner through and through. He recounts that both his grandfathers were confederate soldiers and on the walls of his office hangs a picture of Robert E. Lee.

Mann is well acquainted with the life story of the great southern general and reads everything pertaining thereto he can find.

Mounted on a high stepladder a bright-eyed woman was working thoughtfully with paint brush on Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson's new portrait, recently added to the gallery of governors.

"I'm fixing ma's eyebrows," she beamed. "They need touching up under this lighting."

She was Mrs. Lucy Rice, who has painted several of the governors' portraits, as well as that of Vice President John N. Garner, bought by the senate at the last legislative session.

"Garner's drying out now," she explained. "You know he always has been wet."

At the time the portrait was laying, face down, in a committee room, literally drying out after re-touching.

Mrs. Ferguson is the only governor to have two portraits in the gallery. Her latest is next to that of Governor R. S. Sterling, who refused to attend her inauguration.

SURPRISE!
LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—Imagine Earl Hoover's surprise. He picked up his coat after work in a lumber camp and found a pocket full of copperhead snake.

Hoover let go of the coat—but fast. The snake crawled out some minutes later, and Earl recovered the garment.

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Their nimble minds leaping far ahead, certain New Dealers who usually reflect what the White House thinks already are looking forward to the next session of Congress.

"With the tax bill out of the way," they say, "we won't be needing any more legislation."

"Next winter and spring, right up to the national conventions, we can concentrate on investigations and let them have the limelight."

The investigations especially referred to are the Senate's inquiry into railroad financing and reorganization, the Federal Communications Commission's investigation of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, and an investigation of investment trusts by the Securities and Exchange Commission, authorized in the public utilities-holding company bill through a provision few persons have noticed.

The Senate munitions committee this fall will have hearings on World War financing—and war propaganda, if any—by Morgan and other international bankers and will be ready to report soon after Congress meets in January.

The political implication of these and other investigations should be as obvious to the rest of us as to the New Dealers. They all hit at the Wall Street-Big Business interests which are at war with the administration.

Each of the four inquiries mentioned leads to the Morgan door at Broad and Wall.

They are bound to produce plenty of ammunition for an administration displaying an increasing eagerness to picture the next political campaign as a battle between "the people and plutocracy." At least, so the New Dealers anticipate.

Agitation inside the Securities and Exchange Commission has been much greater than anyone would admit since arrest in New York of a former $65000-a-year SEC investigator charged with attempting to sell out the SEC case against an oil stock broker for $27,500.

One group is demanding more rigid standards for personnel and close scrutiny of many already hired. The man arrested had asked the oil broker for a job for another SEC employe who presumably was in on the deal.

Rumors of Wall Street "spies" and "fixers" alleged to be on the SEC payroll have been common here for months.

The "inside" group revolving around Chairman Joe Kennedy is also disturbed. It hopes the news won't leak into the newspapers that the prisoner, when hired by SEC, was known to have been a pool operator for a famous New York brokerage house.

In defense of Kennedy, who himself once played in pools, it is said that he felt sympathetic for the latter had been having bad luck.

SEC investigators have been quietly assigned to trace what is commonly supposed to have been an advance leak on Roosevelt's tax message which enabled individuals in Washington and New York to make a stock market cleanup.

Net result so far: A sensational rumor.

With one deck of cards, it is said, 734 different games are possible; not of course, counting those the little woman plays at bridge.

If a traffic victim should meet others in another world, the theme song would probably be, "I'm a Dreamer, Aren't We All?"

Minneapolis doctor says music aids people who have an unsatisfactory social attitude. The latter, incidentally, is what neighbors develop when your daughter plays the piano.

TWELVE DEAD MANY INJURED IN TEXAS' 4TH

CAR WRECKS KILL SIX, AND 3 PERSONS DROWN

By The Associated Press
At least 12 persons lost their lives and many others were injured in Texas' celebration of the Fourth of July.

Six persons died in automobile accidents, three drowned, one apparently died in a fall from a tree and one dropped dead while on a picnic.

Automobile accident deaths included:

Dan J. Vivojetto, 37, of Dallas, fatally injured when his car overturned after a collision.

Miss Ruth Wright, 20, of Paris, killed when thrown from an auto as it careened into a bridge railing near Royse City.

Pholoph-Ruda, 82, president of the Harris county home for the aged, killed when hit by a car in front of the home at Houston.

R. M. Norvill, Jr., 27, fatally injured in a crash 16 miles north of Houston.

D. C. Ellis, 26, killed when his truck hit the rear end of another truck and overturned at Fort Worth.

L. D. Titus, 50, Port Arthur, fatally injured in a collision near Orange.

Other deaths were:

Roy Watson, 14, drowned in the Bosque river near Waco.

James H. Fryar, 33, and Arthur Tomber, 17, drowned in the Medina river 12 miles south of San Antonio when Fryar tried to aid Tomber who was overcome in the water.

Robert Joseph Gittinger, 24, received a broken neck when he dived into 18 inches of water from a 7-foot embankment of the Medina river near the Frio City road crossing.

A. K. Morrow, 60, engineer for the Texas relief commission, died of heart attack while attending a celebration at Austin.

The body of Ernest Moore, 54, of Dallas was found under a tree near Love field where he was a holiday guest. It was believed he fell from a tree which he apparently climbed to pick grapes.

CRY OF STATES RIGHTS RAISED IN 4TH ORATORY

Senator Holt Flays American Liberty League

WASHINGTON, July 5. (AP)—Studying independence day speeches, political observers found today that stress was laid on "individual liberty" and "states' rights."

These points were drawn upon in addresses by highly-placed republicans and by some prominent democrats. They were particularly stressed in attacks on new deal policies.

They day was marked also by denials that the new deal tends to dictatorship.

Former President Hoover was one who spoke of the need for the "preservation of individual liberty." Another to speak on this subject was Senator Byrd, Virginia democrat, who praised George Washington's views on personal freedom.

Governor Talmadge of Georgia, a persistent new deal critic, raised the cry of states' rights.

While these addresses were being made to Fourth of July crowds, President Roosevelt remained in the White House conferring for a time with house leaders on his tax-the-wealth program.

The American liberty league assailed the new tax program as a "transparent political seizure" out in Kansas, Rush D. Holt (D-W. Va.), the senate's youngest legislator, told a Topeka gathering of young democrats that the "most dangerous influence in America today is the American liberty league."

CONGRESS MAY BROADEN NEW INCOME TAXES

MAY REACH INTO MIDDLE BRACKETS IN NEW BILL

WASHINGTON, July 5. (P)—New deal circle are studying the advisability of broadening the tax-the-wealth program to reach into the middle income brackets as well as the $1,000,000-a-year class.

Some legislators and experts are known to feel that if the new taxes are levied only on the very wealthiest persons, the revenue resulting would not live up to expectations.

This disclosure came after a White House conference in which plans were laid to push ahead with the tax plan and enact it this session, despite republican demands that the whole question go over to a special session in the fall.

Meanwhile critics of the plan were giving an inkling of the arguments they will use when it comes to the debate stage. Senator Metcalf (R-OR), in a Fourth of July address, called the country to "register a powerful objection to the levying of confiscatory taxes in order to gain the political support of socialists and radicals of every stripe."

The American liberty league called the president's plan a "transparent political gesture."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) who attended the White House conference, said some legislators "feel we can get some additional revenue without injustice to business."

He disclosed that the question of extending tax revision to lower brackets than previously indicated had been discussed.

Doughton's committee will begin hearings Monday, with treasury experts on the stand. No specific tax bill will be before the committee. Doughton said "we want to get full information before framing a bill."

CANADIAN NEWS

CANADIAN, July 5.—Mrs. W. D. Rathjen, her daughter, Ruby McGregor, and grandchildren, Richard McGregor and Sybil Kiggs, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dean. They drove here from Portland, Ore. Martin Furlong, a cousin of Mrs. Dean, is here from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Thigpen of Dallas are visiting relatives here. Miss Lena Hill visited in Shamrock Tuesday.

The funeral of B. M. Reed, whose body was sent here the first of the week, was conducted Wednesday by the Rev. J. I. Brimberry of Helena, Okla. Pallbearers were Thomas Glen Newton, J. C. Mason, Charles Newton, Tommy Stewart, Wesley Lewis, and Carrol Dean.

SIX NAZIS KILLED

BERLIN, July 5. (P)—A pilot and five mechanics, were killed today when a trial plane crashed through the roof of a house of Britz, a Berlin suburb near Temple of Airdrome. The cause of the crash was not determined.
