FDR Makes No Recommendation On Tax Rates; Morgenthau Testifies

WHITE HOUSE VIEWS GIVEN BY TREASURER

CLAIMS 118 TO 901 MILLIONS COULD BE RAISED

WASHINGTON, July 8. (AP)—The opinion that wealth distribution taxes could be levied to raise $118,000,000 to $901,500,000 annually was expressed to the house ways and means committee today by Secretary Morgenthau.

While he was testifying, the white house emphasized the administration was making no specific recommendation on tax rates and that Morgenthau was simply presenting estimates based on schedules suggested by committee members.

A plain intimation was given at the white house that President Roosevelt expected the new tax bill to be confined to the three points he suggested to congress—levies on high inheritances, on high incomes, and a graduated corporation tax to replace the present flat rate.

On that basis, it was assumed the president did not expect congress to make a general revision of taxes by dipping into the medium and lower income brackets.

Morgenthau said "It would be perilous to regard any part of these new revenues as available for new types of expenditures or as justifying any increase over our

PIRATES LOOT FINE BARGE OF ABOUT $32,000

Gambling Boat at Sea Off Long Beach Is Robbed

LONG BEACH, Calif., July 8 (AP)—Five pirates today boarded the luxurious gambling barge, Monte Carlo, chained its crew, and escaped with what Ed Turner, owner of the boat, estimated was $32,000 in cash and jewelry.

The attack on the Monte Carlo, which became piracy on the high seas because the big steel barge is anchored about eight miles off shore, occurred at 4 a. m., said Turner, while most of the crew were asleep.

Turner said the loot consisted of $22,000 in cash, and $10,000 in jewelry left as security by patrons. The pirates came alongside in a fishing boat under the cover of a heavy fog. Part remained in the boat while five men boarded the Monte Carlo.

Turner said the boarding crew carried chains, and were armed with revolvers, rifle, and sawed-off shotguns.

The crew of the Monte Carlo was quickly subdued and the safe looted. After the pirates escaped the Coast Guard was summoned, since the case is a federal one, and the Long Beach police were asked to post guards at all likely landing piers.

This morning Frank passed five friends without speaking to them, so deep was he in thought.

DEPUTY SLAIN BY SUSPECT IN VALLEY CRIME

SHOTGUN DISCHARGED AS 'HALT' ORDER IS GIVEN

M'ALLEN, July 8. (AP)—Officers combed the Rio Grande border near Mission today in search of a wounded robbery suspect who killed Deputy Sheriff George M. Dennett of Hidalgo county late last night as the officer attempted to arrest him.

Dennett fell, instantly killed, from a shotgun charge which tore into his neck and chin shortly after he issued a command to the suspect to halt.

The slaying took place about 15 miles west of Mission on a farm near the river, and officers on both sides of the stream were notified.

Deputy E. E. Vickers said Dennett was slain after he and Deputies N. K. Campbell and George Ingram had gone to the scene of the slaying to await the suspect, wanted for questioning in connection with a series of robberies over Hidalgo county in the last few weeks.

Vickers said the officers lay in wait along a road leading to river. Three men came across the river from the Mexican side in a small boat, he said, and when they alighted, Dennett rose from his hiding place and commanded the man he sought to halt. Instantly, he opened fire with a shotgun and slew the officer.

Dennett's companions fired several shots, Vickers said, and were certain they wounded the man, who fled, and left a small trail of blood as he fled the scene. The other two men were arrested and taken to Edinburg, Vickers said.

SKELLY FIGHTS FOR PROPERTIES IN STOCK WAR

Fisti-Cuffer Cannot Lay Large Hands On His Foes

TULSA, Okla., July 8 (AP)—Bel-ligierent Bill Skelly, colorful millionaire who rose from rough-and-ready oil field ranks, was fighting for his properties here today with a foe on whom he could not lay his large hands.

It was a common stock battle which has caused the oil world to speculate whether 56-year-old G. C. Skelly, Oklahoma republican national committeeman, will be toppled at the annual meeting in October from presidency of his hand-wrought firm, one of the largest independents in this territory.

A majority of the stock is held by Mission Corp., and three of Mission's five directors are executives of Tidewater Oil Corp., which has few middle western outlets.

For months Mission Corp. has had auditors and other experts swarming the 9-story Skelly building, inspecting all operations.

If Skelly is ousted from his $48,000-a-year job, oil men here believe the ultimate cost to Mission will depend on whether the name goes with the company or might be used in a new firm. Its good will value has been estimated informally as high as $2,000,000.

Skelly, a burly, florid Irish type, began his spectacular career as a "roughneck" (oil slang for roustabout), in the Pennsylvania fields, and followed development into the midcontinent area about 1900.

He advanced from drilling to producing, and 16 years ago formed his present firm, expanding it to include refining and retail marketing in a dozen states.

It has been difficult for Skelly to forget his early training in using the money in the cash register and left. Nicholson grabbed a "grease jacket," slipped into it, and ran outside after he heard the bandit's car, a 1929 Ford coupe, leave. City officers, passing in their patrol car, were put on the chase almost immediately, but no trace of the hijacker was found.

Passes 96th Birthday

19 TEETH ARE STILL SOUND; HEALTH IS 'BEST IN YEARS'

'Richest Man in World' Has Given Away Half-Billion Dollars To Philanthropy.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., July 8. (AP)—John D. Rockefeller Sr., was four score and sixteen today and enjoying the best health in years.

Routine in "golf house" with its servants remained unchanged, with any birthday observance barred. The nonagenarian's son, John D. Rockefeller Jr., spent the day with him.

"He hasn't felt better in many years," the son said.

His dentist, Dr. Max Goldstein, reported that the annual examination showed his 19 natural teeth still sound with no need for fillings, drillings or extractions.

The birthday marked the eightieth year since the start of the business career that carried Mr. Rockefeller from the possession of nothing to the possession of unestimated billions. The actual size of his fortune has never been revealed.

At 16 he started work as an assistant bookkeeper in a produce commission warehouse in Cleveland at $50 a month.

At 96 he is long retired from business activity and has behind him the amassing of what many believe to be the greatest riches ever controlled by an individual, and the philanthropic disposal of a half billion dollars.

AUSTIN, July 8.—A total of 6599 students in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Texas made grades during the spring semester entitling them to places on the honor roll of that college. Both quantity and quality of the work done by each student were considered in compiling the honor roll. The list, just announced by Dean H. T. Farlin, included the following:

Among the best 659 of 4,809—Opal Eldora Denson, Pampa; David Jesse Dial, Miami; Ruth Serene Shaller, Canadian. More than 25 from Gray county attended the university during the last session.

Nicholson grabbed a "grease jacket," slipped into it, and ran outside after he heard the bandit's car, a 1929 Ford coupe, leave. City officers, passing in their patrol car, were put on the chase almost immediately, but no trace of the hijacker was found.

Cochrane Crew Leads Thruout Loops' Classic

CLEVELAND STADIUM, July 8. (AP)—Making only four substitutions in the entire game, the American league all stars today trounced the National League's hand-picked baseball forces for the third straight year. The final score was 4 to 1 as Lefty Gomez and Mel Harder combined to pitch a four hit game for the benefit of a crowd numbering 69,812 in paid attendance.

A first inning home run by big Jimmie Foxx, third baseman with Lou Gehrig on first, gave the Americans a lead that they kept throughout the game.

Lefty Bill Walker, the surprise starting pitcher for the Nationals was rapped for another run in the second inning before yielding the mound to Hal Schumacher of the Giants, who was touched for the final marker in the fifth. Paul Derringer and Dizzy Dean pitched an inning for the Nationals but managed to escape further damage.

Score by innings: R H E Nationals 000 100 000—1 8 1 Americans 210 010 00x—4 8 0

CLEVELAND STADIUM, July 8. (AP)—In a last minute switch, Manager Mickey Cochrane named Vernon (Lefty) Gomez of the New York Yankees to start in the box for the Americans today instead of Mel Harder, for the third annual all-star game with the National league.

The huge double-decked stands were nearly filled but scarcely 4,000 bleachers customers turned out. This made standing room unnecessary.

Harder, after being slated to start, was suddenly recalled to the bench by Cochrane after he had gone out to warm up.

It was thus a battle of southpaws with Lefty Bill Walker, Cardinal veteran and an added starter, the equally surprising choice of Manager Frankie Frisch to start for the Nationals instead of Hal Schumacher of the New York Giants.

Under cloudy skies, a crowd estimated at 72,000, considerably short of capacity and expectations, turned out for the game, played in the huge stadium on the shores of Lake Erie. The Americans made another unexpected shift and sent Al Simmons to center field instead of Roger Cramer.

NANKING, China, July 8. (AP)—Three separate groups of American missionaries were reported in grave danger tonight as the Yangtze river swept over the dikes protecting Shasi, an important port in southern Hupeh province.

OLD AGE PENSION AND TAXATION

If, as generally believed, the Texas old age pension amendment is voted, it will be meaningless until and unless the legislature finds an additional tax source. At the moment, taxes even for relief and to wipe out the deficit are not in sight.

The pension, made applicable to the poor and rich alike who have attained the age of 65 years, could amount to as much as $15 per month. This would entail an annual expense of about $40,000,000. This total approximates a 50 per cent increase in taxes. With property owners rightly campaigning for a reduction in their load of the modern tax structure, one can see only one possible substantial new tax source likely to be voted—the sales tax.

It is argued, with some truth, that the sales tax is a tax on poverty. It is that, and on the wealthy and the middle employed class as well. But it is no more a tax on poverty than are the processing taxes which are rehabilitating the farmers. Who suffers most when a tax is placed on wheat or bacon—the rich man or the poor one? The answer is obvious.

Taxation was simple when governmental functions were few. To pay taxes was to pay for the protection of property. Today, a big part of taxes goes to various forms of relief. The cost of government has become so huge and has so many ramifications that almost everyone benefits as well as pays. Indeed, no person living in this country, unless disabled, can well escape the responsibility for helping to support the government which helps him.

Suppose a couple 65 years of age is nearly penniless and in want. Without a sales tax, or some similar tax, the State may not be able to help them to the extent of more than $5 a month, if any at all. But with a 2 per cent sales tax, suppose the couple could be paid $15 each, or $30 a month. The sales tax on their purchases could be little more than 60 cents a month under any of the state plans now in use. Here, then, is a sales tax "on poverty" which would be very acceptable to the aged. True, indigents not yet 65 would not be so fortunately situated, but 60 cents per month for them is not too much to contribute to the support of the aged.

We state this argument academically, and without endorsing the sales tax. We doubt that a 2 per cent tax would be adequate, especially without reducing the list of aged beneficiaries to those who need the pension. Sales taxes are undesirable on a number of grounds. Yet with many states adopting them with much apparent success, it is obvious that many of the objections heard are mere guesses or prejudices.

If governments—state and national—are to embark on permanent social security programs, the sales tax plan of support seems inevitable. And if all the people benefit, it is not illogical that all should contribute in some degree to the public treasuries. No division of liquid wealth, through legal or illegal means, can be sufficient. Those who demand more and more services must be held in check lest tax-eaters wreck the government. This is not an idle and unreasonable statement. It has come to the point where two persons are trying to get on the public to help one really needy citizen. And too many of these tax-eaters are paying little or no taxes.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—"When the electrical industry makes a real fight," said a powerful Southern public utilities magnate in a letter recently received by an official here, "it can command more influence than the American Legion and the American Federation of Labor and a dozen other organizations besides."

That boast was up to a dramatic test in the industry's fight against the Roosevelt public utilities bill in the House.

For the "power trust" was frantic. Its lobbyists wouldn't stand still to be counted, but there seemed no reason to doubt a commonly accepted estimate that it had assembled between 500 and 600 of them to work upon doubtful members with every device known to the lobbyist's art.

Lawyers, power company officials, bankers, and others had been brought in from nearly every state to bear down on representatives from their home districts.

An unconvinced congressman could be rather sure of suffocation within a few hours under bags of telegrams from constituents. Back went the word from Washington to turn the heat on him.

In the galleries, tense, sat high officials and agents of Associated Gas and Electric, Commonwealth Edison, Chase National Bank, Public Service of New Jersey, the Edison Electric Institute, and dozens of other utility groups.

They had spent millions of dollars to beat Roosevelt's attempt to divest the giant holding companies of management control over thousands of local operating companies.

Early in the morning of the biggest day of debate, a small, grim group sat in an office high in the RFC building. Chief figures there were young Tom Corcoran, brilliant, tireless, fast-working, and Ben Cohen, tall, drawing, philosophical—and in some respects the outstanding legal expert of the New Deal.

These two were co-authors of the securities, stock market and holding company bill. Disciples of Dr. Felix Frankfurter and Justice Brandeis, they entered the New Deal after some years of inside experience in Wall Street.

The group of young New Dealers—between a shower of telephone calls on two or three phones—were receiving their orders for the day.

Crisis had arrived. Administration leaders had virtually deserted the president, after a conservative coalition on Rayburn's committee, lead by Democrats Huddleston of Alabama and Pettengill of Indiana, had knocked out the provision requiring dissolution of holding company control.

The bill was really drafted as an "emancipation" which freed local power companies from rule by a few men in New York and turned back the management so that operating companies might run themselves again while holding companies, functioning as investment trusts and divorced from management, might go on holding investments in any number of companies.

THOMASON SEES LEVEE ROAD ON 'GRANDE' RIVER

Plans for Road and Canals Sponsored By Solons

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—A 90-mile gravel highway stretching along the top of a levee which will strengthen the links in the meandering Rio Grande below El Paso, Texas, was envisioned today by Rep. Thomason (D., Texas).

With the whole river rectification project costing more than $6,000,000 well under way, Thomason said he had submitted a plan for such a road to works-relief administrators with the suggestion that practically all of the cost would go for direct labor and thereby reduce materially El Paso's relief rolls.

The road would extend from a point about 15 miles above El Paso where the river becomes the international boundary between the United States and Mexico to the vicinity of Fort Quitman. Thomason hopes eventually it might become a part of a contemplated border highway running from the Pacific coast to the Gulf of Mexico near Brownsville, Texas.

"Such a road on top of the north levee would help stop the flow of aliens, liquor and contraband because it could be patrolled easily," Thomason said. "L. M. Lawson, American member of the international boundary commission, thinks this project would fit in perfectly with the whole program we probably will ask the state department to endorse it."

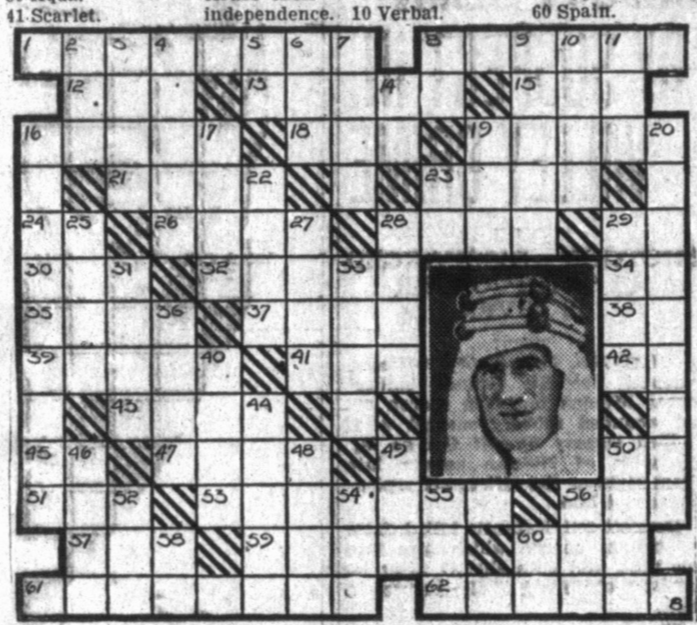

Considerable dredging work on undisputed sectors of the river is actively under way but considerable "horse trading" between the two nations over other "barrows," which are placed in either Mexico or the United States by the changing river, remains to be done. Thomason predicted, however, little difficulty would be encountered.

Above El Paso, canalization of the Rio Grande has been sponsored by Senators Hatch (D., N. M.) and Chavez (D., N. M.) and Rep. Dempsey (D., N. M.) to further control waters of the river. They have requests of $60,000 from the work-relief administration for a survey of the territory south of Elephant Butte Dam, extending through the site of the proposed Caballo dam.

GREENBERG IS MISSING FROM STAR LINEUP

HOME RUN KING NOT EVEN LISTED ON 20-MAN SQUAD

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor CLEVELAND, July 8. (AP)—By land, lake and air, an army of baseball fans descended upon Cleveland today from all parts of the country to witness the third annual parade of the major league all-stars.

Barring a bad turn of weather and subject to last-minute switches in the lineup, the big show, a capacity crowd of 85,000 was expected to jam the Cleveland stadium, biggest ball park in the United States, to see at least two million dollars' worth of the game's choicest talent assembled in person.

Definite developments over-right assured the appearance of "Prince Hal" Schumacher, ace right-hander of the league-leading New York Yankees, and Mel Harder, right-hander ace of the Cleveland Indians, in the pitching roles when the curtain rolls up for the record-breaking spectacle.

By a process of elimination, including the use of Carl Hubbell of the Giants and Dizzy Dean of the champion Cardinals in yesterday's regular-season games, Schumacher was nominated to make his all-star debut and pitch as long as he can keep the Americans under control.

The exponent of the "sinker ball" was one of the big reasons why the Nationals ruled 8 to 5 favorites to turn the tables and take their first all-star decision.

Harder, pitching hero of last year's all-star victory for the Americans, was definitely named last night for the starting assignment by Mickey Cochrane, manager of the Detroit Tigers and field boss of the junior league's forces.

Conspicuously missing from the field of action this year were the hitting heroes of the two previous American league triumphs, Babe Ruth and Earl Averill.

The Americans appeared further handicapped by the absence of their new home run king, big Hank Greenberg of the Tigers. By some curious reasoning, the star slugger was not even named on the 20-man squad, thereby putting it strictly up to Lou Gehrig of the Yankees to stage a come-back.

The lineup of the Nationals not only shaped up as considerably stronger than last year but looked to have a marked edge over the Americans in offensive strength.

Such sluggers as Mel Ott of the Giants, Arky Vaughan of the Pirates, and Lou Gehrig of the Yankees, were not in last year's starting lineup. To help offset these gains in rival power, the Americans planned to counter by assigning three-shilling newcomers, Indian Bob Johnson and Roger Cramer of the Athletics and Joe Vosmik of the Indians, to the outfield ramparts.

Cramer was considered a likely replacement for the veteran Al Simmons of the White Sox, who has been in a hitting slump and on the bench for a week.

Probable starting lineups: National League: Martin, Cardinals, 3b; Vaughan, Pirates, ss; Ott, Giants, cf; Medwick, Cardinals, lf; Terry, Giants, 1b; Berger, Braves, cf; Frisch, Cardinals, 2b; Mancuso, Giants, c; Schumacher, Giants, p.

American League: Vosmik, Indians, rf; Cramer, Athletics, cf; Gehrig, Tigers, 2b; Gehrig, Yankees, 1b; Fox, Athletics, 3b; Johnson, Athletics, lf; Cochrane, Tigers, c; Cronin, Red Sox, ss; Harder, Indians, p.

Umpires—Sears and Megerkurth, National league; Ormsby and Geisel, American league.

Times of game—1:30 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Two Games Are Under Protest In 2-1 League

Carrway 18, Shell-Peasie 18; Pampa Independents 14, Western Carbon 5.

The main business this morning. Work is continuing on replacement of county bridge over the North Fork near LeFors. Pile driving will be completed in a few days, according to A. Carpenter, commissioner of the precinct. Much of the bridge material was recovered after the "flood" receded.

Seitz' Homer in 8th Figures Largely In Victory

A home run by Grove Seitz, with Patton on base, in the eighth inning gave the Road Runners a 6 to 5 win over Coltoto at Shaw park, LeFors, yesterday afternoon.

Seitz' wallop came after Coltoto had jumped into the lead in the seventh, when, with two men down, George let a line drive get away from him and two men scored.

Yesterday's win gave the Pampa team three victories to four for LeFors for the season. The Road Runners opened with a win and then lost four straight. The second win came two weeks ago when the Pampa team won by a large score.

Manager Jimmy Hale sent Seitz to bat in the eighth, and Seitz, the first man up in the ninth when Patton relieved him and threw one ball to retire the side. Seitz forcing Patton, Lety George Bulla followed the big pitcher, but the service to Seitz was in vain as he was out several times and he retired in favor of Daney in the eighth.

Coltoto's big left-hander walked the first visitor run across the plate. It was the first time the Road Runners had walked a lead runner in a full game and when he relieved Seitz in another game, Brickell, first man up, walked. George singled. Seitz laid a perfect sacrifice bunt in front of the plate. Nell was walking intentionally, filling the bases. Patton forced Brickell for the second out but Ledford walked Seitz and George counted. Horton forced Patton.

The Road Runners went into a ten-manning lead in the fourth when Brickell homered over the leftfield fence with Seitz and Bulla on base.

Coltoto counted twice in the sixth. Bennett, second man up, hit one over the fence. Polvogt walked and was scored by Polvogt, who doubled. The home team went into the lead in the seventh when Bulla started to weaken. Ledford singled. Shinski walked. Huffman singled. Hale doubled to score Shinski. Seitz was walked intentionally filling the bases. Polvogt fouled out to Seitz. Polvogt then hit one at Seitz but it got away from him and Huffman and Hale scored. Spencer made the third out.

Patton opened the eighth by beating out a hit down first base line. Seitz then came to bat and lifted one over the fence for what proved to be the winning run.

Bulla got two out in the eighth but Seitz walked. Shinski and Huffman sent Daney to the mound. He forced Hale to ground out to first. Only three batters faced Daney in the ninth.

Coltoto collected 13 hits off Bulla but the Road Runners were getting to Ledford for 11 bingles. It was Ledford's homerun balls which cost him the game. His team played errorless ball behind him. Manager Hale came up with six pretty assists.

Road Runners took five without a bobble. The Road Runners will meet the Watonga Owls here tomorrow and Wednesday nights. With Watonga will be John Rubell, brother of Carl Hubbell of the New York Giants. Manager Freddy Brickell will send either Daney or Hardin to the mound tomorrow night. Bert may be here for Wednesday night's game. If he fails to arrive, it will be either Daney or Hardin, as depending on who starts the first game.

On Friday night Wellington will be here with a team of stars selected from teams in the Red River Valley league. All games will be called at 2:45 o'clock with admission 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men.

WALTER HAGEN NAMED RYDER TEAM'S PILOT

SIX VETERANS AND 4 YOUNGSTERS ARE SELECTED

NEW YORK, July 8. (AP)—America's hopes of recapturing the world's professional golf team supremacy from Great Britain will ride on the shoulders of six veterans and four youngsters at the fifth renewal of the Ryder cup matches Sept. 27.

The veteran Walter Hagen will pilot the American Professional Golfers' association team for the fifth time since the matches were inaugurated informally in 1926. Play will be at Ridgewood, N. J.

George R. Jacobus, president of the P. G. A., announced Hagen's designation of playing captain.

Paul Runyon, national professional clubhouse, was named the No. 2 player. The next two places went to "slow-motion" Sam Parks, Jr., of Pittsburgh and big Olin Dutra of Monterey, Calif., 1935 and 1934 winners, respectively, of the open championship.

The other members, in order, are key Lafont of Chicago; Johnny Revoita of Milwaukee; Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa.; Horton Smith of Chicago; Gene Sarazen of Brookfield Center, Conn. and Craig Wood of Deal, N. J.

Selections mostly were based on official records of the association for the last two years, taking in all important tournaments.

Allred Party to Inspect Proposed Parks on Highway

WICHITA FALLS, July 8. (AP)—Gov. James V. Allred headed a group of state, highway and American Legion officials who planned today to start an inspection of proposed park sites along the American Legion memorial highway.

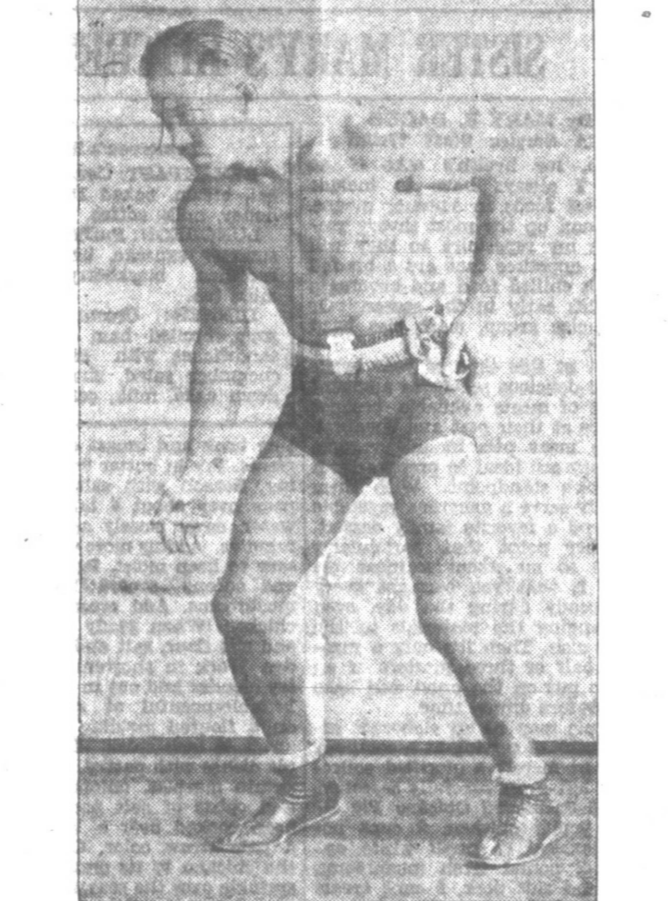

The motorcade's starting point was at the Byers, Texas, Red river bridge, and the officials expected to end the tour at McAllen Wednesday night.

The motorists were to follow a 600-mile strip on highway 86 and look over tracts under consideration by Legion posts in the various communities for possible acquisition as wayside parks.

Tonight the party was to stay in Mineral Wells. Included in the group were Harry Hines, Wichita Falls state chairman of the highway commission; H. Miller Atkinson; Olin Gilchrist, state highway engineer; and John Wood and D. K. Martin, state highway commissioners.

Former College Star

BUCK WEAVER.

One of America's greatest athletes, a few years ago will be in Pampa tonight in the person of Bucky Weaver, graduate of Indiana university, 89 one of the best middleweight wrestlers in the country. The athlete will tangle with Tony Piluso of Toledo in the main event of promoter G. B. Garrison's wrestling card which will get under way at 8:30 o'clock at Road Rammer park. Piluso is the speed demon of the ring and a worthy foe for the great Weaver. Supporting the main event will be a meeting of Jack Van Zebber, former Olympic champion, and Bob Cummings, known as the Arizona snake charmer. Opening the card will be Andy Dowler, Pampa Swede, and Art Belsher of Amarillo.

Politics at Random

By BYRON PRICE (Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington)

The word "confusion" already has been worked overtime in the day-to-day dispatches from Washington, but there is no other term which properly can be substituted for it in describing the current state of affairs at the national capital.

A certain amount of agitation and bewilderment is inherent in the "new deal" philosophies, and hardly could be avoided. Mr. Roosevelt has been trying one experiment after another, and naturally his advisers often have been uncertain just how far they would find it feasible to go, or what any extra day would bring forth.

It would be extraordinary, indeed, if vast emergency agencies such as NRA and AAA could be set up without misunderstandings, mistakes, and confusions. Human nature just doesn't work that way. Making over the United States government is a sizeable task, and the normal expectancy is that it must involve a certain amount of lost motion, and running around in circles.

But the existing situation goes far beyond that. Work Relief Lags. In the purely administrative field, the big thing at the moment is the work relief program.

Unlike such agencies as NRA and AAA, this venture did not come into being overnight, with no light to guide it. The act creating it was recommended by the President on January 7, and signed on April 9. Behind the officials in two years of lessons in the practical administration of both relief and public works.

Summer nevertheless finds the whole program lagging, with key men at loggerheads and officials out in the states plainly bewildered. Even the cause of delay are hidden. Almost every day Washington hears new rumors of impending resignations because of friction among the higher-ups. The effect of all of this on the rank and file is obvious.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holmes and daughter Devonian, and Miss Bomie Davis of Phoenix, Ariz., are visiting relatives here this week.

DOUBLEHEADER WON BY DEANS DESPITE BOOS

BROTHERS ARE BACK IN GOOD GRACES OF CARDINALS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. Associated Press Sports Writer

One of the most annoying things about Frank Frisch's way of managing the Cardinals must be that it's so hard to stay angry of Dizzy Dean.

The elder brother of the famous pitching pair has developed quite a habit of getting himself in wrong with the manager and the fans by displays of temperament, but each time he pitches his way back into their good graces.

Last month he had a row with his teammates in Pittsburgh, and the fans tossed lemon at him when he returned, only to forget their anger in their pride over his pitching.

Yesterday weren't prepared to toss anything more damaging than resounding boos when Dizzy relieved Jess Haines in the fourth inning of the opening game against the Cubs—his first appearance after his recent appearance after his recent exhibition game "rebellion" at St. Paul.

But old Diz checked the Cincinnati rally and gave only three hits through the rest of the game while the Cards won 9 to 4. Brother Paul followed him and outpitched Paul Derringer with the aid of enemy errors for a 5 to 1 victory.

The double triumph settled the Cards firmly in second place, seven games behind the Giants, who recovered from two defeats to defeat Brooklyn 9 to 2. Mel Ott's 18th home run, made with bases full played a big part in the Giant victory which finally brought Carl Hubbell his tenth victory of the season.

The Cubs regained third place, pounding Cy Blanton and four Pittsburgh hurlers for 14 hits, and winning 13 to 1 as Bill Lee gave only seven blows.

The Phillies completed a shakeup in the standing by trouncing the Braves 9 to 1 behind Curt Davis' six-hit inning and moving into sixth place ahead of Cincinnati.

The Tigers continued to dominate the American league by slamming down the browns 12 to 5, although they were out 15-14. Julius Sotter walloped three home runs to account for all the St. Louis tallies.

It was the tenth straight victory for Detroit, but it failed to reduce the Yankees' one-game margin. The league leaders bowled over the Senators 11 to 1, with Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri each hitting a home run.

The other clubs broke even in doubleheaders without altering the standings. Chicago downed Cleveland 2 to 0 with a sensational fielding display behind Ted Lysa. They extended their winning streak to seven straight and Cleveland's string of losses to eight, but the Indians broke both strings with a 7 to 6 triumph in the loosely played afterpiece.

Lefty Grove's relief hurling and Bill Werber's flashy base running enabled the Red Sox to take a 13-inning opener from the Athletics 7 to 6. Philadelphia replied with a 3 to 1 victory on homers by Pinky Higgins, and Charley Berry. The Sunday law ended this game after the eighth inning.

Mahon Advocates Hunt For Water On High Plains

WASHINGTON, July 8. (AP)—The bureau of mines today set the works relief administration for $1,619,000 to hunt for subterranean water supplies in dry areas.

In its application, the bureau said underground water sources were needed badly in several sections of the country. The survey would determine the amount of water available and the best means to bring it to the surface. Ordinary geological methods are insufficient to find many hidden water sources, the application said.

Practical experience in the search for water has been gained by the bureau of mines in Humboldt valley, Nevada, where electrical methods have been used to locate water-bearing gravel beds.

The project has the endorsement of the water resources section of the national resources board.

The survey would be centered in dust and drought-stricken areas, the application said.

Saturday Representative Mahon (D-Tex.) urged an allotment of $100,000 for a survey of underground water resources in the high plains of southwestern states. This area, he said, is a strip 125 miles wide and 500 miles long in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

Mahon said cities and towns needed to know the extent of their water supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon were called to Losanport, La., Saturday by the serious illness of Mr. Dixon's father.

Buff Manager Boomed But He Smacks Triple

By The Associated Press The first division of the Texas league, which had sports writers, statisticians and fans dizzy for the past few days with its sudden changes, calmed down Sunday and the teams returned to somewhat normal battling, leaving standings unchanged.

San Antonio took a double header from Beaumont, 4-3 and 5-4; Dallas and Oklahoma City divided a pair, with the Steers taking the first, 7-4, and the Indians the second, 6-1. Fort Worth beat Tulsa, 8-1, and Houston took an eleven-inning opener from Galveston, 6-5, and dropped the nightcap, 3-1.

Pans over the circuit were given the biggest thrills of the day when Manager Ira Smith of the Buffs stepped up to the plate amid the boos of the home towners to pinch-hit, smacked a triple to win the first game with the Bucs in the eleventh, and retired with the fans' cheers; when Perrot collected five hits out of six attempts in the same game, and when Fred Miller hit his only home run in the Texas league, with a two-hit performance in the final game of the Oklahoma City-Dallas twin bill.

Beaumont took a pair of one-run beatings at the hands of the Missions, with Abe Miller outpitching the Buffs, 5-1, and the Buffs, 5-1, and Little George Mills and Ash Hillin teaming up to beat the combined effort of Pat McLaughlin and Red Phillips. In the second game, Vincent collected three hits in four trips to the plate for the Shippers.

Making his first start, John Wilson turned back the Oilers, allowing five hits as his Port Worth buddies bunched seven to trim the Tulsa nine.

The Galveston-Houston doubleheader was featured by heavy clouting in the first game, in which each team blasted out 15 hits, and by close pitching in the nightcap. After skipper Smith punched out his game-winning triple in the opener, Jackkie and Bennett of Galveston combined and yielded only four hits as their teammates collected eight to win.

Connater, first baseman, furnished most of the Dallas fireworks in the opening game of the Steers' doubleheader with Oklahoma City, getting four hits. Stely, however, went one to eight, but the Indians game to halt the batting rampage of the Steers, allowing two hits as the Indians took the contest to break even.

JOBLESS STILL SUPPORTED BY FEDERAL CASH 'UNEMPLOYABLES' ARE NOT TRANSFERRED TO STATE

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—Acknowledging that little progress has been made in actually transferring "unemployables" from federal relief to the care of the states, relief officials said today that about 4,000,000 such persons still are on the federal rolls.

At that time Harry L. Hopkins, now works progress administrator, contended a policy that all persons physically or mentally incapable of work must be returned to the care of the states by last Feb. 1.

Later Hopkins modified his requirement. Funds for unemployables would be loaned states and cities unable to take over the responsibility, he said.

Then the twin moves—providing jobs for those able to work, and transferring the others to local care—will carry out President Roosevelt's desire to "end this business of relief," officials said.

LOUISIANA NOW KNOWS NO LAW EXCEPT HUEY'S He Can Even Hire And Fire School Teachers

Associated Press Staff Writer, BATON ROUGE, La., July 8 (AP)—The legislature in a whirlwind special session approved early today 25 measures giving Senator Huey Long virtually every remaining power of the state.

The new laws took care of odds and ends not acted on in six other special sessions held since last summer. They left the state almost no government except that dictated by the senator.

It was convened last Thursday night, Independence day—a first Long made an airplane trip from Washington, and 25 measures were speeded to final passage under his personal direction in the constitutional minimum time of five days.

Several days ago Smith checked up on his possessions and found one, supposedly the male missing. The only explanation is that the female had gotten hungry and her cannibalistic impulses out of control.

Two mornings later Smith found the lady black widow had swung a fawn-colored sack of eggs to the web near the top of the bottle. He has been careful since occasionally to drop a fly into the bottle as a protection for the eggs and in waiting the day when he will have a brood of some 500 baby black widows to rear for the market.

CONGRESSMEN PLAN APPEAL ON TAX RATES HEARINGS ON PROGRAM OPENS IN HOUSE TODAY

BY CLARENCE M. WRIGHT, Associated Press Staff Writer, WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—A new appeal to the White House by congressmen seeking President Roosevelt's guidance in determining specific tax-the-wealth rates was forecast in congressional quarter today.

That was discussed at the house ways and means committee met to open hearings on the taxes. Secretary Morgenthau was listed as an early witness and legislators looked for him to supply estimates on how much revenue various tax rates would produce.

He was asked specifically to discuss money returns if taxes were stepped up on incomes of $100,000-a-year and over, and if new levies were put on inheritances and gifts of more than $50,000. Also, he was requested to submit estimates on various other schedules.

The bill drafters planned further conferences with the president. At the last one he told them only that he wanted a "substantial amount" of money. The choosing of rates was left to congress.

WAYS and means committee democrats said privately they would let the hearings continue a "reasonable" time before going into executive session to write a bill with rates and exemptions in it. Then, when a tentative measure has been agreed upon, it will be laid before Mr. Roosevelt for his approval or disapproval before it is finally ratified by the committee.

Heat Descends On Texas Areas

By The Associated Press. All evidences of Texas' unusually mild spring and early summer were gone after a record-setting heat descended upon the state yesterday.

Many Drownings Due To Weather

By The Associated Press. Cooling winds and rainfall left most of the country relieved today of high temperatures which brought death and suffering.

Most of nearly two score fatalities attributed to the weather were directly due to drownings, Illinois alone recording six.

In the wake of high temperatures, some sections found high waters a new menace of rain swelled rivers, particularly in upper New York state and western Illinois.

The southwest remained in the grip of the heat wave while the thermometer dropped more than 20 degrees in some sections.

Retailers, who reported a sharp increase in sale of summer merchandise, and farmers, watching crops spring up, welcomed the brief hot spell.

New York, with a high temperature of 82 degrees, reported one heat prostration and three drownings. Detroit watched the thermometer reading fall from the 90s to the 60s, while Chicago was relieved with a 21 degree drop.

Dr. Pugsley was searching frantically today for one very old egg, believed to have been laid by a pterodactyl some 50,000,000 years ago, mislaid in disembarking.

POWER FIGHT REOPENED IN FOUR SECTORS

VOTE IN SENATE IS NOT EXPECTED UNTIL TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—Friends and foes of the Roosevelt power program came to grips again today, opening another week of desperate fighting on an issue laden with potential significance for the 1938 campaign.

These were the varied developments as the powerful forces began their struggle anew.

1. The senate met to face a decision on the "death sentence" for public utility holding companies.

2. The house plunged into debate on amendments to the Tennessee valley authority, thus approaching a new test of the president's control over congress.

3. The house rules committee was called into session to organize its inquiry into lobbying, pro and con, on the utilities bill.

4. The senate neared a decision on a plan for a $150,000 investigation, with Senator Clark (D. Mo.) urging that it be applied to lobbying in all fields, not merely in connection with the power fight.

A question before the senate was whether to accept a milder utilities control measure passed by the house against President Roosevelt's wishes, or stick by a bill containing the "death sentence," already approved by the senate.

The vote—which is not expected until tomorrow—will be close, in the opinion of enemies of the compulsory abolition of holding firms. Should the senate stick by its own bill—as Senator Wheeler (D., Mont.) and other administration men predicted—then the controversy would go to conference of senators and representatives.

The lobbying inquiry by the house rules committee will go into general activities for and against the utilities bill after delving into the specific charge by Rep. Brewster (R., Me.) that Thomas Corcoran, RFC attorney and "brain trust" man, threatened to hold up the Passamaquoddy tidal power project in Maine if Brewster voted against the "death sentence."

Professor Cans Beans At John Tarleton Farm

STEPHENVILLE, July 8. (AP)—When a bumper bean crop comes something must be done about it, even if one is professor of agronomy and not intimate with the intricacies of the canning art.

The combination of unusually cool weather, plenty of moisture and the attention of horticulture students produced so many beans that patrons of Tarleton dining hall could not eat them all.

Mr. Rich anticipates canning other extra-luxuriant garden crops: carrots, Swiss chard and beets, and turning 400 pounds of cabbage into sauerkraut. In that, however, he will have the assistance of the college dietitian, Ethel Bob Montague of Sweetwater.

"After all," the professor mused, snapping a bean in half, "I'm supposed to illustrate now and then the thing we try to rescue our boys—that a good farmer will meet the situation."

Rankin Accuses House Members Of Power Plot

WASHINGTON, July 8 (AP)—Rep. Rankin (D., Miss.) said in a statement today he was reliably informed that "certain members" of the house military committee "who are fighting the administration on the TVA bill" met with the "power lobbyists" at their hotel headquarters "night after night."

The Mississippiian, who led the unsuccessful "cloakroom" campaign to put the holding company bill in the form desired by President Roosevelt, predicted last Saturday the investigation would be an "idle gesture." He criticized O'Connor and others for their utilities stand.

"To that O'Connor commented today that 'Mr Rankin has attempted to cast aspersions on the intentions of the rules committee and possibly of the chairman, but he voted to authorize the investigation.'"

"My God, what are we coming to?" Rankin asked in his latest statement. "A government of racketeers, by racketeers and for racketeers."

"Let the senate committee summon every member of the house and of the senate and put him on oath and demand that he give an account of himself. Let him show how much utility stock he owns; whether or not he has been in secret conference with these power trust lobbyists during this session of the congress; and, above all, whether or not as a lawyer he or his firm is on the payroll of these utilities."

TAX RATES

carefully budgeted plans for federal outlays."

He added that the time has come to move in the direction of providing sufficient income "both to meet current expenditures and to make substantial reductions in the debt."

The treasury's first concern is with the adequacy of the national revenue," Morgenthau said. "There are times of emergency when the treasury must finance expenditures in excess of income by borrowings which increase the public debt."

"The time has come to move in this direction. It would, of course, be unwise to impose tax burdens which would retard recovery. But it would be equally unwise not to call on sources of revenue which would reduce our borrowings and later reduce the national debt without interfering with recovery, and it is my belief that the additional taxes which the president has now recommended fall within this latter class."

Republicans immediately snapped up the debt reduction idea. Representative Jenkins (R., Ohio), among others, objected that the proposed taxes would have no substantial effect on the debt.

"What we're hopeful of," remarked Representative Knutson (R., Minn.), "is a definite policy. We want to get off this merry-go-round and head in a definite direction."

Then turning to Morgenthau he asked: "Is your primary purpose to redistribute wealth or raise additional revenue?"

The secretary replied that his sole purpose was to present to the committee estimates which he had been asked to prepare on new tax rates submitted to him by the committee.

"Because of our common responsibility for safeguarding the national credit," Morgenthau said, "we are vitally concerned in the use which is to be made of the revenue that may be derived from the proposed taxes."

"As secretary of the treasury it is my prediction that it would be perilous to regard any part of these new revenues as available for new types of expenditures or as justifying any increase over our carefully budgeted plans for federal outlays."

This was regarded in some circles as an administration answer to new proposals for paying off the bonus.

"The course which I feel sure will appeal to all of you as the only sound procedure is that the revenue derived from these new taxes shall be regarded as very definitely earmarked for reducing future borrowing and paying off the public debt," Morgenthau continued.

"We should set aside the proceeds of these new taxes and safeguard them as carefully as was the stabilization fund."

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 8 (AP)—Steady buying of steel, tobacco, industrial specialties, mail order and farm implement issues gave today's stock market a decidedly bullish appearance.

All groups did not participate in the forward push, but the closing tone was firm. Transfers approximated 1,200,000 shares.

MARKET BRIEFS

CHICAGO, July 8 (AP)—With less attention given to Canada's altered export policy, and with more notice taken of disappointing domestic threshing returns, higher prices formed the rule in grain markets today.

Oklahoma reports said the crest of the harvest movement of wheat in that state was about over. Black rust reports from South Dakota were increasingly pessimistic.

Wheat closed firm, 1 1/4-1/2 above Saturday's finish, Sept. 80 1/2, corn 1/2 off to 1 1/2 up, Sept. 74 1/2-75, oats 1/2 advanced, and provisions showing 7 to 27 cents gain.

fair of the life of the people should be made with great care, for the forefathers may have been in modern thought old-fashioned, but history has shown that they were surprisingly wise and careful, and jealous of their rights and of the rights of the people that came after them.

CLARENDON NEWS—It seems under the constitution that every state has a right to make a fool of itself, and before this Young Democratic-Elliott Roosevelt matter is finally closed, Texas will likely have availed itself of the provision.

C. G. MILLER in Wheeler Times—Those who would destroy the constitution and discredit our supreme court would destroy all that the founders of the country fought and bled for, and left us as our most precious heritage—personal liberty unshackled by official tyranny.

THE PRAIRIE, Canyon—Whence comes the supreme court's power to declare a law passed by the legislature of the United States null and void? Nothing in the constitution gives the court this authority, nor is there anything in the constitution which can easily be interpreted to mean that the court should have this power.

LYMAN E. ROBBINS in Memphis Democrat—If the present prospects for crops materialize, relief work will be a thing of the past, so far as Hall county people are concerned. Already, farmers, business men and the public in general are looking forward to good crops this fall and the chance to build back to the high plane that was characteristic of all this area a few years ago.

MACK STANTON in Clarendon Journal—The sad plight of a goat: Feed had been short and its owner was hard put to keep it going. One day it got hold of an Evening News Journal and it ate it with enjoyment, contentment and evidence of receiving nutrition therefrom. Its owner continued to give it an issue each day. It fattened and the flow of milk increased. Then came a report of a certain trial held in a certain court. The goat ate the issue containing it and went into convulsions. It is living but it walks crook-legged and is cock-eyed, mews like a cat, refuses to take nourishment and goes into violent retching every time it sees an Evening News Journal.

J. C. ESTLACK in Clarendon Leader—Those old folks have been given a faint ray of hope by the legislature. It will be up to the voters on August 24. It will be one time that grandmas will be given a pension by the voters who think she deserves it. Governor Jim might think it more expedient to knock grandmas in the head with an axe and settle the matter. But grandmas will have plenty of friends at the polls August 24. Texas has suffered off millions for causes not nearly so worthy as old age pensions.

L. D. and MOLLIE SHAW in Higgins News—Our nation will be what we make it. Whether we are freemen or serfs, whether we are proud sons and daughters of a noble array of patriots who brought forth a nation that through God, shall not perish from the land.

THE TACITLESS TEXAN in Children Index—And the following just came in the mail: "Dear Tack: If the white widows were given as much publicity as the black widows we wouldn't have so many widows and bachelors. Most of us are not poisonous and we would not murder our mates. A WHITE WIDOW."

FISHERMAN'S LUCK

ASHVILLE, N. C. (AP)—F. V. McCannless, Sr., and his son fished all day in the French broad river and caught—nothing.

Then, while they rowed to the bank, a large trout jumped into their boat.

Charles Thomas and Bud Doucette spent yesterday visiting friends in Slaton.

Prizes Offered For Articles On Texas History

AUSTIN, July 8 (AP)—Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul said today that 1,500 would be offered in prizes to high school students for best articles on early Texas history.

Woodul said he and friends interested in Texas history would offer the prizes. The money would not be paid from state funds appropriated for Texas Centennial celebrations.

Competition would be organized through classes of schools, Woodul said, and trial competitions held in each county. Prizes would be arranged for locally by county advisory boards to the commission of control for the Texas Centennial celebrations, of which he is chairman.

He said he knew of no better way to "sell an appreciation of Texas history to every one than to get the students in our schools studying, talking, and writing Texas history."

Joe Vosmik rolled out Herman to Terry. Gehring struck out Herman. Terry dribbled the first pitch to Terry, whose throw to Vaughan forced Gehring at second. The relay was too late for a twin killing. With the count two and three, Foxx lashed a home run into the lower left field stands scoring behind Gehrig as the crowd went wild. Bob Johnson lifted a short fly that Herman caught near the right field foul line.

Two runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Second Inning—Nationals

Terry lashed a low drive that Bob Johnson caught. Berger lifted a high fly to Gehrig. Herman smashed a hard grounder that Gomez failed to hold but retrieved in time to throw Billy out at first.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Third Inning—Americans

Al Simmons fanned. Hemsley carried a three base hit off the left field wall as Medwick played the rebound badly. Cronin drove a long fly to Berger and Hemsley scored easily after the catch. Gomez fanned.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

Fourth Inning—Nationals

Gehring made a nice stop at Wilson's ground smash and threw him out at first. Gus Mancuso, New York Giants backup, batted for Walker. Hal Schumacher warmed up. Mancuso lifted a high fly to Cronin. Martin after tumbling twice to the dirt in vain attempts to connect with Gomez speed, swing and missed a curve for the third strike.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Fifth Inning—Americans

Schumacher and Mancuso formed the new national league battery. Vosmik bounded out, Schumacher

Prizes Offered For Articles On Texas History

AUSTIN, July 8 (AP)—Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul said today that 1,500 would be offered in prizes to high school students for best articles on early Texas history.

Woodul said he and friends interested in Texas history would offer the prizes. The money would not be paid from state funds appropriated for Texas Centennial celebrations.

Competition would be organized through classes of schools, Woodul said, and trial competitions held in each county. Prizes would be arranged for locally by county advisory boards to the commission of control for the Texas Centennial celebrations, of which he is chairman.

He said he knew of no better way to "sell an appreciation of Texas history to every one than to get the students in our schools studying, talking, and writing Texas history."

Rogers Declares Front Teeth Were Not Knocked Out

SANTA MONICA, Calif., July 8.—Will Rogers, who took it on the chin from one of his polo ponies yesterday in a spill, took occasion to deny today that all his front teeth had been knocked out.

Rogers was at his ranch practicing with Fred Stone looking on when the pony stumbled to its knees. In getting back on its feet, the pony cracked Rogers on the chin with the top of his head. The actor's mouth bled.

"Aw, there was no knockout—nothing," said Rogers today. "It isn't worth mentioning." If you'd seen the supper I ate last night you wouldn't be talking about teeth knocked out. That horse didn't even hurt me."

Some unidentified radio station was reported to have originated the story that Rogers lost his teeth.
