

Masses Of German Reserves Check Red Kharkov Offensive

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Masses of German reserves, hung into action after Nazi tank assaults failed, appeared to have checked Russia's offensive in the 11-day-old battle of Kharkov today although the Red army reported that in one sector they had smashed a counter-attack and "on the heels of the enemy, broke into a populated place."
Meanwhile, the Italian high command asserted that an Italian submarine had attacked a United States naval formation off the Brazilian coast on May 20 and sunk a battleship of the Maryland class. A special communique said the submarine Barbarigo attacked the formation 100 miles west of the island of Fernando.

The Maryland class includes three ships—the Maryland, Colorado, and West Virginia—all launched in 1920-21 and ranging from 31,800 to 33,900 tons, with normal complements of 1,407 men each.

In the past, such Axis claims have frequently turned out to be unfounded "fishing expeditions" in quest of information on Allied naval movements.
On the Russian front, the German high command asserted that Soviet attacks against Kharkov had been thrown back and that Hitler's armies had seized the initiative.

"The enemy is making furious efforts to take the initiative out of our hands," said dispatches to Red Star, the Soviet army newspaper, "but this is not last year, and the relation of the opposing forces is quite different."
A German broadcast heard in London acknowledged that Russian troops had broken through "the main German fighting line" over an eight-mile front southeast of Lake Ilmen, 130 miles below Leningrad.

The broadcast said the assault collapsed in the face of stubborn German resistance.
Hitler's field headquarters reported merely that "southeast of Lake Ilmen, the enemy continued his ineffective attacks."
Heavy fighting in the Lake Ilmen region has raged around the bloody Staraya Russa sector, where the German 16th army has been reported trapped for months. A major Soviet break-through here would imperil the whole left flank of the German armies, including the siege forces around Leningrad.

On the Kharkov front, the Hitler command said:
"After all Soviet attacks were repelled, the initiative is now in our hands."
Red Star said the Germans might have "succeeded in obtaining some partial, limited successes," but declared that on the whole the Kharkov offensive was developing satisfactorily and "we have everything necessary to keep the initiative."
Front-line dispatches said the Germans were using tricky new tactics of screened attack with their tank forces, sending three groups into action: two small forces to distract Russian attention, then a third strong surprise force to catch the Russians on the flank.
Red Star declared this strategy failed and heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans.

The newspaper said that big-scale tank operations had dwindled except in one sector, and that even there a major tank clash lasting several days continued at a lower pitch.
For the first time, today's Soviet communique omitted mention of any general advance.

fluctuations, he said, are caused by a tendency toward overstatement on the part of the American people.
It is a great mistake to overstate things, the chief executive declared, adding that he thought the press could help.
"Do you think censorship should pass some had news?" he was asked. Yes, he replied, as soon as it does not affect military operations. There is only one reason for withholding bad news, he said, and that is that to release it might create more bad news.
The president was unwilling to say whether he thought an army-avy communique last week-end had contributed to over-optimism about the war program. He said he had not read it.
Under further questioning, Mr. Roosevelt said that official army and navy statements should be relied on but that there should not be over-emphasis on what a person reads into them, personally.
President Roosevelt declared that the government would do everything possible to prevent what he termed unwarranted pay increases by private plants.

Mexico Expected To Declare War Today

MEXICO CITY, May 22 (AP)—Mexico hung precariously on the verge of an outright declaration of war against the Axis powers today following rejection by Berlin of her protest against the sinking of a Mexican tanker off the Florida coast last week.
While the country awaited a statement from President Manuel Avila Camacho that was expected to decide the issue within a few hours, the general tenseness of the situation was heightened by reports that two more Mexican ships had been torpedoed.
A highly-placed and usually reliable source said the president already was preparing a manifesto asking congress to declare war.
At the same time a former president, General Lazaro Cardenas, commander of the West coast defense zone and probable choice for supreme commander of Mexico's armed forces in event of war, sped to the capital by plane "to receive

Bomb School Engineers Arrive Here

J. B. Howard of the Tulsa, Okla., corps, U. S. Engineers, arrived in Pampa last night to take charge of construction of the twin-engine bomber training school to be located 12 miles east of Pampa. He has not yet located his offices here.
Mr. Howard said today that he had not completed his organization. He brought with him eight engineers and office heads and more will arrive soon. First job will be to secure office space and set up his organization.
Although the work will be done under contract, Mr. Howard, who is area engineer, will be in complete charge of the project which, according to war department figures, will cost about $3,000,000.
Announcement that Pampa had been given the huge training school was made through the offices of Senator Tom Connally and Congressman Gene Worley on May 15. When actual construction will start was not revealed by Mr. Howard.

other day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Halphen, and 11 brothers and sisters drove from Arandville, La., to visit him at Camp Wallace, Texas. It was a happy group, but smiles might have been broader had the other five children been able to come along. "We just didn't have room for them in the car," explained Mrs. Halphen.

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt reiterated today an opinion that the war would be a long one and cautioned against over-optimism one week and over-pessimism the next.
"The war, public opinion and the news go up and down with things that appear big at the moment, he told a press conference, but the more that can be done to prevent this, the better it is for the war effort."
The fluctuations, he said, are caused by a tendency toward overstatement on the part of the American people.

Parents To Endorse USO In Radio Program At Rally Monday Night

That young man you know who is in the armed forces and is pretty dear to you may not have mentioned it, but he's for the USO and he's for Gray county.
And he hopes that you'll be so strong for it when the USO drive starts here that you'll kick in generously to help raise the $4,800 quota that has been set for Gray county.
The 1942 USO slogan, "YOU HELP SOMEONE YOU KNOW WHEN YOU GIVE TO THE USO," really means something this year. It means that that young fellow mentioned above is getting the entertainment, the recreation that he needs in order to build up his morale and keep him contented.
The Gray county USO drive will start here June 1, but it's going to be given a good boost Monday night and all next week.
Monday night parents of boys in the armed forces will be on the program at USO rallies to be held at Pampa, McLean, Alabaster and LeFors at the high school auditoriums in each place, except Pampa where the rally will be held in the district courtroom.
Every parent in the Pampa community is invited to attend the rally here. Parents in the other communities are urged to attend their own rallies.

Mexican Boy Drowns In Cuyler Lake

Pampa firemen, after grappling less than 15 minutes, recovered the body of Ray Verell, 18-year-old Mexican youth, from the Cuyler lake six miles west of White Deer last night about 11 o'clock. The body had been in the water about three hours.
The youth and three companions, all of Amarillo, were swimming in the lake, trying to catch young ducks, Sheriff T. B. Harris of Pampa revealed today. The other three boys were Frank Molina, Raubel Venieroz and Lawrence Gama. They were unable to rescue their companion when he suddenly disappeared beneath the water after diving from the bank, Sheriff Harris said.
The boy went down about 7:20 o'clock, his companions said. They

You Couldn't Spend Dollar For Better Cause Than Kits

A former Pampa woman, now residing in Amarillo, is among the latest contributors to the Red Cross soldiers' kit fund being raised by the Pampa chapter.
She is Mrs. Anna Cumble, who sends her dollar donation, with a letter saying, "I am so proud that I can send in a dollar to help our boys. I have a boy in the service and he has lots of friends in Pampa, and I am proud to help even a wee bit."
Pampans are being asked to provide funds to fill the kits with various articles at $1 per kit. The quota is 260 kits, made by the local chapter. To date $40 has been donated, leaving $220 to be obtained.
Mrs. M. F. Roche is chairman of the kit fund. You can leave your dollar or $5 with her or with the Red Cross office in the city hall. The war department will in an announce a list of articles to be in the kits. Among these will be needles and threads and similar items.
Zale's Jewelry store, Diamond Shop employees, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kliner, $3 each; A. J. Hindman of Mack and Paul Barber shop, Mrs. Leo Payne, Mrs. Sarah E. McMillan, Mrs. Lottie Ochiltree, $2 each.
Donations of $1 each were received from Alex Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Frejean, Mrs. L. W. Burrows, Mrs. C. C. Crawford, Mrs. D. J. Gibbon, Clyde Oswald, W. F. Mensing, Miss Anna Davis, G. E. Mulligan, Melvin L. Roberts, Mrs. Jeanne Chapman.

Hearing Held For Newton In Slaying

CAMERON, May 22 (AP)—A preliminary hearing was being held today for Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Newton who face charges of assault with intent to murder in the shooting of Dr. Roy Hunt, 35-year-old Littlefield physician.
Sheriff Sam Hutson of Lamb county arrived this morning to take Dr. Newton, son of the late Senator W. R. Newton, who was a physician himself, to Littlefield.
Dr. Hunt was severely wounded early yesterday when shot as he alighted from an automobile on the highway near Littlefield in response to a call he had believed came from an automobile accident.

Men Between 18 And 20 Will Register June 30

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—A survey of 21 key industries indicates that women can do 80 per cent of war jobs, Chairman Paul V. McNutt of the war manpower commission reported today.
"Women have shown that they can do or learn to do almost any kind of work," McNutt said.

Nazi Sub 'Tipped Off,' Says Captain

GALVESTON, May 22 (AP)—Nineteen survivors of a torpedoed United States merchant ship, whose captain believed the enemy submarine which sank her was "tipped off," have been landed at this Texas gulf port.
At least 21 members of the crew and the gun crew were lost, the navy announced.
A little weak and ill from swallowing fuel oil and salt water—what they jestingly called a "deep sea cocktail"—the men were brought here by another merchant vessel which sighted their life raft flares and a pair of underwear hung on a boat hook.
Five of them were hospitalized for shock and minor injuries, including the captain, A. Henry Rowe, 44, of Aalden, Pa.
Two torpedoes smashed into the ship in quick succession at 10:40 p. m. (CWT) Saturday, May 16, sending it to the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico. The 19 men scrambled into lifeboats as other members of the crew perished.
The survivors were picked up about 34 hours later and landed here Tuesday, May 19. They were believed to be the first survivors

Men Between 18 And 20 Will Register June 30

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—President Roosevelt set June 30 as registration day for men between 18 and 20 years of age.
This will complete for the present the registration of the nation's manpower for both fighting and non-combatant war duties, and will be the first registration under existing law.
Men 18 and 19 years of age who will register between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on June 30 will not be subject to the military draft until they reached the age of 20.
Approximately 40,000,000 persons between 20 and 65 have been registered in the four previous drafts.
The first, in October 1940, registered approximately 17,000,000 persons between 21 and 36. The second, in July 1941, listed about 750,000 who had turned 21 since the first draft. The third, on Feb. 16, 1942, registered around 9,000,000 between 20 through 44. The fourth, held last month, listed around 13,000,000 men between 45 and 65.
The president's proclamation called for registration on June 30 of all male citizens born on or after Jan. 1, 1922, or on and before June 30, 1924.

Weed Wardens Organize Two More Blocks

If it keeps on raining, the weeds are going to get ahead of the hoed of the clean-up drive, City Manager Steve Matthews said today.
A clear sky and fair weather today should be an incentive to increased weed-cutting in order that early advantage gained before the two-day rainy spell shall not be lost.
With the rain over for a while, city trucks today resumed their schedule of picking up trash and garbage, and will continue their work through Monday.
Two more persons have turned in their names to have their lot mowed. They are Jim Collins and Mrs. Espar Stover. Also, two more blocks have been organized for weed-cutting and clean-up. These are the areas in which Mrs. W. L. Campbell and Mrs. H. C. Saunders are wardens.
A complete check-up on the total number of loads hauled by city trucks during the special week will be made and the total announced, the city manager said today.
While the campaign has been designed for only one week, it has been set up so that the work of making Pampa a cleaner and more beautiful city would continue throughout the season.
Sponsor of the campaign is the Pampa Garden club, working in cooperation with the city.

Spies Have Landed On Maine Coast, Says Defense Head

AUGUSTA, Maine, May 22 (AP)—Francis H. Farnum, state director of civilian defense, said today that "accurate information is in the possession of police and army authorities to show that foreign agents have recently been landed on the coast of Maine."
"Sometimes a special agent is sent to this country to perform some single task," Farnum added. "He is the pinch hitter, or the hit-and-run worker. Once his assignment is completed he tries to make his way back to his native land or to join other spies in this country."
He urged the public to be watchful, "think before you act, but act instantly if your suspicions cannot be fully justified."
"Others have come into the state over the Canadian border or from other parts of the United States," Farnum said in a prepared statement. "They are here for no good purpose and they are in our midst now. They come to plot, to damage, to destroy."
Only yesterday civilians and members of the volunteer defense corps were warned by United States and state officials in Boston to exercise special watchfulness for enemy and fifth column action along the New England coast.

Government Might Requisition Cars To Haul Workers

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Rubber Coordinator Arthur B. Newhall reported today that the government ultimately might have to requisition automobiles to haul workers to and from war plants in areas where other facilities were lacking, if the nation's tire resources were wasted.
Newhall assured a press conference, however, that he saw no need for requisitioning tires this year or in 1943, and that in any case they would not be taken to be ground up for reclaimed rubber, but only as a means of solving a transportation problem.

Hereford Pilot Dies In Crash Of Plane

BATON ROUGE, La., May 22 (AP)—The crash of a P-39 pursuit plane near here killed its pilot, Second Lieut. Charles J. Borden of Hereford, Texas, Harding field officials disclosed last night.
The flaming plane hurtled toward a house in the Baton Rouge suburbs, but Borden pulled out of the dive and over the house before plunging to earth.
He was the son of L. F. Borden of Hereford.

Skelly Man Killed In Derrick Fall

Jack Money, 29, resident of Skellytown, died en route to a Pampa hospital this morning after a 30-foot fall from the top of a water well mast pole on the Gulf Oil corporation's Cooper lease north of Skellytown. He suffered a broken back and other injuries.
The accident occurred about 8:45 o'clock. Money was placed in a car and brought to Pampa, but he died before reaching the hospital. He had resided in Skellytown for five years during which time he was employed by the Gulf Oil corporation.
Money was a goustabout and relief gang foreman with the company. When the accident occurred he was ready to slide down the pole. How the accident happened cannot be explained by fellow workers. He fell to the concrete floor.
Money was well known over the Panhandle as a star basketball player. He organized and managed the Money-Gulf Oilers, an independent team, which played in several tournaments, the last being the Skellytown Navy Relief tournament two weeks ago.
Survivors are the widow, one daughter, Penelope, his mother, Mrs. A. L. Money, and a brother, D. S. Money, both of Florida. His mother and brother arrived here last week for a visit.
The body lies at rest at the Duemmel-Carmichael Funeral home here. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Central Baptist Pastor Returns From Convention

Rev. T. D. Sumrall, pastor of the Central Baptist church, has returned from San Antonio, where the annual session of the Southern Baptist convention was held.

Every southern state was well represented and the records show that more than 15,000 attended. "Facing the Future With Faith in God" was the slogan of this convention.

"The Baptists of the south were encouraged by the reports of the home and foreign mission secretaries. The war proves the need and power of the gospel of Christ as it is the only thing that can endure the tests of the battlefield whether in, on the sea, or on land. Many doors will be open for the gospel at the end of this war, and it is therefore the hope of Southern Baptists to have thousands of missionaries ready to sail forth to other lands with the Bible. All debts paid not later than 1945 and if possible by the end of 1943 is the slogan of Southern Baptists. When these debts are paid, the school and mission boards will be able to devote their all to the one task of evangelizing the world for Christ. In many respects it was the greatest convention yet," Rev. Sumrall pointed out.

In the absence of Rev. Sumrall, the Rev. H. Paul Briggs preached last Sunday when four united with the church.

Rev. Sumrall's subjects for Sunday will be "Green Lights on Wide High-Ways" at 11 o'clock and "We See Jesus" will be the text at the evening hour.

Poppies Will Be Worn Tomorrow To Honor Heroes

America's battle dead will be honored here Saturday by the wearing of poppies, the memorial flower of the English-speaking world since the first World War.

Poppies will be distributed on the streets by women of the American Legion auxiliary, who will at the same time receive contributions for the legion and auxiliary work among the war disabled and families left in need by the results of the war.

The custom of wearing poppies in tribute to the dead sprang up spontaneously in the United States, England, and the British dominions at the close of the last war, explained Mrs. Emmett Osborne, poppy chairman of the Pampa unit of the auxiliary.

The custom was inspired by the poem, "Flanders' Fields," which contains the lines:

"In Flanders' Fields the poppies blow—
Between the crosses, row on row—
That mark our place; the center of it all,
Our fallen comrades, they grow.

Poppies were first worn in America in New York City on November 10, 1918, the day before the Armistice. They were adopted as the official memorial flower of the American Legion in 1920, and one of the first acts of the American Legion auxiliary when it was organized in 1921 was to name the poppy as its memorial flower.

Poppy Day is observed in the United States on the Saturday before Memorial Day, when more than 13,000,000 of the little red flowers are worn by patriotic citizens. The poppies are made of crepe paper by disabled war veterans working in government hospitals and in poppy workrooms maintained by the auxiliary. More than $1,000,000 is contributed annually to the welfare of the war's living victims by the wearers of the poppy.

Bill Thinks She's Gaining In Weight

If you don't, you'll soon be hearing all about Bill's terrible day (Bill is in his second year and now has a desk job) and if he's in a particularly nasty frame of mind, he'll say he thinks you're getting fat.

So, to avoid explosions, it's best to get his mind off the post, so you trot him to town (a mile and a half, on the hoof) where there is always something doing at the various clubs.

Incidentally, these clubs are a God-send to the always financially embarrassed private and his wife. The free shows they put on are really swell, and an entire evening usually amounts to the price of two cokes.

Once in a blue moon it's beef and lamb at the home of the Kuntz from Bath Beach, Brooklyn.

In spite of me looking like an advertisement for a St. Patrick's Day parade, they know that such delicacies are my passion and delight, so when they get a box from home (a thing as welcome to the wife as to her soldier) they always entertain at their one-room domain.

'Mrs. Buck Private'—And Proud Of It; 'Don't Pity Army Wife,' Writes Bride

By MARJORIE STEWART
PAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 22—You may address any one of us as "Mrs. Buck Private."

"We're all 'army wives,' newly married, and the pattern of our existence is so much alike, you'd think we were turned out on an assembly line. Remember, of course, we're 'privates' wives, and the stories you've probably read about the house the government furnishes pertains only to another and distinct species—officer's wife—with whom we have little or no contact.

Nope, Mrs. "Buck Private" is in a class by herself, and a long way from home. Her car is the local bus-in-miniature, and in most cases that's a luxury reserved for rainy days. I can't say we don't envy a little the red-plated officers' cars as they speed to town, leaving a film of red dust on our lovely suede shoes we bought with loving care in Brooklyn or Boston a hundred years ago.

WINDOW-SHOPPING IS INEXPENSIVE
Still, we plod on, down Hay street, into the city itself. The usual procedure is to drop one's letters at the post office, then to cross the street to the five-and-ten, to do, and "just looking, thank you," rarely doing any shopping.

Money, we've long since learned, is a mysterious item that keeps disappearing alarmingly, so we guard the little we have, jealously, watching every penny.

Since our "home" is a room only we can do no cooking, and have to eat out. Now restaurants are fine, once in a while, but morning, noon, and night they begin to take on a different character. You know, things have come to the point where I can tell where you ate if you just tell me what.

Sure, it's a crazy existence, but I love it. Bill needed me and I needed him, and now that we're together, well, you know, to get some corn—"It's simple, once you know how."

And, another thing—maybe we don't roll bandages, or sell bonds—but we gals most certainly have been drafted as personal morale officers. When a weary soldier comes home, all in, and not the handsome-man-I-married, even if your own feet feel as though they're worn to the knees, it's up to you to look fresh and vivacious.

Surprise Shower Given By Trio To Honor Mrs. Pohl

Complimenting Mrs. Edward C. Pohl, a surprise layette shower was given in the home of Mrs. Fred Glass Thursday evening when Mrs. Freda Barrett and Mrs. Bill Gray were co-hostesses.

Decorating the chair in which the honoree was seated were large pink and white bows. The color note was repeated in the streamers extending from the chandelier to the lace covered table on which the gifts were arranged. An infant's picture topped the guest book which was tied with pink ribbon.

Bingo was played during the evening and the prizes awarded to the winners were given to Mrs. Pohl, who received a corsage of pink and white carnations from her husband. After gifts were presented to the honoree, refreshments of Jell-O topped with whipped cream, pink and white cake, punch, and pink and white mints in miniature diapers were served.

Registering were Mmes. Myrtle Simmons, Mark Heath, Frank Leder, Stuart Stoddard, L. C. Sparkman, E. B. Tracey, E. J. Hanna, Hoyt West, Elton Lathrop; Misses Aileen Hughes, Etha Jones, and Johnnie Davis.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Bert Henson, Mrs. Ed Jones, Mrs. Addie Mae Bryan, and Miss Orvala Wilbanks.

Soul And Body To Be Sermon Subject
"Soul and Body" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 24. The Golden Text is: "Why are thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42: 11).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord" (II Corinthians 5:8).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To be with the Lord is to be in obedience to the law of God, to be absolutely governed by divine Love,—by Spirit, not by matter" (page 14).

Smyers Resigns As Borger C-C Head
For the second time in less than two months the Borger Chamber of Commerce is looking for a secretary. Carroll Smyers, named to that position on April 8, has submitted his resignation to become state director for Texas of a new and specialized health program directed to industrial and military areas by the United States Public Health Service.

Smyers was Gray county census enumerator in the last taking of the census. He was formerly secretary of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce.

Smyers will go to Washington for three months' training after which he will be sent back to Texas. His headquarters has not been determined.

IN THE CHEMICAL WARFARE BRANCH of the army is Cpl. Leo Bailey, above, brother of Pete Bailey of Pampa. Leo worked here for the Monarch Construction company, enlisted Dec. 5, is now stationed at Leland Stanford university, Palo Alto, Calif. Corporal Bailey was born in Farmersville, La.

Students Name Bell As Graduate "Most Likely To Succeed"

Bill Bell and Frankie Lou Keehn, seniors, were chosen by the student body of the High School as the boy and girl most likely to succeed.

Tall, blond Bill Bell was born in Memphis, Texas, and has attended Pampa schools two years. Bill's hobby is to try to better himself physically and socially. His ambition is to get in the air corps and to write a book. Bill's favorite dish is chicken. His favorite sports are lifting weights, swimming, and archery.

Bill has served as a member of the Student Council this year, served as Junior Rotarian for the month of December, and is vice-president of the senior class.

Keehn Most Likely to Succeed
Theatrical-minded Frankie Lou Keehn, chosen as the girl most likely to succeed, has been active in dramatics during her school years. Frankie Lou played the romantic lead in the junior play last year, and has won several amateur tap dancing contests. She is also an accomplished dancing instructor.

Frankie Lou played the feminine lead in the senior play "Ever Since Eve," as the newly appointed assistant editor who disrupted the usual routine of the paper. Frankie Lou has been dancing ever since she was "knee high to a duck," and has done her part this school year for national defense by helping entertain with various programs. She also helped to raise money for the milk fund.

As her ambition is to be a featured dancer, she hopes to attend a dancing school.

Born in Wichita Falls, Frankie Lou has attended schools in both Tulsa and Pampa. During her junior year, she served as president of her class. She collects glass dogs and photographs as her hobby.

Debate Teams Gain Courage To Win District Meet

Reorganizing their teams after losing out at the invitation tournament at Plainview, the debaters took on new courage and marched to victory at the district meet held at Shamrock, April 18.

Debate teams consisted of Jack Moorehead, Neal Holden, John Tom McCoy, Dorothy Stone, Bob Clabby and Lucille Mathus, juniors, and Alyne Osborn, senior. Both teams were coached by Miss Pearl Caven. Others in the class were Kenneth Spencer and Ollie Ruth Kilcrease.

A mixed team consisting of John Tom McCoy and Alyne Osborn engaged a mixed team from Miami in a practice debate April 12 to prepare for the district meet at Shamrock. The visiting team debated on the affirmative of the question. The question: Resolved that the federal government shall adopt the policy of equalizing educational opportunity throughout the nation by means of annual grants throughout the various states for public elementary and secondary schools.

The girls' team, Alyne Osborn and Dorothy Stone, defeated the Miami team for the district championship. Boys' team, John Tom McCoy and Jack Moorehead, had no competition for the championship. Although these two teams put out some hard work they were unable to place in the regional meet at Canyon.

Eight girls in room 100, the sophomore division winner, received sweaters along with 11 girls from 103, the junior-senior winner. Sweaters are green with gold letters.

Endorsements Of USO From Armed Forces

PVT. ANDREW WYATT, Camp Wolters, Texas—Here in Camp Wolters we have a big USO club and in Mineral Wells there are two more. Without these clubs we wouldn't have any place to go for recreation. Even a soldier has to have a little entertainment. In my opinion, the USO club is a necessity to the soldiers.

PFC W. C. OSBORN, Fort Ord, Calif.—The USO organization is very highly appreciated by the soldiers that I have come in contact with and the few times I have attended any entertainments, they have been sponsored by the USO. On making a 1,000-mile convoy trip I came in contact with four different USO centers, and they happened to furnish the only entertainment we had during the entire trip. In one California USO center the library happens to be among the largest in the state. So as one among many men in the armed forces, I think the USO is very highly appreciated.

CAPT. D. K. LYSTER, JR., Hammett Field, Fresno, Calif.—In every contact with the USO organization, it has been my observation that the USO has been highly beneficial towards furnishing entertainment, amusement, and recreation for members of the armed forces. That means a great deal, especially from the standpoint of the selectee as his existence in the army and the world cannot be looked upon as a particularly desirable one. I for one am in favor of 100 per cent support for the USO.

Awards Presented Winners Of Girls' Intramural Tourney

Awards were given the winners of each contest in the girls' intramural program for the first time in Pampa High School. Previously, contests were held but no organized program was conducted before this year. Team members and individual contestants were given awards after each contest was held. Awards were in the form of small gold medals.

Volley ball contestants were given small gold medals and for the other contests, winners received gold medals to wear on a chain. Every girl who participated in each contest was assessed a five-cent fee. The money from these fees was used to buy awards. Only winners who did not receive awards were the students who made up the klopken baseball team of Room 102. The team defeated an all-school aggregation instead of playing teams divided into the sophomore and junior-senior divisions.

Eight girls in room 100, the sophomore division winner, received sweaters along with 11 girls from 103, the junior-senior winner. Sweaters are green with gold letters.

STUDENT COUNCIL PROM TO BECOME ANNUAL FUNCTION

Members of the Student Council have added one new event to their social calendar this year. The new event added is the all-school prom held March 27, in the new gymnasium.

A patriotic scheme was used in decorating the school hall. The prom will be an annual event from now on. The student council announced shortly after the prom was held.

Other social events sponsored by the Student Council this year are the following:

- September 26—Victory dance after Clovis game in the gym.
- October 10—Victory dance after the game between the Harvesters and Bowle of El Paso.
- October 31—All school party and dance.
- November 7—Skates arrived and a skating party was held.

November 29—Pop rally and party was held before the Sandie and Harvester game.

March 27—ALL-SCHOOL PROM
April 30—Skating party for the Student Council members.

Shore The Rides

If you are one of those who have demanded that Washington find something concrete you can do toward winning this war, your time has come.

Right at home, without hardship or sacrifice, you can help to save lives of tens of thousands of Americans, to knock months or years off the time it will require to whip Hitler, perhaps even to save us from defeat.

You can resolve, and plan, and organize—and make good—to save rubber by sharing your car with others when you drive to work, go shopping, take the children to school, or use the automobile for any essential purpose.

If we continue operating our cars as we have, 20 millions out of the 33 millions will be laid up by late summer of 1943, for the duration of the war.

That would be a national tragedy. It would slow down to a snail's pace the present mad tempo of our production. It would prolong the war by reducing the weight of material we can throw against Hitler and the Japs. It would mean the death of thousands and the maiming of hundreds of thousands of soldiers, sailors and marines who need not be sacrificed.

Our whole productive economy is based upon use of the automobile. Without it, we can not get our war workers to and from their jobs.

We can not possibly meet the production demands of all out war without automobiles for workers' transportation.

In a year or 15 months, if we ignore present warnings and continue to waste rubber, vital factories must slow down because many workmen won't be able to get to their jobs.

By sharing rides the available tire supply can be made to last between three and four years. By that time we hope to have ended the war. If we haven't, there will be at least a possibility of relief through the production of synthetic rubber for the most pressing needs.

We can triple the lifetime of our national tire supply by sharing rides systematically, intelligently and universally. Probably we won't. No such system ever works perfectly. But, to beat Hitler, it would seem worth the attempt.

All over the country isolated agencies are promoting the idea. The National Association of Manufacturers is co-operating with the Office of Defense Transportation. The Michigan State Highway department is experimenting in Pontiac. The Associated Industries of Maine, the Massachusetts Planning Board, the Connecticut Manufacturers association are surveying the possibilities. The California Shipbuilding company in Los Angeles, the Tennessee Coal and Iron company in Birmingham are in the midst of experiments. The U. S. Rubber company recently carried a full-page advertisement in many newspapers urging individuals to co-operate.

Here is a chance for individuals and organizations, labor unions and service clubs, civic associations, Legion posts and women's clubs to organize share-the-ride groups, to save rubber, to shorten the war, to save good American lives.

3. This precludes any large-scale invasion of India or Australia, although parts of east India may be attacked in order to break the last Allied communications with China, and there may be sizeable naval action in the Coral sea area for the purpose of blockading Australia from U. S. aid.

4. Therefore, so far as Japan is concerned, collaboration with Germany is finished and the Axis no longer is a real factor in Japanese military plans. Germany can do nothing now for Japan; why should Japan do anything for Germany, such as attack Siberia, until it suits Japan's own selfish ends?

There is nothing in this analysis to cause any great degree of jubilation among the United Nations; indeed, that fact that our enemies are separated in design and strategy may well mean a longer war, for the collapse of one will no longer tend to pull the other down.

Texas Comes Through In Navy Relief Drive

AUSTIN, May 22 (AP)—Texas came through with $5,000 more than their $210,000 goal for navy relief society funds.

Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, state chairman for the fund drive, announced today 156 counties reached or exceeded their quotas and virtually all others reported substantial funds in hand.

The $215,000 was exclusive of receipts from two Texas appearances of the Hollywood victory caravan show.

"It is a great pleasure to announce that the state has responded so magnificently and it has been a privilege to head the drive for this worthy cause," Mann said.

"The generous response from all sections of Texas has reflected the desire of the people to contribute to every war effort."

GIVING UP SUGAR, TRES, ETC., NOT IMPORTANT

The fact that we are obliged to give up many of the things that we have become accustomed to enjoying is not of any great importance.

The thing that is of great importance is that the great majority of people fail to see the reason why we are obliged to give up these things. They fail to see the cause; the things that the politicians and the socialists and demagogues have done to us that make it necessary for us to make these sacrifices. The more inconvenience is not at all important, if only we could see the cause and correct it.

And what is this cause? The cause is the lack of equal freedom for all our citizens. We have so interfered with the creative geniuses of our country that we want for these things. Had our government, for the last 30 years, not passed discriminatory laws that made it impossible for men of genius and foresight to be ready to supply us with these necessities and comforts, we would not now be obliged to do without these things. Instead of doing without, we would have had many more blessings in the line of material comforts than we now have.

The important thing is that we have disregarded the spiritual laws that make material abundance possible. We, in other words, have worshipped the golden calf—the material world—and disregarded the spiritual law that all men are equal before God, and before a just government and we are reaping the fruits of this paganism.

It is high time we analyzed the things that we have done which make it appear to be necessary to make ourselves pawns in the hands of the demagogic, socialistic, communistic, collectivistic leaders.

There is not one of these socialistic leaders who could write a universal, impersonal rule or norm of honesty by which an act could be judged as to whether it was honest or not.

Yes, we need to about-face and worship the law of equal freedom for every one rather than material things. When we do that, all these material things will be added unto us.

THE SOCIALISTS' GOD MORE DANGEROUS THAN MATERIAL GOD

In a recent issue, I made this statement: "Probably the attempt to serve God and material riches is not nearly as harmful as attempting to serve freedom and coercion at the same time. That is exactly what the socialists are attempting to do when they claim to be Christian."

I wish to strengthen this statement. The man who only works to secure wealth and does it on a free market basis, does no one any harm but himself. He is the great loser. Instead of doing harm to other people he makes it possible for all other people to get more for a given amount of sacrifice.

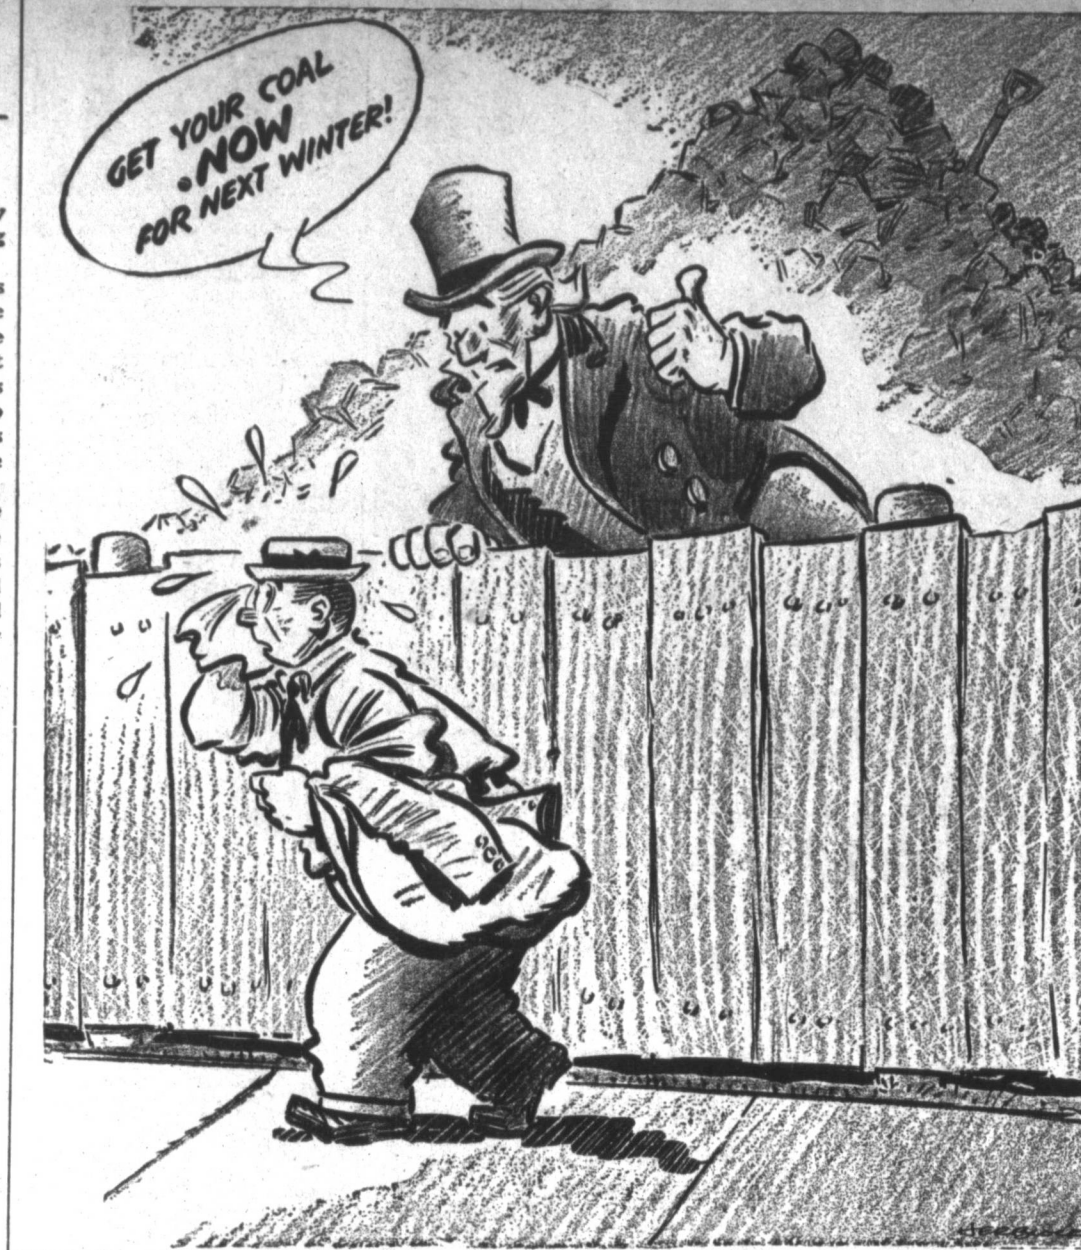

But not so with the socialists in their attempt to serve freedom and coercion at the same time. They, of course, cannot serve two masters. They claim to serve freedom and Christianity, but they serve their desire to dominate and control the lives of others by compulsion and force. They destroy the very foundation on which it is possible to use the talents of all the people.

Yes, the socialists, claiming to serve two masters, in reality only serve their own will for power, do untold harm to society, while the man who worships material things provided he wants no rewards that others cannot have on the same terms, only harms himself and benefits every other man in the world.

As an illustration, Franklin Roosevelt's desire for power and his desire to regulate and control the lives of the citizens, has done untold harm to his fellowman, while the man who so short-sighted as to devote all his time to accumulating wealth, provided he respects the equal rights of others, does harm to no one and benefits all mankind.

Yes, there is a great difference between the socialists attempting to serve two masters and the man attempting to serve Mammon and God.

IF YOU WANT TO "KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING"—

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, May 22—All over the lot: There's a local adage to the effect that you always should be nice to the office boy because, in this unpredictable business, he may be your boss tomorrow. John Boles can tell you that this is no joke.

While Boles was a big star at Universal he made a sort of protegee of the assistant prop boy, an alert, amusing kid named Phil Karlstein. Used to take him to lunch occasionally, and on the set would encourage him in planning a career. Later, a succession of bad roles and poor pictures prompted Boles to quit Hollywood for concert tours.

A few weeks ago, when the singing actor happened to be in town, he had an offer from the studio of a substantial role as the elder male in a romantic rectangle called "Love and Kisses, Caroline." It turned out that he had been suggested for the part by the picture's producer, Mr. Philip Karlstein.

TIREL HIM

Red Skelton reports he fought a way to beat the tire shortage: he bought a lot of tennis shoes and lashed 'em around the wheels of his car. "I couldn't stand it, though," he admitted. "I always had the feeling that people were chasing me." "I don't know what will happen before it's officially released, but the new Clark Gable picture was sneak-premiered the other night with some of the raciest lines heard since the dawn of censorship.

"For a scene in "George Washington Slept Here," a woman approached him and asked: "Did anyone ever tell you that you look exactly like Ann Sheridan?" "Even westerns are taking on wartime angles. Republic's new Three Musketeers thriller has the lads breaking up a fight between an Oriental and a tow-headed American kid. In the heat of his anger, the first boy (actually a Chinese) blurted out that Japan was, too, good to win the war because his father had told him, and his father talked to Japan every night on a big radio.

It was a good performance, and later I asked if he minded playing a Japanese. "We don't mind," he said, speaking for all the Chinese in Hollywood, "as long as the picture makes the Japanese bad enough and just so they get licked in the end."

When I asked his age, he looked at me cautiously and replied, "Oh, about 10."

Director Otto Brower laughed and said, "That's Hollywood for you. He thought maybe you were figuring on using him in another picture, and he wouldn't tell his age until he found out how old you wanted him to be."

highway in response to a call. Sheriff Hutson said he signed the complaint against the Newtons and filed it in justice court at Littlefield last night.

After being fired upon by Dr. Hunt he fled back to Lubbock. He stumbled into a hospital and declared four or five shots had been fired at him by a member of one of his graduating classes.

The physician was quoted as saying that when he stopped his car at the scene of the shooting he observed a man and a woman in a waiting automobile.

Last October Orval Graham, a brother of Mrs. Houston Allen 639 N. Faulkner, was a sergeant in the U. S. Army. . . . On Nov. 8 he entered his primary training in the air corps. Yesterday he was graduated from the advanced flying school at Victorville, Calif., and was second in his class. He is to be either an instructor or a pilot for bombardiers. He plans to visit his sister if he gets leave before reporting to his next station. . . . Orval was 21 years old April 15. He was from Quitaque. He worked here one summer.

John Henry Nelson, cadet at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, will be coming home for a three-week furlough after May 29. . . . John Henry, the son of H. A. Nelson, who has lived east of town for many years, has a brother, Harry Nelson, who is presumed to be in Australia.

So it's been weeks since the fall of Bataan, has it? So it's "old stuff" now, is it? Well Bataan—and what went on there isn't "old stuff." It—and the gallant stand of Corregidor—must and should continue to be a living, breathing example of American courage and fortitude down through the ages. It must remain forever in the annals of our national heroism, along with the Alamo—and all the other places where the spirit of our freedom has been nurtured by the blood of our men. The following poem was written by Don Blanding, internationally-known poet:

BATAAN FALLS! Bataan Falls! Bataan. Like the tramp of feet on the road of doom, Like the bomber's roar . . . like the cannon's boom. Like the drums of death the words command: "To stop! To listen! To understand! To pulse our hearts to the weary beat . . . retreat . . . advance Advance . . . retreat . . . advance There is glory in such defeat For each man gave of the best he had, Bearded veteran . . . beardless Gave of his strength, his hope, his life For mother, brother, friend, and wife. Unknown heroes whose fame is sung When "Bataan" is uttered by any tongue. Take those banners from wounded hands And carry the battle to stricken lands. Work and sacrifice, hope and give, That glorious word must forever live, Symbol of courage. That splendid name Should be stamped with blood and seared with flame On the heart of every woman and man. Dare to forget it . . . if you can! BATAAN.

The day of Bataan's fall is slipping back into the mists of time, but the story of Bataan, and of Corregidor is not "old stuff." . . . It will live forever in the hearts and minds of real Americans!

LORD'S SUPPER SANCTIFIES FELLOWSHIP AND ADDS SIGNIFICANCE TO COMMUNIONS

Text: Luke 22:14-30.

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D. Editor of Advance

If the scenes in our lesson, the Last Supper, were not sufficiently dramatic in the simple description which the New Testament record gives, great artists would have dramatized it for us and made the setting unforgettable. The greatest depiction of the scene in art is the famous painting by Leonardo da Vinci, though it is more accurate in the emotions that it evokes than in its historical detail. It is unlikely that the disciples ate at a long table of Leonardo's arrangement. More likely they were grouped together at tables in the form of a hollow square, and were reclining instead of sitting.

But the physical details are unimportant. Jesus and His disciples were Jews, and in harmony with the statement of Jesus that He had not come to destroy the law or the prophets, they were engaged in what was, and continues to be, the holiest of all Jewish observances, the celebration of the Passover. This specific celebration in the upper room has a new and added historical significance as the origin of the Christian sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which is so much the essence of Christian faith and fellowship that we speak of Christian bodies, or denominations, as "communions."

Was Jesus consciously establishing such a rite? It is a question we may ask, but that we cannot answer. Much might be said for the idea that Jesus was sanctifying all fellowship and all partaking of food together. The supper that the disciples ate was evidence of a real meal. The small portion of bread and wine, of which modern congregations partake in the Lord's Supper, is symbolic rather than real, and church suppers have little relation to the Supper in the upper room. Yet why should they not have? Why, without becoming sad and solemn occasions, should not every mingling of Christians together, and particularly the mingling for common food and social intercourse, be touched with the glory of all that makes the church worth while?

And all that makes the church worth while is here portrayed in the glorification of Christian service. Though one of the 12 was a traitor, these disciples had been called to high honor. But it was not the honor of exercising power like that of earthly kings. It was the honor of sharing in the service of the King of Kings, who is King of Kings and Lord of Lords, because, beyond all others, He stooped to conquer and gave Himself completely to the service of God and His fellowmen. By joining in that spirit, we can perpetuate the spirit of the Lord's Supper in that upper room.

The conflict in the world is still on between the loyal disciples and the traitorous Judases, between the "Lords of the Gentiles," the believers in force and violence, and the saints in the upper room. The Master went from the upper room to tragedy and death, and lovers of peace and truth and righteousness are passing through a new Gethsemane, but the voice of Jesus still sounds, "Be of good cheer. I have overcome the world." It is the spirit of service that will conquer and the hope of our country is in those who serve.

Behind The News In Washington

By PETER EDSON

There won't be a single wooden gun or dummy tank or imaginary airplane in the maneuvers which the army will hold this summer and fall, and that is perhaps the best commentary that could be made on the improvement in equipment and training the past year.

All the four big maneuvers in 1941, and at the smaller divisional and corps maneuvers, lengths of gas pipe mounted on forked sticks to simulate machine-guns or trench mortars, and field artillery, were rather common. Air forces were costly tokens of the real air strength that troops of comparable strength and under similar circumstances would encounter in actual battle. Mechanization was somewhat sketchy, and on paper.

All that is changed this year. Every soldier will have every piece of equipment and all the troop units will have all the army which army of organization and training for full strength operations. There will be nothing phony about this year's maneuvers. And some of them will be so real, so close to rehearsal, operations for specific task forces, that they will be absolutely secret.

A LESSON HERE

The one big lesson to be learned from all the hullabaloo over gas rationing in the East is nothing more nor less than a fundamental principle of democracy which everyone should have recognized in the beginning and which should most certainly be remembered while future rationing programs are being planned. It is simply that any time you attempt to pick out one class of American citizens and give them rights and privileges not enjoyed by the remainder of the population, you are running into trouble. There was no squawks on sugar rationing because everyone was equally inconvenienced. When a gasoline rationing all came from the "I'm just as good as he and I got just as much rights" element, which is practically 100 per cent of the American population.

All the little girl reporters who go to Mrs. Roosevelt's press conferences have become case-hardened to say anything the First Lady may say or do, but the other day she pulled a new one that caused a few sob-sisterly eyebrows to rise above the pencil line. Instead of referring to the President as "Franklin," she called him "Frank." It was the first time within memory of even the oldest gal there.

Paul V. McNutt's new manpower commission is still trying to formulate an all-over policy or, in other words, decide what to do. The way this commission was set up offers a perfect example of the way a new agency is created and begins to function in government administration. A committee of cabinet and top independent agency officers is created to determine policy. The chairman or director or coordinator or whatever he's called, names an assistant chairman to shoulder the responsibility. In this case it was Arthur V. Altmeyer, who is also chairman of the social security board. Then an executive director is named to do the work in this case, Fowler Harper, Indiana law professor and long-time McNutt cronie.

FOR those who wish to mope and drool over the outlook, we refer to today's news that the Russians have been slowed up in front of Charkov for another ten or 15 years, but by that time we should be rounding into pretty fair shape to give 'em a run for their money. . . . Listen, if we DON'T take 'em sooner than expected, as Mr. Hull stated, and if the war does drag out for the five-or-ten year period—you can have our share of what's left for a nickel. . . . World Wars are not fought today as they were 24 years ago, if you know what we mean and are any good at reading between the lines.

Honored Of Texas To Be Honored With Monument

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 22 (AP)—Gov. Forrest C. Donnell appointed a three-member commission today authorized to establish a memorial at Potosi, Mo., for Moses Austin, founder of Texas. Austin is buried at Potosi.

There still aren't enough nurses to go around for army and navy, so Red Cross will start a two week recruiting drive on May 25, aimed to sign up 75,000 of the 100,000 eligible trained nurses who are single, without family responsibilities, and under 40 years of age.

TEX'S TOPICS

By Tex DeWeese

WHEN Secretary of State Cordell Hull spoke out in Washington's official family day before yesterday and expressed the belief that the war will not last as long as everybody thought earlier in the year, he set off a bomb that was heard across the nation. . . . Beginning about noon yesterday and all through the day and night the radio commentators and newspapers quoting an unnamed source, gave forth of talk and printed word which indirectly and without mentioning any names constituted a verbal spanking of Mr. Hull for expressing that opinion.

Personally, we can't see anything wrong with thinking that you're going to win a fight quicker than you expected to—particularly if there are some pretty good grounds for that belief. It makes you fight all the harder to get it over with. And, we believe, that's the way the American people feel about it, too.

JUST because we are told now that we're going to win sooner than expected is no sign at all that we're going to lie down on the job. . . . The people are going right ahead supporting the war effort to the end. The people have full confidence in their leaders. The people believe that Uncle Sam will take the right steps, pursue the right courses, and outline the correct policies. . . . We think Mr. Hull gave the nation a lot of heart when he made the statement that we're "going good" right now. We believe that it was about time somebody high in government circles said something to let the people know that all's well.

We do not subscribe to a fallacy of false security which might spell defeat, but neither should we condone a defeatist attitude that keeps everybody down in the dumps all the time. From our viewpoint, Cordell Hull contributed a fine bit of bolstering to American morale that will help instead of harm the war effort.

IF I thought, personally, that we would not win this war for five or ten years, it would drive me nuts (I heard what you said) me, and, if I thought that and kept telling everybody else that we didn't have a chance of winning for five or ten years, if at all, I think I'd soon have them all nuts and ready to jump off the bridge with me, and I am not a fourth, fifth or sixth columnist and I have enough confidence in our government to keep on being an optimist about the war. . . . Regardless of what they say, I still believe that Germany is beginning to fold, that the Allies are on the topside, that the war will not last five or ten years, and that when the end—we mean the cessation of hostilities—comes, it will come unexpectedly and with lightning quickness.

FOR those who wish to mope and drool over the outlook, we refer to today's news that the Russians have been slowed up in front of Charkov for another ten or 15 years, but by that time we should be rounding into pretty fair shape to give 'em a run for their money. . . . Listen, if we DON'T take 'em sooner than expected, as Mr. Hull stated, and if the war does drag out for the five-or-ten year period—you can have our share of what's left for a nickel. . . . World Wars are not fought today as they were 24 years ago, if you know what we mean and are any good at reading between the lines.

Today's War Analysis

(This daily feature, conducted by DeWitt MacKenzie, Wide World war analyst, is being written in his absence for a fortnight by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

There is more evidence today, in so far as the Axis is concerned, that this is where Japan came in.

The Japanese have gone back in earnest to their gigantic labors in China. After entering free China by the back door, penetrating Yunnan province by way of Burma, they have thrown some 125,000 troops into action in the eastern provinces of Chekiang, Fukien and Kiangsi, which they have never really occupied in the strict sense of the word.

This east China drive goes further than an attempt to eliminate Allied air bases within bombing range of Tokyo, although that factor has undoubtedly lent urgency to the move. Primarily, however, it seems to be the beginning of a general offensive in which Japan picks up where she left off before Pearl Harbor—a major endeavor to complete the "pacification" of China, which, after five long years, remains Japan's No. 1 problem in Asia.

Chiang Kai-Shek's government, which for a time seems to have assumed that Japan's Burma campaign was directed mainly at India, is now thoroughly alarmed, and is pressing for more aid, particularly large numbers of aircraft.

This is the interpretation placed on the Chinese developments by some close students of the Jap war strategy:

1. Japan is beginning to consolidate, or mop up, following her sensational victories over thousands of miles of the west Pacific area.

2. She prefers to try to knock China out, no trivial undertaking.

It Took Engineers To Get Huge Negro Woman Into Court

VICKSBURG, Miss., May 22 (AP)—It wasn't an engineering problem exactly, but United States engineers provided the solution of getting Anna Craig, 550-pound negro woman, into court to face charges of possession and concealment of non-tax paid liquor.

The woman lived in Greenville, 100 miles distant. Internal revenue agents had received a number of complaints. They had been unable to bring her into court because she was too large to get in an automobile, train or bus.

So, when Judge Sidney C. Mize opened federal court yesterday he put the problem up to the engineers. With characteristic efficiency, Col. S. D. Sturgis, district engineer, handled it this way:

He dispatched a ton and a half truck to Greenville. A deputy marshal directed loading of the woman, bed and all, into the truck. A daughter accompanied her in a rocking chair. The cargo was wheeled onto a loading platform here, then into a freight elevator. A half dozen men finally brought the woman into the presence of the court.

She pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years.

Remember Them Tomorrow

as they remembered you when they journeyed across the waters to fight that great battle so that you might be safe from bloodshed and strife. Yes, you people at home were in their minds and hearts all the time, even though a machine gun was rattling to the right of them, a bomb bursting to the left of them, and rifle bullets singing a tune of death in front of them. They never forgot you, you lived in their memories all through that long and bloody battle—so why don't you show that you still remember them—show them you are proud of them.

LEST WE FORGET...

Who are these men to which Poppy Day is dedicated? Are they great industrialists, politicians, scientists, artists? No, these men are World War Vets, who are trying to salvage that part of their lives that's left them after a great war. They are men from common walks of life who, in the first flush of their youth, found themselves fighting for a cause—your cause—the cause of democracy.

They might have been famous. They might have invented a motor car; they might have been a senator, a governor or even President; they might have written that great novel or painted that great picture. Might have been! Instead they fought great battles—they blew out that great flame of scorn, hatred, and greed that was about to singe the shoes of Democracy.

Today, in Flanders, poppies grow in and around thousands of white crosses that mark the graves of those who gave their lives for that great cause. But there are other men who fought in Flanders whose names are not on any of those white crosses. No, their names are on white hospital beds and on little baskets with wheels and on wheel chairs and crutches. Those are the men to whom Poppy Day has the most significance, those men whose comrades' agony is still beneath the live poppies in Flanders, but whose own agony throbs with every move and with every tortured heartbeat. Poppy Day is for them.

The 1942 Harvester prospects will meet the ex-Harvester still in will be a case of last year's championship team meeting the team that will have to carry the burden this year because 10 of the starting ones were first stringers on last year's team which tied with Lubbock for the district title.

Coaches Buck Prejean and Mac Best have been working their Harvesters long and hard for more than three weeks. They are well pleased with the progress made by the boys but realize, and the boys realize, they've a long way to go to replace a full team lost through graduation or age.

They are invited to be at Harvester park Monday afternoon to see the big scrimmage. No admission will be charged.

Final Football Scrimmage Delayed Until Next Monday

The scheduled scrimmage closing the spring football training for the Pampa Harvesters has been postponed from this afternoon until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the practice field east of the stadium.
Coach Prejean announced this morning. Reason for the postponement was the wet field which failed to dry following yesterday's heavy rain.

'Chain Store' Baseball Hit By Dallas Reb's Manager

DALLAS, May 22 (AP)—Sharptongued George Schepps looked at the Texas League standing today and let loose a blast against "chain store" baseball.

Schepps' Dallas Rebels are resting in the cellar and just above them are the league's three other independently-owned clubs.

"Currently stories are appearing in the daily papers of the inroads World War No. 2 and dim-outs in the East are making on minor league baseball," he said. "But this is only a temporary situation that will be corrected as soon as a certain paper-hanger and his two dog-robbers are disposed of."

"The permanent menace to minor league baseball is the monopoly of young ball players by major league clubs that have control of clubs competing with independently owned teams."

Schepps said he really boiled over the other day when, after his Rebels had twice been defeated by the Detroit-owned Beaumont team which started the season with a
"don't you get a bunch of good young ball players like Beaumont has?"

"It's impossible for an independent club to compete with clubs like Detroit," Schepps snorted.

"Why Detroit? Just those boys in the East of $100,000 worth of their signatures. This is more money than was paid all the young ball players owned by the four independent clubs in the Texas league."

Schepps pointed to the current standing of the teams. "In first place is Beaumont, Detroit owned.
Then comes Tulsa (Chicago Cubs owned). Third comes Houston (St.
Louis Cardinals owned). And fourth is San Antonio (St. Louis Eagles owned). In the second division are the four independents—the Vevoyard, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Dallas."

Yanks Break Hearts As Well As Backs Of Rivals

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

The New York Yankees seem to win their pennants by breaking the hearts as well as the backs of their rivals.

This year the Chicago White Sox were supposed to be one of these rivals, but the Sox couldn't get going and they languished in the American league cellar while the other clubs drew away from them.

Then Chicago started winning and led together a surprising streak of seven games to get out of the dark for one fleeting day—until the Yanks blew into town and burst the bubble.

Yesterday the Sox sent out to the grounds a chunky southpaw named Ed Smith, Smith pitched well, held the world champions to one run, and still they beat him.

It was Smith's misfortune to have to match his 0-5 record against the 0-0 star of the Yankee hurling corps, Ernest "Tiny" Bonam. The big-right-hander, who promptly pitched his fourth shutout and sixth victory of the season.

The 1-0 score was determined in the fourth inning when Smith walked Buddy Rosen with the bases loaded to force in a run.

There was good pitching in all the day's other games, too.

Sid Hudson pitched six-hit ball to lead the Washington Senators to a 5-2 verdict over the St. Louis Browns although his teammates almost sabotaged the job with six errors.

Phil Marchionni, looming as one of this season's finest flingers, held the Detroit Tigers to six hits as the Philadelphia Athletics hammered three pitchers for 17 blows and an 11-3 triumph that lifted the A's into fifth place.

Rookie Tex Hughson pitched seven-hit ball for the Boston Red Sox against the Cleveland Indians and Ted Williams drove in four runs, two of them on his ninth home run of the season, for an 8-3 victory.

This knocked the Indians back a full game from first place, with which they had flirted earlier in the week while the Yankees were idle.

Only one game in the National league escaped the weather and in this the Philadelphia Phils nosed out the Cincinnati Reds 3-2 as Si Johnson bested Paul Derringer in a hurling duel.

Oilers Make Four Errors And Lose To Clovis 7-2

CLOVIS, May 22.—The Clovis Pioneers broke the Pampa Oilers win streak at four games last night by jumping on Powell Pickering for eight hits and taking advantage of four Pampa errors to win 7 to 2.
The Oilers managed nine hits off Lefty Wyatt but couldn't convert them into runs.

Manager Dick Rattiff and Lloyd
Summers led the Oiler assault, Summers with a double and single and Rattiff with a pair of singles.
Lou Frierson hit a double and single to pace the Pioneers.

Marshall Brown, Oiler centerfielder, made two costly errors while Cunningham and Pickering booted one each. Walter Buckel, third baseman, although going hitless had a field day at the hot corner, making nine assists and one putout without the sign of an error. He is the best third baseman in the league and if he could hit he would be playing big time ball.

The Oilers will be in Albuquerque tonight for the first two games.
Then they go to Lubbock for a pair before returning home next Tuesday night.

Country Club To Sponsor 'Hail America' Golf Tournament Here

The Pampa Country club will join golf clubs in other cities of the nation in sponsoring "Hail America" golf tournaments this summer, all proceeds going to the American Red Cross. The first tournament will be held on May 30 and 31.

The golf program is being sponsored by the United States Golf Association. Fifteen per cent of the gross proceeds will remain in Pampa and the other 85 per cent will be sent to the national organization. Winners in all divisions will be presented certificates by the Red Cross.

There'll be three divisions in the local Memorial Day tournament one for men, one for women and a mixed foursome. Entry fee will be $1 per person in each division entered.

The men's division will be a blind bogey affair, players drawing handicaps. The player whose net score is nearest the number, between 50 and 125, drawn will be the winner.

"The women's division will be a handicap race over 18 holes, medal play. The player with the lowest net score will be the winner. The mixed division will be blind bogey. Partners will draw handicaps and play will be in Scotch foursomes."

All play will be over 18 holes and matches can be played either May 30 or May 31.

Charlie Thut has been named chairman of the tournament committee succeeding Dan Grubben who has resigned. Other members are Mr. Grubben, Gene Patheere and Haskell Maguire.

Several members of the country club plan to enter the Greenbelt tournament being played in Quanah Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Miller Brings Cage Aces To West Texas

CANYON, May 22.—Coach Gus
Miller quite logically isn't advertising his luck in locating young men who can run with a ball or drop it through a hoop, but the Buffalo defenses in West Texas State are quite impressed by the procession of athletes which is coming here.

Miller, who came up from Texas
 Wesleyan of Fort Worth April 1, has brought in some exceptionally fine basketball players. With freshmen eligible to play under amended Border conference rules, West Texas State could have a squad which would average an inch taller than last season's champions, Miller said.

In football, his major task is that of building up a strong offense.
Spring training broke up without weak spots being plugged at center and in the tailback position. First class freshmen would have an opportunity to start at these positions.
Good kicking is, so far, confined to linemen.

Spring scrimmages showed strong defenses. But the absence of Wee Ben Gollins and powerful Larry Sanders in the backfield was startling in its effect. Letterman available for the backfield include J. W.
Anderson, William Flowers, Billy
Hall, J. P. McMahon, and Back
Winters. The latter an exceptionally good blocking back. McMahon is a

Pampa Youth Wins St. Ed's Sport Award

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Soldier golfer, ranging from buck private to commissioned officers, are entered in the Hale America National Open tournament, but those who qualify for next month's final round may have to take a back seat to a couple of corporals.

High on the list of 1,528 players announced by the U. S. Golf association today for the nation-wide links show to be staged for the navy relief society and the U. S. O., are the names of Corp. Victor Ghezzi and Corp. Marvin H. Ward.

Ward is the amateur champion of the United States and Ghezzi is the current king of the pros.

Ghezzi may not be wearing the professional crown when the Hale America begins, for he will be called upon to defend it next week in the National P.G.A. tournament at Atlantic City, but he and Ward are among 21 entrants whose records except them from all qualifying play.

The tournament, designed to replace the National Open which was discarded for the duration, will get under way next week with 69 local qualifying rounds.

The 522 survivors of the first 36 holes will be joined by 74 others in a group of 54-hole sectional eliminations early in June. Those who don't have to shoot in the opening rounds include a dozen Californians who have no local rounds and 62 players who qualified for P.G.A. championships.

The 72-hole final, scheduled at the Ridgemoor Country club in Chicago, June 19-21, will bring together 14 sectional qualifiers, the except group which includes Ghezzi and Ward, and 21 survivors of a Canadian elimination.

Points were awarded on the basis of entrance and placement in all intramural tournaments throughout the present school year. Extra points were earned by members of winning teams and finalists in the different tournaments. Points were given for participation in football, basketball, softball, boxing, tennis, golf, billiards, and table tennis.

The award of the major monogram clinched St. Edwards' second place in an intensified intramural program begun two years ago when intercollegiate football was abandoned and off-campus competition in other sports was restricted.

School officials report that the year-long point system was highly successful in maintaining a competitive spirit in the program.

T'warn Notin'

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 22 (AP)—
And what can a 99-year-old man do when it comes to sports?
Well, Jim Barnes went out and caught himself a string of 150 sun-perch with a line and pole.

"T'warn notin'," said the Confederate veteran, who proved his

Miller Brings Cage Aces To West Texas

CANYON, May 22.—Coach Gus
Miller quite logically isn't advertising his luck in locating young men who can run with a ball or drop
it through a hoop, but the Buffalo
defenses in West Texas State are quite impressed by the procession of athletes which is coming here.

Miller, who came up from Texas
 Wesleyan of Fort Worth April 1,
has brought in some exceptionally fine basketball players. With freshmen eligible to play under amended Border conference rules, West
Texas State could have a squad
which would average an inch taller than last season's champions, Miller said.

In football, his major task is that of building up a strong offense.
Spring training broke up without
weak spots being plugged at center
and in the tailback position. First class freshmen would have an opportunity to start at these positions.
Good kicking is, so far, confined to linemen.

Spring scrimmages showed strong defenses. But the absence of Wee
Ben Gollins and powerful Larry
Sanders in the backfield was startling in its effect. Letterman available for the backfield include J. W.
Anderson, William Flowers, Billy
Hall, J. P. McMahon, and Back
Winters. The latter an exceptionally good blocking back. McMahon is a speedster and looking good, but Ed Castleberry, Vernon freshman, is battling for a position. Bert Pruitt of Panhandle evidently will be tried at tailback. He is a freshman.

Pastor Taking On Mauriello

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—You'd think a fellow who came back alive from 21 rounds with Joe Louis wouldn't try to press lady luck again—but says Robert Pastor is still asking for more.

And tonight in Madison Square Garden, he's taking on tough Matt Mauriello at 10 p. m. (E. W. T.)
to prove that he's not only ready, but willing and able to get a third chance at the Brown Bomber's choice assortment of sleep-making shots.

Some 12,000 of the faithful are expected to turn out to see rapid Robert run up against the 13th hurdle in his current winning streak—a barrier that may get him that third crack at Louis, if he gets by it and if Joe does any fighting at all this summer. Right now, the former New York university collegian is the "hot man" of the heavyweight fights of his recent revelries with Lem Franklin, Booker Brockwell, Jimmy Ewins, Turkey
Thompson and some other guys.

And, with Billy Conn laid up with a severe case of in-law ailment, Bob's a cinch to get the July jamboree with Joe—if the army gives the green light for it.

Of course, there's always the chance Mauriello, a better than bad bet with a right hand, might hang one on Bob's whiskers, and that's something that makes the summer program subject to change without notice. But this would be close to a miracle.

The gambling boys along 49th street are offering anywhere up to "heavyweight size."

NAZI SUB

Captain Rowe said he was in the chart room when the first torpedo struck on the starboard side. The ship listed suddenly, he said, and it banged about like a pea in a shell.

The second torpedo plowed into the ship before the skipper was able to get on deck. The third officer, 25-year-old John T. Chalmers, of Cheltenham, Pa., "tried to help pull me through the door, but his hands were oily and slippery and he couldn't hold on to me."

As the ship listed, the captain slid out and grabbed the bridge rail hanging on doggedly until he was sucked under the water when the vessel sank.

He was picked up by the men in one of the two life rafts about four minutes later, he said.

Captain Rowe said the sub gave no warning and did not surface after the torpedoing.

"Usually those fellows ask what ship you're on," he said, "but this one didn't. We never even saw him, and that makes me think the rascal was tipped off."

The skipper, while in the water, was struck on the left side by a falling star and forced under the surface again.

Third Mate Chalmers was on the watch when the submarine attacked.

"I saw the torpedo approaching as it was about 75 feet off the starboard side," he said. "It left a broad wake at right angles to the ship."

"There was no chance to give an alarm and the torpedo hit amidships."

Chalmers made his attempt to assist the captain and then started for a life raft, which was floating even with the deck. Another raft fell on his back, bruising him, and Chalmers finally climbed into the second raft.

Two other men, First Mate John F. Chaariton, 29, of Jenkintown, Pa., and Louis Foster, 34-year-old second mate, of Fort Worth, Tex., got into the same boat and the trio began rowing about, picking up other crewmen and the captain.

"Men were calling all over the place," said Chalmers, "and we'd row in the directions of the sounds. We must have rowed four hours or more."

Nine survivors were in Chalmers' raft and 10 in another.

The men suffered no hardships, they said. "We had plenty of provisions." Some were ill, however, from swallowing oil and water and a few were injured by falling pieces of lumber.

The crewmen saw the rescue ship about dawn Monday, May 18, they said. "We saw a wisp of smoke on the horizon and lit up an emergency flag and ran flares. We also had an old pair of BVD's hung on a boat hook."

The men of the torpedoed ship all said they would return to sea at the first opportunity after resting a few days.

One husky seaman, Hollis E. Dixon, 31, of Mobile, appeared surprised to hear the question. "Go back to sea? Sure, why not?"

Dixon laughingly complained to Second Engineer James Elliot Monroe, 30, of Hickory, Miss., that Monroe had "stepped on my head" when both were sucked under the water.

The only crew member who claimed he saw the submarine was Percy Williams, 19-year-old negro mess boy from Mobile, Ala.

"I was floatin' on my back when I saw something long and black. It wasn't my imagination."

"Then he roiled his eyes and said, 'Yes sir, I saw the sub—and also a shark.'"

Sailor Praises USO In Letter To News Editor

What do the United Service Organizations do? Just how do they help our soldiers, sailors and marines?

In a letter to Tex DeWeese, managing editor of The Pampa News, Jerry Stroup, son of Mrs. Jesse Stroup of Pampa, stationed at a naval school at Chicago, writes:

"In connection with your USO drive at home, I thought I would just tell you something of ours, here at Chicago."

"It is, I believe, one of the best to be found anywhere. We can go there to eat, dance, read or even to sleep, as they have about 300 beds there for the boys."

"From early in the morning until late at night they have sandwiches, milk, coffee, cake, cookies, fruit and candy."

"And there is always a big box of cigarets for us. The girls that come up here are from the best families in the city. They all dance real well and they're real pretty, too."

"There are about five service men's clubs here but the U. S. O. is the best. They make you feel that you are at home and you can go there and stay for a month without ever spending a cent."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, May 22 (AP)—Peace-thinking waned as a stock market stimulant today when Washington authorities warned that optimism in this respect was unwarranted or at least premature.

Speculative and investment contingents that shifted to the bullish side yesterday and promoted the liveliest session since March 10 to lighten commitments at the start. Dealings returned to the sluggish area, however, and losses for the most part were in fractions. Scattered modest gains were in the final hour although minus marks were numerous.

Treason Indictment Faces Krug Friend

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Attorney General Biddle today ordered the United States attorney at Detroit to seek an indictment for treason against Max Stephan for allegedly aiding Peter Krug, a German air force lieutenant, after the latter's escape from a prison camp in Canada.

This is the first time in the present war that prosecution has been ordered for treason, a charge which carries a penalty ranging from five years imprisonment and $10,000 to death.

Krug was recaptured by FBI agents in a San Antonio, Tex., hotel, on May 1 and returned to Canada.

Stephan has been held under $25,000 bond on a charge of harboring an enemy of the United States. He is alleged to have provided Krug with food, lodging and money during a two-day stay in Detroit and with arrangements for the German pilot's departure, ostensibly for Chicago.

Bombardier Symbolizes Offensive, Fliers Told

MIDLAND, May 22 (AP)—The bombardier symbolizes the American offensive, the second and largest class of the Midland Army Flying school was told yesterday.

Orders were issued to the commanders of all other military zones directing them to remain at their posts, and the chief of the general staff announced tersely that "the army is prepared."

The country as a whole, however, remained quiet and there were some signs that a moderate policy would be acceptable, though workers' organizations consistently have voted in their meetings for war.

A half-dozen senators opposed to war met yesterday to discuss a compromise which might satisfy Mexico's honor and still fall short of war.

The foreign office announcement disclosing that Germany had rejected Mexico's demands for reparation for the sinking of the tanker Potrero Del Llano said Berlin flatly declined even to receive the note of protest.

"Therefore," the announcement said, "President Avila Camacho will decide what steps the honor and dignity of the country demand."

The protest had been submitted through the Swedish government, Mexico having severed relations with Japan, Italy and Germany last December following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

At that time President Avila Camacho declared Mexico's place "for the time being" was in the fields and factories rather than on the battlefields, and Mexico has since been pursuing a policy of economic aid to the United States.

CONGRESS DEBATES Soldiers Pay Rate

WASHINGTON, May 22 (AP)—Armed with official estimates that house-proposed pay boosts for fighting men of lower grades would add approximately $408,000,000 to the annual service payroll, senate and house conferees sought to agree today on whether to restore a lower scale of increases approved by the senate.

Heading the house conferees, Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the military committee declared he would stick to his original stand for a $42 monthly pay rate for second class privates and apprentice seamen.

This was the figure the senate approved and the house committee recommended. A doughboy-conscious house, however, overwhelmingly voted to boost the rate to $50 a month for privates and apprentice seamen, and to $64 for first class privates and second class seamen. The senate and the house committee approved $48 for the latter group.

Under present pay schedules, privates and apprentice seamen get $21 a month during their first four months, $30 a month for the next eight months, and $40 monthly after the first year. Second class seamen and first class privates receive $36 a month.

While the stalemated legislation affects the army, the navy, the marine corps, the coast guard, the public health service, the nursing service and the coast and geodetic survey, the only rates in controversy are those affecting the two low grades in the army, the navy, the marine corps and the coast guard.

Little Harvester

(VOL. 11, NO. 29) FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1942

Editor: Dorace Jean Caldwell
 Department Editors—Scott Rafferty, Helen Marie Alexander, Eugenia Phelps, Audrey Lemmon, Colleen O'Grady, Anne James, Wilbur Wells, Mary Lou Douglas, and George Reeve.
 Assistant Department Editors—Evelyn Kidwell, Frank Frauf, Paul Blackwood, Bill Bell, Tommy Howell, Jean Chisholm, Janice Wheatley, John Knox, Tom King, Bill Marler, and Kenneth Suttup.

TO THE NEWS

To the Pampa Daily News, we the Little Harvester staff, give our thanks for the cooperation they have given us in publishing each week the student paper.

Our innumerable questions asked while trying to learn the mysteries of journalistic work must have been very trying to the busy men of the News, but never have they failed to respond with the utmost cheerfulness and courtesy. When we timidly took copy down late they overlooked it realizing that we are after all, just learning.

To Editor Tex DeWeese goes a special word of appreciation for his talks to the journalism class that gave us both encouragement and inspiration.

And to all the rest, Archer Fullingim for his words of advice, Lawrence Stalcup for his work as make-up man, Leroy Johnson, for "putting up" with us on Thursday nights, to Howard Hamilton, Ed Tracy, Johnnie Davis, Sherman Gray, and all the rest we say again, thanks a lot!

—Dorace Jean Caldwell.

A Challenge

June 2, is graduation day for 92 Pampa High School seniors, the first senior class to leave one of the newest buildings of education in the Texas Panhandle.

For a moment, let us review the month of June, and see what traditions this senior class might follow.

King Romulus, first king of Rome, originated the sixth month calling it June after the word "Juno" meaning to join. Romulus assigned the month of May to the elders who served in the council and assigned the month of June to the young men who fought the wars.

Though with some fear and yet a feeling of pride, we may compare the strange facts that by some bit of fate the group of senior boys and girls that are graduating June 2, may, with all probability, do their part in winning World War II. From the word "Juno" which means the joining of a people, we might connect the fact that most of the seniors will enter into some sort of defense work, some joining the services. All fighting to join the world in peace.

High School Teachers See More Than Double; They Have Twice Double Vision

Lucy must be placed on the front row because her hearing is bad, Johnny must be reminded to start reading his book report book two weeks before it is due, and Ted's wisecracks must be overlooked because he has an inferiority complex and this is his one method of asserting himself—these things are routine in a teacher's life.

But, when she looks up from her desk and sees two sets of twins before her—the individuals of which she cannot tell apart that "is the last straw."

This might be the case at Pampa High school, for Myrel and Earl Looper, both blond sophomores, are so similar in appearance that few teachers can tell them apart, while Velma and Thelma Davis, blue-eyed brunettes, may be identified as VELMA and THELMA after weeks of intense concentration.

Yet the Loopers and the Davises are apparently unaware that they cause havoc, for they are unconcerned when a teacher calls "Earl," looking directly at Myrel, or Velma meaning Thelma. Neither one recites, for he is sure the teacher must mean to call on the other.

Myrel and Earl are the 15-year-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Looper, recently of Grandview, Texas. The family has moved three miles north of Pampa.

Not only do the boys look alike but they have the same interests, and hobbies. Nothing could interest them any more than to train horses, and spend what leisure time is left after attending school and doing their chores on the farm, breaking in colts. They "reckon they'll both be farmers."

Velma and Thelma, 14-year-old talented daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Davis, are also sophomores. Normal girls, they like to talk of "hair-dos," fingernail polish, beaux, popular songs, high-heeled shoes and ice-cream sodas.

Velma and Thelma have blue eyes and are alike in every way except Thelma's hair is a darker brunette than Velma's.

Both sets of twins have attended school in Pampa for one year.

Mystery Solved As Senior Tells Story

The mystery has been solved. For weeks, Pampa students have wondered why "Nick" Spencer, senior, had such a glum expression on his face. Now it can be told.

A few weeks ago, he was expounding at great length to members of the fairer sex on his joining the navy.

"But," protested one girl, "do they take them as small as you?"

Five-foot Nick believes his physique has been insulted. He will never smile again.

Six Senior Boys Are Elected As Junior Rotarians This Year

Six senior boys have been elected Junior Rotarians for this school year, 1941-42. They were Philip Silcott, Bill Bell, Don Meador, Cecil Bradford, John Knox, and Mickey Rafferty.

One graduating senior boy is elected Junior Rotarian each month. He attends the weekly luncheons of the International Rotary club so as to bring the businessmen of Pampa in closer contact with the high school students. The council attempts to choose boys who will give the best possible impression of students to outsiders. A boy may not be re-elected.

Philip's full name is Philip Bruce Silcott, age 17, and he has been in several class plays—the junior class play, the senior class play, two one-act plays. He was elected by the senior class vice-president, home room president, feature editor of the Little Harvester, and a member of the Student Council.

Bill, christened William Worth Bell, age 17, is majoring in science and mathematics. He was elected editor of the home room, a member of the National Honor society, and student council president.

Don Meador, age 17, has three medals in spelling and one medal in mathematics. He was elected editor of the home room, a member of the National Honor society, and student council president.

John Arden Knox, age 16, is secretary of his home room, a member of the annual staff, and is active in basketball and tennis. He has been in the junior and senior class plays.

Former editor of the Little Harvester, Maynard William Rafferty, Jr., known to everyone as "Mickey," was president of the Panhandle High School Press association. Mickey was runner-up for student body president this year.

Junior High Will Graduate 215 Ninth Graders June 1

"Derricks on the Hill," a story of a typical oil field family living in Pampa from 1926 will be presented in drama form at the graduation of 215 freshmen in the Junior High auditorium Monday, June 1.

Four students made an average of 96 to be chosen valedictorians for the 1942 freshman class. They are Anna Barnett, John Robert Lane, Helen Jean Paxson, and Shirley Louise Taylor.

Following the drama, the awards and diplomas will be presented by L. L. Sone, superintendent of Pampa schools, and Winston Savage, Junior High school principal.

Girls Faint At Sight Of Merle McCracken

During Pampa's track training period, I came upon a group of girls gathered at the foot of the steps leading outside.

"Oh," moaned one girl, "I can't stand it." "He must have a bad memory," giggled another.

I couldn't imagine what was wrong, and it seemed I would never get an explanation. Finally, after begging for the terrible news for what seemed hours to me, a stout-hearted girl whispered, "Merle McCracken doesn't have anything on except a shirt, and he is running around the block."

I looked, I couldn't resist it, and to my utter amazement, he didn't! I started to hide my face when a teacher, upon hearing our conversation, informed us he had shorts on, but his shirt hid them.

Were we relieved? Whew!

Candle Initiation Characterizes First Meeting Of F. H. T.

Beginning the activities for the Pampa chapter of Future Homemakers of Texas this year was a candle light initiation service in which 34 girls were admitted to the club, October 30.

Twenty-six girls attended the area meeting in Amarillo, November 15, at which Colleen O'Grady, junior, was elected area reporter.

Pampa will be the next hostess to the area.

Officers elected for the local chapter October 13 were Anne James, president, Nancy Yoder, vice-president, Martha Brummett, secretary and treasurer; Colleen O'Grady, reporter, and Francine Stockton, song leader.

Members of the F. H. T. sold poppies on poppy day. Joyce Taylor won second place and Dora Taylor third place in the contest. Both are sophomores.

In helping with "Bundles for Britain" the girls made 12 wool skirts for the Red Cross. Joyce Taylor, chairman of the service committee, was in charge of this project.

A Christmas party for F. H. T. and F. P. A. members was given in the Home Economics department, December 15.

Invitations were sent to the mothers of F. H. T. members and women teachers in the high school for a Mothers Day tea, May 10.

The Pi Tau (Greek initials for Pampa, Texas) chapter of Future Homemakers was first organized in September, 1936. The club flower is the blue cornflower, and the colors are blue and silver.

Student Prophet Predicts Active Future For Seniors

After 20 years on the farm, at last I am on my first vacation. It seems more like centuries than 20 years since I got "ve old sheepskin" at dear old Pampa High school. I'm all nice and settled on the train for New York. That nice-looking, gray-haired man across the aisle from me looks familiar. Why would anyone be studying American History on such a beautiful June day as this? I can't believe my eyes. Yes, it's Mr. Steele on his way to Rockefeller Center to do some research in history about the words "whoopie ti yi yo" which were popularized by the extinct Texas cowboy.

The porter comes through the car with the latest edition and upon opening my copy I see John Knox's picture staring me in the face with the caption above it "Great Movie Lover To Appear in New York." Reading further in the story I learn that his left cheek dimple is now causing millions of female hearts to flutter a little harder.

Oh, my goodness, here comes one of those darn statisticians. Wonder what she wants? Why, it is Nellie Roach wanting to know what kind of fly-spray I use. After chatting with Nellie a little while I learn that Arthur Moyer is now leading a revolt against men having to keep the babies at night. He claims he is just too, too nervous. After all he is so frail.

My, these trains do travel fast. Here I am in New York already. What a band to meet me? No, it's for some celebrity. But that couldn't be Nic Spencer playing the tuba—but it is. Wanting to be in the know, I wait to see the celebrity who turns out to be none other than those newly weds, Harry Abbott and Elie Marie Allen. And here comes Frankie Lou Keehn who is one of the most noted criminal lawyers in New York. Frankie You hasn't changed a bit. She has been defending four of her former P. H. S. associates, Frank Daugherty, George Glasscock, Leonard Hall and William Jones. They all wanted two lumps of sugar in their coffee. What's this, an extra? Upon plunking down a nickel, which was a hard earned one at that, to paper boy Pat Ftanigan, I learn that Ozella Dunn and Sara Bird have at last found a good substitute for rubber. Now Don Meador can start having dates again, and Addie Belle Phillips can stop snatching little toy cars to get the rubber wheels.

While reading my paper, I accidentally run into a thin distinguished-looking person, Gret'n Ann Bruton. Yes, she is on her way to a society meeting for the protection of fleas, of which she is president. It seems that Lois Costka's dog has been killing entirely too many fleas. She also informs me that Ruth Graves, Lou Wilkins, Juanita Barnett, Billie Knapp, Eycle Wade, Marie Mitchell, Geneva Nichols, Alyene Osborne, and Winifred Lowery are former (20 years) Ziegfeld girls and Lucie Johnson is the hit of the New Ziegfeld Follies.

Overhead the drone of an airplane attracts my attention. It is a sky writer. He is spelling out, "Buy Silcott Brothers' Cough Drops." That must be Jimmy and Philip. My, how interesting.

Food seems to be the main thought in my mind so I take off for the nearest restaurant which is called the "High Hat Grill," owned and operated by N. C. Carter and Sally Dodson. The waitress who comes to my table is Ruby Fay Johnson. I ask her to sit down for a while and she does. She tells me that Harry Kerbow and Tommy Howell are comedians, and high class ones at that. Their managers are Arnold Johnston and J. T. Hefflin. She also tells me that Wayne Hillard is doing imitations of Donald Duck. While she is telling me all this, I notice a distinguished-looking group at a large table across the way from me. Ruby tells me that it is Kenneth Sutton, Bob Thomas, Charles Vandover, Fern Simmons, Margaret Sullins, Howell Oldham, Jack Morris, Hugh Monroe, Jean Mielke, Harold Mitchell and others who were a good will delegation to Argentina and other South American countries. Continuing my talk with Ruby, I learn that Floyd Hatcher has become a second Sammy Baugh. He has turned to playing professional football. Dorothy Drescher has taken over the Schiaparelli's place in New York. She designs all the clothes for Naomi Snyder, New York's most famous playgirl. She practically lives in the Stork club and is currently being squired by Hollywood's number one gladiator boy, Belton Bearden.

I want to see the races, so I take off for the nearest race track which is operated by Raymond Conner. As I enter the track a loud speaker announces that Lt. Harold Craddock and his co-pilot, Delbert Crowley, have been forced down on the private landing field of Walter Lowes. They had been blown off their course while flying an international pursuit plane. As I glance at my racing form, I see that the jockey of all jockeys, Gene Alford, is riding the favorite. Other jockeys that are riding are Roland Bailey and Buster Wilkins. Circulars are being passed out announcing that the World's Heavyweight Champion, John Cornett, will again defend his title tonight at Madison Square Garden; the Garden is now under the management of Joan Wells and Francis Bolander. The referee will be Raymond Blodgett.

At the fights I run into Cecil

Bradford, who is a professor of sociology at Harvard. Cecil has just participated in a contest in which a Mr. America has been picked. A benefit performance by the New York Symphony, under the direction of Burl Graham is just starting. Playing first chair clarinet is Robert Brandon, and R. L. Edmondson is the piccoloist.

The box above mine at the fight is occupied by the Master of Capital, John Wayne Browning, and his wife, the former Iva Jean Harrison. In their party is Bill McNut, engineer, Janet McMillen, Vogue Fashion editor, Tommy Mills, Naval officer, Alma Watkins, writer of current song hits, and Ralph Burnett, owner of a spinach farm in Kansas.

During the fights I buy hot dogs and peanuts from Charles Darling and Cecil Dittmeyer. At the ring-side giving a round by round description of the fight is sports commentator, Bill Bell.

The lady sitting behind me is telling how Annabell Martin and Barbara Matthews were the talk of the town because they walked around the ledge of the Empire State building with their shoes off. They were finally brought down by patrolmen Andy Smith and Tom Teague. At the thought of it, I fell out of my seat, and was brought to by Miss Jones explaining transitive verbs. Hmmm, it was only a dream!

Speeches, Quizzes, Sing-Songs Vary Assembly Programs

Five main speakers have appeared on Pampa High school assembly programs this year under the direction of the Student Council, with John Tom McCoy, junior, serving as program chairman.

Descriptive talks were given on Hawaii and Chili by Rev. Henshaw of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, and Dr. Augustine Turner, respectively. Dr. Charles Barker gave an impressive talk on "The Three Principles of Health." "Years will pass whether you do something or not," was the theme of the Rev. Gordon Bayless, pastor of First Baptist church, in his annual speech to Pampa High school students. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yung Lee, a Chinese couple, presented "A Comparison of Chinese and American Customs" in a paid assembly on Feb. 18.

McLean High school band was the only out-of-town school to present an assembly program because of the rationing of tires. Pampa Junior High school band presented a program in assembly also.

Other musical programs were given by the A Cappella choir, the girls' glee club, Junior High glee club, Carver school, the orchestra, string band, and Frankie Lou Keehn presented two dance programs in assembly.

Two assemblies were donated to the campaigning for president and all-school favorites. Programs were presented to advertise the school prom and one-act play besides the senior play.

White Christmas, a quiz program, and Kid Day program were the three most impressive assemblies because of their simplicity.

The last assembly of the year was held this morning, May 22, to present all the awards earned by the students for the past year.

Congratulations Graduates

As you leave the class rooms to take your place in business, or higher education, you'll find that principles for succeeding remain the same.

Honesty, integrity, and fairness are words that will mean much in your future after graduation. Hold these high in your dealings. Just as you have learned the value in your class room, on the athletic field and in your personal associations, let this be magnified in the life you are now entering.

Success will be yours! Congratulations on your achievements!

Active Enrollees In Occupations Class Increase In Number

Thirty-three diversified occupation students were enrolled this year to make up the largest class since it was begun in Pampa High school, W. H. Galloway, D. O. instructor, revealed Thursday. The number of active enrollees ending this year has increased 120 per cent over the '37-'38 year.

This diversified occupations class started off this year with twenty-one enrolled. Seven more were added during the first semester. However, eight were dropped, two of whom volunteered for military service. The families of two moved out of town, two failed to make good in their jobs, and the other two dropped out of school.

Beginning of the second semester, five new students were enrolled, making a total of thirty-three for the year. During the second semester three more withdrew. One of these had a major operation, the other two moved out of the school district, one of which went into another school and continued to take diversified occupations.

The D. O. Enrollees of the 1941-42 class are J. V. Adams, White's Auto store; Roland Bailey, Ward's Cabinet shop; Joe Blackwood, Culberson Chevrolet; Bill Cobb, Motor Inn-Johnson's garage on week-ends; Charles Darling, Spears Furniture company; Melvin Dawson, Murfee's Department store; Zonelle Elkins, Doctor Kelley's offices on week-ends; Billy Hargis, Radcliff Supply; Floyd Hatcher, Wilson Hatcher, building contractor; Harry Hoyer, drilling with father for Warren and Bradley.

Kenneth Johnson, Pampa Print shop on week-ends; Dewey Johns, Texaco Distributors and Cabot on week-ends; Don Johnson, Moore's Tin shop; Arnold Johnston, Bert Curry Refrigerator company; Fred James, Wagner Printing company; Bill Klock, Bright's Studio on week-ends; Hershell King, Roberts' Hat shop; Jack Lane, Pete's Body shop; Betty Jean Myers, Radcliff Electric company office; Elvis Ragan, Eads Produce company on week-ends.

Glen Riley, General Supply company on week-ends; Jimmy Silcott, Culberson Chevrolet and Johnson's garage; Lorene Smith, Montgomery Ward; Naomi Snyder, Worley Hospital laboratory; Oscar Stanford, Radcliff Supply company; Edward Taylor, Jr., Dwyer-Boynston; Coy Vanderburg, Ideal grocery on week-ends; Richard Stephens, Culberson Chevrolet on week-ends.

Those who enrolled the second semester were Bobby Ray Brown, Ward's Cabinet shop; Betty Johnson, Pampa Hospital laboratory; Buddy Simmons, Suttle's grocery; Leslie Thompson, Montgomery Ward, and Elmer D. Young, LaNora theater.

Last tourney of the year was the softball meet. Winners were rooms 101 and 106.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Fourteen Members Chosen For National Honor Society

Four Seniors, Ten Juniors Are Elected

Highlighting Pampa High school's National Honor Society activities this year was the election of 14 new members. Four seniors and ten juniors were chosen from 66 eligible juniors and 12 eligible seniors. This is the first year the juniors have outnumbered the senior-electees.

Seniors elected are Bill Bell, Dorothy Drescher, Leonard Hollis, and Roland Phillips. Juniors are Margaret Burton, Dorace Jean Caldwell, Charles Erickson, Mary Gurvey, Anne James, John Tom McCoy, Elizabeth Roberts, Frank Sholwell, Dorothy Stone, and Bill Walters. The juniors will carry on the work which was done by the old members last year.

Old members are Joe Blackwood, Cecil Bradford, president, Ralph Burnett, L. J. Halter, secretary, John Knox, Janet McMillen, Frances Shier, and Philip Silcott, vice-president.

These students were elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service to the school, and character. No more than 15 per cent of the seniors or 5 per cent of the juniors may be elected to the society.

The National Honor Society was organized in 1930. R. B. Fisher was the sponsor when organized and later Miss Alma Ruth Schulkey was sponsor. Miss Clarine Brannon was appointed as sponsor in 1935 and has been sponsor since that time. The National Honor Society has been sponsoring a campaign for higher scholarship; this has been done through the home rooms. The senior members give talks in the junior and sophomore home rooms on the objectives of the National Honor Society.

Up to this date there have been 199 seniors and 106 juniors elected to the society.

Honors, Offices Won By Little Harvester '41-'42 Staff Members

Would checking 156,800 words for accuracy, spelling, and meaning give you a headache? Dorace Jean Caldwell, editor of the Little Harvester, concedes that it is enough to give anybody a headache for this is just what the four-foot, 10-inch junior has done this semester in addition to studies and other activities.

Other members of the Little Harvester senior edition staff are Tom King and Billy Marler, juniors; Jean Chisholm, Janice Wheatley, Evelyn Kidwell, and Paul Blackwood, sophomores; and Kenneth Sutton, Tommy Howell, and John Knox, seniors.

The staff attended the conventions of three press associations of which it is a member. These were the Panhandle High School Press Association meeting at Canyon, February 5, the West Texas Press Association meeting at Lubbock, the Texas High School Press Association at Denton, December 4. Dorace Jean was unanimously elected vice-president of the West Texas Scholastic Press clinic. The Little Harvester was given all-Texas Honor rating at Denton.

Three plaques were awarded Little

Harvester staff members in Panhandle High School Press contests. Dorace Jean Caldwell placed first in news writing, Scott Rafferty in sports writing, and Audrey Lemmon in feature writing.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," so the staff met for a chill supper at the home of Miss Margaret Tomberlin, sponsor of the paper. A party was also given for the journalism class in the Home Economics department. Several members of the staff have played tennis in a group, along with their sponsor.

Rooms 100 And 103 Win In Girls' Sports Tournaments

Home rooms 100 and 103 are the champions of the sophomore and junior-senior divisions, respectively, of the girls' intramural tournament. Room 100 took top honors with 1,785 points, while Room 103 won with 1,195 points.

Room 102, second-place winner in the sophomore division rang up 1,480 points. In filling the runner-up position in the upper division, Room 106 scored 1,735 points.

The intramural program was run off under the direction of the girl coaches club. A girl is chosen by each home room to serve as organizer of various teams to represent her room in the tournament. The club organized and conducted seven tournaments. They were: kick pen baseball, volleyball, ping-pong, basketball, badminton, archery, and softball.

Room 102 Wins Kick-Pin Baseball

In the first tournament of the year, Room 102 beat every room in the school to win easily.

A volleyball tourney followed which was won by Room 100 in the sophomore division, and Room 208 in the junior-senior bracket.

In the ping-pong singles, Rooms 100 and 203 were the winners. Rooms 301 and 304 won the doubles tournament.

Banquet Climaxes Junior Activities For School Year

Climaxing the junior activities for the year was the Junior-Senior banquet held at the high school cafeteria last Saturday night when one hundred and fifty students, teachers and guests were present.

"Spirit of Victory" was the theme of the evening. Long tables were decorated in red, white and blue with matching napkins, miniature soldiers, sailors and marines as favors.

Sophomore girls wearing red, white and blue aprons, and soldier, sailor and marine caps acted as waitresses.

After the banquet the group went to the gymnasium to dance. Decorations included spotlights with colored lenses.

Another important event this year for the junior class was the junior class play, "Death Takes A Holiday," given February 26, 27. Leading roles were played by Elaine Carlson and Bob Clabby.

The junior class also had a party April 17, celebrating the finishing of six weeks exams. The group spent the evening playing games and skating.

The class officers are Leslie Burge, president, who has been a football hero for the past two years, and named most valuable man on the team this year. He was also captain of the basketball team this year.

Imogene Sperry, who is vice-president of the class, was a candidate for personality queen, a member of the Harvester band, and of the A cappella choir.

Dorace Jean Caldwell, who is secretary of the class, is editor of The Little Harvester, vice president of the West Texas Scholastic Press clinic, vice president of Quill and Scroll and vice president of her home room.

Mrs. E. L. Norman is the head junior class sponsor.

Dog-Vase-Stamp Collecting Keep Sophomores Busy

Many of the students in the large 1942 sophomore class have interesting hobbies. All kinds of varying interests were revealed by 10 of these sophomores in a few short minutes during a class period.

Frances Crocker enjoys collecting miniature dogs. She owns 148 from all parts of the United States and Mexico. Also a miniature collector is a transfer from Amarillo, Lucy Jean Turner. She has two shelves filled with small vases. Mary Ellen Reeder also enjoys collecting perfume bottles of unique shapes. She has a trunk with 127 in it.

Brown-haired Ino Cox said that her hobby was snapping kodak pictures. Madeline Rusk enjoys designing "hair-do's" for other people.

Gladys Farmer makes and collects costume jewelry. She has necklaces made of shells, yarn, macaroni, jacks, and colored twine.

On the scientific side, Earl O'Brian, a transfer from Longview, and Roy Cone like to experiment with electricity, coils, and motors.

Earl also is an astronomer. Molita Kennedy, who makes all of her own clothes, collects stamps from nearly every country, and a letter written by Abraham Lincoln.

Robert Graham reveals with a twinkle in his eyes, that his hobby is chopping weeds.

Requirements for membership in the society are a high scholastic average, outstanding service, either on the school paper or on the annual faculty approval, and students must be of at least junior-senior standing. Membership in the society may be secured only through a local chapter.

Elizabeth Roberts Is Elected President Of Quill And Scroll

Elizabeth Roberts, junior, was elected new president of Quill and Scroll at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon. She will succeed Colleen O'Grady, junior, Eugenia Phelps, junior, was elected vice-president; she will succeed Dorace Jean Caldwell, junior, and editor of The Little Harvester. Colleen O'Grady will succeed Georgie Reeve, senior, as secretary of the organization.

The reorganization of Quill and Scroll, international honor society for high school journalists, found only five high students eligible for membership.

The Pampa chapter was reorganized Oct. 17, 1941. Colleen O'Grady, Dorace Jean Caldwell, Anne James, Eugenia Phelps, and Georgia Reeves were the five members qualified for membership in the honorary writers' organization.

John Knox, senior, and Elizabeth Roberts, junior, were elected to membership the second semester.

Banquet Celebrates Anniversary On April 10, 15 years after the founding of the society—members of the Pampa chapter gave a formal banquet to honor the founding of that society. Olin E. Hinkle, director of Journalism at West Texas State college, spoke on "Young America in a Changing World."

Carrying out the banquet color scheme was the centerpiece with blue and gold flowers. Tiny linotype slugs with the name, carried out the forms for place cards.

O'Grady Is Former President Blonde-haired Colleen O'Grady is the former president of Pampa chapter of Quill and Scroll. Vice-president is Dorace Jean Caldwell, otherwise known as "Shorty." Georgia Reeve is secretary of the organization.

Pampa High Track Team Takes Third Place In Regional

Pampa High school's track team, coached by J. C. Prejan, participated in three meets this year, a practice meet with Berger, the district contest at Shamrock, and the Region One Interscholastic meet at Canyon.

The Harvesters romped over the Berger Bulldogs in the dual meet, scoring 87 points while Berger was counting only 35.

Rain indefinitely postponed the district meet at Shamrock, making it necessary to allow each school to send a certain number of boys to the region contest at Canyon. Pampa took third place in the meet.

Pat Flanigan and Basil Arnold qualified at the Canyon affair and were sent to the state meet in Austin in the shot-put and pole-vault contests, respectively. Pat placed fourth in the field and Basil did not place in the pole-vaulting contest.

Track was a popular sport with all those who participated, numbering about 45.

Reeves Makes Quick Exit From Room As Female Fans Flutter "Success at last!" Alvin Reeves, a "happy-go-lucky" sophomore, slipped into the sewing room of the home economics department. He breathed a sigh of complete joy, and grinned with satisfaction. He glanced around the room once more, then beckoned to three boys waiting outside saying, "Come on boys, she's not in." (meaning Mrs. E. L. Sanford, head of the home economics department).

But alas, and alack, heroes are

Intramural Boxing Draws Big Crowds During First Year

Boxing matches attracted large crowds of students to the gymnasium each noon during the intramural tournament this year. Since Pampa High school did not enter the North Plains Boxing tournament this year, the intramural matches were the only ones held.

Matches were made by the home rooms and by weights. The bouts were held on a mat in the gymnasium. Coach Oscar Hinger served as referee, and several experienced boxers were the judges. Most of the bouts were of the offensive, swing-from-the-toes type with frequent knock-downs.

In the finals held at the Junior High gymnasium, Charles Erickson, 85 pounds; Junior Teague, 105; Robert Cotten, 115; Eugene Schneider, 125; Leonard Hollis, 135; Jerry Kerbow, 145; Arthur Moyer, 155; Don Meador, 165; Wayne Ott, 175; and Charles Boyles, heavyweight, won their bouts in the inexperienced division. Winners in the experienced division were Tommy Howell, 125 pounds; Jack Lane, 135; Eugene Winget, 145; and John Cornett, heavyweight.

born, not made. Who should be standing behind him during his announcement of entrance into the forbidden room but Mrs. Sanford! After this startling discovery, Alvin made a graceful, but definitely quick exit from the room amid gales of laughter from the girls.

Pampa Sends Three Players To Boys' Tennis District Meet

The Pampa High school boys' tennis team was handicapped in many ways this spring, yet the nine boys on the team enjoyed working out on the few bright days during March and April. A tournament was played by members of the team, and John Tom McCoy and Jerry Alexander were selected to represent the team in doubles and Erian Eller to play the singles matches.

Two dual matches were played with Amarillo, the Pampans losing both. The Pampa netters were also defeated in the district meet in Shamrock. This year the team was forced to practice at the old Woodrow Wilson courts. The 1943 team will have the advantage of the three new concrete courts east of the building.

Boys on the team were Erian Eller, John Tom McCoy, Jerry Alexander, Joe Bob Zimmerman, Marvin Gray, Bobby Curtis, Flint Berlin, Bobby Edson, and John Knox.

EIGHT VICTORIES SCORED BY FIGHTING HARVESTERS

Pampa Gains Tie For Title; Loses By Narrow Vote
Amarillo Defeat Highlights Season

Crediting themselves with eight wins against two defeats, the 1941 Pampa Harvesters played through one of their toughest schedules to gain a tie with Lubbock for the district championship. Lubbock was awarded the title by a 3-2 vote of the conference committee. Roland Phillips and Ralph Burnett were captains.

Two sets of backfield stars were the major asset in the most successful season in several years. They could be substituted at any time and with the protection furnished by an exceptionally heavy line they carried, passed, and kicked the pilskin for a total of 305 points while the forward wall was doing its part to hold ten opponents to 99 markers.

Among the strongest teams played by the pupils of Coaches J. C. Frejean and Mac Best were Amarillo, Northeast of Oklahoma City, Lubbock, Plainview, and El Paso High. All but Lubbock and El Paso were defeated.

AMARILLO BEATEN

Major victory of the season was the defeat of Amarillo, undefeated and until defeated saw championship, by a score of 16 to 12. For ten years Amarillo had held an edge over the Harvesters, although they had never beaten them by over two touchdowns until 1940. The defeat was the beginning of the end for the Saudis. They lost to Plainview the next week 13 to 0 to nullify their chances for even a tie.

Six games were played at Harvester park, all of them wins for Pampa. With the final game at Pampa last year a win, the Green and Gold of 1942 will be fighting for a home record of seven straight victories.

Pampa placed two men on the all-district team. They were tackles Roland Phillips and John Chesser. Chesser was also named on the all-state second team. Phillips will also play in the all-star game at the annual Texas State High School Coaches association meeting at Abilene in August.

Highest number of points scored in one game was in the encounter with Borger, the Harvesters winning 46 to 6. One shut-out victory was marked down. Bowie of El Paso fell 27 to 0. One touchdown was called back in the entire season. One field goal, that in the Amarillo game, was scored. Only one more was attempted. Largest crowd of the season witnessed the Amarillo game. Ten thousand fans paid their way to see one of the best games ever witnessed in the Panhandle.

FIRST FOUR GAMES ARE WON
 First game of the season was with the Burk Burnett Bulldogs, Pampa winning this one by a score of 19 to 7. The team as a whole showed promise of a successful season.

Clovis, New Mexico, brought their Wildcats to Pampa the next week, losing by a score of 20 to 13. Passing was the factor which saved Clovis from a whitewashing.

Publicized as one of Oklahoma's strongest teams, Northeast High school of Oklahoma City nevertheless went down to the fighting Pampa eleven 26 to 6. The game with Pampa was the only loss suffered by the Norsemen in the entire season.

BOWIE OF EL PASO
 Bowie of El Paso could do nothing in their match with the Harvesters and went down in defeat for the second consecutive year, 27 to 0.

TIGERS STOP ONRUSH
 The old saying, "You can win every time," came true in the next game, the Harvesters falling before the passing of the El Paso High ace, Squires, by a score of 7 to 0. Squires completed 21 out of 28 passes attempted.

Pampa resumed their winning ways the next week with a 19 to 6 win over Childress, sparked by Leslie Burge's 80-yard run for a touchdown.

A 21-point spree by the Lubbock Westerners in the first quarter proved to be the undoing of the Harvesters, the Westerners going on to win 30 to 13.

John Chesser's 53-yard gallop for a touchdown gave Pampa a fourth-quarter win over Plainview in her second conference game.

Before a crowd of 10,000 fans, Pampa stumped all the experts and defeated the mighty undefeated Amarillo Saudis by a four-point margin of 16 to 12.

With one of their lightest teams in history, the Borger Bulldogs could do nothing but attempt passes and have them promptly intercepted by the Harvesters to lose 46 to 6.

31 BOYS GET JACKETS
 At the end of the season, 15 boys were awarded regular jackets and 16 received reserve jackets. Lettermen's jackets were reversible and gold-satin lined. Reserve jackets were not reversible.

Squad members for the entire season were: backs, R. L. Edmondson, L. J. Halfer, Jimmy Berry, Jack Waters, Leonard Hollis, Bobby Dunham, Charles Boyles, Don Meador, Bill Arthur, and George Neef, ends, Kenneth Lard, John Cornett, Frank Shotwell, Pat Flanagan, Tom Cox, Basil Arnold, and Wayne Orl.

Guards, Harry Kerbow, Floyd Allen, Arthur Moyer, Ralph Burnett, and Bill Abernathy; tackles, Flint Berlin, Bob Edson, Leroy Thomas, Roland Phillips, and John Chesser; centers, Jerry Kerbow, Leslie Burge, and Earl Snyder.

Boys' Intramural Program Is Inaugurated Here This Year

With the close of the tennis tournament, the boys' intramural sports program concluded a successful opening year. Eleven sports were included in the well-rounded schedule under the direction of Oscar Finger, head of the physical education department.

Standings of the rooms at the end of the badminton tourney were as follows: junior-senior division, 217, 2170 points; 105, 1563; 112, 1527; 106, 1182; 104, 690; and 215, 400 points. Sophomore standings were room 100, 2,340 points; 208, 1235; 201, 1,138; 216, 1,026; 202, 990; and shop, 835 points.

The intramural program was made after the example set by Junior High, which has had a popular school sports program for several years. The contests were by home rooms, each room gaining points by participation and success in each contest. Two separate divisions were made—junior-senior and sophomore. Tournaments in each. Gold charms were given to winners in each event.

FOOTBALL IS FIRST
 The first contest was six-man touch football, held during September and October. The regulation football field was shortened to 50 yards and all tackling and roll blocking was banned, making a fast, open game in which speed and passability rolled up the scores. The croquet and ping-pong contests were held along with the football tournament before Christmas. The croquet grounds were where the tennis courts now stand.

In the basketball tournament, held during the noon hours, tight, low-scoring games were the rule. The games were played across the gymnasium, using the goals at the sides. This allowed two games to be played at one time.

BOXING MOST POPULAR
 Probably the most popular tournament with the student body was the boxing tournament. Since Pampa did not enter the league tournaments this year, the intramural matches were the only ones held. A crowd was always on hand to watch the matches on the gymnasium mats every noon. The finals were held in the Junior High gymnasium with a small admission charge to pay for awards to the winners.

The wrestling tournament was held following the boxing, and was run off in a similar way. Finals were also held in the Junior High gymnasium. The handball and badminton contests were played soon afterwards.

Last events in the program were the softball and tennis tournaments. Three softball diamonds were laid off on Harvester field and the track arena. Games were three innings long, and produced both tight pitching and free-hitting duels. The tennis tourney was held on the brand new concrete courts east of the building. Both doubles and singles were played.

The track meet was held May 4 to 8. Events included 50, 100, 220-yard dashes, the 440, relays, running high and broad jumps, standing broad jump, baseball throw, and the pole vault.

Much of the value of the tournaments lay in the fact that over two-thirds of the boys in the school entered one or more contests. Pampa High school plans to continue this general sports program next year. It may become even more valuable if the tire and gasoline rationing make school team trips impossible for the future.

Richardson Predicts Successful Year For Girls Tennis Team

"Because of their training this year and with the three new courts, the tennis team is expected to be in the best of form next year," Miss Maxine Richardson, girls' tennis coach, said.

The team took only one trip during the year besides the trip to Shamrock for the district meet. A tournament was played in Amarillo in which Pampa made a good showing, although they did not win the affair.

Squad members were Martha Pierson, Betty Ann Culberson, Freddie Nell Beckham, and Virginia Windsor, juniors, and Jean Chisholm and Helen Marie Alexander, sophomores. These members will receive letters.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

Lovely Bertha Willis, 1941 Harvester football queen, was born seven miles north of Pampa on February 1, 1925, and has attended Pampa schools all her life.

Not only is she football queen, but also F. P. A. sweetheart. She was presented with an F. P. A. jacket this week.

Bertha has brown hair and brown eyes and a light complexion. Her hobby is collecting pennants of states, schools, and interesting places.

Although her parents have moved to Mobeetie, she will attend Pampa High her senior year.

"CAMELOPARDS"

Football Team Treks 1792 Miles In 1941

The Pampa Harvester football team of 1941 covered 1792 miles in Texas and New Mexico, traveling to play games in Lubbock, Plainview, Childress, and El Paso. Of these four out-of-town games, the Green and Gold won two, from Plainview and Childress, while their only losses came at the hands of the Lubbock Westerners and the El Paso Tigers.

The Harvesters made their longest trip October 16 and 17 to El Paso by the New Mexico route. This was a 471-mile trip.

Futures Play Exes Today To End Spring Practice

With the playing of the "exes" this afternoon, the future Harvesters concluded a 30-day spring training session under the coaching of J. C. Prejean and Mac Best. About 44 boys reported for practice.

The 1942 edition of the Harvesters will be considerably helped by the return of 15 squadmen from last year, among them the complete sophomore-junior backfield. The line is the main cause of worry at the present time.

One of the toughest schedules in the history of the school will be played this fall. Such teams as Sunset of Dallas, El Paso High, Amarillo, and many others will have to be faced. Big worry of the old "big five" however, is the addition of the Brownfield Cubs to the district list. Pampa makes the trip to Brownfield Oct. 23 for their first conference game.

As before, six games have been scheduled at Harvester park for this fall. They are with Burk Burnett, Sunset of Dallas, El Paso High, Childress, Lubbock, and Plainview. Games to be played away from home are the Bowie of El Paso, Amarillo, Brownfield, and Borger games.

At this time things look fairly bright for the Green and Gold. Besides their own strength, Pampa can breathe a little easier over the fact that Amarillo, Lubbock, and Plainview are all hard-hit. Brownfield can be considered the dark horse of the district because no reports have leaked out about the

Graduates Bequeath Varied Personal Properties To Future Seniors

"Hey, Hardhead! Just a minute, boy, I'm writing the senior class will and I'd like to know what you have so will to whom and how much if any."

"Well, let me see now," drawls Hardhead (Walter Lowe) as he scratches his knob of granite. "I guess about the only thing I have to offer is my hard head—and good-bye, he's giving a lot!"

"They're a lot of kids who told me some things they'd like to will—I can only remember the dumb ones." Again "Hardhead" scratches his granite-like knob.

"Wop Moyer (Arthur) gives his boxing ability and meanness in general to Frank Yates, and listen, brother, he's giving a lot!"

"Dorothy Drescher and Cecil Bradford, those masterminds, leave their brilliance to such ignorant students as John Tom McCoy and Marston."

"To the guy who can take it, that mastermind John Chesher leaves his football ability. To Harold Cobb he leaves his perfection at stealing aluminum ware from the cafeteria."

"N. C. Carter bequeaths his perfect delivery of the Patrick Henry speech to Eugenia Paige. Also he leaves his 'skeezix car' to the Loop."

"John Knox wills his title of 'the youngest senior' to Neva Lou Woodhouse."

"Nelle Roach wills to Brian Eller all of her love and affection."

"Old Nick Spencer wills his reputation to the Loop."

"El Marie Allen's golden tresses are hereby bequeathed to 'String-beery' Maxine Jones, and to Anna Lolo Heard the dancing charm and ability of 'Twinkle Toes' Keelin is left with love and kisses."

"Frank Daugherty leaves his flashing, razzle-dazzle boxing ability to Bill Maszy and 'Two-Gun' Glasscock leaves his hard-earned nickname without cost to Ernest Miller."

"Also Raymond Hall and Gretchen Ann Bruton leave their jitterbug ability to Frank Gunaullius and Lucille Baulch, and Howell Oldham bequeaths his beautiful wavy hair to Bob Smith."

"William Jones leaves his unused shoe polish to Neal Holden in hopes that for a change, the polish will be used."

"Joe Blackwood leaves his vitality (lack of) to Dorace Jean Caldwell, and to Bobby Rose is left the gigantic stature and size of Pal Planteau."

"Ozella Dunn's ability to lose job to Jack Vermillion, and Rubyce things to Gracie Hines is given; Sarah Bird and Jean Meikle's athletic ability are willed to Wanda Giles and Nita Rose McCarty."

"To Betty Ann Drake the white skin of Lode Castka is wholeheartedly given, and Addie Bell Phillips bequeaths her solemn dignity to Frances Deering. From Don Meador to Otis Davis is left Don's quiet determination in football."

"Wilfred Lowery, Marcene Berry, and Doris Sweetenlin leave their man-catching ability to Marjorie Hill, Joyce Warner, and Anita Andrews. Rutha Graves, Lou Wilkins, and Alma Watkins leave—well, they've already left theirs a couple of years back."

"Juanita Barnett and Eucly Wade bequeath their neatness to Shirley Rigie and Phyllis Davis. Billie Ben Knapp along with Geneva Nichols leave their messy lockers to a soul with the initiative to clean them out."

"Alyne Osborne and Barbara Matthes leave their exuberant spirits to Pauline Bednora and Laverne Covington, and Philip Slicoff's leadership qualities are left to Loreta McArthur."

"Harry Kerbow leaves his office to Jack Vermillion, and Rubyce

Faye Johnson leaves her sparkling personality to Lloyd Zmotony. Tommy Howell's weakness for Brummett is bequeathed to Leonard Lane, and Jack Morris leaves his regular assembly announcements to Charles Batt."

Wayne Hillard's imitation of Donald Duck is graciously bequeathed to J. V. Mowley, and Naomi Snyder gives her nursing ability to Pat Garfield."

The too-dancing ability of Margaret Sullins is left to Norma Lux. Robert Thomas, Hugh Monroe and Robert Brandon leave their places in the band to any student who can blow a horn of any kind."

"Belton Bearden's Red Ryder gun is left to Glenn Stafford. Delbert Crowder and Harold Craddock leave their friendship to Bill Marlier and Tom Kipe."

"John 'Sluggo' Cornett leaves his reserved place in study hall to Billy Waters."

"R. L. Edmondson leaves his nickname 'Wessie' to Leslie Burge. John Browning and Iva Jean Harrison See CLASS WILL, Page 8

a Message to the GRADUATES of 1942

AS you receive your diploma it will mean that you have completed an important part of your education and it may also mean that the burden of your own future and a part of the burden of the future of all of us will be on your shoulders. May you face it with a courageous heart and the determination to succeed.

Never have times been more challenging to earnest effort, and there is no doubt that you will be the men and women of the future to make this generation, in the long run, one of peace and progress.

For years you have looked forward to the day of your graduation... and now that it is almost here may it lead to a happy life full of deeds well done.

Eighteen Wins Registered By Pampa Basketballers

Although failing to win the District One basketball title for the first time in six years, the 1942 Harvesters nevertheless had a successful season, winning 18 and losing 10.

Coached by Oscar Hinger, the team captured top honors in two invitation tournaments and won three and lost two on a seven-day jaunt in New Mexico. In conference competition the team won three and lost five. Non-conference teams, however, were the easier to crack. The Harvesters taking 15 out of 20 games.

Probably the best team played by Pampa was a scrappy aggregation from Thalia. Although Pampa took two out of three games from that team, one of them was by a margin of one point and the other by eight points.

For the first time in ten years an Amarillo High basketball team defeated the Pampa team at Harvesters gym. The score was 26 to 24. In the game played in Amarillo, the Sandies trounced Pampa by a score of 34 to 22.

In winning their three conference games, the team defeated Lubbock, 24 to 22, and Plainview by scores of 54 to 19 and 34 to 15. Losses were as follows: (to Borger) 24 to 23 and 26 to 25, (to Lubbock) 19 to 15, and to Amarillo, 34 to 22 and 26 to 24. Boys who were on the first string squad were: Pat Flanigan, L. J. Halter, Bob Dunham, Leslie Burge, Reginald Bridges, Floyd Allen, and Wayne Otts.

School Buses Have Made 26 Out-Of-Town Trips, Shelton Says

Pampa school buses have journeyed on 26 out-of-town trips this year, making a total of 8,965 miles, according to Joe Shelton, school bus supervisor.

In previous years, buses have been taken on football, basketball, track, music clubs, journalism, and band trips; but because of the tire rationing, many trips were not taken, D. F. Osborne, principal, said.

Football and basketball trips were not altogether left out—several football trips were made to different parts of the country including Lubbock, El Paso, Clovis, Roswell, and Santa Fe.

Buses were also taken to the district, regional, and state meets, where students were participants. The band was carried to Canyon to the college home coming; but the band was not present at any of the meets this year.

According to last year's copy of the "Little Harvester," out-of-town bus mileage for last year was 7,150 miles.

Hi-Y Club Names Kenneth Lard To Head Activities Next Year; New Sponsor To Be Elected

McCoy Elected District Head

Kenneth Lard, junior, was named president of Hi-Y for next year. It was decided when members met Wednesday of last week. Other members elected were: vice-president, Harold Cobb; secretary, Frank Friauf; treasurer, Neal Holden; parliamentarian, James Wanner; and reporter, Billy Waters. A new sponsor will also be elected for next year to take the place of Rev. Newton Starnes, who is planning to leave for the army.

Having been established for only three years, members of the Pampa Hi-Y club had the honor this year of being hosts to all Hi-Y delegates of the Great Plains district. The three-day conference was held March 13, 14, and 15.

John Tom McCoy, parliamentarian for the Pampa club, was elected president of the Great Plains District Hi-Y clubs.

140 ATTEND CONFERENCE
Approximately 140 Hi-Y delegates and sponsors were present; among them was George B. Corwin, national Hi-Y secretary from New York City. Mr. Corwin talked on "Hi-Y For Our Times." Other speakers during the convention were R. A. Selby, Hi-Y guidance director from Amarillo who spoke on "Present Youth Tensions;" the Rev. Robert Boshen, pastor of First Presbyterian church, Pampa, the Rev. B. A. Norris of the Christian church of Pampa, spoke on "The Master Builder;" B. P. Faubian, Southwest Area Y. M. C. A.; and Mr. Corwin gave the closing address, "A New World Under Construction."

Members of the Hi-Y clubs from

Blamed On Shoes

Imo Cox, sophomore, wore a green sweater, brown skirt, green anklets, and a "brand-new" pair of shoes to school one day last week.

Second period came. Imo was in the library. Miss Frances Munson, librarian, was out, but believe it or not, everything was perfectly quiet. Suddenly there was a terrific explosion, a moan, then a burst of laughter, and all faces turned to a cute, but rather shattered Imo, on the floor.

Imo picked herself up, loudly blaming her new shoes. Her story goes like this—she was practicing a new dance step and her balance was, or at least became, very uncertain. But there are them" as tell the tale say not only the shoes were to blame but the whole outfit threw her."

Herod Asks Favor; Find New Excuses

"Would it be possible for the students next year to find new excuses?" Tom Herod, high school assistant principal, humorously asked, as school drew to a close.

"I've been out of town." "My cousin came." "My grandmother died," are typical excuses. Mr. Herod says these excuses may be used by the same person over and over, so he suspects many students of having nine grandmothers. The most common excuse I get is "I've been sick," said Mr. Herod.

As for tardiness, it was the same old thing every morning, "Alarm didn't go off," in exception of "My clock stopped."
