Margaret O'Brien Hopes to Bridge Awkward Years

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(P)—It looks like a life-long acting career for Margaret O'Brien.
 The talented tot's mother had hoped to retire Margaret from the screen during the in-between years, but the little gal is putting up a fight. She turns on the tears whenever a retirement is mentioned, and it now appears that Margaret will stay in pictures. She plans to bridge the awkward period by appearing in a film series based on "Violet," the super-intelligent moppet. Margaret herself sold Boss Louis B. Mayer on the character.
 Maggie, now 11, is maturing so fast that her mother has to prompt her not to act sophisticated. Mrs. O'Brien has laid down one hard and fast rule: No dates until Maggie is 15.

The effects of the Gulf Stream can be traced from the Gulf of Mexico to the ice-free harbor of Murmansk.
 Druggists believe that the vine of Sodom in the Bible is the alocynth plant, sometimes called bitter apple.
 The Soil Conservation Service estimates that only 62 million acres of the land now in crops are completely safe from erosion.

Scorekeeper Is Given '3rd Degree'
 Introduced by Dr. Douglas Nelson, J. P. Brown, official scorekeeper of the Oilers, was given the "third degree" at the Lions Club luncheon yesterday in trying to answer all questions members brought up concerned with "errors" at the Oiler games.
 Many of the members asked specific questions as to why certain errors had been called on several of the players on the Oiler team.
 C. H. Walker, past president, past district governor and member of Lions Club for more than 25 years, told the club a Lions education lesson will be presented once a month for the next year in order that the Pampa Lions will learn more about Lionism and the club's objectives.
 Organized in 1917, the first Lion convention was held in Dallas, he said.
 A charter member and first president of the Dalhart Lions Club, Walker has been a member of the Pampa Lions since 1928 when he first moved to Pampa.
 Walker introduced two Canadian men who are interested in starting a Lions Club there.
 Fletcher Kennedy, chairman of the Soap Box Derby Committee, said there are now 69 entries in the local derby this year as compared to 32 last year. He urged members who are sponsors to check with their boys and see that the derbies are finished before the deadline.
 Irl Smith, song director, then led group singing.

Southwest Gets Surplus Property For Education

DALLAS — Five states of the Southwest have received more than a third of the nation's surplus real property granted to educational institutions under public benefit, allowance programs, according to analysis of government reports today made public by the Grand Prairie Regional Office of War Assets Administration.

By means of WAA disposals, schools, colleges and other educational institutions in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma were awarded government owned real property originally costing $128,198,240 as compared to $350,884,385 for the country as a whole. In the five-state area controlled by the Grand Prairie office, the institutions received 7,827 out of a national total of 15,708 building awards, and 32,678 acres of a national land grant total of 77,471 acres.

Texas, with educational awards of 26,073 acres and 2,740 buildings, led the nation as a recipient in the surplus property program. Having been granted property originally costing $52,595,473, the Lone Star State topped New York, which has received $52,061,147. Oklahoma and Mississippi were fourth and fifth, respectively among the states, trailing Minnesota, which was third.

Oklahoma institutions acquired 1,805 acres and 1,165 surplus buildings for a property valuation total of $28,928,358. Mississippi, granted real estate costing $26,751,419, acquired 3,120 acres and 1,755 buildings. Arkansas, with 1,175 acres and 1,639 buildings, received property costing $14,741,800, whereas Louisiana, with 802 acres and 528 buildings, was granted surplus originally costing $5,181,190.

Veterans' Day Slated at Fair

The Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and other components will play host jointly with the State Fair to veterans of Texas on October 23, third Saturday of the Fair, it has been announced by George O. Wilson of Dallas, chairman of the Veterans' Day Committee.

"Elaborate arrangements are being made for entertainment on this day, to be furnished by the Fair and the armed services," Wilson said. "But primarily, this is to be another day of pleasant reunion between veterans and their buddies."

The 1948 State Fair Veterans' Day Committee includes Wilson, W. E. Mitchell, Lawrence Melton, Alvin Herold, Alphonso Ragland, and J. Woodall Rogers.

Records for Mineral Collections Toppled

BATON ROUGE, La. — Three records have toppled in state mineral rights collections on 376,370 acres of state-owned lands, mostly offshore.

The State Mineral Board said that a record total of $6,830,019 has been collected in bonuses from its leases.

Another record fell when Superior Oil Company paid $515,000 bonus for rights on a 5,000-acre tract about 25 miles offshore in the West Cameron area. This is the largest royalty ever collected for Gulf lands on the Louisiana coast.

Reward Posted for Nichols' Slayer

AUSTIN — A $250 reward today awaited information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayer of Ira C. Nichols.

Gov. Beauford H. Jester posted the reward yesterday after Lee County and state law enforcement officers had been unsuccessful in their efforts toward a solution of the July 4 slaying in Giddings.

Jester said the reward offer would remain in effect for 90 days.

Carver Begins Seventh Year At Local Church

The Rev. E. Douglas Carver is starting on his seventh year as pastor of the First Baptist Church today.

Coming from the University Baptist Church of Abilene on July 11, 1942, Rev. Carver has assumed many Pampa responsibilities during the past six years.

At present he is president of the Wade Walls Area Council, member of the Board of Directors of the Rotary Club, member of the Board of Directors of the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show.

Trustee on two school boards and a member of the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Rev. Carver has spent 12 of his 20 years in the ministry in White Deer and Pampa. He officiated at the White Deer Baptist from 1927-1934. His wife, Ernestine, and two daughters, Carolyn, 13 and Gwendolyn, 3 are with him in Pampa.

During the six years he has been with the Pampa First Baptist more than $300,000 have been contributed to the church and 1,547 new members have been added. Approximately $90,000 of the $300,000 is set aside for the construction of more adequate educational facilities.

Another development during the past six years is the educational director's home. Mr. and Mrs. E. Virgil Mott now occupy this home on 515 E. Kingsmill.

Two years ago a mission on South Hobart was established under the direction of the First Baptist Church. Curtis Brown serves as the full-time pastor.

The choir of the church has been equipped with robes, and a new organ is in the process of installation at the present time.

Problem of Following Law on Campaign Expenses Faces Candidates in Texas

AUSTIN —(AP)— Candidates making major races for office in Texas face a problem in following the letter of the law on campaign expense.

The law says candidates for United States senator and governor must limit their spending to $10,000. Candidates for other state offices must limit theirs to $2,500.

A voter who can add two and two knows that it has been violated countless times in these days of high-pressure, high-speed campaigning using statewide radio chains, airplanes, newspaper advertising, automobile caravans and a dozen other vote-getting devices.

Not all the voters understand how the law can be side-stepped. The chief dodge is not to know what your friends are spending in your behalf. When a candidate files his sworn statement of receipts and expenditures with the secretary of state, he swears only to what has been contributed or spent with his "knowledge or consent."

Escape hatch No. 2 perhaps is the fact that by what seems to be general agreement, the law has not been enforced or tested except in isolated instances. Enforcement of penal provisions is up to local prosecuting authorities. Any citizen may bring civil proceedings to bar the name of a candidate from the ballot if he has evidence the expense law has been violated, but they seldom do.

Attorney General Price Daniel called it a "horse and buggy" law geared to 1919 campaigns, when it was passed, rather than to present day races.

He said he believed it should be re-written to put enforcing teeth in it, and placing a ceiling on expenditures more in keeping with modern campaign methods so that candidates could comply with it.

Political realists say that even a "poor boy" campaign costs anywhere from $2,500 to $10,000. A fairly comprehensive statewide vote drive can be put on for $100,000. You can pretty well cover the state with $250,000 but it has been said if not proven—that a body-roaring all-out race costs somebody anywhere from half a million to a million dollars.

Expenditures reported to the secretary of state thus far in the Texas senatorial race range from less than a thousand dollars to more than five thousand. There are three candidates who are trying to reach every voter in Texas, and perhaps four in the gubernatorial campaign.

One of the candidates for the Senate who is not making an "inclusive race" said he may ask a grand jury investigation of campaign expenditures. He is F. B. Clark of College Station. Martin Dies of Lufkin said he did not run for the Senate because he could not "make a legal race."

Dies said he figured it would cost at least $60,000 and he could not "honorably" raise it and spend the money legally—within the $10,000 limit.

"Despite the law, it is no secret that a campaign for high state office, or the United States Senate, costs a huge sum," Dies said.

"I am not blaming the candidates, nor am I blaming most of the contributors to these campaigns since it is a situation that has been brought about by common consent."

From the layman's standpoint, the law seems very specific. It obviously gives the candidate a legal out in the form of reporting, but it puts quite a burden on local friends of candidates who for example buy radio time or who chip in unofficially to pay for any other device without telling their candidate.

It puts a $50 limit on local meeting expenses for such items as halls, advertising, traveling costs. It says no more than $500 shall be spent in any one county by campaign managers, assistant managers or their authorized

Estimate Made On Texas Cotton

AUSTIN —(AP)— Texas acreage in cultivation this year is estimated at 9,200,000 acres as of July 1 and is the largest acreage for the state since 1927, the Department of Agriculture reported.

It is about 9 percent greater than the 8,426,000 acres which were in cultivation on July 1 last year and some ten percent above the 10-year average of 8,387,000 acres from 1937 through 1946.

Acreage in the high plains is up sharply from the record high acreage of last year, accounting for more than 40 percent of the total state increase of 774,000 acres.

Considerably more acreage was also planted in blackland counties and there were significant increases in East Texas and cross timbers counties.

The Lower Rio grande Valley made further increases from the large acreage of 1947, but acreage in coastal counties was cut some in favor of commercial grain sorghums, the USDA said.

More than one billion acres of the United States' 1,905,000,000 acres are in farms.

Vacation Bible School Scheduled

A Vacation Bible School for youngsters 3 to 16 years old will begin at the Hobart Street Baptist Mission Monday and will last through July 16, Mary Lou Douglass, principal, said.

This will be an interdenominational school, Miss Douglass said, and children of all faiths are invited to attend.

There will be classes in handiwork in addition to those in Bible study.

One Phase of Draft Bill Will Affect Business

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the last minute rush to end its work on June 19, Congress wrote into the Draft Bill something which affects business.

For example: The government now can compel a business, like a plant or mine, to do whatever work is needed by the armed services.

If the plant owner refuses, the government can seize his place. He can be jailed for three years or fined $50,000, if convicted of refusing.

And here's another example, which affects only the steel industry:

The government can order the steel mills to set aside a certain percentage of steel for firms making things for the armed forces. But this idea—that the government in peacetime could compel business to do this or that—disturbed a lot of business men.

President Truman finally stepped in and handed over the problem to Secretary of Commerce Sawyer. He told Sawyer:

Get the steel industry to agree voluntarily to set aside or allocate enough steel for everyone doing work for the armed forces.

Mr. Truman said he wanted to be sure small business had a fair chance to compete with big business in getting its share of government work.

During the next 12 months, the armed forces will need about 1,300,000 tons, or only about two percent of all the steel produced in this country.

So Commerce Department people say they don't think those needs of the armed forces will interfere with steel turned out for civilian use.

The Commerce Department will call in the heads of all the steel mills and ask them to agree, voluntarily, to allocate steel for the armed forces. They're expected to agree.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

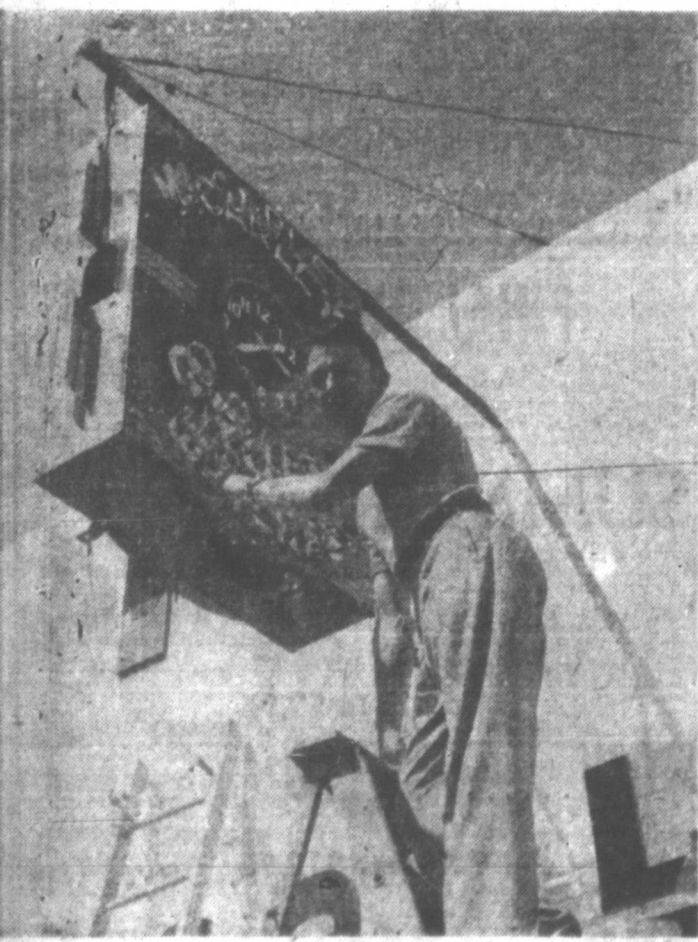

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment, sour, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of sods and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. ### Old Town Clock Gets Face-Lifting

The clock pictured above was erected in 1938 at the time of the opening of the McCauley's Jewelry Store at its present location, which is Pampa's oldest Jewelry Store in operation today. McCauley's have been here since 1929.

During the war this clock was blacked out and at this time was in the process of reconditioning, the store front has also taken on that "New Look".

Retirement Ceremonious

CANYON — The retirement of Dr. J. A. Hill, the second president of West Texas State College Monday night, was accompanied with impressive ceremonies.

Dr. Hill placed a golden ring on his successor, Dr. James P. Cornette, who will assume the duties of president on Sept. 1. The ring had formerly been placed on his finger by the late Dr. R. B. Cousins, who was the first president of the college.

Attending the ceremonies were six visiting college presidents: Paul L. Boynton, Stephen F. Austin; R. M. Hawkins, Sul Ross; W. J. McConnell, North Texas State; J. G. Flowers, Southwest Texas State; James G. Gee, East Texas State and Harmon Lowman, San Houston State.

Dr. Charles V. Dunham, dean of men at the University of Texas, made the principal address at the opening of the conference.

Monday afternoon, at the first general session of the conference, the guests were welcomed by Dr. Cornette. Dr. G. W. Diemer, Warrensburg, Mo., past president of the American Association of Teachers Colleges, made an address, followed by an address by Dr. L. L. Crabb, professor of Higher Education at George Peabody College for Teachers.

William L. Kerr, president of the Board of Regents, introduced other regents. They were: Mrs. J. K. Beretta, San Antonio; V. A. Collins, Livingston; Dr. Melvin C. Eidson, Austin; Newton Harrel, Claude; S. A. Kerr, Jr., Jacksonville; Dr. Hubert L. Mills, Houston; R. L. Thomas, Dallas; and Walter F. Woodul, Houston.

Boy Will Take Telegraph Course

Arlin Givens, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Givens, 902 Murphy, has taken a Western Union test and will leave the latter part of this week to attend a three-month school for telegraph operators and station managers operated by Western Union in St. Louis.

Givens, who graduated this year from Pampa High School, was a member of the Little Harvester staff, and won the district championship in the "ready writers" contest of the Interscholastic League last year.

Peek-a-Boo, I See You; Whose Face Is Red?

four deputy sheriffs were red Friday, only partly from mosquito bites.

Deputy Sheriffs J. W. Stacy and M. R. C. Hayes decided Thursday night to have a look at the Trinity River bottoms where stolen cars are often stripped. They parked their car and waited.

Fellow officers Merl Luttrell and J. C. Wilson had the same idea. When their car passed the hidden car of Stacy and Hayes, the latter trailed the new arrivals.

Luttrell and Wilson, seeing they were being followed, hid their car and got set to trap their hunters. Stacy and Hayes, becoming suspicious of just such a trap, also hid their car and set out on foot.

After much hiding and seeking about in the heavy mosquito undergrowth, the opposing teams recognized each other.

"EXCLUSIVE BUT NOT EXPENSIVE"

Scout Building Fund Drive Begins; Outdoor Chapel Among Projects

After starting the Pampa solicitation for the Camp K-O-Wah Building Fund yesterday, W. B. Weathered, chairman, M. K. Brown, Frank Carter, vice chairman, and Paul L. Beisenherz, executive of Adobe Walls Area Council, will go to Borger tomorrow night to meet with the Hutchinson County Building Fund Committee.

Weathered says the Pampa campaign is progressing "satisfactorily."

Scout leaders say that by providing suitable facilities for devotional services, the proper observance of the Sabbath becomes a vital part of camp life.

The Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church and president of the Adobe Walls Council, suggests the churches in the council cooperatively sponsor the outdoor chapel project at K-O-Wah.

"Since the chapel project is not one of the most costly projects under the development program, the churches could easily sponsor it," Rev. Carver said.

"While the boys are studying nature and astronomy, we deem it wise to teach them more about the God of creation," Rev. Carver said.

Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band to Play at Rodeo Performances

MRS. IRIS RAGSDALE, who, for the third successive year, has been handling the secretarial details of organization as outlined by the committee-chairmen for the fourth annual Top 'o Texas Rodeo and Horse Show, said there has been more advance interest shown in this year's show than in any previous one she has been connected with.

In addition to knowing rodeos from the organizational side, she also knows them from the arena side, since she was a contestant in numerous shows in North Dakota before moving to Pampa three years ago.

Seven hundred twenty-eight million acres of range land in 17 western states support for a part of each year about 75 percent of the country's sheep.

Few groups, if any, of university students travel so many miles to participate in so many varied kinds of programs as the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band members who will lead the opening parade and play at each performance of the Top 'o Texas Rodeo in Pampa from August 4-7.

With a mileage total which approached the 25,000 mark during the past two years, the "world famous" band, directed by Marion McClure, is ending the second complete year of activity since the war, finding it impossible to accept all the requests for its services.

Capable of parading, playing concert music, or presenting a stage show, and always appearing in their colorful western regalia, the HSU musicians have a variety of abilities which is not common to most musical organizations.

In these four phases of showmanship account, in a large measure, for the nationwide attention which the Cowboys receive.

Backed with the reputation of staging great performances wherever they go, the band members have acquired a feeling of professional pride and confidence unequalled in most college organizations.

In parade the band performs their nationally known "Cowstep," a zig-zag step which was originated by the organization. To execute, the right foot is placed across and in front of the left. The left is then moved across and in front of the right in a criss-cross manner. As each member executes the movement, a zig-zag or "drunk cowboy" effect is created. After three fast paces forward, all remove their hats and wave them wildly as they spin around in a pivotal motion as they maintain their lines of march. A loud rebel yell accompanies the whirl.

Showmen with the band are Lloyd Mitchell, trick and fancy roper, Sheriff Will W. Watson, and Norma Kniffen.

Mitchell, a sophomore student who has been doing trick roping in rodeos since he was 13, performs some of the most difficult stunts in the books, including the "Texas Wagon Wheel," originated and made popular by the late Will Rogers, a staunch supporter of the band.

Miss Kniffen, twice National VFW twirling champion, has won 19 medals and three trophies during her brief career. She accompanies the band as a special soloist.

Sheriff Watson, a former commissioned Texas Ranger, takes pride in the six white horses and the coeds who ride them and carry the six flags under which the Lone Star State has been governed. He is a constant companion of the band, always dressed in a double-sized cowboy hat, cowboy boots, silver shirt, two pearl-handled pistols, and his badge of office. He is the band's parade marshal.

State Employment Hits Record High

WASHINGTON (AP)—Civilian employment surged to a record high of $1,296,000 in June. It shot up 2,636,000 in the month.

The Census Bureau, reporting this, also said that unemployment rose 423,000 in June to a total of 2,184,000, highest point since last July.

Reasons for the increase in both employment and unemployment included a heavy influx of youths into the job market as schools closed, farm activity nearing its summer peak and a new high in non-farm employment.

Gas Survey About Ended

The deliverability testing of the Panhandle field proper gas wells is rapidly coming to a close, J. G. McClintock, manager of the Pampa office of the Texas Railroad Commission, said yesterday.

Engineers at the Canadian River gas project expect to complete their survey about July 19, McClintock added. The majority of the wells in Panhandle field proper are expected to be finished at the end of the month.

"We expect several more engineers from the Kilgore office soon to supplement those now in the field," he said.

Immediately following the Panhandle gas field test, the Railroad Commission will start on the testing of the wells in the Hugoton area, which is comprised of Hansford, Sherman and the northern part of Moore Counties.

"In the testing of the wells in the Hugoton area, the same type tests will be used as in Kansas and Oklahoma," he continued.

"The basic factors will be deliverability as against line pressure and acreage."

The East Sweet gas fields will be exempt from the testing.

Phillips Petroleum Company employees from Bartlesville, Okla., working in the Pampa Railroad Commission office, will remain another two weeks checking gas records. They are: Miss Mary Holevas, Miss Naomi Morgans, Mrs. Mabel Clauer and Miss Betty Potter.

Testimony in preparing a judgment of royalty payments was heard by the Court, but no decision asked for by the attorneys.

Odessa In, Out Of Jail Again

DALLAS —(AP)— Odessa is out again. Odessa is a 20-year-old woman—not to be confused with the thriving West Texas oil city of the same name. An early Tuesday morning search for the young woman, punctuated by the flourishing of fire-arms and the battle cry, "where's Odessa," broke the peace of two downtown hotels and a cafe. Two men and Odessa wound up in the police pokey. Charges of carrying concealed weapons were filed against one of the men. The other paid a fine for garragney and Odessa was released on a writ of habeas corpus.

It showed hundreds of scenic spots in all parts of the United States. The program was brought to the club by the Kiwanis Education Committee, Jimmie Massa, chairman.

Raising Beard Very Popular

This business of raising a beard as a civic responsibility to promote some celebration is a growing thing.

Small Boy Drowns in San Antonio River

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — Julius Solis, Jr., 9, drowned in the San Antonio River near E. Fyron Road, Wednesday. Efforts of volunteers and firemen proved futile after the boy's body was recovered within a few feet of the muddy waters in which he disappeared. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Solis, he "just waded into the deeper water," a small companion said.

12 U. S. Congressmen From Texas Seeking Re-Election

By the Associated Press
 Twelve members of the Texas delegation in Congress are on the campaign trail seeking votes that will return them to Washington. Seven others of the state's 21 congressmen are unopposed. Two did not seek re-election. Lyndon Johnson of the 10th District is a candidate for the U. S. Senate. Milton West of the 18th District has retired.
 A lively race is being waged in the Fourth District, where two opponents are trying to unseat Sam Rayburn of Bonham, Democratic leader of the House and a member of Congress for 36 years. They are State Senator C. G. Morris of Greenville, who made a good showing in 1944 when he polled almost 39,000 votes to 24,000 for Rayburn, and County Judge

Mississippi and Ohio basins. In the 7th District "Cotton" Nat Patton of Crockett seeks to regain the seat he lost to Rep. Tom Pickett four years ago. The third candidate in the race is Burke Summers of Nacogdoches. In the 21st District Rep. O. Clark Fisher of San Angelo is opposed by Charles L. South of Coleman, whom he defeated in 1942, and Howell E. Cobb of Brady, former public official and World War II veteran. This is the first time Fisher has been opposed since his election to Congress. This is the line-up of candidates in other districts where there are contests:

First: Rep. Wright Patman of Texas is opposed by four candidates, the largest field in his 20 years in Congress. They are Ben Woodall, marshal, former state representative, and World War II veteran; Isom P. Hydrick, Jr., Marshall, retiring member of the Legislature, World War I veteran and cabinetmaker by occupation; Coebel Templeton, Cooper, Delta County school superintendent; and Floy G. Gloninger, Hughes Springs, farmer and school teacher.
 Second: Rep. J. M. Combs of Beaumont does not plan to campaign against his two opponents, Hugh A. Wilson, Port Arthur, oil refinery laboratory worker, and G. M. Stephens, Beaumont, a dealer in lumber. He defeated both of them two years ago.
 Fifth: Rep. Frank J. Wilson of Dallas is opposed for a second term by William O. Cooper, chairman of the pro-Truman Dallas County delegation to the Democratic State Convention and an aided in the campaign headquarters of Homer P. Rainey, defeated candidate for governor two years ago. Eighth: Albert Thomas, Houston, is opposed for a seventh term by Charles A. Murphy, Jr., World War II veteran and state representative.

 Tenth: Eight candidates, the largest group in the state, seek the seat Lyndon Johnson gave up to run for the Senate. They are: O. P. Lockhart, Austin, bakery owner; Homer Thornberry, Austin, city councilman and former legislator; James A. Stanford, Austin, state senator; Bob J. Lyles, Austin, chemical supply jobber; Ray E. Lee, Austin, a civilian administrator with the Army in Austria; Magness L. Foster, Austin, auto driving institute manager; Creekmore Fath, Austin, assistant to the director of the Democratic National Committee; W. K. McClain, Georgetown, former Williamson County district attorney.
 Twelfth: Rep. Wingate Lucas of Fort Worth is opposed for a second term by Ernest O. Gilliam, Fort Worth soap manufacturer whom he defeated two years ago; Joe Elkins, Fort Worth, Texas Christian University student, and W. O. Ash, Fort Worth, Texas and Pacific Railroad yardmaster.
 Thirteenth: Rep. Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls is opposed for his fifth term by Mrs. Edith Wilmas, Vineyard, rancher widow and energetic campaigner who has sought many public offices unsuccessfully since she was elected to the Legislature from Dallas in 1923.
 Fourteenth: Rep. John E. Lyle of Corpus Christi is opposed for a third term by Morris H. Knight, own nearly $40 billion of life insurance.

The Rosetta Stone, containing inscriptions in three ancient languages, provided the key that unlocked the mystery of ancient Egyptian hieroglyphics.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy - no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcostrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.
Lost 47 Pounds
 "When I commenced to take Barcostrate, I weighed 212 pounds. I now weigh 165. I lost 25 pounds on the first two bottles. I feel so much better after losing that weight. I think it is a wonderful medicine, and thanks to Barcostrate." - Mrs. George Greig, Chalmers Courts 4, Apt. 1, Austin, Texas.

Top Notch Golfers Ready for Tourney

Pampa sports enthusiasts will receive their first real chance this afternoon to witness a top-notch golf tournament at the Pampa Country Club.

Johnny Austin, local professional golfer, announced yesterday that a three-way meet was scheduled to be held this afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock, with 110 linksters ready to go. The match will bring together, in 55 matches, most of the top golfers in the Panhandle.

Huber, Phillips, and Pampa will be the three included in the meet with such stars as Johnny Austin himself, Billy Houck, and Verne Barquer, ready for the razor-sharp competition. Besides these three pros, Doc Stewart, Jack Knight and Jack Dempsey will also be present at the meet. Guitrie O'Neil, one of the top amateurs in the Panhandle from Phillips, will also be present.

Those attending from Pampa will be Grover Austin, Jr., C. F. McGinnis, Randall Clay, Texas U football star, Jack Hood, Roy Powell, Mark Heath, Cecil Branscum, Ed Ehridge, Malcolm Douglas, M. N. "Lefty" Cox, John Forman, O. M. Prigmore, Dale Sharp, R. M. Samples, Bill Speed, Frank Mitchell, Aaron Sturgeon, Frank Shotwell, E. T. Adkins, Curtis Douglas, Gene Fathner, Joe Kay, "Red" Weathered, Ralph McKinney, Al Prigmore, Charlie Thut, Cletus Mitchell, Tom Kitchens, Kelly Kitchens, Albert England, Fred Tinsley, Dallas Bowsher, Grover Austin, Sr., Sam Sloan, Dr. Charles Ashby, Walter Fader, and Richard Miller.

Grover Austin, Jr., is renowned throughout this section of the country for his upsets and participation in the Green Belt Tournament held in Altus several weeks ago. Austin was a complete unknown at the affair, but swept through all opposition until he got to the finals where he was finally defeated. Malcolm Douglas and Richard Miller are two high school experts who will take part in the event while it is not known as to whether or not Dick Oden, another PHS linkster, will enter.

John Garfield Looking for Own Theater

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — A bumper crop of new plays by America's top playwrights will make the next Broadway season one of the brightest in years, John Garfield predicts.

"Odets, Kingsley, Kaufman, Hart, Ferber and Anderson all have fine work to present, the actor said on the "Numbers Racket" set. He's none too happy about it, however.

"So many productions are being readied that I can't find a theater to stage my own play," he declared. He wants to appear in "Peer Gynt," but so far he hasn't been able to rent or buy a theater. If he can't find a house, stage-happy Garfield will appear in somebody else's play.

Joan Crawford reportedly plans to make a cooperative venture of her first independent film, "Miss O'Brien," her schoolteacher yarn. She'll cut all her important co-workers in for a share of the profits.

Film finances: "Arch of Triumph" ran up a bill of $4,250,000 before the distributor, which will add about a million more. It can't show a profit at those prices. Even name draws like Bergman and Boyer can't pull a picture out of the dumps these days.

On the brighter side is Red Skelton's "Fuller Brush Man," which was made for $750,000. It is cleaning up everywhere, being an entertainment film geared for solid laughs. Sidlight: MGM had the star, director and story, but passed the thing up as "too commercial."

Roche Ranks Louis Eighth Among Champs

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Now that Joe Louis has retired, what is the long-time Brown Bomber's place in ring history?

This will surprise a lot of people, but Billy Roche, the man best qualified to speak, ranks Louis eighth among heavyweight champions.

Roche, one of the greatest of referees and a famous manager and promoter now 80, lists them in this order:

No. 1—John L. Sullivan
No. 2—James J. Jeffries
No. 3—Bob Fitzsimmons
No. 4—Jack Johnson
No. 5—James J. Corbett
No. 6—Gene Tunney
No. 7—Jack Dempsey
No. 8—Joe Louis

"The others," says Roche, "were not worth classification, although several heavyweights who did not hold the title are richly entitled to consideration. All they required was the opportunity. Sam Langford was the most glaring example.

"Unfortunately fighters generally are remembered as they were in the sere and yellow of their careers, but the Sullivan whom

I place at the top was a trim Roxbury, Mass., boilermaker standing 5 feet 10 1/2 inches and weighing just under 190 pounds.

"Fighters were brought from all parts of the world to tackle Sullivan, and none could stay four rounds, and when he was an old man and all through, it took the young and remarkably swift and skillful Jim Corbett 21 rounds to knock him out.

"Sullivan introduced the one-two, the jab followed by the straight right. He was the first to knock out opponents by hitting them on the point of the chin. Until he came along fighters aimed for the temple, a point back of the ear and the eyes.

"Louis had as fast a pair of hands as ever swung from a heavyweight's shoulders. But he couldn't answer the first question. He couldn't take it. He had a bad jaw and was highly susceptible about the temples. His stance was poor, as Jack Johnson said. He was easily knocked down. And in the first Schmeling fight he showed that he didn't like the rough going. His ability was magnified by lack of real competition."

Son of a well-known New York stakeholder, backer, trainer and second, Roche has been closely identified with boxing since he was a youngster. He dates back to the three Jacks—John L., Sullivan, the original Dempsey and McAuliffe. He managed Mysterious Billy Smith and Elbows McFadden.

When James W. Coffroth broke in as a promoter following the turn of the century, Roche went to San Francisco with Big Jim Kennedy, New York's Tex Rickard of the period to make matches and generally get Sunshine Jim off on the right foot.

There Roche added to his reputation as a referee, being the third man in the more spectacular 45-round matches in "Patina's" golden days in the golden west.

As director of boxing for the Knights of Columbus in France and Germany during and after World War I, Roche had a hand in the development of Tunney. He conducted boxing in New York armories, helped legalize the game in New York.

Billy Roche's ratings are controversial, of course, but no one has a better right to make them. They at least are the opinion of a man who has seen them all.

Reno Legalizes Prostitution

RENO — (AP) — The return of legalized prostitution to Reno yesterday had a go-ahead from the State Courts, but a fight was shaping up in other quarters.

State District Judge Merwyn Brown ruled Friday the war emergency under which Reno's police guarded "stocade" was closed had ended. He reversed a lower July 4 on prostitution charges, and ruled no public offense had been committed.

Gracie Reports

Dear me, I've gone and trained myself so well to look for political meanings in things this year that I can't help but be a little curious about that story of Japanese clothing manufacturers getting an order to make kimono for elephants in this country. The story said the order was received from an American firm. I wonder if it could be the new firm of Dewey and Warren?

Well, if the Republican elephant is going to turn up a round election time arrayed in a kimono, I think the Democratic donkey might be smart to appear in something with a little more romantic appeal, such as a lace-trimmed nightie with rosebuds.

Anyway, I suppose the whole thing started because the Republicans didn't want their elephant to catch cold. I notice they seem a little worried about drafts, especially that one the Democrats still keep talking about—called "Draft Eisenhower."

Disasters Eliminate Hopefuls In Saturday's Olympic Tries

By TED SMITS
EVANSTON, Ill. — (AP) — Two mighty sprinters, Barney Ewell and Mel Patton, and a middle-distance double winner, Mal Whitfield, one of the strongest of all American Olympic track teams to the games of the fourteenth Olympics in London starting July 29.

A series of disasters, however, eliminated some of the greatest names of trackdom.

Charles Fonville of Michigan, who has made 98 feet 1-4 inch in the shot, almost a foot better than the world record, will be left behind, as will Gil Dodds, the peer of the millers, Harrison Dillard of Baldwin-Wallace, regarded as the best high-jumper in the world, qualified for the 100-meter dash but quit in despair in the hurdle final.

Despite these blows head coach Dean Cromwell was happy and confident. "We will win seven or eight firsts for sure," he said, and named a total of 14 events in which America has good chances.

Long-striding Pel-Mel Patton from the University of Southern California won the 200-meter final by a yard from Ewell, the 31-year-old Penn State alum, to reverse the order of finish in yesterday's 100-meter dash. Thus both became double qualifiers and both showed performances in line with the great sprint traditions of the United States.

Patton won the 200 in 20.7, which equals the unofficial world record for the race around a curve. Ewell's 100-meter time was 10.2, which also equals the world mark.

In all, 28 places were filled in 12 first tryout events before a crowd of 20,000 in Dyche Stadium, rounding out the team which comprises three athletes for each of 22 track and field events, plus two relay teams.

Whitfield, representing the Army and Air Force team and a student at Ohio State, was the only double winner. His times were such as to brand him a contender at London regardless of the field assembled. He took the 800 meters in 1:50.6, and then 400 meters in 46.6. Both are the fastest times made by an American this year.

Among the marks that sparkled, in the tryouts biding well for London were—Verne McGrew, Rice, and George Stanich, Los Angeles Athletic Club, 4 feet 8-1-4 inches in the high jump; Francis Delaney, San Francisco Olympic Club, 56 feet 1-3-4 inches.

There was a mounting gasp as Harrison Dillard knocked down the second and fourth hurdles in the 110-meter hurdle finals, and then drew up helplessly in front of the seventh one, pushing it down with his hands as if he had no more strength for leaping.

Thus the man who had bettered the world record for the 120-yard high hurdles with 13.6, and who was regarded as a shoe-in at London, failed to make the team in his favorite event, although he is qualified for the 100-meter.

William Porter, of Northwestern, won the high hurdles brilliantly by two yards in 13.9, with Craig Dixon of the University of California at Los Angeles second, and Clyde (Smackover) Scott, of Arkansas third.

Another stunning upset came in the shot put. There had been reports for the past two weeks of a sore back plaguing Charles Fonville, the tall, lithe shot-putter from the University of Michigan.

Fonville, counted on to achieve one of the greatest marks of any American at London, made what was for him a mediocre 53 feet 1-3-4 inches in the preliminaries yesterday, but bettered it on his last throw today with 54 feet 1-3-8 inches.

But others came up on their last throws, too, particularly Francis Delaney, who cut loose with 85 feet 1-3-4 inches.

It was the best mark ever made by the former Notre Dame athlete, who has grown in strength and ability since leaving college. Wilbur Thompson of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, on his next-to-last put, came up with 54 11-7-8 inches, and games Fuchs of Yale produced 54 feet 8-3-8 inches, a foot better than his previous best mark.

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A new red menace of the skyways—the watermelon bomber.

There's No Insurance Against Polio Yet, but the Odds Are in Your Favor

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE

Associated Press Science Writer
NEW YORK —(AP)—The odds are heavily in your favor that you and your child will escape polio.

Even in an epidemic, only one child in 300 comes down with it, the statistics show. Half or more recover completely without any crippling or other after-effects.

Of the rest, about half are left with only minor paralysis or other disabilities, thanks to modern care and treatment.

This may sound, of course, like saying that only a certain number of houses will burn down this year, and that yours very probably won't be one of them. And there's no insurance against polio, although scores of capable scientists are trying to find ways of supplying it.

One approach is to try to solve the puzzles of polio epidemics. The hunt for answers is underway again this summer by teams of experts who move into epidemic areas. The March of Dimes helps support this work.

The evidence so far indicates that human contact plus some other unknown factor or factors are instrumental in producing epidemics, said Dr. Hart E. Van Piper, medical director of the National foundation for Infantile Paralysis Outbreaks of polio occur all year, but when warm weather comes something happens that either helps the spread of the virus or greatly reduces human resistance.

Flies can carry the virus. But there is no proof yet that flies spread it to humans, or that flies are part of the chain in the summer epidemics. Other insects might be responsible.

The virus is found in sewage during epidemics. It's found in the intestinal tracts of people who aren't appreciably ill with polio. For every person who comes down with the disease, hundreds may carry the virus. Whether they spread it to others hasn't been proved. For every person who has a paralyzing attack, six to eight may have only mild attacks with no paralysis.

In the United States, and some other countries, polio now apparently is affecting a higher percentage of older children in both city and country than it did 30 years ago. For many years it has affected a higher percentage of older children in rural areas than urban areas.

Some workers have remarked that countries with good sanitation seem to have more polio epidemics than countries where living conditions are poor.

There is a guess, but only a guess, as to why this happens. The guess is that in nations with poor sanitation, children may be exposed to the virus at a very young age and develop immunity.

In countries with good sanitation, according to this theory, children avoid the virus, and may be more susceptible to it when it does start to spread.

High rates of polio among American and British troops in the Philippines, Middle East and Far East are an interesting new development. In some cases, the troops had 10 times more polio than troops stationed at home. But there wasn't more polio among the native populations. The troops either were exposed to the virus for the first time, or were exposed to a different strain of the virus than those prevalent in the United States or Britain.

There may be a dozen different strains of the virus. No one yet

Mrs. Kinard to Head Association

Mrs. Knox Kinard, 1425 Charles, was elected president of the Pampa Girl Scout Association Friday at the Executive Board meeting in the Girl Scout office of the City Hall.

Replacing the Rev. B. A. Norris as president, Mrs. Kinard moved up from first vice president to fill Rev. Norris' unexpired term which ends Dec. 31.

Other officers elected were Aubrey Steele, first vice president; Dr. Douglas Nelson, second vice president and staff and office chairman.

Each committee chairman reported on the spring and summer activities of the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Carl Stone said the Pampa Girl Scout camping season has been a success. Pampa girls have attended Camp Kiwanis in Amarillo, Camp Sullivan near Lefors, Day Camp at the Scout house and Camp Eliza Seligman in Albuquerque.

Ann McNamara, Pampa Senior Scout, is one of the Senior Counselors at Camp Eliza Seligman.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Kinard, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Glenn Radcliff, Mrs. Carl Wright, Mrs. O. L. Statton, Jimmie McCune and Mrs. K. E. Thornton.

Highway Meeting Set Tomorrow

The Board of Directors of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Banquet Room of the Court House Cafe at noon tomorrow to discuss Highway 70.

Members of the Highway Committee also will be present at the meeting as well as a delegation of 16 members from the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce, headed by W. S. Whaley. The Clarendon delegation will discuss the development of Highway 70 in their section.

Also discussed will be reviving the old Highway 18 Association, but changing the name of it to the Highway 70 Association.

Lake Charogogoggonchaugogochaubungungamaug is the real name of a Massachusetts lake but the region's natives are satisfied to call it "Lake Chaug."

But the number complicates the search for a vaccine or other means of preventing the disease. Animal experiments indicate that immunity acquired from exposure to the virus is immunity only to that particular strain or its close relatives.

back." There was no immediate announcement from the French, but they are expected to take similar measures.

Although the big British and American air shuttle continued to fly through-rain and overcast, lessening coal supplies forced a 50-percent reduction in gas consumption. This reduction followed earlier cuts which shut down most of Western Berlin's industry. Power reductions also darkened the homes of Berlin's 25,000 Allied nationals and the British colony was put under an "austerity regime."

The third week of the "siege" hit Berlin hard as coal supplies began to run out.

Allied-officials expressed confidence, however, that the airlift would allow them to "keep the food ration at its present level."

CANDIDATE

The political guessers and forecasters began more serious talk as to who would win the county judgeship, and the seven-man chase after the county commission seat to be vacated by incumbent County Commissioner Wade Thomason.

The usually warm sheriff's race dropped into third place so far as election talk was concerned. County judge and county commissioner from Precinct 2 received the most attention from the old timers.

the justice's name from going into nomination for vice president. McGrath said he was keeping hands off any effort to boom Douglas.

Both McGrath and Leslie L. Biffle said so far as they knew, Mr. Truman had not decided whom he would prefer for a running mate.

Biffle is a close friend of the President and convention sergeant-at-arms.

Still unsettled, too, is what the party platform will look like. The big issue is whether to nail in planks calling for laws against lynching, poll taxes and racial discrimination in jobs.

Another friend of the President said the White House has supplied some ideas that could be interpreted as "a gesture of conciliation" toward the South.

Last night's meeting of Southern leaders voted to draft a states rights plank of their own to offer to the convention if they don't like what the platform drafters turn out on the touchy question of civil and states' rights.

The job of hammering together the first platform draft was in the hands of five of the 19 members of a subcommittee which held three days of hearings. The full 104-member platform committee and then the convention itself has to approve a final product.

There wasn't much whoopla as delegates swarmed in from all points of the compass. But then there were hardly any good fights to stir up excitement.

A stop-Truman campaign had collapsed almost completely, even though a few of its leaders re-

BIG HORSE RACE—Well, the Democrats meet in Philadelphia to lay their money on an old horse, but a bunch of "outlaws" (it says here) from down the South way keep threatening to enter a maverick. I don't know what will happen, of course, but if they have humility back there like we've got it here all the horses may take out. Back East, they say, they have this humility everyday. Of course, I don't suppose it is the kind they will have in Philly the next few days. This kind, called political, makes the men pull off their ties, rip open their shirts; and the women lose their purses (which always contain their only lipstick), and turn a heel on that new pair of pumps. Both men and women line up like they did when they were kids and played choo-choo—and they march around the big hall, saying witty things in microphones held up in front of them, and furnishing material for newspaper columnists to base their "expert comments" on. . . . When all these people go in there, they are mad as hops at each other; they don't agree, and every hour on the hour (or thereabouts) they give out what are called "press statements" to the reporters. . . . Then, each group puts his horse up for the running, there is a little wrapping in a room where they say there's a lot of smoke (the proper name for it is "smoke-filled room"), and they all rush out and put their money on the same horse. . . . As if they thought the world outside was not listening and reading, they emerge from the big hall and declare everything was harmonious—and "we ain't mad at nobody." . . . That is the Great American Political Convention. . . . But I keep hearing, back here in Texas, that old barb: "It ain't the heat that's bothering you; it's the humidity!"

CALLING ALL HOUSEWIVES—Now that we've acquired the "new look" which very much resembles the look that grandmother had, let's give the house a new lift that will give a timely atmosphere for the new feminine attire. Let's make a pot-pourri: grandmother was never without her rose jar which permeated the house with its spicy flower aroma. Dig up a half-gallon jar which has a lid. Collect an abundance of petals from full-blown roses and let them dry. Into your jar put a layer of petals, about one-half inch in depth, then a sprinkling of salt—sufficient to form a very thin layer. Alternate with a layer of each till the jar is half filled. Store jar in a cool dark place for 10 days, stirring once each morning. At the end of 10 days, transfer petal mixture to another container. Grind and mix together one-half ounce of cloves, all spice and stick cinnamon. Scatter some of spice on bottom of half-gallon jar, then put in layer of rose petal mixture—continuing procedure until all is used up. Set jar in cool, dark place for three weeks. Then mix together the following ingredients: one-eighth ounce each of mace, all spice and cloves, all coarsely ground; one-fourth ounce nutmeg, grated; one-fourth ounce of cinnamon, one-half ounce of powdered orrisroot, two ounces of dried lavender flower. Now select your favorite jars and fill them, alternating with the rose petals and the last mixture mentioned. Purchase a tiny vial of rose oil and place a few drops on the layers as you arrange them. Be sure to leave a space of about one inch at the top of the jar. Four a teaspoon of your favorite cologne over the mixture in each pretty container. . . . Now you can reap pleasantly from your hours of effort. Leave the lid off the jars at 30-minute intervals and you'll find your house will take on clean, wholesome fragrance that you will never tire of.

TID-BITS—Ruth Millitt, NEA writer for this and many other newspapers in the nation, writes this little piece, "It's a Man's World," from her woman's angle, of course: It's a man's world, all right. Just look at the difference in these descriptive words and phrases. If a man doesn't marry, he's a "bachelor"—glamorous word, if a woman doesn't marry she's an "old maid." When his suit out he's "out with the boys." When it is her night out she's at a "hen party." What he hears at the office is "news." What she hears at a bridge party is "gossip." If he runs the family he is "head of the house." If she runs it she "wears the pants in that family." If he is overly solicitous of her he is a "devoted husband." If she is overly solicitous of him he is "hen-pecked." If he keeps his eye on her at a party he is an "attentive husband." If a woman doesn't like a man she is a "possessive wife." In middle age he is "in the prime of life" or "at the peak of his career." At the same age she's "no spring chicken." If he is an easy spender he "does not deny his family anything." If she doesn't count the pennies she's "extravagant" or a "poor manager." Gray hair gives him a distinguished look. If she has it, she's an old hag. If he hasn't any small talk he's "the quiet type." If she hasn't any she is "mousy." It all depends on one thing—whether you're speaking of a man or a woman.

MORE TID-BITS—A look at the nation's news on the injured indicates that numerous people had an unsafe and insane Fourth. . . . man is the greatest invention in the world, and woman is an improvement on that invention. That's probably why so many men stay out so late—they're looking for improvement. . . . He had Tarzan eyes; they swung from limb to limb. . . . You never realize how the human voice can change until you hear a woman scolding her husband in answer to the telephone. . . . Dances are either formal, or you wear your own clothes. . . . Maybe the weak will inherit the earth, but, right now, who wants it anyway?

PAMPA PANORAMA—Red River is certainly one of the favorite hideaways for Pampans—and the Dick Peppins and Aubrey Jones are sure to run into lots of familiar faces this weekend. . . . Understand Frank Rapstine has Rotarians helping to select a name for the expected arrival. . . . Mary Earle Williams is a real favorite with men and women here—what with her sincerity and genuine beauty. . . . C of C Manager Wedgeworth seen loaded down with stickers, posters and bumper cards preparing for the best rodeo yet. . . . Bill Fraser saying seven new lots had been staked out in his addition. . . . One of the nicest events of the summer was this week when Charlotte Thompson entertained with a coffee in honor of Mrs. John Hodge (mother of Mrs. W. B. Weathered) and her four sisters. The unique part is that five sisters can be so pretty. . . . Abe Udashen, Zales-man, off for New York this coming Tuesday. . . . The Fred Brooks will return this week from a vacation in old Oregon. . . . And the H. R. Thompsons will venture into parts of the Northwest before too long. . . . The B. O. Lillys back for a while, are seen around the town, dining with the Doc Swartz, and with Mable Davis. It's good to see them back, and to see their lovely daughter. . . . Overheard: Doc Brown promising himself not to bet anymore! . . . Gee whiz, Joe (Gordon, that is) it's good to see you out again after your stay in the hospital. . . . May F. Carr, paderewski around town, bound for California for a week or so. . . . I saw Ruth Mathieu (one of the beautiful twins) home from the University of T, this summer dancing a rumba that would make the Mexicans take notice. She spent six weeks in Mexico last year, and apparently didn't waste her time. . . . Stork-kissing, the John Gikas and the Bob Killions. . . . We are a well-wisher for Betty Dunbar, now recuperating from an operation at Northwest Hospital, Amarillo. . . . Good to see Mack Graham in town this week. . . . The Rev. Beauford (like in Jester) A. Norris has been made an honorary member of the Rotary while in Scotland for the next two years. . . . He will visit clubs in England, Wales, and possibly some in Ireland while gone. . . . Pampa still progressing; building new houses for Kewanee Oil Co. on S. Hobart.

I'm no thief, but I'm gonna steal away now. . . . And, unlike the legendary Arabs, I will not fold my tent. (The kids are playing house in ours.)

Floor Accents Fireside Charm

The natural beauty of oak flooring lends added charm to this utilitarian fireside setting. A low mantle of birch extends the length of the room, topping attractive cabinets which house built-in phonograph record compartments, magazine racks and bookshelves. Hanging bookshelves at the left add interest and the non-symmetrical touch favored by decorators. The floor of gleaming oak, harmonious with any decorative plan, provides the adaptability necessary for seasonal and periodic changes in furniture and furnishings.

Librarian's Betrothal Revealed at Breakfast

McLEAN—(Special)—The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Patterson was the setting on Sunday, June 27, for a lovely breakfast at which announcement was made of the engagement and approaching marriage of the daughter, Catherine of Lubbock, to Carl C. Belke of Bremerton, Wash.

The honoree's chosen colors of green and yellow were carried out in the decorations. Since she is a librarian the motif of books was used. Small white books, each with a different title, told of the romance of Catherine and Carl and they were held in place on a mirrored centerpiece by a miniature bridal couple serving as bookends.

A yellow streamer from the books led to a daisy corsage at each place except that the honoree's corsage was of yellow gladioli. The centerpiece was flanked by round mirrors which held three halves of grapefruit studded with daisies. Around the grapefruit a bed of frosted grape leaves held wedges of fruit with herbs d'oeuvre picks.

Out-of-town guests were Misses Nola and Lida Fowler of Duncan, Okla., Mrs. L. A. de Lee of Stockstill of Pampa.

Others present were Mesdames W. E. Bogan, H. W. Finley, C. M. Carpenter, F. H. Bourland, J. B. Rice, H. E. Franks, Willie Boyett, R. C. Florey, and Miss Gerry Florey.

WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT NEA Staff Writer

"That poor kid hasn't a chance to grow up to be anything but a neurotic," said a doctor friend of the family.

Why not he say that of a 5-year-old child? Because the child hears too much talk of sickness, too. The sensible way, of course, is much dramatization of small ailments.

Mama is always bidding for sympathy because of her "awful headaches." Papa is always being reminded that this or that "bad of-focty as possible. That is the doesn't agree with him. Junior is way to avoid having a little neurotic hearing his childhood dis-eases discussed in detail.

It's a pity more parents don't realize what they are doing to their children when they talk so much about sickness.

DON'T TALK SICKNESS

Maybe Mama can't help her headaches. But she doesn't have to talk about them or let her children learn when they are young that sickness can be used to get attention, to promote sympathy, and as an excuse to avoid unpleasant situations.

A child can't be kept from having his share of the common diseases. But his parents don't have to dramatize each illness, to build it up in his mind as one of the more important things that has ever happened to him.

The sensible way, of course, is much dramatization of small ailments, to do for the grown-ups to keep still about their minor ailments, to do as little talking as possible about their serious ones and to treat their children's illnesses as matter-of-factly as possible. That is the way to avoid having a little neurotic in your home.

Sweet Music and Summer Sunshine Make Morning Exercise More Fun

Music and sunshine increase the pleasure of morning set-ups for this young girl who borrows her exercise from a ballerina's dance routine.

By ALICIA HART NEA Staff Writer

Mix sweet music and sunshine in with morning set-ups and see how much easier they are to take.

Exercise taken out of doors to music, tapped from phonograph or radio, offers the benefits of fresh air and a fine feeling of exhilaration.

More fun, too, is to take a cue from the music and dance through your work-out. Here's one dance routine borrowed from a ballerina, which can be easily synchronized to music. This one is calculated to stretch muscles of the midriff, legs and hips.

All set to go to a peppy dance tune?

Swing one foot up on the back of a low chair and raise arms overhead. Now in rhythm with the music bend your body to the side touching fingertips of one hand to the upraised foot. Repeat 10 times. Bring foot back to the floor and swing the other leg into position on the chair.

Now that your exercise has proved to be more pleasant, see how easy it is to adapt your own familiar "set-ups" to music.

Fire Causes Most Deaths in Home

AUSTIN — (AP) — Fire is the greatest cause of accidental death of children in the home, says Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall.

Hall said parents can do much to save their children from burning to death. He urged that inflammable materials be kept out of the reach of children, that they not be allowed to play with matches, and that they be constantly reminded of the danger of getting too close to gas heaters.

Of the 109 fire deaths reported during the first five months of this year, 38 were of children under 15, Hall said.

Mexicans Boost Price Of Choice, Odd Cuts

MEXICO CITY — (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Nazario Ortiz Garza will meet with cattlemen here this week to urge larger shipments of cattle into this capital.

Hannegan Favors HST Nomination

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Robert E. Hannegan, former postmaster general, issued the following statement Thursday: "Harry Truman has been a good President for all totaled 11,568 compared with 11,281 for same week in 1947. Total should be renominated and re-elected."

It was Hannegan's first public move in politics since he bought control of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball club last November.

Santa Fe Car Loadings Down

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending July 3, 1948, were 32,202 compared with 33,922 for the same week in 1947.

Cars received from connections has been a good President for all totaled 11,568 compared with 11,281 for same week in 1947. Total should be renominated and re-elected."

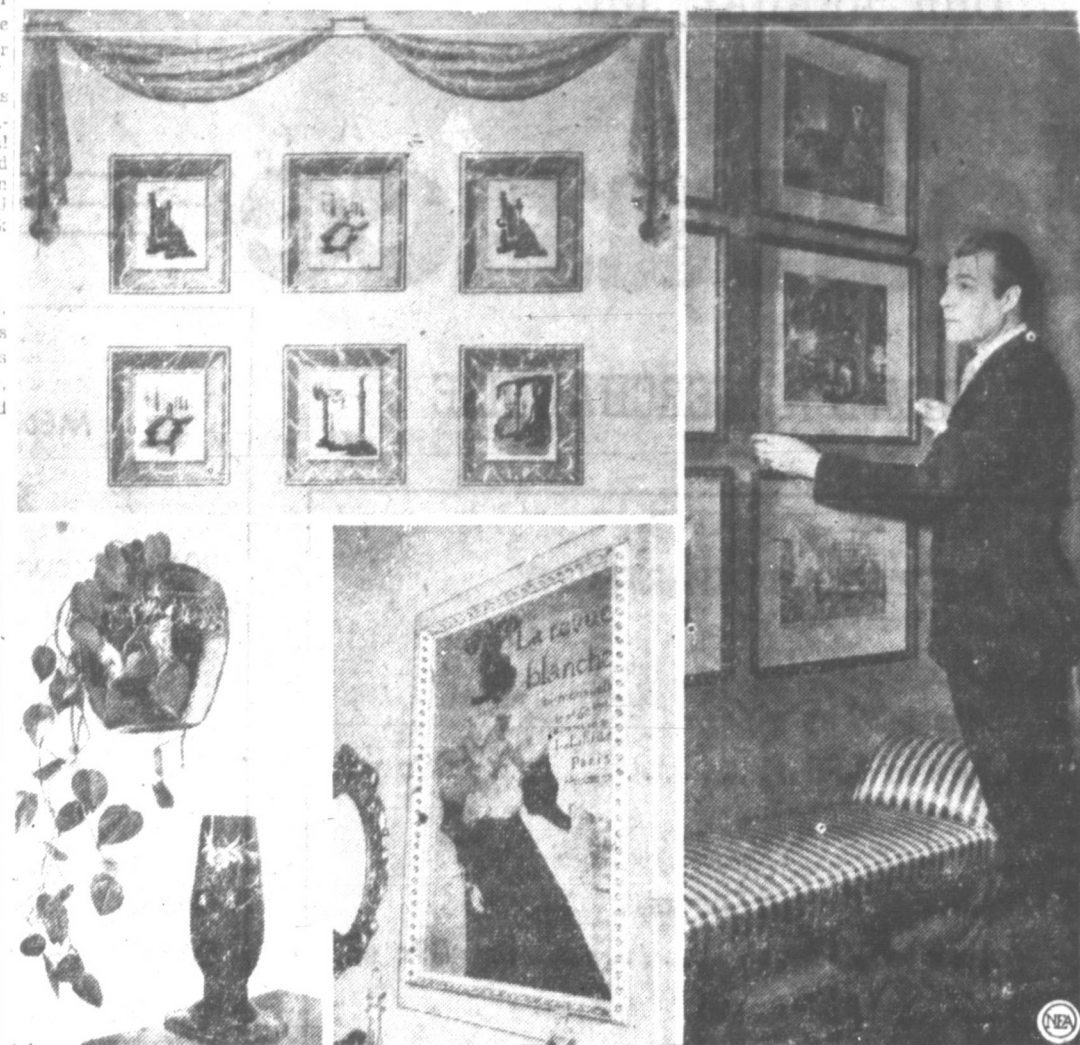

It was Hannegan's first public move in politics since he bought control of the St. Louis Cardinals baseball club last November.

CITY BUYS SEWERS

MCKINNEY, Tex. (AP)—McKinney voters Wednesday passed a $500,000 bond issue to purchase the city sewer system owned by F. D. Perkins for over 40 years.

Queen Elizabeth of England, daughter of Henry VIII, was named in her father's will as third in succession to the throne, after an elder half-brother and half-sister.

Imagination Makes an Attractive Wall

These decorative wall treatments are the work of Alban Conway, noted New York interior decorator at work at right adjusting a symmetrical arrangement of paintings to balance the length of the saloon-covered bench. He used marbled wallpaper to make the "drapery" swag and frames for the six prints at top left, one half of an old brass bowl backed with metal for the ivy holder at bottom left. Strip of moulding pierced with holes adds depth and importance to the simple wood frame of the French poster at bottom center.

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Use a professional decorator's tricks to make imaginative arrangements of pictures if you want to employ one of the least expensive devices for enhancing the charm of a room.

Ready to show you how is Alban Conway, swank New York interior decorator whose clever wall treatments distinguish his clients.

You needn't own costly masterpieces to achieve dramatic effects, says Conway. Inexpensive prints can do just as well, sometimes better, he says. Even dull black and white prints salvaged from an attic gave a high-style sparkle to a room when matted on bright colored paper, simply framed and hung in compact groups.

In fact, your "picture" may be a decorative arrangement of plants in an unusual container. Case in point is Conway's trick of cutting an old-fashioned scrolled brass bowl in half and mounting it on the wall as gleaming background for ivy plants inside the two containers.

Instead of spotting small or unrelated pictures over your walls, bring the assortment together in one dramatic composition, he advises. Hang the group so the eye can move across it in a straight line. Place tops of frames in line with the top of your doorway for a good rule-of-thumb.

When you are hanging one large picture or grouping several smaller ones over a table or couch, the outer edges of the frames should not extend beyond the furniture, Conway cautions, if you want a well-balanced arrangement.

To give a simple frame for a large picture more self-importance, add to the inside border of the wood a raised strip of moulding pierced with holes, bored close together. Light filtering through the openwork will cast interesting shadows and give the illusion of depth to the flat surface.

Maybe you have several prints or same-size photographs but no frames. Then Conway's suggestion is to use marbled paper borders, setting off the display with a fake drapery swag, also of marbled wallpaper.

Communists Lose in Dutch Elections

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (AP)—Complete election returns revealed Thursday that the Communists have lost strength in The Netherlands and rightists groups have scored gains.

The Communists were deprived of two of their 10 seats in the lower chamber of Parliament as a result of Wednesday's general election. Their decline was particularly marked in Rotterdam, where they polled 30 percent fewer votes than in the last election two years ago.

Texas Receives Highway Funds

WASHINGTON—Texas has been apportioned $73,354 from a prospective fund for highway construction in national forests. The sum was authorized by the 1948 Federal Aid Highway Act for spending in the year beginning July 1, 1949. Congress must appropriate the money. The federal works administrator also apportioned $369,267 to Texas from a fund which remained from the three-year, $25,000,000-a-year appropriation authorized in 1944 for improvements on primary and secondary federal aid system.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

GUARD AGAINST SET WITH SAFETY PLAY
By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
Written for NEA Service

I would like to predict that it will not be long before tournament bridge will be played in Midland, Tex. Miss Eva Todd, formerly of Cleveland, O., now in Midland, has started duplicate games in many cities throughout the country, and it will not be surprising if some of her players compete and do well in the big Texas tournaments soon.

Safety plays are a favorite topic of mine, and I remember discussing one of them with Miss Todd when I saw her last at Hollywood, Fla. If you hold four trumps, and a good, runnable five-card suit on the side, it does not seem that any safety play is required. That is not true, however. With a four-card trump suit, you must always guard against four trumps being in one hand. In today's hand, for example, if declarer does not guard against four trumps in one hand, East will interrupt the running of the club suit. The maximum number of tricks can be made by winning the opening lead of the queen of diamonds with the ace, and ruffing a diamond in dummy with the three of spades. Now the four of spades is led, and when East plays the deuce, declarer plays the seven-spot. With this play he protects himself not only against four trumps in one hand, but five.

West will win the spade trick with the nine-spot. If he comes back with the ace of hearts, declarer follows with another heart, declarer wins the second heart trick with the king, ruffs another diamond in dummy, and now he can pick up the trumps and run the club suit. Thus he makes eleven tricks.

We shopped around and found that chests can be obtained in such a variety of outer wood finishes that they can match almost any furniture now being used in the bedroom. They are particularly nice at the end of the new Hollywood type beds and they have the additional virtue of being available as seats when you have a flock of bedroom visitors. Keep in the chests your extra blankets, furs, woolen scarves and dresses and gloves and any other of your fine things which would make a hungry moth lick his shops.

Woman Gets Bronze Star Medal Award

The Bronze Star Medal has been presented Mrs. K. G. Moore, 510 West Francis, as a posthumous award to her husband, the late Kenneth G. Moore, former chief storekeeper, USNR, Eighth Naval District, Headquarters at New Orleans has announced.

Vice Admiral J. L. Hall, Jr., USN, commander amphibious forces, U. S. Pacific Fleet, cited Moore for "distinguishing himself by meritorious achievement" as a member of a unit participating in the assault landing in Leyte Gulf, Philippines, in October, 1944. Chief Moore helped prepare the way for combat troop operations in the face of enemy rifle, machine gun and mortar fire, the citation said. He crammed five major engagements in the Pacific into one year overseas. They included the capture of the Western Caroline Islands and the liberation of the Philippines.

Chief Moore attended Phillips University at Enid, Northwestern State Teachers College at Alva, and a business college at Woodward, Okla. He was manager of Long Bell Lumber Co. at Waynoka, Okla., before entering Naval service in 1942.

Elementary schools were founded in England before the Reformation, but received impetus by the founding in 1669 of an organization to promote charity schools for children.

Arabs Challenge Fate in Refusing to Renew Truce

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The refusal of the Arabs to renew the truce in the Palestine warfare indicates that the former believe they can win the conflict. Without challenging their undoubted capabilities as fighters, one is moved to remark that they are venturing out on a mighty shaky limb.

The battle for the Holy Land has become a much broader issue than merely the establishment of a national home for the Jews or the maintenance of the Arab status quo. The fate of Palestine is of vast moment to the whole world. This is true not only in its sacred Christian, Islamic and Mohammedanism, but in the political, economic and military sense.

The Holy Land is the strategic heart of the land bridge connecting three continents—Asia, Europe and Africa. It is vital to the defense of the Suez Canal, and a few miles to the eastward are the great underground seas of petroleum which play an increasingly important part in oiling the wheels of the world.

Britain reportedly has been warning the Arabs that they might bring down upon their heads the condemnation of the United Nations. However, hopes of achieving a permanent settlement have been pretty thin. Many observers incline to the belief that we may have reached the point where only two alternatives remain for solution of the problem:

Either the United Nations must enforce peace, using troops if necessary, or the Arabs and the Jews must be allowed to fight to a finish.

The second alternative would be too terrible for contemplation. And apart from all other considerations it would be a firebrand which might set the whole world aflame again.

Therefore it isn't surprising to see the U. N. Security Council meeting in emergency session to consider means of halting the bloodshed. The United States has taken the lead in advocating strong action to enforce an extension of the truce—even application of diplomatic and economic sanctions against the aggressors.

Southern Bolt Threat Worries Congressmen

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Privately and personally some Southern congressmen are worried by threats of a Southern bolt of the Democratic ticket.

They fear a bolt could cost them their committee assignments—if national party leaders got tough. Because of customary Democratic victories in Dixie and the ability of a good many of its representatives and senators to win again and again, Southerners generally hold important and high committee posts.

"If my state bolts, why couldn't the Ways and Means Committee Democrats give my committee assignment to someone from a non-bolting state?" asked one House member who requested that his name not be added. "Of course," he added, "a good many of us already have been nominated for new terms as straight Democrats. That would give us an arguing point, if word came to worst."

Party leaders in South Carolina, Mississippi, Arkansas and Alabama have threatened to bolt if President Truman is nominated or the National Convention, opening Monday in Philadelphia, finally adopts a platform embodying his civil rights program. There is some talk of deserting the national party in other Deep-South areas, including Virginia, Georgia, Florida and Texas.

Operations at the Carruth Well, being drilled by Phillips, have been unusually secretive this past week. Look for good or bad news to come soon, however. If suggestions and rumors are to be taken in to consideration, the news should be good.

Larry Snyder, of Shell Oil, reports visit to the area by James Kamel, petroleum engineer for Europe-Anglo Egyptian Oil Field Co. a branch of Shell Oil. Mr. Kamel arrived in Pampa last Wednesday coming here from Cairo, Egypt. He studied oil operations in this area and was particularly impressed by the Bettis steamer. He left Friday by plane for Wichita Falls for further first-hand observation of Shell activities in this country. Mr. Kamel was brought to Pampa by J. M. Cochran, division mechanic for the Shell Co., out of the Wichita Falls office.

Humble News - Ben Seibold, gangbuster, is still confined to his home following a minor operation in a local hospital. C. L. Graham, roustabout, left last Monday on a two weeks vacation. Starting last Friday, K. R. Dawson, pumper, and 25 year employe of Humble began a four weeks vacation.

Skelly news items. Mrs. P. E. Stephenson and children are visiting in their home in Longton, Kansas. John Rush, division superintendent for the Texas-New Mexico district, drove to Tulsa on company business last Tuesday and returned Friday. A fare well party was given at the Schaefer Plant on the lawn recently for the H. B. Barker family. Mr. Barker had been an employe at the Skelly plant for 15 years and recently resigned to accept a position with the Cabot Company. His fellow workers presented him with a watch. The Skelly softball team, member of the industrial league, still leads the league, having suffered only one league defeat.

Stanolines. J. R. Weaver, district clerk, left Friday afternoon on a two weeks vacation. He is going to Houston to see his wife receive her Master's Degree from the college there. Later they will visit relatives and friends in South and Central Texas. The L. E. Sloans have purchased a home on 21st and 17th in Pampa. Carl and Marion Leuder have returned from a two weeks vacation in Michigan. Mrs. Maurice Heard (formerly Joyce Rhoten) has returned to California. They were married June 18. Marieta Trader has returned to work after having been confined to her home for a week following an auto mobil accident.

Skelton Reviews Texas Oil News
By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, Tex. - Before the year is out motorists may be digging deeper into their pockets for gasoline money.

The reason: prolonged continuation of the struggle for balance between supply and demand. Accompanying this struggle is continuation of practices of some purchasers of paying a premium price or bonus in excess of the prevailing posted crude oil prices.

Oil companies, both large and small, in the Texas area in recent weeks have announced several price "adjustments" for crude oil in specified fields. The hike generally has hit around two cents per barrel.

West Texas Independent Producers last week petitioned purchasers to wipe out a differential in prices between West Texas crude and other areas in the state.

Present West Texas postings average around 13 cents lower than in other Southwest areas. Crude oil production is on a decline for the first time in nearly two months but gasoline processing figures have hit a new high for the second consecutive week.

Gasoline output climbed to 18,041,000 barrels for the week ending July 3, an increase of 103,000 over the previous week, the American Petroleum Institute reports.

The record jump was accompanied by a decrease of only 33,000 barrels in gasoline stocks, thus permitting the industry to enter the July 4 holiday high demand period with peak supplies available.

AP listed crude production for the week as dropping 10,100 barrels daily to an average of 5,483,800.

Oil and Gas Journal, Tulsa, estimated production at 5,471,730 barrels daily, a drop of 22,720 from the previous week.

Purchase of rights in the Kuwait-Saudi Arabia "neutral zone" in the heart of the Middle East's oil region last week was described as the first large scale operation undertaken in that area by Independent Oil Operators.

Successful bidder was the American Independent Oil Company, headed by Ralph K. Davies, San Francisco.

Jack Blalock, Houston, director of the company, said the area involved, about 60 miles long and 45 miles wide, is regarded as being one of the best undeveloped oil prospects in the world.

State notes: Louisiana's State Mineral Board has collected a
