DEPUTY SHOOTS SMALL BOY TO DEATH

HOPE TO PASS REVENUE ACT BY SATURDAY

MOST OF PRESIDENT'S SUGGESTIONS ARE FOLLOWED

BY CLARENCE M. WRIGHT,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, July 30 (AP)—The new $275,000,000 tax bill was formally approved today by the house ways and means committee. Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.) hoped to get the measure up on the floor tomorrow. He said that if he failed it would be taken up Thursday at the latest.

"I hope we can get it passed by Saturday," Doughton added. "If we don't, we certainly can get it through by Monday."
The bill includes recommendations outlined by President Roosevelt in his message to congress June 19 advocating a "wider distribution of wealth."

It embodies new taxes on inheritance and gifts, in addition to those already levied on estates and gifts; increased taxes on individual incomes and corporation excess profits and graduated levies on corporation net incomes.

Indications were that republican members of the ways and means committee would file a minority report criticizing the bill because of the contention it would do nothing worth while toward balancing the budget.

Although less than a dozen committee members were present when the vote was taken, all but one of the absentees left a proxy. The resulting vote was 17 to 7, with the democrats agreeing solidly to approve the bill and the republicans to oppose.

The only member not recorded was Rep. Lamme (D., Ohio) who is ill.

Reduction Wrong.
There had been forecasts that an attempt would be made in the committee to permit corporations to deduct from their taxable income gifts made to community chests and charitable organizations not served for profit. This did not materialize.

Today's committee session lasted less than 15 minutes, committee democrats, however, already had spent about two weeks working on the bill in secret sessions from

Planning Board To Study Work Progress Program

Gray county's Works Progress administration projects will be reviewed by a planning board which took form today after J. F. Minter, district field superintendent of Amarillo, conferred with civic leaders.

The committee is composed of the following:
W. A. Bratton, Alex Schneider, C. H. Walker, W. T. Fox, W. E. James of Alameda, Hank Breining of LeFlore, C. O. Green of Motman, County Judge C. E. Gary was asked to call this group into session Friday morning at 10 o'clock, in the county courtroom.

As fast as possible, relief labor will be shifted to the works projects to be proposed, reviewed, and finally approved by the state set-up. While many projects, such as roads, underpasses, parks, and the like have been suggested and work done in their behalf, the program is not yet in tangible form.

Believed eligible for approval as one project is the shaping of land to be bought for a home for the Centennial here. This would become a sort of fair ground and recreation center, with display buildings. Only a start can be made this year, however. Purchase of the land will likely take place this week.

British Sweep Davis Cup Net Rounds 5 to 0

Wilmer Allison and Donald Budge Defeated by Austin and World's Champ Perry

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 30. (AP)—The United States was whitewashed in the Davis cup tennis challenge round for the first time in 24 years today when Fred Perry defeated Wilmer Allison, 4-6, 6-4, 6-8, 7-5. Great Britain thus swept all five matches of the series and completed a magnificent second defense of the cup won from France in 1933.

It was America's most humiliating defeat since Australia blanked Uncle Sam's court representatives in 1911 and it marked the end of the sixth challenge round bid to recapture the coveted trophy since it was lost by the United States to France in 1927.

Perry and Allison accounted for four points between them. They shared the honors of the sweeping victory with the veteran George Patrick Hughes and young and powerful Raymond Tuckey, who sprang a major surprise yesterday when they toppled the highly favored U. S. combination of Allison and Johnny Van Ryn in a stirring five-set doubles match.

Their victory over the American team, coupled with Perry's triumph over Budge and Austin's win from Allison on Saturday, clinched the series for England. As the result today's matches actually were meaningless exhibitions carried out merely to determine the size of England's winning margin.

"The veterans, Allison and Van Ryn, took the shelling to heart. Allison said he had played his last game of Davis cup tennis and that he "won't be back." Van Ryn said it was very doubtful if he would be a candidate for the team again.

"When my service, which always has been my most dependable point, goes back on me it's time to quit," said Allison dejectedly. He was referring to the 12 double faults he served against Perry today.

Perry called on the Americans in their dressing room. He was welcomed by the non-playing Captain Joe Wear, who said:

"Congratulations, Fed. The best team won."
Wear reaffirmed his belief that America played the best men available and said, "I would not make a change if I had to do it over again."

Five more indictments were returned by the Gray county grand jury today. No returns were made on them by officers immediately.

CONFESSION OBTAINED IN 'SWAMP MURDER' FROM WOMAN WHO KILLED FOR $500 FEE

Intoxicated Man Strangled To Death, Then She Cut Off Legs, Says Attorney

CHICAGO, July 30. (AP)—Assistant State's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty today said Mrs. Evelyn Smith, former burlesque dancer, confessed early this morning that she alone killed Ervin Lang, cut off his legs and with the aid of her Chinese husband, Harry Jung, threw his body into a swamp near Hammond, Ind., the morning of July 27.

Dougherty said he and Lieut. Thomas Kelly of the state's attorney police secured the admission of the crime in his office after eight hours of questioning during which Mrs. Smith was twice confronted by Mrs. Blanche Dunkel, mother-in-law of the slain man, as alleged instigator of the slaying.

Mrs. Smith at first denied Mrs. Dunkel's purported story that she had hired the former to kill Lang for a fee of $500 of which $100 was paid, Mrs. Dunkel was reported to have said, as a retainer.

Dougherty said, after Mrs. Smith was brought into the presence of her accuser for the second time, she and cut off the victim's legs. Mrs. Smith, Dougherty alleged, then called Jung upstairs and together they placed his torso in a trunk and wrapped his legs in a blanket put the load in Jung's car and drove to near Hammond Ind., and dropped the trunk, blanket and saw and Lang's body in a swamp. The pair, according to Dougherty's recitation of the alleged confession, then separated and Mrs. Smith went by bus to New York where she was arrested last Saturday. She was returned here by plane yesterday after waiting extradition.

Suspicion was first directed in the case to Mrs. Dunkel by Lang's fiancée who after identifying his body, said that the victim's mother-in-law had long been jealous. Arrested in a hospital where she had undergone a tonsilectomy, Mrs. Dunkel accused Mrs. Smith, Dougherty said.

The assistant state's attorney would not explain a "mystery witness," Andrew Culer, 52, who was taken into custody just prior to his announcement of the alleged admissions. He said Culer, who was questioned for a half hour was an "important material witness," and the "key" to the case.

BLAME GIVEN NEW YORK FOR OIL 'UNREST'

Col. Ernest Thompson Is Author Of Charges In Statement At Austin.

AUSTIN, July 30 (AP)—Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, today charged in a statement prepared for delivery to a legislative investigating committee that unrest in the oil industry resulted directly from rumors of a price cut coming from New York.

Thompson said the battle of the state for the right to control its oil resources was "almost won."

"The oil business of Texas is now effectively controlled by the state of Texas—not by Wall Street," he said.

"Remember, gentlemen, that for 50 years before state control of the oil business, the principal profits of the big companies were made by reducing prices, after emptying their storage tanks, that they might fill them again with cheap oil and incidentally acquire valuable oil properties at sacrifice prices from independents whose distress had been caused by the low price. Some will never be satisfied until they can return to this predatory system, profiting from the misery of the weak."

"For the past 80 days," Thompson said, "rumors of an impending price cut have come out of New York. When Mr. Jakes (secretary of the interior) recently recommended a cut of 40,000 barrels per day in Texas production, we made a cut of 80,000 barrels per day. Yet rumors of a price cut still persist. The issue is: shall Texas continue to control the oil business in Texas or shall we surrender that control to Wall Street?"

Thompson said it was "quite possible that, in the magnitude of the task of handling the giant East Texas field, the commission has made many mistakes." He said he was sure the committee had found conditions that could be improved and urged "cooperation in correcting any faults."

"You were appointed to investigate charges based on rumors and insinuations reflecting on Texas' officials engaged in administering the Texas oil production laws, to the end that the fair name of Texas might be protected. Knowing your high regard for the fair name of Texas and its citizens and officials, I am sure you would not entertain or give dignity to any charges not supported by reputable witnesses under oath, and I am sure you are unmindful of the fact that those who would wrest control of the oil business from the state of Texas might, by inspired propaganda, seek to destroy the confidence of the people in their officials."

HURLEY NAMED AS ATTORNEY FOR UTILITIES

UTILITY CZAR WANTED AT HEARING, SAYS SENATOR BLACK

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—The senate lobby committee today threatened to arm every United States marshal and federal agent with subpoenas for H. C. Hopson, dominant figure in the Associated Gas and Electric system.

The threat was issued by Chairman Black as Fred Burroughs, $60,000 a year vice president, testified again that he did not know Hopson's whereabouts.

"It would be impossible that a man could be in the United States and not know that the committee wanted Mr. Hopson," Black said, referring to the widespread publicity given the committee's search for the official.

"If we don't get in touch with him we are going to turn over a subpoena to every marshal and every other agent of the government."

Black added that there were some questions that only Hopson could answer, adding emphatically "we want him here."

Total expenditures of the Associated Gas and Electric system in opposing the utility holding company bill were estimated at $701,000, including a fee of $25,000 to the law firm of Patrick J. Hurley, secretary of war in the Hoover administration.

The figures were presented from a list of the system's expenditures drawn up by company officials and committee investigators.

Previously, company officials had asserted the expenditures against the bill were $700,000.

Senator Schwellenbach (D-Wash.) emphasized the payment to Hurley. "This is the man who is so outraged about what the government is doing, isn't he?" Schwellenbach asked.

"I don't know, I'm not Mr. Hurley's brother," O. E. Wasser, controller of the system, who was testifying, replied tartly.

TENS OF THOUSANDS DROWNED BY FLOOD IN YANGTZE RIVER

Coffins Built For Bodies Of Victims; 1,000 Die While Repairing Dike.

HANKOW, China, July 30. (AP)—A great pile of rude wooden coffins—a veritable mountain of the dead—is growing ever higher on the banks of the Yangtze river near here.

Red Cross workers are pursuing their grim task of reclaiming the bodies of flood victims swept down from the inundated up-river districts. A corps of carpenters is working feverishly in an effort to provide the coffins in the huge numbers needed.

Every corpse must be encoffined in accordance with the Chinese belief that the spirits of the dead are doomed to eternal restlessness unless their bodies are decently interred.

Already 1,500 of the unpainted wooden boxes are stacked along the banks while hundreds of other bodies await the construction of their last receptacles.

Although the peak of the floods was definitely believed past today and the waters were receding sharply, the details of the devastation are only beginning to filter in.

The Rev. Adolph Koehler of Nicolet, Minn., returning from a 70-mile journey up the overflowing Han river, said he encountered only one town in that entire distance which escaped inundation.

"High spots on the dikes and other patches of dry land were literally black with humanity," said the Rev. Mr. Koehler. "When we stopped, they crowded around by the hundreds pleading for medicines and food."

"Many of them are subsisting entirely on the occasional water-melons which are floating down the river. Hundreds are ravaged by dysentery, typhoid, and other epidemic diseases."

Among the many stories of wholesale tragedies, few are more poignant than that told by the survivors from Miehayang who said that 1,000 of their townspeople were swept to death while laboring to repair a weakened dike.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Culwell returned last night from a trip by air to Dallas.

CHILD KILLED AFTER FIGHT WITH FATHER

FLEEING AUTO FIRED UPON AND A SLUG HITS BOY

SAN ANGELO, July 30 (AP)—Charges of murder were filed today against Mack Shipley, Reagan county deputy sheriff, for the killing early today of 2-year-old Woodrow Willingham near a San Angelo road house.

J. W. Willingham, father of the child, and Shipley had an altercation in the resort prior to the shooting, police said.

Willingham said he got in the car to take his son home and had driven but a short distance when someone started shooting at the car. One of the slugs tore through the back of the machine where the child was asleep, striking him in the stomach. He died about 1:30 o'clock at a hospital.

Shipley surrendered to officers at mid-morning. He had been questioned at the scene but was not brought to town by officers at the time.

Wood Alcohol In Whiskey Bottle Is Stolen Here

Wanted—the person who stole a whiskey bottle and glass from a car parked near Road Runner park last night. Physicians and police would like to know what his "insides" are made of, if he is still alive.

The bottle, a Seagram's bottled-in-bond label on its side, and a glass in which poison had been mixed were taken from the car. The bottle was full of wood alcohol.

The car was owned by a Kingsmill citizen who was attending the ball game. When the loss was discovered, the owner notified police.

Oil Production Shows A Decline

TULSA, Okla., July 30. (AP)—Daily average output of production in the United States declined 19,688 barrels for the week ending June 27, the Oil and Gas Journal reports. The average for the period was 2,746,803 barrels.

East Texas, with a decrease of 14,329 barrels, led in the decline, production in this area was 473,077, which was 20,793 barrels less than the average for the previous week. For the entire state the production was 1,073,105 barrels as compared with 1,092,594 for the previous week.

Production in Oklahoma was up 1,700 barrels for a total of 523,950 barrels. Kansas recorded an increase of 3,255 barrels, for a total of 153,050.

Eastern fields, including Michigan, virtually were unchanged at 151,019, while the Rocky mountains area showed a gain of 2,330 barrels, running up the total to 111,680.

California gained 4,750 barrels, producing an average of 562,250 barrels daily.

Cemetery Using Much Water In Improvement Work

A total of 2,098,500 gallons of water was used during the last 12 months by the local cemetery, according to City of Pampa statistics. No charge was made for the water, which was considered as being used for a civic project. Beautification of the cemetery has been in progress for several years.

NEW WAR THREATENS WHITE MAN'S GOLD

Once in a while, reading casually in the day's news, a man gets a dim premonitory sense that he is watching one of the greatest events of history taking shape under his eyes—watching it, and lacking the knowledge to say what it may mean, or how it may be going to develop.

You get that eerie feeling now and then while reading about the preparations for war between Italy and Ethiopia.

On the surface, this is just one more in the long series of imperialistic wars by which white nations have imposed their will, their "civilization" and their manufactured goods on the colored races. Every great white nation has had such wars in its history—England, France, Germany, Russia and, for that matter, the United States.

And yet this new war will take place under different circumstances than its predecessors. The world has changed. A cycle has come to an end, somehow.

There was a time when no one—including the colored races themselves—questioned the dominance of the white nations. The world took it for granted that the great European powers would continue to extend their sway all across Asia and Africa. The only question was which nation would dominate what territory.

Then things began to happen. Japan fought Russia and won—and the colored races began to discover that European civilization was not invincible, after all. The European powers then got into a great war between themselves, and proved to their subject races that they were not united after all, and that their boasted peace and order were illusory.

So a ferment began, all across the globe. India's teeming masses became restless. A confused tremor went through China. Even the blacks of Africa began to find submission to the white man's yoke oppressive. And Japan continued to defy the white man's world—and got away with it.

Look at the approaching war against that background . . . and then imagine what might happen if Italy, through some mischance, should lose this war that she is hurrying into so blithely.

There is just the outside chance that this might be the beginning of the end of the long period of white dominance; a spark to set off a blaze that would become one of the great beacon lights of history.

This is all guess-work, to be sure. But the possibility is there. It lends to dispatches about the approaching war a deep and ominous significance.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Faintly, but audibly, the convention bee is beginning to buzz.

Though the decision as to location of the national conventions will not be made until the national committees meet in November of this year, and the conventions themselves are nearly a year away, there is beginning to be speculation as to what cities Republicans and Democrats are going to choose in which to nominate The Dark Horse and Franklin D. Roosevelt, respectively.

Political sharks line it up something like this: San Francisco, while an attractive spot and an active bidder for the Democratic show, is too far away in times like these, when money means more to harassed delegates than it did in 1920.

Atlantic City will be in with its perpetual bid, but this resort and the old Democratic favorite, Baltimore, are both subject to the same objection of distance.

Best guess is that it will be a big city between Cleveland on the east and Kansas City on the west. Smaller cities can't quite carry the load of the 1000 delegates and thousands of visitors, as the Democrats found at Houston.

The ideal spot would be some such "grass-roots" center as Omaha, but there is some question of facilities in such a city. Watch Cleveland, Cincinnati, and St. Louis.

As for the Republicans, how can they do better than return to Chicago, argue some. Look at the advance bally-hoo they would get from the big Chicago papers, which have taken the lead in anti-Roosevelt argument, anyway.

No city, however, has yet stepped forth with a fund of from $100,000 to $200,000 in its extended hand. And in getting the national conventions, money talks about as loud as politics.

You can hear plenty of squawks from fairly high officials here against the government's $5-a-day allowance for expenses while traveling. Many times, they say, the $5 goes for a hotel room, leaving them to pay for meals, taxis, and tips out of their own pockets. Some of them report they're out a couple of hundred dollars every time they make a trip. They don't like it.

Not many have left to the Republicans about town. However, up in the Houhe restaurant there's a Republican round-table that meets every day informally, and from which Democrats are rigorously excluded.

Few people know that A. F. of L unions have contributed $40,000 to the Chest for Liberation of Workers of Europe, aimed at fighting Fascism and Nazism. Of this fund, $30,000 has already been sent to Europe to aid labor refugees from Germany, Austria, and Italy.

Extension of this work is one of the things that will come up at the A. F. of L. convention this fall.

The man who gave his wife's relatives a two-weeks' vacation because they agreed with him is a piker alongside those husbands who give their wives' relatives year-round vacations because they disagree.

Senator Borah would never do for president. If he were elected, how could he criticize the administration?

While the utilities have been urging people to use more light, their own executives, it appears, have been doing lots of work in the dark.

We might believe the white race is being threatened by the blacks if the cry weren't made by just those who seem to cause the world its greatest concern.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's dramatic story of a millionaire mother-in-law's fight for the custody of a child of divorce. Dealing with a situation oftentimes echoed in the courts today, the new picture opens today at the Rex theater with a large cast of featured players, including Paul Lukas, Midge Evans, Helen Vinson, May Robson, David Jack Holt and Ralph Forbes.

Miss Robson plays the battling mother-in-law who goes to court and uses her millions in an attempt to wrest guardianship of his son from Lukas, following the divorce of a philandering wife. The dramatic climax in the courtroom where the veteran actress addresses the judge is reported to be the most gripping courtroom episode since Lionel Barrymore's famous trial scene in "A Free Soul." Lukas, as the father fighting for the custody of his child, has one of the most dramatic roles of his career, and Miss Evans, fresh from her triumph as Dora in "David Copperfield," is brilliantly cast as the secretary whose position in Lukas' household is misunderstood.

The story revolves about a publisher whose wife leaves him and remarries. Her new mother-in-law insists that she sue for custody of the child of their first marriage. When all else fails the determined mother-in-law "frames" the publisher. The case is brought to court and the story closes with an unexpected and sensational denouement.

FOR APPROVES MILLIONS FOR DISEASE STUDY

CHRONIC DISEASES TO BE SUPPLIED BY UNEMPLOYED

WASHINGTON, July 30.—President Roosevelt today allotted $3,450,000 of work relief funds to the public health service for a survey of chronic diseases.

Surgeon General Hugh S. Cummings estimated that the three-fold study would give a year's employment to 3,500 white collar people now on relief rolls. His statement said it would include:

1. A house to house canvass in selected urban and rural communities to determine the prevalence of long-standing illnesses among the rich, the poor, and middle class families.

2. Physical examinations in a small number of instances to check the accuracy of the canvass reports.

3. A survey of medical facilities, particularly for chronic diseases. At the same time, Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator, announced that adult education classes—designed to provide work for needy teachers as well as an opportunity for self-improvement to grownups—would be continued under the work relief program.

Twelve hundred teachers are to attend summer schools in preparation for classes to be resumed in the fall, and Hopkins estimated that 2,000,000 adults—not necessarily from relief rolls—would take advantage

Service Tomorrow Will Be Outdoors

Mid-week service at First Methodist church will be conducted on the lawn tomorrow evening at 8:15. Another of the lesser known disciples of Jesus will be the subject of the talk by H. D. Tucker, who will discuss the career of Simon.

The choir will meet for rehearsal at 8:15 also, and the male chorus will have its practice at the same time. Sunday school officers and teachers are to meet at 8:45.

"Because of our experience during the past year and a half, the education program should be better fitted than ever to provide the types of service urgently needed to help people improve themselves so as to be able to regain their place in society as self-sustaining citizens," Hopkins said in a statement by the works progress press agents.

He added that as a cost of $21,014,220 during the past two school years, work had been provided 44,000 needy teachers who instructed 2,000,000 adults and 80,000 kindergarten-age children of destitute families.

At the same time, Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator, announced that adult education classes—designed to provide work for needy teachers as well as an opportunity for self-improvement to grownups—would be continued under the work relief program.

Twelve hundred teachers are to attend summer schools in preparation for classes to be resumed in the fall, and Hopkins estimated that 2,000,000 adults—not necessarily from relief rolls—would take advantage

Don't you envy the beautiful jars of canned fruit on the grocer's shelves? Well, you can make the same sort of thing at home.

Fruits canned in a syrup made with berry juice in place of water, or colored red with vegetable coloring and flavored with grenadine, are delicious. Other fruits, canned in a green mint syrup, add a new flavor to the meals.

The fruits are exceptionally useful for garnishing ice creams and in fruit cocktails and salads.

Peaches canned in red raspberry syrup are something very different from ordinary canned peaches. I make the syrup heavier than usual, for use over ice cream on squares of sponge cake.

When I can fruits, I always plan how to use them. If your family doesn't care for plain canned fruit, there's really not much point in canning it. My own family likes preserves and jellies with hot rolls and biscuits. Consequently I concentrate on preserving and can only enough fruit for puddings and an occasional desert with cake.

Red Raspberry Syrup
One and one-half cups sugar, 2-3 cup berry juice.

Put sugar and fruit juice in a sauce pan and stir until dissolved. Put over flames and boil ten minutes. Pour hot over peaches, peeled and cut in halves with stones removed, packed in hot jars.

You can the fruit just as if it were in a plain syrup—oven, hot water bath or pressure cooker.

If you can peaches or pears in grenadine syrup, add one-half cup grenadine to each cup of plain syrup, and color with red food coloring. If a maraschino cherry is placed in the cavity of each half and the cherry side is placed against the glass, a sumptuous effect is gained.

Pears are delicious canned either in grenadine syrup or mint syrup.

Mint Syrup
One-third cup mint leaves, 1-4 cup sugar, 2-3 cup water, few drops green food coloring.

Add well washed leaves to sugar and crush. Add water and stir until sugar is dissolved. Bring to the boiling point and boil 6 minutes. Add coloring and strain over fruit packed in jars.

I often put up pineapple in mint syrup, too, and fruits in a sweet spiced vinegar provide a delectable sweet pickle to serve with the main course of dinner or luncheon.

There are many simple tricks in canning that make it possible to vary home-canned fruits at small expense. Preserved ginger added to plain canned pears makes them acceptable to many persons who criticize pears as tasteless. Use pieces of preserved ginger and enough ginger syrup to flavor the plain syrup.

SIX NEW BIRDBASES TO BE LOCATED SOON

FIRST BASE WILL BE BUILT SOMEWHERE IN ALASKA

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Frankly elated at passage of the Wilcox air base bill, high-ranking army air corps officers today turned their eyes toward maps to determine where to build six new air bases authorized by the measure.

Under the bill, which is awaiting presidential approval, the depots would be established at key points in six specified defense areas at a cost of $120,000,000.

Inasmuch as the bill simply authorizes, instead of appropriates, the funds, progress will depend upon the financial backing of the public works allotment board. But in the opinion of Rep. Wilcox (D-Fla.), author of the measure, funds will be made available this year for "at least one or two" bases.

Reports from an authoritative source indicate that Alaska will be chosen first. It was said that the need for an extreme northern air corps outpost, and a desire to experiment with cold weather flying, are contributing factors. Fairbanks is leading in the field as the most probable site.

The second area probably will be that including the Pacific northwest. Portland and Seattle will vie for the honors.

Several cities are seeking the base planned for the Rocky mountains area. Denver would like it and so would Salt Lake City, Pocatello, Idaho, and Albuquerque, N. M., with the Rocky mountain base serving largely in a secondary defense role as a munition and supply depot for the west coast. A similar base is planned to assist operations along the Atlantic.

Situated somewhere in the southeastern states the field probably will be constructed, according to one authority, in western North Carolina, western South Carolina or in northern Georgia.

Air corps officials have not yet narrowed down their choice in New England. The present east Boston airport is favored by some.

It is generally expected that the primary defense of the Panama canal, the coal and iron mines of Alabama and the Texas oil fields. Chapman field at Miami, though undeveloped, was purchased during the world war for just this purpose. If Rep. Wilcox has his way, a similar base would permit the United States to maintain aerial supremacy over the Caribbean sea.

Scattered between the six key fields, officers plan to establish independent flying fields, but their locations will not be determined until later.

Utility Company Files Are Found Blank By Probers

WASHINGTON, July 30. (AP)—Members of the senate lobby committee said today that the absence of records they have encountered in their inquiry into the Associated Gas & Electric system has been found in many of the companies virtually blank with reference to the campaign.

They went ahead today questioning officials of the Associated Gas & Electric system, still waiting for H. C. Hopson to turn up. Describing Hopson as the mainspring of the A. G. E. organization, investigators have been looking for him for ten days.

At the same time the senators were attempting to establish responsibility for the destruction of A. G. E.'s records with regard to its campaign against the holding company bill—a campaign in which the company said it spent $700,000.

Another inquiry into lobbying on the utilities bill, conducted by the house rules committee, resumed hearings today. William Collins, committee counsel, intimated that the books of the B. B. Robinson Investment company of Chicago would yield important disclosures. Bernard B. Robinson, head of the A. G. E. organization, denied that he entertained lavishly here while fighting the utilities bill.

Men Claiming To Be Americans Are Given Sentences

COPENHAGEN, July 30. (AP)—Geo. Mink and Nicholas Sherman, who claim to be Americans, were sentenced today by the Danish appeal court to 18 months in prison for espionage against Denmark.

It was the only sentence published by the court and few details of the case are known.

(Sherman and Mink were reported arrested with six other men last March 5 in Denmark on charges of possessing false passports. One other American—a man who gave the name of Josephine, was in the group.)

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 8.
BAD BARGAIN

"From our meeting last week, you're most certainly not the kind of girl I'd pick out for a wife," said Moore.

"Then, why do you say I must go on pretending to be?" she flared.

"I tried to make it clear, but you don't seem very quick on the uptake. Rather surprising, seeing that you must be braying enough to have fooled all these people. Just try to get it this time. I let Albery think I had a wife, that you were my wife, I didn't tell him you must be an impostor."

"But you can tell him now."

"Hold never forgive me. He can't stand being fooled. He thinks a whole heap of himself unck, that quiet, silky way of his. As I've just remarked, I'm broke to the wide, and he has my future in his hand."

"But he'd only blame me," she insisted. "It's I who have fooled him. It's I who've got the snack."

"That wouldn't help me. Don't argue. You'll have to do what I say. I didn't know how right I was the other day when I said you were probably taking a man's job. And I'm damned if I'm going to let you take mine."

"You're unfair, you're hateful!"

"There was a sob of rage in her voice. He was so deliberately insulting, so determined to hurt, so bitter in his obvious contempt for her as an unscrupulous adventuress. "What do you mean by taking my job?"

"If you don't go on pretending to be my wife, you will take my job from me. Gosh, how hard it is to get anything into your head! Must I say it all over again? I'm supposed to be dead. I come back I lie to Albery from the beginning."

"I let him think I have a wife. He gives me her address. I say I am going to see her at once. He congratulates me. He praises her work, her pluck. He tells me that I am to go back to my job, that he will be behind me, as he was before. But, he says, we can talk about that later on. He is full of sympathy. I leave him to go to my wife. The scene is all set."

"What would he think if I went back and told him I never had a wife, but simply wanted to see the girl who had played such a trick on us both? He'd never forgive me. He'd think I was either mad, or I wanted to make him look a fool. I know him. It would finish me with him."

Laurie had listened in stony silence.

"You say the scene is set, Mr. Moore," she said coldly. "It is set for you."

"For you, too," he retorted. "It would finish you with Albery as well."

"I could get other work, I dare say."

"As you said just now, everybody would know that you were the cheat and a fraud."

"Look here, I didn't mean that. I don't know that I couldn't prosecute you and have you sent to prison."

"I'd risk that, too!"

"His voice changed. It was just as gruff, but less dictatorial.

"Look here, I didn't mean that, of course. If you're such a good worker as Albery says, you must be business-like. Don't you think you owe me something? Haven't you benefited quite a bit by passing as my widow?"

"I have," she admitted and again the warm color flooded her pale cheeks with shame.

FRANCE SEEKS PROTECTORATE FOR ETHIOPIA

FRENCH WILL CONFER WITH ANTHONY EDEN

PARIS, July 30. (AP)—Official sources said today that France is trying to save Ethiopia from the terrors of war by arranging for that nation the mildest form of protectorate acceptable to Premier Mussolini of Italy.

These same authorities said Premier Pierre Laval told the French cabinet that what seemed inevitable unless U. Duce gets what he wants, Laval received from the cabinet the power to negotiate a settlement at the League of Nations council meeting which opens at Geneva tomorrow.

On today's program of French action in the Italo-Ethiopian crisis was a conference between the French premier and Anthony Eden, British minister for League of Nations affairs. The two diplomats were to leave together for Geneva tonight.

The premier gave his ministers little hope that the league would be able to effect conciliation of the two nations but he said he thought it possible that Emperor Haile Selassie would agree to Italian control if he retains his throne and is spared too great a political humiliation.

The French government ordered reinforcements for its garrisons in French Somaliland today to insure neutrality in the event of a conflict between Italy and Ethiopia.

Authoritative sources said fear that native sympathizers for Ethiopia at Djibouti, French Somaliland, might get out of hand, prompted the order.

The Hawaiian alphabet has only 12 letters.

Typhoon Batters Formosa Island

TOKYO, July 30. (AP)—A typhoon battered the island of Formosa today, inflicting severe property damage as it roared on toward China.

Communications were disrupted, preventing an accurate estimate of the extent of the damage, but no loss of life was reported immediately.

Although there was comparatively little rainfall, the wind proved particularly destructive. The central section of the island was reported suffering extensively. The typhoon passed from Formosa at 5 a. m.

An unestimated number of houses was destroyed in closely populated areas, and banana and sugar plantations were damaged seriously. Train operations were halted. Communication lines fell in many places.

The typhoon—the third this season and one of the worst ever to strike the island, about 800 miles south of Japan off the coast of Taihoku into darkness today after the rising winds damaged the power house.

The city of Shichiku, which experienced two disastrous earthquakes earlier this year, also was hard hit.

Farm-To-Market Road Favored By Wilbur C. Hawk

AMARILLO, July 30. (AP)—"Farm-to-market" road building projects are favored above all others by officials of the works progress administration, Wilbur C. Hawk of Amarillo, a member of the state planning board, says.

Upon his return from a meeting of the board with H. O. Drought of San Antonio, state WPA director, and with Gov. James V. Alfred, Hawk reported enthusiasm for lateral road construction.

Development which would require many years for completion under normal conditions can be accomplished in a few months under the WPA program, he said.

Hawk emphasized that political subdivisions eligible to sponsor WPA projects should take the initiative in planning work, as the local officials would know which projects are the most important. He urged all counties in the district to set up planning boards to assist the district director.

"County judges and commissioners should take the responsibility of organizing local boards," he said. "Mayors, representatives of independent school districts and chamber of commerce officials should be made members of the boards. By having wide representation counties will be able to coordinate plans by which each county will receive the maximum benefits under the WPA program."

Hawk said that the district director would recommend projects if the eligible political subdivisions failed to propose jobs.

MEXICAN TEAM LOSSES FIRST GAME IN 19 TO LOCAL CLUB; ANOTHER TILT DUE TONIGHT

BRAGANA WILL HURL AGAINST BERRY TONIGHT

ROAD RUNNERS LEAVE FOR DENVER ON WEDNESDAY

The fastest semi pro and independent baseball in the country is played in Texas, according to the La Junta Mexican Charros baseball team, here for a two-game series with the Pampa Road Runners. The second game will be played tonight at 8:45 o'clock at Road Runner park.

The Mexican club has lost only 18 ball games on its road trip of 29,000 miles this season. Of that number, 13 of the losses were to Texas and Oklahoma teams, with the greatest number in Texas. The Road Runners took three of the games away from the club.

Bragana, Cuban speed-ball pitcher, is scheduled to take the mound for the Mexicans tonight, opposed by Tiger Joe Berry. The two pitchers tangled in a 13-inning pitching duel in the spring with Bragana being the victor. Berry got sweet revenge by taking the next game from the Cuban.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30. (AP)—

Lloyd Nordstrom, a strapping Nordic from Davenport, Iowa, and an elusive par that hid in the "coffin" were the targets of the field today as the battle for the National Public Links golf championship medal entered the final 18-hole stretch.

While most of his rivals skidded and fell in the traps, trees and creeks of the Charles E. Coffin course, a layout that more than upheld its reputation and name, Nordstrom took a three stroke lead in the medal fight yesterday with a 71, one over par.

Tied at 74 behind the big blonde from the tall corn state, a salesman on a vacation, were seven players from scattered sections of the nation. They were: Tub Boyer and Louis Cyr, Portland, Ore.; Claude Rippey, Washington, D. C.; Clark Delbert Walker, Long Beach, Calif.; Fred Gordon, Santa Monica, Calif.; Mike Ball, Minneapolis, Minn.; and Pete Doll of Louisville, who led his team into first place in the 36-hole medal play struggle for the team championship.

EATON IS CHAMP

DENVER, July 30. (AP)—Twice the Denver Invitational golf championship almost escaped Zell Eaton, Oklahoma star, but today he held the trophy emblematic of victory. A seven-foot putt, the final shot in his playoff round with Johnny Goodman of Omaha brought victory.

TIGERS LOSE TO CLEVELAND IN 6-5 GAME

CARDINALS DROP THEIR THIRD OF SERIES TO PIRATES

BY EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer.

All good things must come to an end, and by the same token it is a long major league losing streak that has no turning points.

Mickey Cochrane's Tigers, headed pell-mell toward their second straight American league pennant, were rallying today for a fresh start, their mad rush stopped for the moment by the team that has been easiest for them, the Cleveland Indians.

For five innings yesterday, Gen. Alvin Crowder maintained the control the Tigers have had over Cleveland most of the season. Cleveland had led twice in the present series. The Tigers were nicking steadily at Willis Hudlin and led 3 to 0.

The end came right there as Crowder started hitting the Cleveland bats with singles, doubles, and flares. Joe Sauer's triple that drove in the sixth run of the sixth inning, and likewise ended it as Joe was out trying to stretch the belt into a home run.

That was all the Indians got, but it was enough to beat the Tigers, 6 to 5.

The Tigers put up a great fight in the ninth, filling the bases with one out, but Thornton (Lefty) Lee relieved Hudlin, fanned Goslin with three pitches, and forced Bill Rogell to pop up.

The defeat cut the Tigers' lead over the idle Yankees to 2½ games. The White Sox romped home over the St. Louis Browns, 7 to 2, behind Les Tietje's three-hit pitching, making it three out of four for the series.

The only game in the National league added more discomfort to the world champion Cardinals, who dropped their third match in a four-game series to the Pirates, 3 to 2.

Red Lucas far outpitched Ed Bill Hallahan, but a home run by Pepper Martin in the fourth, a two-base error on a fly ball by Paul Wapner in the sixth, followed by Lloyd Wapner drove Padden home with the winning run in the eighth.

The Pirates put up a great fight in the ninth, filling the bases with one out, but Thornton (Lefty) Lee relieved Hudlin, fanned Goslin with three pitches, and forced Bill Rogell to pop up.

PAMPANS ATTEND CONVENTION OF LIONS IN MEXICO CITY

Olin E. Hinkle, president of the local Lions club, returned last night from Mexico City, D. F., where he attended the international convention last week.

Mrs. Hinkle, who returned with him, spent the week in Abilene. She visited her mother, Mrs. M. L. Sellers, and was entertained informally by college friends.

Others of the Mexico City party, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thut, Mrs. Siler Paulker, Mrs. Virginia Paulker, and Mrs. Geneva Largent, remained in Mexico for a few more days.

The nineteenth annual convention of the International Association of Lions clubs adjourned Thursday and the 5,000 delegates and guests who during the convention have been royally entertained "à la Mexicana" by the Lions of Mexico City, spread out from the capital city to take in all the sights of Old Mexico before returning to their homes in the United States and Canada.

During the four days of the convention the fact that the largest North American service club was holding its convention in Mexico was acclaimed as a great step toward the closer understanding between the races of North America.

Messages from President Roosevelt and Premier Bennett of Mexico were presented to the president of the Republic of Mexico, Senor Lazaro Cardenas, whose representatives welcomed the Lions at a grand reception attended by all members of the diplomatic representatives of several countries.

The Lions elected their first vice-president, Richard J. Osebaugh of Denver, to the presidency of their association. Lion "Dick" Osebaugh, an official of the Denver Sewer Pipe and Clay company, has been a widely known and respected figure in the association for many years. Mr. Osebaugh has been president of the Denver Lions club, district governor of Colorado Lions clubs, vice-president of the international board of directors in 1930, served two years, and was elected to the third vice-presidency in 1932. He rose successively through the three vice-presidencies and was unanimously voted into the highest office of the association at the Mexico City meeting by the accredited delegates representing 80,000 Lions.

The presiding officer of the convention was Vincent C. Hascall of Omaha, Nebraska, 1934-35 president of the association. In turning over the gavel to the incoming president, Mr. Hascall assured him of his personal support for the year. The association under President Hascall registered a considerable gain in membership and increased its number of clubs to the total of 2,710.

The clubs in the association during the year registered a total of 20,789 separate activities such as the building of playgrounds, the supplying of typewriters, radios, Braille courses to the blind, the installation of safety devices, and community efforts in many other fields. This is the first time that the gross figure has risen above the 20,000 mark.

Peewees To Play Texas Elf Team This Afternoon

The Peewees were braced for stiff opposition this afternoon when they clash with the Tex Elf Juniors, a team which has the hope on them, at Magnolia park at 4 o'clock. The Juniors have beaten teams the Peewees have beaten in the past, but the latter have. The Peewees will play every afternoon this week at Magnolia diamond at the end of East Foster at 4 o'clock.

Coaches Attend Dallas School

DALLAS, July 30. (AP)—Texas high school football coaches are taking their turns at "skull practice" and field drills.

The annual coaching school for the schoolboy mentors opened yesterday at Southern Methodist university with a record attendance of 165 coaches claimed.

Red Cox of Tulane university and Tad Wieman, line coach at Princeton, lectured to the coaches and each drilled a squad of hand-picked senior high school players of last season.

Students Claim Garrido Still Rules Tabasco

MEXICO CITY, July 30. (AP)—Student leaders today charged that the big congressional majority behind the new tax bill, democratic leaders said today that house passage of the measure by Saturday night is a distinct possibility.

Actually, the bill had not even emerged from the house ways and means committee in turning over the 18 democrats on that committee had formed themselves into a bloc which brusquely defeated amendatory efforts of the 7 republicans.

Leaders assumed that within a few hours the committee will give the bill approval. The bill, which democrats say will raise annual revenues of $275,000,000, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) purposes to ask unanimous consent for the house to take it up tomorrow for six or eight hours debate.

RICHARD J. OSEBAUGH New Lion President

Additional pennant heat was turned loose on Texas league teams Monday night when the Tulsa Oilers slipped into third place and the Galveston Corsairs skidded into fourth position—the last stop-off under the four-way Shaughnessy pennant system under which the Texas circuit operates.

The Oilers flared with four runs in the ninth inning to trim the San Antonio Missions, 4 to 3. Wilste, one of San Antonio's ace hurlers, was breezing along with a 3 to 0 lead and enjoying the fun until the ninth when a sudden bombardment from the bats of Sheerkin, Funk, Brazill, Berger and Shoap drove him to the mound and brought Caldwell to the rescue who received credit for losing the game by allowing the winning run after the Oilers had nicked Wilste for three runs and five hits in eight and one third innings.

A referee to handle the bout has not been selected. Promoter Garrison says he is going to get a man who can handle the situation.

Rough Tactics Are Expected in Mat Match

TULSANS BACK IN 3RD PLACE AS BUGS LOSE

BEAUMONT BEATS TRIBE AND STRENGTHENS LEAD

Gore is expected to flow freely Wednesday night at Road Runner park when Sailor Moran tangles with Bob Cummings in the main event of Promoter G. B. Garrison's wrestling card. Pampa fans have been seeing scientific grappling for the past two weeks but they will get a change this week.

A classy semi-final is in prospect when Red Michael, former Pampans, tangles with Pat Garrison, Pampa's Irish oil field champion. Michael has developed into one of the classiest middleweights in the game. Garrison is in shape for the first time in months.

Opening the card at 8:30 o'clock will be Andy Dowler, Pampa Swede, and Ken Daly, Borger's wrestling attorney. Advance sale of tickets at Pampa Drug No. 1 assures a packed house for the battle.

The main event will be a continuation of the battle started in Amarillo last Thursday night and interrupted by the police when Moran started or rather, continued too much dirty work. Cummings, who prefers the going clean, reports that he will be loaded for bear when he tackles Moran here.

Cummings has been working out with Dutch Mantell who has been showing him some tricks to work on the wild sailor who just can't take it. As long as Moran is dealing out punishment, everything is all right, but when it comes to the other fellow's turn, the gob takes to the ropes.

A referee to handle the bout has not been selected. Promoter Garrison says he is going to get a man who can handle the situation.

Hitler Shows Contempt For U. S. 'Menaces'

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)

BERLIN, July 30.—Nazism, paying heed to foreign opinion, slackened its campaign against "state enemies today, and turned its attention instead to communism—especially in the United States.

A high source said Nazi leaders, in council with Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, decided to curb ultra-radical activities against Jews, "political Catholicism" and other "menaces" because of the reaction abroad to the drive.

The press apparently prompted by the propaganda ministry, advised immediately and unanimously that other nations should clean their own houses before paying so much attention to the Reich.

Hitler's own newspaper, the Voelkischer Beobachter, carried dispatches and photographs in connection with the tearing of the German flag from the liner, Bremen, at New York Friday and the seventh communist internationale at Moscow.

Two photographs of strikers clashing at Sioux Falls, S. D., were displayed on the front page, and another of a negro lynching at Port Lauderdale, Fla., on an inside page.

The caption over the strike picture proclaimed:

"Workers at peace in Germany—turbulence abroad."

Beneath the photograph, the newspaper said:

"Here must union strikers fight strikebreakers and members of their own nation with sticks and stones because in the freest states in the world it is not possible to organize a general labor front such as Hitler's peaceful Germany has."

Other newspapers advised the United States to take care of its communists as it will, but warned: "America has a duty to prevent them from disturbing friendly relations between the United States and Germany."

While the communists of other countries held the center of the stage, a high source said a national police campaign against individual acts of terrorism was planned behind the scenes, with any further pressure against Jews, bolshevism and other "reactionaries" to be in the state's hands.

Isolated incidents, however, continued to crop up. Three more Catholic youth organizations at Baden were dissolved and new cases of discrimination against Jewish lawyers also were reported.

Evidence that the Nazi leaders were putting a brake on the campaign, however, was seen in the removal of "don't buy from Jews" strikers from Jewish shops. Jews also were ordered to be considered for military enlistment if they had only two Jewish grandparents.

An authoritative source said the council at which moderation of the campaign was ordered was held at the Obersalzberg mountain retreat of Hitler, with Reichsfuehrer, General Werner von Blomberg, and General Hermann Wilhelm Goering present.

This source said the Nazi leaders considered the possibility of calling a national plebiscite to demonstrate the nation's confidence in its Nazi regime.

GOVERNOR TO OFFICIATE AT PORT OPENING

Allred Hooks Largest Red Snapper; Thousands at Port Isabel Ceremonies.

PORT ISABEL, July 30.—Historic Port Isabel, a thriving gulf shipping point until the turn of the century, today celebrated its restoration as an active port of call. Governor James V. Allred was here to officially dedicate the new, government-financed facilities.

Thousands of persons gathered for the ceremonies, which continued through the day. The climax was the governor's dedicatory address this afternoon.

The S. S. Fairport of the Waterman line was being loaded with a cargo of corn, which will be the first water-borne merchandise to leave this section in more than 30 years.

The new port represents a continual struggle by interested citizens of the lower Rio Grande valley over a period of 20 years. It was built with federal aid, the government financing the $2,600,000 jetties at the outer pass which protect the channel leading into both Port Isabel and the future Brownsville port.

month as head of the system's treasury department, but added he had nothing to do with its financing.

Chairman Black asked if Martin could name a single officer in a single company of the system.

The witness said he could not.

"There isn't anybody we can get any information from about this system," Black said, pointing to a chart in back of him showing the scores of companies in the system, "except Mr. Hopsan, and Mr. Mange is there?"

He was referring to H. C. Hopsan, dominant figure in the system, whom the committee had been unable to locate and J. I. Mange, another high officer, who is in a Baltimore hospital.

Giving up on Martin, the committee called O. E. Wasser, comptroller of the system. He was able to give more information, but did not tell the committee much of vital nature.

Schuylenbach questioned Wasser about the utility management corporation. The senator said Hopsan and Mange had received $1,412,000 from that company in a year and a half, but Wasser said he did not know about it.

The senator also placed in the record a voucher showing the company paid $31,602 for legal services against the utility bill.

Committee Laughs.—Committee members displayed amusement at an account of stockholders meeting for election of officers of the Associated Gas and Electric company of New York, one of the major holding companies in the system.

Wasser said only two or three stockholders out of about 240,000 were present and he nominated the directors.

"We had 71 per cent of the proxies of all the stockholders," he explained.

All holders of class B stock, the voting securities, were represented by a proxy signed by a voting trust of three persons, he said.

"So the whole control of this vast system is in the control of those three men?" Black asked.

"Yes."

"And those three vote as they are told to vote by Mr. Hopsan and Mr. Mange?"

Wasser did not reply directly to that question.

which the republicans were excluded.

As the bill was reported, Rep. Scrugham (D. Nev.) made public an amendment which he will propose from the floor to deduct from corporation income money derived from the mining of gold.

Later, the house bill's surtax provision reaching into income brackets lower than recommended by President Roosevelt were questioned by democratic senators as the senate finance committee opened hearings on the measure.

L. H. Parker, chief of staff of the joint congressional committee on internal revenue taxation, told the committee the bill increased surtaxes beginning at $50,000 while President Roosevelt used the excess of $1,000,000 as "an example" for consideration of raises.

"Have you followed the president's recommendation?" asked Senator King (D. Utah).

Parker, who helped draft the measure, said he followed the recommendations of the house ways and means committee.

"So you construed the president's message to start the increases at $50,000?" asked Chairman Harrison (D. Miss.).

"Of course no substantial revenue can be obtained by graduating surtaxes from $1,000,000 up. That would only raise about $5,000,000 or $6,000,000."

HERE ON VACATION

Henry Wilder is here from Raleigh, N. C., where he has been attending a school of textile engineering, to spend a vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Wilder.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 30.—The stock market wavered under a profit taking blow to the chin today but failed to go down for the full count. While heavy selling unsettled the list in the early proceedings, a later buying flurry in the aircrafts, oils, rubber and specialties brought some recovery to the sagging leaders. In the final hour the lower draft was resumed and the close was somewhat heavy.

Transfers approximated 1,650,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 30.—Profit taking and hedging pressure forced wheat prices lower today.

Buying interest was relatively small, with bulls discouraged by weakness in wheat values at Liverpool and Winnipeg. Crop pessimism in spring wheat territory continued, many traders expressing fear recovery from rust damage was beyond probability.

Wheat closed 1/2 to 1 1/2 cents below yesterday's finish, Sept. 19 1/2 and corn was 1/4 to 1 cent off, Sept. 76 1/2. Oats closed 1/4 lower to 3 cents higher, with July at 39 1/2, the maximum gain permitted for one day, rye lost 1/4-1/2, barley was unchanged to a cent up and provisions eased.
