ACCOUNTS PUBLISHED;
PUNISHMENT NOT YET DECIDED

ANGLETON, July 24. (AP)—Judge M. S. Munson, early this afternoon had given no inkling as to what action, if any, he intends to take against reporters covering the trial here of Clyde Thompson, retrieve prison farm convict, for the fatal stabbing last May 29 of Everett Melvin, a fellow prisoner.

Yesterday the judge announced that reporters could stay in the courtroom and take notes but that if the testimony was printed he would hold them in contempt of court, contending that printing of the testimony would make difficult selection of a jury in two companion cases.

When court convened today Judge Munson instructed 100 veniremen called in the Raymond Hall case, set for Monday, that they must not read in the newspapers about the Thompson trial. He added that if they did read about it and discuss the case they would be subject to punishment.

Photographers who arrived to take pictures of the reporters behind the bars so far had been denied that opportunity. Reporters asked the judge if they could get a picture of him on the bench.

"I will not give my permission for pictures to be taken," Judge Munson replied.

"Have you come to a decision yet?" the judge was asked shortly after 9 a. m. today when resumption of the trial was slightly delayed.

"You'll know it when I do," the judge replied.

A few minutes earlier when questioned by reporters, he was still busy reading newspaper accounts of the trial.

"This is a good time to have a test of this newspaper business," Judge Munson said. "We might as well take the case to the court of criminal appeals and see what power I have."

Testimony last Tuesday brought out a sudden outburst from Thompson. Monroe Wise was the witness. He said he knew "it was coming off" and had "heard them planning to kill both me and Melvin."

The reference was to the slaying of a fellow convict for which Thompson and two others were charged. Thompson interrupted proceedings by rising and shouting: "That's a blackfaced lie. You know you are a liar."

State attorneys called more convicts to testify today in the trial of Thompson, convicted slayer of three men, who is fighting to escape the electric chair for the fatal stabbing of Everett Melvin, Retrieve farm prisoner.

Meanwhile, the defense began presenting its claim that Thompson is insane. Convicts told of queer talks by Thompson and an aunt on his mother's side testified there was insanity in his mother's family.

The aunt, Mrs. Effie Webb, Guyton, Okla., said Thompson's mother had "nervous and jerky attacks."

"She was highly emotional but at times she was very brilliant," Mrs. Webb said.

J. Russell Brown, Retrieve farm convict, testified that at times Thompson "talked peculiar." The witness said Thompson "is easy to be talked into anything." He added that he thought Thompson was of unsound mind.

Marble Machine Removal Ordered By Prosecutors

Orders have been issued to Sheriff Earl Talley and his officers by District Attorney Lewis C. Gooden and County Attorney Sherman White to seize all marble machines being operated in Gray county and to arrest those in possession. The action followed a ruling by the attorney general declaring that possession of marble machines or exhibiting one in a public place was in violation of the law.

There are dozens of marble machines located in various places of business in Pampa. Sheriff Talley will immediately start visiting locations where machines are known to be kept in compliance with the request of the district and county attorney.

Marble machines were removed from Pampa stores once before, but they returned within a few days.

I Saw . . .

Dick Kennedy, 13 years old, a representative of the younger generation, who has lived here since last Christmas, admitting to a friend that Pampa "has it over" any other town he has ever lived in.

A jar with a million more or less young Black Widow spiders in it. On the floor of the jar was the remains of the devoured father Black Widow. The mother was weaving a web around another egg at the top of the jar which is on display at Don MacCartell's place on West Foster. The spiders were put in the jar by Harold Edwards. He collected them at Clarendon.

Texas Utility Unit Spent $33,777 To Fight Measure

Editor Is Paid For Radio Speeches Against Act

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—Expenditure of $33,777 by the Texas Power and Light company, to oppose the administration utility holding company bill was described in the senate lobby committee today by John W. Carpenter, president of the company, a subsidiary of the Electric Bond and Share company.

The money was spent for trips to Washington, telegrams to congressmen, and $192 to a magazine editor in Texas for speaking on the radio against the bill, it was testified.

All the money, Carpenter said, was paid out of the company's operating expenses, and thus was charged against the consumers of electricity.

The gray-haired Texas power head denied he had given anything to congressmen.

The $192, he said, went to Peter Molyneux, editor of the magazine "Texas Weekly," for radio speeches against the bill.

He denied the company had made any "contributions" to the Texas Weekly, but said the company subscribed for and advertised in the magazine.

The $192 and expenses of the Washington trips were charged against the operating expenses of the T. P. and L. company, Carpenter said.

Black said that in this way the expense was eventually charged against consumers of electricity.

Just as the hearing opened, Chairman Black disclosed that committee investigators had located a week in obtaining the records of the Edison Electric Institute.

Carpenter testified his company had spent $3,266 for telegrams to congressmen against the Wheeler-Rayburn bill.

Asks For Totals

"I suggested to the employes to talk to customers, friends and security holders and tell them the bad effect of the bill on the company and the state of Texas," he said.

He denied he had instructed the employes to pay for the telegrams.

The cost of the telegrams also was marked up against operating expenses, the witness said.

Black asked Carpenter to furnish the committee the total paid by the company and the total paid to Molyneux over five years.

Questioned in detail about his Washington expenses, Carpenter said he spent $12,232 preparing and presenting his statement to the house interstate commerce committee.

His salary, he said, was in addition. He testified he received $20,000 a year.

In addition to $1,467 on the first trip here, Carpenter said a second trip cost $1,935 for him and his aides. Carpenter explained his company had been a unit in the Electric Bond and Share system for about 20 years.

Controlled By Morgan

Asked by Black if that was controlled by J. P. Morgan Co., Carpenter said he did not know.

Carpenter, a gray-haired man, said he also is vice-president of the Electric Service company, president of the New Mexico Electric Service company; president of the Texas Public Utilities corporation; chairman of the Gulf States Security Life Insurance company; president of the Dallas Railway and Terminal company; and director of the St. Louis and S. W. Railway company and the Mercantile National bank of Dallas.

Stock Written Up

He agreed under Black's questioning that the federal trade commission had found an investment of $2,390,000 in the Texas Light and Power company had been "written up" by Electric Bond and Share to $10,550,000.

"Have regular dividends been paid on that $10,550,000?" Black asked.

United States Beats Germany In Net Series

WILMINGTON, Eng., July 24. (AP)—For the sixth time since losing the trophy emblematic of world's tennis supremacy in 1927, the United States qualified today to challenge Great Britain for the Davis cup by defeating Germany four matches to one in the inter-zone final.

Wilmer Allison, the veteran from Austin, Tex., clinched the series for Uncle Sam by winning in straight sets over Heiner Henkel, 6-1, 7-5, 11-9, giving America three victories to one in the five-match series and then, in the anti-climactic match, red-headed Don Budge of Oakland, Calif., scored his second victory of the international competition by over-powering the talented Baron Gottfried Von Cramm in four sets, 6-8, 9-7, 8-6, 6-3.

Budge's victory alone for the defeat he suffered at the hands of the bounding baron in the semifinal round of the all-England championships earlier this month and virtually assured the Pacific coast youngster a berth on the team starting against England in the challenge round Saturday.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 24. (AP)—A straight set victory by Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, over Heiner Henkel of Germany enabled the United States to eliminate Germany today from the Davis cup tennis competition and qualify America to meet Great Britain in the challenge round starting Saturday.

The veteran Texan, who lost nine pounds in participating in a grueling, uphill doubles victory over the young German by the score of 6-1, 7-5, 11-9, and clinched the inter-zone final series by a score of 3-1.

Germany's downfall was started last Saturday by young Don Budge of Oakland, Calif., with a four-set victory over Henkel. Allison lost to Baron Gottfried von Cramm in three sets on Monday and then the Texan joined forces with Johnny Van Ryn of Philadelphia yesterday to take the measure of von Cramm and the towering Kay Lund in doubles.

One more match remained to complete the series. Budge was scheduled to meet von Cramm in the singles finale this afternoon but the outcome will have no bearing on See ALLISON, Page 8.

Rotarians Enjoy Sadler's Actors

Members of the Harley Sadler show entertained Rotarians and visitors at the regular luncheon today. The nationally famous juggling team of Munde and June gave juggling feats bordering on the impossible. The Jeffries violin trio gave highly entertaining numbers which pleased to the extent of several encores. The trio is composed of Wayne T. Jeffries and his daughters, Alice and Anabelle. The program was introduced by Harley Sadler.

Visitors were C. F. Duffey, Tom Wade, Arthur Teed, and Rotarian Harley Sadler.

KILLED BY TRUCK

CLEBURNE, July 24. (AP)—Benjamin Doyle Cheek, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cheek of Godley, was killed instantly last night when his head struck a truck as an automobile in which he was riding passed the vehicle on a bridge northwest of Cleburne. Young Cheek was riding in the "jump seat" and leaned out too far.

The experiments were described in the Cornell Bulletin by Dr. L. L. Madson and Professors C. M. McCay and L. A. Maynard of the animal nutrition laboratory.

Attention was directed to the animals because cod liver oil is fed to various farm flocks and herds.

KID BAND ANNOUNCEMENT

Members of the Kid band who are to play for the All-Star game at Road Runner park tonight were asked by their director, Walter Hurst, to get their instruments at 6 o'clock in the Red Building on the high school campus. Because school buses will not be available to transport the children from the campus to Road Runner park, the children are asked to be at the park at 7:30 o'clock.

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—The federal bureau of prisons today ordered removal of federal prisoners from the Lubbock county jail, at Lubbock, Tex., asserting the action was taken "upon receipt of information that a federal prisoner, under sentence, had been permitted to leave the jail."

A ban on the Crown Point, Ind., jail which resulted from the escape of the late John Dillinger, was probably the most famous similar case in recent years.

The bureau said one of the federal prisoners in the Lubbock jail had been seen on the city streets, according to their information. In general, it said, the Lubbock jail system "is lax and not satisfactory."

No federal prisoners will be confined in the Lubbock jail again until the bureau has received assurance the system is reformed, the bureau said. Two months ago there were 25 federal charges housed there.

U. S. PUTS BAN ON LUBBOCK'S JAIL

SEVERAL NEW HOUSES BEING ERECTED HERE

RESIDENTIAL BUILDING IS ACTIVE IN NORTH PART OF CITY

Three large residences, adding $14,200 to the year's building permits, are now under construction in the city, and one $3,500 house is being built north and outside of the city limits.

Much repair work is in progress and several houses are being moved here from neighboring towns and cities. Building permits in Pampa are expected to reach a new high for several years.

A two-story brick and stucco house is nearing completion on Christine street. It is being constructed by L. R. Hartell who has taken out a building permit for $4,500.

The cellar is being dug for the new Mike Roach home on Mary Ellen street which will be erected at a cost of $6,200. Wilson "Jack" Hatcher is the contractor in charge of construction. The house will be of brick.

The J. P. Wehrung home on North Somerville street is also nearing completion. It will be of stucco. Frank Johnson is the contractor. A permit for $3,500 has been issued.

The R. B. Fisher home on North Somerville street, for which a permit was issued some time ago, is nearing completion.

A frame dwelling, with basement, will be erected by Mrs. Francis Alexander north of the city. The cost is estimated at $3,500. The cellar is being dug on the location, west of Harvester field.

The W. E. Davis home north of the city will be completed in a few days.

Dollar Brothers Held In Amarillo Jail On Charges

Two brothers, Kirk Dollar and Vernon Dollar, of Pampa, being held in the Potter county jail in lieu of $1,000 bond on a charge of theft from the person and assault with intent to murder, are also wanted here on a charge of theft of an automobile. The two men, sons of a Pampa family and former Pampa residents themselves, were arrested in Amarillo following a hi-jacking and shooting Saturday night.

The alleged hi-jacking is believed to have taken place little more than an hour after a Buick automobile, owned by H. A. Talley of Miami, had been stolen from the north side of the courthouse while Mr. Talley was visiting his brother, Sheriff Earl Talley. The car was found Sunday morning in Amarillo, and the Dollar brothers were connected with the robbery through a woman companion. The two men had been seen around the courthouse a short time before the car was stolen, Sheriff Talley reported.

Complaint of theft and assault against the two men was signed by Henny Winder, Amarillo man who received a bullet wound ranging upward across his forehead and scalp in an alleged hi-jacking.

The Dollar brothers were charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with a shooting in a Dallas camp two months ago.

PATIENTS ELOPE

ELECTRA, July 24. (AP)—A pair of patients eloped from wards in a hospital here last night, went to the nearest county seat, were married, and returned to their respective hospital beds. The couple, J. W. Stubbsfield, an oil well driller and the former Miss Martha McMinn of Seymour, announced their marriage over their breakfast trays at the Parmley-Ogden hospital.

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—Senator King (D., Utah) told the senate today he would ask an investigation to determine if the United States would be warranted in "severing diplomatic relations" with Germany.

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—Exemption from tax payments of contributions made by corporations to charitable institutions was opposed today by President Roosevelt.

REPRESENTATIVE RESIGNS

AUSTIN, July 24. (AP)—The resignation of H. O. Jones of Winters, Rannels county, from the Texas house of representatives was received today by Governor Allred. The vacancy will be filled at a special election called for August 24. The district includes Coke, Rannels and Concho counties.

BITTER FEUD CAUSED CLASH IN TAMAUPLIPAS

Rivalry Between Villarreal And Gil Shown; Governor To Resign, Most Believe.

BROWNSVILLE, July 24. (AP)—The Brownsville Herald says the background of the present bloodless revolution in the Mexican border state of Tamaulipas had its inception in a bitter political feud between Emilio Portes Gil, former president of Mexico and governor of the state, and the present governor, Rafael Villarreal.

The present trouble, which has as its objective the overthrow of the government of Villarreal, started with the feud and friction between state and federal governments, the paper says.

When Villarreal was inaugurated two years ago, the Herald says there was a tense situation at Cuidad Victoria, the capital city.

The federal government sent soldiers from Tampico and other points, and out of the hills surrounding the city came thousands of supporters of Villarreal to show their strength for the governor.

Fery speeches, some denouncing the federal government, were made. Villarreal came back to the border before the election to campaign against Villarreal and was greeted with abuse along the border section, the Herald says.

Speakers at Villarreal's inauguration charged the federal government with wanting a hand in state affairs and the state was determined not to permit it, the paper says.

When President Cardenas came to the border in his campaign, a fairly tense situation prevailed. The agrarians in a sense the reserve troops for the federal government, gathered to cheer him and marched up to the city in a demonstration for him.

The Herald says when "the break between Cardenas and Plutarco Elias Calles came, Portes Gil came back to power and once more started to iron out the situation in Tamaulipas and gain control of the state."

The agrarians backed Cardenas, said the Herald. During the hard times the last few months in the rural sections of the state, peasants suffered and discontent among the farmers has been general, said the paper.

The agrarians quickly answered the call for action and flocked to the standards of the agrarians, demanding a change in the state government.

In Mexico, a city government governs the outlying rural districts, similar to counties of Texas. The Matamoros municipality governs an area 40 miles in diameter.

GOVERNOR AND MAYOR ASKED TO STEP OUT

SITUATION IS FILLED WITH DYNAMITE, IS BELIEF

BROWNSVILLE, July 24. (AP)—Leaders of peasant groups besieging Matamoros, Mexican city across the Rio Grande from here, said this afternoon armed agrarians will march on the Matamoros city hall and take forcible possession of the city administration does not vacate by 4 p. m.

Roberto Garcia, former mayor of Matamoros chosen as their representative by the peasants, said he had sent a "final ultimatum" to Mayor Rafael Mungui C. to vacate by 4 or the peasants would march on the city.

He said people living in the vicinity of the city hall have been advised to get of their houses, in anticipation of firing in the vicinity if the peasant groups march in.

When informed of the ultimatum, Mayor Mungui declared: "I believe that General Cervera and the federal troops will not permit the peasants to march into the city."

"They have kept order so far, and I believe they will continue to do so."

BROWNSVILLE, July 24. (AP)—Rebel agrarians spent a peaceful night camped about the fringe of Matamoros, Mexican city across the border, but today they yielded in demands to have Mayor Rafael Mungui C. and his subordinates ousted as part of a general uprising in the state of Tamaulipas against Gov. Rafael Villarreal.

General Gabriel Cervera, commander of a small detachment of federal soldiers at Matamoros, said early today that "the situation is peaceful and there were no disturbances during the night."

Leading citizens of Matamoros worked to form a compromise slate of city officials to pacify both sides.

The mayor was still in the saddle, denying he would leave his office until a majority of the citizens of the city asked him to step out, but reports of the effort to reach agreement on new officers persisted.

The "seige" of Matamoros—peaceful so far—was part of an agrarian campaign throughout the state of Tamaulipas against Governor Rafael Villarreal and his supporters.

It was carried out by a force variously estimated between 600 and more than 2,000 and as variously armed, which camped outside the town awaiting an answer from Gen. Gabriel Cervera, commander of federal soldiers in the vicinity, as to where federal support would be thrown.

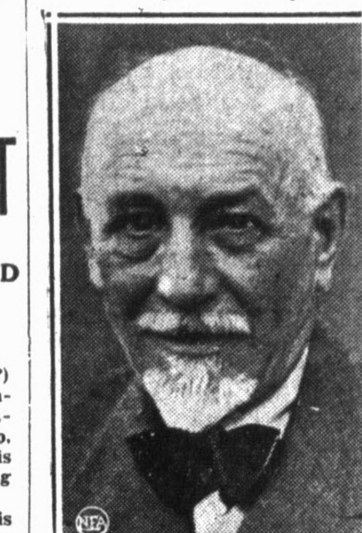

Traffic Stopped

The campfires of the besiegers ringed the city, with tips of the arc on the Rio Grande, and no traffic was allowed between Matamoros and the interior of Mexico, although there was no interference with passage across the international bridge between the town and the American side. Almost hourly arrival of new truckloads of men, adding weight to the peasant force, hurried the search for a basis of peaceful settlement.

Observers said the situation was filled with dynamite, but the prediction was freely made that the agrarians would take orders from Mexico City and go home if the

Alibis Italy

Likening Italy's designs on Abyssinia to the white man's conquest of the North American Indians, Luigi Pirandello, No. 1 playwright of Italy and Nobel Prize winner, defended his country's actions on his arrival at New York on a business and pleasure tour. His shy, aristocratic mien is reflected in this excellent shipboard portrait.

WASHINGTON, July 24. (AP)—President Roosevelt today expressed opposition to the Clark amendment to the social security bill exempting private security systems from the proposed national plan.

With the house about to vote on the amendment of Senator Clark (D., Mo.), the president said he believed that all corporations should be put in the same class.

He feared the human temptation under the Clark proposal would be for private companies to load their old people on government funds and simply retain the young.

In this connection, the president said at his regular press conference that he has not yet found a real labor pension bill that would get supreme court approval.

By a five to four decision, the court declared unconstitutional the railroad retirement act of last session. Mr. Roosevelt said he would like to get a bill but so far all proposals for a substitute measure run counter to the court ruling.

Questioned about Senator Borah's "must" legislative program and his November 1 adjournment suggestion, the president laughed heartily, flicked his cigar and suggested that "Steve" Early, his secretary, has a good story on that. He offered no other comment.

2 Pampans Barely Miss Lions Train

Missing the Lions club special train for Mexico City, although it was held for 45 minutes at Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walker returned to Pampa last night. Mr. Walker and Bob Thompson were in an automobile accident at Vernon while en route to catch the train.

They telephoned Fort Worth and train officials agreed to wait for the Pampa delegates to the international convention in Mexico City. The trippers took a bus out of Vernon, after receiving medical treatment for cuts and bruises received in the crash, but the bus was so late reaching Fort Worth that the train had pulled out before they reached the station. So close was the race, that the lights of the train could still be seen from the platform.

The accident occurred when an approaching car struck a soft shoulder and then bounded back on the paving, crashing to the side of the highway. Walker and Bob Thompson were in an automobile accident at Vernon while en route to catch the train.

EDITORIAL

NATIONS IN ARMS RACE OF GOOSE AND GANDER

One of the troubles with the international armament situation is the ancient belief that what is sauce for the goose is also sauce for the gander. The difficulty with this is that if your flock of geese and ganders is too large, all hands wind up in a worse position than the one from which they started.

In other words, there is no logical argument by which you can upset the statesman's plea that until other countries disarm his own country must maintain a big military establishment. And yet when all statesmen adopt that viewpoint, what you get is nothing less than one of those armament races that lead with frightening speed and precision to war.

A survey of the present situation shows all the great nations of Europe preparing feverishly for war; and the general point of view is neatly illustrated by recent remarks of Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, air minister in the British cabinet.

"Adequate strength is the most effective deterrent of war, and the expansion of our air force is not a panic measure," he says. "We will work for limitation of armaments, for an air pact, and for peace, but we cannot hope to obtain these objectives until our own strength is adequate."

Now there simply is no quarreling with this statement. In the present condition of European affairs, no British government could afford to go unprepared.

Indeed, it is probably quite true that the prospects for continued peace in Europe are better when England is simply defended than they are when she is not.

And yet—what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. If England must spend millions getting ready for a fight so must everyone else.

Each nation can adopt this attitude of the British air minister; each nation can honestly and sincerely desire peace and disarmament, but how to the necessity of keeping up its strength as long as everyone else does the same—and in the end you get that invention of the devil himself, the armament race.

Where is the way out of this dilemma? It is not visible to the naked eye.

It may be, indeed, that disarmament will have to wait for the appearance of some national government brave enough to reduce its own forces without waiting for other nations to do the same.

And that prospect, human nature being what it is, is a painfully remote one.

END TO ENTIRE CATHOLIC YOUTH GROUP LOOMS

Another Organization Is Dissolved By Minister

KARLSRUHE, Germany, July 24 (AP)—The so-called "political Catholicism" received a further blow today with dissolution of the Catholic youth organization "Deutsche Jugendkraft" in the province of Baden, and confiscation of its property.

Catholic circles said they believed the action against this youth society foreshadowed an end to the entire Catholic youth movement.

The minister of the interior, Wilhelm Frick, had restricted sharply the work of confessional youth organizations, but had refrained from orders of dissolution and confiscation. Today's decree said:

"Assaults on Hitler youth members, which were mostly instigated by the deutsche Jugendkraft, did not cease after the reichs-minister of the interior decreed limitation for activity for the confessional youth federation.

"The deutsche Jugendkraft is mostly doing sport under a religious pretense and tries to undermine the Hitler youth movement.

"To obviate these abuses, the minister of interior decrees dissolution of the deutsche Jugendkraft of Baden and all its sub-divisions and confiscation of its property.

The scope of activity of all non-Nazi youth organizations was restricted even further by bans against their engaging in any indoor sport, and restriction of their organizational work to "purely religious, cultural and charity tasks."

The newspaper campaign against Jews persisted with accounts of the latest anti-semitic measures.

The public baths at Schweinfurt were reported closed to Jews. Two more Jews were reported arrested on charges of immorality.

In Nazi eyes, anti-semitic laws became a "must" part of legislation projected for the near future.

Julius Streicher, personal friend of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler and a leader of the anti-semitic campaign, in an address last night at Bernau, a suburb of Berlin, predicted early enactment of measures "to put Jews in their places."

Carrying to the capital the bitter anti-semitic drive he already had

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Current hot-weather battles featuring spiders, snakes, tarantulas, and other unpleasant forms of animal life are tame stuff alongside the grinding test of strength between the administration and the utility holding companies which still goes on.

No one recalls any parallel for this attempt to change the fate of a major bill, gone into conference, by exposing the extraordinary tactics of the big "power trust" lobby which defeated Roosevelt in the House when it persuaded a big majority of members to vote against the so-called death sentence.

Seldom has a rising pitch of excitement here seemed more dramatic.

Sensations continue while pro-administration conferees hold off action until the evidence is heard and has time to sink in. Privately, "power trust" foes are predicting that the conferees—perhaps after another vote by the House—will eventually produce a bill satisfactory to an administration which insists on reducing holding companies to regulatable size.

Was J. Bruce Kremer, former Democratic national committeeman from Montana, lobbying for Public Service of New Jersey? Was Arthur Mullen, former Democratic national committeeman from Nebraska, working for Associated Gas and Electric? Where was Robert Jackson, that other prince of lobbyists who, with Kremer and Mullen, did so much to put Roosevelt over in 1932?

How much did Joe Tumulty, former wartime secretary to Wilson, figure in the lobbying? Who was ex-Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire working for?

And how about such ex-congressmen as Beedy of Maine and McKeown of Oklahoma?

Main Street came before the Senate investigating committee—Main Street in Warren, Pa., with its Western Union office, its barber shop, its Kiwanis Club and its Savoy Cafe. Tragedy, high comedy, and human interest drama came along with it.

It was plain enough that Congressman Driscoll had been bombarded with anti-bill telegrams signed with names taken from the city directory and gathered by young messenger boys who asked people if they "wanted to send a telegram."

The wires were written and paid for by the Associated Gas and Electric Company, according to the evidence. And the eyes of the national capital were turned on that little cellar under the Warren telegraph office where the originals were said by witnesses to have been burned.

One recalls John S. Bayer, portly middle-aged undertaker, furniture man, and Kiwanian, whose name had been signed to a wire he knew nothing about. Monty McClure, president of Kiwanis, had come to him saying that "Fisher was on the spot about those phony telegrams" and couldn't he fix it up with Driscoll?

But Bayer, though he insisted to the committee that Fisher (the manager) as a Kiwanian had always stood in high repute, replied: "Two wrongs don't make a right" and refused.

Son of China's president found a bride in an Ohio five-and-ten cent store. Isn't it awful how these five-and-ten cent heresses insist on marrying foreigners?

Now that it's unconstitutional to condemn land for slum clearance, we can still take visitors to see the sights of our big cities.

New York banks are trying to sell Insull collateral they held on loans. The jurors who freed Samuel Insull may be good prospects.

ROAD RUNNERS WILL PLAY STARS OF PANHANDLE BALL TEAMS TONIGHT

ON-TO-DENVER TILT TO DRAW RECORD CROWD

BASEBALL CLASSIC OF SEASON WILL BE PLAYED HERE

Probable starting lineups for the Road Runner-Panhandle All Star game tonight at 8:30 o'clock at Road Runner park:

Road Runners— All Stars—
 Brickett lf. Alvarado 2b
 George ss. Jackson lf.
 Scaling or Galtner or
 Hale, 3b. Simpson 3b
 Nell lb. Bennett rf
 Patton rf. Littrell cf
 Seitz cf. Hamilton lb
 Horken or Polvort or Lysie c. Francis c
 Summers 2b. Spencer s
 Dancy or Braley or
 Chedy p. Mulroney p

Substitutes: Road Runners—Suffice, McLary, Ledford, Bulla, Hardin, Stewart. All Stars—Moore, Pachak, Blair, Dean.

All roads in the Panhandle will lead to Road Runner park in Pampa tonight where the baseball classic of the season will be staged, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The game will be an All-Panhandle affair with fans from Pampa, Borger, LeFors and Amarillo, on hand to cheer their players.

The occasion is the benefit ball game between the Pampa Road Runners, fielding the team that will go to the Denver Post tournament, and the Panhandle All Stars, composed of the best players on the Phillips and Huber teams of Borger, Colfax, LeFors, and the Shamrocks of Amarillo. Admission will be 40 cents to the game or $1 for a ticket to the game and to a big dance to be staged at the Pampa auditorium immediately following.

Besides one of the best baseball games of the year, fans will have an opportunity to see the Summer Kid band, directed during the summer months by Walter Hurst. The band will give a concert before and during the game.

Manager Freddy Brickett will probably change his lineup during the game in order to give all his players a chance to strut their stuff before the crowd. He has not named his starting hurler but the railbirds see either Dancy or Chedy getting the call. Jack "Dopey" Dean has an outside chance to take the mound for the All Stars but the dope points to either Braley or LeFors or Mulroney of Phillips to get the nod over the Amarillo Shamrocks' star.

Red Lawrence, formerly one of the fastest men in organized baseball, will be at the helm of the All Stars. He and Panhandle baseball fans have selected the pick of the players available for the lineup to oppose the Road Runners.

On Friday night the Amarillo Shamrocks will be here for an important tilt. A return game will be played at Metro park in Amarillo on Sunday afternoon. The last games here before the Road Runners leave for Denver will be played on Monday and Tuesday night with the Mexican Charros team of Nueva Laredo, Mexico, providing the opposition.

The Mexicans played here in the spring, giving the Road Runners some of their toughest opposition. Panhandle baseball fans will remember the 13-inning game Braganza, Cuban hurler, took from the Road Runners and the close game won by the home club the following night.

Softball Games Well-Supported In Pomona Area

POMONA, Calif., July 24. (AP)—Dyed-in-the-wool followers of the major leagues may call it a "sissy" game if they wish, but softball rates at the top for some 25,000 fans who support two long established six-team leagues in this area.

Some idea of the enthusiasm engendered is given at Santa Ana where night softball receipts helped build a stadium seating 11,000.

Partnered in many ways after the major baseball circuits, even as to rules for trading players, the leagues are named the National and American.

The two major loops, semi-professional in character, provided good monthly salaries for pitchers.

Outcours, inshoots, slow balls, drop and perfect control are boasted by pitchers.

Sunoco Juniors Beat Texas Elf 7 to 0 Monday

The Sunoco Juniors continued the winning streak by taking a 7 to 0 tilt from the Texas Elf juniors on Monday afternoon. G. Brown was on the mound and J. Keith behind the bat for the winners. Sharp and Shimmens were the batteries for the losers.

The youngsters, between the ages of 8 and 13 years, are getting a real kick out of their baseball. The little fellows play a fast brand of ball for their size. Some day, they may be big league players and that thought is spurring them on to "play the game."

Infant Dives To Glory

Not yet 12 years old, little Mary Hoerger, Miami, Fla., diver, stunned veteran observers and participants in the 3-meter springboard event of the National A. A. U. meet at Manhattan Beach, N. Y., when she took top honors. In winning the championship, the little lassie defeated such well-known stars as Mrs. Dorothy Poynton Hill, former Olympic queen, and Claudia Eckert, of Chicago. Mary is shown above in two difficult dives, and below in a jubilant takeoff pose.

FINALS IN ALL BRACKETS OF NET MEET NEAR COMPLETION

Finals in all brackets of the summer recreation program tennis tournament will be completed this week. All games have been hard-fought and keenly contested. Instead of the few entries registered, every bracket has a large number of players participating.

The junior doubles event has already been settled, with Lefty Hamilton and Myatt defeating Winkler and McLaughlin, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3.

Widner and Hamilton will compete in the junior singles division. Hamilton entered the finals by defeating Winkler and Widner won from Stennis.

In the senior singles, Fred Lamb will play Dr. R. M. Johnson in one bracket and McLaughlin will meet Harold Gregory in the other. Conley has a bye and will draw to see who he meets in the semi-finals.

Lamb and Adams will meet McLaughlin and Gregory with Brown and Kilchens drawing a bye, in the senior doubles.

Daisy Ann Shields and Flora Deen Finley will meet in the final match of the women's singles division.

The women's doubles event will see Daisy Ann Shields and De Ann Heiskell meeting Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Batsen in the finals.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will meet Conley and Miss Wheatley for the right to play Roy Webb and Miss Shields in the finals of the mixed doubles.

By HARRY GRAYSON

Outside of New York there is little question as to which clubs the general public would like to see slip into the world series. It is the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals are the popular favorites in the hinterland, where practically everybody is pulling for them to repeat. This is true even in Chicago, where they lack faith in the Cubs and where, as Jimmy Dykes says, the White Sox are a wonder club because all hands are wondering what is holding them up.

The Tigers and the Cardinals are the people's choices in the provinces for more reason than that they are the clubs outside of New York with the best opportunities, perhaps the only one in their respective leagues with any more chance than Primo Carnera had against Joe Louis.

Devil Take the Hindmost! When the Tigers and Cardinals take the field baseball becomes something more than a drab afternoon of mechanical men going through the motions near letter perfect.

It was spikes first, get-the-bell-out-of-the-way baseball that led to the Detroit blemishes showering Medwick with bottles and buns in the final game last autumn. This may have been disgraceful, but the belligerence shown in the 1934 fall fashion show did much toward restoring real interest in the game.

Every one, even New Yorkers—if and when their cause is lost—would await a second edition between the Tigers and Cardinals with keen anticipation.

Professional baseball is badly in need of more spirit such as that shown by the Tigers and the Cardinals. As Fred Clarke, famous old manager and outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates, points out, fans going to the games to see competent players handle chances so easily that they feel it might be a "sissy" affair.

Fighting For Business. Clarke cites an example of what good, old-fashioned fight will do to the turnstiles.

"We were playing Chicago in Pittsburgh years ago," relates the man who guided the Pirates to four National League championships. "There was great rivalry between the two clubs and the game hadn't gone far when I was running to second on a force out. Naturally, I spilled the second baseman in an effort to delay his throw to first.

"He warned me that he'd sock me on the nose if it happened again. As luck would have it, the same play came up again and I crashed into him. The fight was on. The next morning I was called into the late Barney Dreyfuss' office.

SAILOR MORAN IS CONQUEROR IN MAT MATCH

CLINGMAN DAZZLES AS HE SUBDUES PAT GARRISON

Sailor Moran, ably assisted by the referee who allowed the gob to choke, gouge and use his fist, took the main event of wild wrestling match from Jack Van Beber last night at Road Runner park. Sailor Otis Clingman, making his first Panhandle appearance in a long time, took the measure of Pat Garrison in the semi-final, Curly Lewis easily downed Ken Daly, Borger's wrestling attorney, in the preliminary.

Next week's card will be staged on Wednesday night with Sailor Otis Clingman meeting Bob Cummings of San Francisco in the main event and Michael in the semi-final. Andy Dowler will meet Ken Daly in the opener.

Living up to his reputation of a wild grappler, Sailor Moran opened the main event with a little dirty work and requested use of the roping protection when Van Beber got a good hold. The Dutchman took advantage of Moran's liking for the ropes and wound him up in them until it took the referee and some ringside helpers to extract the gob.

The two wrestled, but Moran again took to his rough tactics. He slugged Van Beber on the jaw for a clean kaido. Van collected himself but couldn't focus his eyes on the sailor who slugged in a few more and then fell on Van Beber for the fall in 12 minutes.

Van Beber opened the second fall by dealing the Sailor a little misery with rabbit punches and elbows to the jaw. He followed his advantage with a couple of hard slams and then slipped in three terrific Sonnenbergs to end the fall in two minutes.

Fall number three was in Van Beber's hands when he weakened and lost the match in 11 minutes. The Dutchman had the advantage of the going until the last. He used a hammerlock effectively, after Moran had lost one, and then got the sailor in the ropes. Then Van started jumping on the ropes on the other side of the ring, making it impossible for the referee to get Moran out of his predicament in the ropes. The referee had to leave Moran while he tamed the wildly jumping Van Beber.

The Dutchman hauled Moran from the ropes and slammed him hard several times, but he could be seen weakening fast from the punishment he had taken earlier in the match. Moran, seeing that Van Beber was nearly "out" rolled away from an attempted slam and fixed a surf board on the Dutchman to win the match.

Clingman, showing more speed and a greater knowledge of holds than ever before, tossed Pat Garrison in 12 minutes in the semi-final. The two stuck to wrestling and Garrison gave the exhibition a sensational finish. The Irishman worked on the head and arms effectively, with Clingman breaking the holds and getting away from the surprised Pampian.

After about 10 minutes of speedy work, Clingman Thursday night, applied by the sailor, he clammed Garrison and then used three of his famous flying tackles to subdue the Irishman.

Lewis out-wrestled Daly all the way and won in 14 minutes with a series of slams and an airplane spin.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Paul Dean and Joe Medwick. Cards, and Al Smith, Giants: Dean held Giants to four hits and fanned 12; Medwick got six hits, including two homers in doubleheader, and Smith held Cards to 8 hits in nightcap.

Frank Demaree and Gabby Hartnett, Cubs: Former hits two singles and double for perfect day at bat; first and later got two doubles and single in second game with Dodgers.

Wally Berger, Braves: Hit two home runs, last in twelfth to beat Reds.

Lou Gehrig, Yankees and Vic Sorrell, Tigers: Gehrig's homer accounted for two runs in opener, Sorrell held Yanks to one run in nightcap.

Julius Solters, Browns: Led at tack on Red Sox with two doubles and two singles.

Johnny Marcum, Athletics: Held White Sox at bay with eight hits.

CITY GOLFERS ASKED TO FILE AVERAGE SCORE BY THURSDAY

Pampa golfers, who, for one good reason or another, will be unable to qualify for the city open golf tournament by the deadline tomorrow afternoon, may file their average score for 18 holes with Del Love, club professional, before tomorrow night.

Pairings for the tournament, which will get under way Sunday morning, will be made Thursday night and released for publication Friday, the tournament committee has announced. Up to last night, 64 golfers had turned in their qualifying scores. The professional hopes that the number will be doubled by tonight.

Pewees Book Up Four Games Here

Baseball fans who prefer the national pastime best when it is in the hands of youngsters will be interested in the Pewees' schedule for this week. All will be played at 3:30 o'clock.

This afternoon, the boys whose average age is 14 years, will play the Cardinals, a team that gave the Jack Rabbits a tough scrap.

Thursday night, the Pewees will be dropped one to the Jack Rabbits.

Thursday afternoon, the Pewees will play the Sunoco Sluggers.

Friday they will clash with the Sun Juniors and on Sunday they will team up with the Phillips Juniors. No admission will be charged to any of the games.

Local fans are hoping that some arrangements can be made to determine the Junior champions of this section. There are more than a half dozen teams. A schedule, including all the junior teams would probably be worked out.

NEW YORKERS GRIMLY HOLD TO PINNACLE

ROWE FAILS TO TURN IN NECESSARY VICTORY

BY ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The New York teams grimly held their half-game leads today as the St. Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers sought to tear them from the pinnacle.

The well-laid plan of Mickey Cochrane went astray as his ace moundman, Schoolboy Rowe, failed to turn in the victory that would have shot the battling Tigers into the lead.

Rowe lost the first game to the Yanks, 7-5, as Mickey belted a homer, but Vic Sorrell evened matters in the second, holding the Yanks to eight hits as the Tigers won, 3-1.

Rowe wasn't the only star pitcher to meet defeat. Johnny Allen and Lefty Gomez of the Yanks took early showers, although Allen got credit for winning the first game.

The Giants lost the first game of their doubleheader with the Cards, 6-1, and took the second, 8-2. Paul Dean allowed four hits and fanned 12 as Joe Medwick hit two for the circuit in the first.

Pepper Martin's three errors figured heavily in the Giants' victory in the nightcap. It was the sixth straight defeat for the Giants, who seemed a cinch for the pennant not long ago.

The third-place Chicago Cubs closed in by sweeping a doubleheader with the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-4 and 8-0. It boosted the Cubs' winning streak to 14 out of 17 games and lifted them to within three games of the Giants.

Wally Berger led the Boston Braves to their second straight triumph over the Cincinnati Reds, 7-6, scoring three runs with a homer in the second inning and then winning the game with another, his twentieth homer, in the twelfth.

The Athletics whitewashed the Chicago White Sox, 2-0, although Vernon Kennedy, on the mound for the Sox, allowed but three hits. Johnny Marcum, pitching for the Athletics, allowed eight hits, but he was invincible with men on the bases.

The St. Louis Browns defeated the Boston Red Sox, 7-2, as they shelled four Boston pitchers with 14 hits.

INDIANS LOSE SECOND PLACE TO GALVESTON

BEAUMONT TAKES TWIN BILL FROM FORT WORTH

(By The Associated Press.)

The Beaumont Exporters, a gir grip tightened on the Texas league lead by 10 to 8 and 2 to 8 victories over Fort Worth last night, were crowded by a new contender for the top position today.

Galveston, a club that for many weeks was in the lead, slipped into second place last night and showed Oklahoma City down to third place by beating Houston, 9 to 5, while the Indians were dropping a 10 to 3 decision to Tulsa. A split twin-bill in which San Antonio took the first game, 4 to 1, and Dallas grabbed the second, 6 to 0, did not alter other standings.

Beaumont overcame an early Fort Worth lead to take the opener, compiling 17 hits in amassing the 19 runs. In the second game, Steve Larkin, who only recently joined the club, out-pitched John Wilson in a mound duel; Rudy York drove in five of Beaumont's runs in the opener.

Rallying for seven runs in the final two innings, the Galveston Blues salvaged the final of a seven-game series with Houston, Charlie English's homer with two on in the eighth knotted the count and the Blues ran wild in the ninth with a costly error by Catcher Hugh Wise, subbing at third, playing a prominent part in Galveston's four-run spree.

Johnny Kean; Buff; short, received a skull fracture in the game when hit by Jack Jakucki. Galveston hurler, Physicists said Kean was in good condition but that he would not be able to return to the team this year.

Pounding Charlie Moncrief and George King Murray for 14 hits, the Tulsa Oilers had little trouble in downing the Oklahoma City Indians to sweep a two-game series.

Timely bat work behind the short pitching of Lefty Wright gave Dallas an easy victory over San Antonio in the second game after the Missions had "galloped away" with the count-raiser, Sal Ghattos's eight-game winning streak was broken in the opening joint when the Missions put on a three-run rally in the sixth, which was climaxed by Harshany's homer with two on, to sail the game away.

Jack Rabbits Beat Longhorns 14 to 5

The Jack Rabbits, one of Pampa's junior ball clubs, won another game on Monday afternoon, defeating the newly organized Longhorns 14 to 5 in a game played at the Fort Worth and Denver diamond.

Denver Hubert hurled for the winners, with Cap Hubert behind the bat, Hamill was on the mound for the losers, with Kilgore receding. Hamill pitched an excellent game but his support was weak.

BPW CLUB ENTERTAINS MANY GUESTS WITH GAY PICNIC

FRIED CHICKEN DINNER SERVED LAST EVENING

EVENING IS SPENT IN INFORMAL STYLE ON OUTING

Games and songs in impromptu style were enjoyed on a picnic yesterday evening, when the Business and Professional Women's club entertained a number of guests at the Ed Daley place near LeFors.

A fried chicken dinner was served. Arrangements for the picnic were in charge of Mary Lou Doyne, Annie Mae West, and Louise Whitfield. Each club member invited guests for the entertainment, which replaced the usual monthly social program.

Those present included Messrs. and Mrs. Ernest Gee, Bob Robinson, Bob Cecil, Flins Jordan, Alex Schneider, Lee McConnell, M. P. Downs; Mmes. Archie Ralsky, E. E. Bechtelheimer, Lena Schneider, Lola Carroll, John Cummings, Mary Runyan, Katie Beverly, Frances Sturgeon, Annie Mae West.

Misses Jean Ragsdale, Adeline Brazil, Irene Irvine, Mildred Overall, Ora Brock, Alma Turnbull, Joyce Smith, Ann Hess, and Lila Decelle of Vicksburg, Miss.; Messrs. Lawrence Myers, Bill Noble, Steve Neely, Clayton Heare, Ed Daley.

Five Guesses--Which Quin Is Which?

Can You Tell the Quins Apart? Here's a Chance to Show Your Skill! Then Turn to This Page Tomorrow and See How Many You Guessed Correctly!

The wardrobe of every young lady should include a summer play suit, in the opinion of this particular Miss Dionne. It allows her to flaunt her tiny arms about in abandon, as she seems ready to do. Best-natured of the quins—who is she?

She hardly looks it, but that calm, attentive pose, and those hands, so peacefully overlapped, don't begin to tell the story. She really is the "stormy petrel" of the Dionne nursery. Know her?

Registering astonishment in a way a stage celebrity might envy, this wide-eyed quin really shines best in a flirtatious role. Coy mannerisms she constantly displays have made her known as the nursery coquette. You've seen her picture a hundred times, but do you know which quin she is?

Her sweet, said and serious gaze, directed camera-ward, reveals the quiet, ethereal nature which has distinguished this baby from her heavier, stronger and livelier sisters, and has made her known as the "Madonna of the Quins." Note the dainty "expression" of this retiring young lady's right hand. Her name should be the easiest of all for you to guess.

Whatever the object of this quin's attentions, it certainly has her agog, judging from that gleeful, excited gaze, the tiny mouth about to break into a laugh, and that pudgy hand firmly gripping the tray-edge. Just like one of her more active baby sisters, this merry quintuplet is a veritable pixie for mischief. Well, what's your score? Name all five correctly!

Miss Gladys Hord And Mr. Post of Amarillo Marry

Miss Gladys Hord, Pampa resident for several months, and Fred Post of Amarillo were married Saturday evening at Chickadee, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Higley. The Rev. Frank Travis, Presbyterian minister, officiated.

The couple will make their home in Amarillo, where Mr. Post has been on the editorial staff of the News-Globe for the past six years. Miss Hord has been employed as a nurse at Worley hospital here. Her family resides in Amarillo.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUGE
NEA Service Staff Writer

By this time you've no doubt served food less than a hundred times during the season, so you ought to do a bit of pioneering before the family takes to sneaking off to the drugstore for long, cold drinks.

It pays to try experiments with unusual combinations and different garnishes. If you do it's easy to get a reputation for always serving something delightfully cool and thirst-quenching.

Here are a few recipes to give you a start. I'm sure you'll agree that these are quite out-of-the-ordinary and you can vary the ingredients to make your own iced inventions.

Plaza Cooler
Blend juice of 1 lemon with 3 times as much loganberry juice; add plain iced water sufficient for the glass. Pour over finely cracked ice in a tall glass. Garnish with a thin slice of orange, a thin slice of fresh pineapple and other fresh fruits in season. Dip a branch of mint in powdered sugar and place in the ice at one side of glass.

Persian Cooler
Juice 1 lime, 3 times as much purple grape juice, powdered sugar to taste; dash of white curacao and iced water sufficient for the glass. Pour over finely cracked ice in a tall glass. Garnish with small fresh fruits, such as cherries, light-red and oxblood; red raspberries, dewberries or strawberries.

Orange Bliss
Place 1-3 of orange juice sweetened to taste with powdered sugar in the bottom of a tall glass. add

Tomorrow's Menu

BREAKFAST: Fresh pears, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon with crisp, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Broccoli baked with cheese, salad of mixed fruits. Melba toast, iced chocolate.

DINNER: Iced fruit soup, cold sliced baked ham, peanut and potato croquettes, new peas, watermelon salad, chocolate ice-box cake, milk, coffee.

1-3 pineapple juice and on top 1-3 white grape juice. Add cracked ice and garnish with assorted fruits. To be stirred individually, after serving.

Party Punch
Blend 2-5 lemon juice and 3-5 claret and sweeten to taste with powdered sugar. Add charged water until the mixture is diluted to your taste. Pour into a large punch bowl with a block of ice in the center. Garnish with small pieces of fresh fruit, cherries, berries, etc. In a little hole in the center of the block of ice plant a bouquet of mint leaves.

Fruit Punch
Use in proportions to suit your own taste lemon juice, orange juice, white grape juice and dilute with ginger ale. Sweeten to taste with powdered sugar. Pour into a large punch bowl with a block of ice in the center. Garnish with assorted fruits.

These last two drinks are especially fine for big parties. Serve tiny frosted cakes or assorted sandwiches or both with punch.

reopening of stores and other lines of normal service.

The appeal to other workers to return to their jobs was signed by officials of the stamping mill union, 600 of whose members remain on strike in an effort to obtain a closed shop. Their statement, made public by Taylor, expressed confidence that "the conciliators from the department of labor now present are competent to handle the controversy."

The Social CALENDAR

THURSDAY

PAMPA TOWER OF OUR CITY

Answers Alarm

The Pampa fire department answered its first alarm in 22 days yesterday afternoon when a call was received from Black, Sivalls and Boyson, 910 South Barnes street. A trash fire near a small warehouse had set the floor of the building on fire. The blaze was extinguished with water from the booster tank on the truck. The damage was slight.

Attending Meeting

The W. P. A. meeting being held in Amarillo today is for the purpose of studying the needs of the Panhandle regarding relief projects. C. L. Stine, city manager, and George W. Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, are attending from here. Representatives from McLean and LeFors were also expected to attend the meeting.

On Vacation

Miss Blanche McMillen has gone to Albuquerque where she will spend the next four or five weeks visiting friends and relatives.

To Receive Degree

F. L. Mize, superintendent of schools at LeFors, will receive a master of education degree from Oklahoma University at Norman when the summer graduation exercises are conducted August 1, an announcement from the college says. The commencement will be held outdoors, and more than 200 persons will receive diplomas.

Concerts Announced

The Kid band will play a concert at Canadian tomorrow night in a lighted ball park. Friday night the youthful musicians will play at Clarendon on the courthouse lawn, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Walter Hurst is director.

AAA BILL WILL FACE A BATTLE IN CONFERENCE

Marvin Jones Insists on Surpluses Provision

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Finally passed by the senate with many modifications, the AAA amendment bill designed to broaden the Roosevelt crop control program and protect it against certain legal attacks, headed today toward a new struggle in conference.

There were indications that the house, which previously had passed the bill, would fight for some provisions eliminated by the senate before it approved the measure, 65 to 15, yesterday.

Chairman Jones (D., Texas) of the house agricultural committee is eager for the return of the house provision to permit the use of 30 per cent of the nation's customs receipts to finance the disposal of exportable surpluses abroad.

Final senate action came after the defeat of an effort to include the bill a provision to limit the power of the president to negotiate trade agreements.

It required two weeks of debate, often furious, to wade through the legislation which had two principal aims—to give the agriculture department new means in its effort to increase farm prices, and to prepare the broad program for the time when the supreme court will pass upon its constitutionality.

Bearing in mind a circuit court decision unfavorable to the processing tax provisions, the senate validated the rates already imposed by the secretary of agriculture. All benefit contracts under which farmers have been paid about $700,000,000 also were legalized.

Indication was given of the coming conference fight when the senate refused to reconsider its action in rejecting the export subsidy section.

Another matter for the conference to consider is the senate provision permitting processors under certain conditions, to bring suits to recover processing taxes paid to the government.

As it stands processors who can prove they paid the tax and did not pass it on to the consumer, may bring action. Federal agents may examine processors' books under a provision inserted yesterday at the instance of AAA backers.

A sweeping amendment by Senator Gore (D., Okla.), requiring senate confirmation of higher-salified, non-civil service employees who serve in supervisory capacities under the AAA law "or any other act" went into the bill with little opposition.

The bill carries provisions for marketing agreements among hand-

SOLONS INSIST THEY'LL WRITE NEW TAX BILL

DENIES TREASURY WILL DRAFT ACT FOR CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Authoritative sources said today that house ways and means committee democrats had insisted that they, and not the treasury, will write the new tax bill.

One person on capital hill who is close to the president said privately that the committee members had reached this decision because of published reports that the bill would be written for the committee.

The democrats on the house committee are seeking to translate President Roosevelt's demand for inheritance taxes, increased levies on larger incomes and other taxes into specific legislative form. Some thorny problems have been encountered.

Recently, it is said, a suggestion was advanced—not by the president but by an administration official—that treasury experts be allowed to help draft the bill.

That suggestion, it was added, was discussed at great length, with the democrats finally deciding to write their own bill but to listen to any recommendations the treasury wanted to make. In line with that decision, Secretary Morgenthau conferred with the democrats in a secret session.

The committeemen were reticent about the subjects discussed, but none denied that the question of excess profits versus graduated corporation income taxes had been talked over.

The president in his tax message, proposed that the present flat 13 3-4 per cent tax on corporation incomes of farm goods, but these no longer include minimum price regulations. The marketing agreement machinery is set up only for commodities in interstate commerce.

Another amendment provides that no state should be allotted less than 200,000 bales under the Bankhead cotton control act if that state produced 250,000 bales during any of the previous five years, and no less than 80,000 bales if it had produced 100,000 bales during any year in the same period.

In its present form the measure carries amendments permitting the president to impose quota restrictions on farm imports, authorization to use $50,000,000 in work relief funds for the purchase of sub-marginal lands and an adjustment program for potatoes.

be replaced with a graduated levy ranging from 10 3-4 to 16 3-4 per cent, according to size of income. Many democrats had opposed such a tax, contending it would discriminate against investors in large companies as against those in small ones.

Word went to the committee, it was said authoritatively, that Mr. Roosevelt wanted at least the principle of the graduated corporation income tax in the bill.

Meanwhile, the democratic committeemen were continuing what some termed a "middle-of-the-road" progress in their drafting of a tentative bill to be submitted later to the full committee.

They had accepted one of the mildest of 14 suggested inheritance tax schedules. It would levy rates ranging from 4 to 75 per cent of inheritances, the larger figure applying on inheritances over the $10,000,000 bracket.

Furthermore, they had decided that a tax exemption on the first $50,000 of inheritance should be granted to close kin—widows, children, grandchildren, brothers, sisters. Others will get only a $10,000 exemption, but the exact schedule of rates applying to them has not been determined.

Brighter Outlook Faces Oil Industry

TULSA, Okla., July 24 (AP)—The last week has brought a decidedly brighter outlook to the oil industry, whose leaders frankly had feared the price structure was threatened.

The new hopes were brought about first by the Texas railroad commission order limiting crude production there to approximately 1,000,000 barrels daily.

They came assurances Kansas and Oklahoma also would reduce production. The Oklahoma corporation commission was to meet today to set an allowable within the figures recommended by the government.

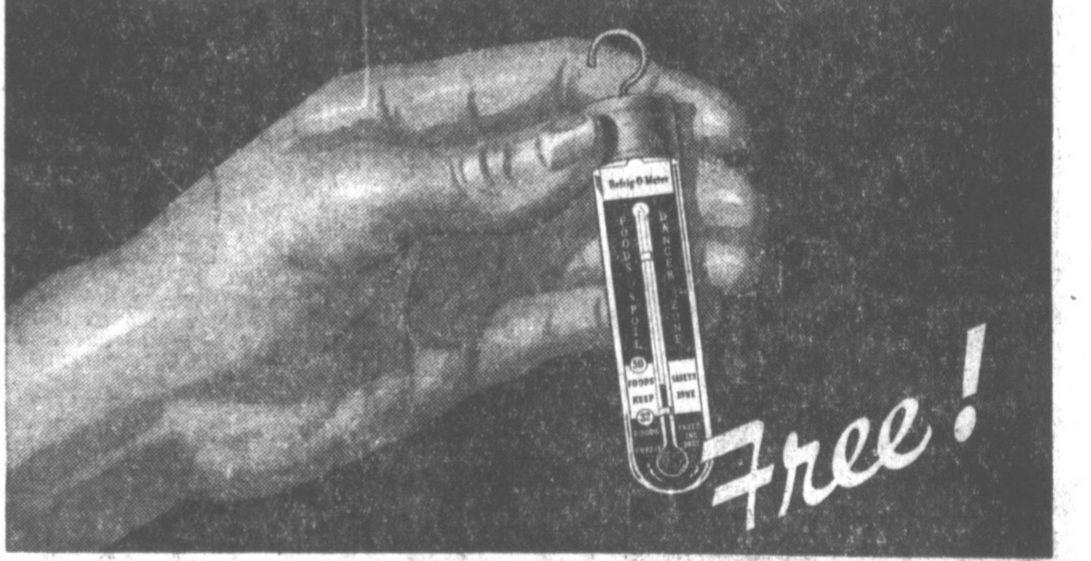

To bolster hopes further the increased demand for gasoline, which had been far below expectation until three weeks ago, began to clear out some excess stock. In addition the kerosene surplus in East Texas was cleaned up by a major company which took 78 cars off the market, and some firms have begun laying in distillate in preparation for winter trade.

IS YOUR REFRIGERATOR COLD ENOUGH?

HERE'S AN EASY WAY TO MAKE SURE WITH A REFRIG-O-METER

WHAT IT DOES

Simply hang the Refrig-o-meter in your refrigerator. It will show you whether the food compartment temperature is within the "Safety Zone"—below 50 degrees and above 32 degrees. A printed slip comes with each Refrig-o-meter. You paste this slip on the inside of your refrigerator door. It tells you how to get the utmost in hot weather performance from your ice box or mechanical refrigerator.

To keep foods safely, the temperature in your refrigerator must be below 50 degrees. Above this point foods quickly spoil.

Make sure your refrigerator—whether it's an ice box or one of the mechanical kind—is absolutely safe, by stepping into our store and getting one of these accurate little Refrig-o-meters, free of cost—no obligation.

Don't guess about your refrigerator, especially during hot weather. Get a Refrig-o-meter and watch it daily. It will enable you to take steps to prevent waste and spoilage of food and protect your family's health. It is not an ordinary thermometer, but made especially for refrigerator use. Get one today.

Garrido Ousted As Dictator Of Tabasco, Mexican State

Tamaulipas Governor Threatened By Peasants

BY CLARK LEE, Associated Press Foreign Staff. MEXICO CITY, July 24 (AP)—The federal government stepped firmly today into a peasant uprising which caused the apparent downfall of Tomas Garrido Canabal, dictator of the state of Tabasco, and threatened to overthrow the governor of the state of Tamaulipas.

President Lazaro Cardenas directed the removal of Garrido's governor, Miguel Lastra, and replaced a military commander friendly to Garrido by one known to be loyal to the federal government.

Tabasco went under semi-military rule.

In a sudden turn of the political wheel of fortune, Garrido was reported to be preparing to go into exile abroad and to abandon the southern gulf coast state in which his socialist program prevailed for eight years.

The new Tabasco military command, General Miguel Henriquez, announced that steps had been taken to prevent further political agitation in the state and that order was being maintained by the federal forces.

Days Are Numbered. General Aureo Calles—no relation to General Plutarco Elias Calles, former president and "iron man" against whose followers the uprisings were considered directed—was named substitute governor by the federal congress. He decided to go tomorrow to Tabasco.

In Tamaulipas, Governor Antonio Villarreal, long unpopular with the peasants, was the target of a popular uprising which was sweeping nearly the entire state from Nuevo Laredo and Matamoros on the Texas border to Tampico in the south.

Informed circles here said that even if the agrarian movement, also aimed at municipal authorities throughout the state, fails to develop further, the days of Villarreal as governor were evidently numbered. Silvano Barba Gonzalez, secretary of inferior, Tamaulipas state capital, Ciudad Victoria, to investigate what Cardenas' secretary described as a "serious situation."

It was predicted that on his return, the permanent commission congress might take action similar to that in the case of Tabasco.

GiL Suspected. This belief was strengthened by reports that Emilio Portes Gil, president of the national revolutionary party and political opponent of Villarreal, was behind the movement to oust him.

The governor, in a telephone interview, said he would be able to dominate the situation, but admitted that several thousand agrarians opposed to him were massed in Ciudad Victoria.

He said at least 600,000 of his supporters were disposed to defend him "with blood or fire."

Dr. Villarreal insisted that he would not resign, but lacking the support of federal authorities he was not conceding much chance of resisting successfully any move to depose him.

Officials of 22 municipalities were known to have been forced to abandon their offices. Fourteen others withdrew their recognition of Villarreal as governor.

Capital students organized a monster demonstration in celebration of the steps against Garrido, who was secretary of agriculture until six months ago, and who became one of the richest men in Mexico during his eight-year rule.

Messages of congratulation poured into Guadalajara, where President Cardenas was studying agrarian problems.

Although the president, in his message to the permanent mission of congress last night asking the removal of Lastra, did not make any definite reference to Garrido, he said the government of Tabasco was under the influence of "outside forces."

Most Hated Man. Garrido's sponsorship of the radical red shirt movement and the anti-church campaign had caused some newspapers to designate him as the "most hated man in Mexico."

A group of students entered the state recently to oppose him. Four of them died under machine gun fire ten days ago at Villa Hermosa. The national revolutionary party announced that the Tabasco state elections, scheduled for early August, have been postponed indefinitely.

A RIPPING JOKE. CHICAGO (AP)—"This is going to be funny," said the robber who reached into Rene Pomrening's trouser pocket, seized the lining, and jerked sharply. But judge for yourself.

In the robber's grasp as he left was Pomrening's purse, containing $48, the whole surrounded by the pocket and the seat of Pomrening's trousers.

Pomrening's woman companion ran before he was "unseated."

AAA benefit payments to North Carolina farmers in 1934 amounted to twice as much as taxes on farm property. Benefit payments totaled $12,519,933 and farm property taxes came to $6,684,000.

TEXAS FARMERS LEAD NATION IN U. S. BENEFIT PAYMENTS

WASHINGTON, July 23 (AP)—Texas farmers plucked more than $150,000 daily from the United States treasury in crop benefit payments during the last fiscal year.

The farm administration announced today rental and benefit and trust fund payments to Texas from July 1, 1934, to May 31, 1935, totaled $51,761,768.99—second only to Iowa which benefited more from the corn-hog program than any other state in the nation.

The tabulation of the AAA showed the Lone Star state had received these rental and benefit payments: Cotton $34,253.70; wheat, $5,330,891.70; corn-hogs, $4,663,285.97. In addition, the state received $7,612,331.62 for Bankhead cotton pool operations resulting from distribution to producers who pooled their surplus cotton tax exemption certificates.

'MARRIAGE OF ELIZABETH' WILL BE SADLER PLAY THIS EVENING

Harley Sadler's tent theater, now playing Pampa under the auspices of the American Legion, is drawing large audiences nightly. The big tent is located one block east of the postoffice. The play for tonight and tomorrow night is "The Marriage of Elizabeth," with Harley Sadler playing the part of "Toby," the red head country boy, a type of character he plays to perfection.

Music is furnished by Joe Gelford and a 12 piece band. Between the acts of the play will be several big time vaudeville acts, including The Jeffries sisters, a new juvenile singing, dancing and musical act, Munde and June, jugglers, Whitehouse Twins, singers and dancers, Fox sisters, singers and dancers, Bob Siler, Crooner, Johnny Gibbs, trumpet soloist, McGreevey and Jeffries, "rube" act, Ebban Allen, singer, Gloria Sadler, singer and dancer. The tent theater is brand new, and is said to be the most beautiful show traveling. Special numbered reserved seats are on sale daily at Pampa Drug No. 1.

HAUGHTY TRIBE ASKS ENTITY IN COOKSON HILLS

Kee-Too-Wahs Band Of Indians Petitions Collier

BY FRANCIS J. KELLY, Associated Press Staff Writer.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., July 24 (AP)—A band of blood-proud Indians who rather than their "seven sacred fires" to boast they are the "oldest communists in the world" has petitioned for organization as an entity within the rock-bound fastnesses of the Cookson hills of eastern Oklahoma.

To "the little gray man with the great big pipe," as the Indians call John Collier, United States commissioner of Indian affairs, went the petition of the Kee-Too-Wahs, oldest tribal clan of the Cherokees.

Other Oklahoma Indians have rejected Collier's schemes for the formation of reservations, as "communization." The Kee-Too-Wahs grunt scornfully at the term.

"We are not afraid of a word," said John Red Bird Smith, eldest son of a distinguished Kee-Too-Wah leader, the late Chief Red Bird Smith.

"We want to live our own life—let white man alone."

The Kee-Too-Wahs, an embittered and almost forgotten people, call themselves "the only Indians masons" and haughtily assert they are the "proudest but the proudest of the five civilized tribes."

Their ancestors marched from the southeast down the trail of tears in 1838, guarding their seven sacred fires with their lives. The fires, Kee-Too-Wahs maintain, were handed down from the heavens in a supernatural visitation, and never have been allowed to smoulder out.

The sons of the migrating Kee-Too-Wahs have taken refuge in the Cookson hills whose soil has nurtured many southwestern outlaws. There they propose to live and die.

The spirit of the clansmen was whipped to new heights last week by their annual all-day and all-night rituals, at a Cookson hills stomp-ground they have chosen as the heart of their proposed communal home.

There, they danced and pranced about their hallowed fires, beating with naked feet a tribute to their departed leader, Sequoyah, inventor of the Cherokee alphabet.

Southern Club Leased By Hyatt Of Wichita Falls

The Southern club is under new management, Roy Hyatt of Wichita Falls having leased the club. Mr. Hyatt is a well known night club operator and before coming to Pampa was president of the Slim Sham club of Wichita Falls and was manager of the DeMolay News, a publication sponsored by the Masonic order.

A well known band, Ned Bradley and his Texas Teal boys, is now playing at the club. Mr. Hyatt plans to bring larger bands to Pampa in future months.

A bargain night is planned for one night each week and an invitation has been extended to visit the club any night.

Examinations Friday. The public is invited to be at the Municipal swimming pool at 6 o'clock Friday night when examinations will be given applicants for junior life saving certificates. The examinations will be in charge of Harry Kelley and Mrs. Clyde Fathere, Red Cross examiners.

NAZI YOUTHS PREVAIL OVER THEIR PARENTS

CATHOLIC REGION SUC-CUMBING TO HITLER INFLUENCE

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)
OPPELIN, Germany, July 24 (AP)—Catholic priests asserted today that the Hitler youth movement is gradually strengthening its influence over the church in upper Silesia, with members of the younger generation taking a spiritual hold over their parents.

"The elders are being intimidated by the youths who are increasingly flocking to the Nazi organization," one priest told the Associated Press. "The younger people are still attending church services as before, but beyond that they are loosening their formerly close ties between them and us."

The situation in upper Silesia, which has been 90 per cent Catholic, was regarded otherwise as being in a state of expectancy on both sides in the state campaign against "political Catholicism."

"The church here has observed neutrality," one priest explained, "and therefore no arrests of priests are known to have been made in this district."

The opinion seemed to prevail among the clergy that neither the church nor the government would try to force the issue.

Catholic sources said they believed that even the vatican would deal leniently with the government. They pointed out that Pope Pius' last protest was not directed against General Wilhelm Goering's edict providing prompt punishment for "political Catholicism," but against the sterilization law and separation of the denominational schools in a nation-wide drive against Catholic youth societies.

Conciliatory efforts were being made, at least in Silesia, to avoid an open breach between the church and the state.

Rodriguez Is Not Surprised By Peon Revolt

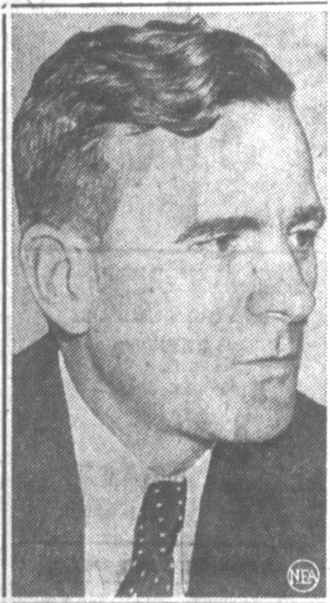

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 24 (AP)—Abelardo Rodriguez, former president of Mexico, indicated no surprise today at the uprising of the Agrarians, or peasant party, in the state of Tamaulipas. Rodriguez is at his ranch home near Ensenada.

"The working and peasant classes have been over-taxed for some time," Rodriguez said. "Conditions have been deplorable and I have been expecting trouble. My hope is that there will be no serious casualties from the present trouble and that the government of Mexico will not suffer as a result of the conditions."

Plutarco Elias Calles, another former president of Mexico and long known as the chief advisor to the nation since he retired as president, could not be found for comment. He left here last night for an undisclosed destination.

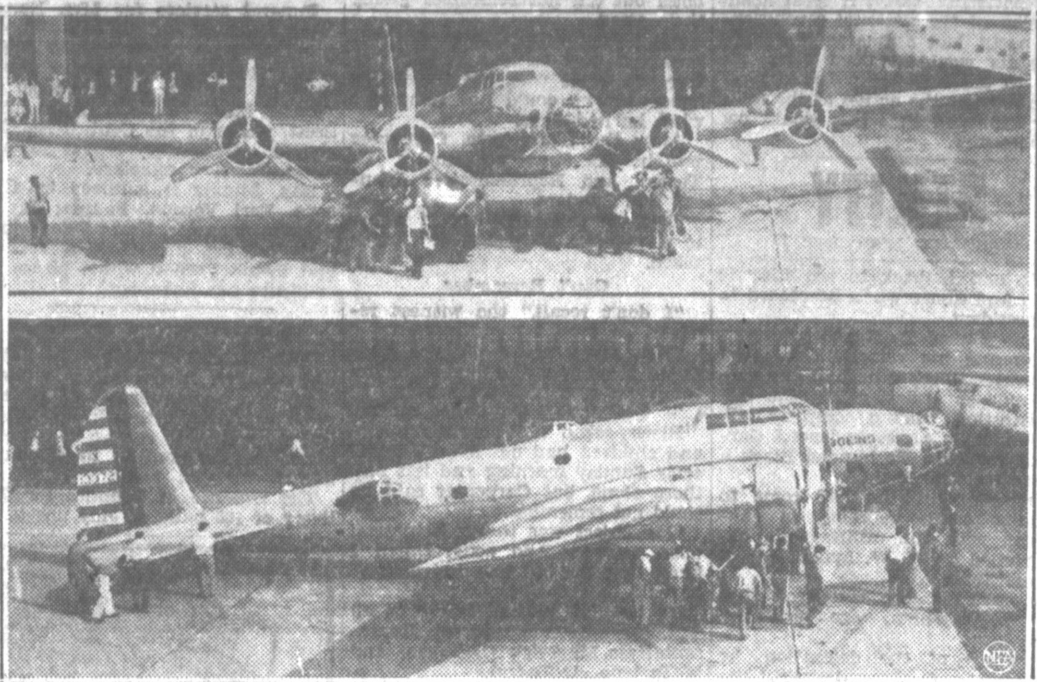

SHOCK, TOO MUCH
ST. PAUL, July 24 (AP)—News his wife gave birth to a son brought a sudden reaction from Charles B. Stock, 23, he fainted. Patrolmen, unable to revive him, took him to a hospital, where his wife was confined. Stock, his wife and the baby later were reported doing well.

Administrator of Youth Fund

In charge of providing depression ridden youth with a "break" is Aubrey Williams (above), executive director of the newly created National Youth Administration, which will dispense $50,000,000 to assist 650,000 persons under 25. He formerly was assistant to Harry Hopkins as director of FERA.

As Huge Flying Fortress Awaited Air Baptism

Poised for a series of experimental flights, and then its supreme test, a hop from Seattle, Wash., to Dayton, O., the huge mystery Boeing bomber, said to be the largest land plane ever built, a veritable sky fortress, is pictured here in front and side views before making its air debut at Boeing Field in Seattle. With a wing spread of 195 feet, and streamlined over its 70-foot length, the mammoth, 15-ton low-wing monoplane has four 725 h. p. motors which can hurl it over a 2,500-mile non-stop range at a speed of 200 to 250 miles an hour. From its aluminum body, like warts on a dinosaur, jut four machine gun turrets, shielded by unbreakable glass. Note two of these turrets, at the side and top in the scene below. The monster air cruiser is protected by the latest safety devices—"robot" pilot, two-way radio telephones and a radio "hooning" device. The Boeing, built by the company whose passenger craft now are used for speedy service on transcontinental lines, will compete at Dayton against other ships being considered for army purchase.

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter Three THE TRAVELER

"Don't bother with thanks," the stranger returned. "I didn't know there was a girl left who would admit that she didn't do everything properly."

"Another slap in the face. What an odious man!"

She could not help looking at him, as he sat in his corner, reading. He held the paper in a curious way, far from his eyes. So she could see his face.

It was a curious face, cast in a rough mold, though lean. The brow square and rugged; the nose bold, with a slight upward tilt; the mouth long, firm, angry-looking.

But his eyes gave her a little shock when, accidentally, she caught his direct gaze. They were the strangest eyes she had ever seen. Light, clear eyes, grey, startling in his deeply-tanned face. Steel grey she thought at first, but when he looked up they seemed almost white, like snow with a shadow on it.

His hair was dark brown, growing squarely back from his forehead, and was rather untidy.

His face went with his manner, Laurie thought. A pity he was such a boor. It might be quite a nice face. Especially when his eyes were bent down on his paper, and his thick dark lashes shadowed the high cheek bones, it looked as if it might be a very nice face. But he evidently had a horrid disposition.

Presently he put down his newspaper and got up.

"I'm going to have some tea," he said. "Would you like some?"

"No, thank you," answered Laurie, on her dignity.

"But don't you want any? You were trying to buy a tea basket!"

"I know. But I don't want any now." She emphasized the last word.

"All right!" He slipped off his overcoat and went out.

He was tall. His figure expressed abstract qualities, as his face did. His mouth was angry. His broad shoulders were impatient. His clothes were very shabby and looked foreign. She supposed he was a traveler from abroad.

Several people passed going to the dining car. Laurie was dying for a cup of tea. But pride forbade it. The man had asked her and she had refused.

She could not help getting up and looking at his suitcases. But there was no name on them, not even a label with his destination.

He came back.

"Tastes good, one's first cup of English tea!" he said in the same abrupt, impersonal way. "About the only thing that hasn't changed in the old country, I expect."

Laurie resented his manner so much that she tried to prevent herself from answering. But her interest was too strong.

"Have you been away from England long?" she asked.

"Ages since I was home. It was bad enough last time. Everything going to pieces. Women running the country — women in Parliament, swimming the Channel, winning the King's Cup, racing at Brooklands!"

Really, he was impossible! Laurie gave him a sarcastic look, and laughed coldly.

"You don't seem to like women."

"Don't know much about them," he said, and meeting her blue eyes, his own strange pale ones lit up with an unexpected smile. "Dare-say they're all right in their place. But not running the country and setting the pace."

That smile gave Laurie another shock. It was only in his eyes, not on his lips, and just as if a bright light had been lit behind them. It was mocking, challenging, but it was human, which, up till then, he had not seemed to be.

"You prefer living abroad?" she asked rather stiffly.

Prince May Lead Italian Division

"I have had no choice lately. No, I don't prefer it. I think the whole world's a pretty rotten place."

"You seem to have a grudge against all the world," remarked Laurie, ruffled, although she did not realize it, by the fact that he did not take the slightest interest in herself.

"I guess I have," he replied curtly. "You see, I've only just lately recovered my sight. I've been blind for—a long time."

"Oh!" She melted instinctively. "I'm sorry. That must have been dreadful. But aren't you glad that you've got your sight back? I should think that would make you like the world."

"I'm an ungrateful devil, I suppose. I grudge the time when I couldn't see—the waste! You don't know what it's like to be helpless, all in the dark, not to be able to move, when you're used to an active life."

"Of course. It must have been awful for you," Laurie assented. It was as if an invisible wire were stretched between them, and on it a tiny tone had been struck that rang with an unknown but pleasant sound. "Are you quite cured?" she asked gently.

"They say so. It was a kind of nervous trouble. But who knows? It may come back."

"You musn't think so." There seemed to be nothing more to say.

He took up his paper again, and Laurie, overcome by a sudden shyness in his presence, decided that, after all, she would go and have a cup of tea.

The train was rushing through the Northern suburbs. In a few minutes they would be in St. Pancras, and the great world of London would swallow them both up.

Laurie had lingered over her tea as long as possible. When she came back, her fellow traveller was in the corridor, smoking a cigarette, that smelt very nice.

He stayed there for some time, and when he entered the carriage again, Laurie was gathering her things together.

"Funny, isn't it," he said in the same abrupt way, "when I was blind I didn't care about smoking a bit?"

"Yes, very strange," she agreed. She could not understand why, as he so obviously disapproved of his fellow creatures, and particularly of her sex, he should take the trouble to talk to her at all.

She looked up and found his eyes fixed on her with an intent, penetrating glance.

Tomorrow, the stranger meets Mark Albery.

EACH ITALIAN YOUTH OF 18 MADE SOLDIER

NEW DECREE IS ISSUED BY WAR MINISTRY OF ITALY

ROME, July 24 (AP)—The war ministry proclaimed today that every young fascist graduating from the Italian youth movement at the age of 18 becomes a "soldier."

"From that day, he assumes obligations of military service which he will satisfy, according to the scope of organizations of the regime, until he is called to actual service," said war ministry publications, establishing regulations for pre-military age training.

The publications of the ministry, mobilizing an army for East African service, specified that in this preliminary period the youth of Italy would give a certain portion of each week to military training and physical exercise until the regular conscription age of 21 was reached.

Recognition of the youths between 18 and 21 as soldiers, however, gave the nation a heavy reserve of partly trained men on whom it could draw for action against Ethiopia.

General Graziosi estimated 500,000 youths are receiving preliminary training. They once were regarded as only potential arms-bearers. Eventually they would form the military classes of 1915, 1916 and 1917.

The Italian press, meanwhile, branched out from its lusty attacks on Japan and Great Britain to lengthy explanations that the nation's currency has been strengthened rather than weakened by temporary suspension of the gold coverage clause.

After remaining silent on the suspension decree yesterday, the press today hailed the results of the first day's effects of the suspension on foreign exchanges as proof that the lira defended itself brilliantly and won.

The ground hogs are the second litter of their kind she has raised, but the deer is a new experience.

ALLISON

The American team's triumph over that to reduce or widen the winning margin.

The American team's victory today makes it the sixth time the United States has qualified for the challenge round since losing the cup to France in 1927.

Non-playing Captain Joseph Wear of Philadelphia was the happiest of the American contingent over the victory but declined to say whether he will depend on the same lineup in the challenge round against Fred Perry, "Bunny" Austin and company.

Sidney Wood Jr. of New York, regarded by many in the United States as Uncle Sam's ablest singles player, viewed the series with Germany from the sidelines. It has been unofficially reported that Wear plans to use him against England.

"I want to see Budge against von Cramm this afternoon," Wear said. "At any rate, I won't name the singles players until the draw actually is made Friday."

Allison, who received an emergency summons to England a year ago for service in the Davis cup competition and upon arrival was told "he was not wanted," admitted he was plenty tired after the grueling match.

"I could have gone two more sets but I'm telling the world I didn't want to against that fellow Henkel," he said.

The last set was the real thriller with Allison missing two match points in the fourth game. Only his uncanny ability to storm the net at exactly the right time and the right place to score 27 placements enabled the veteran to pull through against the determined German youth.

Experts who witnessed the match agreed Henkel will be much more dangerous next year and with von Cramm will form a hard-to-beat combination.

Allison took advantage of his young rival's nervousness in the first set but after that Henkel was a dangerous formidable foe. He ran up a lead of 5-2 in the second chapter before Allison bestirred himself and by virtue of two service breaks and one of the most sensational forecourt attacks ever seen here swept the next five games to capture the set.

Henkel dazzled the American with a brilliant all-court game to lead 5-3 in the third set. Allison won the next two games and then was in a commanding position in the fourth, leading 7-6 in games and 10-15. He lost the next two points through carelessness and then Henkel pulled out the game with a backhand placement and a passing forehand.

Thereafter it was a titanic struggle with Allison's vast experience in international competition and superior generalship pulling him through.

Rain Would Delay Game Only A Day

If tonight's game between the Pampa Road Runners and the Pampa All-Stars is rained out, it will be played tomorrow night, sponsors announced this morning. The game, to be staged in connection with the game, will be held tonight regardless of the weather.

Mrs. Cyrier Dies At Sister's Home

Mrs. Emma Cyrier, 47, died shortly before noon today at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. A. Perry, 414 E. Foster. The body was taken in charge by Pampa Mortuary, awaiting word from relatives concerning funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Cyrier is survived by a daughter, Geraldine Cyrier of Clyde, Kan.; three sisters, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Marian Henion and Mrs. R. W. Bockman of Pocatello, Idaho; and three brothers, Frank and Jack Veroda of Cuba, Kan., and Melk Veroda of Alameda, Kan.

COURT HOUSE NOTES

Judge W. R. Ewing this morning marked 35 divorce suits off the records of 31st district court. The suits had been on file for more than a year without any action having been taken by attorneys for either side.

Trial of Mrs. F. C. Barnett, charged in 31st district court with theft of an automobile, was under way here today. A jury was being selected to hear testimony this morning. Mrs. Barnett was charged with theft of an automobile from the streets of McLean on May 5. The car belonged to Earl Stubblefield. Later the car crashed with another, one being killed and five injured in the collision.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, July 24. (AP)—Advancing prices formed the rule in wheat trading most of the time today.

Especially toward the last, wheat values showed a tendency to soar on account of fears expressed that the Canadian crop was facing an alarming situation because of rapid spread of black rust. North Dakota reports regarding rust were also particularly apprehensive.

Wheat closed firm at virtually the day's top level, 1 1/4-2 1/4 above yesterday's finish. Sept. 86-86 1/2, corn 1/4-3/4 up. Sept. 76 1/2-3/4, oats 1/4 off to 1/2 up, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 47 cents.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 24. (AP)—Encouraged by a good demand for farm implements and a merchandising spree, the stock market edged upward enough for a number of key issues to register new 1935 highs today. Trading broadened out considerably during the final hour and a half, when the best progress was made. The closing tone was firm. Transfers approximated 1,200,000 shares.

REBELS

national administration frowned on their movement. Gen. Cervera declined to make a statement but the Earlingen (Texas) Valley Morning Star said he was backing Munguia. He had only 15 soldiers in town.

Despite the surface quiet of the peasant force, the city was tense. Saloons and stores ordinarily open late into the night closed early in the evening and barred their doors. The whole police force under heavy arms was stationed around the plaza but offered no interference when minor demonstrations arose, for fear of precipitating general trouble.

Refusal Is Firm
Mayor Munguia sent back a curt refusal late yesterday when a committee from the agrarian force handed him a formal written demand for his resignation. Later he issued a signed statement saying he would go "to any length to guarantee peace and order in the city of Matamoros, but until a majority of the citizens of Matamoros request my removal I will protect my office against all outside political leaders."

He said the whole movement had been fostered by political enemies of the city administration. Reynosa, nearby, was quiet yesterday as the agrarians gathered at Matamoros, and Police Chief Rafael Prada said there was no prospect of trouble there. He planned to leave today for a 15-day vacation and business trip to Mexico City.

The opposite opinion, however, was expressed by F. M. Rodriguez, president of the Reynosa organization of the union of the national revolutionary party. He said 900 members of the organization met there last night and predicted 2,000 more would be there today for a demonstration and a demand for the resignation of Mayor Alfredo Ramirez.

Trouble at Nuevo Laredo.
Nuevo Laredo, in the far north-west corner of the state, experienced trouble of a different sort over the state administration question. City officials there were so divided among themselves that federal officers were forced to take over control of the city. Mayor Herrera, adherent of the governor, sought to remove City Treasurer Juan Mattel, Police Sergeant B. Bazan, City Inspector Jose Quintana, and 19 other appointive officers. With the city council opposing him, the mayor was forced to hand over authority to federal officers. After the mayor's opponents had threatened his supporters with imprisonment he issued a statement saying he no longer would recognize the authority of Villarral.

McAllen, July 24. (AP)—A peaceful change of municipal heads at Reynosa, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from here, within the next 48 hours was indicated today after a meeting of agraristas last night. The town remained quiet, although a few peasants were still in the vicinity, ready to support the demands of their party.

The change in municipal heads will affect eight offices, including that of Mayor Alfredo Ramirez. It was understood that Manuel Garza-Zamora, former mayor, and his brother, Tibudcio Garza-Zamora, commander of the garrison at Reynos, had left for their ranch south of the city so that a change might be made peacefully.

UTILITY

T. P. and L. back to the Electric Bond and Share when he ceased to be president.

Talked To Rayburn
Lowering his voice, Black asked Carpenter whether he had any correspondence relating to the administration holding company bill.

"Very little correspondence," Carpenter replied. He handed Black a file several inches thick. Carpenter said he had come to Washington in February in connection with the utilities bill, accompanied by W. W. Lynch, one of his assistants.

He said he also suggested that Joe A. Worsham, vice president, come here.

Expenses of the delegation, he continued, were charged against the operating expenses of the T. P. and L. He said the amount was $1,467.

The Texan said he had talked to Chairman Rayburn, of the house interstate commerce committee, and "most of the congressmen and senators" from Texas.

Representative Patton (D-Texas) visited him at his hotel room, Carpenter said, and Representative Johnson (D-Texas) also stopped by the hotel.

Carpenter said he had discussed his trips to Washington with S. R. Inch, president of the Electric Bond and Share company.

"You were told it was the desire of the people in New York that you bring such people as would have an influence with the Texas congressmen?" asked Black.

"They didn't tell me to bring anyone," Carpenter replied.

The Texan said he returned to Washington about a month after his February visit and was here until after the house vote on the holding company bill.

Asked "how many congressmen were at your hotel the Sunday before the vote in the house," Carpenter said he could not recall.

He said Patton and Representative Dies (D-Texas) had visited him at his hotel on this trip.

Once, he testified, he and Mrs. Carpenter went fishing with Representative and Mrs. Patton.

Gave Guests Dinner
Carpenter said he did not remember giving his guests anything, except possibly a dinner.

"I had lunch at the capitol with some of the congressmen," he added.

He said he had lunched with Senator and Mrs. Sheppard (D-Texas), Representative Sanders (D-Texas), Johnson, and "two or three others" at various times.

He told of discussing their votes on the bill with Sheppard and several members of the house.

"Sheppard said he was going to study the matter closely and do what he decided was right," Carpenter said.

He told Black he had cigars in his hotel but did not remember giving them away.

Black kept returning to Carpenter's activities on the Sunday before the house vote, but the utility head said he could not remember what he had done.

After the house vote, Carpenter said he saw Senator Connally (D-Texas), and Representative Johnson and Sanders.

"Did you give any box of cigars to a member of congress?" Black asked.

Can't Remember
"I don't recall," the witness replied.

"How many rooms did you have at the Mayflower the Sunday before the house vote?" Black asked.

"I think two," Carpenter replied.

Black asked if Carpenter's wife and children had not left the hotel early Sunday morning and left him there alone, but Carpenter said he could not remember.

"My object was to try to prevail upon senators and congressmen I knew that the bill was destructive," he said.

He testified he had talked to all Texas congressmen except Representatives Maverick (D-Texas) and McFarlane (D-Texas).

Several times during his testimony, Carpenter mentioned that R. K. Hangar, of Fort Worth, was also in Washington but not in his party.

Black returned again to Carpenter's activity on Sunday before the house vote, but the witness said he could not remember.

Black asked if he had given anything to a congressman that day.

"I don't recall giving anyone anything," Carpenter said.

"Will you swear you did not?" Black persisted.

"I may have given some cigars," "To whom?"

"I don't know."

"You do know you gave someone something in a box wrapped in a newspaper?"

"I don't remember."

Senator Minton (D-Ind) took up the questioning, but Carpenter insisted he did not remember giving anything to a congressman.

Senator Schwellenbach (D-Wash) interrupted to ask:

"Do you want this committee to believe you can't remember the Sunday before the vote was taken that a box was wrapped in a newspaper and that a congressman took it from your room in the hotel?"

"I don't remember," Carpenter replied. "I know I didn't give away anything unless it was a box of cigars."

The Texan said as far as he knew the T. P. and L. never had paid any money directly or indirectly to any senator or congressman or had ever employed "even a state senator."

Funeral Services For Woman Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Minnix, 92, who died in a Woodward, Okla., hospital last Wednesday, were conducted yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the chapel of Pampa Mortuary with Rev. John Scott, pastor of the Central Baptist church, officiating. Burial followed in Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Minnix is survived by five sons, Earl Vernon, Pampa; L. A. Vernon, Brewster, Kan.; Price Minnix, Holliday, and Charlie Vernon and Frank Vernon whose places of residence are unknown.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Late trading on the cotton market today was a counterpart of yesterday's dealings as the July position more than 75 cents a bale while other months were 3 to 4 points higher.

The issuance of a notice for delivery of 100 bales of July unsettled.

this position and as the notice continued to circulate a sharp price recession occurred as the market dipped to 11.52.

The rest of the market held up well in the face of July weakness and a bullish weather report.

October ranged around 4 points higher at 1.34, December was up 3 points at 11.23, and March was up a couple of points also at 11.23.
