

Exemptions Under Draft Are Outlined

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The White House, the military establishment and selective service are still working out details of exemptions under the new Draft Law but here are some of the provisions, tentative or definite —

1. Tentative directions sent out by the Army but subject to possible change provide these exemptions —

A — Veterans — Men with 90 days service between Dec. 7, 1941, and Sept. 2, 1945, with 12 months service or more between September 16, 1940, and Thursday, June 24, with 90 days service, but less than 12 months before Pearl Harbor or after V-J Day providing he is a member of an organized reserve including senior ROTC units, colleges and universities but not high schools in the last two years of the course.

B — Non-veterans — Men who were members of those reserve units or the National Guard Thursday. This also includes veterans who were members of a National Guard unit Thursday. This includes federally recognized units of the National Guard and Air National Guard, Officers Reserve Corps, Regular Army Reserve, Air Force Reserve, Enlisted Reserve Corps, National Reserve, Marine Corps, Coast Guard Reserve, Public Health Service.

2. The President is given authority to defer from induction persons whose activities are found to be necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest (essential occupations); those engaged in scientific or medical research and study; married men.

3. A "sole surviving son" of a family who has lost one or more sons in action or in line of duty while serving with the armed forces will be exempt.

4. A high school student will be deferred until graduation or until he reaches 29 years of age; a college student until the end of the school year.

5. The law provides that the exemption for high school and college students continues only as long as the student "satisfactorily" pursues his course of instruction.

Highway Plans Are Discussed

A joint meeting between the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and the Pampa-to-Perryton Highway Committee was held Friday afternoon to discuss plans for improving the road.

Fencing has already started on the first section of 4.4 miles of the south end of the road, and paving will start soon by the Orvell Thornburg Construction Company, local contractors, it was announced.

Contracts for paving 15 miles on the north end of the road are expected to be let this summer by the State Highway Department.

Girl Scouters Keeping Busy

Girl Scout leaders are managing to keep busy in spite of the disbandment of the majority of the troops this summer. The leaders are doing everything from carrying mail to driving wheat trucks, Mrs. K. E. Thornton reports.

Vacationing are Mrs. R. C. Rowden, Troop 1 leader, who plans to go to California; Mrs. Clifford Lewis, assistant leader Troop 1, who also plans to go to California; Mrs. D. C. Culwell, Troop 8, who will spend six weeks in the mountains and on the beach; Mrs. Archie Bullard, Troop 9, California; Mrs. Russell Kennedy, Troop 17, Corpus Christi; Helen Dudley, Troop 18, Myra, Tex.; Jaunel Shelton, assistant Troop 18, Arkansas; Mrs. H. H. Butler, Girl Scout program chairman, Olney and Mrs. Frank Wilson, treasurer, Gainesville.

Mrs. John Kurtzweil, Troop 29, plans to detassel corn on her farm in Iowa. Mrs. J. L. Mulanax, assistant Troop 29, will be a substitute rural mail carrier here. Mrs. S. W. Kretzmeier, assistant Troop 3, will drive a wheat truck and Mrs. W. O. Frewitt, Troop 15, will be moving to Borger.

GREATEST CALAMITY

What is said to have been the greatest calamity in history was the Black Death, a pestilence which spread over Asia, Europe, and northern Africa in the 14th century, and took the lives of 67,000,000 people.

Plymouth does it with a Triple Play — for Safety!

1. Super-Cushion Tires

Bigger, fatter, softer, these revolutionary new tires soak up road shocks from the side as well as below. Super-Cushions hug the road better. The improved tread, with notches molded in crosswise, gives greater traction. Teamed with Plymouth's Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes, Super-Cushions make stopping easier and surer. Teamed with Plymouth's new, wider Safety-Rim Wheels, they give you the most complete tire failure protection ever. The tires reduce chances of failure because they run cooler. But should trouble occur you have the famous Safety-Rim Wheels to rely on.

2. New, Wider Safety-Rim Wheels

Safety-Rim Wheels take most of the danger out of blowouts, punctures, tire failures of any kind. As you know, ordinary rim wheels depend on air pressure alone to hold the tire in place. When the air lets go, the tire pulls away from the rim. But with Safety-Rim Wheels, patented retaining humps are there to hold the tire straight and tight on the rim as Plymouth's Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes bring you to a safe, easy stop. With road-gripping Super-Cushion Tires, these features make an unbeatable safety combination.

3. Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes

Engineers call this feature the greatest advance in car control since trail-blazing Plymouth pioneered hydraulic brakes in the lowest-priced field. Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes increase braking effectiveness by a third . . . give you maximum controllability . . . and that means maximum safety. Their action is accurate and non-erratic. They lighten needed foot pressure by 25%. With Super-Cushion Tires and new, wider Safety-Rim Wheels they make it possible for even emergency stops to be sure and easy. Only Plymouth has this amazing safety trio in the lowest-priced field.

Jury Finds Man Guilty

Don L. O'Mara, of west of town, was found guilty and fined $25 by a six-man Corporation Court jury Friday morning. John F. Studer, O'Mara's attorney, immediately appealed the case to the County Court.

O'Mara was charged with making a U-turn between intersections in the 100-block of E. W. Atchison about 2 a. m. on May 30.

According to the testimony of the arresting officers, O'Mara was alleged to have resisted arrest, and Eunice Nash, his companion, was said to have shot an officer in the face with a water pistol when O'Mara passed a police car on S. Cuyler.

O'Mara, Mias Nash, and her brother, Charles, who was with them in the car, denied the allegations of the arresting officers, and counter-claimed that the officers used unnecessary roughness in making the arrest.

Although these claims were introduced in testimony and cross-examination by both Studer and City Attorney Robert Gordon, they were not part of the formal charges.

Demos Move To Spotlight

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Now that Democrats are moving in behind departing delegates to the Republican Convention, the political spotlight is focusing on Dixie's pretty Dorothy Vredenburg.

She is secretary to the Democratic National Committee. That party's convention opens here July 12.

Even with the Republicans jamming the hotel corridors outside Democratic Convention headquarters, there were literally hundreds of callers, day and night. Many wanted to know about their accommodations for the Democratic conclave. Mrs. Vredenburg handles housing ("and please tell my Alabama friends I'm doing my best, but I know I can't satisfy everybody.")

One visitor wanted a description of the beds and furniture he couldn't expect. Another said he doesn't want to share his room with anyone who drinks.

Jammed into a fourth floor corner now, Democratic headquarters expects to move by Monday into the commodious suites which their Republican counterparts have held.

Republicans virtually overran the city during their five-day convention. But there'll be even more Democrats, because that party has 3,192 delegates and alternates coming, against the GOP's 2,188.

Harvesting Is at Peak

GROOM — At the first of last week harvest in Carson County was 15 percent complete with the expected end of harvest July 10. However, during the week harvesting jumped into high gear so that the completion date now has been set at July 4.

Groom grain dealers estimate an overall yield at seven bushels for the area, which is about one-third of last year's yield. Yields were running from seven bushels on voluntary wheat, seeded wheat and summer fallow as high as 35 bushels, it was reported. Grain tests are averaging about 60, grain buyers say.

The price of wheat this year is about 25 cents above the price paid last year. At the first of the week wheat was bringing $2.05 per bushel. The government loan rate of Carson and Gray Counties has been set at $1.93 until July.

R. E. Monday, Groom Rock Island railroad agent, reports that by Tuesday night 29 carloads of

National Guard Still Enlisting

AUSTIN — (AP) — The National Guard will continue to enlist draft-age men but such enlistment will not now exempt them from the draft, State Adjutant General K. L. Berry has announced.

Berry said National Guard service would help qualify men for higher ratings in the regular service.

More than 1,800 men were enlisted in Texas' National Guard by enlisting before the bill was signed, Berry said. Only those who enlisted before the bill was signed are draft exempt.

New wheat had been shipped from Groom, 13 carloads from Lark and 41 from Boydston elevators.

Harvest is exceeding the most optimistic expectations, and it is said Groom is having the best yields of any part of Carson County.

Texans Stay With Taft in Second Ballot

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Texas stayed with Taft on the second ballot of the Republican National Convention, National Committeeman R. E. Creager said, "because I don't betray my friends."

Asked why the full delegation had not followed a suggestion of Delegate George Hopkins of Dallas to switch to Governor Dewey of New York on the second ballot, Creager told reporters—

"If that's missing the boat, then more than half of the states missed the boat with us. I would not have abandoned Taft without first consulting him. I don't betray my friends."

Thirty-three more votes for Dewey on the second ballot would have given him the presidential nomination then. That is exactly the number of votes the Texas delegation had in the convention.

On the second ballot, Texas cast 29 votes for Senator Taft of Ohio, two for Dewey and two for Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

Creager, veteran party leader from Brownsville, Friday urged unity behind Dewey, saying—

"There's no question about his election. The situation now is much different than when he ran against Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The Texas delegation caucused Friday morning and agreed to go along with whomever Dewey wanted for his running mate. Creager said that personally he preferred Senator Bricker of Ohio, who ran with Dewey four years ago.

Widespread Praise Of Dewey Shown in Editorial Copy

By the Associated Press

Widespread praise for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey as the Republican Party's presidential nominee is reflected in a cross-section of editorial comment by the nation's press, but a number of newspapers are critical of the candidate and of the makeup of his party.

The New York Times praised Dewey as twice-elected Governor of New York and termed him "highly successful in this great office." It said "the state's business has been managed quietly and efficiently at Albany."

But the Chicago Tribune said "the international bankers have taken the Republican Party for the third time. . . Truman (is) to be opposed by one of the Roosevelt setups who carried only 12 states four years ago and ran a quarter of a million votes behind the ticket in Illinois."

The Cleveland Plain Dealer: "It appears that (Dewey) becomes Republican candidate for the presidency as a result of an implied compromise. He is neither an isolationist nor an internationalist. He is, or in 1944 seemed to be, a middle-of-the-roader in domestic policy. . . this newspaper will support the Dewey candidacy in November, we are, however, not unmindful of the unsatisfactory campaign Dewey made in 1944 and of his disposition to fudge on matters of domestic policy."

Autopsy to Probe Death

BROWNWOOD (AP)—District Attorney Rayston P. Haun says an autopsy will be held at Brady next Wednesday to determine the cause of death of Atlas B. Middleton, 51, whose body was found in a car at Melvin April 16.

Haun said the body will be examined at the request of relatives. He said state chemists and poison experts are to assist two Brady doctors in the autopsy.

Evidence at an inquest after the body was found showed that Middleton, a feed-store owner at Melvin, went driving with a companion and that they visited package stores in Menard and a hotel in Eden.

The companion told the district attorney that Middleton became sick. The companion said he took Middleton back to his store and put him in his own car, where he was found dead the next morning.

Quiet and Smiling Mrs. Dewey Stands By GOP Nominee

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dark-haired Texas-born Frances Hutt Dewey, for the second time in four years, stood quiet and smiling beside her husband before a roaring National Republican Convention crowd. And less than an hour later Thursday night, the wife of the presidential nominee turned in for the night.

Thursday was a long, gruelling day for Mrs. Dewey.

In the company of a few aides, she sat in a Bellevue-Stratford Hotel room and tabulated the votes as she watched the afternoon session unfold on a television set in the corner.

Again she took her place near the video screen when the evening session began. Then suddenly the mounting tension collapsed.

The face of Ohio's Senator John Bricker appeared. He spoke and it was all over.

Mrs. Dewey looked down a moment, touched her face lightly with her hands and gave a deep, deep sigh.

"I guess," she said quietly, "I'd better go put on my hat."

A minute later Governor Dewey walked into the suite. He went directly to his wife, standing in front of mirror in their bedroom. They clasped each other and stood silent and still for a moment.

Soon she was on her husband's arm and flanked by police, on her way to the Convention Hall. There she stood silently at the Governor's side, smiling occasionally to the crowd but mostly look-

THE DRILLER'S LOG
By KEN BENNETT

Friday was a gala day for the employees of the Gulf Company. At ten in the morning all plants shut down and the entire group along with families and friends went to Lake McCallan for the annual Gulf Day Picnic. Certainly nothing was spared to make this the biggest and best of all their picnics. Registration began at 2 P.M. and at 3 the Gulf officials were introduced by A. C. Hatfield. At about 3:20 the entertainment got underway with F. M. Parker in the Emcee spot. Appearing on the program were Red Gordon, Imitator, Three Honeys and a Bee, The Squarey Door Four, and a trampoline. Shortly after four the athletic events began with C. S. Edmonds director. At six the entire group was served a famous John Snider barbecue which certainly held up the tradition that John Snider has for his barbecue preparations. Music for this occasion was furnished by yours truly and his orchestra, being relieved to enjoy the barbecue by Mrs. Roy Reeder, formerly of Pampa and now of Wichita Falls. Mrs. Reeder sang and played some of her own compositions and other music. At eight the orchestra and Gulf guests moved the location to the lodge where a dance was held until 12 midnight. The rain that came did not dampen the spirits of the work Ray is group in the least and a good time was had by all right up to the last minute. Congratulations are hereby offered to the following for their fine work in preparing for and carrying out all the picnic plans: H. D. Schmalhorst, finance, Ralph Willis and B. A. Cunningham, barbecue, Martin Stubb and W. B. Hash, refreshments, T. G. Hollingsworth, transportation, W. R. Fyfe, sound equipment and lights, B. R. Carr, publicity, H. D. Bell, and H. H. Threalt, grounds arrangements, C. A. Edmonds, F. M. Parker, and F. D. Fowler, entertainment. The affair took on a full county fair atmosphere with colorful stands, booths, and cold drink stands where everything was free. It is certainly a wonderful gesture by the company for its employees and I'm sure it gives a real family feeling to all those members of the Gulf association. A. C. Hatfield appeared on the stands during the dinner hour to encourage each one present qualified to vote this year to study for themselves the qualified persons for public office and urged them to vote their own minds.

Twenty-two Notices of Intent to Drill Filed With Commission

Twenty-two notices of intent to drill were filed at the local Oil and Gas Office of the State Railroad Commission during the past week, officials reported yesterday. The same report listed five wells to be deepened, and one to be plugged.

Hutchinson County, with thirteen new locations, led the list in new activity. Gray County reported five new filings. One new location was filed on in each of five other counties. Collingsworth, Hartley, Moore, Potter, and Sherman.

Is my face red? ... for weeks I have been listening to the rumors that Phillips Company was disappointed in the Carruth well because of low formations. Now I hear on pretty good authority that the well is looking extremely good with a few rumors of a definite show already. From all indications pipe has been run and from these same rumors it appears the best show is around 6000 feet where the first Schlumberger test was run. Some oil is in evidence in the pits, but this can in no way indicate positive proof because the oil used by the operation of the well could easily cause this. I do feel you can expect more definite word from this well in the very near future.

Skelton Reports Texas Oil News

By MAX E. SKELTON
HOUSTON—It's rather difficult to separate optimism from pessimism when an oil man talks about Mexican oil explorations. There is much enthusiasm over future possibilities of the Mexican oil industry but most United States companies apparently feel there are too many "ifs."

They appear to be adopting, for the most part, a "wait and see" policy before accepting the Mexican government's recent overtures for foreign investments and explorations.

A check of major companies operating along the Texas Gulf Coast presented these observations:

Oil production potentials in Mexico are enormous.

Lack of modern methods and equipment prevent maximum production from present wells.

United States companies would like to participate in the operations but, for the present at least, many are puzzled by the types of contracts offered by the Mexican government.

Most company spokesmen expressed fear of another "closed door" policy such as Mexico's action ten years ago in expropriating all foreign oil properties.

Said one spokesman—"I understand our negotiations with Mexican representatives fell through because we couldn't tell them we had a deal and when we didn't."

Said another: "There are many lavish oil prospects in Mexico but the uncertainty of the situation is just too unstable for my company to consider."

Eugene Holman, president of the Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) last week admitted an interest in participating in oil developments below the Rio Grande but listed "musts" that will govern any contract.

"We must be assured of a good title to the oil properties, have good contractual relations and a reasonable chance to make a profit," he explained.

Meanwhile, Antonio J. Bermudez, general manager of Pemex, Mexican government oil monopoly, last week expressed confidence the new expansion program for the industry will succeed.

He also explained the two types of contracts being offered foreign companies.

The basic contract, he said, presents a "clear risk" to the contractor in that he is not permitted to remove money which he spent in operations unless he strikes oil.

"In exchange for this risk, Pemex offers to pay the contractor a bonus in the event he does strike oil," he explained.

Another contract, such as already signed by Cities Service, calls for loans of money and materials to Pemex for drilling wells, with Pemex reimbursing the loans and selling the company oil at the world market prices.

Supply and demand: The nation's crude oil production for the sixth consecutive week, American Petroleum Institute reports reveal, set a new all-time daily average high of 5,492,359 barrels for the week ending June 19.

This is an increase of 12,750 over the preceding week and compared with 5,114,500 barrels daily a year earlier.

The Oil and Gas Journal estimated the week's daily average at 5,490,685 barrels but credited the figure with being a new record. Gasoline production, however, declined to 17,648,000 barrels for the week, 280,000 barrels less than the previous week.

Tidelands: Action of the National Republican convention of placing state ownership of tidelands in its platform was accepted as very encouraging news by state officials who have led the battle against Federal Government ownership.

Several state democratic conventions have adopted state ownership resolutions instructing delegates to the July national convention to seek inclusion of state ownership provisions in that party's platform.

The stage then would be set for another battle in Congress.

State notes: Mississippi's Supreme Court, with a 5 to 4 decision, has upheld the right of the state to place an excise tax or franchise tax on gas pipeline companies doing only interstate business in the state.

Oklahoma gas producers are hopeful a trend might be indicated in the action of the Bahan Brothers, Guthrie, of boosting their purchase price, retroactive to June 1, to 6-cents a thousand feet. The company, purchasers of about 1.2 billion cubic feet annually, has been paying 5 cents per thousand.

G. L. Brennan, general manager of the liquefied petroleum gas division of Warren Petroleum Corporation, Tulsa, predicts demand for such products this year will be between 25 and 30 percent above 1947 and that the upward trend will continue into 1949.

Louisiana's daily oil production allowable for July has been set at 527,803 barrels, as compared with June's 525,855.

Total receipts from auctions of University of Texas property reached $39,767,546 last week when 41,539 acres of land were leased for $5,900,800. Bids on one tract of 2807 acres opened at $10,000 and closed at $1,750,000 on an offer from Superior Oil Company of California.

Texas oil well completions for the year stood at 3269 on June 19, as compared with 2510 the same date last year.

Communist Aggression Is Spurring Democratic Unity

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Out of the fire comes the steel, out of the trials and dangers imposed by the bolshevist drive to conquer the globe there undoubtedly is emerging a new unity among the free nations.

By treachery, trickery and aggression the Reds enslaved Eastern Europe before a trusting world as a whole was awake to this threat from one of the major Allies. However, with the full awakening, the democratic nations are solidifying in a manner which couldn't have been foreseen. The Communist scheme of breeding division and discord is back-firing. We see this in the fact that while idealists strove for generations to form a United States of Europe, the Muscovites unwittingly and unwillingly have set such a union well on its way in Western Europe and America together in a manner which couldn't have been foreseen by any stretch of imagination.

The nucleus of a possible United States of Europe is the recently formed Western European Union. This comprises Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The alliance is economic, military and political. Other countries of West Europe

Amarillo Field Sale Scheduled

War Assets Administration has announced that it will hold its first public auction sale of surplus camp buildings of the former Amarillo Army Air Field in a high bid, "cash and carry" offering of approximately 700 structures July 7 and 8.

More than a hundred of the air field's buildings have previously been awarded to schools, non-profit institutions, and governmental priority claimants for off-site use. The airport property buildings and related materials for permanent basis are scheduled to be transferred to the city of Amarillo.

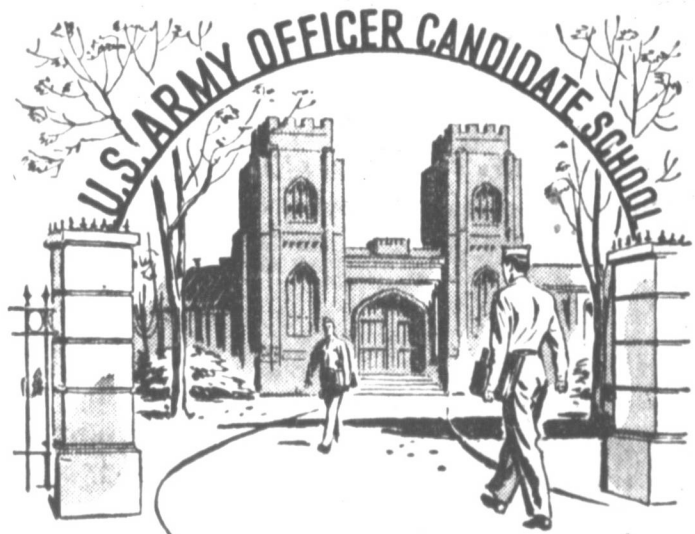

Remaining camp buildings to be sold are among the best still in WAA inventory. C. Jack Cowart, chief of the WAA's urban and rural branch of non-industrial real property, said that many are of types suitable for ready conversion to farm and ranch usage, including wheat storage, and housing.

In the offering will be warehouses, barracks, storerooms, administration, s.h.e.d.s, recreation, medical supply, postoffice and post exchange building. Buildings will be open for inspection of the various structures from June 28 through July 6, excepting Saturdays and Sundays.

are debating affiliation. Today Washington is hard at work on ways and means of associating America with this new European bloc which gives real promise of expanding. Conversations between the union and the State Department are expected to take place soon. Medetime the Marshall Plan is swinging into action and is further drawing the nations of Western Europe together for mutual advantage.

Kemo, Friend Of Entire Camp, Killed by Car

After eight years of faithfulness, Kemo, a Scottie belonging to H. L. Speer and admired by all residents of Sinclair Prairie Camp, was run over Thursday morning.

Kemo was Bill Speer's dog before Bill went to the University of New Mexico two years ago. Since that time the Scottie has been known as just plain "Kemo Speer."

After being brought to Pampa last week to have his heavy black hair stripped, Kemo started to miss his Sinclair Camp friends. The stripping was nothing new for Kemo since it has been an annual occurrence for some time. However, Kemo this year decided he didn't like to be left alone in Pampa; so he started on his five-mile trip home.

Instead of going to the road that turned into the Sinclair Camp, Kemo evidently turned east one mile too soon. When he discovered he was lost he took out across the fields, all the time knowing his home couldn't be far away. When the little boys in the neighborhood heard Kemo was lost they started a bicycle expedition and searched every road for miles around. The men and women neighbors also aided in the search by coming to Pampa on different roads to keep their eyes open for some sign of Kemo.

Then Thursday morning when Ken Thornton was driving three miles on the other side of Sinclair Camp, he noticed a black spot in the road ahead of him. Sure enough, it was Kemo. He had been hit by car sometime earlier that morning.

Groom Will Get DDT Spraying

Pampa and Groom city officials will use the city's new DDT fog applicator to spray all Groom streets and alleys with a five percent solution Friday, Ray Salmon, city health officer, said yesterday.

Approximately two hours will be needed to do the job in Groom, giving complete coverage to the area within the city. Salmon and an operator also will spray Panhandle and White Deer with DDT Friday, Salmon said.

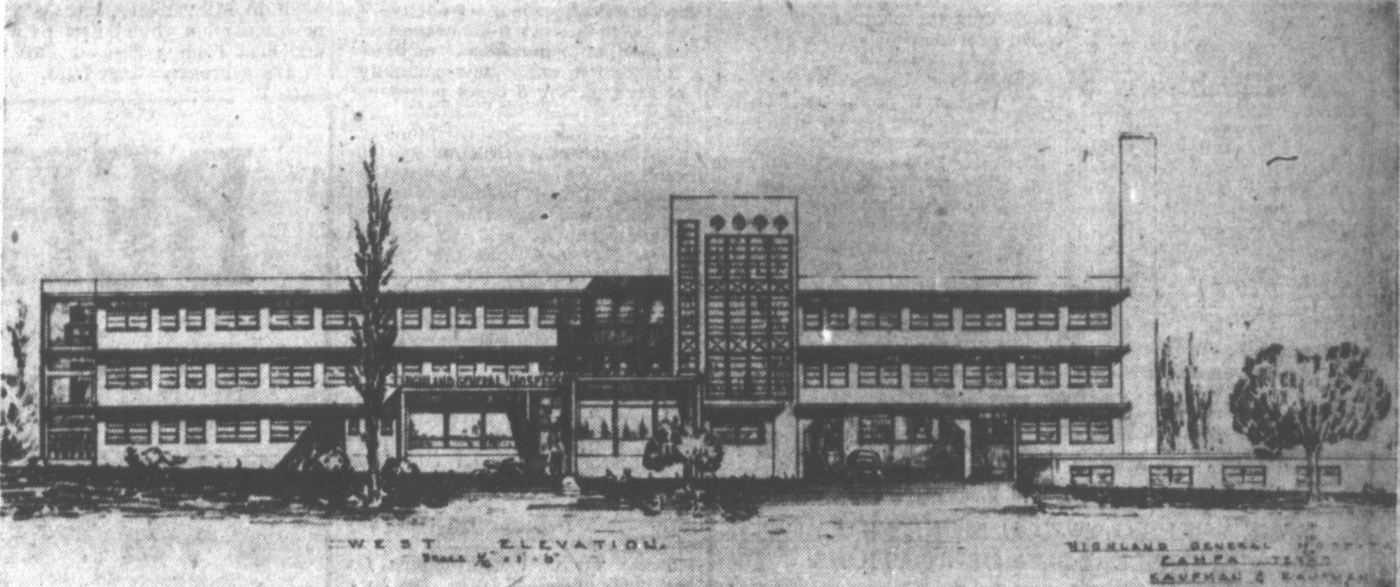

Pampa was thoroughly sprayed with DDT for the third time this summer Friday. It was done in an effort to remove the menace of flies and mosquitoes and to reduce the hazard of pozo.

All proprietors of business and professional establishments and some owners of the cities to be sprayed have been requested to leave windows and doors open since the spray is harmless. If the substance is not allowed to penetrate into all buildings, the purpose of the spray will be defeated.

Homers Help Yanks Defeat Tigers 8-5

DETROIT (AP)—The New York Yankees rode to an 8-5 victory over the Detroit Tigers Saturday on the strength of home runs by Johnny Lindell and Yogi Berra. Although he needed help from reliever Joe Page, Allie Reynolds was credited with the victory, his ninth of the season.

Page entered the game in the sixth inning, after Reynolds had been belted for four runs in a four-inning Tiger uprising, and allowed only one hit the rest of the way.

In the fourth, the Yankees jumped on Tiger starter Virgil Trucks and his successor, Freddie Hutchinson, for four hits and four runs. One of the hits was Johnny Lindell's 11th homer of the season.

First Half of Lefors League Ends Thursday

The first half of the Lefors Softball League season is rapidly drawing to a close with the Cut-Rate Grocers still leading the parade of pennant contenders with a record of 12 wins and 2 losses.

The Grocers are 1-2 games ahead of their nearest competitors, the Lefors Scouts, who have a record of 7 wins and 6 losses.

Following these two teams in the league standings are Danciger and the Texas Company, both having a .500 record with 7 wins and 7 losses. Two and one-half games behind this pair is the Red and White Grocery with a 4-9 record and in last place, eight games out of first, is the Houchin Variety club.

The Cut-Rate team and the Texas Company have both scheduled games with the White Deer All-Stars with the Texas Company game being scheduled for this afternoon. The league leaders will meet the All-Stars Wednesday night at 9 o'clock in White Deer.

Thursday evening will mark the end of the first half of league play when the outstanding players of each team will be composed into two teams and play an All-Star game. The outstanding player of the first, third and fifth place teams will meet the stalwarts of the second, fourth and sixth place outfits.

Scoring all their runs in the first inning, the Cincinnati Reds, behind the airtight pitching of Johnny (Double No-Hit) Vandermeer, shut out the New York Giants 4-0 Saturday to even their current series at one game apiece.

The Reds took advantage of wildness on the part of Southpaw Monte Kennedy and an error by Outfielder Whitey Lockman to tally four times on only two singles.

Kennedy, making his second start since his recall from Minneapolis last week, failed to get by the first inning. He walked two of the first three batters to face him then gave up singles to Hank Sauer and Danny Litwhiler. When CHICAGO (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics turned five hits into their fifth straight victory when they leveled the Chicago White Sox, 4-2, before a ladies day crowd of 5,577 persons yesterday. The losers outbit the second place A's 10-5, but the Chicago scoring was confined to a two-run fifth.

BROOKLYN (AP)—Paced by the booming bat of Stan Musial, the St. Louis Cardinals pounded out a 6-3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday to even their current series at one game apiece.

Musial had another torrid day at the plate with four hits including his 16th home run and a double in five trips to the plate.

The Cards sent starter Joe Hatton to the showers in the second inning after Pitcher Murry Dickson singled on the heels of Del Rice's first home run of the season.

GASSERS GET 13 RUNS FIRST THREE FRAMES

The Borger Gassers scored 13 runs in the first three innings of their tilt with the league leading Oilers last night in Huber Park, eight of them off George Payte, to establish a margin that proved to be too much for the Oilers as they succumbed to the Gassers, 16-11.

The locals tried desperately to save the contest throughout the final three innings but the Gassers had already established too much of a headway despite the fact that the Oilers outbit the Borgans, 14-12. The twelve walks issued by three Oiler hurlers provided the Pampa deficit since Lefty Clayton Fries was very "stingy" with charity bases, issuing only two.

The Oilers drew first blood when R. C. Otey opened up with a fly to Larry Gilchrist at short which he promptly muffed, allowing Otey to reach first. After Bartholomew and Riley struck out, Joe Fortin connected for a home run over the center field wall, scoring Otey ahead of him. Range filed out to first to end the frame.

The Gassers tied it up in their half of the inning when Larry Gilchrist hit a 2-0 pitch over the centerfield wall with the sacks empty. The Carbon City nine wrote "finis" to Paytes mound stint in the second inning when they righched the righthander for three hits, and monopolized on the four walks given them, to score seven runs. Charlie Kunkle started the third frame for the Oilers, but after issuing three walks and allowing four hits, he counted for five runs in the one-third inning he tossed, he also retired for another southpaw, Roy Parker.

Parker shut out the winners for the next three innings without allowing a hit, but his "double whammy" was broken in the seventh frame when Larry Gilchrist led off with a single. After this, Parker gave up three more hits in this inning as the Gassers shoved across their final three runs.

The Oilers scored one in the seventh on singles by Belford and Samek and a pair of mishaps by McNulty and Verdun Gilchrist and the loop leaders got three more in the eighth when Joltin' Joe Fortin hit second homer of the night with Bartholomew parked on second. Range then stepped into the batter's box and followed Fortin's example by placing the first pitch over the exact spot that Fortin's had cleared in centerfield.

Three more Oiler runs crossed home in the ninth on five more hits as the Oilers let two men stranded on the base paths when Fries settled down to whiff Belford after two men were already out. The Borger southpaw went the complete route for the Gassers. This was the first time this season that he has been able to do this against the Oilers although he has attempted three times.

The Oilers are in Amarillo today for the first of a three-game series with the Amarillo Gold Sox. Howard Bass or Foster White will probably start on the mound for the Oilers while Amarillo Ace Jimmy Heller will probably get the starting nod for the Golden Hose.

Martin Retains Mat Crown by Besting George Curtis Friday

Wayne Martin, Tulsa, Okla., retained his Southwestern Junior Heavyweight wrestling championship at the Sportatorium Friday night by defeating George Curtis, Vicksburg, Miss., in a scheduled two-and-a-half hour limit title match.

In a fast, clean match that had the spectators rising to their feet applauding the good sportsmanship of both men, the champion and contender displayed some of the trickiest and shiftest scientific wrestling seen in the local arena.

The Oilers drew first blood when R. C. Otey opened up with a fly to Larry Gilchrist at short which he promptly muffed, allowing Otey to reach first. After Bartholomew and Riley struck out, Joe Fortin connected for a home run over the center field wall, scoring Otey ahead of him. Range filed out to first to end the frame.

The Gassers tied it up in their half of the inning when Larry Gilchrist hit a 2-0 pitch over the centerfield wall with the sacks empty. The Carbon City nine wrote "finis" to Paytes mound stint in the second inning when they righched the righthander for three hits, and monopolized on the four walks given them, to score seven runs. Charlie Kunkle started the third frame for the Oilers, but after issuing three walks and allowing four hits, he counted for five runs in the one-third inning he tossed, he also retired for another southpaw, Roy Parker.

Parker shut out the winners for the next three innings without allowing a hit, but his "double whammy" was broken in the seventh frame when Larry Gilchrist led off with a single. After this, Parker gave up three more hits in this inning as the Gassers shoved across their final three runs.

The Oilers scored one in the seventh on singles by Belford and Samek and a pair of mishaps by McNulty and Verdun Gilchrist and the loop leaders got three more in the eighth when Joltin' Joe Fortin hit second homer of the night with Bartholomew parked on second. Range then stepped into the batter's box and followed Fortin's example by placing the first pitch over the exact spot that Fortin's had cleared in centerfield.

Three more Oiler runs crossed home in the ninth on five more hits as the Oilers let two men stranded on the base paths when Fries settled down to whiff Belford after two men were already out. The Borger southpaw went the complete route for the Gassers. This was the first time this season that he has been able to do this against the Oilers although he has attempted three times.

The Oilers are in Amarillo today for the first of a three-game series with the Amarillo Gold Sox. Howard Bass or Foster White will probably start on the mound for the Oilers while Amarillo Ace Jimmy Heller will probably get the starting nod for the Golden Hose.

During the intermission between matches, Dory Detton, wrestler and Amarillo wrestling promoter, was introduced by Promoter Vic Burnett, who announced that Detton would meet Sammy Kohen, one of the ring's nastier villains, at the local arena next week.

Homer Anderson was time-keeper, Paul Lefebvre was announcer, and G. L. Sheehan represented the State Wrestling Commission.

The winners jumped to a 12-3 lead in the first frame and wrote a quick finish to the story by pushing across nine tallies in both the second and third frames. Lorene Tice was charged with the spoiled Baptist loss.

A four-run seventh-inning Presbyterian rally fell short in their tilt with the First Baptists in the Junior boys division last Friday night when the Baptists nudged the Presbyterians, 21-19.

The Baptists' two-run margin came in the sixth inning when Tommy Selle was singled in from second by Buzzy Tarpley and Tarpley scored on a Presbyterian bobble. David Hunter received credit for the Baptist victory as he kept the losers pretty well in hand through the fracas.

MAYES WILL PLAY IN NORTH-SOUTH BATTLE

Carl "Red" Mayes, all-around athletic great of Pampa High School, has recently been selected to participate in the annual all-star football classic, slated to be held in Abilene, August 6.

Carl will be a member of the North backfield along with such stars as Byron Townsend of Odessa, Rusty Russell of Highland Park, Fort Worth, Keith Flowers, Perryton back, is also a member of the Northern aggregation.

Other 1-AA football standouts selected on the squad of 24 are: Dick Schmidt, Lubbock, center; Sam Attebury, Amarillo, guard; Howard Hurt, Borger, guard; Jerrell "Soda Pop" Price, Brownfield, tackle; and Bill Howton, Flamingo, end. Mayes was the only District 1-AA back to receive the honor.

James Weatherall, White Deer center, was also selected to participate in the game. Weatherall, a giant 210 pounder, is noted throughout the state for his football, basketball, and track. He specializes in the shot put and discus and was an entry in the state meet in both events.

Mayes won first place in the 220 lb state competition and finished second in the 100 yard dash. The flaming haired speed demon scored 16 touchdowns last football season for a total of 96 points. He was an overwhelming choice for first team all-district fullback and was selected on several all-state teams.

Mayes will depart from Pampa, August 1 with coaches Tom Tipps and Aubra Noncaster for Abilene where the two coaches will attend the Texas Coaching School. Bobby Dodd of the University of Georgia and Matty Bell of SMU will be football coaches in charge of the two teams.

Robert B. Dews Signed as Catcher

Old owner R. L. Edmondson announced late yesterday afternoon the purchase of Robert B. "Bobby" Dews from Chattanooga, Tenn., of the Southern Association as catcher for the Oilers.

The 30-year-old veteran was already purchased by the Chattanooga club, but Edmondson bought his contract and Dews arrived in town yesterday morning.

He is a Class AA ball player, having spent five years in double and triple A leagues. In 1941 he played for the Dallas Rebels in the Texas League and in 1942 and '43 he divided his time between Atlanta, Ga., Kansas City, Mo., and Montreal, Canada. After his return from the Army in '45, he spent the next two years with Mobile, Ala., also of the Southern Association.

Edmondson gave Rookie Bill Hudson his release and will keep Dick Samek to share in the behind-the-plate duties with Dews.

Kiwanis Softball Progresses

The Kiwanis Sunday School Softball League is now advancing into its fourth week of action at the local diamonds just north of high school as the nine churches participating continue to add sharper competition as the play goes along.

The scores are now beginning to narrow down and the winning margins are being cut thinner and thinner. Several of last week's games saw teams coming from far as 10 runs behind and catch their opponents to defeat them by very close scores.

A good example of this is when the First Baptists maintained their position in the Senior Boys Division by actually talking their way to a 23-22 victory over the Central Baptist.

The First Baptists trailed from the very start and were on the short end of a 20-10 scoring going into the bottom half of the sixth inning. At this point, the winners began to pour forth a verbal razzing that completely rattled and baffled Central Baptist Hurler Edward Engle and enabled the First to whom across eight runs to tie up the game. In the top of the seventh and final frame, the losers tallied only once while the First Baptists shoved across two to provide their winning margin. Emmet Higgs went the route on the mound for the First Baptists, receiving his fourth win in five starts.

Central Baptist 407 451 1-22
First Baptist 315 228 2-23

Staging one of the major upsets of the current season, the First Christian Senior boys played their second game of the year and squeezed by the McCullough Methodist Seniors, 12-11.

The First Christian has a record of four losses, with this being their first victory. Three of these defeats came on forfeits.

Home runs in the fifth inning by L. C. Upham and Gail Smith furthered the Christian winning hopes as all Christian scoring was completed in this frame. Jimmy King received credit for the win, while Dooner Richardson was a charged with the loss.

girls only three innings to pile up a 30-5 margin over the hapless Calvary Baptist Juniors as Shirley Culwell did a marvelous job of handoffing the losers with only five hits.

Louis KO's Walcott in 11th Then Announces Retirement

By TED SMITS
NEW YORK — (AP) — Joe Louis' proud reign as heavyweight boxing champion of the world is ended — by the only man who could end it, Joe Louis himself.

Flashing his teeth in the savagery that brought him 52 knockouts in 61 fights, Louis stretched out Jersey Joe Walcott on the hot canvas of Yankee Stadium in the eleventh round Friday night.

His revenge secured, his pride soothed, he said he was quitting. This created confusion as great as when Gene Tunney retired undefeated in 1928.

Walcott himself, Gus Lesnevich and Ezzard Charles crowded up as claimants.

Sol Strauss, acting head of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club, said he would put on a series of fights to determine the successor.

Against Louis, Walcott sidestepped and danced through 10 rounds just as successfully as he did last December when Louis managed to win a disputed, split 15-round decision.

Then Jersey Joe made the mistake in the eleventh round of trying to mix it at the ropes. He had been told not to do it. The champion's crunching blows flashed as of old, right and left, against Walcott's head and body.

Walcott went down flat, struggled up to his knees, almost rose at nine, fell again, and was up soon after the count of ten. But it was over, with only four seconds more to go in the round. There was a great surge to the ringside, and an exultant roar from the crowd.

"For my mother — this is for her — tonight was my last fight," said Louis. Later he said he would enter politics.

"I'll be active in this year's presidential campaign," he declared, adding that he would announce next week whom he would support.

Louis went out at 34 years of age as one of the greatest of champions. He had held the title longer than anyone else — 11 years and three days. He defended it more often — 25 times. He earned more money in the ring — $3,385,000. That does not even count movie, radio, and television rights.

Friday night's fight was twice postponed because of rain. Louis weighed in at 213 1/2 pounds on Wednesday and probably added three or four pounds since then. Officially it was the heaviest he ever weighed. Walcott weighed 195 3/4. The crowd of 42,867 paid $841,739, of which Louis received approximately $250,000 and Walcott $125,000.

There were boos for the slow, cautious way things went. Referee Frank Pfullam kept urging Walcott to get in and fight, and afterwards Jersey Joe said "his bounding booted me." It caused me to change my plans."

Actually Walcott kept his left flicking so steadily at Louis' head that it raised a welt under the champion's left eye. In the third round Walcott even floored Louis for a count of one. If that had been a ten-round fight, instead of the scheduled 15, and the decision had gone strictly by the official cards, Walcott would have won the championship.

For at the end of ten rounds, Pfullam scored five for Louis, two for Walcott and three even. Judge Jack O'Sullivan scored five for Walcott, four for Louis, and one even. Judge Harold Barnes gave six to Walcott, three to Louis, with one even. That would have been two to one vote in favor of Walcott. The Associated Press card had each winning five rounds. Following is a blow by blow description of each round:

ROUND ONE:
There was a slight delay as the gloves were put on the fighters. Both fighters received big hands from the crowd but the ovation for the champion was greater. They circled cautiously in midring. Walcott flicked out a left jab to the head with the first blow of the fight. Walcott tapped another left to head and right to the body. Walcott was side-stepping as he did in the previous fight. Walcott tapped another left left to the head and took a left hook to the head for Louis' first blow to the head. Walcott flicked another left and took a left to the body in exchange. Louis moved in steadily as Walcott stepped away. Walcott poked a left to the head of the champion and came back with another left to the body. Louis missed the head for his efforts. Louis jabs after Walcott with a left and right to the body. Walcott stopped left to Louis' face and then danced left again from pursuing champion as the bell sounded.

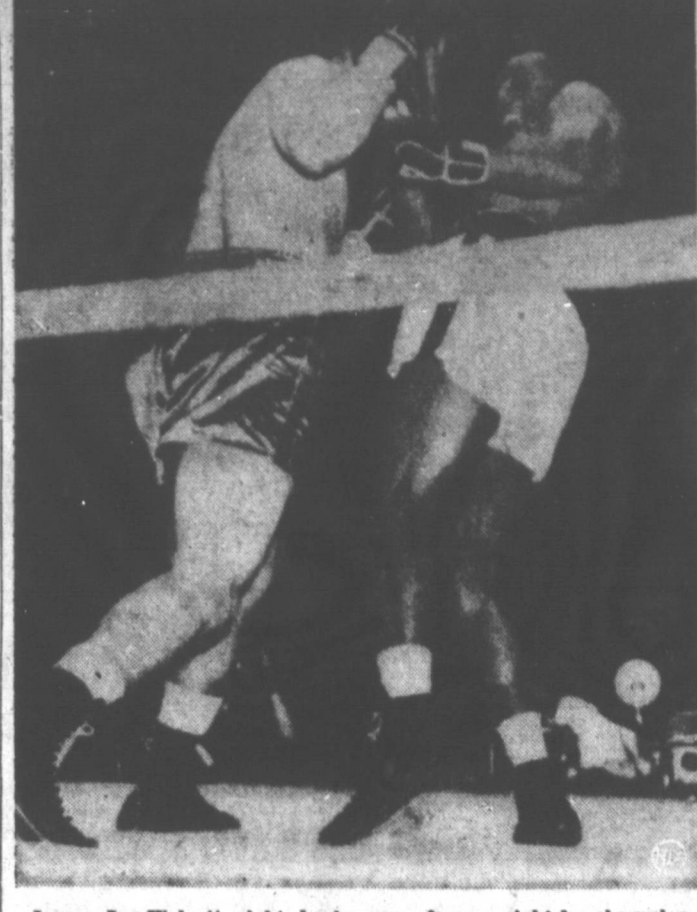

ROUND TWO:
There was a sound around each other carefully waiting for an opening. Each missed light heading left. Walcott got in a left left to the body and then they exchanged lefts to the head and right. Louis moved in and then let out a left and then a right as Walcott almost turned back on Louis and moved away. Walcott was trying to feint but Louis would be caught open. They each got in lefts to the head. Walcott poked a left to the head and started dancing away and the fans let out a resounding chorus of boos at the bell.

ROUND THREE:
Walcott flicked a left to the head and took another soft one in return. The champion kept his fancy dancing to Walcott's body. Walcott was feinting and sidestepping and he made Louis miss a straight left. Louis jabbed Walcott with a right to the jaw. Louis dug another left to the body as Walcott moved away. There was a grip on Walcott's face while the champion's face was immobile. Walcott flicked a left to Louis' head and then crossed a right to Louis' chin. The champion was floored for a count of one. Walcott drove a hard right to Louis' head and they exchanged punches. The crowd yelled as they both waited for an opening to get in a decisive blow but neither was able to do much just before the bell.

ROUND FOUR:
Walcott flicked a left and started moving forward. Walcott drove another left as Louis moved to counter punch. Walcott flicked two lefts to the head and then moved away again. The challenger connected with two more blows to the head without getting any blows in return. Walcott jabbed over three more lefts. Walcott crossed a right to the head and then Louis came in with his first hard right to Walcott's head. The champion got in a left and right to the body as the crowd roared. Walcott escaped. Louder of Louis' rights and grinned as he back-pedaled away. Walcott crossed a right to Louis' head just before the bell. Louis' left eye was beginning to swell.

ROUND FIVE:

ROUND SIX:
Walcott flicked out three times but the champion caught all the blows with his gloves. Louis drove a left to Walcott who moved away. Walcott jabbed two lefts to the head. The champion kept a careful eye on Walcott as the challenger poked out with his lefts. Louis was being very sparing over two more lefts without getting anything in return. Walcott grinned and swung a left to the body and took a left hook in return. The challenger smiled as he went to his corner at the bell. Louis was dead-banned as usual.

ROUND SEVEN:

ROUND EIGHT:

ROUND NINE:
Louis drove a beautiful left to Walcott's head. Louis shot over another nice left to the head. Louis got in a nice right high on Walcott's head. The champion moved forward a little more eagerly now. Louis prepared Walcott with two lefts and followed

Two Harvesters Will Attend All-District Banquet Today

The first annual Amarillo Globe-News all-district baseball banquet is scheduled for this afternoon immediately following the Pampa Oiler-Amarillo Gold Sox baseball game which is to be played in Gold Sox Park in Amarillo.

The banquet will be held in Amarillo and will be attended by five Pampans.

Two of these five will be boys who were selected on the honor teams and the other three will be guests of the Globe-News.

Charlie Laffoon was selected as first team all-district when he outshone all other competition at the shortstop position. The stocky built athlete may make a career out of baseball, depending on how things shape up in college. He spent three brilliant years in the field of athletics in Pampa High School, playing varsity in three of the four major sports. Laffoon was quarterback on last season's Harvester football team and was second team all-district at this position.

He was honorable mention on the all-district basketball team, playing at a guard position and to top off all this represented Pampa in the district tennis matches held in Amarillo last fall.

G. W. Gamblin tossed for Pampa baseball teams for the past four years. The righthanded hurler is no newcomer to neighboring cities since he established himself quite a reputation as Junior Oiler hurler. He and Laffoon both played on this team and furnished the one-two punch that led them to the district championship. Gamblin was selected on second team of this year's all-district nine.

G. W. or George, as he is known by his teammates, was also a standout basketball player, capable of filling in at any position. He was selected by his teammates to captain last year's team which many people felt to be the greatest quintet in PHS history.

Gamblin now resides in Oklahoma but came in yesterday to attend the affair.

These two stalwarts will be accompanied by Knox Kinard, superintendent of Pampa Schools, Tom Tipps, head athletic director at Pampa High, and Gene Garrison, sports editor of The Pampa News.

The group will attend the Oiler-Gold Sox game preceding the banquet. Main speaker at the fete will be Frank Bridges, baseball scout for the Chicago White Sox.

Sports Club Meeting Set Tuesday at 8

The meeting of the Pampa Sportsmen's Club scheduled for last Friday night was postponed until next Tuesday evening at 8 in the County Court Room.

The meeting was changed due to the Louis-Walcott fight and because of the bad weather.

All members and prospective members are urged to attend the affair. Plans for the McCallan Lake Fish Rodeo will be discussed and permanent officers will be elected.

The fish rodeo is scheduled to be held at Lake McCallan from July 1 through Sept. 30 and only members and their families can participate. All children over 18 must have a membership card to be eligible for prizes.

Fish will be seined from the lake, tagged, and then put back into the water. Any fisherman who catches a tagged fish will receive a prize which will be donated by one of the local business firms.

LOVELY DRESSES

Race Already Underway for Louis' Crown

NEW YORK — (AP) — Every breathing heavyweight with two arms and two legs headed toward Jacobs Beach today as the mad scramble started for the title vacated by Joe Louis.

Gus Lesnevich, the 33-year-old reigning light-heavyweight king who is now enroute to London for a July 26 bout with Freddie Mills, appeared to be the key man in an involved situation.

Durable Gus, who suddenly turned into a knockout puncher after his return from war service, is the man they all want to fight. He is the best box office draw for a September outing in the Yankee Stadium.

Under the terms of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club's hall park contract with the Yankees and Giants they must put on at least two shows a summer.

Lesnevich is almost certain to be the party of the first part. Either Ezzard Charles, the Cincinnati light-heavyweight contender, or Jersey Joe Walcott, the beaten 34-year-old challenger, in Friday night's fights, will be the other.

As of now, Charles seems to have the inside edge, providing his manager, Jake Mintz, and the promoters can convince Joe Vella, Lesnevich's manager. Vella is on the high seas with Lesnevich.

The Charles camp has bombarded boxing commissions from coast to coast with challenges to Lesnevich for the 175-pound title.

Charles, normally a 173-pounder, has lost only once since his return from war service. That loss, unfortunately for him, was to Elmer Ray in his only Madison Square Garden showing. Charles later reversed that loss, knocking out Ray in the ninth round at Chicago May 7. In his last outing he won a ten-round decision over Erv Sarlin at Buffalo.

There is considerable doubt along the beach about the public reaction to another Walcott appearance. The crowd booted Jersey Joe throughout the early rounds of last night's slow bout.

Local Library Gets New Books

Twenty-two new books were added to the Pampa Public Library collection last week. They are: "Cry, The Beloved Country," by Paton; "The Proud Way," by Seifert; "Came A Cavalier" and "Crescent Carnival," by Keyes; "About Lyddy Thomas," by Wolff; two books on modern British and American poetry by Untermeyer; "Our American Government," by Fatman; "Midnight Lace," Kantor; "The Flame of Time," Kendrick; "The Bells of St. Mary's," Martin; "Jean Bradley," Stuart; "Little Jade Lady," Gray; "Fair Sailing," Brooks; "Doctor's Assistant," Newcomb; "Fray, Love, Remember," Carroll; "Understanding and Guiding Adolescent Children," Taylor; Ed. E. Allen's cook book, and four Junior Literary Guild selections.

Permit Issued For Building

A permit to build an estimated $60,000 commercial building at the corner of Cuyler and Francis was issued Friday in the city engineer's office.

According to the permit, the building, owned by Roy Van Vliet of San Francisco, will be a one-story structure, about 50 by 140 feet, and it is expected to be completed by Oct. 15.

A Pampa retail outlet of the Sheldon-Lasky Company, owners of the S & Q Clothiers with stores in six cities in Texas, is expected to occupy one of the store spaces in the finished building.

FLOOD

(Continued from Page 1) and watermelon crops along the river near Laredo. No estimate of the damage was available. The crops were in the middle of harvesting. Some cane and grain sorghums, almost mature, were lost. Mexico-bound tourists were stranded in Laredo. Traffic between the two countries was at a standstill.

Power and lights were unaffected. However, water consumption was curtailed because of flooded pumps.

Kenneth R. Jenkins, meteorologist aide in the U. S. Weather Bureau at Laredo, said that a flood in 1932 reached a high mark of 52.2 feet.

The basement of the United States Customs and Immigration Services building at the end of the bridge filled with water. The bridge was closed to travel yesterday morning before the crest arrived. The structure was expected to be reopened today.

Project Engineer J. L. Lytel of the International Boundary and Water Commission, said the flood crest was expected at Roma about 100 miles down stream from Laredo Monday, and in the Lower Rio Grande Valley Tuesday or Wednesday. He said levees and floodways in the lower valley were expected to handle the water, with the crest flattening out as it moves down stream.

To the north, outside the Rio Grande watershed, there was fresh rainfall Saturday in a wide area from the Red River to San Antonio, as far west as Abilene and east nearly to Texarkana.

A local flood washed out Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad tracks near Bonita, in the Red River Valley, after a heavy rain Friday night. A passenger train was held at Nocona Saturday, awaiting track repairs. More than three inches of rain has fallen at Nocona in three days.

Food and medical supplies were dropped from an airplane Saturday to four fishermen stranded on a hill by the Devils River flood, about 55 miles south of San Angelo. They had moved their two automobiles to the hill when the river rose Thursday, and their escape was cut off. Three of the men were from Sonora, Tex., the fourth from California.

Reports from Sonora said the four would be stranded for several days. Arrangements were made to drop food to them by plane each two days.

Canadian Group To Be in Pampa

A party of entertainers from Canada will arrive here at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow on a booster tour advertising the rodeo to be held at Canadian July 4 and 5. L. A. McAdams, secretary of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, said yesterday.

The party will be met at the city limits by a delegation of city and Chamber of Commerce officials, who will escort the Canadians to the LaNora Theater, where they will present their program.

Thirteen more barges were reported enroute, but allied officials said these shipments had been started in the Soviet zone before the blockade was imposed and had been "in the pipeline" for a week.

Contrary to any signs of the Russians relenting, they increased their propaganda campaign to oust the three Western powers.

Wilhelm Pieck, Kremlin-trained chief of the Socialist Unity Party, summoned foreign newspapermen and told them there would be "unrest" in Berlin until the Western Allies leave.

His remarks suggested communist cohorts were ready to stage a series of demonstrations against the Western Powers.

Short Circuit Is Cause of Blaze

A fire, apparently caused by a short circuit, burned the transformer to the neon sign over Culbertson's Chevrolet agency, about 7 a.m. yesterday, and burned part of the window frame through which the wire to the sign passes.

No estimate of the damage was available.

The Fire Department made a run to 821 E. Frederic at 8:45 p.m. Friday, only to discover someone had turned in a false alarm.

BIRTH RATE FALLS

WASHINGTON —(AP)—America's birth rate is dropping — but only slightly — below the 1947 "boom" level.

The Office of Vital Statistics gave the figures: 1,149,000 births in the first four months of this year, compared with 1,270,000 in the same period last year.

ITALIAN

The nation's biggest strike however, was called off last night, was a national food workers' strike which began Saturday and resulted in more than 250,000 men being called from their jobs. The strike was called by the General Confederation of Labor, Italy's huge Communist-run union. It had threatened within a few days to leave shops bare of bread, spaghetti, polished rice, pastries, dried and condensed milk, and other prepared foods.

After consultation with government mediators, the Food Workers' Federation announced it had ended the strike.

Italy still was troubled with big and little strikes, mostly protesting against lay-offs. These included general strikes at Pisa and Modena. A general strike in Trieste was ended in its second day yesterday.

A meeting in Milan Friday drew 45,000 workers who heard party leaders attack industrial policy. Venetians staged a three-hour strike in protest against the high cost of living.

Leaving a White House confer-

CAMPAIGN

"I think that President Truman certainly will have a better chance with the South now that Dewey is nominated than he would have had if Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) had been named."

Another sign: Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) left the White House the other day saying he believed the Dixie states' right advocates would accept the national party's 1944 civil rights plank again this year. It was the President's outspoken civil rights stand of recent months that started the Dixie pull-away from the national administration.

(The 1944 plan generalized on the subject. It said the party felt that racial and religious minorities "have the right to live, develop and vote equally with all citizens and share the rights that are guaranteed by the Constitution." It urged Congress to "exert full Constitutional powers to protect those rights.")

Rankin's remarks received favorable comment from Senator Spakman (D-Ala), who came out early against Mr. Truman's nomination. But Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi, father of the states' rights revolt, said he cannot accept the 1944 plank.

Wright said he doubted the South would reach a satisfactory agreement with national party leaders on the issue.

THE SOUTHERN CLUB'S TAXES HAVE GONE UP!

Well, well! Let's have a look. When Al and Billie bought the club the taxes were at $35 School taxes. We bought a gallon of roof paint, drove a nail or two—they raised the tax to $46. Al tried. No use, he raised his own roof, tore it off; sold it. Ceiling too. Put a new roof on, ceiling, a little side walk, and a 16-penny spike in the hall—to hang his hat on.

Now somebody must of found that dad gummed spike, 'cause Al got a letter from the city dads wanting to raise the tax 3 1/2 times more than they were for 1947. Al wanted to pull that spike out of the hall, but Billie wants to leave the spike where it is so Al can keep hanging his hat on it while he builds a nice room—'cause Billie wants to adopt a little boy to raise, to send to school—someone to love, live for. So now Al just went down and told the city and school dads he guessed he would have to leave the spike in the wall. If they needed more money he'd work harder. 'Cause Pampa has good schools, and if everything turns out as planned, he may even buy a new Ford—so he can take his newly adopted son to the best schools in the Panhandle . . . and if you can't support your schools in the town where you live—MOVE.

Walls-Gomer Rites Read In Lefors Baptist Church

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Gomer, Jr.

LEFORS — (Special) — Miss Mary Jo Wall, daughter of Mrs. F. L. and the late Mr. Wall of Lefors, became the bride of O. V. Gomer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. The ceremony took place under an arch of white peonies flanked by trellises of white peonies. Bouquets of peonies, greenery and iron wrought candelabra completed the altar decorations. Family pews were marked with white, pink-tinted asters tied with white ribbons.

Miss Pat Johnson, pianist played a medley of nuptial selections preceding the ceremony and "You're in My Heart Alone" as Miss Bobby Jean Hedrick and George Thibault lighted the white cathedral tapers in the seven branched candelabra. During one of the sessions of the recent Ohio State tournament in Cleveland, O., I was kibitzed by John McCormick, the new manager of WTAM, and Harold Gallagher, who has been associated with that broadcasting station for more than 20 years.

After the tournament we played a little rubber bridge, during which today's hand came up. In connection with his opening bid, Gallagher said he recalled an old theory of mine that with the declarer-type of hand, you do not need two and one-half tricks to open the bidding.

If I had opened a club in response to my partner's bid, Gallagher would not have had much trouble. I gave him a tougher opening; however, in the king of diamonds. Gallagher put on the three of diamonds from his hand, and I continued with the diamond jack, which he won with the ace.

Now when he led the king of hearts and East won with the ace, he had no diamonds to return. He led back the king of clubs. Gall-

My partner made a good defensive try by refusing to win this with the king. But Gallagher simply cashed the ace of spades and conceded a diamond trick. If he had won the first trick with the ace of diamonds, his contract would have been defeated easily.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drugist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barretrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if retirable pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hip, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 47 Pounds

"When I commenced taking Barretrate, I weighed 212 pounds. I now weigh 165. I lost 25 pounds on the first two bottles. I feel so much better after losing that weight. I think it is a wonderful medicine and thank to Barretrate."—Mr. George Greer, Chalmers Courts 4, Apt. 1, Austin, Texas.

Kit Kat Klub Plans Sales and Swimming Party

Plans for rummage and food sales and a four-way swimming party were discussed last Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Kit Kat Klub which was held on the patio of Phoebe Osborne's home, and presided over by Nansen Campbell.

The sales will be held July 2 at a place to be announced later. The tentative date of the swimming party is Thursday, July 8, and the place will be the Municipal Pool. Participating in the four-way swimming party will be the Sub Deb, La Ross and Las Cressas Clubs.

Arvilla Patterson was appointed chairman of the Advertising Committee for the sales. She will be assisted by Berdene Laycock and Delores Miller.

Phoebe Osborne, secretary, reported on the attendance. New coveralls were received by the club during the past week. They are the traditional blue and white, club colors, with a kitten design on the back.

Attending the meeting besides those mentioned were Norma Mammatt, Pat O'Rourke, Jane and tomatoes and ripe olives, buttered asparagus, enriched rolls, butter or fortified margarine, deep dish apple pie, coffee, milk.

Hampton, Beverly Brandt, Virginia McNaughton, Gloria Ward, Joan Appleby Betty Wilson, Jan Sanders, Martha Parks, Jewell Moseley, Theola Reim, and Donna Nensiel.

Judy Smith, an honorary member, was also present. It was announced that the next meeting will be held in the home of Donna Jo Nensiel, 620 N. Frost.

CARE FOR STRAW HATS

If your straw hat gets caught in a shower, don't wipe it. Absorb the dampness with a sponge or dry cloth. If it's a sailor, the brim should lie absolutely flat to dry. Panamas and other straw styles need different treatment, unnap the brim all around and place on clean shelf to dry, after absorbing moisture. In all cases, turn leather band inside out and let hat rest on upturned band, advise hat researchers.

Naneen Campbell To Represent Texas FHA at Convention

Miss Naneen Campbell, local High School Senior, will represent the Texas Association of the Future Homemakers of America as the nominee for a national office at the National Convention in Kansas, City, Mo., July 6-9. Jean Cornelius, Junior, and Mrs. Leslie Hart, sponsor, will accompany Miss Campbell to the convention.

Naneen has served as state reporter during the past year, being elected as the national nominee at the state rally in Galveston last April. As the one representative seeking office from Texas she will compete with a girl from Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Arkansas, which combined makes up the Southern Region.

The office which she seeks is that of chairman of national projects.

Naneen will be one of four girls to present a ritual for opening and closing a chapter. Texas representatives will take part in the program, "Parade of the States" and will put on a skit entitled, "Tactless Tourists."

The Kansas City meeting will be the first National Convention of the Future Homemakers of America to be held since the organization was founded just three years ago.

It is expected that 4,000 home-making students, representing 45 states, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii, will attend the convention. Attendance is limited, due to lack of housing facilities.

The membership of the Future Homemakers of America is made up of students studying home-making (or home economics) in junior and senior high schools, and is a national organization working together toward common ideals and for better and happier home life for everyone. They believe that helping to make happy homes, now and in the future, is the most important thing that youth can do for a democracy.

The FHA motto, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the purposes of the group. While sponsored by the US Office of Education and the American Home Economics Association, the organization is entirely self-sustaining.

Since November, 1944, when the books were opened for membership, this group has grown rapidly, and today has a membership of 250,000. According to Miss Josephine Paschal, state adviser of the Texas FHA Association, this state has a membership of 27,136 with 633 chapters.

Registration at the convention will be in the Grand Foyer of the Municipal Auditorium. On Monday, July 6, registration hours will be from 1 to 6 p. m., on July 7 from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and July 8, July 6.

Marion Whitten and Lloyd Gooch Are Married in Impressive Home Service

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Gooch

Miss Marion Eleanor Whitten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Whitten, 926 E. Browning, became the bride of Lloyd W. Gooch, son of C. E. Gooch and Mrs. Jane Gooch of Harrison, Ark., on June 18.

The lines of the double-ring ceremony were read by Dr. Douglas Nelson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in the home of the bride's parents at 8 o'clock in the evening. Nuptial vows were exchanged in front of the living room fireplace which was decorated with palms and candelabra. The center of the mantel held a bowl of white carnations and a gladioli flanked by white bridal tapers.

Miss Fern Phillips was maid of honor. She wore a shell pink satin dress with a dark pink carnation corsage.

Gardner McBroom was best man. Given in marriage by her father, A. B. Whitten, the bride wore a powder blue princess style dress with ballroom skirt. Her accessories were navy and white and her corsage was of pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a silk print dress and a white gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Whitten home for the wedding guests.

The bride's three-tiered wedding cake was baked and presented to her by her great aunt, Mrs. A. P. Weyrich of Longview. Mrs. Lee Garrison and Mrs. Johnny Willson, sisters of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. C. M. Whitten presided at the guest register.

Mr. and Mrs. Gooch are now at home at 1108 N. Duncan in Pampa.

The bride is a graduate of Pampa High School and has attended Texas Tech in Lubbock. She is a member of the Beta Sigma Phi and National Secretaries Association and is employed at Texas Company in the Land and Geological Department.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Harrison High School and has attended Arkansas Tech, near Little Rock. He served in the Army two years, being stationed in Japan. He is at present employed at Cabot Company.

Mrs. Gooch was honored at two lovely post-nuptial courtesies. Last Monday evening Mrs. L. E. West and Mrs. C. M. Whitten were co-hostesses at a kitchen shower in the West home, 504 N. Warren.

The honoree was presented with a "corsage" composed of kitchen utensils, and the refreshment

WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The older man was talking about his wife, and there was pride in his voice when he said: "In all the years we've been married, she has always quit whatever she was doing when I came in from work."

That seemed to mean much to the older man. It meant that his wife put him first and made his homecoming an occasion—the big occasion of her day.

NOT THE MODERN WAY

That, of course, isn't the modern way. Today's wife is so scared to death her husband will think she's nothing but a homebody whose day is highlighted by his homecoming, that she goes out of her way to make him think otherwise.

She may be off at a neighbor's when her husband gets home, or just rushing in to a bridge party with no preparation made for dinner.

Or even if she is home, she may not even bother to go to the door to meet him. Yet in this attitude isn't the modern wife missing a good bet?

If a woman makes an occasion of her husband's homecoming in the evening, isn't homecoming going to look like a mighty good idea to him?

And if his homecoming seems to be the highlight of her day, won't it also become the highlight of his day?

Mrs. Henry Johnson of Knoxville is new at the sewing game, but is trying very hard. She would like something pretty and cool for warm weather—yet simple sewing, too. Mrs. Joe Bowers Honored at Shower

Mrs. Joe Bowers, the former Miss Loretta Cooper, was honored Thursday afternoon at a pink and blue shower given in the home of Mrs. Glen Stuebaker, 833 S. Banks.

The room was decorated with pink and white color scheme and Mrs. Bowers was presented with a pink and white corsage.

After guests had registered games appropriate for the occasion were played.

Gifts were presented to the guest of honor in a basset.

Refreshments of punch and pink cake were served and favors were given to those present.

The guests were Mesdames Paul Kreiter, Ernest Vanderburg, Jeanne Bowers, Homer Hayse, J. L. Bowers, Dave Bowers all of Pampa, Mrs. George Hess of Borger, Betty Bell Stamps of Tulsa, J. W. Stamps of White Deer and Miss Georgie Jean Quirk of Groom.

TRY HALF TURKEY

It is often economical to use a half turkey for a family. It may be stuffed in the usual way, using heavy paper to hold the stuffing in place. Roast at 300 degrees F., allowing 35 to 60 minutes a pound for a half that weighs from seven to nine pounds.

If there is not enough meat left over from a pot roast or a pie combine it with mushrooms or kidneys.

The juice of one lemon is often equal to about three tablespoons. A large orange will give about one-half cup of juice.

Many Still Await the Golden Age

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

In his poem, "An Interview With Myles Standish," James Russell Lowell wrote of "men of vision, whose gaunt eyes see golden ages rising." He did not think much of some of these dreamers.

But poets, prophets and saints have long dreamed and spoken of a golden age. It has been a prolific theme in literature. Thomas More gave his dream of it in his famous book, "Utopia." In our own time Bellamy portrayed it in "Looking Backward."

But these and other visions of a golden age pale in comparison with the expectation of a Messiah and the coming of a Messianic kingdom. They arose in the Jewish world in the centuries before the birth of Jesus and found expression in the noblest passages of the later prophecies of Israel.

Christians found fulfillment of those prophecies in the coming of Jesus as Messiah and King. They saw the golden age begun, if not fully established, in the kingdom He proclaimed. They pray, "Thy kingdom come," and that the will of God may be "done in earth as it is done in heaven."

But they see a world in which that goal is not yet achieved, and in which it will not be until all is brought under the rule of Christ. That would be the golden age.

Some Christians look for a return of Jesus to earth. Though they think of Jesus as Messiah in His first coming, their look toward the future in the hope of His second coming is not unlike looking toward the future of many Jews, who do not regard Jesus as the Messiah, but who believe the Messiah is still to come.

It was the Jews, however, who first saw in Jesus of Nazareth the one who was to come; John the Baptist, who found the answer to his question, "Art thou he that should come, or should we look for another?"; Peter, who declared, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God"; and Paul, the converted persecutor, who has expressed in his Epistles what to him were the convincing proofs that Jesus was the Messiah.

What of the golden age today? The triumph of the Prince of Peace, the one whom Isaiah called

YOU CHECK YOUR WATCH...

Why not your Health?

Someone has observed that time is money. And someone else has wisely added that health is wealth. Surely sound health is no less important than correct time.

You check your watch with a master clock or radio signal as a matter of course. But how long has it been since your last thorough physical check-up?

Don't wait for necessity to dictate a decision. Go now to a physician in whom you have confidence. Ask him to make a thorough examination. And be guided by his experienced counsel.

Perky Accessory Looks Youthful

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Costume accessories can be invaluable allies to a woman who plots ways to look younger.

Two types of jewelry, for example, which will abet her in her plot are earrings and bracelets. Impressive bracelets are invaluable aids for flagging eyes away from hands. Earrings have an almost magic way of "lifting" a face, but this rejuvenating bit of glitter should be small and compact in design—not of the pendant type.

Handbags which make the woman who carries them seem more youthful are the "chitch" type or are the kind of bag which she swings from her shoulder. The kind of handbag to shun because of its associations with the older lady of bygone days is the reticule type with a hand-strung handle. Gloves with a look of high-style jauntiness are more rejuvenating to a woman's appearance than the more conservative styles.

High-heeled shoes of classic opera-pump design make a woman's feet, legs and figure look infinitely younger than low-heeled shoes with straps, bows or other details of trimming.

About Cords... For safety's sake, know your stuff about electrical cords.

Replace worn or frayed cords with those tailored for their specific duties.

Small non-heating appliances such as radios, clocks, lamps take small light-duty cords. Colored Wonderful, Counsellor, the one whom Christians call the Eternal Christ, seems far off in a world of violence and hate. But it was in such a world that the faith, hope and vision arose. It was in such a world that the prophets lived and spoke. It was of such a world that Jesus said, even on the very verge of the Cross, "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

Can we doubt or fear where the noblest of all mankind had faith and courage?

PHILADELPHIA — At seven o'clock in the evening, as the music of the bands rose like flame, the pagan yearning of the Republicans in the streets and the selfless patriots, the displaced and abominable swills became a charge of barely suppressed jubilation.

Gustav V, Symbol Of Europe's Hope

It is a wonder that King Gustav V of Sweden was able to stand up under the celebration which marked his 70th birthday.

Today only one monarch, the retired Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, remains of those who sat on Europe's throne when Gustav became king.

Sweden's King has helped hold his country steady against the tides of absolutism that have threatened it on all sides.

All this time the democratic simplicity of King Gustav's life has nurtured the growing democracy of his country.

He has encouraged his family to be active and to lead a life of his numerous progeny have distinguished themselves in various fields.

MACHINE POLITICS by Peter Edson

PHILADELPHIA (NEA)—New York Governor Thomas E. Dewey's campaign to get the Republican presidential nomination by a 1948 finished technique of professional machine politics at its most ruthless efficiency.

His lieutenants have been the same in all campaigns. Herb Brownell as manager, Ed Jaekle, Russ Sprague as chief operators.

During this time, Mr. Hoover frequented the lobbyist and saloons in U. city of New York which are proscribed premises in the ethics of Mr. Dewey.

A worldly fellow, learned in the pepper-and-salt personalities of the fly-cops of the bureaus who haunt our great consistories, would have had many members of the minor gossips in the big hotels and on the walks.

Now that era is done. The day and night of the whisper to a guttersnipe with a pen and pencil by a public fiduciary is over.

Common Ground by R. C. HOILES

We Would Like Higher Wages, Too Many people who believe that strikes benefit the worker seem to think that the man who opposes all strikes does not want to see the workers get higher wages.

Under the heading of "They'll Never Get It That Way" he makes the following statements: "We'd like to see the coal miners get more money, even though their average weekly earnings on an industry-wide basis now top $75, with thousands of them making $400 and $500 and some even $600 a month."

"We'd like to see the Wall Street strikers get more money, though the hoigan antics they indulged in at times—throwing themselves on the ground and seeking by force to prevent non-strikers from going to their jobs—made a farce out of 'peaceful picketing.'"

"The idle rich are not idle all the time. Nor is the dirty capitalist, to say nothing of the capitalist who has no money, but who is rich in the sense that he has a lot of money."

"We do not believe in high wages any more than we believe in low wages. We believe in fair wages. Wages are prices. A fair price is one that is established in a free market."

"Both armies and labor unions are engaged in a struggle for the destruction of labor unions, of course, are the methods of passive war, but both armies and unions aim at the infliction of loss and suffering upon the enemy."

"Begging and fighting for jobs will no longer be necessary when, and only when, men have gumption enough to rise in their power and break down every restriction of any kind whatever to trade and production, whether those restrictions result from faulty laws or from organizations and combinations of men."

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news

Each week this veteran Washington newspaperman devotes his column to questions of general interest asked by readers of more than 250 newspapers.

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — "President Truman has said that the Eightieth Congress is the worst or second worst in history," writes M. C. of Waterbury, Conn. "What do you think, and why?"

Answer: M. C. poses a tough question, and the answer depends upon each individual's political predilection. President Truman or any other Democrat can make a good argument for their contention, but Speaker Martin and a Senate Policy Leader Taft can present equally valid evidence for their belief that they have done a fairly good job, everything considered.

Case — Let's take the President's case first. He maintains that the Republicans have turned the clock back by favoring measures demanded by the "interests." He refers to the tax cut, the shelving of many labor, social welfare and civil rights bills.

On the fourth important national problem before the Congress—the Taft-Hartley Act is a "slave labor" law. He vetoed it, and on his Western trip he promised that he would seek its repeal if he were reelected.

RECORD — The Republicans think their record is safe on foreign aid, despite the House cut in appropriations for the anti-Communist campaign.

But the policy also stated that if Reed died, then the beneficiary would automatically become Wilson's heirs.

A lovely luncheon was served recently in the basement of the Lela Methodist Church for guests who were present for the wedding of Miss Mattie Lee Seago and J. Orris Seale.

Hostesses were Mmes. W. P. Seago, Howard Baker, Arthur Seago, Cecil Seago and Mary Seago. Summer flowers were used to decorate for the occasion.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hays of Monroe, Texas, Miss Kathryn Easter, Miss Hazel Merritt, Mrs. Orrin K. Howe and Mrs. R. E. Baren, all of Dimmitt. Miss Alma Fay Henry, Mrs. Willard Hill, and Miss Erna Mae Hill, all of Littlefield.

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — "President Truman has said that the Eightieth Congress is the worst or second worst in history," writes M. C. of Waterbury, Conn. "What do you think, and why?"

Answer: M. C. poses a tough question, and the answer depends upon each individual's political predilection. President Truman or any other Democrat can make a good argument for their contention, but Speaker Martin and a Senate Policy Leader Taft can present equally valid evidence for their belief that they have done a fairly good job, everything considered.

On the fourth important national problem before the Congress—the Taft-Hartley Act is a "slave labor" law. He vetoed it, and on his Western trip he promised that he would seek its repeal if he were reelected.

But the policy also stated that if Reed died, then the beneficiary would automatically become Wilson's heirs.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—Larry Parks, who recently "fired" himself from his Columbia contract, is about to bring his long fight with the studio to either a stalemate or a victory for himself.

Larry Parks, the studio that he'll star in a summer stock theater in Worcester, Mass., next month. Columbia has announced it will fight Larry's attempts to work for anyone other than the studio.

Angela Lansbury was introduced to President Truman just after his speech before the L. A. Press Club. Truman remembered her role of the Republican newspaper publisher in "State of the Union" and cracked: "Next time, young lady, I hope you will play a Democrat."

Hedy Lamarr tells everybody she is undecided whether to accept the invitation of the French government to go to France for two weeks but she has pretty definitely decided to go through an expensive travel wardrobe.

Richard K. Polimer's "The Winch Circle" proves an important point which Hollywood doesn't seem to take to face—that it does not take millions of dollars to make good entertainment. The picture, a darn good one, was made for less than $250,000.

Red Skelton's new six-year radio contract, I hear, adds up to a gross of $3,000,000. John Garfield's film company, currently filming "Tucker's People," is negotiating for the purchase of N. Y. theater for John's annual flings at the stage.

Gosh, you're coming to a corner you may run off the cloth. Watch out for your finger. And careful on this straight street you're on in the night."

Wife: "Whatever is the name of that man?" William: "You know I've been seeing this evening machine for you." Husband: "Oh, it was just trying to help you to make up for the you'll give me when we take auto trip tomorrow."

THE STORY: As the time for Tom's return approaches, Jessica grows more and more apprehensive. She wonders if she will see him again until after she has a chance to talk with Tom. Then she wonders if this was a wise thing to do.

XX

A MESSAGE came from Tom. He had arrived in the United States but might be held up for days or weeks. He would come home as soon as possible.

Jessica spent a night of terror. As the distance between Tom and herself diminished she became more and more upset. Would Tom be different? Would he be the same Tom who overrode her every wish and was as stubborn and determined as his mother? What weapon could she use to persuade him to agree to a separation?

In the past, love-making had been her only way to influence Tom. The very thought brought a shocking return of memory.

What had David said? Nobody loves forever. The words sounded flippant and cheap, but true, nevertheless; for what she had felt for Tom, that heady, wild infatuation, had died with his departure.

She tossed and turned in bed. Next morning she awoke with a headache. She was too restless to stay in the house all day and welcomed Doris' invitation to go to a movie that evening. Lucy agreed to listen for Betsy, who always went off to bed at seven.

The theater was jammed and they had to wait in the crowded lobby. Doris chewed gum and prowled through the crowd trying to spot two seats. For a little while Jessica stood alone. She thought, I'm glad it's a silly show. Soothing and relaxing.

The lights inside went on suddenly; the organ burst into a selection which marked the intermission. The crowd moved toward the lobby. She saw Doris push toward her and just then she caught a glimpse of a pair of familiar shoulders.

David. He was not alone. The girl with him wore no hat. A mane of pale gold hair touched her fur-clad shoulders.

Doris saw them and winked Jessica. "There goes Sara Linton," she said in a loud whisper.

Jessica saw nothing on the screen that evening. Her imagination carried her away and she saw David and that pale-haired girl together—at the Mayflower, chatting over a drink, or possibly in Hugh Linton's home. David did not need to be secret about his meetings with Sara Linton, she thought bitterly. He didn't have to hide anything.

She was unfair to think that. He was only keeping his promise to her when he avoided her and never called, she reminded herself.

But the following day the urge to see him overwhelmed her, and for the first time Jessica called him at his office. Just for an instant she believed she recognized the voice of the girl who answered. Could it be Genevieve?

Then she forgot everything but the relief when David answered. "Anything wrong?" he asked.

She hesitated. The call was silly. She said, "David—"

He laughed with a touch of triumph in his deep voice. "Look," he asked, "will you meet me this afternoon?"

She hesitated. He urged, "You want to see me, don't you?"

In the end she agreed. She was too absorbed in her own thoughts to hear the door to the kitchen open. Her mother-in-law's harsh voice startled her.

"When Tom comes home there'll be no more of this gallivanting about with strange men," she said flatly.

sica take a wedding trip on a clipper to Europe?

She found herself alarmed by David's indifference to any obstacle which might arise to prevent the fulfillment of these plans, plans which seemed fantastic and unreal as Jessica listened.

THEY drove deep into the park where David had surprised her that day in October. He stopped the car and indicated the bench where she had sat so lonely, never dreaming that she would see again the man she had talked with at the airport—David. Odd now, to think of David as a stranger, yet "There was never a doubt in my mind about you from the first moment I saw you, Jessica," he said. "You were lovely then—you are beautiful now. That's because you belong to me."

But she didn't belong to David—not yet.

She couldn't bear to discourage him when he pleaded with her to let him hold her in his arms.

All wrong, she knew, knew with an odd and growing sense of apprehension, a strange presentiment that they were crowding their luck.

"David," she spoke his name brokenly, her heart torn by a great fear.

David said, "You're crying. This is no time to cry. Look, darling, tell me why you are afraid."

She only clung to him, unable to put into words her feeling, unwilling to spoil this hour with doubts and apprehensions. Beset by a sense of bereavement, she lifted her face to meet his good-by kiss.

Maybe she lacked courage. Maybe weakness explained her failure to have the hope David held that they would soon be happy together. Possibly she was a coward, unable to make the right decision. Why else should she stand and look after David's car as it drove away, wanting to cry out and beg him to take her with him?

Jessica was obsessed by a feeling of deep despair which haunted her all that evening. There were so many obstacles between her and the new happiness David considered so certain.

'Waddy Week' Is Proclaimed

AUSTIN (AP)—Neat week will be "Waddy Week" in Texas by proclamation of Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

"Waddy" is another name for cowboy, and the Will Rogers Range Riders of Amarillo will sponsor a "Waddy Week" celebration at Amarillo July 2-5, carrying on activities typical of the early days in Texas.

The Governor's proclamation noted that the great republic and state of Texas was developed into a world leading cattle empire through the efforts and rawhide determination of its friendly, courageous, and freedom-loving cowboys, popularly known as "waddies."

"From the colonization of Texas to the present time, these waddies with their fellow Texans imbued with the waddy spirit have never failed to go beyond the call of duty in defending freedom and human liberties throughout the world," the Governor observed.

Thus, he said, they gave Texans "the worldwide reputation of being the most courageous, hard fighting, generous, friendly and freedom-loving people."

Oh, for the Life Of a Stray Horse

DALLAS (AP)—It happened in Texas—a woman autoist, stopped her car, crawled out and lassoed a stray horse caught in a traffic jam.

Mrs. Leroy Farker of the Dallas Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was driving to work when she saw the horse in trouble.

She pursued the animal about a block, captured him and led him to the SPCA barns. He soon was returned to his owner.

Young Jerry Goes Home to Mama

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two-year-old Jerry Tim Baldwin flew home to mama Wednesday. Papa stayed behind in jail.

The father, Albert J. Baldwin, 32, Amarillo, Tex., medical student, was arrested here Friday on suspicion of child stealing after arriving by plane with little Jerry from Portland, Ore.

Baldwin told police he had gone to Portland to seek a reconciliation with his wife, Juanita, only to find she had divorced him and planned to remarry. She lodged charges when the boy disappeared.

March 17th is the anniversary of the death, not the birth, of St. Patrick.

Coke Continues To 'Calculate'

AUSTIN (AP)—Senatorial Candidate Coke Stevenson says he is going to continue to "calculate."

He authorized his headquarters here to issue a statement saying: "Since most Texans are compelled to calculate to make both ends meet, I don't think they will hold my calculating against me. At least I have never been charged with miscalculating."

"Calculating Coke" is a political nickname for the former governor that has frequently been used by his opponents in the senatorial race.

Stevenson's headquarters said he would not comment on charges by Lyndon Johnson that Stevenson's endorsement by the State Federation of Labor grew out of a "secret deal."

Government to Probe Housing

DALLAS (AP)—The government is stepping in to investigate veterans housing problems in Dallas and North Texas.

Representatives of the attorney general's office and the national housing expediter in Washington are here to help solve the veterans housing problem.

Morris S. Verner, Jr., national deputy housing expediter, Washington, said that 25 investigators are to ferret out civil and criminal violations of housing regulations.

St. Patrick's birthplace has been variously said to be Scotland, England, Wales and France.

Bradley Talks Preparedness But Still Hopes for Peace

By BO EYERS
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Gen Omar Nelson Bradley is a good example of the military officer who can talk preparedness and yet offer strong hope the United States may not have to fight another war.

That was this reporter's impression after a press conference with the chief of staff of the United States Army at Fort Sam Houston, 4th Army headquarters, here Thursday.

The general completed his four-day tour of the Southwest. A R.M. installations with inspection of Fort Sam's barracks and messhalls, depot, quarters and housing, and Brooke General Hospital Friday morning. He was scheduled to play a round of golf in the afternoon. When the Chamber of Commerce luncheon, and then take off for Washington, D. C.

Gen. Bradley was playing down the talk of a war between the United States and Russia. He recognized the possibility of conflict, but he said it could be averted. Gen. Bradley may pattern his words in accordance with national policy, but his expressions sound convincingly like the personal opinion of one man.

Yes, war with Russia is possible, the 66-year-old chief of staff said in answer to a question. He believes war is possible because of the conflict of ideologies of a democratic and a Communist state. That came the words with the idea that war is inevitable.

"You don't ordinarily pick out any one nation as the one we are preparing against," Gen. Bradley declared. "We prepare to meet the threat of any nation or any coalition of nations."

"Time might ease the clash between the United States and Russia."

He doesn't consider the new selective service law a step toward building up a giant fighting Army to match that of Russia.

"We couldn't carry out our occupational duties without selective service," he explained simply, adding later:

"If we don't get universal military training, we may have to continue the draft as long as we have as many missions as we do all over the world."

When the draft act goes into operation, camps which already have a complement of men will be filled, and camps capable of taking at least 12,000 men will be activated, Gen. Bradley said. He did not anticipate the opening of many smaller fields.

He commented on only two Texas Army sites by name.

Camp Hood will be brought up from its present strength of one-third of an armored division to one full division, he said. Fort Sam Houston is not expected to get any combat units, but headquarters personnel and Brooke General Hospital will probably be enlarged.

How many draftees will be sent overseas? That all depends on the num-
