Information on Rodeo Events Being Mailed

Entry blanks and an outline of the rules have been sent to all the 37 sponsors of cowgirls in last year's Top of Texas Rodeo, and also to the mayors, postmasters, and Chambers of Commerce in the Panhandle, most of West Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico, inviting them to sponsor entrants for this year's show.

The rodeo association is expecting many more entrants for the colorful contest this year than last.

Letters of invitation and entry blanks with copies of the rules were also sent to all Palomino horse breeders in the same area, announcing the Palomino horse show. This show and judging will be held the afternoon and evening of Aug. 3, the day before the main rodeo events begin.

Advertising material for the rodeo will be available after July 1, officials of the association said yesterday.

Some of this material will consist of 17 by 22 inch posters in three colors, two-sheet billboard posters, windshield stickers, and bumper signs. All this material is specially designed for this year's show.

Motorists who expect to take long trips or go on their vacations during July are asked to get some of this material from the Chamber of Commerce office in the City Hall before they leave.

FOREIGN AID—The Commerce Department estimated the United States will provide $7,500,000,000 in aid to foreign nations during 1948.

This compares with a $6,000,000,000 annual average from the end of hostilities in 1945 through 1947.

CONSENT IS BINDING—The mere interchange of consent under Scots law, even though the consent is verbal or, in some cases, only implied, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Local People Attend Meet

A number of local and district people are at the 122nd recorded annual conference of the Church of the Brethren being held at Colorado Springs, Colo. Others were expected to be there today for the closing session.

There for the opening session on Thursday were A. L. Patrick, Mrs. Ralph Byrum, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hubbard, Miss Lois Yoder, and the Rev. and Mrs. Russell G. West. Arriving at the conference Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Yoder and son, Gordon.

Cecil Hubbard, of Miami, officially represents the Pampa church, and the Rev. West is serving on the Standing Committee, representing the church territory of Oklahoma, Panhandle of Texas and New Mexico.

The Rev. and Mrs. West will remain today for a four-day training conference.

Over 3,000 church members from throughout the U. S. were in attendance at the four-day conference.

Court Grants Two Divorces

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK — (AP) — The children have a fair argument against the grownups in America. The kids are compelled by law to go to school to learn what the adults want to teach them. But there is no law to make the grownups go to a school and learn from the children. Yet there is much they could learn from the diaper-and-kickerbocker set. Everybody in America, for example, might live longer by studying the lesson unintentionally given by two-year-old Kenneth Lieberman of the Bronx. This bouncing boy tumbled out his apartment window the other day, fell six floors, landed on the lawn with a dull thud and a small grunt—and got up and waddled off unhurt. How did he escape injury? Because he was relaxed, as all normal children in normal homes are. But if little Kenneth should have a similar accident thirty years from now, after civilization had gone to work on him, what would happen? He would see death grinning up from the ground at him, his muscles would tighten in fear against the shock, and he'd be picked up in the same condition as a shattered pretzel. Only a few adults keep this life-saving virtue born in every child—the art of relaxation. Most champions do. And that is one of the big secrets of why they are champions. They are coordinated because they have the priceless gift of relaxing in the middle of action. That's true of a racehorse like Citation, as it was of Charlie Schwab closing a multi-million dollar steel order. Or of Babe Ruth, with two strikes on him in a World Series game, pointing to the bleachers and knocking the next ball for a home run right where he'd called it. Tension kills more people in the United States than anything except over-eating. And over-eating, in millions of cases, is nothing but a nervous expression of tension. They actually worry themselves fat at the dinner table. People who genuinely want to stay alive in the earth's garden are shortening their stay by tearing down their nerves and arteries fretting over a war that hasn't started, the better job they haven't got, the baubles they wear themselves out to get and would be better off without. Anybody who owns too many possessions ends up by being owned by them. An hour more of sleep each night by everybody would destroy more nervous tension than all the pills or booze in all the bottles ever blown. And you'd get to work on time — there's one more in fear against the shock, and

With a severe heat wave and drought causing English farmers considerable anxiety, many farms are being watered by hand. Here, girls water cabbages on a farm near Chichester, in Sussex. This land was part of an airfield during the war, and was put under cultivation as part of Britain's plan to grow more of her own food.

Critical Signs Show in China

By JAMES D. WHITE
 AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
 Critical signs appeared in China last week. In the capital at Nanking, President Chiang Kai-shek gave ground. He finally got his one-time enemy, Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, to take command of the Central China campaign against the Communists. Pai had refused twice, and reportedly agreed only after Chiang gave him the new American-trained troops from Formosa. Chiang could look forward to fresh American relief, but even this is in some ways a political liability to him. Most Chinese privately consider it too little and too late to decide the course of the civil war against the Communists.

There are the students, and millions of restive Chinese who may listen to them. A few students in Peiping last week defaced their ration cards entitling them to American relief, saying they would rather starve than accept it. Perhaps significantly, they were not arrested. Recently the government has been tough about such agitation against American relief, which the students — and the Communists — say is prolonging the civil war. Last week the Communists made more military gains, except in one coal-mining region in the FRISTOE, Mo. — (AP) — When a well driller told 73-year-old Mrs. Lou Brooks Thomas he had struck oil on her farm, she objected. "All I want is good drinking water," she said, "and you can't get that from an oil well." Bill Barnes, the driller, related that he hit a pocket of oil while redrilling a water well on Mrs. Thomas' farm. Mrs. Thomas ordered the well sealed with concrete and another one drilled nearby. In drilling the second well, Barnes reported finding a similar rock formation and a slight coating of oil on the water at 102 feet. But Mrs. Thomas told him not to go any deeper. She said she was afraid he might strike oil again. "GOOD FEVER TREES" Eucalyptus trees are called "good fever trees" because they are used in many countries for draining malarial swamp areas. They grow rapidly in marshy land and soon drink the soil dry.

THE DRILLER'S LOG

By KEN BENNETT

Rumors... The latest rumors concerning a new location by Phillips Petroleum deep tests places it near Briscoe, in Wheeler County. If this talk has any foundation it will discount the aforementioned well to be drilled near Mendota. Either of these locations, however, if drilled upon would indicate that the "scuttle-but" about the formation on the Carruth were running lower than the Jenkie had a lot of truth to it. I feel that you can depend on Phillips to skirt the entire, outside area where they feel the deep pool is most logical to be located.

Rumor Number 2... Sunray Oil Corp. may soon begin a deep test in Gray County... This well, if it develops, and it appears logical, will be a deepening of the Ferguson B, Number 1, in Section 34, Block 2, G & GN Survey... This places the well about nine and a half miles southeast of Pampa, and three miles southwest of Lefors... Should deep tests be conducted in this area you can be assured it will attract a lot of attention from oil men all over the Panhandle.

No doubt the rumor that the Gulf test well, A. L. Porter No. 1-E in Lipscomb County, had struck pay has found many a sympathetic ear in this area. Best reports, however, list the rumor as unfounded and the well is apparently still being deepened. Depth assumed is around 4025 feet.

The O. H. Hammer, No. 1, on the Terrell Lease is reportedly under-reaming at about 3600 feet with a gas show... The Humble-Stambaugh in Deaf Smith County is in lime and shale at about 2440 feet... The CARRUTH is now below 8706 feet (I think).

Vacation time means a lot of news in this column, except when those people who help me so much in compiling my news items are also on vacation... Such as Larry Snyder, of Shell. After depending on these people for so long for personal items about the various companies it certainly proves detrimental to me when they go on vacation. I'm wishing them all the best if variations, however, with the hope that when they return I can expect even more news items from them...

R. W. Moore, assistant chief clerk, and W. E. Coop, farm boss for Humble Oil, left last Tuesday morning for Clovis on company business. They returned Thursday. Humble is drilling a wildcat in that area... Harry Dulancy and J. W. Swygart of Shell Oil are real baseball fans. You can see them in their box at almost every game at home... Bill Block, chief accountant for Cabot in the Boston office, recently returned to Boston after a short stay in this area.

Last week this column mentioned the good work done by Jimmie McCune of Cabot in his untiring work on the Lions Park, newly developed in Pampa... Several oil companies have been cooperating in this development.

Don't Mind The Noise at Convention

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Don't let the convention applause and the big noise kid you.
You'll hear a lot of it—the wild demonstrations for whom the Republicans meet in Philadelphia this week to nominate a man for president.
The candidates for the nomination will stay pretty much out of sight, back in their hotel rooms, hoping for the lightning to strike them.
They'll be doing more than hoping, of course. Their managers will be out trying to rope in enough state delegations to get their man nominated.
But just let the name of one of the hopefuls be mentioned in the convention hall.
The delegates pledged to him will try to rip the roof off with their cheers, whistles, applause and maybe a parade around the hall.
None of that means much.
What counts is the work done by the political managers among the state delegations, trying to win them over quietly.

This writer saw an example of how little the noise and cheers mean at the Republican convention at Chicago in 1944.
That year the only real contenders were New York's Governor Dewey and Ohio's Governor Bricker—now a senator.
Both men had rented huge ballrooms on the same floor of the Stevens Hotel, only a few hundred yards apart.
Bricker's was ablaze with light, pictures of the candidate were hung on the wall.
Down the hall a bit, Dewey's ballroom looked dim as an old barn.
After looking at that a couple of days and nights, I went up to Dewey's real headquarters on an upper floor and found one of his most trusted right-hand men there, alone, in his shirt sleeves.
I said, "you fellows had better wake up. Bricker is downstairs shaking hands with everybody in Chicago."
The Dewey man laughed.
I said, "Bricker is talking to a lot of people."
"Let him," the Dewey man said. "We've already done our talking—with the people who are going to give us the votes."
And he was right, although Bricker wasn't convinced for a couple days more. Then, for the

How Long Did You 4-H Club Boys Stare, Sergeant? Get Registered Gilts and Boar

Nine Gray County 4-H Club boys have been presented with eight registered gilts and one registered Hampshire boar by the Sears and Roebuck Foundation.
Vic Joyner, assistant Gray County agent and 4-H Club director, reports.
Four of the boys are from Pampa. John Lloyd Carruth received the boar. David Engle, James Lee Taylor and Dayne Carruth received gilts. Other boys receiving gilts were Jimmie Wagner, Groom; Glenn Harris, Kingsmill; and Mickey Allen and George Oakley, both of Alanreed.
The Sears and Roebuck Foundation gives one boar annually and has the boys, who won the gilts the previous year, each return his best gilt for another 4-H Club boy to win. The foundation started the program contributing the eight gilts and boar the first year.
Sponsoring a Gray County 4-H Club show in Pampa, the Sears and Roebuck Foundation gives prizes to deserving boys. The boys having the winning gilt and boar in the county show then go to the district show in Amarillo. This show is also sponsored by the foundation.
Farman happened to be in the gallery because campus residents had complained of a woman's loud singing. He had just about given up his search when his attention was drawn to the nude who didn't stand still.
first time, he went into the convention hall and faced the crowd.
But he only went there to announce he was stepping aside in favor of Dewey.
Yet the crowd screamed and roared for fifteen minutes before he could say a word. If you'd been listening to it over a radio, you'd think they were nominating Bricker.
Then, when they quieted down and Bricker finished his talk, they nominated Dewey.

Hurling Job Gives Indians Shutout Over Philadelphia

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The league-leading Cleveland Indians, who haven't been getting much pitching lately, got plenty of it yesterday when Ben Muncie and Russ Christopher combined for a brilliant three-hit shutout as the Indians downed the Philadelphia Athletics 4 to 0.

Muncie throttled the A's with three singles for the first seven innings, but was forced to retire after that stanza when a line drive from Hank Majeski's bat struck him on the elbow of his pitching arm. He was taken to a hospital for X-Ray examination. Christopher took over the final two innings and kept Philadelphia in check to complete the shutout.

Eddie Joost singled to open the game, but from then until the seventh Muncie set the A's down in one-two-three out, aided by two Cleveland double plays.

McCahan allowed the Indians only six hits but the Tribesmen utilized four of them in scoring.

The win snapped a five-game losing streak for the Indians and boosted their first place margin over the pesky A's to two games.

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Led by Billy Johnson, who drove in seven runs, the New York Yankees defeated the St. Louis Browns 10-5 yesterday to even the series at one victory apiece. The Yankee third sacker slammed two home runs, one with the bases loaded. Johnson hit his first off starter and loser Ned Garver with one mate aboard in the sixth to feature a four-run attack. His second round tripper came in the ninth of Lefty Clem Dreisewerd with the bases loaded.

CHICAGO — (AP) — Pitcher Marino Pieretti turned his first start for the Chicago White Sox into a 9-5 triumph against his former teammates, the Washington Senators before 1,157 persons Saturday. Pieretti worked six and two-thirds innings on a yield of four hits plus issuing nine walks before Howard Judson finished up for him.

Chicago collected 17 hits in gaining its fourth victory in the past five games. The Senators suffered their seventh straight setback.

DETROIT — (AP) — Expanding for nine runs in the first four innings, five of them on homers by Stan Spence and Johnny Pesky, the Boston Red Sox ran their winning streak to four straight by whipping the Detroit Tigers 9 to 7 Saturday. The game was held up 33 minutes at the start of the ninth inning because of rain.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Using their most potent weapon to end a five-game losing streak, the New York Giants today lofted four home runs into the stands to overcome the St. Louis Cardinals 10-1. The quartet of round trippers gave the pounding polo grounders 11 home runs in three days and 63 for the season.

Behind the heavy barrage, Clint Hartung had an easy time coasting to his fifth victory. The right-hander spaced eight hits and held the mighty Stan Musial hitless.

The Giants went to work early on Red Munger, scoring in the second inning when big John Mize walloped his 12th home run stand. A walk and a pair of singles by Enos Slaughter and Ron Northey enabled the Cards to knot the score at 1-1 in the fourth. Sid Gordon's 10th home run followed by doubles by Billy Ripken and Whitey Lockman and a single by Buddy Epp gave the Giants three runs in their half of the fourth.

It's a Long Way From First to Third

DALLAS — (AP) — Ever hear of a first baseman making a put-out at third base? No one around here hadn't either until Bob Moyer of the Dallas club in the Texas League pulled it.

Here's how it happened: San Antonio had runners on first and second and no outs. Bill Sommers attempted to sacrifice. The ball was a blooper toward third. Oscar Kherdorian rushed in, trying for a shoestring catch. He missed by inches but grabbed the ball and wheeled toward third, charged in with the bunt, saw Doc Sanders headed for third and raced to the bag in time to take Kherdorian's throw for a force out.

Joe Louis appears to be hoping that everything will turn out all right as he is examined by Dr. Vincent Nardiello at Pompton Lakes, N. J. The champion said he expected to win quickly in his return match with Jersey Joe Walcott at Yankee Stadium.

Two Shoos Of Thought on Louis-Walcott Return Bout

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK — (NEA) — There are two schools of thought on the return match between Joe Louis and Jersey Joe Walcott at Yankee Stadium, June 23.

The sides are as far apart as they were at the end of 15 rounds last Dec. 5, when the long-time Brown Bomber retained the championship on the votes of the judges.

Referee Ruby Goldstein, the lone practical boxing man among the officials, gave the decision to the Great Father of Camden.

The difference of opinion is what made the second edition possible, of course, and brings them back as a stickout attraction.

One group holds that if Walcott couldn't beat Louis in the condition and mental attitude in which he caught him on his first trip, his chances aren't enhanced now that Smoky Joe has his mind on his work and lost prestige to regain.

The other contends Louis can't get in any better shape than he was the last time out, and that Walcott will outmaneuver him with vastly more confidence.

One thing is certain, Walcott has the superior sparring partners, and will slide through the hemp much better trained.

Walcott has been boxing for eight weeks at Grenloch Park, 10 miles below his old home town of Camden.

The hungry fighter, Jersey Joe listens to his handlers, Felix Boechchio and Joe Webster, and trainers, Dan Florio and Joey Allen, the latter the former Camden feather and lightweight.

Walcott tackles highly capable sparring mates in Curtis Sheppard and Austin Johnson, an ambitious one in Billy Norris and middleweight Cliff Dye for speed.

In December of 1946, Baltimore people sought to match Sheppard with Louis. The Hatchet Man has more than 30 knockouts of his own. The six-foot two-inch Johnson flattened one-third of his rivals, claims he was short-changed when he dropped a split decision to Walcott in Camden three years ago.

Louis practically has managed and trained himself since Jack Blackburn died, misses the scar-faced old lightweight more than ever now. He started boxing much too late.

Watching the show at Pompton Lakes, you quickly gather that Louis runs the works himself, even to acting as a moderator with a judicial air in post-work discussion among the camp personnel.

Jersey Joe Walcott will hit Papa—and quickly.

Louis' sparring partners are of little consequence. The best of those working with Louis is Richard Eagan, out of the amateur ranks only long enough to have 15 professional fights. McKinley English, Johnny Hubbard and Tiger Roy Taylor—ever hear of them?—give the titleholder little more than exercise.

"You don't hit papa" seems to be the over-all idea, and that's bad, for—

Jersey Joe Walcott will hit Papa—and quickly.

Industrial League Advances Into Sixth Week; Skelly Leads

As the Industrial Softball League swings into its sixth week of competition, Skelly continues to lead all teams with a record of 11 wins and one loss, and a percentage total of .917. Phillips follows Skelly with the same amount of wins but 2 losses which gives them a percentage of .884 and places them exactly 1-2 game behind the league leaders.

The lone Skelly upset was by Furr Food last week when the grocers beat the leaders, 13-3. Furr Food and Cabot Shops Inc. are deadlocked for fourth while the Jaycees are in sole possession of second although they are same amount of games out of first as Furr and Cabot Shops, Inc., are however, is 33 points higher which accounts for their presence in third position.

The standings to date are:
Team W L Pct. GB
Skelly 11 1 .917
Phillips 11 2 .846 1/2
Jaycees 7 3 .700 3
Cabus 6 6 .500 6
Furr Food 5 5 .500 7
Magnolia 6 4 .600 4
Texas Elf 5 4 .556 5 1/2
Humble 4 5 .444 5 1/2
Master Cleaners 4 5 .444 5 1/2
White Deer 2 9 .182 8 1/2
Pampa News 2 10 .167 9
Ideal Food 1 10 .091 9 1/2

The Jaycees will play an exhibition game with the White Deer All Stars at 9 p. m. Wednesday at White Deer.

This week's schedule is as follows:
Monday, Texas Elf vs. Cabot Shops at Phillips and Master vs. Pampa News at Skelly.
Tuesday, Jaycees vs. Magnolia at Phillips and Cities Service vs. Humble at Skelly.
Wednesday, Ideal Food vs. Master Cleaners at Phillips and Skelly vs. Pampa News at Skelly.
Thursday, Furr Food vs. Jaycees at Skelly, and Phillips vs. Magnolia at Phillips.
Friday, Texas Elf vs. Humble at Phillips and Cabot vs. Cities Service at Skelly.
(x) Cities Service replaced Pampa News in League.

Eight light poles have been erected at Lions Club Park, just east of the Baker School, and all Industrial League Softball games will start being played there just as soon as the lights are wired.

The poles are being guy wired and the electrical wiring will probably begin Tuesday or Wednesday so that play can begin next week.

Cabot Whips Masters 12-9; Grocers Upset

For the second straight time this season the Cabot Shops, Inc., nudged Master Cleaners in the local Softball League, Friday night 12-9, as the Cabot team moved into a tie with Furr Food for third and shoved the Cleaners into a tie for seventh in the loop standings.

Paced by the right-side hurling of Lloyd Gooch the Cabot team shoved across six runs in the third frame to gain a lead they never lost. Gooch settled down in the last three frames and blanked the Cleaners throughout the final portion of the contest.

Truman Cooper started on the mound for Masters and retired in the fourth frame with the score deadlocked 9-9. His relief mate, Gene Horton, pitched good ball throughout the last three innings, but the three plate crossings in the final frame proved to be too much for the right-hander.

In the only other league game Friday, Furr Foodmen, who upset Skelly last week, were upset themselves when Phillips came from behind to beat the Grocers, 9-4.

Three of the winners' tallies came when Whitley connected for a home run with the bases loaded.

A land board, made up of local citizens, was appointed last October, immediately after the contract with the appraisers was signed. This board, consisting of Irvin Cole, C. A. Burton, John Haggard, Ivy Duncan, DeLea Vicars, and John Pitts, with Lynn Boyd and Fred Thompson as alternates, was instrumental in establishing a uniform scale of land values.
Acting in an advisory capacity with the appraisers, they established "hubs" of greatest value in the various sections of town and graduated land values down in each direction from these hubs. Thus, it is manifest that a certain plot of land on the corner of Foster and Cuyler would be of greater value than a size piece of land on Foster and Starkweather, for instance.
That these land values are considerably lower than the market values, is demonstrated by this example: this writer was shown a piece of land on E. Francis that was valued on the tax rolls at $600. This same piece of land was sold just a few days ago for $1500.
After the land board had completed its work the Equalization Board for 1948 was jointly appointed in March by the city and the school district, and was composed of Fred Thompson, chairman; DeLea Vicars, secretary; R. M. Samples, C. A. Burton, and J. Wade Duncan, all appointed by the city; and Eddie Gray, H. H. Boynton, and W. F. Taylor appointed by the school district. This board immediately began a spot check survey of the findings of the appraisal engineers.

"Also, people leaving town should come to the Postoffice and give a forwarding address."

Voters to Decide Standing of 80th Congress

Peace Talks Begin Monday Between Arabs and Jews

CAIRO —(AP)— Arab and Israeli delegations are expected to reach Rhodes Monday to confer with Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator for Palestine. Bernadotte got back to that Greek Mediterranean island Friday from a flying trip to Cairo and Tel Aviv on which he invited them to Rhodes for peace talks. Bernadotte is seeking to build a lasting settlement of the Holy Land question on the basis of a four-week truce now in its ninth day. He said some minor incidents might mar the truce in the next few weeks.

from states that had not been counted on before.
The way it looks now to many delegates rubbing elbows in hotel corridors and the customary smoke-filled rooms, the first convention vote may be something of a standoff between Dewey and Taft, with perhaps an edge for Dewey.
Stassen himself says he will trail along in third spot on the first roll call. But he says he will be nominated by this ninth. Vandenberg and Pennsylvania are the big unknown elements, and they fit side-by-side in this political jig-saw piece.
Vandenberg's position all along has been that he is not a candidate but that no man could turn down a genuine draft. His headquarters has said he will bring a statement of his position with him to Philadelphia.
But among run-of-the-mine delegates there was considerable doubt he would go any farther than he already has in keeping himself available for a call from the convention to carry the GOP standard.
That would deny his supporters the signal they have been awaiting to lunge into a full-fledged campaign for convention votes.
The state's 73 votes are pledged to Senator Edward Martin, a favorite son. The question is, how long will they stick to Martin and in whose direction they will swing eventually? Those are points that will come up at their caucus.
Stassen said late Saturday he had been talking with some of the Pennsylvania delegation and they "showed a friendly interest."
He announced that he will be nominated for the presidency by Rep. Walter H. Judd of Minnesota.

HUNDREDS KILLED

CANTON, China —(AP)— Three hundred persons were reported dead and thousands homeless today as flood waters inundated Tashan County, about 70 miles southwest of here.
It granted the President's request for a program of economic recovery for European and Asiatic nations. It was a long bill with him on military aid for Greece and Turkey. And it saw eye-to-eye with the President on American participation in the International Refugee Organization.
It passed the House 208,000 to 100,000. It was a long bill for this country for permanent residence. This wasn't exactly what the President wanted, but it was a compromise.
It gave the President less than half-way on his request for a three-year extension of his power to make trade agreements with foreign countries. Instead it renewed the authority for one year, with restrictions.
It gave legal status for the first time to the State Department's "Voice of America" program.
Congress flatly refused to give him universal military training legislation. Peacetime draft legislation was in a snag unpassed as Congress strove to adjourn last night.
It passed a presidential succession law, a portal-to-portal pay bill, a rent control act allowing 15 percent increases, and a bill letting World War II veterans cash their terminal pay bonds. It let die bills to curb the Communist Party and to repeal the taxes on oleomargarine.
Wisconsin is called the Badger State.

Peace Talks Begin Monday Between Arabs and Jews

WASHINGTON —(AP)— It will be up to the voters to decide whether the 80th Congress was one of the worst or one of the best in the nation's history. It has been called both. President Truman, who got comparatively little from it in the way of legislation, has described it as one of the worst. House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R-Mass.) has referred to it as "the best and most constructive Congress in many years."

The sheriff quoted him as saying the fatal quarrel stemmed from his desire for a divorce and her refusal to agree to one. The sheriff said Williams told this story of events at the cliff: He picked up a small rock as they walked together along the bluff, then dropped it, picked up a larger one and struck her. The child, who had remained in the car, came running. She screamed for him to quit striking her mother. Williams said he became confused and struck the girl. Thinking both were dead, he pushed them over the cliff and watched them roll part way down. Attending physicians gave the girl, Mary Bernice, an even charge Friday afternoon to recover. She received a blood transfusion after noon at an Everett hospital. Williams was held without charge. Prosecutor Phil Sheridan said he would file a first-degree murder charge.

This year is certain to add special luster to the Pontiac name—for the great car illustrated here, the 1948 model, is the finest Pontiac ever built.

First, it offers the performance luxury of General Motors Hydra-Matic Drive—and it is the world's lowest priced car with this phenomenal advance in easier, more convenient motoring.

It is the most beautiful of all Pontiacs. The finest performing of all Pontiacs. The most dependable of all Pontiacs.

Consequently, we are certain that those who purchase it will be the most enthusiastic of all Pontiac owners—and their praises will add to an already-great reputation for enduring satisfaction.

Better make your own next car a Pontiac. Regardless of when you get it, you can be sure it will be a great car and a great value.

*GM Hydra-Matic Drive, Bumper Guards and White Sidewall Tires optional at additional cost.

HOW TO BID HAND IS PROBLEM HERE
By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY

the South Hills Civic Club. They told me that they have a bridge club.

I asked one of the ladies the name of the club, and she replied, "We don't have a name."

So today's hand is from the bridge club without a name. Mrs. Elizabeth Kinchele, a member, wanted to know how it should be bid. I knew this was dynamite—the lady had red hair. I finally said, "With some partners I would open the South hand with one club, while with others I might bid a heart. With you, I might even bid a spade, because if you were my partner and had all the spades, you would never let me play the hand."

In my opinion South's best opening bid is one club, following which West will bid a spade. Mrs. Kinchele thought that North then should bid one no trump, but I consider two spades a stronger and better bid. Over two spades South will bid three hearts, a reverse bid showing a powerful hand.

North then should bid four clubs. It is not necessary to jump to game. Now South can show control in diamonds with a four diamond bid. At this point North might risk a six heart bid, but six clubs is sounder.

I do not know whether or not the ladies liked my analysis of the bidding, as I understand that when the hand was played at their club, it was passed before they reached game.

Youths Protest USSR Weddings as Brushoff

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW (AP)—Members of the Young Communist League are heading a drive to make the Soviet marriage ceremony brighter and more festive.

Readers of the newspaper Komsomol Pravda, raised the question of brightening up the ceremony in a series of letters to the editors. The editors called a meeting in their offices inviting workers of the registration office, Komsomols and newly married persons.

The various letters were read and discussed; the newspaper published many of them. Zina Ostrova of Moscow said in her letter:

"The wedding day is the turning point in the lives of boys and girls. But, to our sorrow the procedure of getting married is cut short and made into a very dry thing by the registration bureau."

Nikolai Bragin wrote from Riga on the subject:

"Often people without sentiment work in the marriage bureau. To them there seems to be no difference between the registration of a death or a marriage."

Alexander Eronov, of Krasnokamsk had this to say:

"The registration is sometimes completed in three or four minutes. We should have weddings where the young people could, in the presence of relatives and friends, shake hands, kiss and exchange vows and more never.

"Our youth," said Komsomol Pravda, "is not satisfied with such dry ceremonies as we have been having. Our wedding days must be bright and cheerful. At one time we held Komsomol weddings. They were interesting and happy occasions and even clubs were decorated for the wedding."

Official Andreev, chief of the Moscow marriage bureau, said he would go along with the plan. "Please hold such weddings again," he said. "We will send an official to the club to conduct the ceremony. I'm for it."

EASY IRONING

A little organization makes for easier ironing. Arrange clothes in basket in the order to be ironed—linens at the bottom, cotton articles next and rayons on the top—thus ironing from those requiring lowest temperatures to those needing hottest. Fold articles before they are completely dry to lessen need for dampening, and roll up neatly, but not too tightly, to avoid deep wrinkles that would require long smoothing. Place clothes basket on a low table near the ironing board. Constant stooping and walking back and forth across kitchen or laundry make for unnecessary fatigue.

Freshly laundered clothes that develop a rust brown stain when ironed may not have been rinsed thoroughly. Soap left in the fabric may show up as a stain under the heat of the iron. To remove the stain, wash clothes again in soap and water and rinse thoroughly.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcontrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 47 Pounds

"When I commenced to take Barcontrate, I weighed 212 pounds. I now weigh 165. I lost 25 pounds on the first two bottles. I feel so much better after losing that weight. I think it is a wonderful medicine and thanks to Barcontrate."—Mrs. George Greer, Chalmers Court 1, Apt. 1, Austin, Texas.

Lost 20 Pounds

"I lost 20 pounds taking four bottles of Barcontrate and I feel fine."—H. M. Gates, 212 25th Street, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Trade Publication Editor Resigns

NEW YORK —(AP)— J. W. Brown, Jr., announced his resignation as president and publisher of Editor & Publisher, newspaper trade publication. He will engage in other activities. Brown will be succeeded as president by his father, James Wright Brown, and as publisher by Charles T. Stuart. The elder Brown had been head of the pub-

Henry L. Jordan Files For County Judge

Henry L. Jordan today authorized The Pampa News to announce his candidacy for the office of County Judge of Gray County, subject to the Democratic Primary Election. Mr. Jordan's statement follows: "To the voting citizens of Gray County, since many of you do not know me, and I have never held a county office in Gray County, the following information may be of interest to you to consider before marking your ballot in the 4th Saturday of July Democratic Primary. It would be a pleasure for me to meet all the voters, but I know the limited time will not permit. So I take this means of contacting you. I consider a public office as a public trust; and I have always tried to keep my life and my business on a high moral plane; for several years I have contributed to the Boy Scouts of America and to several church and civic organizations. I advocate good roads, schools, civic improvements for the benefit of all communities of the county; and also for rural electric lines. Having lived in Pampa the past twenty years, 22 years in the state, of which 48 were spent since January, 1901, in the Panhandle Plains area, I have observed the problems of this locality. I don't claim to have dug the canyons, but I found a big creek around when I did arrive.

"As a voter you may seriously question the qualifications, training and experience of the men who will handle your county government in the near future. With high school and university training, I am also long on legal and business experience. For nearly eight years before coming to this county, I was county attorney of another county, without active opposition. I have through the years done some labor in several county offices. While I never offered for, or held a county office in Gray County, I am not unfamiliar with the duties of office. Having carried a Supreme Court law license since 1920, I claim 28 years of legal and business experience, having managed for myself and others during the years. Starting poorly, I made considerable gains; and while I don't claim to have any big ranches or business enterprises, I submit that a county judge may be an humble, but successful cit-

Chick Production Down During May

AUSTIN —(AP)— Commercial hatcheries produced 6,920,000 chicks in Texas last month, 5 percent less than the 7,300,000 hatched in May a year ago. Production was 18 percent below the 5-year average for May. Straight run, heavy and cross breeds were bringing $13 per 100 on June 1. Light breeds averaged $12.50. Heavy and cross breeds sexed pullets averaged $21 and light breeds were selling for $23. Heavy breed sexed cockerels brought $9.50; cross breeds, $9.10 and light breeds $8. May egg production was estimated at 325,000. This was 4 percent below the year ago figure. The rate of lay was 17.1 eggs per hen, about the same as in May, 1947. The state's farm flock averaged 19,090,000 hens compared with 19,852,000 last year.

County Agents To Take Course

HOW THE HARD OF HEARING CAN HELP THEMSELVES TO HEARING

The many hard-of-hearing in this city will have an exceptional opportunity to find out how they may once again experience relaxed noise-free hearing. A FREE HEARING CLINIC will be held on Monday and Tuesday, June 21 and 22, 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. at the Hotel Schneider by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hammer at which time he will test the hard-of-hearing for individual hearing deficiencies. This clinic will also serve to introduce a new Acousticon development in hearing aids. This new hearing aid, by the world's first and oldest manufacturer of electrical hearing aids, offers clarity of tone without the harsh background noises usually encountered. This instrument, in spite of its power, is small, even with the batteries enclosed!

Letters have been pouring in from those who have already tried this new Acousticon saying how thrilled they were with this hearing aid. Many of them say that they have never experienced such clarity of tone against such a velvet-quiet background. The manufacturers of this instrument say that no one can even imagine what it may do for them until they hear it with their own ears. Those hard of hearing who have been searching for the answer to their personal hearing problems are urged to attend this FREE CLINIC. Complete free information will be mailed if you cannot be there. Write to Mr. Hammer at 810 McBurnett Bldg., San Angelo, Texas. Adv.

CAR-BUILDERS, WATCH RULES

By E. O. STALLSMITH
National Finals Chief Inspector Inspectors of all Soap Box Derby cars at the local race and the national championships in Pampa will have to use especial care this year to see that all the rules are observed to the letter and in full spirit.

Mr. Stallsmith

The rule book, imposed this year's by the National Committee, will have many dramatic changes in them that will bring down the pace throughout the country.
It is important that these changes which must watch are body
design and steering mechanisms are: the cockpit must be open at the top, and be large enough to permit the driver to get in or out without removing the steering wheel or a section of the body; the car body must not confine the driver's head; the seat back must be removable or hinged to add inspection; the nose of the car must extend forward farther than the front of the front wheels.

New rules regarding steering are important, and will be check-ed carefully by inspectors. The driver, to steer, must sit in a normal driving position and no windshield is permitted. Steering must be by hand and the wheel must be above the driver's legs.
The steering wheel must clear rim of the cockpit by two inches.
Steering by a tiller is forbidden, but a steering bar may be used if it is at least 18 inches long and is used in conjunction with a steering wheel. A special, authorized steering post and cable drum made commercially as a complete assembly, is one of the new ready-made parts authorized in the rules.

Every car must have a single drag brake worked by a foot pedal.
The brake facing must be no more than 18 inches from the rear of the car, and in the center of the width of the car.

These new rules, and most of the old ones, have been devised primarily with an eye on safety.
Inspectors use gauges and scales to check some of the rules, but many of them require study by the inspectors, and care to see that the letter and spirit of the safety regulations are observed.

Failure to build the car with safe steering and braking devices would lead to disqualification, yet a safe steering apparatus for one car might not be safe for another.
Individual car construction is considered in all cases by the inspectors.

One rule of vital interest to inspectors is to forbid the entrance of a winning car from previous years. Cars suspected of being built wholly or in part by adults are also watched carefully by inspectors. Chief inspector at Pampa is J. P. Kurtzweil, of the Lions Club.

If the youthful car-builders are in doubt about any of the rules, or the interpretation of them, they are urged to check with the Soap
Box Derby editor of the sponsoring newspaper, with Chevrolet officials or with the local inspection committee. The race is sponsored jointly by this newspaper, the Chevrolet Motor Division, and the Lions Club. Final race day in Akron is Aug. 15.

Don't Let the Noise Fool You
When the curtain rings up and the blizz lights engender perspiration in the City of Brotherly Love this week, the biggest show on earth will have begun.

Those with ear to the radio will not understand, probably, what all the hollering is about, and it may not mean anything. But it is worth listening to.

John Doe's name will be mentioned, and there will be something just short of an explosion—a certain group of delegates will be trying to take the roof off with their yells and hoop-lays.

Behind this banter and huzzling, there is the deadly seriousness of American politics. People across borders and across oceans may not understand it.

Through this assemblage each party names the man it hopes will be selected by the people to fill the biggest job on earth.

Well, Father's Day is today. Just before the Republican National Convention opens in Philadelphia.

Remember, long before there was an official Father's Day, mother was always very nice to father.

As long as mothers and fathers have their own way I think it would be nice if we had a special day for mothers-in-law.

O, CONSISTENCY!
WASHINGTON — Harry Truman's hoof and mouth disease broke out on him afresh at Butte, Mont., where he opened his mouth he put his foot in it.

He condemned the city's own favorite newspaper, a valiant anti-Communist paper, as one of the two "worst" dailies in the country.

He ridiculed the Taft-Hartley labor relations law and appealed to a communistic CIO crowd to whip the law at the polls in November by electing their own congressmen.

At the very hour when the President was condemning the Senate, that body was looking with favor on his request to extend the reciprocal trade agreement measure for three years.

At that election they expressed their preference and chose the present House of Representatives.

Fair Enough.... by Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK — The Governors of Iowa and Minnesota recently called out the National Guard to restore peace where strikers of the CIO had cowed the local police.

The directed mob is military. It feints to draw off the cops, then strikes in another part of town. It knows how to do the most damage and where to strike the jugular such as the switches in the municipal power plant.

There have been thousands of riots and, according to the legal definition of a lynching offered in all the communistic anti-lynching bills, there have been literally thousands of lynchings in Roosevelt's union territory in the South.

Thus there were hundreds of lynchings in the recent Minnesota packers' union riots. Actually the mob was guilty and was lynching the union adherents in the North and far West during the years of civil war maintained by the unions to those executed by Southern mobs.

Moreover, in most of the Southern lynchings, the mob would have gone to trial. But in the fatal lynchings done by the Roosevelt mob in the union wars there was no violation of any law.

The Roosevelt regime, inherited by President Truman, has frankly insisted that its own mobs have a special right to lynch.

When American troops are called for riot duty there should be no such thing as "modified martial law." But local police and sheriffs have plenty of law and weapons on their side.

QUICKIES

The Communist fraternity sooner or later produces but one kind of fraternity — the kind Jonah enjoyed when he was swallowed by the whale.

There are already two world agencies: The UN and the Communist Party. What we want is a third one that will take the action of the world's free men.

O, CONSISTENCY!
It was the clubfoot Thaddeus Stevens who blocked all humane and sane efforts to solve the race problem after the slaves had been turned loose in the Old South.

It was Stevens and his minority-influenced clique who hept the postwar United States from following Lincoln's earlier advice and providing the Negroes with a Republic of their own in Africa.

It was the Stevens Congress condemned by Truman which made possible the carpetbagger regimentation of the ex-slaves and the consequent reign of terror, out of which rose the Ku Klux Klan as a device for preventing wholesale slaughter — in the absence of any protection from the vengeful federal government.

It is the measure of astuteness of the Pendergast school? Can this kind of campaigning return Mr. Truman to the White House?

Common Ground
By R. C. HOLLES

A Splendid Investment For a Dollar
I want to recommend a splendid investment; an investment on which a man cannot lose unless he fails to use it after he has purchased it.

The laws concerning the use of the National Guard are indistinct. Some soldiers and lawyers think martial law supersedes the federal and state Constitutions.

I have been quoting for several days from this great book. I want to quote further. In the last issue Mr. Weaver explained that the only purpose of a real government is to use force to enable human beings to use their energies to the best advantage and without interference.

"Human energy cannot operate effectively except when men are free, but freedom cannot be separated from the stability and order which does not mean license. No one has a right to infringe on the rights of others."

"Legal Restraints— the passing of laws to be administered by governmental agencies and enforced by police power."

"Moral Restraints— which depend on individual self-discipline, logical reasoning, good sportsmanship, and a consideration for the rights of others."

"The extension of laws into areas where they can't be enforced does more harm than good."

"Along with it all, the administrative and enforcement facilities are being taken care of."

"I don't attempt to argue the point to say that changes and further improvements in the direction of enlightened self-interest and personal responsibility are not nearly so difficult to attain as the usual defenses force, the War Department commissioner Colonel Philip McCook, distinguished New York lawyer and member of the family of the "fighting McCooks" of Connecticut, to visit all theaters after the last conflict.

There are already two world agencies: The UN and the Communist Party. What we want is a third one that will take the action of the world's free men.

SO THEY SAY
Organized wealth was never more powerful. Entrenched, greedy men are in the saddle. They are restraining labor from exercising its common rights.

The nation faces a possible depression because we are trying to do too many things at one time until we are beyond the capacity of the nation.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
news behind the news

WASHINGTON — Drastic revision of the Army-Air Force court-martial system giving a decent break to humble buck privates may fall of passage at the present session because of opposition from the "high brass," including Secretary Forrestal and former Chief of Staff Eisenhower, and because of last-minute legislative congestion.

The reforms were approved unanimously by the House several weeks ago in the shape of a separate measure. But this bill has been shelved by Chairman Millard Tydings of Maryland, of the top command. Mr. Forrestal professes to support several proposed changes, but withholds full approval because, he says, the Navy procedure is not affected.

Senator James P. Kem of Missouri tacked the House proposal to the draft act in the upper chamber, and the debate provoked a bipartisan attack on the present system. Several senators, including Millard Tydings and James P. Kem, told hair-raising tales of rank injustices, during the recent conflict.

RETENTION — President Truman's behind-the-curtain strategists are now concentrating on persuading five prominent New Dealers to take an active part in his campaign for reelection. They fear that he will have almost no chance unless they can drag these Rooseveltians onto the stump or at least induce them to issue strong statements for his retention in the White House.

MILD — Strangely enough, they are eager to corral Henry Morgenthau, former Secretary of the Treasury and FDR's close friend. They do not want Mr. Morgenthau to testify to the brilliant handling of federal finances and related problems since he quit Washington under Mr. Truman's urging. They need his approval of the Administration's Palestine policies.

With a definite eye on the feminine vote, President Truman is especially eager for the support of the two women who were closest to FDR — Eleanor Roosevelt and Frances Perkins. Their backing would help him, or so the White House believes, with the ladies, with labor with liberals and with all the ragtail-bobtail elements that regarded Mr. Truman's predecessor as their champion.

Two old settlers sat smoking in a cabin far away in the backwoods. The conversation drifted from politics to cooking. One of the confirmed bachelors said:

First: "You've hit it. Every one o' them recipes begin in the same way: 'Take a clean dish—and that settled me at once.'"

Adjustment of Racial Issues Local Problem

Each section of the country will have to work out its own problems, the Rev. Clyde Smith told fellow Kiwanians here Friday.

In extended remarks as luncheon speaker on the subject of racial difficulties, he said the Negro people must "have equal education and economic opportunities as soon as is possible."

The Methodist minister said he had seen Negroes in all professions, in many instances where they had accomplished as much as some white men under the same circumstances.

"If we are thinking now of an inferior race," he said, "we are going to have to hear in mind these instances of achievement."

Although not mentioning the civil rights program, the FEPC, and other social and economic legislation by name, he said "people a thousand miles away can't solve our problems."

He implied that the problem of Negro-white adjustment must be gradual — and cannot be made by passing laws.

The program was prepared by the Membership and Classification Committee. G. F. Branson and Fred Thompson introduced the speaker.

Earlier last week, Galveston civic organizations and businessmen protested that Houston newspapers and radio stations had failed to designate specifically enough a pollution area in the bay. That area was in the upper bay in Harris County, about 45 miles from Galveston Island, they said.

Kawakita is accused of brutalities and indignities against American prisoners of war at a Jap Honshu.

WHAT MAKES THE CONVENTIONS TICK:

Keynote: A 'Grea-a-at' Oration Soon Forgotten

JOE MARTIN: As the Republican convention chairman, he'll be back on the same job he had for the 1944 show (above) in Chicago. SAM RAYBURN: Like Martin, the Democratic convention chairman for '48 got his gavel-swinging experience as speaker of the House.

By PETER EDSON NEA Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA)—The first day of a political nominating convention is spent in everybody finding out where his seat is and complaining about it. Also in listening to several addresses of welcome and the keynote speech.

The keynote speech is delivered by the temporary chairman, picked in advance by the party leaders. For the Republicans this year the keynote is Gov. Dwight Green of Illinois. For the Democrats it is Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky.

The tradition is that the keynote delivers a "grea-a-at" oration to lead the party on to victory. Usually it does no such thing. It is mostly a long and wordy speech filled with bank and platitudes about how noble the speaker's party is, and what a bunch of skunks and horse-thieves are to be found in the opposition.

Nobody ever believes anything that is said in a keynote speech. Shortly after it is delivered, it is forgotten. But it is a useful device for killing some time while the party bosses get their steam rollers piled up, their delegates lined up and their handwagons aimed up.

state, territory, possession and the District of Columbia. Election of the National Chairman for each party is the principal function of the National Committee—that and raising money and handling patronage and trying to keep the party alive between conventions, for which they are general committee on arrangements.

Within each National Committee, however, are the party bigwigs who really pull the strings and have the control. Bryan, at the 1912 convention of the Democrats, charged that the convention was controlled by the National Committee, that the National Committee was controlled by a subcommittee of 16, that the 16 were dominated by eight, and the eight by Boss Murphy, and Boss Murphy by Thomas Fortune Ryan.

The so-called bosses of the 1948 conventions are the rich Easterners who are said to control Republican National, Pennsylvania and the heads of the big state delegations. For the Democrats it's the bosses of the New York, Chicago and other big city machines. All the candidates and their managers play a part, plus the party leaders in Congress. It is this play of forces which really makes important convention decisions.

Functioning for the convention alone there are several important committees made up of one or two delegates from each state. The Committee on Credentials has the job of seeing that only duly elected delegates and alternates are seated and entitled to vote. If a contest arises within any state delegation, over whether one group of delegates should be seated or another, the Credentials Committee must settle it. A common solution is to seat both delegations and split the vote between them.

Then there is the Resolutions Committee. Its job is to write the party platform. Membership in this committee is usually announced in advance of the convention so that it can meet, hold hearings, allow interested pressure groups to testify on what they want in or out of the platform, and so do a real job of preparing what should be an important document.

The first party platform was written in 1840. It was only a few hundred words long. Today platforms run 5000 to 10,000 words. In practice, the platform is usually a wishy-washy document aimed to please everybody, but really satisfying nobody. Like the keynote speech, it is usually forgotten as soon as written, and it is a perfectly meaningless document.

There have been a few times when the platform as written by the Resolutions Committee has not been acceptable to the convention or the winning candidate. In 1924 the Democrats had a fight over whether or not to denounce the Ku Klux Klan by name. The vote was 542 7-20 for naming it, 543 3-20 for not naming it. In the campaign, however, Candidate John W. Davis, who named it, 543 3-20 for not naming it. In the campaign, however, Candidate John W. Davis, who named it, 543 3-20 for not naming it.

In 1920 the Republicans had a similar fight over endorsing or condemning the League of Nations. It was solved by a compromise which meant nothing because in the campaign Warren G. Harding came out openly against the League.

The theory is that the platform must be written and adopted before the candidate is named, and it usually works that way. Next: Electing the candidate.

WALTER WHITE, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told a subcommittee of the GOP Resolutions Committee that the Republicans dominating Congress have "misably evaded" similar platform pledges made in 1944.

Dr. Channing B. Tobias, Negro religious leader from New York, told the civil rights subcommittee: "The Negroes of this country, mark my words, are a solid line, such as you've never known before. I'm not just speaking through my hat."

W. C. Meekins of North Carolina, a committee member, asked against the Negroes that the acts planned have largely taken place in states controlled by Democrats. Committee member Orville Bullington of Texas chimed in: "And Democrats here up and said they heard no condemnation of the White jumpers today."

Negro leaders will be concerned the Democratic platform later.

Carroll Show 'Will Go On'

HOLLYWOOD —(AP)—Earl Carroll's "most beautiful girls in the world" prepared to carry on with his show because the stage producer "wanted it that way."

The showman, who built his huge Hollywood theater-restaurant in 1938 after making his "Vandenberg" an annual fixture on Broadway for 13 years, was killed in the Mt. Carmel, Pa., plane crash. He was 54.

Also among the 43 killed was Beryl Wallace, 30, the star of most of the 12 major revues that Carroll produced here in the last decade.

Carroll's theater here was a "must" for moviegoing tourists. Over the stage door is a sign with the "trademark" which Carroll used effectively both here and on Broadway proclaiming that "through these portals pass the most beautiful girls in the world."

Carroll's business manager, Miss Virginia Lear, said that the current revue, which has been playing to full houses for 18 months, will continue because "Mr. Carroll wanted it that way."

National Negro Leaders Criticize Republican Party

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)—National Negro leaders severely criticized the Republican Party Friday and demanded that the 1948 platform contain a strong civil rights plank.

Meantime, the Republicans, hard at work on a platform to be presented to the national convention this week, appeared to be moving toward what the Negroes were asking for — pledges of support for anti-lynching, anti-poll tax and fair employment laws.

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told a subcommittee of the GOP Resolutions Committee that the Republicans dominating Congress have "misably evaded" similar platform pledges made in 1944.

Goat-Getting Night Upsets Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY —(AP)—It was a goat-getting night in Oklahoma City. Things were going quietly when all the phones at police headquarters began to ring.

"Officers!" shouted one frantic housewife. "There's a goat eating the washing off my line."

Then the Frisco Railroad called. It had goat trouble, too. "Say," said the railroad, "those goats have got a switch engine grass between the ties."

It was all too true. A fence had given way at a packing house and 15 goats were loose in the dark.

Nobody Loves Forever

By Margareta Brucker Copyright by ANSA House, Inc. Distributed by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THIS STORY: Doris tells Jessica that very eligible David Gregory is rich-hand man to Hugh Linton, the boss lawyer here in town. Jessica decides to sell her place, to another rich hand, the jeweler that the man who was so interested in buying it is the same Hugh Linton.

JESSICA detailed ways and means of using the money from the sale of her ring to further her plan to take a business training. But Lucy discouraged the job idea. "It will place an added burden upon mother," she hinted, and she has quite enough to do already.

This was the Lucy Jessica disliked. The martyred Lucy who refused to have fun like other girls and constantly flaunted her rigid adherence to home obligations. Duty—Lucy was a slave to duty, her home and her work. The latter claimed more, and more of her time and energy, until one evening in late September, when she dragged about the house completely exhausted, Jessica asked her, "Why are you such a complete idiot, Lucy? A man like Hugh Linton doesn't appreciate all this self-sacrifice in the line of duty."

"What do you know about Hugh Linton?" Jessica wasn't too sure just how to explain. She said lamely, "Doris works at the same plant. She's told me about him."

"Mr. Linton doesn't know that Doris exists." "Probably not, but that doesn't alter the fact that she has seen him and hears—"

"What does she hear?" demanded Lucy, her eyes flashing. "How should I know, but I judge he might be the type—"

Lucy stated flatly as she left Jessica and hurried off down the smoke-fogged street.

It rained that night and the fallen leaves lay damp and sodden on the walks the next morning. Betsy escaped from the house and played outside for a half hour before Jessica discovered her absence. She caught a dreadful cold. Several terrifying days and nights followed for Jessica until the baby's fever broke and she was out of danger.

Then Betsy was up again and able to be bundled up in her new coat, and in spite of Mrs. Blake's dark forebodings that fresh air would bring a return of her illness, Jessica took her out one bright, unusually warm October afternoon and went to the park half way across the city.

The afternoon sun was as hot as August and Betsy ran up and down on the grass and squealed and laughed and looked more like herself than at any time since her illness. Jessica whipped off her hat and felt the sun warm and welcome on her own face after the long weary days in a sickroom. There was a tang in the air, the stir of drifting leaves overhead. She watched the cars circle past in a constant stream. Then suddenly she straightened up and called sharply to Betsy who ran about a little distance away, "Come, Betsy, we must go."

She was too late. The driver of the big red car moving along the drive slowed and halted; the car swung open and David Gregory leaped down and strode toward her.

"Jessica!" He seized her hands and held them tightly in his own firm hands. Betsy reared toward them, stopped, smiled, and said, "Mans." David dropped Jessica's hands and lifted the baby and sat down beside Jessica with Betsy on his knees.

Jessica's heart raced. She had almost forgotten him—No, that was not true, she had kept the thought of David hidden, only to revive it now as her thoughts whirled and she felt tongue-tied and self-conscious. (To Be Continued)
