HST Suggests End of Open Aggression

BERKELEY, Calif.—(AP)—President Truman challenged Russia to prove its desire for peace by ceasing its tactics of "coercion" and "open aggression."

In blunt language, the President said yesterday the Soviet government's refusal to work with its wartime allies for world peace and recovery was "the most bitter disappointment of our time."

He flatly rejected any separate conference with Russia on differences affecting other countries. He said, "No nation has the right to exact a price for good behavior."

The door "is always open for honest negotiations looking toward genuine settlements," Truman declared.

In a major foreign policy speech at University of California commencement exercises, the President asserted in his frankest review to date of this country's position:

"The United States refuses to play fast and loose with man's hopes for peace" by making "deals" with other great powers at the expense of weaker nations.

"The cleavage" that exists today is not between Russia and the United States, but between the Soviet Union and the rest of the world."

Russia and her satellites should withdraw their aid from guerrillas in Greece and permit North Korea to unite with South Korea.

The world lives today "in a twilight period, between a war so dearly won and a peace that still eludes our grasp," the President said.

The reason, he added, "lies largely in the attitude of one nation—the Soviet Union." Truman said the United States is always willing to negotiate international differences but he said "there is nothing to negotiate when one nation habitually uses coercion or open aggression."

Man Seeks to Pay $1 Debt

The county tax assessor is looking for a Buick with red wheels. Not just any Buick with red wheels, but—

One whose driver bought a trellis and a couple of cold drinks at Mary's Pottery, Route 2, Vernon, Texas, last Monday afternoon.

Steve Maryol, in a letter to the assessor, said the man whose Buick has red wheels has a dollar coming to him, and it is enclosed.

The plain truth is Steve overcharged the Pampa, the letter says, overcharged him by $1.

The letter says the Buick is 1947 or 1948 model. Please check up your Buick registrations, and I am sure you know who the man is," the honest proprietor writes.

So, if you have a Buick with red wheels—and had your wife (blonde) with you at Vernon Monday and two daughters 15 to 17 years of age, you have a dollar at the County Assessor's Office here.

Weatherman Says Cooler

Pampa had the hottest day of the year yesterday, 96 degrees, relative cool day compared with Prosidio's 108.

However, the Dallas Weather Bureau said a wide cool front was moving slowly out of the north and was expected to reach the Pampa area sometime last night or in the early hours of this morning.

The local bureau said there was no sign of cooling breezes at 10:30 last night.

Crystal City and Laredo had 102 yesterday, according to The Associated Press. One hundred degrees heat was reported at Fort Stockton, Mineral Wells and Del Rio. No rain fell during yesterday.

COMMITTEE RESTORES ERP SLASHES

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Senate Appropriations Committee voted today to restore the $5,000,000 program for the European Recovery Program, Senate President Arthur Vandenberg made an unprecedented appearance before the Senate Appropriations Committee to ask restoration of some $1,000,000, the House slashed from the ERP fund.

Two candidates for public office Saturday afternoon hauled down their colors and withdrew from the local political scene. They were Vincent D. Kersey, candidate for representative from the 122nd Legislative District and Bertie M. Vaught, candidate for the Precinct 2 county commissionership.

First to go to the political sidelines was Kersey in a surprise withdrawal from the legislative field, leaving only two contenders for the Austin chair from this district, Chaigner, McElhenny, Wheeler, and Carl Morris. Clarendon Kersey gave no reason for his action other than he was offered a position that he could not withdraw to turn down.

Vaught, whom many citizens had coded to be one of the top contenders for Pampa's representative seat on Western County Commissioners Court, said he was withdrawing because he would be unable to put his full time to the job. The farmer-stockman added, "I hope the man who gets in there will do what I would have done if I had got in." By that he explained he meant devote full time to the job.

Kersey's withdrawal brought the field of commissioner candidates down to seven. Those remaining in the race are: Nat Lunsford, Z. H. "Pop" Mundy, Clyde Organ, E. C. Shaffer, W. A. Noland, J. W. (Bill) Graham, and Irvin Cole.

With the deadline for filing of candidacy for county and precinct offices only one week away (June 19) three county-wide offices still remain unopposed having only the incumbents seeking reelection to their respective posts. They are: Charlie Thut for county clerk; Ola Gregory for county treasurer; F. E. Leech for tax assessor-collector; and Tom Braly for district attorney.

Only two are seeking the office of sheriff, Jeff D. Guthrie, former chief deputy sheriff, and incumbent sheriff, G. H. "Skinner" Kyle.

Mrs. De Patterson, incumbent district clerk and A. L. "Pat" Patrick have the race to themselves although Hastell Maquire.

Bond Election on Hospital Assured

A special election, to be held June 30, authorizing the County Commissioners Court to float an additional $85,000 bond issue to equip the county's Highland General Hospital, became a certainty Saturday afternoon as petitions bearing the signatures of 1,056 Gray County property taxpayers were being readied for presentation to the court tomorrow.

The petitions were circulated Thursday afternoon, Friday and Saturday by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and a special committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club. Additional petitions were still coming in Saturday night. The Commissioners Court is being asked to call the election for June 30.

Results of the straw ballot taken last week showed a ratio of 42 voters to 1 in favor of the election. Although less than 100 ballots were cast with 78 for and 16 against calling the election, many citizens voted in favor of the election as a group at club meetings and in record of such action sent in The News boosted the votes favoring an election.

In a paid advertisement by the medical profession, the names of four physicians were inadvertently omitted from the list. They were: Doctors Malcolm Brown, Walter Purviance, Paul C. Christian and P. A. Gates.

County commissioners Friday indicated they would call the additional $85,000 bond election for June 30 when they postponed letting or rejecting any bids. Bids on the hospital will not be let, it is expected, until after the election. Citizens are canvassed by the Commissioners Court at a special meeting to be held two days after the election. This would be just two days short of the 30-day time limit given the court on each bid for the rejection of letting of bids.

During the past week, in addition to the statement of the medical profession, the Pampa Realty Board and the Pampa Chamber of Commerce also went on record as favoring the bond election as well as verbal okay by many citizens in the southern parts of the county.

The Friday night meeting of the Commissioners Court at the Hospital Board was called off because it was next to impossible for the court to take concrete action in either direction until they were presented with a petition to call the election, and let or reject it until after the election is held.

Other business transacted at the special meeting Friday by the Commissioners Court consisted of executing the payment of $3,000 to the Rock Island Railroad for a 30-foot wide right-of-way and through McLean for Highway 66 and the appointment of Emmett Gee, Pampa, as public weigher for the county.

Senators Vandenberg (R-Mich.) and McNamara (D-Ill.) in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had filed an appeal for restoring the House votes. He appeared personally before the appropriations group to plead for carrying out the full program authorized by Congress.

In cutting the foreign aid appropriation and spending it from 12 to 15 months, Bridges said the House actually allowed ECA $3,200,000 on a 12-month basis. Included in this figure was $100,000,000 for aid to Japan and Korea.

Senate Committee lifted the $150,000,000 cut in the program for government and relief in occupied areas.

Violations of Cease Fire Are Charged

CAIRO (AP)—Both sides charged continued violations of cease-fire orders Saturday and threatened to blow up Palestine's two-day-old truce.

Both Arabs and Jews marked out "don't tread" front lines which appeared to criss-cross and invite dispute.

Count Folke Bernadotte, the U. N. truce maker, flew with his top aides to Amman, Trans-Jordan, Jerusalem and Damascus, Syria, to take a first-hand look at the powder-keg situation. His observers were busy at Tel Aviv, Haifa and elsewhere checking equally dangerous spots.

An Arab League representative routed Bernadotte from bed at 4:30 a. m. and handed the mediator a note saying "The Arab governments reserve the right of quick action in reply to criminal Zionist attacks."

Israel's army chief of operations already had voiced similar warnings in a statement to newspapers and threatened reprisal air raids on Arab capitals.

Col. Count Thorng Bonde, Swedish military advisor to Count Bernadotte, said he had received from the Egyptian government 10 complaints in which the Egyptians alleged they were attacked by Jews. One alleged attack was northeast of Gaza. U. N. observers at Tel Aviv were ordered to investigate.

Bernadotte arrived in Damascus, the Syrian capital, Saturday afternoon and was received by President Al Sayed Shukri Al Kuwailid. An official dinner party was given in his honor last night.

Officers of Israel's forces at Haifa declared the cease-fire order was being violated the second day by Syrians firing on Ein Geb, Jewish settlement on the eastern shore of Lake Galilee. An official See VIOLATION, Page 3

Texas Demos Have Train 'Troubles'

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas Democrats can't seem to get together even on which train they will ride to the national convention at Philadelphia. Maybe they'd better hitch hike.

The Republicans are in about the same shape, with their national convention less than 30 days away.

These major facts emerged from the confusion in both delegations on whether there is or isn't an "official" train to take the politicians to their respective conventions.

1. Democratic National Committeeman Myron G. Blalock of Marshall said there is no "official" Democratic special to Philadelphia because only the delegation itself could designate such a train, and it has not.

2. State Executive Committee Chairman Robert W. Calvert of Hillsboro said a Missouri-Kansas-Texas train leaving Dallas and Fort Worth June 8 is the official convention special by designation of the committee at its January meeting.

3. Blalock and some other members of the Democratic delegation will ride the Missouri Pacific to Philadelphia. Gov. Beauford H. Jester and some of his close friends will travel together in a special bedroom car attached to the Katy Democratic choo-choo.

4. There is no official Republican train. One group of delegates will travel by Katy, another by Missouri Pacific, and R. B. Creager, of Brownsville, Republican national committeeman, said personally he would fly.

Creager, from his home in Brownsville, told the Associated Press:

"There is no official Republican train to Philadelphia. Delegates can go any way they want to. The Texas Republican organization had nothing to do with the See DEMOCRATS, Page 3

Allied observers interpreted yesterday's hints as another step in trying to create counter-propaganda against the Marshall aid plan for Western Germany.
The crisis came to a boil shortly after noon yesterday. The Russians had refused to permit Americans to move a freight train in the American sector freight yard at Anhalter. Railway officials had alerted American troops to move the train with their own engines and to take over the necessary signal towers, if needed, to accomplish it.
Soon afterward the Russians issued the order to free the train.
The Russians insist it is inefficient to send trains from Western Germany to British and American yards in Berlin for breaking up and consignment to their destinations in Berlin. They contend it would reduce "congestion" to break up the trains in the Soviet zone and switch them directly to their final destination.
Last Wednesday, the Russians ordered switch engines used by the Americans in Berlin sent to different stations in an effort to remove them from American control. This order was countermanded by the Americans and military policemen were put on the engines to guard them.
These guards were removed Saturday afternoon after the Russians had given assurances that no attempt would be made to remove the engines.

Money Shift Sends State's General Fund Up 8 Million

AUSTIN —(AP)— The state's general revenue fund stood at slightly over 62 million dollars at the end of May, some 8 million dollars ahead of the month-ago figure, State Treasurer Jesse James reported.

The jump came principally from a 10 million dollar deposit from the state's clearance funds early in the month. The transfer was possible, Comptroller George H. Sheppard said, because of tremendous increases in nearly all sources of revenue to the available school fund.

Offers Proof Jesse James Was Killed

KINGSVILLE —(AP)— Further proof that Jesse James is dead was offered this week by the granddaughter of the undertaker who handled the outlaw's body. She is Mrs. Ellen Elliott who lived all her life in St. Joseph, Mo., until she moved here recently with her husband, a member of the music faculty at Texas A. & I. College.

In refuting the claim of an "man at Lawton, Okla., that he is Jesse James, Mrs. Elliott related this story: William Sidenfaden (spelled Sidenfaden at the time) operated a furniture and undertaking business at Port Neessele in St. Joseph, after coming to America from Germany. One day he was going about his business as usual, when they brought James in with a bullet hole in his back.

News traveled quickly even in those days, and it wasn't long until the news was all over town that Jesse James was dead and was lying on a slab in Sidenfaden's funeral parlor. A crowd gathered quickly, and many St. Joseph townspeople who had known James positively identified him as the real Jesse James. Sidenfaden was not the type of man that ordinarily kept records or to be easily impressed by a death, but he realized in the death of Jesse James something should be kept for proof that he had a picture taken of James from his head to his waist either in his casket or on the morgue slab. (Mrs. Elliott couldn't remember which) and kept it for future reference. At the present time the photograph is in possession of Herman Sidenfaden, a cousin of Mrs. Elliott and operator of the funeral home in St. Joseph originally founded by her grandfather, father.

Sidenfaden did not actually bury little Jesse James. He shipped his body to a family lived, but Mrs. Elliott believes that he was around her grandfather's funeral home long enough for everybody in a neighborhood to establish the fact that Jesse James was actually dead.

Mrs. Elliott herself was not yet born when all this took place, but she said that her father spoke of it quite often, and that he saw James after he was dead.

Man Jailed In Knifing

Miles McNeal of The Flats Saturday morning was sentenced to 45 days in the county jail after he pleaded guilty to knifing Clara Mae Crie, also of The Flats.

McNeal told the Court that the Crie woman had struck him on the forehead and the blow made him angry. He said he was guilty of slashing her and that they were engaged to be married.

Chief of Police Louis Allen told the Court this was the second time McNeal assaulted the same girl and that he has "bulldozed" other Flats residents. The chief added The Flats was "up in the air" over the knifing and wanted "something done."

Judge White "did something" and sent McNeal to jail for 45 days when he learned that 46 stitches were needed to close the woman's wounds. Court costs were also placed on McNeal.

Judge Delays Sentence in Exposure Case

Judge Sherman White Saturday morning delayed sentence on a local man charged with federal exposure in the presence of small girls attending the Crown and Rex Theaters Friday night.

The man, J. D. Easter, 20, of Pampa, at first entered a plea of not guilty before the Court, but later changed his plea to guilty.

Chief of Police Louis Allen told the Court that he had received calls from the theaters about Easter and the man was picked up later by police. Three teen-age boys who saw the actions appeared in court to testify, but were not called when Easter changed his plea.

Judge White put further questions to the defendant and ordered Easter to be remanded to the County Jail until he had made further queries before passing a final sentence.

School Census Report Compiled

Gray County school census report taken April 1 has recently been compiled, Huelyn Laycock, county superintendent of schools, reveals.

The report covers all school children between the ages of 6 and 18. Gray County will receive $297,085 for the coming year, an allotment of $85 per student for the school year 1948-49.

Total children during the previous school year was 5,409 as compared to this year's total of 5,401, Laycock said. Also, there has been a decrease of 29 in the county's common schools, 367 to 328.

The only schools showing an increase in enrollment this year over last are Pampa schools, 4,018, 1947 and 4,100, 1948. Other common schools showed decreases:

Hollywood Stars Will Broadcast Appeal for Relief

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD —(AP)— A pack of Hollywood stars will broadcast for relief for victims of Columbia River floods.

Originally, a stellar troupe was set to fly to Portland and Seattle for rallies to raise flood relief funds. At the last moment, government officials in the Northwest called a halt to the plans, since the flood danger was still imminent and large gatherings were inadvisable.

The Hollywood Coordinating Council, which handles benefit appearances by film folk, is lining up network time for an all-star broadcast.

Bob Hope is trying to decide whether to make his English film or tour the U. S. with a big outdoor show this summer. Meanwhile, he'll go East for some benefits and a heart-to-heart chat with his air sponsor, Bob has long been dissatisfied with his radio deal, particularly since he heard Walter Winchell will get a half-million yearly from his new pact. Bob figures he himself nets mighty small coin (compared to his film earnings) by the time he pays off his cast.

Eddie Albert is becoming a one-man film industry with his 16mm educational shorts. He sinks his pay from movie jobs like "You Gotta Stay Happy" into more shorts. He's very happy about the success of his film on human growth as explained to children. Coming up are such subjects as compound bone fractures, parent-child relations and labor-management problems.

Girl Scout Day Camp Ends For Tenderfoots in Council

Arrow Order Given Scouts

One Pampa Scout and two others were awarded the Order of the Arrow in the Thursday night campfire ceremony at Camp Ki-O-Wah.

Lonnie Carlton of Troop 80, the First Methodist Church troop, received the honor after the long Indian ceremony. Dale Fisher of Troop 66 in Phillips and Charles Ford of Troop 81 in White Deer also were honored at the campfire before the other Scouts and 50 visitors.

A reptile race took place at the camp Friday night as each troop entered its own special reptile. In the race the horn toad, bull snakes, frogs, turtles and lizards were placed under a tub inside a 35-foot circle.

The first troop's reptile to get outside the circle won the race. At first the animals did not seem to enter into the spirit of the race, but finally a horn toad dashed across the line to win the prize rather to keep just a little ahead of the bull snake that was on his trail.

Contracts for Texas Natural Gas Are Signed

NEW YORK —(AP)— Contracts have been signed for 235,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas to be sent from Texas each day for 20 years.

The Texas Gas Transmission Corporation announced it had signed the contracts with subsidiaries of Consolidated Natural Gas Company and the Columbia Gas System, and with Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

The gas will be used in the Appalachian and other Eastern areas. The contracts are contingent upon Texas Gas building a 26-inch 800-mile pipeline from the Carthage gas field in Texas to a point near Middleburg, O. FPC approval is needed for the pipeline project.

Texas Gas also called a special stockholders meeting for June 28 to vote on a proposed amendment to increase authorized capital stock. The firm also announced it is negotiating a contract with the Louisville Gas & Electric Company calling for delivery of another 40,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas a day, bringing the total under contract to 275,000,000 a day.

Mrs. Bearden and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fata, also of Pampa, were present.

Shows Come Higher—Higher These Days

BALTIMORE —(AP)— Anthony Perera's shower bath cost him $540 the other day.

Perera sold his car and, arriving home, parked the $540 on a desk. He decided to take a shower.

While splashing about, Perera heard a noise. Looking out he saw a man calmly collecting the money.

With a shout Perera started after the thief, stopping only long enough to pick up a gun.

He reached the door and there had to stop. He fired two shots but the thief was gone down an alley.

Texan Advises Cotton Research Lab in Lubbock

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Establishment of a cotton research laboratory at Lubbock, was urged by a Texan here for an industry advisory committee meeting.
Burris Jackson of Hillsboro, Tex., said that such a laboratory is needed in West Texas because of the short staple variety and "sledding" method used to harvest the crop.
The only Texan on the 9-man cotton industry advisory group which is appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture, Jackson said he has discussed the West Texas project with the committee.
"The Agriculture Department has a lump sum appropriation sufficient to set up such a research laboratory," Jackson told a reporter, "and no action by Congress is required."
"Nothing may come of the idea this year, but we are laying the groundwork and will have a better chance in 1949."

You Can Take Bus for Alaska

SEATTLE — (AP) — Like a bus trip to Alaska? The service is available up the Alaska Highway now.
Northwest Greyhound Lines which sells tickets for the rugged trip while operating on only the first leg of it—suggests to its travel agents, however, that they advise travelers not to wear their Sunday-best clothes.
The fare? To Fairbanks, it is $116.05, plus tax, plus room and board along the way. It's $140.80 to Anchorage, on the same basis.

Ex-Secretary Sues Bennett E. Meyers

NEW YORK — (AP) — The former secretary of Bennett E. Meyers is suing the retired Air Force general for $280,000, charging he made "false" and "defamatory" statements about her.
Mrs. Mildred R. Lamarr filed suit in federal court.
In an affidavit, she said Meyers imputed in statements before a Senate investigating committee that she was an "unchaste woman, unfaithful to her husband and her marriage vows."
Although the tomato is native to America, it was eaten in Europe long before people in the U. S. used it for food, about 1835.

Argentina Plans Vast Trade Network Facilities to Create Bigger Markets

HAVANA, Cuba — (AP) — Argentina is planning a vast network of warehouses, cold storage plants, and processing factories to create new and bigger markets for Argentine goods in the United States, Europe and Latin America.
Diego Luis Molinari, Argentine senator and economist and one of President Juan Peron's special ambassadors on the project, discussed the program on a recent visit to Havana.
Trade facilities are being planned now for Cadix, Spain, to serve Europe; at New Orleans, on the U. S. Gulf Coast, for the rich United States market; at Matanzas, Cuba, for Cuba and the Caribbean; and in the republic of Panama.
The program is one of the most ambitious of its kind ever undertaken by any government.
The idea is to build facilities for the future marketing of Argentina's increasing production. Already Argentina is one of the world's greatest food producers. Today it has a market for all the tremendous quantities of meat,

Anita Will Sing 'for Free' Says Grandpa

CORSICANA — (AP) — A Hollywood booking agent was in danger for a while—of getting his britches blistered by 87-year-old J. D. Gordon.
Gordon is the grandpappy of Anita Gordon, sensational Texas warbler who sings on the Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy show.
Here's what happened:
Corsicana wanted Anita to come home and sing at its centennial celebration, July 2, 3 or 4.
Last week, Harry Norwood, Anita's booking agent, advised Corsicana that Anita wouldn't come for free—but that $1,000 would fetch her.
Instead, it fetched a burst of temper from Grandpa Gordon.
"I am an old man, but red-blooded," he said. "I would like to blister Norwood's britches."
"Don't get excited, Papa," son J. Preston Gordon said soothingly. "Just sit steady in the boat, Papa."
"It's my birthday and she's coming," the old man went on, unmollified.
He was right.
Today he appeared at the city hall to inform the Centennial Commission that Anita would sing, for free.
"All of us Gordons," he bragged, "are singing dudes."
The earliest known date inscribed upon what is known as a "grandfather's clock" is 1681.

What's the Hottest News in Cars since the Self-Starter?

FOR the answer to that, just ask any man who drives a Dynaflo Buick.

He'll tell you, you haven't seen anything yet — until you slip behind a Dynaflo wheel and see for yourself what this new drive does.

It isn't merely that it's easy — though all you do in normal driving is set a lever, press the gas treadle, and steer.

It isn't merely the "stunts" you can pull, such as coming to a dead stop on a steep hill, then moving smoothly away, just by the way you manage the gas treadle.

The important thing is that Dynaflo Drive marks a basic change in the way power is delivered from the engine to the rear wheels.

The idea of passing through a series of gears in fixed stages, either manually or by mechanical means, is gone entirely.

Instead, spinning oil is so cunningly directed and controlled in the Dynaflo unit that it instantly shapes engine power to fit any normal driving need.

When you start, it steps up engine "torque" like a low gear to give you swift, surging getaway.

When you accelerate or climb, it fits the pull of the engine to that particular job.

When you cruise on the level open road, it delivers power with a flowing smoothness that is far silkier than the normal high.

You have manual control of direction simply by moving a lever. You have reserve braking power instantly at your command — and extra power for emergency pulls.

But there is never any clutch-work — there is no clutch-pedal. And never any gearshifting in the old sense—your power plant does what the forward gears used to do.

Right now, of course, Dynaflo Drive is available only on Buick ROADMASTER models.

Go find out about it, at the nearest Buick dealer — and be ready to put your order in, whether or not you have a car to trade.

Russia Plans Hike In Economic Aid

MOBOW — (AP) — Russia is ready to increase economic aid to nations which have friendly relations with her, the Moscow press announced.

Ivestia, the government newspaper, and Pravda, organ of the Communist Party, made the announcement in editorials hailing Moscow's reduction (by 80 percent) of reparations due from Finland, Romania and Hungary as a far-reaching diplomatic move.

At the same time Ivestia denounced American aid in Europe as a mask for economic subjugation.

Moreover, Ivestia said Russia now is out to catch up with the United States in per capita production, and thus hopes to surpass America because of her larger population.

If judged by the amount of their time and money devoted to religion, the people of Tibet probably are the most religious in the world.

KIWANIANS START SOFTBALL

Monday Marks Beginning of Annual Affair

By GENE GARRISON
Last Monday evening at 7 o'clock the Pampa Kiwanis Club embarked upon one of the best athletic programs in the history of Pampa—the annual Sunday School Softball League.

For the fifth consecutive season this local organization has shed its white shirts and ties and donned work clothes and overalls and gone to work to help promote community betterment. They have spent evening after evening working on diamonds, repairing backstops, fixing bases, leveling ground, buying equipment, and clearing the playing fields of stickers and debris. They have rounded up teams, contacted managers and sponsors, appointed committees, and spent several club meetings getting ready and making plans. But their work does not end there. It continues throughout the complete season—as umpires, ground keepers, and advisors. Their interest in this does not seem to be one of impartial attitude, but rather one of knowledge and understanding. They feel out the tiny differences and solve them honestly and justly, not just between themselves, but with help from those involved. Not only do the players of the various teams learn how to throw, catch, bat, and run, they learn the meaning of friendship and teamwork. They learn that they must stick together if they are to win, and this is a knowledge that will stick with them and help them later on in life.

The goal of this athletic program is to promote Sunday School attendance. Simple, isn't it? To become eligible to participate in this movement, the youths of Pampa must attend Sunday School... no fees, no obligations, just ball playing, Sunday School attendance and responsibility.

This program is not just for children. Each night the substitutes are crowded with anxious spectators—mothers, dads, relatives, and friends who have come to see tomorrow's big-leaguers in action. This does not only furnish entertainment and fun for children, but also for adults. Faces beam when some 75 or 80 pointer connects with a hard-hit ball and rounds the sacks to score on a homer, or some future citizen hurls three fast ones past the opposition's leading hitter.

Some of the games are, in one sense of the word, "lopsided." "Lop-sided" in score but not in individual character and good sportsmanship. Win or lose, these boys and girls play for the joy

Twenty-four teams began participating in the annual Kiwanis Sunday School Softball League last Monday night which is divided up into four leagues with nine churches taking part in this annual affair.

Nine games and two forfeits took place this past week with approximately 250 Pampa youths participating. The leagues are in four divisions—Jr. and Senior Boys and Jr. and Senior Girls.

All games are played on the Kiwanis diamonds just north of the high school with games beginning at 7 o'clock and two contests being played on each of the four lighted fields.

Four committee heads have been appointed with one division under each of their leadership. Joe Wells leads the Senior Girls, Dee Dodson leads the Jr. Girls, Gene Fatheree assumes leadership of the Jr. boys, and L. N. Atchison is Senior Boys Head.

All umpires are asked to turn in all score cards immediately after each game so that The News can receive them for publication. Homer Doggett, League chairman, announced yesterday.

Last Monday night the McCullough Methodist Senior boys ran roughshod over the Central Baptist Seniors 22-3 with Central Pawnee Bonnie Maxwell receiving credit for the easy victory. The winners jumped to an early six run lead in the first inning and were never in trouble with Maxwell whiffing 15 of the 31 men to face him.

Central Baptist... 600 100 1-3
McCullough Methodist 650 821 4-22

Showing potential polish the First Baptist Senior boys took advantage of the firing Central Baptists for the second straight night, as Harland Cox blasted two home runs, a triple, and a double in leading the Firsts to an easy 22-3 win. Jerry Gillis and Andy Tarrant also got circuit whallops while Pitcher Ed Engle got a homer for the losers.

Central Baptist... 464 462 6-22
Central Baptist... 817 620 4-22

Led by the flawless hurling of Shirley Culwell, the First Christian Jr. girls sped away from the First Baptist Jr. Girls 32-11 after jumping on losing hurler Anita Ruff for 11 runs in the first inning. The losers tried vainly to recuperate from this first onslaught by scoring five tallies in their half of the initial frame.

No games Wednesday night. Thursday night, Jr. Girls—Calvary Baptist vs. McCullough Methodist. Senior Girls—First Methodist vs. Calvary Baptist and First Baptist vs. McCullough Methodist.

All games listed first in each division will be played at 7. All others at 8:30. In the case of three games listed for one night in one division, the first two listed will be played at 7.

Abilene Wins 3rd Straight From Oilers

ABILENE — Pampa's Oilers, after dropping three straight for the first time this season, were to open a three-game series in Lamesa last night against the rampaging Lobos who wound up a series sweep over faltering Lubbock Friday night. A three-run Abilene uprising in the eighth inning off Charlie Kunkle gave the Blue Sox a 6-4 decision and their third straight victory over the league leaders here Friday night.

Bill Meier, after allowing three runs in the ninth when Pitcher Roy Parker, who relieved Kunkle in the Sox eighth, slammed a homer with the bases empty. It was Meier's seventh win of the season, and Kunkle's third loss.

A home run with one on by outfielder Gus Stathos in the seventh, drew the Sox even at 3-3, then in the eighth Kunkle got the winning markers.

The following is next week's schedule:
Monday night, Jr. Girls—First Baptist vs. Central Baptist. Senior Girls—First Christian vs. McCullough Methodist and Central Baptist vs. First Methodist. Jr. Boys—none scheduled. Senior Boys—none scheduled.

Tuesday night, Jr. Girls—First Methodist vs. First Christian. Senior Girls—Calvary Baptist vs. First Christian and First Baptist vs. Central Baptist. Jr. Boys—First Baptist vs. Central Baptist and Harrah Methodist vs. Calvary Baptist. Senior Boys—McCullough Methodist vs. First Baptist and Central Baptist vs. First Christian.

JONES MAKES UNSUCCESSFUL 1948 DEBUT

Foster White shoved aside all past memories and thoughts last night in Lamesa and cleared himself a path to the Oiler record book when he pitched the second 1948 Oiler debut in hosting Lamesa's ace Righthander Bill Jones 6-0 and limiting the Lobos to only three hits.

White brought his season's record to six wins and three losses with the victory, but more important than the records was the fact that White displayed perfect control throughout the contest, whiffing six and walking two.

Only three Lobos went as far as third base with two being stranded there and the other being grounded out to Tony Range.

The lethal southpaw who was charged with the loss found the Oilers much different than they were in their last tussle with the port-sider. Last night's contest between Jones' first contest of the 1948 season. Last night he won 24 games for the Lobos and only lost four although one of them was to Grover Seitz' ever dangerous Oilers.

The game started out with both teams collecting one hit in the first three frames. In the third inning, singles by Harriman, Riley, Belford, and Samek coupled with a walk issued to Joe Fortin accounted for three runs. Earl Harriman called his second run of the game in the fifth inning when he picked out one to liking and promptly placed it over the center field wall with the bases empty.

The Oilers completed their scoring in the top of the ninth when Harriman again led off with a single and was followed by a hard hit double by Jack Riley scoring Harriman from second where he had held up on an error by John Burk in center field. Consecutive singles by Range and Fortin scored Riley but Samek and White fled out to end the scoring.

Then came the top of the ninth. The pressure was on George Stahos and I. B. Palmer, both grounded out, Harriman to Belford. As White fired the first ball to Eddie Scarbace, the left fielder took a mighty cut and lost the ball over the right field wall. Foul ball, strike one. On the second pitch, Scarbace again swung and again he connected. This time over the left field wall. Foul ball, strike two. On the third pitch,

Golf Tournament Scheduled With Thirty-Five Expected

This afternoon at 1 o'clock 35 top-notch golfers from Pampa, Shamrock, and Childress will tee-off on the Pampa Country Club course in an Inter-City Golf Tournament staged as a return engagement among these three teams.

The Pampa team traveled to Shamrock six weeks ago and took part in an inter-city meet in that city. Childress was not present but asked for entrance in today's affair.

The match will be one of individual pairings and will be completed this afternoon.

Nineteen golfers are entered from Pampa although a few more are expected to try the local course. Those already signing the entry list are Mark Heath, Clarence McGinnis, Roy Powell, Joe Edwards, Albert England, Grover Austin, Sr., Frank Mitchell, Curtis Douglas, Malcolm Douglass, Dick Oden, Al Prigmore, Mickey Prigmore, R. A. Baker, D. H. Cobb, Dr. Charles Ashby, Russell Cartwright, White curved one inside which Scarbace bounced to Otey, but the diminutive second sacker bobbled and allowed the dangerous Scarbace to reach first base. Bill Jones then popped a long fly to Riley in left and the game was over. Earl Harriman got two singles and a home run to lead the Oiler batters while Jack Riley got two singles and doubles in four trips to the plate.

The Oilers remain in Lamesa today for a double header beginning at 2:30. Howard Bass and George Payte will probably be the Oiler starters while Roy Parker may get the nod.

Ropers Whip Clarendon in Matched Meet

The Pampa Roping Club held a matched roping contest with the Clarendon Roping Club last Thursday afternoon and emerged as easy victors in the one sided Clarendon invaders by a total of 60.8 seconds.

The two teams met in the Pampa Recreation Park with 12 men participating from each team. Each man roped two calves with the winning Pampans receiving the purse of $120.

In the jackpot roping, with $38 up as winners purse, the locals again dominated the field. H. B. Taylor won top money with a winning time of 16.5 seconds. Following the Pampa roper was Pat Slavens of Clarendon who turned in a time of 19.1. Siler Hopkins took third money with a 22.1 time and Byrle "Sucker Rod" Smithers placed fourth with the time of 23.3 seconds.

Oilers Regain Hitting Lead; Jump to 2nd in Club Fielding

After dropping to second in club batting last week and fourth in club fielding, the league leading Pampa Oilers regained their WT-NM League hitting lead this week and pulled within two percentage points of Borger for the league lead in team fielding.

Also moving up one notch was R. C. Otey. Last week Otey registered third in individual batting, but at the latest count, the veteran keystone sacker was ranking sixth with an average of .413. Otey and Bob Cruces of Amarillo are the only two regulars in the first six men with Cruces leading the local slugger in the list of regular batters with an average of .419.

The loop-leaders have participated in 42 games, through the date of compilation, June 11, and have won 28 and lost 17. Oiler batters have faced opposing pitchers 1,608 times for the least number of any team in the league in the least number of games played. Oiler bats have pounded out 336 hits which have accounted for 390 runs. The Oilers have touched 807 bases, the least number of any WT-NM League team, but they lead in the number of two-baggers and are second for the league lead in triples. Safe hits have gone for doubles 127 times and for triples 30 times. Albuquerque has a total of 36 triples to pace the league. The Oilers have been rather conservative losing balls over various park fences. They have lost only 28 for Owner R. L. Edmondson and Manager Grover Seitz, and are last with this number in home runs. Borger and Amarillo both have 71 circuit swats to their credit and are tied for the loop lead. Bob Cruces, Amarillo, outfielder, is far ahead in individual homers with 28 to his credit. Gordon Nell of Borger follows Cruces with 17 non-stop whallops.

The Oilers have had 18 sacrifice hits, 29 stolen bases, and have drawn 212 bases on balls, the least number of any other team. They have also struck out less than any other WT-NM team, being whiffed on only 102 occasions. Buck Fawcett, Amarillo manager, is the only man in the league who has not struck out. Otey and Earl Harriman closely press Fawcett for this honor, since both of these sluggers have missed third strikes only four times.

Both have participated in several more games than Fawcett and Otey has been to bat 102 times more than he has, and Harriman 87 more times. The Oilers have knocked in the least number of runs, 342, and have been hit by pitched balls only five times while Lamesa batters have reached base 18 times via this route. All this has joined to give the Oilers a team batting average of .353, 14 points higher than their closest competitor, the Borger Gasers.

The Pampans have the least number of put-outs, 1,066, and have a total of 555 assists. They have the least number of errors, bobbling only 93 times, and have pulled 40 double plays. Their fielding average is .946 while Borger leads the league with .948. R. C. Otey has been at bat more times than any other individual in the league and has more hits than any one else. He has had 206 official turns at bat and has 85 hits. He is second in doubles with 20, led only by Virgil Richardson of Lubbock with 22, and is tied with Ernie Falappino of Abilene and Lynn Attyd of Albuquerque for the league lead in triples with 7. He has clouted five homers and drawn 16 walks, one of the fewest numbers in the league for regulars. Otey's batting average on June 11 was .413.

Although Torres of Amarillo has not lost a game, Avon Driggers continues to be the league's lead pitcher with a 9-1 record. Driggers has faced 335 men, allowed 57 runs, 94 hits, struck out 41, and walked 31. His average is .900. A 5-2 record ranks George Payte 12th with an average of .714. Payte has allowed 35 hits to the 273 men he has faced.

Battling averages through June 11 are as follows:

Citation Wins; Becomes 8th Horse to Take Triple Crown

NEW YORK —(AP)— Calumet Farm's Citation streaked to an easy victory in the $100,000-added Belmont Stakes Saturday and became the eighth horse in history to achieve the triple crown.

The King Ranch's Better Self was second, six lengths behind, with W. L. Brann's Escadru third.

The Calumet champion equalled Count Fleet's record for the stakes by touring the mile and a half in 2:28 1-5.

Heavily backed by the crowd of 43,046, Citation paid $2.40, $2.30 and $2.10. Better Self paid $3.70 and $2.10. Escadru paid $2.10 for show.

Citation broke on top despite a slight stumble at the gate and led all the way, except for a brief moment when Faraway got a head margin at the half mile call.

The Warren Wright speedster was piloted by Eddie Arcaro, who became the first jockey to ride horses to two triple crowns. Arcaro guided Calumet's Whirlaway to Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont victories in 1941.

The Glenn Riddle Farms' faraway matched strides with the Calumet Flash until the pack hit the backstretch and then he started fading.

That was when Better Self and Escadru started moving up.

Better Self beat out Escadru by half a length and then strung out behind in order were: C. V. Whitney's Vulcan's Forge, A. J. Sackett's Sapsanilla, William Helis' Salmagundi, Belair Stud's Golden Light and Glen Riddle's Faraway.

Count Fleet's record for the stakes, equalled by Citation today, was made in 1943.

Previous triple crown winners were Sir Barton (1919), Gallant Fox (1930), Omaha (1935), War Admiral (1937), Whirlaway (1941) Count Fleet (1943) and Assault (1946).

Citation picked up a $77,700 purse.

It was just another romp for the Kentucky Derby and Preakness champion.

"He's the greatest horse I've ever seen, let alone ridden," Arcaro said.

"I shouldn't have let him win by so much but I couldn't take any chances for that kind of money."

Going into the race with total earnings of $467,000, Citation boosted his 1948 money-winnings to $389,020. With a two-season total of $544,700, the Calumet Flyer now is just $16,461 behind Whirlaway, another Wright horse which holds fourth place in the world's cash collecting list.

Citation needs only $35,175 to catch up with King Ranch's Assault, the biggest one-year money winner. Assault, the last triple crown champ in 1946, earned $424,195 in his three-year-old cam-

Knutson, Curtis Are Victors in Wrestling Eliminations

George Curtis, Vicksburg, Miss., defeated Olan Boynton, Amarillo, and Gil Knutson took two out of three falls away from Frankie Murdock, Wasmachie, Tex., in 33 minutes in last night's wrestling matches at the Sportatorium.

Curtis and Murdock were brought into the current elimination matches to pick the contender for the Southwestern Junior Heavyweight title when the contests were extended two weeks because of Wayne Martin's injury that prevents his wrestling now.

Martin, a Tulsa police officer and the present champion, was injured in Tulsa last week, and the title match, originally set for last night, has now been tentatively scheduled for June 25.

Murdock, according to reports received by Promoter Vic Burnett, should be able to wrestle by then.

Last night's winners, Curtis and Knutson, will meet in the main event next week, and the winner of that match will meet Martin, Burnett said.

Boynton, who is rapidly acquiring a reputation as a rough and dirty wrestler, used his thumb and fists repeatedly. After the first five minutes of wrestling, and from then until Boynton took the first fall in 20 minutes with a full crab, Curtis was rubber-legged and half-dazed from repeated blows above the heart and from being choked by Boynton's thumbs.

Curtis, a young and clean wrestler who resorted to rough tactics only when forced to, was given the spectators' complete approval. They gave the young Mississippian a wild ovation when he took the second and third falls with a back breaker and a reverse suplex, both almost unbreakable holds.

There was an exchange of words between Referee Billy Sandow and Murdock at the very beginning of the main event over the use of fists. For the remainder of the bout, Sandow seemed to obviously favor Knutson by watching Murdock; Knutson had plenty opportunities—and used them—for using his fists and thumbs illegally.

Under the rules of wrestling, a referee must see a violation before he can break the hold or disqualify the wrestler. No matter how positive he may be that a wrestler is using illegal tactics, he must see them to call them. Nevertheless, Sandow was not as impartially observant as he could have been.

Knutson took the first fall with a rotary head lock in 20 minutes. Murdock came back to take the second fall in 8 minutes with his famous 'cobra hold' that leaves his opponents unconscious for almost a minute.

Following the second fall, Murdock offered to demonstrate his hold to prove there was no trickery. 'Lefty' Cox, a resident of Pampa for the past 15 years and an employe at the Cabot Shops, came up to the ring and volunteered as guinea pig.

Murdock wrapped one arm around Cox' neck and applied pressure with his hand to the back of his head in such a way that pressure was applied to the side of the neck, but without strangulation, and the flow of blood to the brain was cut off. Cox slumped to the mat, unconscious, but recovered after about 10 seconds.

Knutson took the third fall with a half cradle, but in order to hold Murdock's shoulders to the mat, he gripped the back of Frankie's trunks. Although Sandow did not see the violation, Cox slumped to the mat, unconscious, but recovered after three singles.

Dick Wakefield led Detroit's 10th hit attack with a double and three singles.

Your car rides on air—why not you? Now available with the Special De Luxe Plymouth*—and with Plymouth alone in the lowest-priced field—is amazing Airfoam seat cushioning. You sit on millions of tiny air pillows. Their live buoyancy soaks up bumps and jolts... puts another super-cushion between you and the road in your comfort-engineered Plymouth.

Because these foam-light seats give to the slightest pressure, they mold themselves to any position of your body for restful support. When you get up, Airfoam instantly resumes its original shape. And it will retain that shape years longer than ordinary cushioning.

Airfoam adds one more to the long list of advances that have made the Plymouth Ride so outstanding in the lowest-priced field. This famous Ride is a scientifically balanced combination of such features as:

Chair-Height Seats designed from "comfort curve" studies to help eliminate fatigue.

Super-Cushion Tires so much softer and fatter that they flow right over rough roads.

117" Wheelbase—longest in the lowest-priced field—for smoother, more level riding.

Scientific Weight Distribution that permits passengers to ride in cradled comfort between the axles.

Balanced Springing to synchronize front and rear spring action.

Independent Front Wheel Springing that permits coil front springs of soft-acting Amola Steel to move over road obstructions independently of each other.

Amola Steel Rear Springs with special grooving to increase cushioning.

Hotchkiss Drive which transmits driving force through the rear springs for cushioned starting and stopping.

Airplane-Type Shock Absorbers to take the severest road shock with controlled rebound of springs.

Front End Sway Eliminator to stabilize your car as it travels around curves.

Low Unsprung Weight to reduce bouncing of the wheels.

Floating Power Engine Mountings insulating the power plant from the frame.

All together, these many engineering advances add up to a gliding Ride so restful that even long journeys leave you fresh and untired. Yes, there's a lot of difference in low-priced cars. And, in performance, safety and beauty, as in Ride, it's Plymouth that makes the difference.

Radio Jokes, Cut for Lack of Time, Aren't Lost - They're in Next Week

(Editor's Note: If you've ever wondered how a radio comedian puts his show together, here's an inside look into a broadcasting studio at rehearsal time.)

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — Fred Allen, the flat-voiced comedian with the astringent wit, uses left-over gags the way a thrifty housewife makes a hash from the remains of the Sunday roast.

"The script always runs overtime," the comedian explained after rehearsal of his half-hour radio show. "We have to cut it to fit, but we never throw away anything we can possibly use. Of course, we have to throw away stuff that is purely topical. Take Noise Abatement week gags. You couldn't use those after Noise Abatement week has passed.

But except for a such humor, tied firmly onto the time element, almost everything cut from one week's show is pretty apt to appear in a subsequent one.

Take, for instance, the dialogue between Allen and his announcer, Kenny Delmar, on a recent Sunday show. Delmar remarked that a chemist had predicted whiskey of the future could be made of wood. Then ensued some chatter, climaxed by Allen's quip: "When a man picks up his cocktail he'll see a knothole in his martini."

This bit, Allen explained, was salvaged from an earlier show. The sequence, however, was much longer in the rehearsal and contained cracks about people calling "timber" instead of "bottoms up," and about drinks really being on the house. Presumably these jokes will be forever lost to posterity for the theme has received its work-out by Allen and company.

Allen's rehearsal ran over almost five minutes in that instance, and plenty of material was chopped from the script before it went on the air. Most of it will show up on later programs.

One gag which hit the cutting room floor and undoubtedly will be heard on the air sometime soon, opened the talk between Allen and the character Titus Moody. Allen told him he looked sour.

"You'd have a sour look too if you dropped your teeth in the vinegar barrel," replied Titus Moody. "my mouth tastes like my tongue's been dilled."

That was deleted in the interest of time, but only temporarily.

Mrs. Nussbaum, another Allen character, was temporarily deprived of a couple of lines. They are timely, so it wouldn't be surprising if they showed up next week. The deleted lines ran like this:

Mrs. Nussbaum: "By me, in the blood, I am a rustic."
Allen: "Really?"
Mrs. N.: "I could be Nature Boy's sister, Nature Girl."

The reference to the popular song, coupled with Mrs. Nussbaum's accent, drew a smile from the pianist, a reaction carefully noted by Allen.

"Allen spends about 60 hours a week getting that half-hour program together," one of his aides said. "Fred and his three writers start working on the script more than a week in advance. They

Mexican Farm Hands Migrating to North From Texas Farms

TEXARKANA—(P)—Thousands of Mexican families were reported shaking the Texas dust this month and heading for the promised lands of "Mucho Dinero" in the North.

The annual trek from the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas to the northern states where the beets and tomatoes grow has begun.

"Meester," one migrant told Texarkana Gazette reporter Ernest Valochovic "we like to work for Southern people, but we leave the Valley for money an' the North got plenty to give."

In the past two weeks, Claude Caldwell, who operates a farm information booth for migrating workers near Mandeville, Ark., counted more than 2,000 Mexicans heading north on Highway 67.

They jolt along, crammed into trucks sometimes 20 to 40 at a time. The workers usually range from 16 on up, but, as one Mexican said, "if the young ones are there and can work, one more pair of hands helps."

Your need for oil is today so urgent that the oil industry is searching for and producing oil in locations once considered impractical for exploration and production. The most spectacular of these locations is in the open Gulf of Mexico, where Humble and other oil companies hope to find beneath the Continental shelf some of the oil you need.

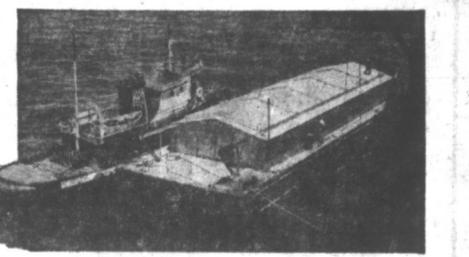

To prove this region, and to produce oil from it, calls on the best engineering skill and scientific knowledge available in the United States, and requires the investment of huge sums of money.

The Humble Company now has off-shore drilling operations under way in water 50 feet deep, eight miles off the coast of Louisiana. The drilling rig rests on what can be best described as the tenth story of a building, with the first four stories under water. The structure is built to withstand the worst weather the Gulf develops.

On this platform are living quarters for the crew, which will work around the clock in shifts. There is storage space for all the materials needed to meet foreseeable drilling conditions. And, above all, the structure has been designed to provide a safe home for crew members beyond reach of the ocean waves.

You are asking for more oil than ever before in history, and the oil companies' decision to risk drilling in the open Gulf is a good example of how the oil industry is doing everything that possibly can be done to provide you with more oil.

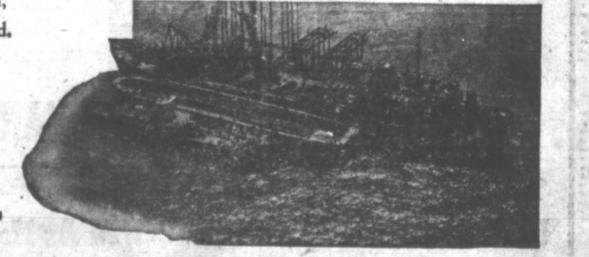

You can help this effort by making your personal demands for petroleum products reasonable, by cooperating with programs designed to conserve oil products for the uses to which they are best adapted, by the exercise of patience as the oil industry acts to meet the need.

All supplies and materials are brought to the "sea-going" drilling rig by boat. Here a tug maneuvers a barge loaded with drilling mud into position for unloading.

Every late device is utilized to speed up this effort to supply you with more oil. This radar charts the movements of boats, enables the operator, by radio, to tell them where they are and give them a course to and from port. It makes a valuable contribution to safe navigation, especially when a sudden fog rolls in.

The barge, Cap, a converted LST, is anchored about 25 miles from the large structure as construction begins on one of several smaller drilling platforms to be erected off the Louisiana coast.

NEW YORK—A modern mental hygiene project is being demonstrated by the National Committee of Mental Hygiene for New York City's board of education.

The first proving ground is Public School 35 in a tenement district. It is one of four all-day neighborhood schools with an enriched curriculum and an augmented staff for after-class activities.

The mental hygiene project, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Adlerblum, "is a unique experiment to find practical means of preventing psychological ills."

"Get at the reason behind a person's behavior—and you can change the behavior," is the project's premise.

"Our five year olds," the director says, "show us stories of themselves at play. We have only to look carefully to find meaning in it. Play is the mirror of a young child's life. In it he shows the world the story of himself."

The school's psychological program exists only from kindergarten through the first grade with a modified follow-up in the second and third grades. The psychological counselor sits out the potential problem pupils in the first three months they are in the school. Mrs. Adlerblum's corrections begin thus:

"Those who are shy, over-aggressive, foreign born, or in some other way different are taken out of the class periodically for special play. It is found that play in a small group, guided by a sympathetic adult, helps to reinforce them for the larger class."

"It also enables the mental hygiene worker to observe and interpret their individual behavior. The play data gathered here and in the class room are compared with the children's home records in order to give the teachers helpful information about the children."

Mrs. Adlerblum finds: "Everyday pressures of families come through readily in dramatic play. Alice likes to play house and she is concerned about 'paying rent."

"When do we pay the rent? Do we pay it today or tomorrow? We have to pay a little every week, or we'll have to move," she tells her playmates. When this is challenged, she asserts, "My mother ought to know, and she always says so. It hangs as a threat in her mind."

Her idea is: "In play, the natural idiom of all children, a child spontaneously unfolds his abilities, ambitions, fears, feelings about his family, and social attitudes."

"A youngster will blow off emotional steam on a doll, will reveal the dramas of his home when he plays with miniature furniture, will show his love of power and strength with a toy aeroplane."

Mrs. Adlerblum's recreation room is a two-way stretch between the youngster and his home. She gives parents an outlet, they call for consultation and the counselor says, "We make them feel they're doing what other parents do. They need reassurance, need a few pointers."

The cornerstone of her scheme is to point out the likenesses of children, rather than the differences among them.

Her motive is to give children a good start in school before they guess what's happening and catch on to the devious devices of juvenile delinquency.

Three and a half years have been spent on the project and the Board of Education has decided to add to the staff a regular teacher for this work.

LIME FROSTING

Tall white baskets of white gladioli and fern stood high in the choir loft and along the altar rail. Sprays of lemon leaves against a white background which covered the entire altar completed the setting. Aisles were marked with white satin bows and three-branched candelabra bearing lighted tapers, and sprays of lemon leaves.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Holmes sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Texas Today

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff
Let's put you in a tough spot. You're trapped by flames in your hotel room, a dozen stories from the street.

The hallway outside your door is an inferno—there's no hope of reaching the fire escape. Do you have a chance? "You do if you keep your head," Mrs. Helen McGibney, Dallas hotel manager, says.

The subject came up during a discussion of Kilgore's hotel fire this week that took four lives. "Panic kills more people than fire," Mrs. McGibney went on. "C. N. Penn, Dallas fire chief, made an investigation of the terrible Wynecoff Hotel fire in Atlanta last year that took dozens of lives. He brought back the story of an Army officer who kept his head."

This is the story the fire chief told Mrs. McGibney, the story of an officer and his wife who found themselves trapped in a high room in a burning hotel—the Wynecoff Hotel in Atlanta.

Other people were leaping to the pavements. The officer's wife, crazed by fear, wanted to. He caught her by the arm, threatened to slap her. "We have a chance," he said, "if you do exactly what I tell you."

"I'll do anything you say!" she replied.

And here is what they did: They opened the water taps all the way in the lavatory and bathtub. The officer threw a shoe in the toilet so that it would stop up and overflow.

He took the blanket off the bed, soaked it in the bathtub, and then gingerly opened the door to the smoke-filled hall and draped the blanket over the outside of the door—this to keep the door from catching fire as long as possible.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food in a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that 888 Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the 888 Tonic formula, which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, 888 Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is 888 Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and happy people. Don't wait! Join the host of millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of 888 Tonic from your drug store today. 888 Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Groom-to-Be Meets $10,000 Bride

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. —(AP)—Danny Wicker planned to take Dorothy Lawlor, his $10,000 prospective bride, on a sightseeing trip.

When things calmed down somewhat after the arrival of the 28-year-old divorcee from Valley Stream, L. I., Monday, Wicker said he and Dorothy would take a boat trip up the East Coast.

Mrs. Lawlor, who last week said she would marry a man with $10,000, came here by plane to talk things over with the proprietor of Danny's Musical Tavern after he talked to her by telephone.

After her arrival Mrs. Lawlor, who has custody of two children, said "As far as I'm concerned we're going through with this."

"I'm all up to Danny now," she said, however, will have to complete divorce proceedings which she said had been filed against her husband, Denny Parker, on February 3.

Together, the man and his wife hoisted the mattress off the double bed and propped it flat against the inside of the door to the hall.

Then they moved the dresser against the mattress to hold it to the door. The top of the mattress still flopped over, so they got a chair and put it on top of the dresser to hold the mattress firm against the door.

The officer got a wastebasket and his wife a pitcher and they carried water from the bathroom, soaking the mattress thoroughly. By this time water from the bathroom was two inches deep on the floor of the bedroom. . . and still running.

The room was filling with smoke . . . it was difficult to carry on . . . but the vital work had been done.

Now, the officer opened the window a little bit at the top and a little bit at the bottom. . . not enough to cause a fire-drawing draft but just enough for essential ventilation.

Then the two of them made a tent out of the drenched carpet, pulling it over their heads to ward off as much of the lung-searing smoke as possible. They sat by the window, their nostrils at the lower window opening.

They were still at the window, four hours later, when firemen broke into the room. And they were alive.

Husband-Killer Freed; He 'Had It Coming'

FORT WORTH —(AP)—A Fort Worth woman was acquitted of slaying her husband, after defense attorneys argued he "got what was coming to him, and he didn't get it soon enough."

A criminal District Court jury deliberated only 35 minutes before acquitting Mrs. Frances O. Parker, 38, on a charge of slaying her husband, Denny Parker, on February 3.

ERP Chief Appeals for Full Funds

WASHINGTON —(AP)—The boss of the European Recovery Program said today House cuts in ERP funds would virtually "eliminate" plans to put Europe's industry back on its feet.

"The brunt of the cut must fall on the machinery and equipment necessary to restore or increase Europe's productive capacity," Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman told the Senate Appropriations Committee.

"The most productive and the most far-reaching part of the recovery program would for all practical purposes be eliminated," Hoffman's first formal appeal for restoration of the full $5,300,000,000 in recovery funds showed that machinery shipments would have to be reduced from $1,100,000,000 to $100,000,000 if the Senate upholds the House slash.

The House voted to spread the $5,300,000,000 over 15 months instead of the 12 months authorized by Congress in setting up ERP.

This would have the effect of cutting recovery spending from $1 to $2 billion.

In advance of Hoffman's appearance, a Republican member predicted the committee would heed pleas of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and others and put back most of the cuts made by the House.

Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, had been fighting the reduction since the House acted.

Hoffman said food and raw materials must keep flowing if Europe is to survive, therefore the industrial recovery goods would have to be cut.

He decried the proposal of Chairman John Taber (R-Ky) of the House Ways and Means Committee that ECA come back for more funds next year if it runs out.

"I can not state too strongly that the emergency is here," Hoffman said, adding: "Our rate of expenditure during the next six months will determine whether we are now launching a true recovery program."

Giuseppe de Verdi composed 27 operas.

Just in case you're keeping a graph on the depth of the Carruth, you can mark it at about 8,505 feet, as of the latter part of this week. The only other rumor connected with the Carruth this week is to the extent that they are having difficulty with the circulation.

Humble Oil spudded in another wildcat this week. This one is in Deaf Smith County, just west of Stambaugh No. 1, Section 20, Doud and Keefe Survey.

Larry Snyder, Shell Oil, is vacationing Larry, who loves to sing almost as much as he does working for Shell, was one of the first of the local Barbershop singers to go to Oklahoma City to attend the big SPEBSQSA convention and contest. This is a national affair with the best quartets from all over the nation participating. You can be sure Larry will hear every melodious note that is wafted on the hot summer air of the city.

Skelton Reviews Texas Oil News

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON—(AP)—Gas transmission has no monopoly on the postwar boom for interstate pipeline construction.

Industry spokesmen long have placed at least partial blame for petroleum and petroleum products supply and demand problems on transportation difficulties and have counted on proposed pipelines to play a major role in meeting the situation.

Two companies last week began flowing petroleum products through initial links of postwar lines.

Sinclair Refining Company opened a line from Houston to Arlington, Tex., with spurs to Fort Worth and Dallas. The line is the first leg of a planned project from Houston to St. Louis and East Chicago.

Magnolia Petroleum, an affiliate of Socony-Vacuum, opened a 650-mile crude oil line from Corsicana, Tex., to Patoka, Ill., where other lines relay the crude to East St. Louis, East Chicago, Trenton, Mich., and Buffalo.

The Magnolia line has a capacity of 100,000 barrels a day. Sinclair's line with present pumping facilities can carry 25,000 barrels of gasoline, kerosene, heating and diesel oils daily.

Other companies reportedly constructing or planning such lines include Gulf, Texas, Shell, and Standard of Indiana.

Each such source of transportation is expected to play an important role in averting feared summer gasoline and winter heating fuel shortages in areas remote from production areas.

The American Petroleum Institute's weekly statistical report continues to give optimistic pictures on production.

For the week ending June 5, API says, new all-time high marks for crude production and crude processing were established. Production was placed at 5,475,000 barrels daily, 24,150 above the previous week and record. Daily average refining operations totaled 5,736,000 barrels of crude, an increase of 21,000 over the previous record. Gasoline production dropped 40,000 barrels to 17,787,000 barrels.

Area Reports Completions

Meanwhile, summertime gasoline prospects for the Midwest looked brighter with tractor spring planting.

Observers had feared late plant-farmers reporting completion of drilling resulting from bad weather might have been threatened by a gasoline famine which might have resulted in heavy food loss.

Gasoline shortages for the summer months still are anticipated however, in big city and tourist regions.

Tidelands:

Advocates of state ownership of submerged tidelands saw little encouragement Thursday in the Senate Judiciary Committee giving a tentative 6 to 5 vote of approval to a bill they supported.

The pessimism results from a fear that time is running out. Republican leaders hope for Congress to adjourn June 19 and it is questionable whether the Senate can take action by then.

Even with Senate approval to the bill, similar to one passed by the House, President Truman could pocket veto the plan after adjournment. He vetoed a similar bill last year.

Area Reports Completions

Six new oil wells were completed during the past week, according to a report from the Oil and Gas Office of the Railroad Commission.

All of the completions reported were in Hutchinson County.

Two new gas wells were also reported as completed. These wells were also in Hutchinson County.

Less Talk of War, More of Peace

It was the Head Man who the other day said Russia would not provoke a fight with the United States...

The Head Man, who is now touring the West in the interest of his candidacy for a return to the presidency...

We would prefer much more to hear him talking on the prospects for peace—and not for war.

It has not been many years since we heard the people who were supposed to be in the know saying frankly that the Japanese would not dare draw the sword against the United States...

Of course, the dumbest of us now knows how far wrong they were. The dumbest of us probably realize that the first range of defeat they would have been if we had not been told by those in the know—that there was not the likelihood of war with Japan.

On the other hand, we are aware of the awful drubbing we took for long, tortuous months. Not only did the Japanese demonstrate to us the prowess of war, but they took many American lives in everything they did.

We doubt the wisdom of our Chief Executive's public pronouncements on the dubious weakness of our most likely enemy. The people do not need the terrible buildup that their land is invincible.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN Well, the tourist season is officially open now, and as usual President Truman seems to have more fun than anybody on his trip.

Of course, he has it a little easier than the rest of us, because he has the Secret Service and the whole power of the U. S. government helping him find a comfortable room at night, and that's just about what it takes at this time of year.

I just saw a picture of the President on a ski lift at Sun Valley. Goodness, I hope he's bundled up warm, because I've heard some Republicans saying he'll be let down early in November.

I think we Americans are very nice to our touring candidates, giving them everything from an Indian war bonnet to babies to kiss and the candidates accept everything graciously instead of coming right out and saying they'd rather have a nice fat bundle of votes.

SOUTH AFRICAN THREAT by Upton Close

WASHINGTON — The South African elections have been widely misrepresented to American radio listeners, and there is indication that the leftist world propaganda machine is fostering a calculated program of misrepresentation.

The Union of South Africa is faced with the most appalling race problem of any white country. Communist agents have stirred the 8,000,000 black to intense hatred of the 2,000,000 whites, and only prompt action can prevent a catastrophe in which the white civilization at the south end of the dark continent might be wiped out.

Propagandists have made the situation appear quite the reverse: that the white Africans are persecuting Negroes and Jews. The program championed by the nationalists who defeated Smuts and his internationalists is humane and wholesome. It provides for separation of the races in order that each race may enjoy the fullest self-government and self-determination.

Separation will enable the races once more to live on good terms one with another. Communists, following the same technique which they employed in the northern states before and during the American Civil War, have created among the do-gooding internationalists a movement to extend the franchise to the

Fair Enough... by Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK — These dispatches have often called attention to the quality of federal justice administered by the office of the United States attorney, the federal district courts and the federal grand juries and trial juries in New Jersey. The commentaries have examined the actions and political background of Edgar L. Rossbach, the U. S. attorney, and Thomas Francis Meany, one of the district judges. Both are clubhouse Democrats of the Hague machine and both officiated in two notorious prosecutions of union crooks, Joe Fay and Ben Frago.

The acquittal of Fay was so flagrant that Attorney General Tom Clark the next morning called it a "...damned outrage."

Judge Meany suffered this particular outrage to unfold without interference and maintained the status quo. This notorious crook, the center of a conspiracy case, was acquitted while his two accomplices were convicted. Fay was a powerful racketeer in the same political circle with Rossbach and Meany. The charge against Fay was evasion of the tax on graft from contractors performing big government jobs. Part of the money went to associate thieves in the same political machine in Jersey City and Newark.

The charge against Pross was a black market sale of whiskey obtained from Schenley during the war by means of threats by Pross to call strikes against Schenley's liquor factories, warehouses and so forth. The shake-down was proved, and the black market sales were traced by the alcohol tax unit of the Treasury.

On May 20, Rossbach said he thought a public official should get out after he had hit the "high spot" of his career. The Fay mess was Rossbach's real high spot, but that was about 18 months ago. Appearing personally as prosecutor before Meany, Rossbach let one fellow get onto the jury who had formerly been a member of Fay's union and who was now a contractor subject to ruinous reprisals from the union. Two other described members of families within the political circle of the prosecutor, the judge and the crook at bar. The grand jury was typical of the whole character of justice in the federal courts in New Jersey under Clark and all his predecessors in the New Deal. Two years ago he was in Trenton, where the grand jury sat, and to Newark, where the "damned outrage" had occurred, to "investigate" and report to him. The report was a brushoff and never was offered for publication.

Clark tried to forget it, but the situation was so raw and the U. S. attorney and the judges of the Hague mob were so bold that something finally had to give. It got worse by the month. Income tax jobs settled on the Elliott Roosevelt scale of a few cents on the dollar. Bankruptcy jobs. Black market jobs. All kinds of jobs. And it was remembered that Meany and Rossbach are clubhouse boys, who know or have a line on everybody. They know the background and susceptibilities and the hidden nerve centers of most of those who are called to serve on grand juries and on trial juries and the weaknesses of witness. Anything they don't know themselves, they can easily find out thru the Hague mob.

Rossbach, the job and Meany's, under the circumstances, called for individuals of remarkably fine character. Mr. Clark's explosion accounts for Rossbach, Meany's morals and ethical qualities were vigorously canvassed by the judiciary committee of the Senate when he was up for confirmation as a New Deal judge. The character of his boosters, mainly strong-arm political union bosses of the Hague machine, was expected to be the outright denunciations offered by his opponents.

The Rossbach broadcast, with the coy hint of resignation, was followed on May 22, two days later, by a buzz-buzz conference of Judges Fake, Meany and Smith in Fake's chambers. Fake is the senior judge and a Republican, but his political auspices were no better than Meany's. The truth is that a combination of Democrats and Republicans have run federal courts and

FUNNY BUSINESS BY HERSHBERGER

Toward Sen. Vandenberg and Mr. Stassen the labor spokesmen are neither enthusiastic nor hostile. Their international views, however, might not satisfy too many of the workers more interested in higher wages and lower prices than in the Truman Doctrine, the Marshall Plan or the United Nations.

Mr. Taft suffers in this field, not so much as author of the act which bears his name, as because it has become a matter of pride with labor's bigwigs to sidetrack him. If he should be nominated and elected, they would look foolish and lose face with the rank and file.

We Americans have become expert in technology, sales, work, in production, in distribution, and in finance, but we are the greatest dubs in the world when it comes to the greatest of all arts—the art of how to live. — Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, Collegiate Church.

Party bosses and ward heelers who have kidnaped the Democratic Party may force the nomination of Harry Truman, but they cannot force the south or the nation to accept him. — Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOILES

The Higher Law (Continued) Today's column will conclude the speech delivered at the opening session of the Conference of Federal Judges of the Ninth Circuit in San Francisco last September by Harold R. McKinnon, of the San Francisco Bar, who has been appearing in the last several issues.

McKinnon, in the last several issues, has been reviewing the history of "natural law" down through the ages. He continues on this theme.

"At the close of the middle ages, the doctrine continued to actuate the thought of Europe. The Italian St. Robert Bellarmine and the Spaniard Suarez utilized it to disprove the divine right of kings. In the hands of the Spanish jurist theologians, de Victoria and the same Suarez, it formed the basis for modern international law and gave to those thinkers the now recognized title of founders of the law."

"From mediaeval sources it came to England, where it characterized the writings of such men as Hooker and Sydney and of the jurists Bracton and Fortescue, Coke and Blackstone and Pollock. Finally it came to America, where it permeated the writings of the Founding fathers of the United States. Hamilton, Adams, Dickinson and Otis; while from the pen of Jefferson it received classic and, let us hope immortal expression in the famous preamble to the Declaration of Independence. It is the doctrine and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights and that the purpose of government is to secure these rights. Akin to this great expression in the Declaration is the equally beautiful and powerful statement of Hamilton: 'The sacred rights of mankind are not to be rummaged for among old records and to-day's police departments. Livori is honored with two charges of homicide, both dismissed; one charge of felonious assault, usually assault with a gun or knife, made and dismissed in 1927, and three other charges listed by the statute numbers, otherwise not mentioned in the blue book, all dismissed. All were New York cases. But in 1942, the narcotics bureau and customs men at Nogales seized Livori for importing and distributing narcotics. This time he was tried in Tucson, and sentenced to five years in the federal prison at Milan, Mich., and was fined $1,000. The narcotics bureau describes this business associate of the father of Edgar Rossbach as 'one of the most important narcotics gangsters in the country.'"

ELIMINATED Associate Justice William O. Douglas of Washington had been the ADA's second choice, and first selection for many of Mr. Murray's jurists. But the red-and-touche-headed jurist has now eliminated himself so formally that use of his name henceforth would make the users ridiculous. It did not require his recent letter to a St. Louis Post-Dispatch writer to make known his determination to keep out of politics. Long ago he gave his Washington friends carte blanche to repudiate any talk of his candidacy and on our courage, but these are merely the habits, the symbols and nomenclature of liberty. And we delude ourselves if we trust in such habits and symbols while the substance of our liberty is being denied in our philosophy.

"Truth is like liberty. Its price is eternal vigilance. And against the teaching which I have described, democracy as a mere mechanism is no protection. For democracy has an Achilles heel of vulnerability; by virtue of its freedom, it can exchange that freedom for servility. Ideas must be overcome by ideas. 'The duty to America, and especially to us of the law, is plain. It is to reiterate the doctrines upon which our country was founded: a matchless leadership and liberty may be based. We enter upon that duty at a late hour. As stated by a patriot of an earlier day, 'It may be too late for Americans to learn the lesson, or, unless, it is a lesson of truth, and of unspokeable important truth that no people can be secure in their rights any further than they believe that their rights are derived from God; nor any further than they believe that laws to be valid and obligatory, must be laws for the protection, instead of the destruction, of rights.' These words, spoken by Gerrit Smith in his argument on the Fugitive Slave Law of 1852, have come to life again today. Providence gave vigor to the warning of that day. May Providence inspire a similar warning today, and make it fruitful, and save the vanishing tradition of America."

Like residents of the Old South before the Civil War, the Africaners see their race disappearing and realize that even if Communist violence is avoided, the white minority in time will blend, leaving only a semi-primitive mixture. Extensive land tracts are to be set aside as reservations whereon the colored millions may establish their own industry and self-government. So sane and normal is the plan to solve the strained relations that you would think the Western world would praise the nationalist government for its humanity instead of condemning it. The plan is like that which Lincoln had in mind as the solution of the U. S. race problem, except that Lincoln's plan would have set the Negroes up in a single republic of their own, off the American continent. Fomenters of hatred, many of them Communists from Europe, frustrated this generous solution, in the name of brotherly love, leaving the U. S. race problem unsolved after a bloody Civil War.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news

By RA YTCCKER WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower and Douglas withdrawals as Democratic presidential possibilities may prove a body blow to such anti-Truman factions as the Americans for Democratic Action and to such labor leftists as Philip Murray's CIO.

It virtually leaves these groups with no place to go next election day except the golf course—and they are too serious-minded to play golf.

The ADA which consists of Rooseveltians resentful of President Truman's desertion or inaction with respect to their hereditary domestic and foreign policies, has been flirting with the Eisenhower candidacy. They would have swung aboard his political jeep even if it had been set rolling at Philadelphia by Alabama's anti-communists whom they retest.

But "Ike" is now further out of the picture than he has ever been. In a recent magazine article and in her private conversation, "Mamie" Eisenhower has said flatly that her distinguished husband would out-Sherman Sherman, if necessary, in declining a nomination from either party.

POPULARITY On the basis of their public and private expressions, labor leaders rate the popularity of the leading Republican presidential candidates in the following order: Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Gov. Earl Warren of California, Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota. Sen. Taft does not even rate a foot-note.

Gov. Dewey has forced thru a matchless leadership generally satisfactory to labor. New York's is of the AFL who exercise considerable influence at national headquarters here, have reported favorably on him.

MIRACULOUS Gov. Warren has appeared to satisfy almost all factions on the coast. In fact, his ability to keep them pacified sometimes angers his more conservative GOP's in his state. In view of California's lower prices than in the Truman Doctrine, the Marshall Plan or the United Nations.

Shamrock

SHAMROCK (Special) — To honor Dr. and Mrs. E. Kay Bryan and small daughter, Jo Von, who were here prior to their going to China, where he will serve as a medical missionary for the next five years, a family reunion was held the past week at the home of his mother, Mrs. T. J. Bryan.

A special celebration was held with a dinner, which was served cafeteria style.

J. R. Earl King, 20-year-old Shamrock youth, died Monday at the home of his parents, 1015 North Oklahoma Street. Young King had been in ill health since last December when he underwent a major operation. He had been bedfast the past two weeks.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Rev. S. M. Dummam, pastor, in charge. Clay Funeral Home was in charge of interment in Shamrock Cemetery.

Miss Mary Alice Closs was complimented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Closs, with a birthday dance at the Legion Hut Wednesday evening.

The occasion was the anniversary of her 16th birthday. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts from the guests.

Mrs. Gladys Marlett of Cleburne, who is a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. C. E. Sessions, was named honoree at a coffee Saturday morning with Mrs. Eugene Byars as hostess.

A group of 15 girls accompanied by Mrs. J. C. Aycock, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Parrish, Joyce and Yvonne Nunnally, made a trip last week to the Baptist Encampment grounds where they spent a two-day outing.

Hiking, wading and fishing were enjoyed until they were driven home by rain. Those going on the trip included: Claudia Aycock, La Verne Aycock, Joan Parrish, Katherine Smith, Marilyn Grogan, Johnette Hood, Frieda Johnson, Jo Tanner, Joyce Tipps, Pearl McQuary, Cora Briggs, Dorothy Matthews, Louann Howard, Joan Howard, and Allene Shannon.

The Friendly Neighbors Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. R. F. Wofford Tuesday afternoon.

Various types of needlework provided entertainment throughout the afternoon. The hostess was honored with a pink and blue shower by the club members.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoffman of Dozier died in the Shamrock General Hospital Tuesday afternoon, 2 1/2 hours after birth. The body was sent to Dallas by Clay Funeral Home and interment in that city.

Indications are that attendance at the annual membership banquet of the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce Monday night will be the largest in history.

Norman Patrick, chairman of the committee in charge of ticket sales, stated at noon Wednesday that 300 tickets to the event had been sold. The committee has a hope of selling another 100 duets.

The banquet will be held in Shamrock's new Community Building on West Second Street, the affair serving as a dedicatory ceremony for the huge structure.

The first loads of 1948 wheat are rolling into Shamrock and elevator operators predict that harvest will be the best ever by far, middle of this week.

Jack Nichols of two miles west of Shamrock delivered the first load of this year's crop to T. F. Bird Grain Elevator June 5, an initial cutting in 1947.

democratic and unfair and that these plaintiffs were railroaded out of Court without receiving the rights guaranteed them by the constitution. I have been in the county for more than forty years and I know to my knowledge has any person been denied the right of trial by jury, as were the plaintiffs in this case. If there is any such law giving the Court the power exercised by him and by the Highway Department in this case, it is time for thought. It is time that ways and means be found where there may be found the way for a citizenship to be heard by jury. If such was the case today, your Commissioner's Court would not be purchasing a useless and additional right-of-way at additional cost to the taxpayers.

We of Alameda do not have a great number of citizens, large financial backing or much political influence, as do the larger towns, but we are made of the same flesh and blood as the same Maker as the people of Amarillo, Shamrock, McLean or other cities along Highway 66, our entire past and our future has been a part of Alameda and Gray County, Texas, and we had hoped to keep our little community intact. We do not have the money to fight the battle further and must therefore surrender to the Highway Commission guided by unfeeling salaried employees who know nothing of the pleasure, the joys, the heartaches and despair of a pioneer who have built this country, who were up and under the appeal for help of drowning men. We find it difficult to apply the Golden Rule to this situation but we humbly do so and hope that our grievous loss may serve to awaken others whose God-given rights are endangered by the dictates of a few. "It is for each to utter that which he sincerely believes to be true, and add his unit of influence to all other units of influence, and let the results work themselves out." — Spencer. Contributors are urged to confine their articles to 500 words.

To the Editor: Since the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, every citizen has been entitled to the right of trial by jury, a plan upon which our democratic government has been founded to inure the people and for the people, a true American way of life.

Offtimes it is improper and out of place to express one's views for fear the feelings of others might be injured. It is not the purpose of the writer to injure anyone but something has happened in the District Court of Gray County, the recent trial of W. J. Ball, et al vs. the Highway Commission of Texas, that should concern every free-thinking American who stands unalterably opposed to dictatorship or rule by edict.

At the expense of the taxpayers, a jury panel of approximately 30 men was summoned, out of which twelve were chosen to try the case. The good people of Alameda were seeking to prevent the Highway Department from bypassing their town by a curved road which was placed around the town for the purpose of by-passing it. The citizens, at their own expense, employed a registered engineer to establish the fact that the grade and curve requirements of the Highway Department could be met on the present site of the highway going through Alameda. This was conclusively established and stands undenied of record. The evidence also shows that the Highway Department never at any time considered going through Alameda, but drew their original plans to by-pass and isolate the town and stated to the citizens committee from Alameda that they did not care what happened to Alameda or the citizens of the town. All of these matters were conclusively proved by the plaintiffs, and not one witness was placed on the stand by the defendants.

A representative of the Attorney General's Department from Austin requested the Court to instruct the jury to find for the defendant, whereupon the Court to the gross surprise of the jury and all in attendance of the Court, required one of the members of the jury to sign a piece of paper to the effect that the jury found for the defendant. The jury was not allowed to leave the jury box and was not allowed to elect their foreman nor to consider the case in any manner.

This writer feels that such tactics on the part of the Highway Department, the attorney general and the District Court were undemocratic and unfair and that these plaintiffs were railroaded out of Court without receiving the rights guaranteed them by the constitution. I have been in the county for more than forty years and I know to my knowledge has any person been denied the right of trial by jury, as were the plaintiffs in this case. Pro Netters End 'Initial' Battle

NEW YORK (AP) - The pro tennis battle of the initials is over and the play-for-pay netters are making plans for their June 12-20 championships at the West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills.

Headed by Riggs and Budge, the WPPA appointed Vinnie Richards as commissioner of pro tennis. But Riggs was lured away by Harris' gold and when he left, the WPPA folded, leaving the field to the PLTA.

The entries from Riggs, Kramer, Segura and Pails appear to spell a victory for the West Side Club over Harris, who had intended to withhold the players from the competition. This would have destroyed its value at the gate.

The players expect to cut up $25,000 from this year's tourney. Last season the prize money totalled $10,000.

Nobody Loves Forever

THE STORY: Jessica Gordon, aristocratic southern belle, has eloped with Tom, a poor boy. Blake in defiance of her father and in spite of her own qualms, Tom has a fiancée.

VIII
BEFORE she had been in the house 74 hours Jessica knew that Tom was completely blind to any fault in either his mother or his sister. In turn they worshipped Tom. And spoiled him.

Jessica endured endless snubs when she tried to win Mrs. Blake's approval. Lucy echoed her mother's opinions, whether willingly or because she feared to differ with her mother, Jessica could not tell.

She did not know that she had interfered with Mrs. Blake's plans for the son she worshipped and that Mrs. Blake would not forgive her, that she had a strong contempt for any girl incapable of doing household tasks, that the blamed Jessica for the marriage and disliked her; and yet, because it was Tom's wish that his wife remain with her until he came home, Tom's decision was respected.

Unaware of his mother's antagonism and too blinded by lack of understanding to be aware of Jessica's low spirits, at the moment, Tom stood between them; but every day brought the time closer when he would leave her. Every day made her more and more determined to tell him she would not stay with his mother and sister. Every day Jessica weakly postponed the actual scene she felt would follow when she announced her unwillingness to accede to Tom's decision.

Day by day she realized that she and her husband had only one thing in common—love-making.

board and room you. She's promised to try to teach you something useful. I'm not wasting money on apartments. We'll need every cent I can save for when I get home. You should be thankful.

"If you say that again, I'll scream!"

JESSICA jumped up and overturned the nail polish which ran in a trickling stream across the faded rug. "I hate to stay here. I hate your mother and she hates me. Things are different here. Jessica ended wearily, frightened by Tom's angry face.

"You bet they're different. We don't have a pack of servants to wait on us. We have to work. We have to save and get ahead and plan for the future. When I come back you'll have to know how to wash my clothes and pack a dinner pail and live on a working-man's wages. Ever think of that?"

No. She had not thought of that. She was too proud to remind Tom that he had not considered that when he held her in his arms and urged her to marry him. He had given no thought to the future. He had wanted her—she must belong to him.

She did. And there was no escape. She had $20 of borrowed money between her and dependence upon Tom's mother and sister.

She said meekly, "I'm sorry, Tom. Please don't be angry."

The day following the argument Tom left Akron. Jessica went to the station with him. She clung to his big hand. She cried. Tom, too, was shaken. He held her close and kissed her over and over. He said, "Don't worry, honey, I'll come home."

She watched him stalk away through the crowd. Tears blinded her as she left the station.

Lucy who had accompanied them, as with sudden kindness, "Don't cry, Tom's lucky, he'll come back."

"But I'm so alone here." Lucy was silent for a moment. Then she said, "Mom means to be kind. She—we'll see never expected Tom to marry a girl like you."

Wheat Expert Discusses the Year's Crops

Improving Southwest wheat was also a "must" after the war. Fred Dines, agricultural agent for Tex-O-Kan millers at Amarillo, told the Kiwanis Club here Friday.

In discussing wheat prospects in this belt, varieties of wheat and markets, he said wheat quantities were sacrificed for quality during the war; but that a drive is now underway for a better quality from this area. Dines, who is reputed to be one of the best authorities on wheat in the Southwest, said in the Panhandle of Nebraska a good crop of wheat is maturing. Wheat prospects in Western Kansas, he said, are good.

Colorado, for the first time in the state's history, has the prospect of making a bigger crop than the state of Texas, he announced. That state's prospects are good, while those in Texas are bad.

Colorado may average 20 bushels to the acre. The southwestern part of Oklahoma is having a good yield, but to the northwest the yield will be very poor, he stated. The northeast section of the state, he said, will have a fair yield.

The best wheat in Texas, in his opinion, is below the Capitan. The North Plains has the best wheat in the Panhandle. He termed the "North Plains" that area above the Canadian River.

He said Pampa is a sort of dividing line for a fair crop of wheat (to the east) and a poor crop (west). Of markets, Dines said poor grades of wheat are being shipped to parts of Europe where it is believed the market will slump when the present emergency in over- and good grades are being shipped to South American points where it is believed there will be a sustained market.

Friday's program was prepared by the Agriculture Committee. Vic Joyner introduced the program and County Farm Agent Ralph Thomas introduced the speaker.

Art Teed circulated among the members petitions calling for a bond election for an additional $85,000 to build a 100-bed county hospital here.

The meeting was conducted by Herman Whitley, second vice president of the club.

Divorces Are Granted in District Court

Three divorces, two on cruelty grounds and one on misrepresentation of character, were granted Friday afternoon by Judge Lewis M. Goodrich in 31st District Court here.

The Court granted a divorce to Nora Opal Jones from Doyle T. Jones on charges of cruelty. Plaintiff's petition stated they were married in December, 1939, and separated in May, 1948.

Vada Harrison was granted a divorce on cruelty from John Harrison. The couple were married in June, 1936, and separated in March, 1948.

Charging misrepresentation of character, Edna Lucille Ruth Cloran won a divorce from Harry J. Cloran. The couple was married in January, 1948, and separated in February.

Two divorces were granted Friday morning and hearings on two others were continued.

Divorces granted by the Court Friday morning were to Stella Allmendinger from George Riley Allmendinger on grounds of cruelty. The couple was married in April, 1942, and separated in February, 1947. Della S. Couls won a final divorce decree from J. Vance Couls on similar grounds. The couple was married in November, 1945, and separated in December, 1947.

The Court delayed for 30 days a final decision in the divorce suit of Myra Meredith Adams versus Thomas L. Adams after hearing some evidence in the case.

Special exceptions of the defendant were sustained and the plaintiff given leave to amend the original petition for divorce by the Court in the contested divorce suit of Mary Rose Killebrew versus S. J. Killebrew.

California Cuyama Valley wildcat well has penetrated a body of oil sand at approximately 3,000 feet. Oil company and government officials are studying the possible effect of a Los Angeles federal court ruling whereby exclusive dealer contracts between Standard Oil Company of California and 7000 independent service stations were held invalid.

Western Natural Gas Company and associates have completed a wildcat gas well for an open flow gauge of 25,000,000 cubic feet daily in the San Juan basin area of southern Utah.

The Kansas Corporation Commission has ruled that gas distributors in eastern Kansas must supply fuel to new home construction but may refuse service to new users if there appears to be a shortage of supply.

Sinclair-Prairie is testing its first offset to the discovery well at southeast Newcastle, Okla., the well flowing 814 barrels of oil in 24 hours.

The Texas Railroad Commission has placed the state's well completions this year at 3,000 for oil and 258 for gas, as compared with 2,265 and 248, respectively, for the same period last year.
