JUDGE RAGES AT JURY FOR FREEING MAN

ALLEGED INCOME TAX EVADER ACQUITTED BY RURAL MEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Acquittal of Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Flegenhimer by a New York jury which tried him on charges of income tax evasion was described by Attorney General Cummings as a "terrible miscarriage of justice."

MALONE, N. Y., Aug. 2 (AP)—Freed by a country jury which received a bitter tongue-lashing from the court for its verdict, Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Flegenhimer was determined today to discharge his income tax obligation to the government.

He fled New York four years ago shortly after the federal grand jury there returned a sealed indictment against him. He surrendered at Albany last November.

Officials in New York, however, said he could not be tried again, since it would constitute double jeopardy.

COURT SESSION TO CLOSE HERE ON TOMORROW

Was One Of Busiest In Recent Years Record Shows

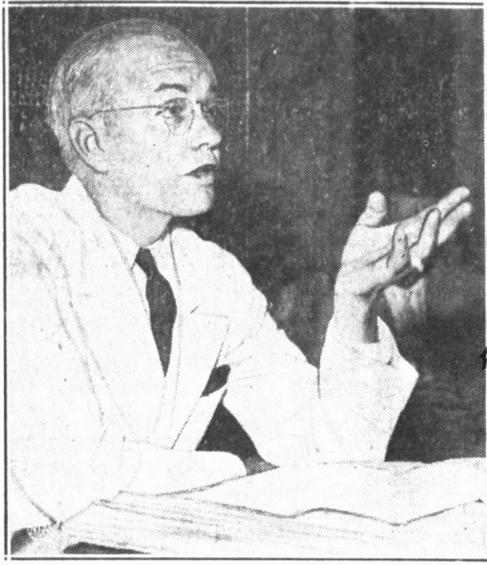

One of the busiest court terms in recent years will be closed tomorrow in the 31st judicial district here.

There were 17 convictions on pleas of guilty before the court, with waiver of jury, 9 criminal judgments with trial before jury, and 2 convictions on pleas of guilty before the court with waiver of jury and suspended sentences granted.

The court called 7 jury panels, 2 special verdicts, and summoned 31 special witnesses.

That Hamp Brown has been named intermediary in a golf controversy between Ivy Duncan and C. P. Buckler on one side and J. E. Murfee and C. T. Hunkapillar on the other side, Judge S. D. Stennis refused to take the case to court when he learned that the evidence, two score cards, had been torn up and scattered. So far, Hamp has been unsuccessful in reaching settlement.

Texas Publisher in Testimony

Clashing bitterly with Chairman Hugo L. Black of the Senate's lobby probe committee, Carl Estes, longview, Tex., publisher, is shown here as he appeared in the stand in the inquiry. Estes vigorously denied receiving any money for making a radio speech against the Wheeler-Rayburn bill. He declared he "had not been paid a penny by an oil company or utility, either in the form of advertising or in money for salary or expense incurred in connection with federal legislation."

WOMEN CALLED TO FIGHT FOES BY ETHIOPIANS Woman To Organize Her Own Army Of Women

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.) ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, Aug. 2 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie's advisers were authoritatively reported today considering martial law for Addis Ababa to control the thousands of wild troops pouring into the capital to enlist for possible action against Italy.

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 2—A stirring call to the women of Ethiopia to arise in active fighting legions was sounded today by Wolzero Asadajmarch, daughter of Comm. Dajazmach, Dajemakael.

"I will organize and lead my own army of women," said the daughter of the former cabinet minister who commands Emperor Haile Selassie's field army.

"The women must fight today just as our mothers and grandmothers helped fight and conquer the same foes at Addis 40 years ago—and by fight, I mean with rifles, spears, and knives, not just nursing and cooking."

Wiley Post At Seattle Ready For Hop North

SEATTLE, Aug. 2 (AP)—Wiley Post, explorer of the skies, was getting his new red monoplane in readiness today to fly north over island-dotted Alaskan waters with his wife on a pleasure jaunt to Moscow.

'NO-PARKING' SIGNS DRIVE LADY TO JAIL

EXASPERATED, SHE TIES SIGN TO CAR AND DRAGS IT

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 2 (AP)—"Crusading Carrie" Newton's sign-smashing solution to the parking problem served only to land her in a padded cell and failed utterly to calm her rage.

In police court this afternoon she must answer a charge of "malicious mischief," and apparently will have to find some new method of testing in court whether city officials may grant special parking privileges to business interests.

It all happened yesterday when Mrs. Newton, 55, a bill collector who must find parking space frequently in her business, was irked at the frequency with which she bumped into signs marked "space reserved," "taxi stand—no parking," and similarly.

She promptly emulated another woman of action—Cary Nation, the Kansas saloon chopper—and was arrested as she tied a "no parking" sign to her machine to drag it about the streets.

Police Chief Hugh D. Harper asked her if she would put up a "reasonable" bond.

Booked in the women's quarters of the city jail, Mrs. Newton smashed windows until officers moved her into the padded cell.

HAILE NAMED AS ADMINISTRATOR OF RELIEF AREA

AUSTIN, Aug. 2 (AP)—The Texas Relief commission today tentatively selected district headquarters and announced the appointment of district administrators to assume supervision of relief affairs formerly administered by counties.

The El Paso district director will be named later, the commission said.

BOARD OKAYS PROJECTS FOR GRAY PROGRAM

FIVE DOUBLE TENNIS COURTS TO BE BUILT HERE

A temporary Gray County Planning board met here this morning and approved an Alnreed-LeFors road grading project, one for improvement of the athletic field at McLean, and a third for construction of five double tennis courts by the City of Pampa.

Hank Breining of LeFors was made temporary chairman and W. F. James of Alnreed, secretary. Other members are W. A. Bratton, C. T. Hunkapillar, C. O. Green of McLean, W. T. Fox, Alex Schneider, and C. H. Walker.

Mayor W. A. Bratton, in asking for tennis courts, said they would be well distributed over the city. No other Pampa project has yet taken form.

BARCELONA, Spain, Aug. 2 (AP)—Prince Alexis Mdivani, 31, divorced husband of Barbara Hutton, died today as dramatically as he lived.

GENEVA, Aug. 2 (AP)—Premier Laval of France announced late today at a surprise private meeting of the League of Nations council that Italy, Great Britain, and France had agreed to the resumption of arbitration of the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia.

LAND COMMITTEE TO SEE GROUNDS Visits to proposed sites for Pampa exposition grounds were planned for this afternoon by the B. C. D. land committee.

Zenge Captured At A Cab Garage In Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (AP)—States Attorney Thomas J. Courtney announced today the arrest of Maurice Zenge, 26, sought for questions about the mutilation death of Dr. Walter J. Bauer.

Courtney said Zenge was in custody of the state's attorneys office and had been arrested early today. The arrest was kept secret until Courtney's announcement.

Mrs. Cude Wins Third Place In Clothing Event

Mrs. N. B. Cude of Kingsmill won third place in the state clothing contest for home demonstration club women, when judging was completed at College Station today, according to a message from Miss Ruby M. Adams, Gray county home demonstration agent.

DEAD UNDETERMINED WACO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Investigators today feared it would be impossible ever to determine how many persons perished in a freight train wreck and fire at Bruceville Wednesday night. Two bodies were recovered as the charred wreckage was cleared yesterday, and it was believed by survivors that several other persons—estimated from seven to 27, were burned or crushed to death when 33 cars of a Missouri-Kansas train were derailed.

Former Husband Of Barbara Hutton Dies In Crash

BARCELONA, Spain, Aug. 2 (AP)—Prince Alexis Mdivani, 31, divorced husband of Barbara Hutton, died today as dramatically as he lived.

CHARGED IN SWINDLING SAN ANGELO, Aug. 2 (AP)—Charged with swindling $5,000 from W. F. Ratzliff of Electra in a utility stock sale, Walter P. Nubbins Compton, young San Angelo business man, was released last night from jail to await action of the Wichita county grand jury. Deputy Sheriff Ben Howell of Wichita Falls had brought the complaint here but the ball was readily made here.

MR. and Mrs. C. J. Coffey of Wichita Falls are guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Keim today. They are en route to Salt Lake City.

Garb of War

Grimly symbolic of the threat of war that overhangs Ethiopia is this picture of Emperor Haile Selassie, wearing a field marshal's uniform specially designed for him, instead of the regal robes in which he customarily is photographed. Carrying a pair of powerful field glasses, he is shown watching the modernized section of his army at recent maneuvers near Addis Ababa.

BARBECUE FOR EMPLOYEES AND FRIENDS HELD

SMITH BROS. PRAISED BY LARGE GROUP LAST EVENING

By STAFF WRITER M'LEAN, Aug. 2.—Officials of the Smith Bros. Refining company last night were hosts to their employees and a large number of friends at a barbecue near the gasoline plant on the G. W. Sitter ranch.

The officers of the company are: President, Vester Smith; vice-president, Porter Smith; secretary-treasurer, T. J. Coffee.

The delicious meal was served in a grove of shinnery on long tables. Three barbecues were furnished by the Sitter ranch, and cakes by Caldwell bakery of McLean. John Snider of Amarillo barbecued the meat in the manner for which he is famous, Prof. R. C. Davidson and his McLean band played.

For the founders of the company it was an occasion testifying to their high standing in the community, for as Senator Clint C. Small said, they are "three local country boys who made good." Senator Small, their legal adviser, told of their launching the company on faith, energy, and nerve after the land-owners had failed to find a market for their gas through the big pipelines.

The plant and the production division furnish employment to about 125 men. It averages about 30,000 gallons were produced by the Sitter ranch, and cokes by Caldwell bakery of McLean. John Snider of Amarillo barbecued the meat in the manner for which he is famous, Prof. R. C. Davidson and his McLean band played.

DETROIT WINS FROM BROWNS TO HIKE LEAD

TIGER-YANKEE SCRAP IS ALMOST SAME AS YEAR AGO

By ORLO ROBERTSON Associated Press Sports Writer

Pennant races in successive years seldom resemble each other as closely as the Tiger-Yankee scrap for American league honors in 1934 and 1935.

Just a year ago Mickey Cochrane's rump-running Tigers had chalked up victory No. 2 on a 14-game winning streak that left the Yanks far behind. Today they are in the same position with their last two games recorded in the victory column.

On Aug. 3, 1934, both teams had dropped 37 games, the same number of setbacks they have received this season. The Tigers, having played more games, held a three and one-half game lead over the Yankees, who had one game a year ago.

The Tigers widened the gap yesterday by turning back the last place St. Louis Browns 6 to 3 while their rivals were kept idle by the scheduled, Alvin Crowder, veteran right hander, held the Browns to four scattered hits and no runs until the ninth, when the heat got to him and he was nipped for four blows and three runs.

Elton Hossett was called in to stop the rally, but one out and one on, the Indian hurler retired the first man but walked the next two to lead the bases. He then bowled down and fanned Burns for the third out. Hank Greenberg led Detroit's 14-hit attack with three hits, but Crowder helped his own cause with a triple and single.

The third place Chicago White Sox missed an opportunity to tie the Yankees for second place by falling before the Cleveland Indians 8 to 3. The Indians, snapping out of their batting slump, collected 14 hits off Carl Fischer and Johnny Salveson. Colt Hal contributed a homer and a double.

Earl Whitehill scored his ninth triumph of the season as he pitched the Washington Senators to a 9 to 5 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Constant in the National league saw the Pittsburgh Pirates aid the faltering New York Giants by trimming the threatening Chicago Cubs 6 to 5. The defeat dropped the Cubs a full game back of the Giants, who were idle.

The Pirates scored all their runs off Len Wernke in the second with an attack climaxed by Arky Vaughan's 16th homer with the bases loaded.

Dizzy Dean failed to go the route but he received credit for his 17th victory of the season as the Cardinals defeated the Reds 7 to 5 with the temperature at 95 degrees.

In the only other National league contest, Tom Zachary was a little more effective in the pinches than Ben Cantwell as the Dodgers defeated the Braves 4 to 2.

DALLAS SHUTS OUT SHIPPERS IN 3-0 GAME

FORT WORTH PLASTERS MISSIONS WITH 9 TO 8 VICTORY

By BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer

The low bats of the high in last night's Texas league games. The seventh place Dallas Steers, who have lately formed a habit of knocking off the first divisions crews, walloped the league leading Beaumont Exporters, 3 to 0.

Little Sal Gliatto, one of the league's hardener workers, threw a splendid assortment of sharp breakers to the Exporters to limit them to six hits and a perfect coat of whitewash. Southpaw Ware of the Exporters pitched the superior game in matter of hits, he allowed only four, but he found safe landings with runners on. Tony Taylor was the stout boy of the night. The Maverick shortstop connected for a homer in the second inning when he lifted one over the left field wall much to the colored section's delight.

It was fortunate for the Steers that they plastered the loop leaders, for Fort Worth won and if the Steers had lost they would have slipped back in to the deep dark cellar. Three of Dallas' four hits came in the first three innings, when the Steers made all their runs. After the third through the eighth only one man reached base off Ware, that being Tony York in the seventh on an infield hit.

From deep in the cellar, the Fort Worth Cats crawled on the back fence of the San Antonio Missions. Clouted Caldwell, Hillin and Talley for thirteen hits to win, 9 to 8. The Missions solved Grissom and Wister for ten blows. Alamo city skipped away with a three run lead the first inning and led 4 to 3 through the third but erratic fielding and Fort Worth's timely base blows eventually got the better of Hank Severide's Missions who are striving to reach the first division but are having difficulties accomplishing the feat. Last night the Cats put on a hitless ninth inning rally to win.

The second place Oklahoma City Indians whipped Galveston, 8 to 4. A five run stampede in the sixth was enough to give the Indians an impressive win behind the eight hit pitching of Marleau, Jakucki and Cole failed in their efforts to beat the Indians second place standing.

Tulsa got sixteen hits. Houston got fourteen bingles. Tulsa won the game, 12 to 9. Each scored five runs in the eighth.

Golfing 'Cop' Favored To Win Tourney Crown

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 2. (AP)—Joe Coria, 24-year-old St. Paul public grounds policeman, was the favorite today as the semi-final round of the National Public Links Golf championship was resumed.

The blonde Mississottan, a semi-finalist in 1934 also, was pitted in a 36-hole match over the championship Coffin course today against another middle westerner, Bill Russell, carrying Indianapolis' hopes after Dave Mitchell, its defending titleholder, joined the ranks of the defeated yesterday. Russell, 21 years old, is the city public links champion.

Two shotmakers from opposite sides of the continent, the oldest and youngest survivors met in the other semi-final match. Robert Tomes, 34-year-old Long Beach, Calif., carpenter, fresh from his victory over Arthur Armstrong of Honolulu, the 1934 runner-up, tackled Frank Shinn, high school student still in his teens. Shafac holds the metropolitan junior title and yesterday eliminated from the tournament Mitchell's conqueror, Charles Amadeo of Staten Island, N. Y.

Coria showed the brilliance of his game yesterday by defeating Lieut. Ken Rogers, San Antonio, Texas, army flier, 2 and 1, and Wesley Casper, Louisville, Ky., 5 and 3. For the 32 holes he had to play Joe was but three strokes over par on the hazardous Coffin course.

ROAD RUNNERS PLAY DENVER HOLSUM BREAD TEAM TODAY

FIRST-ROUND SCHEDULE

Thursday, Aug. 1.

1:00 p. m.—White Elephants, Denver, vs. OCC camp, Gering, Neb.
3:00 p. m.—Eason, Owers, Eald, Okla., vs. Golden Merchants.
8:30 p. m.—United Fuel-Pinnacle Coal, Denver, vs. Boulder Jaycees.

Friday, Aug. 2.

1:00 p. m.—McVittie's Californians, Los Angeles, vs. Idaho Springs Redmen No. 3.
3:00 p. m.—Danciger Road Runners, Pampa, Tex., vs. Holsum Bread, Denver.

8:30 p. m.—Colorado Ice, Denver, vs. Joe Albert Clothiers, Denver.

Saturday, Aug. 3.

1:00 p. m.—Lexington, Neb., vs. City League All-Stars, Denver.
3:00 p. m.—Humble Oilers, Overton, Tex., vs. Louisville-Lafayette, Colo.

The big baseball parade of the year got under way in Denver yesterday, but for Pampa baseball fans the real start will not be until 4 o'clock this afternoon, when the Pampa Road Runners play their opening game. The Pampa aggregation will tangle with a team representing the Holsum Bread company of Denver.

Although eliminated in the city play-off, Holsum was strengthened to such an extent that the tournament committee allowed the team to enter.

With no games scheduled for Saturday and Sunday nights, the Road Runners will not play until Monday and may be not until Tuesday.

Manager Freddy Brickell of the Road Runners had not decided on his starting hurler for this afternoon when friends here last heard from the team. The Road Runner pilot has six pitchers ready to work and the one looking best in preliminary workout will get the nod.

A report of the score at the end of each half inning will be received at the Pampa Athletic club here. The News will receive the box score and high lights on the game.

TWO-1 LEAGUE TOURNEY WILL BEGIN AT PARK ON SATURDAY

Four doubleheaders will be played at Road Runner park if the Two-1 league schedule, made out last night, is carried through. The series will begin tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock with Stanford meeting the Pampa Advertisers. Phillips will clash with Kingsmill at 10:30 o'clock.

The games will be the first in the league under lights and will also be the first doubleheader played at night at Road Runner park. Admission to the two games, and to other doubleheaders, will be 10 cents for everyone.

Two more games will be played at Road Runner park on Sunday afternoon when the Pampa Independents meet the Shell team at 1:30 o'clock and Skellytown plays Cargray at 3:30 o'clock.

Again on Monday night, two games will be played. The first battle will be between Coltoso and Magic City

By HARRY GRAYSON

Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarin cannot go on fighting each other forever, but the Pacific Northwest has a weller whom it suspects can fight either of them and a middleweight expected to receive the breath of life to that division.

The weller is Gordon Wallace, of Vancouver, which is McLarin's old home town.

The middleweight is Freddie Steele of Tacoma, just across Puget Sound.

Efforts are now being made to bring Ross, Harry Dublinsky, Frankie Kliek, and Gefertino Garcia, the Filipino, to Vancouver for engagements with Wallace, the most magnetic attraction in the history of the British Columbia city. Wallace is eager to go anywhere for a crack at one of the better boys.

Steele gets his big opportunity in Seattle on July 30, when Vince Dundee collects a substantial guarantee for stepping 10 rounds with him. Since dropping the 160-pound leadership to Tedd Yarozes in Pittsburgh last September, Dundee has repelled Paul Pirrone and Babe Risko.

While 147-pound champion, McLarin was offered $25,000 to meet Steele in a non-titular skirmish in Seattle, and could have had $15,000 after losing his crown to Ross. Young Corbett III was offered $5,000 and an attractive inducement was extended to Risko. The east hasn't beckoned Steele, and Dundee is the first real topnotcher to be coaxed to the Pacific Northwest.

Steele has knocked out Cefirino Garcia twice, Frankie Petrolle, Eddie Murdoch, Buckey Lawless, Joe Glick, Andy DiVodi, and Baby Joe Cass. He has won decisions from Billy Townsend, Glick, Eddie Rant, DiVodi, and Tommy Rios, and boxed Gordia Jones 10 rounds on even terms.

More than 90 per cent of Steele's opponents have been on the canvas, including the tough Rios, who insists that he never was down before.

Steele survived three severe spells of sickness and a broken jaw to get where he is, one Leonard Bennett broke his jaw with his first punch in a six-round two year ago, but never recovered from the beating dealt him by the uncomplaining Steele who has since proved that the injury did no permanent damage.

In Vancouver since last October, Wallace has knocked out and outscored Billy Townsend, and repelled Bobby Pachio, Tommy Bland, Ronale Headley, and the veteran Tod Morgan, among others.

18-Year Age Limit Rule Is Opposed By Texas Coaches

Referendum Petition Is Unanimously Passed

DALLAS, Aug. 2. (AP)—The Texas High School Football Coaches association was on record today opposing the 18-year age limit rule for football players.

The coaches voted last night to petition the league for a referendum vote of member schools on the rule. The motion, passed before the association by Holly McLemore, Hillsboro high mentor, came after more than an hour of discussion. It passed unanimously.

The rule, passed last spring by the Interscholastic League executive committee at Austin, will become effective September 1, 1936, unless it is rescinded. It would bar from league competition students whose eighteenth birthday falls before the September 1 preceding date of contest.

Previous to the discussion on the rule, the group elected E. N. (Rusty) Russell, Mason Home inventor, president, to succeed P. C. Showell of Langvik. Blair Cherry of Amarillo was made vice president; L. C. Wood of Cameron, secretary-treasurer, and Dennis Vinsant of Greenville, second secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors for 1936 will include Showell, Standard Lambert of Austin, Weldon Chapman of Lubbock, J. A. Wilkinson of Rockwall, Bryan Schley of Teague and Bobo Nelson of Athens.

The new officers expressed themselves as being opposed to the 18-year rule. Blair Cherry said it was "an injustice to the school boys, particularly those in urban areas."

Cherry, who turned out the 1934 state championship team, said that a check revealed that had the rule been in effect the last school year, 32 per cent of the Amarillo graduating class would have been ineligible.

UTILITY BILL MAY NOW DIE IN CONFERENCE

COMPROMISE POSSIBLE
IN ANGRY QUARREL
SAYS RAYBURN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Studying the effects of the second defeat which the house administered to the Roosevelt administration on the utility holding company issue, some legislators predicted today that the utility bill may now die in conference.

On the other hand, some saw a possibility of a compromise to settle the angry quarrel about compulsory dissolution of holding companies called "unnecessary."

A chasm wider than ever separates the senate and house conferees on the measure as the result of the house action yesterday. After a debate broken by shouts, jeers, and applause that chamber again voted down compulsory abolition, 210 to 155 and then proceeded to aim another blow in the administration's direction.

By a vote of 183 to 172, it instructed its conferees to insist, if they deem it desirable, on the exclusion of all outsiders from the conferees intended to iron out differences in the utility bill as passed some time ago by senate and house.

The members had in mind Ben Cohen, a Roosevelt administration aide whom the senatorial conferees have insisted are in favor of mandatory abolition, a provision which the senate passed only to have it struck out by the house.

Three of the five house conferees have refused to attend conferences if Cohen was present and they are now confined in that stand.

Rep. Rayburn (D. Texas), a leader in the struggle for the Roosevelt bill, expressed the opinion that the conferees would get together on "a bill." Previously, during the bitter house fight, he had said that if the house again turned down compulsory abolition "we may not" get action this session.

Meanwhile the senate lobby committee, after producing a string of disclosures which the Roosevelt forces vainly counted upon to swing the house to its side, has adjourned until next week unless something unexpected develops.

The latest of its disclosures was an admission by E. P. Cramer, Plainfield, N. J., advertising man, that he wrote a letter to C. E. Groesbeck, chairman of the board of Electric Bond & Share, a holding company, suggesting a "whispering campaign" that President Roosevelt was insane.

Groesbeck issued a statement saying he had never heard of Cramer or the letter. Neither he nor his associates would "tolerate" such a thing, he said, adding that he could not be responsible for "letters written to me."

Wholesale Trade Shows Big Gains

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP)—A general expansion of business to a higher level this week than during the similar period of last year was found in a survey issued today by Dun & Bradstreet.

"Accelerated by the unexpected upturn in the pace of operations of some of the leading industries, far in advance of the usual period for expansion, more trends reached toward a higher level than was recorded at this time a year ago," it was stated in the review.

"Continuous high temperatures and new heat waves in some parts of the country have retarded an opportunity to clear the remaining stocks of summer merchandise making substantial sums of cash available for investment in fall inventories."

"Buying at wholesale was advanced by the rising current of con-

Then Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Checked Her Constipation*

Read Mrs. Marsden's letter: "I have been a subject of constipation for the last 11 years. I felt miserable and irritable most of the time. My husband is a manager of a chain store. He said 'Why don't you try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN?'"

"ALL-BRAN helped me right away. I have taken it now for the past 5 months, and I am as regular as a clock. My health is fine, and I am full of pep."—Mrs. Charles Marsden, 681 Merrick St., Detroit, Mich.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

ALL-BRAN provides gentle "bulk" to aid regular habits. It also supplies vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" of ALL-BRAN is more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not corrected this way, see your doctor.

summer demand and the greater price stability." Although retail trade continued at an excellent pace, it was declared that the estimated gain in sales for the country was held to a range of 10 to 30 per cent over 1934 because of the rising trend of a year ago.

"While the gains reported by some of the markets were small, general volume of wholesale orders continued to rise by a larger percentage over the comparative showing of last year," the review found.

"Price uncertainties during July led to the postponement of so much buying that most wholesalers are making preparations for an abrupt gain during August."

Continued dry weather this summer which dried up the nectar-bearing blossoms has considerably injured the honey crop of North Carolina, beekeepers report.

A new motion picture company, whose announced objective is to combat "immoral" films by producing "moral" movies, has been organized in Spain.

Igor Stravinsky revised the score of "Petrouchka" last winter while in New York, making corrections and initialing them on Jose Urreola's score.

Hicks, John McKamey, all of Pampa.

Mrs. Jennie Cavin, Mrs. Bruce Martin, and Miss Dorothy Lou Martin of White Deer; Mmes. Ben Talley, C. C. Shields, Joe Coffee, and Everett Hodges of Miami; Miss Evelyn Hargroves of Springfield, Mass.

BRIDE AT LEFORS IS COMPLEMENTED

LEFORS, Aug. 2.—A bridal shower Wednesday afternoon honored Mrs. Mark Diehl of McPherson, Kan., the former Miss June Watson of LeFors, at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. P. Watson.

Guests were Mmes. Elmer Hill, L. J. Atkinson, J. I. Powell, John Rickard, Holman Bagwell, J. A. Witherup, Max Brown, J. A. Turner, Arthur Moor, Box Brown, L. Plinn, Ben Garber, Bill Kretzmer, Clarence Butram, Bud Cole, Bill Watson, Stiles, Rogers, Jack Gray, Misses Ruth Wise, Eula Bell and Norma Lee Rickard, Velma Pierce, Connie Lou Garber.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. George Puckett, Harry Groves, Henry Major, Jorkurth.

Final Battle to Be Subject for Illustrated Talk

At the Pictured Bible Chautauqua tent located at Somerville and Montague, Evangelist C. A. Walgren will speak Sunday night on the subject: "The Rumbblings of Armageddon." This lecture, Mr. Walgren says, proves to be of unique and unusual interest in every city where given.

Mr. Walgren will treat on the Eastern question which has to do with the expulsion of the Turk from Europe and a scramble among the nations for her possession. Constantinople has long been considered the cross on which the peace of the world has been crucified.

Statesmen for centuries, the evangelist says, have expected a final clash between the Orient and the West, and many are now sure yet but that the dyes of western civilization may give way before the fearful rising tide of color.

Evangelist, Mr. Walgren added, and the territory adjacent to the field of Ebedraclon from Kansas City where he went to deliver a car load of cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jett McMurry are attending the short course at College Station this week.

Mrs. Dutch Osborne and daughter, Nellie Lou of Pampa are guests of her mother, Mrs. Jim Johnson.

Mrs. Joe F. Coffee and children have returned from a visit with her parents at Waxahachie.

Miss Velva Barnett is the guest of Mrs. Bill Day of LeFors this week.

Rev. and Mrs. J. I. Gregory and her mother, Mrs. B. Johnson, of Wichita Falls, and Rev. and Mrs. N. B. Moon of La Feria spent Thursday and Friday with friends in Miami. Both ministers were formerly pastors of the Baptist church here.

Girls of M. W. W. Meet Wednesday

A meeting was conducted Wednesday evening by the M. W. W., a new organization of intermediate girls in the Methodist church. It was at the home of Mrs. Carol Montgomery, 202 N. Ward.

Present were Dorothy Dyer, Mary Jean Hill, Mary Elkins, Virginia Callison, Julia Callison, Wanda Beth Roberts, Lillian Frances McCaughan, and Billie Kretz.

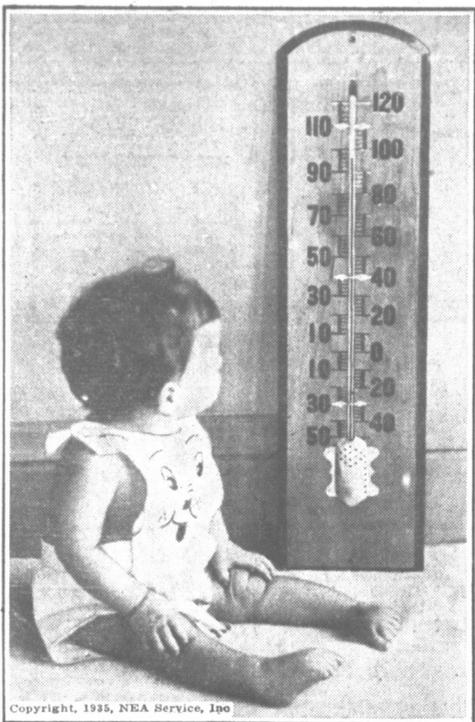

All girls of intermediate age in First Methodist church are invited to the next meeting, at 2:30 Wednesday, with Dorothy Dyer, 415 N. Starkweather.

Firemen Make 3 Runs In Month

The Pampa fire department made only three runs during July. Chief Clyde Gold's report to the city showed. The total damage was estimated at $15, with no insured loss.

Last July the department made 23 runs with an insured loss of $250. Chief Gold urges Pampans to use every care to avoid fires. With no rain during the last month, everything is dry and even a small blaze might turn into a disastrous conflagration.

Whew! Isn't it hot, though? Cecile gazes tensely at that mounting column, on the theory, perhaps, that a watched thermometer never boils over. A certain amount of summer heat, she agrees, is well-come after an Ontario winter that sometimes sent the mercury down to 40 below. Still, even though Cecile is dressed as briefly and coolly as any modern young miss, Old Sol needn't get so enthusiastic.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE.
NEA Service Staff Writer.

The "dog days" are upon us, and to keep from wilting completely, I've planned some menus that can be prepared with the least possible heat and energy.

Picnic and porch meals add to the enjoyment of dining at this time and cooling, comfortable meals go far to make the heat bearable for both the cook and the rest of the family.

Veal is a good summer meat, so I'm planning the dinner around veal birds. These are made up ready for baking and kept in the ice box until time to cook them.

For a first course, try a tomato soup frozen in the tray of an automatic refrigerator and prepared early in the day.

Corn is king for August meals, so why not serve a great platter of corn-on-the-cob with the veal birds for a fine feast?

Serve Salad Chiffonade. A salad chiffonade supplies vegetables in abundance and does away with the necessity of serving another vegetable with the corn. Add one-half cup each diced cooked carrots, diced cooked beets, cooked peas, 1 diced hard cooked egg and 1/4 teaspoon made mustard to French dressing and pour over Boston head lettuce leaves arranged in a well chilled salad bowl. Mix with two wooden forks, lifting the leaves lightly.

For dessert use a strawberry ice box pie. My own family like it

Tomorrow's Menu.

BREAKFAST: Cantaloupe, cereal, cream, flizzed dried beef, pop-overs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Cheese fondue with creamed asparagus, Melba toast, Boston coolers.

DINNER: Tomato iced soup, radishes and celery, veal birds, corn on the cob, salad chiffonade, strawberry ice box pie, milk, coffee.

immensely and I enjoy making it. Any variety of berries can be used but the ever-bearing plants make it possible to find strawberries in market until frost.

Strawberry Ice Box Pie. One quart strawberries, 1 1/2 cups boiling water, 1 package strawberry flavored gelatin, 12 graham crackers, 3 tablespoons powdered sugar, 4 tablespoons butter.

Wash and hull berries. Pour boiling water over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Let stand till cool and then chill until slightly thickened.

Crush crackers very fine and add butter and sugar. Mix thoroughly and pat firmly to sides of a well buttered pie dish. Chill.

When gelatin is slightly thickened, pour over berries arranged in chilled pie crust. Pie in refrigerator until chilled and set. Serve with or without a topping of whipped cream slightly sweetened and flavored with vanilla.

Dusting The Covers Of Texas History For THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF 1936

AUSTIN, Aug. 2.—The student or even the casual observer of events in Texas during the early 19th century, is impressed with the fact that the proud Spaniards had many heavy burdens to bear in the developments and defense of the rich country that seemed to invite attack because of its very beauty and fertility, according to Mrs. Matthe Austin Hatcher, archivist in the University of Texas library. The ever-cautious Nemesio Salcedo was the first to take alarm as soon as he heard that, by the cession of Bayonne on May 5, 1808, Napoleon had gained complete ascendancy over both Charles IV and Ferdinand VII, rulers of Spain, had thrown his armies into the Peninsula and had announced his intentions of making his brother Joseph King of Spain and Indies, including Mexico—and, of course, Texas. His fears were well-founded, for almost immediately a swarm of agents spread over the Spanish Dominions of America with instructions to stir resentment between the Gachupines, or Spaniards born in Europe, and the Creoles—or Spaniards and castes born in America. These agents were to convince the people of Mexico that he planned to make the Spanish-Americans free and to relieve them of the burdensome taxes imposed by the king and wanted nothing in return, but the friendship and the commerce of the country. Suspicion as to his motives was aroused by his suggestion that all those opposing his plans to chastize the tyrmany of the king be removed from the world by the administration of poison.

His next step was to send to the United States an agent, Desmoland, who was, in turn, to send sub-agents over the country in every direction to bring on a revolution which would enable him to make himself master of the country.

As early as May, 1808, Nemesio Salcedo learned that Octaviano D'Alvimar, a Paris-born Italian, in the employ of Napoleon was on his way to Nacogdoches. In fact, D'Alvimar reached Nacogdoches in the summer of 1808 and threw the authorities into a panic. The story can best be told, Mrs. Hatcher pointed out, by a translation from the Nacogdoches Archives in the Texas State library, a collection supplementary to the Bexar Archives in the library of the University of Texas. His letter, dated August 5, 1808, addressed to Governor Manuel de Salcedo, shows the boldness of Napoleon's plans.

"I have the honor to inform you of my arrival within the bounds of the province you govern in the name of his Catholic Majesty. Sir, I confess how far I was from thinking and how difficult it would be to imagine that what has happened to me would happen. I am detained and prevented from continuing my journey. Often before I have been employed among the Spanish people. I have been known to them a long time, having conducted negotiations in nearly all their colonies. I still have many proofs of this fact. This is the first time, I repeat, that I have been treated in this manner.

"I left France at the end of 1807. I had orders to go to the United States to await a commission. I tarried some time, traveling about even thinking they had forgotten me, (although it is well known that his Majesty never forgets) when I received orders to visit his Excellency the Viceroy of Mexico. I did not myself know why. Then, suddenly a new order directed me to hasten. I started in advance of my retinue. I was obliged, to come like a mail rider, so to speak, or rather, like a fugitive, because my arrival was urgent and also largely because I was fearful of a break between France and the United States. Finally, I reached the Spanish frontier, where I expected to find protection and safety. I am scarcely noticed. And, in spite of the intimacy of the two nations in Europe, it seems that which I now am. I consider it useless to write to the commandant general since his reply would probably not reach me in a reasonable time. As soon as possible I must communicate with Marques de San Simon who is probably viceroy of Mexico by this time.

"Your commandant insists that I enclose a copy of my passport. They refuse to understand, I repeat, that with or without a passport, it is all the same. Nevertheless, I furnish it, though, with great personal objection."

PLANS FOR DRY RALLY WILL BE MADE TONIGHT

Church Leaders Are To Hold Mass Meeting

All pastors, Sunday school officers and teachers, young people's leaders, and women's workers from churches in Pampa are urged to be present tonight at the city hall at 8 o'clock to make final plans for the prohibition campaign in Pampa and Gray county. H. D. Tucker, in charge of arrangements, announced this morning.

James Todd is chairman for Gray county and Mr. Tucker is director of the youth movement for the county and the 31st senatorial district.

Mr. Tucker spoke last night at Miami to a large crowd that had gathered for a county rally for Roberts county. Leaders of that county feel that the county will vote almost solidly against the repeal of the state prohibition law. Mr. Tucker stated after conferring with them last night.

Judge E. F. Ritchey was chairman of the Miami rally and is chairman of the dry forces of that community.

Mr. Tucker will speak Sunday afternoon at Wellington in a Collingsworth county rally.

PRIZE LIST IN CLUB TOURNEY IS ANNOUNCED

CUPS, EQUIPMENT AND CLOTHING TO BE GIVEN AWAY

The prize list in the City Open golf tournament, being played over the Country club course, was released this morning. There will be prizes for the winner and runner-up in each flight and the winner of consolation play in each flight.

Buck Talley has been given six golf balls for low qualifying score. He carded a 66 in his qualifying round.

The tournament will close Sunday with the championship battle between Grover Austin Jr., and Bill Flenniken. They will play 36 holes. Morning play will begin at 9 o'clock with the second round scheduled for 2 o'clock. A large gallery is expected to follow the players.

Semi-final and final rounds in the other flights will be played Sunday, 18 holes in the morning to qualify for the finals to be staged in the afternoon.

Caddies will be needed during the day and any boy 12 years or over wanting to caddy should report to Del Love by 7:30 a. m.

Homer Sprinkle has already won flight 5 by defeating E. M. Behrman, 6 and 5, yesterday afternoon.

Other matches played off yesterday were:

Floyd Hoffman defeated Mack Graham, 1 up on 21 holes, in the third round of the first flight.

Frank Brown won from Lynn Boyd, 3 and 2, in the third round of the third flight.

H. J. Coombs beat C. E. Simmons, 3 and 2, in the third round of the fourth flight.

The prize list follows:

Championship flight: Winner, loving cup; runner-up, golf bag; consolation, golf shoes, donated by Carter's Mens Store.

First flight: Winner, loving cup; runner-up, two golf clubs; consolation, dozen golf balls.

Second flight: Winner, loving cup; runner-up, canvas bag; consolation, golf shoes.

Third flight: Winner, golf knickers donated by Kees & Thomas; runner-up, dozen golf balls; consolation, shirt.

Fourth flight: Winner, shoes; runner-up, six golf balls; consolation, shirt.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, July 31 (P)—Little reaction has reached Austin on Governor Allred's announcement he would not participate actively in the campaign involving repeal of constitutional prohibition.

The governor announced he intended to vote against repeal but made it clear he would not interfere in any manner or fall out with any of his friends who entertained an opposite view of the question.

The announcement was issued in line with Governor Allred's primary campaign declarations that he favored submission of repeal of prohibition but reaffirmed his belief in the controversial doctrine.

At New Braunfels, La. Grange, Brenham and other anti-prohibition strongholds he frankly told the voters he was a prohibitionist by heritage and intended to remain so but that he did not criticize those who disagreed with him.

"My position remains just the same as it has during the campaign," he said. "I favored submission. The question has been submitted. I stated that personally I would vote against repeal, but that I accorded to every other citizen of Tex-

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Josiah the Boy King. Scripture Lesson: 2 Kings 23:1-5, 21-23.

1. And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2. And the king went up into the house of the Lord, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the Lord.

3. And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

4. And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

5. And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

21. And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the Lord your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.

22. Surely there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah.

23. But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah wherein this passover was holden to the Lord in Jerusalem.

Golden Text: Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.—Matt. 4:10.

Introduction: "The fifty-seven years previous to the reign of Josiah had been years in which Judah had ignored vital religion. The kingdom had been twice deluged with the abominations of idolatry. The Temple had been neglected, and perhaps closed, during a part of this time. Of course there were no books such as we have today, with many copies for popular use. The priests taught the people by word of mouth, just as the rituals of secret fraternities are taught today. Scrolls containing the law were not numerous. Some priests might have copies, but the possession of such manuscripts was not common. The copy of the law made for the use of the king had probably perished in this brief dark age that preceded the reformation under Josiah. That an authoritative copy might be supplied for preservation in the Temple is no surprise. Probably all that Josiah knew concerning it was some imperfect tradition that had been passed on to him by word of mouth, by priests who had received it in the same fashion from their predecessors. The half-century previous to Josiah's accession had been a period of utter darkness for people, priests and king. In less than sixty years religion had degenerated from monotheism to idolatry. Moral darkness was everywhere where once there had been light."

Josiah, the Boy King 2 Kings 22:1

Following all these days of sin and low living a youth was crowned as king in Jerusalem. It is always interesting to watch a boy come into prominence. We cannot expect much from the eight-year-old boy, however, if we look upon his father Aman, and his grandfather Manasseh. How could he amount to anything with such a background? It was unpopular, too, to be at all interested in Jehovah worship. The youth could not be expected to upset a whole kingdom

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 2 (P)—Heavy selling dominated the Chicago wheat market much of the time today, and prices suffered sharp breaks, especially in the late dealings.

Some of the selling was attributed to assertions that private crop estimates today had proved to be less bullish than were indicated by sensational demage reports the past two weeks. Uncertainties regarding the crop were also attributed to a report that private crop estimates at Liverpool and Winnipeg served also as a disturbing factor.

Wheat closed nervous, 1 1/2-2 1/2 cents off to 1 1/2 up, Sept. 90 1/2-1 1/2, Oct. 78 1/2-1 1/2, and provisions unchanged to 15 cents decline.

A Lot Book Found

"In the course of the work on the Temple an amazing discovery was made. The priest, Hilkiah, actually found the lost 'Book of the Law'. Why should the book be lost? How long had it been since they had used it? How could it have been unnoticed when it rested quietly in the Temple? What part of our Bible was found that day? Why did it cause such a sensation? Was it the book written by Moses? Was it all the Pentateuch or was it the little section of Exodus 21-23 or was it the Book of Deuteronomy? We should be able to answer all these questions. It could have been the whole Pentateuch or it is more probable that it was what we now call Deuteronomy. It was God's authoritative Word to his people."

Josiah Covenants with Jehovah

It was great to see the young king take his stand, and actually go on record without apology, for whole-hearted reform. He made a covenant with Jehovah "to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book." That was a real promise. It would have done credit to David in his best days or to the youthful Solomon at Gibeon.

In addition to his own pledge to God, he came to the people and "caused them to stand to it." He had a strange power over his people who had heard the words of the book. They stood with him. The king then led the way, taking away "all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to all the children of Israel, and made all that were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Jehovah their God." (ASV).

Josiah's Reformation Was Brief It is interesting to notice that the sons of Josiah who were his successors are both reported to have done "that which was evil in the sight of the Lord." Josiah was the last royal hero of Israel. With his death the history of the Jewish monarchy in Jerusalem was not over, but it was over and one great person—the

FAKE MESSAGE AROUSES ANGER OF COMMISSION

Committee Seeks To Prove Inefficiency Of Men

AUSTIN, Aug. 2 (P)—An exhaustive investigation was launched today by the Railroad commission into a faked telegram on which a tender was issued for the movement of 127,231 barrels of crude petroleum.

The fictitious telegram was produced at a hearing of the legislative committee investigating hot oil during questioning of Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commission chairman. On the basis of the telegram the commission's East Texas chief of staff approved the tender, testimony showed.

Thompson said every resource of the commission would be used to trace the oil and the proceeds and determine the author of the spurious message.

The telegram purportedly was signed by Thompson and Commissioner Lon A. Smith and authorized issuance of a tender to the fuel oil purchasing company.

Thompson was visibly astonished when shown a copy of the telegram by Representative Sidney Latham of Longview. Latham asked Thompson to read it. Thompson declined to do so, asserting emphatically that it was fraudulent, that he had never signed or authorized a telegram of that nature and demanded time to investigate.

Thompson checked the local telegraph office and found no record of the telegram having been sent from Austin. Thompson later brought up the subject of the telegram before the committee and members admitted they knew it was spurious. Latham said the committee had checked records at Austin, Dallas and Kilgore and found no evidence of the telegram.

Committeemen said the telegram was offered to show inefficiency in the bookkeeping department of the commission and denied any intention to discredit Thompson through the manner in which it was presented.

Thompson testified that he had never heard of the movement of the oil on the authority of the telegram and that as far as he knew the discrepancy had not been detected in the Austin office. He said this phase also would be checked.

Thompson expressed surprise that Harry Miles, East Texas chief of staff, had cleared the oil on the basis of the telegram.

"I think Miles is a good man and I am surprised this happened," Thompson said. "I think he should have called on the telephone to verify the authenticity of the telegram. However, we will trace that oil and find it."

Thompson said the commission's policy was to depend entirely on its tender board in the approval of tenders and that the only instances in which the commission issued the orders direct was when commanded to do so by a court order. The tender board he said, has never been over-ruled.

and single-handed perform a miracle. He evidently had a good mother and some good associates who gave their time to teaching him the will of Jehovah for the land.

Josiah Seeking Jehovah 2 Kings 22:2

"We may be rascally certain that the great old priest, Hilkiah, was responsible for a good deal of the interest in God. It was the interest of a brighter day for Judah when its boy king began seeking God. Already the star of hope was beginning to rise. With Josiah, Hilkiah, Huldah, and Jeremiah it will be possible for God to win victories in the land again. Heathenism must be put out and God must be enthroned." The dark days of Manasseh and Amon may be blotted out in the new day of seeking God and doing his will.

Joni: Destroys Idol Worship 2 Kings 23:4-5

The boy who began seeking Jehovah evidently found him, for he became fired with a strange determination to blot out all traces of heathenism and sin that had characterized the careers of his father and grandfather. Under his direction the graven images, the molten images, the altars of Baal, the sun images, and all other "idols" of a like nature were broken down and cast out. His zealous workers went throughout the land of Judah and then made their way into the cities of the North where the kingdom of Israel had been. It was a great crusade and many images and altars were ground into powder. When the work of breaking down idol furniture was completed and the land was purged of its wickedness, the youthful king turned the attention of the people toward rebuilding of the Temple. Money was collected from the people of Judah and also from the cities of the North. This money was put into the hands of the priests and Levites, who engaged and paid the workers.

A Lost Book Found

"In the course of the work on the Temple an amazing discovery was made. The priest, Hilkiah, actually found the lost 'Book of the Law'. Why should the book be lost? How long had it been since they had used it? How could it have been unnoticed when it rested quietly in the Temple? What part of our Bible was found that day? Why did it cause such a sensation? It could have been the whole Pentateuch or it is more probable that it was what we now call Deuteronomy. It was God's authoritative Word to his people."

CAMPBELL TO TRY AGAIN

LONDON, Aug. 2 (P)—Baring a serious hitch in present plans, Sir Malcolm Campbell will sail on Aug. 21 for the United States and attempt to boost his own world automobile speed record on Utah's salt flats. Sir Malcolm and his huge racer, Bluebird, with which he established the present land record of 276.816 miles per hour at Daytona Beach, Fla., early this year, will make the transatlantic crossing on the Majestic.

Almost doubling last year's list for the same period, 446 notices of intention to drill oil wells were filed in California during the first five months of 1935.

NEW FEDERAL COURT ATTACKS ON GAS WASTE LAW FORESEEN

AUSTIN, Aug. 2 (AP)—Texas' latest attempt to prorate production of sweet gas became effective yesterday...

Coupled with criticism Wednesday by Federal Judge R. J. McMillan of San Antonio...

E. O. Thompson, chairman, said he understood two Panhandle gas pipe lines would file new suits in federal court.

The commission planned to revise its order affecting the Panhandle to bolster fact-finding provisions...

The Henderson company near Sanford, Hutchinson county, brought the attack...

Two orders of the commission, issued after lengthy hearings, prorated daily production of sweet gas to 821,392,000 cubic feet daily...

An allowable of 250,842,000 cubic feet daily for the remainder of the state was allocated among individual wells...

ables was disregarded temporarily because of insufficient time to complete a study of well drainage areas.

The west Panhandle field was allowed 482,143,000 feet daily and the east Panhandle...

The first attempt to prorate Panhandle gas production failed several years ago upon invalidation of a ratable-taking law.

The new gas conservation act limited use of sweet gas principally to light and fuel, and prohibited its burning for carbon black.

Provisions restricting use of sour gas would become effective October 1.

Lubbock Architect Killed In Accident

LUBBOCK, Aug. 2 (AP)—Charles F. Reynolds, 30-year-old Lubbock architect, was killed instantly when his automobile and a truck were in a head-on collision...

Reynolds had been to Muleshoe, where he met with the school board concerning plans for a new school building.

He was returning to his home here when his automobile collided with a truck driven by C. L. Stanfield of Grady, N. M.

Stanfield suffered a crushed right arm. Sheriff F. A. Loyd of Olton said the mishap was unavoidable.

Reynolds, who was survived by his widow and a five-day-old daughter, was a graduate of the University of Texas.

He was a son of C. F. Reynolds of Houston. The body will be sent to Athens for burial.

Treasury Renews Drive For Coin Bill In House

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Disappointed because the house coinage committee tabled its midcent coin bill, the treasury department is renewing its effort for fractional-cent pieces.

Chairman Somers (D, N Y.) of the coinage committee said the midcent coin measure was put aside because it "went too far." The bill, he said, was not specific. It was framed as to authorize coinage of any denomination between one cent and one mill (one-tenth of a cent).

"If the treasury department asks for a specific coin and can show us there is a real need for it we will be glad to cooperate," he said.

The bill turned down yesterday was one asked by Secretary Morgenthau to enable the treasury to coin fractions of pennies. They were declared to be needed to facilitate the payment of state sales taxes.

Treasury officials again will send monetary experts before the coinage committee to argue on behalf of half-cent pieces. Somers has promised they will be heard.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Called to New York
Joe Gaden, drilling contractor with headquarters here was called to New York yesterday by the sudden death of his mother. Mr. Gaden drove to Amarillo where he took a TWA plane to New York.

Car Entered
D. L. Lane of Berger reported to city police last night that his car had been entered and several articles of wearing apparel stolen. The car was parked near the Harley Seder show. Two dresses, a girl's dress, two pair of men's trousers and a man's shirt were taken. It was the first theft since the show has been in the city.

R-turns From Camp
Lieut. R. K. Eason returned yesterday from Fort Sam Houston, near San Antonio, where he has been on active duty for the past two weeks. He is a member of the Pampa officer's training school. Several other Pampa officers will go on active duty during the summer months.

Visitor to Speak
Fred O'Malley, former pastor of First Christian church here, will conduct the service Sunday morning in the absence of John S. Mullen, minister, who is on his vacation. Mr. O'Malley will come here from Amarillo for the service. No evening meeting will be held at the church.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 2 (AP)—Cotton entered the final hour of trading today with futures registering recessions ranging to 7 points. Business volume was restricted.

The market was irregularly lower at the first call, as Liverpool cables reported that export subsidy talk had brought about a milk decline in the English market.

Weather map postings showed continued good weather in the belt generally and this aided the bearish sentiment.

Oct. touched 11.40 on the decline but recovered to 11.43, or off 4 points while similar futures were marked up against Dec. at 11.28, Jan. at 11.21 and May at 11.14.

Trade statistics released today proved disappointing.

Exports of 6,074 bales brought the total for the first two days of the new season to 8,279 bales compared with 21,231 bales for the corresponding period of 1934.

Admission for the big dance to be held at the Pita-Mor ballroom has been reduced to $1.10 with ladies admitted free. Jean Calloway will present her Victor recording orchestra, consisting of twelve colored artists, for the entertainment of dance and music lovers in Pampa Wednesday night. Admission show with various participating numbers has been arranged and will be presented.

Called throughout the country as the "dynamic personality" Jean Calloway has won acclaim as the queen of radio.

She and her 12-piece orchestra have appeared in every major city in the country being featured in the leading RKO, Public Fox, Pancho and Marco theaters from coast to coast.

The band is on a limited tour of this territory direct from a record breaking run at the Plantation Club in New York and the Cotton Club, Chicago, and each and every place where the band has been presented tremendous crowds have greeted them at their appearances.

The youngest of the famous Calloway family, her music is said to rival that of the first of the family that has made the name Calloway internationally renowned and famous, the well known Cab Calloway.

Dancing will begin at 9:30 and last until 1:30. Plans are being made to cure it a large crowd.

hours. Tentatively a matador advances a bit, waves a big red cape. El Toro dashes at the only thing he can see well. It vanishes behind the portal. He snorts, runs across the ring. Three matadors now venture toward him. He races for one who stands behind the red silk. The matador's cape and raises the cape as the bull races by, turns, and repeats the dash. This continues for 10 minutes. The matadors lazily but adequately avoid the lunges of the bewildered animal.

—Then the beginning of the end. Two sharp-pointed darts in hand, the matador faces the bull, jabs the points into his shoulder while sidestepping the animal. Claver and hazardous. It annoys El Toro. Then the kill. Murderer. We've "stock" hoes in our time but not before an audience for entertainment. A long slender sword, razor keen, is held in the right hand. In the left is the red silk to mislead the bull if he lunges too sincerely. El Toro stands for a moment glaring. The sword is raised, pointed at the top of the bull's shoulder, rushed forward as the bull starts a lunge. A flashing arm sends the blade home. It goes completely through El Toro, who bellows bewilderedly while blood spurts from the wound. The crowd is silent while the beast stands bleeding, then and finally goes to his knees, then dies. Next a cheer, but not from Americans. A team of horses pulls the body away. Three more bulls follow to meet a similar fate. Chorus by Lions: "One bull fight is enough for me; never again."

—What to see in and about Mexico City: The cathedral, begun in 1525, towers 204 feet high, cost $1,752,000. The National Palace, started in 1652 by special decree of the King of Spain. Built on the site of the former palace of Moctezuma, Aztec conqueror of Mexican Indian tribes. The National Museum: A wonderful collection of art objects and evidences of the first inhabitants of the New World. The Convention Hall and national theater. Begun in 1900; cost 10 millions U. S. money. See the glass-gold curtain weighing 5 tons, made by Tiffany of New York. It depicts the volcanic Popocatepetel and Ixcitlhuatl, where Cortez and his men were killed. The School of Mines: With a building erected in 1790 by Spaniards. National Pawn Shop: Now may wish to buy "everything" as well as to see "everything." National university: No campus; buildings all over town. Founded nearly a century before Harvard. Registration of 10,000. The Zocalo: Plaza showing monuments of national heroes.

—Tradition has it that an Aztec tribe was told by the gods to build a city where an eagle would be seen eating a snake. Such an eagle was seen in a floating island on the lake that is now Mexico City. The lake was drained largely, the city built. The ground is soft; buildings settle by feet, not inches, unless deeply set. Chapultepec castle: Home of the president and historical museum. President Cardenas (cardinals) may wish to buy "everything" in his modest home, avoids luxury. Pyramids of San Juan Teotihuacan: Monuments to the vestry; pyramid of the sun; 25 miles from Mexico City. Remarkably like Egypt. Shrine of Guadalupe: Where, according to legend, the Holy Virgin converted the poor Indian's "ayate" into a beautiful cloth bearing her image. The cloth is preserved in a frame of pure gold. Nearby, the chapel of the well is closely associated with the Bible story of similar theme.

—Desert of the Lions: A deserted Carmelite monastery built in the 17th century. Niches in walls where prisoners of forgotten days expiated their crimes. Cuernavaca: A beautiful city, 5,000 feet above the sea. Here is the Cortes palace built 405 years ago. Also here are the Berda gardens, built with proceeds of the silver mines of Taxco. On the second floor of the castle are mural paintings by Diego Rivera, commissioned to do them by the late U. S. Ambassador, Dwight W. Morrow, at $20,000 to depict the history of Early Mexico. Cacahuamilpa caves: Larger than the Mammoth cave of Kentucky and claimed— which we doubt—larger than Carlsbad Caverns. Puebla and Cholula: Puebla, third largest city in Mexico, boasts cathedrals claimed to be the most beautiful in the world. The domes. An Oriental appearance. Fine views of volcanoes. Just a day's trip out of Mexico City. These are just a few of the splendid attractions of the Mexico City area.

COURT RECORD

Investigations by the sheriff's department have resulted in several arrests for theft of drilling equipment. A number of stolen articles were located.

Elmo Jones and an as yet unapprehended man were named in a felony complaint for taking five sets of casing clamps belonging to Ed Mazey. The theft is said to have been on July 10.

Elmo Jones and C. A. Dawson are charged with taking a set of Jack Post bearings from G. E. Oiler May 20.

C. A. Dawson, Elmo Jones, and a third man are named in a complaint charging theft on June 10 of 10 gate valves, 7 stops, 9 unions, and one centrifugal pump belong to G. J. Turner.

Lawyer Argues For Editors In Contempt Trial

ANGLETON, Aug. 2 (AP)—Freedom of the press is a privilege not only of the newspapers and publishers, but of the public, and should not be restricted by the judiciary or any lawmaking body, John H. Crocker, Houston attorney, argued today in the trials of six Houston newspaper editors and reporters on charges of contempt of district court here.

Crocker is chief counsel for Ed M. Pooley, managing editor of the Houston Press and Harry McCormack, reporter of that paper. Other defendants in the case are Editor George Cottingham of the Houston Chronicle and Ed Rider, staff correspondent, and managing Editor Max Jacobs and Reporter Frank White of the Houston Post.

The six were charged after the three papers had failed to obey an order by Judge Munson not to print "insinuations" in the slaying trial of Clyde Thompson, Retriever Farm convict, on the ground that it would hinder the picking of juries for the subsequent trials of Raymond Hall and Ed Ebers, also charged in the slaying.

Crocker opened his argument by contending that jurors could not be properly disqualified because they had read in newspaper accounts of the first trial.

Judge Munson asked if it were not a fact that reports from the Houston papers had not been sent to the Associated Press and accounts of this news service carried in Galveston and other papers.

"I don't know," Crocker replied, "but we are willing to concede the point."

married in Count Court Hauptmann-Reventlow, where made in greatest secrecy. His friends cooperated to enable him to cloak his movements successfully.

Prince Alexis Mdivani, son of the late Gen. Zachary Mdivani, former aide-de-camp to Czar Nicholas of Russia, was descended from the Mdivani family which acquired the title of prince in 1752 for military achievements in Georgia, which became a Russian province in 1801.

He was a brother of Prince David Mdivani, former husband of Mrs. Murray, motion picture actress, and of Prince Serge Mdivani, former husband of another film actress, Pola Negri, and of Mary McCormic, opera singer.

Alexis Mdivani was married first to Louise Astor Van Alen, a descendant of John Jacob Astor, at Newport Villa, May 15, 1931. They were divorced a few months later.

His second marriage was to Barbara Hutton at a civil ceremony in Paris June 20, 1933. They were divorced at Reno, Nevada, May 13, 1935.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP)—The utilities and scattered specialties did their best to support the stock market today, but profit taking waves undermined the list, as a whole, and the closing tone was rather heavy. The trading pace was not so fast as yesterday, however, transfers approximating 1,450,000 shares.

Snow Falls In Montana; Kansas Has 109 Degrees

(By The Associated Press.)
Scattered showers whittled down the size of the mid-west blast furnace area today but no definite break in the heat wave was yet sighted.

As the mid-west remained super-hot and heat deaths mounted to 139, the east suffered from wind and electric storms which claimed at least 10 lives. The picture was different in Montana, where snow fell, Arizona had cloudbursts.

The day's maximum temperature was 109 at Beaver, Okla., and Liberal, Kan., a short distance to the north, reported 108.

Peeewees Playing This Afternoon

The Peeewees played the Canadian Juniors in the tournament in that city this afternoon. The game was to begin at 1:30 o'clock.

The Pampa boys were favored to win because they had previously defeated the Canadian boys twice, although the latter claim that their new pitcher, "Lightning" O'Reilly, is better than the Peeewees' pride, Amos Reed, who will hurt the game today.

The boys went to Canadian yesterday afternoon and spent the night there. Howard Buckingham drove to Canadian today to advise the boys in their opening game.

Postal Receipts Reach New High

Postal receipts, usually considered a barometer of business conditions, reached a new high for 1935 last month, usually considered a quiet month of the year. Not only did receipts reach the peak for the year, but they showed a new high for any July since the office was established here.

July receipts amounted to $6,574.80 compared with $5,740.56 for the same month last year, giving an increase of 833.24.

Other departments showed appreciable increases during the month. Business was steady with no large sales or exceptionally large single days of business, Postmaster D. E. Cecil said.

LEADS RUM CRUSADE

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 2 (AP)—President Lazaro Cardenas, turning from Mexico's troubled politics to the possibility of prohibition, called today for a campaign to free the nation "from the vice of alcohol."

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Aug. 2. (P)—Capital newsmen are expecting a more satisfactory relationship with the Centennial commission of control when Wallace Perry, El Paso newspaper editor, gets into the swing of his service with the board.

At all meetings thus far correspondents have been forced to wait outside while the commission considers allocation of funds to various cities and towns to aid them in portraying their part in Texas' early history. The invitation to remain without was extended by Lieutenant Governor Walter Woodul, commission chairman.

"We will issue a statement of what we do after the meeting," he said. Perry, however, informed newspapermen he was opposed to executive sessions where matters of public concern were considered by state officials.

"As soon as I get my feet on the ground we'll see what can be done about it," he said. "I don't want to start anything at my first meeting until I can see how the land lays."

Members of the Capitol Press corps have had some spirited clashes in the past with legislative committees and other groups arising from the growing desire of official bodies to hold executive sessions. In most instances they have been successful in keeping sessions open, except those of committees specifically authorized to conduct secret sessions.

At the last regular session, correspondents covering the house succeeded in having the house rules changed to prohibit ordinary committees from transacting their business behind closed doors. They distinctly recalled several efforts to keep correspondents from meetings and to eject them after they had gained admittance.

The situation grew so tense at one of the special sessions of the 43rd legislature that one sub-committee considering an important tax bill held its sessions in a hotel. The action followed refusal of correspondents to leave the room where the committee had scheduled its regular meeting.

Fish In For It As Rodeo Begins

GALVESTON, Aug. 2. (P)—The fish were in for it today.

A large number of anglers hoped for extremely gentle breezes and clear water as they checked favorite fishing equipment for the opening of the first annual fishing rodeo sponsored by the Galveston Junior Commercial association.

The rodeo was slated to continue until 2 p. m. August 11. A silver trophy, 33 inches tall and topped by the image of a fish, was obtained as one of 20 awards.

Sponsors said indications were good for the entry to reach several hundred by the end of the week. Anglers were handicapped yesterday by a strong south wind that caused the gulf to be muddy near shore. Deep-sea fishing parties held to the bank and had better luck.

Quick Swing From Dole To Work Jobs Seen By Hopkins

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (P)—Quickening of the swing from doles to work relief jobs was predicted by officials today as Harry L. Hopkins allotted direct relief funds to 13 states for only the first half of August.

Aides in Hopkins' works progress administration said they believed their part of the $4,000,000,000 work program would be well under way by August 15.

Several states were granted funds only for special programs such as transient camps, pending determination of when work relief will begin.

Hopkins' assistants said many states already had taken over some of the 4,000,000 unemployed now on relief. The government wants to turn them all over eventually to states and communities.

Allotments for both general relief and special programs during the entire month except where otherwise noted included:

Kansas, $626,750; New Mexico, $112,500 for special programs only; Oklahoma, $687,000, including $600,000 for general relief during the first half; Texas, $1,231,415, including $1,000,000 for general relief during the first half.

An increasing number of so-called guest houses have been making inroads on the business of the large hotels in Bermuda, say American trade observers in that colony.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Aug. 2 (AP)—Secretary of State Gerald Mann and Assistant Attorney General W. W. Heath recently went to New Orleans to defend the new securities law, special pride of the former.

They were loaded to the guard with briefs, arguments galore, supporting documents, everything they thought, needed to make their first rate presentation before the federal circuit court.

They soon after their arrival in New Orleans, came a telegram from the secretary of state's assistants in Austin. It read:

"Please rush six copies of securities law."

They had forgotten to take a copy of the statute.

There seems to be misunderstanding as to an agreement which Lieut. Gov. Walter Woodul said was responsible for the allocation of $250,000 of Centennial funds to the Worth for commemoration of the livestock industry.

The allocation was made by the Centennial commission of control appointed to supervise expenditure of money appropriated by the state for the Centennial celebration.

Immediately afterward, two members of the historical advisory board named to advise the commission control on worthy projects, resigned and the third threatened to resign.

Woodul said support of the Worth's claims was promised when the legislature was in session in order to obtain votes of certain members of the general Centennial appropriation bill.

In Austin, a few days ago, Sen. Ben G. O'Neal of Wichita Falls and Senators T. J. Holbrook of Garrettsville and John Reddick of Lufkin disclaimed similar knowledge.

"The Centennial commission is in fine judgment in choosing membership of the advisory board," O'Neal said; "and if it had followed the board's recommendations would have continued to use its judgment."

The press correspondents' headquarters in the second floor of the capitol near the chamber of the house of representatives, frequently is an information bureau, or is supposed to be.

Telephone calls from various state departments and from individuals in the city asking addresses and a hodge-podge of information are received almost daily. Recently a middle-aged woman popped in the door, demanding:

"Where are they taking those children to the circus?"

"I'm sorry," a correspondent replied; "I don't know."

"Don't know!" ejaculated the woman. "I thought you knew everything."

Then she flounced out.

McKechnie May Be Successor To Emil Fuchs

BOSTON, Aug. 2 (AP)—The nomination of Manager Bill McKechnie as successor to Emil Fuchs as president of the Boston Braves was announced today. McKechnie took his team on the road last night pleading complete ignorance of the possibility of becoming nominal director in front office as well as actual leader on the field.

Charles F. Adams, now in control of the Braves, kept silent on future plans.

It was reported that Ford Frick, National league president, would come here today to confer with Adams, and the question of a president undoubtedly would be discussed.

The Frick-Adams conference might have to do with a sale of Braves. Adams, whose interests include a large grocery chain, professional hockey clubs and Suffolk Downs horse race track, has expressed himself as wishing to get out of the baseball business.

Mobeetie Man To Head Quail School

WELLINGTON, Aug. 2—Members of the board of trustees of the Quail rural high school met recently and elected Carl Chauvin Mobeetie as superintendent. Mobeetie was announced yesterday. Mr. Chauvin will succeed J. D. Wilson, who resigned.

Mr. Wilson has accepted a position with the state department of education as deputy state superintendent and rural school advisor for the district.

The contract for the new school building is expected to be awarded in the next few days.

DEATH TO BE METED OUT TO FOES OF NAZIS

OPPOSITION WILL BE REGARDED AS TREASON

BERLIN, Aug. 2 (AP)—Roland Freyler, state secretary for the ministry of justice, disclosed today that activity against the Nazi party and its organizations will be regarded as treason against the people and will be punished by death under the new criminal code.

"It must be clear that the Nazi movement is the pillar of the German nation and it must be protected by provisions against treasonable activities by the coming code," he said.

The state secretary outlined 15 points, many of them dealing with technical questions, to be covered by the forthcoming sweeping penal code.

"Treasonable activities against the people are the most heinous crimes," he said. "Traitors place themselves outside the community and a severe crime of this kind must be punished with outlaws, including the death penalty."

Severe punishment also would be provided for treasonable action by foreigners who aided, but such action could not be termed treason against the people because foreigners are bound only by an obligation of hospitality, not by ties of allegiance to the nation.

His pronouncement was issued as the first year of absolute rule by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler. While von Hindenburg lived, Hitler was only chancellor, but immediately thereafter he assumed sole power.

The Stahlhelm (steel helmet) war veterans organizations, subjected with Jews and "political Catholics" to the Nazi campaign against "state enemies," were omitted from those permitted to take part in the ceremonies at the Tannenberg memorial where von Hindenburg was laid to rest a year ago.

While the German press lamented the first year of absolute rule by Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler, while von Hindenburg lived, Hitler was only chancellor, but immediately thereafter he assumed sole power.

The Stahlhelm (steel helmet) war veterans organizations, subjected with Jews and "political Catholics" to the Nazi campaign against "state enemies," were omitted from those permitted to take part in the ceremonies at the Tannenberg memorial where von Hindenburg was laid to rest a year ago.

Germany's army, which von Hindenburg disbanded after the World War, meanwhile, was well on its way to rapid reconstruction. The new army has been spread over the reich by von Hindenburg's successor as far as garrisons are concerned.

This step was provided for May 21 by a universal training law, proclaimed by the Nazi regime.

Secret police officials, meanwhile, denied emphatically that Werner Neumann, killed "as a peace disturber who attacked a secret policeman," was Jewish.

Werner Neumann was an Aryan and had nothing whatever to do with Jews, said a spokesman for the secret police.

Olympic Body To Combat Attempts Against Boycott

NEW YORK, Aug. 2 (AP)—The American Olympic committee lined up today to combat any attempts to oppose American participation in the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin.

Through Avery Brundage, its president, the committee replied to a letter from T. Marbury, president of the Amateur Athletic Union, who reiterated his opposition to the United States sending athletes to Berlin if charges of racial discrimination are proved.

Referring to the revival of opposition which followed the test, anti-semitic and anti-Catholic activities in Germany, Brundage said: "Pledges satisfactory to the international and American Olympic committees have been made by Germany respecting the treatment of its own athletes as well as those of visiting countries."

"If it develops these promises have been broken, further consideration can be given to the subject by the American Olympic committee."

Brundage admitted protests have been received from Jewish organizations charging German discrimination and urging the American Olympic authorities to act. He said there is no intention of forcing a showdown in the immediate future in the racial or religious issue.

A Diesel marine motor, developing 18,000 horsepower and said to be the largest ever constructed, was recently completed by the Italian Fiat company for use in the transatlantic steamship Vulcania.

Alreadconditioning has made substantial progress in Toronto, London and other Canadian cities during the past year, according to reports to the department of commerce.

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 11
MOVING IN
A Porter brought Laurie's bags up in the elevator to the third floor. As she opened the front door with her key, a panic seized her.

Was Rex here?
No. He had dressed and gone out. She was rather late. Her friends at the office had kept her talking, congratulating her on her husband's miraculous return. She had smiled and thanked them. How often in the last twenty-four hours she had with a driven fatalism burned her boats behind her!

Her husband. It was a joke, of course. It was a very humorous situation. But it did not seem a bit like one now that she was alone in the flat and would be alone until Rex Moore came back.

How could she have been so crazy as to consent to this impossible position? Where was her pride, her independence, her self-respect? She went over all the arguments tollsomerly, as she put a kettle on to boil on the electric stove and made a pretense of getting herself some supper.

She owed it to him. She had stolen his name; she had lived on it for two years. So had Glad, through her. It was the least she could do to pretend to be his wife for a little while.

She drank her tea, but could not eat anything.
She went into her bedroom and unpacked. It was an austere apartment in dull blues, with a large built-in walnut wardrobe and a man's high dressing table. All polished wood and plain coverings. No feminine touch. Her rose-colored dressing gown looked almost indecent, she thought, with a twisted smile.

She looked into Rex Moore's bedroom opposite, at the other end of the flat. It was intended for a manservant. Very comfortable too, but plainer than hers.

He seemed to have no luggage but the suitcases she had seen in the train. His day clothes were neatly piled on a chair.

Could it be possible that she was going to share this flat with that man of the train? She was filled with a fierce hatred of him again. He was cruel, inhuman; a monster. He must have been able to find some other way than this.

It was a little before eleven when Rex Moore came in, and saw Laurie's chestnut head bent over the shimmering steel-blue material of Glad's evening frock, a patch of color that looked joyously fantastic in that severe brown room.

Every light was on in the flat, which he noticed at once.
"Good evening! Afraid of being alone in the flat?" he asked. "Why didn't you keep the woman?"

"I'm not afraid," she raised her head and gave him a startled glance. He looked so different in evening dress, so much more sophisticated. She hadn't noticed it last night at the party. She had been too confused to notice anything, too busy fighting to keep her composure, to appear natural, to say the proper thing.

"Everything went fine," he told her. "It won't take long to fix things up. Alberty's keen on my trying the Pacific again. So I'll be back in a week. It's a secret, mind! Even from you. Would you like a drink?"

"No thanks," Laurie was quite cool now. "Mind if I have one? A toast to our new home!"

He laughed, but not mockingly. He was evidently very pleased with his evening.

He thought only of himself, the girl told herself.
"Tomorrow night we'll go out to dinner and a show, if you like," he went on. "You mustn't be bored. And we shall have to have a few people here. I hope this woman can cook. There are some men in my own job, and I met a man today who was very decent to me in America. We must keep the game up. But most evenings I shall be working."

"It does not interest me in the slightest what you will be doing, Mr. Moore," Laurie said.
"By the way, Alberty tells me you're going to do his personal correspondence again." There was a new note in his voice.

"Yes. His private secretary has to go away again for three months. He was kind enough to say that I did the work all right."
"He's very keen on you, isn't he?"

"What do you mean?"
"What I say, I saw it last night. And the way he talks about you. He doesn't know he's giving himself away. He has an idea he's a regular Sphinx. I suppose you've been about with him a bit, out of office hours?"

"I don't know," Laurie said. "I don't know what you mean."

"I don't know," Laurie said. "I don't know what you mean."

"I don't know," Laurie said. "I don't know what you mean."

"I don't know," Laurie said. "I don't know what you mean."

DEAD LETTER OFFICE?
LOS ANGELES, Cal. (AP)—Alice Gray, lecturer, believes in the strenuous life for firemen.

Frank L. Shaw, and suggested they clean the streets and parks in otherwise idle hours.
Mayor Shaw sent the letter to the fire commissioner. The commissioner sent it to Chief Ralph Scott. Chief Scott was undecided where to send it.

SO HOT
ST. LOUIS (AP)—In 24 hours the humane society responded to 147 heat prostration calls. Eleven were horses, two were canaries, one was a sparrow. Several white rats and rabbits also curled up. The rest were dogs.
