Pampa Shows Progress in Business Building Boom

the construction and blueprint stage, presents an impressive picture.

Without an estimate on the cost of a six-story office building, a shop building, a new automotive building and the new First National Bank building, the total estimate on other building in the city is $1,194,000. City Engineer Department officials said that estimates as they appear on the building permit rarely cover the costs.

Nor does this figure take into account a number of smaller business buildings under construction.

The latest business building permit issued is that for a new Buick agency and garage structure. (See separate story on this page.)

Over the weekend it was announced by R. G. Hughes that he would construct a six-story office building at the corner of Kingsmill and L. Monnet, architect, Oklahoma City. The site Glass Co,'s new home at 219 N. Ballard are up.

engineers. The two top stories will be occupied by the Cabot Company offices. A penthouse and auditorium atop the building will be occupied also by that company.

Coffey-Pontiac is planning a new building to face on Gray, at the corner of Kingsmill.

A one-story shoppe building, with five or six locations in it, is in the blueprint stage. It will be located at the corner of Francis and Cuyler. It is being constructed by Roy Van Vliet and associates of San Francisco. H. T. Hampton is the local agent.

Texas Furniture is constructing a 50-by-120 foot addition to the present facilities on Cuyler. When completed the store will have an overall frontage of 1121/2 feet.

The First National Bank is to erect a new building on the present site, it was announced a few days ago. Plans are being drawn by C.

Bids are now being asked for the new county general hospital. The new institution, to be known as Highland General Hospital, will have 100 beds. It is expected to cost over three-quarter million dollars.

Ground has already been broken and work has begun on a new 20-unit motel on-the lot east of the Schneider Hotel. To be operated in confunction with the hotel, it is being erected by Century Investment Company, Dallas. It is expected to be completed in July.

L. S. Fisher and Co., Woodward, Okla., is constructing a new grain elevator and office, at 600 S. West, at an estimated cost of $135,000. It is expected to be completed around June 1.

The Kimbell Milling Co. is remodeling and repairing its elevator which is located near the Santa Fe tracks on Atchison.

Walls and roof of the Thompson Paint and be 25 by 80, with modernistic glass front. It is expected to be ready for occupancy within a month or six weeks.

Ground has been broken for the foundation of the Thomas-Duncan Building, on Kingsmill, across from Rose Motor Co. The 100-by-84 structure will accommodate five businesses, each with a front of 20 feet. Foundation for a two-story structure is being laid, with only one story being put up at this time.

A number of other smaller business buildings are near completions, others are being planned, it was reported.

Another indication of growth was shown in the recent announcement by O. H. Foster that the Pampa Business College had been moved from a location on E. Kingsmill to larger quarters on S. Cuyler, north of the Santa Fe underpass. Foster said there was a greater demand

The building, being erected by J. Kirk and for clerical and stenographic help here the Ewert Ray Duncan of the Duncan Ins. Co., will could be filled.

In addition to these business buildings, scores of houses have been completed or in the final stages of completion over the past few months. Many permits for repairs, renovation and additions to residential dwellings have been issued during the past six months.

The April summary issued by the City Engineer's office shows that total permits for business and residential buildings for this year total $704,735, estimated cost of construction. During April, a total of $224,350 in permits was issued.

Sixteen permits for new residential buildings were issued at an estimated cost of construction of $92,600; private garages, $4,750; new business buildings (seven), at an estimated cost of construction of $102.500.

Calls for bids within a few days will be made for 4.4 miles of the Pampa-Perryton Highway.

A publisher of a new magazine called Manas is sending me his weekly magazine, because, he says, I am one of the few independ publishers. I do not know whether he is sending it to every publisher n the United States or not.

By R. C. HOILES

This publisher is confused, bewildered and befuddled on his economic thinking. He hides behind a post office box number and es not even in any way designate any person as connected with the magazine. He thus evades, in a way, individual responsibility. He sounds like a soured professor or and "our" repeatedly. He will not whom he means by "we" or These words sound harmless, but if he said the state or the government people would be on their guard. Some months ago he wrote the following in his maga

"This humiliating requirement (of being legally 'destitute') of the old Poor Law (of Queen Elizabeth) has been eliminated Britain's new social legislation) and an entirely different principle that of human right, established

In his April 21 issue he published in an article a part of my letter to him concerning the above paragraph. His introduction to my letter was:

"An independent publisher - one of the few who are left-has challenged this statement in a series of provocative questions. We are WASHINGTON — Capitol Hillition to finance the work. sion, but because the entire problem of property rights needs clarification, and the issue is sharpened by his questions:"

this publisher quotes a part of my letter as follows: "Who is to give the aid? Is it the State; is it the majority? What right has the majority force the minority to give aid to anyone? Who established the human right that man should live without effort: that man should live if he doesn't do what others wanted done enough so that they are willing to pay him for what they want done?

"Will you kindly tell what principle establishes the right to live being supported involuntarily by others? Will you set down some impersonal eternal rule of human conduct that gives any individual a human right to receive aid from anyone against that individual's he is compelled against his will to turn over part of what he proto do something that no one is willing to pay for or not enough to support him?" The publisher then tries to answer these questions. He seems to think because there has been poved her skies and she had only a pitiful handful of RAF planes to send against them.

However, the fact that a theory proved wrong once does not mean that it will always be wrong that it will always be wrong have infinitely superior planes judged by range and speed. And those planes will have infinitely superior weapons to carry to ensure may centers if there is another war. The A-bomb, of course, is in Poland: Premier Joseph in Poland: Premier Joseph in Poland: Premier Joseph in Poland: Premier Joseph in the speed a liberal leader and his wife to freedom. So long as such heroism is shown behind the iron curtain, Eastern Europe should not be written off as lost.

Tobias Hobson, an English stablekeeper, made customers take the wealth from those who have produced it or who have received it as voluntary gifts. He talks about property stablekeeper, made customers take the horse nearest the door, hence the term "Hobson's choice" meaning to take what's offered or nothing at all.

per worker as we now produce. I "Our correspondent asks how an individual can be 'the owner himself and all he produces' if he is required to contribute, against his will, to the support of others. This, we suppose, is an argument against taxation for social puroses. The argument objects, to serving the welfare of others, but to the compulsory service obtained by taxation."

That is exactly the case! There no argument against charity or individual responsibility. I quote again:

"Admitting that the compulsion is an evil, and that the Welfare State will doubtless be a sluggish and often vicious form of social organization, what alternative principle of voluntary obligation will the champion of 'free enterprise' admit?

"If he answers, proudly, that that is for him to determine, because his skill, his labor, and his ersonal industry have given him the right to distribute his wealth as he chooses, or not to distribute it at all, then we must reply that his position is little more defensible than that of the reformer or revo lutionist who claims that the wealth belongs to the people and ould be distributed by the State." What this publisher fails to understand is that there is no possible way that the owner of wealth can keep from distributing his wealth. It is a law of economics, a law of nature, a law of God that he has to distribute it or lose it. If an advocate of State planning thinks wealth can be hoarded

A "star" in any car

If you're "shooting" for smoother engine performance...for full protection and less added oil between drains... make a date, today, to OIL-PLATE ... with Conoco Nth Motor Oil!

You see, Conoco Nth (Patented) contains a special, added ingredient that fastens extra lubricant so closely to metal that working parts are OIL-PLATED.

This extra OIL-PLATING stays up on cylinder walls, won't all drain down, even overnight! That means your engine is extra-safe from harmful combustion acids...extra-safe from "dry-friction" starts...extra-safe, too, from sludge and carbon caused by wear.

For "star" performance...full-time protection...more miles per quart...
