Kiwanis and Jaycees Have Met Donkeys?

Just who is the master of the jackass — the Jaycees or the Kiwanis — after last night's one is quite sure.

But just who is the master of the Jaycees and the Kiwanis — Well, you guess.

It all started like this: The Jaycees challenged the Kiwanis to a donkey softball game last week. The Kiwanis accepted.

Last night the two civic organizations met at Recreation Park.

The first event of the evening a musical flag race, ended in a draw with Art Atterberg of the Jaycees and W. B. Jackson of the Kiwanis the winners.

Travis Lively led the Jaycees to a win of the exact score is questionable over the Kiwanis, in a donkey polo game.

But the Kiwanis came back in the softball game being on the big end of the 4 to 1 score.

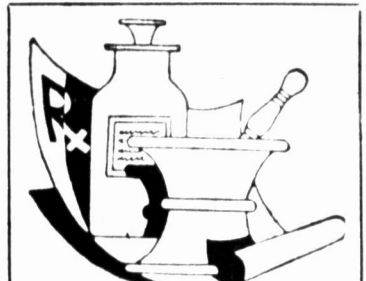

So after a full evening's fun, neither proving to be the other's master, all of the contestants gathered in the center of the field to close the program with the singing of the "The Old Grey Mare."

Musial Leads Cardinals to 3 to 1 Win Over Chicago

By The Associated Press

This may be Stan Musial's greatest year since he came up to the major leagues with the St. Louis Cardinals near the end of the 1941 season.

In his first 11 games, the 27-year-old native of Donora, Pa., has built up a robust .383 batting average. But that is not the entire story.

Stan's 18 hits include four doubles, three triples and two home runs. All figures are high up among the leaders. He has driven in 14 runs, almost one third of the Cardinals' total. Only Walker Cooper of the New York Giants and Hank Sauer of the Cincinnati Reds, with 15 each, have batted in more.

The pride of Donora singled in his first two times at bat yesterday, the second blow sending in Red Schoendienst with St. Louis' first run. The Cards added two more to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, in the only day game in the National League.

Jim Hearn pitched shutout ball until the eighth, in racking up his first victory of the season. He allowed seven hits. The Cards collected eight off losing "Pitcher Schmitz and Cliff Chambers.

Hearn had fine defensive support. Catcher Rice threw out two Cubs trying to steal second and a throw by Enos Slaughter from right field nipped a Chicago runner at the plate. The triumph shoved the Cards into third place, past Brooklyn, and only a game and a half behind the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dave Koslo shut-out over the Reds before 28,424 fans in a night game in Cincinnati. The south-paw ace struck out five and issued only one walk. The Giants collected 13 hits off Johnny Vandermeer, Howard Fox and Ken Raffensberger.

Johnny Mize, slugging first baseman, was out of the lineup with a sore leg.

No other National League games were scheduled. Rain washed out the only scheduled American League game with Washington and Philadelphia.

DALLAS (AP)—Dick Burnett, the man who shelled out more than $500,000 for the Dallas franchise in the Texas League, won't say he was misquoted. But he does say he didn't mean it the way it came out.

Burnett was talking to Dallas sports writers just after taking over the local club. "A third major league will come within two years," he said. "Gardner (President J. Alvin Gardner of the Texas League) thinks it will be five years but I think it will be two."

And Burnett named Dallas and Houston as cities that would be in this third big league.

But he says he didn't mean two years, that what he intended to say was that "I may not live to see it but my children will."

Anyway, the Dallas club president was quoted by all the sports writers present as saying two years. "If all of you quoted me like that I must have said it," he declared. "But a lot of things were happening then and we were in a state of tension. I guess I wasn't paying close enough attention to what I said."

Aggies Clinch Tie for SWC Golf Title

By The Associated Press

Texas A and M has clinched at least a tie for the Southwest conference golf championship.

The Aggies, who have finished their schedule with 27 points to 9 for the opposition, backed into the "dormie" position yesterday when Southern Methodist took a half point against Texas.

Texas' 5 1/2 points brought its total to 21 against 10 for the opposition. If the Longhorns can sweep the six matches remaining on their schedule against Texas Christian at Fort Worth May 10, they will tie the Aggies for the title. Loss of one-half point, however, will give the championship to A and M.

Abilene and Borger Lead WT-NM Race

By The Associated Press

Abilene and Borger are running one, two in the WT-NM League today, only a half-game apart.

The Blue Sox of Abilene used a wild, 21-7, victory over Lamesa last night to go into the lead and Borger won its fourth straight game with an 8-5 decision over Amarillo.

In other games, cellar-dwelling Clovis stumped Albuquerque, 9-2, and Pampa beat Lubbock, 5-2.

The Blue Sox collected 21 hits off Stan Gryzwacz, who went the route for the Lobos. Rookie Fred Fazio gave up seven hits to Lamesa.

Grodzicki Takes First Step Towards Return to Majors

By The Associated Press

Johnny Grodzicki had taken the first step back toward the big leagues today, his first start on the mound in seven years resulting in an eight-hit, 7-2 decision over Oklahoma City last night.

The big righthander—who received a shattered leg while a paratrooper in Germany—helped the winning Dallas run. Bill Serena, the home run king of the West Texas-New Mexico League last year, homered for Dallas in the eighth to tie the score.

Van Cuyk held Shreveport to seven hits—three in the first inning. The Cats had an easy time winning, using nine hits to good advantage. The victory gave them a clean sweep of the series.

Tonight a shift in sites sends Dallas to Shreveport, Fort Worth to Beaumont, Oklahoma City to San Antonio and Tulsa to Houston.

Aggies Beat SMU 9 to 2

By The Associated Press

The Texas A and M Aggies are only a half-game back of the pace-setting Texas Longhorns in the Southwest Conference baseball race today.

A and M walloped Southern Methodist, 9-2, yesterday to move into good position to take over the lead—should Texas falter in any of two games with Southern Methodist this week.

In another conference game yesterday, Rice used a four-run outburst in the eighth inning to beat Texas Christian, 7-5.

Earl Beesley speeded eight Mustang hits as A and M collected 13 off Erwin Kay and George Baker.

Rice made four runs on three hits, an error, walk and hit batter to score four runs in the eighth inning and beat TCU.

WOULD YOU WORK 5 YEARS for $6.15 a month?

If you are now age 35 and have earned and continue to earn at least $3,000 a year under Social Security, at age 60 you will be entitled to a benefit of $50.25 a month. Payments will begin when you are age 65. If you continue to earn $3,000, and work right on until you are 65, you will get $6.15 a month more from your Social Security. But would you work five years longer for $6.15 a month more?

Chances are, you couldn't live on $50.25 a month—or $56.40 either, for that matter. Chances are, you couldn't afford to quit. But you can afford to quit when you are 60 if you supplement your Social Security now—while you are earning a steady income. Which would mean the most to you—five more years of labor, or five years sooner in which to start taking life easy?

You can supplement your Social Security benefits with Southwestern Life Insurance to guarantee yourself an income of $100, $150, $200 a month—or for any amount you wish—and quit when you are 60! There's a Southwestern Life retirement plan to fit every pocketbook. Let me show you today how to combine your Social Security-benefits with Southwestern Life Insurance. The sooner you hear the facts, the more you will know about how easily and conveniently you can combine life insurance with Social Security.

Women at Work

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Girls, do you get along well with the men in your office? Do they like you? If you do, and they do, chances are you'll get along well with your husband—and he'll like you. Men, do you hate washing dishes? If you do—and most of you do—chances are it's because the sink was placed just high enough to be comfortable for the little woman—two inches shorter than you are.

Those are a couple of the diverse observations of Dr. Lillian Moller Gilbreth, a nationally known efficiency expert.

Dr. Gilbreth speaks from experience. She's the mother of 11 children, a homemaker for a big brood—and president of a firm of consulting engineers in management. Incidentally, she thinks that many women—many, not all—can successfully combine a home and a job.

"And anyone who says that women work for pin-money, for excitement or the chance to meet a nice young man who will support them for the rest of their lives has something on his side," the 69-year-old active woman said.

"One concern had done every thing they could to halt mounting absenteeism and dropping employment. They'd cut down waste motion, retrained against fatigue, put in attractive rest rooms—but it kept right on. Then they talked informally with some of the girls. The problem simply boiled down to the fact there were no eligible young men employed there—and they couldn't do a thing about it."

It would be nice, she thinks, if people would only budget their time and energy the way people budget their income. She thinks, however, that you have to enjoy the budgeting idea before any such attempts will be successful.

Many men and women enjoy the long way around in their work—and "no one is a drudge unless they like drudgery."

Most jobs take much longer than you think they will. Consequently most people are always hurrying to catch up with their plans.

"People don't make allowances for interruptions—the phone ringing, the milkman coming, a child skinning his knee," she said. "The only way to find out how long it takes to do a job is to make notes on it."

There are lots of housekeeping and office shortcuts if people are of a mind to find them and use them, she said.

"Personally, I like a big, old-fashioned, inefficient kitchen. I like the ice box far away from the stove—I'm the super-energetic type and I like to run around and look out and see what people are doing. Flying around the kitchen is my excuse to let off energy."

Beware of Pin-Worms

Medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and adults are victims of Pin-Worms. Watch for the warning signs, especially the embarrassing, itching rectal itch. After centuries of Pin-Worm distress a really effective way to deal with them has been established through JAYNE'S P.W. the new Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. J. Jayne & Son. The small, easy-to-take P.W. tablets give satisfaction of your money back. So take chances on Pin-Worms! If you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for P.W. and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

SAM HOUSTON PUPILS VISIT MUSEUM TODAY
The fourth grade pupils in Miss Melba Bird Richey's room at the Sam Houston School are making an educational trip to Canyon today to visit the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum. They are traveling in a Pampa School bus.

The trip is the culminating activity of a unit of study on Pioneer Life in the Panhandle of Texas. The children are accompanied by their teacher, Miss Richey, and four room mothers, Mesdames Frank Smith, E. O. Wedgeworth, Arthur Teed, and H. D. McWaters.

Instead of taking one vacation they are going to divide their vacation time and take two. PLAN "CHILDREN'S SPECIAL" There is going to be a short vacation with the children, planned primarily for the children's good time. They are going to the nearest spot that will give the children an out-of-doors vacation—with all that goes with it.

Then the parents are going to take a short trip by themselves, as their real vacation from the responsibilities of home life. They figure they need that as much as the children need a vacation with them.

It sounds like a smart idea. And it might prove to be a workable solution for many parents. For it is a vacation plan that takes every member of the family into consideration.

Neatness Is Essential for Girl Who Lives in Crowded Quarters

Don't be the kind of girl whose untidy habits cause her family to despair or threaten to alienate a roommate.

Mrs. E. A. Rowley reviews modern stage plays.

Mrs. E. A. Rowley of Amarillo was guest speaker at the Twentieth Century Club's annual guest-day tea which was held in the City Club Rooms last Tuesday afternoon.

Introduced by Mrs. George W. Scott, program chairman, Mrs. Rowley discussed briefly the nature of thirteen plays which she had seen recently on Broadway, and she reviewed in detail "Allegro" by Heggen and Logan and more briefly, "Mr. Roberts."

Mrs. Rowley stated that most of the modern plays on the New York stage are tragic or realistically sordid. One exception she named was "Joy to the World," a satire on Hollywood's resistance to censorship.

Other current plays commented on were "The Streetcar Called Desire," "Man and Superman," "Command Decision," "The Winslow Boy," "The Respectable Prostitute," "Annie Get Your Gun," "Madae," "The Helress," "Strange Bedfellows," and "Harvey."

Mrs. Roy E. McKernan was in charge of the guest register and Mrs. C. E. High, president of the club, presided at the lace covered refreshment table which was decorated with May baskets of spring flowers in pastel shades and lighted pastel colored tapers. Favors were corsages in the form of tiny May baskets. Mrs. Eloise Gipson, of Amarillo was an out of town guest. About 60 ladies were present.

The tea was arranged by Mrs. Robert Sanford, Mrs. H. Raeburn Thompson, Mrs. Fred Neslage, and Mrs. F. L. Stallings.

★ WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer
Parents of young children have quite a problem if they come to working out a vacation plan that is a real vacation to every member of the family.

If they plan a long trip and take the children along it isn't much of a rest for the parents and the long days of driving are often no fun for the children.

But if they leave the children behind when they take their yearly vacation, they can't help but feel a bit guilty over the fact that they are leaving their children out, and depriving them of a chance to have a part in the vacation plans.

One young couple says they think they have a solution to the problem this year.

Instead of taking one vacation they are going to divide their vacation time and take two. PLAN "CHILDREN'S SPECIAL" There is going to be a short vacation with the children, planned primarily for the children's good time. They are going to the nearest spot that will give the children an out-of-doors vacation—with all that goes with it.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, May 3—(AP)—Leading stocks, with scattered exceptions, returned to recovery territory in today's market after absorbing early profit cashing.

Deaths were among the slowest for a full session since mid-April. Transfers for the five hours dwindled to around 1,000,000 shares.

THE STORY: Patience Mead goes to London three times a week to attend dressmaking school. It is the only freedom allowed her by the two old-fashioned aunts who have brought her up and with whom she lives in the country. On the commuting train she meets Paul Taylor, who lives in a neighboring village and who sends himself attracted to the young girl. They date secretly, fall in love. The aunts find out. Patience is promised not to see Paul again. Heartbroken, she keeps her word. Charlotte, Patience's long-lost twin, turns up. She is now a stage star, soon appears in a London show. Appalled at the restricted life Patience has obviously led, Charlotte is determined to see that she gets some fun from her own wardrobe. Patience looks charming. Charlotte tells her they are lunching with Roger Dickson, popular actor, tonight and begs Patience not to take Roger away from her.

XII
THE telephone bell rang at that moment. Charlotte picked up the receiver.

"Hello, who is that?"

"Miss Carlotta? Mr. Breeden's secretary here. Will you hold the line, please? Mr. Breeden wishes to speak to you."

Charlotte glanced back over her shoulder at Patience: "This is a call I've been waiting for for weeks. It's Dwight Breeden. He's head of G.R.P. You know, the big movie people. They're just starting up here in England. Hello, yes?"

"Miss Carlotta? Dwight Breeden here. We met at a cocktail party back in the States, remember?"

"Yes, of course. And you said you'd get in touch with me when I came to England."

"Sure I did. Well, I'm doing so now. Listen, I'm casting a new picture. I want a premiere dancer. It's a big musical. How about our meeting for lunch today and talking things over?"

Charlotte hesitated. And asked herself angrily why her professional life need intrude on her private life just today of all days. Only this was a chance in a thousand. Swiftly she made up her mind.

"That'll be grand," she said. "I'd love to meet you."

"Twelve-thirty at the Savoy Grill suit you?"

"Yes, I'll be there." She replaced the receiver and swung around to Patience. "Sorry, darling, but I'm afraid you'll have to entertain Roger on your own. I'll leave a note for you to give him that'll explain things. It's fiendish bad luck, but when Dwight Breeden asks a girl to lunch, if she's any ambition at all she turns up with her boots blacked to see what's cooking."

PATIENCE looked at her sister in horror. She told herself she couldn't face it. Not lunch alone with some completely strange young man!

"Charlotte, I can't. Please—truly, I'd so much rather not—I'll be absolutely scared stiff."

"Don't be silly," Charlotte said briskly. "Of course you're going to lunch with Roger! And what's more, my pet, unless I'm very much mistaken, you're going to thoroughly enjoy it."

Patience swallowed hard.

"But he's expecting you to be there, too."

"That'll be all right. He'll see me this evening. We're dining together. Actually though I hope I'll be able to join up with you both at the matinee. He's got seats for the show at the Adelphi. I'll come right along there the moment Mr. Breeden has decided how much he's going to pay me."

Patience sighed. It looked as if she'd have to go through with it. "And it's going to be quite a lot," went on Charlotte firmly, putting on a hat which Patience thought looked exactly like a bunch of flowers and arranging carefully the drift of filmy veiling. "Now I'll just write two lines to Roger."

She dashed them off at the writing-table and handed the envelope to Patience. She paused for a moment on her way to the door.

"Don't be frightened of Roger. He's quite harmless really. Don't scream for help if he tries to make a pass at you. Just tell him you're not that sort of a girl."

PATIENCE blinked. "Charlotte, he—he won't do that, surely?"

"Well, my sweet, he may try to hold your hand in the theater. That's usually his preliminary maneuver."

"But if he's in love with you?"

Charlotte laughed wryly. "Darling, I very much fear that doesn't stop him making love to other girls. It's all right. Don't look so worried. Goodbye for the time being. I'll see you at the theater."

She was gone, leaving a flurry of perfume behind her. Patience looked at the door and wondered whether she'd dash after her. At any rate whether she'd take the next lift down to the ground floor and walk quietly out of the hotel, never maybe to return. But if she did this Charlotte would think her such a little ninny. Besides she didn't really want to. Or did she? She didn't quite know. She felt in a whirl. Life as lived by Charlotte was something quite new to her. Did a man, meeting a girl for the first time, want to hold her hand at a theater? Supposing the girl didn't want her hand held? She certainly wasn't going to allow such a liberty.

The telephone bell rang and she almost jumped out of her skin. She picked up the receiver.

"Hello," she said.

"Hello, darling," said a man's voice. "I'm right here in the lounge waiting for you."

"I—I'll come down."

She replaced the receiver and picked up Charlotte's note and her handbag. She walked along the corridor towards the lift wishing her knees didn't shake so absurdly.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 3—(AP)—Grains were a little lower most of the session on the Board of Trade today. Rain in the southwestern winter wheat belt, particularly Kansas, was the major cause of the slightly easier tendency.

Offsetting moisture as a market influence was the still present prospect of a railroad strike next week and re-entry of the government into the flour market. The May wheat contract was supported by these factors.

Wheat closed 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher. May 22 1/2-23 1/2, corn was 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher. May 22 1/2-23 1/2, oats were 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher. May 22 1/2-23 1/2, and soybeans were 1 cent higher. May 22 1/2-23 1/2.

Common Ground

By E. C. HOILES

Fair Enough . . . by Westbrook Pegler

The reason why Henry Wallace has refused to discuss the authorship of the goofy guru letters to Nicholas Roerich, the Russian painter and god-man, is that he does not dare face the subject at all now.

The general accounting office of the government is harsh on obscure employees who accidentally overcharge for a Pullman berth or tax on government business.

Wallace ducked World War I because he considered that he needed to manage and publish a farm journal owned by his rich father, and on a pretext, later dissipated that he was suspected of tuberculosis.

Mr. Wallace's definition also ran more to the current and personal than to the abstract and philosophical. It was not surprising to read he described liberalism as the belief of a man who thinks just as Henry Wallace is thinking, or at least speaking publicly, today.

From the definitions of these intelligent and experienced politicians, the conclusion is inescapable that liberalism is the foundation on which each of them is basing his campaign. It is, therefore, a potpourri of the political beliefs of Harry Truman, Bob Taft, Tom Dewey, Harold Stassen, Earl Warren and Henry Wallace.

ITC CHARTER BACKGROUND . . . by Peter Edson

(This is the first of two dispatches on the new International Trade Organization.) WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress will not be asked to ratify the new International Trade Organization charter if present thinking in top State Department levels is followed.

Also, renewal of Cordell Hull's pet Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act is now before Congress. It expires June 12. The ITCO charter is the 54-nation fair trade agreement concluded after four months of tough negotiating at Havana.

A Congressman With Vision

If we had a few more Congressmen like Frederick C. Smith from the 8th District of Ohio we would be rich in money as well as in today. Our dollars would be worth more.

European diplomats have impressed the need for such a hard-and-fast arrangement in conversations with American representatives here and abroad. Improvement of their economic condition through operation of our foreign aid program, they emphasize, will not check communism unless it is fortified by formal pledge of armed action against a Red advance into Western Europe.

BOUNDARY — In these preliminary conversations the European negotiators have agreed that the Rhine as the boundary which Russia must not be permitted to cross without provoking another global war. Although they are reluctant to establish such a geographical ultimatum, they regard the line as practicable from a military, diplomatic and psychological viewpoint.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — Current secret talks between Secretary of State Marshall and congressional leaders do not concern possible revision of the United Nations charter so much as whether Capitol Hill will favor a proposal that this country reinforce the Marshall Plan with large-scale military and naval support in the event of a clash with Russia.

PLEDGE — European emissaries do not think that they are making an excessive demand. They point out that President Truman promised to use "appropriate means" for their defense. Now they want to know how he and the American Congress mean to implement that pledge.

ALLIANCE — Never before has the United States made such an alliance in time of peace. Congress would still have to declare war, of course, but it would be morally bound to do so if it approves the kind of guarantee now under discussion at Washington, London, Paris and other capitals.

Warning Issued Regarding Care For Chickenpox

AUSTIN — With the incidence of chickenpox one hundred percent higher than records indicate for a seven year period, W. Cox, state health officer, issued a statement declaring, "It is a great mistake to treat even light cases of childhood diseases such as chickenpox, measles, mumps, scarlet fever or whooping cough as though they did not amount to much. That sort of treatment makes it possible for these diseases to spread and cause serious outbreaks among children and their resulting impaired lives distance makes them easy victims to other forms of infection."

Here Are a Few Tips on Sanding Hardwood Floors
While oak and other hardwood flooring now may be obtained in completely pre-finished form,

Unless the sanding is adequate, it is impossible to obtain the mirror-smooth, gleaming surface which characterizes oak and accounts for a large measure of its inimitable beauty.

Before starting to sand, be sure the floor has been swept clean. Do not clean it with water, however, as that may raise the grain of the wood and cause a rough surface.

On the initial traverse the sanding action first should be cross-wise of the grain, then lengthwise should be lengthwise.

STORM

Nurses used flashlights and lanterns. Most of the injured were taken there and later transferred to a veterans hospital nearby.

Ray Duncan, 45, an east McKinney farmer, and his son, Dee Lynn, 7, were among those taken to city hospital for treatment.

They were placed on a pad on the hospital floor. Every available bed already was in use.

His wife, Ole, 45, a son, Dale, 17, and a baby daughter, Lenda 2, also were injured.

"Our house was blown all to pieces," he said. "It was strung all over the corn patch."

Roger Duke, line superintendent of the Texas Power and Light Company here, said at midnight that "75 percent of the power has been restored."

"We had good luck," he said. Fifteen crews responded from the surrounding area.

"We've been back up everywhere pretty soon."

Marines last night were on guard in the devastated areas. They were under the command of Col. William C. Capehart, Naval Air Station, Dallas.

No looting was reported.

City, county and state police helped with rescue work, directed traffic and eliminated confusion.

Soon after the storm hit, an automobile equipped with a loud speaker urged people to stay off the streets.

Broken limbs hung dangerously from trees. Signs were broken loose. Some cars were blown off the roads.

The business district escaped serious damage. The residential areas were hardest hit.

Nobody could figure out how so many escaped death or injury in a storm that caused so much damage.

Red Cross work was centralized in the chapter's office in the county courthouse. Volunteer workers were listed. Residents whose homes were not damaged by the storm offered shelter to those whose homes were ruined.

The tornado left scenes reminiscent of those at Woodward, Okla., last year, when more than 100 lives were taken by a similar storm. It cut 850-yard wide, two-mile long path through McKinney. It smashed hundreds of homes, businesses, and buildings in both towns. It badly damaged the big Texas Textile Cotton Mill while 500 to 600 workers crawled under machinery or took refuge in the plant's vault.

McKinney is about 30 miles north of Dallas. In the same north Texas section yesterday twisters caused relatively minor damage in Montague, Hunt, and Hopkins Counties.

FIRE AT HOTEL... The Fire Department answered a call to the American Hotel at 8:25 a. m. today. A box of powdered soap had ignited after being left on top of a cook stove, and had filled the apartment with smoke. Damage was very slight.

COMMUNISM

candidate Henry A. Wallace, told hecklers they were "fellow travelers" for interfering with his speech. Wallace had just commented that he would not enjoy freedom of speech in Russia.

In addition to the Taff-Stassen headline race in Ohio, Democratic voters picked 50 national convention delegates and both parties chose candidates for 23 House seats, the governorship and the state ticket.

There was voting, too, in Alabama, Delaware, Florida and Indiana, but only in Alabama was any major political issue involved.

Democrats there selected 28 convention delegates from a field of 84 candidates—29 of whom have said they will quit the convention if President Truman's civil rights program is written into the party's platform.

The Florida primaries pick a 20-vote Democratic delegation and 16-vote GOP delegation plus candidates for six House seats, the governorship and state ticket.

Indiana voters selected nominees for the state's 11 House seats as well as delegates to state conventions which later will name national convention slates.

Delaware's 10 Democratic delegates are expected to support President Truman for the party nomination. Missouri's 34-vote delegation was named yesterday with those instructions.

Republican faction in Georgia also named a convention slate yesterday, and left it unstructured. An opposition GOP group in the same state will meet later.
