

Trial Run to Decide If Armed Will Race

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—A trial speedrun set for this morning is expected to decide whether Calumet Farms' Armed will run in the Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park tomorrow.

If Armed's "speed sharpener" is favorable, the chances are that the golden gelding will face Assault in the mile and a quarter $50,000 added classic.

Entries for the Widener close at 9:30 a. m. (CST) and Calumet trainer H. A. (Jimmy) Jones said that if Armed is entered, he will go postward.

Armed's rider probably will be Doug Dodson, who has been aboard the seven-year-old in most of his appearances.

King Ranch's Assault, reported extra sharp for his return match after being beaten by Armed at Edmont last September, probably will have the veteran Eddie Arcaro as his jockey.

Arcaro rode at Santa Anita yesterday and several jockeys are standing by, just in case Arcaro does not arrive in time from California.

Assault rules a slight favorite at odds of 7-5, with Armed quoted at 9-5.

Assault breezed to victory in a tuneup last Saturday and had a spectacular workout Wed. evening at the Widener distance, covering the mile and a quarter in 2:04 2/5 with ease.

Armed finished third in the McLennan Saturday, but experts contend he was not disgraced. The gelding lost ground at the clubhouse turn and was in tight quarters all the way down the back stretch. At the head of the home stretch he had to go to the outside to make his run.

75 Candidates To Report for Aggie Training

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(AP)—Spring football practice under the new coaching staff headed by Harry Stiteler opens today at Texas A and M College with 75 candidates expected to report.

A large group of Freshmen prospects will drill with the varsity. The first-year crop at Aggie had been the best in years.

Two new assistants, Bill Dubose and Thurston Jones, will be meeting the players for the first time.

New Freshman Coach Barlow Iron of San Antonio will report June 1.

Bill Cox Barred From Baseball Gave National League Break

PHILADELPHIA—(NEA)—Robert R. M. Carpenter, Jr., taking over the general management of the Phillies is not at all surprising. Young Bob Carpenter has been an athlete and sports-minded since he was old enough to play games. He played football well at Duke, ran the Wilmington, Del., club of the Inter-State League, has more than a rooting interest in the University of Delaware, promoted professional baseball, even backed a prize fighter or two.

At the end of the 1943 season, Commissioner Landis barred Bill Cox from baseball for betting on games, but not until after the poor man's Larry MacPhail had done the National League a tremendous favor.

Cox took over a broken-down franchise early in that war-time year, and through Babe Alexander, currently the club's promoter and public relations man, sold Robert R. M. Carpenter, Sr., of the main duPont line a small block of stock.

That brought in Carpenter, Jr., who took over the entire shebang when Judge Landis gave Cox the game's ruse.

Since that eventful day, the Carpenters have invested $1,250,000 in farm clubs alone. They have two pieces of property in Philadelphia on one of which will be erected a new, commodious and up-to-the-minute home for the Phils.

Since last fall the number of Blue Jay subsidiaries has swelled to 15, one each in Triple A and A, three each in B and C and seven in D, eight of them owned outright.

Theirs was the most successful of minor league chains in 1947, with five of the 11 clubs winning pennants and only one out of the first division. With 26 branch stores, the Brooklyn club accounted for no more than four flags, the Detroit bagged three, and the Cardinals, with 24 clubs, copied only two.

Realizing that the future of the Phils rested in their farms, young Carpenter concentrated on them. He installed smart young executives as general managers, chaps like 24-year-old Eddie Horgan of the highly successful Wilmington Blue Rocks, who frequently play to nearly 10,000 in one of the finest little parks in the land.

He knows every player in the chain, and everything about him. Veterans like Eddie Miller, Bert Haas and Roy Cullenbine are obtained by the Phillies only as filler-inners.

It is from the farm clubs that the Phillies of the future will be built and maintained with athletes of the Del Emis type. The front office thinks a lot of shortstop Granville Hamner, who has been recalled.

A kid battery, Simmons and Lopata, perhaps best illustrates what is in store for followers of the Phils. Curt Simmons was paid the highest bonus in history for signing, one high in five figures, more than the $52,800 the Detroit gave Dick Wakefield.

Southpaw Simmons, 18, fanned 11 Phils in an exhibition game. He was not graduated from Egypt, Pa., High until June, yet struck out 159 winning 13 and losing 5 for the B league Wilmingtons. Then, toward the National League season's end, he whiffed 10 Giants, gave that hard-hitting outfit five hits, beating the Polo Grounders, 3-1.

Veteran baseball men declare that no pitcher is faster or has more stuff.

The Phillies' capable scouts practically scouted Art Lopata, 20, out of Detroit's Briggs Stadium. He was the most valuable player in the Eastern League last season.

No wonder Ben Chapman keeps hustling. The Phils management knows that it won't be long before he will have more than considerable with which to work.

Bill Cox wasn't so detrimental to baseball after all.

Dodds Had Them Beaten Before They Started
VILLANOVA, Pa.—(NEA)—A reason for the failure of America's best miler to show top form when racing Gil Dodds has been advanced by Browning Ross, Villanova's miler Sophomore who faced the parson three times this winter feels that runners racing the preacher faced both a mental and physical problem.

"You couldn't help but enter the race with a doubtful outlook," he explains. "A runner felt that even if he did 4:10 he'd still be second. Dodds also had such an unorthodox style that it was hard to follow the regular pace." With Dodds forced to pass up the remaining indoor meets because of illness, the mile races will be closer, although the times posted

First State Playoff Series Begins Tonight in Cage Race

By the Associated Press
The first state playoff series begins tonight in Texas' class AA high school basketball race, but four district titles still are undecided.

Denton, winner of 3-AA, and Bonham, 5-AA champion, start their three game series tonight at Commerce.

Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), 15-AA titlist, and Harrington, 16-AA, champion of 16-AA begin play at Harrington.

One district champion will be decided in single elimination tournament today at Abilene. San Angelo, Odessa, Big Spring and Abilene meet in the 3-AA tournament.

A three-way playoff looms in 4-AA. Bowie of El Paso knocked off Austin (El Paso), 41-28, last night while El Paso High was defeating Yaleta, 34-28. Bowie, Austin and El Paso are now tied for the lead. Should Bowie defeat Yaleta tonight, as expected a one-day tournament will be held tomorrow to settle the championship.

Milby downed Sam Houston, 41-30, last night in the first of a three-game series to determine the Houston, 13-AA champion.

Robert E. Lee of Baytown and Beaumont, tied for the 11-AA leadership, each play tonight. If both win, or lose, one game will be held tomorrow to settle the crown.

The 16 district champions must finish bi-district play next week. Winners will qualify for the state championship tournament in Austin the first week in March.

Stranahan Heads Field in Houston Amateur Tourney

HOUSTON—(AP)—Sixteen top-notch amateurs today compete in the second round of the thirty-first annual Houston Invitational Tournament with Frank Stranahan, the defending champion from Toledo, still the ruling favorite.

Stranahan today meets a Houston youngster, long-hitting Norman Lewis, who maintained a steady pace he set in Wednesday's qualifying round with a one-over par total on the 62½-yard, par 71 Houston Country Club Course.

Stranahan yesterday dipped two under par in easing by Jim Simpson, Corpus Christi, 7 and 5, while Lewis eliminated Lonnie Wendland, San Antonio, 1-up in the extra holes.

Today's top match however is expected between two Texans, Ken Lawson, San Antonio, and Dick McCreary, Houston city champion and high amateur in the recent Texas Open at San Antonio.

In qualifying play, McCreary carded a 70, while Lawson turned in a 71.

BOWLING

In the Industrial Bowling League last night at the Pampa Bowling Alleys, McWilliams Motor Co won three games over J. C. Daniels, Lewis Hardware won three over Culberson Chevrolet, Hawthorne's Auto Service won two out of three over Leder's, and Hall and Pinson won two out of three over Lawrence and Redman.

Don Ormsen of the McWilliams team bowled high single game with a 222, while Gilmore of the Lewis Hardware team bowled high three game series with a 554.

LEADING THE WAY INTO A NEW GOLDEN ERA...
FUTURAMIC OLDSMOBILE
Oldsmobile, America's oldest motor car manufacturer, is now the first to mark its Golden Anniversary. In celebration, Oldsmobile announces an entirely new and greatly advanced 1948 model—the FUTURAMIC OLDSMOBILE.

For 1948... The Big News Is The New Olds! A brand new Oldsmobile "98" is here today! It's the first of the Futuramic cars... introducing the first of the eagerly awaited new "postwar" Bodies by Fisher. It's Oldsmobile's Golden Anniversary model—and carries to a new high the Oldsmobile tradition of smartness!

When you see this Futuramic Oldsmobile, you'll realize what important news it brings. There's style news in its clean, flowing Futuramic lines—its modern simplicity inside and out. There's safety news in the greater visibility provided by the new, low hood design curved windshield, and extra sized windows.

There's welcome news for passengers, too, in the lower, wider, roomier Futuramic body. And there's good news underneath the hood—a new high-compression head which adds extra horsepower to Oldsmobile's famous 8-cylinder engine.

Naturally, this brand new 1948 model offers Oldsmobile's fully proved Futuramic feature—GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Here's driving at its ultra-modern best. No clutch pushing—no gear shifting—just "step on the gas and go!" You go smoothly... comfortably... with thrilling performance... the Futuramic, Hydra-Matic way.

See the Futuramic Oldsmobile "98"—the colorful new Dynamic Oldsmobile "60" and "70"—on display in our showroom.

Market Briefs

WALL STREET—(AP)—Stocks struggled feebly for recovery today but gains were notably selective and many market leaders retreated.

Dealings were at their slowest in six months until the final hour when selling quickened a bit. Early advances running to a point or more were reduced or converted into minus signs at the close. Transfers for the full proceedings were around 700,000 shares.

An increase in prices for semi-finished steel products by major producers failed to stimulate stocks in this group.

Passing dividend bolstered Texas Gulf Sulphur, Phibro and Copperwell. International Harvester climbed on a proposed 4-for-1 split-up. Ahead most of the time were Mission Corp., Pacific Western Oil, Great Northern Railway, Hobart, Distillers Corp. and Kennecott.

Among intermittent losers were U. S. Steel, Public Service of N. J., Southern Pacific, Pepsi-Cola (at a 10-cent low), Staley, Carron, Eastman Chemical, Owens-Illinois, Eastern Air Lines and American Tobacco.

A certain amount of bidding still was based on the hope for an extension of the recent technical survival. Most brokerage clients continued on the cautious side because of doubts regarding business, foreign commodities, Texas, foreign situations, wage demands and European relief.

Bonds were narrow.

Knox Kinard Speaks To Horace Mann P-TA

Horace Mann Parent-Teacher Association met in school auditorium Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. The program opened with group singing led by Mrs. Gertrude Watkins. The school band, directed by Mr. Charles Meech, played several numbers.

Mr. Knox Kinard, introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Henry Jordan, addressed the group on "Your Government Is You." A contrast was drawn between fast moving governments under dictatorship and slow moving governments in a democracy. Emphasis was placed on the fact that each individual has a duty to perform as "The Government Is You."

Mrs. H. M. Stokes, who recently completed class instructions in a Procedure Course, was presented a corsage by the association. National Founder's Day was discussed by Mrs. Stokes.

Medical Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The Medical Auxiliary held its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. K. W. Pieratt following a dinner at the Schnieder Hotel Tuesday evening, Feb. 17.

A nominating committee for officers for the coming year was appointed by Mrs. W. C. Jones, president. This committee is composed of Mrs. C. E. High, chairman, Mrs. O. Huff and Mrs. R. D. Falkenstein.

Present besides those mentioned were Mesdames William C. Barkdale of Berger, F. W. Kelley, W. Purviance, M. C. Overton, Jr., P. A. Gates and H. L. Wilder. The next meeting will be held at the regular time, March 16, in the home of Mrs. Wilder with Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Chas. H. Ashby co-hostesses.

Places were won by Miss Jamie Eaton's fourth and Miss Myra Millard's first grades.

A business session was conducted in which a life membership was presented to the president, Mrs. E. N. Franklin. $200.00 was voted to be used for visual education in the school.

At the close of the meeting refreshments of coffee and cake were served in the cafeteria by parents and teachers of the first grades.

Fell HD Club Has Demonstration on Cake Decorating

Mrs. L. C. O'Neal was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Bell Home Demonstration Club. The recreation which included several games and a Lincoln contest resulted in Mrs. David Collis winning high place.

The business was conducted by Mrs. Charles Warminski. Reports were heard from committee chairman regarding plans for the year. These reports were Mrs. David Collis, exhibit chairman, Mrs. Ernest McKnight, food demonstrator, Mrs. Emmett Osborne, recreation chairman, and Mrs. C. D. Arrington, club reporter.

The program was a demonstration of party cake decorating given by Mrs. Warminski. The demonstrator used as a basis for the cake a recipe similar to the well-known seven-minute variety except that she used 1 cup of sugar instead of the 1-1/2 cups generally combined with 2 egg whites.

The cake itself was iced and the remaining icing stiffened with confectioner's sugar, then colored the desired shade. Mrs. Warminski pointed out that pastel colors are generally more desirable than the strong shades. Pastry tubes were constructed from medium heavy paper, one tube for each color of icing. The icing was then squeezed onto the cake to form flowers, leaf, and ribbon designs.

Each of the members was instructed to make a pastry tube and to decorate a cup cake, provided by the hostess. These cakes served with coffee provided the refreshments for the group.

Besides one guest, Mrs. C. E. Melton, those present were the ladies already mentioned and Mesdames Joe M. Keel, Roland Dauer, T. H. Kelly, Carl Smith, Fred Haiduk.

Announcement was made that the monthly club party will be held Saturday night, Feb. 28, at the Bell School and the next regular meeting will be in the home of Mrs. David Collis, 1209 N. Russell on March 2 at 2 p. m.

El Progresso Club Has Program on Subject of "Women"

The El Progresso Study Club met recently in the home of Mrs. Grundy Morrison with thirteen members and one guest, Mrs. Charles Kaufmann, present.

During the business meeting at which Mrs. Knox Kinard presided, plans were made concerning the participation of the club in the activities of the District Convention of Federated Clubs to be held in Pampa in April.

Mrs. G. L. Dauner was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. S. J. Meador, Jr. speaking on the subject "Let's Not Laugh at Ourselves" began with this statement, "Although we as women are usually regarded as the weaker sex, our accomplishments are many." As we step into the long ago, we learn that four races laid our foundation. The Hebrew gave us our religion, the Greek our standard of thought, the Roman our law and order and the barbarian of Europe our prejudices and traditions.

Bringing us down through the centuries mentioning many women, Mrs. Meador called our attention to the American woman of today as we note her progress. Such women as Helen Keller, Eleanor Roosevelt, Claire Booth Luce, Evangeline Booth, Amelia Earhart, Judge Florence Allen, Sister Kenny, Mrs. Odgen Reid and many others have given their lives toward numerous causes all making our world a better world in which to live. She concluded by saying that in July of 1946 records show there were 1,171,948 more women voters than men, two-thirds of all the private wealth is owned and controlled by women and six-sevenths of all retail buying is done by women.

Mrs. D. V. Burton choosing for her subject, "But We Are Funny Too," began with a definition of "funny." Webster defines funny not only as comical, provoking laughter, but also as curious, queer. We are curious to find out just how far women can go with their freedom. Perhaps we are funny in that we are never quite satisfied. We want to be able to act by choice rather than by necessity. In an article

Margaret Meade who is both a woman and mother, there appears this statement, "More than a quarter of the women in the U.S. are disturbed about their lot as women." It can be argued that a quarter of American women are not after all a majority, but when the discontented fourth of the nation occupy the position toward which all women are moving, the issue becomes serious.

It is not only women who are becoming increasingly conscious that something is wrong with women's place in the modern world. Men are, too. In a survey made by Fortune Magazine last year men and women ran almost neck and neck on such subjects as whether or not married women should work. One of women's greatest desires this survey shows is to getmen to share in the human side of home life. When men take a greater part in these activities we call living as well as making a living, we shall approach again the balancing of the sexes that we had in early America when both worked together at the same tasks.

During the social hour Mrs. H. L. Ledrick was honored with a delightful pink and blue shower, Mrs. S. J. Meador, Jr. as hostess.

Hazel Hawk Weds Raymond Darrow

SHAMROCK —(Special)— Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Hazel Hawk and Raymond Darrow.

The wedding took place at the First Baptist Church Saturday evening, Feb. 7, at 7 o'clock with the Rev. E. C. Derr, pastor, officiating.

The bride was attired in a tailored suit of shell pink gaberdine with a navy stripe, and her accessories were of navy.

Mrs. Darrow is the daughter of Mrs. R. C. Hawk and the late R. C. Hawk of Shamrock. Mrs. Hawk attended her daughter's wedding.

Both bride and bridegroom have been reared in this community. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Darrow of this city. Darrow is a carpenter and building contractor and the couple will make their home at 811 North Houston Street.

After which the hostess served a delicious refreshment plate. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 24th in the City Club Rooms with Mrs. S. J. Meador, Jr. as hostess.

Mrs. A. D. Baker Is Club Hostess

LEFORS — The Lefors Home Demonstration Club met Monday, Feb. 16, in the home of Mrs. A. D. Baker. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. B. Alice president. Roll call answered with each member giving a suggestion for a decoration.

A demonstration on party cake decorating was given by Mrs. Bill Watson.

It was announced that the next meeting would be at the home of Mrs. Ben Diehl, March 1.

WSCS Circles Hold Meetings for Study

Mrs. A. F. Johnston, 1020 Christine, was hostess to Circle 1 of WSCS of the First Methodist Church at its meeting this week. Mrs. Johnston, chairman of the circle, presided at the business session. Mrs. T. B. Barron, spiritual life leader, taught the study on the subject of "Great Prayers of the Bible." She was assisted by Mesdames L. E. Cool, W. C. Hutchinson, and J. E. Ward.

Sixteen ladies were present, including one guest, Mrs. A. W. Babione.

Circle 3 met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Tom Cook. Mrs. Luther Pierson was in charge of the business and Mrs. John Hodges gave the devotional on the subject of "The Service We Render to Others." The lesson was presented by Mrs. Quentin Williams. Fourteen members were present.

Circle 5 met with Mrs. Charles Lynch with 17 members and one guest, Mrs. Tom W. Hammonds, present. The business was conducted by Mrs. K. T. Gibson. The song, "Near to the Heart of God," sung by the group preceded the presentation of the lesson by Mrs. L. Caldwell.

The socialists see in Mr. Meyers (the finance minister) a long step away from the planned economy cherished by the socialists and toward the free enterprise economy they have always condemned.

Under former Foreign Minister Litvinov, the western nations' best friend at the Kremlin, Russia made several offers for an Anglo-French-Russian alliance against the aggressive and rearming Reich.

Common Ground

There is no more possibility of having everybody educated. There is a possibility of having every person wealthy. Getting people to realize the great harm that tax-supported education does to the youth of the land would not make it possible for all people to be educated, but it would remove one of the obstacles which prevent many people from becoming educated.

Youth Acquitted in Murder Trial

Public education is bound to fail because it is backed by lack of faith in man. The educators do not have faith that other men have the ability to do their duty to their fellow men. They have such little faith that they are willing to use coercion to make the other men comply in other words they are willing to initiate force that is bound to lead to war.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN BELIEVERS

(Scripture: Acts 2:37-47; Ephesians 4:1-6)

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

This lesson follows that on "The Power of the Holy Spirit."

The initial practice of holding all things in common was not destined to last. It had in it, from the beginning, the weakness of any practice or system in which some form of compulsion, even if it be of group conceptions or psychology, dominates individual initiative and voluntary action.

There were some, too, who took advantage of the Christian principle...

But, though there were hypocrites and slackers in the early church, as there have been all through the church's history, deep sincerity marked the Christian communities. One can see in many passages in the New Testament the evidences of the way in which Christians ministered to, and helped one another, even if they did not continue the earlier practice of having all things in common.

This helpfulness, arising out of Christian fellowship, was not only from individuals to individuals, the prevalent hospitality of which one gets such clear indications in the Book of Acts, but there was a bond of fellowship and helpfulness between churches. The church at Jerusalem sent Paul and Barnabas with greetings to the Christians at Antioch and those in better-off Christian churches sent gifts to the poorer saints at Jerusalem.

When one considers how much this was in contrast with the earlier attitude, one can see how effective was the work of the Spirit. It was John, against whom the disciples were indignant when his mother had asked for him the chief place, who now became the apostle of brotherly love.

Fellowship is of the very essence of Christianity. It must be maintained, or attained and restored where it has been lost, if the Church is to have power. It is a problem in large churches, where members often do not even know one another. But, on the other hand, there is a growing sense of communion among local churches, increased emphasis in national fellowship, and a vision now becoming realized of world-wide Christian fellowship. That is the world's greatest hope.
