Miss Epperson, Rev. Timmons Wed At Church

Miss Nannie Lee Epperson became the bride of the Rev. Avery Timmons, Friday at 8 p. m. at Cavalry Baptist church, after which a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Epperson, eight miles east of Pampa. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Timmons of Levelland.

Miss Willadene Ellis sang, "I Love You Truly" (Bonds) and Mrs. Dave Ayres of Pampa played "The Flower Song" and the Mendelssohn march. The church altar was banked with greenery and potted palms, with baskets of pink and white gladioli, at each side of the altar. Rev. O. E. McClaw, brother-in-law of the groom, read the impressive single ring ceremony.

Donal Timmons, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were W. C. Epperson, brother of the bride, and Joe Brandenburg of Cincinnati, Ohio, cousin of the bride.

Miss Grace Ruth Pennington, Pampa, college room-mate of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a brown crepe suit with three quarter length sleeves. Her corsage was red roses.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, wore a suit of soldier blue crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

At the reception the table was laid with a lace cloth over pink satin. A bowl of cut roses formed the centerpiece. The three tiered wedding cake, decorated with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride. Mrs. T. W. Brandenburg, aunt of the bride from Cincinnati, Ohio, presided at the punch bowl. She was assisted in serving by Miss Edna Brown.

After a trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico, El Paso and Old Mexico, the bridal couple will return here for a few days, after which they will be at home in Waco where they will continue their education in Baylor University. The bride traveled in a black crepe dress trimmed with rhinestone buttons.

She is a graduate of Wayland college where she taught Academy English this summer. In Wayland she was a member of the Volunteer Mission band, president of the College choir, on the editorial staff of the college paper, assistant editor of the College Annual, Secretary of Gamma Delta Sorority, vice-president of B. S. U., and president of the Student Government council in the girls' dormitory.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Wayland college where he was a member of the college male quartet, member of the Volunteer Mission band, the college choir and college orchestra. Last year he was a student of Baylor University. In Baylor he sang in the capella choir and was a member of the Ministerial Alliance.

Legion Auxiliary Accepts First Red Cross Comfort Kits

Mrs. Raymond Harrah, chairman of Comfort Kits in the local Red Cross chapter, states that the American Legion auxiliary has the honor of being the first organization to accept comfort kits to be filled for the armed forces.

In response to a call from the War Department, the local Red Cross has agreed to see that 50 kits per month are filled with comfort articles and sent to the port of embarkation for these boys who are leaving for foreign service. Mrs. Harrah states that the Garden club has pledged to fill the largest number of kits so far per month for eight months.

Material for the kits is being supplied from Washington and will be made in the production room by volunteers. It is estimated that articles going into a kit will cost $1.00. Any one person, organization or club wishing to fill a definite number of kits each month is asked to come by the Red Cross office in the city hall and leave your donation or call Mrs. Raymond Harrah at telephone number 479 regarding the number of kits to be filled.

Here is an opportunity for personal service to the boys in the armed forces. If you have a son, husband, or friend going overseas, this is your chance to make his leave-taking just a little more pleasant.

SERIAL STORY OF BRIGHTNESS GONE BY HOLLY WATTERSON

THE STORY: There is a stormy scene in the Bruce Frazier household when Candace Beck, who has fallen in love with Martin...

PETER IS PERTURBED

CHAPTER VII DRIVING up to the hospital Peter gave himself a bad time. To drive was second nature to him...

Now that he was away from him and did not have to see him with Candace, the sudden dislike he had taken to Martin seemed inexplicable...

Well, why not? He was good-looking, he could be smooth as oil when he chose and girls, Peter imagined, liked 'em smooth. He could, on the other hand, be moody and mean as sin...

But then Candace, Peter thought, was as different from most of the shallow girls one met as—his practical mind, not given usually to such thoughts, bogged down in its search for a suitable comparison...

An uneasy suspicion about his own feelings entered his mind. To test it, he tried substituting other men he knew for Martin. What if Trellaney, for instance, whom he had always liked and admired...

The honest answer was that he wouldn't like it at all, the thought of Trellaney in the role was just as odious to him. He knew, then, he was himself in love with Candace...

And Martin? He couldn't be too sure of how Martin would react, of course. But certainly his assignment ought to keep him plenty busy; even if it didn't, Peter didn't see where Martin would suddenly get money to go flying around...

He began to feel better. After all, he'd be away only a couple of months, nothing much could happen in so short a time. He had to go on to the hospital; Candace would be the first to despise him for a fool if he didn't...

He didn't know quite what it was that he had expected, but it was scarcely what he walked into. He had arrived soon after seven in the evening, faintly apologetic for being there before he was actually due...

The flurry of explanations took a long time and meanwhile Peter had to stand awkwardly by. The chap who had him in tow, a fellow named Morrison, seemed to regard it all as rather a familiar joke...

The Chief stared, as though Peter were a specimen of a rare bug. His easy geniality faded. "I'm starting on rounds," he said severely. "I want all of you with me—You too," he barked at Peter.

Few Upsets In Primaries In 5 States

(By The Associated Press) Returns from primaries in five states disclosed today relatively few upsets with most incumbents winning party renomination...

Yesterday's balloting which virtually completed the nation's pre-election voting also gave Circuit Judge Homer Ferguson of Detroit a sizeable lead for the Republican senatorial nomination over Gerald L. K. Smith...

The Massachusetts Democratic primaries brought almost certain victory to U. S. Rep. Joseph E. Casey and Mayor Roger L. Putnam of Springfield for the senatorial and gubernatorial nominations...

Former Governor James M. Curley, one of the Bay state's most colorful political figures, staged a comeback after a year of political setbacks to capture the Democratic congressional nomination in the 11th district...

On the Republican side, Governor Leverett Saltonstall was unopposed for renomination. The party's only state-wide contest resulted in a landslide for Lodge over Courtenay Crocker, Boston...

The unofficial returns gave Ferguson a lead of nearly two to one over Smith in Michigan's senatorial contest with a third candidate, Elton R. Eaton, Plymouth weekly newspaper publisher, far in the rear. In the Nov. 3 election, the winner will face U. S. Senator Prentiss M. Brown who was renominated on the Democratic ticket without opposition...

Representatives Paul W. Shafer, Clare E. Hoffman and Bartel Jankner, Republicans, who were termed pre-war isolationists by their opponents, took early leads for renomination. Democratic Governor Murray D. Van Wagener and Harry P. Kelly, Republican, were unopposed for their parties' gubernatorial nominations...

Wisconsin's comparatively light voting appeared to have been sufficient to give Hell the Republican nomination to a third term over his two opponents, State Senator Milton T. Murray and Dr. James K. Robinson, Milwaukee...

Republican Governor Robert O. Blood also appeared to have won renomination with a better than two to one lead over William M. Cole, former state senate president. The New Jersey primary brought a nip and tuck race between Albert W. Hawkes, former president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and Gill Robb Wilson, state aviation director, for the Republican nomination to the U. S. senate...

One of the incumbents who failed to obtain renomination was U. S. Senator Wall Doxey who lost out in Mississippi's run-off Democratic primary to a newcomer in politics, James O. Eastland, 37-year-old attorney and cotton planter.

BUY VICTORY BONDS It May Be Old But It Can Still Run EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo. Sept. 17 (AP)—Uncle John Watkins' 1915 model Dodge car may see a lot of action yet...

Uncle John bought the car in 1928, put new tires and a top on it, had it driven to his farm north of here, jacked it up in the barn and there it stayed.
