ITALY AND ETHIOPIA DECIDE TO ARBITRATE

Control Of Press By Court To Be Tested in Appeal From Adverse Ruling BIG TAX BILL, DISLIKED BY ROOSEVELT, IS CERTAIN OF PASSAGE NOW

VOTE MONDAY CONCEDED BY FOES OF PLAN

SOME PROVISIONS ARE FROM "TAX-RICH" PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The $70,000,000 tax bill was pushed to the point of passage by the house today despite warnings that President Roosevelt does not like its present form.

A formal roll call vote was delayed until Monday. But even the republicans, who had filibustered it at the start and later gave up attempts to amend it, agreed that ballot would pile up a huge majority for the bill. Treadway (R-Mass) had a motion pending to return the bill to committee but that, too, was slated for defeat.

In brief, the measure would boost the taxes on individual incomes over $50,000; replace the present flat corporation income tax with a graduated levy; subject inheritances and gifts to new levies on top of those already imposed on estates and gifts; enact new taxes of 5 to 20 per cent on excess corporation profits.

The president had proposed new taxes to bring a "wider distribution of wealth." In many respects, the bill followed his broad recommendations but in these instances it differed:

1. He proposed the present flat 13 1/2 per cent tax on corporation income be replaced with a levy graduated, according to the size of the net income, from 10% to 16 1/2 per cent. The house bill included a graduation of only 1 per cent—from 13 1/2 to 14 1/2 per cent with $15,000 the dividing line.
2. Mr. Roosevelt had objected to letting corporations deduct from their taxable income gifts to charities. The bill allowed such deductions up to 5 per cent of the income. Some tax experts estimate it would reduce by $20,000,000 the total revenue raised by the bill.
3. The president had suggested new taxes on dividends paid by one corporation to another. The bill included no such levy.
4. No suggestion as to a tax on excess profits had been advanced by the president. The bill included them.

"Monarchy" Is Established By Huey Long

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 3. (AP)—Rounding out United States Senator Huey P. Long's dictatorship the sixth extraordinary session of the Louisiana legislature in the past 12 months gave him the following powers:

1. Absolute control of expenditure of state funds, through the state board of liquidation.
2. Absolute control of local patronage, by placing all non-civil service and municipal officers under the state civil service commission and virtually ending local self-government.
3. Absolute control of the state's 12,000 school teachers, by giving the state budget commission the right to hire and fire teachers.
4. Collection of municipal tax, control of police, and administrative machinery of city governments in Louisiana are thus placed in Long's hands.

NEWSPAPER MEN Called "Enemies"

BERLIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—Foreign correspondents were placed in the same category with "state enemies" by Wilhelm Frick, minister of the interior, in a speech at Essen tonight.

The speech was a warning delivered against everyone deemed anti-Nazi.

GIRL IS KILLED

WACO, Aug. 3. (AP)—Evelyn Long, 14, was killed and six companions were injured, three seriously, when a light truck in which they were riding sideswiped an automobile on the Dallas highway a mile north of here tonight. All the injured were residents of Elm Mott.

Miss LaVera Hunter is spending the week-end with relatives at Clinton, Okla.

Leaky Oil Line Ends Flight Of Soviet's Airmen

MOSCOW, Aug. 3. (AP)—Oil trouble over the icy Barents sea thwarted tonight the ambitious attempt of three Russians to fly non-stop from Moscow to San Francisco, across the north pole.

Disappointed, the fliers turned about when over the southern part of the season and returned to Leningrad tonight, arriving at 10:30 p. m. Moscow time (2:30 p. m. E. S. T.).

A defective oil line spoiled their dream of setting a new world's non-stop record in a 6,000-mile hop to the Golden Gate from Moscow.

A radio message, after eight hours of silence, said a line from the distributing tank began throwing off excessive quantities of oil and the crew was unable to discover the cause.

They had made the first part of their flight—an 875 mile stretch from Moscow to the Barents sea—at an average speed of 108 miles an hour, considerably better than had been expected.

Taking off from Moscow at 6:03 this morning, 10:03 p. m. Friday, Central Standard Time, the plane had reported its progress regularly until 2:25 this afternoon, when it embarked upon the flight over the sea, the most hazardous part of the journey.

Before turning back on their trail the fliers asked permission of Soviet officials here, which was immediately granted.

A commission was appointed to go to Leningrad and inspect the plane when it landed in an effort to determine the cause of the trouble.

Piloting the plane, the Soviet-built "U. R. S. S. 25" was Sigmund Levanevsky, Russian aerial hero. He was accompanied in the one-engine craft by co-pilot George Baidukoff and Navigator Victor Lynchenko.

Council of Clubs Is Pleased With Activities

Pleased with the summer recreation program as it has developed, the Council of Clubs has decided to continue it for another month and to be responsible for the financing of the remaining program.

It has been decided by Ben Guill, director, and his advisers to centralize activities on the high school campus. The gymnasium will be opened at 8 a. m., to remain open as long as there is a demand for it. Art classes will continue. The tennis courts will be kept in good condition. Horse shoe pitching, now "taking the country," will be offered in the shade of the buildings. The archery class will continue.

Volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, and physical education will be available to everyone interested, including the business folk are invited to join in the recreation. Some kind of entertainment will be offered each evening.

The Pampa summer recreation program is attracting wide attention.

Airliner Wrecked In Forced Landing

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 3. (AP)—A crack transcontinental airliner was wrecked tonight in an emergency landing in a scrub tree forest 20 miles east of here, but the nine passengers escaped unhurt and the pilots received only cuts and bruises.

Shortly after the eastbound "Sky Chief" of Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc., left Albuquerque, the gas line apparently became water-clogged and Pilot Clifford V. Abbott quickly brought it to earth.

Started from drowsiness, the passengers climbed from the wreckage to a taxi summoned by radio and resumed their trip in another plane.

Misses Imogene Morris and Alice Drake of Gage, Okla., were guests of Miss Mary Margaret Dale, 505 N. Frost, the past few days. They returned home yesterday.

Status Of Relief Is Changing Much

Pampa to be Center of Activity in Northwest Panhandle for WPA Projects

With abolishment of county administration of relief rapidly becoming a fact, political subdivisions of the Panhandle and Texas generally are rushing plans and applications for WPA projects.

Under the new set-up, Pampa will become district headquarters for the northeastern Panhandle with S. H. Halle of Austin as director. There are 38 districts in Texas, which replace the county boards and administrative offices. County relief boards are expected to continue to serve in an advisory capacity. Allocations will be made to counties but spent through the district offices.

Offices Reorganized.

In each district office will be a state meeting of relief officials, Mr. Halle, member of the Austin staff of the Relief commission, has been named district administrator, to be stationed at Pampa. Mrs. Davis will become district case work director. Status of other local employees is not yet known.

JUDGE HOLDS TO OPINION ON MURDER TRIAL

HAS KINDEST FEELING TOWARD REPORTERS, HE SAYS

ANGLETON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Six Houston newspaper men, three editors, and three reporters, fined by a district court judge today for violating his injunction not to print testimony in a murder trial, immediately appealed to a higher state court, with prospects that the case may finally reach the United States supreme court.

The fines $100 against the editors and $25 against the reporters were assessed by Judge M. S. Munson against George Cottingham editor of The Chronicle; Max Jacobs, managing editor of The Post; Ed Pooley, managing editor of The Press; Ed Rider, Chronicle reporter; Frank White, Post reporter, and Harry McCormick, Press reporter.

Release Is Ordered.

They were ordered held in custody of the sheriff of Brazoria county until the fines were paid but attorneys for the men immediately obtained their freedom by filing a writ of habeas corpus with the court of criminal appeals at Austin, upon which Chief Justice W. C. Morrow ordered their release.

The fines resulted in the refusal of the three Houston dailies to refrain from publishing testimony in the trial of Clyde Thompson, charged with slaying Everett Melvin on the Retrieve state prison farm on May 29.

The judge held that publication of the testimony would handicap the state in selecting juries for the subsequent trials of Raymond Hall and Ed Ebers, also charged with the Melvin killing.

In making his decision, Judge Munson described it as a "very interesting and important hearing."

"At the inception of proceedings incident to this case," he said, "the court had no thought or idea that it was of such importance or would attract the interest of the press, not only of the state but of the nation."

"I was impressed by the remarks made by one of the reporters when we first discussed the case in my office."

ACCUSED MAN IS LYNCHED BY ANGERED MOB

Widow of Officer Says Justice Done Although Mob Act Was Illegal.

DUNSMUIR, Calif., Aug. 3. (AP)—The widow of Police Chief F. R. Daw of Dunsmuir, for whose slaying Clyde Johnson was lynched in Yreka, said today she did not approve in the mob action but that she believed "justice was done."

YREKA, Calif., Aug. 3. (AP)—The brief reign of lynch law here early today—when a mob hung the accused slayer of Dunsmuir's police chief, F. R. Daw—brought quick promises of action by authorities tonight against the lynchers.

District Attorney James Davis and sheriff's deputies planned immediate steps to identify and prosecute the mob members, who seized Clyde L. Johnson, 24, from his jail cell and hanged him to a pine tree three miles outside this Siskiyou mountain town.

"I will start an immediate investigation," Davis said, "and do everything the law requires to apprehend members of the mob."

Undersheriff W. J. Nelson, who said none of the masked lynchers had been identified, declared his office would attempt this task and furnish all evidence possible to the grand jury.

Rowen Kessell, state criminal identification expert, announced in Sacramento that the bullet which killed Chief Daw came from a gun found in Johnson's possession after he was arrested last Monday, following Daw's death and the wounding of a traffic officer.

Business Tone Is Much Better

By The Associated Press

An almost universally optimistic tone prevailed American business last week with current indications of the upswing anchored on a firm foundation.

Retail trade, in the aggregate, moved swiftly forward. Merchants noted a good response from consumers to special sales of summer supplies, and into the larger wholesale markets came signs of a lively interest in fall lines.

Private reports show the retail volume has reflected back to the wholesalers who in turn have extended their demands for merchandise to the manufacturers of consumers' goods.

The department of commerce in its survey covering 33 cities for the week ended Wednesday declared: "steadily increased buying also was manifest in building materials, furniture, household equipment and electric supplies as a corollary of the consistent gains in construction."

Bank clearings for that period were up 5.9 per cent over the same week of 1934, but the previous week gained 24.2 per cent over the like week of last year.

Automobile production, due to the shut-down of the Ford plant, dropped abruptly to 69,415 units, as estimated by Cram's compared with an output of 82,894 in the previous week.

Bride in "Mutilation" Case Talks

Mystery surrounding the barbaric mutilation operation that cost the life of Dr. W. J. Bauer, Cleveland osteopath, deepened when his bride of 3 weeks, Mrs. Louise Zenge, gave testimony at the Chicago inquest contradicting earlier charges of threats made by Manville Zenge, right, a disappointed suitor. Zenge, arrested, has denied any part in the crime, although witnesses identified him as the man seen fleeing from the site of the offense.

Rainfall Is .62 Of Inch Here

Rather general rains of varying precipitation fell Friday afternoon and evening on the plains.

The total in Pampa was .62 of an inch. Rainfall was heavier north and west of the city and somewhat lighter on the east. The downpour was heavier from Wheeler to Childress and Wichita Falls, according to bus drivers.

Row crops brightened very perceptibly after receiving the much-needed moisture.

FIRST BREAK IN SITUATION STIRS HOPES

BUT ITALY STILL HAS IDEA FORCE IS NECESSARY

(By The Associated Press.)

Italy and Ethiopia agreed through the League of Nations Saturday to resume attempts recently broken down, to arbitrate their border quarrel.

The council of the league adopted another resolution calling a meeting September 4 for a full consideration of all aspects of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 3. (AP)—Ethiopia accepted today the League of Nations formula to settle her quarrel with Italy.

After hours of study, Emperor Haile Selassie late this afternoon made this brief announcement: "I have instructed my delegate to Geneva to accept the league's formula as elaborated by Mr. Eden and Premier Laval."

Earlier, Selassie had expressed willingness to sit down at a conference table with Benito Mussolini in an effort to settle their difference.

A foreign office official said the ruler was waiting advancement of such a proposal by Rome or Geneva, but that thus far no such move had been made. His only stipulation, it was explained, is that the talks be held on neutral territory, possibly in France.

Expressions of good will toward Ethiopia came from a number of quarters as the government considered a decision on the formula adopted at Geneva to settle the dispute.

Italy Skeptical

ROME, Aug. 3.—Italy can vision no assurances for the lie of her colonies "without force," a government spokesman said tonight.

He asserted the hopes of the Italians that their country's needs in Africa may be met by treaties are exhausted, and insisted Italy placed no great importance "on the work of the council of the League of Nations," although the solution to the Italo-Ethiopian dispute tentatively reached at Geneva "might be regarded as a diplomatic victory for Italy."

The reservation made at Geneva by Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian delegate, concerning the competence of the league to discuss fundamental matters of the affair between Italy and Ethiopia, was made because "Italy has discharged every obligation to the league whereas Ethiopia has not done so," the spokesman said.

Despite the fact Italy, France, and England have reached an agreement at Geneva providing for the resumption of the Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission and a review of the question by the council September 4, Italy still feels the problem must be settled by Italy "in the most practical way," the official said.

I Heard . . .

From Chief of Police Art Hurst who is vacationing with Mrs. Hurst and daughters in sunny California. The chief declared that he would be glad to get back to Pampa and cool nights. The thermometer failed to go below 100 degrees on the night before he wrote.

From Rev. John Mullen and he writes that all the big ones are not getting away. Rev. Mullen and family are visiting and fishing in the Lampasas country.

PRICE OUTLOOK GOOD BUT NEW LEGISLATION BEING ATTACKED

FACTOR SLASH NECESSARY IN PLAINS FIELD

POTENTIAL INCREASE IS SECOND ELEMENT IN CUT

BY GEORGE L. GUTHRIE, Consulting Geologist, Combs-Worley Bldg.

Swift changes have marked the trend in the Panhandle oil field in the last fortnight. An order from the Railroad commission cut the daily allowable 5,000 barrels to 52,500. This move is expected to bolster the price schedule.

Stripping plants ceased operations August 1 insofar as sweet gas was concerned. Sour and production gas continue to flow to most stripping plants.

The allowable cut and an increase in the daily potential necessitated a slash in the production factor of from 7.74 to 3.49 per cent. Although the allowable cut was unpopular in some circles, to other producers it seemed more reasonable to keep oil in the natural reservoir and maintain the present price than to face a collapse of the price structure.

Both new legislation and Railroad commission orders are under attack. One injunction affecting gas production in Wheeler county had been granted up to yesterday. A series of state hearings will clarify a number of points and result in additional orders. On August 19 at Austin will be heard testimony on oil and gas waste. Nominations of purchasers will be received, including both gas and oil.

EXCEPTIONS TO RULE 37 TO BE DENIED BY COMMISSION

AUSTIN, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Railroad commission announced today it would enter no more orders on applications for exceptions to rule 37 of its regulations, involving the spacing of oil wells, until the supreme court had acted finally on a case in which the validity of the rule was upheld recently.

Although the court upheld the rule and the right of the commission to grant exceptions, in the case of C. H. Brown and others against the Humble Oil & Refining company, motion for rehearing has been filed, and the commission felt it should withhold orders until the motion was acted on and the case disposed of.

About 300 to 400 cases were involved.

the face of statements by a leading authority that not more than 30 per cent of the North Dakota bread wheat crop will grade No. 4 or better.

Corn and oats displayed independent weakness owing a good deal to auspicious weather for both crops. All deliveries of oats touched new low price records for the season.

Provisions reflected scantiness of stocks on hand, and they were lightest in three years.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 3 (AP)—U. S. D. A.—Cattle trade at midwestern markets was featured by a general price advance of 25 to 50 cents on most all killing classes. The market, however, slowed up on the close, and at some centers part of the early advance was lost. Chicago had a top of $12 and scored $11.75 on choice light steers, although light steers and yearlings sold at a discount from strong weight steers. Common to medium western grades, steers at the river market bulked at $5.00 to $7.75, a few loads up to $8.10. Good best Texas steers sold up to $9.85. Total receipts at 11 markets were 9,099 short of last week and 46,000 under a year ago. Increased supplies failed to slow up the trade on fat lambs. Yearlings and sheep also sold on a steady to strong basis. Total arrivals for the week were around 243,000 against 216,998 last week, and 189,931 a year ago. Hogs advanced 30 to 55 cents to new high price levels for the season. Chicago had a late drop of $11.20. The week's receipts approximated 162,000 as compared with 169,318 last week and 311,690 a year ago.

WHEAT IS LOWER

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Notwithstanding extremely pessimistic crop reports from spring wheat areas both north and south of the Canadian border, wheat prices today closed lower.

An outburst of week-end profit-taking sales proved more than sufficient at the last to counterbalance the effect of indications that millions of acres of domestic spring wheat will not be worth expense of threshing.

Wheat closed nervous, 1/4 to 1 cent under yesterday's finish, Sept. 89 1/2-%, corn 1/4-1% down, Sept. 77 1/2-%, oats 1-1%, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 15 cents.

Setbacks of prices during the final half hour of trading today were in

TINY PLANE DAMAGED

LORDSBURG, N. M., Aug. 3. (AP)—Avidians new baby, a tiny "boot-tailed" airplane, was a cripple here tonight as the result of a minor mishap, but Pilot John G. Geisse eagerly announced that he will have the lusty faillies youngster ready to continue its first transcontinental flight within two days. The small sturdy-winged craft was damaged only at one of the landing gear wheel braces when it passed over a ditch at the edge of the landing field in a takeoff early today.

There's lots of room in the FORD V-8

EVERY ONE who steps into the Ford V-8 for the first time is surprised at its roominess. There's exceptional seat room, leg room and head room in all body types—the whole car gives you a feeling of substantial size.

The Ford gives you extra body room because of the compact design of the V-8 engine—an exclusive Ford feature at a low price. This V-8 engine takes up less space in the hood and permits more of the car's length to be used for passenger comfort.

Many a car selling at a higher price does not give you as much interior room as the Ford V-8. Rear seats are wide and restful . . . three people can ride comfortably in the front seat of the Fordor Sedan, Fordor Touring Sedan, Convertible Sedan and Phaeton, and in the Coupes and Roadster. The seat of the Ford V-8 Roadster is 52 inches wide.

A ride in the Ford V-8 will show that it combines unusual body room with fine-car performance, safety, beauty and riding comfort.

PANHANDLE COMMUNITIES OFFER WPA PROJECTS OF VARIOUS

COUNTY BASIS SOON TO END IN THIS STATE

DIRECT RELIEF WILL BE UP TO COUNTIES ON JAN 1

Relief department workers will certify each employable case on the rolls to national re-employment service headquarters. Copies of each certification will be made from the district office, as all positions will be filled through NRS bureaus.

When a project is approved, the WPA labor office will send a requisition for the required number of workers to the re-employment service bureau. Assignment slips will then be sent from the NRS office to foremen of the project in filling the jobs.

Labor Restrictions. Restrictions have been placed on labor as follows: No more than one member of a family can simultaneously be employed without authorization from the WPA office; no one currently serving sentence in a penal or corrective institution can be employed; workers must be 16 years of age at least and able to do a full day's work.

Persons seeking work who have not been receiving relief should register at once with the nearest WPA office provided they are not already registered as only those listed with that organization will be employed on WPA projects.

Ninety per cent of all labor must come from relief rolls. A ten per cent leeway for non-relief labor is thus provided.

Millions Available. A total of $50,000,000 is available to WPA projects in Texas from a federal appropriation of $4,800,000,000. Of the total amount, Texas has been allowed $600 a man year. This does not mean that each worker will be paid $600, but that such amount has been allotted per man for wages and WPA expense.

Maximum working hours for any one week are 40, while maximum hours a month are 130.

Provided 10 men are needed for a $6,000 project, the WPA will agree to that amount. However, if only eight men are needed, the WPA will supply only $4,800 for the $6,000 project and the sponsor must supply the remaining $1,200.

On the above scale, the WPA will have charge of projects up to $25,000, provided there are no loans involved. Above that amount, and any projects which require a loan will be handled by Public Works administration. When total cost is for above amounts of $25,000, the WPA makes an exception to the amount and can handle the project.

Paid Twice Monthly. Pay checks will be distributed twice each month. Workers will be paid if they report for work and weather interferes. Failure to show up for any one day's work will reduce the pay check, and at present no additional time will be allowed to make up work lost in this way.

Skeleton staffs must be maintained in the counties so that clients will not have to go to the district office to be provisioned. However, receipt of the first WPA check ends the relief status of a client and also ends work and home inspections. Until district offices are functioning, county employees will be retained. Relief projects, however, have been discontinued. Plains news items show much WPA activity:

SHAMROCK, Aug. 3.—County Judge W. O. Puett has appointed a WPA planning board to approve or disapprove projects submitted by sponsors in Wheeler county. The board includes J. B. Clark, A. B. Crump, O. W. Elliott, and T. M. Britt. Several projects will be ready within a few days.

To Teaching Singing. A large attendance at the Stamps singing school to be held here three weeks starting August 12 is indicated by inquiries being received.

CANADIAN, Aug. 3.—A large delegation from Waynoka, Okla., is coming here August 8 for an outing and a soft ball game in the evening. The picnic will beat Young's park on highway 4.

The local American Legion post has petitioned the Hemphill county commissioners court for a lake and fishing resort as a WPA project.

The eleven annual Canadian Baptist encampment will open Monday evening at the Miami city park and will be attended by many local residents. Rev. W. A. Pite of Canadian is chairman of the program committee.

Firemen Commended. M'LEAN, Aug. 3.—Local firemen have been praised by the state fire insurance adjuster who came here to adjust a store loss. He said that the department had shown its ability through doing very little damage to the stock in the Erwin Drug company blaze while extinguishing it. The store is being re-decorated and improved.

An election to combine the McLean and Beck school districts was defeated at Beck by a vote of 10 to 30 recently. Mr. Warwick came to Canyon after being graduated from the University of Iowa, on July 29.

CLOVIS, Aug. 3.—Moving to combat a wave of burglaries here, Chief of Police Virgil Dunn has increased the night police force and taken other protective steps. A series of minor burglaries has aroused citizens and officers.

Editor 25 Years. CANYON, Aug. 3.—The Canyon News this week completed its 25th year under the management of C. W. Warwick. Mr. Warwick came to Canyon after being graduated from the University of Iowa, on July 29.

New Secretary

The Texas Young Men's Christian association board in semi-annual meeting at Houston recently elected Pat Henry, Jr., of Fort Worth, as secretary of the Northwest Texas district. This area is composed of some one hundred counties, southwest from Fort Worth through Brownwood, San Angelo, thence north to Big Spring, west to El Paso, thence following the state boundary to Callesville. The area headquarters will be maintained for this district, one at Wichita Falls and one at Amarillo.

Mr. Henry has been actively associated with the work of the Y. M. C. A. in this area for several years as a volunteer leader. The first move in this new program will be to organize Y. M. C. A. clubs, as Junior and Senior Hi-Y's in the fifty larger towns of this area and this will be followed by the organization of the men and boys in each of the one hundred counties. There is a rapidly growing interest in this type of work being done by the Y. M. C. A. and it is due to this interest that the state organization has set up this new program for this area.

Judge W. H. Francis of Dallas is the chairman of the state board of the Y. M. C. A. which is composed of 25 other business men of the state.

1919. The paper has grown steadily in housing, equipment, and influence. Dan K. Usery, member of the mechanical staff, has worked with the paper for the whole period, except for a lapse of 1914 to 1918.

HEREFORD, Aug. 3.—Federal funds for placing a swimming pool in the state park here are being sought. A modern concrete pool is desired.

CHILDRESS, Aug. 3.—This city has been made a district headquarters under the Texas Relief Commission set-up. The city commission has agreed to furnish the necessary housing and utilities.

Guardsmen in Camp. PLAINVIEW, Aug. 3.—Sixty members of the National Guard, have gone to Palacios to attend their annual camp and maneuvers. Six trucks and two station wagons were used on the trip. Captain Thomas A. Bay is in command.

WELLINGTON, Aug. 3.—Bonds totaling $4,000 were voted at Samnorwood this week to make possible a WPA project for a school gymnasium-auditorium.

WHEELER, Aug. 3.—Re-opening of the canning plant operated by relief labor will be made within a week under the direction of Mrs. C. Byrd Witt, county supervisor of canning plants. A similar plant will be operated at Shamrock. The relief office furnishes equipment, cans and labor, and for this service retains 60 per cent of the vegetables and 40 per cent of the meats canned.

CLARENDON, Aug. 3.—Donley county application for WPA projects total more than $100,000, including $23,000 for flood control here. Other applications are for highway and street improvements, an underpass, and in Lella Lake a gymnasium-auditorium.

L'FORS MAKES PLAN. L'FORS, Aug. 3.—N. K. Wright, of Wichita Falls, an engineer, has finished making a plan of L'Fors to be used in planning the proposed water and sewer system. A PWA loan-grant is being sought.

SPEARMAN, Aug. 3.—Local Lions club members have suggested a WPA project on Palo Duro creek, where a dam and recreational site would be made available. An engineer has been asked to make a report on the possibilities.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

BY ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Fireworks in the streets.

It is the scene in "Barbary Coast" wherein handsome Brian Donley as a gambling hall "bouncer" follows Roger Gray, a giant of an actor, and Donald Meek out the door of the "Bella Donna saloon."

Donley has his gun out and Gray is carrying the smaller Meek, who is supposed to be drunk. Outside the "saloon" the street, with its plank walks, is muddy.

In the rehearsal, when Donley fires his gun and Gray whirls to the ground, dropping Meek, they spread a mat for the two men to fall upon. For the "take" there are more preparations.

The mud is chopped with pickaxes, a hose is turned on, and then two mounted men drive their horses back and forth through it. By this time it is a really nice mess of mud six inches deep.

This is the "take" then. The bouncer would like to know where Gray is going and Gray tells him he's going to tell the whole town that the wheel is crooked. "Bang!" goes the bouncer's gun.

Little Donald Meek gets dumped face first, in the mud. Big Roger Gray whirls and falls—clunk!—beside him, in the mud.

It is late afternoon, and they are going to do some real shooting on "The Sociates." Paul Muni and Ann Dvorak are sitting to the side of the set, studying their scripts, but the set is busy.

The orders are out to keep all outsiders off. Heavy composition boards have been placed, in several thicknesses, behind the wall of the set. "Just a minute," says a prop-man. "We'll need some cans of tomatoes and things to splatter."

When he has fetched them and lined the cans on a shelf, Director Michael Curtiz gives orders for a final inspection to be sure no one is on the other side of the wall. Then the order is given to fire.

And it is real bullets coming from these machine guns. They make punch-hole patterns in those walls, pop a light, shatter glass, and splatter tomatoes. Mr. Muni and Miss Dvorak look on calmly. The two have played in enough gang pictures to make it all part of the day's work.

Charlie Chan is guest of honor at a banquet in Shanghai. David Torrence is making a speech of welcome, and is presenting Chan—that is, Warner Oland—with a scroll he is to take from an antique jade box.

When he lifts the box's lid, there is—or ought to be—an explosion. But Oland keeps on studying his Chinese speech of acceptance. (He would like to say, he says, so that Chinese audiences will understand it—which is a job for a Swedish actor.)

ICKES SAYS OIL CODE DEAD

Petroleum Boards to Be Reduced in Personnel—Suggestions Asked.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The petroleum administrative board and the petroleum labor policy board—which together made up the oil administration—today received orders from Secretary Ickes to write their own biographies.

Little else for them or Ickes himself, as oil administrator, was left to do after passage of the skeleton NRA bill. The oil code and the Pacific coast agency and refiners agreements are dead, Ickes said today, while "no agreements in the petroleum industry have been submitted or approved under the amended national industrial recovery act."

Recalling the president's instructions to NRA to compile a similar record, Ickes said he had instructed the boards to print their biographies as "a permanent record." He added: "It will without doubt prove valuable if done objectively, and it will be done objectively. I should be glad to have the suggestions and comments of trade associations, oil companies, or individuals with respect to the industry during the period of operation under the code or changes subsequent thereto, and to consider any data or the views of anyone interested in the subject."

"In carrying on these studies, aside from what is necessary under the Connally act, there is no semblance of compulsion of any kind. In that part of the work already under way my representatives have almost without exception been given full voluntary cooperation."

Adding that the oil administration also had the duty of enforcing the Connally act, which forbids shipment in interstate commerce of oil or oil products produced in excess of state quotas, Ickes said he intended to make additional reductions in expenditures of the two petroleum boards.

A speaker at the recent meeting of the International Association of Police Chiefs declared that small men make better policemen.

Girl of 14 Is Rich Oil Heiress

BEAUMONT, Aug. 3. (AP)—The huge Yont-Lee oil deal, one of the biggest cash transactions in the United States in the last few years, has placed 14-year-old Mildred Yont, slim and Auburn-haired, in the spotlight as one of the nation's richest heiresses.

Mildred, who is spending the summer in Colorado, took no part in the long conference from which evolved the sale of the Yont-Lee company for $46,000,000. From it, however, she and her mother received approximately $15,000,000.

The young heiress tastes range from music to sports. She is a talented violinist, harpist and pianist, an excellent horse-woman, plays tennis, and swims.

Mildred's love of the violin was inherited from her late father, who was a collector of rare violins. His collection, among which is a Stradivarius now belongs to the Beaumont school girl.

Stanoind Wins Over Advertisers

Stanoind took the measure of the Pampa Advertisers, 8 to 5, in the first game of a doubleheader last night at Road Runner park. Neither Phillips nor Kingsmill had scored, at first time, in the second game of the first twin night bill staged in the local park.

The games were the first of a series between teams in the Two-I league. Terry was on the mound for Stanoind, with Bryant receiving. Haley went the distance for the losers, with James catching.

A doubleheader will be played this afternoon. Admission to the two games will be 10 cents. A large crowd witnessed the well-played games last night.

Missing Auto Is Quickly Recovered

A 1928 Chevrolet coupe, belonging to Jess Volgamore, was found parked on West Tynge street last night less than two hours after it had been stolen from where it had been parked on South Cuyler street. The car was found by Sheriff Earl Talley who, with city and county officers, searched for the stolen automobile. Mr. Volgamore was unable to determine how far the car was driven. He told officers it was parked in front of the Eats cafe about 8 o'clock and in a few minutes, when he left the cafe, the car was gone.

Cotton Situation Is Still Tangled

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The agricultural adjustment administration wired a Wharton, Texas, cotton man today that the situation caused by the Bankhead cotton act in Texas is unchanged—a fourth of the nation's cotton crop still is tied up in court order tangle.

The telegram followed a telephone inquiry from Wharton. Reports circulated in that part of Texas, the AAA was told, were that a plan had been worked out permitting movement of cotton without bale tags.

WARNING TO AGENTS AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—Raymond S. Mauk, fire insurance commissioner, today warned fire insurance companies against reducing rates fixed by the commission in purely competitive cases. Mauk said the commission recently had experienced difficulty because companies filed, or attempted to file, lower rates on single risks. He said the practice violated the law and was discriminatory.

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 12 MONEY MATTERS

It was in this hard and controlled mood that Laurie prepared to meet Rex Moore.

But he was not there. On the breakfast table was a large bunch of daffodils with a card beside it. "Good morning! Hope you slept well. I'm off for the day. Sorry dinner and show off tonight. Albery wants me. R. M."

His handwriting appealed to her. It was neat and firm. This greeting rather took the wind out of her sails. Her emotional side rose to answer it with a rush of disproportionate pleasure.

She was easily touched and gratified. How nice of him! He could be something else than a boor. She remembered his last words of the night before—"If you're the girl I took you for, you'll play the game!"

The day went by swiftly. She took possession of Miss Dixie's office near Mark Albery's private room. It was Saturday, and the Chief only came in for an hour and dictated a few letters.

"Moore told you I sent him down to my place in the country?" he asked her. "I want his advice on something. I'm just off there myself. I won't keep him longer than I can help. It's hard on you, Mrs. Moore, but you'll have to be patient. When we've got things going, you must have leave and go off together—on your second honeymoon."

His rare smile had its usual flashing charm, but it affected her strangely. She felt uncomfortable; that vague premonition of evil returned to her.

Rex came in while Laurie was out that night. She had gone to a movie. As she opened the door, she was aware of the tremendous energy of his presence in the flat.

"Have you had anything to eat?" she asked. "Yes, thank you. The old body had left me a fine cold meal."

She did not tell him that she had sent Mrs. Budd home early, and prepared it herself and left it when she went out, in case he should come in.

When he was in some way transformed. He was in the air in a new machine from Albery's private aerodrome, she understood. That was his life.

"Thank you for the flowers," she said; and then added nervously: "I'm sorry I made a fool of myself last night."

"And I'm sorry I said that to you about Albery," he replied. "It was mean and silly."

"You're right about us," she went on, and gave him a frank smile. "It is a joke, and we must treat it like one."

"Good. We shall manage fine, I'm sure. I won't interfere with your life. I know you hate me."

"And you despise me?" she put in quickly. "That's where you're wrong. I do nothing of the kind. You're being a sport about this. It's a bargain then. Will you shake on it, Laurie? We look on the funny side."

"We look on the funny side, Rex!" she repeated, giving him her hand. But it was not such plain sailing as all that.

During the next fortnight, which flashed by, there were many difficulties in this unnatural household. They were constantly at loggerheads over some question.

Money had been the first one. Laurie insisted on paying her way. Rex objected. He had brought her there, he said. The flat cost him nothing. Albery said they were to stay in it until they found something suitable.

Laurie was adamant, and he gave way. She put it on a business basis. He understood nothing about house-keeping. She would board him for so much a week, and he could pay Mrs. Budd's wages. This was a concession to his masculine pride.

She was astonished at what she thought was his meanness. He wanted to spend nothing on himself, and as little as possible on anybody else. When, on two occa-

It was not a reporter who came towards him, with large glowing dark eyes and a smile of uncontrolled joy on eager, brightly-painted lips. It was the only woman who had ever come into his life, except for little dead Belle Mason, the last woman in the world whom at the moment he wanted to meet again.

"Mrs. Steele! Wanda!" His voice was uncertain; his light eyes had that strange snowy look that seemed to withdraw him from every-day life.

Tomorrow, Rex finds himself caught in an old net.

Two Boys Die Of Thirst After Deserting Camp

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 3. (AP)—Two small boys, members of a group of five who left a recreational camp in dissatisfaction early last Wednesday, were found dead near Cave Creek dam today, victims of thirst, hunger and exhaustion.

They were Tony Acosta, 12, and Raymond Flores, 11, of Phoenix. The bodies, emaciated from lack of water and food, were found by Deputy Sheriff William Levy within three quarters of a mile of water. The three others were rescued.

Shortly before the bodies were discovered, the fifth of the group, Leo Coronado, 13, was found alive, but suffering greatly from exhaustion induced by 75 hours in the desert. He was taken to a hospital here.

'Mutilation' Case Near Indictment

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—A net of circumstantial evidence was tightened about Mandeville Zenge today as prosecutors prepared to charge him with the fatal mutilation of Dr. Walter J. Bauer—his successful rival for the hand of a pretty nurse, with an admiring glance at his broad shoulders and fine head and untidy dark hair.

She was a philosopher, and had given up worrying herself about this peculiar message—the mistress quit at work all way, the master away for days at a time. And the two of them laughing and joking and talking nineteen to the dozen—but not a bit like man and wife.

She had overheard them quarreling, true, but never making love, as she told her invalid husband, whom she supported, "never kissing or cuddling, nor nothing of the kind!" She knew they had been separated for two years. She could only suppose it took them a bit of time to get used to each other again. Come to think of it, there must be something queer about a dead husband come to life.

The door bell rang. He did not want to be disturbed. He hoped it wasn't that man come to take his photograph—"Rex Moore, the famous airman, in his Chelsea flat, planning his next sensational flight." Damn! Albery had advised him to submit to a mild publicity campaign, and he had consented because of the money. Curse money! How he loathed it!

Mrs. Budd came into the room. "A lady to see you, sir," she announced. "I said I'd see if you was disengaged."

Rex sprang to his feet. "A lady? It must be for Mrs. Moore."

"No, sir, the lady particularly asked to see you. I showed her into the drawing-room."

He shook his impatient shoulders. A woman to see him? He didn't know a single woman in England. It must be some female reporter from one of the papers.

"Rex! My dear—my dear, how wonderful!" said a woman's voice, a rather high-pitched voice with a drawl in it.

REPUBLICANS PLAN DRIVE AGAINST FOR

NATIONAL COMMITTEE IS TO HIT NEW DEAL POLICIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Restirring itself after months of comparative quietude, the republican national committee today promised a vigorous anti-new deal offensive in an effort to oust President Roosevelt and the democratic party from power in 1936.

A resurgence of a activity in recent days was described at committee headquarters as a harbinger of great efforts to come which will spread throughout the nation.

In other words, the 1936 campaign is on. Henry P. Fletcher, republican national chairman, gave impetus to the movement with a radio address asserting that the new deal is seeking to "pervert or subvert the constitution."

Other speeches are to follow. The committee has engaged a "radio man" and has enlarged its headquarters.

In addition, it has started issuing to republican and independent newspapers a weekly collection of what is called "facts and opinions" consisting of special articles and newspaper editorials assailing the new deal.

"From now on," Chairman Fletcher said in the latest issue, "Mr. Roosevelt must be judged as a candidate and his record as properly open for the minutest inspection."

Utility Issue May Be Compromised

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Speculation over a compromise on the deadlocked utility bill rose high today as Chairman Wheeler (D. Mont.) of the senate interstate commerce committee, accompanied President Roosevelt on a week-end fishing trip.

Wheeler, chief advocate of outright abolition of "unnecessary" holding companies, holds the key to the solution of the deadlock between the house and senate over the "death sentence" clause. He had suggested yesterday the possibility of working out a compromise.

While the president conferred with the Montana senator, the two lobby committees which have been providing much of the fireworks for the hotly disputed controversy were in recess, both probably until next Tuesday.

End of Congress' Session Nears

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—A republican leader who knows congress looked over the 17 major bills awaiting final action today and predicted at least seven would be scrapped to permit an adjournment in two weeks—or August 20 at the latest.

"Once the senate passes the tax bill, said Senator McNary of Oregon, minority floor leader, "they won't be able to hold a quorum."

Friends of Vice President Garner said the Texan also felt adjournment in the air.

Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, was still convinced congress would be "fortunate" to get through by August 20, although the 17th was the goal. President Roosevelt has a speaking engagement at Milwaukee the 23rd and he wants to keep it. The executive must be in Washington sign last minute bills."

TWO FLIERS KILLED

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3. (AP)—Roy Bledsoe, an unlicensed pilot, and John Moore, whom he was teaching to fly, were killed today when Bledsoe's plane crashed near Valley Park in St. Louis county.

ROAD RUNNER VICTORY FRIDAY PUTS PAMPA IN SPORTS HEADLINES

LOCALS SHOW DOMINANT AFTER GREAT START

BERRY'S PITCHING AND BRICKELL'S HITTING SPARKLE

DENVER, Aug. 3 (AP)—With Ed Chambers and Frank Jones pitching two-hit ball, the Humble Oil & Refining Co. team, 18 to 6, in a Denver Post tourney game today.

The Oiler-Louisville fiasco was called after the losers had batted in the seventh. The Texas outfit hammered out 14 hits to go with nine bases on balls donated by four Louisville hurlers and played errorless ball in the field.

Harvey Ballew was the Texas' heaviest hitter with a double and single in four trips to the plate. Four undefeated teams will clash in tomorrow's doubleheader, with Exxon Oilers of Elida, Okla., playing the White Elephants of Denver, and the Los Angeles Californians meeting the untied United Fuel of Denver. No game was scheduled for tonight.

Pampa, through her baseball team, the Danciger Road Runners, has become a known city wherever Denver papers are distributed. The Road Runners defeated Holsum Bread, 8 to 4, in a Denver Post tournament game on Friday afternoon.

Despite the fact that the Road Runners got off to a quick start and appeared as though they were going to submerge the Holsum team, they found sledding tougher in late innings as the Denver team buckled down to business.

The Pampa nine got away to a big lead in the first three innings but after that Hubbell tightened and his backing was sensational as Holsum outfielders snared line drives to cut off hits and runs.

Tiger Joe Berry was on the mound for Pampa. He fanned eight Holsum batters, four of them in the first two innings, and collected a single and double.

Manager Freddy Brickell hit the first home run of the tournament and broke into the prize list for his feat. His 4-play walk came in the second inning, with Berry on base. Brickell also singled and drew a walk. Malley was the hitter for Denver, getting a single and double. Pitcher Hubbell duplicated Berry's hitting feat with two walks, both of them singles.

Summers is Good. Summers had a great day in the field, handling nine chances without an error. Summers is a favorite with Denver fans and received a hand. The little second baseman was with the Los Angeles "youngsters" in 1933 and was voted the best second baseman in the tournament.

The Road Runners will play on Monday night. Play-by-play report: FIRST INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Evans struck out. Berry tossed out Stelmke. Pomeroy was at bat on George's error. Anderson flew out to Brickell. No runs, no hits, one error.

PAMPA—Brickell walked. George popped to Malley. Sealing singled through short. Brickell stopping at second. Nell hit a long liner. Florio, Brickell taking third after the catch. Patton singled over second, scoring Brickell and Sealing. Seals singled past Patton. Sealing hit at second. Summers lifted to Byrne. Two runs, three hits, one error.

SECOND INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Malley doubled to center. Roth hit into a double play. Sealing, Byrne bunted, and when Berry threw wildly to first, Malley scored. Both went to third. Sealing hit into a double play to catch Roth. Hubbell sacrificed. Berry, Sealing, and Patton scored while Summers was throwing out Evans. Stelmke walked. Patton made a good running catch at Florio's line. Three runs, two hits, one error.

PAMPA—Horton lined out to Malley. Berry singled to right. Brickell hit home run to left field. It was the first home run of the tournament. George popped to Sealing. Malley struck out. Sealing. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne struck out. Anderson. Malley went out the same way. Both lined out to George. No runs, no hits, no errors.

PAMPA—Nell and Patton walked. Seals was hit by right. Brickell hit home run to left field. Sealing, Horton lined out to Edwards. Berry doubled right center. Sealing threw out Brickell. Stelmke threw out George. Four runs, two hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne struck out. O'Dell also fanned. Hubbell singled. Nell. Byrne fanned. Hubbell. No runs, one hit, no errors.

PAMPA—Berry grounded out to Anderson. Brickell bunt out a punt. Evans threw out George. Brickell striking second. Sealing sent a sliding hit to Malley. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne was called out on strikes. Summers' throw out to Florio. Anderson doubled to left. George. Seals. Malley's grounder over first base. Anderson scoring. Edwards struck out. One run, one hit, one error.

PAMPA—Summers lined out to Florio.

Davis Cuppers Go Down to Defeat Trying

The American Davis Cup team was beaten in the final, but it wasn't because they didn't give all they had in an effort to win. Here's the do-or-die example set by Captain Wimmer Allison for play in the critical matches. In a desperate effort to return, he throws himself toward the rifting ball. At left it's "apparent he can't stay on his feet. And there at the right you see him on the turf—down but not dismayed."

2 Ball Games Set for Today

Series to Select Big Team Due to Continue

Two ball games will be played at Road Runner park this afternoon when teams in the Two-1 league continue their schedule while the Pampa Road Runners are attending the Denver tournament. As a result of the series, a team to represent the Two-1 league in the Junior chamber of commerce tournament will be selected.

A committee, composed of veteran baseball players, will be in the grandstand watching every player in the league. At the close of the series, the committee will name a team. Managers of all teams in the league will then be asked to submit their idea of an all star team and from the list, the all stars will be selected and will compete in the tournament, Aug. 23 to Sept. 2.

The first game this afternoon will be at 1:30 o'clock with the Pampa Independents meeting Shell. The second game, immediately after the initial contest, will see Cargray playing Skellytown. Admission to the doubleheader will be 10 cents. Shell and the Independents are tied in the league race with three wins and five losses each. Cargray is in second place with six wins and two losses, while Skellytown has five wins and three defeats. Cargray, however, has not defeated Skellytown this season.

Three other league games will be played this afternoon. The Rams will entertain the Just Rite Cleaners west of Harvester field. The Pampa Black Sox will go to White Deer. Laketon and Western Carbon will meet on the standard diamond six miles northwest of Pampa. Two games will be played at Road Runner park tomorrow night when Coltex Carbon of LeFors meets Western Carbon of Magic City at 8:30 o'clock to be followed by a game between the Pampa Indians of C. O. Busby and Sinclair-Prairie. Two more games may be played on Thursday night.

Shute and Ghezzi In Tourney Lead

INVERNESS GOLF CLUB TOLEDO, O., Aug. 3 (AP)—Denny Shute and Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N. J., turned on the fireworks again today in the Inverness invitational four-ball matches, clicked in with a 64, seven under par, against Leo Diegel and Jimmy Thomson, and snatched the tournament lead. Yesterday afternoon the two sharpshooters were last with a "minus 6" count, that score representing the number of holes they were behind their two opponents to that point. Then they turned in a 62, the lowest total of the tourney, against Sam Parks, National Open champion, and Ky Laffoon, to drag that pair from the lead and deposit them in the bottom spot.

This morning Ghezzi and Shute took a one-hole decision over Tommy Armour and Bobby Cruickshank, and this afternoon they were four up on Diegel and Thomson with that scintillating 64, giving them a "plus 7" standing.

Supl. C. A. Craver of McLean was here on business Saturday.

Horton lined out to Edwards. Berry flew out to Byrne. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Florio, singled to center. Florio hit into a fast double play. Sealing was at bat on Sealing's high throw. Malley singled to left. Anderson stopping at second. Edwards. No runs, one hit, one error.

Golf Champ Is To Be Decided Today

FLENNIKEN IS VETERAN WITH PROVED GAME

PUT AUSTIN'S GREAT PLAY HAS MADE HIM FAVORITE

A new city golf champion will be crowned at the Country Club today when Grover Austin Jr. meets Bill Fleniken in the final match in the championship flight of the City Open golf tournament.

The two finalists will play 18 holes in the morning, starting about 9 o'clock and finish their match in the afternoon, beginning about 2 o'clock. Austin, after his record breaking 63 last Sunday, is the favorite. Fleniken is a former Amateur champion, but a new resident of Pampa. He carried a 66 last Sunday.

Semi-final rounds in the other flights will be played in the morning, with the finals scheduled for the afternoon. The distance will be 18 holes for each round.

Prizes will go to the winner and runner-up in each flight and to the winner of consolation play in each flight.

The club tournament committee is discussing plans for the holding of a Panhandle tournament over the local course. An announcement is expected soon.

Game Is Tied As Rain Begins

A slow rain, which started falling as the teams took the field, caused postponement of the clash between Coltex of LeFors and Phillips of Berger Friday night, under the lights at Road Runner park.

The score was 1 to 1 when the game was called at the end of the first inning.

Carthers took the mound for Coltex with Polvogt behind the bat. Phillips scored when Bennett dropped a fly ball in deep right field. Smith started the game for Phillips with Beavers behind the bat. The "home" club counted on a double and an error and had men on base when Phillips pulled a freak double play. A player was trapped between second and third on a hit to shortstop. While he was being run down the batter started for second. He was tagged sliding into the bag and the other runner was also tagged.

Coltex will be in Amarillo this afternoon, playing a doubleheader with the Shamrocks of that city. Jim Parker with the Kansas City Blues up to last week, will hurl one of the games for Coltex. Carthers will probably get the nod for the other encounter.

Coltex officials are contacting the Argentine ball club, now touring the country, and may have one or two games scheduled with that team soon. The Lamport, Calif.

CLINGMAN TO MEET MORAN NEXT TUESDAY

WILD MATCH EXPECTED - OTIS TRAINS IN ROCKIES

Sailor will meet sailor in a wild wrestling match at Road Runner park on Tuesday night when Pampa's Otis Clingman meets Sailor Moran, Little Rock, Ark., in the main event. A classy semi-final will see Red Michael, former Pampa youth, tangling with Jack Van Babber, Pampa. A good preliminary will open the card at 8:30 o'clock.

Moran, one of the wildest maulers since the early days of Tex Watkins, has been throwing insults at Clingman for some time. It all started when Clingman was matched against a couple of tough opponents before promoters learned that he was in the mountains fishing. Moran was substituted for Clingman and the "gob" was not slow to claim that Clingman was matched against a couple of tough opponents before promoters learned that he was in the mountains fishing. Moran was substituted for Clingman and the "gob" was not slow to claim that Clingman was matched against a couple of tough opponents before promoters learned that he was in the mountains fishing.

Clingman was to return to the Panhandle today. He writes that he is in perfect condition for mountain climbing and wrestling with bears and large mountain trout. He says to give Moran his regards and that he had better be ready for the roughest evening since he left the navy during the big storm in 1925.

Speed and science is in store for fans before the wild final. Van Babber, former national amateur and Olympic champion, is one of the fastest and most scientific men on the mat today. Michael learned the wrestling game through experience and association with Otis Clingman. The redhead gave a wonderful exhibition here a few weeks ago to make him a threat to any and all of the middleweights in the country.

The preliminary to open the all star card has not been named. Reserve ringside and box seats are going fast at Pampa Drug No. 1.

VATICAN PROTESTS VATICAN CITY, Aug. 3 (AP)—In a new and vigorous protest against the church situation in Germany the Vatican newspaper, Osservatore Romano accused the Nazi government today of "continuing hostile springs" upon Catholic priests. It directed its bitterest remarks against a decree the paper had been circulating recently by the Nazi government instructing police to use every means "against priests who abuse their privileges for political purposes."

It on Tariff Wall Is Begun

Aug. 3. (AP) — Brazos ginnery today agreed to file in federal court affidavits that they were not parties to the suit, granted against collection of the tax under the Bankhead move was the latest in the resentment against the order by Federal Judge Ransburg July 19 to D. C. Wall, the Texas Cotton Ginners' association. The suit was taken shortly after Texas Agricultural association yesterday formally brought upon collection of profits in a counter move to processing tax opponents. The affidavits were mailed to chairman of county committees. Affidavits would set out that signers were not to the injunction suit; that they did not seek the remedy by Judge Bryant, or her benefits that might return the suit, and that they were not to be held liable in contempt of court.

READY-MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 12 MONEY MATTERS It was in this hard and controlled mood that Laurie prepared to meet Rex Moore.

"But he was not there. On the breakfast table was a large bunch of daffodils, with a card beside it. 'Good morning! Hope you slept well. I'm off for the day. Sorry dinner and show off tonight. Albery wants me. R. M.'"

His handwriting appealed to her. It was neat and firm. This greeting rather took the wind out of her sails. Her emotional side rose to answer it with a rush of disproportionate pleasure.

She was easily touched and gratified. How nice of him! He could be something else than a boor. She remembered his last words of the night before—"If you're the girl I look you for, you'll play the game!"

The day went by swiftly. She took possession of Miss Dixie's office near Mark Albery's private room. It was Saturday, and the Chief only came in for an hour and dictated a few letters.

"Moore told you I sent him down to my place in the country?" he asked her. "I want his advice on something. I'm just off there myself. I won't keep him longer than I can help. It's hard on Mrs. Moore, but you'll have to be patient. When we've got things going, you must have leave and go off together—on your second honeymoon."

His rare smile had its usual flattering charm, but it affected her strangely. She felt uncomfortable; that vague premonition of evil returned to her.

Rex came in while Laurie was out that night. She had gone to a movie. As she opened the door, she was aware of the tremendous energy of his presence in the flat.

"Have you had anything to eat?" she asked. "Yes, thanks. The old body had left me a fine cold meal."

She did not get a question. She prepared Mrs. Budd home early, and separated it herself and left it when she went out, in case he should come in.

"I'm sorry I made a fool of myself last night."

"And I'm sorry I said that to you about Albery," he replied. "It was mean and silly."

"You're right about us," she went on, and gave him a frank smile. "It is a joke, and we must treat it like one."

"Good. We shall manage fine, I'm sure. I won't interfere with your life. I know you hate me."

"And you despise me?" she put in quickly. "That's where you're wrong. I do nothing of the kind. You're being a sport about this. It's a bargain then. Will you shake on it, Laurie? We look on the funny side, Rex!" she repeated, giving him her hand.

But it was not such plain sailing as all that.

During the next fortnight, which flashed by, there were many difficulties in this unnatural household. They were constantly at loggerheads over some question.

Money had been the first one. Laurie insisted on paying her way. Rex objected. He had brought her there, he said. The flat cost him nothing. Albery said they were to stay in it until they found something suitable.

Laurie was adamant, and he gave way. She put it on a business basis. He understood nothing about house-keeping. She would board him for so much a week, and he could pay Mrs. Budd's wages. This was a concession to his masculine pride.

She was astonished at what she thought was his meanness. He wanted to spend nothing on himself, and as little as possible on anybody else. When, on two occa-

It was not a reporter who came towards him, with large glowing dark eyes and a smile of uncontrolled joy on eager, brightly-painted lips. It was the only woman who had ever come into his life, except for little dead Belle Mason, the last woman in the world whom at the moment he wanted to meet again.

"Mrs. Steele! Wanda!" His voice was uncertain; his light eyes had that strange snowy look that seemed to withdraw him from every-day life.

Tomorrow, Rex finds himself caught in an old net.

Two Boys Die Of Thirst After Deserting Camp

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 3. (AP)—Two small boys, members of a group of five who left a recreational camp in dissatisfaction early last Wednesday, were found dead near Cave Creek dam today, victims of thirst, hunger and exhaustion.

They were Tony Acosta, 12, and Raymond Flores, 11, of Phoenix.

The bodies, emanating from lack of water and food, were found by Deputy Sheriff William Levy within three quarters of a mile of water. The three others were rescued.

Shortly before the bodies were discovered, the fifth of the group, Leo Coronado, 13, was found alive, but suffering greatly from exhaustion induced by 75 hours in the desert. He was taken to a hospital here.

'Mutilation' Case Near Indictment

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—A net of circumstantial evidence was tightened about Mandeville Zenge today as prosecutors prepared to charge him with the fatal mutilation of Dr. Walter J. Bauer—his successful rival for the hand of a pretty nurse.

Assistant State's Attorney Chas. Dougherty announced he would formally book the adamant young prisoner for first degree murder after a sixth man had connected him with circumstances surrounding the crime.

"We have a perfect circumstantial case," Dougherty asserted. "I believe we have sufficient evidence to go before a grand jury and obtain an indictment."

Oren J. Guelt, who occupied a room next to that of "E. L. Jones" at the Jennings hotel in Ann Arbor, Mich., viewed the suspect.

"That's Jones." The 26-year-old Missourian glanced at his accuser and smiled.

REPUBLICANS PLAN DRIVE AGAINST FOR

NATIONAL COMMITTEE IS TO HIT NEW DEAL POLICIES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Be-stirring itself after months of comparative quietude, the republican national committee today promised a vigorous anti-new deal offensive in an effort to oust President Roosevelt and the democratic party from power in 1936.

A resurgence of a activity in recent days was described at committee headquarters as a harbinger of great efforts to come which will spread throughout the nation.

In other words, the 1936 campaign is on.

Henry P. Fletcher, republican national chairman, gave impetus to the movement with a radio address asserting that the new deal is seeking to "pervert or subvert the constitution."

Other speeches are to follow. The committee has engaged a "radio man" and has enlarged its headquarters.

In addition, it has started issuing a weekly collection of what is called "facts and opinions" consisting of special articles and newspaper editorials assailing the new deal.

"From now on," Chairman Fletcher said in the latest issue, "Mr. Roosevelt must be judged as a candidate and his record as properly open for the minutest inspection."

Utility Issue May Be Compromised

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—Speculation over a compromise on the deadlocked utility bill rose high today as Chairman Wheeler (D. Mont.) of the senate interstate commerce committee, accompanied President Roosevelt on a week-end fishing trip.

Wheeler, chief advocate of outright abolition of "unnecessary" holding companies, holds the key to the solution of the deadlock between the house and senate over the "death sentence" clause. He had suggested yesterday the possibility of working out a compromise.

While the president conferred with the Montana senator, the two lobby committees which have been providing much of the fireworks for the hotly disputed controversy were in recess, both probably until next Tuesday.

End of Congress' Session Nears

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—A republican leader who knows congress looked over the 17 major bills awaiting final action today and predicted at least seven would be scrapped to permit an adjournment in two weeks—or August 20 at the latest.

"Once the senate passes the tax bill, said Senator McNary of Oregon, minority floor leader, "they won't be able to hold a quorum."

Friends of Vice President Garner said the Texan also felt adjournment in the air.

Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, was still convinced congress would be "fortunate" to get through by August 20, although the

LOCALS SLOW DOUBT AFTER GREAT START

BERRY'S PITCHING AND BRICKELL'S HITTING SPARKLE

DENVER, Aug. 3 (AP)—With Ed Chambers and Fred Toots pitching two-hit ball, the Humble Oilers of Overton, Texas, crushed an outclassed Louisville, Colo., team, 18 to 0, in a Denver Post tourney game today.

Lexington, Neb., hung a 6 to 1 banner on the Denver All-Stars in the first game.

The Oiler-Louisville fiasco was called after the losers had batted in the seventh. The Texas outfit hammered out 14 hits to go with nine bases on balls donated by four Louisville hurlers and played errorless ball in the field.

Harvey Ballew was the Texans' heaviest hitter with a double and single in four trips to the plate.

Four under-18s will clash in tomorrow's doubleheader, with Eason Ollers of Enid, Okla., playing the White Elephants of Denver, and the Los Angeles Californians meeting the United Fuel Fuel of Denver. No game was scheduled for tonight.

Pampa, through her baseball team, the Danziger Road Runners, has become a known city wherever Denver papers are distributed.

The Road Runners defeated Holsum Bread, 8 to 4, in a Denver Post tournament game on Friday afternoon.

Despite the fact that the Road Runners got off to a quick start and appeared as though they were going to submerge the Holsum nine, they found sledding tougher in late innings as the Denver team bucked down to business.

The Pampa nine got away to a big lead in the first three innings but after that Hubbell tightened and his backing was sensational as Holsum outfielders snared line drives to cut off hits and runs.

Tiger Joe Berry was on the mound for Pampa. He fanned eight Holsum batters, several of them in the pinches, and collected a single and double.

Manager Freddy Brickell hit the first home run of the tournament and broke into the prize list for his first. His 4-4 play wallop came in the second inning, with Berry on base. Brickell also singled and drew a walk. Malley was the hitter for Denver, getting a single and double.

Richer Hubbell, catcher, kept hitting fast with two wallops, both of them singles.

Summers is Good. Summers had a great day in the field, handling nine chances without an error. Summers is a favorite with Denver fans and received a big hand. The little second baseman was with the Los Angeles "youngsters" in 1933 and was voted the best second baseman in the tournament.

The Road Runners will play on Monday night.

Play-by-play report: FIRST INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Evans struck out. Berry tossed out Steinke. Fiohr was safe on George's error. Anderson flew out to Hubbell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Malley doubled in center. Both best on a hill bid to Sealing. Byrne bunted, and when Berry swung wildly to left, Malley scored. Both went to third and Byrne to second. O'Dell tapped to Berry, who threw to the plate to safe to catch Roth. Hubbell sacrificed. Berry unassisted. Byrne scored while Summers was throwing out Evans. Steinke walked. Patton made a good running catch of Fiohr's liner. Three runs, two hits, one error.

THIRD INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Sealing threw out Anderson. Malley went out the same way. Both lined out to George. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne lifted to George. O'Dell struck out. Summers threw out Evans. No runs, one hit, no errors.

FIFTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Steinke singled to center. Fiohr hit into a fast double play. George to Summers to Nell. Anderson was safe on Sealing's high throw. Malley singled to left. Anderson stopping at second. Edwards batted. No runs, two hits, one error.

SIXTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne struck out. O'Dell also struck out. Hubbell. No runs, one hit, no errors.

SEVENTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Byrne was called out on strikes. Summers' throw out Viohr. Anderson doubled to left. George struck Steinke's grounder over first base. Anderson scoring. Edwards struck out. One run, one hit, one error.

Davis Cuppers Go Down to Defeat Trying

The American Davis Cup team was beaten in the finals, but it wasn't because they didn't give all they had in an effort to win. Here's the do-or-die example set by Captain Wilmer Allison for play in the critical matches. In a desperate effort to return, he throws himself toward the rifting ball. At left it's apparent he can't stay on his feet. And there at the right you see him on the turf—down but not dismayed.

2 Ball Games Set for Today

Series to Select Big Team Due to Continue

Two ball games will be played at Road Runner park this afternoon when teams in the Two-7 league continue their schedule while the Pampa Road Runners are attending the Denver tournament.

A committee, composed of veteran baseball players, will be in the grandstand watching every player in the league. At the close of the series, the committee will name a team. Managers of all teams in the league will then be asked to submit their idea of an all star team and from the lists, the all stars will be selected and will compete in the tournament, Aug. 23 to Sept. 2.

The first game this afternoon will be at 1:30 o'clock with the Pampa Independents meeting Shell. The second game, immediately after the initial contest, will see Cargray playing Skellytown. Admission to the doubleheader will be 10 cents.

Shell and the Independents are tied in the league race with three wins and five losses each. Cargray is in second place with six wins and two losses, while Skellytown has five wins and three defeats. Cargray, however, has not defeated Skellytown this season.

Two more games will be played at Road Runner park tomorrow night when Colteko Carbon of LeFors meets Western Carbon of Pampa.

Two more games may be played on Thursday night.

Shute and Ghezzi In Tourney Lead

INVERNESS GOLF CLUB. TOLEDO, O., Aug. 3 (AP)—Denny Shute of Chicago and Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N. J., turned on the fireworks again today in the Inverness invitational four-ball matches, clicked in with a 64, seven under par, against Leo Diegel and Jimmy Thomson, and snatched the tournament lead.

Yesterday afternoon the two sharpshooters were last with a "minus 6" count, that score representing the number of holes they were behind their two opponents.

This morning Ghezzi and Shute took a one-hole decision over Tommy Armour and Bobby Cruickshank, and this afternoon they were four up on Diegel and Thomson with a lead of 64, giving them a "plus 7" standing.

Supt. C. A. Cryer of McLean was here on business Saturday.

Horton lined out to Edwards. Berry flew out to Byrne. No runs, no hits, no errors.

EIGHTH INNING. HOLSUM BREAD—Fiohr singled to right. Anderson hit into a double play. Sealing to Summers to Nell. Malley fouled out to Horton to end the game. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Golf Champ Is To Be Decided Today

FLENNIKEN IS VETERAN WITH PROVED GAME

PUT AUSTIN'S GREAT PLAY HAS MADE HIM FAVORITE

A new city golf champion will be crowned at the Country Club today when Grover Austin Jr., meets Bill Fleniken in the final match in the championship flight of the City Open golf tournament.

The two finalists will play 18 holes in the morning, starting about 9 o'clock and finish their match in the afternoon, beginning about 2 o'clock. Austin, after his record breaking 63 last Sunday, is the favorite. Fleniken is a former Amarillo champion, but now a resident of Pampa. He carded a 66 last Sunday.

Semi-final rounds in the other flights will be played in the morning, with the finals scheduled for the afternoon. The distance will be 18 holes for each round.

Prizes will go to the winner and runner-up in each flight and to the winner of consolation play in each flight.

The club tournament committee is discussing plans for the holding of a Panhandle tournament over the local course. An announcement is expected soon.

Game Is Tied As Rain Begins

A slow rain, which started falling as the teams took the field, caused postponement of the clash between Colteko of LeFors and Phillips of Berger Friday night under the lights at Road Runner park. The score was 1 to 1 when the game was called at the end of the first inning.

Carthurs took the mound for Colteko with Polvog behind the bat. Phillips scored when Bennett dropped a fly ball in deep right field. Smith started the game for Phillips with Beavers behind the bat. The "home" club counted on a double and an error and had men on base when Phillips pulled a freak double play. A player was trapped between second and third on a hit to shortstop. While he was being run down the batter started for second. He was tagged sliding into the bag and the other runner was also tagged.

Colteko will be in Amarillo this afternoon, playing a doubleheader with the Shamrocks of that city. Jim Parker with the Kansas City Blues up to last week, will hurl one of the games for Colteko. Carthurs will probably get the nod for the other encounter.

Colteko officials are contacting the Argentine ball club, now touring the country, and may have one or two games scheduled with that team, soon. The Lompoc, Calif., team en route to the Wichita, Kan., tournament, will be here for a game with Colteko on next Saturday night.

GRAND SLAM SLOSHES THRU MUD TO WIN UPSET RACE

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Splashing through mud and rain, Grand Slam, 30 to 1 in the wagering, and left at the post, scored an upset victory today in winning the fourth running of the Arlington futurity, climaxing the 30-day meeting at Arlington Park.

Twenty thousand spectators witnessed the fourth and triumph of the 2-year-old son of Chance Play-Jeanne Bowdre which sprinted the six furlongs in 1:12.

Grand Slam, owned by Charles Bohn and Peter A. Markey, Detroit industrialists, actually scored a grand slam by completely running the race in 14 of the best 2-year-olds in American. He defeated Marshall Field's Tintagel by two and one-half lengths, with Mrs. Silas B. Mason's Valetictorian finishing third, three lengths back.

Grand Slam was fourth among Valetictorian, the heavily played favorite, fifth, Cold Stream, another public choice, was sixth, and White Cookade, owned by Ogden Phipps of New York, seventh. The rest of the field was staggering behind in the tough going.

Closing at 30 to 1 in the wagering, Grand Slam paid $65 to win, $31.40 to place, and $17.60 to show. The place price on Tintagel was $9.60 with $7 to show, and Valetictorian paid $8.20 to show.

With fifteen starters the race had a gross value of $57,230, $45,135 going to the owner of the winning thoroughbred. The sum of $5,000 went to Marshall Field as second place money, with $2,500 going to Mrs. Mason for Valetictorian's effort in finishing third. In addition $1,000 went to Thomas C. Wroden of Chicago, owner of Nedrow, as fourth money.

CLINGMAN TO MEET MORAN NEXT TUESDAY

WILD MATCH EXPECTED—OTIS TRAINS IN ROCKIES

Sailor will meet sailor in a wild wrestling match at Road Runner park on Tuesday night when Pampa's Otis Clingman meets Sallor Moran, Little Rock, Ark., in the main event. A classy semi-final will see Red Michael, former Pampa youth, tussling with Jack Van Beber, Pampa. A good preliminary will open the card at 8:30 o'clock.

Moran, one of the wildest maulers since the early days of Tex Watkins, has been throwing insults at Clingman for some time. It all started when Clingman was matched against a couple of tough opponents before promoters learned that he was in the mountains fishing. Moran was substituted for Clingman and the "go" was not slow to claim that Clingman was afraid of tough opposition and had slipped out of the country.

Clingman was to return to the Panhandle today. He writes that he is in perfect condition from mountain climbing and wrestling with bears and large mountain trout. He says to give Moran his regards and that he had better be ready for the roughest evening since he left the navy during the big storm in 1925.

Speed and science is in store for fans before the wild final. Van Beber, former national amateur and Olympic champion, is one of the fastest an almost scientific men on the mat today. Michael learned the wrestling game through experience and association with Otis Clingman. The redhead gave a wonderful exhibition here a few weeks ago to make him a threat to any and all of the middleweights in the country.

The preliminary to open the all star card has not been named. Reserve ringside and box seats are going fast at Pampa Drug No. 1.

VATICAN PROTESTS VATICAN CITY, Aug. 3 (AP)—In a new and vigorous protest against the church situation in Germany the Vatican newspaper Observatore Romano accused the Nazi government today of "continuing hostile spying" upon Catholic priests. It directed its bitter remarks against a decree the paper said had been circulated recently by the Nazi government instructing police to use every means against priests who abuse their privileges for political purposes.

SCIENTIST PICKS SAN ANTONIO FOR STRATOSPHERE EXPERIMENTS

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 3. (AP)—Dr. Robert A. Millikan came here today in quest of a solution for mysteries of the upper atmosphere never penetrated by man or his instruments.

The internationally recognized physicist brought an array of super-sensitive recording devices for studies of the cosmic ray which he hopes to make at levels 20 miles or more above the earth.

The instruments will be attached to balloons, which Dr. Millikan hopes will ascend to an altitude of more than 20 miles before they burst to shower the recording devices, attached to parachutes, back to earth.

Once the instruments do get back he trusts whoever finds them will forward them to him so he can complete his studies.

The high altitude is desired in order to obtain latitude distribution. He recalled a similar experiment conducted at Fort Huachuca in 1922 when an altitude of 10 miles was attained, but the instruments used at that time were crude, he said.

Those to be employed this time have been in the making for two years under the best of skill.

Missouri Pacific Bearcats Champs Following Victory

HOUSTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Missouri Pacific Legion Bearcats of Houston captured a hectic 10-inning game from the Austin junior champions here today, 6 to 5, to annex the state championship.

The Houston team is undefeated in little league for the 1935 season.

Manager Roger Fowell of the Austin team protested the victory on a play that occurred in the tenth inning. Thomas, lead off man for the locals, hit the first ball pitched for a pop out to third, but Umpire Turbeville ruled it a foul, giving Thomas another chance.

He then singled, stole second, went to third when the shortstop fumbled the throw, and scored on Williams' hit.

The Bearcats appeared to have the game well in hand, going into the ninth with a 4-0 lead, but the visitors rallied for five to take the lead. Scoring in the ninth and tenth, the Bearcats won out to give Houston its first junior championship.

JUDGE

(Continued from page 1.) chambers. He hardly waited to listen until I was through before he exclaimed: 'Boy, what a story!' He was a newspaper man. He grasped the importance of the story.

'It is my thought that the press has a right to present and publish court proceedings and the public has a right to know about them. I know that the constitution guarantees the rights of free speech and freedom of the press. But I feel that it also gives the right for redress from wrong.'

'I take it there must be some power to restrict the press so as to insure a fair and impartial administration of justice. Now where should this power be lodged? In the judiciary or in the mind of an editor?'

The judge told the defendants that he had none but the kindest of feelings for all of them.

'I am glad,' he added, 'that there is a higher court to check on my judgment and a still higher court to check on the judgement of the Court of Criminal Appeals.'

In filing the writ at Austin, attorneys based their application on a case decided by the court 22 years ago involving M. E. Foster, now editor of the Houston Press. In that case, the attorneys argued, the Court of Criminal Appeals held the trial court did not have authority to forbid publication of testimony adduced at a public trial.

Frank Liddell, attorney for The Post and Chronicle, indicated the case probably would be carried to the supreme court if decided adversely by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

'This case is too important both to the press and to the judiciary not to carry it to its final conclusion inasmuch as it is a test case,' Liddell said.

The maximum sentence that could be imposed in the case was fines of $100 each, or three days in jail or both.

NEW GAS LAW IS EXPECTED TO BE HELD VALID

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM IS SEEN BY ITS SPONSORS

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—State officials today were confident the law authorizing the Railroad commission to regulate gas production would be sustained despite a federal court order temporarily restraining enforcement of the first regulations issued under the act.

'There is nothing to be excited about,' Archie D. Gray, assistant attorney general, said. 'The state is undertaking to bring under control the greatest gas producing area in the world and the machinery set up to accomplish this has to be properly tested. It will take time. Past roads traveled toward conservation of natural resources gives us confidence we are on the right track.'

The order was enjoined on application of the Texas Panhandle Gas company, operating 12 wells in Wheeler county. Hearing on motion to make the injunction permanent will be before a three-judge federal court soon.

Gray pointed out the order remained in effect against other operators.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, one of the authors of the gas conservation law, also said there was no cause for alarm.

'Everyone realizes that the law and the order explore a new field in conservation and it is reasonable to expect our courts will temporarily restrain the operation of such a law until all details can be worked out,' he said. 'It will amount to nothing more than a short delay. I think we have a good law and a good order.'

It Costs Money To Guard Money

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The treasury will spend nearly $2,000,000 in the next few months to safeguard its mounting hoard of gold and silver.

Procurement officials said work will start immediately on an imposing new $1,225,000 mint on a rock plateau in San Francisco.

On Aug. 22, the contract for the nation's first "bullion depository" on the millinery reservoir at Fort Knox, Ky., will be let. Its estimated cost is $54,000.

In addition, the second deficiency appropriation bill now in conference in capitol hill includes $150,000 to strengthen other mints and assay offices.

While treasury officials would not disclose just where it has stored its $9,147,000,000 stock of gold, about $3,000,000,000 is reported piled up in the Denver mint and a similar amount in the New York assay office.

CITIZENS

(Continued From Page 1.) but also sections of New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas, and Oklahoma will send delegations.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad commission; H. H. Williamson, extension service director at College Station; President Walton of A. & M.; Ernest Scholts, extension service director at Oklahoma A. & M.; and many other leaders interested in the problems facing agriculture will be here to greet Wallace and hear his address.

Hale Group Large Hale county plans to send one of the largest delegations, the committee has been informed. Bedecked with badges, the Hale county delegation probably will be headed by C. H. Day of Plainview, who originated the farmers' march on Washington in support of the administration's farm policies.

County officials, county agricultural agents and others also have been urged to attend the meeting as a tribute to Secretary Wallace.

Head of one of the most important cabinet posts, Secretary Roosevelt's official family to visit the southwest. Before he accepted the cabinet position, Wallace was known nationally. He is a "real dirt" farmer, a publisher of a widely-read farm magazine and an author, whose recent books have been read and quoted extensively.

Pampa Chairman Suggests PTA's Study PWA Loans

By MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers State Publicity Director
Parent-teacher members will be interested in an announcement concerning federal assistance to school buildings recently made by the Public Works Administration. Money may now be secured for school buildings on a more generous basis than heretofore. Grants may be made up to 45 per cent instead of 30 per cent as previously done, with authority to vest in the administrator of public works to recommend variations in the amount of the grant depending upon the circumstances in individual cases. The rate of interest is reduced from four per cent to three per cent. Such action is designed to make it easier for communities to borrow funds on collateral security from P. W. A. instead of requesting outright all-federal grants, thus helping to carry out the president's objective of seeing as large a portion as possible of the funds returned to the treasury. This change in terms recommended opens the way for communities to obtain projects of the type that are permanent assets for their localities which otherwise they would have difficulty in obtaining unless they would undertake to share with the federal government the financial burden, suggests Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Pampa, state chairman of school education for the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. Localities with plans completed for construction of schools, or other buildings such as hospitals, waterworks, and similar types of projects of permanent value would be encouraged to proceed with such re-empowering construction at once. Mrs. Hunkapillar advises any community in need of this type of service to get in communication with the school officials, who have already received this information, and to lend them the cooperation in any plans they may have in mind relative to this important matter.

SERVICES AT AMARADA
Sunday school at Amarada Baptist mission will be conducted at 2:30 this afternoon, with preaching service to follow at 3:30. The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of First Baptist church, will be the speaker. The regular evening service will start at 7:30.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer
Crabapples have an ineradicable association with the farm for me, probably because they were stock-in-trade of great Aunt Nancy, whose orchard provided so many of the good extras that make my childhood memorable. I'm hoping that these recipes will spur you to putting up some for yourself.

Crabapple Jelly
Cut the fruit into small pieces, cutting in blossom end and all defective parts. Put into kettle with enough cold water to cover fruit. Cover and cook slowly until soft. Strain through jelly bag. Measure juice. Put juice into kettle and boil rapidly for five minutes. Slowly sift in as many cups of sugar as there are cups of juice and boil until the syrup sheets from the spoon. Pour into sterilized jelly glasses and seal with paraffin. Cover with a second layer of paraffin.

Late in the season when quinces and cranberries make their appearance, I make a jelly known as "Paradise Jelly."
Paradise Jelly
Twenty crabapples, 10 quinces, 1 quart cranberries, 10 cups water. Wash crabapples and quinces and cut into small pieces, cutting out blossom end and all defective parts. Put into kettle with enough cold water to cover and add cranberries. Cover and cook until soft. Strain through jelly bag. Measure juice. Bring to the boiling point and for every cup of juice add one cup sugar. Boil, skimming as necessary, and when syrup sheets from spoon turn into sterilized jelly glasses and cover with paraffin. Cover with a second layer of paraffin when cold. It will take about eight minutes to cook the juice and sugar.

Spiced Crabapples
Four pounds crabapples, 2 1/2 cups cider vinegar, 1 1/2 cups light brown sugar, 1 tablespoon whole cloves, 1 stick cinnamon four inches long, 2 teaspoons ground ginger. Select perfect crabapples. Wash and steam until tender but not broken. Make a syrup of vinegar, sugar and spices, tied in a bag. Boil five minutes and add crabapples. Simmer gently for twenty-five minutes. Pack in sterilized jars, pour over vinegar to cover and seal.

These spiced crabs are delicious to use as a garnish on a platter of cold cuts, they add a spicy touch to winter fruit salads and will do much to furnish up an everyday dinner of stew and dumplings.
Kelley hostess, Mrs. Craven leader.
May 12, Movies. Mrs. Lee Ledrick hostess, Mrs. Kelley leader. Talks: Censorship of Movies, Mrs. Sweet; Movies for Children, Mrs. Purviance; Movies and Morals, Mrs. Loftis.
May 26, May Breakfast in Mrs. Purviance's garden.

Monday's Menu
BREAKFAST: Pineapple juice, cereal, cream, scrambled eggs with calves' brains, waffles, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Tuna fish and apple salad, cheese sandwiches, raspberry water ice, milk, tea.
DINNER: Tomato bouillon, stuffed and roasted spring chicken, candied sweet potatoes, new peas in cream, spiced crabapples, endive with French dressing, halves of honeyball melon filled with fresh fruits, milk, coffee.

Miss Fullingim is the daughter of Mrs. Mahala Fullingim of Frederick, Okla., and Pampa. She taught art in the Panhandle schools the last three years and will resume her work there in September. She attended the University of Oklahoma four years, studying law one year. She has lived with her brothers, Henry Will (FROG) Fullingim, former Harvester athletic star, Alfred B. Fullingim, and Archer Fullingim, since she graduated from high school.

Mr. Simms is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Simms of Oklahoma City, and a brother of Mrs. Frances Alexander, teacher in the local high school. He was graduated from the school of fine arts at the University of Oklahoma, majoring in sculpture, painting. He was a star performer on the Sooner track team, and set the Big Six record in the high jump and high hurdles. He also ran the mile, low hurdles and did the broad jump. He was selected as one of the most promising students in the university, to do a sculptural design for a gateway presented by his class to the university. Mr. Simms painted the murals for the floats in the 1935 Pre-Centennial parade, and the huge paintings which tell stories of Texas history now hang on the walls of the various schools.

Mr. Simms is employed at present by the Cabot company, Texas Elf plant.

Miss Fullingim has lived in Pampa for six years and is well-known here especially by many of the long-time residents.

Federal Racket On Immigration Being Uncovered

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Federal investigators, smashing through the traffic in faked naturalization papers, disclosed details tonight of a nationwide racket that has terrorized immigrants and taken a yearly toll of more than $1,000,000. After three months of quiet sleuthing, special Prosecutor Samuel H. Kaysler declared he and his staff had uncovered a maze of racketeering that extended from Ellis Island into virtually every large city in the country.

Sufficient evidence to convict or indict ten government employees at Ellis Island already has been amassed, he said, and his agents are concentrating now on the "brains" of the outside organization.

EDITORIAL

SPEAK THE GOOD WORD: Proverbs 12:25.
Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop;
but a good word maketh it glad.

(Written in Mexico, D. F.)

THERE ARE those who cannot believe that another revolution is not brewing in Old Mexico. News of state disorders, student demonstrations, and the like tend to confirm such an opinion in the minds of the uninformed.

It is true that Mexicans have exhibited small capacity for self-government in the past. Close observers hasten to add that a desire of the poor and numerous farmers to own land was a major factor which made it possible for military opportunists to secure armed followings.

The social revolution which began in 1910 is gradually dividing the lands among those who actually till them. That the government has not and probably will not pay for all the lands thus divided is obvious. Just as the United States did not reimburse Southerners for the value of negro slaves, so will the government explain many of its acts of recent years. Americans have been among the victims of this policy.

End of the political domination of former President Calles is not as abrupt as it may appear in public print, but the widespread claim that Calles' personal deposit is the third-largest in the Bank of England has not endeared him to the common people. Yet his services in the social revolution will long preserve much of his popularity.

Cardenas, whose federal authority and popularity have enabled him to unseat several state governors, "has something on the ball," to quote the chief of an American news service. His declaration that "Mexico has nothing to hide" impressed both Rotarians and Lions, who at the same time realized that the Church controversy involved not a little brutality and deliberate vexation.

Mexicans are deeply conscious of social trends. Their laws in behalf of workers include the 8-hour day, a month's pay after discharge, court review of questionable discharges, minimum wages, absenteeism for women workers during pregnancy. Wages are rising, much to the discomfort of foreigners, including American interests. Public education is increasing at the rate of a thousand new schools a year, but is still new and inadequate. Teachers' salaries are low. But illiteracy, which surprisingly existed for centuries in the midst of exploitation of natural resources, is steadily declining. Mexico's intonances and trends are largely environmental, and while socialistic are not communistic. Americans of long residence in Mexico told us that the country was definitely and unmistakably making progress toward better living standards, security, and national pride. Currently difficult problems will be adjusted.

The youth movement in Mexico, non-clerical and largely non-partisan, is an important influence for tolerance, freedom of conscious and the press, and individual liberties which the federal government, to secure dominance over its enemies, has tended to restrict.

—Typical scene: An Indian cutting grass on a fine lawn of a resort house, using a small hand scythe while squatting. He wore rough breeches and shirt, sandals with wooden soles, a tattered straw hat. Like many of his countrymen, he was in no hurry. Some Americans opined that he was happier than they.

—Mexico has a rather narrow mountain chain, with altitudes which give her a delightful climate every month. Yet her temperature range is from the tropics of Yucatan to the snow of her lofty peaks. Warm waters of the Pacific and the Atlantic bathe her shores. All-year beaches will some day be as famous as Galveston and Atlantic City. . . . Mexico is surprisingly tourist-conscious and is equipped by temperament to reap a harvest of dollars. . . . Lions were said to be jollier than the Rotarians (no compliment, perhaps) and easier to know than the average tourist. School teachers are always numerous in summer, when Mexican schools, by the way continue as usual. Their vacations are in the late fall.

—First impressions of the visitor are unfavorable to Mexico—mesquite and adobe huts are not inspiring. But as the interior is reached, the true character of the people and the wonders of the country are appreciated. The famed hospitality of the people is no myth. "Es su casa"—It is your house—expressed the spirit in the native idiom.

—Lionism is strong in Mexico and growing. Much of the credit is due Rudy M. Fernandez, president of the Mexico City club. Lions of the republic contributed liberally to buy him a $1,000 platinum watch, with the club emblem in diamonds. . . . Returning the courtesy of the visitors, a number of Mexican Boy Scouts will go to Washington, D. C. next month to attend the National Jamboree. . . . The Mexican government, hard-handed as it is in a scrap, has a soft heart for such things as Scouting, and one gets the impression that President Cardenas sincerely is trying to serve his country well.

—The metric system used in Mexico has much to commend it to this country, although the difference is annoying to trippers. Distances are measured in kilometers, which are approximately 5/8ths of a mile. Gasoline and other liquids are measured in liters. There are 3.72 liters (liters) in a U. S. gallon. Piece goods are sold by the metro, or 39.37 inches. One kilo (kilogram) weighs 2.2 pounds. The exchange rate, currently 28 cents to the peso in U. S. money, varies according to conditions.

—Baseball—a Mexican game. Excavations reveal that the Aztecs played a game very much like our baseball. . . . The Aztecs are believed to have originally lived in Arizona. They bear distinct Oriental features. Their origin is obscure and debated, but all legends point toward the Arizona country. . . . Cortes, who sailed out of Cuba in 1519 and burned his ships behind him after landing in Mexico, brought some of the bravest and hardest of conquerors. He had 11 ships, 508 soldiers, 16 horses, and several pieces of artillery. He obtained Indian allies before conquering the Aztecs. Conquering in the name of the Cross, he regarded the Indians as idol-worshippers and proceeded to destroy their images. For 300 years, Mexico was ruled by Spanish viceroys, many of whom plundered and enslaved the natives. . . . Today 55 per cent of the population is of mixed (Indian-Spanish) blood, 33 per cent is Indian, and 12 per cent is Creole, or Spaniards of purportedly pure blood. . . . A rising tide of nationalism, however, is blotting out blood distinctions in large measure.

—Something new, mis amigos: Jai-ai-ai (hi-a-li), the game originating in Spain and popular for years in Cuba and Mexico. Played in a huge gymnasium called a fronton. The gym is split by a wire netting; folks on one side, players on the other. Players, numbering two and on up to five, wear a curved wooden affair called a cesta, resembling part of a tire casing in size. A hard rubber ball, like a golf ball, is served against a concrete wall. It rebounds at terrific speed. The players catch it in the cesta and with the single motion hurl it back at the wall. Marvelous pick-ups and volleying show that the game is among the fastest in the world. Failure to return the ball to the wall loses a point. Thirty points make up a game. . . . Gambling heightens interest as bookies, red-capped, create a bedlam throughout the games. Play starts at 9 p. m., lasts to 1 a. m. or longer. Quite a game. Few persons are good enough to compete with the Spaniards.

—Courtesy, Mexicans have it. Architecture, here it is in ancient, Spanish, and modern form. . . . History: Where in the New World is it better illustrated? . . . Travel: Mexico should appeal to Americans more than Europe in many particulars. Licensed and bonded guides will show you everything. . . . Scenery: Switzerland has no better. . . . With the Laredo-Mexico City highway near completion, Americans will soon truly "See America First."

CAPITOL CHATTER

—BY CHARLES E. SIMONS—

AUSTIN, Aug. 3 (AP)—The "no loafing" sign has been posted in some of the state departments. It applies particularly to state employees who have department heads think been making too frequent trips to nearby places of refreshment.

One such place is immediately behind the capital—the other close to the state office building and the highway department building.

It is reported that the head of one department had a rush order to fill one sultry afternoon and came out of his private office to obtain help. He found about half his force had gone to the drink stand to refresh and fortify themselves against the heat.

The order for employees to stay at their posts unless given permission to leave was issued immediately. It is being strictly observed. Other department chiefs, from time to time, have issued similar orders but enforcement often was not pressed and after a few days employees began trickling out of the offices for a few minutes respite.

State employees usually are more careful how they spend the state's time while the legislature is in session. One occasion is recalled on which a member of the legislature went for a cooling drink but found the establishment so crowded with department employes he could hardly gain entrance. He was much displeased and made his views known in a speech from the floor for a few days.

Business at the drug stores fell off for a few days. One state department, however, has prohibited its employes from visiting the refreshment places and has stuck it out. That is the highway department. One never sees any of its employes indulging on the state's time. A few have cold drinks sent in now and then, but never attempt to go after them personally.

RELEASED FROM JAIL
SAN ANGELO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Mack Shipley, Reagan county deputy sheriff, was released from the Tom Green county jail here Friday after a habeas corpus hearing Thursday. He is charged with the killing of 2-year-old Woodrow Willingham at a suburban night club Monday night following a dispute with J. W. Willingham, the baby's father. At a preliminary hearing before Magistrate J. T. Mathison on Tuesday, Shipley had been ordered held in jail without bond.

Highway Under Hudson River Is Holed Through

Twenty-two feet under Hudson river bed, Midtown tunnel, New York, Aug. 3 (AP)—New York's new mid-town tunnel to the New Jersey shore, a cylinder of steel more than a mile long, was holed through Friday afternoon.

In the damp coolness of the caisson off the 39th street pier, the "sand hogs" came through with picks and shovels while two small armies of spectators on either side of the wall of muck, cheered themselves hoarse.

As the hole widened enough to permit a man to get from the New Jersey side of the bore to the Manhattan side, marking another step in the conquest of man against nature, Harry Spritling of Elmford, N. Y., a master mechanic and veteran sand hogger, squirmed his way through.

Next came Ben R. Jacoben, supervising engineer for the PWA.

Bedlam broke loose as the way was opened for a vehicular passage way under the Hudson from water-bound Manhattan Island to the New Jersey shore to the west. Sand hogs who had worked since last September under heavy air pressure and in imminent danger of injury or death, wiped their faces and grinned happily at the throng of spectators.

There are 81 Georgia towns that use "ville" with their names.

Several sat down with him and offered their services and assistance. Telegrams of sympathy came from many sections of Texas and several caused Patton to weep for a moment.

"Cousin Nat" is going right "thru this thing to the end" so that any implied blame may be removed from his shoulders.

Communists Try To Remove Sore Spot In Policy

MOSCOW, Aug. 3 (AP)—The seventh communist international adopted here the principle of non-interference in domestic affairs of individual, national communist parties—a step calculated to remove a sore spot in international relations caused by a suspicion that communist activities are directed from Moscow.

The congress adopted a resolution directing the executive committee to observe this policy as a rule and to concentrate its attention on questions of the world workers movement as a whole.

The experience gained by the world movement should be placed at the disposal of individual communist parties, the resolution said, but "arbitrary transfer of experience from one country to another" should be avoided.

The congress approved an appeal to the second, or Amsterdam international, to join the movement and ordered removal of bars within the communist party to an approach with social democratic workers.

TEXAS IN WASHINGTON

BY DONALD A. YOUNG
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP)—Texas, the largest state, has the youngest director of the administration's national youth movement.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Johnson City, and Secretary to Representative Richard M. Kleberg of Corpus Christi for four years, is 26 years old but when he goes to Austin to establish his new headquarters he will take with him more experience than some men much older.

"Lyn," as his close friends call him, was debate coach at Sam Houston high school in Houston before coming to Washington and he produced winners. Two of them—L. E. Jones and Gene Lattimer—he brought to Washington and put to work as his assistants and Jones will be in charge of the Austin office until Johnson reaches the capital. A dozen others he has "placed" in government departments.

Johnson was born in West Texas, taught school in East Texas and has been the right-hand man of a South Texas representative. While Kleberg devotes his time primarily to legislation, Johnson systematically handles the "routine" and knows "Mr. Dick" so well that he has been of valuable assistance to the congressman even on legislative matters.

He rules the office with a firm but kindly hand and "the boys" call him "the chief."

Within 24 hours after he completed his voluntary testimony, practically all of the Texas house delegation had called to tell him not to worry about the incident.

TINY TOTS TO BE SHOWN IN REX THEATER

'MOST CHARMING' CHILD TO BE SELECTED WEDNESDAY

Ambitious young ladies from walking age to ten years old will be given an opportunity to display their talent on the stage of the Rex theater next Wednesday night, Aug. 7, for the title of Pampa's most charming child.

Awards will be made on basis of poise, stage personality, charm, and grace. This is purely an amateur contest and none is required to furnish entertainment. The children will be presented on the stage in their own bathing suits and mothers wishing to enter their youngsters are requested to phone or call at the Rex theater any time up to noon Wednesday, August 7.

"Thin Man" and New Star

come to the La Nora theater today in "Escapade," a gay romance laid in Vienna.

O'BRIEN GETS TOUGH'S ROLE IN NEW FILM

ACTION AND THRILLS IN STORY OF ROCK DRILLERS

What is said to be George O'Brien's outstanding screen achievement opens today at the Rex theater. The film, "Hard Rock Harrigan," has the Colorado river aqueduct as a background and tells a brand new type of story in a brand new way, crammed with action and alive with thrills and plenty of excitement. The story deals with a feud between a husky hard rock driller, portrayed by George O'Brien, and his tunnel boss, played by Fred Kohler. The men are engaged in drilling a tunnel through a mountain, to complete a gigantic aqueduct project. The action occurs principally in a construction camp, deep within the interior of the tunnel.

The talented Irene Hervey appears as George O'Brien's leading lady, who operates the camp commissary. Miss Hervey's charm and beauty lend a welcome contrast to the rugged and untamed background, where the "hard rock" men fight nature in the raw.

Exciting tunnel scenes are marked with thrills and when George O'Brien is caught in a cave-in, which imprisons him with a companion in an inaccessible chamber, shivering tenseness rides high. With an ulterior motive in mind, Fred Kohler braves untold dangers to rescue O'Brien.

Hutchins, Inc. Is New Firm Name

The Pampa Glass and Paint company, which has been in business in Pampa for the past eight years, was incorporated July 6 and in the future will operate as Hutchins, Inc. The same lines of paints, wallpaper and other materials will continue to be sold by the company.

The same personnel, management and policies will be in effect as in the past. The officers are E. I. Hutchins, president and treasurer; J. W. Hutchins, vice president; Larry West, secretary, and C. E. Hutchins, general manager.

The store is located at 115 West Kingsmill.

It isn't the heat, it's the humidity that governs the change in moisture content of grain in storage and on the standing stalk, the government has found after many tests.
