Coffee To Go On Rationing List Nov. 28

Coffee will be rationed starting at midnight, Nov. 28, at a rate of one pound every five weeks for each person over 15 years old, the Office of Price Administration announced today from Washington.

On the basis of 35 to 40 cups to the pound, the ration means slightly more than a cup a day per person.

Retail sales will be halted at midnight, Nov. 21, Price Administrator Leon Henderson, said, for a week-long freeze during which grocers will stock their shelves for the start of rationing.

The first rationed coffee will be purchased on the last stamp in the sugar ration book, stamp No. 28. Subsequent rations will be issued by working backwards through the sugar book, using stamps No. 28 to No. 19, in sequence.

The War Production board ordered OPA to take control of consumer distribution to assure an equal supply for all, Henderson said, and attributed the emergency action mainly to "excessive buying by consumers." Reports of hoarding, over-buying and runs on dealers' supplies have been reaching Washington from many cities for three weeks.

"There is no reason for anyone to run to the corner grocer, put the squeeze on him and try to force him to help a hoarder," Henderson declared. "There is absolutely no excuse for hoarding coffee at this time."

Eligibility will be determined by the age shown on war ration book No. 1—the sugar ration book. If the age shown when the book was issued in May was 15 or older, the holder is entitled to coffee rations; if 14 or younger, the book is not valid for coffee purchases. Use of the book for sugar will continue as in the past.

In the light of "normal" United States per capita consumption, the new yearly ration rate of 104 pounds for each of the country's 93,000,000 adults "certainly is not a drastic reduction," Henderson asserted. It compares, however, with 16 pounds per capita in 1941, the all-time high consumption year.

All details of beverage rationing, including the method of distribution to hotels, restaurants and other commercial users, will be given out in the next few days, OPA said. Behind the whole problem is the shortage of shipping; there is ample coffee in Brazil, biggest U. S. source of imports, and at least normal supplies are in this country. However, even in normal times only a two-or-three-months' supply is held in this country. Added to the shipping uncertainty is the steeply mounting military demand and bigger civilian purchasing power.

However, WPB officials believed this country could have got along fairly well under informal rationing by grocers—"one pound to a customer"—had not the buying surge by housewives developed.

Kidnaped Dalhart Girl Back Home

DALHART, Oct. 26 (AP)—Sheriff H. D. Foust said today that Virginia Bonner, 13, was returned to her home here last night and that she, Sentinel, Okla., men were detained for investigation. He said charges would be filed against the two men but did not give the nature of the complaints. Sheriff Foust said witnesses told him that two men in an automobile drove up alongside Virginia as she was walking home from a movie Saturday afternoon. One of them, the sheriff said, jumped out and forced the girl into the car. Foust said a second girl who witnessed reported was in the car at the time, and crying, also was returned to her home last night.

NEVER before have you seen a picture like this. It shows Broadway and 42nd street, New York, famed as "the crossroads of the world" looking as empty

Nelson Makes An Appeal To Get In Industrial Scrap

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Industrial concerns "must undergo a thorough, old-fashioned house cleaning" to uncover every possible bit of industrial scrap, Donald M. Nelson says, because large deliveries of industrial scrap are essential to meet winter supply demands. The War Production board chairman appealed to industrial concerns to "dig deeper and even deeper" as he asserted that all equipment that cannot be repaired and put to war production "belongs on the nation's scrap pile."

"Nothing is more important to war production than scrap," said Nelson, in a statement. "The amount of scrap we get depends in a large measure on industrial scrap. It is essential to the successful solving of the winter supply problem." He added that during the last half of this year industrial firms must provide 12,000,000 tons of scrap.

The WPB chief said the results of the recent salvage drive conducted by the nation's newspapers showed the "kind of cooperation they can give, and we are grateful to them for their magnificent job."

RAF Takes Crack At Northern Italy

LONDON, Oct. 26 (AP)—At a cost of only eight bombers, the RAF was reported today to have done untold damage to war industries and supply centers in Northern Italy in a smashing new offensive in which home-based aircraft struck across the towering Alps four times in three days.

Capping the attacks was a heavy assault Saturday night on Milan, site of the Caproni bomber works, where four-motored bombers unloaded a vast weight of bombs—including two-ton "blockbusters."

Pilots who participated in the Milan raid said that buildings in Italy's second largest city "went flying" as stick after stick of bombs fell on the targets.

Only a few hours earlier a large force of Lancasters had raided the same city in broad daylight—the first daylight bombing expedition against Northern Italy since the beginning of the war.

George Inman Is Game Warden

George A. Inman, city and county peace officer for six years, is the new state game warden for the seven-county area comprised of Hutchinson, Hansford, Hemphill, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Roberts, and Wheeler.

He succeeds Bill Pearce who was called to duty in the army as a lieutenant several months ago. The position of game warden has been vacant until Mr. Inman's appointment.

While his territory proper is the seven-county area, Warden Inman as a state officer, has authority to stop game law violations anywhere in the state. He will also supervise enforcement of game laws in Donley and Gray county until such time as a warden is named to take over.

16 Killed In Crash Of RAF Ferry Plane

MONTREAL, Oct. 26 (AP)—Sixteen persons were killed today in the crash of a Royal Air Force ferry command aircraft on the north end of Montreal island.

Two of the dead were crewmen, the others passengers. The plane crashed 200 yards from Vole De Lisee road, two and a half miles from the Montreal airport at nearby Dorval.

An official announcement said names of the victims would be made public as soon as the next of kin had been notified.

Girl Scouts Open Annual Campaign To Collect Funds

Launching the annual Girl Scout financial campaign, 40 Girl Scout workers met at a kick-off breakfast in the Scheider hotel this morning.

In his message to the workers, the Rev. Robert Boshen, minister of First Presbyterian church, pointed out the fact that in the days of cave dwellers of medieval times, it was the women who took care of the home and community while the men went out to fight. He stated that similar circumstances exist now and that it is upon the women that the responsibility falls; therefore, the importance of stressing the right kind of training for girls today should be uppermost in the minds of all Girl Scout leaders.

Following the invocation by Rev. Boshen, committee members were introduced by Mrs. Mel Davis, commissioner, who also gave the treasurer's report from last year.

W. B. Weathered, financial chairman of Girl Scouts, announced the chairman of four service organizations sponsoring the drive. They are Bob Miller, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Roy McMillen, Lions club; Joe Key, Rotary club; and C. P. Pursley, Kiwanis club.

Each organization has been assigned a territory in the business section of the city and will have 100 prospects to contact. Girl Scout leaders and committee women will call on Pampans in the residential district.

5 Nip Attacks Repulsed In Pacific Fight

(By The Associated Press)

Reports from China and the Southwest Pacific war zones today were a testimonial to United States aviation, but despite the drubbing given the Japanese in their South Seas bases and along their supply lines, they have poured fresh troops into the battle for Guadalcanal.

The U. S. navy reported that Japanese troops, aided by tanks and heavy artillery, assailed the American lines on that Solomon island five times Friday night and Saturday morning, but were hurled back each time by the marine and army force.

The latest report was that on Sunday additional enemy troops were landed on the northwestern part of the disputed island.

The unremitting aerial offensive under both the U. S. navy command and General MacArthur's Australian command was credited over the week-end with likely hits on six Japanese fighting ships and three supply vessels, as follows:

A light cruiser and a destroyer were damaged in the Shortland island area on the night of Oct. 22-23 and a heavy cruiser, or battleship, possibly damaged by a torpedo hit.

A cruiser probably damaged about 300 miles northeast of Guadalcanal on the night of Oct. 24 and another damaged the next day north of Florida island.

A gunboat sunk with a direct hit in a Sunday night attack on Rabaul Harbor, New Britain, and three merchantmen totaling 12,000 tons listing sharply or on fire.

The Rabaul success, the work of ships either sunk or badly damaged under the MacArthur command, brought to 15 the number aged in three nights of attacks there—or a total of 80,000 tons destroyed or badly damaged and at least 20,000 tons additional more or less seriously damaged.

MacArthur's bombardiers also destroyed a Japanese bomber grounded at Kavieng, New Ireland, and started fires among supply dumps where which could be seen for 90 miles. Koepang, Dutch Timor, also was raided over the week-end and Allied airmen continued their strafing support of the counter-offensive across the Owen Stanley mountains of New Guinea.

A noteworthy triumph by the navy's Grumman Wildcat fighters was recorded in the Sunday evening communique—the destruction

8 Cargo Ships Go Down In Atlantic

(By The Associated Press)

Seven United States cargo ships and one Panamanian last week were announced sunk in Western Atlantic enemy action, spelling death for at least 19 seamen and adding to the list of the missing.

The sinkings brought to 502 the Associated Press tabulation of nations merchant ship losses by nations merchant ship losses by enemy attack in that area since Pearl Harbor.

The skipper of one of the American ships was taken prisoner aboard the attacking U-boat—the 12th such imprisonment in recent months.

'All Is Confusion' As Bombs Hit Italy

MOSCOW, Oct. 26 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Geneva said today that King Vittorio Emanuele and Queen Elena of Italy rushed to Genoa last Friday "on the insistent demand of the Fascist government" after reports reached Rome of panic caused among the population and local authorities by the first destructive British air raid there Thursday night.

The King and Queen encountered utter disorganization in the prefecture and in hospitals, the Russian news agency said. It learned from dispatches coming out of Italy.

"Many officials were absent from their posts," Tass asserted. "The King was reported dissatisfied with the behavior of the local authorities who proved unable to restore order at factories or to arrest the rush of workers abandoning their work, and other Genoa residents feeling to the northern suburbs."

Committee Okays Bill Outlawing Poll Tax Ruling

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The senate judiciary committee approved 12 to 5 today a revised house measure outlawing the collection of poll taxes as a prerequisite to voting in elections in which federal office holders are chosen.

Sen. Norris (Ind-Nebr) immediately notified the senate and obtained permission for the filing of majority and minority reports while the senate was not in session.

Sen. Doxey (D-Miss) served notice that he would raise at a later date a point of order against the senate's consideration of the controversial measure.

Norris told reporters that opponents of the bill had raised the point in committee that an insufficient number of members was present for consideration of the measure there today. Norris said Chairman Nye (D-Ind) had ruled that the six members present, one-third of the membership, constituted a quorum under the senate's rules.

When the bill was reported, Norris said sufficient proxies were voted to make the count 13 to 5 in favor of the measure. Previously, it had been reported adversely by the full committee by a subcommittee.

Eight Southern states require payment of poll taxes as a voting qualification.

Mrs. Roosevelt Gets First Air Raid Experience

LONDON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt heard her first British air raid alert today while addressing a group of girls at the Home Counties Auxiliary Territorial service training center, obviously unperturbed, she continued talking. The girls cheered when she had finished.

Earlier, she had visited an ATS base at a Home Counties airport and talked to a group of 22 American girls who are ferry pilots.

The alert today was the first in London since Mrs. Roosevelt has been in Britain.

Bomber Pilot Called In Probe

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Oct. 26 (AP)—Army authorities were asked today to produce a civil inquest the pilot of a bomber which was in collision with a commercial airliner near Palm Springs last Friday in which all 12 persons aboard the latter plane were killed.

Coroner Ben F. White said the bomber pilot's name had not been made available to him, but that he expected to learn it shortly and would issue a subpoena for his appearance at the inquest.

"Of course," added White, "it's up to the army from there on."

Meantime, search continued for the bodies of three of the victims, while the other nine, all identified, were held in a morgue here.

Tug-of-War Still Rages In Russia

BULLETIN (By The Associated Press)

Shielded by the British-American air armada which formed the first wave of attack, the Allied offensive in Egypt rolled forward today—infantrymen of many lands, tanks and mobile artillery—toward a knock-out test with the Axis African corps. Action in the South Pacific and Asia likewise reflected the growing might of United States and Allied invasion.

The United Nations held the edge today in the new battle of Africa, consolidating initial gains in the Egyptian desert and firmly ruling the skies; the battle of Stalingrad remained a fearful tug-of-war, and action in the South Pacific and Orient reflected the growing offensive and defense capacity of U. S. air power.

It was evident that the main battle forces in Egypt—Britain's melting pot Eighth army and the German and Italian divisions under Marshal Rommel—had not yet tangled although the Eighth army has been on the offensive since Friday night.

When they do clash it will be a terrible melee, involving about a quarter million men in all and the immediate future of the war for the whole Mediterranean zone. There has been no big tank battle yet although minor brushes were reported.

The Allies, with some of their forces reported half-way through Rommel's four-mile-deep minefield in the sector, reported today 1,450 German and Italian prisoners had been taken up to 6 p. m. Sunday and that the Axis forces had failed to dislodge Allied troops from their initial penetrations.

The Allied air force, counting numbers of American planes and pilots, continued to attack the length and breadth of Rommel's defense zone between the Mediterranean and the forbidding Qattara depression about 40 miles to the south. The battle line, approximately at the limits of the Axis drive into Egypt last June is about 70 miles west of Alexandria, major British naval base.

The Allied airmen were trying to cripple Rommel's armored forces before they could engage Allied tanks.

An increase in enemy air activity where the Germans and Italians previously had all but vanished from the skies was reported by British headquarters. However, at least seven of the German planes which showed themselves over the battle area yesterday were downed by Allied fighters and many more were damaged.

Allied bombers attacked Tobruk, Libyan supply port for Rommel, and blew up a merchant ship with a direct hit. Long range fighters which went along to Tobruk downed four planes. Another long range fighter expedition was credited with four more planes.

Counting the intense action over the battle area and destruction of three Axis planes over Malta yesterday, the Sunday score for the Allies in Axis planes destroyed in the Mediterranean-African area was 18, against the acknowledged loss of three Allied planes.

The Italian high command said that a British attempt to land troops deep on the sea-girt flank of the Axis, at Matruh, Egypt, had been repulsed as had all frontal assaults. Matruh, about 125 miles west of the El Alamein front, was raided at the outset of the offensive by light seacraft, the British have announced.

The purpose of the raid was to harass that base, the British have indicated, but the Italians said that the boats were loaded with troops and were turned away by air assault.

The German radio boasted that 104 British tanks had been knocked out at the El Alamein front on Saturday and asserted that the large scale Allied offensive had been

American Raiders Blast Japs Again In Hongkong Area

By J. REILLY O'SULLIVAN WITH THE U. S. ARMY AIR FORCES IN CHINA, Oct. 26 (AP)—American bombers cascaded explosives on Hongkong early today for the second time in 24 hours, adding new fires to those started in a devastating Sunday assault, and smashed again at the frequently raided Japanese White Cloud air-drome near Canton.

After setting the Hongkong waterfront aflame yesterday, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's headquarters announced, today's raiders destroyed the North Point power station there, planting every one of their bombs in the target area.

Destruction of the North Point station was a major stroke against the Japanese at Hongkong, for it supplied power to the whole of the island. It is situated along the waterfront, about two miles from the district.

During the Japanese siege of the colony last December the enemy was careful not to shell the plant because they wanted it for their own purposes and they captured it intact with their first landing.

At Canton many fires were started and a heavy explosion was noted in the vicinity of the air-drome. Today missions were accomplished without the loss of a plane despite Japanese efforts at interception.

Attempting to minimize the raids on Hongkong, the Tokyo radio said that damage was negligible in the first one and that the raiders "were forced to turn tail" by fire of Japanese anti-aircraft guns in the second. The Tokyo broadcast gave the time of Sunday's raid as 3:30 p. m. and Monday's as 1:30 a. m.)

'Our War Program' Discussed By State BPW President At Lunch Here

Miss Hatilu White, state president of Business and Professional Women's club, presented the institute at a luncheon given by the Pampa club at the Junior High cafeteria Sunday at noon for members of all groups in district one.

After lunch Miss White discussed "Our War Program," which calls for all business and professional women fighting for democracy. Everyone's skills are needed on all fronts; each club is to focus effort if available on one front, but the "grand strategy" demands a concerted offensive on all, she pointed out.

These four fronts are: Battle of ideas. Everyone is needed to combat the Axis and all anti-democratic propaganda to help establish in your own opinion clearing houses where rumors can be sifted and constructive opinion formed, to clarify our war aims.

"Battle for production. Each club is needed to solve placement problems in each community to help provide proper training and re-training facilities, to deal with any dislocation caused by the war. The older workers need help; clubs can do that; younger people get vocational information, to help produce and improve industrial relations and to help the community grapple with industrial or agricultural problems.

"Community offensive. Each member is needed to see that democratic faith becomes a reality in each community and to set up procedures to make sure that all groups in each community participate in civilian defense, to make price control and rationing effective, to help conserve materials for war production, to help in every effort to keep the community and nation fit—physically, mentally, and spiritually.

"Battle for peace. Each and everyone in your community is needed in working and planning for post-war reconstruction and for permanent peace, to help the world avoid post-war chaos by discussing some of the problems now. How are we going to establish a family of nations that can live together in a world at peace?" she asked in conclusion.

Other speakers were Mrs. Clara Pratt of Lubbock, district one director; Mrs. Dolly Pendleton, vice-president of the Amarillo club; Elma Lee Bender, president of the Panhandle club; Mrs. Audrey Fowler, state legislative chairman; and

Miss Lorene Baker Becomes Bride Of Jimmie McCormick

MIAMI, Oct. 26—Announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Lorene Baker of Canadian, and Jimmie McCormick, which occurred at the First Baptist church in San Diego, California, on October 4. The service was read by the pastor, Rev. John Bunyan Smith.

Attendants were Miss Ruth Ferguson, Miss Betty Jo Crowson, and Clinton Scribbling, all of Miami, and Marvin Croft of California.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker of Canadian, was attractive in a beige wool suit and corsage of orchids. Her accessories were in vogue.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ida McCormick of Miami and is a first rate cook in the navy, having gone from Miami direct to his present position. He is a brother of Fluke McCormick, late of Miami, who lost his life in a Coral sea battle several months ago, while in the armed forces of his country.

HUNTERS LEAVE GUNS, TRAP BUCK ALIVE

VAN NUYS, Calif. (P)—Three hunters set on polishing their guns preparatory to a deer hunting trip. They looked out the window of the house, and there in the yard was a large buck. Dropping their arms, Robert Kenney, H. C. Mathers and Tom Enriquez gave chase, cornered the deer in an adjoining brickyard, and captured it alive.

It's no longer TABOO for girls to talk of this possible help

CARDUI has a 62-year record of 3-way help, when taken as directed: (1) started three days before "your time"; (2) should help relieve purely functional periodic pain; (3) taken as a tonic, CARDUI usually improves appetite, aids digestion by increasing flow of gastric juices, and thus helps build resistance for needed days. Try CARDUI. You may be glad you did!

CROWDED WITH THE CALLS OF WAR

It's true we usually can put through quickly your long distance telephone calls to towns near-by. But when you send your voice to long cities, it may travel on lines jammed to the limit with calls that help move troops, make planes, build tanks. We can't put up more lines, because most of the metal has gone to war. So please help us in a vital job. Make as few calls as possible to war centers or cities far away, and please plan to keep such calls short. It will help clear the way for the calls of war. SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

A, B, C's of Gasoline Rationing

Ration Book	No. coupons in ration book	Period they last	Gallon value of each coupon	Approx. number of miles a month	Who is entitled to this book?
A	48	One year (8 coupons valid every two months)	4	240	All motorists. Ninety miles a month is presumed needed for school, marketing, etc. The other 150 miles is for essential occupational driving.
B	16	3 months	4	320	Motorists who can prove their occupational driving needs are between 150 and 470 miles each month.
C	up to 96	3 months	4	as needed	Motorists who must drive more than 470 miles a month. C books are "tailored," by adding or removing coupons, to exact driving needs each three-month period.
D	48	One year (8 coupons valid every two months)	1.5	240	Motorcycle owners. If needs are greater than 240 miles a month, additional D books can be obtained.
S	51-96 52-384	4 months	5	as needed	Operators of trucks, busses, taxis, hearses, etc. Ration is based normal operational needs.

Here are the A, B, C's of gasoline rationing which goes into effect for all the nation's motorists next month. Cut this chart out and keep it in your wallet with your driver's license. If you have two cars, you can get two A ration books for two B's or C's if you can prove the necessity. There are also E and F books, designed to meet gasoline needs for non-highway vehicles like tractors, pumps, boats and so on.

TUG-OF-WAR

In the European sectors of the air war there was an overnight lull while Britain tallied the results of four smashing bomber raids in three days on northern Italy's ports and industries. The attacks cost only eight bombers.
The Caproni bomber factory at Milan was the final target Saturday night. Only a few hours earlier Milan had been raided by daylight, the first such excursion against northern Italy in this war. The night raiders completed the job with a great tonnage of bombs, including two-ton blockbusters which devastated whole sections of this second largest Italian city.
Tied in with this effort to impair Italy's role in the developing battle of Africa was a British submarine offensive in the Mediterranean credited yesterday with sinking five Italian supply ships, probably sinking an enemy destroyer and an armed merchant cruiser and heavily damaging five other supply ships.
These blows, the London admiralty said, made a total of 24 Axis supply ships sunk or damaged by British submarines in the Mediterranean during October.
In the only European air activity reported this morning, London's anti-aircraft gunners went into action after two hostile planes were spotted heading for the city.
The ebb and flow of battle in the Stalingrad area of the flank of the German line northwest of the city made it difficult to appraise the real situation there.
Frontline dispatches via Moscow said that the Russians held fast in the Volga city as the Germans launched another assault after a heavy barrage, and in a fierce engagement marked at times by hand-to-hand combat, threw the enemy out of a factory property penetrated yesterday.
Whether the Russians had completely nullified the German occupation of two additional streets in Stalingrad was not clear. The Germans yesterday were reported to have won the streets at a cost of 3,000 German dead.
Northwest of Stalingrad, an additional number of blockhouses and trenches were reported occupied by the Russians as they pressed the German flank to ease direct pressure on Stalingrad.
A return of Indian summer had brought a resurgency of fierce fighting at Stalingrad but elsewhere on the Russian front winter was closing in.
The Germans said that several artillery hills had been scored on the Russian battleship Marat in the bay of Leningrad but there was no sign of major operations in Russia except in the Stalingrad area.
Even in the Mozdok area of the Caucasus, focus of the Germans' southernmost drive, the enemy had quit attacking, "exhausted by heavy losses," the Russians said.

of 30 Zero fighters, the entire escort of 16 Japanese bombers which attacked Henderson airfield on Guadalcanal on Oct. 23. Moreover, one of the bombers which the Zeroes were guarding was downed and three others were damaged.
The American air force in China, having smashed at Japanese installations in the north with their big four-motored Liberators last week, hit Japanese-occupied Hongkong, in the extreme south, yesterday and today.
Today's attack destroyed the North Point power station of the captive British crown colony.
Later in the morning the bombers raided White Cloud airfield, northeast of Canton, starting many fires and touching off one heavy explosion. All planes returned to bases from today's missions.
Yesterday they plastered a Hongkong waterfront area despite Japanese attempts at interception and won a considerable combat victory over the enemy fighters.

"Keep 'Em Rollin'.. or Else!"
says grandpappy engine 2414
to a 1942 Santa Fe Freight Diesel

"Back in '98, in the Spanish-American War," reminisces little Old-Time 2414, "20 cars was an average-length freight train. By World War I, we'd upped our Santa Fe freights to an average 35.9 cars. Not bad railroadin', that."
"Not bad is right," answers the big new freight Diesel, "but not good enough for World War II. Now we've stretched 'em out another 41%, to 50.9 cars, and those cars are bigger, loaded heavier, and rolling farther and faster."
"Good work, son," says Old-Time. "Yours is the BIG war job. Keep 'em rollin'—or else!"

KEEP 'EM ROLLIN'—OR ELSE
No nation that does not possess efficient mass transportation can hope to win a modern war. In America that mass transportation job is squarely up to her railroads. If they fail, we lose.
Neither battle gallantry nor industrial wizardry alone will turn the tide. To meet this tremendous responsibility, we ask for every possible consideration in the allocation of materials for vitally essential repairs, maintenance and new equipment.
DAILY THE LOAD INCREASES
To date, the railroads have met 100% the staggering demands born of this global war. Many have helped make that record possible—the War Department, the Office of Defense Transportation, civilian shippers and travelers everywhere.
In the first six months of 1942, with 25% fewer locomotives, the Santa Fe moved 94% more freight ton-miles and 27% more military and civilian passenger miles than in the first six months of 1918, in World War I.
Daily the load increases. No man knows what the peak will be. We do know there is a limit to the performance that can be squeezed out of existing equipment.

Special To The NEWS
CHICAGO, Oct. 26—Ending a railroad career that began more than 51 years ago, Paul P. Hastings, vice president in charge of traffic for the Santa Fe railway, and one of the country's best vested rate experts, announced his retirement here today to become effective October 31. Widely known throughout the United States as an authority in the railroad rate field, Hastings has been head of the Santa Fe's traffic department since 1938.

PIERRE, S. D., (AP)—The war may return some of the romantic color of the old west.

Old timers envision the return of cattle trails over which livestock will be driven to market, or railroad sidings instead of being hauled in motor trucks.

Roundup time next year will see possibly 40 per cent of the present motor carriers off the road unless new tires and parts are available, said Walter P. Cotton, South Dakota agricultural experiment station research worker, after a survey.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Bob Steuber, the human adding machine who plays left halfback for the University of Missouri football team, annexed 20 more points Saturday and easily retained his grasp on the nation's scoring honors.

Steuber outsped the Iowa State college tacklers for three touchdowns and converted two of them, the day's efforts bringing his total for six games to 83 points.

His one-day outburst, however, was surpassed by Jim Secret, University of Rochester halfback, who counted five touchdowns, and was approached by All America Frank Sinkwich of Georgia.

Tulsa One Of Nation's Four Unbeaten Teams

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Only four college football teams throughout the nation remained unscathed on today but at least 33 others still were unbeaten and untied, some of them after playing as many as six games.

Tulsa (Okla.) university boasted the outstanding spotless record, having piled up 26 points without yielding a score in five games, but the high scorer in the unbeaten ranks was Fresno State, which swamped Fort Ord, Calif., 80-0, yesterday for a five-game total of 270 points against only six for its opponents.

Previously unbeaten powers in every section of the country dropped to the wayside the past week-end, including such teams as Illinois, Santa Clara, Arizona and Brown.

Steers And Toads Set For Title Go In Southwestern

By RICHARD WEST
Associated Press Staff
Texas and Texas Christian—and you're just about told the story of 1942 football in the Southwest conference.

With the season but half finished, it appeared today that—barring a catastrophe—The Longhorns and horned Frogs would meet for the title two weeks from Saturday in Fort Worth.

Arkansas and Texas A and M are virtually eliminated. Rice is on the ragged edge. Southern Methodist hasn't started, but doesn't seem to be of championship calibre. Baylor has its roughest road ahead.

Which leaves the Toads and Steers—two fine teams with swift attacks and durable defenses.

By JOHN E. WARD
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 26 (AP)—Arizona University may be in for more trouble than a three-legged cat at a dog show if scouts from other border conference colleges spent the week end in Milwaukee.

There the scouts could have seen (and some probably did) what happens when the Wildcats are up against an accurate passer and glib-fingered receivers. In Milwaukee the result was Marquette 39, Arizona 0.

Up until Saturday, Arizona was unbeaten and untied and had yielded only six points in four games. And less than a month ago the Wildcats were the best defensive record in the nation.

Abilene Christians Primed For Battle With Yellowjackets

BROWNWOOD, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Howard Payne Yellow Jackets, perennial winners of the Texas conference championship, are within one game of doing it again.

The Jackets beat Southwestern 13-0 last week for their eighth straight victory and now have only to meet Abilene Christian college to call it a season.

A. C. C. however, looks like a tough one for the Howard Paynes to take care of. The Christians have won one conference game and lost none and had dropped only one game for the season, the same as Howard Payne.

FOOTBALL TITLES IN BALANCE

This Week's Games To Be Real Test

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—With most of their inter-sectional struggles and non-conference "breathers" out of the way, the nation's college football teams came up this week to that point of the season in which the various sections can begin separating the champions from the also-rans.

As on most football Saturdays of the past in this wartime season, the Midwest again will have a corner on the so-called "Naturals" but there will be enough backyard feuds in other sections of the country to take care of the paying customers and help clarify conference tie pictures.

The 'Big Ten' conference reaches a show-down stage, with a drastic revision of the standings a definite possibility.

Ohio State, which lived up to its No. 1 national rating by knocking off Northwestern, 20-6, Saturday for its fifth victory of the year and the third in the conference, meets unbeaten but once tied Wisconsin on the hard concrete in that league, if not in all the land.

Wisconsin blanked Purdue, 13-0, in its first conference outing Saturday and moved in among the loop's first three.

Illinois, knocked out of the undefeated ranks by Notre Dame, 21-14, will go after victory No. 3 on a clean conference slate against Michigan, tripped by Minnesota, 16-14. Northwestern will try for its first league win in four starts against Minnesota.

Iowa, 14-13 with one over Indiana, will tangle with Purdue. With no league opponent to play, Indiana must tackle the well-rested Iowa preflight Seahawks.

Notre Dame, getting better by the week, moves into Cleveland for a go at a navy team that has won and lost on alternate Saturdays and was sunk, 21-0, by unbeaten Georgia Tech last week.

The Southwest conference may find its 1942 champion in the winner of Saturday's Dixie header between two unbeaten powers, Georgia and Alabama. The latter was hard pressed to stop Kentucky, 14-0, for its fifth win, while Georgia breezed through Cincinnati, 35-13, for its sixth. Georgia Tech has a non-conference win over Duke, which rolled over Pitt, 28-0, for its second decisive triumph in a row.

Tulane, 29-14 winner over North Carolina, clashes with Vanderbilt and L. S. U., which routed Georgia pre-flight, 34-0, tangling with Tennessee in other loop action.

William and Mary, the Southern conference favorite, has a non-conference date with Dartmouth, but North Carolina has its annual argument with North Carolina State in league play.

The East's top flight encounter brings unbeaten Army face to face with Pennsylvania, which routed Columbia, 42-12, while Army was stopping Harvard, 14-0, last week. Syracuse, another eastern team without a loss, dumped Cornell, 12-7, but must tackle North Carolina preflight this week.

Unbeaten Boston College, 27-0 winner of Wake Forest, catches Georgetown; Harvard battles Princeton, which handed Brown its first defeat, 32-12, and Brown faces Yale.

In the Southwest, undefeated Texas Christian, fresh from a 21-0 triumph over the Pensacola fliers, returns to conference play against Baylor, which nipped Texas A and M, 6-0, Texas, which pulled out a 12-7 decision over Rice, bangs into another league foe, Southern Methodist, and Texas A. and M. plays Arkansas.

On the Pacific coast, U. C. L. A., which routed Saint Clara, out of the unbeaten ranks, 14-6, faces a stern test against Stanford, 14-6 winner over Southern California. After handing Washington a 19-6 surprise, California meets Oregon.

Washington tangles with Oregon State in another conference struggle and Washington State engages the California pre-flighters.

In the Big Six, Nebraska will meet Kansas and Oklahoma will face Iowa State in the only two conference games scheduled.

Fireworks Ready To Burst In Lone Star Conference
COMMERCIAL, Oct. 26 (AP)—The fireworks start this week in the Lone Star conference football race with all four teams playing games counting in the standing.

San Houston State, which opened the campaign by tumbling North Texas State 21-0 in a thriller-diller last week, comes here Friday night to tackle East Texas State. East Texas has not yet seen conference action.

North Texas, meanwhile, will be entertaining Southwest Texas State at Denton.

East Texas crushed Austin college 34-0 last week while Southwest Texas was losing to Abilene Christian college 26-0. Austin college recently stated that Lubbock defeated Temple 13 to 0. The correct score was Temple 13, Lubbock 6.

IMPERSONAL RULES FOR DETERMINING GREAT LEADERSHIP

The contest which this column is running, offering prizes for the best 400 word article on what impersonal rules should be used to measure great leadership, closes tomorrow.

Of course, great leadership does not mean leadership in fooling the people or temporary popularity. There are certain immutable, impersonal rules that determine whether or not a man is really a great leader...

Remember your contribution must be in the office or postmarked October 28 in order to be considered by the judges in this contest.

WILL THE SO-CALLED REMEDY FOR INFLATION BE WORSE THAN THE DISEASE?

We should thoroughly analyze the proposed remedies for money inflation to find out whether or not the remedy will not be even worse than the disease...

Our real disease is that we have to too great an extent abandoned the competitive system. Thus we have departed from respecting the inherent rights that belong to each and every citizen...

Now we propose to remedy the results of arbitrary, discriminatory man-made laws by giving the President, who seemingly seems to think himself to be omnipotent, more power to make more man-made laws...

But probably even inflation will not cause as much poverty and misery and suffering as the centralization of power will cause. The centralization of power will greatly curtail production...

Of course, increased money prices do a great hardship to those who have their savings in the form of credits or money. Increased money prices are in reality a tax on credits, as the individual wants to transfer his credits into consumable goods or capital goods...

A Worse Condition: But probably even inflation will not cause as much poverty and misery and suffering as the centralization of power will cause...

RESEARCH: In only a few months Allen Property Custodian Leo T. Crowley has taken over foreign assets the many times as valuable as all enemy possessions which the United States seized during the First World War...

COSTS: Henry Morgenthau's present financial program irritates the men whom President Roosevelt described as "money changers" in his first inaugural address...

On the other hand if we permitted the disease of higher money prices, sometimes called inflation, to take action, probably we would more quickly recognize the real cause of the increased cost of living...

The only remedy that will stop inflation, that is the high increased cost of living, is laws that will permit us using all the talents we have in production; laws that will penalize production, but laws that will make the man who subtracts from the total production pay his proportionate share of government expense...

The only remedy for inflation is competition and an honest credit and money system.

The Real Causes for Inflation: The worst causes of inflation are collective bargaining, a belief in minimum wages, taxing production rather than consumption, the misuse of bank credit and the government borrowing to pay the bills rather than being honest and courageous enough to tax the consumer enough to pay the bills as we go along...

Yes, it is rather disheartening to see so many people being fooled in the belief that the last stabilization law proclaimed by the President will retard inflation.

DIFFICULTIES: Mrs. Roosevelt's elaborate plan for establishing nurseries for the little folks of war-working mothers threatens to die a-borning. Its sounds ideal in theory, like so many of her suggestions, but practical experience indicates that it is not feasible.

A Washington housewife, for instance, cannot obtain a maid through public employment agencies (under Mrs. R.'s dictum) unless she is engaged in a "constructive occupation." She may have five small youngsters, need help badly and be able to afford the present steep rates for domestics. But she is out of luck unless she is putting her

News Behind The News The National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER: PREVIEW: Next month's polling will provide sensational upsets if Democratic expectations materialize...

In numerous notable struggles the majority group's leaders hope to put over their candidates with the ballots of Republicans. James A. Farley's chief chance of electing John J. Bennett Jr. over Thomas E. Dewey as governor of New York...

Practical difficulties stand in the way of communist hospitality. A worker who has to reach his job at eight or nine o'clock in the morning must rise at five or six o'clock, feed, dress and scrub his children's faces and then deliver them to the neighborhood center...

As a preview of 1944's Presidential struggle, the November controversy commands unique interest among politicians in the Capital. It may determine who controls the Democratic Party—New or Old Dealers—and whether, as in 1920, the Republicans have a chance to come back on a wave of war weariness.

Agitated Wife—What is that stuff you are going to give my husband? Doctor—An anesthetic. After he has taken it he won't know anything. Wife—Then don't give it to him. He doesn't need it.

Minister—Where is your husband today, Mrs. Smith? I didn't see him at church. Mrs. Smith—It grieves me to tell you, sir, that poor Charlie has joined the Great Majority. Minister—You mean—he's dead? Mrs. Smith—Gracious, no! He's gone to the football game.

Eureka! Victory Tax Made Clear

By PETER EDSON

The easiest way to understand this new 5 per cent Victory tax and what it may do to you is to take a typical case and try to spell it out to show what happens to the 5 per cent the boss will start taking out of your pay envelope after Jan. 1943...

So take the case of one James (Jim) Dandy, married, two children, earning $60 a week all through 1942, buying his home and paying for it at the rate of $30 a month...

Now this is, of course, a phony and incomplete and maybe impossible budget, but it will show how this Victory tax thing will work...

In the first place, the Victory tax does not apply on the first $12 of every worker's weekly wages. People who earn less than $12 a week don't have to pay Victory tax...

Having contributed this Victory tax, Jim is theoretically entitled to certain post-war refunds. If Jim were single, he would be entitled to a 25 per cent refund. Being married, he gets more. On July 1, 1943, therefore, Jim should be reminded to count his family, for the computation of his refund is to be determined by his marital status on that date...

But to get back to Jim Dandy counting his family on July 1, he learns that he has one (1) wife. That entitles him to 40 per cent refund. They have two (2) children. He gets a 2 per cent refund on each, or a total of 44 per cent refund on the $124.80. This is the amount which Jim's boss had already taken from his pay envelope during 1942...

Does Jim get this refund and if so, when and how? If Jim had no insurance, no debts, and was buying no war bonds, he could not get this refund till after the war is over.

GET IT BACK: But Jim may be dead by then, so the thing for him to do is take this refund as a credit against his income tax. To get this credit, Jim must show that he has made payments on insurance, paid off debts, and bought war bonds for an amount greater than $54.91. In Jim's case, his $100 insurance payment is enough to entitle him to this credit, but he has in addition payments on the principal of his mortgage amounting to $15 a month or $180 a year, and he has been buying war bonds at the rate of $6 a week for 52 weeks or $312. The total is $592, but as far as saving him money on his tax bill it is mostly window dressing, for all it permits him to do is get credit for his refund of $54.91 now, instead of having to wait till after the war is over to collect it...

At Jim's salary of $60 per week gross, his regular income tax would be around $160 a year—say $164.91 to make it easy. But since he is already credited with having paid $54.91 too much Victory tax, Jim can deduct this $54.91 from the $164.91 and he can get by with an income tax payment of only $110; neat.

What the Victory tax amounts to, therefore, is part payment of income tax in advance. It lightens the income tax you pay year-after-next, by making you pay a little more the year before. Maybe that's one reason for calling it a Victory tax. It's a victory for the tax collector, only he's going to have his trousers when he tries to explain all this complicated and confusing business. Talk about headaches, wait till pre-March 15, 1944.

Today's War Analysis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

LONDON, Oct. 26—The British offensive in Egypt may develop into one of the decisive engagements of the war, but at this early stage we must content ourselves with the fact that the Allies finally have seized the offensive there and that they have made considerable progress in fierce fighting.

The great stake involved is control of the Mediterranean and the Middle East. He who dominates this vital area will win the war.

Long ago, when the Russo-Nazi conflict first began, I was asked to give a standard whereby readers could gauge the daily progress of the war themselves.

If Hitler could reach the lower Caucasus and the Middle East, he would have gone far toward winning the war. This was so because he would have acquired rich oil fields and other resources without which he could not hope for victory and he would have secured strategic bases calculated to break Britain's hold on the Mediterranean.

If the Nazi chief did not succeed in this great ambition, he would be a beaten man.

Now, there was not only one but there were two possible routes for him to take. The first was to smash his way through the Russian lines and down the Caucasus. The other was to drive eastward across the drifting sands of Libya into Egypt and thence over the Suez canal into a happy hunting ground.

The Nazi high-stakes decided on a vast pincer movement. The left arm of the pincers was represented by his drive against the Russian Caucasus. The right prong was Rommel's thrust against Egypt from Libya.

Well, the Fuehrer left prong appears to have come a cropper against the cold waters of the Volga and the foothills of the now snow-smeared Caucasus mountains. His right claw, too, got held up because he couldn't give Rommel the support necessary to continue the offensive against Egypt.

Still, that Axis army remained a threat and the British finally are undertaking to remove it. As things stand, if the Allies can drive the Boche and their unhappy Italian henchmen out of northern Africa, we shall have completed an operation which deprives Hitler of his already all but dead hope of wresting victory out of war.

So that is what this battle is over and if it seems to be moving slowly at the start, this isn't the moment for impatience.

We must recognize that this isn't the outset of the highly fluid, rapidly moving battles to which we have been accustomed.

We aren't witnessing one of those spectacular kaleidoscopic affairs in which mechanized opponents swirl and turn about each other across the open sands like fast warships on an unfringed sea.

Speed is likely to come in due course. However, that will be after the British have smashed the strongly fortified positions which the Axis forces have created to defend themselves against the drive which they could see developing, but which they weren't adequately prepared to meet.

The battle line now is confined in a comparatively narrow strip of desert between the Mediterranean on the north and the great Qattara depression on the south.

Within this pace line many ridges among them the Germans and Italians have "dug themselves in" after the manner of the last war and have fortified their position strongly with mine fields and artillery.

As a result it wasn't possible for the Allies to follow the customary procedure of modern desert fighting and attack with the tanks leading. It would be suicidal for the tanks to rush in against emplaced artillery.

Thus we see Montgomery opening up the way with a heavy bombardment from the air and artillery and by use of infantry in many places.

Within the confines of the sea and the Qattara depression flank attacks, which are one of the great features of open desert fighting, can only be made along the sea or on the edge of that great Qattara sink which in some places has escarpments hundreds of feet high. This is an added reason why frontal attack has had to be used.

BUY VICTORY BONDS: It was hot. And the young book salesman hadn't found any book buyers, all morning. He knocked, and the door was opened by a grumpy-looking woman in a blue dress. However, he asked pleasantly: Book Salesman—Have you Charles Dickens in your house? Woman (snapping)—No! Book Salesman—Or Robert Louis Stevenson, or Walter Scott? Woman—No, we ain't. And what's more I don't take in war workers. Try next door. They do.

A man in our office—we won't mention names—took out a life insurance policy on himself, naming his wife as beneficiary. Arriving home with the policy in his pocket, he wandered, sort of casual like, into the kitchen, and said: He darling, what do you suppose I did today? I had my life insured for $5,000.

Wife—That's just like you! All you seem to think of is yourself. Jerry—Got a minute to spare? Gladys—Sure! Jerry—Tell me all your troubles.
