Wallace Among Those Tagged 'Red' Searchers Believe Death Was Instant

Un-American Activities Are Probed

WASHINGTON — AP—The House committee on un-American activities hung a red tag last night on the Southern Conference for Human Welfare as "perhaps the most deviously camouflaged Communist front organization."

In an official report to the House, the committee linked with the conference in various capacities such well-known names as Henry A. Wallace, Melvyn Douglas, Mrs. Marshall Field, Harold L. Ickes, Joseph E. Davies, Dorothy Parker and Paul Robeson.

The report says some "well-intentioned persons were misled into joining" the organization early in its history and many left not these, since have repudiated it.

The conference itself, and the prominent persons named by the committee, previously have denied any Communist affiliations. Conference officials have protested that the committee's report was issued without giving them a hearing.

The committee released its report in advance of a speech which Wallace is to deliver here Monday night under conference auspices. The committee already has announced plans to have "observers" at this meeting. Its report last night says of the affair:

"The Washington Committee of the conference obtained Henry Wallace, foremost critic of President Truman's foreign policy, for a public speech in the nation's capital, June 18, 1947. The committee scheduled on the same program Zero Mostel, a favorite entertainer at Communist affairs and member of the American Youth for Democracy, formerly the Young Communist League.

"The Washington Committee's executive secretary is Robert Ware Straus, information director for the Office of Emergency Management who tried to get an O.E.M. job for Ruth McKenney, well-known writer for the Communist publications, the Daily Worker and New Masses. The American Anti-Communist Association has asked Federal District Court to order Secretary of the Interior Krug to cancel a permit for the affair at the Water Amphitheater owned by the government. The association cited among other things a previous listing of the conference as a Communist front by See UN-AMERICAN, Page 2

Clothing Drive Completed Here

Clothing and bedding weighing 9,536 pounds and valued at one dollar a pound, have been sent to the destitute people of Europe as a result of the first community-wide drive by the churches of Pampa for the relief of these war-stricken people.

Overseas shipment was handled by the Church World Service of St. Louis at no cost to the Pampa churches. The Rev. Russell West, chairman for the ministerial alliance reported.

Mrs. A. D. Hills, chairman of the various women's groups of the churches, and the local Ministerial Alliance wished to express their appreciation to those local citizens who participated in the drive.

During the summer months each church will conduct its own relief program, stated Rev. West. Those wishing to donate clothing or bedding do so through their own church, he concluded.

A total of 5,409 students from the ages of six to 17 attended Gray County Schools during the past school year, reported Hueyln Laycock, county superintendent of schools.

Of the total, 4,022 attended Pampa schools, 24 at Lakeston, 27 at Back, 18 at Shafter, 9 at Bell, 9 at Huntsman, 5 at Kephling, 19 at Farrington, 51 at Grandview, 174 at Hopkins, 23 at Webb, 84 at Alameed, 420 at Lefors, and 515 at McLean.

Texan to Head Jaycees of U. S.

LONG BEACH, Calif.—(AP)—John Ben Shepherd of Gladewater, Tex., will take over the duties of president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce July 1.

The 30-year-old country lawyer was unanimously elected to the post at the national convention here Friday—the first time in 15 years a national Jaycee president had been chosen without opposition.

Shepherd is the youngest man ever chosen to the position and comes from the smallest town of any of the groups' president to date.

In a talk before the convention, the Texan repudiated "middle-aged apostles of youth" who seek to foster "their radical and crackpot ideas of the nation in the name of youth."

He said youth has its own ideas, but they are not the "hair-brained, wild-haired theories advocated by some of the people who presume to speak for young men and women."

Instead, Shepherd said, the Jaycees of the nation seek to preserve the rugged individualism which has made America great.

Prior to his election, Shepherd served as one of seven National Junior Chamber vice-presidents. In 1942 he headed the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is the first Texan to head the national organization since 1928.

Granddaughter of Sitting Bull Settles Old Dispute

BROWNSVILLE—(AP)—A woman who identified herself as Princess Wildflower Kihuce, granddaughter of Sitting Bull, said Sitting Bull was buried in Standing Rock Indian Reservation in North Dakota.

This, she said, should settle the current controversy between North and South Dakota. Both are claiming the famed Sioux chieftain's burial ground.

She told Bill Bailey of the Brownsville Herald that she clearly recalls both his death and burial. North Dakota and South Dakota long have claimed the site of the Indian's burial. Rep. Case (R-SD) reopened the controversy by introducing a bill that would authorize a national monument near McLaughlin, S. D. to encompass the grave where the Sioux leader lies buried.

The neighboring state immediately went into action but found that records, even the encyclopedia at the Smithsonian Institute, were none too clear.

Princess Wildflower Kihuce said the burial was in the Standing Rock Indian Reservation in North Dakota, just across the South Dakota boundary line.

The Princess, whose husband is Chief Big Eagle Lockert, a carpenter at Okinto near here, is critically ill of cancer in the Sisters of the Holy Ghost Charity Home in Brownsville.

"I am like the flower outside the window," she said. "I have but such a short time left."

"My grandfather was born in 1837," she said. He was killed just outside the log cabin he and his two sons built.

A group of 40 soldiers came to capture him. He died fighting, with his boots on," she continued. "About five minutes after he was killed, his son, Cowfoot, was also slain."

Second U.S. Protest On Hungary Expected

BUDAPEST—(AP)—An authoritative American informant said yesterday the State Department may send another note to Russia summing up and protesting strongly alleged unilateral and arbitrary actions by Soviet elements of the Allied Control Commission for Hungary.

The informant said the State Department had asked specific examples of "misuse" of the Commission and instances of American rights being denied. American officials said the development was an apparent reversal of a policy which had American authorities here virtually doing back bends in order to get along with the Russians.

French Artist Arrested on Sodomy Charge

ATLANTA—(AP)—Paul Refoule, French artist held on a sodomy charge, said in his jail cell yesterday that police wanted to arrest him for the murder of his socialist wife, Peggy. "So they arrested me on something else."

"There is nothing to that either," he told newspapermen. The sodomy charge shortly after he had been formally booked and fingerprinted. Fulton County Police Chief Neal Ellis said that Refoule had signed a statement admitting to the sex perversion acts with which he is charged.

Speaking in halting English, the 36-year-old Refoule described his arrest as "terrible, horrible, a shame." He was tired and haggard. His hair was rumpled and his blue, pin-striped suit wrinkled.

Two detectives brought him to Atlanta's Grimes County Jail after his attorneys had waived preliminary hearing on the sodomy charge and his bond had been fixed at $10,000. The case will be prepared for a county grand jury Tuesday. Conviction upon a sodomy charge carries a maximum penalty of life imprisonment.

As he was brought into the jail, Refoule, faced photographers with a frightened look upon his face. Within the 12 hours immediately preceding his arrest, he was interrogated under the direction of the murder of his 31-year-old wife. At the conclusion of the tests, Fulton County Police Chief Neal Ellis announced.

"We are not at all satisfied with Refoule's response to the interrogator questioning. The only time the apparatus indicated he told the truth was when he said 'I did not love my wife.'"

The sodomy charge, Ellis said, is based on an answer under the lie detector. Refoule, who formerly was a student of Refoule. The woman was questioned Friday night with another woman and a young man. All were released, but the man would be questioned further.

Refoule, through his attorney, waived preliminary hearing on the sodomy charge and was ordered held with $10,000 bond.

Saturday's questioning was the third time police had grilled Refoule based on his wife's semi-nude body was found in a Peachtree Creek May 14. She had been strangled. Jewelry she normally wore was missing, and, after laboratory tests, police said she had been raped.

McLean Youth Dies Result Auto Accident on 66

BULLETIN Earl Collier, 22, of McLean died at 8:30 p. m. last night in the Shamrock General Hospital from a fractured skull suffered as a result of a head-on collision Friday afternoon on U. S. Highway 66 near Alameed.

Seven others were also injured in the hill crest crackup. SHAMROCK—(Special)—Earl Collier, 22, of McLean yesterday remained in a critical condition in the Shamrock General Hospital following a head-on collision on a hilltop on U. S. Highway 66 Friday afternoon.

His twin brother Thurl Collier, also of McLean, suffered minor injuries and was released from the hospital a short time later. Their companion, Raymond O. Smith, 20, also suffered minor injuries and was taken to Groom Hospital by a passing motorist.

The occupants of the other car, Charles E. Wallace and his family of Rio Vista, Calif., and his sister Mrs. W. W. Powell, Vallejo, Calif., were all taken to the Shamrock Hospital. Wallace suffered shock and a dislocated hip. His wife, Nora, suffered a broken nose and shock.

Eight-year-old Marion Wallace suffered severe head laceration and shock and his brother Owen, 5, suffered shock. Mrs. Powell was given first aid treatment for shock and released. The two children were taken to the hospital at Dr. Finley's residence. The remainder were taken by the Womack ambulance.

Attendants at the Shamrock Hospital yesterday afternoon described the Collier youth as "barely living" and added that he was in a very critical condition. Others hospitalized were expected by attendants to be released in several days, adding they were much improved over Friday night.

State Highway Patrolmen investigating the crackup said that the accident occurred at 1 p. m. Friday about 2.3 miles east of Alameed. The cars involved were a 1942 sedan driven by Charles B. Wallace, 32, and a 1939 Ford coupe registered in McLean. Gray County. The patrolmen said they had interviewed Smith, an occupant of the coupe, in the Groom Hospital and he told them he was unable to remember whether he or Thurl Collier was driving at the time. The collision occurred at the crest of a long hill after Wallace, traveling west, had attempted to pass a truck.

Searchers Believe Death Was Instant

LEESBURG, Va.—(P)—Searchers for a crashed Capital Air Lines plane reached its fire-blackened fragments on a rugged mountain-side late Saturday and found that all 50 aboard had met swift death.

"I don't think anyone on the plane suffered at all—it was instant death," said Gordon Stone Red Cross official who was first to report finding the plane from the ground. He said the craft, when it crashed Friday night in the rain just minutes shy of a landing at the Washington National Airport, apparently flew straight into the 45-degree side of the mountain, then burst into flame.

Jerry Korn, an Associated Press reporter at the scene, said the airliner apparently skidded up the steep mountain-side for about 250 feet after it hit. The left wing, almost whole, was lodged near the foot of the rectangular clearing created by the crash. The tail assembly had slid to a point many feet farther up the hill still stood upright.

One airline official, who had led the search to the plane through wild terrain under a steady five-hour downpour, sat down on a rock when he saw the wreckage and torn bodies and wept for several minutes.

This new aviation disaster stirred official activity in Washington and aviation circles expected some new government action toward flying safety.

James M. Landis, chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, hurried down from New York and had two conferences with President Truman. However, the White House said there was no statement last night.

Fresh from the scene of tragedy, Stone told reporters that "some of the people were thrown forward of the plane" with wreckage thick about them.

He said the first group at the scene carried 12 to 15 bodies that could be readily extricated to the top of the slope which the plane barely missed clearing. The terrain was so bad that they had to work in teams of four.

Stone, of Vienna, Va., is assistant national administrator of the Red Cross Disaster Relief Service. He said the victims "must have been quite unaware that anything was going to happen—and unaware when it did happen."

Julian Brooks of Alexandria, Va., a field agent for the Red Cross, said plans are to use a bulldozer to cut a path through rocks and trees so as to bring out the dead.

L. T. Easley, another Associated Press reporter at the scene, wrote that the liner appears to have crashed so hard and to have bursted so fiercely that half the bodies may never be fully identified. Scattered about, he reported, "lie the possessions they kept closest to them in their last flight—jewelry cases, women's handbags, notebooks, a few See PLANE CRASH, Page 2

Bigger and Better Plans Made For Soap Box Derby Race Site Rayburn Would Rebuild Economy ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(AP)—House Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas declared last night that United States aid to Greece is "only a portent of the shape of things" to come in Europe, and that "our goal is to rebuild a self-supporting European economy."

Members of the committee have been stored until a short time before the event, when they will be handed out. Prizes are already here. Bigger and better plans at the racing site have been worked out to handle more cars, which are expected this year.

Paul H. Caylor has agreed to permit the local sponsors of the race — The Pampa Daily News, the Lions Club, and Culberson Chevrolet Co. — to route some of the traffic onto his land east of the race track. Already, Homer Taylor, following his practice of years past, has agreed to use of his land as parking space. The Lions Club will remove portions of the fence on the property and will replace it in good shape afterward.

Boys have been asked to notify Sponsor Committee Chairman A. A. Schuneman at the First National Bank if their sponsors' names are not listed with the committee.

More names have come in. Charles Garrison, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Garrison, 941 S. Faulkner, is being sponsored by Jack Vaughn, 66 Service Station.

Morton Foods is sponsoring George (Pete) Kulpicki, 1906 E. Fisher. Incidentally, something new is going to be seen in the way of brakes when Pete's car is brought out in the open. But his plan complies with the new rule, which says that the brakes must be foot-operated.

Charles Graham, 313 N. Warren, is sponsored by the newly-opened Courthouse Cafe.

Marvin Corley, Boomer, White Deer, Route 1, is being sponsored by Reeves Olds.

Leroy Barnett, 602 E. Jordan, an entry last year, is being sponsored by Paul Crossman Refrigration Co.

Donald Lunsford, 1030 E. Francis St., is being sponsored by his father, D. L. Lunsford.

A. A. Schuneman, of the First National Bank and chairman of the Lions Club Sponsor Committee, has stated there are still a number of boys who would like to have sponsors. Some of these boys are already officially signed for the race. Some of the boys do not desire to have sponsors, it was said. The rules do not require it.

Any businessman who has not been contacted and wishes to sponsor a boy is asked to call at the bank, at Culberson's Chevrolet, DeLuxe Cleaners, or at The News.

Morris Erloe, general chairman of the race, said yesterday that plans for the event are progressing well, even better than they did last year when about 7,000 persons witnessed the races. There will be no change for the event.

AFRAID OF 13TH? CHICAGO—(AP)—The anti-Superstition Society's regular meeting—Friday the 13th—was cancelled because, said President Nathaniel Leveroni, too few members were in the city.

Leveroni, however, said he decided to preserve the Society's reputation by taunting fate and left on a business trip.

"They said it's bad luck to start on Friday the 13th," he said, as he left at 9:15 in his auto, carrying license number 1313.

Bruce Is Ambassador Of U. S. to Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—James C. Bruce, vice-president of the National Dairy Products Corp., has been designated as United States Ambassador to Argentina to succeed the career diplomat George Messersmith, the Argentine Foreign office said yesterday.

The designation was accepted by Argentina, clearing the way for President Truman to propose Bruce's name to the U. S. Senate. The procedure of asking Argentina's approval was in line with diplomatic protocol, but it was unusual for a country receiving a new ambassador to make the first announcement of his selection.

Messersmith, credited here with smoothing American relations with Argentina, will leave Buenos Aires June 20. The pro-government Argentine press has unanimously deplored Messersmith's resignation.

The American request for Argentina's opinion of the appointment of Bruce arrived here several days ago.

Messersmith became ambassador to Argentina after Paul Barden, outspoken critic of the regime of President Juan D. Peron, left the post to be assistant secretary of state for Latin America. Messersmith's resignation coincided with the announcement that Barden had resigned from the State Department. One Argentine paper shortly afterward criticized the State Department for having "sacrificed" Messersmith on the altar of Barden's ego.

O'Daniel Continues To Fight Joe Dooley

FORT WORTH (AP)—Senator W. Lee O'Daniel said Saturday he will continue leading the Senate fight against Joe B. Dooley, Amarillo attorney, with such vigor that "he won't have a possible chance" for confirmation as federal judge of the Northern District of Texas.

The junior senator, who is spending a few days on his ranch at Aledo, near here, before returning to Washington, added:

"I don't think it is possible that a majority of the Senators will vote to confirm his appointment after they hear what I have to say from the Senate floor. They must vote for the rightmen for these jobs, and I'm interested only in getting good sound American citizens who are properly qualified in public office in Texas."

O'Daniel parried questions on whether or not he will run for reelection next year with the remark:

"That's something to be decided later on," but when asked about the possible candidacy of ex-governor James V. Allred for his post, he scoffed:

"If he does he sure must be a fiend for punishment." He said "the field is wide-open and the more in the race the merrier," but recalled that "the cream of the crop of Texas politicians items of clothing, mostly charred." Ground parties had to toil through mud and underbrush for weary hours to reach the scene of the crash, just across the border in West Virginia, after the wreckage had been located from the air.

James M. Franklin, airline maintenance director who was one of those first spotting the debris, told newsmen that "it must have been a pretty terrific explosion."

The official word of "no survivors" came shortly before 4 p. m. (CST) from James W. Austin, general traffic manager of the airline in Washington, after the ground parties finally had made their way to the spot.

The first grim word that all were dead was relayed by Hayes Dever, an airline official here, who quoted Stone, as the first man at the wreckage.

Another of the first arrivals, Sculter Allen of Charles Town, W. Va., said 15 bodies were thrown clear of the wreckage but that it appeared all aboard had died instantly.

Stone reported to Red Cross headquarters in Washington that the scene is six or seven miles south of Charles Town and that the plane appeared to have plowed into the mountain while in level flight.

The low mountain was the last one on the route from the Chicago-Washington route. It could have cleared the crest had it been 100 feet higher.

Tersely, Stone reported: "There is evidence of burning. No survivors."

The airline set crews to work to cutting an improvised road to the spot from a country road a mile and a half away behind the mountain to bring out the bodies of the

Efforts to reach the crashed plane from the ground were made extremely difficult by the ruggedness of the mountains and a driving rain that seldom let up. Among the searchers were scores of volunteers, Virginia State Police, stretcher-carrying volunteer firemen from communities of this section, and Red Cross workers. Aboard the plane when it crashed were:

A 17-year old girl, Margaret Keuppers of St. Paul, taking her first ride in an airplane as a graduation gift from her parents.

A 10-month old infant, Judith Christine Bryan, her mother, Mrs. Mariha Helen Bryan of Indianapolis.

A honeymooning couple, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Marko of Cleveland.

The pilot, Horace Stark, 46, of Washington (was an honored inventor of navigation aids to airmen, one of them the Stark position finder. The plane was last seen last night over Martinsburg, W. Va., 65 miles and a matter of minutes from Washington, the destination of the flight from Chicago.

Court Conditionally Places Teen-Ager in Custody of Mother

A 13-year-old boy Friday afternoon was conditionally placed into the custody of his mother until Sept. 1 by District Lewis M. Goodrich in 31st District Court here.

Testimony, that lasted for almost a full day in the non-jury hearing, brought out that the boy got into trouble with the law on several occasions while staying in Pampa with his three-married mother, but that while living with his father and step-mother he was well behaved and disciplined.

The boy, taking the stand in his own behalf, sobbed out that he preferred living with his mother because his step-mother abused him and whipped him. He testified that he was only allowed to play after dark upon completion of home chores and once in awhile he was allowed to play when he came home from school.

The boy's sister testified that while here he ruled his mother instead of her ruling him.

Testimony by Juvenile Paul Hill revealed that the boy had been before County Judge Sherman White on several occasions in connection with petty thefts. Judge White, called to the stand in the afternoon, reiterated Hill's testimony and testified that he talked to the boy's mother and father on numerous occasions to play his conduct.

Judge Goodrich took the boy into his office for a private conference and later handed down the temporary decision, that the boy could remain here in Pampa with his mother providing she would not remove him from the county between now and Sept. 1, or that the boy get into no further trouble while here. In the meantime the boy was ordered to report each month to the juvenile officer until the Court arrives at a final decision in September.

The Court late Friday afternoon granted three divorces, one on grounds of desertion and two on cruelty.

B. L. Sanders was granted a divorce from his wife, Sybil Naomi. The plaintiff alleged they were married in December, 1940, and that the defendant left him in January of 1943.

Evelyn Underwood was granted the custody of her two minor children and her husband ordered to pay $50 per month toward their support when the Court granted her a divorce from E. W. Under-

Courthouse Cafe Re-Opens Today

The most "blacked out" business in town—by the management's own admission—comes back into the "light" today with a formal opening following complete renovation.

That is the Courthouse Cafe, which is owned by John Pitts. The concern will be operated by Kim-wood. The plaintiff alleged cruelty in her original petition and stated they were married in May, 1932, and separated in March of 1947.

Mary A. Long Williams was granted a divorce from E. H. Williams on grounds of cruelty. The plaintiff stated they were married in April, 1946, and separated in February, 1947.

Russians Have New Positive Approach To Atomic Problem

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER
AP Foreign News Analyst

After months of saying "no," the Russians finally have a new and positive approach to the atomic problem.

It would not pay to become optimistic about it now. The deadlock on fundamentals still exists. But at least there is a turn in the Russian thinking which has big possibilities.

It is simply this. The Soviet Union admits it might be possible to reach agreement on atomic control on the basis of the United States and Russian plans. Those are the only two big proposals that have been put before the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission since it first met a year ago today.

Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, gave the first official hint that the Soviet Union saw any possibilities in the United States plan.

Experts who have looked twice at Gromyko's proposition of Wednesday realize that it changed exactly nothing in the broad and fundamental disagreement over the veto and national sovereignty on atomic matters. But they did see importance in the fact that Gromyko had enlarged upon his original plan, put before the delegates on June 19, 1946.

He said that both plans (American and Russian) must be considered simultaneously on their merits.

This caused the Americans some surprise. They had grown accustomed to Gromyko's hands-off attitude toward their plan, which had been written into the commission's first report by a majority of ten of the twelve members. They are waiting now to see which way the wind will blow next.

Russia is still insisting on a convention prohibiting the atomic bomb immediately and a separate convention, to be agreed upon later, setting up the controls. The Russians want the atomic regulations to come within the final authority of the Security Council, where they have a veto.

Accredited Schools Must Have Teachers Holding Degrees

AUSTIN—The State Committee on Classification and Accreditation has endorsed a plan which would require all accredited schools to employ teachers with at least a Bachelor of Arts degree by the 1949-50 term.

The Committee set up a three-year period during which schools must discontinue employment of "emergency teachers" who do not meet state standards.

Provisions of the plan unanimously adopted Friday include:

All teachers employed hereafter must hold a minimum of a Bachelor of Arts degree.

No teacher employed during the emergency with less than two years of college credit will be eligible for employment for the 1947-48 session. Teachers with three years of college will be allowed to teach this coming session but not for 1948-49. During the 1949-50 session none of the former teachers without degrees will be eligible for employment.

Superintendents and principals will be required to conform with requirements before the 1948-49 session.

Stipend toward their plan, which had been written into the commission's first report by a majority of ten of the twelve members. They are waiting now to see which way the wind will blow next.

Shameful Story Comes to Light

Now it comes out. Several months ago Chief of Police Louie Allen ordered Desk Sergeant Red Payne to take one of the departments' radio cars to Amarillo on radio business. Payne got the "ghost car" in gear and scooted down the highway at about 50 mph. The weather was cold and so was Red. He looked down at the heater and decided it was more than an ornament and turned on the switch. On into Amarillo he drove, but no heat from the heater. On the return trip the condition was the same—no heat from the heater. However Red was puzzled during the trip as to why cars approaching him would slow up and pull over to the side of the road. Finally back on the police ramp at Pampa, after almost freezing to death Red discovered the trouble. On both trips he had turned on the switch that controlled the car's large red blinker light and never even came close to switching on the heater that was in perfect working order. To bad pal, hope that radio goes out in the summer after this and not in winter.

Wives Give Program For Pampa Kiwanians

Friday's Kiwanis program was conducted by wives and other relatives of Kiwanians. The program was in charge of Mrs. L. N. Atchison. Joan Thompson, daughter of former Mayor Fred Thompson, and member of the club, played in a piano duet with her mother. A bit of ribbing went to the membership when Mrs. Joe Wells discussed the subject "Second Committee Meeting." They conjectured on the difference in the time committee meetings were over and the time that the husbands arrived at their respective homes. Wynelle Weathered daughter of W. B. Weathered, presented a piano solo. The most definite conclusion that Mrs. Fred Thompson arrived at in her subject, "What Kiwanis Means to the Wives," was it meant no lunch to be cooked on Friday. Members of the club have been asked to be at the softball diamonds at 5 Monday afternoon to help finish putting up a wire cable around the premises. Improvements of the grounds has been underway for several weeks.

Teachers of Panhandle Are Voted Salary Hike

The board also voted to buy two small buses of about 18-passenger capacity to better serve the rural area, and to purchase a power lawnmower. M. B. Welch, F. F. Ferrell and Ralph Randal were appointed on the Board of Equalization. Neill Singleton of Amarillo was appointed to make repairs to the school house in the amount of $2,000.

The two companies conduct marketing activities principally in Idaho and Utah, where they sell approximately 20 percent of each state's total consumption of petroleum products. The refineries, located near Salt Lake City, Utah, and at Pocatello, Idaho, both have cracking facilities and are at present operating at their combined capacity of about 6,000 barrels per day. Operation of producing properties, refineries and marketing facilities will be continued under substantially the same management, operating personnel and policies.

Local DAV Lashes
Out at Delay in Hospital Building

The Pampa Chapter, Disabled American Veterans, has labeled the "halt" in construction of veterans hospitals as a "sorry and contemptible piece of negligence on the part of our government" and "charged that this has reached 'the proportions of a national scandal.'"

Dewey Belmont, Commander of the DAV Chapter, said no new veterans hospitals have been completed in the United States, although 75 were approved more than a year ago. He added that a recent survey showed more than 22,000 veterans awaiting hospital admission.

"What has halted the construction of the veterans hospitals which have been authorized by Congress?" Belmont asked.

"Who is responsible for this sorry and contemptible piece of negligence on the part of our government?" He continued: "Wounded and disabled veterans of World War II, ten times in numbers of our comrades of World War I, are awaiting and in need of adequate hospitalization and treatment—the kind of hospitalization, treatment, and modern methods of healing and rehabilitation envisioned by General Hawley, the Veterans Administration medical director, and not only promised but approved by unanimous Congressional action."

Commander Belmont stated that outside of the humanitarian phase of "this disgraceful situation" there is no real economy in refusing hospitalization and treatment which might not only improve the veteran but possibly save him.

"The lack of it," he continued,

"will only insure the permanency of the condition, and as a result the veteran who is refused treatment because no hospital bed is available will draw full compensation for the rest of his sorry miserable life. Yes, this war hero will live—a sad care on his loved ones and a charge against his government, the richest and most powerful in the world, which could not afford to try to get him well."

LUBBOCK—Do boys and girls from cities or from villages make the best scholastic records in college?

Parents and educators have long debated the question. A quick glance at the records of Texas Technological College tends to show that it may be an even chance.

Nine of the fourteen honor students this year hail from towns of better than 5000 population, but the four who received degrees with high honors come from towns of less than 4000 population as figured in the 1940 census. And the highest ranking one of them all, Maxine Harp, is a graduate of the high school in Abernathy, population 857.

Other high honor students are Rodrick Shaw, Gilson; Alex Cooke, Claremont; and Joe Mitchell Simmons, Jr., Seagraves.

VIGIL'S REWARD

For three weeks 4-year-old Linda Knight and five of her playmates kept vigil at a robin's nest they found in a holly tree in Olentangy Village, near Columbus, Ohio. The nest-holding croch was so low the children could peer into it. At first Mrs. Robin was alarmed by her daily visitors. Gradually she gained confidence in them and went about her matronly business. Soon the children found the nest held three greenish-blue eggs. Excitement ran high among the nest's six "guardians." Their watch was intensified and finally was rewarded. One morning, as pictured above, Linda found the eggs cracked open and three downy baby robins in the nest. Now the youngsters have banded together to dig earthworms for Mrs. Robin, "so her children will grow big and strong."

Curran Is 'Invited Out' of Conference

NEW YORK — (AP) — Joseph Curran, president of the CIO National Maritime Union, said last night he and his delegation had been "invited out" of a conference with shipowners and predicted his union would stop work at midnight today.
 Curran termed the threatened work stoppage a "lockout."

The NMU head told reporters at headquarters of the American Merchant Marine Institute, where a conference had ended between the NUM and the employees:
 "We were 'invited out' of the meeting by the operators and shipowners. They refused to discuss any proposals made by the union. They rejected all proposals—even proposals to carry out what is already part of an agreement—to discuss wages in a wage review."
 "As the matter stands now, as of June 15 there is no contract."

Republicans Ready to Fight for Tax Cutting

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Republicans allied their guns yesterday for a counter-blast at President Truman on the economy issue if he vetoes the tax reduction bill as many expect.
 The White House announced that Mr. Truman will act Monday and will send a message to Congress on the tax bill whether he vetoes it or signs it.
 The expectation of a veto is so strong in Congress that Republicans already are preparing to fire back at Mr. Truman in a controversy they believe will become a major issue of the 1948 presidential campaign.
 Chairman Taft (Ohio) of the Senate GOP Policy Committee told a reporter the Republicans are prepared to answer a veto with the assertion that the President wants no tax reduction because he is unwilling to have federal expenditures cut.
 The President already has demonstrated that against economy in government," Taft declared.
 "His recent Kansas City speech showed that he favors every possible spending program. If he vetoes the tax bill, it will be because he fears that a tax reduction would force a retrenchment in spending."
 Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) of the House Appropriations Committee expressed a similar view in declaring that the House GOP drive to cut Mr. Truman's budget by $6,000,000,000 "is a success."
 Savings on appropriations bills to date, Taber said, approximate $4,873,000,000 "and there are more to come."
 Of that total, Democrats insist that close to $3,000,000,000 is "phony."

Lost—1 Firetruck; Burned—1 Tractor
ANGELS CAMP, Calif.—The whole Volunteer Fire Department, 20 men strong, rushed out to Charles Kendall's blazing house trailer yesterday, without their fire-trucks. On the town's outskirts, the trailer burned up (loss $500) before they could go back and get the apparatus.

Fire Chief James Trisselman explained that the trucks were moved to an auxiliary building last week. As each volunteer peered into the formerly used garage and saw it empty, he assumed earlier comers had taken the trucks.

Solon Asks Speedy Publication of 'Hush-Hush' Papers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) called upon the State Department yesterday for speedy publication of the hush-hush Molotov-Ribbentrop papers so the public may "have the facts."

Nazi documents detailing the conversations Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia had with Joachim Von Ribbentrop, the German foreign minister, leading up to the non-aggression pact between their countries in 1939 have been captured by American troops.

The United States and Britain agreed last December to publish jointly these and other captured documents outlining the Nazi foreign policy last month it was agreed that last month it was agreed that France would participate. But no early publication of the Molotov-Ribbentrop matter is planned.

"The State Department officials admit they have a complete set of the Nazi foreign office papers including secret and confidential exchanges between Ribbentrop and Molotov," Ferguson told a reporter. "If we want a real foreign policy, then the public has got to have the facts."

Other senators, including Senator Bell (R-Minn), said they assume the documents have not been made public lest they further ruffle relations with Russia.

At Senate hearings on the annual State Department appropriation bill, F. H. Russell, department official, told Ferguson that the complete exchange between Ribbentrop and Molotov may be published "sometime this coming year."

But later other department officials told senators that Secretary of State Marshall and Dean Acheson, retiring undersecretary, had decided against early publication. Hitler and other Nazi leaders signed a non-aggression treaty with Soviet leaders in 1939 shortly before the Nazis overran Poland. It existed until June 1941 when the Germans turned upon Russia.

Payment to Highway Employee for Outside Work Is Questioned

AUSTIN—(AP)—The question of whether State Highway Department Planning Director Jac L. Gubbels can legally accept $23,250 from the Austin School Board for a school development survey and at the same time be paid as a State employee was referred to the attorney general Saturday.

The hiring of Gubbels and payment to him of $23,250 to make an Austin school site survey for a 20-year development program has been under criticism before the Austin City Council.

State Auditor C. H. Cavness asked Attorney General Price Daniel for an opinion on a constitutional provision which prohibits payment from the State "in favor of any person, for salary or compensation" who holds at the same time any other office or position "in this State or the United States."

He said he was joined in his request by the State Highway Engineer and the State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Cavness said if the attorney general ruled that Gubbels was not due any pay from the State during the time he was working for the Austin School Board, then the State auditor would recommend that the state comptroller not issue salary warrants to Gubbels.

Gubbels is regularly employed by the State on a full-time salary of $366 per month.

Cavness said State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer did not know Gubbels was making the survey for the school board "until he read it in the newspapers."

Gubbels, after seven months work, made his report to the Austin School Board last Tuesday. He recommended 31 new sites for new school buildings. School Board Chairman R. W. Bryan said he received $750 for each site recommended.

The school board was criticized for employing Gubbels instead of utilizing the services of City Plan Consultant Charles Granger.

George W. Sandlin, member of the City Plan Commission, complained to the City Council that all except four of the recommended sites were near a highway, creating a hazard to school children.

Stench Bomb Thrown Into Jerusalem Cafe

JERUSALEM—(AP)—A stench bomb thrown by Orthodox Jews into a cafe that violated the Jewish Sabbath last night caused the sounding of a general alarm in Jerusalem.

Police said patrons of the Euro Cafe on Zion Square in the heart of the city had fled when the stench bomb was thrown in from the street, thinking it was explosive, and that someone had notified officers who sounded the general alarm sirens.

France Asks Russia To Discuss Proposal

PARIS—(AP)—France disclosed yesterday that she has taken the first step to put U. S. Secretary of State Marshall's projected multi-billion dollar European recovery plan under a diplomatic microscope by asking Russia if she is willing to discuss the proposal.

At the same time it was announced that British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin is expected in Paris Tuesday to spend two days in conferring on the "Marshall Plan" for the United States to underwrite in large measure a coordinated plan for Europe's convalescence from war.

From The Hague, Holland, also came the announcement that Belgian, Netherlands and Luxembourg diplomats already have been holding consultations which have led to the expectation that these three countries will be very much in accord with the American plan for economic aid to Europe. The announcement said consultations took place within the framework of Benelux, the compact by which they have agreed to economic cooperation among themselves.

Significantly, it was an enthusiastic Bevin who took the initiative in arranging the Paris talks with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and Premier Paul Ramadier. Typically it was Bidault who, before accepting Bevin's proposal for a conference, cautiously asked Russia if she was willing to hold separate discussions with France on the subject.

Russia has not yet replied.

Gigantic Shipment Of Steel Pipe Is Shipped to Arabia

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—More than a million tons of steel pipe will leave Long Beach Harbor and other ports this summer for Saudi Arabia in what maritime authorities describe as the greatest single commercial shipment in history.

It will be the first of a series of consignments of goods and material whose aggregate will be sufficient to create a new industrial kingdom in Arabia, said E. C. Austin, purchasing and traffic manager of the Arabian-American Oil Co., which holds the petroleum concession in King Ibn Saud's domain.

Announcement of the shipment, which will start within a few weeks, was made today by Port Manager E. J. Amar after conference in San Francisco with officials of the Arabian-American Oil Co., operated by Standard of California and the Texas Co., and of the Ishman Steamship Co., subsidiary of the U. S. Steel, which has contracted to move the pipe.

The initial 1,000,000-ton shipment will be sufficient to lay a 40 and 31 inch oil line from the Persian Gulf, where it will be unloaded, to the Mediterranean, said Edsel Newton, maritime editor of the Long Beach (Calif.) Press-Telegram and leader in harbor affairs, who acted

Committee Asks Krug To Halt Shipment of Scarcity Materials

DALLAS—(AP)—A special committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of America investigating the steel shortage as it affects the oil industry today asked Secretary of the Interior Krug to seek discontinuance of the present policy of exporting materials badly needed by our petroleum industry until domestic requirements have been met.

The committee in a telegram to Krug declared its survey "clearly indicates that the apparent shortage of oils is due to the lack of productive capacity and transportation facilities. This shortage, in turn, is due to the lack of necessary materials—such as tubular goods, line pipe and tank cars."

B. A. Hardy of Shreveport, president of the IPAA, told the committee, "some people in the State Department who have been raising the cry of shortage of oil are the same ones causing the exports of tubular goods. They started a year ago stressing the fact we're running out of oil."

The "tin" mentioned in the Bible was really a copper alloy known as early as 1600 B.C.

Top-Flight Program Has Been Set For Panhandle Oil Men's Meeting

What has been described as one of the most outstanding programs ever presented at a meeting of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association has been arranged for this year's annual meeting Wednesday, June 18, in the Herring Hotel in Amarillo.

Members of the organization have been called to meet at 12 o'clock noon in the Herring Hotel to elect new directors. The annual membership luncheon will be at 12 o'clock in Old Tascosa, followed by a meeting of the new directors and members for election of officers and members of the executive board. Jake Phillips, retiring president, will preside.

At the noon luncheon Barry Brown of Wichita Falls, association consultant, will make a report. Speakers will be H. J. "Jack" Porter of Houston, president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association and member of the executive committee of the IPAA. He will discuss the Anglo-American oil pact and the Rialty bill.

Open house will be from 6 to 7 o'clock and the annual banquet at 7 o'clock in the Crystal Ballroom. Speakers will be Col. E. O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, and Sen. Grady Hazlewood who steered the gas-carbon black to passage during the recent session of the State Legislature.

E. J. Dunigan, Jr., of Pampa will preside at the noon luncheon. Ray Johnson of Amarillo will be toastmaster at the banquet.

Reservations for both luncheon and banquet should be made not later than Monday night.

Young Robert Dunlop Named New President of Sun Oil Company

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The 1931 graduating class of the University of Pennsylvania looked over its valedictorian and predicted Robert Calbraith Dunlop would be a college lege professor.

Today that prognostication can be written off as schoolboy guessing.

Dunlop is the new president of the $200,000,000 Sun Oil Co.

The 37-year-old accountant stepped into the seven league boots of Industrialist J. Howard Pew last month—just 14 years from the day he joined the vast oil enterprise.

But to the new Sun president there is no set formula for success.

"There are certain qualities," he says, "which, above others, contribute greatly to the success of an individual."

"First of these is character, and by that I mean particularly reliability or trustworthiness."

The six-foot, athletically built Dunlop sought employment in the company he now heads because of a national emergency—the 1933 bank holiday.

Graduated as top man in his class at the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, he went to work for the accounting firm of Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co., Philadelphia.

When the government declared the bank holiday in March, 1933, Dunlop's employers asked him to take a leave of absence.

"That was the luckiest thing that ever happened to me," Dunlop says.

Dunlop's early activities with Sun Oil included a survey of producing, refining and marketing operations in the light of the complexities of the NRA Petroleum Code.

In 1941 he was appointed assistant comptroller and three years later was named comptroller and elected to the board of directors.

Dunlop believes the future of the oil industry "depends upon its alertness and its research."

Alertness has been shown, he says, by the industry's entry into the chemicals and synthetic fields.

"I believe the industry is sufficiently alert to opportunities and alert in its research to maintain itself as a supplier for these important services as far into the future as anyone can now see, regardless of whether the products it supplies are produced from crude oil, natural gas, oil shale, coal or some other raw materials," he predicts.

Dunlop is the third man to hold the Sun Oil presidency since the company's inception in 1886 and the first man other than a Pew to take the helm.

Texas Univ. Professor Receives Appointment

AUSTIN—Dr. John T. Lonsdale, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology, has been appointed a member of the Research Committee of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

Earlier in the year he was appointed a member of the Association's Research Advisory group whose membership also includes Dr. Carey Cronis, Bollet College president; Ira H. Cram, Pure Oil Company; Dr. David Delo, Army and Navy Research Board; W. C. Krumbein, Northwestern University; and Levoign, Stanford University; and Chester Longwell, Yale University.

The AAPG is carrying on fundamental research in sedimentology and coordinating its work with similar research of the American Petroleum Institute.

Railroad Commission Sets Hearings Dates

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Railroad Commission today gave notice of the following hearings:

July 24—application of G. E. Kadane shallow field, Archer County.

July 24—application of A. O. Morgan Oil Company for a discovery allowance for its N. J. Ryals well No. 7, Refugio Heard area field, Refugio County.

July 24—application for the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil Company for a discovery allowance and new field designation for its Emily M. Jackson well No. 14-E, Fullerton Field, Andrews County.

July 24—application of the East Texas Salt Water Disposal Company to use for salt water disposal purposes two of its wells drilled for that purpose in the East Texas Field, Gregg and Smith Counties.

Something new has been added to the entertainment field—T theatre '47.

It is a civic-sponsored, non-profit repertory theater headed by a Texas girl with a Broadway background—Margo Jones. It held its work premiere in Dallas with an original play called "Farther Off From Heaven" written by William Inge, a St. Louis newspaperman.

It is now in its second week with "How Now, Hecate", a comedy by Martyn Coleman, and packed houses indicate the project's popularity.

Almost everyone connected with the project pronounces theater "theh' ah-tah" but don't let that discourage you.

All actors are professionals. Miss Jones knows her cues and curtain calls better than most, having directed Maxwell Anderson's "Joan of

This season Theatre '47 is housed in the Gulf Oil Theater at Fair Park. Sponsors were unable to get a legitimate theater. As a result, Theatre '47 presents what it calls theater-in-the-round. That in itself is something to write home about.

The stage is in the center of the room. Around it are banked the seats—200 of them, which make the audience small and intimate.

A battery of floodlights hangs over the centered stage. When the play is in progress, the audience is in darkness, the light is poured onto the players.

It is, you might say, something like watching a prize fight, and the initial play "Farther Off From Heaven," heightened that impression. The story is about a family that is always fighting.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

'Fellow Travelers' Reported on Faculty At Texas Christian

FORT WORTH—(AP)—A statement by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) that he would ask an investigation of Communist "fellow travelers" on the faculty of Texas Christian University here brought a quick denial that such elements existed at the institution.

Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of TCU, said he knew of no Communists on the University faculty.

"So far as I am concerned an examination would be welcome at any time," he said. "Of course, we would want a fair and honest examination and not a witch hunt."

Rankin said in Washington he would ask Attorney General Clark to conduct the probe. He read a letter he said he got from a man in Texas saying it is "common knowledge" that "fellow travelers" are on the faculty of TCU. The man asked the congressman what could be done about it.

"I'll ask Tom Clark, since it's his own state to get busy," Rankin said. "And it seems to me the governor of Texas could also get busy."

San Angelo Man Is Cleared of Murder

LAS VEGAS, N. M.—(AP)—Frank W. Keichline was back at his San Angelo, Tex., home today after being cleared of a first degree murder charge by a district court jury here.

Before leaving here Friday, Keichline said he was going home to "take up the scattered threads of my life."

The 44-year-old San Angelo businessman was acquitted of murdering Percy H. Perry, of Detroit and San Angelo, a one-time friend. The ex-army officer was shot to death at a guest ranch near here July 24.

DON'T WAIT TOO LONG

Don't wait until you are half dead before you call your family physician. His chances are better, and yours, if you call him at the first sign of illness. It will be less expensive for you, too. Often a word of advice, a sensible precaution, will prevent serious complications. Even though you may feel perfectly well, it is good practice to see your physician regularly, at least twice a year. If he finds it necessary to prescribe medical treatment, bring your prescriptions to us. We will fill them promptly and accurately, just as the doctor orders.

Sen. O'Daniel to Seek Re-Election

AMARILLO.—(P)—Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Tex.) indicated here he would seek re-election and possibly open his bid with a tour of Texas this summer.

The Senator, with his wife and son, Pat, stopped here briefly Friday en route by bus from Syracuse, Kas., to Fort Worth. They had been in Kansas for the funeral of W. S. Howell, husband of Mrs. O'Daniel's sister.

O'Daniel said he would return to Texas as soon as the Congressional session adjourns to "tell Texans what's going on in Washington" and find out "what is worrying Texans most."

Newsmen interpreted this as meaning he planned to start his campaign for re-election with the summer tour.

When told that former Gov. James Allred of Houston was considered a certain candidate for the Senate post, O'Daniel quipped back: "He thought he was running back in 1942. Looks like they'll have to run out some new ones. I've defeated all the old ones. But the more the merrier."

The Tollivers

THE STORY: The engagement between Flora and Sam is broken. Bob Finerman is killed in France. Mrs. Finerman tries to make her deny that killed that Flora's baby is Bob's. I want Flora about this but she appears relieved. "My baby is mine now, all mine," she says. "I'll never have to see that awful woman again."

exactly like him, I thought every one would know right off." "If you mean Sam, you'll have to prove it. Sam has always been known for holding onto his money."

Flora laughed and looked mysterious. SHE made up her mind to see Sam. She might have accomplished it in a dozen simple ways, by waylaying him on the street, by telephoning and asking to see him, or if she was put to it, by sitting on his doorstep until he was forced to let her in. She chose to have a fainting fit and to claim to believe she was dying and had to see dear Sam just once, for a tiny minute.

When Sam, summoned by Mrs. Tolliver, arrived on the run, and out of breath, Flora was lying in bed, very white and barely able to talk, her wistfulness undoubtedly accentuated almost unbearably. She took Sam's hand and kissed it. Never, never could she thank him for what he had done for her and she whispered, "She had known at once who had bought the house. No one else in the whole wide world was so generous, so magnificently kind."

It turned out that Sam actually was the mysterious Mr. Jones, actually had bought the house. After one look at the presumably dying Flora, poor Sam fell on his knees by the bed and sobbed. Flora comforted him gently. Then Mrs. Tolliver came in and shooed him out.

Sam came straight to Father. Father told him he was a fool, that Flora was not in the slightest danger of dying, and that he had better light out of town and stay away for an indefinite time. Sam sheepishly promised to go, but he didn't. And Flora, of course, gradually grew better. Dear Sam had given her courage...

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Skid Row is the Bowery of the West. It is the poor man's underworld, a cross-section of American filthiness, the place where men who have lost hope go after they have jettisoned their dreams.

It is the true melting pot of great sprawling Los Angeles, an old-young city growing swiftly to world stature. Here in Skid Row the human scum left by its growth collect. Here half the city's crime is born.

Pickpockets slash your pockets with a razor to get a quarter. Muggers choke and beat you to death for fifty cents. Disease-faced middle-aged women of the street lure lonely old pensioners to a rendezvous where they get robbed and a free lump on the skull instead of lough romance.

Skid Row isn't a street. It's an area one-and-a-half-miles square in the downtown heart of a 450-square-mile city. Take the Bowery, West Madison Street of Chicago, Twelfth Street in Kansas City in the old days, Howard Street in San Francisco. Wrap them all up together and turn on the neon lights—and you've got Skid Row.

A high class criminal wouldn't be caught alive or dead in the area, but it draws cheap grafters and floaters like a magnet. It is particularly the haunt of the nightmarish "winos," sudden-brain drunks who butt their heads against the walls after a few fifteen-cent glasses of green muscatel, port or sherry wine.

By night Skid Row is a garish, feverish honky-tonk where negroes, whites, Chinese, Japanese, Mexicans and Filipinos line up at the bars together for 15-cent shots of whisky. By day it is a drab community of pawn shops, barber colleges, and cheap flop houses.

Honest men of low means live in it and cause no trouble. But it also holds 8,000 to 9,000 transients at all times—bums, panhandlers, small time crooks looking for a quick touch.

"At least fifty percent of all the crime in Los Angeles originates in the Skid Row area," said assistant Police Chief Joseph Reed.

But Skid Row is behaving now after the most thorough house-cleaning in its history. Chief C. B. Horrall ordered a "blockade raid" of the entire area June 4 and 351 criminal suspects were picked up, including three wanted for murder. Those with police records but no felony charge against them were given their choice of spending 180 days in jail for vagrancy or leaving town. Many left. But friendly cops still advise nervous sightseers caught in Skid Row after midnight: "Better walk in the middle of the street—and put your money in your mouth. Then keep your mouth aimed at thwarting the plans of coffee hoarders who were creating an artificial scarcity. The merchants hoped that they would be able to secure export licenses some time in the future for the supplies they have accumulated."

Once there was a farmer with a weak roof on his barn. As a new leak would be sprung, he would put on a shingle. Consequently, he was always putting on another, and he really never at any time had a good roof. The rain came in, despite his best efforts at shingle-by-shingle patching, and his goods were ruined and his stock stayed wet in bad weather.

That is more or less a parable on our patch work relief measures in those countries of Europe being threatened by the Communists. Our policy has been so half-hearted that, when we voted money and arms to help Greece and Turkey, the Russians inspired their coups in Hungary and Roumania. The news of the past two days has not been good at all.

In the latest vote cast in Hungary, about 83 percent of it was in opposition to communism. Of every 100 persons who voted, in other words, 17 voted in favor of communism. Yet, one of the smoothest coups of the past 10 years was engineered, and the Communists now have control of the country. The same thing is happening at this moment in Roumania. It has already happened—in more or less the same pattern—in such countries as Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, and Poland.

Whether Uncle Sam's dollars have done any good in their humanitarian-political mission is a very moot question. On the other hand, it is merely a matter of conjecture as to what would have happened in Eastern Europe if we had spent no money there at all.

Nevertheless the situation here at home, the bastion of democracy and free action among men, calls for a word of comment. Most of America believe communism will never get a hold here unless the people vote it. But that is not true. It has never been true in any country where communism has been a serious issue. It is not the type of government that gains power by popular sanction, for, contrary to the propaganda of the communists, it is not a government of popular consent, for the people. It is a government the power of which is vested in a few who have seized the machinery for waging terror on the majority.

The people of Hungary had chosen by a vast majority—overwhelmingly in fact—the course of democracy; yet, today they live under the iron hand of communism. Can that happen in America? The fact that it never has is certainly no argument that it never can. Will it happen in America? The fact that it is not desirable by the vast majority of the people—as we have said in the case of Hungary—is certainly no insurance against it.

No. Our patch-work vigilance at home is no more effective than it is in other countries, we have not been successful.

By ERSKINE JOHNSON, NEA Staff Correspondent (Johnson on KPON Monday thru Friday, 2 p.m.)
HOLLYWOOD—Our favorite producer of western pictures, Harry Sherman, is on location near Gallup, N. M., filming "They Passed This Way." In this letter, which just came in on the morning stage, Harry gets us posted on how things are going in the desert country.

"Dear Erskine: "Because we're now here in the Indian country, I'm being very careful about arguing political opinions with the local barbers. Many folks around here have Indian blood in them, and maybe the local barber would get mad at me and give me one of those special Indian haircuts—with a tomahawk. "After all, very few people look stunning in a Cherokee butch. "I saw a charming little incident last night. In the twilight, the little Indians came out and listened to the ancient stories told by the Wise One, the oldest man in the tribe who claims he can talk to our little furry friends of the plains. Kind of an Uncle Remus in redface. "Last night he was telling the children that he had seen a rabbit on the desert and the rabbit spoke to him. "JET INDIAN NAMES "At this point the Indians all got up and left. They said they were tired of listening to animal stories. "Better scram, chum," one little child said to me. "Next he'll be telling about dogs talking to horses. "But the old Indian is really a character. He was a great chief in his day. His name is Fighting Bird. His grandson is named Swift Eagle. His grandson is named Two-Motored Bomber. "I'm going to the christening of the great-grandson tomorrow night. They're calling him Jet Job. "I'm using some Indians as extras in my picture, and yesterday

HIGH PRICES PREVAIL EVERYWHERE
Every farmer in this area, with normal judgement and willingness to work, is now prosperous. Of course, he is obliged to pay high prices for implements, feed and other things; but he is getting very high prices for his products. This means that the farmer who raises his feed is making extraordinary profits on his livestock. As an illustration of the price increase in farm products: Lard, which sold at 5 cents a pound fifteen years ago, has been up to 35 cents a pound and now sells at 28 cents a pound. Hogs, which sold at $2.00 per hundred pounds in the "Thirties," now sell at $28.00 per hundred. I attended an auction where the auctioneer sold 8 weeks old pigs at $15.00

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
news behind the news
WASHINGTON
By RAY TUCKER
ECONOMY—The carbolic acid test of Congressional Republicans zeal for large-scale and non-political economy will come when the House Appropriations reports out the measure allocating funds for the Veterans Administration within a few days.

This bill, which carried almost $7,600,000,000 as introduced in the form of President Truman's budget request, offers almost the only chance for the G.O.P. to make good on the Knutson promise of a $6,500,000,000 reduction in 1948 costs, or on the more moderate Fair-Bridges estimate of $4,500,000,000.

The House has already slashed slightly more than $3,000,000,000 from Mr. Truman's original figure, but the Senate will restore at least $300,000,000 in response to protests from farmers and beneficiaries of western reclamation projects.

The House Republicans may save several hundred million dollars on the War Relocation Administration Bill (Army construction, rivers and harbor etc.), on funds for foreign relief and occupation costs, and on the deficiency measure. But their hope of fulfilling their economy pledges, and thereby justifying any kind of tax relief, lies in paring down V.A. expenditures.

VETERANS—Republican Appropriations Committee members concede privately that closed session hearings revealed room for tremendous savings in General Omar N. Bradley's bureau, although he maintains the contrary.

They say they discovered that almost seventy percent of the patients in V.A. hospitals are non-service-connected cases and that many have spent years under government care. In fact, they charge that these institutions have been transformed into old soldiers' homes.

Their belief that thousands of World War I veterans should be removed from disability payment rolls. Many have collected large sums annually, according to off-the-record testimony, although their present state of health enables them to earn large salaries.

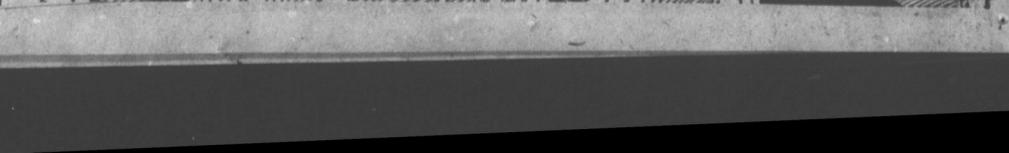

A consolidation of Army-Navy V. A. hospitals, according to one school, would mean a great savings and more efficient treatment of the patients. But the two services oppose such a merger, as do V. A. physicians.

In short, it is estimated that almost $1,000,000,000 could be eliminated without harm to deserving veterans of our two great conflicts—a prospect which everybody seems to avoid.

NEGLECT—Congressional neglect of the veterans, however, presents a more ticklish, political problem in that than ever before, for several obvious reasons.
