Derby to Run on Old Miami Road

Pampa's July 20 running of the "greatest amateur racing event in the world," the All-American Soap Box Derby, will be on the site used in former years, it was announced yesterday following a statement from Homer Taylor that his property adjacent to the track on the Old Miami Road north of the city would again be available.

Taylor, well-known rancher and cattleman in this area, each year has granted permission for a portion of his range fence to be taken down, in order that cars could be parked on his land.

This year a number of improvements in arrangements for the race will be put into effect, it was stated by General Chairman Morris Euloe. The traffic to the races will not interfere with any highway operations. Around 6,000 persons were estimated to have seen the races last year, and an even larger crowd is anticipated this year in view of the fact that the field of entries will be larger.

Boys from surrounding towns are expected to participate. Thirty-one boys are officially signed for the race already.

In that respect, Chairman Euloe said those boys who are now working on racers and who have not signed up should sign up for the race within a few days.

The race here, to determine the boy who will go to Akron, Ohio, for the finals in August, is sponsored by the Pampa Daily News, Culbertson Chevrolet and the Pampa Lions Club, in conjunction with the national sponsor, Chevrolet Division of General Motors.

Boys who enter this national event look for various sources for their inspiration to build good racers. National headquarters, All-American Soap Box Derby, has reported that artists, closely detailing every part of the Gilbert Klecan 1946 winning car, noted this poem tacked on the inside of the cockpit. It is based on here for the benefit of local contestants:

THINK
If you think you're beaten, you are,
If you think you're ahead, you are,
If you think you're out of the race,
You are.
It's almost certain you won't,
If you think you've lost, you're lost,
You're not in the state of mind,
If you think you're outclassed, you are,
You've got to think like a champion,
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize,
Lift your head up, boys, go
To the stronger or faster man,
But soon or later the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

Texas Holiday Deaths Total 10

By The Associated Press
A steadily increasing number of accidents in Texas took a total of at least 10 lives in Texas during the first two days of the long Memorial Day holiday.

Four persons were killed in traffic accidents, two persons died under the wheels of vehicles on tracks, three persons burned to death and one drowned.

Mrs. Ocie Frances Johnston, 59, died in a Sherman hospital Saturday from an explosion in a mineral water bath house she operated at Tioga. A gas heater was blamed for the explosion.

Jerry Nemev, 7, who lived on the Chapman Ranch near Corpus Christi, was killed instantly Friday when the bicycle he was riding was struck by a truck.

Other reported deaths included: Allen Glen Dunn, 36, Highlands, decapitated when struck by an interurban near Highlands; Arnold Stepp, 37, apprentice section foreman, killed by a train while asleep on a track near Penelope.

One Clark, 13, drowned while swimming near Marshall. Ernest Eddon Ford, 21, died of automobile crash injuries in accident near Gainesville.

George P. Smoot, 26, and his mother, Mrs. Mamie Smoot, 51, of Gall, burned to death in their home. Jack DeJohns, 22, Orange, killed in an automobile smashup. L. D. Harmon, 15, Old River, killed in automobile smashup.

Six Cases Heard in Corporation Court

Three boys were fined $5 each by Judge Clifford Braly in Corporation Court Saturday morning on charges of indecent exposure. Two men were assessed fines of $5 for disturbing the peace. One other man was fined $10 on charges of intoxication. No other cases were heard.

Coal Strike Threatens As Negotiations Fail

WASHINGTON—A threat of a new nationwide soft coal strike became headlined yesterday as contract talks between John L. Lewis and 75 percent of the operators collapsed over a 35-cent an hour pay rise demand.

The break-up of negotiations heightened the prospect that a mine walkout July 1 might provide the first test of new legislation to deal with national emergency strikes and curb union activities—if President Truman signs it. And the President is generally expected to take all factors into account in deciding for or against a veto.

The northern and western operators announced, as the talks were suspended indefinitely, that they had offered a 15-cent hourly increase which they said follows the wage pattern in steel, autos, and other basic industries, but that Lewis spurned it.

Lewis is holding separate negotiations, which resume next Tuesday, with the Southern Coal Producers Association. But the Southerners previously have been unwilling to grant as much as the others, and some major operators predicted these negotiations, too, will collapse next week.

"Anything can happen now," said Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the North-West operators who explained their position of a news conference.

He mentioned the possibility that Lewis might make separate agreements with smaller production groups. There also appeared a possibility that some agreement might be reached to continue temporarily the terms of Lewis' contract with the government, which expires June 30 when the government must restore the mines to private hands.

But no moves in these directions were made last night, and Lewis and the North-West operators had no plans for continuing negotiations.

Lewis declined any comment on the collapse of negotiations with the North-West operators and permitted them to take the initiative in making their views public for the first time since the contract talks began May 16. Both sides had maintained strict silence about their talks until yesterday.

Lewis wanted to cut the work day from nine hours to eight hours, and boost the miner's pay from the $11.85 he now receives for nine hours underground to $13.05 for eight hours below the surface. His productive working time would be six and a half hours under Lewis' proposal, the operators said, because the United Mine Workers' president would receive a 30-minute lunch and an hour's allowance for underground travel time.

Under the present nine-hour day at $11.85, the miner is paid time and one-half for one hour of work and for another hour spent in underground travel and eating.

The operators' counter wage offer would give the miner $11.35 daily take-home pay for the eight-hour day. They would have made a sixth work day per week optional as long as the demand for coal continues "excessive."

Lewis also asked for a ten-cent royalty on each ton of coal produced—double the amount now collected under the government's contract with Lewis—for a welfare and retirement fund for miners. The five-cent levy now is building the fund at the rate of $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 annually.

Lewis also seeks to appoint two of the three trustees for the fund. The third would be named by the operators under his proposal.

Child Slightly Hurt When Hit by Auto

Bessie Lou was released from the Worley Hospital shortly after admittance.

COLLIE COMES HOME
KANSAS CITY—(AP)—A Collie dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hoskins was back home today after hitch-hiking from the Missouri-Iowa state line.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Bartnes were returning from Ft. Dodge, Ia. The dog ran in front of their car, then jumped in when Bartnes stopped the vehicle. When they arrived in Kansas City the dog, missing for six months, left the Bartnes car and dashed to the Hoskins home across the street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartnes said they had never seen the dog before, having lived in the neighborhood only three months.

President of Mexico Will Receive Award
CHICAGO—(AP)—Enrique Romay, chief General of Mexico in Chicago, said Saturday he would accompany a delegation of his countrymen residing in the midwestern United States to Mexico City to present a decoration to President Aleman.

Romay said the group of 16 planned to leave Sunday by automobile for the Mexican capital and they planned to arrange the presentation of a special "Pro Patria" medal to the Mexican President "in about a week" at the Palacio Nacional.

Kiwanians Get Story Behind Boys' Ranch

Boys' Ranch is a sanctuary between the state reform school and the judge's court.

That is the gist of a well-received address by Cal Farley at the regular luncheon of the Kiwanis Club here Friday.

Farley, retired business man and the spark behind the original effort for Boys' Ranch, discussed for about a half-hour the varied ramifications of the project, which at this time has 78 boys, mostly from Texas.

He had with him a Pampa boy who has turned into one of Boys' Ranch's model residents. At the Ranch four years, the youth had become a delinquent, being expelled from his home.

Most delinquents, Farley said, are away from school 75 percent of the time, away from home because their parents either do not have enough time to check to see if they go to school, or don't believe in educating their children.

Such youth, when he does go to school, is at least two grades behind a fact which leads to conflict between him and the smaller children. From there the youth runs into trouble with school authorities.

Soon he begins running away from school, staying in alleys with other boys of similar circumstances—all steeply rising columns, the necessary gifts of growing boys, a chance to compete in clean contests against each other. They want candy, money and entertainment. But they don't get these things at home or at school so they start out to get them for themselves. Their reasoning is that, since they don't

Worship Makes Church-Selectman

AMARILLO—(AP)—A great church, Bishop Charles T. Sealeman told the 33rd annual Conference of Northwest Texas Methodist Churches yesterday, is not a church of great steeples, marble columns, nor one paying the biggest salary.

"No, a great church is one where people worship God, have fellowship together and where people are at heart to work for Christian civic improvement.

"It is not a place for people to meet once a week to hear a sermon and then go off and do nothing about it. His Christian service should reach out into the community to aid the distressed, the discouraged, and to foster public enterprises that look to a better world.

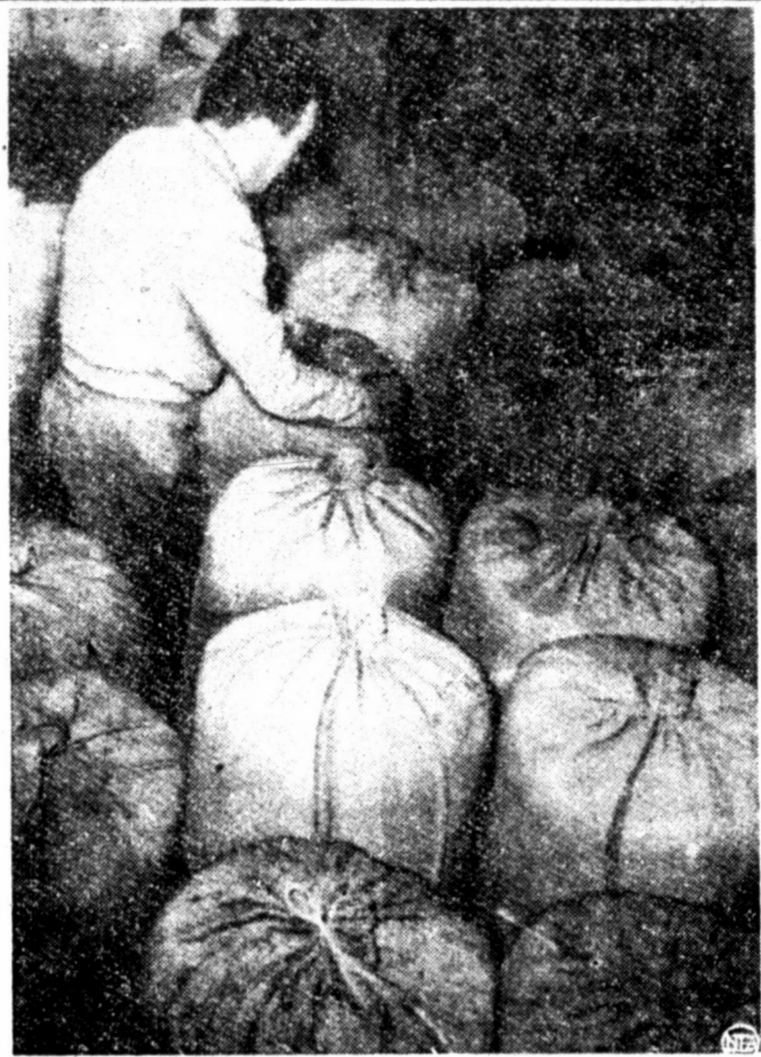

"It is moreover devoted to evangelism, to work for social justice, by ever seeking to engage in world service."

Bishop Sealeman said the Church Cabinet hoped to have the appointment of priests, for a gift of $50,000 to $100,000 for a student center building at McMurry College, Abilene. Construction is expected to start within a few months.

UNCOVERED CAR TRIP
CHICAGO—(AP)—The weather-rain-interfered with the motor trip two women made from Hollywood, Calif., to Chicago—they were on the highways for 17 days.

Miss Elaine Enlow, 30, and Miss Jerry Jul, 33, explained that their trip was in a 1931 model convertible roadster that didn't have a top. Every time rain fell the two women fled to the nearest shelter and waited for clear skies.

But they said they spent only $1.25 in repairs on the car in the 3,501-mile journey.

FRANCE ANSWERS WHEAT CALL—With France threatened with a serious bread shortage, Pres. Vincent Auriol's recent appeal to farmers, asking them to "Deliver, deliver, without delay, your wheat, all your wheat," has met with response in the villages. Here, a day's collection of wheat is shown sacked at a miller's before it was ground into flour in Yermenoville.

Jester Urges Conservation of State's '47 Bumper Wheat Crop

AUSTIN—(AP)—A suggestion that idle airfield hangars might be used to store wheat has come from Gov. Beauford H. Jester.

Jester issued a statement Friday saying that empty hangars which have concrete floors and are rainproof might be handy for storing the apparently crop-breaking wheat at crop against the time that shipping facilities are available.

The Governor urged "clear thinking and prompt action," utilizing every means to prevent waste of the bumper crop.

Ed's Note: The Pampa Chamber of Commerce Agricultural Committee announced last week that the livestock operators in this region had been given a verbal agreement by the War Assets Administration in Fort Worth to use hangars at the Pampa Army Airfield and that formal negotiations are now under way to secure use of the field's facilities should storage emergency arise.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson, Chairman of the Railroad Commission who represented Jester at the recent wheat state conference in Kansas City, reported that the conference had insisted that the railroads adopt a policy of filling up terminal elevators west of the Mississippi, giving priority to this region of wheat over movements to eastern seaboard elevators.

In connection with possible utilization of idle hangars, Jester suggested that wheat farmers might select individuals to act as warehouse superintendents. They would issue receipts to all wheat farmers who are unable to transport grain by rail, but who could haul the wheat to hangars by truck.

When they do come, they are likely to be more severe and more destructive, the department said, than those of the '30's which brought ruin to thousands of farmers and destruction to thousands of acres of rich soil.

This forecast of returning dust storms was made in a bulletin issued by the department's Soil Conservation Service.

Aggravating the danger, the bulletin said, is the fact that many farmers are plowing up sod to grow wheat at present-day advantageous prices. It said others, influenced by the department's warning, are stocking ranges too heavily.

"Soil erosion on unprotected land will probably be worse during the next severe drought than during the last one," the department said.

"Most of the soil will blow sooner, next time. Much of the land that has been plowed up since the last drought, a large part of the organic matter and fine soil particles were blown away and the granular structure of the soil was broken down."

The department said it will take years of good farming to restore good soil structure to land damaged during the last drought. Until this is done, the soil is more likely to blow when exposed to high winds.

The department said many farmers and ranchers are trying to get ready for the next drought "because they know it is coming." Others, it noted, are "just hoping it won't happen again."

The department urged farmers in the plains to "put more land to grass and to plant more trees."

Pro-Communist Heads Hungarian Government

BUDAPEST—(AP)—Appointment of pro-Communist Lajos Dinnyes as Prime Minister succeeding the ousted Ferenc Nagy was announced by the Cabinet yesterday and a terrified Hungarian official said it meant the Soviet Army would now be invited to train and equip Hungarian troops.

The high official, who cannot be named because he said he himself faced exile or arrest for his views, declared the Communist party was now "in 100 percent control" and expressed the fear that "Hungary is lost as far as the West is concerned."

Another official who had just come from a Cabinet meeting announced orally that new general elections would be held in September—elections which anti-Communist politicians said probably would be held under laws guaranteeing sweeping Left-Wing victories and clinching the bloodless Communist coup. The official news agency, MTI, said official announcement of elections would be withheld but that the elections nevertheless would be held in September as scheduled.

Relatives Identifying Crash Dead

PORT DEPOSIT, Md.—(AP)—Hushed relatives of the 53 dead in America's most terrible commercial air disaster came in from all over the south and east yesterday to visit an improvised morgue and do their best to make identifications.

Not one of the victims of the crash Friday night of a southbound Eastern Airlines DC-4 escaped mutilation when the big plane struck and shattered.

The crash occurred shortly after 4:30 p. m. (CST) in a heavily wooded section three miles east of Port Deposit, which lies in northern Maryland near the Pennsylvania border.

Forty-nine passengers, one of them a baby in his mother's arms, and four crew members were removed early Saturday to the drab and deserted commissary at Bainbridge Naval Training Station.

There the kinfolks, Navy doctors and dentists, and Eastern Airlines' medical examiners began the slow and gruesome business of making identification through dental work, personal trinkets or distinguishing body marks.

After 24 hours after the crash, only eight bodies had been positively identified.

The eight included: Mrs. H. Schriffrin, New York City; Mrs. Edith Sturt and her one-year-old baby, Orange, N. J., and Miami Beach; Donna Medlin, Watertown, Conn.; Leo and Queenie Machel, Miami; Theodore Lundstrom, the plane purser from Elmont, N. Y., and Stewardess Helena O'Brien, New York City.

The DC-4 left Newark at 2:55 p. m. Friday night bound for Miami, and most of the dead were residents of the South or North-east.

The cause of the crash, whose dead toll was the largest of any commercial airline disaster in United States history, remained much in doubt. Several witnesses, however, told investigators that the tail section of the four-engine ship came off before it crashed and before it struck.

The Civil Aeronautics Board announced in Washington it will decide next week on a date for public hearings on the disaster.

Dr. R. C. Dodson, Cecil County, Md. medical examiner, expressed the hope that relatives would approve mass burial of the victims, possibly in nearby West Nottingham Cemetery.

It appeared, however, that relatives of those positively identified would choose resting places elsewhere.

The kin of the victims began arriving in the early morning. They were taken to the hostess house at the training station, where they talked in low and awed tones of the catastrophe.

After a few hours they were called to go by bus to the commissary building, several hundred yards away.

There in a long room the bodies had been placed on trestle-like platforms. See PLANE CRASH, Page 8

Man Arraigned on Kidnapping Charge

HOBBART, Okla.—(AP)—Carpenter Hughes, Kiowa County attorney, said yesterday Lloyd Foster Sheehan, 23, Oklahoma City, would be arraigned early next week on charges he kidnaped a Texas couple.

Sheehan was accused of the abduction last week of Henry Houston Stevenson, 40, Vernon, Texas, and his companion, Mrs. J. M. Hill, son of Burk Burnett, Texas. Stevenson said he had picked up Sheehan and his wife, Mary Catherine, 19, Texas, on a highway near Wichita Falls.

Near Hobart, Stevenson said, Sheehan beat him, took charge of the car and forced him and Mrs. Hill to remain in the car while he drove toward Lawton, Okla. Sheehan was apprehended near Lawton by State Highway Patrolmen, acting on a filing station attendant's tip.

Higgins Is Hit Again

LEEDY, Okla.—(AP)—Jack Sapp, telephone operator in this Northwestern Oklahoma city of 600, said over an emergency line at the edge of town last night that "Leedy was three quarters destroyed" by a roaring tornado which hit at 8:05 p. m.

"We already have found five bodies," Sapp declared. "We don't know how many were killed or hurt. We need ambulances and doctors and medical supplies as fast as we can get them."

"The waterworks of the town was destroyed and the telephone office hit."

"At least half the business district is gone."

"The town itself has been three-quarters destroyed. It was at work in the telephone office when the storm formed. I could see it coming about 45 minutes before it hit."

"I operate the fire siren from the telephone office and I sounded that and also turned on a loudspeaker system and warned people."

"By the time the storm hit I think about everyone was off the streets and headed for storm cellars."

"That probably kept a lot of people from getting killed or hurt."

"We still don't know just how bad it is but I have managed to set up an emergency circuit at the edge of town and we're trying to get reports out as fast as we can."

"We know the town is hard hit and we need help fast."

A low pressure trough extending from South Dakota to the Mexican border caused turbulent air conditions which produced the tornado and thunderstorms in the eastern Texas Panhandle.

Striking Higgins for the second time in less than two months, a tornado swept over the southern district of that town at 6:15 p. m. yesterday doing practically no damage and then tore its way on to Arnett, Oklahoma.

This was the fourth twister scare for the Pampa area this year.

Meanwhile a strong southwest wind swept through Borger knocking the southern half of that city's power lines down and leaving it in total darkness from 7:25 p. m. until 8:30 p. m.

Reports from Borger said that business people there were forced to use candles and flashlights during that time. The A. P. teletype wires of the Borger News-Herald were also down for almost an hour causing them to lose 10 important stories including the tornado dispatches.

Borger newsmen said the city was unusually dark and that a strong wind was blowing and visibility was limited to about three miles. See TORNADO, Page 4

New Local News Feature Is Begun

For the past month the editorial department of The Pampa News has been gathering information regarding Pampa businesses and industries. From time to time The News will offer news to the public of anniversaries, new businesses and industries, and special events of local firms.

This month marks the fourth anniversary of the Hall and Pinson Tire Co., 301 W. Foster. The firm, owned and operated by O. V. Hall and Dale Pinson, came under its present management in May, 1943.

During the month of May two other Pampa firms celebrated their anniversaries. Behrman's, owned and operated by E. M. Behrman, celebrated its 12th anniversary, and the Pampa Furniture Co., owned and operated by F. M. Foster, celebrated its 18th anniversary.

One new firm reportedly appeared in Pampa in May—the Melody Manor, 119 N. Frost, owned and operated by Irving Akst. The Melody Manor is primarily a phonograph record and book store, but it handles appliances and a recording service.

The month of May marked the re-opening of the J. C. Daniels Motor Co., 219 W. Tng. The firm was gutted by a $60,000 fire March 12. An entirely new and larger building has been erected.

The sale of Barrett's Frozen Foods, 314 E. Francis, was announced May 2 to Dave Finkelstein. The firm's name was changed to the Pampa Frozen Foods.

Each Generation Thinks It's Better
—But Dad Will Always Lead the Field

By HAL BOYLE
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(AP)—To come home for a family reunion in the Middle West this time of year is a thing to make you feel years younger for a while.
But it doesn't really last.
The reason is that the seasons keep on changing—but you don't.
The trees grow on skyward, and so do the children. And that is a hard thing to bend yourself to. You don't mind your friends and brothers being a bit older and grayer, but you hate to admit you're in their company too. You think you should stay with the young folks.
And as for your mother, uncles and aunts who are the mainstay of the family—well, all of a sudden they seem to belong to a strange but familiar tribe. The dances they go in for are out of the familiar past, but most of them aren't the kind of up-to-date bumpy hogs that your daughters go in for. That is, if you have daughters.
So there you are, a kind of unhappy link between two generations. You know as the drinks and turkey sandwiches go round that you are sort of midway between the generation that ruled the roost and the one that is about to take over. You kind of belong to both and don't quite belong to either. The old folks think you are too young to be one of them, and the young folks think you are just a bit too sedate to belong to their crowd.
At least that is the way I felt the other day when I came home to a family reunion after some years.
The old folks hadn't changed much—I have in self-defence to put

Leveling-Off Signs Appear in Business

AUSTIN—(AP)—Texas April business showed a 90 percent increase over the prewar period, but leveling-off signs began to appear.
Statistics compiled by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research revealed the increase was the result of monthly gains in important business indicators.
However, in the monthly publication of the bureau, Dr. Robert W. French wrote that "it was clear this past month that business had begun to level off."
Business setbacks during 1947's first three months were not as severe as expected, but the situation was not as stable as in the same period last year, the bureau reported.
In the field of trade, dollar sales were generally up but unit sales were mostly down as a result of the rise in prices.
April production was high and steady, but declines were recorded in some fields, such as man-hours worked and cotton consumption.
Texas agriculture spent an unsteady month, with cash income down from April a year ago.

Jester Presents Daughter Diploma

CORSIKANA—(AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester returned to the High School where he was graduated 36 years ago Friday night to deliver a commencement address to 117 graduates and hand a diploma to his youngest daughter, Joan.
The Governor said that no commencement speaker in Texas this year would experience more happiness in being a part of graduation exercises than he, and added it was a privilege for him to be at Corsicana High School, his first alma mater.
He smiled broadly when his daughter came forward to receive her diploma.
Jester told the group that religious faith is the salvation of the individual and the source that religious Americans can offer the world. He decried the continuing number of ideologies of life and government thrust upon the world and urged continued adherence to the religious faith of the founders of America.

Rents Announced

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Office of Rent Controls announced yesterday landlords will be allowed to raise rents hereafter $5 a month for each $1,000 spent on dwelling improvements.
The allowance has been $4 a month since December, 1946. The Office said the increase, effective today, reflects rising construction costs.

Decision Offered in Football Broadcasts

AUSTIN—(AP)—The attorney general ruled yesterday that the Board of Trustees of Ector County Independent School District has the authority to grant an exclusive contract to a radio station to broadcast regularly scheduled football games.
The opinion was sought by Murray H. Fly, superintendent of Odessa schools. Odessa won the state schoolboy championship last year. Noting that there was no money consideration involved in the contract between the school board and Station KRTG, the attorney general added that the contract would not be binding unless a consideration of substantial benefit were given the school.
Two other stations, KOSA and KECK, have contended that the board could not give an exclusive contract.

Disease Said to

NEW YORK—(AP)—Doctor Joseph Jordan Eller, former president of the Pan American Medical Society, was quoted in the New York Times yesterday as saying the foot and mouth disease in Mexico was under control. Dr. Eller made the statement upon his arrival at La Guardia Field Friday after a ten-day visit with President Miguel Aleman of Mexico.
He said in a plane trip to the three Northern Mexican states of Sonora, Chihuahua and Cholla he found the area free of the disease. He also was reported as saying that five military cordons of 100,000 soldiers had been established to guard against spread of the livestock malady.
The Times added that during his visit Dr. Eller discussed with President Aleman the new school and hospitalization program for the country that will be financed out of the recent $100,000,000 grant by the United States to Mexico.

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell
Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.
Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.
To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.
Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloot and give off that sour food taste.
Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Wheat Crop

 In the early wheat area and indications are no trucks will be needed in this north central wheat area. Some trucks will be needed in the Panhandle wheat harvest after June 12, but the total number needed will depend on how fast the wheat moves by rail from these elevators. Truckers are advised to consult their County Agent or this office for information before bringing trucks to harvest.

There now is a surplus of labor but this surplus will disappear by June 10, and many men will be needed in all the Texas Panhandle area through this harvest season.

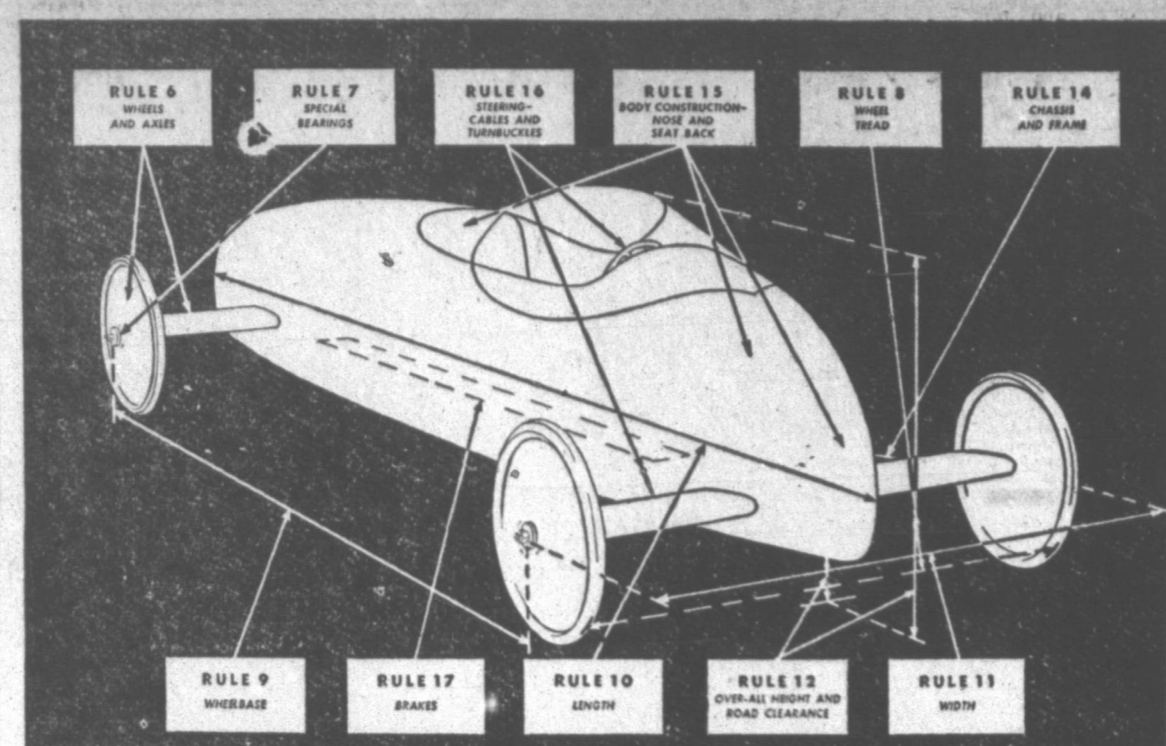

Shamrock Boys' Club Is Being Organized

SHAMROCK—(Special)—The Commandos, an organization of boys under the direction of Bob Clark and Jack Dillon, will spend Saturday at Lugert Dam, Okla. Approximately 150 youngsters are expected to make the trip.

Dillon, who will direct the summer recreational program, announces that activities will get under way Monday.

Boys' Ranch

 get those things at home or at school, why should they not get them for themselves? That leads to petty crime.

"They start when they're 8 or 9 years old, and not when you read about them in the paper after they've 'done a good one,'" Farley explained.

Many of them go to the reform school, where, he said, they get a "post-graduate course" in making trouble.

When Farley first began trying to help boys, they were offered entertainment at the Amarillo May-erick Club, a club formed for that purpose. But, he said, part of the boys came there during the day to play, went away during the night, and as hungry and un-attended as they were when they went there.

It was then, he said, that he decided the boys in such circumstances needed the continual care of someone, needed the open air where they could work and play, and could be well fed. They needed something on the farm, as he said, he had when he was a boy.

Juveniles come to his attention, he said, when parents separate, or when they stay away from home at night, or when they fight. Most of these boys, he stated, aren't able to think clearly when they are brought to his attention, because the only thing they have heard at home is "Where's the whiskey bottle?" or something to that effect.

He stated that the churches' programs for helping youth are correct as planned, but, he added, the churches need to "let their hair down."

Most of the boys went to Boys' Ranch from their mothers, but many have come from county judges. Although he did not ask for help, and said that the $300,000 in property at the Ranch was donated unsolicited, he said there was always something the people of this and other communities can do to help. For instance, he stated, at this time plans are being made for another housing unit for vocational agricultural training, and a school house.

He drew a laugh when, in regard to solicitation he said:

"We've mentioned a lot of things before the right people at the right time."

The greatest progress among the boys, he said, is derived from what he called a unit system. This is a plan under which boys are elevated to better living quarters as they show increased application to their work.

"We try to elevate that boy who is just a little more on the beam than the others," he said.

He emphasized that Boys' Ranch is "the Panhandle's project."

No charge is made for keeping boys from Texas, but those from out-of-state—and there are some—are assessed $25 per month. Contributions from Texas, however, keep the project going, he stated.

Over 100 boys is expected to be the population after barracks are moved from Dalhart Army Air Field. Asked when the project would cease growing, Farley explained that was up to the people of the Panhandle. As long as they continued to support this home for those in need of a home, good clean fun at sports, and a place to work and learn some trade of their choosing, it would continue to grow.

Tornado

 and a half blocks. No other damage was reported.

Up until press time there were no reports of casualties or other serious damage except that done to communications and power lines.

Many anxious telephone calls were put in to the News last night from local residents, inquiring about the storms, from the time they were first reported until after press time.

HIGGINS—(P)—A tornado which swept across Higgins last night along the path of the deadly storm that visited a half-dozen Texas Panhandle and Western Oklahoma in April, was too high to cause much damage. No injuries were reported.

A telephone operator at Higgins, Mrs. Peggy Gray, said that the tornado formed south of town and swooped across the southern portion of Higgins, a part which had not been rebuilt since its April devastation.

The time was approximately 6:15 p.m.

Mrs. Gray said the tornado was high enough to make it weak on the ground. It stirred up dust and loose boards and knocked window lights out of a house two miles away.

According to reports Mrs. Gray had received, the tornado went on into Oklahoma, hitting again between Shattuck and Arnett and a third time near Dave. It was last reported east of Woodward.

"It seemed to 'miss' all towns," she said.

Shattuck and Woodward were hit

West Texas and Gulf Coast Areas Report Largest Population Growths

By The Associated Press

Texas has grown amazingly since the last official census, an Associated Press survey of major cities and counties indicates.

Many towns have become cities, and the wide open spaces are filling up.

The growth is attributed to industrialization, the hundreds of major war industries that have converted to civilian production and the major affluence caused by the growth of Texas had been in the housing field. Every town said the shortage was aggravated by the population boost.

But there was no complaint. All towns were proud of the growth, and predicted the housing problem could and would be overcome.

Optimism also was indicated by the estimates the various cities made of their expected 1950 population when the next official census will be taken. All predicted substantial growths over today's figure.

The increase has also brought substantial and in some cases almost unbelievable increases in buying power, in money in the bank, in increased business.

However, new problems have developed. Houston said the welfare load had increased. Industrial growth brought more union activity, and more labor-management disputes and strikes than formerly.

Office and building space is at a premium in Odessa, and doubtless other cities.

Fort Worth, in addition to housing, crowded schools and congestion, the swollen population of Orange, and the inability of local merchants to expand rapidly enough, has forced local citizens to trade in nearby cities such as Beaumont and Port Arthur.

Lamesa had difficulty with utilities keeping pace with growth. San Antonio found its sewage system overtaxed. Alice said its city government was inadequate, as well as its schools. Changes had to be made.

Arthur, in addition to the regular problems, discovered that its fire department was too small for the growing city. Denison also had trouble with utilities. Midland's rapid growth, augmented by the shortage of materials, forced its school system to lag.

Amarillo is experiencing water problems, shortage of sewer facilities, crowded schools, and definite housing and office shortage.

At Pampa, hospital facilities are inadequate. Money has been voted for a new and larger institution.

Denison's 250,000-gallon water system nearly drained dry last summer. Gas companies and telephone companies couldn't keep up with demands for connections.

Business everywhere remained good, although tapering off from the post-war peak was indicated as a buyers market began to develop.

The 1940 census of 6,414,824 for Texas was broken down into urban, rural, (non farm) and rural farm as follows: Urban 2,911,389, rural (non farm) 1,354,248, and rural farm 2,149,187.

Even seven years ago, cities led in population, and rural farm was second. The greatest increase today seems to be in the cities. But counties as a whole also show substantial increases, indicating the rural areas are not being depleted.

West Texas and Gulf Coast areas reported the largest growths, both by city and county. The counties boasted greater industrialization, chemical plants, shipping, and the West Texas area livestock, oil, and greatly expanded agriculture.

These are the towns reporting: Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Waco, Odessa, Lufkin, Orange, Lamesa, Wichita Falls, Alice, Abilene, Greenville, Port Arthur, Big Spring, Brownsville, Denison, Midland, Palestine, Amarillo, Pampa, Denton, and McAlister.

Mexican Oil Workers Agree to Wage Cut

MEXICO CITY—(P)—Oil workers finally accepted the slightly modified wage cut and dismissal reorganization plan of the government oil monopoly, Pemex, yesterday after night and morning sessions at which the union delegation announced all officers would resign rather than accept the plan.

Pemex's new general manager, Antonio Bermudez, appointed by President Aleman to put it on a business basis, had proposed a five percent dismissal of union workers and ten percent from the office staff with some wage reductions and other restrictions. His plan, accepted by the unions today with slight company concessions, Pemex expects to trim expenses $3,000,000 ($6,000,000) annually. Details are to be settled in future meetings.

It was President Aleman's prompt discharge of 50 union leaders last winter that ended the almost continuous illegal work stoppage, that had been hampering Pemex and other industries. Labor federations talked of a general strike but did nothing when newspapers and individuals showed the mass of people supported the President.

Request Permanent Permit to Use 'Inch Lines' to Ship Gas

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation's application for permanent authorization to use the Big and Little Inch pipelines for natural gas transmission will be heard here July 7. The Federal Power Commission set the hearing Friday.

The corporation is operating the lines under an interim lease from the War Assets Administration and a temporary certificate from the FPC. The company expects to acquire the lines by Nov. 25.

The FPC will take up at the hearing Texas Eastern's request to be allowed to build about 65 miles of lateral lines to connect the big lines with systems which distribute gas in the Philadelphia and New Jersey areas.

Seeking to intervene are coal, labor and railroad interests, along with a number of gas companies and the regulatory commissions of Arkansas, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Railroad Commission Sets Hearings Dates

 July 15, application of S. B. Roberts for a discovery allowable and new well designation for his Tipton well No. 4, Taylor County.

Other hearings set:
 July 11, application of the Producers Corporation of Nevada for establishment of a gas-oil ratio of 10,000 cubic feet of gas per barrel of oil in the Tynan field, Bee County.
 June 13, to determine whether or not wells in the Kermit field, Winkler County, should be exempt from statewide Rule 6.

Health Department Checking on Fever

AUSTIN—(P)—Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, yesterday said laboratory tests have not yet confirmed or discredited a Corsicana diagnosis of Rocky Mountain spotted fever as the cause of a child's death there recently.

Dr. Cox emphasized that the Health Department's weekly report merely indicated a "reported" case of the dread fever in Corsicana. "The clinical test in Corsicana indicated it was Rocky Mountain fever, but our laboratory tests have not confirmed it," Dr. Cox said. "We may have taken the first blood tests too early," he added.

More exhaustive tests will be completed next week.

PANHANDLE—(Special)—Mrs. Lewis Williams and children, Carolyn and Jimmy, gave a musical program at the Rotary Club luncheon on Friday.

Mrs. Williams and Jimmy gave vocal numbers accompanied by Carolyn, who also gave several piano solos.

Dr. R. J. Benson and J. L. Sands of Borger were guests.

Texas City Relief Fund Report Made

GALVESTON—(P)—Col. Paul L. Wakefield, coordinator for Gov. Beauford Jester on Texas City relief, said yesterday that deposit of funds in banks here had brought the total state relief fund up to $204,540.43.

Proceeds of three benefit performances are yet to come in, he said.

Col. Wakefield said he was closing his Galveston headquarters following a conference with Mayor J. G. Trahan of Texas City, director of Red Cross Maurice Reddy, and other service agencies.

He said his phase of the work would be handled from Austin in the future, but that future meetings of the Governor's Committee would be held in Galveston or Texas City.

Oilers Take 8-3 Win From Dukes

ALBUQUERQUE. (Special) George Payte's able five-hit flinging was too much for the Dukes Friday night as Pampa's Oilers took the opener of a three-game series here, 8 to 3. Al Johnston, with a double and a triple, led the Oilers' 10-hit attack on Gilbert Archuleta.

The Oilers hitting stopped abruptly in the seventh when Dick O'Boyle, right-hander, who recently joined the Dukes, relieved Archuleta and put a hurried hush on Oiler hitting.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK. (AP)—Scouting reports: When Willard Nixon, 19-year-old freshman, pitched the Auburn baseball team to a 30 victory over Georgia recently, he personally accounted for 20 of the 27 putouts. Willard fanned ten, threw out nine and covered first on one putout.

At the last report six major league scouts were on his trail.

TURNOUT
Curly Lambson, who headed opposing pro football coaches for years just by sending in Don Hutson to catch passes, now is wondering what his colleagues will do about the Los Angeles Aams.

Curly explains: They're had to play two men on Jim Benton to keep him from catching them all over the lot. They had to do the same thing with Steve Bagarus when he was with Washington.

Now Benton and Bagarus are on the same club and there aren't enough men in the defense to go around.

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Ted Williams has no particular squawk about being walked. Although he'd rather hit homers, "You ought to be glad I got on base," he told Business Manager Fred Corcoran the other night.

Bobby Locke, the South American golfer, occasionally makes his American rivals nervous on the links, but they say he really scares the day lights out of them plotting that right-hand-drive car he bought soon after rearing the United States.

HOME ON THE RANGE
When Joe Tepeck, former Penn State athlete who wanted to play ball for Brooklyn or nobody, finally reported to the Fort Worth Cats the other day, one of the first guys he encountered was Teddy neckick, who hails from the same town, Slevan, Pa.

Ted plays basketball for Texas Wesleyan College at Fort Worth.

New Pilot Puts Virginia Colt On Right Route

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, NEW YORK. (AP)—They put a new pilot aboard Phalanx yesterday and gave him a different kind of a road map to follow, and the "gentleman from Virginia" liked it so much he waltzed home by five lengths in the Belmont stakes.

The Virginia born colt they've been calling the merry-go-round horse—because he's been rushing from out of nowhere and getting nowhere most of this spring—found the paying teller's window with no trouble at all this time, after failing in the Derby and Preakness.

Meantime, the fancy favorite of the crowd of 52,344—Preakness winner Faultless—apparently didn't have it for the king-size mile-and-a-half distance and came in a faltering and fading fifth.

This was a rude shock to the paying guests who jammed this spacious plant to the rafters and invested $315,330 in the mutuels on Faultless across the board as they backed him down to odds-on in the field.

His victories in the Preakness and Withers, and the way Phalanx kept putting on his grandstand finishes to second place in the Derby and third in the Preakness and Peter Pan last Saturday—all under Jockey Eddie Aron—made them pour it on Warren Writch's ransy runner. As a result, Phalanx got See PHALANX, Page 8.

NYU Dethrone Middle Thinclads

PHILADELPHIA. (AP)—New York University dethrone Navy today in the IC-4A track and field championship after a reign of three years in competition characterized by the sensational performances of freshman and the establishment of two meet records.

Army's mile relay team, anchored by Jack Hammock, who was clocked in 4:15.5, ran the fastest mile relay of the year in the East to set a mark of 3:14.3, bettering the time of 3:15.5 the same four men established yesterday. Curtis C. Stone of Penn State set the second meet record with 9:11.8 in the two mile, crasing the time of 9:18.4 established by Andrew E. Neidung of Manhattan in 1940.

Individual scoring honors went to Fred Johnson, Michigan State's Negro freshman, who took the broad jump at 24 feet 7 3/8 inches and the 220-yard low hurdles in 23.7, in addition to placing second in the 100 for 14 points out of the 25 scored by the Spartans to finish second in NYU's 36 points. Another tiny freshman, Joseph Cianciabella of Manhattan, won both dashes, taking the 100 in 16.7 and the 220 in 21.8.

Two other Freshmen, Reginald Pearnett of N. Y. U. and Jack Diannetti of Michigan State ran a brilliant mile with Dianetti taking the lead of quarter and Pearnett closing hard to win by two feet in a sparkling 1:51.5. This was only three tenths of a second slower than the IC-4A record set by the great John Woodruff of Pittsburgh in 1939.

So stepped up was the competition that the seven 1946 defending champions eligible, only Bernard Meyer of N. Y. U., who won the shot with 52 feet 3 1/2 inches, was able to repeat.

Overmire Leads Tigers to Win Over Senators

DETROIT. (AP)—Frank (Stubby) Overmire, Detroit's stocky little left-hander, fooled everybody but Stan Spence yesterday as the Tigers beat the Washington Senators 5 to 4 despite Spence's pair of two-run homers.

Besides driving in all the Washington runs, Spence's two walkoffs high into the right field stands accounted for half his team's hits as Overmire turned in a four-hitter with the aid of Paul (Dizzy) Trout, who came in from the bullpen to relieve the last two men in the ninth.

Overmire didn't yield a hit until catcher Al Evans singled in the sixth and Detroit had a 4-0 lead when Spence hit his first homer in the seventh after Mickey Vernon had walked.

GIANTS 10, PIRATES 9

NEW YORK. (AP)—The New York Giants nosed out the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-9 in a free-hitting affair, winning in the last half of the ninth inning when rookie outfielder Lloyd Gernert slammed Art Herring's first pitch for a home run.

A crowd of 32,905 cash customers sat through more than two and a half hours and saw nine pitchers yield 27 hits, 15 by the Giants and four home runs all made by New York players.

After the Pirates had taken a 3-1 edge against Mike Burnick, the Giants came back in their half of the second inning with four runs to take a 5-3 lead. Home runs by Bob Thomson and Billy Ripken, each with a man on base off starter Fritz Ostermuller, accounted for the runs.

The bucs tied the count in the third with two runs on a pair of singles and a double by Ralph Kiner, but the Giants went ahead again, 8-5 when John Mize rifled his 14th home run in the fourth with two men on.

Calm Willie's Putting Beats Dick Chapman

CARNOUSTIE, SCOTLAND. (AP)—Wee Willie Turnesa won the British amateur golf championship yesterday with his mother-in-law's putter and an educated wedge.

Those two weapons and turnesa's calm, unemotional execution were all he needed to catch and overcome Dick Chapman, his Walker Cup teammate, 3 and 2, in an all-American final—first in history of the golfing classic.

Willie and Dick, bosom pals who last played together with the Duke of Windsor in 1941, provided 4,000 Scots spectators to an eyeeful of a thrilling duel right down to the curtain on the 34th green.

There, as many times previously during the swaying battle, Willie's borrowed putter did the trick. It stroked his ball in straight and true from 10 feet for a par three to end Chapman's dream of victory. It marked the 18th time in 34 holes that the new champion from White Plains, N. Y., had needed only one putt to get down.

The magic putter, from the bag of Mrs. Beatrice O'Gonnor of White Plains, N. Y., was brought across the ocean by Willie because his own favorite club, a center-shafted model, is illegal on British courses. He three-putted with the borrowed club only once today.

In becoming the sixth American to carry off Britain's prized trophy since Walter J. Travis first won it in 1904, Turnesa made as brilliant a comeback as old Carnoustie ever witnessed and for the final 25 holes shot a brand of golf that made Chapman's cause hopeless.

He started miserably over a water-logged course, required 41 strokes for the first nine, and was five holes down to Chapman at the turn, Chapman, sinking 25 and 30-foot birdies with Gay Abandon, shot the nine in two-under-par 34. It looked like a runaway.

And then Willie, with one of his noted brothers, professional Joe, walking beside him and whispering words of advice and encouragement, began to play golf. He shot the next five holes in 44-24—three pars and two birdies—lo catch Chapman, who wobbled badly after being bunkered at the 10th.

Willie shot the second nine in 35 strokes to go to lunch all square. He shot a succession of nine straight pars going out in the afternoon, and went ahead for the first time on the 27th hole when Chapman smacked two shots into the rough.

Coming into the home stretch, with holes beginning to get scarce, Chapman gamely laid into every shot, played nothing safe, as he strove to pull Willie back to him. From the 28th through the 32nd the Pinehurst, N. C., star reeled off four straight pars and then a birdie four on a 47-yarder.

It gained him nothing. Willie matched him exactly, stroke for stroke to go to lunch all square. He shot a succession of nine straight pars going out in the afternoon, and went ahead for the first time on the 27th hole when Chapman smacked two shots into the rough.

Swimming Pool Is Set to Open Today

The Pampa Swimming Pool will open for the season at 2 this afternoon under the management of Kenneth Lard, it was announced Saturday.

The pool and dressing rooms have been cleaned and all buildings have been whitewashed. It is reported a new filter system has been installed.

Suits may be rented at the pool and single admittance and season tickets are now on sale.

Shamrock Nine Beats White Deer Bucks 6-5

SHAMROCK. (Special)—Shamrock High School's recently organized baseball club, coached by Elmer J. Moore, won its second game out of as many starts Tuesday afternoon, downing the White Deer nine, 6 to 5, in a tilt that went two extra innings to break a 5-5 tie.

Bobby Close allowed only three hits and rang up 13 strikeouts during the nine innings. The tilt was played on the White Deer diamond.

The meet is to be on a home-and-home basis. It will be held in Big Six territory next year, Kansas City is due to become the Big Six's home site but will not be ready to stage the meet next season.

Some 30 athletes will be here from each conference. The meet will be put on at a cost of approximately $350. It is proposed to pay expenses of the Big Six athletes from Kansas City to Dallas and return, including hotel accommodations and meals for a party of 50. The Southwest Conference athletes will have their expenses paid if enough is realized from the gate above what it will require to take care of the Big Six contestants.

The meet will be held at Dal-Hi Stadium which has one of the finest tracks in the South. P. C. Cobb, athletic director of Dallas high schools and a veteran in staging athletic contests, will be the referee.

It will be a tune-up for the National Collegiate Athletic Association meet at Salt Lake City June 20.

The first, second and third place finishers in each event of the respective conference meets will compete except that there will be only two mile relay teams from each conference—Texas A. and M. and Texas from the Southwest and Missouri and Iowa State of the Big Six. The 400-yard relay is not an event in the Big Six thus there will be no competition in this race. However, Texas, which has done 40.6 seconds—just one-tenth of a second over the world's record—and Baylor, another crack quartet, will run an exhibition.

Field events start at 7:30 p. m. (CST), with running events at 8 and the meet will be run off in two hours. Dal-Hi Stadium seats 21,500. There will be 2,702 reserved seats at the finish line. The ticket sale opens Monday.

Stewart, who witnessed both the Southwest and Big Six Conference meets, said he expected one of the closest contests and that the way he saw it neither conference could be termed the favorite.

174 Lives Lost In World-Wide Series Crashes

By the Associated Press
A world-wide series of disastrous airplane crashes the past few days has taken 174 lives—more than a third of the 428 killed in major commercial and military crashes so far this year.

At least 26 other persons were injured, some critically, and three others were missing.

Investigators and witnesses reported the apparent causes of the crashes were varied.

The worst tragedy and biggest plane disaster in the history of the United States was the crash of an Eastern Airlines DC-4 Friday near Fort Deposit, Md., with the loss of 33 lives. The cause still was in doubt but some witnesses told investigators they saw the tail section of the big plane come off before it plunged in flames.

Less than 24 hours earlier, the previous worst crashup occurred when a United Air Lines plane was wrecked in an attempted take-off in New York, causing 40 deaths. Investigators said a sudden shift in wind took place as the plane was attempting air speed.

Near Tokyo, an Army transport crashed in the mountains Thursday killing 40. The American craft struck a 500-foot ridge as it was approaching Tachikawa for a landing.

Bad visibility was suggested as a possible cause for the crashup of an Iceland Airways plane which struck a mountain in Northern Iceland Thursday, killing 25.

Twelve persons were killed in the collision of two planes Thursday at Tillburg, The Netherlands. Three plane crashes in Argentina the past three days killed four and injured one critically.

Other crashups included: Three were missing and nine escaped.

New Grain Company Ready for Harvest

A new grain company will be buying wheat in Pampa when the harvest season opens, it was announced yesterday afternoon. Pampa Elevator Co., a partnership composed of Jack N. Greenman, Harry H. Hitch, both of Fort Worth, and H. B. Lindley, of Tulla, stated they had leased from the receiver the elevator and loading facilities formerly operated by Jess Pool Grain Co., 225 West Atchison.

The former Pool interest, it was stated, went into the hands of the receivers April 28 in a federal district court case at Fort Worth. Judge C. Wilson appointed William K. Harris of Amarillo as receiver. The receiver, it was said, has completed a lease to Pampa Elevator Co., with the amount of the rental to be determined by the number of bushels of wheat handled, but with a minimum guarantee of $1,000 for the period to next Jan. 1.

It was stated the new operators are experienced grain men, Greenman being general manager of Uhlman Elevators, Fort Worth. Hitch is assistant to Greenman in the Fort Worth interest.

Lindley has been general manager of the Farmers Grain Co., Tulla, since 1941, and has been in the business since 1921.

Repair of equipment has been underway here, it was said, and the elevator will be in operation as the wheat crop is ready.

When an Army B-29 crashed on a takeoff at Fairbanks, Alaska, Thursday Twelve were injured at Bogota, Columbia, when a Columbian Army Airforce transport crashed Friday at Litchfield, England, injuring four civilians.

Domestic plane travel at La Guardia Field, New York, dropped below peak capacity Saturday. Although some airline representatives said unofficially the recent air crashes might be the cause, the majority said the condition was normal in the middle of a weekend holiday.

Shamrock Girl Gets Degree of NTSC

SHAMROCK—(Special)—Miss Dortha Braxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Braxton of Shamrock, is a candidate for the bachelor's degree to be awarded June 1 at North Texas State College spring commencement exercises.

Three hundred and sixty-seven degree applications have been filed, 49 for master's degrees and 318 for bachelor's degrees.

away as a $6.00-for-$2 shot to reward his customers.

What the folks overlooked, apparently, was that Phalanx had a new rider this time—Chilean Ruperto Donoso, who has a fine riding style, sits on a horse as if he were part of him, and who knew Phalanx. He'd been on him twice last season as a two year old, winning one and being thrown off in the other.

He replaced Acaro as the Belmont jockey only last Tuesday, when Trainer Sylvester Veltsch decided Eddie "Just didn't fit the horse." And where Eddie either couldn't or wouldn't hustle the colt along in the early going of the Derby and Preakness, Donoso got him right up there behind the leaders today. So when he got the green light he didn't have to come from practically out of the next county to catch up.

As a result, he took charge just before the field straightened out for home. At the finish he was swinging on the bit and laughing, five lengths in front of Tide Raps, the refugee from the steeple chasing owned by Bayard Sharp of the Delaware hunt set.

This son of Battleship, who won the English Grand National Steeplechase nine years ago, ran a game, up-with-the-race all the way to hold the place without much trouble by a length and a half over Tallspin, the Greentree stable stepper who came from seventh place in the last quarter mile.

Two lengths farther back, and three in front of Faultless came Young Peter, a New York-bred son of Peanut, owned by Mrs. Robert L. Gerry.

Then there was Faultless and Bradancon, another Virginia-bred who fought Tide Raps for the head end through the first mile before he wore out and William Woodward's Hibler, who won the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, came in last.

Phalanx covered the route in his good time of 2:29 2/5. There was a $78,900 pay check waiting for Phalanx when he cake-walked in, boosting his earnings to $190,835 for his two seasons of racing. And it marked a complete share-the-wealth program for the three year olds, for it chinked up a brand of different winner in each of the three triplecrown classics this season for one of the few times in history. The last time it was done was in the war year of 1945, when Hoop Jr., won the Derby, Polynesian the Preakness and Pavot the Belmont.

Pet Pilot was the Derby glamour boy this spring, failed badly in the Preakness when Faultless loped in, and didn't even get a starting ticket for today's field.

From the 10th hole through the 34th, the 33-year-old Turness blasted a trail of birdies and pars that put him three strokes under four for 25 holes of one of the world's longest and most exacting golf courses. In that great stretch he

THEY SHALL NOT DIE

On Memorial Day we honored our dead, but to us, they shall always live. Though memory of many things may fade, the good they did will live on in us to their credit.

This is our human recognition of the rich heritage that comes to us from each generation. This is the only lasting tribute.

To us who loved them even the appropriate funeral service is not a farewell. It is merely a fitting pause to pay our earthly tribute.

THEY SHALL NOT DIE.

forms about three inches from the floor. As rapidly as a body was identified it was marked with a number and doctors passed on to the next.

In charge of the work at the improvised morgue along with Dodson were Capt. Raymond W. Murray, senior medical officer at the training station; Capt. John A. Walsh, senior dental officer, and Dr. H. K. Edwards, chief medical examiner for the airline.

"We are making progress in identification," Dr. Dodson said, "and hope to be more successful than we at first thought possible."

Two truckloads of clothing and personal effects salvaged from the crash were inspected by relatives before they passed on to the morgue to seek their dead loved ones.

In the tiny valley where the plane crashed, H. G. Myers, investigator at large for the CAB Safety Bureau, headed a group of investigators. Also on hand were representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Authority and about a dozen Eastern Airlines men.

Myers said a preliminary statement possibly would be made later on the crash. He said information at hand made it definite that weather was not the cause. The air was smooth Friday night and the ceiling was high, he said.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLETT NEA Staff Writer

We try so hard to find what is wrong with marriages that we sometimes forget to notice what is right about them.

Thirteen men huddled together waiting for death in the Centralia mine. They were lost their lives scrawled notes to their wives. Then on the rock face above they wrote:

"I love you more than life itself. If I don't make it, please do the best you can. "PLEASE TO MOM"

"If I don't make it sell the house and go live with your folks. Your mom and dad will take care of you and the boys."

Those notes have a message for all of us. It proves that there is still much that is right with American marriages—much that is right and good and even noble.

The Tollivers

THE STORY: I was off in boarding school when Otsego went into a dither over the funeral of young Hubert Tolliver, who had committed suicide after cashing a forged check. Up to that time, I had never heard of Hubert or any of the other Tollivers who were to become our town's most famous family.

III

WHEN I came home to Otsego for my brief Easter vacation I found that our next-door neighbors and dear friends the Carstens were moving very soon to California. As I remember it, the whole vacation was taken up with parties for the Carstens. Naturally I asked first thing what had happened to the Tollivers. But to my surprise no one now wanted to talk about them. Father explained that the town had a guilty conscience.

"But hasn't anyone called on Mrs. Tolliver?" I asked hotly. "No one you know, at least none of your friends."

"But they all went and had a grand time at the funeral and sent flowers and everything. I think it's outrageous." "Father agreed that it was outrageous, though natural, and encouraged me in my expressed determination to go and see Mrs. Tolliver and Amy. But somehow the vacation slipped by and I could have kicked myself later, for I never made them call me so much as laid eyes on a Tolliver."

I had not been back in school two weeks before I heard that the Tollivers had rented the Carstens' handsome eleven-room house.

Hubert, the town found out, had carried a life insurance policy in his mother's favor for five thousand dollars. Mrs. Tolliver leased the Carstens' house for two years at fifty dollars a month. Of course vers one evening last week and found Florabelle, the little blonde, in the library sitting on the floor in front of a bookcase, surrounded by books, while Sam arranged them on the shelves. In the back parlor, the lovely Annabelle was perched on a ladder that Nelson was steadying.

"In the dining room, where Miss Amy and Mrs. Tolliver were unpacking china unassisted, I was made as welcome as the flowers in spring. It was very pleasant. Later my heart skipped a beat when in the mirror over the fireplace mantel I caught Mrs. Tolliver regarding Amy and me with a shrewd and calculating eye, obviously weighing the advantages against the disadvantages of an alliance for her eldest with a pot-bellied middle-aged widower, not very well off and seriously encumbered with an extravagant and strong-minded daughter.

"MRS. TOLLIVER is faded brown eyes, brown skin. It is hard to tell what she was like in her youth. Now she is a beaten woman, and all she asks of Fate is security for herself and her daughters. She means to get it by marrying the two youngest to Sam and Nelson. She has risked every penny she has on the gamble, and I take off my hat to her courage.

"The girls have won Leah's susceptible heart"—Leah was our colored servant—"and run in and out of our house a dozen times a day, borrowing, returning, bringing samples of cakes or pies or preserves. Leah, needless to say, retorts in kind, and I have never lived better."

To me it was nothing short of disgusting that young and pretty girls should even consider marrying old men like Cousin Sam and Mr. Nelson with one foot practically in the grave. Cousin Sam was 45, only three years younger than my father. Mr. Nelson was junior to my cousin by a couple of years or so.

As for Father's hint that Mrs. Tolliver actually had had the effrontery to consider him as a possible husband for her oldest daughter, that was sheer outrage. How dared she? How dared she?

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
(Johnson on KFDV Monday thru Friday 8 P. M.)
HOLLYWOOD—Silver bells and cockle shells and pretty maids all in a row. That's just what we have in Hollywood today.
You constantly hear that beauty doesn't mean a thing in Hollywood—just talent. But in spite of this, the motion picture studios continue to sign one gold-plated Ingersoll after another. They all look alike. It's manufactured glamor, set to a pattern, with few exceptions allowed. You could stand 25 of the upper bracket feminine stars in a chorus line, stand back 50 feet and not be able to tell them apart.

I have a calendar on my desk with seven of the younger stars' photographs. I have to look at the names to be able to make any distinction between them. The color of the hair makes no difference, because they change that overnight.
Frankly, I think people are getting tired of going to theaters and seeing these pretty maids all in a row like a feature flower bed.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE ... with ... MAJOR HOOPLE

MACHINE AGE POST-MORTEM

INGRID'S A NATURAL
They all fit the pattern. They've been given a standard glamor treatment by some Hollywood make-up man. All character has been wiped out or plugged up and a new face painted on. Just so many wax dolls to parade in front of the camera.
But what makes me laugh at this copy-cat beauty treatment is that when the studios turn around and contradict themselves once in a while, they get a big star.
They did with Ingrid Bergman. Ingrid's beauty is natural. She wears little make-up. When she walks through a studio set where they are making a film with these standard glamor gals, she looks like a pink-cheeked kid walking through a wax museum.
We need more of this natural beauty in Hollywood. A chance for the character of the actress to show through on the screen. Nothing can show through that half-inch plaster cast the make-up man puts on most of the glamor girls.
The screen needs more women like Ingrid and the two English girls, Deborah Kerr and Celia Johnson. Celia was magnificent in "Brief Encounter," and she looked like a natural human being. Deborah Kerr just played opposite Clark Gable in "The Hucksters." I hope M-G-M doesn't try to make a standard Ingersoll out of her too.
FRECKLE RACE IS ON
Short Takes: Van Johnson is eight freckles up on Myrna Loy, and the summer hasn't started yet—since "The Jolson Story" hit. United Artists is marketing the oldie "Heart of New York," which was a Jolson movie originally titled, "Hallelujah, I'm a Bum." A Louisville, Ky., reviewer once treated it concisely by saying: "Glory me, Al, you sure are."

Two McLean Students Get Degrees From ACC

McLEAN, (Special)—Miss Sybil Weaver and James E. Fulbright are listed among the ninety-three senior students in Abilene Christian College, Abilene. Commencement exercises are June 9 in S-well Auditorium. Miss Weaver will receive a bachelor of science degree in biology. Mr. Fulbright will receive a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN
My husband, George, wanted to go to that famous auto race at Indianapolis today and I'm sorry that I didn't say "Yes" and go with him. What a thrill it would be watching the race with the handsomest man in show business! You see, I just found out that Clark Gable is here.
George said I'd get plenty of excitement watching the race but I don't think anything spectacular will happen. How can it? They don't allow women drivers!
George thinks I should pass my suggestion about women drivers along to the famous Mr. Shaw who runs the Speedway. He said Mr. Shaw used to drive himself and won three races.

I wish I could have seen that—what a sight he must have been with his long white beard flowing in the breeze and the crowd yelling. "Come on, George Bernard; come on, you vegetarian!"

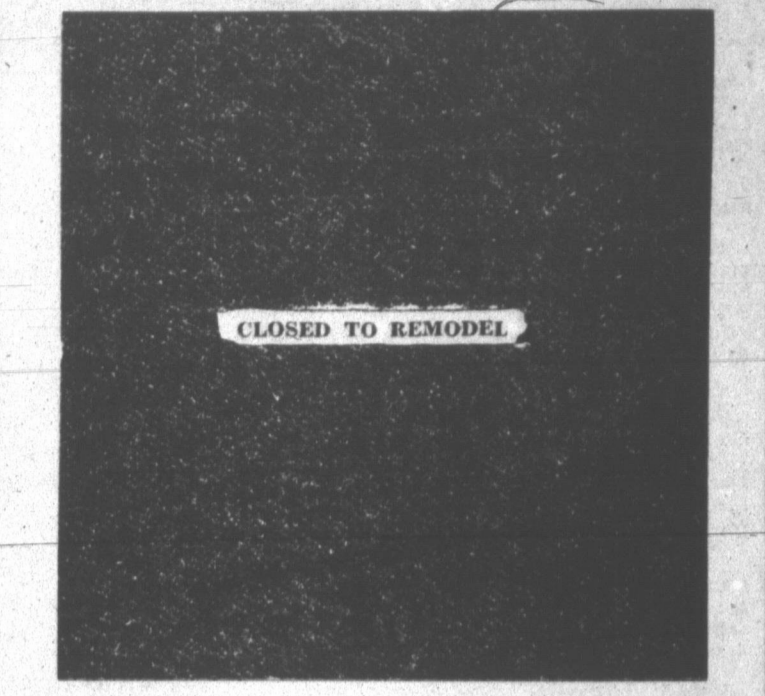

Boy Named Student Body Representative

McLEAN, (Special)—The official counting committee of Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee, Okla., announce the election of Leo McDonald of McLean as representative at large of the student body of the year 1947-48.

A big fuss is made because a small town is putting out signs reducing prices. A reduction in prices does not come from Main Street, but from Wall Street.—Ex-Mayor Florento H. LaGuardia of New York.

KRAUSE

PLOW CORPORATION

announces a
10% PRICE REDUCTION
Effective June 1, 1947

THIS step is being taken because we believe it is the obligation of every industry to reduce prices when it is possible to do so. We think it is one way we can help cushion the effects of a possible recession and increase the purchasing power of our customers. In one year's time, this reduction will save our customers about $600,000.00.

There is no "sale" necessity involved in this price cut, for we now have the largest backlog of orders in our history and are entering our best selling season. Sales are increasing every day and many of our customers are in desperate need of plows which we are unable to deliver.

Production Efficiency is Enabling Factor

In our case, production efficiency and sales volume have increased to the point where we are now able to offset the increased costs of labor and material. Our labor rates have increased approximately 110 per cent and our materials costs approximately 112 per cent since 1942. But our sales volume has increased 2490 per cent and our productive efficiency 374 per cent in the same period.

Balancing these things, we find that we are able to cut back our retail plow prices to a level approximately that of 1942. Modern equipment, improved manufacturing methods, our incentive wage system, and above all the unusually high type of hard-working, independent Middlewesterner who builds our plows, have combined to bring our factory to a high peak of productivity. We are passing the benefits on to our customers, who during the past 23 years have enabled us to become the nation's largest producers of one-way disc plows.

This price reduction is simply the execution of what we think is sound policy, that of producing a better and better plow to sell for less and less. To this end we pledge our future efforts.

Sincerely,

Henry Krause
President

Third Grade Students At Shamrock Take Trip

SHAMROCK, (Special)—Thirty-five youngsters made an interesting trip recently, when Mrs. Ed Chenette, third grade teacher in North Ward School took her students on a train trip over the Rock Island Railway to Texola, Okla. A few weeks ago the students started a fund to make the trip by depositing their pennies in the "school bank" which was operated by their teacher. When they had saved a sufficient amount, each child wrote a check and cashed it, purchased his own ticket and presented it to the conductor after boarding the train.

The children were taken on a tour through the Pullman coaches and to the dining car. The group returned to Shamrock in a Caprock bus. Many of the youngsters made their first trip by train.

Hungary Is Expected To Join Countries Behind 'Iron Curtain'

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Foreign Affairs Analyst

Barring an unforeseen event, Hungary shortly will have joined the list of Sovietized countries behind the "iron curtain" as the result of what non-Communist circles in Budapest describe as a Red coup d'etat that has substituted Communist rule for what was trying to be a Democracy.

Thus, with a brief intermission, the land of the Magyars bids fair to pass under totalitarian rule again, for it was only with the close of the war that Hungary escaped the clutches of Hitler's totalitarian Nazi regime. By the time of the Munich conference in 38 the German Fuehrer had established a firm grip on Hungary, as I found during a European tour DEWITT MACKENZIE just after that, and he hung on until his own citadel was tottering under the Allied onslaught.

So the Hungarians got rid of Hitler, but those who were opposed to Communism felt that they had jumped from the frying pan into the fire, for it was the Russians who occupied the country. This wasn't Hungary's first close contact with Communism, for back in 1919 it had experienced the terrors of the Bolshevik revolution under leadership of notorious Bela Kun when there were wholesale executions before the Reds finally were downed.

Right from the start of the occupation after the late war the Communists naturally undertook to secure the establishment of a Soviet regime. However, in a general election the Democratic small-holders' (that is, landholders) party won by a handsome majority, and a coalition government was established. Ferenc Nagy, leader of the party became premier and during 17 months of office (which brings us up to the present) fought for moderate conservatism. In this he was met with heavy opposition by the Communist minority.

Now comes the climax. Premier Nagy recently went to Switzerland "on vacation." Yesterday the Budapest government announced that he had resigned in Switzerland, and a high Hungarian informant said he had been "pushed from office" in a Communist coup. Actually Nagy apparently had resigned the day before, but the news had been withheld in Budapest.

In Washington, Russia's reported charges of plotting against Nagy were viewed as part of a Soviet attempt to clinch Communist control of Hungary before the Red troops withdraw.

Hungary's bitter political odyssey since the war is similar to that of other countries which have been occupied by Soviet troops. Hungary, being strategically located astride the Danube at the gateway between Central Europe and the Balkans, is of course one of the states which Russia is most anxious to have within the Soviet zone of domination. Possession being nine points of the law, Hungary's chances of escape don't look too good right now.

Three groups of workers are busy on the project—one group is working near the Gray County line, another at Long Dry Creek, just west of Lela, and the third between Lela and the Fort Worth and Denver underpass.

Although work has been under way for two weeks, the job, slowed by rain, is only about 10 percent finished, W. L. Spencer, superintendent, stated last week.

Contract for the project was let to Bell and Braden Construction Company of Amarillo for $225,723.

The job could be completed within 60 days under favorable weather conditions, the superintendent said.

Between 30 and 40 culverts are being constructed along the route and a 125-foot bridge is being built over Long Dry Creek.

BOYS' RANCH, PROJECT FOR THE ENTIRE PANHANDLE

Cal Farley, retired Amarillo business man who seems to have the know-how and the energy to conduct a project to help those who can't help themselves, gave Pampa Kiwanians information about Boys' Ranch Friday that every Pampa should have heard.

Coming here at the behest of the club, he took about 35 minutes to explain in detail that Boys' Ranch is a home between the reform school and the judge's court—an institution which no doubt is needed in every state.

Boys' Ranch is doing good for those restless, misunderstood boys who have been neglected and mistreated at the place they had called home. Out of this Ranch, north of Amarillo, there must come a lot of good that can't be counted in money and well-directed young lives.

It now has 78 boys, will soon have about 100—most of whom are from Texas, and at least one or two from Gray County. Boys' Ranch does not ask a Texas county for anything when a boy is accepted there, but gifts, of course, are acceptable.

Farley said $300,000 in property there had been donated by people who saw the motive behind the program.

Asked just what was his motive in appearing before the local club, he said he was not asking anything. But he left the way open for help, help especially, with a couple of improvements now in the paper plan.

Calling Boys' Ranch the Panhandle's project, he left the way wide open for help from people of this community who are able to help, and can see the possibilities for good.

Farley's message should be taken to every citizen in the Panhandle, so that each one of them could conceive the truly remarkable work being done there. It is well worth the time of the beneficent to look into this program at Boys' Ranch.

PRINCIPLE AND PRACTICE

Everybody seems to be in favor of government economy. But Congress hasn't yet proposed a budget cut that wasn't greeted with howls of protest from one quarter or another. However, this is not to be wondered at.

Everybody is dead set against toothaches. But that fact doesn't make most folks relish a trip to the dentist any more.

Texas Today

By JACK RUTLEDGE
AP Staff Writer

A Texas housewife who catapulted into a career when her husband dropped dead on the floor of the Legislature almost a quarter of a century ago today stands as an example of what a woman of ability can do in a man's world.

She is Mrs. Lee J. Rountree, who controls the Bryan Eagle and runs it with a firm hand.

She served a term in the Legislature. She was the first woman in Texas to become president of the Chamber of Commerce. She served as Texas president of the National Editorial Association. She was an officer in the Texas Editorial Association. She has been a leading civic spirit in Bryan.

When she added the leased wire of the Associated Press to her paper recently she became the only woman in Texas with such a setup.

She won't tell her age. Why should she, she asks, "as long as I can fool 'em" as long as I have spirit, I'm not old."

She doesn't smoke, drink or curse, and she says she's one of the last of the old-fashioned women.

Her paper has grown. It is in a new building. New mechanical equipment is on order. She has added a leased wire news service. She has a large, capable staff for a town the size of Bryan.

She has sound advice for women in business.

"The reason most women don't succeed in a career is because they depend on sex," she says with a reassuring wink. "Stand on your own feet. Do as well or better than the men you work with. Don't ask favors, just because you're a woman. It's ability that counts. Just plain ability."

CURIOUS WEAPON

The strangest of modern pistols is the one which looks like a pipe and which may be carried in the mouth like an ordinary tobacco pipe. A 25-caliber bullet is fired through the innocent-looking stem, while the bowl is a magazine for five extra cartridges.

The area of Palestine is about the same as the state of Maryland. In 1946 the population was estimated at 1,800,000.

PROGRESS

In spite of general public dejection by the compromise of a Congress sent to Washington to take the New Deal hex off the land, much progress has been made toward restoring government to the majority.

After fifteen years of "organizing, organizing, organizing" by a few strategically placed men to gather the reins of power into their hands, perhaps we should not expect too much of the first conservative legislative session. This is a counter-revolution, and we like our revolutions a bit on the gentle side.

We can afford to spread out the impact over a period of time.

The labor bill was a compromise between an anti-New Deal Congress representing an enormous majority of the people and a hang-over New Deal administration which always has been strongly under the influence of a minority group. We did not succeed at this Congress in breaking up the industry-wide union empire which threatens fascist control over prices and therefore threatens the whole competitive system.

But the attitude of Congress and the people has sufficiently shocked the union chiefs that they will not so likely attempt extremes before the next presidential election. Therefore, it looks as if this Congress, by its attitude, has succeeded in clearing the road for eighteen months of comparative quiet on the labor-management front. If this outlook proves justified, then we may succeed in side-stepping the depression which our Dean Achesons and Henry Wallaces and the propagandists in Moscow are whooping up in the discouragement of American business.

WASHINGTON

TARIFFS

The rumblings of a battle over tariffs that will exceed ancient struggles over this bread-and-butter issue have made themselves heard behind Capitol Hill committee doors in the office of farm-labor-industry lobbyists and at secret sessions in the State and Commerce Departments.

Within the last few weeks, here and at the Geneva international trade conference, the battle lines have been drawn tauter. For extreme free traders, Henry A. Wallace has proposed that the United States spend $150,000,000 over an next general tariff, to feed, shelter and raise the living standards of the devastated world's peoples.

In a current issue of a national magazine, Andrew Harriman, Secretary of Commerce, advocates wholesale reciprocity in a more orthodox and businesslike way. In another national weekly, similar proposals are attributed to Will H. Clayton, Undersecretary of State for Economic Affairs, who rushed home from Geneva in an attempt to brush back a Congressional attack on his far-reaching program.

Lowering the tariff walls in accord with expanded reciprocal tariff pacts.

MISSION

The enemies of a more generous policy toward other nations have already unlimbered their guns, although the ruined conditions of foreign industry, shipping and agriculture offer no immediate threat to their interests. But they are looking toward the day when, under the Wallace-Clayton-Harriman ideas, a reconstructed world may seek to flood this country with goods.

Republicans on Capitol Hill have the old issue of what used to be known as "Schedule K," the wool question. They have demanded duties and domestic support price which will keep out imports of this product. Numerous dairy groups have protested against prospective Geneva agreements before the House Ways and Means Committee.

It was this threat which forced Mr. Clayton's return from the erstwhile home of the League of Nations. The high-tariff movement at Washington he reports, has led rival nations to distrust the Administration's professions of willingness for economic cooperation and at least temporarily, made this a futile mission.

ATTACK

It is organized labor, however, which has delivered the fiercest blast against the Truman underwriting program as embodied in foreign loans, the lowering of trade barriers and similar concessions.

After gutting former Undersecretary Dean Acheson's demand for a larger volume of imports and "foreign purchases," Labor, the publication of the Railway Brotherhoods, says:

In plainer language, Uncle Sam must open his doors to the products of low-wage, foreign labor, and more billions of dollars to foreign countries so they can buy our products. As the money will never be paid back, this means we give our products away. . . . When will our 'statesmen,' who seem so concerned about other nations, begin to consider the welfare of their own country?

Save for John L. Lewis' periodical denunciations of both President Roosevelt and President Truman since his break with the New Deal, this is the sharpest attack which any responsible labor organization has made on the Democratic Administration since F.D.R. staged on the national, political stage.

WELFARE

Messrs. Harriman and Clayton, maintain that the new status of the U.S. as a creditor and capitalistic nation requires an entirely different approach to the problem of world trade, if only a selfish standpoint.

The present "gap" between American exports and imports, they report, is approximately $11,000,000 annually. We ship that much more than we take. Unless we buy more in one form or another, they insist that we will lead to a crackup when production reaches a postwar peak. Foreign markets will dry up entirely and domestic consumption, they contend, cannot support the economic structure.

Warning of the wartime depletion of our natural resources, they believe that we can close the "gap" without damaging labor or agricultural interests.

By Upton Close

confused in its thinking so colored by years of New Deal, Marxist philosophy and intrigue, that we do not understand our own foreign policy, if any.

What Foreign Policy?

The best sign I have seen is the report that Secretary of State Marshall prodded the French premier to oust the Communists from his cabinet, assuring the non-Communist and anti-Communist elements in France of our moral backing. This is true. It indicates that the new Secretary of State has crossed a bridge. He has, in effect, asserted that this country is the champion of Americanism and the enemy of Communist ideology—abroad, that is.

But there remains the fact that Marshall was not willing to go so far in the open. As long as the men in the Kremlin can keep us in such a state of mind that we are unwilling to tell all the nations of the world that we stand for Americanism and against Communism, just that long can Kremlin diplomats hold the initiative. We are still on the defensive, and not really defending Americanism either.

On signing the $400,000,000 aid bill for Greece and Turkey last week President Truman threw away the chance for a big moral victory by saying that the funds would not be used to benefit "any particular group of faction." Now there are just two groups or factions involved in the Greek-Turkish aid program: Communism versus the established governments.

If we are not going to help the established "group of faction" what are we going to do with the money? (Copyright, 1947)
