Barrow Tops Sale

A grand total of $28,755 dollars exchanged hands during the three hour Jr. Livestock Sale in Gail, Texas, Saturday February 24, 1979.

Seventy six animals were sold as compared to 79 in 1978. However, the total number of dollars was up a slight $450. The total average was $378 - up $20.00.

The average in each animal division was: Steers $403.50, Lambs $346.11, and Barrows $416.18.

Starting at one o'clock on Saturday, veteran auctioneer Monte Paxton called for floor bids. Sweetwater Livestock Auction gave the top bid of $66.00 for the 14 steers to be sold. This was up $21.00 from last year. Sweetwater Auction also gave the top bid for the 46 lambs sold. This amounted to $68.00 - down $2.00. A floor bid of $54.00 - up $7.00, was received from South Plains Hog Co. of Lamesa for the 16 Barrows.

The Grand Champion Barrow topped the sale bringing a whopping $1,675.00. This could possibly be the highest price paid for a single animal in the history of the Borden Co. Jr. Livestock sale. This light weight Cross owned by young Brice Key, was bought by Ezell-Key Feed and Seed Co. and Key Implement, both of Snyder. Malone-Hogan Hospital & Clinic, Cowper Hospital and Clinic, and Medical Arts Hospital once again gave the top bid for the Grand Champion Steer. Owned by Kim Wills, the heavyweight Cross brought $800.00. The Grand Champion Lamb, a heavy weight Medium Wool owned by Ben Murphy was purchased by Dewey Everett of Snyder for $552.00.

Continuing with the sale, the talented Mr. Paxton was aided

After months and months of hard work, the tedious business of staying alert while the judge makes his decision, and all of the Champions are chosen, both the 4-H and FFA members, their coaches, and parents have a moment to unwind and enjoy the annual Bar-b-que lunch sponsored by the Jr. Livestock Assoc.

It doesn't take long however before they are all scurrying back to the show barn and tension begins to mount again as the Awards Presentation begins.

Once again Shorty Farmer addresses the microphone, maybe a little casually to some, and the large crowd gathered begins to quieten.

Preceding the announcement of awards, Shorty took the deserved time to recognize officials and special guests.

Among his introductions the new Co. Agent was recognized and welcomed as well as Kathy Blagrove, home demonstration agent. Bob Bagley, Voc. Ag. teacher was also introduced.

A hearty welcome and sad farewell was extended to Randy Upshaw and his family. Having assumed his position as new County Agent in Lubbock a month ago, Randy very generously offered his assistance to newcomer, Sam Field who began his Co. Agent job in Borden County only two days before the stock show.

GRAND SLAM

Miss Kim Wills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wills of Fluvanna, repeated her 1977 performance of capturing more trophies, ribbons, and other awards than her 67 other stiff competitors.

This young 7th grader captured the highly prized Top Hand trophy for the second time. She is only the second

Large Show Draws Crowd

Borden Co. Jr. Livestock Assoc. held one of the largest 4-H and FFA shows in the counties history.

E. L. Farmer, the counties capable and faithful announcer for many years, opened the two day show at 1:00 p.m. Friday February 23.

With grooming still being heard in the back ground, it was immediately evident that the judges had a hard job on their hands.

After much deliberation, Swine judge Denny Belew, ag teacher from Anton, tapped a 220 lb. light weight cross as the Grand Champion Barrow. This animal was owned and shown by young Brice Key. Brice, a 9 year old and first year 4-H member is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Roland Key. If his first show is any indication Brice is going to prove to be an exhibitor to be reckoned with. He entered three hogs in the show and besides the Grand Champion trophy, walked away with a Champion Duroc and Champion Hampshire. Breeders for the Duroc and Hampshire were Pappy Tucker of Slaton and Richard Robinson of Hereford respectively. Placing first or second and a Grand Champion to boot with 100% of your animals entered must be a record for a first year exhibitor. Trophy was donated by Dorothy Browne.

There may be some exciting hog shows ahead. Another first year 4-H showman wasn't too disappointed as her Heavy Wt Hampshire was named Reserve Grand Champion of the show. Kelli also showed two more swine, placing 3rd in her class with each. Kelli is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams of the Plains Community. Trophy was donated by Don Cox.

Texas Tech University Day

Lubbock--As many as 1,200 high school students, and maybe more, are expected at Texas Tech University March 2 to learn about college life, roam the campus and end the day with a free swimming and dance party at the Aquatic Center.

While most students will be coming for personal advice on college choices, there will be planned activities for fun as well as ongoing university events open to the visitors.

Students from throughout Texas and as far away as Connecticut and New Jersey have indicated they will attend the fourth annual University Day at Texas Tech, beginning with registration at 8:45 a.m. and a general assembly from 9:30 to 10 a.m. in the University Center Theatre.

Capacity of the theatre is 1,000, but Admissions Officer John Edwards said that response from high school counselors indicates there could be an overflow crowd "if the weather is good for travel."

Lubbock merchants, working through the Lubbock Visitor and Convention Center, are assisting with party food for the swimming and dance event beginning at 8 p.m. There will be live music there. For the price of admission students can choose to watch mime Keith Berger performing at the University Center Theatre or hear Don Sanders playing the guitar and singing at the University Center coffeehouse in the "Storm Cellar."

The basis for the University Day is to help high school students learn more about higher education, whether they intend to enroll in Texas Tech University or some other institution.

Barnes' Win In Rabbit Show

Well, the Barnes' may have trouble getting their hog heavy enough to show but they don't give up, they go after other things. Harold and Jo Jo both entered rabbits in the Sand Hills Rabbit Breeders Show in Lovington New Mexico on February 24. Jo Jo had a Chocolate Martin Junior Doe in open class that won 1st place in Choc Doe, Best Choc. Color, Best of Breed in Martins, and runner up for best fancy of open class. Jo Jo also entered a Black Junior Martin Buck that won 1st place in Junior Bucks, and Best Opposite Sex of all open class Martins.

Harold entered a California 6-8 Doe in youth class that won 1st place, a Red Eyed Dwarf Buck that won 1st in its class, Best Opposite Breed of the dwarfs. The dwarf was also in the run off for Best Fancy of the youth class. The Barnes were sorry to miss the Borden County Stock Show. They also offer a little hint that rabbits do not have to be washed, clipped, sheared, blocked or powdered. All they require is a little love, and a small amount of rubbing. Showing rabbits can be a very worth while hobby for youngsters.

What's Hap-nin

Borden County would like to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Don Massingill and family to Gail. Don will be employed by Borden County Precinct 4.

It's nice to see Don Cox out and around again after a lengthy illness. Don you knew we couldn't do without you, didn't you?

Saw lot's of out of town and ex Borden Countians during the stock show. You know you're always welcome here!

Grass fires have already started in Borden County, seems we can't have a stock show without taking out for fire fighting. Let's all take time to be extra careful during these windy dry months.

Brent Shaffer has returned to work after his truck accident several weeks ago. Welcome back Brent.

The Bob Daughertys were honored with a surprise housewarming Sunday. As it turned out the many friends hosting the party were also in for a surprise. All smiles and laden with covered dishes they realized upon arriving at the Daughertys, that the honored couple were not "at home." Oh me! After they were finally tracked down, however, everyone enjoyed the noon meal and an afternoon of visiting.

Our congratulations go out to all Borden County 4-H and FFA exhibitors. Even tho everyone can't walk away with blue ribbons and top sale premiums, you'r all winners in our books.

Jill Voss celebrated her 2nd birthday Monday afternoon with a Winnie - the - Pooh cake and the opening of gifts. Jill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Voss of Gail.

Dana Westbrook was home from A.C.U. this weekend. Robert Durham of A.C.U. was here visiting with Dana and her family.

Jean Taylor is home and feeling much better after several days in the hospital. She plans to be back at work Tuesday, but plans to limit her hours and take it easy for a while. Everyone has really missed Jean and we're very happy to have her back.

The members of the Gail Church of Christ had a covered dish dinner after service Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Nick Turner. Nick has been preaching at Gail for the past six months and is moving to Bakersfield, California. The dinner was held in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Ross Westbrook.

Lesia Rinehart is still in Intensive Care in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock. However, she is very much improved. Lesia cannot have flowers and only her immediate family can visit her at this time. Our prayers and thoughts are with you, Lesia, and your family wishing the speediest recovery for you.

Effie Lee Telchik is home after having had foot surgery at Lubbock Methodist Hospital.

Recent San Angelo visitors were Mike, Candy, and Kelly Billingsley.

Mr. & Mrs. Dalton Cross of Colorado City spent several days with the Steve Stephens family.

The officers and directors of the Plains Community Center Association met in the home of Mike and Candy Billingsley, February 12th.

During the business meeting it was decided to have a Chili Supper in the Plains Community Center Saturday, March 3, at 7:00 p.m. Each family is to bring chili and a desert. Crackers, drinks, cups, bowls and plates will be furnished. For those who would like to play dominoes, please bring your dominoes and card tables.

Jere's Gottings

Well, things are mighty confusing to me these days. It's becoming harder for me to sort the good guys from the bad guys. For years the United States accommodated themselves to suit the Soviets. Detente was the fad word. We did everything but openly surrender. Everytime Russia moved in on a country, we began criticizing the anti-communists - - that, or danced around the perimeter, sacrificing our own man-power but never intending to contain communism.

Now, all of a sudden we seem bored with attempting to please Russian communism. V'e jump track and begin accommodating that other communist nation--China. Detente with Russia is now boot-licking to China. China is just as responsible for mass murder of disadents as is Russia. But that fact is never mentioned as a deterrent to relations--with either nation. We did not abandon a catering stance with Russia because of her inhumanity. We did court inhumane China because of trade oportunities--the almighty dollar.

Coming down to current conflicts - - Russia controls Cambodia. We allowed it--we ignored the Cambodian plight. With the assurance that the U. S. now prefers Chinese communism to Russian communism, Red China has become emboldened enough to invade North Vietnam. Their excuse is that they are Cambodia's protector--ha. Just like Russia is North Vietnam's protector--ha, ha. The biggest laugh is the stance James Earle is taking. He draws himself up boldly tells Russia to Get Out! Not a word of warning to Red China. We now have a new crush--new love is sweet and nothing is sweet about adiscarded love. Wouldn't it be lovely tho' if the U. S. would tell both Russia and China to Get Out--to leave those weaker nations alone--tho if they want to fight, then go at it--one on one -- Russia against China China against Russia - - communism against communism.

But we would have to have plenty of clout to do this. Which brings us down to SALT II. Without a might defense and a determination to use it, the U. S. can't demand nothin' from nobody. Yet James Earle swears that this new strife in the world only proves the necessity of arms limitations. Russia says our new love affair with China has queered any arms agreement with them--that's understandable to me. Why should Russia even pretend to limit their defenses when the U. S. aligns itself with the menacing dragon? But all the while, Carter insists that now more than ever is the time for all good men to abandon their aid to their country. Lay down our arms, he says, in order to make the world safer and more secure. More secure for whom, I'd like to know? You and me--communism?

Well, it's all very strange--things are moving fast--pieces are falling into place. The only thing not confusing is that I know where we're headed--and that does give hope.

I can hardly wait to see all the "new" hair-do's that were created while I was away. Seems there were home perms., bleaching, streaking, curling, lots of hair tangling & maybe a little snip here & there???

Cancer Society Meeting

The Borden County Cancer Society launched it's 1979 Crusade Saturday, February 24. The crusade has something new this year, a STEER AND LAMB RAFFLE. There will be two drawings on April 6, the date of the Annual Barn Dance. The first drawing will be for the steer, the second for the lamb. Anyone purchasing tickets will have two chances to win. Tickets may be bought from Borden County School students, or at the barn dance.

We wish to express our appreciation to those donating the steer, who wish to remain anonymous, and to Becky and Tammy Miller for donating the lamb. We also want to thank everyone for their support in past crusades and ask for your help so that 1979 will be another "All Time High" in our fund raising effort.

Open Letter

"To the people of Borden County"

As we move with the hustle and bustle of the big city, fight the early morning traffic and live in close quarters with others (but never even know their names), it is so good and refreshing to know where our roots are - the small rural community of Borden County. As young girls we wished for a more exciting life instead of Tuesday night riding club and dates only on the weekends. As women it would really be nice to slow down the pace. However, the slow, easy pace is not what we miss. We miss the love and concern and friendship of the people of Borden County. That love we recently felt with the passing of our mother.

It's hard for us to believe she's gone as we are sure it is for you. We find ourselves picking up the phone to call her because we don't know if we can freeze her hot rolls or can't read the way she has written a recipe. We find ourselves talking about her and laughing about her. Our children talk about Mimi and Daddy Bill and how they love to come visit them. Then we realize we can't call her or talk to her and tears come to our eyes and we ache. How ever, as her grandson, Cody, said, "Mimi can see and hear us and we can talk to her just like we talk to Jesus", and that's how we all should think. When we have a problem or a joy we would want to share with Dotty, we can just sit down and tell her.

She loved Borden County and its people. She worried about her friends. The night before she died, she called one of her friends in the hospital and told her how much she would miss her after we went to the Houston hospital and tried to cheer her up. I firmly believe mother felt she was going to die and she was so tired and ready. I told her before she went to sleep that last night that "everybody loves Dotty", and she smiled. She's still smiling. She's smiling over the love and concern that was given to us girls and Daddy; she's smiling and pleased with all the wonderful memorials presented in her memory; she's probably tapping her foot while listening to the music from the Heart Association talent show; she cried tears of happiness when she read Dorothy Dennis' beautiful tribute to her as we did; and she laughed when she read Jere's delightful article about her.

As the beautiful hymn "Precious Memories" says, we do have precious memories of our mother. We only hope we can be half of the person and the Christian she was. God does have a beautiful new angel in Heaven.

Again, thank you Borden Co. for your love. It's a privilege and honor to be one of yours.

Expresses Appreciation

At the conclusion of the 1979 Jr. Livestock show held in Borden County this week, announcer E. L. Farmer expressed the Livestock Association's appreciation to the many volunteer workers who make the County show one of the more outstanding ones in the area.

Some of those recognized included 4-H mothers & fathers, 4-H and FFA leaders, ring superintendents and stewards, and all committee chairmen and their crew.

Also receiving a thank you were: Brent Murphy, show clerk & Dorothy Browne, awards clerk.

Appreciation also went to pretty Miss Rhesa Wolf, FFA Sweetheart, for presenting the numerous awards.

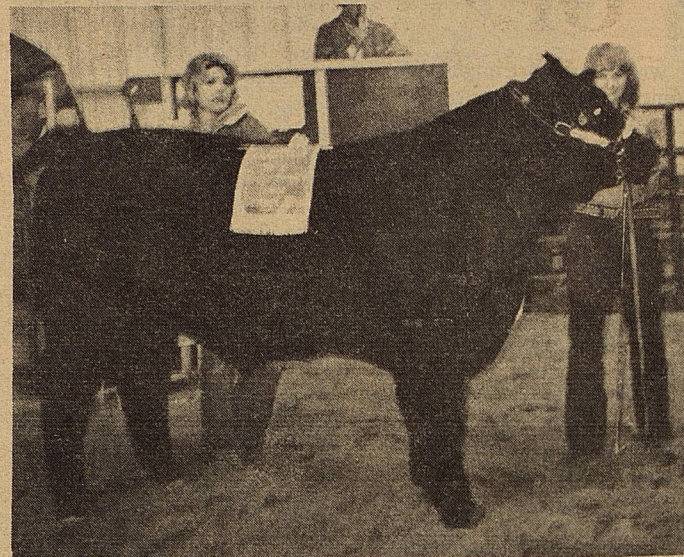

Mr. Farmer also announced that Mr. & Mrs. Bob Bagley were given a free dinner at the Spanish Inn. This was given to show their gratitude for Mr. Bagley's leadership.

Top Salesman

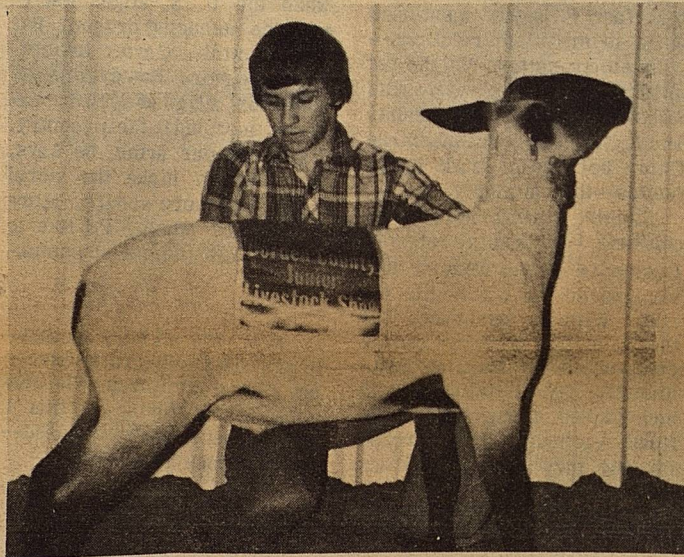

Each year 4-H and FFA members compete against one another in selling membership cards to benefit the Borden County Jr. Livestock Association. Sometimes the competition runs strong as each student vies to be named Top Salesman.

The youngsters did an outstanding job this year by earning $645.00. This will buy a lot of Bar-b-que!

in the ring by veteran Corky Ogden and by a new face in the ring, Bill Phinizy.

Association President Fred Ridenour expressed his pleasure at the success of the sale. He voiced his appreciation to Mr. Jimmy Taylor and his staff from the 1st National Bank of Big Spring for their tedious job of bookkeeping. Mr. Taylor was quoted as saying "Borden County always comes up with the best sale in the area and it's a pleasure to be here".

Speaking in behalf of the organization, Ridenour voiced his deep appreciation to those who set the floor price and to the great number of buyers attending the show as well as those sending in their bids. Eventhough Borden County was surrounded by other sales on Saturday - Tahoka, Clairmont and Post - buyers arrived from all of the adjoining counties as well as Lubbock, Dallas, Midland, and Colorado City. Western Leather Goods, owned by our good friends Mr. & Mrs. Joe Evans from Mercedes, Texas probably hold the record as sending a bid from the farthest distance.

row show was Banny Hancock, assisted in the ring by Ralph Miller and Gilbert Merritt.

Tackling the job of judging 174 lambs was Kyle Smith, Gaines Co. Agent. Ring Stewards were Buster Taylor and Rex Cox.

No stranger to trophies is veteran showman Ben Murphy. Adding one more to his collection was no less a thrill however as his heavy weight Medium Wool was named Grand Champion Lamb. Ben showed ten other lambs in the show, placing well with all. Ben is a Jr 3rd year FFA member and son of Mr. and Mrs. Brent Murphy. Joe Canon was the donor of this trophy.

Reserve Grand Champion lamb was shown by another veteran, Glen Gray. This animal also came from the heavy weight Medium Wool class. Glen had three other lambs in the show earning two Reserve Champions of his category one first place of his class. Glen Gray is a freshman and first year FFA member. He is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Borden Gray, Jr.

Miss Kim Wills led the Grand Champion steer through the show ring. Kim's 5,931 lb steer was an Angus-Maine-Anjou Cross. The breeder is a cousin of the Wills, Dudley Arnett of Ft. Worth. Donating the trophy presented to Miss Wills was the Doyle Newton family in Memory of the late Frank Miller.

A hard worker and experienced showman, Miss Wills is 7th grader in her fourth year of 4-H work. She also showed two Lt. Wt. Hereford steers placing 1st and 2nd in the class.

Bowing to her older brother Ty who captured the Champion Hereford title with a heavy Wt., Kim won Reserve Champion of the breed. Their animals was bred by her grandfather O. M. Martin of Snyder. Ty's Champ came from the Carl Breeding herd, Miami, Texas.

Lambs are no strangers to his young daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Don Wills either. Kim was entered in this division with a Lt. Wt. Finewool, a Med. Wt. Cross, a Heavy Wt. Cross, a Lt. Wt. Med. Wool and a Hvy. Wt. Med. Wool.

The Reserve Grand Champion Steer also came from the Hvy. Wt. Cross class. Showing this 4,139 lb. Angus-Maine-Anjou cross was Senior FFA member Sid Westbrook. The trophy presented to Sid was donated by Malcolm Harp Ins. of Lamesa. He also exhibited a Lt. Wt. Cross steer as well as four lambs.

Having been in the "show" business since he was nine years old, this was the last Borden Co. Jr. Livestock show for Sid. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Westbrook.

Judging the Steer Division was Bo Castleman, vocational ag teacher from Andrews. Assisting him in the ring were Bob Daugherty and Fred Ridenour.

Coaching 67 4-H and FFA members in the fine points of grooming 268 prospective winners requires leadership, dedication and long hours on the road. Sometimes it even requires conjoling, discipline, and always a lot of encouragement.

Randy Upshaw, County Agent, and Bob Bagley, Vocational Ag teacher, are to be commended for doing such an excellent job. Both men expressed their gratitude for the cooperation and courtesies shown them by both the students and their parents and felt that each and everyone deserved a blue ribbon.

The complete results are as follows:

- 1 10-ounce package frozen chopped broccoli, thawed or 2 cups fresh broccoli, chopped
- 3 tablespoons flour
- 1 10 3/4-ounce can condensed cream of celery soup
- 1 garlic cheese roll, cut up (5 or 6 ounce roll)

In small skillet, melt butter and saute celery, onion and mushrooms. Stir in flour. Turn into lightly greased slow cooker. Stir in remaining ingredients. Cover and cook on high setting, stirring about every 15 minutes until cheese melts. Turn to low setting for about 2 hours or until ready to serve. Serve hot with corn chips, crackers or raw vegetables. Makes about 1 quart.

SCALLOPED BROCCOLI

- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup (1 slice) soft bread crumbs
- 1 2-ounce jar pimientos, chopped
- 1 10 1/2 ounce can cream of celery soup

Beat eggs slightly and add broccoli, cheese and onion. Mix in salt, pepper, bread crumbs and pimientos. Then add the cream of celery soup and stir all ingredients together. Turn into a well-buttered one-quart casserole. Set in a baking pan partially filled with

- 1/4 cup margarine or butter
- 1 10-ounce can cream of chicken soup
- 1/2 cup cheddar spread
- 1 teaspoon butter or margarine for greasing casserole dish

In a 10 inch skillet, saute the chopped onions and broccoli in the butter or margarine until the onions are tender, but not brown.

Cook rice according to the package direction in a two-quart saucepan. Add the cream of chicken soup and the cheese spread to the onions and broccoli.

Stir all this into the cooked rice.

Sprinkle the grated cheese over broccoli.

Pour over top a mixture of milk and mushroom soup.

Bake 25 minutes uncovered. Remove from oven and add the onion rings.
