PROTESTS ON NEW TAX ACT LEVIES MOUNT

ROBINSON EXPRESSES OPPOSITION TO REVISIONS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Guffey coal stabilization bill was approved by the house ways and means committee today by a 12 to 11 vote. Two members answered "present" when the vote was taken. A new draft of the measure, embodying amendments already made public, will be reported formally to the house. Plans are to take it up on the floor by Wednesday. The committee's approval broke a two-month deadlock. President Roosevelt has asked congress to pass the legislation despite doubts—"reasonable"—as to its constitutionality. The bill would set up a national commission to enforce wage, hour, fair-trade practice and price-fixing regulations for the soft coal industry. A tax would be levied against operators to insure compliance. Most of it would be returned to complying operators. Mr. Roosevelt on several occasions has forestalled a threatened strike in the soft coal industry by promising to push the Guffey bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—A rising tide of protests from democratic leaders in both senate and house today greeted the rewritten tax bill with its increased levies on small incomes. As a senate republican independent, led by Borah of Idaho, joined the protests, Borah said "it lacked justice and wisdom and it hits the little tax payers at a time when they can not afford it." One senate democratic authority, who did not wish to be quoted, said the committee of the LaFollette rates was a deliberate effort to produce a stalemate with the house so that no new taxes would be enacted this session. "There has been a good deal of talk to the effect that our bill did not conform to the president's message," said Chairman Doughton of the house committee. "The senate bill does not even strike the nail."

Defending his amendment in a talk with reporters, Senator LaFollette said that our bill did not conform to the president's message, said Chairman Doughton of the house committee. "The senate bill does not even strike the nail."

Convicted Slayer Takes up Flying

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 12 (AP)—Phil Kenamer, convicted slayer of John Gorrell, began taking flying lessons at a Tulsa airport today. Friends said the young Kenamer was confident the verdict of conviction in the Gorrell case would be reversed and that he intended to take up flying as a profession when eventually freed of the charge. They said he had made plans to go to South America after he had gained his freedom. Kenamer was convicted in Pawnee last February of manslaughter in Gorrell's death and was sentenced to 25 years in prison. His case is now on appeal before the criminal court of appeals.

I Heard...

From Sid Lipshy, back from as far as Detroit on his way home from a vacation and business trip that took him to New York and other Eastern markets. Sid wanted to know if there are any Pampans who wish him to give Mickey Cochrane of the Detroit Tigers some pointers on how to win the world series. That Frank Hunt took a bath on the city hall lawn about midnight Saturday night. Fran picked up the hose with the idea of spraying this corner (which happened to be the corner where a dead end) and while he was holding the hose, one of the city officers turned on the water and the spray behind Frank started to function.

New York Strike Of Relief Roll Workers Against Wage Is Broken At Key Project

They Decided to Call Strike

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—The strike of relief-roll workers at the low-cost housing project under construction by the Astor Investors—one of the key spots in the fight of labor unions against the government's so-called "security wage" of $93.50 a month for skilled help—appeared to be broken today. Elsewhere over New York, and in other states, organized labor carried on the fight. "Fiving squadrons" traveled throughout the city seeking to pull relief workers off federal-financed construction jobs. The state building trades council and the state Federation of Labor in New Jersey stood solid against accepting the $93.50 wage, as did labor leaders in several Ohio cities. At the Astor project, it was said 365 skilled laborer were back at work. This was the deadline set by Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, works progress administrator, who issued an ultimatum last week that the relief strikers return to work or else be struck off the relief rolls. Johnson was not expected back until late today from Washington where he conferred with federal authorities, who have backed up his edict. The Astor project normally employs some 400 workers in the skilled class. When the strike was called last week, more than 150 refused to work. When the whistle blew today, only a handful of workers refused to punch the time clock. The principle involved in the dispute—the "security wage" as against paying the workers at the regular monthly scale in union contract—occupied the council of the American Federation of Labor at its meeting in Atlantic City. William Green, who heretofore has given an implied sanction to the New York City walkout, promised to discuss the stand of the A. F. of L. fully tonight.

JAPANESE MILITARY DIRECTOR IS SLAIN BY RIVAL OFFICER

TOKYO, Aug. 12 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Tetsuzan Nagata, director general of Japanese military affairs, died today of sword wounds, which the war office said, were inflicted by Lieut. Col. Aizawa during a fight in Nagata's rooms. The incident was said to have grown out of recent transfers of army officers. Gen. Senjuro Hayashi, minister of war, was said to have prepared his resignation as a result. General Nagata was one of his strongest supporters. The director general was wounded in his rooms in the war office where Aizawa called on him this morning. There was a fierce argument during which the lesser officer drew his sword, the war office said, and inflicted the wound. The war office, after reporting the incident immediately imposed a strict censorship on details. There has been a growing discontent among many officers since July 16 when General Hayashi forced the ouster of Gen. Jimnaburo Mazaki as director general of military education and gave his own faction complete administration of war affairs. Mazaki's ouster was accompanied by widespread shakeups among divisional commanders and other high officers. Nagata, 52, one of the strongest factors in the Hayashi forces, was made virtual administrative head of the army. Hayashi, when advised of the mortal wounding of his friend, immediately prepared to resign and assume responsibility of all the events leading up to today's outbreak. It was said that the resignation probably would not be accepted. Aizawa was promptly arrested. The minister of war, vice minister of war and other high military officials were summoned to an emergency meeting.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Close friends of President Roosevelt look to his forthcoming western trip for his reply to Herbert Hoover's challenge to inform the people of his attitude toward changing the constitution. WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—The senate finance committee today reversed itself and eliminated from the tax bill the La Follette amendment lowering exemptions and raising income taxes on the small taxpayer.

MICHIGAN SOLON 'NOT A BIT ASHAMED' HIS FATHER, BROTHERS ARE ON RELIEF

IRONWOOD, Mich., Aug. 12 (AP)—Rep. Frank E. Hook (D, Mich.) said today he was "not a bit ashamed" of the fact that his father and three of his brothers were receiving, or had received, government relief. Hook said his relatives were forced to apply for relief before he can for congress and that they were "legitimately on the relief rolls." "I had nothing to do with getting them on relief, and I have nothing to do with keeping them on," he declared. He said he had discussed with William Haber, emergency relief director for Michigan, reports that Haber intended to investigate the extension of relief to his relatives and quoted Haber as saying the reports were false. Relief records here show that Michael Hook, the congressman's father, is on the Gogebic county work relief rolls; that Herman Hook, a brother, is receiving work relief, and that George Hook and Lawrence Hook, also brothers, were employed on work relief projects through May. "I wish I could support all of my relatives," Rep. Hook said, "but if anyone can tell me how a congressman can live in Washington eight months of the year, meet all of the requirements of his constituents and have a penny left over, I wish he would do it."

SHOWERS ARE DUE ON PLAINS AFTER DUSTER

COOLER WEATHER FOR PANHANDLE IS PREDICTED

By The Associated Press Cool breezes and scattered light showers today brought welcome relief to the middlewest. Oklahoma and Texas were the hottest states with morning temperatures around 90. It was generally cooler in Texas, however, and cooler was forecast in Oklahoma tonight. Northwest winds brought the big drop in temperature to Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin. It was 80 at Chicago with cooler forecast. This was the first cloudy day in Kansas since June 14 and temperatures were not expected to go above the upper 80's. Amarillo, Tex., reported seeds were overcast today from a dust storm yesterday. At Amarillo and Garden City, Kan., dust clouds rolled in on a blistering south wind. The storm lasted an hour at Amarillo, longer at Garden City, center of last spring's series of terrific storms. And while sufferers watched the mercury go up, persons on Pikes peak in Colorado watched it go down. From four to five inches of snow fell on the summit and the temperature dropped to 34 degrees. Four additional deaths brought the season's heat toll near 200. Two died in California and two in Missouri. Four were prostrated in Los Angeles. Alva, Okla., reported the day's highest temperature 114 degrees, and it was 112 at Enid, Mo. Oklahoma points had top readings between 103 and 107 degrees, and it was 108 at Fort Smith, Ark. Sacramento, Calif., saw the mercury to a record breaking 109 degrees, and a number of other inland points recorded similar highmarks. The weatherman Monday promised a salve for Texas' sunburn. Cloudy skies were predicted over much of the state with a prospect for soothing winds to help bring forgetfulness of the last few days of record-breaking heat. General overcast Texas, partly cloudy skies were forecast, with showers probable in southeast portion. West Texas was due for partly cloudy skies, with local showers in the Panhandle. The weather gave an inkling of its predicted rapid fall when it dropped a few degrees Sunday at the various "hot spots" of the state.

Boy Scouts of Area Planning Mountain Camp

Boy Scouts of the Adobe Walls council will likely hold their annual camp at Tree Piedras, N. M. If tenting can be arranged quickly to supplement cabins there, a contract may be drawn during today. Known as Kit Carson camp, it is in the lofty mountains about 35 miles northwest of Taos. The first 40 boys who sign for the trip are assured of a great 10-day outing. They will travel to the camp in a bus. If more than 40 wish to go, it will be necessary to get 75 in order that two buses may be taken. Consent of parents and assurance of financial backing must be in the hand of A. C. Clark at headquarters in the Pampa city hall not later than 11 a. m. tomorrow. This applies to Scouts in the immediate Pampa area. Total expenses of the camp, including transportation, will be $15. It will be an authorized trip managed by J. G. Schultz of Fallett and Chris. B. Martin of Pampa, the same men who were to have taken the trippers to the now canceled National Jamboree in Washington, D. C. The mountain camp is open to all Scouts duly accredited with the council.

Death and Ruin in Trestle Crash

Collaborating in this scene of utter havoc were a Southern Pacific logging train and a collapsing trestle, through which the engine and cars plunged to carry the train crew of five to their deaths, near Cochran, Ore. Huge piles of logs, the tangled wreckage of the span, the engine, box cars and coal racks lie heaped at the bottom of the ravine into which they were hurled in one of the most spectacular rail wrecks in coast history.

'DRUMMER BOY OF SHILOH' IS 84 YEARS OLD

Famous Incidents of Civil War Are Recalled WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Deep in the southland against which he fought as a youngster, the "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," now Brig. Gen. John Lincoln Clem, U. S. A., retired, tomorrow will observe his 84th birthday. Identified for decades as a childhood hero, General Clem is now in retirement at San Antonio, Texas, war department records say. The events which will keep him probably forever on the pages of American history began when the 10-year-old youngster ran away from his Newark, O., home to enlist. Union army recruiting officers laughed at the earnest-faced boy and more than once his irate father marched him home. Undiscouraged, Johnny ran away again, attached himself to the 2nd Michigan regiment and refused to leave. Amused soldiers admired his "spunk" and fed him until the regiment's colors agreed in May, 1862, to enroll him as a drummer boy, the youngest in the Union army. Johnny was a born fighter. At Shiloh, the records say, he was in the thick of battle drumming a charge when a bursting shell wrecked his drum and knocked him flat. Johnny leaped to his feet, seized a musket and blazed away at the enemy. At Chickamauga he again distinguished himself. Union forces were retreating and Johnny, hampered by short legs and his drum, dropped behind. A Confederate colonel overtook him, stared in amazement at the impish figure before him, then laughed. His chuckle was short-lived. Johnny raised his sawed-off rifle and shot him through the chest. For that feat he was made a sergeant. The remainder of Johnny's war days were far from quiet. He was wounded at Atlanta while carrying dispatches and was held prisoner for two months after his company was captured. After the war he went to school again and later returned to the army.

DALLAS, Aug. 12 (AP)—Eugene Troupe, 12, was on the job as usual today around the court house selling newspapers. "Read it, read all about it," he cried. "Dallas man shot to death." "Why aren't you at home today?" reporters asked. "I gotta sell a lot of papers today to buy a floral wreath for my daddy's funeral," he replied. REAL "ENEMY WITHIN" CAN BE OURSELVES

There is a great deal of talk about the enemies of democracy. It usually centers on the Communists, or the Fascists, or some other sort of organized effort to set up new forms of government.

But those are not the real enemies of democracy. They are not the real danger to the free form of government that we love.

The real danger is in ourselves, in those of us who profess to be devoted to democratic and free government, and yet who won't bestir ourselves to do anything about it. No form of popular government can succeed unless the average man will take an active and conscious part in it.

Put yourself under the microscope for a minute. What have you done to make democracy work? Did you take any part in the last primaries to see that decent candidates were nominated? Did you talk to your neighbors and friends about the candidates?

You needn't be a professional political worker to take an active, intelligent, and important interest in these things.

Did you vote in the election? Did you discuss the election with friends and neighbors, using your influence for the man you believed best qualified?

Did you take the trouble to look up the record of your congressman? And did you talk and work against him if it didn't suit you; did you help him if it did? Do you follow the papers carefully and watch the records of your local judges?

Are you the kind of person who likes to get parking tickets "fixed"? A small matter, true. But people who demand this sort of "special privilege" should be the last to complain of police corruption brought on by the same sort of special privileges sought on a larger scale by people less reputable than you know you are.

The next time we get discouraged with the working of democracy, let's each ask ourselves this question: What have I done, this last year, to make it work better?—B. C.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—There is a theory, more popular on Capitol Hill than elsewhere, that Congress is competent to legislate.

I remember that Congressman George Huddleston of Alabama said to me several years ago: "Most of us are dubs. Most of us are controlled by certain interests or certain persons back home."

Yet it was Mr. Huddleston who introduced a resolution, passed by a narrow majority of "dubs" who had been exposed to the most expensive lobby ever known in Washington, which ordered him and other House conferees on the public utility bill to insist on barring from the House-Senate conference Mr. Ben Cohen, who drafted the original bill and is counsel for the National Power Policy Committee.

The vote was a spectacular event because it was without precedent and because it reasserted that somewhat battered theory that Congress is competent to legislate without outside aid.

It also merits special attention because it was a slap in the face for the Senate, whose conferees insisted on Cohen's presence as their technical adviser while they sought to compromise the House and Senate bills with the House conferees.

Cohen sat with House conferees on the securities and stock market acts. AAA attorneys Prew Savoy and Tel Taylor have been constantly with the conferees on the AAA amendments, and so on.

If this were not customary, congressmen would just get all gummied up and find themselves inserting seemingly innocent jokers contributed by private interests outside.

The House had revised the Senate holding company bill so that the Securities Exchange Commission, charged with administering the act, insisted controversial sections 11 (substitute for the "death sentence") and 13 were unworkable.

Cohen, the New Deal's outstanding legislative draftsman, had spent months of days and nights studying a subject so complex that some holding companies can't even explain their own structures.

He knew so much more about the bill than anyone else that senators relied on him to help them devise a workable bill in conference and to spot any jokers suggested by hostile House conferees, who included Huddleston of Alabama and two Republicans who had voted against the bill.

But Cohen is celebrated here for drafting a securities act which was virtually the first big act which Wall Street lawyers, even for fees of hundreds of thousands of dollars, couldn't get around.

It used to be a congressional custom to pass regulatory, tax, and other laws through which the giants of industry and finance galloped like a herd of stampeding elephants.

But here was Ben Cohen again, a government employe making less than $10,000 a year, pitted against lawyers and lawyer-lobbyists to whom holding companies had paid hundreds of thousands of dollars, with another measure which—before the House operated on it—had also seemed bulletproof.

While the League of Nations is mulling over the idea of a protectorate for Ethiopia, might it not also consider a protectorate for Mussolini?

This tax-the-rich idea might go better with the poor, if they had the money to be taxed.

A straw vote in Virginia gave President Roosevelt a large majority for re-election in 1936. Very likely, Senators Glass and Byrd failed to be included in the poll.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Persons who visit the Texas Centennial at Dallas next year may find something new in native building stone.

The state board of control, supervising agency for all buildings constructed with aid of state funds, has brought to light a new type of stone that is being investigated further.

It is light grey and is sprinkled with myriads of shining particles, believed to be granite.

The sample caught the board's eye immediately.

"That would make a beautiful building with the sun bringing out the richness of the colors," Claude Teer, chairman, commented.

The board will determine if the stone can be found in commercial quantities and easily worked. If it is not too expensive it likely will be used extensively. If it is found to be impractical for major construction it will, in all probability, be used on a small scale.

The stone is found near Llano but the board has not been advised of the quantity or workability and its properties. Several samples are being tested at the University of Texas laboratories to ascertain its tensile strength.

Teer said Texas materials would be used where possible in all state Centennial buildings in conformity with the board's policy to use Texas products in all construction, price and other considerations being approximately equal. Some rumors reached Austin that the board planned to use stone and other materials from other states in the Centennial structures.

Teer was anxious to co-operate in obtaining prompt publication of district headquarters cities and district supervisors under the new relief setup. When the commission announced the county would be abolished as the administration unit and relief affairs concentrated in 38 district offices interested persons immediately opened a bombardment on the board.

Several times preceding the announcement of the organization Teer was aroused from his bed to answer telephone queries. One came after midnight.

After the midnight call he instructed Relief Administrator Adam Johnson to put on all speed possible. Johnson and his staff worked an entire night getting the organization completed.

ROAD RUNNERS WILL PLAY OVERTON NINE IN SEMI-FINAL GAME TONIGHT

DANEY PITCHES BEST GAME OF DENVER TOURNAMENT TO PUT CITY NINE INTO MONEY

HUMBLE OILERS, BADLY BEATEN BY DENVER'S FUEL TEAM, WILL BE TOUGH FOES OF PAMPANS IN DECIDING GAME

DENVER, Aug. 12 (AP)—A doubleheader tonight will eliminate all but two teams from the Denver Post's annual baseball tournament...

In the first game on tonight's program, two Texas nines—the Humble Oilers of Overton and the Dangler Road Runners of Pampa—will clash, while United Fuel and Colorado Ice teams, both of Denver, will tangle in the nightcap.

As a result, a final game between one Texas and one Denver team is assured. No more afternoon games will be played in the met.

A surprise came in yesterday's twin bill when the Humble Oilers were sent to their first tournament defeat by a hard hitting United Fuel team.

Lee Daney, little Indian moundman, can have the city of Pampa when he returns from the Denver Post baseball tournament where he pitched the Dangler Road Runners of this city into the money yesterday afternoon, allowing the White Elephants, crack Denver negro team, only five hits and winning his game 7 to 6.

The Indian chunker helped his own cause with three singles on his four trips to the plate. Big Gordon Nell also got his batting eye in position for the first time during the tournament and cracked out three bingles in five trips to the plate, one of them a long triple.

Meet Favorite Tonight The Road Runners have to come back against the favorite Humble Oilers of Overton at 7 o'clock tonight, Denver time, one hour later, Pampa time. A play-by-play account of the game will be received in the city auditorium on the electric score board installed by the Pampa Athletic club.

Tank Horton, peppery little Road Runner catcher and Gene Ledford, big pitcher, left to the Pampa club by Coltexo of LeFors, are on the injured list and will be out of the rest of the tournament.

Patton went out to open the second inning. Surface then hit a triple to the fence. Summers singled to score Surface.

PATTON KILLED PORT WORTH, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Rev. J. T. Ferguson, 52, pastor of Methodist churches at Forest Hill, Birdville and Smithfield, died Sunday from injuries received in an automobile accident Thursday.

Geologists say that within a few years the water in the Ogallala aquifer in the Pampa district will be so low that the water table will be 100 feet below the surface.

COLTEXO OF LEFORS DEFEATS CALIFORNIANS IN 21-3 ROUT

Why the Lompoc baseball team of California ever left its own backyard is not clear to LeFors and Pampa baseball fans as fathom. The youngsters from the Pacific coast played like a bunch of school kids, which most of them are, in losing 21 to 3 to Coltexo of LeFors yesterday afternoon at Road Runner park.

Celebrating Dutch Lorber day, the Beaumont Exporters hit the ball hard to win two games for their manager. Phillips held Tulsa to seven hits in the opener as his net got 9, and in the second game McGaughlin pitched to a clean sheet.

Beware OF STRANGERS AND PEDDLERS AT YOUR DOOR WARNS CHIEF OF POLICE

To The Citizens and Housewives
of Pampa:

THIS IS A WARNING issued for the protection of Pampa homes and citizens from the HAZARDS of DEALING WITH ITINERANT PEDDLERS and STRANGERS.

OWING TO THE FACT that there have been many cases of High Pressure Selling Schemes reported to the Police recently by the housewives and citizens the following is issued:

STRANGERS SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED to your homes UNTIL THEIR CREDENTIALS HAVE BEEN CHECKED UP AND VERIFIED—and that you ARE SURE YOU KNOW the party at your door to be a LOCAL PAMPA CITIZEN deserving your consideration.

ONE NEED NOT BE AFRAID of offending the HONEST SALESMAN, living here, or REPRESENTING A LOCAL BUSINESS FIRM. He will have his CREDENTIALS WITH HIM—that is why all are required to carry their identification SO AS TO PROTECT YOU.

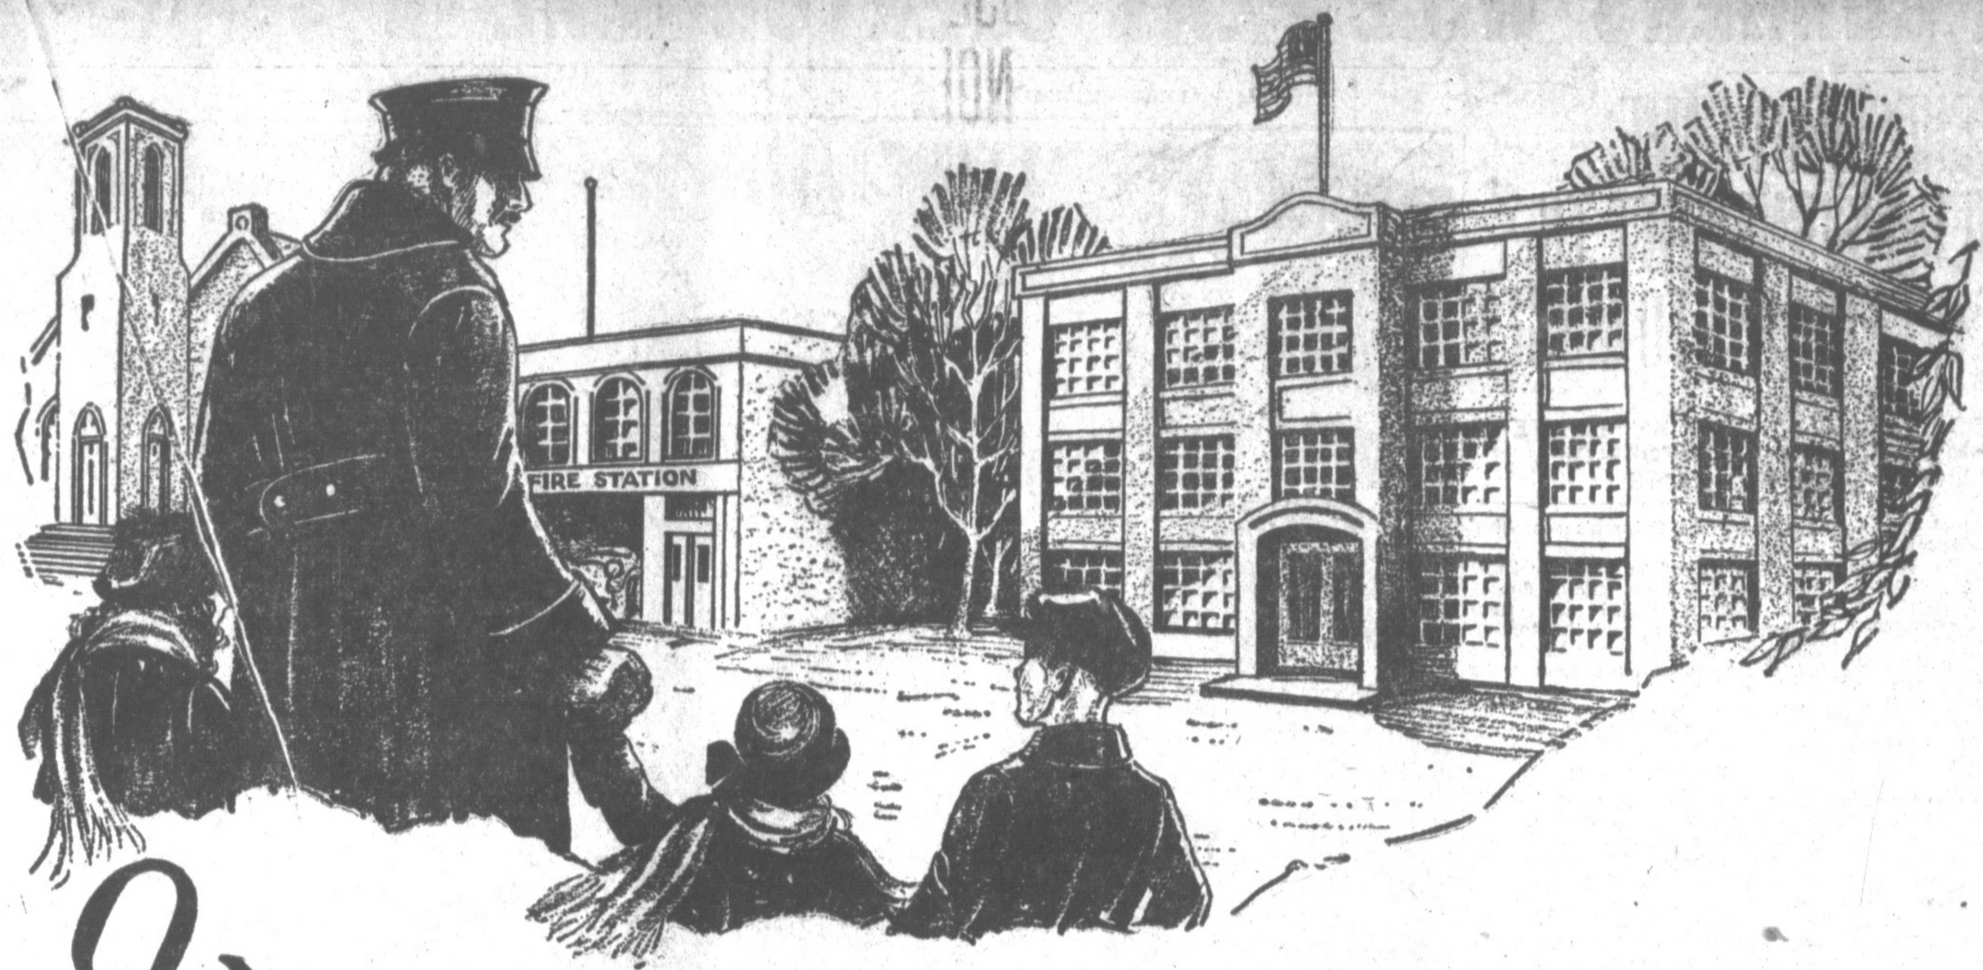

DO NOT PAY CASH IN ADVANCE to Strangers on orders, as in many cases the customer has NEVER RECEIVED THE MERCHANDISE—nor has there been any refund of the cash-in-advance payment.

DO NOT CASH CHECKS OR ISSUE A CHECK to a Stranger on an order, often times these checks have been "ALTERED" and later cashed by an innocent party.

IN CASE YOU ARE SUSPICIOUS, PHONE THE POLICE AT ONCE. PHONE NO. 555. DON'T DELAY IN THIS—as it will enable our police to overtake anyone making false representations at your home.

IT'S BETTER TO BE SAFE THAN SORRY—Protect yourself—BE SURE you know who the Stranger is at your door before allowing him admittance to your home. ASK FOR IDENTIFICATIONS.

S. A. HURST,
Chief of Police,
Pampa, Tex.

When the Peddler calls again what will he say?

REST ASSURED that he will be prepared with "Free Samples"—and all the clever phrases and sales arguments which Master Peddlers have been able to assemble—and some of this ammunition will be so effectively Disguised that it will seem reasonable when considered from the peddler's point of view.

YOU ASK THE PEDDLER

Do You or the firm you represent create any employment for my family or my neighbors?

How Much Money Do You or your firm pay toward the upkeep of our public schools—wherein my children obtain their education?

Would I have a place to worship IF I depended upon the subscriptions paid by YOU or Your Firm?

How Much are you as a Door Bell Ringer, or your firm, taxed towards the upkeep of our Police and Fire Departments which offer ample protection for my home?

How Much do you, Mr. Peddler, or your company pay towards the support of our general welfare work?

Remember Your Merchant is maintaining a business institution—hiring Local Help—which is a factor in your city. He is ready to serve you at ALL TIMES and He Pays His Share on all of the above requirements.

You Would NOT Be Guided in money matters—or in politics by this Wandering-Door-Bell-Ringer. WHY be influenced by him in making your decision between the RIGHT and Wrong thing to do in supplying your needs.

Be On Your Guard For This One "I am glad Mrs. Housewife to find you and your city are at last making a stand to keep out the canvasser and peddler. In fact, I dare say (he dares say most anything to get your attention) that my company is somewhat responsible for the movement to eliminate the irresponsible type—As you know I AM BONDED—and my product is Nationally Advertised, etc." He will endeavor to convince you that he is anything but a peddler—calling himself a "special-home-office-representative"—"mill man"—service man, etc.

PLAY SAFE Better Be Sorry You DIDN'T Buy than sorry you did.

Keep THE PEDDLER on the OUTSIDE

Do NOT confuse representatives of local institutions with the itinerant peddler... for they represent legitimate business houses who are furnishing employment to local people, pay local taxes and are entitled to an interview. Protect yourself. Ask the man who calls at your house for credentials from local firms.

Many Hear Dr. Maness Speak

CHURCHES JOIN FOR A SERVICE SUNDAY EVENING

"Texas is at the hour of her crisis," Dr. E. A. Maness told a large audience last night at the First Baptist church where he was the speaker for a prohibition rally in an earnest appeal to voters to vote against the repeal of the Texas dry law on August 24th.

Services at other churches were suspended for this meeting. Several ministers are on vacation this week, and some churches had no preaching services yesterday. E. L. Springer of Dallas spoke at First Baptist church in the morning, and the Rev. T. S. Barcus of Clarendon at First Methodist church.

A crowd that filled the auditorium heard Dr. Maness. James Todd, chairman of the dry forces of Gray county presided and O. W. Stapleton of Tulsa, Okla., led a spirited song service. B. C. Wallace played the offertory, a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. May Foreman Carr.

Preceding the message of Dr. Maness, H. D. Tucker, youth director of the 31st senatorial district made a brief address appealing to parents to stand by the young people and vote dry to protect the youth. Mr. Tucker made an announcement that an outdoor rally would be held some time before the election.

Continuing his message Dr. Maness said in part: "National repeal has been a failure from every angle. The facts prove it," he declared. "There was no bootlegging under the eighteenth amendment than any other time."

"Every time you vote for liquor in any way you increase bootlegging," he continued. "Legalize liquor in Texas and the boys and girls have about a 50 per cent chance to be sober. It is not right to make, drink or sell liquor that destroys the youth of our land."

Rev. Mr. Maness, chairman of the dry forces in this senatorial district, left this morning for Amarillo to confer with dry leaders on the campaign and will go to Dallas Tuesday for a state conference.

Joan Blondell Will File Suit For a Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12. (AP)—Blonde Joan Blondell, screen star, announced she would file suit for divorce today against George Barnes, film cameraman whom she married in 1932.

She said the action would be based on incompatibility, declining to say what specific charges the suit would set forth.

The actress, who found fame in films after work with a Dallas, Tex. stock company and a season in the Follies, said she would seek custody of the couple's son, Norman Scott Barnes, born November 2, 1934. She indicated a property settlement had been reached.

Miss Blondell admitted today she and her husband had been separated for two weeks, although during the past several days they have been seen together. She is occupying the family home on Lookout mountain while Barnes has taken an apartment.

The actress' marriage to Barnes, at the age of 23 years, was her first. She was then a "Wampus Baby Star." It was the fourth marriage for Barnes, who, at the time of the wedding, gave his age as 35 years.

Miss Blondell, a native of New York City, has been on the stage since childhood. Her father, Eddie Blondell, was a stage actor known as the original Katzenjammer kid.

Among pictures in which she has appeared are "Convention City," "Kansas City Princess," "He was her man," "Traveling Sales Lady" and "Broadway Gondolier."

Barnes is one of the best known cameramen in Hollywood.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12. (AP)—Tonight is a momentous occasion in the fighting life of Mickey Walker. New Hostess for Co-Ed Home

Miss Millie Hill, left, organizer of Randall Co-Operative Home for more than 100 girls of the West Texas State Teachers college, and Mrs. W. F. Acker, right, who becomes director in September to continue the traditions established over the past two years.

COLLEGE GIRLS DIVIDE 37 TASKS TO OPERATE COOPERATIVE HOME

CANYON, Aug. 12.—Randall hall, the Panhandle's largest scale experiment in co-operative living will enter its third year on September 18, with Mrs. W. F. Acker in charge of the 100 girls who will gather there to live and work and study during the long session of the West Texas State Teachers college.

"The summer of 1933 looked pretty hopeless to the young people of northwest Texas who wanted to go to college, and equally unfavorable to college officials who felt that a drought already three years long would certainly cut attendances painfully. It was then that Dr. J. A. Hill and his administrative helpers decided to start a co-operative home in which girls selected from all over the region would be allowed to try working together to make a home for themselves and at the same time go to college on the money their slim wheat-butter-egg-cotton purses contained. An hour a day and 13 dollars a month was the price.

That year 106 girls did the 37 different tasks which they and their supervisor, Miss Millie Hill, found were necessary each day to run a good home.

The girls did it and liked it; many of them brought canned goods, hams, home cured bacon, butter and other supplies from their homes to pay half of each month's room and board.

Miss Hill believed that a girl's college life should be a judicious mixture of work, study, vigorous play, and social life, both informal and formal. So the open house nights, the formal dinners, and occasions when honored guests were entertained were important at Randall co-operative home. At the end of the year no girl dreaded the array of silver at a banquet, or was in doubt as to procedure at a reception. On the other hand every girl had a new appreciation of the work and care necessary to have breakfast at exactly 7:15 each morning, and knew how to some with the job of preparing potatoes or roasting corn for 100 hungry people.

The second year of the co-operative home opened with the girls more carefully chosen, and with a good percentage of them already the same ones who had lived there in 1933-34. Things were easier, and happy for everybody, though each new fad and each succeeding month brought new problems just as in any household. Through the efforts of the members of the great family, which came from forty different counties, the home was made more beautiful than it had been in years before.

Financially, too, the co-operative plan has been a success. Like every other house, the corners had to be watched and every possible small saving effected. But essentials to healthful and happy living were not sacrificed. There was no deficit to be made up, so the girls could respect themselves for their ability to live within their incomes.

The girls of the 1935-36 session will not have the guidance of Miss Hill, for she will spend the year in New York City, doing graduate study. In her place will be Mrs. P. W. Acker, who has had experience as a dormitory director on another college campus and has been senior house-mother at the University of Texas.

County Opposes Freezing Man to Destroy Germs

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 12 (AP)—Dr. Ralph S. Willard and Stephen Simkhovitch proceeded with their plans for a "human icicle" experiment in the face of family and official protests.

"Simkhovitch has volunteered and I intend to continue with my plans," said Dr. Willard, young monk freezing bio-chemist.

"I have my own life to lead and if it is to be sacrificed for science it won't make any difference," commented Simkhovitch, 34-year-old Hollywood writer.

The scientist plans to freeze Simkhovitch into a state of suspended animation and later revive him. He says germs of tuberculosis and possibly other diseases, including cancer, may be destroyed in this fashion.

Dr. Vladimir G. Simkhovitch, professor of economic history at Columbia University, said at his Robbinston, Me., summer home that his son was of age and privileged to do as he wished, and added Mrs. Simkhovitch's views were "practically the same."

Mrs. Simkhovitch, however, was reported to have telegraphed Dr. George Parrish, Los Angeles health officer, asking official interference and describing the proposed experiment as "incredible." Dr. Parrish and District Attorney Buron Pitts declared they would not permit the experiment to be made, and Dr. Willard countered with the assertion he would make it in Mexico or elsewhere if hindered here.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go
The liver is the largest gland in the body. It filters out the poisons from the blood. If it is not working properly, your food does not digest. It just drops in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned, and you feel sour, sunk and the world's a pain.
Laxatives are only makeshifts. They are temporary relief. They do not get at the cause. It takes those good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "singing." Harmless, gentle, and amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. E.C. 1931, C. U. C.A.

STAFFORD HALL, CANYON—CANYON, Aug. 12—Stafford hall for men and Cousins hall for women, at the West Texas State Teachers college are the first dormitories for boys and girls that have been erected on Teachers college campuses in Texas.

Stafford hall is something new in dormitory construction. To the casual passerby, it is PWA project No. 8471.

Each bedroom is arranged for two men, a closet provided for each, a lavatory adjoining, and an unusual amount of space provided for storing the staff which every college man accumulates.

The building will accommodate forty men, and its living room is large enough for all of them and their guests to assemble at the same time if they wish to do so.

Knowing the interests of young men, the dormitory has been placed close to the athletic field and gymnasium, near the highway which leads to Amarillo and within easy distance of classrooms, the Pandhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum and other student centers.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Correspondent. The college senior son and sophomore daughter are worth any trouble they make in vacation, but you're likely to be a rag before they go back to school in the struggle to keep the refrigerator and pantry filled, what with raids at all hours from the gang.

The best way to meet the situation is to have plenty of a few wholesome foods always on hand, serve meals plenty or buffet fashion and give the youngsters certain small chores.

HOOVER CHALLENGES FDR TO EXPLAIN CONSTITUTION STAND

'DICTATORIAL' DEMANDS ARE PLAYED AGAIN

ROOSEVELT IS ASKED TO INFORM PEOPLE 'PRECISELY'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Herbert Hoover's challenge to President Roosevelt to inform the people "openly and precisely" just how he wants the constitution changed was regarded today as a major step in a republican drive for a knock-down-and-drag-out fight on constitutional issues in 1936.

Stopping in Chicago on a trip east, the former president hit at the new deal last night in a statement accusing the administration of "dictatorial" demands, of trampling of "primary liberties of the people" and of invading state's rights.

Directly or indirectly, he said, the administration seeks to revise the constitution to concentrate powers in Washington. Calling on the administration to declare his intentions before congress adjourns and to make it an open fight on a specifically worded amendment, he said: "No matter how destructive an amendment might be and even though the people were persuaded to ill-advised action upon it, yet it would be better for liberty to commit suicide in the open rather than to be poisoned by indirection in the capital of the nation."

"No more momentous decision has been raised since the civil war. Common frankness requires that the administration come forward to the people and declare precisely where, in, under our constitution, we can not correct evils and can not prevent social maladjustments."

While some republicans and democrats interpreted the statement as a bid by Mr. Hoover for the presidential nomination next year, others denied this was necessary, the correct way to construe it.

Meanwhile, there was no indication that President Roosevelt, who returned last night from a fishing trip on the yacht Sequoia, would make any statement. From Rep. Vison (D-Ky.) came the comment: "No constitutional amendment has been submitted and nobody has said that one will be."

Declaring he had no doubt that Mr. Hoover would run in 1936, Gibson (R-Vt.) called the statement a preliminary outline of his platform. "To Rep. Dixie (D-Tex.) it was the former president's "opening bid" while Senator Nye (R-N D) thought it signified a "desire to be the candidate."

One who took a different viewpoint was Senator Steiwer (R-Ore.) He said: "He could make that kind of a statement whether he intended to be a candidate or not. And others have said much the same thing recently, including Senator Borah."

Among those who remained silent was Senator Borah (R-Ida.) who himself raised the constitutional issue recently. While Hoover was making his statement, Robert H. Lucas, former executive director of the republican national committee, was making public the results of a poll, which he said gave Borah more votes than any other for the 1936 presidential election.

Out of 1,865 county chairmen, city leaders and young republicans who responded to his questionnaire, Lucas said 121 made him their second choice.

Other first choices were listed as Colonel Frank Knicker, Chicago publisher, second with 167 votes; Governor Landon of Kansas, 127; Senator Vandenberg, 97; former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, 88; Herbert Hoover, 52; Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., of Camden, Me., 40; Rep. Fish (R-N Y.), 38; Senator Dickinson (R-Ia.), 28, and Rep. Wadsworth (R-N Y.), 17.

More Housing for Students Will Be Available Soon

CANYON, Aug. 12.—Contracts for more than $80,000 of construction work on the West Texas State Teachers college campus were let today.

A $27,400 contract went to the C. S. Lambie company of Amarillo for the construction of an annex to Cousins hall for girls, campus dormitory.

A $33,370.89 contract went to the J. B. Maxey company of Lubbock for the construction of ten cottages for students to be located on the northeast part of the campus.

Actual construction on either project will not start for at least 60 days, according to President J. A. Hill.

Cousins hall will have an increase in capacity of more than 50 percent, and its facilities for social functions will be doubled by the addition.

The ten cottages will be an experiment in "college owned" cottages for married students. Six people will live in each cottage.

ON THE HORNS OF A DILEMMA

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 19
WEEK END

"And, of course, it was kept a dead secret?" asked Mr. Drake. "They said rumors got about," replied Laurie, "but we wanted to keep it a secret until he came back."

"I understand. You were afraid of the press. It wasn't their business. It is extremely kind of you to tell me this," he said gratefully. "I wish you could remember the name of the minister who married you. But, of course, they can easily find out. Somebody from the office will make a little pilgrimage out there. How far did you say it was from your old home?"

Laurie prayed for the return of her wits as she had never prayed for anything before.

"About twenty miles."

"And the name of your old house?"

"Fernwood Farm—on the Targatta Road."

"Do your people still live there, Mrs. Moore?"

"Oh, no! My father is dead. My mother died long ago. My only sister is here with me. I have nobody left in Australia."

"And you were in Sydney when you heard the sad news of your husband's death?"

"Yes, I stayed on there."

"And after your husband's supposed death, you revealed yourself?"

"Yes." After that it was easy enough to repeat the story that she had made so often, of her discovery of the Albery firm, and her voyage to England through their kindness, and her subsequent work in the London offices.

Then the young man asked a question that roused her temper.

"Could you just give me a few words about how you felt when you had the news of your husband's return the other day?"

"No, I certainly could not!" she flashed, and the young man answered in a rebuked voice.

"Of course, I quite understand. Such moments are sacred and cannot be revealed to the public."

He got up and thanked her and took his leave, and left her hardly able to stand and biting her lips in an effort to force back an attack of hysterics. Her common-sense had entirely deserted her.

How could she have been so mad? What could she do to stop that young man? Nothing! She could hardly even remember what she had told him, but she knew that they were a pack of clumsy lies.

Why hadn't she said they had been married in Sydney—a big town, where she was a stranger? She might easily have forgotten all details about that. But near her own home—where they would go and make inquiries! She had made the hopeless mess that she had given the whole show away.

Well, it was Rex Moore's fault, she told herself, and worked herself into a state of indignation. He ought to have thought of such a thing. He knew all about newspaper men. He ought to have prepared her with a proper packet of lies. He excused himself for perhaps spoiling his secretary's plans, but he found that he would have to get in some work in the mornings. It would be very kind if Mrs. Moore would give up her Sunday. The work was important. There were one or two people staying in the house, and he would see to it that Miss Gladys was kept amused.

Laurie was excited and pleased. The keen edge had worn off of the extraordinary scene in the office of last Tuesday. She had not seen her employer since. She had thought about it, of course; not once, but many times.

Mr. Albery had told her that he loved her. No girl could forget such a thing as that. But she had decided that there must have been something the matter with him. Perhaps men were like that. They had fits of "coming all over amorous" as the catch-phrase went.

Laurie knew absolutely nothing about men for a girl who had knocked about the world as she had. But she was no fool, and during her two years of loneliness in her little Westminster attic, she had read an enormous number of books of all sorts.

So she thanked Mr. Albery calmly, as she tripped down the broad, shallow-stepped oak staircase of Mark Albery's historic Tudor house.

It was nearly eight o'clock, at which time dinner was served. Gladys had left Laurie up in her bedroom, hastily changing her

A Boatload of Trouble

Here is one relief problem that presents a colossal job of "digging out from under." In the collapse of a seven-story Chicago warehouse where the government had stored hundreds of tons of food for the needy, the structure was packed to capacity, as the shelves along the wall still standing show. When one wall crumbled, thousands of barrels and sacks of foodstuffs and boxes of canned goods were buried in the debris. A fire several years ago is believed to have weakened the walls and vibration of switch engines nearby to have caused the collapse.

Hugh Johnson Stands Pat On Relief 'Strike'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Rejecting last-minute compromise suggestions, the Roosevelt administration determined today to make a test case of the union fight in New York against the new deal's wage scale for works progress projects.

Officials watched incoming reports with interest to see how many of the 15,000 union men employed on relief construction in the metropolis had joined the "strike" movement.

Today was the "deadline" set by Hugh S. Johnson, New York works progress administrator, for the return of men who declined work Friday. Their numbers was set by Johnson at 1,117 and by union men at 2,500.

Officials apparently believed that the trend of events in New York would determine whether the "strike" would spread to other cities throughout the country or peter out.

No word came from the White House after the return of President Roosevelt and Harry L. Hopkins, works progress administrator, from a week-end cruise, but high officials insisted that the president would oppose further concessions. Johnson already had boosted the pay of skilled workers by 10 percent to $93.50 a month.

Hopkins was said to feel that once initial protests were over, the work relief scale would be accepted by labor in the rest of the country. It ranges from $19 to $94 a month, depending on locality and type of work.

The president's stand that those refusing work relief jobs would be cut off the dole was reaffirmed yesterday by Aubrey Williams, assistant works progress administrator. He told the national coordinating committee of rank and file groups in social work, which sought the payment of wages prevailing in private industry, that "congress has set the policy and that's all been determined."

Buchanan Hopes For a Balanced Budget Next Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Hope that the budget will be balanced next year was expressed today by the one democratic member of congress who has more to do with the budget than any other legislator.

Already this session, with one other money bill yet to pass, congress has appropriated $8,153,000,000—twice as much as the ordinary budget. A total of $4,880,000,000 of that was in the big work relief fund.

Looking over the session, Chairman Buchanan (D-Tex.) of the house appropriations committee which starts all appropriations bills through congress, remarked:

"I think there's a good chance of a balanced budget next session."

Asked about reports that $2,000,000,000 would be asked next session for relief, which might throw the budget out of balance again, Buchanan replied:

"Asking for that and getting it are two different things. Of course, I think we could scrape up $1,750,000,000 or $2,000,000,000 and still have a balanced budget."

Acting Chief of Police in Orange Is Shot to Death

ORANGE, Aug. 12 (AP)—Clyde Dawson, 21, and B. P. Thompson, 28, stood charged with murder today in connection with the fatal shooting of Johnnie Godwin, 31, acting police chief, as San Antonio officers sought their removal to answer burglary charges there.

Godwin died yesterday from a bullet wound received when he and a fellow officer attempted to question Thompson and Dawson, who admitted to Police Captain H. A. Downey that he fired the fatal shot.

Thompson was arrested here shortly after the shooting and Dawson was arrested at Lake Charles, La., after he had kidnaped an Orange couple and compandered an auto.

The men also were charged with robbery with firearms in connection with the robbery of a Beaumont taxi driver of his car.

Dawson and Thompson escaped from Deputy Ernest Macias of San Antonio as the officer was leaving a San Antonio hospital after taking the pair there for treatment. Sheriff Albert West and a squad of deputies left San Antonio yesterday to come here in an effort to gain custody of the prisoners.

The shooting followed the two men fled here following their hold-up of the Beaumont taxi driver. When Godwin and George La Fille approached Thompson and Dawson, who were in the stolen taxi, two shots were fired. One of the bullets struck the acting police chief.

Thompson surrendered, but Dawson kidnaped a couple, forced them to drive him to Lake Charles, where he was captured and later returned here.

TAX BILL IS FACING PERIL OF NEW SPLIT

PORAH, LAFOLLETTE DIFFER ON 'LITTLE FELLOW'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—Some legislators predicted today that if the senate should vote to bring the "little fellow" pocket-book within the scope of the new tax bill, a senate-house deadlock may force the Roosevelt administration to scrap the tax bill for this session.

This feeling, together with an open split between two noted senatorial independents, forecast new and hotter fighting on the controversial issue.

Senator Borah (R, Idaho) attacked the senate finance committee plan for lower exemptions and higher taxes on small incomes—plan which Senator LaFollette (Pro, Wv.) succeeded in getting the committee to substitute for the house program last Saturday.

"To increase taxes in this region and among these taxpayers is to accentuate their burden which already is heavy enough and necessarily to lower their standard of living," Borah said in a Sunday night statement. He said he would vote against such a move and that other independents were "critical" of it.

(The LaFollette plan lowers income tax exemptions for married persons from the present $2,500 to $2,000 and for single persons from $1,000 to $800, and increases the surtaxes all along the line. The house bill would leave present taxes on incomes below $50,000 unchanged.)

Legislators who forecast a possible scrapping of the whole tax program, while unwilling to be quoted by name, pointed to expert estimates that 1,500,000 persons with small incomes would be added to the income tax-payers rolls under the new amendment. They also reminded newsmen that all seats in the house are at stake in next year's election.

Hitler Breaks Silence To Warn 'Enemies' Of Germany

Dictator Is Revealed 'As Backer of New Housecleaning'

BERLIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, whose silent retreat to his Berchtesgaden home led to reports that he was directing recent and religious restrictions, stood forth today as the backer of the housecleaning of "state enemies."

"Der Fuehrer" broke his self-imposed silence in a speech at Rosenheim in which he declared that the Nazi party would smash its opponents. Other leaders added to the disquiet of the Jews with threats of future strictures.

"By fighting we conquered Germany," Hitler said, "and by fighting we shall preserve it. Those standing up against us shall not deceive themselves about us.

"We have never shed from a light, either in the past or today. We will smash them so they will forget to continue their opposition for the next 15 years."

The chancellor, delivering his first public speech since his defense to the world on May 21 of Germany's armaments, refrained from making a direct reference to current incidents.

"If the hammer blows of fate should strike us," he said, "I will only make us still harder. I am convinced no power on earth can attack us any more.

"We want peace and constructive work, but whoever wants to disturb this peace will discover that we are no longer a people of pacifists but a people of men."

"Always stand by your flag, not only in good days but even more in the bad ones. Keep it up when the storm lashes and clouds the firmament."

"Deep apprehension still prevails among Jews as to what the future has in store for them. After Count von Helldorf, Berlin police president, had forbidden individual action against Jews, Wilhelm Frick, minister of interior, announced:

"The Jewish question will slowly but surely be taken out of us as the Nazi program foresees."

In his address of welcome to Der Fuehrer at Rosenheim, Adolf Wagner, Bavarian minister of the interior, touched on the Jewish question, saying:

"It is not necessary for the Nazi movement to solve this question with 'brachialgewalt' (physical power)."

Deputy Supt.

Dr. Everett Shepherd, who was recently appointed deputy state superintendent by Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, will assume his duties as supervisor for district 5 about September 1. This district includes Collin, Cooke, Denton, Grayson, and Wise counties, the supervisor's office being located in Denton. Dr. Shepherd succeeds Miss Nell Panley, who has been transferred to Houston.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Governor Alfred plans to review another division of his "army" soon. This time he wants to ride a horse.

Conforming to military etiquette recently, he rode a pony at full gallop across the field in front of national guard cavalry at Mineral Wells.

His next formal review, of national guard infantry at Palacios, probably will be from a stand.

It isn't a problem with him, however, as with some governors. He doesn't mind riding a horse. It's one of his regular diversions.

Most elected "public servants" apparently are reluctant to admit they look forward to enjoy, and regret the end of vacations as other human beings do.

Possibly they want the public to think they never take vacations but are on the job most of the 24 hours. Maybe the public does.

Witness the results of queries as to vacation plans among a dozen or so state officials:

Governor Alfred admitted without reserve he had been enjoying week-end fishing, riding, resting. His most recent jaunt was fishing off Port Isabel.

W. M. Burchell Struck by Car And Is Injured

County Attorney Sherman White and officers are investigating an accident in which W. M. Burchell, aged Pampa resident, was injured last night about 9:15 o'clock. No charges have been filed and up to the present time, it appears that the accident was unavoidable.

Mr. Burchell was struck by a car driven by Emmett Ellis. The injured man was rushed to Worley hospital, where it was found he had received a fracture of one leg, a slight concussion, and a laceration on the head. His condition this morning was favorable.

According to early findings by the officers, the Ellis car, with Mrs. Ellis and baby and Mr. Ellis' father, as passengers, was driving west on Brown street near Ballard and had just passed two cars, driving east, when Mr. Burchell stepped into view.

At the time, Mrs. Ellis was at the front of the car, the man, but the front fender of the car struck him a glancing blow.

AMHERST ARGUS—If you suddenly discover that the gasoline in your car is about exhausted don't speed up in order to reach the next filling station—slow down. Experiments have proved that other things being equal, more mileage is obtained from a gallon of gasoline when an automobile is driven at moderate high speed. You will understand why this is true from the fact that more force is required to propel a car at high speed than at low speed, because of the wind resistance.

BRISCOE COUNTY NEWS, Silvertown—Here is an ad that was mailed in for publication; NOTICE—A full grown goose, strayed into our yard the other day and immediately installed itself as one of our star boarders. VAN W. STEWART in Ochiltree County Herald—Texas is going to the polls on August 24 to vote on repeal of the liquor prohibition laws. It seems like such an important question would cause more of a furor in the state that is apparent. In so far as the Herald is concerned, the "wets" are putting up practically no fight at all. We have had a few "repeal" stories sent to us via the free publicity racket. Here in Ochiltree county, we have an active "dry" organization. They are doing some effective work and there is no question as to the outcome in this county. We think it will be against repeal by a decisive vote. But the old folks and fever heat that is expected in a campaign of this nature is missing. Maybe the "drys" have lost their pep because the opposition isn't making things hot enough to be interesting.

Allred Protests Dove Season Law
AUSTIN, Aug. 12 (AP)—Governor Allred today protested to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace conflicts of federal regulations with state laws on the dove season.

Previous protests of hunters and William J. Trickett, executive secretary of the state game, fish and oyster commission, to J. N. Darling, chief of the bureau of biological survey in the department of agriculture, have been ineffectual.

Governor Allred said in the protest to Secretary Wallace that federal regulations "will deprive mourning dove hunters . . . of reasonable opportunities." In the north zone, by the conflict, hunters would be limited to the month of October, in which the governor said "no satisfactory shooting would be provided."

Working people over the state, he said, would be prohibited from hunting doves "because of their inability to hunt before four o'clock," the latest time of the day permitted by federal regulations.

Reconciliation Between Austria, Germany Possible

VIENNA, Aug. 12 (AP)—The possibility of a political and economic reconciliation between Germany and Austria without attempt to mitigate anti-Semitism in the Reich alarmed the Jewish element in Austria today.

Newswell, organ of the Jewish community, said it had detected a disposition among Catholics to make "a separate peace with Hitler."

Austria, despairing of getting either friendship or security from a proposed pact between the Danube states, was reported by the official Wiener-Zeitung to have made two conditions for ending its bitter two-year quarrel with Germany.

One was said by the paper to be dissolution of the Austrian legion in Germany; the other the dissolving of the Austrian "Hilfsbund" organization accused of supporting a secret Nazi corps in Austria.

Newswell expressed a fear that the apparent inclination of the Austrian Catholic state to enter into negotiations for a rapprochement is an indication that the church leaders are willing to effect a settlement for themselves and leave the Jews to an uncertain fate.

Not since relations were strained by the assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss in a Nazi putsch a year ago have prospects for reconciliation been better.

Discussing the Paris conversations between France, Italy, and Great Britain—beginning Tuesday—Halle Selassie referred to them as "the meeting to which we have not been invited."

"Although it is impossible to foretell the result of this meeting," he added, "the end of the rainy season is approaching. Despite all the means being employed to find a peaceful solution of the conflict, Italy continues unceasingly to send troops and war materials to her two adjoining colonies."

Reaffirming Ethiopia's faith in the "great and powerful" Great Britain and France, the emperor pledged his country's readiness to "collaborate loyally and frankly with all nations regardless of race or religion who collaborate loyally and frankly with Ethiopia."

Halle Selassie reiterated Ethiopia's determination to defend the ancient empire "to the last drop of blood" against aggression, at the same time rejecting "anything which will hinder its independence, lessen its sovereignty or affect the prestige of its emperor, its people or its army."

PARIS, Aug. 12 (AP)—The Havas (French) news agency reported today in advice from Addis Ababa that Emperor Haile Selassie was willing to make concessions to settle the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

The emperor is ready, dispatches said, to cede a section of the empire in return for an outlet to the sea and financial aid.

The emperor told interviewers that Ethiopia has always been anxious to develop its resources and loans are necessary to speed up the work of civilization.

"But another means of aiding the economic development of the country," he was quoted, "is to obtain a port for Ethiopia. If it would fulfill our two aspirations we would see no objection to ceding part of Ogaden."

Djibouti, capital city of French Somaliland, on the Gulf of Aden, now serves as Ethiopia's port.
