Twinkles

One of the fruits of capitalism is cash wages. We would dislike wages in any other form.

Lamentably, of many books which will be written about Will Rogers, few will bear the true flavor of the wit which distinguished our favorite son.

Ethiopian business men are closing shop because of the seeming certainty of war. The gold made in wartime is fool's gold, anyway.

Sluggards need to go to the ants, but a lot of others need to go to our family pup for an example of consistency in friendliness.

If you are one of those who had rather be safe than sorry, the best attitude on the amendments is probably expressed in that good old newspaper motto: "When in doubt, leave out."

Musing of the moment: Canadian Rotarians recently discussed modern cowboys and decided they were "soft." Proof: They play bridge, poker, we infer, is hardening. . . Especially if you lose. Which you usually do. . . But our weather, more consistent, isn't softening.

Brevitorials

EVERYBODY IS talking about Will Rogers and Wiley Post. It is fitting that newspapers should write much about both, and especially about Will Rogers was the No. 1 newspaper reader. He believed in them. He based his thinking and writing upon their content. They were his education on world events. To his reading he added a keen observation, ability to discern facts, and an acquaintance which embraced keen minds of every station in life. . . A few cutting wisecracks from Rogers' mind could do more to control public thought than an hour's address by the average statesman.

FROM VARIOUS sources, including film dailies and the A. P., we have selected these interesting facts: His full name was William Penn Adair Rogers, a name he disliked. He was born in the Indian Territory at Colquhoun on November 4, 1879. He was part Cherokee, and proud of the fact that while his ancestors did not come over on the Mayflower, they "met the boat." He attended the high school at Neosho, Mo., for a time, then went briefly to Kemper Military academy at Booneville. He worked as a cowboy, won riding and roping contests, worked on cattle ranches in South Africa, joined a carnival in South Africa, became a member of a Wild West show then, having become adept at whirling a rope, began a tour of vaudeville circuits.

IT IS SAID rather reliably that Will started his comic monologues while "filling in" when his rope would become entangled in his feet. Soon his wisecracks were more famous than his rope and gum-chewing. His jokes took him to the Folies, where he became so famous that he began to write a weekly column there a short time ago. His column alone paid him as much as $200,000 annually. This newspaper tried to buy it, but the territory was reserved by larger papers with prior contracts or applications. . . Rogers was a better actor than generally believed, before he entered the movies.

WILL COULD "get away with" stunts permitted of no other person. His regular attire, even for the most formal occasion, was an old blue serge suit with soft-collar shirt and black tie. Frequently he donned overalls around the studio. He was walking "gridiron banquet" panning the great and near-great with illuminating but kindly sarcasm. He was a favorite of public men and the press. Often his language was picturesquely profane on stag occasions, but his good humor was rarely ruffled. . . Spurred by sudden ideas, Will would sometimes demand that three days of movie work be done in one. But he personally would pay the other members of the staff for the two days lost. . . His first love in activities was flying, but polo—a game at which he excelled—was his favorite sport.

HIS MOVIE associates supply most of the following: In 1919, abandoned the stage and made a series of silent pictures. Some of these were "Two Wagons, Both Covered," a burlesque on "The Covered Wagon," "Doubling for Romeo," "Boys Will Be Boys," "Family Pits," "Jubilo, Jr.," "Our Congressmen," "Going to Congress," "Gee Whiz, Genevieve" and "A Texas Story." Also made a series of shorts, "Strolling Thru Europe With Will Rogers," for Pathé. Success indifferent; no sound. In 1922 returned to the "Follies" and remained on Broadway until 1929, when the advent of talking pictures.

PRESIDENT OF ECUADOR HELD AS PRISONER

ATTEMPT TO BECOME DICTATOR IS FRUSTRATED

QUITO, Ecuador, Aug. 21 (AP)—Antonio Pons, former minister of government (premier), was sworn in as president of Ecuador today to succeed former President Jose M. Velasco Ibarra, arrested last night. The commissioning of the premier as the new president was made in conformity with the constitution of the republic. Previously, there had been confusion over who would assume the presidency, following the forced retirement of the Velasco Ibarra government.

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Aug. 21 (AP)—Jose M. Velasco Ibarra, stripped of his office of president, was a military prisoner today.

His attempt to become dictator was frustrated when army leaders repudiated him in favor of the constitution. Seizure of the president was accomplished without bloodshed. Imprisoned with Velasco Ibarra were three aides, among them Col. Ricardo Astudill. They were accused of being parties to the coup which Velasco Ibarra intended to bring about at night today.

Velasco Ibarra prepared for his dictatorship by jailing opposition leaders. They gained their freedom, but he promptly imprisoned Federico Intriago Arrata, chief of police of Quito, the capital, and the governor of the province.

The senate adopted a resolution not to meet in session unless guaranteed protection and liberty to consider political problems. Velasco Ibarra closed congress and decreed to the president the authority guaranteeing congress the right of regular function, and demanded Velasco Ibarra's resignation. The president asked for three hours in which to weigh the demands. It was granted and Solis thereupon ordered the release of political prisoners.

Public Library Receives Gifts

Members of the Pampa Library board yesterday announced donation of $25 by Mrs. Phoebe A. Worley, a bookshelf and bound volumes of Better Homes and Gardens by the Garden club, and more than 700 volumes from La Nora theater's book benefit.

The board went on record thanking the donors. Mrs. Worley's donation will be used in the purchase of Texas books. There were 2,932 books checked out of the public library last month, for a daily average of 112. There were 97 mended, 7 given in lieu of fines, 3 books lost, one replaced, and 44 articles filed.

The library is again faced with the necessity of adding to its shelf space. The regular meeting of Kerley-Crossman post No. 334 of the American Legion will be held at the Legion hut at 8 o'clock tonight. All members are urged to attend as this will be the last meeting before the department convention at Dallas. Any member having any suggestions for instructing the delegates is urged to present them at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Vann Chambers of Linden, N. J. are visiting her sister, Mrs. Jimmy Barrett, and Mr. Barrett.

I Heard . . .

Managers of teams entered in the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament, to open Friday night, congratulating the tournament committee on securing Wesley E. Vaught of Burkhardt to be umpire-in-chief. Vaught was here last year and his work was above reproach. Jewell Tate, Pampa man, will be on the base.

Big Additional Sums Quickly Revealed To Committee

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON, WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Expenses of Cities Service company in opposing the Wheeler-Rayburn bill were listed at $100,000 before the senate lobby committee today, and large additional items were quickly disclosed.

W. B. S. Winans, comptroller of the currency, gave the total. Under questioning, he agreed this did not include large legal fees to John W. Davis and others.

The committee called him to warn that files of the holding company and its subsidiaries would be subpoenaed to Washington, if necessary. Chairman Black said investigators had been refused access to some records.

Winans reported the company willing to cooperate, so subpoena would not be necessary. Howard C. Hopson, dominant figure in Associated Gas & Electric industry, testified from a seat close behind the witness. He was waiting to resume the stand, for more examination on expenditures against the Wheeler-Rayburn bill to regulate holding companies. Such expenditures on all sides now stand in the vicinity of $1,000,000.

Widow Asserts To Police She Drowned Infant

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—An attractive 27-year-old widowed mother of two children who told police she drowned her two-year-old son, James, because she "found it too hard to make a living for myself and the baby" was held today on a first degree murder charge.

The woman, Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood, walked into Newburgh police headquarters yesterday and told an astonished police lieutenant that the baby she was carrying in her arms was dead.

The lieutenant, John Powell, quoted Mrs. Sherwood as saying she drowned the child in a creek near Newburgh. District Attorney Henry Hirschberg said Mrs. Sherwood told him she held the child's head under water until she believed him dead, then dressed the boy in dry clothing and "thumbed" a ride on a truck for the return trip to Newburgh.

Mrs. Sherwood was immediately arraigned on a charge of first degree murder. Her husband, a moving picture theater employe, died four months ago and since then she has worked as a waitress in Newburgh. Her other child, Dorothy, 7, is living with relatives in Sullivan county.

Father Innocent Of Drowning Boy Says Prosecutor

GALVESTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—County Attorney Ralph Crawford said today an investigation had revealed that Louis Scala, 55-year-old League City shrimp fisherman, was innocent of charges that he drowned his 9-month-old twin daughter. Prosecutor said he had "completely checked" the frail fisherman's alibi and found it to be correct. Scala, arrested several days ago, constantly pleaded his innocence and maintained he was in Port Arthur at the time of the drowning.

Scala's wife told officers her husband had drowned the infant in Clear creek after a family quarrel.

CLAIM EMPEROR OF ETHIOPIA HAS HUGE GOLD FUND HIDDEN

BY JAMES A. MILLS, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 21 (AP)—Reliable sources said today that Emperor Haile Selassie has a large secret fund of gold and silver to pour out in fighting Italy in the event of hostilities. The money, amounting to several million dollars, had been left by the late Emperor Menelik in his last testament for the defense of his countrymen and is deposited in secret caves known only to the emperor. The fund includes 10,000,000 gold lire which Italy paid Ethiopia as indemnity after the Italians disastrous defeat at Adua as well as huge sums since deposited by the emperor from the government reserves for the preservation of the empire. Menelik's dying command to his relatives was to defend Ethiopia's independence at all costs, employing the fund as a nucleus. In addition the "King of Kings" has heaps of silver dollars deposited in subterranean coffers, and as well as other metallic currency cached in the very walls and foundations of various buildings. Meanwhile the emperor's forces staged a sham battle in preparation for hostilities with Italy, with the soldiers substituting terrifying war cries in place of bullets. The emperor himself, arrayed in a smart military uniform and a lion's mane head-dress, directed the mock clash, which made up in vocal ferocity for his lack of gunshots—a necessity imposed by a cartridge famine. Cornelius Van H. Engert, American charge d'affaires at Addis Ababa, at present is forced to live in a nondescript native hotel because there is no furniture in the American legation. Several cartloads of the furniture of George C. Hanson, former American charge d'affaires, are still in Djibouti, awaiting reshipment to Salonika.

ROGERS RITES WILL BE HELD ON TOMORROW

GREAT HONOR BESTOWED UPON WILL IN CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Rogers family will be together again here today—with a vast, sad difference. Mrs. Will Rogers and the children, Will Jr., Mary and Jim, were hurrying by train from the east, due to arrive about noon.

They were speeding to a funeral instead of a happy reunion after gay aerial adventures. The body of the famous comedian, who kidded the great and the near-great and made them like it, awaited them in a simple bronze casket in Forest Lawn chapel. Thousands of others waited also, to pay final tribute to the actor-philosopher who crashed to his death with Wiley Post in Alaskan wilds.

Tomorrow a guard of honor composed of two score army fliers will attend the casket as the doors of the chapel are opened to the public.

Gov. Frank F. Merriam announced he will proclaim a statewide moment of mourning during the funeral hour. At that time—2 p. m.—every movie studio will close and special services for the public will be held in Hollywood bowl, with Conrad Nagel, actor, and Rupert Hughes, author, in charge.

Cherokee Indians here—Rogers was a member of their tribe—have asked permission to hold a tribal ceremony. Mrs. Rogers will decide. After the public observances are ended, the family and 125 close friends will attend private services in the Wee Kirk of the Heather.

Hundreds View Wiley Post At Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 21 (AP)—Hundreds of the earth-bound humble who will have no opportunity to see the Wiley Post's funeral had their moment today at the bier of their sky hero who died while they dreamed.

A silent crowd thick with the elderly, small boys and office workers, gathered at the mortuary at 6 a. m. and for the next three hours the line moved past the body.

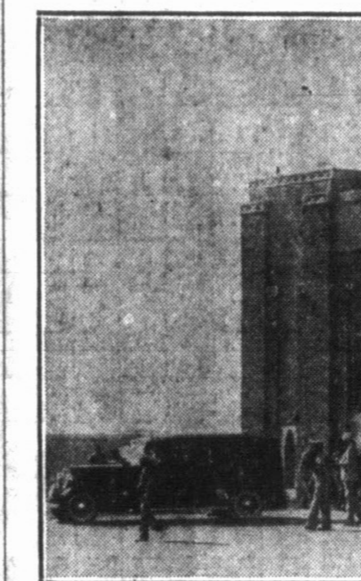

There were no flowers in the small chapel. A large flag of the United States hung at the foot of the bier and beyond, on the wall, was an illuminated picture of Christ and his disciples were present, but they needed to constrain nobody. This afternoon the body will be taken overland to Post's home town of Maysville, there to be viewed by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Post, for the first time since the fatal crash of their son and Will Rogers in Alaska last Thursday night.

In the little Baptist church just off the one business street where Post remained "just one of the boys" until the last, the body will lie until late afternoon, while the natives of the farming community have their last moment with Wiley.

TO PASS ON LAW AUSTIN, Aug. 21 (AP)—A three-judge federal court has been called for August 30 in Houston to pass on constitutionality of the Texas Game and Conservation law, the federal district clerk said today. Validity of the statute was attacked by the Henderson company, operators of a castinghead gasoline plant in Hutchinson county, and by the Oil & Refineries Inc., and the Texas Panhandle Gas company.

Haile Selassie Weeps As He Discusses War; Britain Will Insist On Boycotting Italy

Oklahoma Hearse Meets Plane

The above photo shows a hearse bearing Wiley Post's body, coming out of a hangar in Oklahoma City after the body had been transferred from a huge Pan-American Airlines plane. The hearse today removed the remains to a funeral home, later to Maysville, his home town, and then back to the rotunda of the state capitol at Oklahoma City.

Emperor Feels Sure He Can Defeat Italians

ADDIS ABABA, Aug. 21 (AP)—Weeping as he talked, Emperor Haile Selassie predicted to the Associated Press today, in a remarkable interview that war between Italy and Ethiopia would not only drench the two countries in blood but might drag in the whole world. "If, unhappily, such a conflict leads to a world struggle between the black and white races," said the emperor, "the very existence of humanity itself is threatened. We will be back in 1914. "There will be no more security for the world in the future than there was then. International treaties will have no more validity than the word of a thief. "I fear that neither the United States, nor England, nor the other great powers realize the gravity of the situation. "My own people have sufficient courage, endurance, and patriotism to bear the brunt of Italy's assaults alone. But if, unfortunately, other nations are drawn into it as they surely will be, it will be a disaster of the first magnitude. "I pray to God daily that such a catastrophe may be averted."

LONDON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Seven leaders of the British cabinet today tentatively approved a policy demanding financial and economic action against Italy if that country attacks Ethiopia. The ministers had been called into a special, informal session by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin. They conferred two hours. Their decision, although tentative, calls for a strong British stand at Geneva, in the forthcoming League of Nations session, for financial and economic sanctions. This idea will be taken up by the full cabinet tomorrow in an emergency meeting. Throughout the day were indications Great Britain might seek American cooperation outside Geneva for a solution of the Italo-Ethiopian crisis.

CABINET SUGGESTS CONTROL OF JAPANESE COTTON GOODS

Continuance Of Cotton Processing Tax Is Favored By Cabinet Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Discontinuance of the cotton processing tax was opposed today by the special cabinet committee which has been studying bills of the textile industry. The committee suggested control of imports of Japanese cotton goods, preferably by means of a "voluntary and friendly agreement" with Japan. It also recommended establishment of a continuing committee to study the program of regional wage differentials in the textile industry. These and other recommendations were contained in a report submitted to President Roosevelt and transmitted by him to congress. The processing tax, Japanese import duties and the north-south wage differentials were the chief matters studied by the committee, which received complaints of the industry at extended hearings earlier in the summer. The other committee recommendations were to anticipate legislative and administrative action to meet the problem of excess capacity and obsolescence of machinery. Rejection of a proposal that raw cotton now financed by the government be endeavor to anticipate their needs as far in advance as possible, place orders during periods of slack demand and provide an extended period for delivery. Establishment of a committee of representatives of the agriculture and commerce departments to develop new uses for cotton. A change from the present practice of trading in cotton on a gross weight basis to a net weight basis. An investigation of the hedging requirements of mills, looking toward desirable revision or additions to the functions of the cotton futures market. This, the committee said, might effect a change in the government's cotton loan policy. Improvement of merchandising and marketing methods. Maintenance of labor standards provided in the cotton textile code established under NRA.

'Capon' Leads Buck's Monkeys In Freedom Dash

MASSAPEQUA, N. Y., Aug. 21 (AP)—Led by the redoubtable "Capon," 175 monkeys escaped today from Frank Buck's jungle camp on Sunrise highway near here. One of Buck's employes had entered the monkeys' stronghold to do some repairing. He stretched a plank from a retaining wall to the moat which surrounds the artificial cliffs in which the animals live. While the employe was busy, "Capon" bulled of the colony and instigator of all sorts of trouble, dashed across the plank a gibbering band of his subjects followed. After suffering minor scratches and bites, employes succeeded in blocking the escape after 175 monkeys had crossed the plank. Two of the animals were captured. The chattering horde scampered across the Long Island railroad tracks. An army of 100 railroad laborers dropped their tools and fled. The noise was terrific. Long Island monkey authorities advised that nothing be done to capture the fugitives for two or three days, since by then the high-strung creatures will probably settle down in a colony. It is planned to build a fence around the monkeys when they light somewhere.

ALLRED NAMES JUDGES

AUSTIN, Aug. 21 (AP)—Governor Allred today announced two appointments to fill offices vacated by Judge P. A. Martin of Wichita Falls when he takes the oath September 6 as associate justice of the Fort Worth court of civil appeals. District Judge W. C. Davis of Bryan would succeed Judge Martin as a member of the civil judicial council, and District Judge George L. Deavenport of Eastland would become presiding judge of the eighth judicial administrative district.

May Appeal To U. S. LONDON, Aug. 21 (AP)—A British bid for American cooperation for solution of the Italo-Ethiopian crisis may be the next move for Downing street, it was indicated today as the political drama was seen.

ALLRED OFFERS TO APPOINT ARBITER IN GARMENT STRIKE

AUSTIN, Aug. 21 (AP)—Governor Allred today agreed to appoint an arbiter in the Dallas garment strike if manufacturers would promise to accept the decision of an impartial third party. The governor advised Lester E. Lorch, as spokesman for Dallas garment manufacturers, of the offer of the workers union to submit the proposition to arbitration by an impartial third party selected by the governor. He said the request for voluntary arbitration and the promise to accept the decision "has been verified by garment workers themselves."

Scouts Of Troop 22 Return From New Mexico Trip

Bronzed smiles this morning indicated that troop 22 of Wayland had a wonderful time on its 10-day camping trip and tour of New Mexico. The adults on the journey were E. W. Logan, scoutmaster; J. M. Daugherty, troop committee chairman; C. D. Turcott, second assistant scoutmaster; and B. C. Rogers, member of the troop committee. Bus Benton, official driver, was highly complimented for his skillful work. The entire trip was without accident to traveler or machine. Twenty boys made the trip, stopping at Red River, Taos, Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and other points of interest. Several baseball games demonstrated the strength of the Texas players.

ACTRESS DIES

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 21 (AP)—Marjorie White, 27-year-old movie actress, died today from injuries she suffered in an automobile collision yesterday.

SEVEN-POINT MOVE FAVORED BY PRESIDENT

WAR SIGNS IN EUROPE STIR SENATE INTO QUICK ACTION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—A seven-point resolution designed to safeguard American neutrality in event of a foreign war was adopted today by the senate. Attempts already were under way to assure house action.

President Roosevelt was reported in favor of the move, coming as it does at a time when the Italo-Ethiopian situation is posing grave questions for European governments in particular.

Stirred into action by ominous war signs abroad and a filibuster by munitions committee members, the senate speedily endorsed the foreign relations committee compromise resolution.

Representing a compromise between a more drastic program advocated by the special munitions investigating committee headed by Senator Nye (R-ND) and state department attitude, the resolution provides:

A mandatory embargo on exports of arms, munitions and implements of war to all belligerents in a foreign conflict.

A system of licensing munitions manufacture and export as a permanent policy of this government, along the lines of the Geneva Arms Treaty in 1925, ratified earlier in the session by the senate.

A ban against American ships carrying arms or munitions under embargo to any belligerent port or to any neutral port for reshipment to belligerents.

Authority for the president to prohibit American citizens from carrying on the program, except at their own risk, with 90 days allowed for citizens to return from war areas.

Authority for the president to prevent ships, foreign or American, from carrying men or supplies to belligerent vessels at sea.

Authority for the president to restrict or prohibit the entry of belligerent submarines into American waters or ports.

A national munitions control board to administer the program, consisting of the secretaries of state as chairman; treasury, war, and commerce, and the chairman of the senate house foreign relations committee.

QUALITY NOT QUANTITY TO PREVAIL IN JAYCEES' BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

FANFARE WILL PRECEDE FIRST GAME FRIDAY

FIVE TEAMS OF PANHANDLE ENTERED IN MEET

Regardless of the number of teams entered in the second annual Pampa Junior chamber of commerce tournament, the event will be carried through, with the team winning first place receiving $1,000 or more, depending on the crowds.

Prospects point to the tournament being held with six teams. There is a possibility that two other strong nines will enter before the deadline, 7:30 o'clock on Thursday night, when managers of teams will meet in the chamber of commerce rooms with A. J. Johnson and his committee. Rules of the tournament will be discussed and the schedule for the first round of play set.

With quality instead of numbers prevailing, most of the games will be played at night. There will be no Sunday night games, however, play being on Sunday afternoons.

Every team entered, and there are five of them already, is gathering strength for the big battle. Rivalry was keen last season. It is stronger this year. The Road Runners and Colteco are at "outs" because of player transfers. Colteco and Huber have the same difficulty. Amarillo is quietly pointing to the Pampa tournament by adding strength and not making a big noise.

The sixth team is still indefinite. It may be the Two-I league All Stars. It may be Colteco carbon of LeFors. It may be Phillips of the South Pampa field. Or all three may enter.

Necley Vaughn of Burk Burnett has been secured to call the balls and strikes. Vaughn was umpire-in-chief last year and his work so pleased teams and fans that by popular request he has been secured to run the event this time. Jewell Tate, Pampa man, will be umpire on the bases.

Admission to all games will be 15 cents for children, 25 cents for women, and 40 cents for men. Nearly 400 reserve seats will be available for each game at 15 cents each. Season box seats and season reserve seats will be honored by the Jaycees.

Phil Phillips and his orchestra, now playing an engagement at the Southern club, will play while fans are gathering and during the early part of each game. A loud speaker system will be installed to announce batteries, batters, and future games.

A prize list will be announced soon and will include recognition for the leading pitcher, leading home run hitter, most promising prospect, best infielder, most sensational play, dumbest play, etc.

The opening gun of the tournament will be fired on Friday night at 8:30 o'clock. One of the record crowds of the season is anticipated by the Jaycees, who will be on hand to welcome the fans of the Panhandle. Mayor W. A. Bratton will be captured before that time and held in readiness to throw the first ball, probably from the press box.

No passes will be issued. Even members of the Junior chamber of commerce who will act as ticket sellers, ticket takers, ushers, guards, and in other capacities, will pay for the privilege of working.

Fans are asked to refrain from going on the field or to team dugouts. The tournament is to be run on a strictly business basis.

Detroit Bidding For Louis-Baer Fight Sept. 24

NEW YORK, Aug. 21. (AP)—This Joe Louis-Max Baer fight must loom as a pretty piece of fistcuffs the way the different cities are bidding for it.

Indications are that the bout will take place at the Polo Grounds in New York Sept. 24, but Detroit, the home town of the brown bomber, has made an offer that is making Promoter Mike Jacobs sit back and take notice.

Frederic H. Schader announced that a group of prominent Detroit citizens would bid $300,000 to bring the attraction to Detroit. The fight would be staged at Navin field with accommodations arranged for 85,000 persons.

Van Bebber Is Victim Of Otis In Fast Match

There were few scientific holds in the wrestling game left untied last night when Sailor Otis Clingman, former champion of the United States navy and a favorite of Pampa fans, defeated Jack Van Bebber, new Pampa idol, in the main event at Road Runner park. Van Bebber lost the last fall when Clingman used his head to reverse a dangerous situation.

The match went the full three falls with Clingman taking the opening stanza after 23 minutes of the fastest and deadliest grappling seen by Pampa fans in many a moon. The two met in the center of the ring at the going and they seldom separated. Time after time the battle appeared to have come to its termination. Tears appeared in eyes and wrinkles of agony in the faces, but a never-say-die determination appeared.

Drop Toe Does It There were headlocks, hammerlocks, scissors, wrist locks, Sonnenbergs, slams, toe holds and every other grip in the game, applied and broken. At about 21 minutes, Van Bebber came out of a punishing toe hold. He took Clingman by the head and slammed him straight over his back. He repeated the punishment 10 times before pausing for a second. That pause was disastrous. Clingman, more by instinct than from knowing what he was doing, flung his legs at Van Bebber and turned over. He had the Dutchman in a perfect drop toe-hold in which the latter was eager to surrender. Clingman was unable to rise as a result of the terrific rism.

Fall No. 2 was even faster than the first. It was amazing to the fans how the two could return after the terrific opening fall. Although Clingman was worn at the beginning of the second round, Van Bebber opened by putting Clingman in a punishing arm strangle, which was held for two minutes. Clingman came up with a toe-hold and developed it into a reverse Indian stake hold. Van Bebber sensationally came out. The two exchanged body slams until the ring quivered.

Van Bebber, with his height, punished the sailor badly with his slams and then slipped over a Japanese crab hold to make Clingman pat the mat in 10 minutes.

Action was even faster in the final fall. Where the two grapplers collected their stored energy for the climactic struggle is a mystery. Van Bebber started with a double wrist-lock and some whip wrist locks of his own. Both used Sonnenbergs and Van Bebber got into a bad hammerlock. He came out with a flying head scissor.

Clingman broke the hold as Van Bebber came out with a headlock. Clingman took terrific punishment before Van Bebber got his legs and worked him into position for another Japanese crab hold. Clingman, always the thinker, rolled with Van Bebber and at the right second, when Van Bebber was going down on the crab hold, straightened his legs, making Van Bebber virtually pin himself. The fall lasted 14 minutes.

Tiger Moore, state referee, was the third man in the ring. Moore has just returned from a tour to Honolulu.

Jack Dumar, Chicago "gangster," can be tamed, he demonstrated last night when Gorilla Pogi, Argentine, treated him to some of the roughest grappling of the year. Dumar tried to wrestle at times, unsuccessfully. The referee had to treat Pogi roughly to make him behave. The two went the full distance.

Pat Garrison and Bob Cummings combined wrestling with roughing in an exciting preliminary, which also went the full time limit. The two would wrestle for a while and then break loose with every trick in the bag. The referee had a busy evening and the fans had a lot of fun.

Bismarck Beats Denver Fuelers In Wichita Meet

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 21. (AP)—The undefeated Bismarck, N. D., club handed the Denver Fuelers their first defeat of the National Semi-Pro Baseball tournament last night by a 4-1 score.

Four teams were eliminated from the tournament yesterday as they suffered their second loss. Poplar Bluff, Mo., bowed to the Stanzak brothers of Waukegan, Ill., 5-3, although they garnered 14 hits to 7 for the victors. Rossville, Ga., ousted Clinton, Okla., with an 8-5 defeat; the Chicago Sheridans defeated the Kansas All-Stars 5-2, and the Wichita Watermen, Kansas state champions, had little trouble disposing of the Wevokas, Okla., Indians 14-4.

COACHES WILL SCAN GRIDIRON BOYS TONIGHT

HARVESTERS FOR CAMP WILL BE SELECTED AT STUDY HALL

Piercing eyes will search Harvester football prospects tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the study hall at the high school when Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean call their "look into conference. The coaches will check the physical and mental conditions of the boys upon whom they must rely.

Plans for the fall camp, scheduled to begin tomorrow, will be completed at the meeting. The coaches plan to take about 40 boys to camp in Pampa until the call for practice at Harvester field. Duration of the camp will depend on the amount of groceries available. Coach Mitchell laughingly remarked yesterday when local men started raising money with which to purchase food for the camp.

Conditioning will receive first attention. The boys, through a long period of spring training, learned several new tricks and reviewed old ones. They will be able to start hard work immediately after the routine of camp has been established.

Coach Mitchell has not released the type of play he intends to stress this fall. He failed to deny that there would be several changes in positions if some of the boys didn't come through.

J. C. Prejean, new line coach, will be able to handle things nicely in the line. The new mentor weighs near the 200-pound mark and can demonstrate his points, as the boys will learn. Coach Prejean learned his football under the same coach as Harry Phillips, who was here during the spring training period.

Davis Cup Team Will Parade In Doubles Events

BROOKLIN, Mass., Aug. 21. (AP)—The entire membership of the ill-fated U. S. Davis cup team will be on parade today when half of the national doubles tennis survivors clash in the third round play.

Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, the internationalists who held the national team title last year, and were runners-up last year, will engage Robert (Lefty) Bryan of Chattanooga, Tenn., and John McDiarmid of Fort Worth, Texas.

Don Budge and Gene Mako, a pair of California youngsters selected for this year's Davis cup service, take on Sam Lee and Henry Prusoff of Seattle.

Tomorrow the other second-round victors will return to the tennis front with Roderick Menzel of Czechoslovakia and Enrique Mier of Spain, last of the foreign threats moving against Frank Shields and Frank Parker, last week's Newport Casino victors, and Gregory Mangin and Berkley Bell engaging Wilmer Hines of Columbia, S. C., and Henry Culey of Santa Barbara, Calif.

Chet Laabs Is In Danger Of Losing Trophy

DURHAM, N. C., Aug. 21. (AP)—The deadline is closing in on infielder Chet Laabs of Fort Wayne, and unless the injured Three-I league slugging star returns to the lineup within the week, he will lose the batting championship of the minor leagues.

Laabs' average of .427 stands him first for the trophy awarded the top hitter of the minors, and since he is a first-year player, he would also win the trophy cup for the best batting rookie of the year.

Oscar Eckhardt of the Missions stands by with .412, ready to cop the title if Laabs falls out, while Charley Hartig of Washington in the Penn State association, with .386, is in line for the rookie award.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FORUM NAMES MRS. TEED PRESIDENT

CHOICE MADE AT A CALLED MEETING HOUR

RESIGNATION OF MISS FAULKNER VACATES OFFICE

Mrs. Arthur Teed was named president of Twentieth Century Forum for the coming season, when the resignation of Miss Virginia Faulkner, president-elect, was accepted in a called meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Bourland yesterday morning.

Miss Faulkner, who was to have taken office at the beginning of the season, is to be married early in October to E. L. Green Jr. of Houston. Mrs. Teed has been active in this younger women's study club the past year. She will be installed as president at the first fall meeting, a joint breakfast, with other Twentieth Century clubs.

Requests of Mrs. Fred Cary and Mrs. John Hooper to be placed on the inactive list for a year were granted. Their places as active members have not been filled.

Pastor to Address McMurry Graduates

The Rev. Gaston Foote, First Methodist minister here, will deliver the graduation address to the summer class of McMurry college, Abilene, next Wednesday.

Commencement exercises will be conducted in the rock garden on the McMurry campus. It is announced by Dean G. C. Boswell.

Forty-seven stolen automobile were recovered at California's border checking stations in the first six months of 1935.

For Dancing

Youthful in line and as modern as the music to which its wearer will dance, this frock is simplicity itself in design. Of metallized cellophane woven into rayon taffeta. Features cap sleeves and a large bow.

PICNIC HONORS YOUNG GUESTS LAST EVENING

Girls Visiting From Fort Worth Are Complimented

Two visitors from Fort Worth, Misses Joyce Fuqua and Rebecca McCoy, were honored last evening when Misses Thelma Fae Seeds, Odessa Winkler, and Julia Baker were hostesses at a picnic.

Meeting at the home of Miss Winkler, the party went to LeFors for the supper and informal entertainment.

In addition to the honorees, guests were Misses Inez Hawkins, Sybil Osborn, Irene Poulos, Pauline and Cleo Barrett, Eula Mae Meador, Mary Parker, Marie Mathews.

Messrs. Clarence Arnold, Irl Poll, Buford Archer, J. C. Fyfe, Scott Mullens, Wilbur Irvin, Finley Vandenberg, Earl Rice, Tom and Dewey Palmittier, Joe Hawkins, D. C. Turner, Wayne Winkler, Ed Myatt, Junior Strickland.

Mrs. D. W. Osborn, Mrs. Sanford Fuqua, and Mrs. W. A. Fuqua of Fort Worth accompanied the picnickers.

Some hours after the senate-house conference committee had approved a new $250,000,000 tax bill which embodied many administration ideas but left out the new inheritance taxes strongly urged by President Roosevelt, the house judiciary committee shelved another piece of administration legislation last night.

The committee, by a vote of 13 to 7, plegion-holed the Walsh measure to impose NRA standards on all firms which contract to do business with the government.

This bill, which appeared on the "must" list reported to have been drawn up at a White House conference of legislative leaders recently, has passed the senate, but unless the judiciary committee reconsiders it is lost for this session.

Senator Walsh (D., Mass.), in pleading for the bill as one that would write the "human quality" into government contracts, had told the committee it was an "administration bill" handed to him personally by the president.

The bill had been fought by business representatives who called it "tyrannical." Chairman Sumners (D., Texas) of the judiciary committee said:

"It is too important a bill to be pushed through so late a date."

While democratic leaders sought to avoid filibustering or long fighting on the question of neutrality legislation aimed at keeping the United States out of any war abroad, backers of the Guffey act to regulate bituminous coal, but there were indications that the neutrality vote might have to be squeezed in ahead of the other measure.

Leaders did not regard the 51 to 20 decision as a conclusive indication of the final outcome of the Guffey measure, which the president insists should not be blocked by any doubts of constitutionality.

The Social CALENDAR

THURSDAY

J. Y. P. class of First Christian church will meet at Mrs. James Todd's home, 7 p. m., to go on a picnic.

The Clara Hill class of the First Methodist church will have a kid party—the old fashioned kind—in the church basement at 2:30 o'clock.

FRIDAY

Mrs. Paul Caylor will be hostess to New Deal club at her home, 2:30.

Members of the Order of Eastern Star and their families are asked to meet at the city park at 7 p. m., bringing picnic luncheons and watermelons.

Cities Service Denies Records To Senate Body

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—The Cities Service company was brought into the senate's lobby investigation today, with committee members saying they had been denied access to the big utility holding company's records.

A representative of the company was called to appear today. Committee members said they would subpoena all Cities Service records if necessary to obtain the information they want in their investigation. If the subpoena is ignored, they asserted, they will seek contempt proceedings against company officials.

The committee also called Howard C. Hopson, guiding factor of the Associated Gas & Electric system, back for more questioning today in its inquiry into the fight against the Roosevelt utilities bill.

In another room, deadlocked senate and house conferees on the utilities bill gathered for a new effort to break their impasse but they expressed little optimism.

Senate lobby investigators received evidence which they said showed that $13,000,000 poured into private accounts of Hopson and his associate, J. I. Mange.

Miss Young Gives Informal Party

An informal party at the swimming pool was enjoyed Monday evening when Miss Joyce Young entertained. Music by the Bird Brand Cowboys, visiting orchestra, was a feature of the entertainment.

After a swim in the pool, supper was served at Central Park to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dean and son, Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simpson and son, Alvin, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Campbell and daughter, Vivian, Mr. and Mrs. C. Moore.

SENATORS KILL ANOTHER BILL OF PRESIDENT

MEASURE TO REQUIRE NRA STANDARDS IS LAID ASIDE

BY CLARENCE M. WRIGHT, Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—Congress still is bent on going home by Saturday night, but in their dash toward adjournment legislators have delivered two jolts to major parts of the Roosevelt administration's program.

Some hours after the senate-house conference committee had approved a new $250,000,000 tax bill which embodied many administration ideas but left out the new inheritance taxes strongly urged by President Roosevelt, the house judiciary committee shelved another piece of administration legislation last night.

The committee, by a vote of 13 to 7, plegion-holed the Walsh measure to impose NRA standards on all firms which contract to do business with the government.

This bill, which appeared on the "must" list reported to have been drawn up at a White House conference of legislative leaders recently, has passed the senate, but unless the judiciary committee reconsiders it is lost for this session.

Senator Walsh (D., Mass.), in pleading for the bill as one that would write the "human quality" into government contracts, had told the committee it was an "administration bill" handed to him personally by the president.

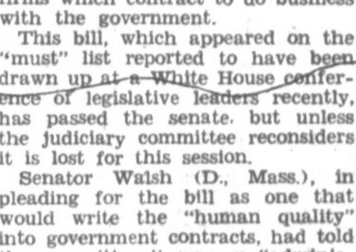

The bill had been fought by business representatives who called it "tyrannical." Chairman Sumners (D., Texas) of the judiciary committee said:

"It is too important a bill to be pushed through so late a date."

While democratic leaders sought to avoid filibustering or long fighting on the question of neutrality legislation aimed at keeping the United States out of any war abroad, backers of the Guffey act to regulate bituminous coal, but there were indications that the neutrality vote might have to be squeezed in ahead of the other measure.

Leaders did not regard the 51 to 20 decision as a conclusive indication of the final outcome of the Guffey measure, which the president insists should not be blocked by any doubts of constitutionality.

Doubly Serious

Two heads are better than one when they're as pretty as Margie's and there's serious work ahead. The little Mexican star, whose twinkling eyes won her international fame, has a reason for sober reflection. COOLING FRUIT DRINKS SUPPLY NEEDS OF BODY

Beverages Welcomed With Meals and Between

Menus and Recipes Prepared by Department of Home Economics Texas State College for Women (CIA)

DENTON, Aug. 21 (AP)—In summer when the intense heat creates such a loss of water from the body by way of perspiration this water must be replaced if health is to be maintained. Another effect of the warm weather is to decrease the appetite so that it is difficult to eat enough food.

Both needs of the body may be supplied at once with refreshing beverages from fruit juices. These juices are left from both canned and fresh fruits in cooking and unless utilized in this way will be wasted. They may be used as a foundation base or added to a tea base for flavor.

Juices left from canned fruits may be put in a glass jar and stored in the refrigerator ready for use. Such beverages may be served to you at meal time, a pleasant addition to the menu, or served between the meals as a cooling draught on a hot afternoon.

On more formal occasions they may be served in place of tea or coffee for larger gatherings such as dances, afternoon teas, and receptions. A good general proportion is one half fruit juices and one half water or other liquids such as cold tea or gingerale.

Usually a blended flavor is more pleasing than just one thing, so that two or perhaps even three varieties can be used to advantage. Here as in so many cases, a good sense of taste is an important element in the success of the undertaking. Some lemon juice should be added in every case as it brings out the flavor by adding water and straining. Beverages of this sort should not be too sweet and, needless to say, should be ice cold.

Combinations for Fruit Juices: Pineapple juice, apricot juice, lemon juice, ginger ale.

Orange juice, pineapple juice, lime juice, tea.

Peach juice, fresh grapes, lemon, ginger ale.

Sour cherry juice, grapefruit juice, lemon, tea.

Strawberry preserves, lemon, water.

University Offers Changed Plan For Home Ec. Degree

AUSTIN, Aug. 21.—A new plan for obtaining a degree from the University of Texas in home economics has been worked out by University authorities. It is designed to offer education for homemaking as an integral part of general university education. No change has been made in the regular course intended for students wishing to obtain specific professional training, it was pointed out.

The new program differs from the regular plan leading to the degree of bachelor of arts in home economics in that 12 hours of an advanced foreign language, preferably a modern language, are required instead of six; 15 hours in the natural sciences are required instead of 21-30 hours; 18 hours are required in the social sciences instead of nine; 36 hours in home economics are required instead of 42. Of the advanced courses required, 15 instead of 18 hours must be in the field of home economics.

In taking courses leading to a professional degree in home economics, the student may specialize in nutrition, institutional administration, applied design and textiles, home demonstration, or teaching in vocational home economics under the Smith-Hughes act.

Hopson Details Tale Of Profits

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21. (AP)—Threatened with contempt proceedings if he did not answer questions, Howard C. Hopson agreed today that he and his family had drawn profits of $3,187,000 from the Associated Gas & Electric system from 1929-1933 inclusive.

The testimony was elicited in the senate lobby investigation through persistent interrogation by Senator Schwellenbach (D. Wash.).

Hopson acknowledged that during half the time covered, the utility system under him was not paying dividends on its stock. The earnings were made by private companies owned by him and his family which sold services to companies in the system.

It was the first time he had agreed publicly to his profits. He had characterized them as inaccurate before the house rules committee.

Tension pervaded the hearing. At the outset the committee warned the witness it would "no longer permit him" to evade questions or make speeches, and unless he complied an additional contempt citation would be presented in the senate.

Lawyer May Claim Body Was Not That Of Lindbergh Baby

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 21. (AP)—C. Lloyd Fisher, one of Bruno Richard Hauptmann's attorneys, said he would leave today for California "to check on new evidence" he hopes will save Hauptmann from the electric chair should the court of errors and appeals deny him a new trial in the death of the Lindbergh baby.

From a source close to the defense it was learned that investigators are working on the theory that the child's body found near Hopewell three years ago was not that of the Lindbergh child.

Unknown Malady Kills Goldfish

Death hung over Pampa fish ponds Sunday and Monday, leaving hundreds of dead gold fish in its wake. The mystery has not been solved.

Water in at least one pond of death has been tested and found free from blame. Some owners suspect the presence of a microscopic germ which has been known to kill fish by the hundreds.

Probably the greatest loser in the city was G. O. Malone. His beautiful pond of 75 large gold fish was completely swept of living specimens Monday. Jimmie Wheeler, owner of a number of fine fan tail fish, reported many dead in his pond. The two losers have talked with other victims.

Out at the Danziger refineries, east of the city, is located one of the prettiest pools in this section. Large weeping willow trees cast their shadows over the water where hundreds of gold fish, some huge for the species, swim around the rocky banks. Several of the fish in the pond have died and been eaten by their mates.

Norma Millen Is Freed From Jail

DEDHAM, Mass., Aug. 21. (AP)—Norma Brighton Millen, attractive 20-year-old widow of an executed robber and killer, and an accessory to his crimes, was released from Dedham jail today.

She was whizzed out of sight in an auto brought to the prison by her father, Norman Brighton, former Natick, Mass., clergyman, and another man.

She had served a one-year sentence, less 36 days given for good behavior, for her part in the holdup killing for which her husband, Murton, his brother, Irving, and Abraham Faber paid with their lives in the electric chair July 7 last.

Testimony was given that Mrs. Millen accompanied her husband in a holdup.

Her destination was a mystery. She relinquished all claims to the estate of her husband in a statement issued at the jail on the eve of her release.

The Needham Trust company, from which the Millen-Faber gang took $14,000 at the point of a machine gun in 1933, saying a policeman, has started litigation to recover the full value of Murton's estate, about $2,400. About $3,000 of the bank loot was never recovered.

Navy Is Called 'Inefficient' By Retired Admiral

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21. (AP)—A sharp difference appeared today to have developed between two of the navy's high commands: past and present.

Attacking the navy's system of promotion, Rear Admiral William S. Sims, war-time commander, wrote in the Atlantic Monthly that navy morale was "continuously declining" and that high ranking officers have been "notoriously inefficient."

To which Admiral William H. Standley, chief ranking officer of the navy, replied that Sims was no longer in a position to judge such matters.

Sims wrote: "It is enough to make one's hair stand on end to contemplate the results of an unexpected outbreak of war at a time when the fleet and the navy department happened to be in the hands of officers who lacked the essential confidence of the service."

Standley said: "Admiral Sims has been retired from the navy for a number of years and I do not think he is in a position to judge navy morale."

Other officers recalled Sims has made previous attacks on the selection of navy promotions.

LONDON (AP)—The London county council has lifted its ban on the employment of married women as teachers and doctors. Since 1923 women teachers and doctors had to resign immediately after marriage.

Austria Upholds Italy's 'Hunger'

VIENNA, Aug. 21. (AP)—Weiner Zeitung, the official government mouthpiece, today banner-lined an editorial which places Austria unequivocally on the Italian side in the East African dispute.

Caricatured, "Europe or Ethiopia," the editorial praised the honesty and frankness of Mussolini, who "is not a hypocrite and openly admits his hunger—hunger for land, new resources and wealth."

Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian spokesman at the Paris tri-power conference, also was commended for stressing in his Paris statement that Italy's European mission was one of necessity and it was safeguarding this mission by giving Italy security in Africa.

"On account of Ethiopia there has been a tendency almost to forget Europe," the government paper warned, adding in conclusion: "The conviction must prevail throughout Europe that the incident is after all a thousand times more important than any barbaric organization on the dark continent."

Youngsters Take Shooting Honors

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 21. (AP)—Two youngsters in their teens helped furnish the fireworks in the grand American trapshooting program here yesterday.

O. B. Klehl, 14, of Pittsburgh, Kas., broke 98 out of 100 targets to take the sub-junior title for entrants under 15. Homer Clark Jr., 15, of Alton, Ill., broke 99 out of 100 to annex the junior championship for entrants under 18.

Bill Bryant, 14, of Henrietta, Okla., was second in the sub-junior list with 97 out of 100 while Stanley Meadows, 15, of Des Moines, Ia., was runner up in the junior race with 96 out of 100.

Sam Sharman of Salt Lake City, Utah, was elected president of the Amateur Trapshooting association. Vice presidents elected include R. A. King of Wichita Falls, Tex.

When the sun is blazing hot, your motor heat goes up, too!

To protect your motor, use Germ Processed Oil, which has 2 to 4 times greater film strength and is less affected by extreme motor heat!

YOUR MOTOR runs lots hotter in Summer. That's why you must have oil that maintains high film strength under extreme temperatures to get safe lubrication. Otherwise, the lubricating film ruptures and the bearings and cylinders suffer damaging wear.

Plain mineral oils have little film strength and oils over-refined by new cleansing methods have even less. As motor heat goes up, these oils rapidly lose film strength.

You'll get better motor protection with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. Timken machine tests prove that it has 2 to 4 times greater film strength than any plain mineral oil and that heat above 225° does not lessen this advantage.

More proof—supervised road tests were made in identical cars fitted with the new alloy metal bearings used in many 1935 cars. The bearings lubricated with a high-quality plain mineral oil showed 45% more wear than those lubricated with Conoco Germ Processed, the first alloyed oil.

You'll be certain your motor is safely lubricated even at high temperatures if you say "O. K.—Drain" and fill with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil—the oil with the "Hidden Quart" that stays up in your motor and never drains away.

Say "OK-Drain" — FILL WITH —

'Spec' Goldman Leads Golfers In Qualifying

DALLAS, Aug. 21. (AP)—Eight southwestern golfers were eligible today for competition in the National Amateur golf tournament slated next month at Cleveland. David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, runner-up to Lawson Little in the title play last year, took first honors with a 70-73-143, three over par, as nineteen players battled 36 holes over the Brook Hollow course here for the eight places allotted the southwest.

O'Hara Watts of Dallas, former southwest conference champion, was a stroke behind Goldman with a 73-71-144.

Reynolds Smith of Dallas, who was beaten by Goldman in the semifinals of the National last year, barely qualified with 79-73-152.

Other qualifiers: Ed White of Bonham, National Intercollegiate champion, 74-75-149.

Don Schumacher, Dallas, 75-72-147.

Edwin McClure, Shreveport, 77-71-148.

Leland Hamman, Paris, 1934 Trans-Mississippi title, 77-72-149.

Jimmie McGonagill, Dallas, 77-75-152.

Other scores: W. C. Francis, Jr., Paris, 79-77-156.

W. F. Drake, Jr., Austin, 77-77-154.

A. R. Maillets, Shreveport, 81-79-160.

YANKEES BELT SCHOOLBOY TO WIN 6-5 GAME

CLEVELAND IS PLAYING BETTER BASEBALL UNDER O'NEILL

BY ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer. The Cleveland Indians are playing a better brand of baseball since Steve O'Neill, their former coach, took over the managerial reins.

Prior to Steve's accession, their win percentage was less than 500, but since then they have been galloping along at a 667 clip, winning 12 games, losing six and tying one. They have won six of their last seven encounters.

They are about a half game behind the Chicago White Sox and the Boston Red Sox, which are in a virtual tie for third place.

The Indians capitalized on two fumbles and a wild throw in the opening stanza to defeat the Washington Senators 4-2 yesterday.

The Yankees made up in a measure for indignities they have suffered at the hands of Schoolboy Rowe by belting the big fellow off the mound in the third inning to defeat the Detroit Tigers 6-5. The Tigers now lead the Yanks by six games.

Ben Chapman got a homer for the Yanks in a first inning rally and Hank Greenberg got his 32nd of the season off Johnny Allen as the Tigers counted four times in the sixth.

The Browns poked their heads out of the cellar long enough to take the first game of a doubleheader from the Red Sox 8-5, then they lost the second 7-3 as three hurlers allowed 14 hits.

Little Jocko Conlan hit safely seven times in eight times at bat, twice for two bases, as the Chicago White Sox snared ahead of the Red Sox for third place by defeating the Athletics in both ends of a doubleheader, 13-4 and 11-4.

The Giants were forced to go 10 innings to gain a 6-5 verdict over the Cincinnati Reds. They went into the eighth with the score 4-1 and then Parmelee blew up the fourth straight game in which he had started as two runs crossed the plate.

Al Smith followed Parmelee to the club house when he gave up the tying run and Euel Moore was called to duty. Hubbell finished the game when Moore walked once in the ninth.

After the Reds had scored once in the tenth, Hank Leiber hit a homer and Jackson drove in Critz with the winning tally.

The Cardinals beat the Boston Braves 6-5 as Joe Medwick and Jack Rothrock each hit a homer with a man on base. Wally Berger scored one for the Braves.

The Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 2-0 as Jim Weaver outpitched Tom Zachary in a mound duel, each allowing five hits.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press.) John Conlan, White Sox, and Jimmie Foxx, Athletics: Conlan's seven hits accounted for six runs in double defeat of A's as Foxx hit two homers and drove in five of eight runs scored by Athletics.

Willis Hudlin, Indians: Held Senators in check with seven hits.

Julius Fellers, Browns, and Joe Conlin, Red Sox: Former hit singly, double and homer in first game, and single and triple in nightcap. Cronin drove in three runs with three hits in second game.

Joe Medwick and John Rothrock, Cards: Hit one homer each and drove in five of team's six runs against Braves.

Hank Leiber and Travis Jackson, Giants: Leiber's home run tied the score and Jackson's single brought in winning run in tenth in victory over Reds.

TEXAS LEAGUE LEADERS WIN CLOSE GAMES

DALLAS EXTENDS VICTORY STREAK TO HALF DOZEN

By The Associated Press. The Beaumont Exporters saved their Texas league lead last night by putting across four runs in the eighth inning to defeat San Antonio, 4 to 3, while the second place Oklahoma City Indians made four scores in the opening frame to beat Tulsa—also by a 4 to 3 score.

The Exporters were peaceful for seven innings. Then they rattled out five hits, including a double, for four runs in the eighth. George Mills held the Exporters to four hits, all harmless, until the eighth inning. Red Phillips allowed the Missions six hits, five of them in the second and third innings for three runs. Not a Mission registered a blow off Red in the last six frames.

Oklahoma City's Indians went to work in dead earnest in the opener and put across their four runs that sniped the game away. The Oilers battered Evans for nine hits while the Tribe made two errors, but the Oilers never could run in more than one tally in an inning.

The Dallas Steers finished sweeping a series and extended their winning streak to half a dozen in a row by whipping the Galveston Bucs, 5 to 3. Al Baker, who has won eight games in his last 10 starts, won his fifth contest in succession. A belated rally in the ninth after two were down gave the Hard a scare, but Baker, who bested Eddie Cole and Jack Jakucki, eased out of the hole.

Fort Worth lost another game and thereby took a firmer hold on the cellar position. The Houston Buffs walked away with a 12 to 9 victory to make a clean sweep of a two-game series. Henry Phippen went the route for the Buffs and Lee Griggs toiled for the Oilers.

NEGRO HOSPITAL ASKED WASHINGTON, Aug. 21. (AP)—The division of applications and information of the works progress administration had before it today an application of the University of Texas for a $12,500 grant for construction of a negro hospital at Galveston, Texas, as part of the John Sealy hospital plant. The public works administration said the application forwarded from its Port Worth office was approved, by its engineers and other officials.

HERE'S WHAT THE BOOTLEGGER WOULD SAY

...if he should run an ad urging you to vote "dry"

To All Youse Texans:

Youse had better get hep about wot's comin' up August twenty-four' or yez'll find yourselves in de mitts of de likker in-trusts. Here we has been workin' to keep de fair name of our great state unpolluted and dese outside chiselers jus' becos dey got a little Fed protection and de majority of de other states has got weak-kneed wants to come in here and legalize booze.

It's my honest opinion dat de time aint ripe for any such move. Der's sometin' brazen about de whole deal. De way tings is now—dese punks—my best customers—don't come out in de open wit' dere purchases. Dey're more refined and us dat's caterin' to dem like it dat way. Dey meets us in dark alleys and on side streets where a little romande can enter into de deal. Youse can't change kids. We got to look out for 'em. Why make it embarassin' for a kid to try to sneak somethin' by his folks.

Wit' competition as keen as it is now we got a price wot's right down to bed-rock. You let them politicians get in there chiselin' on taxes an' we'll see prices go up to where kids won't have a chance and only de well-to-do will be able to get consideration. If you vote wet think about de number of us guys you'll have on relief rolls. We aint in no condition to work—and even if a lot of us boys aint taken out papers yet we're plannin' to as soon as we get a little more laid by to where we won't never have to worry.

So I says "Nuts to dem politicians"—let's think of our kids and our great state and de workin' man. Go to de polls and vote "DRY". Dis is our state aint it—I'm takin' out my papers soon—why let dese outsiders try to run tings?

PLANE STRUCK LARAMIE PEAK IN BAD STORM

BRIDE, GROOM AMONG VICTIMS OF CRASH IN WYOMING

GLENDON, Wyo., Aug. 21. (AP)—A searching party descended a tortuous trail down rugged Laramie peak today bearing the remains of three occupants of a plane that "would have been safe a little bit higher."

There was an all-day journey from the spot near the 10,000-foot summit where crashed the open bi-plane piloted by Dick Arnett, 26, and in which his 23-year-old bride, a few weeks, Eleanor, and Burnside, 47, wealthy business man, were passengers. All were from Indianapolis.

Walter Highley, Denver aviator, and his party found the shattered ship, which had burned, and its gruesome burden late yesterday, after false reports had indicated earlier location of the wreckage.

Capt. George Smith of the Wyoming highway patrol, sent a crew of COC workers to a spot where a rancher had informed him he saw the ship, but they found nothing.

Max Ortiz, a sheep herder who saw the ship just before it disappeared in fog and crashed last Thursday, led the searchers on the side of the mountain.

The bodies of the two men were found in the wreckage, burned badly, but Mrs. Arnett had been thrown clear at impact. All seemingly died instantly.

Highley sent word by runners that "Arnett had enough altitude to miss anything but this solitary mountain."

"A tiny bit more clearance would have lifted the plane safely over the small spur where it crashed," he declared.

"From all indications Arnett ran into a bad storm around Glendo, apparently he tried to turn back toward Casper airport, for he was flying west, about 40 miles off his course, when he hit."

Arnett and his party were flying a "Laramie peak" in the center of a route which was intended to take them from Helena, Mont., to Denver, Colo. There was no immediate anxiety when they failed to arrive because they had told friends they might stop en route for fishing.

Laramie peak is the center of many western stories. It was known as "the guidepost of the desert" to the pioneers of covered wagon days.

Five years ago a "phantom horesman" rode about the crags of the 9-mile high mountain, with rider and steed clothed in black, terrifying the district for weeks.

An officer captured the rider, Charles Adams, then 20, after a pursuit of weeks, and was told the ghastly performance was to "scare little rustlers." Adams served a short jail term after being sentenced on a misdemeanor charge.

Rotary Governor Visits City Club

Urging an international mindedness for the future welfare of this country and the world, James M. Wilson of Floydada, district governor of the 41st district of Rotary International, delivered an inspirational address before the local Rotary club at its regular meeting today.

Mr. Wilson urged members to be helpers and not hinderers, to give more and try to get less, and to adopt a philosophy of life leading to greater usefulness to one's fellow man and community.

Visitors were J. C. Prejean, J. E. Murfee and R. E. Howard of Oklahoma City.

ALL OKLAHOMA TO PAY HONOR TO WILEY POST

Body To Lie In State At Three Places Before Burial

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 21. (AP)—Hundreds of sorrowing Oklahomans hoped for a last glimpse of Wiley Post today, as the funeral home in charge of the famous aviator's body announced the public would be permitted to file by the open casket from 8 to 10 a. m.

Plans approved by Post's widow and parents called for the formation of a funeral cortege at 11 a. m., to carry the simple casket and its contents to Maysville, Okla., Post's home town.

Until late afternoon the body will lie in state at the Landmark Missionary Baptist church. The plain southwestern farm folk who knew and loved Post as one of their own will gather at the bier to pay him homage.

They remember Wiley Post not as an international idol of the airways, but as a farm boy who loved the ways of the Oklahoma prairies and groves.

Post's parents, who said of their son's fatal crash that they had planned to spend four hours with the body in the Landmark church.

With the coming evening, the sorrowful procession will retrace the 60 miles to Oklahoma City.

The stone capitol of Oklahoma will have a double claim as the focus of the state tomorrow morning. From 10 a. m. until noon Post's casket will lie in the state in the rotunda of the big granite building.

Governor E. W. Marland and his staff will deliver a public tribute to the flier on the steps of the capitol.

Brief, simple funeral services are planned at the First Baptist church here at 1 p. m. tomorrow. Final burial will be placed in a crypt at Fairlawn cemetery, with the possibility that the family may accept the offer of the government for a place of honor in Arlington National cemetery, among the nation's great.

As the dauntless little aviator would have wished, his body was borne here late yesterday in a giant liner of the air.

As the ship's mighty wings touched the Oklahoma dust in a graceful landing, the longest aerial funeral flight in history came to an end.

In the cabin, though not at the controls, was Joe C. Robinson, modest Alaskan flier who brought the modes of America's favorite humorist and her foremost stratosphere adventurer from lonely Point Barrow to Seattle.

The ship's pilot the remainder of the way was Captain W. A. Winston, others in the party were Co-pilot J. L. Fleming, Radioman Tom W. Dowling, flight engineer, Tom Ward, and Clarence M. Young, Pacific coast manager of Pan-American Airways.

PAMPA TONES OF OUR CITY

On Road Mission George Briggs, B. C. D. manager, went to Panhandle, Amarillo, Borger, and Stinnett today in behalf of proposed hard-surfacing of highway 41—the "oil field" highway. He was to return late today.

On Vacation Trip Mr. and Mrs. Chas. I. Hughes are away on a two-week vacation trip. Their first stop was Durango, Colo. Mr. Hughes is secretary of the crop loan committee here.

Attended Hearing K. E. (Jack) Dunn and Alex Crowell of the railroad commission were en route back to Pampa today from a commission hearing in Austin. Mr. Dunn is the new deputy supervisor here.

Third Fire Alarm The Pampa fire department answered its third alarm of the month at 9 o'clock this morning when a call was received from the rear of 218 West Brown avenue. Firemen found the wall at the rear of a cook stove ablaze. The fire was easily extinguished with a loss of less than $10.

Car and Truck Crash A car and truck were damaged last night when they crashed on the highway a mile west of the city. Neither of the drivers was injured in the collision.

Personals Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McKernan have returned from a visit with relatives in New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duenkel and son, Junior, returned the first of the week from Kilgore, Fort Worth, and Dallas.

R. R. Kirkpatrick of Phillips transacted business here today. Joe Paxton was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday following a minor operation.

Dorothy Jean Gibson returned to her home at Phillips camp yesterday, having recovered from a major operation at Pampa-Jarratt hospital.

H. L. Polley and R. G. Hughes made a business trip to Amarillo and Borger today.

Miss Irene Brewer was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning following an appendectomy.

Mrs. J. B. Roberts and young son left Pampa-Jarratt hospital for their home in Kellerville on Monday.

W. R. Barrett made a business trip to Shamrock today.

Ralph Thomas and Clyde Caruth were in McLean on business yesterday.

Poor Children To Get Break Tomorrow Eve

Underprivileged children of the city will get a break tomorrow night at Road Runner park where the Pampa Pee-wees will play the Canadian All-Stars at 8:30 o'clock. The Kiwanis club is sponsoring the game, and the proceeds will be used by the club to make life easier for poor children. The Pee-wees themselves will benefit only to the extent of a few balls.

However, all they want out of the deal is a good crowd. They are selling tickets, and few are being turned down. Each member of the team will sell 25 tickets. The boys have played more than a score of games this season, before small crowds. They are hoping that a big bunch of fans will be out tomorrow night to see them flash their skill.

Double plays, spectacular catches, a dozen strike-outs—all in one game—are nothing unusual in a typical Pee-wee assault on the enemy. Most of the time the youngsters who are around 14 years old, field like veterans. They have some power at the plate too. For instance, today, having recovered from a major operation at Pampa-Jarratt hospital.

H. L. Polley and R. G. Hughes made a business trip to Amarillo and Borger today.

Mrs. W. C. Butcher and son left Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday. Miss Irene Brewer was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning following an appendectomy.

Mrs. J. B. Roberts and young son left Pampa-Jarratt hospital for their home in Kellerville on Monday.

W. R. Barrett made a business trip to Shamrock today.

It was learned today. Laval hopes, if the worst comes to the worst, that military action can be confined to Ethiopian disarmament and the policing of frontier strips.

He sent Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italy's representative at the abortive tripartite conference in Paris, back to Rome with a new idea of France's appreciation of Italy's friendship.

Aloisi carried Laval's hope that the Duce would take the middle course between conquest of Ethiopia and the British plan of concessions and thus avoid a break with France.

ROME, Aug. 21. (AP)—Cabinet members and other leaders of the fascist hierarchy awaited orders today for military duties in East Africa just as if they were privates in the regular army awaiting conscription call.

Party secretaries volunteered en masse for East African service. It was then revealed that cabinet members and undersecretaries would serve the military also, regardless of their present governmental duties.

This may be considered revolutionary in states where the custom has been to keep the directive forces at home, but fascism took the development as a matter of course.

Mussolini, who assigned his two sons and his son-in-law, Count Galeazzo Ciano, minister of the press, to serve the colors in East Africa, could do no less with men of military age whom he has brought into his official family.

Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink was born in 1861 at Lieben, near Praha.

Laval Negotiating PARIS, Aug. 21. (AP)—Premier Laval is negotiating with Premier Mussolini in an effort to limit war against Ethiopia, if he cannot prevent it.

There is little Grover Heiskell who leads the team in hitting. Some of their foes blame the Pee-wees' chatter for their—the opposition's—downfall. Young Doyle Auld behind the bat, a quiet, modest unassuming boy of the diamond, is as noisy as a radio turned on full sound, throughout the game. Many a youthful batter has been rattled to incompetency by Doyle's palaver.

Junior (Half-Pint) Buckingham is even more glib than Doyle, and some players have been known to quit the game in disgust after taking Half-Pint's razzing for an hour. Amos Reed, the Pee-wees star hurler will pitch the game.

The rest of the lineup will probably be as follows: Claude Heiskell 1b, Junior Buckingham 3b, Billy Morrow ss, Dale Mills 3b, Speedy Foster lf, Gleb Dull cf, and Grover Heiskell rf. Howard Buckingham is coach of the Pee-wees. Coach Busby of the Indians will permit the Pee-wees to wear the uniforms of his boys during the game.

Allred Files For Loan To Build Pipe Line To Detroit

$43,345,058 Asked To Provide Jobs For 20,920 Men

FORT WORTH, Aug. 21. (AP)—Jobs for thousands and utilization of the world's largest known natural gas reservoir were visualized today as Governor James V. Allred led in a movement to build a pipe line from the Texas Panhandle gas field to Detroit.

Application for a PWA loan and grant of $43,345,058 for the project, reckoned to provide employment for 20,920 men daily for 251,040 man-months, was filed yesterday with the Texas PWA office by Governor Allred. The application was said by engineers to be possibly the largest filed under the new PWA program.

Purposes of the pipe line, considered a self-liquidating project, as outlined in the application, were:

To provide a more profitable market for gas which was wasted into the air during the past year at the rate of more than a billion cubic feet daily after its gasoline content had been extracted; enable a reduction in the house heating rate at Detroit from approximately 10 cents per therm for manufactured gas to five cents per therm for natural gas; to create a large amount of employment in steel mills, compressors and manufacturing plants and in construction of the line.

A bill creating a Texas gas conservation corporation will be submitted to the Texas legislature at its next session, which is expected to be called soon after August 24, the application stated. Pending the creation of the corporation, the governor authorized the filing of the application.

"A veritable army of men now on relief rolls would be put into useful and gainful employment," Gov. Allred said of the project last April when he submitted a bill to the legislature to create a conservation corporation.

The Detroit Gas company would finance $15,000,000 of the conversion work which was not included in the application.

As it would be a self-liquidating project, the PWA would purchase bonds authorized and issued by the state of Texas to repay the loan.

Net revenue to the state during the first five years was estimated as follows: First year, $2,244,000; second, $3,536,000; third, $4,368,000; fourth, $5,233,000; fifth, $5,637,000.

Capacity of the line would be reached in the fifth year and each succeeding year the profit and maintenance costs would remain approximately the same, the application said.

The Panhandle gas field is 120 miles long and from five to 30 miles wide. It embraces 1,300,000 acres in Wheeler, Gray, Carson, Hutchinson, Potter, Moore, Oldham, and Hartley counties.

COURT RECORD

A visit by county officers at the Southern club Sunday night had its aftermath in justice court yesterday when one of ten persons named in misdemeanor gaming complaints was acquitted by a jury in Justice Todd's court. Another defendant pleaded guilty then changed his mind and appealed the case on advice of counsel. Warrants for eight other persons alleged to have been in the gaming room have been issued.

Felony complaints of keeping a gaming house were filed against J. White, Cal White, and C. M. Griffin. They made bonds of $1,500 each.

Spectators reported a stormy occasion, during which a pistol was
