Wiley Post, veteran of two around-the-world hops, one a solo, was one of the world's great pilots. This portrait shows the patched eye, an injury to which started him in aviation through money received as compensation after an accident. The injury never affected his flying skill.

Always during the long, breathtaking flights of Wiley Post, two sat on a little farm near Maysville, Okla., and waited silently for word of their boy. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Post, above.

Post was only a barnstormer and parachute jumper when he met Mae Laine in Texas in 1927. Through all his rise to fame as one of the great of the air world, his wife, Mae, above, was waiting for his return to the home landing field.

Gas-Oil Ratio For Panhandle Is Recommended

AGREEMENT ON TAX BILL REACHED

12,000 CUBIC FEET TO ONE BARREL URGED

ENGINEER ANNOUNCES HIS PLAN TO RAILROAD COMMISSION

AUSTIN, Aug. 20 (AP)—A gas-oil ratio of 12,000 cubic feet to one barrel of oil for the Panhandle field was recommended to the Railroad commission today by its chief engineer, Gordon Griffin. Griffin recommended the gas-oil ratio be made effective September 1. It would be invoked under the new gas conservation act and correlated with other efforts to prevent wasteful dissipation of the giant gas reservoir.

Griffin described the gas-oil ratio as a step toward arriving at a solution of the problem, and advised the commission to be lenient in its original restriction so operators could have an opportunity to equip their wells properly and the commission could study properly the situation.

POST'S BODY IS FLOWN BACK TO OKLAHOMA CITY

Aerial Hearse Passes Over Texas Panhandle

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20 (AP)—In the darkness of a huge transport plane, the body of Wiley Post began its last aerial voyage today, while thousands waited to pay final homage to Will Rogers, who met death with the aviator in a tragic Alaskan air crash.

The body of the famous humorist lay in a Glendale mortuary awaiting public and private funeral services Thursday, as the huge plane sped toward Oklahoma City where services for Post will be held.

Mrs. Bratton's Brother Killed In New Mexico

Burial was set for today in Roswell of C. C. Pritchard, well known cattle buyer and brother of Mrs. W. A. Bratton of Pampa, who was killed in an automobile accident late Saturday night.

Mayor and Mrs. Bratton are in Roswell, but are expected to return tonight. The accident was 15 miles east of Roswell. Besides Mr. Pritchard, those in the car were Harry Kitzelman, Charlie Shiner, and Dr. T. J. Pearson, all of Roswell. All were injured and Mr. Pritchard died from a crushed chest and other body bruises. The car struck a bridge rail after swerving while turning a sharp curve.

Mr. Pritchard's immediate survivors include a son, Richard, 24, Helen, 22, and Mary Alice, 19, besides the widow.

Twinkles
Just a month, almost to a day, until the football season opens, and despite the game's wide popularity nobody knows all the rules.

If the certainty of uncertainties indicates approach of the end of this world, any long-look for the new deal is wasted effort. But history records so many uncertain periods that we're a bit uncertain about the uncertainties.

Almost certain evidence that the new deal is beginning to get results is the fact that normally republican states are going back to normalcy.

A new telephone directory is out. Futility gestures—we'll need another one in two months!

Publisher Sam Braswell of Clarendon, having attained most of the honors which appealed to him in Texas, has moved to Longmont, Colo. Colorado will soon know it.

Musings of the moment: Public budgets are now being made. Concealed as a noble gesture toward more careful planning of public expenditures, the hearings have never been attended by the "interested public" and budgets have been amended about as public bodies desired. Why is a persistent fly more annoying on a warm night than on a cool one.

Brevitorials

THE TEXAS Junior chamber of commerce is urging everyone eligible to vote to express his opinions at the election of next Saturday. We heartily endorse the campaign. There are certainly enough issues to bring out the vote, but experience teaches that indifference is a characteristic of Texas voters.

TEXAS is fairly wet. It is legally dry. Shall it continue to be illegally damp, especially in the cities, or shall sale of liquor be legalized and subjected to some sort of control, as the legislature may devise? Shall the fee system be abolished? Shall ALL persons over 65 years of age be given pensions? These are among the seven propositions submitted to the people. It appears to us that defeat of every proposition is likely. This would not be regrettable if the people would vote their wishes and stand by them. A close division on such things as prohibition and old age pensions would breed discontent and lawlessness.

THE PRINCIPLE of old age pensions to those in desperate need is good. Adoption of social security measures by the federal government is a tremendous step toward a new philosophy in self-government. It will also result in a new philosophy of taxation. For certainly no state pension system can exist without a new and prolific tax source. We believe a sales tax is inevitable if the pension amendment is adopted. The aged would prefer to be taxed on something than not to be taxed on nothing. But the important thing is to vote so that public support may adhere to whatever is decided.

GARNER TO STOP IN JAPAN ON JUNKET TO ORIENT THIS FALL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—The Washington Post says Vice President Garner has disclosed plans to make a stop in Japan this fall while en route to the Philippines for the inauguration of the island's new government.

The paper says the plans for the visit are regarded as significant—possibly momentous—in future American-Japanese relations. Garner insisted the stop in Japan will be unofficial and informal, the paper asserts. "Japanese here asserted, however," the paper adds, "that should the vice president stop in their country the visit certainly will be made a formal occasion, especially since the vice president is understood to be the personal emissary of President Roosevelt on his journey to Manila."

Appreciation of Average Man

By BRUCE CATTON

THE average man is the favorite figure of cartoonists, editorial writers, statisticians and orating congressmen. Unfortunately, however, he does not seem to be the favorite of anyone else, and of late he has been getting it in the neck with dismaying and monotonous regularity.

Who is the average man, anyhow, in these days when all averages have failed? Well he is a hard-working American citizen who has somehow managed to keep his job, his farm, or his source of business all through the depression. He is the chap who buys the new autos and goes to the new movies and trudges hopefully off to the polls every so often to say who shall govern him.

He is the fellow who provides the retail stores with their patrons, the railroads and bus lines with their passengers, and the morticians with their clients. He is the wage-earner, the small-scale business and professional man, and the ultimate consumer all in one.

And he is the chap whose nose is fixed firmly against the grindstone ever since the bottom fell out of the stock market. Do the city fathers misgovern his town so flagrantly that real estate taxes go up, schools deteriorate, street paving goes to pieces and stick-up men roam the back alleys? The average man pays the taxes, sends his kids to the deteriorating schools (and provides the teachers with such pay as they are able to collect), rides on the bumpy streets and submits to the stick-up artists.

Does employment subside, so that

SCHOOL BUDGET FOR YEAR IS SET AT $241,580 BY BOARD

Supt. Fisher Scheduled To Arrive In New York On August 26 From Europe.

A typical budget hearing was held by the school board here yesterday afternoon—no taxpayers appeared. The board studied its budget for three hours and adopted a program calling for an expenditure of $241,580, compared with $248,892 spent during the preceding year. The budget by units follows: General control, $14,800. Instruction, $132,205. Plant operation, $13,800. Plant maintenance, $3,400. Auxiliary agents (transportation, library, health, etc.) $18,100. Fixed charges, $1,500. Capital outlay, $12,500. Debt service, $45,275. So much business confronted the board that many subject were not reached. These included the proposal for the schools to participate in a general study of tax assessments.

Another board session will be held soon. Supt. E. B. Fisher is in Europe on a study tour but is expected to reach New York about August 26.

The next budget session will be that of the county commissioners next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A tentative budget will be prepared by Judge C. E. Cary for discussion at that time. The public is invited to participate.

Roosevelt's Inheritance Tax Omitted

ESTATE, GIFT RATES ARE INCREASED IN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Another vital administration bill neared the White House today when the senate passed without a record vote the house bill to speed railroad reorganizations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Senate and house conference committee members today reached a final agreement on the $250,000,000 tax bill, leaving out the new inheritance levies proposed by President Roosevelt. Instead of the inheritance taxes, the bill agreed upon would increase the existing estate and gift tax rates.

The bill was summed up this way by Chairman Harrison (D, Miss.) of the conference committee: 1. Graduated corporation income taxes: 12 1/2 per cent on the first $2,000 of income, 13 per cent on income from $2,000-$15,000; 14 per cent on $15,000-$40,000; and 15 per cent on all over $40,000. 2. Capital stock tax: Increase from the present $1 per $100 to $1.40. 3. Excess profits: permit new declaration of capital value and then tax at a 6 per cent rate those profits between 10 and 15 per cent and tax at 12 per cent the profits over 15 per cent. 4. Individual income surtaxes: Start levies, as in the house bill, at a tax of 31 per cent on income from $50,000 to $56,000, increasing rate to a maximum of 75 per cent on the excess over $5,000,000.

Scouts Arrive At Lake George

Boy Scouts of the Adobe Walls council were in camp at Lake George, Colo., today.

Telegrams from Executive C. A. Clark to The NEWS show that the party arrived in Raton, N. M. at 2 p. m. yesterday on scheduled time, with "everything fine."

The boys will work and play for 10 days, advancing in Scout rank as a result. There are about 45 persons in camp, including adult leaders.

PANHANDLE SQUARE DANCE TO BE HELD HERE IN SEPTEMBER

The hundreds of people who seemingly could not get enough of square dancing in the 1934 and 1935 Pre-Centennials and Pioneer Roundups, and who have been wishing since then that square dances would be held more often here, will have an opportunity to attend another about the middle of September in the high school gymnasium—the scene of the highly successful square dances held in the last two Pioneer Roundups. The dance, an all-Panhandle affair, will be sponsored by the Treble Clef, the Junior Treble Clef and the Philharmonic music clubs, and proceeds will be used by them to finance a convention of the Panhandle music clubs of the seventh district of federated clubs in Pampa in October. THE ROGERS

The infectious, boyish and genuine smile that made Will Rogers popular not only among audiences of stage and screen and newspapers, but also endeared him to all who knew him as a gentle, kindly and lovable friend.

Devoted always to his family, Will Rogers' wife and children returned that devotion in full measure. At top is the prostrated Mrs. Rogers who was the humorist's constant companion. His two sons, Will Jr. and Jimmie, are shown at center, while below is daughter Mary, who inherits stage talent.

As a boy at Kemper Military academy, Will Rogers (top) showed traces of the humorous smile that later was to bring him to high in the theater. The lower picture—Will Rogers as he looked in the Follies of 1922.

EDITORIAL

ON "SAVING THE CONSTITUTION"

John Henry Kirby of Houston is chairman of a new "Southern Committee to Uphold the Constitution." A membership drive throughout the south has been launched.

Mr. Kirby writes that the purpose of the organization is to "resist raids upon the constitution" and to enlist democrats in a fight to perpetuate the dual form of government which it establishes.

Although we suspect that by "raids" Mr. Kirby means that Roosevelt security program as well as menaces to the form of government. But to be accurate we quote the declaration of principals which he sends:

"We stand for constitutional government, recognizing the sovereign rights of the states and the private rights of the citizen.

"We stand for that wise arrangement in the constitution by which the powers of government are divided into three branches, each independent of the other; the legislative, the executive and the judicial.

"We are for holding the congress to its constitutional responsibilities of making the laws.

"We are opposed to usurpation of power by public officials not specifically granted them under the constitution.

"We are for the levy and collection of such taxes only as are necessary to the purposes of government, economically administered.

"We stand for a government of laws under a written constitution as against a government of boards, bureaus, commissions and administrations, under which it is difficult to safeguard the public welfare.

"We oppose the use of public funds for the establishment of industrial enterprises to compete with private business.

"We stand for the representative form of government established in the constitution.

"We oppose the exercise of any power by either of the three coordinate branches of government not expressly granted in the constitution itself or reasonably to be inferred therefrom.

"We are opposed to the substitution of any form of government for the form provided for in the constitution unless such change is made through amendments to the constitution in the manner provided for in that instrument."

With most of these points we find ourselves in agreement. But we hold also that to protect the constitution it must be flexible enough to serve the people, to avoid revolution, to protect the underprivileged, to make it possible for states to have and to exercise the powers which modern complexities require.

The fight Texas has to control her oil industries shows that states rights have been jeopardized even under the existing federal constitution, and current history reveals that states are surrendering scores of rights rather than assume the responsibilities of caring for their needy and protecting their citizens.

The fight to save the constitution is a broader one than combating of "raids" upon it.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Aug. 16 (AP)—The inevitable speculation as to when the next special session of the legislature will be called has begun.

There are those who say special sessions generally have become a "rocket." Others maintain frequent sessions are necessary to keep up with the state's business.

Whatever the arguments for and against, they come frequently. There were four called sessions of the forty-third legislature in addition to the regular session of four months.

Each 30-days session cost between $75,000 and $100,000 or the quarter between $300,000 and $400,000. Virtually all of the money went to salaries of members and employees and costs of printing.

There has been one session of the forty-fourth legislature, the one that came in with Governor Alfred in January. It ran for about four months, adjourning May 11.

The capital wisecracks say knowingly, however, that it won't be long now, that the first called session of the forty-fourth will have to start early in September.

The one man who might know, Governor Alfred, hasn't committed himself definitely. Last spring when the regular session was curling up, he said there would not be another before September.

Despite prophecies to the contrary, he proved to be right. About the same time he said he was opposed in principle to special sessions.

More recently he said it appeared that if "some" of the amendments to the constitution coming up in August were adopted a special session might be necessary.

Should prohibition be repealed the legislature would be called on to enact an enabling law—for example, to define an open saloon, which the repeal amendment prohibits. The old-age pension amendment also might provide argument for those wanting a special session.

In any event the consensus among observers is that any persons who do not want the lawmakers setting up house again soon had better do some fast talking.

The fact the football season will be getting under way will not make the city unattractive.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The three big schools for lobbyists whose diplomas command the most respect are: The government service. The Democratic party. The Republican party.

Lobbying, politics, patronage and the practice of law here are all closely intertwined. Embryo lobbyists, prepared for their jobs at taxpayer expense on the federal payroll—in Congress or the executive branch, pour out of the federal service into private office buildings to sell their prestige and influence by practicing before the government of which they were recently a part. Their efforts seldom work to the advantage of taxpayers and consumers.

With every change of political control, a new batch of political lawyer-lobbyists sets up shop. National committeemen march into town, establish "law offices" and begin to charge all the traffic will bear to represent anyone who is after anything. Law partners of senators and other officials come to town with like purpose.

If you ever counted sheep in an attempt to fall asleep, you can envisage the rate at which Bureau of Internal Revenue attorneys—from general counsels on down—jump from the government into tax practice here.

Consider the celebrated local law firm of Covington, Burling, Rublee, Acheson and Shorb, which practices before all federal law courts, departments and commissions. Its members, able lawyers, doubtless would resent being called lobbyists. Yet they include:

Mr. Covington, an ex-congressman from Maryland. Mr. Burling, a former chief counsel of the U. S. Shipping Board. Mr. Rublee, a former member of the Federal Trade Commission. Mr. Acheson, a former undersecretary of the Treasury. Mr. John Marshall, a former assistant attorney general. (These men represent various big interests, such as the du Ponts, the Chemical Foundation, and the Van Sweringens.)

Many local law firms, in addition to the top-rankers, house mysterious "fixers" of nebulous status.

On many occasions it has been obvious that federal jobholders had either landed themselves on the federal payroll to do some inside lobbying or were feathering nests for themselves by being obsequious to certain interests. This happens in Republican or Democratic administrations, to the disgust—usually ineffectual—of liberals and progressives in both parties.

NRA was a paradise for such "inside lobbyists." It was jammed with officials who made it their business to put through codes highly agreeable to industries over the shrill protests of labor and consumer advisers.

AAA is still infested with representatives of processors and distributors camouflaged as servants of the public.

The Tariff Commission has a notorious history of being packed with lobbyists.

There are many honest officials who aren't unduly swayed by lobbyists. But some of them find life hard. More than one has lost his job because he wouldn't "play ball."

HARVESTER GRID TRAINING CAMP TO OPEN THURSDAY AT MEL DAVIS RANCH

COACHES WILL SELECT BOYS ON WEDNESDAY

PROBABLY 40 YOUTHS WILL BE TAKEN TO LEFORS CAMP

Thursday has been set for the opening of the Harvester football training camp on the Mel Davis ranch east of Lefors. Coach Odus Mitchell announced last night. Coach Mitchell and Assistant Coach J. C. Prejean hope to take 40 boys to camp.

Prospects who will make the trip will be selected at a meeting of the coaches and boys in the high school study hall at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Many of the boys will be meeting their new line coach for the first time. He arrived here from Texas Tech coaching school at Lubbock Sunday. Coach Prejean took the Shamrock Irishman to the Class B finals last season.

Closing date of camp has not been determined by the coaches. School will not open until September 9. It is believed that the boys will remain in training on the banks of the Red river until a few days before enrollment. Then they will return to Harvester field for the polishing touch before opening the season with Lawton, Okla. here on the night of September 20.

Only nine lettermen will return to the Harvesters this year. They will be Red Fanning, W. J. Brown, Bob Drake, and Chubby Stewart, backfield; George Nix, end; J. R. Green and Leon Noblitt, tackles; Philip Nolan and Earl Rice, guards.

A bunch of last season's Gordias is hoped to show plenty of ability this fall. Harvester prospects for a winning season are not particularly bright, however. The coaches will have their hands full teaching green material, which will leave it largely up to the boys themselves to make or break the Harvester team.

17 Players Are In Running For Tennis Crown

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20. (AP)—Seventeen champion players—including all the seeded stars—remained in the running today for the 13th annual public parks tennis title.

The uneven number was due to the interruption by darkness, of a first-round match yesterday between Milton Blefield of Detroit and Rowell Lee of Miami, Fla.

But Lee was leading 10-8, 6-2, 4-6, 3-2 when the match was halted and seemed assured of the right to meet Bernard Welsh of Washington, D. C. later today if he succeeded in taking the first set from Blefield.

The most interesting match of the day was promised between Arnold Simons, Louisville, Ky. star who has twice won the public parks title and William Hughes, the Tennessee state champion from Memphis.

Hughes defeated Simons the last time the two met, in the quarter-finals of the national clay courts championships in Memphis in 1930, but Simons is a much more polished player now.

Welsh, Simons and Hughes romped to straight set victories in opening engagements yesterday. Welsh defeated Richard Uble, Norwood, Ohio, star, 6-0, 6-4, 6-1; Simons routed Brent Baxter, Cleveland, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0; and Hughes swamped Felix McGivne, Galveston, Tex., 6-0, 6-1, 6-1.

903 GOLFERS TRY TO QUALIFY FOR NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

(By The Associated Press.) Amateur golfers numbering 903 sought today to qualify for the national championship. There were 176 places open.

The championship proper will be decided in Cleveland Sept. 9-14. Ten players qualified last week in the far west. Fifteen others, comprising ten former winners and five foreign entrants, are exempt from the 36-hole section tests on 26 courses today.

W. Lawson Little Jr., the defending champ, George T. Dunlap Jr., winner in 1933, and big Tony Torrance of England are among those automatically qualified. Johnny Goodman, who won the open two years ago, decided to take the test in the Omaha district with Rodney Bliss Jr. and Goddard's home town rival, and Jack Hoerner of Stanford university.

'New Max Baer' Is Training For 'Black Menace'

BY EDWARD J. NEIL, SPECLATOR, N. Y., Aug. 20. (AP)—If Joe Louis is in the house he might as well know the worst now just as well as later.

There is nothing wrong with Max Baer's hand and, if the truth of that great pugilistic mystery is to be known, there never was much wrong.

In an atmosphere so quiet that it is almost deafening, totally foreign to his former surroundings, Baer has been training here a week for his battle with the sensational negro, September 24.

He won't start boxing until Friday. He isn't going to box a dozen rounds a day as he did before losing his world heavyweight championship to Jimmy Braddock in a terrible exhibition in June.

He's going to box four rounds a day at the most, but he's going "all out" every second he has big gloves on.

The story of a "new Baer," a "new Joe Doakes," a "new anybody," is as old as fight ballyhoo itself.

Here in these same Adirondack mountains in the same cabin retreat where Baer is staying, up the same hills where Baer runs five miles every morning, on the same Lake Pleasant where Baer rows for an hour daily, a "new Gene Tunney" was born some seven years ago, prior to Gentleman Gene's second great duel with Jack Dempsey in Chicago in 1927.

Gene changed from a redoubtable to a happy warrior. Within another year he had retired from pugilism and all those pleasant contacts of the transformation period. He never has been back.

Baer at the moment is the most impressive Baer of all the daffy years. This curly-headed California giant has been rising to tremendous heights and plumping the deities of mediocrity, alternately and when least expected.

He seems to realize the seriousness of Louis and the closeness of oblivion.

"I'm not kidding myself," he said today. "I'm not going to miss. I'll fool everybody again, but in a different way from the night I lost to Braddock. I'll flatten the guy like I flattened Max Schmeling and Primo Carnera.

"I'll be the biggest guy in the fight game then. I'll have stopped the black menace. I'll get another shot at Braddock and I'll knock him out, too, the next time."

Baer weighs about 217 pounds. He has five weeks to get about 10 extra pounds from his waistline. He has been hitting the big bag with terrific power.

Doctors in Baltimore told him what to do for the only real injury he suffered, a bruised knuckle on his left hand. He wears a special pad over it in training.

He says he feels no pain no matter how hard he hits. He will go to New York Friday to let the New York State Athletic commission doctors decide whether the fists are in shape.

FAVORITES TO CLASH TONIGHT IN MAT MATCH

VAN BEBBER AND OTIS CLINGMAN TO TOP PROGRAM

Pampa wrestling fans will be placed in an embarrassing position tonight at Road Runner park when Jack Van Beber, of Phillips camp and a new favorite, meets Sailor Otis Clingman, one of Pampa fans' first loves, in the main event of Promoter G. B. Garrison's big wrestling card.

The opening gun of the evening will be fired at 8:30 o'clock when Pat Garrison, Pampa Irishman, tangles with Bob Cummings of San Antonio. The dope points to a fast, rough battle between the lanky Garrison and the stocky Cummings.

A semi-final, featuring a pair of main event maulers, will bring Clingman to the canvas with Jack Donnar of Chicago. Post halls from "down below" in the Argentine country. He is well named, being stocky, with a great neck and bulging muscles. Donnar has demonstrated his rough tactics before.

The Clingman-Van Beber match promises to be one of the fastest of the season and the one fans have been waiting to see. The two are about the same weight and fast for their size. Clingman will have the advantage in experience and scientific knowledge and tenacity. The Dutchman showed almost unbelievable staying ability when he took minutes to break punishing holds applied by Don Hill last week. Van Beber defeated the Californian in one of the greatest bouts of the year.

The veteran Clingman mixes strength, speed, and skill and an uncanny ability of doing the unexpected at the right time. He uses freak methods of breaking holds, many of them learned in a recent lengthy trip to Mexico.

Franklin Stefanski, newly crowned public link champion, competes in the New York district where a field of 133 seeks 23 places. Watts Gunn, Gene Homans, George Voigt, Dick Chapman, Willie Turnesa, and Tommy Goodwin are among the competitors.

In Detroit, Robert (Bobby) Jones, who eliminated the veteran Francis Outmet in the first round at Brookline, shoots for one of the places in his section.

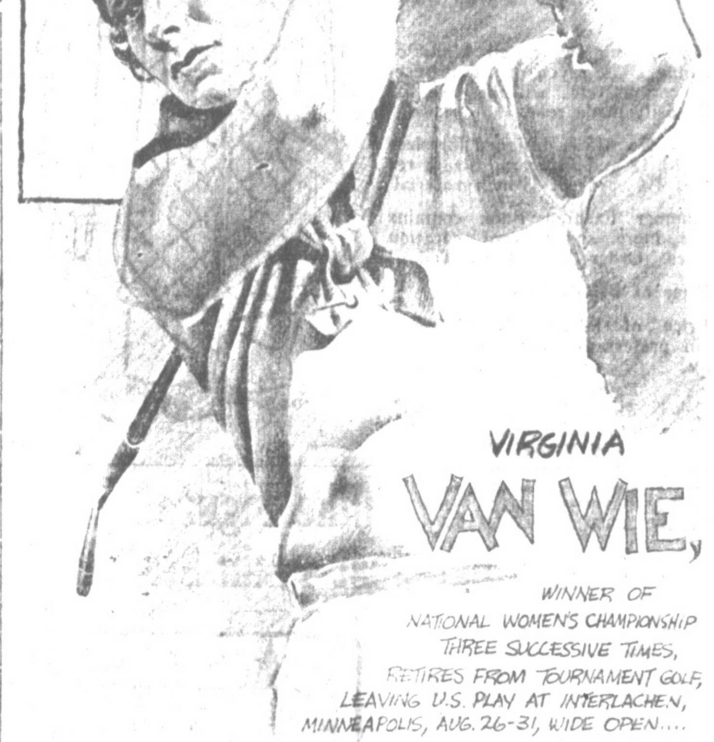

Women Score 29 Runs In Fifth

The Colted women's playground ball team scored 29 runs in the fifth inning of a game yesterday evening and were still going strong when darkness interfered and gave the team a 35 to 15 victory over the Stanolind Tigers. The Colted team is now ready to meet the Pampa girls or the Stanolind-Skeltytown team.

Huber jumps on Pampa for 8-6 victory

14 ERRORS MADE IN GAME BY BOTH TEAMS

BORGER, Aug. 20.—The Huber Carbon Blackfacs won over the Pampa Road Runners here last night, 8 to 6, in a game of errors. There were 14 miscues, eight by the winners and six by the losers.

Byron Chody, the speedball king of the Huber forces who accompanied the Road Runners to the Denver Post tournament, where he pitched sensationally, was on the mound for Huber. He allowed only eight hits, but, coupled with errors, gave up six runs. Bulla started for the Road Runners and got by nicely until the fourth inning, when the Blackfacs jumped on his offerings for five runs. Tiger Joe Berry finished the game, allowing two more runs in the seventh.

Pampa tried to score in the seventh with two men on base and one out, but the effort was futile when Huber pulled a fast double play third to second to first. The Road Runners rallied in the ninth, scoring two runs before the side was retired.

Moore, Huber's first baseman, was the hitter of the game, getting a home run and two doubles. Vic George and Dallas Patton of the Road Runners each hit for the circuit. George getting his in the fifth with Patton's coming in the eighth.

The next meeting of the two teams will probably be in the Pampa baseball tournament which opens on Friday night. Road Runners 101 010 012-6 8 6 Huber 001 500 208-8 8 8

Woman Smashes Shoot Records

VANDALIA, O., Aug. 20. (AP)—Mrs. Lela Hall, pretty housewife of East Lynn, Mo., grazed at new photographs of herself today.

Just before all the shooting started in the Grand American trapshoot yesterday she looked over the pictures taken by the official photographer several of herself she wanted.

"How much are they?" she asked. "One buck per each," was the answer.

"Wait—until I win some prize money and I'll be back," she replied.

Then she walked out to the traps, broke 198 out of 200 targets, the highest competitive score ever made by a woman, added an extra 25 in a tie to win the shoot off, and took the class B championship of America.

Out in East Lynn, Mo., Mrs. Hall and her husband operate a tourist camp and restaurant. He remained home while she came here to earn a bit of prize money.

DALLAS WINS 5TH STRAIGHT FROM PIRATES

OKLAHOMA CITY TAKES 3-2 BATTLE FROM TULSA NS

By The Associated Press. Mux Batcher of Galveston, leading hurler of the Texas league, was bested by Big Bill Shores of Dallas last night in a game which the Steers won 4 to 0. It extended the seventh place holders' winning streak to five straight games.

Shores pitched no-hit-no-run ball until two men were out in the sixth. Prerost and English then tapped him for singles in that inning and he gave up three more runs during the game. He fanned nine men. Butcher was tapped for nine hits.

Fred Tauby knocked in all the Dallas runs, smashing out a double in the third with the bases loaded for three scores and batting in another with a single in the fifth.

Beaumont ran rough-shod over Shores to win the opener of a twin-bill, 6 to 0, but the Missions came back to take the second game, 5 to 4. Beaumont left but two runners stranded in the opener, smacking out timely blows and outwitting the Missions. The Exporters continued the heavy hitting in the after-piece but Wilts and Miller managed to hold them in the pinches.

Mike Cvensgrov shoved his south-paw assortment past the Fort Worth Cats to give the Houston Buffs a 5 to 2 count. He limited the Panthers to six hits and was getting better when the game ended. Frank Coleman, Cat hurler, was touched for nine hits.

Oklahoma City's Indians won 3 to 2 over Tulsa in a bitterly fought game. Eddie Marlowe baffled the Oilers. Three times he drove them back from the plate after the first batter up in the inning had reached base.

Phillips Clubs And Black Cats Due To Enter

The going in the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament, beginning Friday night, is expected to be tough. Last year it was a battle to the finish, with the Damager Road Runners of Pampa defeating the Phillips 66 Oilers of Borger in an extra game.

Both teams will be back this year, stronger than ever. They will not be the only ones that have ambitions to take the big first money. Colted of Lefors, losers of the third money by the Huber Blackfacs of Borger last year, is ready to go the limit to get revenge. A controversy between those two teams developed recently when Huber signed the Coltex shortstop.

Amarillo sent two teams to the tournament last year. This time only one will come. It will be the team that has been playing under the colors of the Shamrock Oil company. Several new players are being signed by the Amarillo club.

The Two-I league will furnish a team composed of players selected after a series of games. A sensation was dropped on the baseball situation yesterday when the Coltex carbon Black Cats of Lefors asked for an application blank to enter under their own colors.

Coltex's announcement was followed by a report that the Phillips team in the south Pampa field was adding strength and, before the deadline arrived, a second Phillips aggregation might be on the dotted line. It would bring the number of Panhandle teams to eight.

Out-of-the-Panhandle aggregations looking longingly to the tournament opening, have been doing an about-face because of local strength. The tournament committee, headed by A. J. Johnson, has been working overtime answering inquiries about the teams already entered.

Teams hanging back until the last night to enter may find themselves minus an opponent. In order to start the tournament on the date set, and end it on Labor Day, it may be necessary to limit the list of entries to 12 teams. The first 12 to enter will be accepted. If their roster meets tournament rules.

A rumor started in Borger last week was spiked effectively by the tournament committee yesterday when it was definitely stated that no team would be admitted with a negro in the lineup. Someone started the report that one or two teams had secured negro stars to play for them.

The first ball of the big event will be thrown at 8:30 o'clock on Friday night when two strong teams will play. A committee to capture Mayor W. A. Bratton and hold him until after the first ball has been pitched was appointed by President H. L. Polley of the Jaycees today. On the last two occasions the mayor was to throw the opening ball, he was absent unavoidably.

NEGROES ELIMINATED WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 20. (AP)—The Arkansas City semi-pro baseball team eliminated the San Angelo, negro Shepherders from the National Baseball tournament here last night with a 11-7 victory. It was the Shepherders' second loss.

TRI-STATE FAIR TO BE BIGGEST EXHIBITION IN TEXAS IN 1935

AMARILLO, Aug. 20.—When the Tri-State fair opens Saturday, Sept. 14, it will be the largest exposition in Texas. For several years the fair has ranked second only to the World's Fair, which this year was postponed on account of the Texas Centennial. Long ago the Tri-State fair became more than its name implies. Primarily it serves the Panhandle-Plains of Texas, parts of New Mexico and Oklahoma. But the exposition is recognized by major circuits and exhibitors are attracted from many other states. Foremost breeders of livestock enter herds each year for Tri-State fair prizes. Some of these herds come from Oregon, Washington, Illinois, and other distant states. The Hereford show of last year was the third largest in the United States. The fair association, headed by Wilbur C. Hawk for the second consecutive year since 1931, offers and guarantees payment in full of more than $15,000 in cash premiums for exhibits. In addition to livestock, agriculture, art and industry will have complete entries. The 1935 exposition will continue to and including Saturday, September 21.

FRIENDS WILL BID FAREWELL TO MRS. CARR

Music, Church, Club Groups to Join In Reception

Friends of Mrs. May Foreman Carr from musical, church, and club groups will honor her Monday evening, when she will be presented in a piano and organ recital at First Methodist church, followed by a reception in the church basement. Mrs. Carr is to leave soon for Pulaski, Tenn., to head the music department in a girls' college. She has been a leader in musical circles here for the past few years, and has served as First Methodist organist. The recital will begin at 8 o'clock. Women of the Methodist Missionary Society will be hostesses for the informal reception afterward. All friends of Mrs. Carr are invited for this event to hear her program and bid her good-bye.

Laval Daughter And Spouse Are U. S. Citizens

PARIS, Aug. 20.—Mlle. Jose Laval, daughter of the premier, was married to Count Rene Adalbert de Chambrun in a civil ceremony Monday, and by that action became a citizen of the United States. The ceremony was performed in the 16th ward city hall, guarded by two lines of police who held the public back while the 100 invited guests entered. The religious ceremony will be celebrated tomorrow in the little church of Sainte Clothilde. Count de Chambrun, a nephew of the late Speaker Nicholas Longworth, holds not only French but American citizenship under an old United States law which confers that honor upon all descendants of General Lafayette, of whom he is one. Under the French law, a wife follows her husband's citizenship so that, consequently, both new are citizens of two countries.

Young People Plan Picnic For Class

CANADIAN, Aug. 20.—Judge and Mrs. E. J. Pickens and family have returned from a vacation at Eagle Nest, N. M. They now have as their guests Mrs. Pickens, mother, Mrs. C. P. Collins, and her daughter, Mary, of Dallas.

Carl Stone, Eva Mae Rockwell, and Cecil Lowden of Pampa visited here Saturday.

B. M. Buckman, son-in-law of W. G. Clark, died Monday morning here.

Miss Coralee Tandy of Notla was the guest Sunday of Miss Gracie Pearl Gilbert.

fair territory send large delegations and bands to the exposition. General admission is free and all exhibits are open to the public. Entertainment features this year will be varied enough to suit every amusement taste. Fairs are educational, but men, women and children go to have a good time, too, and so the fair management has made arrangements for two daily circus performances, for the largest midway attraction in the United States, for daily horse racing with legalized wagering and for many other entertainment enterprises. The Bailey Bros. and Harley Sadler three-ring circus, purchased just recently by the well known West Texas, will stage a mile long street parade every other day during the fair. The Beckmann & Gerey shows will come to Amarillo direct from Detroit for the midway engagement. Mason King, racing director, reports more and better entries for the fall race meet, which starts Friday, September 13—one day before the fair. O. L. Taylor again this year is secretary-manager of the fair. The 1935 exposition will continue to and including Saturday, September 21.

Sister Mary's Kitchen BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Writer. This is the lush season—all the best vegetables in the plentiful prime. Sweet potatoes, for instance, which you ought to use often because they are such a splendid food on so many counts. Being a yellow vegetable, they are an excellent source of vitamin A, essential for growth and the building of new tissues. They contribute lots of calories, and that is important. Maybe you don't realize what food scientists are worrying about—that many growing boys and girls who have plenty of vitamins and minerals in their daily diets are still short on the calories.

Remember when you buy sweet potatoes, that unlike their Irish cousins, they are susceptible to temperature and dampness and spoil quickly. Calculate your needs and buy in comparatively small quantities to avoid waste. Southern cooks are most adept at cooking sweet potatoes. They even make light rolls, using sweet potatoes for yeast. Adding egg yolks to the dough produces golden yellow rolls of superior texture for an autumn luncheon.

For twice-baked sweet potatoes scrub potatoes well and bake until tender. Then cut in halves lengthwise and scoop out pulp. Mash and season with salt and pepper, lots of butter and cream to make moist.

Beat until light and fluffy. Add chopped nuts if you like and if there are no children at the table one or two tablespoons Sherry. Pile mixture lightly in the shells and brush over with melted butter. Return to the oven to let top brown.

Scalloped sweet potatoes and apples are delicious with pork in any fashion. Roast pork, baked pork chops, broiled ham or baked ham all have an affinity for both sweet potatoes and apples.

Scalloped Sweet Potatoes and Apples. Butter a baking dish and put in a layer of sweet potatoes which have been boiled and peeled and cut in slices. Sprinkle with salt and pepper and dot with butter. Add a layer of pared and sliced apples and sprinkle with sugar and dots of butter. Continue layer until dish is two-thirds full, making the last layer of apples. Pour over one-half cup water and bake in a slow oven for one hour. Sprinkle scalloped sweet potatoes and apples with a slice of ham baked in milk. The meat is cooked at the same temperature and for the same length of time, enabling you to make full use of the oven.

Wini Explains Sylphlike Figure —“Starving—Just Plain Starving”

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 20.—Unreel parade: Wini Shaw, singing soon-to-be star, reduced from 150 pounds to 121 to be the sylph she is today. And how did she do it? “Starving!” she says unmythically. “Lettuce, celery, cabbage—plain starving!”

Part Hawaiian by descent—her mother Hawaiian-English, her father Hawaiian-Irish—Wini never has visited the islands. She was born in San Francisco. Rainer To Do Anna Held. It looks like Louise Rainer for the role of Anna Held in “The Great Ziegfeld,” which is actually, after all these months, to become a picture, even if not immediately.

Johnnie Weissmuller, who vocally has had to do little more than grunt at intervals as “Tarzan,” has been taking dramatic lessons and his speaking voice has been lowered now to a pitch where he can “really read lines.” So his current “Tarzan Returns” may be his farewell to Tarzan, and—unless his coach is too optimistic—there will be an actor there.

Alice Brady, in her role in Lawrence Tibbett's “Metropolitan,” has dusted off a singing voice she stored away some years ago. She was a singing actress until she turned to drama—a forte the movies apparently forgot as most of her screen work has been in comedy. In “Metropolitan” she plays a comedy singer who is more ambitious than musical.

Do Nothing. Scenery-chewing preventive for actor's big emotional scenes, as relayed by Donald Woods: “I think it was Guy Bates Post who once told me, ‘In a scene of great emotional stress, what should you do? Do nothing.’ The emotional shock, if great, keeps you from doing anything.”

Joe E. Brown bought another race horse on his trip east, making two in the stable. In “Tale of Two Cities” one of the French aristocrats is played by Tom Ricketts, who as a pioneer movie director, made the first Dickens picture, “A Christmas Carol.” . . . that was about 1907 . . . seven years later he was directing in “Damaged Goods” practically the whole Bennett family, Richard, Constance, and Barbara.

Will Rogers, who was not a preview fan, was on hand for the showing of “Alice Adams,” the new and well-liked Katharine Hepburn picture. . . . And the reason he came, of course, was Fred Stone, whose first film it is. . . . Friend Will chuckled at Friend Fred, sitting beside him in the audience, which seemed to agree that a “new star” had been uncovered.

JANE ADDAMS' WISH FULFILLED IN NEW HULL HOUSE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Selection of Adena Miller Rich as president of Hull House marked the fulfillment of the desire of Jane Addams, founder and for 55 years president of the famous Chicago welfare organization.

Two years ago Miss Addams, co-winner of the Nobel peace prize in 1931 and the “first citizen of Chicago,” lay ill in John Hopkins hospital, Baltimore. She called her friends to her. Mrs. Rich was one. And to them she said that in the event of her death she hoped that Mrs. Rich would be chosen to carry on the leadership of the famous settlement house.

Decided Unanimously. Meeting shortly after Miss Addams' death on May 21 of this year, trustees and residents of the unit decided unanimously that Mrs. Rich—wife of a Chicago stock broker—should be given the post.

The story was told by Clarence E. Carter, Washington social worker and officer in the Hull House organization. Carter directed the Jane Addams memorial fund drive. A graduate of Oberlin college, Mrs. Rich did graduate work at the University of Chicago, the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy and the New York School of Social Work. For years she has been a teacher and writer on social welfare subjects.

Handled Addams Correspondence. Since going to Hull House 20 years ago, she had served as director of young people's clubs, representative of Hull House at numerous conferences and specialized in the orientation of foreign born. For years she handled much of Miss Addams' correspondence. Her husband, Kenneth P. Rich, is a partner in the firm of Morrill, Rich and Wilson, Chicago. The couple resides at Hull House.

Health Is Good. Pampa's health is rather good at the moment. There is a marked absence of contagious diseases this summer, city records disclose. One case of typhoid fever, involving a traveling man, was quarantined, and there was one instance of scarlet fever. No lasting effects of the dust storms have been noticeable.

Truck Is Stolen. A 1935 Ford V-8 truck was reported stolen from the I. T. I. O. company 3 miles west of Pampa last night. The company number was 1131, license number 8798 and motor number 138546. Officers of the sheriff's department were investigating the theft today.

Fire Alarm. A garage in the Talley addition was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon. The fire department answered an alarm and with water from the booster tank kept nearby buildings from igniting. It was impossible to string a line of hose because of the distance from a water hydrant. The garage was located at 401 Nalda street and owned by C. C. McMillan. Loss to building and contents was estimated at $75 by Chief Clyde Gold. The building caught from gasoline being burned in the garage. A barrel of gasoline in the garage exploded. No one was injured although flames shot high in the air.

Personal. Mrs. Ona J. Bule and son, Billy, have returned to their home at Stamford after a six-week visit with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Peters. Miss Sue Vinson, society editor of The NEWS, returned last evening from a week's vacation spent with her parents in Childress. Miss Betty Hancock is spending a week in Denver. She is employed in the county tax collector's office here.

Miss Grace Kite is among the Pampa girls who have reserved quarters at G. I. A. for next term. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Baer and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baer of Clay Center, Kan., are visiting in Carlsbad, N. M. Mrs. E. W. Voss, Mrs. Jimmie Wheeler and Mrs. E. A. Hampton were Amalito visitors today.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that a public hearing on the Gray County budget for the year 1936 will be held in the County Court Room at the Court House at 2 p. m., August 26, 1935. C. E. CARY, County Judge.

SCHOOL BAND MEMBERS ARE TO MEET SOON

PARENTS ARE URGED TO ATTEND FRIDAY SESSION

Walter Hurst, Baker school band director, has issued a call to all band members who will be in Baker this year to meet him Friday evening at 7 o'clock in the bandroom of the school. Parents are urged to attend, since matters pertaining to rail trips and uniforms will be discussed.

Mr. Hurst especially urges all parents to be there if they are entering their children in the band for the first time this year. He will discuss the instruments which the band needs and arrangements for handling beginners classes during the year.

Many members needed in the senior band will be missing this year. Beginners on such instruments will be pushed in their practice so they can be ready for the first long trip in November.

BIG SHARE OF FOR PROGRAM NOT ENACTED

PRESIDENT HAS MET ONLY ONE COMPLETE DEFEAT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—A large share of President Roosevelt's legislative program still awaits final action as congress points toward adjournment.

The record of activities on Capitol Hill shows that four major measures backed by the administration in prosecuting its social, economic or relief program have received final congressional approval since the session began last January.

They were:

The $4,880,000,000 work-relief bill.

The social security bill, embracing unemployment insurance, old age pensions and aids to child welfare.

The Wagner labor disputes bill, setting up a board to supervise collective bargaining matters.

The amendments to broaden and bolster the authority of the agricultural adjustment administration.

The 1935 bank reform bill, representing a compromise between administration officials who believe control of money and credit should be centralized in Washington and senators who think along more conservative lines, received final congressional approval yesterday.

Left for action in one congressional stage or another are these parts of the Roosevelt program:

The $250,000,000 tax bill—in conference between senate and house to straighten out differences.

The Guffey bill setting up a "little NRA" for the coal industry—in senate after passing house.

HEAD OF LEGION CAUSES MURALS TO BE REMOVED

Says They Are 'Red' And Inspired By Rivera

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 20. (AP)—Mural paintings by CWA artists decorated the walls of the municipal auditorium two years before their alleged communist influence fired members of the American Legion post and were ordered removed by Mayor C. K. Quin.

The paintings had attracted scant attention until yesterday when Herman C. Nami, commander of the Legion post, noticed them for the first time and decided they "fostered doctrines inimical to the country's institutions." He reported to the Legion central council and a protest, which led the mayor to order removal of the murals, was drawn up.

Declaring the paintings were instruments "bearing insignia and symbols of a sinister nature," Nami said:

"The whole thing indicates that the communist influence has penetrated to San Antonio from New York, where that Mexican, Rivera, did that mural for Radio City. Rockefeller had that taken down and we ought to have this one removed."

He was referring to Diego Rivera, noted artist.

The paintings were by Xavier Gonzales, an American of Mexican descent, who is teaching in summer school at Sul Ross State Teachers college at Alpine, Texas.

Nami said one of the panels which symbolized modern industry contained a clinched fist which "he had been told was the communistic salute." He also objected to what he described as a large "S" superimposed to give the effect of the dollar sign, which he "was sure was some sort of objectionable reference to the capitalistic system."

He also charged that an outstretched hand with the palm pierced twice in a panel which apparently depicted the horrors of war was the insignia of some socialist organization.

Mayor Quin, who campaigned against Communist Party Murrer last year on a 100 per cent American platform, centered his attack on the claim that Murrer was a communist, said that "now that he thought of it," he has received several complaints and would have the panels removed. He said they would be returned to the government.

The legislation to regulate or abolish public utility holding companies—in conference.

The amendments to broaden the Tennessee valley authority's scope—in conference.

The bill to create an alcohol control commission—in conference.

The bill to prevent law suits against the government growing out of its gold clause policy.

Thus far in the session, Roosevelt forces have suffered only one complete defeat. That was in the senate's rejection of a resolution for adherence to the world court.

On the other hand, they achieved a victory when the senate sustained the president's veto of the Patman bill to pay the soldiers' bonus immediately. Previously the house over-ruled the veto.

AVERAGE MAN

some former workers are supported by relatives, others are carried by the community chest and still more are taken care of by Uncle Sam.

Mr. Average Man plays the triple part of kindly relative, community chest contributor and federal taxpayer.

Do mismanaged banks fail and utility empires collapse? Mr. Average Man has his savings in the banks and his investments in the utility stocks; and he also pays light and phone bills which financial phrenology has caused to be higher than is necessary.

Does the federal government invest millions in an experiment with publicly-owned utilities? Then Mr. Average Man puts up that dough also.

Do strikes break out in the home town? The average man stands right in the middle of the trouble. If the men strike, his wife takes the over breaks; if power men strike, the average man burns oil lamps and candles; if it is the filling station man who walks out, the average man does without gas for his car.

At times he runs the chance of slipping a brick or a policeman's nightstick that was meant for somebody else.

It is the average man who supports the army and navy and furnishes them with the needed recruits; the average man who pays the real estate tax, the income tax, the sales tax, and all the hundred and one indirect taxes which keep the wheels turning. He gets it going and coming and in between, and all the time he keeps his mouth shut and hopes for the best.

But if he ever decides that he has had enough of all this, and really gets up on his hind legs to squawk about it—then let politicians of all parties, persuasions and colors hunt for the nearest storm cellar!

LACK OF PILOT CONTROLS IS BLAMED IN LOCAL AIR CRASH

Named to Direct Alaskan Project

A statement of the probable cause concerning the accident in which Tommy Keenan and Pat Loving were killed has been released by the department of commerce, bureau of air commerce at Washington. A copy of the report received here yesterday, follows:

To the Secretary of Commerce:

On June 20, 1935 at about 6:00 p. m. near Pampa, Texas, a privately owned airplane crashed with resultant death to the pilot and one passenger and the complete destruction of the aircraft.

The plane, a Monocoupe, model 113, was flying in violation of the Air Commerce regulations. About a week previous to this flight, a Department of Commerce inspector had grounded the plane as unairworthy. The pilot, Thomas M. Keenan, holder of a Department of Commerce transport pilot's license, was killed in the accident. The passenger was Pat H. Loving of Wellington, Texas.

It was learned from investigation that this was a demonstration flight and Mr. Loving sat at the controls on the pilot's side of the plane. The dual control stick was not installed in front of the seat in which the pilot sat, therefore, the amount of assistance the pilot could render in case of an emergency is questionable.

The plane took off and flew to a point about two miles from the airport. It was then observed to suddenly nose down and start to turn into the wind. While half-way through this turn the nose of the plane suddenly went very high and the plane was observed to climb backwards toward the ground. At about 100 feet from the ground the nose of the plane whipped down into a vertical dive from which recovery was not made.

Witnesses were too far from the plane to tell whether or not the engine stopped but all agree as to the maneuvers which the plane went through. There is nothing in the records of the Department of Commerce to indicate that Loving had ever had any piloting experience. Nothing was brought out in the investigation to indicate that the unairworthy condition of the plane was responsible for the accident although it could have played some part.

It is the opinion of the Accident Board that the probable cause of this accident was carelessness and negligence on the part of the pilot for allowing a passenger to sit at the controls of the airplane without attaching the dual control stick which would have enabled him to have taken over control of the plane when difficulties were first experienced.

Respectfully submitted,
EUGENE L. VIDAL,
Director of Air Commerce.

NINTH PLAINVIEW DAIRY SHOW WILL BE PLANNED BY BACKERS

PLAINVIEW, Aug. 20.—Directors of the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show and many county agricultural agents will gather in Plainview Friday afternoon, August 30, for the purpose of deciding on dates, committees, educational programs, and making general plans for the ninth annual dairy show. The meeting will be held in the chamber of commerce and President H. B. Hales of Amarillo will preside.

An executive committee to handle details of the 1936 show will be named, and superintendents of the various departments will be selected at the Plainview meeting. Possibilities of other entertainment features will be discussed. The meeting begins at 1 o'clock and will be dismissed in sufficient time for all those who desire to do so to attend the meeting of the ex-students of A. & M. college in the evening.

BANK BILL IS TRIUMPH FOR CARTER GLASS

IS MORE CONSERVATIVE THAN LIBERAL IN LARGE PART

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—Prompt presidential approval of the 1935 banking bill vesting the federal reserve board with new powers over the nation's credit barometer was forecast today by its congressional supporters.

With no debate or roll calls, the conference report on the measure, comprising differences between the senate and house, slid through both chambers yesterday and the legislation was sent to the White House.

The speedy completion of congressional action contrasted sharply with the rough voyage encountered by the bill soon after it was introduced on June 12, 1935. It was delayed in committee and buffeted in floor debate, as finally enacted, it represented a compromise. In large part it represented the more conservative measure piloted through the senate by Senator Glass (D. Va.).

Under the provisions of the measure, control of credit would be placed in a reorganized seven-man reserve board which, with five regional reserve bank representatives, would serve as an open market committee. Should it be necessary to contract or expand credit resources, the committee could order the 12 reserve banks to buy or sell government bonds in the open market.

The bill also makes permanent the temporary law insuring bank deposits up to $5,000 and slightly liberalizes reserve bank loans and member bank loans on real estate. In addition, it gives the reserve board new powers over rediscount rates and reserve requirements as further checks on extreme cycles of inflation and deflation.

Other provisions:

The present reserve board of six members would be reorganized into a seven-man board, effective Feb. 1, 1936. The secretary of the treasury and the comptroller of the currency would be removed as ex-officio members.

The president would appoint a board chairman and vice chairman from among the seven members to serve for four years. Board members would serve 14 years, with salaries increased from $12,000 to $15,000. All members would have the title of "governor," whereas now there is only one.

Titles of the heads of the reserve banks would be changed from "governor" to "president." They would be picked for five-year terms by the bank boards, subject to reserve board approval.

Congress Moves Quickly As Major Bills Are Approved

Definite Strategy Is Adopted; Adjournment Seems Near

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20. (AP)—Watching warily to avert any filibuster threats, democratic leaders in congress today strove to maintain a furious pace which they now hope may end in adjournment as early as Thursday night.

Moving so fast that on one occasion the senate was ready to vote on a bill before the measure got to it, congress yesterday gave final approval to the 1935 omnibus banking bill and a railroad pension measure.

The house gave its final "O. K." to a $614,000,000 rivers and harbors bill, and passed the Guffey bituminous coal control bill, which came up for debate in the senate today. That chamber approved yesterday a three-year Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage bill and shot it across to the house.

Tax Bill Delayed

Leaders evidently had adopted a definite strategy in efforts to obtain quick decisions on the whole administration "must" list. For one thing they were believed to be postponing final action on the new $250,000,000 tax bill until the last minute, in the apparent belief that congress may stampede for home as soon as that is over. They want the other decisions made beforehand.

They also are delaying the introduction of a resolution fixing a definite date for adjournment. If such a date were fixed with a pile of legislation pending, it might be possible for a group to filibuster long enough to block some bill the administration wants.

With the exception of the Guffey coal bill, a third deficiency appropriation bill which has not yet been introduced, and a railroad reorganization bill, most of the major items slated for action this session have gone through both houses, though several are still tied up in senate-house conference.

The tax bill, which the two houses passed in different form after President Roosevelt demanded levies for "distribution of wealth," was discussed again last night by senate-house conferees seeking a compromise. Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) announced that a complete agreement was likely today. There had been a "meeting of minds" on some points, he said.

Borah Amendments Opposed

This conference committee listened in a long session to T. J. Coolidge, undersecretary of the treasury, and Herman Oliphant, counsel to Secretary Morgenthau. It was reported the two officials voiced objections to the Borah amendment applying income taxes to future issues of government securities and the McCarran amendment restoring a free market for silver in the United States.

Earlier Morgenthau had expressed opposition to the Borah amendment on the ground that it would hamper the large financing operations of the government.

"As long as the states and municipalities have the privilege of issuing tax exempt securities," he told reporters, "I shall insist on the government having the same right."

Another major difference which the conferees must compose is the house's new inheritance taxes as opposed to the senate's decision to forego such levies and increase present estate taxes.

Among bills already through both houses and awaiting agreement in conference are:

The utilities bill, deadlocked because of a furious fight over the senate's provision for compulsory dissolution of certain utility holding companies. Predictions were heard that today's developments might

Machinery Too Slow

The bill for a new system of liquor control, which conferees debated again last night, without result.

Tennessee Valley amendments broadening the agency's power. Senator Norris (R-Mo.), head of the senate conferees, said he hoped for an agreement today.

A bill to prohibit damage suits in the wake of the new deal's gold policy.

At one point yesterday, congressional machinery proved too slow for impatient legislators. In the senate, a vote on the railroad pension legislation designed to replace a law ruled out by the supreme court was suggested.

Senator Robinson (D-Ark.) said the house had just finished passing such a bill and "it ought to be here any minute now." When the messenger arrived with it, it sped through the senate, 76 to 3.

LET'S talk calmly and sensibly about this liquor question. It seems reasonable and fair to say that great numbers of our people are going to continue drinking whether or not we decide to let them do it legally.

The entire experience of the United States in the past fifteen years proves that. Every Texas citizen, if he is aware of what is going on around him, sees that people are drinking now; they have been drinking all through national prohibition. It's only common sense to admit that those who wish to drink will continue to do so.

If that is true, we people here in Texas are faced with two choices

1. We can go on kidding ourselves that we are a "dry" state. We can go on letting the bootlegger handle the liquor business. We can go on letting the money from liquor sales corrupt every one it touches. Finally, we can go on bringing up our children to think laws are something to be broken—how can you expect them to think otherwise when they see many of our best citizens openly defy the law?
2. Our other choice is this: we can do what the great majority of people in other states have decided is best policy. We can legalize the sale of liquor. By doing that we immediately take the most effective step yet found to end the bootlegger's paradise that we have allowed to develop here in Texas. By doing that, we start collecting immediately, right when it is badly needed, revenues that can be used for our schools, for reducing taxes, and for other legitimate purposes. By voting for repeal, we make it possible for honest people to engage in selling liquor.

This will benefit not only those who go into that business but property owners and business generally. Your vote for repeal will not force anybody to drink who does not want to drink. Your vote against repeal will not stop anybody from drinking who wants to drink. Why not do the sensible thing—the thing that will benefit you, that will benefit everybody else in the state of Texas? Vote the bootlegger OUT and law and order IN.

Karpis Threatens Life Of Hoover

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Alvin Karpis, ranked public enemy No. 1, has threatened the life of J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the "G-men" hunting him.

Newspapers were told at the department of justice today that the threat was contained in a letter to Hoover from Ohio about a month ago.

Hoover himself declined to say anything on the subject. Sought by federal agents since the $200,000 kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul, Minn., in January, 1934, Karpis was last seen by officers when he escaped from a trap in an Atlantic City hotel early last winter.

He and Harry Campbell at that time abandoned their girl friends, Wynona Burdette and Dolores Delaney, who now are serving sentences.

Karpis is the only important member of his notorious "public enemy" bank bandit gang who has escaped the government crime hunters.

GALLOWAY TO RETURN HERE THIS EVENING

Tonight is the night to which many dance and music lovers of this territory have been looking forward. Jean Galloway and her 12-piece negro orchestra will entertain at the Pla-Mor ballroom.

The negro musicians are playing a return engagement at the request of the patrons of the Pla-Mor. A previous engagement was highly popular and, in line with the policies of the management of the Pla-Mor, the Galloway orchestra was brought back for this engagement.

A floor show, which has gained wide popularity wherever the orchestra has played, will be a feature of the evening's entertainment. The many numbers are varied so that they are sure to please the various types of crowds to which the orchestra has played.

Twelve negro artists make up the orchestra, which is led by Jean Galloway, and which is widely known for the Victor recordings it has made.

Headed throughout the country as the "dynamic personality" Jean Galloway has won acclaim as the queen of hit-the-beat.

She and her 12-piece orchestra has appeared in every major city in the country being featured in the leading RKO Public, Fox, Pancho and Metro theaters from coast to coast.

The band is on a limited tour of this territory direct from a record breaking run at the Plantation Club in New York and the Cotton Club, Chicago, and each and every place where the band has been presented tremendous crowds have greeted them at their appearances.

The youngest of the famous Galloway family, her music is said to rival that of the first of the family that has made the name Galloway so internationally renowned and famous, the well known Cab Galloway.

Dancing will begin at 9:30 and last until 1:30. Plans are being made to care for a large crowd. Adv.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—The stock market dipped and rallied spasmodically today with the utilities in the forefront of both movements.

Early losses of 1 to more than 4 points were reduced or canceled in late dealings. The aircrafts, copiers, and scattered specialties were generally firm. The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 2,000,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 20 (AP)—The wheat market recovered some of its losses today as buyers produced a buying spree. Prices gained about two cents a bushel.

Buyers were encouraged by strength of wheat in the Minneapolis and Winnipeg futures markets. Suggestions of further crop losses since August 1 in spring wheat territory both sides of the Canadian border accompanied some of the purchasing.

Wheat closed 1 1/2 to 2 cents above the previous finish, December 89 1/2, and corn was 3/4 up December 85 1/2. Oats gained 1/2 cent, and soybean prices unchanged to 1 cent up. Provisions lost 18 to 50 points.

HEALTH CHAT

(Malta) fever is a disease which is transmitted to human beings by infected animals. Individuals may acquire the disease (1) as the result of direct contact with infected animals or (2) following the use of dairy products obtained from infected dairy cows. If the disease is due to contact with infected animals or their waste products, the germs gain entrance to the human body through the skin, according to Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer.

Persons who live on farms are more subject to undulant fever than those who live in cities. On farms, the disease is more apt to affect men due to the fact that men come in contact with hogs and cows to much greater extent than do farm women. Farmers have direct contact with animals during loading and unloading for market. The handling of infected cows or hogs and of the young at time of birth, represent hazardous types of contact. The danger of undulant fever may be reduced greatly by avoiding as much as possible, all forms of direct contact with animals which may be infected. The wearing of heavy gloves if contact in unavoidable should aid in protecting the skin against direct contact with infected animals. Undulant fever acquired in city or town, is due, as a rule, to the use of milk, cream and butter which lack certain safeguards. Prevention of undulant fever, whether due to contact with infected animals or to ingestion of contaminated dairy products, is dependent to a further extent, upon the eradication of contagious abortion from farm animals.

M. M. Newman of McLean transacted business in the city today.

First Picture Received of Post's Crushed Airplane

The crushed plane of Will Rogers and Wiley Post lying in two feet of water in a river 15 miles south of Point Barrow, Alaska, where the famous pair died. They had stopped to ask directions, and as they took off the plane plunged from a height of 50 or 60 feet, pushing the motor thru the cabin.

POST'S BODY

Junior pilot; T. W. Dowling, radio operator, and Engineer Tom Ward. Only a few persons were present when the big ship took off from the airport—the same flying field from which Post started many aerial adventures including the one which ended in death for him and Rogers, his boon companion.

The flight was expected to take about 7 1/2 hours with refueling stops at Albuquerque, N. M., and probably Amarillo, Texas.

The 3,500-mile journey from the northern Alaska wilds where they crashed in Post's ship last Thursday ended just at dusk yesterday, when Pilot William Winston set down his big Pan-American Airways transport at Burbank airport.

The arrival was attended by the first disorders since the bodies of the celebrated dead were brought from Point Barrow.

Police and the curious clashed at the airport after the officers had sought to halt the taking of photographs.

The incident delayed transfer of the bodies to the mortuary a half hour.

Oklahoma Prepares OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20 (AP)—While a huge transport plane bore the body of Wiley Post toward Oklahoma today, tentative plans were made to place it in a temporary resting place here until it can be decided whether the aviator is to rest in Arlington National cemetery.

Friends of the family said the flier's widow is inclined to accept the offer of the United States senate to place the famed airman's body in the cemetery of national heroes.

It was said she did not want to make the decision for several days, however. Meantime Billy Parker, aviator friend of the world-girdling flier who died in Alaska with Will Rogers, was instructed to obtain a temporary crypt in Fairlawn Mausoleum.

GAS - OIL

testimony of Stanley Gill, Houston consulting engineer. Gill described his theory that ultimate recovery was increased in relation to the density of drilling, citing the dense drilling of the Powell field as one illustrative of the principle.

R. E. Hardwick of Fort Worth and Hines Baker of Houston, attorneys, sought through cross-examination of Gill to develop that density of drilling must stop at the point where it became economically impractical and that engineers disagreed on the drilling density theory.

"The nearer mining of oil is approached," Gill testified, "the greater amount of oil will be recovered."

Renewed discussion of acreage as a factor in production and the density of drilling was provoked in the commission's hearings by a recent decision of the supreme court concerning rule 37, which regulates the spacing of wells.

Paul Kysner of Houston applied for permission to produce 600,000 barrels of crude from the new Batsch field over a period of more than a year for export. Countries to which the crude would be shipped were not revealed in the discussion.

Gill, in testimony concerning the application, said four wells on the properties would produce between 200,000 and 300,000 barrels and several others were near completion. He estimated a daily allowable of 2,000 barrels would be needed.

The commission took the application under consideration.

CATCH WILD HOGS

SAN SABA, Aug. 20 (AP)—The high price of pork has made wild hogs tender. The meat is worth nine cents a pound and the sport of hunting wild boars has been turned into a paying proposition. Forty-five wild hogs were rounded up on the Henry Taylor ranch near here in one week.

TAX BILL

5. Inter-corporate dividends: A 90 per cent exemption, instead of the existing 100 per cent exemption, on dividends received by one corporation from another. This rate would amount to about 1 1/2 per cent.

6. Estate taxes: Ranging from 2 per cent on the first taxable $10,000 to 70 per cent on the excess over $50,000,000.

7. Gift taxes: Approximately three-quarters of the estate levies.

The Borah amendment, forbidding future issues of federal tax-exempt securities, and the McCarran amendment, repealing much of the silver purchase act, were eliminated.

Harrison estimated these taxes would bring in $265,000,000 a year. But he added the bill's provision permitting corporations to deduct from their incomes gifts made to charitable organizations would reduce the total by $15,000,000. President Roosevelt had vigorously opposed such deductions.

Adjustment by the conferees of house and senate differences over the legislation was regarded by leaders as a major step toward quick adjournment.

The house will act first on the conferees' report. Chairman Doughton of the ways and means committee estimated it would be Thursday before the agreement could be called up on the house floor.

"I think we've got a blamed good bill," he told reporters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Speaker Byrnes assured President Roosevelt today of adjournment of congress by Saturday in reviewing the progress made yesterday by the house.

He said it was now certain that final agreement would be reached on the amendments to the Tennessee valley authority, but still described the utilities holding company regulation bill as uncertain.

He was hopeful, however, that a compromise would be worked out on it, too.

"We are doing things up here now with one thing in mind," he said. "That is to adjourn."

DANCE

clubs have been organized at Lubbock, Plainview, Wellington and other towns. The square dances at Lubbock are more popular than any other kind, and to keep the collegians from Texas Tech from taking over their dances, the old timers were forced to organize a club.

The music clubs' square dance will be advertised over the Pampa section. Invitations to old timers and square dancers will be sent to Mobeetie, Wheeler, Canadian, Clarendon, McLean, LeFors, Shamrock, Higgins and other towns. Admission will be 40 cents per person. Oldsters and youngsters are urged to "get in practice" for the big dance. Several square dance clubs in the city are already forming sets and learning new dances. Participants in the square dances are urged to wear old-time costumes, but such clothing is not required.

Fiddlers and callers who would volunteer their services that night are asked to get in touch immediately with Archer Pullington at The NEWS who was appointed dance chairman by Mrs. J. M. Dodson, chairman of the finance committee of the music clubs.

County Youths To Report At Memphis

Gray county's contingent of youths to Civilian Conservation Corps camps will report to district headquarters in Memphis at 8 o'clock on Monday morning. Gray county will be allowed to send 17 young men.

Registration may be made at relief headquarters in the basement of the city hall. Only youths whose families are on relief rolls in this county will be eligible for enlistment. There are still a few vacancies in the Gray county quota.

on it, too.

"We are doing things up here now with one thing in mind," he said. "That is to adjourn."

MRS. BILBO CONSIDERS STUMP TOUR AGAINST HER HUSBAND

Paving Of Road To Dumas Urged By Relief Head

Cooperation of officers of political subdivisions of the north-eastern Panhandle in setting up WPA projects was urged today by S. H. Hall, district relief administrator, in a talk to the Pampa junior chamber of commerce.

Lacking a suitable project in the Pampa area, Mr. Hall suggested that efforts be concentrated on highway 41 from the end of the Gray county paving to Dumas. He said that 1,000 men could probably be transferred from some other district if this were done quickly.

A traffic count was suggested. Should this project be launched, it would not interfere with any county quota, project, or appropriation.

In this district, No. 16-A, there are ten counties and about 2,000 persons on relief lists, representing dependents totaling about 8,000. Numerous small projects have been asked, but too few substantial ones, Mr. Hall said.

The district set-up is nearly complete, with about 20 persons of specialized abilities brought here from various counties to comprise the office force.

W. T. Fraser, program chairman, asked questions bringing out points in Mr. Hall's discussion, and George Briggs pledged the cooperation of the B. C. D.

Allan ("Pop") Hodges was inducted as a new member in a talk by Jim Collins.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 20 (AP)—The real candidates were almost lost sight of in Mississippi's gubernatorial run-off election today as Senator Theo G. Bilbo campaigned against Senator Huey P. Long of Louisiana and Mrs. Bilbo "considered" a stump tour against her husband.

In the jumbled political situation Louisiana's Kingfish emerged as the central figure, about whom the Mississippi governor's race between Paul Johnson and Hugh White revolved.

Bilbo, in shirt sleeves and suspenders, wearing a flaming red tie, opened his stump tour in behalf of White at Brookhaven last night by charging Long was backing Johnson in an attempt to extend his Louisiana dictatorship to Mississippi.

Johnson, who spoke from the same platform just before Bilbo, pointed his finger at Bilbo in the crowd and warned him to get back to Washington. He denied Long was supporting him and declared the issue had been raised to becloud the campaign.

Mrs. Bilbo was vague in discussing her "invitation" to take the stump in behalf of Johnson, thereby opposing the candidate backed by her husband. She said she was "considering" it.

White spoke at New Albany last night, reiterating his charge that "Huey Long and not Paul Johnson is my opponent."

Long last week in his newspaper, the American Progress, said he was out of the campaign because neither White nor Johnson supported his share-the-wealth program.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McArthur have gone to Staley, N. C. where Mr. McArthur's father is ill. They will be away two weeks.
