Austin Reports Direct to Truman On U.N. Reaction

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. — (AP) — Austin today carried a report direct to President Truman on United Nations reaction to proposed American aid to Greece and Turkey.

Acheson Offers Testimony Before House Committee

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Undersecretary of State Acheson expressed conviction today that American help for Greece and Turkey to block the spread of Communism will not lead to war.

Britain Battles Critical Floods

LONDON — (AP) — Thousands of soldiers, civilians, police and German war prisoners fought a losing battle today to hold back overflowing rivers that already had spread destruction and misery through scores of towns and villages.

planned another attempt to take food in a rowboat. In the Thames Valley, two villages were to be evacuated, and Police delivered food in rowboats to marooned invalids at Caversham.

Tens of thousands of sheep and cattle had drowned, adding to the toll of 3,000,000 killed under heavy snows in Britain's worst winter.

Thompson Outlines Program in Georgia

ATLANTA — (AP) — The Georgia General Assembly was called into joint session (at 11 a. m. CST) today to receive an official message from Melvin E. Thompson, now the state's sole governor to whom the Legislature must submit all its enactments or have them ruled invalid.

Subcommittee to Report Later on Teacher Pay Bills

AUSTIN — (AP) — A mass of evidence supporting two sharply differing methods of paying Texas teachers more money looking toward raising educational standards generally, was in the hands of a Senate Finance Subcommittee today.

Natural Gas Tax Bill Is Revived; Passage Sought

AUSTIN — (AP) — The House today brought back to life Rep. C. S. McLellan's natural gas tax bill after Speaker W. O. Reed had ruled the measure "voice and dead."

It was developed at a public hearing that ran well past midnight, that brought some sharp words and accusations, but which both sides finally agreed shed some light on the 50th Legislature's major problem.

Approximately 1,000 persons, most of them teachers from over the state, had jammed the gallery and the floor of the Senate for the hearing on three bills relating to increased teachers salaries.

Reporter to Cover Story for 43rd Term

ORANGE — (AP) — Back in 1905 A. F. Burris was a cub reporter for the Orange Leader and one of his first assignments was to cover the first annual Miriam Litcher Stark Declaration contest.

State Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook ruled in a formal opinion that measures signed by Talmadge were invalid unless resubmitted to Governor Thompson. He suggested the Legislature could accomplish this by a joint resolution requesting the Secretary of State to return all the Talmadge bills and directing that they be submitted to Thompson for approval.

EL PASO — (AP) — The 118,000 Mexican farm workers now illegally in the United States must be returned to Mexico for re-entry to this country, Ugo Carusi, U. S. Immigration Service Commissioner, said today.

SHIP SAVED

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands — (AP) — The 4,355-ton Greek freighter Alexandria was being towed to the port of Amsterdam by rescue tugs today after striking a mine yesterday off the West Frisian Islands.

SLATON — (AP) — Woodrow Winsett, about 25, of Amarillo was electrocuted here yesterday when a manning error in Panhandle, this afternoon, in the Rio Grande Valley resulted in a fatal electrocution.

EL PASO — (AP) — The 36th Division Memorial Veterans Hospital at Terrell, Texas, as the 36th Division Memorial Veterans Hospital, was proposed today by Rep. Teague (D-Texas).

Other Phases Of Agreement Hinge on This

MOSCOW — (AP) — France notified the Council of Foreign Ministers tonight that she could not agree to economic reconstruction of Germany unless other powers agreed to her demands for guarantees of German coal.

French Minister Georges Bidault of France, answering the rejection of his request for coal guarantees by British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin last night, said:

"I am directed by my government to state that we cannot be parties to agreement on other problems raised economic unity, level of industry and reparations—without a previous settlement of the scheme for export of coal in a sense which is in conformity with our views."

Russia agreed yesterday to a large share of German coal for France. Deputies of the four-power Foreign Ministers were reported today to have agreed that at some future point, all Allied belligerents and all former enemy states which turned against and fought Germany should have a chance to express their views on the German treaty.

This is one of the few major points agreed upon in the detailed study of the German question, according to official informants who have followed the debates in London and Moscow.

OUT OUR WAY BY J. K. WILLIAMS

Oil Man Believes U. S. to Increase Imports of Crude

NEW YORK—(AP)—This country will reduce oil exports and increase imports in the future, Robert E. Wilson, board chairman of the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana, told the World Conference on Mineral Resources yesterday.

"We can hardly expect to go on indefinitely producing 65 percent of the world's oil from 30 to 35 percent of the world's proved reserves, or 15 percent of the favorable land area," he said.

"However, we must not allow imports to come in on a basis which will discourage the continued search for new reserves or the development of substitute fuels."

Discussing synthetic processes,

Wilson said gasoline requirements for about 12 years could be met from known natural gas reserves, but pointed out these resources would not be used entirely for gasoline.

"For an additional three to four cents per gallon," he said, "gasoline can be made from coal, by a modification of the same process, and the U. S. coal reserves are adequate for 1,000 years."

Wilson predicted increased consumption of gasoline by higher automobile speeds, more gasoline vehicles in commerce, wider use of diesel equipment, and doubling of use of oil heat for homes by 1950.

"Increases in these methods of using liquid fuels will be the principal factors in an anticipated 150 percent demand for 2,600,000,000 barrels of crude oil or its equivalent—56 percent more than the 1945 demand," he said.

New 'Bond-a-Month' Plan Inaugurated

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The treasury came out yesterday with a new "Bond-a-Month" plan to spur the second model ever made by the company. The press was made by Duplex and rebuilt and installed by Goss. The Duplex people say they have no record of when it was built. Once the paper is rolling smoothly, Furey looks forward to doing something about building up the novelty trade. There's something contagious about it.

Under it, depositors wishing to buy a bond monthly will sign cards authorizing their banks to deduct the purchase price from their checking accounts. The banks will issue them at their convenience during the month and mail them to the purchasers. Secretary Snyder invited all banks to participate. He said the program would be ready for operation in most banks by June 1.

Takes No Lip

Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler, of Los Angeles, is pictured in his study, where he indicated that he would take no lip from Leo ("Lippy") Durocher over his handling of the Brooklyn Dodgers manager's marital mix-up with actress Lorraine Day. Judge admitted he would study Durocher's recent squawk for possible contempt of court action, but said it was "probably beneath notice."

Texas Today

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

The most unusual newspaper plant in Texas is the Hillsboro Mirror. When someone says the press is rolling, you're never sure just what is being printed—newspaper, carpenter's aprons, pennants or fly swatters.

It's a fascinating set-up, and the new editor-publisher, W. N. Furey, is still discovering strange and intriguing things about the 67-year-old plant.

The Mirror is printed by the Texas Novelty Advertising Company, and therein lies the tale. At one time, the company made a lot more money out of manufacturing novelty items than it did out of its two papers. The Daily Mirror (established in 1896), or its weekly (founded in 1881).

Major novelty item still being made there is the carpenter apron. It is sold all over the country. It is an all-Hill County product. The cotton is raised in Hill County, ginned there, then made in duck by local mills.

The cloth is then cut into patterns, printed with proper advertising, sewed and branded by the Mirror crew of experts.

Other articles Mr. Furey can turn out for you include stamped pencils, bullet pencils (remember time?), printers aprons, paper or palm leaf fans, pennants for fairs, monogrammed matchbook covers, stamped leather goods asbestos iron pads, clothespin bags for housewives.

Rummaging around the two-story brick building, Furey has found and is still finding other novelty items that used to be popular in the days the plant was a humming, nationally-known company operated by D. W. Campbell and L. J. Thompson.

These are paperweights, menu covers, key cases, whistles, rulers, the old gasoline gauges so popular with model T owners, metal fly swatters, a gadget to knock the head off a glass of beer, quill pens, calendars, buttons of various types, fans made in China, ice picks. Recently Furey found a dozen old Oliver typewriters.

Several bags full of cockleburrs had him puzzled for a while, but he's learned now what the ingenious former owners used them for. Years ago Campbell decided burrs would be nicer than safety pins to book badges on a person's coat or dress. He saw American Legion officials in the idea, and they bought 500,000 badges for their national convention 22 years ago.

After signing the contract, he came home and advertised in his paper that he would buy cockleburrs by the pound.

Farmers, homeowners, boys and girls, everyone began collecting cockle-burrs, selling them to Campbell. He then put his plant to work. Some workers would split the burrs in half; others would print the badges; then the badges would be attached to one's coat. To attach to one's coat, all you had to do was push lightly—the badge stayed on. No messing around with a pin, no tearing of cloth.

Several bags of the burrs remain, and Furey may try the idea some time.

Meanwhile, he's busy concentrating on building up the newspaper. Circulation and advertising already have climbed since he took over last year. He's replacing equipment, and he admits the shop needs it. One linotype machine is the

Miss Inez Clubb Will Head Pampa Branch of AAUW for Coming Year

The Pampa Branch of the American Association of University Women held its March meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the City Club Room at which time officers for the coming year were elected headed by Miss Inez Clubb as president.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. John I. Bradley and Mrs. Samuel Irwin.

Other new officers included Mrs. Raymond Salmon, first vice president; Miss Hart Anderson, second vice president; Mrs. Robert Sanford, third vice president; Miss Ruby Truitt, secretary; Miss Margaret Jones, treasurer; and Mrs. L. B. Fenick, parliamentary.

Miss Clubb was also elected delegate to the National AAUW Convention to be held in Dallas April 14-18, and the State Convention April 19.

Mrs. W. S. Dixon, fellowship chairman, presented an interesting program and quiz concerning the million dollar fellowship fund of the AAUW through which many women have been provided with funds to do advance research. This program is made possible by support of this fund by the 968 branches throughout the country, such as the one here in Pampa.

Charlotte Ann Call, fifth grade student from Woodrow Wilson School, played two flute solos, "Bourne" and "Turkish March" by Beethoven.

An attractive refreshment plate having the St. Patrick motif was served to those mentioned and the following: Mesdames George Prusoff, Leslie Hart, E. L. Norman, Ray Robbins, Quentin Williams, J. E. Hood, M. K. Griffith, and Lou Roberts; and Misses Josephine Thomas, Nina Owens, Nova Mayo, Virginia Ernie, Lillian Mullinan and Pearl Spaight.

Organizing Local Chapter of National Secretaries Assn.

Mrs. Jacquie Bennett, Kansas City, Mo., registrar for the National Secretaries Association, is in Pampa this week to form a local chapter of that organization for the secretaries here.

Mrs. Bennett explained that the association has a three-fold program—educational, social and professional. Its purpose is to bring to the secretary the recognition and prestige which she deserves in the business world, and to help the secretary to help herself through her affiliation with her own national professional organization.

This association gives to each secretary the inspiration of American democracy at its best—the fullest rights and opportunities for the enjoyment of her chosen career. The foundation principle of the group is not new, for it is built on a basis as old as civilization itself—cooperation.

The organization is a young one, being less than five years old, and is joyously looking forward to the new world which is emerging from the recent global war and the ensuing peace which secretaries are destined to occupy in that world.

This association is similar to the Bar Association for attorneys, the American Medical Association for doctors, etc., and is union, non-political, and non-profit, with its members holding the ownership.

Membership in the association entitles each secretary to Federalation features, through its official publication, "The Secretary"; aid in securing employment, without charge; group insurance; and liberal vacation resort discounts.

The motto of this group is "Better Living Through Better Letters." Any qualified secretary of good moral character is eligible for membership.

Mrs. Bennett, a former resident of Amarillo, is making the Schneider Hotel her headquarters during her stay in Pampa.

Election Scheduled At District Meeting

Election of officers was scheduled to feature today's sessions of the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, convention in the First Methodist Church at Childress.

Mrs. Knox Kinard of Pampa has been chosen as a candidate for the office of first vice president.

The voting polls were open from 8 until 11 o'clock and today's session opened at 9 o'clock with a resumption of club reports. Reports by the district department chairman preceded the address of the morning by Mrs. John Perry on "A Pattern for Tomorrow's World."

Following the presentation of new clubs the Merit luncheon was held at 12 o'clock.

Presentation of awards and introduction of the new officers was to conclude the luncheon and convention.

Attending the session from Pampa were Mrs. Raymond Harrah, district president; Mrs. H. H. Hahn, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Kinard, and the following ladies representing the local Federated clubs: Mesdames Paul Kasishe, F. E. Imel, Clifton High, D. V. Burton, Ed Weiss, and Dow King.

Mrs. Magee Hostess Pioneer Study Club

McCLEAN — (Special) — Mrs. Clyde Magee was hostess Thursday to the Pioneer Study Club. Mrs. Carl Jones was in charge of the program "Highways to History."

Mrs. Paul Pierson gave a description of Skyland Drive and New Orleans and Mrs. W. E. Bogan's topic was Niagara Falls.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. E. D. Morris of Kellerville and Mrs. J. L. Hess of McClellan, guests, and the following members: Mesdames Pierson, Jones, Magee, Logan, Cummings, Jim Back, June Woods, C. W. Bogan, R. C. McNett, J. D. Coleman, J. H. Kritzler, and Emory Crockett.

All Are Welcome

To Select Artists For Next Concert Season Saturday

Saturday night at 7:30 in the City Commissioners Room the Executive Committee of the Pampa Community Concert Association will meet with John Lyons, of the Community Concert Service, Chicago, to select artists for the next concert season. Ray Robbins, president, will preside over the meeting.

The selection will be announced in next Sunday's edition of the Pampa News.

Join the association now, said Mrs. Carl J. Wright, secretary, and be glad when next fall comes that you may attend these concerts. She reported that many renewals and new memberships are coming in each day, and also a number of gift memberships.

Mrs. Wright, assisted by Mrs. John B. McCreary, Mrs. Charles I. Hughes, Mrs. George E. Hepler, Mrs. Rusty Ward, and John Lyons, will be on duty each day through noon Saturday at Headquarters in the Southwestern Public Service Building, telephone 2004, to answer any questions and to receive applications.

Garden Club Met Monday Afternoon

McCLEAN — (Special)—The McLean Garden Club met Monday afternoon in the home Economics Room of the High School with Mrs. W. S. Lentz, the president, presiding during the short business session.

The "timely tip" was given by Mrs. Bonnie Swanson and Mrs. Lester Dysart gave a talk on "The Art of Flower Arrangement."

Hostesses during the afternoon were Mesdames C. C. Goodman, Clifford Wilkerson, Boyd Medador and Roger Powers who served refreshments to Mesdames George Graham, Lester Campbell, J. B. Hembree, Leo Gibson, J. D. Coleman, Amos Thacker, Lester Dysart, J. M. Payne, Mattie Graham, W. E. Bogan, and Lentz.

WSCS Circles Hold Quarterly Meeting

All circles of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met Wednesday for a covered dish luncheon at the church with Circle 1 acting as hostess.

The Easter motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments and favors were individual baskets of Easter candies.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell, president of WSCS, was presented a corsage as a birthday gift from the circles.

Mrs. Carlton Nance pronounced invocation and the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Campbell.

Mrs. Walter Purviance urged that the circles contribute to the Bundle Week campaign.

"Living for Jesus" was sung by the group, Mrs. John Heesey led in prayer and presented the devotional, and Mrs. Sam B. Cook read correspondence from Kathryn Eye telling of her work as a missionary in Africa.

Business Girls Class Elects New Officers; Miss Fern President

Members of the Business Girls Class of the First Baptist Church were entertained Tuesday evening in the home of their teacher, Mrs. Burton Reynolds, 625 N. Nelson. During a short business meeting new officers were elected with Miss Wilma Fern being named president.

A fried chicken buffet supper was served to the members and guest after which the group attended the revival services in the First Baptist Church.

Present were Misses Inez Baird, Betty Brown, Alice Cook, Joan

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unsightly weight and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Just get from your druggist, four ounces of liquid Barcolite (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without back breaking exercise or starvation diet. It's easy to make and easy to take. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky weight and help retain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.

Youths Fined on Charges of Assault

Raymond Jones, 17, and Cecil Jones, 22, 638 South Somerville, were fined $25 and costs, and $15, respectively, in County Court yesterday after entering pleas of guilty to charges of "aggravated assault" and "simple assault."

The brothers were arrested by city policemen Tuesday night, following a fight with a local service station attendant.

Pampan Is Named as 'Hellship' Prisoner

Byren T. Search, Pampa, is among hundreds of American military personnel listed in a War Department release as having died aboard one of three Japanese "hellships" during the war.

A check of local records, however, did not disclose that Search had resided in Pampa during the past few years.

In the announcement, the War Department lists the charges several Japanese officers, who are now on trial before the War Crimes Commission in Manila for causing suffering and death among prisoners on the three ships—the Oryoku Maru, the Enoru Maru and the Brazi Maru.

Other area men listed included: Kenneth O. Fuelscher and Lee C. Tucker, Perryton; Lester L. Mate, Quanah, and Otto L. Shamblin, 412 Madison, Amarillo.

Acheson

independence of Greece be lost or compromised the effect upon Turkey is inevitable."

Acheson said that a collapse in Greece and Turkey, and the installation of totalitarian regimes would produce "enormous" effects upon our countries to the West—especially if it should result from "the failure of this great democracy to come to their aid."

"It is not too much to say that the outcome in Greece and Turkey will be watched with deep concern throughout the vast area from the Dardanelles to the China sea."

In the glare of lights set up for movie camera men, Chairman Easton (R-NJ) opened the hearings by announcing, "It is the purpose in these hearings to furnish to the committee, to the Congress and to the American people all the pertinent facts upon which a final and intelligent judgment can be reached upon a foreign policy which will affect for good or ill, not only our own country but the entire world."

Although Acheson said the United Nations could not deal with the situation in Greece and Turkey at this time, he told the committee it is possible that the U. N. at some future time will be organized and equipped so as to render emergency aid to member states of the type now needed in Southern Europe.

Right now, he said, "even if some organ of the United Nations should decide to recommend assistance to Greece and Turkey, it would have eventually to turn primarily to the United States for funds and supplies and technical assistance."

"We are giving serious consideration and study to ways in which the United Nations may take hold of this problem after the present emergency is passed," he added.

Not once in his prepared testimony did Acheson mention Russia by name. But he said armed bands in the North, under Communist leadership, are already fighting, Greek against Greek.

In the event of economic collapse and government paralysis, Acheson went on, these bands would undoubtedly increase in strength until they took over Greece and instituted a totalitarian government.

The administration has set a March 31 goal for congressional clearance of the momentous Greek-Turkish aid bill.

When he drives, he times himself by the clock, figuring to make a certain city by a certain time. When something happens and he doesn't get there, he is so upset it often brings on a headache.
"He is an inflexible man. His personality is rigid to compromise. He is economical and averse to gambling—doesn't believe in throwing his money away. He often suffers anticipation-headaches when some important event is coming up in his life, for he takes things seriously—he believes in making every second count.
"When this man with migraine comes to you for medical aid, you must show him that such headaches are simply the way the overburdened nervous system imposes a rest on the body. You should tell him he must budget his time to allow more rest and relaxation. And very often he will choose to keep his headaches!"
Reddick said more than 80 per cent of women who suffer from migraine are sexually dissatisfied in some way and that "a great majority of them are frigid."

the courts had no authority to adjudicate the disputed governorship, calmly accepted the decision and promptly vacated the Executive Offices and the Governor's Mansion. Subordinates handed over the keys to Thompson.

4. Talmadge and his chief supporter, Former House Speaker Roy Harris, indicated the former's candidacy for governor in the state's 1948 general election. Talmadge said in such an issue as that decided by the Supreme Court, the electorate was the "court of last resort" and the question would be carried there.

states "directly interested" would take part. U. S. Deputy Robert Murphy and British Deputy Sir William Strang urged broader small-national participation.
Vishinsky made it clear that among the disagreements to be passed on to the Council would be the status of Albania in the small-nation participation. Russia proposes her admission. The United States and Britain have objected.
The agreement the deputies are reporting to the Council provides for the committee system for future work on the German treaty, an information and consultation conference of smaller nations, and hearings for Allied and former enemy states interested. These states were not named, but an official said Italy evidently would be qualified along with others under this provision.

French Deputy Maurice Couve De Murville urged that the information and consultation conference be started immediately so that 18 smaller nations are certain to include China, Brazil, India, the British commonwealth countries and Portugal, which originally fought Hitler, such as Belgium, Norway and Poland.
Authoritative sources said today that Moscow's official reaction to President Truman's Greek-Turkish proposals seemed to be tending toward the view that the United States is developing an out-and-out anti-Soviet policy.
First inklings of the official Russian line were reaching American ears informally today and roused immediate speculation as to what effect, if any, such a view would have on the prospects for reaching agreement in the current negotiations on the future of Germany.

Many Never Suspect Cause of Backaches

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
 Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day.
 When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smirking and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
 Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

of schools; it is so written as to guarantee that the money would be used for teachers pay first; where it did not suffice, an adequate equalization bill would supplement local and per capita funds.
Taylor and Sen. Pat Bullock of Colorado testified for the equalization bill. Taylor contended that under the per capita bill, a premium was placed on non-attendance; that it would give funds to many schools that did not need it; that his equalization bill could be financed by revenues in hand or in sight and if there is not enough money in the bill to do the job he would see to it, enough was put in; that the per capita bill would not give some districts a $2,000 minimum if they stuck by standards which set 30 pupils per teacher as the maximum teaching load.

had to figure out something else." Sanford Rogers, the chief steward of West Plains, Mo., carried the transmitter up to the chartroom. Wehr said, "and that was some feat, with our remnant of the ship buckling and rolling and the decks slippery with water and oil from the broken tanks."
In the chartroom they rigged the transmitter to batteries from the direction finder and ran an antenna out the door and up a speaking tube to the bridge, where Rogers succeeded in attaching it to the "Christmas tree," as they call the wartime arrangement of convoy signal lights they still carried.
By 4 p. m. Wehr sent out his first SOS, and kept it up at intermittent periods all day and night, careful to conserve his scanty power supply.

"Then the miracle occurred," Wehr said. "We hadn't known whether our SOS calls had been heard. But a big plane suddenly appeared, circled over us and dropped a couple of lifeboats. And about two hours later the General Gordon and the freighter St. John's Victory showed up."
"Man, what a relief!"
Twenty-two men still were adrift on the stern section. These were taken off by a Navy vessel which was proceeding toward Honolulu, some 1,100 miles to the southeast.
But a lifeboat with 12 or 13 men aboard has not been seen since. Survivors arriving here felt these men perished.

Indictments

heads of Dr. Pepper bottling companies scattered from the Rocky Mountain region to the Atlantic seaboard, along with executives of the wholesale firms which were billed and assorted small merchants accused of obtaining sugar illegally through operations charged to Bartlett.
Officials of the wholesale companies who were indicted were Porter H. Wilson, vice president of the Tyler-Simpson Co., Fort Worth; Boyer Kee, manager of the Walker-Smith Co., Hobbs; William W. Zimmerman, vice president of Empire Products Corp. and W. B. Cummings, in charge of the sugar rationing department in the El Paso Wholesale Co., both of El Paso.
The indictments listed the names of these Dr. Pepper Bottling Company executives:
New Mexico—Elmo M. Taylor, president, and Franze M. Taylor, vice president, both of Albuquerque; J. B. Alexander, owner, Clovis; and Bartlett, owner and operator, Hobbs.
Oklahoma—J. A. Farmer, owner, Mangum; Gerald H. Mobley, partner, Ardmore; R. W. Lee, Oklahoma City, owner of Elk City Dr. Pepper plant.
Texas—Elgar C. Goodman, owner, Tulla; J. W. Barnes, owner, Paris; Henry J. Moreland, owner, Abilene; Harry Stalcup, owner, Big Spring; Luther B. Foust, partner, Dalhart; H. B. Dorris, Jr., executive vice president and manager, Fort Worth.

One of the best buys in Pampa—3 bedrooms, living room, dining room, kitchen and bath, beautiful hardwood floors, 2 living porches, good fenced in back yard, garage. This home is well constructed and has a new roof. Located on a good paved street in the Sam Houston school district. Take $500 for this if you find this month.

Another good buy that I can sell for about $250.00 is a brand new 2-bedroom home. Just completed, and it is worth the money.

8 1/2 sections of the best grass in Western Kansas—3000 acres of this can be farmed, good water at 15 to 20 ft. deep. There is an irrigation well on this land, and pumps 1200 gals. a minute. I have just been up there and looked, and this place is really a dandy. Want 1200 an acre. Paved highway runs right by the ranch, and it is 5 miles from a good town.

I've got a dandy two-bedroom home that is not quite finished, and the old boy has run out of money, so he sold it for what he has in it which is $350.00. Two of the rooms need papering, and I think it needs some siding on it.

I have a good bottom land farm in Wheeler County. . . . lays on Sweetwater Creek. . . . has about 60 acres of good alfalfa land, and I will sell it for $7.50 an acre, and I will take some town property on it.

Fred Cary has run out of money again, and he wants to sell his sandy land farm just over the line in Wheeler County. . . . has good improvements, and is worth the money at $6.00 an acre. You can get in touch with him, up here in the Duncan Bldg.

I have one of the best irrigated farms in Deaf Smith County. . . . two good irrigation wells, with about 35,000 worth of improvements. This land lays 5 miles from Hereford, and there is around 750 acres. I can sell you this farm now for 100.00 an acre and that is the cheapest land I know of in that county right now.

One of the best tourist cabins in Trinidad, Colorado. . . . This court grossed 3000 per month last year for seven months, and the owner has built some more cabins. . . . Will take 20,000 for this court if sold in the next few days.

20 acres of level land joining the city limits for 300 an acre. . . . You name it and we will sell it to you.

Tyler Cagers to Get Second Try
At TAAF Laurels

TYLER—(P)—Tyler's Bruce Moter team will get another chance at the Texas Amateur Federation men's basketball championship or share the title.

W. O. Shuter, Jr. director of the tournament in Galveston last Saturday, disqualified Bruce Moter shortly after they took the floor to play the YMCA Triangles of Houston for the championship. He ruled that Bayne Cook of the Tyler team was ineligible because he had been a member of the Tyler Junior College team in 1947. The title was awarded to the Triangles.

TAAF President Graham Pierce, Dallas, revoked the disqualification, saying that TAAF rules prohibit varsity squadmen of a university but not of a junior college. He ruled that either the Tyler team should play the Triangles or be declared co-champion.

Efforts are being made to match the two teams either here or in Houston Saturday night.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Do Men Like Women?

Maybe you read that recent article in a national magazine, claiming that American men don't really like the company of women. They just put them up on a pedestal and leave them there.

But I wouldn't say that that was so in our town. Look at any married couple—like the Cuppers. Jane wouldn't nag if Dee spent his evenings "with the boys"—but actually Dee likes nothing better than to stay home by the fire, sharing a glass of beer with Jane, playing cribbage, or just talking.

And when he does go out, for an afternoon of fishing down at Seward's Creek, or for an evening glass of beer at Andy Botkin's Garden Tavern, Jane is almost always with him (except when she's got a spot of baking in the oven).

From where I sit, respect doesn't rule out everyday companionship... and never should. They go together—essential parts of a successful marriage.

Joe Marsh

Texas Favored in NCAA Cage Playoff

Unheralded Cage
Teams Win Tilts
In National AAU

KANSAS CITY—(P)—The University of Texas Longhorns, who twice have been eliminated by the eventual national champion, are favored to top the four-team field in the Western Regional NCAA basketball tournament tomorrow and Saturday.

Both of their conquerors in previous play-offs, Oregon and Wyoming, went on to win the national crown, just as four of the other eight Western Regional champions have succeeded in doing in the NCAA finals dating back to 1939.

First order of business for Coach Jack Gray's Longhorns, who are heralded as one of the finest cage teams ever assembled in Texas, is that of disposing of the Wyoming Cowboys, the team that beat them in the 1943 Western Regional.

If they pass the Wyoming test the Longhorns still must beat the winner of tomorrow night's opening game between Oregon State and the Pacific Coast champion, and the Big Six tiltist Oklahoma before clashing with the Eastern representative in New York March 25.

The Texas-Wyoming game will have special meaning to five of the starting players, John Hargis and Roy Cox of Texas, and Jimmy Reese, Floyd Volker and Jim Campbell of Wyoming. Each were members of the teams representing their schools here four years ago.

Hargis, who this year averaged 14.5 points in 24 games, scored 29 points as his team lost to Wyoming, 54-48 in 1943. He also set a two-game play-off scoring record of 59 points that year.

Cox, a 5-foot 8-inch ball-hawking buzz-saw and one of three peewees in the Texas lineup, averaged 9.9 during the past campaign during which the Longhorns were beaten only by Oklahoma A. and M., 49-39, in 25 games.

Reese, a 5-foot 8-inch, averaged 11.6 points in the Cowboys' season of 22 wins and 4 losses this winter.

In addition to the scoring ability to Reese, Wyoming will have potent factors in the height of Mike "Dorovich" and Volker, 6-foot 5-inchers. Texas' one tall boy is Langdon, 6'7" center. Hargis stands 6'2". The other Longhorns great downward from 6'10 1/2".

Oregon State, featuring the great Ephraim (Red) Rocha, 6'8" center, is regarded by the basketball "wise" here as the team most dangerous to the Texas plans. The Beavers had a regular season mark of 25 wins and 3 losses.

The first game tomorrow will start at 8 o'clock (CST), with Texas and Wyoming taking the boards at 9:30.

Cubs Cancel Spring Games With Missions

DALLAS—(P)—The Chicago Cubs have cancelled their exhibition baseball games with the San Antonio Missions April 5 and 6. Instead they will play Dallas April 5 and Fort Worth April 6.

Cub Manager Jim Gallagher informed George Schepps, president of the Dallas club, of the change in plans. He said the San Antonio games were cancelled after he received word that Mission Park would not be ready at that time.

Marines to Quell 12
'Holdout Japanese'

PEARL HARBOR—(P)—A detachment of U. S. Marines has been flown to Peleliu to quell 12 holdout Japanese who have been hurling grenades at leathernek patrols, the Marine garrison forces of the Pacific said today.

Forty-one Marines left Guam, and 21 more flew from Pearl Harbor Monday. Another 15 will leave here tomorrow.

The holdout Japanese were believed led by a former Navy officer. They have been harassing the island —one of the Palaus—since its capture in 1944. Marine detachments on Peleliu asked for a few weapon specialists for rooting the Japanese from caves and jungle.

Civil Service Offers
Three New Positions

Civil Service positions for chemists, physicists and engineers at the F-1 grade are open in the Potomac River Naval Command in Washington, D. C., Maryland and Virginia.

The positions pay $2,644 and may be gained by successfully passing written examinations.

Information and application blanks may be obtained here from Mrs. Cassie Balthrop at the Assistant Postmaster's office.

Utah Upset West
Virginia, Battle
Kentucky in Final

By AUSTIN BEALHEAR
NEW YORK—(P)—Kentucky and Utah, beginning a four-day vacation before clashing in the finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament, turn Madison Square Garden over to another group of classy collegians tonight for the opening round of Eastern regional playoffs in the N. C. A. A. tourney.

The NCAA eliminations send Navy against Holy Cross in the first game at 7 p. m. (EST) with Wisconsin's Big Nine champions tangling with City College of New York at approximately 9:45.

Kentucky, shooting for its second straight title in the invitation tourney, reached the finals by outshooting North Carolina State's Southern Conference champions, 60-42, last night.

A garden crowd of 18,472 got something of a shock in the earlier semi-final game when Utah's hard-playing ball Hawks bounced second-seeded West Virginia out of the tourney, 64-62, in a game that was close only in the first and last minutes.

With Arnold Ferrin and Vern Gardner showing the way, the UTES outgirth their opponents at every turn, built up a 30-21 half-time lead and were coasting along with a ten-point margin which little more than a minute of playing time remained.

But with the odds hopelessly against them, the Mountaineers suddenly came to life and might have yanked the game from the fire if time hadn't run out on them.

Quarterfinals Open In Miami Tournament

MIAMI, Fla.—(P)—Quarter-finals matches were on the program today in the fourth annual University of Miami Invitational Tennis Tournament, with top-seeded players still in the running.

National Singles Champion Jack Kramer of Los Angeles and second-seeded Gardnar Mulloy of Miami play their third round matches while Billy Talbot of Wilmington, Del., and Pancho Segura of Ecuador are booked to quarter finals.

The body of a dog contains 255 bones.

Kilgore JC to Field
All-Letterman Grid
Eleven This Season

KILGORE—(P)—Seventy candidates have reported for spring football at Kilgore College, champion of the Texas Junior College Conference and participant in the Little Rose Bowl in California.

There are few losses from last year's squad and Coach Jimmie Parks will be able to field an all-letterman team. Nearly a dozen backfield veterans and a greater number of experienced linemen will be back.

Among the returning backs are Alan Neveaux, who rated selection to the second little All-America team; Adrain Burk, a Stellar pointer; Rex Bullock, fine defensive back of 1946; Hardy Johnson, power-house fullback; and Max Clark, high-scorer of last year's eleven.

The Ranger line returns almost intact, including Darrell Shaver, all-conference guard, and End Ed Stags, co-captains for 1947.

Several newcomers will be serious contenders for starting posts. They include Newell Kane, 195-pound All-State back from Palestine who was at Texas last year; Bobby Collier, 210-pound blocking back from back from John Rangan, Houston. Missing this season will be T. A. Scott, triple-threat back now at the University of Kansas, and Ray Stone, All-America Junior College end who has finished his eligibility.

We cannot continue to tolerate emergency teachers. It is just as sensible to recruit incompetent teachers as it is to recruit midwives to practice medicine just because we need more doctors.—Dr. Willard E. Goslin, Minneapolis schools superintendent.

The American Red Cross recruited 104,456 nurses for Army and Navy service between 1940 and 1946.

Training Camp Notes

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—(AP)—Manager Eddie Dyer had some welcome news from the St. Louis Cardinals' backstopping department today with word that young Joe Garagiola will be able to continue catching providing he wears a protective covering on his mask.

The 21-year-old Garagiola, rookie sensation of the 1946 World Series, suffered a slight fracture of the right cheekbone when he was struck by a thrown ball at the start of the training season, X-rays revealed. The injury is healing nicely, however.

The world champion Redbirds are none too well fortified with catchers, with Del Wilber the only one of the backstop trio in good condition. Del Rice is currently suffering from a shoulder injury.

The Cardinals rested yesterday when their game with the Boston Red Sox was rained out. They met the Phils at Clearwater today with Southpaw Ken Johnson and Right-hander Ken Burkhardt and Fred Schmidt scheduled to see duty.

LOS ANGELES—Hank Borowy and Bill Lee were scheduled to work for the Chicago Cubs today against Portland. Marvin Rickert homered and got three singles in four times at bat yesterday to lead the Cubs to a 9-3 victory over Seattle.

MIAMI, Fla.—The St. Louis Browns were today after dropping a 4-3 decision to the Boston Braves yesterday.

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla.—The Boston Braves went after the scalps of the Philadelphia Athletics today. Mort Cooper, bothered by a slight cold, was the tentative tribe starter, with Walter Lanfranconi and Lefty Warren Spain in reserve.

CRISTOBAL—The Brooklyn Dodgers' Rube Melton is going to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore for examination and possible removal of a 4-3 decision to the Boston Braves yesterday.

There is a possibility Pete Reiser might make a trip too. President Branch Rickey is in favor of having the outfielder go to see his St. Louis doctor immediately after the Brooks fly to Havana.

SARASOTA, Fla.—Weatherbound yesterday, the Boston Red Sox hope to get going today against the Yankees at St. Petersburg. Manager Joe Cronin of the American League champions plans to use Fritz Borch, Tommy Fine and Mel Parnell on the mound, and Catcher Frankie Hayes may see his first action since the heat got him a few days ago.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Bucky Harris is considering another re-arrangement of the New York Yankee lineup which would send Tommy Henrich to center field—a position he has never played. Henrich is side lined with strained chest muscles but will be okay in a few days. He has batted .339 against major league teams this spring.

LAKELAND, Fla.—The Detroit Tigers go to Tampa today for an exhibition with the Cincinnati Reds. Hal Newhouser, Al Benton and Rufe Gentry were scheduled to pitch. The Tigers' scheduled contest with the New York Yankees here yesterday was rained out.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—The Pittsburgh Pirates' prize rookie is Wally Westlake, 26-year-old, rock-chinned Californian. In five games as an outfielder, Westlake has collected six hits in 10 trips. He was the first Pirate to hit a homer, in fast fields well and is a threat in center or right field. Hank Greenberg will not see action against the St. Louis

SPORTS ROUND-UP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK—(AP)—A couple of years ago college basketball coaches were all steamed up because of the growing practice (by other guys, of course) of stopping the clock by too-frequent substitutions late in the game. So a rule was passed calling for an automatic time out every time the ball became dead in the last four minutes of play. Now a lot of them are steamed up by those time-wasting time outs—but the National Rules Committee is set to chill them with cold figures next week—A series of games was clocked in preparation for the annual rules meeting and the results showed that while it took anywhere from seven minutes and eleven seconds to 13 minutes and one second for those four minutes of action, no more than 51 seconds were used because of the changed rule—Seems the coaches will have to find something else to holler about.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Dick Farrington, St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "Lots of young squirts are looking for good in the Grapefruit League this spring."

JUST CALL A COP

Although Michigan State protests its Simon Purdy, the Spartans are getting plenty of benefit from their Police Administration course. Bob Brannum, who wants to transfer from Kentucky, heard about the course while he was in the Army at Camp Hood, Texas, and figures on signing up for the spring term that starts in two weeks—Come to think of it, that course would be a natural for Gerald Tucker, the celebrated Oklahoma basketball. Ever see his feet?

Senate Press Gallery Is Opened to Negroes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Press Gallery is open for the first time to two Negro reporters—one of them by order of the Senate Rules Committee.

The rules group voted unanimously Tuesday to permit Louis R. Lautier to use the gallery despite his 4 to 1 rejection by a standing committee of newspaper correspondents who normally enforce gallery regulations.

Perceval L. Prattis, correspondent for Our World, a Negro magazine published in New York, was disclosed to have been fully accredited to House and Senate galleries last week by the Periodical Press Gallery Executive Committee. The press galleries are divided into three main groups—daily newspapers, magazines and radio.

Lautier, writer for the Atlanta Daily World and 16 weeklies of the National Negro Publishers Association, was turned down by the newspapermen's committee as not coming within the rules "clearly limiting membership in the press galleries to correspondents whose chief attention is given to daily news-

East Texans Hit By Injury, Flu

COMMERCE—(AP)—Two injuries and two cases of flu will cost East Texas State probably 11 points in competition Friday and Saturday in the Southwestern Exposition Track and Field meet at Fort Worth.

Coach Bob Berry said Al Walls of Laredo and Elwood Robertson of Cooper will not be able to participate because of pulled leg muscles. Walls, sprinter and relay man, ran first in the low hurdles at the border Olympics. Robertson ran second in the same event.

Relaymen Carlos Salinas of Laredo and Joe Calvi of Denton, both recovering from the flu, probably will not be in condition to perform.

Two other lettermen, Harvey Crittenden of Terrell and Boone Wilkins of Commerce, however, will be in peak trim. Crittenden set a new border Olympics record in the broad jump with a leap of 22 feet and nine and three-fourths inches. Wilkins tossed the javelin 179 feet and 11 inches for another first place.

Silver iodide and dry ice are two principal materials used in producing laboratory snow.

Grover Cleveland was the first President officially and personally to endorse The Salvation Army in 1886. Similar endorsements have been given by every succeeding President of the United States.

Net Stars Advance To Semi-Finals in Philadelphia Meet

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Professional tennis' four best shot-makers—Champion Bobby Riggs, Don Budge, Fred Perry and Frank Kovacs—confirmed the judgment of the experts by reaching the singles semi-finals of the $10,000 Inquirer pro court tourney.

But only top-seeded Riggs, the 1946 titlist from Grossinger Lake, N. Y., found the going easy in yesterday's quarter-finals play.

The flashy, racket-wielding Riggs knocked off Wayne Sabin, Portland, Ore., in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2.

Budge, the California redhead who is seeded second, was pushed in his opening set with Francesco (Chico) Romannoni, Milan, Italy, but finally won out, 7-5, 6-3.

Champagne and Cake Served at Birthday Party of Man, 100

CLEBURNE—T. J. (Uncle Tom) Coyne, retired railroad engineer, celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary here Tuesday by drinking champagne and eating a three-decker cake with friends from California, Illinois and Texas paying him honor.

He has no living relatives in America. He has outlived his immediate ancestry back in Ireland. His wife died years ago and his only son was killed in World War I. He is the oldest pensioner of the Santa Fe system.

By the time he was 23 years of age he had seen most of the world. He was born in New Orleans March 18, 1847. His father died when he was two during a New Orleans yellow fever epidemic. His mother sold her property and moved back to Dublin, Ireland. Seventeen years later she died leaving the lad alone at 19, and lacking but six months of finishing college at Dublin.

Nevertheless, he sold the family property, amounting to $3,700 in American money, and set out to see the world. For nearly three years he traveled through Europe, North Africa, on to Bombay, India, Japan, Philippines, Australia and Canada before finally returning to the United States.

He lays claim to being aboard the third ship ever to sail through the Suez Canal. He also claims to remember back 96 years to the time when he first went to a children's school and quotes the first simple verse lesson he learned. Uncle Tom did his first railroad-ing in 1883 with the old Hannibal and St. Joe, branch of the CB&Q. Later he came to Dallas where he worked as a fuel foreman. In 1887 he moved to Cleburne, became a fireman, and promoted to engineer in 1901. He retired in 1925 at the age of 74.

At his birthday party he served champagne, cut an enormous three-decker birthday cake containing 101 candles (one to grow on he says).

Try the British diet for a few weeks and see how you feel. I mean by that, get along for just a few weeks without milk, fruit, juices, eggs, red meat and other things that we now take as a matter of course. — Hugh Bailie president United Press.

In Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD—I just kissed the delectable Virginia Mayo. Once with my eye open and once with 'em closed. I definitely liked it both ways. It was much more fun than just looking at lovely Virginia in "The Best Years of Our Lives."

press agents are very unhappy. We started out to prove something but all we proved was that the occupational hazards of movie columnists are becoming much more pleasant and that Virginia is very kissable. But Virginia said she would insist on it anyway. "Girls who kiss with their eyes closed aren't playing fair with the guy on the receiving end."

To elucidate, Virginia continued: "Practically every love scene closeup in the movies shows the heroine with her eyelids snapped tight. This may impress the yokels as the very pinnacle of passion, but I think it's an outright evasion of what a bona fide embrace by a pair of lovers should produce. "It's an obvious inference that all the time the girl is in the boy's arms, she's imagining he's some other guy. On the screen it's the easiest way out of a difficult chore—portraying genuine passion. LIDS DOWN—NO VOLTAGE

"How can you get any voltage out of a kiss with the eyelids pulled down like window blinds?" Virginia asked. (There was so much voltage to Virginia's shut-eyed kiss that I'm still lighting up my desk lamp five hours later, by just holding the base.) Virginia promised, as three

"Got anything that sails in about five minutes?"

press agents beamed approval, that she would kiss Turhan Bey with her eyes wide open in her current starring role in Eagle-Lion's "Out of the Blue."

We wondered, naturally, if her boy friend, Michael O'Shea, kisses her with his eyes open. "On yes," Virginia said brightly. Well, I guess most any guy would kiss Virginia with his eyes wide open. It's mighty interesting scenery—if you don't get dizzy around the curves.

Major Problem of Farmers Is Rebuilding of Wornout Soils

TOPEKA, KANS. — Rebuilding wornout soils is the big, new responsibility facing farmers of the Middle West in the period just ahead, according to George A. Montgomery, associate editor of Capper's Farmer.

Many operators tried commercial fertilizer for the first time during the war, Montgomery writes in an article entitled "Relief for Needy Soils" in the March issue of the farm magazine. Results, he says, made them rub their eyes. They found that few soils have been manured well enough to do a full job without the aid of commercial plant foods.

"It seems plain," he declares, "that production has been kept at satisfactory levels recently only because hybrid corn and better varieties of oats, wheat and other crops have been introduced.

"When soil was broken in the basins of the Ohio, the Mississippi and the Missouri rivers, soils were rich in nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium.

"Pioneers brugged that the land would never wear out. The land led to a false tradition that led to wasteful farming practices. Topsoil was permitted to wash away, manures were handled carelessly, crop residues were burned when they should have been turned under. "As a result, some rolling farms today are so worn out that use of as little as 200 pounds of 2-12-6 will double corn yields. Much fertility loss from such land has been in soil washed away.

"But level soils have lost plant food, too. It has been hauled away with grain, hay, meat, milk and eggs, produced directly or indirectly by the soil.

"Many a wheat farmer has boasted that his land was so rich it didn't pay to return farm manures to the soil. Millions of acres of straw and stubble have been burned as the easiest way to get rid of it. There may be little mineral loss in burning. But straw and stubble are needed in the soil to hold nitrogen losses down. Continued burning means depletion."

Montgomery cites tests in numerous Midwestern states which show how nitrogen fertilizers, phosphorus and potassium have greatly increased crop yields.

TEXAS PROFESSOR
AUSTIN—A University of Texas professor will play a prominent part in the second international conference on Soil Mechanics and Engineering Mechanics, to be held at The Hague, Netherlands in the summer of 1948.

R. F. Dawson, associate professor of civil engineering who has done considerable soil mechanics research has been asked to serve on the American committee to prepare material for the conference.

Chemical Firm Introduces New Soil Fumigant

MIDLAND, Mich.—A powerful soil fumigant which authorities say can be used safely and without special equipment, by the home gardener, is being introduced this year by the Dow Chemical Company after several years of thorough testing.

The material, containing ethylene dibromide and known as Garden Dofume, will be generally available this spring, officials say. Among the most serious soil pests effectively controlled by the fumigant, technicians point out, are wireworms and nematodes which occur in all sections of the country and particularly in the Southern states where soil and climate conditions favor widespread infestation.

These insects are said to attack hundreds of plants, reducing yields of many garden and commercially grown vegetables, including beans, beets, cabbage cucumbers, lettuce, potatoes, peas and tomatoes.

Gardeners can either pour the fumigant from the container along trenches six inches deep, running 12 inches apart, or put two or three teaspoonfuls in holes six inches deep and 12 inches apart, each way. Trenches or holes are then covered and packed, permitting the liquid to spread through the soil as a gas. The materials is reported effective over a radius of about 10 inches from the point of application and to a depth of approximately 16 inches from the surface of the plot.

Following treatment, the soil is allowed to remain undisturbed for 14 days before planting seed or setting out plants.

Wireworms, which are the larvae of adult click-beetles, often grow three quarters of an inch in length, and are easily recognized by their shiny yellow appearance. They thrive on the roots and stems of growing plants. Nematodes are not ordinarily visible to the unaided eye, and evidence of their activity is characterized by stunted, off-color, early wilting plants and the presence of bead-like knots or galls on the roots.

Observers state that although complete eradication of these two soil pests through fumigation has not yet been achieved, tests have shown that treatment once a year so reduces the insect population that healthier plants and increased crop yields are possible.

While the chemical is reported to affect angleworms, biologists say there is little possibility of these worms being eliminated from gardens since they tend to build up rapidly through migration from adjacent areas following soil treatment.

Brent Carruth Presented 1946 Gold Star Award for Achievement

Brent Carruth, Pampa 4-H Club boy, has been awarded the 1946 Gold Star Award for Gray County for having done outstanding work with livestock demonstrations the past three years. This award is given the outstanding 4-H Club member in the county each year.

Carruth joined the 4-H Club in 1944 and was awarded a Sears Roebuck Hampshire Gilt as his first demonstration. He did a good job feeding this gift and won first place with her in the county Sears show receiving a Registered Jersey Heifer as prize. Brent's next demonstration was two beef calves from his father's, A. B. Carruth herd. He showed these calves in the 1945 Top of Texas Jr. Livestock Show and won Grand Champion and Reserve Champion, which sold for $511.50 and $370.00. He also showed two barrows at this show placing 2nd and 4th. These barrows were from his Sears Gilt and he sold the rest of this litter at a good profit.

In 1945 young Carruth fed two more, and again won the Grand Champion of the Top of Texas Jr. Calf Show. The champion calf weighed 892 pounds and sold for $190 a pound. His other calf weighed 635 pounds and sold for $222.25. Brent also had the 1945 Sears Roebuck Bear, which placed 4th at the Amarillo District Show, winning him 100 baby chickens which he raised and killed for home use. His Jersey heifer also placed first this year, and makes a good nurse cow for his club calves.

Last year Carruth put three more calves on feed, for showing in 1947. A ruling was made by the Top of Texas show, eliminating the boys with the Grand Champion Animals from further competition, so Brent took these three to Amarillo. These were young calves, but Brent did his usual good job of feeding and won 18th and 28th place in a very large and very good light weight division and 5th place with his pen of 35, and 36 a pound bringing him a total of $775.00.

WHEAT GRINDING
Wheat grindings totaled 4,205,000 bushels in December to go 1 percent above November's total, according to Bureau of the Census figures received by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

This brought grindings 18 percent above the December 1946 level and took the Bureau's seasonally-adjusted index to 175 for a 2 percent drop from November's index of 178.4 (Base: average month 1935-39-100). In December 1945 the index stood at 148.4.

Wheat flour production totaled 1,799,000 sacks in December to equal production in December 1945 and go 1 percent above the November level.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. Which is more important for increasing milk production—breeding or feeding?
A. Both are important. A cow's top production level, of course, is set by inheritance. Relatively few cows are fed enough, though, to produce up to capacity. Thus, more immediate results in increased production can be obtained through better feeding. Feed cows for better production now and breed for better production in the years ahead.

Q. In feeding the brood sow during gestation, which is the better practice—hand-feeding or self-feeding?
A. Each has its advantages, but hand-feeding is recommended at the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company, in order to keep the brood sow in ideal condition. Hand-feeding offers a degree of control seldom attained with self-feeding. This accurate control of condition influences:
1. Ease of farrowing.
2. Lactation and nursing the litter.
3. Vigor of pigs.
4. Livability of the litter.
5. Final returns and profit.

Q. Last year I had trouble with my baby chicks eating the litter. What can I do to prevent this?
A. The most important factor is to provide plenty of feeder space—at least one inch per chick for the first three weeks. Also, cover the litter with three or four layers of newspaper to keep the chicks from eating the litter. Roll off a layer of paper each day. Remove all papers after the third day.

Q. Do hogs become infected with Brucellosis? Are the symptoms the same as in cattle?
A. Hogs do become infected with this disease, although the symptoms of abortion is not nearly as prevalent in hogs. A sow may have the disease and not abort. The prevalence of swollen joints and lameness is an important symptom in infected swine herds. The herd boar, unlike the bull, is an important carrier and spreader of Brucellosis, and one infected boar may cause the entire sow herd to become infected. Another contrast is that cattle do not usually become infected until at least six months of age, while swine may become infected shortly after birth.

Many Girls Are Making Dresses For 1947 Revue

"Make and Model Your Own" is the motto of rural girls who are participating in the 1947 National 4-H Dress Revue.

With clothing fabrics now available in greater volume and variety, the youthful seamstresses are designing their "best dress" which they will model in the County 4-H Dress Revue. All blue award winners in this event will receive silver medals of honor. Those between 14 and 21 who have completed three years in club work may compete in the State Dress Revue, which will be held later. The state winner will receive also from the Simplicity Pattern Co., an all-expense trip to the 1947 National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, next November. Each state winner participating in the National 4-H Dress Revue Presentation at the Club Congress will be given a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond.

In this activity, which is conducted under the direction of the Extension Service, participants' outfits are judged on style and design, suitability of material to purpose and workmanship, becomingness of color and fit, and cost. Grooming, posture and poise of the participant production, and better merchandising.

The Council will meet March 27 at Texas A. and M. for adoption of a constitution and future plans.

Tables are given showing the average composition of many feeding stuffs analyzed. An estimated total of 3,243,124 tons of commercial feeding stuffs were sold in the State during the fiscal year covered by this report.

Chemical standards for special-purpose mixed feeds are shown together with additional information on the requirements of the Texas Feed Law and the composition of feeding stuffs.

Texas Poultry Group Discusses Objectives
COLLEGE STATION—(Special)—The Texas Poultry Council organized recently at Texas A. and M. College, has a membership representing all phases of the industry. The council was organized to better the entire poultry industry through group action. By bringing the problems of their respective fields into a group for discussion, a coordinated plan can be developed for improving the poultry industry of Texas, the organizers believe. Objectives for 1947 are: Improvement of better grades of eggs and quality poultry, more efficient in WHAT, MAY WE ASK, IS IN A WORD, ANYWAY?

Don't, say the complainants, use big words in the newspaper and on the radio, for people won't understand you. And then the argument goes on from there into the evasive land of what constitutes "big words."

But it must be conceded by us who employ words as our professional grist that any and all effort at simplicity in writing is praiseworthy—and we herewith subscribe to the idea.

However, it must be observed that the man who said there is a substitute for almost every word is not even all right. For as we delve deeper into the English language, and come to know more about words and their varying shades of meaning, we know he is, to use a well-worn expression, talking through his hat.

For instance, the other day a would-be authority said people do not get "abrasions and contusions" in accidents, but do receive "cuts and bruises." We must applaud his effort, but he is not entirely right.

An "abrasion" does not necessarily involve either a cut or a bruise. It means that skin has been removed by scraping of one sort or another, and usually through some form of mishap or accident. If the language has any simple term for "abrasion," we have not been able to discover it. There is "excoriation," of course, but that is more difficult than "abrasion."

Therefore, it's a rather interesting commentary on the peculiarities of language that English has no short and easy word to describe one of the most frequent of human experiences, especially in this age of automobile accidents.

Be that as it is (or as you prefer it), we have heard the results of this "abrasion" business, told vividly and simply in the language of the country boy departing through a thicket from the spot where his dog has first jerked a skunk from a hole and then started to shake the thing to death.

The boy wound up by saying: "I had skunt places all over me."

These complaining purists are not going to accept "skunt places," but for us, it does the work easily, and precisely at the same time.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Editor
Rumors have been circulating lately of possible violence between Communists and Rightists in France, and there have been disturbing though unconfirmed reports of vast stores of arms hidden away by civilians until the day when the call should come.

Minister of the Interior Edouard Dreyfus now confirms that there are concealed weapons "nearly everywhere" in the country and that most of them apparently are in Leftist hands, although some accounts published abroad have been greatly exaggerated. He declares that the government is determined to seize all these hoards of arms, although he doesn't explain how this delicate and far-reaching operation will be carried out.

There we have another phase of the Communist expansion which finally has resulted in America's new world policy. Ever since the war ended, France has been sitting on a volcano, and many observers believe the reason there has been a violent eruption before this is because the Communists have made such progress that they have had hopes of getting full control of the country without resorting to extreme measures. The Reds currently constitute the largest party, having barely edged out the middle-of-the-road popular Republican movement.

The story starts long before the war. Early in Stalin's regime the Communists established powerful cells in France, especially in the great industrial district about Paris. By the time the conflict broke the party membership was heavy, it being said that there were a million Communists in the environs of the capital alone.

When the Hitlerites overran the hapless country the Communists drove underground and joined the other Free French in fighting the

GANGSTERDOM

Our Reign of Terror
The killing of a railroad president who had had the courage to fight for principle, though repeatedly threatened during a fifteen-month strike, and the exposing of public figures by the House Labor Committee of numerous instances in which bombs have been thrown and men beaten, are serving to focus public attention on a reign of terror unlike any in our history.

George P. McNear, president of the Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad, was shot to death in the dark later he had resisted union efforts to control his road and had given damaging evidence of union activity to the Congressional committee.

A few days earlier a member of Sorrell's Red-dominated Conference of Studio Unions in Hollywood told the House committee he felt that his life was in danger because he had testified before the investigating body. Muscle-man Sorrell, himself, was beaten and tossed from his car onto the desert sands a few nights ago—and this apparently was no hoax for publicity, but the real thing.

All Alvin Karpis' official received a death threat immediately after he had told the House committee about violence, coercion and Communist influence in the CIO local which has almost bankrupt that Wisconsin firm in a series of strikes over a period of years.

Dog-Eat-Dog
It did not take a Congressional investigation to inform America of these things. We can't forget the bombing of home after home in Hollywood last fall during the early days of the current strike of Sorrell's CIO. We have not forgotten the smashing of 19 homes in Blaine, Mont., a year ago during a miner's

Common Ground

Christian Ethics

There is one belief that separates the ethics, the morals or the ethics of Christians from that of the ethics, morals and ideas of right of the socialists.

That difference is that the socialists invariably and always act as if there was one standard of right, one standard of morals and one standard of ethics for an individual and a different standard of ethics and morals and right for the people or the public or the group or the labor unions or the state or the sub-divisions of the state.

Invariably the Socialist, the Fascist, the Communist, the believer in labor unions monopolies, the collectivist believes that the group or the people or the public or the state can do things that are immoral for an individual to do.

In other words, the Socialist as contrasted with the individual, believes that there are two standards of morals and ethics—one for the individual and another one for the group or the state.

So the real way of telling a Socialist or a collectivist or a fascist is whether or not he believes in a single standard of rightness, of ethics, a universal eternal standard that applies equally to man or the state.

So a Socialist is anybody that believes that a group or the people or the public or the state or a subdivision of the state can do things that would be immoral if done by an individual.

And this belief that there are two standards of morals, two standards of ethics, two standards of right is what causes our confusion—our trouble. It is what causes our unemployment; our inability to pay our government bills; our discriminatory laws; our boom and busts; our wars.

Of course only a very, very few people really believe in one or single standard of rightness. Jesus recognized that only a few people ever lived by moral law when He said, "Wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

Now let us look at some collectivist acts that can only be sanctioned by a double standard of morals.

The first, and the most important, is compulsory education. It is purely socialism. No individual would claim that he had the right as an individual to use force and compulsion over another individual to compel him to help pay for the education of children the many and Italy in the crises which led directly to World War II, cannot wage a major conflict for at least twenty years.

The reasons are almost too obvious to require repetition. Her industry, agriculture and transportation were virtually destroyed by the Germans. Her people are in no mood or physical condition for further hardships. Despite reports to the contrary, Stalin has no atom bomb. A few outdated destroyers and submarines, together with ancient cruisers taken as war loot, make up his navy.

IRONIC—Thus, as the White House and State Department coldly figure it, the United States, with minor assistance from England and France, has almost a generation in which to strengthen a democratic nation that may prevent Communism from engulfing the whole world.

In that time, too, he feels that an example of American peace and prosperity will convince the doubting nations, including countries now within the Muscovite orbit, that the democratic way of life is preferable to Communist cruelty and domination.

Washington, however, still thinks it ironic that it should fall to "the little fellow in the White House," as former colleagues once referred to Harry S. Truman, to make the momentous decision in all the annuals of American diplomacy.

Inch' Operation April 1 Is Asked

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Permission to begin operating the Big and Little Inch pipelines April 1, when a temporary lease expires, was sought yesterday by the Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

Texas Eastern applied to the Federal Power Commission for authority to continue the service now being performed by the Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company, which has been operating under the temporary lease.

This service consists of piping gas from Texas to the Pittsburgh area. Texas Eastern asked authority to install three new compressor stations to increase the gas flow to 250,000,000 cubic feet daily, about double the present rate.

The corporation acquired the lines from the War Assets Administration last December with a high bid of $143,700,000. The temporary operating certificate it seeks would cover the period until it makes final payment for the lines to the WAA next November.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, March 19.—Wheat futures which climbed above the 82 mark briefly yesterday, today continued a sideways slide which began in the middle of the preceding session.

May and July contracts in the Chicago Board of Trade dropped the 10 cent a bushel daily limit today around mid-session. March wheat, which reached 83.55 at the start yesterday, was down to 82.75—a slide of 8 1/2 cents today and 27 cents from the high yesterday.

All contracts fell the 10 cent limit at Kansas City, and July wheat dropped the 10 cent limit at Minneapolis at the same time.

Observers attributed the setback to a technical condition following recent heavy short-covering. It is expected to be a temporary setback.

Ethel Barrymore Joins

In Baseball Predictions

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD.—(P)—With spring training well under way, baseball writers are climbing out on a limb in predicting this year's pennant winners.

After due consideration, the great lady of the stage and now the screen came forth with the following selections:

"The same winners as last year—St. Louis Cardinals and Boston Red Sox, although the Cleveland Indians have a good chance."

Baseball is no newly acquired fad with Miss Barrymore; she's been following the sport since she was three. "My dad was a great fan," she explained. "And my brothers were both good players, especially Lionel." Her all-time favorites? "Walter Johnson, Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker."

Betty Hutton and Frank Sinatra were chatting at a corner, and guess what about their kids. Betty was telling how intelligent her four-months-old daughter is, and Frank described his plight when he was driving in from Palm Springs that evening and little Nancy asked, "where does the sun go daddy?"

An Englishman, W. Greener, invented the first modern carriage in 1835, but the British government turned it down as impractical.

DENTAL CLASS

KANSAS CITY

Glenn Hosmer interrupted Miss Mary Eleanor Bell's fourth grade class at Searritt School to announce that he had pulled a tooth.

After an arithmetic test Dorothy Rodina announced she had a loose tooth and pulled it.

Then Dora Le Vance pulled a tooth. James Benton followed suit. At recess Dora Leo and James each pulled another tooth.

Before the day was over three other children lost teeth.
