Opposition Is Expected in U. N. Council

LAKE SUCCESS — AP—The United States informed the world today that she intends to keep the strategic islands in the Pacific to insure American security. In a draft agreement submitted by Secretary-General Trygve Lie and circulated to members of the U. N. Security Council, the U. S. government asked the United Nations to designate these islands, including most of the Marshalls, Marianas and Carolines, as a "strategic area" under American administration.

Opposition is expected in the Council from Russia, Great Britain, Australia and perhaps others. Moscow, London and Canberra are reported to have advised the U. S. State Department that they were opposed to acceptance of any agreement until the peace treaty with Japan was signed.

But whether the United Nations approves the agreement or not, the U. S. made it clear that she is determined to give up the islands that she considers to be essential to American defense.

Authoritative sources said that no one has raised any objection to continued American occupation of the islands, nor to have had any particular part of the agreement. It is not clear what the U. S. intended by the League of Nations, the pressing problems of atomic energy, the U. S. proposal may not reach the floor for several days.

Secretary of State Acheson said that all of the former German islands north of the Equator which were turned over to Japan as mandated by the League of Nations, are placed under U. N. trusteeship with the U. S. as administrator.

If approved, the agreement would give the United States, as administering authority, virtually the same rights as would come under outright annexation.

The 623 islands, extending north from the Equator about 1,200 miles and for about 2,500 miles from east to west, have a total land area of only 829 square miles. Their total population is about 85,000.

With the exception of Guam in the Marianas, an American possession since 1898, the islands, these islands were formerly German possessions, but were mandated by the League of Nations to Japan.

The Marshalls consist of 23 coral atolls and have a population of 10,439.

Each of the three groups has a language of its own.

The islands include such vital bases as Saipan and Tinian in the Marianas; Truk in the Carolines; and Kwajalein in the Marshalls.

A British spokesman said his government welcomed evidence that the United States wanted to bring the islands under U. N. trusteeship, but for legal reasons doubted that the time was ripe for making any agreement.

There was no definite indication of how Warren R. Austin, American council delegate, would view the objections, but it was apparent that he would not get approval of the plan with two major powers opposed.

Opponents Say Chief Might Try To Snub Congress

WASHINGTON — AP — David E. Lilienthal's foes here today on the theme that the former TVA chief may try to snub Congress later if he wins confirmation as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

At the same time word reached Capitol Hill that President Truman has gone to unusual lengths to impress senators that there will be no withdrawal from the case of Edwin Paulsen, the President's first choice for Undersecretary of the Navy.

Mr. Truman was quoted by one Democrat who asked that his name be used, as saying that (1) he not only will not pull back the nomination on his own but (2) he will resign any request from Lilienthal himself in the doubtful event the nominee ever seeks such a move.

Lilienthal was represented by friends as equally determined to fight the issue out in the Senate, where jockeying between opponents Six E. Estes, Fort Worth stunt flyer, and a lobbyist, and one was killed in a boat mishap. Automobile accidents in Louisiana and New Mexico were fatal to two Texans.

Estes was demonstrating an Iron-man Maneuver at less than 200 feet during an air show at Mineral Wells yesterday when the small plane stalled, went into a spin and exploded.

Rugged Terrain Handicaps Removal of Crash Victims

BOGOTA, Colombia — AP—Search parties labored in mountain country today to bring in bodies of 53 persons killed in the worst commercial airplane crash on record. They recovered three of the bodies before darkness stopped their work last night.

The victims—49 passengers and a crew of four, including at least DC-4 of the Colombian Avianca Airlines that plowed into cloudy El Tablazo Cliff, 30 miles northwest of here, Saturday on a flight to Bogota from Barranquilla, about 500 miles north.

The plane struck about 2 p. m. near the top of a 1,000-foot precipice climaxing an elevation of about 9,000 feet above sea level. The wreckage blew up, scattering bodies and debris of the plane over the cliff face and a steep ravine below.

Those from the U. S. aboard were identified as:

Capt. Roy Kaye, copilot and radio operator.

Henry R. Burton of St. Charles, Mo., coordinator of North American personnel of the Tropical Oil Company.

Fred L. Wohl, chief of Tropical Oil's construction department, retired Army Colonel and veteran of wartime service in the Caribbean with the Air Transport Command.

H. K. Hufferdick, another official of Texaco Petroleum.

Benjo Slesin of New York City, United Artists moving picture distributor.

A Canadian, a Briton, a Frenchman and at least two prominent Colombians also died in the wreck.

Villages, first to report the crash Saturday night when the plane was already eight hours overdue here, and the police made up rescue parties sent from Subachoque, Sopata and San Francisco.

By last night, rescuers with long ropes had succeeded in hoisting the first three bodies from the ravine and had them sent to the States. The first and second they could not move out that way. Two bodies were unidentifiable. The third was identified tentatively as that of Allan Campbell of London, chief of the legal department of Tropical Oil.

Meanwhile other parties, the first led by the Mayor of Sopata, reached the ravine below the cliff and found the corpses there badly mangled and buried and mixed with debris of the plane, some in crevices that could be reached only by ladders.

Continued Cold Prolongs Power Cuts in Britain

LONDON — AP—Forecasts of continued cold weather threatened today to prolong for at least another week a fuel crisis responsible for crippling factory shutdowns and electric power cuts throughout the nation.

Although the Cabinet was reported hopeful of setting a date for easing emergency measures, it invoked last week to meet the crisis, no immediate end was in sight for power rationing decrees which have left homes, stores and offices without electricity for five hours daily.

The Ministry of Fuel reported the emergency measures had resulted in a first six days of restricted power at power generating stations, but declined to forecast an end to the crisis.

The weather remains a threat to the building up of stocks, declared Sir Guy Nott-Bower, deputy secretary of the Ministry of Fuel and Power, told a news conference last night. "Temperatures are likely to be around freezing for some days, and the return of snow or a storm would inevitably cause an immediate and serious setback."

Sir Guy reported that 182,130 tons of coal had been saved in the first six days of restricted power usage, or about one-third the normally used in generating electricity in that period.

Ministry checks at power stations have been built up to a 10% daily supply as compared with the nine-day supply which was on hand when the Government first ordered plans to be closed in 38 English and Welsh counties and began restrictions on domestic consumers.

Ministry checks at traditional "no Sunday work" rule yesterday, thousands working overtime to dig coal as a sign of support for the labor movement, said the Government has promised improved working conditions.

Officers Search For Kidnapers, Killers of Negro

PICKENS, S. C. — AP—A band of armed men early today removed a Negro prisoner, Willie Earle, 25, of Greenville, from the Pickens County Jail. An hour and a half later his body was found on a road in Greenville County.

"Just before 5 o'clock this morning," said 62-year-old jailer J. Ed Gilstrap, "about 25 men knocked at the front door. Then they came around to the back door. One of them said they wanted the Negro and wouldn't harm anybody else. Several of them carried shotguns, and most of them wore caps. They made me go in and unlock the cell. They took the Negro and drove away in several cars. It was then a little after 5 o'clock."

About 6:45 o'clock the body of the Negro, who had been arrested for investigation in the stabbing of a taxi driver, was found in adjacent Greenville County. Coroner J. O. Turner, the first officer to reach the body, said the body bore stab wounds and that the head had been struck through with a shotgun casing.

Earle had been arrested yesterday morning, several hours after T. W. Brown, 50-year-old Greenville taxi driver, had been found slumped in a roadside ditch. He told officers he had picked up a Negro fare in Greenville Saturday night and had been stabbed and robbed by the Negro about two miles north of the town of Liberty. Hospital attendants reported his condition critical.

Pickens County Sheriff W. H. Mauldin, this morning, committed Greenville County and identified the body as that of Earle.

Jailor Gilstrap said he did not recognize any members of the unknown mob.

Meanwhile in Columbia Governor Strom Thurmond instructed the South Carolina Constabulary official tender every possible aid to officers of Pickens and Greenville counties in bringing the guilty parties to justice.

Coal Industry Chief Seeking Union Division

WASHINGTON — AP—Roy D. Campbell, coal industry official urged Congress today to break up John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers and other big unions into small units.

Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., general counsel for the Island Creek Coal Co. and the Pold Creek Coal Co., testified before the House Labor Committee.

Before today's session opened, Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.) said a personal survey convinced him that rank and file members want Congress to pass a law to free them of "near" and "far" union leaders.

Like other coal spokesmen, Campbell said in his prepared testimony that if Congress doesn't curb big unions, "it is not unreasonable to anticipate further coal strikes."

Committee Approves Tenure Limitation

WASHINGTON — AP—The Senate Judiciary Committee voted 9 to 1 today for a proposed constitutional amendment to limit presidential tenure to two full terms of four years each.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wisc.) told reporters the committee made two changes in a similar amending resolution already passed by the House.

1. Under resolution voted by the Senate committee, if a president had served less than one year he would be eligible for an additional two full terms.

The House provided that if the President served any part of a term he would be eligible for only one additional full term.

2. The Senate measure would require ratification by conventions in three-fourths of the states, rather than by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

Wiley said convention ratification was approved because this procedure "is closer to the people." The convention would comprise delegates especially chosen to consider the amendment.

Only Senator Kilgore (D-W. Va.) voted against the resolution. Wiley said. Voting for it were Republican Senators Wiley, Langer (R-N.D.), Ferguson (R-Mich.), Revercomb (W-Va.), Moore (Okla.), Cooper (Ky.), and Donnell (Mo.).

Wiley said Senators Fulbright (D-Ark.), McGarrath (R-N.Y.), and Eastland (D-Miss.) were absent.

A two-thirds majority vote in the Senate must approve the resolution and the House must agree by the same ratio before it is submitted to the states. Ratification requires three-fourths of the states.

Chiang Revamps Business, Plans New Government

NANKING — AP—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's government in a desperate fight for national survival completely revamped China's surviving business structure today and promised to reorganize the government itself.

Chiang's tough black market underground promptly moved "underground" and defied the new regulations—but Chiang threatened "severe penalties" and said that "rough and ready justice" would meet up in some cases for lack of enforcement machinery.

The drastic decrees:

1. Ordered home all fortunes abroad. (A few Chinese are reported to have foreign investments worth billions; and many have modern machinery.)
2. Provided for government withdrawal from industry. (It had been moving toward virtual monopoly of heavy industry, but now plans to retain only utilities and defense-related plants.)
3. Restricted wages and prices to January levels, and prohibited strikes and lockouts.
4. Fixed the official exchange rate at 12,000 Chinese dollars to one U. S. (instead of 3,350 to one) and banned any use of foreign currency on any trading in gold in China. This already is being violated in Shanghai.
5. Provided for a curtailed government budget and stricter tax collection, along with expenditure of $472,500,000 U. S. for importing urgently needed machinery and raw materials.
6. Pledged a campaign against hoarding and speculation, and said "severe penalties" would be imposed for violation of any decrees.

The government also announced a tightening control of financial institutions and said all government loans must be used to promote production of necessities for home use and commodities for export. Surplus funds with expenditure of $472,500,000 U. S. for importing urgently needed machinery and raw materials.

Finance Smith, chairman of the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, said the new program would stop American business in China "for a while."

Committee Delays Dooley's Approval

WASHINGTON — AP—The Senate Judiciary Committee today postponed until next Monday action on President Truman's nomination of Joe B. Dooley of Amarillo to be a federal district judge for Northern Texas.

The delay was ordered, Senator Connally (D-Texas) told reporters upon leaving a closed-door meeting of the committee, because several members were unable to attend.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wisc.) had said previously that because of the controversy between Connally and Dooley, the committee would not act on the nomination. O'Daniel has told the committee Dooley is "both personally objectionable and personally objectionable to me."

A further airing of the patronage differences between the two Texas Senators appears likely. There was a report in Texas Congressional circles that O'Daniel will seek to have the nomination of Herbert E. Arnold, the O'Daniel pick for Texas, returned to the Senate Finance Committee for further consideration.

This committee recently unanimously approved Arnold's nomination. It is backed by Connally and opposed by O'Daniel.

The Arnold nomination is now on the floor of the House. It may be called up at any time for confirmation, or rejection.

State Golden Gloves Meet Finals Are Slated Tonight

PORT WORTH—(AP)—The question of who hit whom will continue as a major topic of conversation tonight as Texas champions of the Golden Gloves are determined with Sully Montgomery, sheriff of Tarrant County, Sgt. Tom Proctor of Abilene, baldish soldier stationed at Fort Bliss, and a Golden Gloves official figuring in the speculation.

The capacity crowd of 9,600 is expected in Will Rogers Coliseum for the finals, held there by a great boxing show and not kept away in the least by Saturday night's aftermath in which Montgomery, former professional heavyweight boxer serving as referee, took punches at Proctor, who had lost a semi-finals heavyweight bout to Charles Simmons of Dallas. Most of the crowd thought one of Montgomery's punches struck Proctor but the soldier said he never touched me but that Robert Ballew, former Golden Gloves fighter and serving as ring official, got in the way of a fist. Ballew had a bruise on the face. The trouble arose after Montgomery pulled Proctor away from Simmons when the two heavyweights continued to trade blows after the bell had ended the match.

There was considerable furore about it and both Montgomery and Proctor apologized but things quickly simmered down and the sheriff is due to be back in the ring replacing Proctor tonight. It was indicated the flurry, which the crowd appeared to enjoy immensely, will only serve to make the fans more anxious to see the rest of the show.

There will be 16 bouts tonight, eight of determining champions and the other eight being between student fighters who are eliminated in rounds before the finals and are being given a chance to win something, the victor in each of these bouts to receive a gold trophy.

Heavyweights—Louis Allen, 112, Port Arthur, vs. James Baccott, 112, Dallas.

Light Heavyweights—Tom Adams, 171, Houston, vs. Eddie Brock, 169, Abilene.

The eight bouts for the golden trophies, which are scheduled first on the program starting at 8:15 o'clock are:

Bantamweights—Leonard Dixon, 114, Amarillo, vs. Lolo Jimenez, 114, Amarillo.

Just wrap up the Southwest Conference basketball pennant, making sure it's a neat package, and mail it to Mr. Jack Gray, well-known young man in University of Texas athletic circles, boasting a two-game lead and undefeated in eight starts. Gray's Longhorns hardly will be even so much as irritated by the rest of the year.

Southern Methodist, whose friendship for the state university runs hot and cold, had the heater on last weekend. The Mustangs beat Arkansas in two games to leave Texas high and dry at the top of the heap. Arkansas' chances at the championship now are like this: Texas would have to lose three of its four remaining games while the Razorbacks were sweeping the four left on their schedule, two of which are with Texas.

The double set-back at the hands of SMU, twice beaten by Texas, surprised Arkansas as much as it did the fans. But there was no doubt about it, Southern Methodist had the better team. The Mustangs gave Arkansas an artistic trimming Friday night, 63-52 and came from behind Saturday night to win 47-44.

Meanwhile Texas was whipping Texas A. & M. 69-40 and this week should clinch at least a tie for the championship by easily licking Baylor and Rice. Baylor indicated it would be the toughest of the two as it whipped Rice 67-55 Saturday night.

Texas will be after a double honor in winning the conference title. The Longhorns have the best history of the basketball circuit having come in first seven times to rank second to Arkansas in championships.

But Arkansas has won just one more than Texas. Thus a Longhorn triumph this year will draw the orange and white boys from the state.

The week's schedule starts off Wednesday night with Texas entering Baylor and Texas Christian meeting Southern Methodist at Fort Worth.

Friday night Arkansas opens a two-game series with Texas A. & M. at Fayetteville while Texas Christian plays Oklahoma A. & M. at Oklahoma City. Saturday night Baylor engages Southern Methodist at Waco and Texas plays Rice at Austin.

The conference standing:

TEAM	W	L	Pct.
Texas	11	1	1.000
SMU	6	2	.750
Arkansas	6	2	.750
Baylor	4	5	.444
Texas A. & M.	2	6	.250
Rice	2	7	.222
TCU	1	7	.125

Baseball Loop Directors Raise Salary Limit, Adopt Schedule

BY SCOTT RAFFERTY
Associated Press Sports Editor

With all members apparently going to their respective homes fully satisfied, directors of the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League met here yesterday and adopted a new salary limit—$2,800 per month per club—along with a 1947 playing schedule in a surprisingly quiet session marked by a general cooperative spirit.

The league, which consists of six Texas cities and two in New Mexico, will open its season April 23, starting off a schedule that will include 140 games for each team.

A motion to raise the salary limit from $2,200 to $2,800 was unanimously adopted in a surprise move. Some of the clubs were reported to have been ready to object but all agreed that the league should go along with the National Association, which recommended the new limit at its winter meeting.

In another important step, the league voted to allow players to participate in proceeds of the first four games of each playoff series and voted to add 25 cents to the playoff admission price (for a total of one dollar) to raise the revenue.

The player fund will be divided on a basis of 60 percent to the winning team and 40 percent to the losers in each playoff series.

Directors also gave their approval to a proposal that each club be allowed to carry 19 players the 15 and last 15 days of the regular season. Jack Rydler, said he thought clubs were allowed only one extra player in the first and last 10 days of the season. These players, carried over of course, be used in playoff games.

The limit for the remainder of the season is 15 players, not including the playing manager.

With President Milton Price of Dallas casting the deciding vote on a tie count, the league adopted a rule that any player released after a "five-day look" cannot be taken back as a "looker" before 30 days have elapsed.

In a move that brought a stir of comment, Lynn Boyd, Secretary of the Pampa Oilers, voted to support that Amarillo be awarded the 1947 all-star game and the motion "five-day look" cannot be taken back as a "looker" before 30 days have elapsed.

In other business, Pampa was officially voted the 1946 pennant and Grover Seitz, only manager in the league with two championships to his credit, was accorded a "vote of thanks" for bringing his team through to the Texas Class C Championship in a playoff with Henderson of the East Texas League.

"Votes of thanks" were also accorded President Price for his efforts in keeping the league from being involved in any scandal connected with gambling and to Neal Babe for his work in bossing the umpires last year; the league's most unpleasant job.

"We must remove any and all temptations for gambling," Price said. "I ask the members not to pull any punches in order to protect the league from ruthless gamblers."

Members voted to express their regrets to the Clavis Sports Association for the death of John Ralls, a league pioneer president of the New Mexico group.

Serrano Puts Title On Line Tomorrow
HOUSTON—(AP)—Raymond Serrano, welterweight boxing champion, will put his title on the line tomorrow night when he meets Henry Malcher, the Pittsburgh puncher, with a capacity crowd expected in the Coliseum.

Proceeds from the fight will go to the Shrine Crippled Children's fund.

Serrano and Malcher have met before. The other time Serrano got the decision but many in the crowd thought Malcher should at least have gained a draw.

Tucker Appears To Have Crown Clinched
KANSAS CITY—(AP)—It isn't likely that Gerald Tucker of the Oklahoma Sooners will break the Big Six scoring record of 175 points he set in 1943, but the heavyweight point-maker appears on odd-on chances to top the conference in this department this season.

Tucker hit the hoop 16 points four nights ago as he paced the Sooners to a 57-38 win over Kansas State and into first place in the standings to bring his average for six Big Six games to 14.83 points.

Lynn Waldorf Is California Coach
BERKELEY, Calif.—(AP)—Big Lynn Waldorf had a new job cut to his size today—re-viving the Golden Era of Football at the University of California.

The task of coaching the Golden Bears, who last went to the Rose Bowl in 1938 when they whipped Alabama 13-0 was accepted as a "challenge" last night by the man who has been gridiron mentor of Northwestern in the Big Nine for the past years.

He succeeds Frank Wickhorst whose contract was taken up amid a clamor of the Associated Students of California after the Bears won only two games out of nine last season. Brutus K. Hamilton, acting general manager of the ASUC, said Waldorf's contract would specify that he has been hired by the school and responsible only to the president, "not to the students."

Approximately 90 percent of the absences used in the United States comes from Canada.

Dodds To Be Back At His Specialty, Running the Mile

BY AUSTIN DEALHEAR
NEW YORK—The brief honeymoon of the Milers appears to be over.

Gallop-ing Gil Dodds, who last Saturday passed up the mile for the two-mile race today "guessed" he will be back at his specialty—the mile, that is—at the National A. U. Track and Field Championships at Madison Square Garden next Saturday.

"I enjoyed running two miles in the New York Athletic Club Meet," Dodds said, "but afterwards, my coach, Jack Rydler, said he thought I should run the mile rather than three miles in the Nationals."

If he chose, the Nebraska-born preacher who wears the colors of the Boston Athletic Association probably could win them both with ease and run the two-mile in his spare time, except for the fact there is no two-mile event in the Nationals.

Dodds showed 14,000 persons at the New York Athletic Club games in Madison Square Garden Saturday night that there isn't a runner who can touch him. Switching to the two-mile after winning three straight mile races in his comeback campaign with creditable times of 4:09.1, 4:08.9, Dodds led throughout the 22 laps on the garden's banked board track and wrapped up the Toussaint two-mile fixture by the comfortable margin of 90 yards and with a clocking of 9:05.6.

The man who trailed him by half a lap was Forest Elaw, the Sulwaukee, Okla., veteran who holds the National AAU three-mile title and had not been beaten in four previous two-mile starts this year.

With Dodds out of the way, Tommy Quinn of the New York Athletic Club, who finished second to Dodds in all three of his mile triumphs this season, won the Baxter mile Saturday night in 4:17.6.

Some idea of Dodds' pace can be gained from the fact that although he was running twice as far, his first half-mile time was two and a half seconds faster than that of the milers and his time for his first mile was only 5.8 seconds, slower than Quinn's winning effort in the mile.

Harvesters Meet Amarillo Cagers Tomorrow Night

With the 1947 District basketball titled assured them—if they win, Amarillo's Sandies will run up against a high-spirited Pampa Harvester team here tomorrow night at eight o'clock at the Junior High Gymnasium.

A Pampa victory, not out of the realm of possibility, would throw the Sandies into a tie for the title with the Lubbock Westerners and a playoff would be necessary.

The locals, who have won 11 and just 10 over the entire season, will be dedicating tomorrow night's game to their newly elected basketball queen, Nicki Fraser.

Miss Fraser will be crowned queen by Captain Bill Speer, Harvester center. Her attendants will be Pat O'Rourke and Ida Ruth Taylor, escorted by Charlie Lafoon and Calvin McAdams, respectively.

The Sandies, who have won 21 out of 23 starts this year, will be fighting for their second straight district title. Coach T. G. Hull's cagers won from Borger, 47-41, Friday. Lubbock, meanwhile, kept pace by defeating Borger, 47-25, and Plainview, 49-34.

A Pampa victory would also send the Harvesters into fifth place in the loop standings, replacing Borger in that notch.

The standings:

TEAM	W	L	Pts.	Opp.
Amarillo	8	1	436	311
Lubbock	8	2	443	363
Plainview	6	4	411	351

Lovely Valentine Party Given for Members of Martha Class Friday

As guests entered they passed through a large heart into the entertaining room which were beautifully decorated with hearts and other Valentine decorations.

Mrs. Hugh Ellis led the group in singing "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and as they sang Mrs. E. L. Anderson, the teacher, was presented a hand-painted card dish, and Mrs. Stokes was given a lovely bouquet of cut flowers.

Mrs. L. E. Haggard, social chairman, led the group in games and had each one draw a Valentine which revealed the names of the secret Valentine pals.

Mrs. Stokes poured coffee from a silver-plated table, the centerpiece of which was a crystal bowl of red and white carnations flanked by two three-tiered crystal candelabra holding burning red candles. Refreshments were individual white cakes decorated with red hearts, and heart and dart cookies and salted nuts. Assisting in serving were Mrs. O. C. WE, THE WOMEN

Women Have Strange Ideas About Men

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

In answer to my column listing a number of foolish ideas men have about women, several men wrote in to ask: "Why don't you admit that women have just as many silly notions about men?"

They do. And these are probably some of them:

"That all men are alike. (And how often women console one another with that statement.)"

"That men are just little boys grown up. (Women have been bringing up their daughters on that idea for generations.)"

"That mother, naturally and instinctively, knows better than father how to bring up children. (That men prefer dumb women. (Actually, men prefer pretty, feminine women, brains being entirely acceptable if the woman is also attractive.)"

"That men have some silly notions about men."

Ruth Millett

Mrs. Ruby Cullpepper, president, opened the meeting with the singing of the club song. It was decided to hold the election and installation of new officers the middle of March.

Refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, olives, cake and coffee were served. Little heart-shaped figures of Dan Cupid were given as favors by the hostess.

Members were Mesdames Lois Wagner, Lora Payne, Edythe West, Marjorie Coffin, Maggie Harrison, Virginia Archer, and Mrs. Frances Mason; and Miss Dorothy Barrett. Two guests, Mrs. Maggie Smith and Mrs. Edith Boyd, were also present.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Mary Frances Mason, 520 E. Browning.

Baker P-TA Honors National Birthday

A highlight of the P-TA meeting at Baker School Thursday was a portion of the program conducted by Mrs. H. M. Stokes in celebration of National Founder's Day, Feb. 17, marking its golden anniversary.

Mrs. Stokes and those helping on the program brought a story stressing the fundamental goals upon which the National Parent-Teachers Association was founded. The former president of Baker P-TA were recognized and introduced. Those present were Mesdames W. A. Grey, Claude Lard, Roy Holt, L. H. Anderson, Cecil Lunford and J. E. Mullanax.

The devotional, given by Mrs. Irl Smith, carried out the program theme, "Developing Better Citizens." Mrs. Smith read 2nd Timothy, 2:15: "Study to show thyself approved of God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." She emphasized the importance of correct foundations in homes for children in a discussion of three loves—human, spiritual and understanding love.

Following the devotional the third grade pupils presented a mixed program of songs, accompanied by Mrs. Claudia Gallman at the piano, and dialogues honoring Lincoln, Washington and Valentine's Day.

During the business session Mrs. H. H. Gates and Mrs. W. M. Elliott were elected as a nominating committee to select officers for the coming year.

B. R. Nuckols announced that there will be a minstrel show sponsored by the Lions Club Feb. 27 and that the funds received are to be used for the construction of the South Side Park on East Campbell Street. All were urged to see this show and contribute to a worthy enterprise.

To conclude the meet nine birthday candles, representing birth, fellowship, organization, understanding, neighborliness, devotion, entusiasm, restlessness and service were lighted. Mrs. Claude Lard served the birthday cake.

Renewal Letters Mailed Out Today by Pampa Community Concert Officials

Although members of the Pampa Community Concert Association are still looking forward to March when the Pampa Ensemble will present the fourth concert of the current season, as well as to March 20 when the final concert of 1946-1947 will be given, the workers will start a week's campaign for new members. "It is important to renew our list of names awaiting membership and these will be allowed to join starting March 17. The membership this year nearly filled the auditorium and next year we expect to have every seat occupied. Early renewals also help those carrying on the real work of this organization, and the cooperation of each member is appreciated by the executive committee."

"One of the finest things in our American way of life that must be defended, is music," remarked Ray Robbins, president of the Pampa Community Concert Association, in announcing the renewal membership campaign for renewals as well as for the new members. "We are to have the renewals in during the next few weeks and then there will be one week when our workers will secure new members. No memberships will be accepted after noon on Saturday, March 22, and that evening the executive committee will meet with the representative of Community Concert Service to select artists for the upcoming season. It is our sincere hope that the concert presented here has been an incentive for early renewals as well as for a sell out this next year."

Those you have not been a member this past year and desire to be one in 1947-1948 you may contact the secretary and your name will be on the waiting list to be open for membership on March 17," stated Mrs. J. W. Garman, jr., general chairman of the membership campaign, this evening. "There is very reason to anticipate that this year, the fourth year of our concert Association, will be the most successful in its history. Our materials are better and the program available attractions is on a very high level of excellence. We hope to bring music—more music and better music—to our citizens," she said.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN
Well, in this day of nuclear fission, super-combustible fuels, frozen foods and projected trips to other planets, it's certainly refreshing to see that the U. S. Navy after considering a 2500 new uniform styles, has decided to go back to the old-fashioned bell-bottomed trousers with the 13-button drop front and the laced back. I just couldn't imagine our sailor boys bounding on the main in pleated trousers, draped coats with shawl collars and gathered waistlines, and navy blue berets.

May that some of the proposed uniforms were lovely and the Navy wouldn't have had any trouble enlisting young men eager to wear them. However, the glamor-gob would probably have been afraid to get into fights for fear of mauling his wardrobe. And an admiral might have spent more time worrying about getting moths in his pants than getting a torpedo in his engine room.

KIDNEYS GETTING TOO UP NIGHTS?

If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your water—have only scanty passages—yes, and have backache due to excess acidity in the urine, be glad you're reading this.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLES

AMERICAN BROTHERHOOD WEEK, ITS SUM IMPORTANCE TO US
Whatever is the reader's ability to get along with his fellow-man, to help him in his troubles, to compliment him on his accomplishments, is a personal matter.

The world is mighty late in promoting brotherhood, tolerance, and the other kindnesses about which we, really, know so little. They are the things that come from a satisfied inner-being, the Real Self, as the social scientists would call it.

We have in mind a particular time, the time when life moved more slowly, but with more equanimity. Those were the days when there were no means of fast travel, when the conveniences of life were not "streamlined."

Of course, we don't want to go back to those days; but it should be pointed out that in gaining some things, we lost other things which, probably in the long run, may have added to our congeniality and consideration for others' personal feelings.

Since those days, we have built up animosities, and out of them have come what? The answer seems to be the desire to strike at our neighbors. Even at the people next door—if we even know them! We lay faults for the ills we suffer at the door of people whose skin is not the same color as ours; to people of other lands; to people in other professional and occupational pursuits.

There have been many fine gestures of re-laying the ground-work of friendship and brotherhood. The Rev. Russell G. West, of the Church of the Brethren; and the Rev. W. L. Smith, of St. Marks Church, gave Pampans something to think about when they "traded" pulpits yesterday. That was a commendable thing to do—from where we sit, at least. . . . It is happening in other communities, and good will come from it. These are the things we must do if we are to remain a strong and Christian nation; because we are being divided among ourselves, whether we like it, or intend for it to happen.

It is a far cry from what has happened in Atlanta, Ga., what has happened in Mississippi, and other places we would mention. Neither of these instances is worth mentioning, except to deplore the acts which they have represented.

Yes, the effort to live in friendship and harmony with our neighbor, whoever he may be, is an individual responsibility. The appeal of Brotherhood Week deserves continuing attention. It will be too late to realize its importance if the sum of individual disregard becomes a national failure.

NEWS NOTEBOOK

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The Veterans' Emergency Housing program is dead, though not yet buried. All the recent premium payment and guaranteed market plans which Housing expediter Frank E. Creedon has directed the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to execute are deals which were initiated by Wilson Wyatt before he left office.

Popularity of former RFC Chairman Jesse Jones must be deserved. At least three Congressional Committees want to investigate him. They are Sen. Owen Brewster's War Investigating Committee, Congressman Jesse Wolcott's Banking and Currency Committee, and Congressman Clare Hoffman's Committee on Executive Expenditures.

WASHINGTON

PROHIBITION Several curious trends in the incessant warfare between the nations wet and dry forces have begun to give some uneasiness to the big liquor interests and to allied groups opposing a return of total or even partial prohibition through local option movements.

Cure For Booms and Busts
The Commercial and Financial Chronicle carried an editorial in December making the following statement: "Let it be bluntly asserted at the very outset that (free enterprise, not more than the government) knows how to abolish the so-called business cycle, the alternating up and down movements in general business conditions."

BOURBON — What bothers the liquor people is that the prohibs staged their strongest comeback in the young form of Larry Parks. Only a thrilling voice actually makes a comeback. But that voice takes a man out of oblivion. And so percent of the people don't even know what the man looks like today.

There have been about 14,000 elections from 1933 through 1946 in which the voters have had a chance to express their preferences. In 10,000 of these tests there was no change. The dries made a net gain during this period of about 4,800 contests, bringing an additional population of 2,000,000 under their sway.

CONCERN — A careful study of the returns reveals that the anti-liquor movement has shown its greatest strength during the war years and since the close of the conflict, though not in the World War II pattern. It is this and the desertion of erstwhile open-house communities that upsets the liquor people.

BOOTLEGGING—Official representatives of the liquor industry are aware of these harmful conditions. Through cooperation with local police, strict control and a quiet supervision of dealers, they maintain that they aim to conduct the trade so as to "reserve public confidence."

So They Say

TEMPERANCE—The still disorganized reformers do not seem able to unite on strategy in state legislatures or on Capitol Hill. Nor do they normally meet with confidence that they can capitalize recent trends and successes.

IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?
Army Air Forces proposed around-the-world flight of B-29 bombers is still dogged by lack of enthusiasm.

Love Has Two Faces By Irene Lonnen Ernhart Copyright, 1947. NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Ellen dies. While in town one day, Cassie accidentally meets Mr. Drummond, her old employer. He offers her her job back and she accepts. Parker is indifferent when she tells him. He says he has heard from Len, that she has been very sick and wants to come home.

"MAMA—I've got wonderful news!" Cassie tried to sound happy, as she should feel because Len was coming home. "News?" Mama said. "Len's coming home, Mama. Len's coming back!" "Len!" Mama's face lit up, and then the faded eyes brimmed. Cassie gave Mama a quick hug and flew out. "I must find Sid and Papa."

Sid came running, at her call. His basket was full of onions and carrots and fresh crisp lettuce from Papa's garden. "Sid, Len's coming home from New York!" "Len! Oh gosh! When? How long will she stay? Is it for good?" Cassie lowered her voice. "She's ill, Sid, and she'll probably stay a long time. We'll have to take good care of her." "It'll be just like it used to be, won't it, Cassie?" Sid's dark face glowed with excitement as he went tearing into the house.

Splendid Cough Relief, Mixed In Your Kitchen No Trouble. No Cooking. Saves Big Dollars. Yes, ma'am, right in your own kitchen, you can easily mix a cough medicine that is a wonder for quick results, and gives you about four times as much for your money. And it's no trouble—a child could do it. You'll need a syrup. Make it by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup. Then set 2 1/2 ounces of Finex from try it, and if not pleased, your money and druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and returned.

her in an armchair before the fireplace in the living room, with Parker drumming out her favorite songs on the piano. Len had been ill not only in body, but her heart had been crushed too. Good food, rest and medicine were healing her body, and Parker—Cassie realizing with a start—Parker was healing Len's mind. She looked at them, envious of their gaiety and companionship as they looked at each other, smiling and nodding their heads gaily to a particularly clever turn of the music or a catchy modulation.

It was as though Parker sought in Len's companionship he didn't desire from his wife, Cassie didn't feel jealous—not exactly. It was more of a hurt sense of being shut out.

Of course, Sid didn't return to the military academy. Instead, he went to the country school a few miles down the road. The bright yellow school bus stopped every morning at the front gate to pick him up. October came, a sunny glorious October, with the trees at the farm a riot of color, and the sky a gay brilliant blue, the air tangy and exhilarating. Cassie didn't have much time to enjoy it though, working in town every day. Parker brought Len a kitten from a pet shop in town, coal black with long silky fur and blue eyes.

FUNNY BUSINESS BY HERSHBERGER

"George does; I want to get out of practice for summer!"

Archie Converse, 732 North Banks, was fined $50 and costs in County Court this morning after entering a plea of "guilty" to charges of "driving while intoxicated," last Saturday. In testimony, Converse told County Judge Sherman White that the arresting officer, City Policeman J. B. Pritchett, "hit me over the head with a gun." Pritchett, when asked this morning, denied the charge, stating that he had been forced to hit Converse with a blackjack when he (Converse) had attempted to fight him and resist arrest. Converse told the court that he had pulled off the road when the police car siren had sounded. He said, "Officer Pritchett opened the door and ordered me out of the car. He had a gun in his hand. As I stepped out, he hit me over the head with the gun." After a five-mile chase at speeds running as high as 75 mph, Pritchett told of finally catching Converse on the Miami Highway, approximately four miles east of town. Pritchett said "It was dark and I didn't recognize Converse. His car was carrying a Hutchinson County license plate and I had no way of knowing what to expect. As I approached the car he jumped out and attempted to fight me. Naturally I had to defend myself." Chief of Police Louie Allen said this morning that he had checked Converse's story completely and he was convinced that Pritchett had done only what any officer would have done in a like circumstance.

Allen pointed out, "I have never, nor will I ever tolerate an officer who will deliberately beat a prisoner. I am firmly convinced that Pritchett was within his rights as an officer to defend himself with a blackjack against Converse." "It is seldom indeed," Allen said, "that one of my men must use a weapon to make an arrest. In fact, this is one of the few Pampa arrests in the last year where weapons of any kind were required." Converse said he had four sutures taken in his head at the Worley Hospital a short time after the arrest. Pritchett said the man was taken to the hospital for treatment but, "I doubt it if any stitches were taken."

The first telephone man's 1847 CENTENNIAL 1947 Just 100 years ago next March 3 Alexander Graham Bell was born, to become, 28 years later, the world's first telephone man. People were smiling away the newly invented telephone as just a clever toy when young Bell said: "I believe in the future a man in one part of the country may communicate by word of mouth with another in a distant place." From that first telephone, and from that idea in the mind of the man who had invented the telephone, has grown America's Bell System. The usefulness of this telephone system with its 25 million telephones lies in the unity with which its 18 operating companies work together. The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, which serves you, is one of these. The energies of this company go into the important job of providing your day-to-day telephone service. Specialized units in the Bell System handle other matters. Bell Telephone Laboratories, for instance, deals with research, with long-range improvements and economies. The Western Electric Company is manufacturer and storekeeper for the Bell System. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, parent company of the System, ties the work of all together. It is a simple plan and it works. With it the Bell System more than fulfilled Alexander Graham Bell's prediction that a man might one day talk to another "in a distant place."
