

CASE INTRODUCES NEW LABOR LEGISLATION

'Food Prices Will Go Lower'

CHICAGO—(AP)—The men who are among the best informed about the food prices, the brokers on the country's commodity exchange markets, think prices will go lower.

Many new year predictions have been made recently by banks, economists and businessmen concerning future prices. But the forecasts on exchanges are the composite opinions of brokers dealing in the commodities.

Butter prices are high, but you can buy some butter today on the Chicago mercantile exchange for delivery in June at about 53 cents a pound. That's around 22 cents under present wholesale prices.

For the average person who just wants some butter to spread on bread that wouldn't be practical—you'd have to take 19,200 pounds, which is the amount represented by a "futures" contract. Significance of that 53-cent price, however, is that it is today's best guess of the butter and egg men on what the wholesale price will be this summer.

In nearly all markets in which food is traded for future delivery, a similar trend is shown. Eggs are a single exception. In most cases, the more distant the delivery, the lower the price.

Take wheat, which is basic for flour, bread, macaroni and other foods. Its cash price at Chicago is around $2.20 a bushel. If you buy for March delivery, it's $2.04. For July it's $1.79, or 40 cents under present cash prices. Other grains follow that pattern.

Santos coffee will cost 26 cents a pound for delivery in January but only 23 cents for next December. Cocoa is 25 cents for March and 23 cents for September.

This trend holds true for commodities other than foods. Cash cotton is about 33 cents a pound. So the merchants' but not the cotton for delivery in March, 1948, is under 27 cents.

In every case this represents, in dollars and cents, what the individual and business firms who operate in these markets now think of future price trends.

Little Active Interest Seen in City Election

By H. S. GORDON
News Staff Writer

With the exception of active interest in the 4th Ward, a cloak of political apathy seems to hang over the city as both the special and regular city elections draw near and the deadlines for filing petitions of candidates nearer yet.

The special election set for February 25, when a mayor and four commissioners are to be elected, has made many voters overlook and forget that the regular biennial election for these same offices will be held on Tuesday, April 1, 1947.

Thus it means that two petition filing deadlines must also be met—January 25 for the special election and March 1 for the regular election. Yet up until the time of this writing not one petition for the office of mayor or city commissioner has been filed with City Secretary J. Earnest Hood.

On the surface the only activity to date has been the calling of a ward meeting for voters of the 4th ward, to select a candidate for the office of city commissioner. This meeting is to be held at 8 p. m. Friday in the Odd Fellows Hall.

City Attorney Bob Gordon this morning made it clear that candidates filing petitions to have their names placed on the ballot for the special election cannot use that same petition for the April 1 election.

Voters intending to take part in either of both elections will have to pay their $1.75 poll tax or secure their exemption not later than January 31. Servicemen and women who have been discharged from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard less than 18 months ago will not have to pay a poll tax, but must apply for their exemption before January 31.

Asked this morning what would happen if there would not be a sufficient number of candidates by January 25, City Attorney Bob Gordon said the city's charter states that the incumbent mayor and commissioners will serve until their successors are duly elected and added he believed that would hold good if only one or no petitions at all for the special election were filed by January 25.

In the meantime the regular general election for mayor and commissioners comes up. Here again a mantle of apathy cloaks the city. Some quarters attribute it to a general apathy of voters at all times while another portion may be totally uninformed.

Summed up the two elections will run like this:

On January 25 all petitions for candidates for the special election must be in the hands of the city secretary 80 days before the ballots are printed. The ballots then must be printed 20 days prior to the special election on February 25. One week.

All-American Air Maneuvers Set at Miami

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Air-minded Miami spread its wings in welcome today for the 10,000 Army, Navy, Marine and civilian pilots and air enthusiasts who will participate in the 15th Annual All-American Air Maneuvers at the Navy's master airport Jan. 10 to 19.

More than 500 aircraft—ranging in size from the Army's giant B-29 Superfort to small private Cubs—have already arrived for the three-day meet, and about 400 are expected before the events begin Friday.

Twenty-one P-51 jet-propelled Shooting Stars whooshed across the Miami skyline yesterday, after completing the cross-country trip from March Field, Calif., in an elapsed flying time of four hours and 45 minutes.

Led by Col. Gilbert L. Meyers of Seattle, the squadron will mark the first time the Army has put its 600-mile an hour fighter on public display en masse. The Navy will strut its crack combat team, the Blue Angels, in displays of combat formations.

For the first time the Navy will unveil for the public its twin-jet carrier-based fighter, the "Phantom." It will also give an exhibition of rocket-take off, using a seaplane.

Highlights of the civilian participation will be the $10,000 all-American speed classic race, open to anyone with a plane capable of doing 375 miles per hour or better. Former combat veterans with "souped up" P-51 Mustangs, P-38 Lightnings, and P-39 Airocobras will qualify today for the major race Sunday.

Recent Strike at WTSC Is Termed As 'Closed Issue'

CANYON—(AP)—The college president and officers of two student organizations at West Texas State College have joined in issuing a statement of disapproval which declares that the recent strike at the college is now a closed issue.

Students went on strike at the college Dec. 13 over what they called dissatisfaction with the manner in which the college business manager was directing student housing.

The statement was signed by President J. A. Hill of the college, Leo R. Steinkoenig and all members of the executive council of the Veterans Association, and Frank Barry and all officers of the Student Association.

The statement said in part: "We view with deep regret the circumstances that have recently brought the unfortunate misunderstanding and troubles to the campus of West Texas State College. We do not attempt to assess the blame upon any one individual group. We recognize that mistakes have been made on both sides. But that is no longer a matter of major importance.

"We are willing in the interests of the greatest good to the greatest number to let bygones be bygones and get together on a program of better education and better administration for all. Such a program recognizes the equal status of all students in the institution whether involved in the recent disturbance or not.

"The administration asserts that it craves the criticism of students, faculty and friends and it is willing to get down with any individual. See CANYON COLLEGE, Page 7

Spearman CC To Install Officers

Representatives of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will conduct the program at the special installation banquet at the Spearman Chamber of Commerce tonight.

W. B. Weathered, president of the local chamber, will head the delegation.

T. R. Shirley, manager of the Western Auto Supply Store will be installed as president of the Spearman chamber. Also to be installed are Vice President M. S. Chambers, Spearman postmaster, and Directors D. W. Hart, Equity Exchange and Jess Davis, co-owner of the Spearman drug company.

Retiring officers are Bill McClellan, president; Vice President Shirley and Directors E. E. Vanderberg and Roy Jones.

During the past year, the chamber has checked a move that secured $105,000 in paving for the town, sent an exhibit to the State Fair in Dallas and sponsored a successful rodeo.

On the projects agenda for 1947 are: drive-in secure at Hanford County hospital and a hotel for Spearman.

Harry Kelley, formerly of Pampa, is secretary-manager of the Spearman chamber.

Newspapermen Open Before Supreme Court Final Legal Battle Against Contempt Charge

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Three Texas newspapermen today began before the Supreme court their final legal battle against contempt of court proceedings in which they were sentenced to jail.

Judge Joe D. Browning of the Nueces County Court in Texas adjudged the three guilty of contempt because of the publication of several news stories and an editorial. The items dealt with a civil case in which an Army private sought unsuccessfully to hold his lease on part of a building where he had a cafe.

Judge Browning decided that the stories and editorials were "calculated to reflect upon the integrity of this court, to embarrass its authority, to affect the court of justice."

He sentenced Conway C. Craig, publisher of the Commercial Appeal-Caller-Times, Bob McCracken, managing editor, and Tom Mulvany, reporter, to three days imprisonment each. The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld Judge Browning. The newsmen then appealed to the Supreme Court, the sentences being stayed meanwhile.

In a brief filed with the high tribunal, counsel for the three said the published matter "created no clear and present danger of coercing a judge having reasonable fortitude or normal strength of character."

The Supreme Court in a 1941 decision said that to justify a conviction for contempt there must be evidence of a "clear and present

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congressional Republicans are at odds among themselves today over national defense costs.

Rep. Taber (N.Y.) is demanding that Army-Navy outlays be cut drastically while Senator Taft (Ohio) is counseling against such a course. Taber, who heads the new House Appropriations Committee, told a reporter he is convinced the military services can get along with $8,000,000,000 between them in the budget year beginning next July 1.

Furthermore, he said that if President Truman recommends a larger amount in the budget message to Congress tomorrow, steps will be taken to trim the proposed expenditures.

Taft, chairman of the Senate GOP Steering Committee, told a newsman he thinks Senate Republicans want to find budget reductions elsewhere that make them at the expense of national defense.

Senator Bridges (R-N.Y.), who heads the Senate Appropriations Committee, shares this overall view. He said, however, he and others will insist that savings be effected where military purchasing, intelligence and similar operations can be combined.

Taber contended that about $2,500,000,000 can be lopped off military expenditures for items and services that were necessary in the past, but no longer needed.

Rep. Plumley (R-Vt.), who heads a naval appropriations subcommittee, voiced the opinion that "substantial savings" can be made in the Navy's budget, in comparison with the present year.

If President Truman fixes total federal spending at about $37,000,000,000 as generally forecast, Taft said it seemed likely that from $10,000,000,000 to $12,000,000,000 of this amount would be for the Army and Navy.

He said that while Senate Republicans would favor paring the larger amount, he doubted if they would wish to challenge the smaller, except where it was the case of savings could be made without impairing military efficiency.

He has no doubt, Taft continued, that Republicans can find places in the $37,000,000,000 budget without any drastic defense reductions.

Members of State Pardons, Paroles Board Ask Probe

AUSTIN—(AP)—Charges that Texas convicts are under the impression they can buy their freedom for $1,000 have brought a formal request from all three members of the State Board of Pardons and Paroles for a legislative investigation.

The request followed a statement in which the Houston Chronicle quoted Riley Wyatt of San Antonio, chairman of the prison board, as saying there is a feeling abroad among 95 percent of the convicts in Texas prisons that they can get free on a "pardon or parole if they can raise $1,000."

Paroles Board Chairman Elster M. Hall and members Almer Lewis and Walter C. Strong, signed the request addressed to the Senate's General Investigating Committee and members of the legislature.

It read as follows: "Based upon the statement alleged to have been made by Mr. Riley Wyatt of San Antonio, chairman of the Texas prison system board, that pardons are being sold to convicts in Texas prisons, we believe that a fraud has been perpetrated upon the public in such statements.

"We, therefore, request and urge a thorough investigation by the General Investigating Committee of the House and Senate at an early date in order that the public be apprised of the truth.

Cold Remedy Brings Streeter to Stop

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Motorman Jess Viscerra went to work with a cold. It didn't improve as he made the route with his streeter. So at night he stopped in at home for a shot of remedy.

A short time later, his streeter and an automobile collided. Police booked him on suspicion of driving a motor vehicle without a California Penal Code, which is captioned: Operating a streeter while intoxicated.

"But the lady turned in front of me," protested Viscerra, 33.

O'Daniel Favors End of Controls

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman's appeal for extension of rent control beyond June 30, called for in the Senate today with a bill to junk the whole program February 1.

Democratic Senator O'Daniel of Texas sponsored the legislation to eliminate controls and Republicans Wherry (Neb.), Moore (Okla.) and Bushfield (SD), lined up in support of his proposal. Several other Senators said controls should continue but that landlords should be permitted to increase rents as much as 15 percent.

Soured by a decision of the office of temporary controls to eliminate ceilings on transient rooms Feb. 15, organized real estate representatives renewed their demands that rentals of houses and apartments also be freed.

In urging the scrapping of rent controls, O'Daniel recalled that he had demanded the end of all CPA restrictions last June.

"After the November election the new dealers finally saw the handwriting on the wall and got rid of most controls," he said.

"I think it's time now, if we want to follow the constitution, to throw all of them out and turn the government back to the people."

Chairman Tobey (R-N.Y.) of the Senate banking committee, which will consider whether to extend rent controls, said he is "reserving judgment" until hearings are held.

Both Parties Responsible In This Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Rep. Francis Case (R-SD) today introduced legislation authorizing the government to enjoin labor unions from strikes that endanger the public welfare and making workers as well as employers liable to unfair labor charges.

Case, author of a labor bill that passed Congress last year only to meet a Presidential veto, said his new measure is intended to let labor and management "live together" in peace.

In a statement he said he does not consider his measure "the bill" but "a bill" which he hopes will afford "an opportunity to meet our responsibilities in a comprehensive way."

Senate and House leaders have set Jan. 20 as the "outside" date to start hearings on new labor legislation.

Case's new bill expands in some respects on the one which failed last year. In other aspects it goes beyond the top Senate bill introduced by Senators Ball (R-Minn.), Taft (R-Ohio) and H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.).

Among other things, the Case bill would:

1. "Legalize" the procedure followed when the government got an injunction against John L. Lewis and his coal miners in the recent coal strike, without requiring government seizure of the struck property.

2. Specifically authorize the attorney general to use the injunction when a strike in an "essential monopolized service or industry" burdens or obstructs commerce in interstate or foreign trade.

Bilbo Assured of Appointment for 'Interim' Period

JACKSON, Miss.—(AP)—Gov. Fielding L. Wright said last night he plans to appoint Theodore G. Bilbo senator for an interim term if the state election is held without a hearing on the basis of charges growing out of his election campaign.

The Governor's comment came in the wake of a newspaper account of conversations he had with several Mississippi legislators concerning Bilbo, whom the Senate declined to set when it convened last week.

Wright said he had discussed his plans for naming Bilbo for an interim term in the belief that his remarks to the Mississippi legislators were off the record.

"I did not intend to inject myself into the controversy in Washington, which I have avoided so far," he added.

Bilbo, at "Dream House" at Poplarville, Miss., where he is awaiting a call to go to a New Orleans hospital for an operation on his mouth, said he was "profoundly and inexpressibly grateful" for Governor Wright's decision.

"I think the Governor's decision is just recognition of the will of the great majority of the people of Mississippi," Bilbo said. "I feel honored."

He reaffirmed his intention to fight to the last for his Senate seat.

"When I get through with my operations and get well enough to fight to the finish, I will return to the battle scene," he declared.

Polio Victim To Reign at Fiesta

HOUSTON—(AP)—The Duchess of Donna is going home in time to preside over the Texas citrus fiesta when it begins Jan. 16.

Seventeen-year-old Toni George was a Donna High School senior when her townspeople elected her Duchess of the celebration last August. On Sept. 5 she became ill and a doctor said she had polio.

She was brought to a Houston hospital for treatment. Finally on Nov. 1 she was able to go to the home of her father here. She has continued to improve and can now sit up and use her arms.

Meanwhile, letters came from Donna friends who insisted that Toni must preside as duchess of the fiesta. At first she was reluctant, but in time was persuaded that it would be possible for her to be duchess after all. She resumed her preparations for the big occasion, selected dresses and exchanged letters with her friends.

Now those friends have sent her a special automobile to make the trip to Donna and preside over the annual fiesta.

Jim Handley Will Be Buried Friday

Funeral services for Jim Handley, about 73, who died last Monday, will be held tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock in the Duenkel-Carmichael Chapel.

The funeral home received a telegram from a sister of Handley, Mrs. Ann Connor, 77 Pennsylvania St., Somerville, Mass., in which she said she had not heard from her brother in 40 years.

A former employee of the Wilcox and Gulf Oil Companies, Handley had lived in the shanty for several years. It was estimated that he had been dead for at least three days when found. Cause of his death was unknown.

The Rev. H. Clyde Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Indochina Ruler To Give Peace Terms

BANGKOK, Siam—(AP)—The Viet-Nam rikod, broadcast yesterday a message from President Ho Chi Minh of the Viet-Nam Republic to the French people and Parliament listing the terms under which the Viet-Nam-Indochina war was ready to stop fighting in Indochina.

The terms included a return to status quo existing prior to the recent fighting began in the French Colony and resumption of conferences looking toward a final settlement of the Viet-Nam Republic's independence demands.

Conferees on the Viet-Nam demands were held last summer in Paris, but broke up without conclusive results.

Need for Newer Cars Is Cited

FORT WORTH—The Texas at Southwestern Industrial Traffic Leagues have adopted a resolution asking railroads to purchase new freight cars or rebuild equipment in order to handle all loading offered.

The resolution approved by the two groups said "because of lack of foresight on the part of carriers in ordering only some 25,000 cars in 1945 in anticipation of a slump that never came, the Southwest has suffered for want of boxcars for grain loadings, gondolas for building materials, and stock cars for both cattle and mule loading."

The Southwestern League also opposed a railroad classification rule which would allow Northern carriers to ship less-than-carload freight into the Southwest at carload rates.

"The rule was introduced by league representatives as 'practically destroying the business of the Southwestern wholesale jobber.'"

A two-day meeting of the Southwest shippers advisory board was open here today.

Truman Calls for Red Cross Support

WASHINGTON—President Truman today called for support of the American Red Cross in its annual drive for funds.

Addressing his appeal specifically to government workers, Mr. Truman said in a statement that when disasters threaten "we look to the American Red Cross for prompt and effective emergency help."

Activities of the organization have been turned from the demands of war, he said, to "binding up the wounds of war."

"Large numbers of men will still be in uniform," he added. "There are millions of veterans to whom the Red Cross has an obligation."

Veteran Woman Flier, Companion Are Dead

NEW YORK—Helen Richey, 37, first woman aviator pilot who set a woman's retelling endurance record of 237 hours and 42 minutes in 1932 with her partner, the late Mrs. Frances Harrell Marsalis, was found dead in bed last night in her rooming house.

Police said the veteran aviator had been dead for several days. An autopsy will be performed.

Miss Richey set an international women's light plane record in 1936 when she covered 100 kilometers in 55 minutes.

In 1942 she became the first Pittsburgh district aviator to arrive on the European war front and served in England as a member of the Aviator Transport Auxiliary, an American group which supplemented the British women's ferry command.

Aluminum Waits Disposal Sale

DALLAS—One lot of approximately 1,000,000 pounds of scrap material, predominantly aluminum, at Camp Hovis, Gainesville, Texas, awaiting sale bid sale through the Dallas regional office of War Assets Administration, said R. R. Hirsch, chief, metals division.

This lot consists of various quantities of aluminum scrap, wrecked and obsolete airplanes, segregated solid, axled solids, cylinders with steel bolts attached, prepared and unprepared scrap and other miscellaneous material," Hirsch added.

WAA will continue to receive bids until January 17, Hirsch said. The bids will be publicly opened on January 21.

Solons Need Cast To Back Promises

AUSTIN—How to raise the money with which to back promises made in last summer's political campaign is the most important problem confronting the 50th legislature, representative Jim Wright of Weatherford told members of the Travis County Young Democrat club here Tuesday.

Virtually the same promises were made by practically all members of the legislature, Wright said, including promises of more substantial teacher salary increases and higher per capita student opportunity, a more liberal welfare and pension program and the availability of more funds for farm-to-market roads.

"All these things cost money, and if the program goes down it will be a guarantee of our own making wherein we have promised these important but costly things in one breath and have said no new taxes in the next breath," he declared.

He suggested that the solution would involve a thorough-going reorganization of the entire state governmental machinery for purposes of streamlining and economy.

History of Theatre Subject at Meeting

Charles Thomas, manager of the West Theater group, yesterday presented a short history of the local theatrical group during the noon meeting of the Pampa Rotary club held in the Palm Room City Hall.

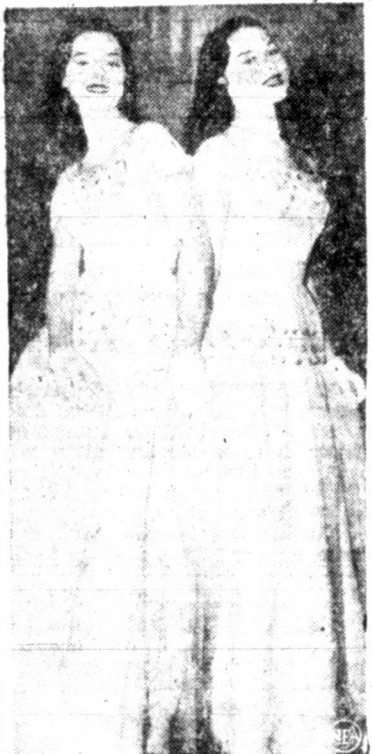

Thomas told the group of his experiences overseas with the Special Services group and how the West Theater group was originally put together. During the program he presented one of his company, Miss Ethel Korner, who sang two songs, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Yoder.

The Rev. B. A. Norris had charge of the program. During the meeting Rotarian Steve Matthews passed out the cigars in celebration of recently becoming the father of a son.

Irvin W. Cole, president of Rotary had charge of the meeting.

City Policeman Ed Cheatham of Texarkana watched a woman driver come to a stop on a busy street.

The light was green. She waited while the light turned red, then green then red again.

Cheatham walked over, puzzled. "Those lights are the wrong color," she said calmly.

"Well, lady," Cheatham said, "we have yellow, red and green lights and you sat through all of them. Just what color would you like?"

Pete Carrara, another Texarkana city policeman, had woman trouble, too.

A driver of a motor scooter hurried into an empty parking space, dropped his nickel in the meter and went shopping.

irate women drivers would come up, start to park, see the scooter and call the cop. Pete would listen to the infuriated women patiently, but he held his ground.

"I can't help it, lady," he'd say over and over again. "He paid his nickel. He has as much right to park there as you or any other driver, regardless of the size of his vehicle."

One woman who had the back end of her car already in the space angrily clashed it into high gear and tore through a red light, and was out of sight before Pete could blow his whistle.

And over in Bonham, Officer J. C. Eubanks was writing out a traffic ticket for a woman driver when he heard a noise.

He turned around just in time to break up a fight between two other women.

They were fined $21 in city court.

South Texas C of C Favors Zoning Plan

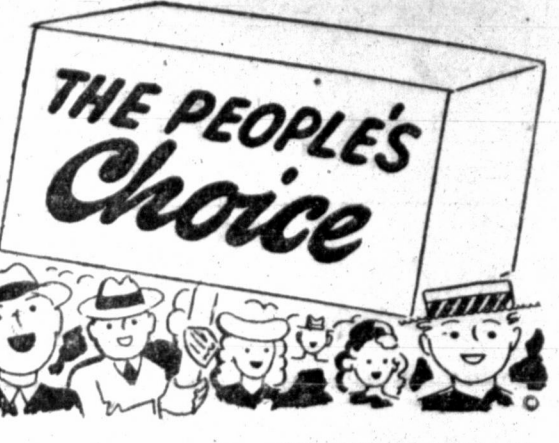

SAN ANTONIO—Officials of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce have adopted a legislative program urging authorization of cities of 25,000 persons or more to approve subdivisions within five miles of the city limits and to zone such areas.

The program also calls for a county unit system of road and bridge administration, and drastic reduction of the number of federal bureau employees and the elimination of all such war-time agencies.

Attending the meeting were Al Buchanan of San Antonio Chamber president; Driscoll Reize of Woodbury, a Wayne Wood of Brownsville, Lewis Mims of Freeport, J. M. Pickering of Victoria, V. R. Gross of Corpus Christi, W. M. Griffith of Sinton, Harry C. Webb of Houston and Sam Fore, Jr., of Floresville.

Blind Teacher Teaches Children Who Can See

Sightless at 11, Her Desire to Learn Led Her to Ph. D. Degree

By MARGARET TAYLOR
NEA Special Correspondent

DAYTON, O.—(NEA)—"Are you chewing gum, James?" asked the history teacher.

"Yes, ma'am," replied a puzzled Jim.

"Put it here in the waste basket and go on with your recitation," said the teacher.

The bell rang. There were questions and answers in the babel of pupils' voices as they filed out of the classroom: "How did she know Jim was chewing gum?" "Oh, she knows everything..." "She's even written a book..." "Yeah, a book of poetry, called 'Into the Light.'"

Dr. Eleanor Brown: Everywhere she goes, Topsy's sure to be.

Until she was 11, Eleanor Brown could see light and dark and just barely—distinguish colors. After that, total darkness descended.

When she started studies at the Columbus School for the Blind, Eleanor cried when she learned she would not be able to read printed books as her older sister did. But she loved school from the start and soon learned to love the books with the raised Braille characters.

When she graduated at 20, she went to work for a paper products company. The more hatboxes she folded, the firmer became her conviction that she must go to college.

More Priorities Are Scrapped by Order

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government told most businessmen yesterday, including veterans, that henceforth they must get along without priorities for purchase of scarce materials and equipment.

Civilian priorities already granted will remain in effect, but the Office of Temporary Controls has ruled that no new ones will be issued except for essential military and community needs and to aid production of veterans' housing materials.

Montgomery Taken On 'Social Whirl'

MOSCOW—(AP)—Field Marshal Lord Montgomery—whose four days in the U. S. S. R. already have established him as one of the most feted guests in years—visited the Frunze War Academy of the Soviet Army today, embarking on a new round of social affairs.

The Moscow newspapers continued to front-page his doings, which included lunch this noon at the French Embassy with Gen. Georges Catroux and Mme. Catroux and an entertainment tonight at the British Embassy, with Ambassador Sir Maurice Peterson and his lady as host and hostesses.

Weather permitting, he expects to leave Moscow homeward bound Saturday.

The boys of the local police department tell this one about H. A. Doggett, traffic patrolman.

It seems Doggett is acquainted, through family connection with a certain proud mother. One day this woman stopped Doggett on the street and said:

"My, aren't they beautiful. Are they sisters?"

P. S. They were two pictures of the same girl.

BUILDING IN TEXAS BOOMS DESPITE INCREASED COSTS, MANY SCARCITIES

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Staff

G.I.s and civilians alike, frustrated during the war years in their desire for a cottage of their own, helped boom Texas construction, as reflected in building permits, to spectacular heights during the first full post-war year.

Congressional construction helped the boom, but federal controls, imposed to give unhoused Americans a place to live, slowed down that phase of building so that at year's end, many planned business buildings were only steel skeletons.

Despite high costs and scarcities of materials and labor, many Texas cities recorded four times as much building as during 1945, while San Antonio reported six times as many building permits in dollars during 1946 as during the previous year.

An outstanding exception to the boom was Houston, where permits were only slightly more this year than last. A crippling 77-day strike of construction workers started a slump in building and when the strike was over scarcities developed in materials, which had been diverted to other cities where there was no strike.

When prices of materials began to climb, many large projects were shelved, awaiting a drop in prices. Local governmental agencies especially tended to postpone plans for large construction.

Despite the heavy building program, the demand for dwellings was far beyond filling anytime soon.

Fort Worth reported 5,000 families need housing. Big Spring 200, McAllen 200 to 300, Abilene 100, Hillsboro 250, Fort Arthur 300, Beaumont 600, San Angelo 175 and 50 so on.

Toward the year's end, the federal government radically changed its controls over housing. It abandoned the $10,000 sale price limit and allowed adjustments in the 350 monthly rental ceiling for new houses. In addition, the change allows an increase in non-housing construction which had been held at about $35,000,000 per week.

Building permits issued in Houston topped all other Texas cities with the total going well over the $50,000,000 mark before year's end. Permits last year totaled $41,084,844.

El Paso, two weeks before the end of the year, bested an all time high, established in 1929, in building permits.

The total number of dwelling units for which permits were issued or contracts signed was small. Representative were Fort Worth with 4,020, Beaumont 550, San Angelo 682, Port Arthur and Hillsboro 250 each, Abilene 200, McAllen 528, Big Spring 240.

The outlook for the new year for the people who desire to buy or rent dwelling units appears better than before. New homes and apartments can be started by spring with assurance that costs will represent "real" value, George W. Warncke, New York building financier, said recently.

He said he believed costs of construction would stabilize at near 128 percent of the 1940 charges.

The beginning of the downturn have been seen since Dec. 1 in leveling-off of the materials supply situation, he declared. Productivity of construction labor has been on the upgrade for six months, he said, as availability of materials has improved.

In an effort to keep veterans from paying exorbitant prices for houses, the Veterans Administration, toward the end of the year, announced that henceforth it would name the appraiser to determine the value of a dwelling before issuing a G.I. loan. The administration reported that some appraisers, formerly appointed by the seller, had overvalued the dwelling on which a veteran asked a loan.

Texas veterans, turning in large numbers to the VA for homes, farms and businesses, had borrowed $129,472,239 through November. This accounted for 21,039 homes, on which the loans totaled $118,025,483. Farm loans were only $5,383,058.

Several large housing projects were started in Texas during the year. Among them were five projects in Fort Worth to house a total of 2,214 families. One business housing and community center to cost $30,000,000 and another to cost $25,000,000 got under way during the year at Fort Worth but were far from completion.

Near Amarillo, a $917,072 Long Star elevator was begun and a $900,000 housing project was under way.

At Abilene, permits were issued for a $150,000 girls' dormitory, a $75,000 dining hall and $100,000 for new housing at McMurry College; a $250,000 administration building and library; a $250,000 girls' dormitory and a $50,000 chapel at Hardin-Simmons, and a $250,000 Baptist church.

A permit was issued at Beaumont for a block of 27 houses to cost $190,000.

Houston went over the million dollar mark on several projects. The Shamrock Hotel, being built by Oil Millionaire Glenn H. McCarthy, will cost $5,000,000. A City National Bank building is to cost $13,000,000 and a service building in connection with it, a million. Foley Brothers began a department store building originally estimated to cost $3,000,000 but which may cost $5,000,000 when completed.

Some Farm Prices Increased in Texas

AUSTIN—(AP)—Some moderate increases in prices received for some products by Texas farmers at mid-December were about offset by reductions in prices received for others, the United States Department of Agriculture reported yesterday.

Cottonseed prices led in the increase with a gain of $5 per ton and farmers also realized an increase for beef cattle, milk cows and work animals. Feed and red grains, cowpeas, peanuts, hogs and sheep were down.

102-Year-Old Woman Dies at Iowa Park

IOWA PARK—(AP)—Mrs. Susan Robinson, 102, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. W. A. Davis, near here Tuesday.

A native of Mississippi, Mrs. Robinson moved to Texas in 1821. She was the widow of the late Zachary Taylor Robinson, prominent land owner and cotton gin operator.

Mrs. Robinson is survived by five daughters, two sons, 35 grandchildren, 55 great grandchildren, and ten great great grandchildren.

Arrangements for funeral services, to be held at Chico, where the family formerly resided, are pending.

More Aliens Are Caught on Border

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Apprehension of aliens by the border patrol in the three sectors of the San Antonio district totaled 23,226 during 1946. Walter B. Wells, district parole officer for the immigration and naturalization service, revealed yesterday. This figure compares with 43,022 aliens apprehended during 1945, he said.

Wells said the greatest number of aliens apprehended during the year were in the McAllen sector.

I wish I could have seen the opening of Congress. What a sight, with happy Republicans carrying one another across the threshold, and here and there, a lone Democrat standing grimly by his britches like Horatio at the bridge!

To many of you congressmen it must seem like the opening of school and a certain amount of cross-throwing, and drawing of naughty pictures on the blackboards is to be expected. But I'm happy to see you are disciplining yourselves. I understand you've already made one bad little boy go stand in Mississippi until he can behave.

Now don't neglect your lessons, especially arithmetic. That should teach you that three families don't go into one garage. And as for reads 'in' and writin' be sure you read the 'w's before you write your name on them. Oh yes, and don't forget to bring an apple to your teacher. Mr. Truman, now and then. Like most teachers he's got a pretty tough job.

Gunmen Hold Up Rooming House

CHICAGO—(AP)—Robbers, carrying revolvers and shotguns, routed 12 persons from a three-story West Side rooming house last night and while several gunmen held them prisoner for nearly two hours their companions broke open two safes owned by John McKenzie, the landlord. Money and other possessions of the roomers were looted by the gunmen.

McKenzie, 64, was not at home at the time, but early today he told police he had $11,000, jewelry and lots of mortgages in the safes.

The roomers herded from their apartments by the gunmen included four women, one an invalid, a 13-year-old boy, and seven men. The robbers believed too number from six to eight, tied the men's hands with rope after forcing them into a basement room.

While two robbers remained on guard in the basement, others broke into McKenzie's first floor room and drilled open the two safes and escaped with the contents.

SALE REPORT MADE

DENISON — (AP) — Thirty-four bidders here yesterday paid $36,000 for surplus materials at the Denison Dam Storage Depot in a spot sale conducted by the War Assets Administration. The 34 successful bidders were among 148 bidders who entered 1,500 bids.

The association also pointed to the Supreme Court decision of last June which threw out contempt of court charges against the Miami (Fla.) Herald. In that decision the high tribunal stated:

"In the borderline instances where it is difficult to say upon which side the alleged offense falls, we think the specific freedom of public comment should weigh heavily against a possible tendency to influence pending cases. Freedom of discussion should be given the widest range compatible with the essential requirement of the fair and orderly administration of justice."

City Election

(Continued from Page 1) later, March 4, the present city commission at its regular meeting will canvass the vote and declare the victorious candidates elected to office. This meeting will be held only three days after the deadline for filing candidacy petitions for the regular general election on April 1. In other words the two elections and their formal legal aftermath practically run smack into each other.

City Manager Garland Franks this morning said there is very little time left to file and petitions for candidacy can be obtained from the city secretary at anytime.

As the set up now stands any person who files a petition for candidacy for the special election must again file a petition before March 1 if he wishes to run in that election for the same office.

Two sets of ballots will also have to be printed and while the newly elected commission is being seated the campaign for the regular election will be well under way.

According to the state election laws, as interpreted by the city attorney, all candidates for the special election will need only 345 signatures on their petition.

Former District Judge W. R. Ewing jokingly said this morning: "Looks like you only need the names of three men and a baby."

Little Reported Lost Following Break-In

Thieves burglarizing the Tull-Weiss Equipment Co. building, 129 N. Ward St., late last night or early this morning were apparently scared away, and got very little loot. Chief of Police Louie Allen reported this morning.

Police investigating the break-in were told that a 38 special built automatic pistol and two or three work shirts were missing. They had also attempted to take an Army type foot locker from the building, but evidently were scared and left it near the rear door.

Police found that the thieves got into the building by shaking loose the locking bar on the rear door.

No money was reported missing up until noon today.

Bridge Expert Says Wife 'Poor' Player

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif.—(AP) — Ely Culbertson, 55, the bridge expert, intends to have no competition from his 21-year-old bride.

"My pretty wife is an atrocious bridge player," said Culbertson as they arrived here on their honeymoon. "In fact, she is a menace to the game."

"I'm afraid Ely doesn't approve of the type of bridge we played at school," echoed the former Dorothy Renata Baehne of New York, a 1946 Vassar graduate. "We'd keep a running game going. From time to time a player would leave to attend a class. Another girl would take her place. It was all very casual."

They were married Tuesday in Chandler, Ariz.

"Don't tell me that's your boss—the fellow a big strong man like you doesn't dare ask for a raise!"

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL POYLE
 NEW YORK—(AP)—"Dear sir," said the letter, "since you have set up shop as the poor man's philosopher, perhaps you'll tell a poor young man like me how to pick a wife."
 Certainly, Horace, nothing could be easier.
 To begin with you have stated the problem wrong. The difficulty, Horace, is not in picking a good all-weather wife, but in avoiding the iron grasp of a woman who merely wants to train you to bring your paycheck home in your mouth.
 In your state of mind you should keep your track shoes on at all times, ready for a quick getaway. A man who admits he is in the market for a wife, Horace, is a deer in the open snow with the wolves closing in.
 Start off by pretending you don't want a wife. Be subtle. Horace, take your candidates over the hurdles. Test 'em under strain. How? Well, first beware of any woman who is too beautiful, too brainy, or who reminds you of an icicle. If she looks twice at a mirror in passing, she needs a looking glass, not a husband. Give her one and bow out. If she has an I. Q. like Einstein's, she is too smart to be tied to a guy like you who asks other people for advice. And if she won't throw a little for you now, Horace, you terrify her, will she ever? Echo answers: "Never."
 So what have we left? Several nice, kind, neatly dressed young fluffs who may want to marry you for your dimple and winning ways or may just want to get out from behind a sales counter or climb down off the boss's lap for a long rest at home. It's time for the road test, Horace.
 Make the car break down on a cold night. If she bends your ear with complaints as you slog home on foot, scratch her—no, Horace, I just mean scratch her off your list.
 You're down to one two-legged sugar plum now. She loves you if you tell her you're broke and she pays for the theater tickets.
 You say "I've got hay fever!"

and she sneezes in sympathy. You give her a present and she gives you more expensive one right back.
 You tell her there's insanity in your family, and she just rumples your hair and says, "my poor boy."
 Yes, Horace. This one is in love with you. It's time now to thump her in the chest to see that she's sound of mind. Fry open her jaws and look at her teeth. It's still the best way to gauge her age since you can't very well saw off her legs and count the rings. Scrape off her ear paint so you can see how she'll look in the morning. She's okay?
 Quick, Horace! Prepose to this woman. Marry her, give her a washing machine for a wedding present and live happily ever after. But I'm afraid, my boy, you learn it's easier to pick a wife than live with one.

Outbreak of Stock Disease Reported

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The government announced yesterday that a new outbreak of hoof and mouth disease had been reported from the state of Zacatecas, northwest of the capital, where 200 cattle were reported to have died in a single village in recent weeks.
 The state is not included in the quarantine imposed recently on four states and the Mexico City federal district.
 Dispatches from Orizaba in the state of Vera Cruz, which is in the quarantine zone, said half the cattle in that area were affected and that authorities had ordered an indefinite closing of all slaughterhouses.

Robber Misses Big Haul in Last Pocket
CHICAGO—(AP)—A bandit pressed a large pistol against William Solan, an automobile salesman, and started searching his pockets. He poked around 13 pockets in Solan's clothing—and didn't find any money.

"If he had gone to his last pocket—my watch pocket—he would have found where I kept my money," Solan told police in reporting the holdup. "I had 10 pennies and a dime, to be exact."

Movie People Lead U.S. Treasury List For Money-Makers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The film industry got its usual top billing today on a treasury list of 122 leading money-makers of 1944 and of business-fiscal years ending in 1945. Movie people held more than one out of every four spots on the partial list of over $75,000 earners and led it with the comedy team of Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. They took in $469,170 jointly—$234,585 each if they split it evenly.

Hollywood also furnished eight of the 12 persons on the list who received more than $200,000, but yielded top individual place to a businessman, Thomas J. Watson of New York, president of International Business Machines Corp. Watson's gross was $425,548. Even so, he was a far second to movie producer-director Leo McCarey, whose $1,112,025 earnings, set out in an earlier listing of 593 persons, kept him high money-maker for the 1944 and 1945 period.

Second to Watson on the new list and leader among the women for 1944 earnings thus far reported was Deanna Durbin, who got $310,728 singing and acting in movies.

The No. 3 individual spot, and last in the over-$200,000 bracket, went to Walter Wanger, Universal Pictures Producer. He took in $201,127. Fourth was Harry Cohn, president of Columbia Pictures, with $278,900. Movie Actress Irene Dunne finished second among the women with $245,000.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A House military group yesterday introduced a bill to overhaul the Army's court martial system.

Written as the result of a long investigation by a subcommittee headed by Rep. Durham (D-NC), the legislation is designed to give enlisted personnel the "break" which the Durham committee said GIs need.

1. Enlarge the judge advocate general's office and give it more authority.

2. Open court martial proceedings to the public and to military personnel.

3. Permit enlisted men to serve on military courts in cases involving enlisted personnel.

4. Remove the present mandatory death sentence for rape and permit courts to use their discretion in fixing the punishment.

Paris Convicted; League Considers Player Action

NEW YORK—(AP)—Smooth-talking Alvin J. Paris faced a possible prison term of 10 years and a fine of $20,000 today as the result of his conviction on charges of attempting to "rig" the Dec. 15 professional football title game between the New York Giants and the Chicago Bears.

His father, Sidney Paris, told newsmen shortly after his son's conviction by a General Sessions Court jury late yesterday that the verdict would be appealed. The jury consisted of 10 men and two women deliberated only 65 minutes before returning the verdict.

The police investigation apparently did not end with conviction of the dapper Paris, who was specifically charged with offering bribes to Merle Hapes and Frank Filchock, backfield players of the Giants, to play down in the game.

Each count of the two count indictment against Paris carries maximum penalties of a $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

Immediately after the conviction, Hapes and Filchock were suspended by Bert Bell, National Professional Football League commissioner, who said that an immediate hearing would be conducted to decide on possible league action against the two.

Filchock has been permitted to play against the Bears, tossing the passes leading to his team's only scores. The Bears won 21-14. Hapes had not been permitted to participate.

Harvesters Face Tough Cage Card Friday, Saturday

Seeing their sixth and seventh wins of the season, Pampa's Harvesters open a two-point home stand here tomorrow night, facing the Perrinton Ramblers Friday and the Hollis Tigers Saturday.

Perrinton is led again by Keith Flowers, all-district guard last year and one of the outstanding basketball players of this section while the Harvesters "know" the Hollis five only too well, having dropped a 32-17 decision at Hollis in December.

The Tigers featured one of the smoothest passing games the Harvesters have come up against in several years.

Five-man centers, whom Pampa defeated 40-23, in the first game of the season, will be here tomorrow night for a game with Pampa's untested reserves at 7:30 with the Perrinton game to follow.

Saturday night, the Harvesters will meet Hollis at eight o'clock, with a "B" game to be played at nine.

All games are at the Junior High gymnasium.

Bill Speer, with 64 points, continues to lead team scoring in eight games, followed closely by Charley Lafoon, George Gamblin and Derrell Davis.

Army's Star Back Gets High Award

Baylor May Name Head Coach Today

NEW YORK—(AP)—Arnold Tucker, field general of Army's undefeated football team, today held amateur sport's greatest honor for 1946—the James E. Sullivan Award.

Tucker, 22-year-old first classman from Miami, Fla., won the distinction by the closest vote ever recorded in the trophy's 17-year history.

He, with 597 points, nosed out Johnny Lottack, Notre Dame quarterback with 553 points, and swimmer Bill Smith of Honolulu with 546, to bring the coveted Sullivan award to West Point for the second consecutive year.

The 1945 prize went to Felix (Doc) Blanchard, Army's line-cracking fullback.

In the previous polls, conducted by the Amateur Athletic Union, track had 10 winners, golf had two, and one each went to swimming, tennis, rowing and football.

Tucker's citation declared that during the past year "by performance, example and good influence did most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship."

Following the top three came Henry Wittenberg of New York, Louis bicycling star, 173; Miss Clara Lamore of Oneley, R. I., breast-stroke and medley swimming champion, 85; and Miss Clara Schrott of Philadelphia, all-around gymnast, Miss Zoe Ann Olson, 15-year-old.

Driving Course Will Have Enrollment Limit

COLLEGE STATION—(AP)—A limitation has been placed on enrollment in the third annual short course on driver training for automobile fleet supervisors here Feb. 10-14. Only 50 students will be enrolled. E. L. Williams, head of the industrial extension service and course director, said the limit was established in order to provide more effective instruction and demonstration.

Ethics Code Set Up by Committee As Meeting Ends

NEW YORK—(AP)—The 252 member college of the National Collegiate Athletic Association were under moral obligation today to abide by the group's new-drafted "ethics code" and to start cleaning their athletic houses immediately.

Actually, the set of five principles governing the conduct of intercollegiate athletics which were approved at the concluding session of the NCAA yesterday do not go into effect until the next annual meeting in 1948.

Between now and then, the code with its implementation clause providing sanctions against non-conformist schools in the form of a schedule boycott, will be written into the constitution by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Also referred to the constitutional revision committee was a resolution offered by Col. William Couper of Virginia Military Institute which would limit colleges to ten varsity football games a season and prohibit participation in post-season games.

Couper's anti-bowl proposal and the anti-recruiting provisions of the purity code met with vigorous opposition on the convention floor. The other code provisions, including one limiting financial aid to athletes to tuition, were adopted by unanimous vote.

Delegates from the South and Southwest maintained that recruiting would be continued with alumni in charge and that it would give advantages to colleges with strong alumni organizations. Gayle Scott of Texas Christian and William A. Alexander of Georgia Tech were the principle spokesmen for the negative side.

The decision to table the anti-bowl resolution and then refer it to the committee, came after a lengthy discussion during which it was pointed out that the long-established bowl games have become an accepted part of the collegiate program.

The convention unanimously adopted the resolution derived from a round-table discussion yesterday, opposing gambling.

Pat Wilson, president of the club, announced yesterday that Watkins had been signed as manager to succeed Lloyd Rigby, who will manage the Pampa team of the East Texas league.

Bing Crosby Open Starts Tomorrow On Three Courses

DEL MONTE, Calif.—(AP)—The complete entry list of the $10,000 Bing Crosby pro-amateur golf tournament which will be played Friday-Saturday and Sunday over three Monterey peninsula courses was announced last night after completion of an 18-hole qualifying round over the Pebble Beach course for 15 open places.

The 75 polling pros, including the cream of the nation's money chasing golfers and an equal number of America's best amateurs, will start teeing off at 5:30 a. m. (CST) Friday over the Cypress Point course.

The second day the entire tournament will swing over the Monterey Peninsula Country club and Sunday will wind up for the final 18 of the 54-hole medal play tournament on the Pebble Beach course.

IT'S A MATTER FOR THE PARTY IN POWER

One point, said the President in his message to the Congress, "is the broadening of our program of social legislation to alleviate the causes of workers' insecurity."

In that thought, it seems to us, the President inserted a particle of thinking from the New Deal book, while at the same time sought to promote one of the thoughts of those who favor free enterprise in America.

While it is presumed that all persons are concerned with the social welfare and are in favor of alleviating the "causes" of workers' insecurity, not all of us are in favor of doing it by "social legislation."

To broaden a "program" of legislation, so that all men will be free from the ills and pangs of insecurity, is to but continue the New Deal program which was conjured up by those who believe that the world some day will be perfect, that all men will work to their best ability, that all men will have the same ability, and that they shall draw equally from the common wealth.

The social-designers believed (in perhaps all honesty) that we can legislate every man into social and economic well-being.

However, following the line of greatest reality—and that seems to be what we must do—we presume that not all men have equal ambition or ability, and, therefore, cannot produce so much goods as their neighbor if they tried. The President has indicated in the past that he thought otherwise.

That is the point upon which we must disagree with Mr. Truman.

But the President did not speak as one who was bent on making a last-ditch stand as a crusader for an idea—as Henry Wallace is seeking to do. Contrariwise, he spoke as one who knew that the office he holds isn't at all preeminent to that of the law-makers.

He spoke as a man who recalled, probably with regret, that it was The People who had spoken last November—and that they had spoken plainly, decisively.

There is no doubt that he spoke mildly, knowing fully well that to have spoken otherwise would have made matters only worse for him in the months to come.

He touched the great problems, and implied that the party in power would have to find answers to them. But in touching on those problems, he spoke, for instance, differently on labor-management troubles that he would have at the time he vetoed the Case Anti-Strike Bill.

In fact, he spoke almost as a disinterested bystander, pointing out something that somebody had to do. It seems now to be up to the party in power.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLES
Great Author Reviews Bible
Rose Wilder Lane, author of "Give Me Liberty" and "The Discovery of Freedom," reviews books for the National Economic Council.

In the December issue of the Economic Council Review of Books she tells how the American principles are in harmony with those in the Bible.

I know of nothing that would throw more light on our problems than to read her review of the Bible. Therefore, the balance of this article is by Rose Wilder Lane, without quotation marks:

Since Christ's birth is celebrated this month, the book appropriate to it is the incomparably greatest of all books: the record of Christ's resistance to tyrants on earth. It is literally The Book, the richest heritage of truth and wisdom that mankind possesses, and it has a special significance and value for Americans because it is the basis of our life and culture, the source of American political, social, economic principles, the rock on which Americans founded the Republic.

As Magna Carta is the charter of English liberties, the Bible is the charter of American liberty and law. During more than a century of both passive and violent resistance to tyrants in the nation's Capital, the Bible was the only book that the British Regulars at Lexington and Breed's Hill, Americans based their claim to human rights upon the original and greatest document of individualism: the Ten Commandments. They kindled their fighting spirit from Gideon, inspired commander of free volunteers.

When the British rebellion broke into open fighting in all the colonies, when the King's troops and ships in force to suppress it, and at last a few gentlemen renounced their King and pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor to the defense of human rights derived from God, Thomas Jefferson was surprised to hear himself called the author of his principle. He had merely stated, or said, what the Bible, and their own experiences, had already and ended by the Creator with unalienable rights.

The source of this knowledge was the Bible. Americans read the Bible, and their own experiences protecting their lives against sea and wilderness verified its truth. The Creator does not create human classes and masses nor society nor State, but individual persons—and every person's natural functions—life, liberty, ownership—come to him from the Creator. The British received their liberties as gifts from their King; American liberty is inalienable from human life, a gift to each person from God.

They returned to the British "God save the King," with their own "Our Father's God, the Bible." They made a wholly new kind of State, the first government "not of men, but of Law," and Law is based on the Ten Commandments. They made a new flag, not the standard of any Royal house or human commander, but a standard of virtues: courage, purity, faith, red, white, blue. They sang, "Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light."

Nothing in American life, in American manners, customs, culture, civilization, is comprehensible without a knowledge of the Bible. We know it, but do not know the Bible have lost touch with themselves and wander lost in the fallacies of paganism.

Forget The Bible
Do not misunderstand me: I am not advocating that the present American system of compulsory State schooling "teach religion." Misguided persons are trying to use this system to make children religious by the only means possible in it: dividing the helpless infants into groups of Protestants, Jews, Catholics, and making them listen to these divergent creeds.

This idea and practice are totally pernicious, anti-religious and anti-American. The religious education of our children should be left to their parents, or other part of education can be imposed upon even immature persons by the State, which is police power. Such an attempt can only result in the children's forgetting the Bible.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

QUESTIONS—The writer frequently receives many interesting and provocative questions from the readers. It is obviously impossible to answer all of them directly.

HOUSING—Question: In view of the housing shortage at Washington, how can the House and Senate pass a new Congressional employees going to live?

ANSWER: Heaven only knows. There are no available houses in the nation's Capital. Luckily, the hotels are not so crowded as they were in wartime, and many newcomers are living in open rooms at the hotels.

BYRNES—Question: Whom do Washington observers, including members of the presidential household, congressmen and newspaper correspondents regard as the outstanding member of the cabinet?

ANSWER: By all counts, James Francis Byrnes, former Secretary of State, "Jimmie" has surprised all his old friends on and off of Capitol Hill by his political and intellectual growth. When he served in the House and Senate he was regarded as "slick," a smoothy and a sort of courtship "fixer."

TAXES—Question: Will the Republican Congress reduce personal income taxes in 1948?
ANSWER: Yes, the GOP leaders, with a few exceptions like Harold ENTHUSIASTIC—Any reduction, however, will probably be staggered so as to provide greatest relief to folks in the lower brackets.

HOUSE MEMBERS who must run every two years, are more enthusiastic for tax relief than the senators. But cutting Uncle Sam's "take" from its present high level is the greatest vote-getting measure the GOP-controlled Congress can make, and it will be beyond human nature for them to resist it.

THE world picture is too uncertain for us toinker with our military machinery at this time.
—Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R) of New York.

Knutson of Minnesota, who will head the House Ways and Means Committee, were inclined to "beat this question carefully and cautiously until President Truman "beats the gun" by reducing wartime duties on luxuries. Now, however, they seem to feel that they must counter with a more generous bill to the voting taxpayers, and a cut in personal income levies will probably be their response.

SMITH replied that he did and added, "I saw it." Later in the day Smith took the witness stand, after being excused as a juror.

Enters as Juror, But Winds Up as Witness
HOUSTON—(AP)—S. V. Smith, 50, Harris County cattleman, entered district court here yesterday as a prospective juror for a murder trial, but before the day was over he was a prosecution witness.

During examination of the special venire, Assistant District Attorney John Meyers asked Smith if he knew anything about the case of Cleveland Boone, 44-year-old Negro charged in the stabbing of Nezzie McGhee, another Negro.

Smith replied that he did and added, "I saw it." Later in the day Smith took the witness stand, after being excused as a juror.

ESONE was found guilty and received a five year suspended sentence.

YOU'RE LIABLE TO BUY SOMETHING HERE

Do you want to make a bid on a good 2-bedroom house, in one of the best neighborhoods in Pampa? Just call me up and I'll give you the location and you can look it over, and if it suits you, call me back and tell me what you will give. Somebody is going to get it as I've got to sell—it will carry a good load, and I might even take some trade on some kind. If you have children in school they would beg in the Sam Houston district.

I've got a good 1946 5-ton International pick-up with stock sideboards that somebody needs—would try and sell it to you for something.

For $1500 I'll sell you a good 4-room furnished house, and you can take up the $2000 note and pay it out in monthly payments.

640 acres 25 miles from Pampa; 240 acres in the best wheat that grows, 400 acres of the finest short grass that has always been taken care of, and never over pastured. Has a good 6-room house, big barn, chicken house, and out buildings; new windmill, good fences. Will take $6000 an acre for this good farm, wheat and all, and will hold 50 of the mineral rights. Immediate possession.

You like country cured pork? Will sell you two cured shoulders for about 19c, less than the retail market.

I've really got something in a good 159-acre Wheeler County farm—creek runs right through the middle of it. You can buy it for $2000 down and the owner would let you own him the balance.

They're all going to run plumb out of work.
