Price Control Drive May Hit New Trouble

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The house banking committee today invited Henry Ford, II, to appear personally for a presentation of his side of an argument with OPA on the pricing of new automobiles.

Chairman Spence (D-Ky) announced Ford would be called, after Representative Crawford (R-Mich) vigorously objected to an attack he said OPA had made upon young Ford, now directing head of the Ford Motor company.

ECONOMIC STABILIZER
Chester Bowles, OPA chief and newly appointed economic stabilizer, shot back that he knew nothing in the law to prevent OPA from "correcting false or misleading statements."

Bowles, witness before the committee at the time on legislation to prolong OPA's life, had just testified that the Ford company last summer requested a 55 percent increase for new cars over the pre-war price of Ford automobiles.

REPORTED ACCUSATION
Representative Patman (D-Texas) asked Bowles for a statement on young Ford's reported accusation that OPA was holding up production of automobiles, by its pricing policy.

Bowles told the committee "I don't think the request (for a price increase) is in line with the tradition of the Ford company. I am sorry young Ford seems to have departed from the tradition."

REPUBLICAN PLAN
The administration's drive to give OPA an unchallenged lease on life bumped into potential trouble today.

Kiwanians Back Girl Scouting Program Locally

Girl Scouts of Pampa are building most recent addition to the girl scouting program was made last week when the Kiwanis club presented the local Girl Scout council with a $100 check for improvements to Camp Sullivan. Girl Scout leaders plan to use this for erection of sleeping units at the camp.

Camp Sullivan, located three miles east of Lefors, is a 15 acre plot on which is located a recreation hall built from cement blocks, an outdoor kitchen, windmill and tank. During past camping trips, the recreation hall has been used for sleeping purposes. Construction of sleeping units will enable scouts to use the recreation hall for the purpose for which it was constructed.

Miss Marie Stedje Girl Scout executive, recalls that this is the first interest shown by local Kiwanians in girl scouting. Several years ago the organization donated the use of Little Scout House here in Pampa to the girls. Only last October the deed for the house was presented to the council.

An advisory commission composed of representatives from various civic clubs and organizations in Pampa assists with the workings of the local Girl Scout council. Member of the board from the Kiwanis club is Bob Allford.

Texas Republic Lays Down Its Sovereignty

(Editor's Note: One hundred years ago today in Austin there was a ceremonial marking in the minds of the public the passing of the Texas republic, and the birth of the State of Texas. Here is the story of that occasion as it might have been written then by a present-day captiol correspondent.)

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN, Feb. 19, 1846.—(AP)—The Republic of Texas became the State of Texas a few minutes after noon today. It was the first time in history a free and independent country voluntarily laid down its sovereignty, submitting to the authority of another nation.

If there were any regrets on the part of Retiring President Anson Jones, or on the part of others who opposed annexation, there were few signs of it in the solemn ceremony. Tears were shed freely as the Lone Star flag was hauled down.

The Republic of Texas ceased to be just two weeks less than 10 years after it was born. With all its trials and vicissitudes, it has been in the main a triumphant decade. President Jones gravely and clearly put it in these words:

"The Lone Star of Texas, which these years ago shone amid clouds, over fields of carnage, and obscurely seen for a while, has culminated, and following an inscrutable destiny, has passed on and become fixed forever in that glorious constellation which all free men and lovers of freedom in the world most reverence and adore—the American union."

"Blending its rays with its sister states, long may it continue to shine, and may generous heaven smile upon this consummation of

Oil Production Decrease Is Seen

AUSTIN, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The railroad commission's monthly oil production meeting here today appears likely to result in a slash of the state March crude oil production allowance, Commission Chairman Olin Culberson has indicated in re-estimating the U. S. Bureau of Mines estimate of crude oil in Texas for the next month.

The Bureau of Mines estimated that March demand for Texas crude will be 1,790,000 barrels daily, 100,000 barrel decrease from its last month's estimate and a 400,000 barrel decrease from the actual production in the state in February, Culberson said.

He said he "wouldn't be the least bit surprised" if a cut in the March allowable results from today's hearing.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest Thompson indicated last week that a reduction of at least 325,000 barrels per day is necessary to avoid "further accumulation of unwanted crude." He said Texas in the one week ending Feb. 2 had contributed two-thirds of the 3,807,000 barrel increase in U. S. crude stocks above ground for that week. He said production in excess of demand is waste.

Government To Buy More Pork Products

DALLAS, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The quantity of pork and pork products federally inspected packers must reserve for government purchase has been increased from seven and one-half to ten per cent of the live weight of hogs slaughtered weekly.

The United States department of agriculture production and marketing administration office here in announcing the increase said it was necessary to further USDA procurement of meat for critical needs abroad.

WIND WRECKS VIENNA

VIENNA, Feb. 19.—(AP)—A 90-mile wind ripped war-wrecked Vienna last night, knocking down weakened buildings, tearing out trees and killing at least four persons. About 200 were injured. The fire department was called out 150 times for rescue work and other operations.

Nationwide Phone Tieup Threat Dies; Tobey Fights Against Pauley's Approval

Telegram From Airlines Head Is Not Heard

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—The senate naval committee cut off abruptly today an attempt by Senator Tobey (R-NH) to read a telegram from an airline president which Chairman Walsh (D-Mass) said pertained to democratic campaign fund solicitations.

The committee informally sustained Walsh's refusal to hear the telegram from W. A. Patterson, United Airlines president, to Tobey after Tobey had taken the unusual step of being sworn as a witness.

Walsh said the group ought to hear direct from Patterson, who has been called as a witness.

POLITICAL FUNDS
Tobey sought to read the communication after Senator Brewster (R-Me) had asked Edwin W. Pauley, President Truman's nominee for under-secretary of the navy, a series of questions about the ethics of soliciting corporation officials for funds.

Pauley testified, in response to questions, that George Killion, now national democratic treasurer, had told him last night that he, Pauley, had talked to Patterson on the telephone from New York during the 1944 campaign. He had no previous recollection of the conversation.

Clark Discloses Hunt for Wartime Treason Suspects

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark disclosed today that justice department investigators in Europe are on the trail of 22 Americans suspected of wartime treason.

Clark told a reporter he plans to send a special emissary to speed the collection of evidence against these suspect and six others already indicted.

Timothy A. McInerney, the department's director of public information, will fly to Europe and make a survey of the investigations under way in Germany and other former Nazi-dominated countries.

Clark said the justice department "is determined to bring every single American who suspected the axis game away to trial."

Each of the suspects will be returned to the District of Columbia to face a United States tribunal, Clark said.

Eight Americans, including the poet, Ezra Pound, were indicted in 1943 in connection with alleged propaganda broadcasts.

Clark said four of these are held by the army in Europe—Edward Delaney of Olney, Ill.; Douglas Chandler of Baltimore; Constance Drexel of Philadelphia and Robert H. Best of New York City.

Frederick Kaltenbach of Dubuque, Iowa, is reported unofficially in the custody of the Russians, Clark said. He added that in Europe—Edward Delaney of Olney, Ill.; Douglas Chandler of Baltimore; Constance Drexel of Philadelphia and Robert H. Best of New York City.

Dignitaries Pay Tribute To Cardinals

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Congratulations poured in from all parts of the world today to the 32 new cardinals, including four Americans, who were made princes of the Roman Catholic church at a precedent-setting consistory yesterday.

AMERICAN CARDINALS
The four American cardinals extended blessings to the member of their archdioceses as the entire group—the most cosmopolitan ever granted the church's second highest honor—received formal ad calorem calls from other members of the college of cardinals and diplomats accredited to the Holy See.

"It is with pleasure that I extend blessings to all my good friends in St. Louis," said John Cardinal Glennon.

SENTIMENTS EXPRESSED
Similar sentiments were expressed by Edward Cardinal Mooney of Detroit in a letter to his archdiocese expressing gratification for his elevation to the cardinalate.

Cardinal Glennon and Cardinal Mooney, with Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York and Samuel Cardinal Stritch of Chicago, received a long line of beribboned diplomats and members of the Rome nobility, chatting animatedly with them in English, Italian and French. The diplomats who called included envoys to the Vatican of Spain, Portugal, Britain, France, Poland, Cuba, and Chile.

Two of the new cardinals present here are ill. Agustin Granada Parrado y Garcia of Granada, Spain, kept to his room at the Spanish college because of fatigue. Jose Cardinal Caro Rodriguez of Santiago, Chile, was taken to the hospital yesterday afternoon with what doctors first said was bronchial pneumonia but later diagnosed as grippe.

With the late arrival of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungarian primate, 30 of the new princes of the church were present in Vatican City for the traditional ceremony marking their elevation.

Johannes Cardinal De Jong of Utrecht, Holland, and Jules-Geraud Cardinal Sallegue of Toulouse, France, were unable because of illness.

Negro Given 20 Years In State Penitentiary

Alex Holmes, 35-year-old Negro, charged with the murder of Carrie Mae Teal, aged 35, on Dec. 24, 1945, to which he pleaded guilty, was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment in the State penitentiary in trial held in county court yesterday.

The state recommended a sentence of 35 years. The jury brought in the verdict of guilty and recommended a sentence of 20 years.

According to testimony given at the trial yesterday, Carrie Mae Teal, wife of Seymour Teal, operated a cafe known as Georgia Brown's Chicken shack, located in the Flats south of the Brooks hotel, with her husband.

At the time of the murder, Mrs. Teal was working behind a small gate which separated the eating room from the kitchen, and without going into the kitchen, stabbed Mrs. Teal several times with a "sticker."

Dr. J. H. Kelley who attended Mrs. Teal that night, said it was his opinion Mrs. Teal died from hemorrhages and shock caused by a wound just above the right breast, which may have been caused from a sharp instrument.

Several other persons were in the colored division of the cafe at the time of the stabbing, including

Apartment Are Leveled by Fire

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19.—(AP)—A terrific explosion, followed by fire, leveled a three-story apartment building in the downtown residential area here today, killing an undetermined number of persons and injuring a score of others.

Fire Chief Frank Rivard and police estimated that a score or more of persons, all Negroes, lost their lives in the blast or fire, while a score of others were injured.

They said the building housed 53 residents.

Those rescued were taken to Charity hospital suffering from burns. Some bodies could be seen among the ruins.

The building is a unit of a federal housing project.

The cause of the explosion was undetermined but Fire Chief Rivard said it possibly resulted from an accumulation of gas.

The explosion was heard for miles around and attracted thousands of spectators. Windows were shattered and furnishings were upset in houses over a considerable area.

The interior of the structure was a mass of flames when firemen arrived and Fire Chief Frank Rivard would not permit firemen to enter the wreckage. The first floor gave way and the second and third floors collapsed.

GM-UAW Halt Drags Through Its 91st Day

DETROIT, Feb. 19.—(AP)—General Motors Corp. sent its representatives to the conference table and a government hearing today as the strike of 175,000 united auto workers dragged through its 91st day.

SPECIAL SESSION
Special mediator James Dewey, earlier had resumed its hearing on the GM-UAW negotiations, today announced he would make a new effort to "clear the deck" for settlement of the strike by asking both sides to submit in writing their views on issues still in dispute.

The national labor relations board charged that the corporation failed to bargain in good faith.

HOPE FADING
Hope that yesterday's negotiations might bring an end to the motor car industry's longest strike faded as the session broke up with only a "brief comment" from Dewey that "some progress" had been made.

Indicating belief that "both sides want to get the plants operating as soon as they can," the government mediator said he thought written views from both sides might help speed a solution.

The union called the strike No. 21 demanding a 30 percent wage increase but later agreed to a 19 1/2 cent per hour (17.5 percent) increase recommended by a governmental fact-finding board. A week ago the company offered an 18 1/2 cent boost (16.5 percent).

However, it has become apparent that wage discussions will await outcome of the government-sponsored negotiations. Union negotiators, headed by UAW president R. J. Thomas, are demanding reinstatement of the old contract cancelled by the corporation Dec. 10.

There were indications, meanwhile that even a GM-UAW agreement in the government-sponsored negotiations might not mean the end of the strike after Jack Holt, union regional director at Flint, Mich., announced that many locals considered "settlement of their local grievances more important than any wage increase."

Fire Destroys Borger Theater

BORGER, Feb. 19.—(AP)—A raging fire, fanned by a strong wind, completely destroyed a downtown theater and damaged two other buildings yesterday afternoon.

Jack Blessing, projectionist at the theater, suffered a knee injury when he leaped from a second story window to the sidewalk. J. W. Mason, a volunteer fireman, suffered from burns as he fought the fire from the top of a nearby building.

A hundred persons in the theater escaped safely, but firemen and trucks from the local department as well as from Pampa, Buna Vista and Phillips battled the blaze for more than three hours.

The first floor of a furniture store building was gutted and the corner of a hotel was damaged before the fire could be brought under control.

Communications between Borger and Phillips were halted for several hours as repairmen worked on lines that had been burned in two.

Battle of Iwo Jima Began Year Ago Today

PEARL HARBOR, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Dawn of Iwo Jima was thunderous with the pulsating shock of American big guns on this date in 1945—and the bottomless black sand of the beaches soon was touched with the color of American blood.

Today the thunder came from the powerful engines of a naval transport plane, sent from Pearl Harbor to strew the color of fresh-cut flowers over the thousands of U. S. Marine graves.

In Pearl Harbor, Marines gathered simultaneously for a memorial mass arranged by veterans of the Third, Fourth and Fifth divisions, which lost 4,183 dead in the bitter 36-day fight for the tiny volcanic island on the air route to Tokyo.

Many thankful B-29 airmen later acknowledged that American possession of the isle—made into an emergency landing field for damaged Superforts—had saved their lives.

Settlement Is Made With 1000 Union Men

Settlement Is Made With 1000 Union Men

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—(AP)—U. S. Conciliator Peter J. Manno announced settlement today of a strike of 1,000 American Telephone & Telegraph Co. workers here which prompted threats of a nationwide phone tieup.

Manno said the company and representatives of the Federation of Long Lines Telephone Workers (Ind.) reached an agreement after 12 hours of negotiations.

SENIORITY RIGHTS
J. E. Dingman, supervisor of employment relations for the company, said A. T. & T. has promised to investigate the promotion of three employees who the union said were given better jobs without regard to seniority rights.

He said the union by Thursday will give the company a written statement of its grievances and that the groups will meet again here next Monday to discuss the grievances.

President Opposed

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 19.—(AP)—Edwin R. Hackett, president of the Commercial Telephone workers union of Chicago, today voiced opposition to a nation-wide telephone strike before the assembly of the national federation of telephone workers here.

Hackett, who said his union was composed of about 1,500 members—one of the smallest in the federation, told newsmen of his stand before the independent union leaders who are drafting strategy to implement demands for wage increase from the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

Hackett said he had appealed to the assembly to take avoiding action, adding that he had presented an alternative program.

Franks Reports On Possibility For New Airport

City commissioners today promised prompt action on obtaining a civil aeronautics authority appraisal on the need of future airport facilities in Pampa.

The assurance grew out of a report made to the city commission by City Manager Garland Franks and a discussion by Roy A. Webb, Jr., one of the operators at the municipal port.

Franks told the commission that his conference with army officials at Dallas Friday concerning the city's obtaining one of Pampa field's auxiliary landing bases shed little new light but he was assured of the definite possibility of the city's being able to obtain one.

However, the cost of obtaining land at the auxiliary field would be prohibitive, unless the army allowed enough for depreciation, he said.

The equipment, including runways, would be given to the city when it was declared surplus, if the city wanted it, but the 641 acres of land must be purchased.

Franks said he believed the army's original investment in land for the field was over $30,000.

Webb, appearing in behalf of the other operators at the municipal airport, told the commission he and the others would have to be informed very soon as to the course the city was going to follow.

Mayor Farris C. Oden told Webb that if one of the auxiliary fields was purchased, it would merely be to protect the city in case of future expansion.

He assured Webb that it would be perfectly safe to go ahead and construct additional facilities at the municipal port in order to protect the various investments in planes and equipment from the weather.

Webb said the municipal port was entirely adequate for the needs of aviation in the next four to seven

Concrete House-Making Machines May Help Solve Housing Shortage

By TEX EASLEY
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Plans for a concrete house-making machine were shown yesterday to National Housing Administrator Wilson W. Wyatt by R. G. Le Tourneau, Peoria, Ill., manufacturer, who declared the device should help solve the shortage of low-cost houses.

The enormous contraption, which is maneuvered on to a building site on pneumatic-tired wheels, would turn out in 24 hours a house with two bedrooms and an 18 by 11 1/2 foot living room. It is to be built at a plant which Le Tourneau is to erect immediately at Longview, Tex.

Keen interest in the plans and pictures of the machine and of the test houses which have been erected at a Le Tourneau plant at Vicksburg, Miss., were expressed by Wyatt. The Texas plant is to be constructed near the Le Tourneau Technical Institute of Texas, a converted army hospital at Longview, which is to be dedicated Feb. 25.

Rep. Patman (D-Tex.), sponsor of legislation designed to carry out President Truman's proposal for 2,700,000 new housing units, was among those at the conference in Wyatt's office.

"This machine is the best answer I have seen to date for a mass housing problem," he commented.

The cost of the machine and of the houses are expected to be announced at the Le Tourneau institute dedication ceremonies, at which Lieut. Gen. Omar N. Bradley, veteran administrator, is to make the principal address.

Veterans are to be given preference in enrollment at the trade school, where they will receive shelter and tuition free, and receive pay for part time work at the plant turning out the house-building machines. Originally it was contemplated that the veterans should also receive their meals free also, but the plan now is that these shall be served at cost in cafeterias.

After the visit with Wyatt, Le Tourneau and others sponsoring the establishment of the technical institute named the following as members of the board of trustees for the institution:

Le Tourneau, chairman; Dr. V. R. Edman, president of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill.; Dr. M. E. Dodd, widely known Southern Baptist leader and pastor of the First Baptist church, Shreveport, La.; Carl L. Estes, Longview publisher; Mrs. R. G. Le Tourneau; Robert F. Nelson, New York; and O. K. Armstrong, Springfield, Mo., author.

Conferring here with Le Tourneau regarding the institute were Dr. Harold Strathearn, New York, director of the Le Tourneau foundation; Nelson, and Estes.

Lieut. Col. H. D. Hotchkiss, just discharged from the army after service on the faculty of the army university for G.I.'s at Biarritz, France, also met with the group. He has been prominently mentioned as a choice for president of the new school.

Although the president may be named later today, the action probably will be taken tomorrow at a meeting of the board in Longview. Estes said he and Le Tourneau and others would leave by plane later today for Longview.

Le Tourneau, who is a layman minister, preached yesterday in Newark, O., and flew here for yesterday's conference. Profits from his manufacturing plants are largely diverted to the Le Tourneau foundation, which sponsors philanthropic steps. The manufacturer in 1926 and 1927 was associated with Henry J. Kaiser, shipbuilder.

NO. 2—WHO USES WHAT FORM:

WHAT, WHY AND HOW OF INCOME TAX EXPLAINED

Editor's Note: This is the second of 12 stories explaining who has to do what about his income taxes.

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Generally, taxpayers are divided into two classes: Those who make under or over $5,000.

Those who made less than $5,000 in 1945 won't have to figure their tax. They'll use Form W-2, the withholding receipt, or the 1040 Short-Form.

Those who made $5,000 or over will have to use the 1040 Long-Form and do their own figuring. There's an explanation of the forms and who can use them.

Take Form W-2 first: This is the receipt, about the size of a bank-check, which a boss gives to a worker to show the money earned in 1945 and the tax withheld from his wages or salary.

To use it: 1. Your gross income for the year—that is, total income, not just how much was left after paying expenses—must be under $5,000.

2. If you had income in addition to your wages, that income must not have been more than $100, and the total income must be under $5,000.

3. Your income must have been derived from wages, salary, dividends or interest. Note the kind of income well.

Note this, too: If your deductions for 1945—such as medical expenses, charitable contributions, and so on—were more than 10 percent of your income—don't use Form W-2. You'll lose money. Use Form 1040.

Answer a few simple questions on the Form W-2 receipt, send it to your internal revenue collector, and be sure you don't send any money with it.

If you still owe him any tax, he'll notify you and then you pay him. If you've been taxed too much, he'll send you a refund.

Now take the 1040 Short-Form. (Form 1040 has four pages. Used one way it is the Short-Form. Used another way, it is the Long-Form). Using 1040 as a Short-Form, you generally deal only with the first page.

There you write some facts and figures about yourself—such as name, number of dependents—and the wages, salary or other income.

8 Additional Pampans Enter Regular Army

Eight more men of the Pampa area have enlisted in the regular army, reports Sgt. Delbert Nunn, recruiting officer.

Sergeant Nunn enlisted an old acquaintance of his, Fred G. Daggett, 26. Both men were stationed at Fort Bliss from 1937 to 1940. Daggett, a veteran of nine years and two months service, enlisted in the army in the grade of master sergeant. A former captain, he was stationed at the Pampa army field until his release from active service. His wife, June, and daughter live at Box 290.

James Edwin Beck, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Beck, Skellytown, enlisted for 18 months, unassigned. James was formerly a student at Texas A. & M. college for two years before entering the service.

Charles Lee Richardson, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clay L. Richardson, 1108 Wilks, enlisted for 18 months unassigned.

Billy Joe Day, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Day, star route 2, enlisted for 18 months unassigned.

Louis Edward Charland, 17, whose home is in Plattsburg, N. Y., and employed in Pampa before entering the service, chose three years enlistment with the army air forces in the European theater.

Jack Don McFarridge, 17, son of Mrs. Velma McFarridge, 836 E. Gordon, enlisted for three years with the corps of engineers in the European theater.

Joe Clyde Winborne, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Winborne, 824 E. Campbell, also enlisted for three years and chose the field artillery and the Pacific theater. He lived at 406 Oklahoma street before entering the service.

 NEW DELHI, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Sometime when I have more leisure for the serious things that interest me I want to write an exhaustive thesis on animal life in hotel rooms around the world.

It will probably be called "Fauna in Temporary Lodgings in Both Hemispheres."

In an ordinary American hotel you can bunk down for the night feeling safe from any unusual visitors from the animal, mineral or vegetable kingdoms.

Not so elsewhere on this cozy globe. You have strange encounters with all breeds of mankind's little furred and feathered friends.

In Cuzco, Peru, I was bedbugged—millions of them, thankfully swarming over me as if the Red Cross had sent me over as their private blood bank.

In Algiers, one of my visits back from the warfront an incredible thing happened: Every night promptly at 6:30 a single moth would rise out of my clothes and flutter away.

On the sixth straight night this had happened I put my book down at 6:25 and vigorously began beating my pants legs, my shirt, my necktie and my socks and stamped both feet vigorously. As it hit 6:30 a bedraggled moth rose laboriously out of my garments and flew away.

He was the last one apparently, as no others appeared in the next twelve days. I never was able to locate the source of supply.

In Naples it was fleas—big broad-jumping, gouging louts that bit for fun as well as food. In France it was mice. In Belgium it was lice. In Hong Kong it was rats.

When you do that, look at the table on the back to find your tax. It shows the tax on income up to $5,000.

The Short-Form can be used by anyone with income under $5,000 from any source.

Remember this, too: People using Form W-2 or the 1040 Short-Form don't list deductions, such as for medical expenses or union dues.

Don't use Form W-2 or the 1040 Short-Form if you have deductions of more than 10 percent. Use the 1040 Long-Form.

You have to use the 1040 Long-Form. You have to use this and figure your own tax if your income was $5,000 or over, whether from wages or any other source.

If you have to use this form, take a flat minimum deduction of $500 for expenses, even though those expenses were far less than $500.

If your actual expenses were more than $500, you can claim as much as those expenses were.

hotel rooms in every country. Hotel room zoos are more varied in tropical and semi-tropical countries. The creatures grow bigger, too. When you meet a cockroach you say, "Sir," and step aside to let him pass.

In Manila before I switched the light off at night I lay in bed and watched two gecko lizards catch mosquitos on the opposite wall. One was big and fat. The other was lean and pale—as if he didn't have enough insects for his system.

Everytime he would get set for a bomb run on some unwary mosquito the bigger lizard would chase him around the corner and go after the meal himself.

Here in India I have three types of non-paying animal and bird guests. One wall has been taken over by a gecko lizard. Two English sparrows fly into my bedroom every morning and right overhead a wasp also is building a nest in the armature of the electric fan.

At that I am luckier than a group of American officers here. They found a baby cobra in their barracks.

I have always admired Saint Francis of Assisi, gentle patron saint of birds and beasts. Sometimes I wonder, though, if he ever spent much time with them in hotel rooms.

Bevin Denies Charges Made By Yugoslavia

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin denied officially yesterday that Polish troops serving under British command in northern Italy were moving toward the Yugoslav border and were a threat to peace.

Yugoslav memorandum, presented by Russia Saturday to the United Nations security council, made the charges. Bevin replied in a 500-word letter to Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations, declaring:

"If the Yugoslav government believed the charges in their memorandum to be well founded, their proper course was to bring them to my notice through the diplomatic channel."

"Instead the question has been brought to the security council by the Soviet government with a surprising reference to the matter as constituting a possible future threat to peace."

"The Yugoslav government's statement that the Polish forces are in close touch with Yugoslav dissent elements in Italy, and they are giving these elements material support, appears to be based on rumor."

"I have no information to confirm these rumors and I cannot take any cognizance of such reports until an indication is given that they are supported by confirmatory evidence."

The Yugoslav memorandum was distributed to security council members on the last day of their session by the Soviet delegate, Andrei Vishinsky. It was not lodged as an official complaint calling for action by the council.

Paris Neckwear Is Shortcut to Chic

Schiaparelli underlines the Paris emphasis on high-riding neckwear with her chin-concealing cravat of wine satin printed with bright blue coin dots. She calls it "Micawber."

U. S. Designers Show Similar Accessories

By EPSIE KNARD NEA Staff Writer NEW YORK—One fashion on which Parisian and U. S. designers see eye-to-eye this spring is neckwear accessories.

much different from the American use of brilliantly-colored scarves, integrated into dress designs and panels is Patou's use of polka-dotted print fabric. As a focal point of interest for dark dresses, he makes the skirt-panel an appendage to a half-blouse, half-sash accessory.

Flashes from Paris showing what's new in neckwear are virtually an echo of what's coming up over here. Cases in point are front and back panels of print "silk" button-on yokes, collars, berthas of starched organza or crisp pique; collar and waistcoat belts of dressy fabric; and richly patterned scarves used in a variety of ingenious ways.

Both French and American designers borrow style ideas from the picturesque past. While Schiaparelli calls her upjutting scarves and chin-ticking collars "Micawber," Americans half hide faces in cowls and other neckwear which they call "Regency Dandy."

Paris's versatile silk collar and belt are joined at the back by a narrow panel.

TOO MUCH BASKETBALL IN 24 HOURS

When the Berger basketball team defeated Amarillo last Friday night, the northern division of District I-AA race was a three-way tie, the third team being the Pampa Harvesters. A winner had to be announced, we understand, by last Saturday midnight.

Consequently the three teams had to "fight" it out with two more games by that time. Since the Friday night Berger-Amarillo was equivalent, in effect, to a championship game, one of the three teams had to play three games in 24 hours, a second had to play two hard games within that time.

Too much basketball. It is too much basketball, we believe, for teen-age boys who are going to put out all they have regardless of what the cost may be to them personally. Boys are made like that.

A coach in most cases is going to use the best material as much as he can. Some athletes' ability is going to be overworked in such case.

We appreciate all the facts that made necessary this "hurry-up" schedule.

However, we wonder if it would not be practicable and wise to arrange the schedule next season so that there will be a little time between the regular final games and the deadline. Then, if there is a tie, the players of any teams involved won't be called on to over-tax themselves.

MR. MOLOTOV'S FEARS
Foreign Commissar Molotov made a rather hysterical, sword-rattling speech the other day in which he accused Russia's wartime allies of keeping anti-Russian forces under arms in Europe and thus encouraging "dangerous talk of a third World War."

He spoke particularly of "tens of thousands of troops of the Polish fascist General Anders" in Italy, and hinted that General Anders' troops were preparing to attack "the new democratic Poland."

Mr. Molotov can't have forgotten General Anders' Poles were Russia's allies, and that many of them fought nearly six years against the common enemy. He can't be ignorant of why these troops are not eager to return to the "new democratic Poland," or why the United States and Britain are not anxious to send them back.

Many countrymen of these Polish troops have suffered imprisonment and death for the crime of opposing the present, Soviet-sponsored Polish government. Is it any wonder that General Anders' men prefer to remain outside Poland?

Perhaps if Mr. Molotov could find it possible to soften his own belligerent tone, to cease calling every anti-communist a fascist, and to arrange political amnesty for these men who fought and bled against Russia's enemy, he might hear less "dangerous talk of a third World War."

Some Things a Business Man Should Know

In ordinary times businessmen have enough problems, but now they have many more.

There are a few fundamental principles, however, that it might be well for businessmen, and those who want to go into business to understand.

In the first place, it might be well for the businessman to get into his head that he will not be able to pay his associates, his workers, a great deal more for the same product than other employers pay. If he has got it in his head that he is so much smarter than other people that he can pay more wages for the same production he has a slim chance of staying in business.

This does not mean of course that he cannot pay more per hour or per week or per year, if his unit costs are no higher than others. If his wage costs make his unit cost higher than others, he is evidently bound to fail.

Neither can a businessman hire associates for less per hour of production than other employers will pay. He might hire them for less per hour if they produce less, but he cannot hire them for less per unit and still keep his employees. If he tries to hire them for less per unit than other employers will pay, he will find that he will be constantly changing help and his changes of help will cost him money and his unit cost will go up instead of down.

The businessman should realize that he is only a sales manager for his associate workers. He is trying to market their product to the best advantage. That if any other employer can get a better price for the same product, he will lose his job as sales manager for his workers and he will find himself without employees.

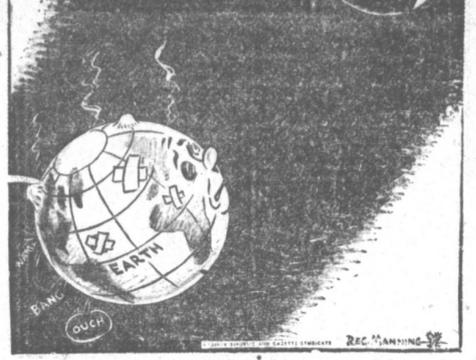

Neither should a businessman believe that he can sell to his customers a product and get more for it than the market will bear. The businessman should realize that he is only a purchasing agent for his customers trying to buy for them as much as he can; trying to deliver to them as much as they pay for their labor; that if he betrays this trust he sooner or later has no customers.

The business man should also realize that the biggest asset he has is dependability. His associate workers should have full confidence in him just as his customers should know when he makes a statement the buyer would find the product as reported. He, of course, must be willing to make a good any error that he makes.

He should realize that people as a whole prefer to work with and buy from the dependable and helpful individual. That honesty in the long run is the best policy. That misrepresentation and covetousness and fraud in the long run do not pay. This, of course, is rather contrary to the current belief that only the exploiter succeeds, that the businessman will not succeed unless he exploits the customer and the workers, but business is not like war where the successful one does not mind

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER

TRIUMPH—The outcome of the wage-price controversy is a distinct triumph of the middle-of-the-road members of the administration over the big and little hangers-on.

He has given the left-wingers what they wanted by placing Price Administrator Chester Bowles, their champion, in a more important position than he held in the past. But White House columnists and the Snyder-Byrnes-Vinson faction mean that Mr. Bowles will simply execute the wage-price policies they have framed.

The former advertising genius will continue to "hold the line" against inflation, but the "line" has been fixed by more conservative compromisers. Realization of this explains why the radicals, including Secretary Wallace, C. I. O. leaders like R. J. Thomas of the automobile workers, ideological communists and commentators and congressional liberals are voicing openly their criticisms of President Truman.

ALIGNMENT—The protracted dispute, which forced President Truman to postpone a vacation in Florida, also revealed the politico-economic alignments within the White House family.

Although they tried to conceal or soften their differences, and to pretend that there was no break in their ranks, it is now possible to classify and identify the three factions struggling for supremacy and influence around the White House.

The so-called new dealers were headed by Mr. Bowles, strange as that may seem. He insisted that management could absorb increased payments to the workers without raising the price of their products.

He so stated in testifying in favor of the proposed minimum wage figure of sixty-five cents an hour. He had the support of Labor Secretary Charles C. Connelley, Secretary Wallace and Secretary Ickes. They were willing to profit the workers even if it penalized the employers.

MIDDLE—Democratic National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan and Treasury Secretary Fred M. Vinson took a position squarely in the middle. It has surprised some that the nation's financial head should line up with Mr. Truman's political manager, but Fred is a born politician.

They favored sweeping pay increases from the start in accord with their belief that the democrats must hold on to the vast labor vote in the 1946 and 1948 elections. They are neither zealots nor ideologists.

But they also realized that they could not afford the price demanded by the C. I. O. steel, automobile and meat unions if continued strikes produced discontent, inflation and general resentment.

So they acted as mediators. They

Peter Edson's Column: WILSON WYATT'S 'PPP' HOUSING PLANS

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, (NEA)—If housing expeditor Wilson Wyatt can build three million low-cost houses in the next two years it will mean a complete revolution in the real estate and construction business.

It's about time. These industries are now encumbered with more antiquated trade practices, building codes and labor restrictions than the wreck of the Hesperus has barnacles.

Most controversial item on the Wyatt program is probably his "Production Premium Payment" idea. Call it the "PPP" plan for short. The catchy name for it is "Housing Subsidy." Wyatt says he isn't ducking the nasty word "subsidy" on purpose but he thinks "Production Premium Payment" more accurately describes what he is shooting at.

He offers it as an incentive plan to get more building materials produced so more houses can be built faster.

Essential building materials in short supply are brick, lumber, cast-iron radiators and sill pipe, gypsum and lath. Production premium payments might be applied to any or all of them. Wyatt now isn't saying which will need most incentive.

UPTON CLOSE: Time Has Come To Seek Unity Among Citizens

Well, where are we now in the relations between nations?

The British socialist and imperialist government is being backed up—and more, it is becoming angrier because Secretary of State Byrnes and the administration do not give it more forceful support against Russia.

The Russian government continues to mop up on the advantages it enjoys because we have backed it to be the most powerful outfit in Europe and Asia. It pursues these advantages cold-bloodedly, in the true spirit of poker, with no sense of gratitude to us.

In China exists a situation which our administration propagandists and Pollyannas rushed out to say was all cured up and down and ordered for righteousness and order when as a matter of fact it is not cleared up at all. As I pointed out in a recent column, what is going on in China is most likely the exact opposite of what these hopefuls want.

Chiang Kai-shek's government is in the process of entering into secret agreements with the bolshevik government—which involves more infringements on China's sovereignty, and the "open door" for trade and ideas in China than all the 19th century evils which America and its allies have inflicted on the island.

But he had important backing from officials who had tried to solve these questions in quiet conferences with the former manufacturer-street, then some increases in return for factoring of left-wingers, he is the "head devil" of the present administration.

INCREASES—Reconversion Director John W. Snyder, President Truman's closest friend in Washington and his every-morning quarterback, headed the group which insisted that industry must be given some increase in return for factoring of left-wingers, he is the "head devil" of the present administration.

But he had important backing from officials who had tried to solve these questions in quiet conferences with the former manufacturer-street, then some increases in return for factoring of left-wingers, he is the "head devil" of the present administration.

AMERICAN BUSINESS, as things stand, will not stand a ghost of a show of getting ahead in China, loans or not loans. We have lost our immense trade with Japan, and that defeated and ruined nation is costing us money instead of profiting us.

EUROPE, American military and political expansion never bore the fact of self-interest, even though that many have existed in some quarters, but always carried a temporary status. Our expenditure there was put on the basis of creating a spiritually free and materially well-provided for Europe and establishing international order.

STRATEGY—House-senate republicans are locked in a hot argument over the political strategy of the Truman administration. They are so solidly for the "labor disputes act of 1946," which imposes stiffer penalties and prohibitions on the unions than any measure ever enacted by either body of congress.

THE 258 MEMBERS backing the house bill consisted of 109 democrats, 149 republicans. This administration propagandists plan to brand it an opposition measure, and to blast the G. O. P. as the enemy of the workingman and the "friend of the rich."

More than 600 species of fish are found in the coastal waters of the Hawaiian islands.

MACKENZIE'S Column

ESSEN, Germany, Feb. 19—Just outside this bomb-devastated city was the home of the Krupp armament works—generations the world's greatest producer of instruments of war—there is an extraordinary monument to rapacity and ruthlessness.

This is the baronial palace of the Krupps, known as the Villa Hugel. It is the last word in wanton lavishness.

What it may have cost in millions of money, however, doesn't interest this columnist so much as what it cost in millions of lives.

History pins the responsibility for much of German aggression during the past century on Krupp's and it will be history DEWITT MACKENZIE!

It was Alfred Krupp, founder of the firm, who provided the stevedores of war for Germany's onslaught against France in 1870's. It was Krupp's which carried Kaiser Wilhelm on his back to near victory over the Allies in the First World War. And it was Krupp's that was Hitler's all but successful attempt to conquer Europe.

You experience an uncanny sensation as you walk through the vast oaken halls of this symbol of the Krupp success. The whole atmosphere was vampirish.

Y. Hugel stands on a hilltop overlooking the ruins of the big city of Essen, which grew up about the Krupp works that stretch through the heart of the town for seven miles.

The huge baronial hall is a record of the pride of the Krupps, for its oaken walls—one of the really beautiful features—are covered with many lifelike portraits of various members of the family. There is one group, including Gustav Von Bohlen and Holbach, present head of the house who is too ill to stand trial before the war crimes court in Nuernberg, and his wife Bertha, whose passport to glory is the fact that her name was given to Big Bertha, the enormous Krupp gun with which the Germans shelled Paris in the last war from a distance of about 75 miles.

One could write a book about the Villa Hugel, but the purpose of this article is to draw attention to an aspect of German aggression which we don't see emphasized fully enough. This is that militarism has been supported by and encouraged by the Titan armament firm of Krupp, which has been the motor of the war machine.

In another world war to save their theories and their personal power? Even if they go to such an extreme can they carry this nation with them more than a few months longer? I doubt it—unless we are suddenly attacked again. That trick has been used once. I think the only government that might use it again a second time, namely Moscow, has so much to gain by just letting us alone to sink into growing disgust and apathy for the next few years that our certain trend into isolationism will be quite undisturbed from that source.

The next several years are indeed going to be tough for our internationalists, and their foreign friends—disgust in America is going to make it that way.

For just ordinary Americans there is the chance of becoming a sadder and wiser people, and of knitting up all the split strands of carry-over nationalities and races and groups here into a new American national unity.

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—Archie was mad. He was spitting teeth all over the sawdust on the floor at Duffy's Tavern and pounding the counter so hard that the cheese was flying out of the free sandwiches.

"It is like this," says Archie, who is Ed Gardner and a very smart fellow. "Sure I have writers. But when certain people go around saying they invented Archie, and that I didn't have anything to do with it, I get so mad that I could twist a pretzel around somebody's neck."

So we asked for the lowdown on Archie and got it.

Ed was a radio producer, writer and director, had never done any acting. One day five years ago he was producing a show called "This Is New York." He wrote in the character of a mugg, couldn't find anyone to play the part. So he played it himself. That was Archie. And Ed has been playing Archie and doing the final versions of his scripts ever since.

THIS TIME—SAWDUST
"Comedy writing," says Ed, "is a labor of love of black coffee."

Now, just to make things tougher on himself, Ed will produce a picture titled "Murder in Duffy's Tavern." He's already thrown out two writers. Elliott Paul, who wrote "The Last Time I Saw Paris," is doing the current version. Ed is being particular this time. He didn't like Paramount's original version of "Duffy's Tavern."

"It wasn't Duffy," he says. "This time I'm going to keep both the Tavern and Archie in character. There's really going to be sawdust on the floor."

Ed told us a wonderful yarn about his switch from radio producer to star. He worked for several years for a big advertising agency. His pet hate was the personnel manager, a chap named Howard Kohl. Not once in five years did Kohl give him a cheery greeting or a smile. Then Archie became a star. The advertising agency wanted him as guest on one of their shows. Ed agreed. The price was $1,000. But Ed had them draw up a contract saying he'd do the show for $999 and a smile from

"Murder!" They Cried

By DOROTHY STALEY

WHEN Straub said that he was surprised no one had suggested that Phillipa Leigh had jumped off the cliff, Mr. Wilson replied, "Oh, no. Not Phillipa. She wasn't the kind of person who would take her own life under any condition. She must have fallen."

Zern was quite sarcastic. "Accidentally, after, dark. Probably cut picking daisies."

Jeffrey said quickly, "I think we'll find it was a hold-up, just as I said."

"And the guy brought her over here and dumped her over her own cliff," Zern barked.

Jeffrey ignored him, "Straub, you'd better send out a teletype about picking up the car."

Straub took the number and went into the morning room to the telephone.

Zern grumbled, "Well, at least, we're agreed on one thing. It's murder."

SUPPORT THESE PROGRESSIVE FIRMS WHO ARE BUILDING A NEW AND GREATER PAMPA

Clyde Bassett Concludes 5,000-Mile Buying Trip in East--'Rough Going'

Clyde Bassett, one of the partners in the Motor Supply company of Texas, located at 314 West Foster, said yesterday afternoon he had just returned from a 5,000-mile trip East; where he contacted manufacturers and wholesalers of automotive parts, and that he expected about $20,000 worth of new parts and equipment within a few days.

"The weather is rough back there," he said. "In fact, it is worse because it is hard even to get a taxi cab when the weather is bad."

Mr. Bassett, who operates the establishment with partners Carl L. King and Tom C. Connolly, during the trip East made contacts at St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Toledo and New York.

The Motor Supply is one of the up-and-coming relatively new businesses in Pampa. Although somewhat hampered by the scarcity of supplies due to war and strike conditions, it has managed to offer parts, supplies, and equipment for cars, trucks, and tractors. Oil field equipment is also offered.

The main office and warehouse is contained in a new building in Amarillo. This was completed in July, 1944. The company has various stores, supplying all the Panhandle of Texas, parts of Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

The hope (for peace) lies in the fact that it takes only a period of about a dozen years to implant a basic culture in the mind of man—the period of childhood between the age of 2 and the age of 14.—Beardsley Ruml, chairman Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

They (the Russians) were suspicious of Americans and we were suspicious of them. There was never

Hillson Coffee Shop, Open From 6 a. m. To 10 p. m., Offers Variety of Food

For the past sixteen months, the Hillson Coffee Shop, located at 304 West Foster street, has been operated under lease by G. C. King. The establishment is located next to the Hillson hotel.

Mr. King has 15 years' restaurant and coffee shop business behind him, having formerly operated businesses in Dallas and Panhandle. He operated the Bob's Cafe and the Ambassador Coffee Shop at Dallas. He recently sold the Panhandle Coffee Shop at Panhandle.

The Hillson is open from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m., and a good cup of coffee can be secured there during those hours. Many persons take advantage of it.

In addition to good coffee, one can get short orders, lunches, dinners and breakfast at the Hillson. A number of Pampa families have Sunday dinner at the Hillson.

Mr. King, who is also a wheat farmer (he has about 395 acres in near Panhandle and hopes "this rain is falling over there"), is a member of the chamber of commerce and the Baptist church.

Drivers, Owner of City Cab Company Are War Veterans

One of the strictly "GI" businesses in Pampa is the City Cab company, owned and operated by a veteran.

City Cab, located at 221 North Cuyler and always available by calling telephone 441, is operated by E. E. Smith. He began business last year.

Other members of his group of four drivers are Luther Barkley, Vernon Dickerson, Ray Carter, and Herb Tanner.

Three of these veterans (all five are married) have seen overseas service. For instance, Barkley has had 22 months; Dickerson 26 months, and Carter about three years.

Mr. Smith is looking forward to the day when he can get new cabs—and that won't be very long (he hopes).

Twenty-four-hour service is offered by the City Cab company. And customers are urged to remember that when they call the City they are calling a concern which is made up entirely of veterans. It is a pleasing event that the men of war can at last turn to being men of peace.

No. 1080 Puts Rats In Bad Shape—Dead

HIDALGO, Texas, Feb. 19.—(AP)—Rats in the custom house here may be immune to marijuana, but they can't take No. 1080.

The newly developed poison with the name made up of chemicals was used in the rats' drinking water. Chief Inspector C. W. Williamson said, and it was potent enough to put the rodents on a permanent jag. Previously the rats had gnawed into several packages of confiscated marijuana without apparent harm. The rats, after trying No. 1080, however, were in terrible shape. They were dead all over the place.

Argentines Again Deny U. S. Charges

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 18.—(AP)—An Argentine communique—the second in answer to a United States blue book charging collusion with the nazis—denies that the government has been slow in expelling axis agents.

The communique, issued last night said allegations that Argentina was negligent in deporting "enemy agents" were "erroneous and constitute an imputation which has no real basis."

Eight Champions Are Named at Ft. Worth

PORT WORTH, Feb. 19.—(P)—The Texas team, made up of three fighters from Dallas, three from Houston and one each from Fort Worth and Corpus Christi, will leave Saturday for Chicago to compete in the tournament of champions in the Golden Gloves.

The Texas athletes were crowned here last night as more than 9,000 fans turned out for the closing program of the state tournament. It was a record one-night throng and brought the total attendance for the five nights to over 30,000—also a tournament record.

Not a single defending champion came through but there are several well-experienced men on the Texas team which Flen R. Hall, director of the Texas Golden Gloves, thinks has a good chance of finishing with the leaders at Chicago Feb. 25, 26 and 27 in the preliminaries and in the finals 10 days later.

These will battle under the Texas banner at Chicago:

Henry Kagawa, Houston, flyweight; Joe Garcia, Houston, bantamweight; Alex Gonzales, Dallas, featherweight; Bill Wilson, Corpus Christi naval air station, lightweight; Cotton Gunter, Dallas, fourth weight; Herbert May, Houston, middleweight; Prsley Darnell, Fort Worth, light heavyweight; Charles Simmons, Dallas, heavyweight.

Kagawa took out the last 1945 champion in the finals when he defeated Gilbert Areche of San Antonio. The best fight of the night, however, was a slam-bang affair put on by Garcia, brother of the 1945 welterweight champion, Gilbert Garcia, who was eliminated in the quarter-finals, and Rudy Lara of San Antonio. Joe Garcia used a triphammer style of attack to earn the decision but it was a close fight all the way and a thriller for the crowd.

Latin-Americans Joining Mexican Baseball League

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—(P)—Mexican baseball promoters, with plenty of pesos to offer as bait, are attempting to outbid the major leagues in the Latin American Ivory market and are invading the player lists of U. S. leagues.

Headed by Bernardo Pasquel, millionaire president of the Mexican professional baseball league, the promoters from across the border made their first big strike yesterday when Luis Olmo, fleet-footed 313. Hitting Brooklyn outfielder, signed a three-year contract with the Vera Cruz club.

Along with Olmo, who reportedly is getting $10,000 a year plus expenses for his wife and himself, the Mexicans signed the colorful Danny Gardella, a combination outfielder-infielder, Philadelphia Phillies, New York Giants last year. Gardella has been in the bad graces of the Giants since he spurned a $5,000 contract and Manager Mel Ott had Danny ticketed for the minors.

Pasquel said last week that his plan was to sign two other Cuban players belonging to the Giants, infielder Nap Reyes and pitcher Adrian Zabela.

Other Latin players the Mexican executive claims have "jumped" the majors are Rene Montague, Philadelphia Phillies; outfielder; Roberto Estalella, Philadelphia athlete fly-chaser, and Fernin Guerra, Washington catcher.

Adolfo Lique, former star National league pitcher and recent New York Giant coach, had agreed to manage one of the Mexican teams but was jured away Jean Pierre Roy and Roland Gladu, property of the Dodgers who played with Montreal in the International league last year.

Baylor Due To Hang up Crown

By The Associated Press
Baylor's Golden Bears, who won their only southwest conference basketball championship in 1932, are due to rack up another tonight when they meet Texas A. and M. at Waco in the final title game on their schedule.

The Bears are sure of sharing the championship even if they lost to A. and M. but can take the undisputed crown by winning, which they are top favorites to do.

Arkansas is the only team retaining a chance of even tying Baylor for the title. That would result should A. and M. upset the Bruins and Arkansas beat A. and M. in the last two games of the season.

Baylor, which is certain to receive the invitation to play in the National Collegiate Athletic association regional tournament at Kansas City if it is undisputed champion, will go to Buffalo, N. Y., Saturday to play Canisius in the first game of an eastern tour.

Training Camp

(By The Associated Press)
"Hold-outs" continued to plague the three New York clubs. President Larry MacPhail, making his first appearance at the Yankees training camp in Patanama, disclosed that five players still were unsigned. Heading the group was the American league batting king, George Stinewiss, who is not satisfied with the offered $16,000, the same he received last year. The others are pitcher Ernie Bonham, who has taken a heavy attack and Russ Derry, and infielder for Braves.

The Dodgers announced the signing of six players, first baseman Howie Schultz, second baseman Al Campanis and pitchers Clay Smith, Ray Hataway, Ervin Palcia and Leroy Prund, but joining outfielders Dixie Walker, Augie Galan and pitcher Joe Hatten as holdouts were pitchers Goodie Rosen and Pete Retser.

In addition to Reyes, Zabela and Maglie, the Giants officially listed catcher Ernie Lombardi, and outfielders Charlie Mead, Bobby Fox and Jesse Pike as holdouts. Infielder Dick Bartell was the latest Giant to sign his contract.

Contracts on Highway Jobs Being Let Today

AUSTIN, Feb. 19.—(P)—Contracts on highway construction and repairs in 27 counties will be let today by the state highway department.

Included in the total of 226 miles of construction under bidding is a 20-mile project of asphalt underseal for the concrete pavement on U. S. highway 81 between Waco and Temple.

Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said the repair project involves pumping asphalt under the pavement to fill low spots causing breaks in the concrete and to furnish an insulator against underground water. He said the process has been used successfully in a protective maintenance program of roads in the Dallas area and would be extended to other highways throughout the state.

Other counties involved in today's contracts are Denton, Dallas, Houston, Medina, Terrell, Kaufman, Henderson, Brown, Hopkins, Tarrant, Parker, Johnson, Sherman, Carson, Hale, Erath, Chambers, Fannin, Kinney, Leon, Van Zandt, Lavaca, Brooks, Hidalgo and Jeff Davis.

Ted Lyons, 45, Ready To Start

PASADENA, Calif., Feb. 19.—(P)—The idol of Chicago's south side, Ted Lyons, 45 and fit, is back from the wars and hard at work to become more than just a Sunday-pitcher for the White Sox this season.

The affable Lyons, discharged from the Marines as a captain after three years in service, was so eager to pick up the 20-year-old twirling threat he left behind in 1942 that he came out to the White Sox' training base 10 days ahead of his teammates, due here tomorrow.

The flu postponed his workouts, but he was on the Brookside park practice field early yesterday, almost as frisky—well, almost—as in 1923, when as a gangling kid just out of Baylor university, he first joined the club.

"I want to pitch 200 innings this year," Ted Lyons said, "My legs feel fine—and that's the main thing." The veteran pitcher, only a half-dozen pounds overweight at about 206, said he didn't know about his arm yet.

"I won't do much throwing for several weeks—we old-timers gotta take it easy," quipped Ted, with a boyish laugh.

Simms also said that the rules information would be sent to Centenary college Shreveport, La.

Texas Not Eligible For Mexican Labor

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 19.—(P)—The labor department announced yesterday that it would continue to exclude Texas from the list of states eligible to receive Mexican farm labor.

The announcement followed closely on the heels of a statement made last Saturday by Labor Secretary Francisco Trujillo Gurria, who named several other ineligible states. They were Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Colorado, Montana, and Wyoming.

Gurria conspicuously omitted Texas when he enumerated the names of "blacklisted" states. An official explained, because no workers had ever been sent to the state under government sponsorship. However, many workers of "unofficial" status have been employed on Texas farms.

The official added that the government has decided to continue its firm labor attitude toward Texas, because, he added, of the conviction that discrimination against Mexicans is practiced.

Price Control

(Continued from page 1) —A republican plan to write a definite formula for junking ceilings. As a spokesman for the agency told the house banking committee that all controls except rents probably can be eliminated next year, Rep. Wolcott (Mich.), ranking committee republican, said he favors a system that would provide for gradual but forced OPA liquidation.

This could be accomplished, Wolcott told reporters, by an amendment requiring removal of price ceilings in each industry when it is found that production has reached 75 percent of normal output.

He would base the industry-by-industry decontrol on findings by OPA's own advisory committees, with any disputes to be settled by the emergency court of appeals.

Wolcott said he might offer this and two other amendments to the bill before the committee to extend the price control law one year beyond its June 30 expiration date. The others, he said, would:

1. Redefine OPA's scope of powers "to confine controls to prices and rents and prevent use of the powers to control the economy."

2. Set up a pricing formula under which recovering industries need not wait for an OPA price, but could apply a specific percentage increase above their prewar price. This figure would be subject to OPA review.

Administration supporters, however, are determined to push for passage of the extension bill without change.

The banking committee meanwhile invited Chester Bowles to return to Capitol Hill for questioning on his statement yesterday that under President Truman's new wage-price policy the prices of food, shelter and clothing—the three essentials of living—can be held at about their present levels.
