

Trade Meeting Held Here by Price Officials

F. A. Wilson and R. D. Kennedy, district price specialists of Fort Worth, conducted a trade meeting in the county court room Wednesday afternoon with dealers of apparel, house furnishing and automotive services attending.

Discussing MPFR 580, Kennedy stated that new dealers must register businesses with local price board and make application with the district office for authorization of their price chart. The importance of keeping proper records and properly marking merchandise for the customer's information was also stressed.

Wilson, services specialist, discussed time and prices of automotive repairs, emphasizing the importance of the special service regulation setting time limits for 50 repair jobs. Base prices must be filed with the local price board and kept displayed in the dealers place of business. Advantages of the new increase allowed the dealer were also discussed. Operation number must be listed on each sales slip, as well as description of service given, hours charged for and rate per hour.

Prices of parts and materials governed by MPFR 453 were discussed. Approximately 30 dealers from four counties, Gray, Roberts, Hepphill and Wheeler, were represented.

Billy Rose Sells Life Story for Hollywood Pic

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 7 (AP)—Billy Rose has sold his life story to Paramount, but to him it's just another business deal.

Asked who he wanted to play himself on the screen, the theatrical producer replied: "That's up to the casting department." He also displayed notable disinterest in the story, as long as it sticks fairly close to the facts of his life. But he admitted he would like to see the picture make money.

In black suit, white shirt and black tie, Rose appears more like a mortician than a producer—until he starts talking about Rose, that is. He for one has no ambitions to work in Hollywood.

"I wouldn't be on anybody's payroll," he said.

"However, if I could make 'Carmen Jones' into a picture the way I want to make it, that would be the only picture for me."

Oscar Levant isn't unhappy about working in the movies—he just looks that way naturally. As a matter of fact, he remarked on the "Humoresque" set, he enjoys it.

In one respect he does prefer pictures to the concert stage. "You can make a mistake when you work in the movies, but not on the stage," he said.

Intriguing twosome: Joan Crawford and Van Johnson at the club.

Hollywood men hear the Duke of Windsor may become interested in movie production in Switzerland.

Balanced Diet Discourages Colds

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

If you're a push-over for the common cold—cause of an estimated eight-day-a-year loss of woman-power—check up on your diet. Your best defense against winter's sniffles are foods which build up resistance to diseases of the respiratory tract, particularly those yielding vitamin A.

Know where to stock up on vitamin A? You'll find it in eggs, and even one a day is good defense against a runny nose. Eat vegetables of the green and yellow varieties, such as spinach, kale, winter squash and parsley.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe your own. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drug store and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcinate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back slurring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Shoes "Occupation Shoes" Harmed Feet

Paris dispatches tell of the latest "Occupation disease." Frenchwomen are trying to "salvage their feet" after years of improper shoes. During the German occupation, of course, leather was not to be had and it's still scarce. Substitute soles like wood and cork wreathed havoc with many tender feet. Improper fitting and no stockings helped the burden boom. Chiropodists and foot specialists are doing a rushing business, with a weekly pedicure or general foot-overhauling first on many a Parisienne's list of beauty chores.

French stylists have tried their best to lend chi to the heavy-footed shoes their materials allow. But most Frenchwomen are reported to be trassing up these styles if they can get their hands on even old and worn leather shoes. One fashion-setter claims her most valued article of clothing is a pair of all-leather shoes she bought back in 1920.

American women are lots luckier in their choice of shoes with style and comfort. Even during rationing Americans had enough leather soles to prevent deterioration of foot health. Now that rationing is over, stylish feet are able to keep leather under them all the time. And in France, fashion artists are planning again to create the leather boots and shoes they made so handsomely before the war.

As I leave Japan, I take with me the impression of an army under the brilliant leadership of General MacArthur capable of carrying out difficult duties of occupation—an army the American nation is proud of—Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, during recent trip to the Far East.

Pearl Harbor

... Pearl Harbor base already has heard that Kramer did not answer a secret-code suggestion from a fellow officer that he try to line up Halsey in "the cause."

That suggestion came from Capt. L. F. Safford, who yielded the witness stand yesterday and then heard Kramer testify that:

1. He did not see an intercepted message from Tokyo on Dec. 4, 1941, that Safford said gave Washington a three-day warning that Japan was going to attack. Safford had said Kramer did see it.

2. He did see a message on December 5 bearing on Japanese relations, but the code words involved only Britain.

3. He did not, as Safford contended, pencil on a message the words "war with U. S. war with England Peace with Russia."

4. He does not believe that navy file JD-1: 7001, now marked cancelled, ever contained the message Safford reported. Safford has said this message disappeared in an "appearance of a conspiracy."

Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) told reporters he thinks Kramer's testimony "blew up completely" the idea that some vital message had been removed from the files.

3. Persons who have surrendered their jobs to returned veterans who had re-employment rights.

4. In-migrants, given by Fort as probably the most important single factor, who have connections here with relatives, who like Tampa, and have decided to settle here.

5. Construction industries, apparently the hardest hit of local industries, which has been forced to lay off help due to the lack of materials. This situation, said Fort, is not entirely due to the steel strike, although aggravated by it.

6. Manufacturing industries in practically all lines have been able to get the help for which they were starving during the war.

7. Wholesale and retail businesses, transfer and public utilities, have been able to hire men with a cadre to become a part of the organization permanently.

8. Service business—laundries, hotels, filling stations—are now well provided with employees.

All conditions combined, when analyzed, amount to an off-set of losses, temporarily sustained by construction and war-time activities," Fort concluded.

Yamashita

livered this scathing denunciation of Yamashita:

"It is not easy for me to pass judgment upon a defeated adversary in a major campaign. I have reviewed the proceedings in vain search for some mitigating circumstances on his behalf. I can find none."

"Rarely has so cruel and wanton a record been spread to the public gaze."

"This officer x x x has failed his duty to his troops, to his country, to his enemy and to mankind. He has failed utterly his soldier's faith. The transgressions x x x are a stain upon civilization and constitute a memory of shame and dishonor that can never be forgotten."

Partial destruction of Manila, once-beautiful capital of the Philippines, was the only offense charged against Yamashita upon which MacArthur commented.

"Peculiarly callous and purposeless was the sack of the ancient city of Manila with its Christian population and its countless historic shrines and monuments of culture and civilization which, with campaign conditions reversed, had previously been spared," he remarked.

DENISON, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Maj. Gen. J. H. Hodges, commander of the army air forces training command, announced today that Perrin field between Denison and Sherman had been selected as a permanent air forces installation.

Wage-Price

ments remained over the new wage-price decree. OPA Chief Chester Bowles told newsmen yesterday it might not be ready before the end of the week.

Mr. Truman scheduled a news conference for 9:30 a. m. (CST), but few expected him to break the details of his plan at that time.

One official who has been in on the talks said that a tentative draft contained a provision calling for an agreement by labor on wage increase ceding comparable to the 17 percent represented by the 18 1/2 cent-an-hour hike which Mr. Truman recommended for steel—or some figure in that neighborhood.

Labor's reaction to any such plan is likely to be divided. Murray agreed to the steel figure.

The CIO-Packaging workers, who also struck over wage demands but got working under government seizure at present, dislike percentage increases. They say that the low-paid workers who most need the raise get the least out of percentage boosts.

vast Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Senator Tobey (R-N.H.) who asked the banking committee to conduct hearings on Allen's nomination, entered the new fight directly from a still unsettled dispute over Edwin W. Pauley's appointment as under-secretary of the navy.

Allen has been a White House inmate during both the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. A native Mississippian, he is a fabulous story spinner.

Tobey has given no advance notice of the trend of his questioning, but other republicans indicated they wanted to know more about the directorships Allen is reported to hold in a number of large corporations.

Still another recent Truman nomination awaits hearings before a senate banking subcommittee—that of Commodore James K. Vardaman, Jr., the President's naval aide, for a 14-year term on the federal reserve board. The subcommittee has not yet been named.

The Pauley hearings had been slated to resume today, but a decision to postpone them until next week was made at a meeting of democratic members of the naval committee last night.

putating to some terms. Sponsors said this would prevent many jurisdictional controversies.

6. Deny employe status to unions of supervisory workers.

Case's backers—a powerful coalition of republicans and southern democrats—were clearly in control of the voting on more than a score of suggested modifications and substitutes.

Opponents—mainly close friends of organized labor—fought the plan bitterly.

But when the test votes came, about all they accomplished was slight modification of the provisions applying to court injunctions.

Case told a reporter he believed the many amendments adopted improved the bill without changing its basic policy.

Meat Rationing

and they may find less whiskey and beer, but there should be a temporary jump in pork, beef, poultry eggs and some dairy products.

How long this richer diet may last hinges on the weather—spring and summer rains and fall frosts. For a bad crop season could well whittle down supplies of animal products to a point where rationing again might be necessary late in the year.

EMERGENCY RULES

President Truman yesterday ordered government agencies to draft emergency rules to cut consumption of wheat at home so that "mass starvation" abroad may be averted.

The cuts in American consumption will take these forms:

1. Millers will be required to convert a larger portion of each bushel of wheat into flour. This flour will be dark in color, less tasty and less suitable for cakes, pies and other pastries.

2. The use of wheat in making whiskey and beer will be forbidden. Also the use of other grains for these beverages will be reduced.

3. Farmers will be asked to feed less wheat and other grains to livestock. Mr. Truman directed the agriculture department to develop programs designed to pare down livestock production until grain supplies become plentiful again.

The presidential action was made necessary largely by the fact that —have eaten more wheat since the last harvest than the government had planned.

Now it is necessary for Americans to make up as much of this 61,000,000-bushel "deficit" as possible—by reducing consumption.

The prospective measures to cut animal consumption of wheat and other grains are expected to result in earlier than normal marketing of hogs, cattle and poultry.

This earlier marketing in turn would make market surplus of meats and poultry larger in the weeks and months immediately ahead.

But once the animal numbers have been reduced to the size of the smaller feed supply, market supplies of meats and other animal products will decline.

VA Benefits

drafted—he'd get one year's education.

If he was disabled between the time he was drafted and the official end of the war, he'd get the full wartime pension.

But—if he was drafted before the war ended and was disabled after the war ended, he'd get only the peacetime pension for disabled service men, which is only 75 percent of the wartime pension.

Now take those who enlist. The law says anyone who enlists or reenlists before Oct. 6, 1945 gets the benefits of the GI Bill of Rights, no matter when the war ends. Take an example:

Tom Smith enlists Oct. 5 and the war ends officially Oct. 7. His enlistment is—say—for three years.

Even though the war ended officially Oct. 7, two days after his enlistment, so far as Smith's GI benefits are concerned the war for him isn't officially ended till the end of his enlistment.

If he leaves the army at the end of this enlistment—which in Smith's case would be Oct. 5, 1948—he could then start claiming his benefits under the GI Bill of Rights.

So he'd get all the GI benefits which any veteran of the shooting war would get.

Each year more than 100,000 American civilians are killed by accident, and about 9,000,000 injured.

Nearly Two Million Scouts, Leaders To Observe Annual Boy Scout Week

Nearly two million Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Senior Scouts, and their adult leaders throughout the United States will commemorate Boy Scout Week, which begins Friday, Feb. 8, and continues through Thursday, Feb. 14. The theme of the observance, which makes the 36th anniversary of the founding of the movement in America, is "Scouts of the World—Building Together."
The Boy Scouts of America have created a "World Friendship Fund" and nearly two million members have been invited and urged to contribute voluntarily to it. Through the fund, Scout associations in lands ravaged during World War II are being helped to rebuild their organizations. At the outbreak of the war in 1939 there were more than three million Scouts and leaders in 70 different lands.

Many Boy Scout troops, Cub Packs and Senior Scout Units will mark Boy Scout Week by contributing to the fund through local Boy Scout councils. The National Executive board of the movement authorized the world friendship fund, believing it can make a definite contribution to the post-war world, since boys dedicated to the Scout ideals of tolerance, friendliness, and democracy, may be the leaders of the world of tomorrow.
Many troops have contributed from the money earned by salvaging waste paper, while others have given the proceeds of special Scout entertainments. To make certain the greatest good is done with each dollar spent, the Boy Scouts of America secure the advice of the

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

By HAL BOYLE
HONG KONG, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Chester Bennett, American hero of Hong Kong, was imprisoned for five months before a Japanese headman's axe ended his long misery.

After his death, a Chinese who had been a fellow prisoner sought out Marcus Da Silva, Portuguese lawyer who was Bennett's partner in espionage, and gave him the American's last message:
"Marcus, I kept faith. I didn't talk."
Da Silva himself had been kept a prisoner for 47 days in Kowloon harbor, most of the time in solitary confinement. The frustrated Japanese were unable to prove his part in the conspiracy or make him talk. When a Chinese gardener finally tried to blackmail him by offering him freedom in return for Da Silva's word to turn over to his wife, who got in touch with one of the most colorful figures in China.

"She went to Hattors, chief of the Jap foreign affairs department in Hong Kong, and complained of this attempt to blackmail me," Da Silva said. "He released me and ordered the Chinese gardener arrested."
Da Silva fled with his family to Macao and realized too late they had made a mistake in releasing him. The Japs sent four agents to Macao on a fruitless mission to kidnap him and bring him back.
Bennett was ruthlessly tortured until his big framed body was broken by agony. The Japs starved him, beat him until he fell, and then stood him up and beat him again. They tied him up by his hands for hours until he fainted.

Three times they tied him down to the floor and gave him "the water cure" for "prisoners who refuse to cooperate." They sealed his mouth shut and then taped a water hose to his nostrils and bloated his body with fluid while he fought for breath.
Then they put a board across his stomach and two husky Jap guards planted a teeter-totter on it, forcing water and blood out of his mouth, his eyes and his ears until he collapsed.

Rope burns which developed on one leg became so bad the Japanese were about to amputate it when his execution was ordered.
"The Japs never were able to prove spy activities against Bennett," said Da Silva. "But they had learned from Chinese workers on food trucks going into the prison that he had smuggled money in to British internees."
"They probably wouldn't have executed Chester for this alone," said Da Silva, "except for the arrival in September of Japanese thought police from Tokyo."
"Chester never had a chance after they came. He never got a life to it."

Bennett and 32 other defendants were given a trial on Oct. 29, 1943. The day before the trial started, the Japs began making black execution masks in the prison workshop.

The defense was given no opportunity to present evidence.
Once during the trial Captain Yamaguchi, prison commandant who doubles in brass by acting as judge, left the courtroom. The presentation of evidence continued in his absence. At another point he fell sound asleep.
When this parody of justice was over, Captain Yamaguchi arose, yawned and solemnly read the verdict which had been obligingly written for him before the trial began:
"Death to all the defendants!"

Times change.
We used to wonder what the future had in store for us.
Now we wonder what the store will have in the future for us.

Officer—Look here, man, what's the idea of the barrel? Are you a poker player?
Man—No, but I just spent a couple of hours with a couple of fellows who are.
Detective—You're looking for your cabinet? Is he tall or short?
Banker—Both.

An Irishman was sitting in a station smoking an ever-smoking pipe when a woman came in and settled down beside him, and in a few moments remarked:
Woman—Sir, if you were a gentleman, you would not smoke here.
Irishman (complacently)—Mum, if ye was a lady, ye'd sit farther away.
Several minutes passed, and the woman burst out:
Woman—If you were my husband, I'd give you poison.
Irishman—Well, mum, if ye was my wife, I'd take it.
He continued to puff away on his pipe.

Sally—My brother is playing hockey from correspondence school.
Margo—How does he do that?
Sally—He mails them empty envelopes.

Soap Box Speaker (roaring)—show me an Irishman, and I'll show you a coward!
Big Irishman (rushing forward and shouting)—I'll show you an Irishman!
Soap Box Speaker—And I'll show you a coward.
As he concluded, the speaker made a break for cover.

The "Atomic Age" is centuries old in pharmacy. The pharmacist works with atoms every day because the chemical formulae for prescription drugs are given in terms of atoms; for example, to the pharmacist, bi-carbonate of soda is NaHCO3—one atom of Sodium, one of Hydrogen, one of Carbon, and three atoms of Oxygen. He must know and recognize hundreds such formulae because upon his knowledge depends the health and welfare of the people he serves.

Harvesters, Borger Meet Here Tomorrow

Buffaloes Still Have Chance To Get in Tourney

CANYON, Tex., Feb. 7.—Games this week will give a rather dependable indication of the teams which will represent this section in the Border conference championship tournament at Albuquerque, N. M., on March 1 and 2.

In this section of the conference are West Texas State, Texas Tech, Hardin-Simmons university. Two of these will go to the Albuquerque tournament.

Return of war veterans to the teams has made game predictions more difficult. West Texas state barely edged by Texas Tech here Saturday, 45-44, as the Raiders were steadied and given a scoring punch by the presence of Garland Head. Prominent in the Buffalo victory were Ledru Jacobs and Bill Stockman, veteran returnees who were starters back in 1942 when the "Tall Texans" were in the nation's headlines.

The Hardin-Simmons Cowboys will play here Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8 and 9, in the first meeting with the Buffaloes this season.

Currently leading the Buffalo scores is covering Hank Decker, center, with 197 points scored in fifteen games. In second place is All-American J. W. Malone, guard, who has 191 points. Borden Price, veteran and the other guard, has 126 points.

Old Ring Champs Should Receive Pension—Grayson

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (NEA)—Sudden thought while watching poor Freddie Cochrane being cut down by Marty Servo: Why aren't old champions, when they are conceded no chance, simply be pensioned? Some sort of annuity, contributed to by each succeeding champion and challenger and supervised by an impartial board, would save champions' shopworn reputations from the body-tearing embarrassment of being battered into oblivion. It would spare ringworms the morbid sight of such an execution.

It is foolish to be sentimental about prize fighting, but there is something manifestly pathetic about a washed-up champion going through the formality of being sheared of his crown. Even when a champion so poorly equipped as Red Cochrane loses to an untried operative as Servo, there is a certain drama that never fails to tighten the crowd.

Cochrane climbed into the Madison Square Garden battle pit laboriously, looking like a fading champion from any of the fight novels. A round-heeled fight is invariably a lugubrious business. The ubiquitous cliché, the hollow shell, is landed about freely. One peek at Cochrane, and it seemed like fiction was being recreated in the ring.

In the fourth round it was suddenly terminated. A flurry of punches following a left hook to the jaw and Cochrane slid down against the ropes in Servo's corner, his dizzy head pillowed grotesquely on the second strand.

Photographers swarmed into the ring. So did the radio rollers. Young Servo danced happily, posed, mugged, croaked trivia into a microphone.

Cochrane sat alone in his corner forgotten. That's the way championships go—and at fancy prices—when the holder is an old gesser.

There have been many cases—from John L. Sullivan on down the line—when everybody would have been done a favor had the old champion been retired under some sort of a satisfactory financial arrangement.

Everybody on the premises knew Jim Jeffries had broken down at Moana Springs. Jess Willard was nothing more than a stationary target for Jack Dempsey. Gray-haired Johnny Kilbans had nothing more than the purse in mind when he gave Eugene Criqui the shot at his chin. It would be a long list. This is anything but a plea for

FUNNY BUSINESS By Hershberger

Pampa's Harvesters are depending on the Borger Bulldogs in more ways than one.

First, they are depending on Tricky Ward's cagers to lose here tomorrow night and, secondly, they will be depending on Borger to beat Amarillo at Borger a week from Friday.

If this happens, and Pampa beats the Sandies here Tuesday, the three teams will be tied for the Northern division title and some kind of playoff will have to be held to select a champ to meet the Southern half winner for the District 1-AA title.

The whole thing boils down to the fact that the only thing that will give Pampa a tie and a chance for the title is for each team to win its home games—Pampa to win two here and Borger one at Borger.

With 11 wins and seven losses under their belts, the Harvesters will be fully equipped to take on Borger here tomorrow night.

Starters: Randall Clay, Leon Crump, Leon Gooch, Bill Speer and Bernie Brown and reserve Charlie Laffoon, six boys that have carried the Harvesters along, will all be ready to go.

There will be only one game tomorrow night, starting at 8 o'clock in the Junior high gymnasium.

Prices for adults will be 75 cents, with no seats reserved. Student ticket price remains at 25 cents. No extra chairs will be placed in the gym.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pts.	Opp.
Amarillo	2	0	55	40
Borger	1	1	68	77
Pampa	0	2	56	61

Schedule:

Borger at Pampa Friday, Feb. 8 (conference); Amarillo at Pampa Tuesday, Feb. 12 (conference); Amarillo at Borger Friday, Feb. 15 (conference).

24 Cage Teams Will Take Part in State Tournament March 7

AUSTIN, Feb. 7.—Eight regional winners in the University of Texas Interscholastic League basketball tournament for all three conferences will compete for state championship titles in Austin March 7, 8, and 9.

Rodney J. Kidd, athletic director for the league, announced the tournament will be held in Gregory gymnasium.

Hotel accommodations will be available for conferences A and B teams at 2 p. m. Thursday, March 7, Mr. Kidd said. The University Interscholastic League office should be notified of the approximate time of arrival in order that room reservations can be made. The League provides hotel rooms without cost to participating teams.

Conference AA teams will have hotel accommodations beginning at 2 p. m. Thursday, March 7.

Twenty-nine radio stations will broadcast the final championship games in Conferences A, AA, and B, Mr. Kidd said.

TOMMY GUNS OKAY?

The constitution at Oxford university still has a law dating from the 16th century, which reads: "No student shall carry bows and arrows through the streets of the town."

TAKES TIME TO THINK

A human infant's brain does not begin to function normally until two months after birth, according to an eminent doctor of the University of Chicago.

Population of the American colonists doubled in 25 years, although their death rate was much higher than the current one.

the suckers who pay a fancy tariff to see mismatches of the kind.

They are not hit over the head with a baseball bat or otherwise clubbed into doing it.

Even when an old champion doesn't need the money, one never has failed to go to the well once too often. This is only natural in a greedy dodge.

Then too, boxing is a brutal racket which insists championships must be won in the ring—though the titleholder long has been short of every vestige of his former strength, speed and skill and hasn't a leg under him.

Something should be done about this miserable business, but won't that would be too much to expect from professional boxing, especially by the way it is conducted today.

McMurray Grid Players Return

ABILENE, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Mid-term enrollees at McMurray college include seven lettermen and a raft of prewar West Texas high school football standouts, according to announcement by J. Vernon Hilliard, athletic director and head coach.

The Indians will be resuming football next fall after a three-year lapse. They will play a team schedule, including both rival Abilene schools, Hardin-Simmons and Abilene Christian.

McMurray meets H-SU September 21 in their opener and ACC Oct. 26. The complete schedule will be announced within a few days, Hilliard said. McMurray is a member of the Texas conference.

Lettermen returning are Tommy (Doc) Ellis, Cleveland, Tennessee; and Doug Cox, Ballinger, backs; Troy Wadzack, Rochester, and Billy Schultz, Cleveland, Tennessee, ends; Grady Baker, Winters, and Ewing (Steamboat) Jones, Abilene, guards; and Bud Wheeler, Wingate, center.

Prize freshmen include Neal Bradshaw and Morris (Pat) Patterson, Abilene, ends; Sam Smith,

When volcanic sand from the Santa Maria volcano covered their fields from four to six feet deep in 1902, Guatemalan farmers had to dig their corn crop out of the ground.

Gene Dalton and Gene Bush, backs from Abilene, Mel Jowell, tackle, E. C. Barry, center, and Floren Hoefler, back, Plainview; Bill Shield, tackle, Snyder; and Joe Scrivner, Plano, guard.

Gorillas, Reapers Take 2 From Groom

Pampa's Gorilla and Reaper basketball games sent Groom's Cagers home with a double-beating last night but the Reapers were forced to go into overtime to win their game.

Led by Gambin and Bond, who scored eight points each, the Gorillas beat the Groom first string 35-21. They led only 12-6 at the half and 18-15 at the end of the third quarter, but poured 17 through in the final period.

Wayne McCaitip practically single-handedly beat the Groom reserves in the overtime after the regular game ended in a 26-26 tie.

McCaitip swished four points through the hoop to lead the Reapers to a 32-27 win.

It is estimated that 81 percent of the people in the world have a real income of less than $10 per breadwinner per week.

UPTON CLOSE: Close's Relative Has Run-in With Los Angeles OPA
My sister's husband was gassed in the first world war to save the world for democracy. Many a man less hurt has lived since on pension and veterans hospital care, but not this brother-in-law. He has given his life (and a good deal of his sisters, of course) to a religious-educational work in which he has done a great many young lives untold good. His salary for such work—day and night and involving the risk and hardship of incessant travel—has been about that of a stenographer with no one but herself to keep.

My sister has a flair, seemingly unusual in women, for house-building, and has been able with painstakingly-saved-up capital to build one house at a time and rent it until opportunity to turn it over at a small profit to get the capital to build another.
Her houses are models of modest beauty and decent comfort. This couple is of the salt of the American earth. They are of the small people who are the true builders of America and who have built their part of it so superior to anything else on this globe that all the globe wants to come here and help possess it.

The boast of this nation, as it was set up by Franklin and Jefferson and Paine and the rest of its founders, was that people who would never own anywhere else—people who were only slaves or serfs and had to remain so elsewhere could own here! Little people could save up and build here, and no one could confiscate what they saved and what they built.
But in a nation built on the right of ownership (which, granted, should not be abused and can be regulated against abuse) the right of owning was so flaunted and abused that recently—in a great city of that nation, Los Angeles—a chief of officialdom sent out a blanket summons to apartment house owners "to appear and explain their conduct!" Do officials work any longer for the owners in and of this country, or do owners tremble under the thumb of officials?
My sister was summoned to come and get her house. She had faithfully reported on a house which by this time had been sold for more than two years! Orders were to refund with double indemnity back to the date when she reported!
She could get no sense out of the OPA on this, so she skipped it, and took up the matter of a five-room two-bath half of a house which OPA had told her several months before she must set her own rental on, he set it at $100. The inspector said this seemed reasonable. Now she had notice to cut it to $50!
She found the OPA occupying an eight-story building down town. She pointed out to a complaint clerk on the ground floor that the five-room apartment included garage and garden. That wouldn't make any difference, she was told. But it included services: gas, electricity, heat, gardener, janitor. That wouldn't make any difference, she was told. But the renters particularly wanted the place because of the garden, which they used, being artists, and wanted to pay for it. That wouldn't make any difference—they wouldn't be allowed to. Then could they pay for their own gas, light, garage and other services? No, they wouldn't be allowed to. The house was partly furnished: carpets, venetian blinds, refrigerator, stoves. That wouldn't make any difference! Could these be taken out and the renter furnish his own? No, they couldn't. But $50 a month would not pay for the service—to say nothing of amortization and street assessments and taxes. No matter! It would be better, said my sister—in fact, it would be necessary, to ask the renters to leave, and let the house stand idle. Would OPA recommend that? Well, it didn't matter to them. It was really just a matter of arithmetical application of the law, said the clerk. This area has been marked "50 apartments" because some cracker boxes therein rented for that. Fact that this was a house, or half a house, with a garden, didn't matter!
My sister is a better Christian than I. And a better talker than most of the little people who give up in despair. She appealed to the clerk's better instincts. Finally the clerk said: "Here's a pass. I'm not supposed to give it to you—I'd like to quit. All of us would like to quit!"
—Just like Russia.
My sister went up stairs to see a big shot—Just like Russia. I'll tell you about that in the next installment.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief
Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 5 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Don's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Don's give happy relief and will help the 16 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Don's Pills.
