

Iran's New Premier Will Seek Direct Negotiations With Soviet Union

Note Arouses Speculation At UNO Meet

LONDON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — A new Iranian note was delivered tonight to the United Nations Security Council, shortly after Iran's new premier, a long-time friend of the Soviet Union, had announced he would seek direct negotiations with Russia on the Iranian dispute.

SPECULATION AROUSED

The note aroused speculation among diplomats that Iran might withdraw or defer action on its complaint against the Soviet Union, slated for discussion Monday by the Security Council. Contents of the note were not disclosed immediately.

RUSSIA MAKES PROPOSAL

Premier Arned Qavam es Saltana, succeeding Ibrahim Hakimi, also said he would support fully the Iranian delegation to the UNO.

Russia's delegation lodged the complaint with the security council on the Azerbaijan province dispute while Hakimi was premier. Hakimi resigned last Sunday, and his successor, many diplomats here felt, might favor helping the dispute in the interests of what Russia herself proposed only yesterday—direct negotiation.

TEHRAN DROPS COMPLAINT

If Tehran decides to drop the complaint, it will be looked upon by many here as a temporary victory for Russia. The security council meeting Monday is scheduled to take up the Iranian, Greek and Indonesian cases.

Russia and the United States received a setback during the day when they lost a fight in the assembly.

Japan Is Trying To Reconquer Her Fishing Empire

TOKYO, Jan. 26 — (AP) — Vanquished Japan, having lost her mighty war fleets and her globe-grinding merchant marine, has been attempting to regain at least her fishing empire in the Pacific.

In pursuance of this policy, Allied headquarters disclosed today Japanese government and fishery officials have carried on a systematic campaign to break out of the restricted fishing areas assigned to the Japanese since surrender and to resume their exploitation of distant waters.

Lt. Col. Hubert G. Schenck, chief of General MacArthur's natural resources section, said that in the four and a half months since surrender, the Japanese had submitted six requests for revision of fishing areas.

Schenck asserted that some of the requests were for areas so far from the home islands that there could be no doubt the Japanese were aiming to lever their way back into the world market, although their agreement was the need of increasing Japan's home supply of sea products.

One fisheries concern, he said, wanted the right to operate off northern Australia, in the Indian ocean and off the west coast of Mexico.

"It is apparent," said Schenck, "that since most of the fish taken by Japanese in distant waters before the war went to markets outside Japan, the Japanese must have been able to supply their home needs through operation of home-based fleets in an area somewhat similar to the one in which they now are permitted to operate."

Meanwhile the Japanese government has its hands full trying to locate public disbursements over the food situation, which flared up again recently in a raid by some 3,000 persons on a former arsenal in which food was stored.

Kyoto news agency said investigation showed that the commodities seized by the citizenry belonged to former workers there, and that arrangements for distribution were made before the raid.

The government promised in the future to ration coffee beans, food and canned starchy against mob action.

Highway Project To Be Discussed
Directors of the chamber of commerce and of the board of city development will hold a joint luncheon meeting with members of the chamber highway committee at 12 noon tomorrow in the banquet room of the Hilton coffee shop.

Pursey, who has called the session, is to discuss plans for securing the right of way for the Pampa to Perry highway project.

Fursley pointed out that the time for action has arrived on a question that has interested Pampans for the past 12 years.

COLLISION TO COST $100,000
DENISON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — The head on crash of two Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad freight trains near Royse City Jan. 18 will cost the railroad approximately $100,000, it was estimated today by railroad officials.

LONDON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — The foreign office has announced that Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, above, 62-year-old career diplomat with 40 years of service in world capitals, will become ambassador to the United States May 1.

Sir Archibald, now ambassador to the Soviet Union, will succeed the Earl of Halifax, who has represented Britain in the United States since 1941 and has "asked leave to resign his appointment."

Local March of Dimes Drive Proving Good

Incomplete tabulations late last night showed that Pampa civic clubs collected approximately $764 on downtown street corners for the March of Dimes campaign.

Flood Inel, of the Citizens Bank and Trust company, campaign depository, said added to this was about $200 from the schools, which will raise the total so far to nearly $1,000.

Inel said, however, that these figures do not include theater collections, where totals last year were over $1,000 in the three houses.

DOWNTOWN COLLECTIONS
Five organizations took part in the downtown drive. The Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis clubs, the Junior chamber of commerce and the American Legion were assigned downtown street corners and were provided with barrels for collection.

Cold north winds and some snow kept many Pampans off the streets but club members reported many persons cheerfully donated several times during the day.

THEATER COLLECTIONS
Collections in the local theaters will continue through Thursday, Carl Benefield, local manager said. The Girl Scouts have charge of collecting in the afternoon and the Business and Professional Women's club in the evenings.

The drive is to be climaxed by three dances to be held Thursday night. An old-timers dance is to be held at the Junior high gym and modern dances at the Legion Hall and the Southern club.

Tickets for the dances are being sold by members of the civic clubs. Admission price to the Legion dance and the old-timers affair is $5.00 including tax. Tickets for the modern dances are interchangeable.

Admission price for the Southern club dance is $1.20, including tax.

Senate Session Declared Invalid

AUSTIN, Jan. 26 — (AP) — The extraordinary session of the senate which convened Jan. 8 for the purpose of examining interim appointments made by Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, was declared invalid today by Attorney General Grover Sellers.

"Its every attempted official act is a nullity," said the attorney general in an opinion which he brought down to Perry Moore of Houston, instigator of the session, the art comment: "This represents an attempt to prevent the question of validity of the senate from reaching the supreme court."

The question of the legality of the session was thrown into the attorney general's lap by the senate's rejection of Harry Benze Crozier as chairman of the unemployment compensation commission.

The question of the legality of the commission could issue a warrant to pay Crozier's full salary for January was presented to the attorney general by Comptroller George Sheppard.

Seller's opinion which directed the comptroller to issue a warrant paying Crozier's salary, said the session was illegal in its every act, since "the legislature is a unit and neither house can act independently of the other in converging."

Moore, in a brief which he presented to the senators the first day of the session, held the senate session valid on the contention that the constitution specifically gives the house the right to convene itself for impeachment purposes, the senate can pursue the same course with regard to appointments.

SCOUTERS WILL MEET
Members of the Gray district Boy Scout board of review will meet at 7 p. m. tomorrow in the scout office under the direction of Joe Gordon, advancement chairman.

Short Finishes Testimony to Investigators

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short denied today that army and navy officers were "sleeping off a jag" when Japan blasted Pearl Harbor. He blamed the disaster on "100 percent failure" by Washington to get vital information to Hawaii.

'SCAPEGOAT'
Short named Gen. George C. Marshall, 1941 chief of staff, Lt. Gen. L. T. Gerow, war plans chief, and Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles, intelligence head, as the men he had chiefly in mind when he testified the war department tried to make him the "scapegoat" for Pearl Harbor.

IDENTIFIERS SCAPEGOAT
Answering a question by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich), the former army commander in Hawaii identified a scapegoat as:

"Someone they saddled the blame on in order to get it off themselves."

Short finished his testimony to a senate-house committee investigating the Dec. 7, 1941, attack on the Pacific base.

FIVE-DAY TESTIMONY
Before his dismissal at the end of five days in the witness chair, he also expressed belief that if the Hawaiian military forces had been on an all-out alert the attack might never have been made. It was "quite probable," he said, that the Japanese raiding force might have learned of the state of readiness from spies and turned back for fear of heavy losses.

THANKS COMMITTEE
Declared he would have pleaded innocent on every one of 11 proposed counts had he been brought to trial under a court martial.

There was a ripples of applause.

Telephone Line Laid Underground

First steps in the enlarging of Pampa's telephone system to accommodate the rising demand for installations are being taken in the form of an underground line from the corner of Cuyler and Francis, west to Ward and Francis.

L. H. Johnson, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company here, said yesterday that this work did not necessarily mean that more instruments could be installed immediately.

"The work we are doing now is only the first step," he said. "There is a lot of work, equipment and other factors involved in extending the telephone service to everyone."

The local supply of cable pairs to run through the conduit line being laid has been exhausted, Johnson said, and orders for local service can be filled only as rapidly as new line is received.

Number of individual telephone installations in Pampa as of January 1, 1945, was 3,829, Johnson said. This was despite a loss of over 200 installations at Pampa army air field, which is now on inactive status.

The January 1 figure shows a gain of 138 over the preceding year, despite the removing of the PAAF installations.

"Over 400 applications are on file in our office now," Johnson said, "and more are coming in every day."

"These applications for service are being taken care of as fast as possible, depending on the availability of lines in the neighborhood of each applicant."

"The applications cannot be filled in the order in which they are received because the service depends entirely on location of existing lines and the availability of new lines."

IS DEMOCRACY WORTH $1.75?
Is democracy worth $1.75 a year to you?
That's all it costs you to have a voice in your government—and it really pays dividends.

Thursday is the last day when poll tax can be paid at the office of the county tax-assessor-collector on the first floor of the court house.

There are no forms to fill out—that's all done by the state; all you do is show that you live in the state and county or that your position is such that you are classified as being eligible to vote in any local, state or national election this year.

The first, and possibly the most important, is your length of residence in the state.

Any person who came to Pampa (or any other city in the state) between Jan. 2, 1945 and December 31, 1945 may apply to the tax assessor and is entitled to receive a certificate exemption.

The holder of such an exemption certificate will be entitled to vote in any election during 1945 provided he or she has been a resident of the state at least one year prior to the election.

Any veteran is eligible to vote, without payment of poll tax provided he has obtained his exemption after his discharge.

Any soldier, except those classed as "professional soldiers," may be exempt from the poll tax.

Army Air Force Is Setting Up System of High Level Schooling

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — The army air force is setting up a system of high level schooling for the leaders of any future air war, with the accent on youth.

The unofficial army and navy register said today the schools for senior and junior air officers are designed to develop ultimately into an AAF university. Lt. Gen. Carl A. Spaatz, new air forces chief, suggested this week an air school of the same calibre as West Point and Annapolis.

Under the new school system, which is headed by Major General Muir S. Fairchild, every officer will complete his specialized education in his first 20 years of service.

"In the past we have devoted our efforts too often to educating for the retired list," the Register quoted Fairchild. "By the time an officer finished the army war college he had in many cases only two or three more years to serve."

The program includes an air war course, a command and staff course, a tactical course for junior officers, a special staff school and an AAF engineer school.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK SENDS FAREWELL THANKS TO SOVIETS
PEIPING, Jan. 26 — (AP) — An exchange of farewell messages of good will between Chiang Kai-shek and the Russians in Chungking lent emphasis today to reports that most of the Red army would be out of Manchuria by the first week in February.

The Generalissimo's message to "the brave and gallant soviet officers and men" was read for him yesterday by Madame Chiang Kai-shek, who went to the Manchurian capital to decorate 100 Red army officers. She returned to Peiping today.

"It was for the purpose of promoting early realization of total peace and also in pursuance of a policy of concerted action with other allied nations that your troops have come to our northeast," Chiang said.

"Under the great leadership of Stalin and with your unrivaled bravery and superior equipment, succeeded by the efforts of our brethren in the northeast (Manchuria) you brought about in a surprisingly short time the collapse of an invader deeply entrenched in the northeast. Our people will be ever grateful for your glorious military achievement."

The message added that "now you have concluded your mission in the northeast and are about to return home" the generalissimo wanted to express his appreciation and "to bid farewell to you."

A representative of Marshall Rodwin Y. Malinovsky, the soviet commander who has returned temporarily to Russia, replied: "In the past, present and future we always desire and want to cooperate with the Chinese people."

Returning veterans will be honored at the annual installation banquet of the chamber of commerce to be held at the high school cafeteria Tuesday, February 12, it was announced yesterday.

All chamber of commerce members are urged by the directors of the chamber to take one veteran as a guest to the banquet.

Dean J. Thomas Davis of the John Tatleton Agricultural college at Stephenville, a past president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, has been selected as the guest speaker for the occasion and will give special emphasis to providing information of interest to the returned G. I.

New officers and directors of the chamber and board of city development will be installed at this time.

Reservations to the annual installation banquet, the first of the quarterly banquets, will be available the first of the month at the chamber office. Only 300 tickets will be on sale to Pampans; 50 tickets will be reserved for out-of-town guests.

Jet-Propelled Lockheed P-80 Breaks Record

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 — (AP) — Col. William H. Tunnicliffe, flying a Lockheed P-80 army jet-propelled pursuit plane, flew the 2,407 miles from Long Beach, Calif., to La Guardia field here in four hours, 13 minutes and 26 seconds today, shaving nearly an hour and a quarter from the transcontinental flight record.

BREAKS B-29 RECORD
The previous official transcontinental flight record was set last Dec. 11 when a Boeing B-29 bomber flew the 2,464 miles from Burbank, Calif., to Floyd Bennett field, Brooklyn, in five hours and 27 minutes.

Col. Tunnicliffe left Long Beach at 12:44:34 p. m., Eastern Standard Time, and arrived over La Guardia field at 4:58:00.

OVER 581 MILES HOUR
La Guardia field officials estimated Col. Tunnicliffe's average speed during the trip at 584.82 miles an hour. The plane was reported over Allentown, Pa., at 4:49 p. m. and over Ony Island at 4:57 p. m.

At Allentown the ship was reported unofficially to be flying at 600 miles an hour. Observers at the Allentown airport reported the plane appeared "just as a streak."

Two other army P-80s, with smaller fuel tanks, left Long Beach behind Col. Tunnicliffe's plane. One piloted by Capt. M. C. Smith left at 12:33:35 p. m. (EST), stopped at Topeka, Kans., for refueling and passed over La Guardia field at 5:07 p. m. and the elapsed time, four hours, 33 minutes and 25 seconds, also was under the former transcontinental record.

The third P-80, piloted by Capt. John S. Babel, left Long Beach at 12:58:31 p. m. (EST) and reached Topeka at 2:58 p. m. After refueling he flew on to New York, reaching La Guardia field at 5:22:25 p. m. His elapsed time of four hours, 23 minutes and 54 seconds also broke the previous cross-country record.

REUTHER BLASTS FACT-FINDING
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 — (AP) — Walter Reuther of the CIO auto worker told senators today that President Truman's judgment in fact-finding strikes was being "realistic."

Reuther told the senate labor committee "I don't question his intentions. Reuther told the senate labor committee committee is considering legislation for appointment of labor dispute fact-finding boards with power to subpoena company books. It would forbid strikes during a 30-day period while the boards worked."

Reuther was asked by Senator Ellender (D-La.) what he thought of the idea minus the cooling off provision.

Reuther first said there would be "no harm in it," then expressed the opinion that the off-stage presence of a fact-finding procedure might impede preliminary efforts to settle strikes.

"The trouble in the General Motors case and in the steel case is that collective bargaining has not been tried," he said.

1946 Motorcycle Is Purchased by City
A 1946 Harley-Davidson motorcycle was purchased by the city Friday for use on traffic safety patrol. City Manager Garland Franks said yesterday.

Chief of Police Louie Allen brought the motorcycle from the agency in Amarillo. The purchase price was $570.

The motorcycle will be used exclusively on traffic patrol, particularly around schools, where complaints of motorists not obeying school zone rules have been received.

Chief Allen said yesterday that school zones extend one block from each school in any direction. A 15-mile-an-hour speed limit will be enforced in these zones.

The police department's three-wheel motorcycle will be used for parking meter checking when the meters are installed. The new motorcycle will be equipped with a radio receiving set.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR TOP O' TEXAS RODEO, HORSESHOW
Already plans for the second annual Top of Texas Rodeo, Horseshow and Fair are under way, with dates set at Friday, with the three-day event to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 16, 17 and 18.

Plans for the event were made yesterday afternoon by the directors of the Top of Texas association.

Two afternoon and two night shows are to be held. It will again be an amateur contest.

Possibilities for the integration of the Top of Texas fests with the rodeo were discussed at the meeting. The plan forwarded by Joe Fischer, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Joe Knorr, Jr., member, the fests was formerly sponsored by the Jaycees, although the event was not held during the war.

Directors of the Top of Texas Rodeo Assn. voted approval of the rodeo plan, however action will be taken later.

A booster committee to arrange for representation at neighboring rodeos to advertise the Pampa event was appointed. Members are O. W. Hampton, chairman; Homer Taylor, Dave Purcell, P. B. Wright, Bill Frazier, Roy Burns, E. Douglas Carver, Harold Wright, Joe Fisher, and Guy Andia.

Russians Claim Kurile Islands
LONDON, Jan. 25 — (AP) — The Moscow radio said tonight that the United States and Great Britain had promised Russia the Kurile Islands of northern Japan under the terms of the Yalta agreement.

The broadcast noted U. S. Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson's recent statement that he believed no definite commitments were made at Yalta, and said Tass, official soviet news agency, had been "officially authorized" to disclose that Russia would get the Kuriles, southern Sakhalin and adjacent islands.

"On the question of the Kurile islands, Mr. Acheson is definitely wrong," the Tass statement was quoted as saying.

"At the Yalta agreement of the three powers, signed on the 11th of February, 1945, (which was then not published for every understandable reason), it was clearly set out that after victory over Japan the Kurile Islands would be handed over to the U. S. S. R. In addition, southern Sakhalin and the adjacent islands would return to the U. S. S. R."

Strike Standings
By The Associated Press
Within approximately a few hours yesterday (Saturday) these rapid-fire developments occurred on the nation's labor front:

At 1:30 p. m. (EST) CIO United packinghouse workers urged 192,000 members to return to work Monday.

At 1:30 p. m. Ford Motor Co. and CIO United Automobile workers settled their wage dispute on the basis of an 18 cents an hour pay increase.

At 1:56 p. m. major Chrysler Corp. and CIO-UAW reached "complete agreement" on wages with workers getting an 18 1/2 cents pay boost.

Then, two hours and 13 minutes later, at 4:09 p. m., the Chrysler Corp. and CIO-UAW reached "complete agreement" on wages providing for a 18 cent hourly increase. Less than three hours earlier, Ford and union announced its wage dispute had been settled with the granting of an 18-cents-an-hour boost.

REVERSE DECISION
The CIO United Packinghouse Workers of America, who at first decided to remain off the job despite government seizure of strikebound plants, reversed their decision after dispute between the Ford Motor Co. and the CIO-UAW was ended, and the nation's chief railroads and 18 of the 20 railroad labor unions agreed on wage arbitration.

COMPLETE AGREEMENT
The Chrysler Corp.'s announcement, issued jointly with the union, said they had achieved "complete agreement" on wages providing for a 18 cent hourly increase. Less than three hours earlier, Ford and union announced its wage dispute had been settled with the granting of an 18-cents-an-hour boost.

CLOTHING DRIVE COMPLETED HERE
The annual Victory clothing drive to collect clothing for people of war-torn countries abroad, was concluded here yesterday, with final donations being received at the Junior high school.

Total amount of clothing collected here was not available yesterday but B. R. Nicks, chairman of the drive committee, said he believed the drive was a great success.

Pampa Boy Scouts assisted members of the Junior chamber of commerce in a house-to-house campaign Friday to gather up all clothing that had not been turned in.

The Scouts, under Hugo Olsen, Gray district executive, also were in charge of providing boxes in which to pack and ship the clothes.

All clothing collected here will be packed securely and sent to east coast ports, from where it will be distributed overseas by the national organization, headed by Henry Kaiser.

Pampa civic clubs were busy last week preparing clothes that were turned in to the local ward schools.

Strikers Are Urged To Buy Stock Shares

By ROGER BABSON
Economic
BASED ON DISCUSSION
LITTLE INVESTORS

NEW YORK CITY.—For the first time in some years I find that the "big boys" of New York are bearish. They believe that stocks are too high and that the market has gone up too fast. This especially applies to those conservative bankers and brokers who are responsible for the funds of colleges, hospitals, trusts and large estates. They are mostly out of stocks and are very long of government bonds.

WILL THE "BIG BOYS" BE FOOLED?
I also learn that many men have even sold stocks in their own companies believing that the prices are too high. They assume that the new purchasers of these stocks are speculators who will throw these stocks overboard when the next crash comes. The big boys then hope to buy these same stocks back again at 20 cents on the dollar as they have in the past. Now, will they be able to do so? Well, this question is the subject of my this week's column.

Stock market conditions are certainly very different today than in 1929. The people have much more money; there are fewer securities to buy; banks are paying almost no interest on deposits; bonds yield very little; stocks are good inflation hedge, and the S. E. C. is advising small investors real protection. As a result, most people are no longer buying stocks on margin or borrowed money; but are paying for their shares outright and putting them in safe deposit boxes.

BMG INVESTORS UNLIKE THOSE OF 1929
Experience shows that when stocks get into safe deposit boxes it is hard to get them out. So long as stocks pay a dividend investors quickly forget prices paid or even fail to look at current prices. Even some of the big investment trusts now ignore market prices so long as dividends are paid. The "open end" trusts especially want a good income. This they can get only by holding stocks. Surely, smart investors are much wiser today than they were in 1928-1929.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?
This change of ownership has great social and economic possibilities. It may mean that the control of American corporations is changing from the rich men of the country to ordinary people like you and me. Of course, the tax situation is helping bring about this change. Penalties on the rich in favor of John Q. Public. If labor would get busy and quietly buy up shares of corporations, they could attain their goals far quicker than by their present silly strikes. This means we should not sell stocks for fear of labor troubles. Strikes merely delay prosperity; they do not destroy it.

Instead of yelling "Help the small businessman," if each of these little fellows could buy a few shares of stock in the big companies, they could easily control these companies which they now fear. Well, think this over also! Some day a powerful leader may arise who will get all these small investors together and throw out some of the present managements. They would need no legislation to do this. It is rumored that John L. Lewis has been pondering over this opportunity. One thing is certain. Before you sell all your shares just because they are "high," we should carefully consider what we will do with our money when we do sell. Also, we should remember that it is purchasing power which we really want. Hence, idle bank accounts do not look too good. Let "little investors" consider this.

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—Supt. Elmer J. Moore this week announced some additions and changes in the Shamrock high school faculty.

Mrs. Claude Montgomery of this city and Fred Short of Amarillo have become members of the faculty along with Scott McCall whose employment was announced last week.

Mrs. Claude Montgomery is teaching math and social studies and Arthur Wells, who had been teaching social studies and science, is now teaching algebra and science. These two are taking the place of Mrs. Mitt Bullard when she moved her residence to Lubbock.

McCall is now devoting all of his time to physical education, not only during school hours but also supervising sports, mainly basketball and boxing from 4 p. m. until 7 p. m.

Former Texan Takes U. S. Embassy Post

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—Charles W. Ferguson, a senior editor of The Reader's Digest, has been granted a year's leave of absence for government service and will leave shortly for London to be attached to the American embassy there.

Mr. Ferguson is the husband of the former Miss Victoria Wallace of Shamrock.

Mr. Ferguson has been working on his Masters Degree in speech at the university. He has written and directed plays, both at WTSC and TU; has written radio scripts and sponsored radio broadcasts in connection with school activities at the university.

Supt. Moore also announced the employment of Mrs. R. A. Harris in the colored school. She will teach elementary subjects, giving H. T.

Shamrock, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ed R. Wallace and a brother-in-law of Mrs. H. T. Fields, Mrs. Ferguson was formerly a teacher in the Lela and Wellington schools and she and her husband have visited here on numerous occasions and have many friends in this area.

The governments new program of international information, Mr. Ferguson will interpret American life to the British people through schools, colleges and civic groups, and aid the British government in understanding factors back of American policy.

A native of Texas, Ferguson has lived in the East for the past 20 years. As writer, editor and publisher, he has been in close touch with the main currents of American life. His articles on American manners and practices have appeared in Harper's, the American Mercury and other magazines. He is the author of "The Confusion of Tongues."

More furniture and stoves are being added to the colored school. Forty-two students have been enrolled in the school this year.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcon Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much lighter you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Legionnaires of Shamrock Post Plan Campaign for New Building

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—Members of the DeShazo-George American Legion post completed plans Monday night for a drive to raise $25,000 for buying or building a new home for members of the Legion and Auxiliary.

Twenty-five Legionnaires attended the meeting held at the City hall and set the dates of the drive as January 25 through March 1.

Among other things discussed during the meeting was the possibility of the purchase of the South Ward school building, provided voters saw fit to dispose of it and reduce the bonded indebtedness by the amount received from the sale.

The necessity of a larger home has been increasing as more and more veterans of World War II return and join ranks with the ex-servicemen of the first World War. At the present time, the hut on East First street will not furnish even standing room for members of the DeShazo-George post.

Members of the Legion and Auxiliary make this statement to the public:

"As for the purchase of the South Ward school building, we wish to state that we are not taking a stand one way or other. This will be entirely up to the voters and our appeal is for funds necessary to build or buy something adequate for our increasing membership.

"Each and every person or firm in Shamrock and communities benefited will be solicited in person. We have made an honest effort to equalize contributions necessary to raise the funds. We know, and you know, that it is impossible to collect funds in comparison to the worth of each concerned, hence the contributions involved depend on the issue involved.

"You who have had sons and daughters in the service, whether alive or a casualty, are more than willing to support this issue for you realize what it is all about.

"You who have been so fortunate as not to have had sons or daughters in service, we know will do your part, too.

"For this good fortune or for this sacrifice—will you help us?"

Similar drives are being conducted in many nearby towns. The town of Silvertown, with a population of 648, recently raised $15,000 for the construction of a new Legion home.

Panhandle Briefs

The Perryton vicinity received an average rainfall of 18.45 inches during 1945, according to the Ochiltree County Herald. During 194 the area had 26.27 inches of rainfall, exceeded only twice in the past 20 years.

First effects of the current dry period was felt in Ochiltree county Wednesday afternoon, with high winds blowing field dust reducing visibility to a quarter of a mile.

According to an estimated religious census for Perryton in 1950, 58.5 per cent of 725 family units interviewed belonged to some religious denomination. This shows an increase of some 700 persons (over persons to the average family) over a similar census taken in 1940; a decrease in church membership in the various local churches.

Members of the Perryton Pierce Johnson Post No. 254 of the American Legion and Auxiliary will gather at the Legion hall tomorrow night at 7:30 for a dinner. Hosts will be the losing side in a recent membership soliciting contest.

Funeral services were held for William Rose, 66-year-old farmer of the Booker community, at the Booker Methodist church Friday.

At the last meeting of the Canadian Zyback-Owens Post of the American Legion a resolution was passed condemning the present government red tape which blocks veteran's priorities in the surplus commodities field. A committee was appointed to draft a letter to the two Texas senators and Gene Worley, protesting the present situation and calling for a fair, simple and workable plan to be worked out.

Thirty-two cage teams entered the annual Canadian Invitation Basketball tournament which opened Friday morning. Finals were to be held last night.

In recognition of their outstanding contributions toward the War and Victory Loan drives in Hemphill county, medals were awarded Clay Allen, H. S. Wilbur, Sr. and Harry Wilbur, Jr. The medals, made in a federal mint, are of silver and show a relief of the flag raising on Iwo Jima.

Up near Spearman, Hix Wilbanks and his farming practices are featured in the February issue of "Country Farmer," entitled, "Lengthens Grass Season." The magazine article reads in part:

"When Hix Wilbanks put land back to native grass he chose rye. They have two advantages: Seed terminates well and both green up in spring ahead of buffalo and grama grasses. The western wheat-grass greens up in fall in this area, and produces growth until killed back by severe freezes.

"Wilbanks has a good stand on 80 acres and a thin stand on an additional 100 acres. He has found that even poor land put back to native grass will produce more feed than land that never has been broken.

That Spearman Lions club has been doing a bit of tail-twisting, not without a few after-effects. According to the Spearman Reporter, Boss Lion Lyon appointed Bruce Sheets as assistant Tail-twister. Sheets is chairman of the March of Dimes committee.

The Tail-twister immediately fined all present the dollar and up, contributions going toward the March of Dimes.

In turn Lions felt justified in living up to their fines in a bat of a free-for-all.

In open defiance of school authorities a group of 40-odd Wheeler high school students abandoned classrooms at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and went on strike, demanding removal of the L. G. Kammerdeiner as superintendent.

There was no preliminary disturbance, the Wheeler Times points out. Students simply left their desks, met outside the building and marched through Wheelers.

It was a scene almost without parallel in Panhandle school history—a group of teen age children demanding the right to exercise control over a school at which they are supposed to receive instructions, reports the Times.

Rigid disciplinary action on the part of Kammerdeiner has aroused the ire of many students. Wednesday members of the school board requested Kammerdeiner to resign, which he refused. The superintendent holds a two-year contract.

Half of the students returned to classrooms about 11 o'clock Thursday when parents heard of the walk-out. Editor Albert Cooper says:

"The point The Times would like to bring out is that a demonstration such as was put on by the students today strikes as the very heart of the Wheeler school system. If these children's demands are granted, how much authority will the next superintendent exert over the faculty and student body? In fact, would Wheeler be able to secure a competent school man under such uninviting circumstances?"

Isn't it possible much of the fault lies with a group of over-enthusiastic children who are not only resentful of school authority but parental discipline as well?"

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Duvivan of Miami celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Jan. 17. A surprise dinner was served on the occasion by their daughters, Mrs. Cordell Bales of Vega, Mrs. Cecil Hubbard and Miss Doris Duvivan. Friends called during the evening offering congratulations.

Their two sons, Junior and Bob, are serving in the army.

A bond election to determine the issuance of $60,000 in bonds for the purpose of buying the right-of-way of four hard surfaced roads in Collingsworth county has been set for next Tuesday, following a called meeting of the Collingsworth Commissioners' court.

The four roads concerned are the four farm-to-market roads previously designated by the state highway department, running from Wellington southeast to Dodson, from highway 83 through Samnorwood and Dozier, and from Little east to Needwood school.

An emergency meeting of the Collingsworth county farm bureau was called Friday night to consider the proposed ceiling price on raw cotton for 1946 and other pertinent farm topics.

An institute of International Understanding will be held in Wellington from February 15 to March 8 under the sponsorship of the Rotary club. Consisting of a series of four weekly meetings, the institute will present outstanding authorities on various phases of international affairs.

Leads in the West Texas State production "Jane Eyre" was well taken by Mary Henlee of Sunnett as Jane, and Mickey Ledrick of Pampa, as Rochester, reports the Canyon Prairie, which says: "Unanimously enthusiastic in their praise, three large audiences last week relished with a convincing cast the story of Jane Eyre, three-act English classic presented by Campus Theatre."

Nazis Continue To Sway Yanks, According to Poll

WIESBADEN, Germany, Jan. 26—(AP)—Nineteen percent of 1,700 men questioned last fall in a U. S. army poll of American troops stationed in Germany believe the Germans had some justification for starting the war.

The poll said to represent a cross-section of the U. S. troops in Germany, was not officially released for publication, but was made available by a thoroughly authoritative source.

In Washington a war department spokesman said that polls had been taken to ascertain the degree to which enemy propaganda had been absorbed, so that counter measures could be effected.

The poll also showed: Fifty-one percent said they believed Hitler did the Reich a lot of good before 1939.

Eighty percent favored occupation of Germany for 10 years.

Seventy-one percent said the U. S. military government was not tough enough with Nazis; 62 percent said it was not tough enough with ordinary Germans.

Twenty-two percent said they believed the Germans had "good reasons" for the persecution of Jews.

Thirty percent said they liked the Germans better than the English or French.

CHILDREN VERSUS EDUCATION

The education institution is another one of those things that can be classified so many times as everybody's business and nobody's. Too few people—and those who have children of school age are not excluded—realize that the freedom of our system of life, and all the attendant institutions, are dependent upon a high standard of literacy among the people.

Information of considerably sobering measure was written into an article in the January issue of American Mercury magazine by a well-qualified member of the education administration at Teachers college, Columbia university. The article was entitled "The Myth of Educational Equality." Figures were quoted from the 1940 federal census to the effect that some three million adults were found who had had no schooling at all. Other equally deplorable figures—which have not changed much in five years—were also given.

For instance, there were seven million persons recorded who could barely write their names; five million children between the ages of five and 17 who were not enrolled in school. Of that number about two million were between the ages of five and 15, the ages when they should by all means be taking schooling.

Perhaps the number of adults who cannot write is attributable in the main to other factors. Those factors were these: Some schools were found that had less than $100 to spend each year on each schoolroom group of 30 pupils. Other school systems spend more than $6,000 on each schoolroom unit. An amazing contrast.

One might ask what was the principal difference in the two financially-classed schools. It is this: the first teaches only the three R's, and they were not taught efficiently. The other taught, in addition to the three R's, programs of character and health—of primary importance, we think.

More absenteeism was found to exist in those communities where there was less than $1,000 spent annually on each classroom unit. We can understand this. The school where a child must learn the dry facts about dates and names, and so on, is less appealing to the children of our day, or any other day.

But these figures, we point out, do not always indicate a difference of the community and state where little money is spent on education. The writer goes further to explain that throughout the communities of our land the amount spent on education depends upon the amount of wealth there, the amount of taxable property, the salaries of the workers. Mississippi, for instance, provides a $400 classroom for its youth; New York about $6,000, the top figure. But—to provide the $400 classroom, Mississippi's tax effort—as measured by ratio of money raised for education to the total income of its people—was 35 percent ABOVE that of the country as a whole. It was greater by 31 percent than that of New York state. To triple the tax in Mississippi—which would be necessary to raise the amount to that of the national average—would "be equivalent to property confiscation," to use the author's words.

It is interesting to note that states like Mississippi are poor in wealth and income, rich in children; while states like New York are rich in wealth and income; poor in children.

Mississippi, in 1940, had 282 children per thousand population, between the ages of five and 17; while New York had only 193 children in that group per thousand population.

The author sums up by saying: "We must recognize that the social liabilities which flow from an inequality and denial of educational opportunity are so great that they can no longer be tolerated. Such opportunity should cease to be dependent upon such factors as the economic and cultural status of the community and family in which a child lives."

Inasmuch as it is generally conceded everyone gains as the standard of education rises, this matter of education should be considered soberly by every community in America.

The Worst Trouble

With Price Ceilings

What most people do not see about price ceilings is that it detracts the voters' attention from the real cause of price increases. By price ceilings the voters are led to believe that it is necessary to protect the public from price rises due to other causes than the greed for profits.

The greed for profits is checked by competition. One greedy man checks another greedy man if all are free to compete.

There are two real causes of price inflation: First, government officials and politicians telling the masses that they need not pay for their share of government costs in proportion as they consume wealth causes inflation. This the government is not able to get enough income to pay its operating expenses. It is thus forced to create new credit, new check-book money, new bonds that can be converted into currency or other check-book money.

This surplus of credit, or check-book money dilutes the purchasing power of the dollar just as pouring water into milk dilutes the nourishment of the milk.

The second cause for inflation is leading the public to believe that the government is checking the banks from monetizing stocks and bonds, and other things that are not on the road to market. That is, leading people to believe that the government is protecting them by preventing the banks from extending long term credit and using it as a medium of exchange.

If people were not led to believe that the government is the guardian of sound money, they would be on their guard and banks that abused their credit would go broke one at a time, and we would have no great inflation as we are bound to have when the people are led to believe that the government is regulating the value of money.

There is no possible chance of the government regulating the value of money when it creates new fiat money, or lets the banks create it, and then leads the people to believe that it is protecting them.

The men in government employ who are leading the people to believe that they have some magical way of keeping prices down are more to be feared than the worst gangsters in the land. The ply of it is that they are so ignorantly sincere that the public believes they know how to do what they are trying to do. That is what makes them dangerous.

Price control that diverts people's attention from the real cause of inflation is an opiate drug more to be dreaded than any drug known.

It Might Happen Again

Col. Leonard Ayers in the Cleveland Trust Co. business bulletin warns against too high wage boosts. He says:

"Another possible contingency which may operate to postpone the date when our national income will stop declining and turn upward once more is that the wage increases for which the unions are now striking may prove to be too numerous and too large to be accommodated within the rest of the year, and the wholesale prices of durable goods also advanced by nearly 13 percent. As a result the general public restricted their purchases of such goods, and we had the severe depression of 1935.

"Something like that could happen again. During the war the wages of the producers of goods have greatly increased, but those of most other classes, and especially those of the white collar workers, have increased far less. Our present wage pattern is already seriously distorted, and the increases resulting from the present strikes will distort it still further. The higher wages for factory workers will result in higher costs of production, and these will in turn result in higher prices. If the rest of the population does not earn enough to be willing to pay those higher prices, the demand for the goods will be curtailed.

"That seems like a very rational conclusion. In fact, the primary cause of unemployment in all times that is wages of some groups get entirely too high, because of pressure-group action, as compared to other wages as would be established on a free market basis.

There is no possible way in the long run of increasing wage levels other than by greater production. And the best way of increasing production, as all history has shown, is the competitive system with a free market for all labor

MEANING—Winston Churchill will not appear before the Pearl Harbor investigating committee. But, ironically, the former British prime minister now the only living man who can disclose the extent of the warlike promises the late President Roosevelt made him informally when they framed the so-called Atlantic Charter off the coast of Maine in August of 1941.

Although the purpose of their meeting at sea was supposed to be the framing of the Anglo-American pact committing the two nations to the final defeat of Germany and Italy, Mr. Roosevelt subsequently admitted that this agreement was only a series of "scribbled notes" of no great significance.

He indicated that the "Charter" was an afterthought that could be published as a pretext for the conference. The presence of the top naval and military experts from Washington and London supports this suggestion.

It is only now, however, that the real and far-reaching meaning of the gettogether is known. Secret records in the state department reveal that their talks embraced every phase of live European and Far Eastern negotiations, together with the prospect of American participation in the global conflict.

ULTIMATUM—Although Sumner Welles, then under secretary of state, served as their amanuensis in framing the agreement later taken to the press, the two world leaders often sat on deck long and late when no one else was present. It was during these conversations, so state department files show, that the American president agreed to take on Japan if Tokyo persisted in her forward movement against British and Dutch possessions to the southward.

F. D. R.'s warning to Japan on this score was rewritten several times before it was made public by the chief executive after his return to Washington. Despite its final and diluted version the Japanese have always regarded it as a stronger ultimatum than the Hull note presented to emissaries Nomura and Kurusu on the following November 27. Tokyo began immediate preparations for an assault on Hawaii after this incident.

WARNING—As submitted to Nomura by President Roosevelt at the White House on August 18, the statement warned Japan against further aggression on China, Thailand and the British and Dutch

We cannot have a free market, a competitive system, for labor when the government attempts to establish prices of any kind.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA) — Kathryn Grayson and John Shelton plan to adopt a baby — to keep their marriage off the rocks. . . No other item you read in some papers, Rita Hayworth and Orson Welles have been having a few dates. Friends of both say, however, that there is no chance of a reconciliation. Orson and George Brent, incidentally, are feuding over the film, "Tomorrow is Forever." Too much Orson and not enough Brent. Brent wouldn't even attend the local premiere.

Super-inflation note: A new home going up in Beverly Hills has two swimming pools. . . The Evelyn Keys-Peter Lawford romance is blazing. Vivien Leigh is almost completely recovered from her serious illness but will spend six months at a sanitarium in Switzerland before returning to the cameras. . . Robert Taylor, who fancies himself quite a shot, made three trips to a Northern California duck club, got only one duck. And returning to Hollywood, the lone duck was stolen from his car. . . Clark Gable will be the army flyer who drops the atomic bomb on Hiroshima in M-G-M's atom-splitter, "The Beginning of the End." . . Susan Peters, still confined to a wheelchair as a result of that hunting accident, may be starred in "Ballerina." It's the story of a ballet star who suffers an accident, must spend the rest of her life in a wheelchair.

NOT HER DADDY
Vickie Jones was watching her famous ma, Betty Grable, play a love scene with Dick Haymes in "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim." "Wailed Vickie: "That's not my Daddy!" It broke up the set.

A Hollywood restaurant reports Edith Gwynn, features a "hang-over breakfast" — tomato juice, raw eggs, dry toast, black coffee, an aspirin and this note at the bottom of the menu: "Our sympathy."

Robert Montgomery thought he was pretty clever, getting navy air transportation back to Hollywood from Washington, D. C. It took him four days to get a seat on a plane, which flew him to Los Angeles via Montana, Seattle and San Francisco.

Irene Dunne is slimmer than ever, but says she's eating more heartily than usual these days to keep up her strength. She wears hoop-skirt costumes weighing 20 pounds for her role in "Anna and the King of Siam."

Artificial Appliances
Promised to Veterans
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—(AP)—The veterans administration today promised disabled war veterans an adequate supply of best quality artificial appliances "even if the federal government has to go into the artificial arm, leg and eye business itself."

The pledge came from Walter Burt, head of the veterans administration prosthetic appliances services.

MACKENZIE'S Column

(This is the third of three columns on Generalissimo Francisco Franco by Dewitt Mackenzie, to whom the chief of the Spanish state has just given an interview.)

AP World Traveler
MADRID, Jan. 26—Generalissimo Franco is quick to combat any suggestion that his government is backward in political reform, as I found during my interview with him in the palace where he resides at El Pardo, near Madrid.

Of course the term "backward" is relative. Progress which would seem slow in one country might be regarded as good going in another. Apropos of this matter of speed, I had asked Franco if he was headed for absolute democracy.

"Yes, but we proceed slowly—step by step—until the people are properly prepared."

I introduced the question by saying the impression abroad, right or wrong, is that very little has been done towards political reform in Spain a purposely blunt approach to the subject.

He responded, "It is very difficult for people to be able to interpret the facts about others without knowing the situation and events which went before. The United States is a young and new country in political life. Spain has lived a great deal of political life and lived it very rapidly."

"It was almost a century and a half ago that (Spain) began to adopt democratic forms and it has passed through all the stages: the tranquil stages with two great parties, the following stages when it became impossible to govern because of the breaking up of those two parties into fifteen or twenty groups, the stages of the civil war, the eruption into politics of the working masses and their obedience to foreign commands for the unleashing of social revolution."

"I am sure that the day on which the United States has passed through these or similar phases, its public opinion will understand perfectly the problems of Spain."

"Since our war of liberation (the civil war of 1936-39) ended, the progress and perfection of Spanish politics have been constant. For three years the Spanish cortes (parliament) has been functioning without interruption. In it, the syndicates, the municipal governments and the corporations have their elective representation, and during this time there have been discussed and drawn up—with important changes in the original bills—a great number of important laws. Some of these which met with many difficulties, had to be withdrawn by the ministers who presented them."

"Recently there has been promulgated the referendum law, in order to effect the direct consultation of the nation in those laws which are of transcendent importance, in preparation the new electoral census which will permit us to establish the natural play of public consultation."

"The council of state and the supreme court of justice—traditional organs among Spanish institutions—function today with all regularity, and the decision against the acts of the government are sincerely executed and respected by it. Not a month passes without the official bulletin printing some decision of the council favorable to the plaintiffs in the damage suits against acts of the government."

"If to these, which constitute in-

One of the important questions coming before congress soon is the question of the European loans that has been promised by President Truman.

This is a question that should arouse the American people, who have tolerated more imposition and restriction on their liberties than has seemed impossible in the recent war-time months. Now it is President Truman's responsibility to form a more courageous policy for our government.

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—Tickets went on sale in Shamrock Tuesday for a luncheon to be held here on Friday, February 1, honoring Arch Stafford, president of the National Council of the American War Dads.

The luncheon, sponsored by the Shamrock Chapter of American War Dads, will be held in the basement dining room of the First Methodist church and will begin at 12 o'clock noon.

Veterans of World War II and their parents are especially invited to the luncheon, as Stafford will bring a message of interest to ex-servicemen concerning post-war problems.

Tickets are selling for $1.00 each and the luncheon is open to the public. Plake George, president of the Shamrock Chapter of American War Dads, announced.

Following the luncheon, Stafford will speak in the auditorium of the First Methodist church. There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

President Stafford is making a tour of Texas, and Shamrock is the smallest town in which he is to make an appearance.

In his speech Stafford will discuss several War Dad projects which are of special interest to veterans, their fathers and mothers.

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—The March of Dimes campaign for the benefit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis will open in Wheeler county Monday, Jan. 28, and end Thursday, Jan. 31.

Norman Patrick has been appointed chairman of the drive for Shamrock and announced this morning that the campaign here will be conducted in the same manner as that of the Christmas Seal Sale with committeemen to contact the owners and employees of each business house in the city.

Committee will begin their solicitation early Monday morning and the drive should be completed in two days, Patrick said.

Patrick has appointed the following assistants:

Harry Wofford of Wheeler is county chairman of the campaign, having been appointed by George Waverly Briggs of Dallas, chairman of the Texas state committee for the fund-raising affair.

Entertainments of all kinds and cash collections for the March of Dimes are being planned to raise funds for combating disease which cripples thousands of America's children each year.

Last year, 253 Texas counties participated in the campaign, raising $611,192, of which Wheeler county raised $1,138. Citing the severe polio epidemic of the summer of 1944, Wofford expressed hope that the 1946 contributions would be materially increased.

PAMPA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LEADERS

W. R. Weatherred

Frank Smith

C. P. "Doc" Pursley

Local Chamber of Commerce Reports Successful Year

W. R. Weatherred, elected this week as the president of the Pampa chamber of commerce for 1946, has been the postmaster of the Pampa Post for the past two years. For 14 years previous to that time Weatherred served in the public school systems and was the Gray county superintendent of schools at the time of his postal appointment. He is a member of the Kiwanis club and has been active in civic affairs continuously.

Frank Smith was elected vice-president of the chamber for the coming year. A veteran of 19 months service as a technical sergeant with the army engineers, Smith was honorably discharged last October, having served in both European and South Pacific theaters of war. He is the owner of Smith's Quality Shoe store and is a member of the Lions club.

C. P. "Doc" Pursley is the outgoing chamber of commerce president. "Doc" has been a resident of Pampa since 1941, is a familiar figure in all Panhandle activities and has made an outstanding record for the Pampa chamber of commerce during his 1945 presidency.

Among the major projects sponsored by the chamber and instigated by "Doc" is the increase in membership of the Pampa chamber from 250 to 360, many through his personal solicitation. He has seen considerable progress on the highway program for Gray county, particularly the proposed Pampa to Perryton project which has been in mind for the past 12 years, and highways 60 and 152 to Oklahoma.

"Doc" engineered the origination of the Top o' Texas Horse Show, Fair and Rodeo Assn., Inc., which was completed and put into operation during his administration. He inaugurated the chamber of commerce quarterly paper which appeared in 1945, and has seen the expansion of the Top o' Texas Junior Livestock and Hereford Breeders association shows and sales.

The last major project sponsored by the chamber during "Doc's" term of office has been the promotion for a new Gray county general hospital for which voters of Gray county will vote this year.

The voters are the major contributions "Doc" has made. In all chamber activities he was most active, coming and going in and out of the office at all times of the day when he was required. He helped tack banners on poles carried by a Pampa delegation in a Clarendon rodeo parade last fall, sealed envelopes and such.

New officers and directors of the chamber and the board of city development will be installed at the next quarterly banquet to be held February 12.

Where private enterprise is unable to provide the necessary housing, it becomes the responsibility of government to do so. But it primarily is a job for private enterprise to do.—President Harry S. Truman.

Maj. deSeversky Discounts Effect Of Atomic Bombs

Neither the Hiroshima nor Nagasaki atom bomb, if dropped on a steel and concrete city like New York, would have done more damage than a 10-ton blockbuster. So declares Major Alexander P. deSeversky, in The Reader's Digest for February. While he does not deny that atomic energy "injects a vital and perhaps revolutionary factor into military science," the author deprecates the "state of near hysteria" resulting from these first exhibits of atomic destruction and urges "a cooling-off period on atomic speculation."

deSeversky's conclusions on the comparative effects of atomic and other bombs are based on eight months of study of war destruction in Europe and Asia, as a special consultant to the secretary of war. Inspecting the damage in Hiroshima and Nagasaki, he found fire to be the chief cause of the high toll of life and property in both cities. He attributes this damage not to fire kindled by the heat of the explosion itself but to "simultaneous flare-ups in thousands of places, from short circuits, overturned stoves, kerosene lamps, and broken gas mains" resulting from the collapse of wooden houses.

Hiroshima's clusters of modern buildings in the downtown section stood upright and "topped by undamaged flag-poles, high-rising rods, painted railings, air-raid precaution sirens, and other comparatively fragile objects." Concrete buildings nearest the center of the explosion, some only a few blocks from the heart of the atom blast, showed no structural damage. Even cornices, canopies, and delicate exterior decoration was intact.

All of downtown Nagasaki, though chiefly wooden in construction, survived practically undamaged. The author points out that while all destruction in Nagasaki has been popularly credited to the atom bomb, the city had been heavily bombed six days before.

While deSeversky concedes that one atomic bomb hurled at Hiroshima was equal to 200 Superforts dropping incendiaries, he attributes that fact to the "incredible flimsiness" of construction of Japanese cities. For New York or Chicago "a different kind of atomic bomb, exploding in a different fashion, would be needed before it could equal one Superfort loaded with high explosives." He brands as "completely misleading" the statement that the atomic bomb used on Japan was 20,000 times more powerful than a TNT blockbuster.

Dr. M. C. Overton and Dr. J. W. Howze Announce they have resumed the practice of medicine and surgery.

"Atomic Power" For Automobiles

During the war, science wrought many marvellous discoveries—like atomic power, radar, D. D. T. and penicillin. One such wartime wonder is ready now to rescue your aging automobile. It's Si-en-tif-ik Decarbonizer, an amazing discovery that cleans out carbon-caked, sludge-bound engines, thus getting maximum compression and full power, quick starting in winter and summer. Si-en-tif-ik may give new life and pep to your car. Actual tests on motors as old as 7 years show an increase in compression of 25% and more. Si-en-tif-ik—restores acceleration and smooth driving, frees frozen rings, sticky valves—renews flexibility, stopping carbon-caused knocks and pings. Saves gas and oil. Praised by automobile tractor, and large fleet owners. Get Si-en-tif-ik today at your filling station or dealer! For smoother economical driving—always ask for automotive products manufactured by Si-en-tif-ik Motor Products Co., Chicago. Si-en-tif-ik Distributing Co. of Texas, 821 Main Ave., San Antonio, Texas. ### Federal Control Not Sound, Says Governor

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson said today he saw no need of federal regulation of natural gas production, and expressed the opinion that the increasing price of natural gas would ultimately take care of the exportation problem.

Answering questions at his press conference, Stevenson said he thought the price of natural gas would increase to the point that it would be economically unsound to export it for fuel purposes.

Allred To Oppose Oil Pact at Hearing

HOUSTON, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Former Gov. James V. Allred said here yesterday he plans to go to Washington to oppose the Anglo-American oil pact. The hearing on the oil pact is slated before the senate foreign relations committee in February.

Allred said the proposed pact is an entering wedge not only for national but international control over American natural resources.

News of Interest To Oil Men

Danciger Powell-Beck 36 Flows 140 Barrels of Oil in One Hour

Late Friday night the Danciger Oil and Refining Co. No. 36 Powell-Beck made good. The well flowed 140 barrels of oil during the first hour and after 12 hours was still flowing 125 barrels an hour through an 8-inch pipe. A 24-hour test was to be completed last night. It was expected to be about a 3,000-barrel producer, the largest oil well for the Danciger Co., and one of the largest ever to be brought in in the Panhandle field.

Operators drilled to 2,900 feet. The well is located in the southwest quarter of section 28, block B-2, H&GN survey.

Texaco Credit Union Declares 3 Percent Dividend

A three percent dividend was declared by members of the Panhandle Texaco Federal Credit Union at the sixth annual meeting of members held Friday night in the district court room.

A five percent dividend was possible, it was reported, but members voted to hold it to three. The 118 members are employees of the Texas Co. and the Texas Pipeline Co.

Hubert M. Rhodes, field secretary of the Credit Union National association, was guest speaker at the above meeting as well as at a later session of representatives of the eight credit unions in Pampa.

Officers Elected
Several officers and board members of the Texaco union were elected. Officers and committee members are:

Supervisory committee: F. M. Gault, chairman, re-elected; Mrs. Tommie S. Stone, secretary, re-elected, and E. C. Hart.

President: Doster, in charge of the meeting, heard a detailed report from Treasurer Torvie who summarized total assets of the union, as of Dec. 31, at $13,976.82. Savings of members totaled $12,687.42; reserve for possible future bad loans, $531.63, and undivided profits, $587.77.

Gross income during 1945 from interest on loans, income from investments, etc., amounted to $891.35. Operating expense was $306.32, leaving a net income of $585.03. After the 20 percent transfer of net income to a reserve for bad loans the balance of the union's business stood at $408.82 for the past year's business.

79 Loans Made
Secretary Mrs. Timin gave a general report on types of loans the union had been able to make in members during the year at a small rate of interest. During the year 79 loans amounting to $15,068 had been made. Average shareholdings were valued at $107.52.

Loans were primarily for medical expenses, repair and purchase of cars essential to business of members, income tax payments, vacations, war and victory bonds, repair of homes and property.

Dividends are based on union earnings, which are in turn gained through the lending of savings contributed voluntarily by members in a sort of savings account.

Cooperation Appreciated
Dan Gribbons, member, commented on the fine work of the Texaco Credit union even during war years, and particularly the work of the president, treasurer, and committee members for their splendidly unremunerative work in the cooperative enterprise.

C. B. Grant urged that small share holders especially be urged to increase savings by going to the limit on amounts contributed to their savings in the union. He did not confine the policy to present members.

Primary purposes of credit unions, said Speaker Rhodes, are to promote thrift practices, and to afford credit services to members in time of need at reasonable cost.

Work is Outlined
Work of union committees which handle all union business during the year, as summarized by Rhodes, is: board of directors—to formulate policies; credit committee, which can "make or break the organization"—to make loans; supervisory committee—to check accounts and statements; education committee—to publicize and distribute information concerning union operations.

Elmer Rupp, member of the Pampa District Postal Employees Credit union, was chairman in charge of the representative meeting.

Credit unions existing in Pampa other than the two mentioned above are the Cabot state union; FLT (IOOP) organizations, Humble Panhandle Employees, Magnolia Panhandle, Pampa Teachers, Phil-Pet and the Stanolind Panhandle.

All except the last named are organized according to federal regulations. The Cabot union has a state charter.

Hogan Leads in Phoenix Tourney At Intermission

By EDDIE LEE
PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Little Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., the only survivor of the three first round leaders, today belted out a three-under-par 68 to take a one-stroke lead over George Sauter of Salt City, Utah, as the Phoenix open golf tournament reached the half-way mark.

Hogan fashioned his second-round score on three birdies and an eagle, the latter coming on the seventh when he sank a 35-foot putt for a 3 on the par 5 hole, went out in 34 and came back in the same number. He had a 66 yesterday and a two-round total of 134. Sauter, who held the Utah open title in 1936, 1941 and 1943, had a 67 today to go with yesterday's 68 and a two-round 135.

Walter Burkemo of Detroit and Ellsworth Vines of Chicago both ran into serious trouble on the first nine. Burkemo reached the half with a 49, Vines with a 38, and they finished 75 and 74 respectively. But Herman Keiser of Akron, O., turned in a 69 to go with a 67 he recorded on the opening day and ended up third with a 236. Leland Gibson of Kansas City, Mo., went around in 67 today and occupied fourth place with a 70-67-137.

Jimmie Hines of Chicago and Harry Bassler of Los Angeles, both with 66's yesterday, also blew up today, Hines carding a 71, Bassler a 72.

Bracketed with Hines at 139 were Vic Ghezzi, Knoxville, Tenn.; Chandler Eaper, Portsmouth, Va.; Dick Metz, Arkansas City, Kan.; Bob Hamilton, Chicago, and Lloyd Mangrum, Los Angeles, the latter the lowest scorer of the day with a 66.

Bassler was grouped at 140 with Vines, Eldon Briggs, Lansing, Mich.; E. F. Harrison, Little Rock, Ark.; and Herman Barron, White Plains, N. Y.

Rebels Purchase Detroit Players

DALLAS, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Purchase of two infielders from the Detroit Tigers was announced today by President George Schepps of the Dallas Rebels.

The men are Edward Borom, who came to the Tigers by way of the Sally league, Southern association, Buffalo and Indianapolis, and who now makes his home at Wichita, Kans., and Carl McNabb, who started his pro career in the East Texas league, McNabb played with Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Hagerstown, Md., before entering the service and upon his discharge played with Buffalo before going to Detroit.

Schepps also announced the signing of three more rookies who will try out with the Dallas club. They are Sanford Goforth, right-hand pitcher from Sherman who once played with Longview in the East Texas league; Royce Wilson, also a right-hand pitcher from Waxahachie who has played with Longview and Helena, Ark., and Wallace Fitch, second baseman from Forest avenue high school in Dallas.

Four Colleges To Form Conference; Meeting Is Held

DALLAS, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Presidents of four schools—Oklahoma City University, Centenary college of Shreveport, Trinity university of San Antonio and Southwestern university of Georgetown—met here today and discussed plans for organization of a new inter-collegiate athletic conference.

Dr. J. N. R. Score, president of Southwestern who served as temporary chairman, said it was an exploratory meeting only and that certain committees were appointed to study the plan and investigate possible territory to be covered, with another meeting to be held within the next 30 days.

The meeting will be in Dallas. All athletics as well as fine arts competition are planned and a major conference is envisioned with rules analogous to those of the southwest and other top-flight organizations of the country.

All the schools represented at today's meeting discontinued athletics during wartime except southwestern.

The plan formulated thus far would be to make it an intercity conference probably extending as far as Denver in the west and Shreveport in the south. Southwestern university already has announced plans to play the football stadium at Temple for its home games. There is no large stadium at Georgetown.

Cochrane Meets Servo for Title

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—(AP)—The first of boxing's war-frozen championships—the long-iced welterweight crown—comes out of the ice box next Friday night.

For the first time since he won the bauble from frivolis Fritzie Zivie nearly five years ago Freddie (The Red) Cochrane dusts it off and puts it on the line against the challenger of baby-faced Marty Servo, fresh out of the coast guard.

Marty is a cousin of Lew Ambers, the lightweight boss of a few years ago. They are quoting him as a slight favorite over the New Jersey rethead for Friday's 15-round title fuss.

Marty, himself is no novice. In 48 fights from 1938 until he put on Uncle Sam's blue in 1942 he lost only two—both to Ray Robinson.

Why Stringbean Ray, who long has been designated as the uncrowned king of the welters, isn't fighting Cochrane for the division's top prize is one of those things that pop up in the fight game every now and then.

However, in this case, the situation has been straightened out with a signed agreement by both Cochrane and Servo guaranteeing that the Friday night winner will make his first title defense against the Harlem beanpole, beaten only once in his career. This playoff is slated for May 24 in Madison Square Garden.

Pampan Advanced to Corporal in Austria

Calvin C. Skaggs, son of Mrs. Maye Skaggs, Route 1, Pampan, has been promoted to corporal while serving with the installation and maintenance of communications in the 68th Signal Battalion in Vienna, Austria.

Corporal Skaggs was assigned overseas in December, 1944, and saw combat service with the 66th Infantry ("Black Panther") division. He has been awarded the Good Conduct medal and was once a basketball star on his Europe-Africa-Middle East theatre ribbon.

Prior to entering the military service in March, 1943, he was graduated from Pampan high school in February, 1943.

His organization, the 63rd, is a part of General Mark W. Clark's United States Forces in Austria.

Famous Holdout, Rufus Gentry, Is Back With Tigers

DETROIT, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Rufus Gentry, lanky Detroit Tiger right-hander whose season-long holdout in 1945 cost him a world series championship shot, has had enough of the peace and quiet of Daisy Station, N. C.

Gentry's signed contract arrived at the desk of Detroit's new general manager, George M. Trautman, this week along with eight others, bringing the list of Tiger candidates under terms for next season to 16.

Other signed contracts were received from outfielder Barney McCoy, second baseman Eddie May, catcher Paul Richards and left-handed pitcher Frank (Stubby) Overmire, and four rookies, outfielders Ed Mierkowiak and Vic Wertz, catcher John Mueller and pitcher Hal Manders.

Previous signed were outfielders Dick Wakefield, Roy Cullenbine and Walter (Hook) Evers, pitchers Virgil (Fire) Trucks, George Caster and rookie Louis Krolow and catcher Bob Swift.

Trautman said the club still had no direct word from Hank Greenberg, reported prepared to ask for $65,000 in 1946 for shifting from the outfield back to first base, where he would replace Rudy York who was traded to the Boston Red Sox.

Hunting Accidents Will Be Determined

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 26.—(AP)—The game department wants to know how many fatal hunting accidents there were in Texas during the past seasons, and why they happened, so it can help educate sportsmen against unsafe practices.

Questionnaires seeking information on such fatal accidents have been being executed by secretary Howard Dodgen to all wardens over the state.

Preliminary reports by wardens gave a total of 14 hunting fatalities during the open season on birds and big game, which closed officially Jan. 16 with expiration of open dates on quail hunting. It was expected the final report would show more than a score of fatalities.

Pampa Cagers Open District I-AA Cage Series This Week

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
News Sports Editor

On the basis of comparative scores, both Amarillo's Sandies and the Berger Bulldogs appear highly capable of depositing Pampa from its district cage leadership.

Both the Sandies and the Bulldogs have piled up impressive records so far this season and the local five plays both teams this week. Berger there Tuesday and Amarillo Friday at Amarillo.

Through Thursday, the Amarillo five had piled up 12 wins as against two losses, and Berger had won eight and lost four up through the quarterfinals of the Canadian tournament yesterday.

For example, Berger beat White Deer twice, 54-38 and 52-20, while Pampa could only eke out a 34-21 win over the Bucks in a game played on the Pampa court.

In a wild four-game scoring spurt before entering the Canadian tournament, the Bulldogs blazed an average of over 50 points per game.

Amarillo has won 10 straight games and it does not appear likely that the Sandies' are in danger of losing many this week.

Pampa, with an impressive 10-4 won-lost record is, however, expected to improve a great deal this week, with do-or-die conference play facing the cagers.

Although Earl Davis may see little action, Otis Coffey's charges will, nevertheless, be fighting to retain their district title.

Watch out for the man with the cane!

An odd thing about northern game wardens is the weapon they prefer. Game enforcement patrol they tote guns, but they get more use out of a plain, one-inch walking cane with a crooked handle. That cane is used for fishing in water for illegal nets, for feeling along dark forest paths at night, for detecting traps, and one warden is known to have snared a violator he was chasing through the brush by hooking the crook through the suspensory of the man's overalls.

Gordon MacQuarrie, noted Wisconsin outdoor writer, "went along for the ride" on several patrols with wardens in the Iron River section of Wisconsin, and his observations present a warning to all would-be poachers.

The earliest arrests to make are the city slickers who "go back into the sticks" to spear fish or slay deer. With the expert poacher, whose theory is that stolen sweets are sweetest it's a game of wits which sooner or later the warden will win.

One warden can work a dozen lakes in a day with his "extra eyes." He carries a pair of field glasses that see just about everything going on out there in the fishing boats. He has an eye for the line trends, and chances are knows the kind of "shoe soles on all suspected violators in town. There are a lot of tricks to the trade and it's the warden's job to know them.

Ralph C. Conway, Wisconsin state superintendent of referees and public hunting grounds, also a warden, tells one on a violator.

"I was stationed in an eastern camp instructing tyros in the firing of the Garand semi-automatic rifle. I stood back of one youngster who was dropping 'em into the black from the prone position. He was simply deadly and after his score was posted he winked at me and said: 'I oughta know how to shoot. Been first a rifle all my life.'"

"I asked him where he said. 'Up in Forest County, Wisconsin. Hell, that score today was nothing. Last July I knocked over a buck at 300 yards—without a scope!'

"Somehow," Conway adds, "I thought of Sergeant York and I don't guess I'd ever want to punch that kid."

Dana X. Bible To Finish Historic Career January 1

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Newsfeatures

AUSTIN.—On Jan. 1, 1947 Dana Xenophon Bible will leave 34 years of producing great gridiron teams to the history of sport.

Bible's place in coaching has been unique as well as successful. In 28 years of directing major college teams he has won 14 championships.

He is the only man ever to win titles at two schools in the Southwest Conference—five at Texas A. and M., three at the University of Texas.

Bible isn't an old man—he will be 55 when he steps down as mentor of Texas U. to be succeeded by his pupil, Blair Cherry. But this is his last year as coach.

He said when he announced his retirement at the end of his 10-year contract as coach: "The University of Texas is growing and my duties as athletics director are getting heavier, and I don't want to get old before my time."

Bible is planning a great athletic program for Texas. He wants to play in football—one at home, one away. The state university will be shooting for a national championship every season.

And as a planner, Bible is tops. He came to Texas when its football fortunes were at their lowest ebb. His planning brought the Longhorns to a pedestal in the Southwest Conference. Texas is the only school over to win two championships in a row and the only school ever to take three titles in four years.

One of Bible's backers had this to say after the squabble that ended with the university discharging its president: "Why look farther than the campus for a new president? D. X. Bible could fill the bill to everyone's satisfaction. He would organize things to operate like a well-oiled machine."

Bible added dignity to sport. He is the type man who demands and gets respect. He is the type you call "Mr. Bible" and not "D. X." or "Coach."

For many years he has served on the national rules committee. He has done a lot more for the game than produce great football teams. In his regime at Texas, only two teams hold margins over the Longhorns. Texas will need to beat Rice and Texas Christian next fall for Bible to break even in victories with those schools.

So far as his record is concerned, he has produced two undefeated, untied and unscored on teams—1917 and 1919 at Texas A. and M. He has had many with no more than one defeat. In addition to five conference titles at A. and M. and three at Texas, he produced six championships at Nebraska in eight years. His 26-year record in the Southwest Conference is 59 victories, 25 defeats and 8 ties, thus his percentage is the highest of any coach now active in this circuit. This applies to conference games only.

Bible's decision to announce his retirement from active coaching and his recommendation of assistant coach Cherry for the head job now, instead of waiting a year, was based on these considerations: He wanted to answer a lot of questions before the questioners became impatient, and he wanted to give Cherry an opportunity to work gradually into the top command.

His salary as coach and athletics director has been $15,600 a year. As athletic director, he will be employed on a year-to-year basis at $9,000 annually. Bible declined another 10-year contract as coach and athletics director, nor would he accept $10,000 a year proffered him as athletic director. Bible declared there had been considerable comment about the size of his salary and that he wanted to get out of the five-figure bracket.

Shamrock Sets Bond Election On New Hospital

SHAMROCK, Jan. 26 (Special)—Date of the election in which residents of Shamrock will decide on the issuance of $20,000 in bonds for the purpose of buying a building and equipment for a municipal hospital has been set by the City Council as Wednesday, February 13. The election will be held in the City Hall and the ballot will read: "For the issuance of bonds." "Against the issuance of bonds." The $20,000 in bonds would be payable serially one to 20 years from their date, with option of redemption at any time after five years from their date, bearing interest at the rate of 3 1/2 percent per annum, members of the City Council said. The decision to submit the question of buying a hospital and operating it on a municipal basis was decided upon by members of the Council after Sisters of St. Mary's Hospital made known the fact that they had been instructed to terminate their work here by February 1. Realizing the seriousness of a town the size of Shamrock being without a hospital, the city leaders checked on various angles and decided to pass the problem on to voters for a decision.

Labor Front

(Continued from page 1) Secretary of Agriculture Anderson told their president he favored putting into effect any wage increases which might be recommended by a fact-finding board now holding hearings. However, they added they were not calling off their strike. AFL ALREADY BACK The UPWA said earlier it was not ordering its men back because it said the President's seizure order failed to specify wage increases for the strikers. The CIO union claims 193,000 members. The other union involved, the AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America, had ordered its 55,000 members back to their jobs when the plants were seized at 12:01 a. m. yesterday (Saturday). Lewis J. Clark UPWA president, said he telegraphed all locals to withdraw pickets as of 5 p. m. yesterday. Clark added the return to work was conditional on Secretary Anderson's assurance that he would "apply immediately" for approval of any wage increase recommended by the fact-finding board. If such an increase is unsatisfactory to the union, Clark said "the strike will be on as usual." Gayle Armstrong, directing government meat operations for President Truman and Secretary Anderson, said "with the cooperation of both labor and management now assured, we can get meat back into the markets within a matter of days." Meanwhile, the CIO United Auto Workers and the Ford Motor company announced their wage dispute affecting nearly 100,000 workers, had been settled on the basis of an 18-cent hourly pay increase, with the effective date still undecided on. A joint company-union statement said, however, that "we hope that the wage increase will become effective not later than Feb. 1." The 18-cent increase is roughly equivalent to a 15.1 per cent boost. Shortly afterward, the UAW-CIO and Chrysler announced the termination of their wage dispute, affecting an estimated 48,000 production workers. The 18-cent increase represents an approximately 16 per cent wage increase. The union originally demanded 30 per cent wage rate increases from both Ford and Chrysler. The idle throughout the nation totaled approximately 1,500,000. No check was immediately available, however, on the number of striking AFL workers who went back to their jobs in packing plants. Meanwhile, in Chicago, the nation's major railroads and 18 of the 20 railroad labor unions agreed to arbitrate wage demands affecting 1,250,000 workers. The agreement was the fruit of three weeks of conferences, and management representatives advised the national (railway) mediation board they were willing to enter into a similar agreement with the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, both of which withdrew from mediation conferences last week and announced they would take strike votes. In Cleveland, however, A. F. Whitney, president of the BRT, said the arbitration agreement would not alter the Brotherhood's plan to conduct a strike vote, because, he said, arbitration suggested by the board was limited to the wage suggestion and did not include proposed rule changes sought by the union. Representatives of the Locomotive Engineers also had rejected arbitration, demanding that 45 rule changes be considered along with their goal of increased pay. The 15 non-operating unions of the 18 which have agreed to arbitrate, seek a 30-cent hourly wage increase and the three operating groups an increase of $2.50 a day. On the other side of the labor picture was the huge steel-oid steel strike. In addition to the 750,000 CIO United Steelworkers idled by the strike, called over a wage dispute, 35,000 workers in related industries were off the job. At Pittsburgh, President Philip Murray of the Steelworkers said he did not think the next move in the situation was up to him. Murray, referring to his acceptance of the compromise wage proposal offered by President Truman which was rejected by U. S. Steel—said "I made my move." The President had suggested an 18-cent hourly raise for the steelworkers.

Pearl Harbor

(Continued from page 1) from spectators as Short left after thanking the committee for the opportunity to tell his story publicly. He said that as a "loyal soldier" he had been forced to keep silent for four war years while bearing "the burden of public censure." The committee now has questioned all major army-navy figures connected with the Pearl Harbor debacle. On Monday, it will hear Capt. Ellis M. Zacharias and former Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts. Zacharias, a naval intelligence officer, has been quoted as saying he predicted both the time and place of the Japanese attack in a talk with Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, Pacific fleet commander, in March, 1941. Roberts headed a presidential commission which in 1942 made an investigation of the attack and concluded there was "dereliction of duty" on the part of both Short and Kimmel. Although Short had complained that the war department failed to supply him with needed anti-aircraft weapons and planes, he testified in reply to questions from Rep. Keeke (R-Wis) that the major factor in the Japanese success was his lack of information.

ARMY COLONEL DENSON, Jan. 26—(AP)—Col. Francis J. Wilson, was unable to attend farewell ceremonies for a group of Brazilian army engineers here at Perrin field yesterday. While on Lake, Texoma, the wind blew off his cap and regulations require officers to wear caps on the field.

Thousands Would Help Owner Dispose of Gold Mine Wealth

George Campbell, left, says goodbye to his faithful Indian guide as he prepares to leave on a routine flight. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell had planned a spending spree

By NEA Service RED LAKE, Ont.—(NEA)—Getting rid of $300,000 in a hurry isn't easy, even though more than 8000 people put their heads together to figure out ways to spend it. Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, who hit the jackpot on a gold claim here, are ready and willing to dispose of their money. They had planned to spend a sizeable sum on a glorious spree in Hollywood, New York and Bermuda. This would have been their first trip out of the bush in 14 years. But the Canadian government spoiled their plans by limiting the amount of cash they could take out of the country.

When the story of the Campbell's good fortune was told in an NEA dispatch, thousands of readers took pens in hand to enlist in a voluntary "Share the Wealth of the Campbell" army. At last count, more than 8000 letters had been flown into this remote gold field in northern Ontario, and the mail sacks are still pouring in. BOONTY SOUGHT From all parts of the United States and Canada came requests for loans or outright gifts. People who almost unanimously described themselves as "hard-working, poor, but honest," asked help in achieving everything from a permanent wage to a $15,000 summer resort. The permanent was requested by a woman who needed it so that she could get a job, support herself, and leave a "no-good husband."

Churches of many recognized denominations and some unknown suits invited the Campbells to help lift their mortgages. One reported that funds had been raised to apply two coats of paint to the outside of a church, but money to decorate the inside would "come very hard." A plea for church funds concluded with "The Lord will bless you and I am sure would be pleased to hear from you." An elderly couple asked for a $150 funeral fund. Many, many letters, equally pathetic, asked for assistance in paying for operations and other medical expenses. Asking nothing for herself, another letter writer urged the Campbells to donate "a building of two-room apartments for 10 or 12 widows and maiden ladies who are worthy but have no finances." One of the simplest requests was for "just a plain cloth winter coat—not a fur one."

We have always dreamed of a fairy godfather," one correspondent wrote. "I would be the happiest man in the world if I could get a couple of thousand dollars or even less. That fairy godfather would not want to be you, would he?" Numerous opportunities were offered the Campbells to invest their money. They were offered a tavern, a summer resort, an Indian oddities museum, and a hill in a beautiful section of the country. An inventor offered a convincing argument for financing his patent. "My fly catcher," he wrote, "hasn't any competition except DDT, and who would want the odor of a skunk in their home?" A 15-year-old boy, eager to play in the high school band, offered to buy the shiny saxophone Campbell selected from a mail order catalogue simply because it looked good. Since Campbell doesn't play the instrument, this lad thought he could make a deal, if the price were low and the installments were easy to meet.

A girl who had met a George Campbell when she was just 17 was pleased to read the story of the gold strike. "I have wondered many times where George Campbell went," she writes, "as he offered me everything he inherited from his mother, but I was too young to understand marriage. I hope this is the same Mr. Campbell as he sure was nice to me—a real gentleman." Many of the letters are convincing evidence of the goodness of human nature. They are cheerful and pleasant, seeking only to express pleasure in hearing about another's good fortune. There were many Christmas cards and several gifts, including a yarn dox as a good luck charm and a genuine rattlesnake rattle.

Mother of Miss Texas Asks Annulment of Daughter's Marriage

AUSTIN, Jan. 26—(AP)—Mrs. Ethel Mae Below has filed suit in 53rd district court to annul the marriage of her daughter, Polly Below, University of Texas freshman who was named Miss Texas in a Fort Arthur beauty contest last August, and who was married to George Clinton Greenwood Monday afternoon. The petition stated that both bride and groom are only 19 years of age. Mrs. E. C. Overstreet, guardian of Greenwood, said Miss Below asked her consent to the boy's marriage. She then signed an affidavit consenting to the marriage, required by the county clerk in issuing a marriage license to an under-aged person, she said. Hearing of the petition for annulment has not been set.

Iran Situation

(Continued from page one) ssembly to override a committee recommendation which prohibited nominations in the 51-nation organization. BRITISH LEAD FIGHT The motion to override was put by the Soviet Ukraine. It grew out of the election without nomination of Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium as president of the assembly. He defeated Soviet-nominated Foreign Minister Trygve Lie of Norway. British delegate Philip J. Noel-Eaker, who had supported Spaak, led the fight to prohibit nominations and won by an assembly vote of 25 to 18. U. S. delegate Frank Walker, Ukrainian delegate Dmitri Manulsky, Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko and Norwegian delegate Terje Wald argued against the prohibition. Walker said that under such a prohibition he was not sure that "we are not denying freedom of speech to the members." Manulsky said such a prohibition was undemocratic and that he sought, in the interest of the United Nations and the small nations, to "abolish lobbying behind the scenes."

The only other problems still outstanding were the election of a secretary-general, and the selection of a specific United States site for the organization's permanent headquarters. In the matter of the secretary generalship, the United States still was campaigning for Lester Pearson, Canadian ambassador at Washington, and the Russians, favoring an eastern European candidate, are believed to have asked for new instructions from Moscow.

This presumption may be overcome, however, by any soldier who has given evidence that he has established his residence at the point where he is stationed. Any tax assessor will be glad to fully explain this clause to members of the armed forces. Attention is now directed to youngsters who have just attained the age of 21 and to those people over 60 years of age. Any persons who became 21 years of age after Jan. 1, 1945, is eligible to vote in any election this year provided he or she obtains his exemption certificate before Feb. 1. Such persons can also anticipate reaching their 21st birthday between Jan. 31, 1946 and the date of the election and obtain their exemption certificate on that basis. Finally, every person who is more than 60 years old, or who is blind, deaf or dumb, or is permanently disabled, or has lost one hand or foot, shall be entitled to vote without payment of poll tax if he has obtained an exemption certificate. However, a recent change in the law requires that this exemption certificate be renewed each year. This may all sound very technical but it is only the simple matter of finding out "where you stand," paying your poll tax or obtaining an exemption slip and then voting in every election that is called. Every day is bargain day at the tax assessor's office. Go over and see what you get for your money.

Legislation

(Continued from page 1) emergency, until mid-1947. House republicans, along with a group of southern democrats, will try to return it to the States one year sooner. They will come what well may develop into the hottest fight of the session—a bill to set up fact-finding boards to handle major labor controversies. The President wants the boards to have subpoena power and to have the advantage of a 30-day "notice" provision while the boards make their investigations. The legislation approved by the house labor committee for house consideration eliminates the "cooling-off" period and sharply curbs the board's power. Early billing also is planned by administration leaders for legislation extending the draft law beyond May 15, continuing price controls for another year after June 30, reauthorizing the second war powers act and its ration authority beyond June 30, setting up a program for so-called "full employment," raising statutory minimum wage scales, blueprinting the method of disposing of surplus merchant vessels, and setting up domestic controls over atomic energy.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26—(AP)—His wife's kisses cost him $5 each, Sidney Raskin, bakery executive, charged in domestic relations court. His wife, actress Dolores Welch, confirmed it: "I did it to discourage him," she told reporters as she left the courtroom. "He was always buzzing and pecking around. It was annoying. ### Mrs. Roosevelt To Sponsors Move for One World Language

LONDON, Jan. 26—(AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt announced today that she would sponsor within the United Nations organization a move for compulsory teaching of one internationally understood language in the schools of the world. Citing the many tongues spoken at the general assembly where 51 nations are represented, Mrs. Roosevelt said "the language barrier is a very severe one—to international peace." She added: "I hope to bring up the fact in the organization that every child throughout the world should learn the language of his own country and one agreed language which would be the same all over the world." Addressing more than 400 soldiers in a London theater, Mrs. Roosevelt asserted that economically and politically the United States was "tied up with the rest of the world." She added: "We had better learn to think of other people's needs." Americans, she said, are "naturally isolationists" and unless they understand the rest of the world we shall have to do again what we already have done twice.

Saucy Suits Shown for Spring

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—You will be able to spot a spring suit blocks away by the saucy new tricks it carries on its hips—parapet pleats, rocket pockets, a Polaris drape, or a fan-tailed flare swinging in the back.

Also shouldering its way into the suit picture is the new round line of sleeves which replaces the squared-off look of the football half-back. What's in between all these curves at the top and bottom of a jacket is the hour-glass waistline, which seems to be losing inches in fashion's new deal.

Below curvy jackets, you'll find skirts as slender as any that you zipped yourself into during the wartime years. Another wartime trend surviving the 1946 fever for change is the two-toned combination of dark skirts and light-colored jackets.

TWO-TONED SUITS
Proof that the vogue continues is seen in the two-toned suits pictured, hand-picked from current collections to show the fling designers are having with the new, round silhouette. Beige tops navy to make the wool suit, left, on which designer Herbert Sondheim places bow pocket effects to create pepum-like fullness.

A white linen jacket tops a black wool skirt to make the Anthony Elotta-designed suit, right. The big news here is the fan-tailed flare of the jacket which, styled like a Russian blouse, has a row of black buttons dotting each sleeve.

For another example of hip array, see the gray alpaca suit with the Polaris drape, center, designed by Jo Copeland, who uses the swathing device to accent a long torso jacket.

MacDonald Back In Hollywood—Moving Slowly

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Jeanette MacDonald is back in Hollywood, but she isn't rushing into any film that may seem like a "natural" for her and Nelson Eddy. "I'm sticking to my word when I quit four years ago," she said. "I'm waiting for good, sensible stories, or none at all."
 The Philadelphia canary frankly admitted that her "Naughty Marietta" days are over, she and Nelson being 10 years older, and would feel strange playing such roles. At present, a musical version of "Reunion in Vienna" is being prepared for them at MGM. But the script has not reached the arranger's desk.

Fireman Makes Quick Drive to Extinguish Blaze at Own Home

CANADIAN, Jan. 26 (Special)—Troy Newton, city clerk, drove a fire truck home to lunch today, but it was an anxious drive for him. A fire alarm had just come in from his own home where Mrs. Newton had accidentally broken a gas connection setting fire to the floor covering. Patsy Micou, driving the punter, made a fast run in spite of the noon traffic, and the blaze was extinguished with small damage. Newton drove the hose and ladder truck out, but one of the other firemen returned it to the fire station leaving Newton to enjoy his lunch and his good fortune at having no serious fire damage to his home.

Miss O'Hara Is American Citizen

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Irish actress Maureen O'Hara won American citizenship today, but only after she and federal Judge J. F. T. O'Connor had settled a geographical dispute his way.
 It was a mere formality when the 25-year-old actress, whose legal name is Maureen Fitzsimons Price, was asked if she were willing to forswear allegiance to Great Britain.
 "But I owe no allegiance to England," she protested. "I'm Irish. I was born in Dublin in the Irish free state."
 Finally convinced by the judge that the Irish free state is generally regarded as a part of the British Empire, Maureen took the oath.

'Leave Her To Heaven,' Best-Selling Book, Comes to Local Screen Today

She loves, violently, jealously, possessively! A scene from "Leave Her To Heaven" co-starring Gene Tierney and Cornel Wilde.

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
 Without a doubt, "Leave Her To Heaven," by Ben Ames Williams is one of the greatest novels of our time and Fox has done a job fitting to the occasion in that studio's film version of the best-seller.
 Studio heads picked a great cast and production staff to bring the book to the screen. Such names as Gene Tierney, Cornel Wilde, Jeanne Crain, Vincent Price, Gene Lockhart dot the player list.
 "Then there's an outstanding production staff composed of Producer William Baer, Director John Stahl and Composer Alfred Newman."
 In glorious technicolor, "Leave Her To Heaven" is a masterpiece of screen entertainment that won't soon be forgotten.
 Gene Tierney turns in the best performance of her long career as "the jealous woman." The story concerns a girl who wanted, above everything else, a complete monopoly on the thoughts and interests of the man she loved.
 Jeanne Crain lends her great talents to the role of Miss Tierney's younger sister, who falls in love with her sister's husband.
 For Cornel Wilde, it's a real chance to show his acting talent in a modern, romantic story. Wilde, who scored a hit as Frederic Chopin in "A Song To Remember," really proves himself in the current production.
 Vincent Price, naturally, is outstanding in an important supporting role. Price's suave manner lends itself admirably to the plot of the story.
 "Leave Her to Heaven" shows Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the LaNora.

Pampa Cagers Win Two, Lose One During Past Week

By FRANK STALLINGS

The Harvester basketball team rounded out another week of playing with two wins and one loss. Monday night they defeated the Phillips Blackhawks 27-25 in a thriller at Phillips. Tuesday night Perryton was snowed under by the Harvesters in a 54-32 contest. Friday night the Spearman Rangers came to Pampa to defeat the Harvesters 27-23 in an evenly matched game.

The Harvester ball handling has shown constant improvement and when district competition starts next week the Harvesters should be in the best condition.

Blackhawks Fall 27-25 To Harvesters Monday

Last Monday the Harvesters beat the scrappy Phillips Blackhawks 27-25 in one of the most thrilling games of the year.

The game was the third played with the Blackhawks and the second win for the Harvesters from Phillips. It started as a fast game and the tempo of play never varied.

Both sides had their share of the 45 personal fouls and three men were fouled out. Dick Jackson of Phillips was given 12 free shots for being fouled.

The Harvesters consistently got the ball off the backboard and as a result of this had many chances to score. Earl Davis, tall center, was a great aid in this way. Bernie Brown's quick defensive play kept the Blackhawk forwards on their toes.

The ball was well handled and each boy had his share of passing and dribbling.

High scorer for the game was Ben Ernest of the Blackhawks with 12 field goals. Bernie Brown and Earl Davis made eight each to be high point men for the Harvesters. Pampa's B team also scored another victory as they defeated the Elackhawk B squad 29-19. Leon Crump, who played most of both games, was the B game high point man with 13 points.

Boys who played on the Blackhawk B team were Witt, Smith, Sullivan, Eldridge, Henderson, Millap, Pickens, McGuigan, Rinehart, Morrison, and Sisk.

Pampa's team consisted of Richard Hughes, Frank Green, Kelly Anderson, Calvin McAdams, Bobby Boyles, Leon Crump and A. Z. Griffin.

The A team for the Harvesters was made up of Randall Clay, Bill Spear, Bernie Brown, Earl Davis, Leon Gooch, Charles Laffoon, Don Humphries, and Leon Crump.

For Phillips, the A team included Ernest, D. Jackson, Williams, Seymour, Payne, Means, E. Jackson, and McClellan.

Pampa Scoring Spree Defeated Rangers 54-32

The Harvesters went on a scoring spree Tuesday night that sent the Ferryton Rangers reeling under a 54-32 trouncing. The Harvesters' ball handling was at the best of the year as each man strove to get the ball under the basket. This was one of the main factors in the Harvesters' high score.

Leon Gooch was game high point man with 17 points. He pulled one of the oddities of the year when he caught the ball and threw it in the wrong basket to tally 2 points for the Rangers. His total points equalled 19. Randall Clay was close behind Gooch with 16 points. Flowers scored nine to lead the Rangers scoring.

The game started fast and the scoring was fast all the way to the final whistle. One team would score and the other would retaliate almost immediately. The handling of the ball was extra good as neither team was caught napping on very many occasions. Each player on the teams played the kind of ball most spectators like to see. Although the Rangers' shooting was accurate, the Harvesters kept them from doing as much as was needed to overcome the Pampa lead.

Holding their record clean, the Pampa B team beat the Rangers second string in the opener 34-17 in a slow-starting tilt. The teams were slow to get the basket in the eighth and as the first quarter ended with the count 4-3. The Pampa boys soon got in the groove and by the end of the third quarter the score stood 23-13. High point man in the B game was Leon Crump with 12. These boys also had their hands and feet in the air and they put some fine playing playing in the records.

Playing in the B game were Frank Green, Calvin McAdams, Don Humphries, Kelly Anderson, Richard Hughes, Frank Green, Kelly Anderson, Calvin McAdams, Bobby Boyles, Leon Crump and A. Z. Griffin.

The Rangers B team included Hummer, Slaughter, Pletcher, Powell Brumback, and L. Slaughter.

The Harvesters consisted of Randall Clay, Bill Spear, Leon Gooch, Earl Davis, Bernie Brown, Charles Laffoon, and Leon Crump.

On the Ranger squad were Miller, Flowers, Jones, Scheil, Fuller, Powell and Hummer.

Volleyball Girls Win Over Lefors

The PHS girls defeated the Lefors girls 15-7, 15-7 and 18-16 in three games played at Lefors Friday afternoon. They were defeated by the faculty Thursday night 15-7, 15-8, 15-12, and 15-10.

With the score tied up at 16-16 Davis of Pampa served making it a score of 17-16 in favor of Pampa. The PHS girls then went on to take the game by making another point. Delores Herring of Lefors did a good job of serving.

Players for Lefors were: Arlene Gillman, Nina Pearl Maples, Jo Alice Tubbs, Mary Joyce McDaniels, Billie Wall, Juanita Usham, Vesta James, Leona Young, Judy Johnson, Delores Herring, Marguerite Crawford, and Billie Jean Pfel.

Coach of Lefors girls is Mrs. J. Hosa.

Playing for the faculty were: Dorothy Hoyle, Claris Gilck, Nina Owings, Angie Merideth, Jo Martin, and Mrs. Cecil B. George.

PHS girls were Reba Bain, Mary Myatt, Patsy Ferson, Norma Russell, Pat King, Beba Fagpa, Bernice Bond, Martha Maguire and Clara Davis.

The next game is scheduled for Monday night with the faculty.

Spearman Lynx Take 27-23 Game from Pampa

The Spearman Lynx were on the ball all the way Friday night when they defeated the Harvesters 27-23 in a tough game with a lot of the kind of ball playing people like to see. The Pampa five was unable to overcome the nine point lead held by the Lynx at the end of the third quarter.

The ball handling was very efficient and though the Lynx were in possession of the ball much of the time, Harvester watchfulness prevented the Spearman boys from shooting up close to the basket. The long shots, however, taken by the Lynx were what proved dangerous. Passing by the Lynx caught the Harvesters off guard many times but in other cases the ball was stolen from right under the Spearman five's noses.

Jones of Spearman poured 13 points through the hoop to lead in the game scoring. Randall Clay had seven. While only three of the Lynx were able to score, six Harvesters put one or more field goals through the basket.

The game was slow to get rolling and by the end of the first quarter the count stood only 5-3 in favor of the Harvesters. The second period proved more interesting as the Lynx pulled into the lead. At the half the score was 16-14. The Harvesters were held practically scoreless in the third quarter as the Lynx forged into the lead which Pampa never overcame. In a last desperate effort to at least tie the score the Harvesters brought the count to 23-27 just as the whistle signaled the game's end.

The Harvester B team won its eighth in a row by trampling the Spearman second team 51-14 in the opener. Leon Crump led the scoring 22 points followed by Bobby Boyles who put 15 points through the hoop. Playing for the Lynx B team were Davis, Sparks, Windom, McLain, Shielknicht, and Cayton.

The Pampa B team consisted of Laffoon, Green, Boyles, Crump, McAdams, Griffin, Hughes and Anderson.

Lynx A team players were Jones, Womble, Becker, Wilson, Crawford, and Davis.

The Pampa A team lineup was composed of Clay, Davis, Spear, Laffoon, Brown, Gooch and Crump.

Gorillas Win Close 21-20 Decision on Lefors

The Pampa Gorilla basketball team edged out a 21-20 victory over a fighting Groom five Wednesday night at Groom.

The Gorillas had little trouble with their opponents the first half, leading 11-3. Groom broke loose in a barrage of long shots and gained the lead for a short time in the second half.

High point man for the Gorilla hardcourt quintet was G. W. Gambelin with six points. Starting the game for the Pampa team was G. W. Gambelin, Malcolm Fagan, Charles Thornbrough, Harold Anderson, and Billy McArthur.

Billy Bond, Richard Gee, and Jimmy King saw action also during the contest.

National Honor Pledges To Be Selected in March

The selection of National Honor Society members will be held in March, members decided at a meeting Thursday.

Students are chosen by faculty members. To become a member, a student must have achieved the qualifications set up in the standards of the Society.

Membership is based on character, scholarship, service and leadership. The student must have spent the preceding year in Pampa, and candidates eligible must have scholarship rank in the first third of their respective classes. With these objectives in mind, students should strive to attain membership in this organization.

Mr. Olin Hinkle, head of the journalism department at West Texas State college will be the guest speaker at the banquet.

PHS Students In Musical Revue

PHS is well represented in Ken Bennett's musical show, "Top O' Texas Revue," which will be presented Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the junior high school auditorium.

High school soloists who appear in the show are Jack Dunham singing "He's From Texas," Libby Sturgeon, singing "Boogie Woogie Cowboy," Mike Alloway with "Welcome Home" and Billy Hutchinson singing "Two Stars."

In the chorus are Miss LaNelle Schuchenger, Joann Conrod, Beverly Candler, Jimmy Terrell, Bobby Keller, Lowell Stark, Miss Evelyn Thoma, Patsy Hubbard, Patsy Miller, Ginger Basset, Wesley Geiger, Margaret Jones and Helen Kaiser.

World Cooperation Assembly Theme

A study of a foreign language by every person and the adaptation of a universal language is necessary for a global and lasting peace, Don Lane said in assembly Wednesday while discussing the part languages will play in future world cooperation.

Eva Jean Anderson, also a member of the student panel, talked on the part journalism and literature will play in world cooperation stating that the Russian newspapers are, for the most part, government controlled, and the English news system is much like ours, and that China has no definite policy. She also said that through literature people of one nation could learn of the language and customs of other nations.

Jerome Kern Theme Of Next Broadcast

The student radio program for next week will be a presentation of the life and works of Jerome Kern. The student director is Mary Lou Cady.

This program will be under the supervision of the high school music department and will include two songs by the trio—Beverly Candler, Sybil Pierson and Libby Sturgeon—"Make Believe" and "Who," Wanda Gordon will play "Ole Man River" as a piano solo.

The second radio program of the year was broadcast last Friday. The theme of the program was Future World Cooperation. Music in World Cooperation was discussed by Beverly Baker, science by Dick McCune, languages by Don Lane, and literature by Elvi Jean Anderson.

Carl Glielriest acted as chairman and the program was in the form of a student panel.

Overstreet Elected Pin-Up; Troop, McAdams in Runoff

Mildred Overstreet was elected pin-up girl for PHS Wednesday during home room period. Because of a tie in the race for the pin-up boy, a final run-off between Bob Troop and Calvin McAdams will be held next Wednesday.

Mildred, who is this year's Fashion Queen and Basketball Queen, is a beauty with dark hair and eyes and a "peaches and cream" complexion. One of the friendliest girls in the school, she has a personality matching her beauty. Majoring in science, Mildred's hobby is dancing and her favorite subject is English.

Bob Troop is very interested in sports. He has played with the football team for three years, the track team for two years and describes hunting as his hobby. Bob was a candidate for best-looking boy last year, also. Math is his major, but he says that history is his favorite subject.

Calvin, 1945's pin-up winner, plays football and basketball. His hobby is decorating his car. English is Calvin's favorite subject and he lists Mrs. Torvie as his favorite teacher.

Ninety PHS Students Make First Semester Honor Roll

A total of ninety students made the mid-term honor roll. Thirty-seven had all grades above ninety and 53 all ninety's except one. Those who made all ninety's are: Elva Jean Anderson, Donna Beagle, Bernie Brown, Beverly Candler, Ivan Collier, Jeannine Conyers, Patricia Cook, Bobbie Joyce Davis, Margery Dixon, Nadene Edgerton, Julie Ann Edging, Edith E. Franks, Nicki Fraser, James Harrah, Martell Hawkins, Tiny Harhart, Donna Holden, Billie Jean Hollis, Margaret Jones, Don Lane, Wilma Mathus, Betty Meek, Emory Menefee, Leona Mills, Vauvucille Moore, Kelvin Neil, Bill Nellis, Quebell Nelson, Donna Jo Nestell, Lyman Osborne, Betty Jean Parker, Erna Lee Perkins, Altha Belle Steward, Katherine Talley, Ida Ruth Taylor, Barbara Walters, and Lois Yoder.

Funnies Most Popular Section In Daily Papers

Funnies seem to be the most popular part of the paper, according to PHS students. The Pampa Daily News is the most widely read. Students who list other papers as their news sources are Hilde Burden, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and Richard King. Billie Wanda Jackson, Billie Ann Mosley and Mary Rutherford, who read the Amarillo Globe, John Lee Wells reads the Daily Oklahoman and Marilee Conklin reads the Abilene Reporter News.

Leon Gooch, Richard King and Glenn Rosenfeld listed the sports page as their favorite sections. Miss Nina Owings, Bonnie Tucker and Reba Joyce Bain read just about all of the paper.

Those who read the funnies are Avis Kelley and Mary Rutherford who like LIT Abner best of all; Stan Simpson, who reads only Major Hoople; Tommy Chisholm, who likes Freckles; Dick Oden, who enjoys Alley Oop, and Hobie Pathoree, who reads Superman.

Social Events on Rise After Examinations

Very few social events were planned for the first part of January because of examinations and the beginning of the new semester, but parties are again getting into full swing.

The medical division of the Texas State Guard had a skating party in the gym Thursday night of last week.

The commanding officer, Maj. W. Purviance, and Capt. H. L. Wilder were present, as were the mothers and girls of the members.

It and Mrs. James Madeira were in charge of the refreshments. Miss Edith Kral's home room, 114, brought a lunch to school Tuesday night and made candy in the home-making lab, after which they went to the show.

Ingredients for the candy were brought by Jere Hancock, Nita Faye Taylor, Louise De Moss and Yvonne Innon.

Dancing, fortune telling, a cake walk, fishing and Bingo furnished entertainment at the freshman party held Saturday night in the cafeteria.

The home room presidents were in charge of making the plans. Mrs. E. O. Skrup is head sponsor of the freshmen.

Thursday rooms 100 and 107 will have a joint skating and dancing party in the gymnasium. The entertainment and refreshment committees are composed of Jack Langford, Bunny Shelton, Jean Pratt, Gene Shaw and Betty Jean Mosley.

Teachers of the home rooms are Mrs. Mabel Torvie and Miss Loraine Bruce. "This party is going to be one of the best of the year," Mrs. Torvie said last week.

Sagebrush by the Sage

You guys and gals are not being very cooperative with the Sage. Get on the beam and start some new romances so we will have more to discuss.

Sybil Jones and Martha Hatchet of Amarillo had a lot of fun in Pampa over the weekend. See Gladner, Dick Oden and Louis Stallings ought to know.

Beverly Candler is still running the little boys wild as none seem to know exactly how they stand.

Sage hears that Pat Miller has a crush on a tall, blond, senior football player. Come on, Pat, who is he?

Bobby Boyles simply refuses to get hooked, which is no fault of our freshman and sophomore grade girls.

Mary June Hunter and Betty Jane Boynton got several votes for Philip Anderson for Pin-up boy. How about that, Philip?

Wayne Johnson, new student from Amarillo, has been the talk with the girls since he enrolled here this semester. So far only Beverly Candler and Sybil Pierson have had the pleasure.

Mark Bizzard certainly can't take a hint! He is the dream boy of Bobbie Burns. You should appreciate that, Mark!

We will all miss Charlie Beard, who left for the Coast Guard last week. By the way—he and Betty

Fashion Lashes

By JOANN COONROD

Since no calamities have occurred in the fashions in the past week, we shall discuss hairdos seen breezing along the PHS halls.

Girl's ribbons have often been classified according to their dating standards, but have you ever heard this one about the way a boy parts his hair and the particular style he wears it?

Middle-going steady left side—not interested. Right side—steady & date. No part—playing the field. Crew cut—likes short romances and plenty of them.

Shaved head—is carrying a torch; so "hands off". Curly hair—is girl shy and tries to cover it up.

Libby Sturgeon has suddenly gone in for pigtails and looks colorful when she wears her big plaid shirt. According to screen stars, long hair is again coming into style.

Alberta Williams, Zita Kennedy, Joan Appleby and Ida Ruth Taylor have a sum on girls who have just gotten new feather cuts.

Several of the freshmen boys—Jerry Gillis, Jack Oliphant and Jim Bill Windsor—have been trying to change the color of their hair. No results have been reported lately, but they are still trying, we hear.

Joan Hawkins, cute senior, has recently cut her "shining blond tresses" and the result was very becoming.

With this we'll say, "So long. See you next week."

Prigmore are no longer going steady.

D. C. Conklin and Mary Jane Chambers seem to have it pretty bad about each other.

"Forky" Parkinson is the typical waltz! He has no special girl but acts like each is his true love.

Frances Jean Gilbert has been looking very happy. Reason: that good looking boy from Amarillo has been to see her again.

Could Jim Wilson and Marjett Wenger be going back together? They have been talking in the halls all last week. Bryce Lively was with Marjett one night and they make a darling couple.

Bob Carmichael has been in love on a three day leave from the Navy. Bob graduated from PHS last spring.

We think that "old steady" couple Don Rowe and Georgina Crogan are cute together.

Seen at the basketball games this week were Bonnie Williams and Dorothy Kober and Bob Trapp and Beverly Candler. What a treat with Rita Ruth Taylor and Ida Ruth Taylor was seen with Pat O'Rourke. Two of the newer couples were Charles Beard and Beverly Baker and Joan Hawkins and Jimmy Conroy.

On a recent date when Miss Jones asked for fifth period literature class. "What shape is England in?" Bill Cole (a bright student) wrote:

University Professor Says College Is Series of Experiences in Living

Attorney General Urges Support of March of Dimes

NEW YORK, Jan. 26—United States Attorney General Tom C. Clark today called upon the American people to support the 1946 March of Dimes, January 14-31, conducted this year in memory of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, founder of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

In a letter to Foundation President Basil O'Connor, Mr. Clark said:

"The greatness of the work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is known to all of us. I have been an enthusiastic supporter of it for many years.

"The accomplishments of the National Foundation constitute an outstanding example of the tremendous good that can come from a national community effort.

"The March of Dimes will always call to mind Franklin D. Roosevelt. The stamp of his great personality and courage will forever be upon the drive to eliminate infantile paralysis.

"I know that the nation will remember him and his championship of this great cause and will contribute generously to the drive."

Infantile paralysis is one of the most expensive diseases known to medicine, and few families can afford to pay for extended treatment.

In nearly all of the 3,070 counties of the nation, the National Foundation has local chapters ready to provide, through recognized agencies, medical care and treatment for infantile paralysis victims regardless of age, race, creed or color.

Game Commission Studies Problem Of Deer Preserves

AUSTIN, Jan. 26—There are too many deer some places in Texas, they are runty and getting runty, and there are too few deer in other places. The game, fish and oyster commission is wrestling with the problem of what to do about it.

As an immediate expedient, it directed Executive Secretary Howard Dodgen to step up trapping operations, under which deer from overcrowded ranges are moved to areas where there is more food and fewer deer. The same conditions hold for antelope, and the same immediate remedy was ordered.

But for its long range plan, it will ask the legislature to authorize to permit tighter control of hunting in some areas, the establishment of large public hunting preserves for the benefit of poor boy hunters, and authority to permit the killing of doe deer.

Commissioner Gordon Stewart of Comora, Commissioners Frank Jones of Marfa and Dr. Will Watt of Austin, reported that in many hill country sections especially, the population of does and spike bucks is so heavy that ranchers are complaining they are taking over the range. They claim they can not ranch profitably because the deer are eating up all the forage.

In the trans-Pecos antelope country, Jones said, revenue from the limited number of leases permitted does not compensate ranch owners for the cost in feed consumed by these game animals.

One plan to raise the permitted kill of antelopes from 1,000 from the present 500, and the price per license from $25 to $40 was discussed, but no action taken. It was brought out in the discussion that deer lease returns are controlled by law, but that additional charges, such as for cabins and food imposed by the ranchers, still does not compensate ranchers whose first interest is raising and selling cattle, sheep and goats, wool and mohair.

Half of the optic nerve of a human eye goes to either side of the brain. In lower animals the entire nerve crosses over to the opposite side of the brain.

AUSTIN, Jan. 26—College is becoming not an academic preparation for life, but a series of experiences in living, Dr. R. L. Sutherland, director of the Hogg foundation at the University of Texas writes in a current pamphlet titled "Putting the Individual Together."

"The purpose of college should be to so educate persons that they will have intensity and character in all relations, will be successful vocationally, and will be responsible citizens," he says.

Dr. Sutherland lists newer methods of helping the student practice the ideas he hears in class discussions or reads in library assignments as these: (1) Internship experience—an idea old in medicine and nursing, but now becoming established in other fields; (2) Community service—not for preparation professionally for certain types of work, but rather to increase the student's insight and skill in general relationship; (3) Campus experience—Student government, for example, is no longer an extracurricular activity in which students can try, in practice, the principles of government discussed in class; (4) New evaluation—Grading should be a comparison of a student's present attainment; with his own previous work and with his individual capacity for growth, as well as an evaluation of his ability in cooperative undertakings; (5) Creative work—While in their own laboratory work, students are urged to invent or originate new methods and plans. This method of instruction calls for new types of teachers. They must be skilled as group counselors, and must be examples of well-balanced living themselves.

German Scientists Are Being Quizzed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—The half hundred German scientists brought here last fall to tell what they know about such things as rockets and atoms are being quizzed at some of the nation's leading research centers.

It was learned today that the scientists have been grouped into teams of specialists and taken to such places as a rocket testing ground laboratory in the west and to various air installations.

The war department has steadfastly declined to amplify its cryptic announcement of last October 1 which said only that "certain outstanding German scientists and technicians" were being brought to the United States. Saying they were selected "from those fields where German progress is of significant importance to us and in which dominant role the department added that the Germans came on a voluntary basis.

18 Nips Arraigned Before U. S. Court

SHANGHAI, Jan. 26—Eighteen impassive Japanese, including a major general, were arraigned before a U. S. military commission today for "inhuman and brutal atrocities" against three American fliers in the first war crimes case in the China theater.

They must stand trial for their lives for the deaths of the three unidentified Americans, who were prodded and beaten through the streets of Hankow Dec. 16, 1944, and their bodies then cremated.

Yes, I was in love with him, but that was last summer, and you know what a swell swimmer he is!
