Harmful Fuel Makers Hit

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The federal government is getting ready to crack down on manufacturers of harmful and worthless concoctions sold to motorists as gasoline savers and anti-freeze solutions, according to T. E. Allen, manager of the car service department of the American Automobile association.

Appealing sometimes to the patriotism of motorists and sometimes to his sense of economy, these processors of sub-standard goods have sprung up from one end of the country to the other, says Allen. At the moment, harmful anti-freeze solutions are the primary worry.

As for the gasoline savers, he said numerous kinds of preparations were showing up and that their producers were claiming anywhere from 10 to 40 per cent increased mileage per gallon.

5 Pampa Women Join WAACS AS Drive Is Pushed

Five women from Pampa, whose names are withheld until physical examination is passed at Lubbock Saturday, joined the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps at the Pampa recruiting station last night.

Second Lieutenant Rose L. Smothers is making a hurried tour of the Panhandle and has signed up 17 women in the last day and a half, bringing the total up to 67 since January 4. This record was made despite the fact that she took time out to go to Dallas for a recruiting conference.

She is looking for women who have the qualities that make good officers. The WAAC has recently been expanded six times its original size, bringing the total recruited to 150,000. Needed by the corps in the near future will be 13,000 officers.

At the present time all WAACS go into the corps as auxiliaries for four weeks of basic training. They pay received while in basic training is $50 per month, plus clothing, room and quarters, medical and dental care.

This equals $150 in civilian life. After an officer is commissioned she receives $216 per month plus clothing, medical and dental care. Those who do not make officers' candidate school, can advance to first and chief leaders receiving a base pay of $138 plus all expenses. Each WAAC receives $265 worth of clothing.

Women are vitally needed in the WAAC to serve in the United States and abroad. Each woman who enters the corps will release a man for active combat duty.

Especially sought as recruits now are women who are aircraft electricians, instrument specialists, propeller specialists, metal workers, parachute riggers, weather observers, radio mechanics and operators, armorers, bombsight repairmen, gunsight mechanics, photographers, glider instructors.

Lieutenant Smothers was in Borger this morning, thence in Panhandle, 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. The remainder of her itinerary was Claude, 5:30-6:30; Clarendon, 8 p. m.; Amarillo, 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. Friday; Spearman, 4-6; Dumas, 8-10; then into Lubbock for the Saturday morning tests and induction.

She came to Pampa yesterday from Canadian and Miami, arriving here at 5:10 p. m., one hour and 10 minutes past the scheduled time, as interest shown in other towns delayed her departure from Pampa.

Driving the lieutenant's car was Pfc. T. G. Webb, of the Pampa army recruiting station.

First Enlisted Man Leaves Pampa Base For Cadet Training

Private First Class Carl J. Wells has the distinction of being the first enlisted man at Pampa's new army air force advanced flying school to qualify as an aviation cadet.

Now en route to the San Antonio aviation cadet center for classification as either pilot, navigator or bombardier, Cadet Wells already has a varied army career behind him.

On November 21, 1941, Wells answered his country's call and enlisted at Fort Crook, Neb. Since then he has served at the Lubbock army flying school, South Plains army flying school, also at Kessler Field, Miss., Scott Field, Ohio, and Pampa's twin engine army flying school.

As Pfc. at Pampa, Wells conducted radio station KPDR's "Army Hour" twice weekly, proving himself versatile as master of ceremonies and vocalist.

Cadet Wells' wife resides at 1035 Penrose street, Detroit, Mich., and his father, the Rev. Carl Johan Wells, lives at Belden, Neb.

Senate Flays Lack Of Barges

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The senate defense investigating committee charged today there had been "inexcusable" delay and confusion in carrying out a barge construction and conversion program designed to relieve the east coast's oil shortage.

"There was simply too much talk and not enough action," the committee said.

Recalling that President Roosevelt last spring appointed a committee to study the barge problem, the investigating group, which is headed by Senator Truman (D-Mo.), declared in an interim report: "The committee believes that there has been unnecessary delay and confusion in carrying out a program essential to the national welfare. The delay which occurred prior to the recommendations of the committee appointed by the president is most regrettable, but the delay which occurred after that committee and after its recommendations had been received by the president is inexcusable."

"The program recommended by the president's committee and approved by the president ought not to have been discarded on the navy's suggestion that high-powered diesels necessary for motive power could not be obtained without exploring whether existing tugboats and tugboat power could be made available by a transfer from other uses without exploring whether steam engines, gas engines or smaller diesel engines could be made available."

Marine Patrol Kills 100 Japs In Pacific

ON THE WESTERN FRONT OF GUADALCANAL, Dec. 30 (Delayed) (AP)—Another story of American courage and skill in combat came out of the Guadalcanal jungle today when a marine patrol reported it had killed 100 Japanese, while the American losses were only nine killed and 17 wounded. It was led by Maj. Ewart Scott Laue, of Seattle, Wash.

Another small marine patrol returned today after killing 17 Japanese.

Soft Wheat Price Fixed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Wickard today authorized the sale of government-owned soft wheat at prices designed to help stabilize the grain at levels which would allow millers to sell flour under government price ceilings without being squeezed.

The soft wheat will be offered at parity prices, or 23 cents a bushel above the 1942 wheat loan value. Those prices will be $1.50 a bushel for No. 1 soft white wheat at Kansas City and $1.55 for the same grade at St. Louis and Chicago. No. 2 soft red wheat will be offered at $1.50 at Kansas City and $1.55 at St. Louis and Chicago.

Millers will be required to pay transportation costs from these terminals.

Nazis Build Subs Faster Than We Can Blast Them

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The German navy, it was learned on high authority today, is turning out submarines faster than the sea and air forces of the United Nations can destroy them. This despite the heavy bombing of German factories from British and American bases in England.

At the same time, the United Nations are building cargo and transport ships faster than they are being sunk. They also are building escort and patrol vessels—destroyers, corvettes and subchasers—at about top speed.

The number of enemy submarines operating in the Atlantic at any one time is more than 100, which represents possibly from one-third to one-fourth of their actual sub strength. The rest of their underwater craft are either operating in other waters or at home for repairs and crew relief.

Quartet Who Held Up Soldiers Are Sought

NORTH KINGSTON, R. I., Jan. 14. (AP)—Four men who held up an unarmed Army dispatch rider at gunpoint and rifled through official army papers, only to return them with the remark that "it isn't here," still were at large today despite a state police dragnet.

There was no indication of what the men were seeking in their mysterious foray, nor any clue to their identity.

The men forced the soldier, Private Raymond L. Mosher, of Springfield, Mass., to drive his small army truck for more than a mile, a gun at his head, to a secluded lane where they carefully examined the documents. Then they sped away in a small sedan.

State police, upon being notified of the hold-up, posted guards on all highways leading out of the area and referred the case to the Federal Bureau of Investigation office in Providence.

Mosher said that all the men wore caps. Two wore Mackinaw type coats and the others, dark overcoats.

Air Base Hospital Needs Radios, Ash Trays, Tables, What Have You

There are 21 items wanted by the hospital service council for the benefit of the Pampa air base hospital.

Donation of a piano by Mrs. Dan Smith and a radio by Tommie Stone, was acknowledged by the council at its second meeting held in the city commission room Monday night.

Items wanted here: Radios, phonographs, records, bedside tables, ping pong games, writing boards, harmonicas, banjos, chairs and tables, metal ash trays, medicine balls, softballs, playing cards, checkers, chess, current magazine and home town newspaper subscriptions, books, puzzles, furnishings for the nurses quarters, materials for handicraft.

The idea is that Uncle Sam doesn't supply his army hospitals with this equipment, according to the council, and it is up to the council to obtain these articles for the men and for the nurses.

Persons with articles to donate are asked to see C. P. Pursley, council chairman of Pampa, who has arranged to collect supplies at his building, 211 N. Ballard.

One can donate an article and put his name on the item, or the same thing can be done by a club, association, or other group.

There are nine organizations represented in the hospital service council, which was initiated by the Pampa chapter of the Red Cross.

Only Small Supplies Are Reaching China

LONDON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Dr. K. C. George Yeh, London director of the Chinese ministry of information, said today that war supplies reaching China are "ridiculously small."

His statement was made in commenting on President Roosevelt's address to the United States congress in which he said that they are flying as much lend-lease material into China as ever traversed the Burma road, now controlled by the Japanese.

"The Burma road never reached its maximum capacity owing to various reasons," Dr. Yeh said at a press conference, "but even if it had, the supplies would have been far from enough, and whatever is going into China today is ridiculously small."

Winston Savage Principal Speaker At P-TA Meeting

Winston Savage, principal of Junior High School, spoke at the P. T. A. meeting Tuesday afternoon at the school. His subject was "Investing in the Future Through Buying Bonds and Stamps Now." He stated that our national debt was not like a personal one as the payments could be over a period of years and the tax load would be distributed among many.

This year the income tax Americans are to pay is about 9 percent of our total income while the English are paying 50 per cent and the Germans 70 per cent or more.

Our investments in bonds, he concluded, and stamps will help pay for the war, form a savings account, teach children to save and level off business at the end of the war.

Miss Evelyn Thoma led the group in singing several songs. Miss Ida Mae Harris' pupils presented a playlet, "Good American Citizens." Joan Lunford played several numbers on the accordion.

Mrs. R. G. Allen, dressed in a Red Cross uniform, spoke on the American Red Cross. She stressed taking first aid, home nursing and nutrition courses. She told of the work of the production room and stressed the fact that helpers were needed.

Mildred Carter and Pvi. Billy Sherwood Wedding Announced

Special to The News.—The wedding of Miss Mildred Carter and Pvi. Billy G. Sherwood has been announced this week.

The ceremony took place December 6, at Yuma, Arizona.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter of Oklahoma City, and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sherwood of this city.

Attending the couple were Pvt. and Mrs. Bill Ebert of San Diego, California.

The bride wore an English tailored suit of marine blue with black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. For something old she wore a white gold brooch set with sapphires, which belonged to her mother, and for something borrowed, a yellow gold comb.

Mrs. Sherwood is a graduate of the Oklahoma City High school, and later took nurse's training.

Private Sherwood attended Shamrock High school and played football with the Shamrock Irishmen. He was one of the first young men to volunteer from Shamrock and has been with the U. S. Marines since April 10, 1941.

The young couple is in Shamrock and will return to San Diego, Calif., January 23, where he is stationed.

This bib-type overall outfit was a play suit—until it was redesigned for safe use in war production plants. Under the direction of Allis-Chalmers industrial experts, the upper part of the legs were changed to give more room and comfort. Pockets were removed from the front to prevent catching in machinery. With the overall is worn a safety cap with elastic back, so that hair can be comfortably locked under, out of danger from machinery.

Soldiers Would Be Trained After War

BOSTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Men in the armed forces would be retrained in the services after the war for retraining in civilian pursuits and then be mustered out at a controlled rate under a plan advocated by Dr. Joseph W. Barker, special assistant to the secretary of the nation.

Release of approximately 10,000 men at step-rate intervals would tend to prevent dislocations to the nation's economic machinery, he told the Northeastern university convocation in a prepared address.

This is an example of the work being done by the Home Demonstration club members throughout Gray county. Mrs. O. G. Smith of Kingsmill Community Home Demonstration club is holding a cabbage head which she grew.

More gardens, better gardens and more work was given to food production by the home demonstration clubs throughout Gray county during 1942 than in many years past. Ninety days of the Gray county agent's time was spent on all phases of nutrition, food production, preparation and preservation.

Theft Of Tire Felony Under Proposed Law

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 14. (AP)—The 48th legislature today started its lengthy cut-and-dried but constitutionally required canvass of the general election votes for governor and lieutenant governor.

The two houses stood at ease while a joint committee tabulated the returns—already well-known to the public—which will be submitted later in the day to a combined senate-house session which will declare that Coke R. Stevenson was duly elected governor and John Lee Smith lieutenant governor.

The process is a formality which must be disposed of prior to the inaugural ceremonies next week.

Governor Stevenson meanwhile sent to the senate for confirmation the names of 137 appointees to state boards, commissions and committees all of which have been previously announced. The appointments were made since he assumed the governorship in 1941.

With organization only partially completed chief interest centered on the naming of committees by presiding officers of house and senate. Meanwhile members took advantage of the hiatus by introducing or filing for introduction numerous bills which will provide grist for the law-making mill which will swing into action fully next week.

Both house and senate members prepared bills for reappointing the state for legislative purposes.

Liquor legislation, following the governor's suggestion for a curfew law, also was in the making.

Warlike influences were felt immediately in many bills.

One by Senator Rogers Kelley of Edinburg would make the theft of pneumatic tires—a rare commodity under rationing—a felony carrying a penitentiary sentence.

This session may be unusual in that new taxes may not be voted. In fact, tax relief appeared possible. Senator Karl Lovelady of Meridian introduced a bill reducing the state property tax for support of the Confederate pension fund from seven cents to one-half of one cent per $100 valuation.

During its trip, the Germans claimed, the U-boat had made a 10-day American merchant ship off Capetown.

Funeral Services Are Held For Developer Of Panhandle Region

Funeral services for Charles Samuel Seiber, 78, of Miami, who died of pneumonia in a local hospital Wednesday, were conducted at 3 p. m. today at the Miami Methodist church by the Rev. E. Lee Stanford, pastor, and the Rev. Robert Boshen, pastor of the Pampa Presbyterian church. Burial was in the Miami cemetery.

Mr. Seiber was born in Kansas City, Mo., May 29, 1865. In 1873 the Seiber family moved to the frontier town of Caldwell, Kas.; then in 1880 the elder Seiber secured a government contract to carry mail by stagecoach from Pond Creek to Ft. Cantonment on the north fork of the Canadian, 70 miles east of Woodward. Sam, then 15, was the stagecoach driver.

The Seibers moved to the fort, established a dairy, sold milk to the soldiers' families. When the fort was abandoned, the Seibers followed the soldiers to Ft. Elliott, in Wheeler county and launched another successful dairy enterprise.

First ranch house in Roberts county was built by J. C. Seiber, his sons, Sam and J. L. Seiber, who died in 1936. The elder Seiber, built the first hotel in Roberts county, the Miami House. Among guests who stayed at the hotel were Lieut. Gov. J. N. Browning, Temple Houston and District Judge Frank Willis.

Sam Seiber owned the first telephone system in the Panhandle, established the first filling station, taxi, and rent-a-car agency in the Miami valley area. He and Will Davis owned two four-cylinder Reo cars, renting them to cattle buyers and peddlers at $30 a day.

In 1910, Mr. Seiber opened a drug store in Miami and was active in its operation until a week ago.

Fall brothers were Dan Graham, and Bill O'Loughlin, Everett Hodges, Horace Smith and C. P. Pursley.

Arrangements were by Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

Culbertson cautioned that the nation "might run shy of sweet crudes" in an interview called for the conversion of larger quantities of sour crudes into aviation gasolines and other processed products.

"Our refineries are running at from 70 to 76 per cent of capacity now," he explained, and unless we just don't see how we can supply the demand six months from now, when the refineries will be operating at capacity. And they must operate at capacity when the really big military demands start coming in."

"In order that we may be fully prepared to meet the contingencies that will arise, it seems to me that the industry should be immediately called upon to begin producing, refining and storing substantially large and increased quantities of crude gasoline and other products," stated Thompson.

Jester emphasized that production of sweet aromatic crudes can not be increased and suggested that West Texas crude types should be substituted in part for the production of high octane gasolines.

February nominations increased 11,520 barrels for District 2 (southwest Texas) and 12,238 for east Texas over the January figures, Thompson revealed, while District 8 (West Texas) nominations slumped 36,049. Increases of 7,969 for the gulf coast district and 5,155 for District 4 (southwest Texas) were recorded. Nominations for other districts were substantially firm.

Libyan desert, with Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's 8th army gathering strength for the final 190-mile drive to Tripoli.

In Tunisia, French headquarters reported that French troops killed 10 Axis soldiers and captured others in a surprise raid on an enemy outpost at Sidi Arat, 87 miles south of Tunis.

Action in the main Tunis-Bizerte zone in northern Tunisia continued to be restricted by mud and rain.

In the Russian campaign, Soviet dispatches said the Red armies had advanced 50 miles due north from the Georgievsk-Mineralnyye Vody region in the Caucasus, smashed waves of savage Nazi counterattacks on the lower Don, and inflicted heavy punishment on the Germans southwest of Velikie Luki on the central (Moscow) front.

Red army headquarters meanwhile jibed at German claims that newly-captured Soviet prisoners were chiefly 15-year-old boys and men of 60 or more.

"How then could such an army inflict grave defeats upon the multi-millioned German army and hurl hundreds of kilometers westward, liberate about 2,000 populated places in the Stalingrad area, and recapture in the course of stiff engagements Nalchik, Moxdok, Mineralnyye Vody and many other towns?" the Russian command asked.

"It appears that the German army has sunk so low that it retreats, abandoning tanks, guns, trucks and ammunition dumps in the face of 15-year-old boys and old men wearing Red army greatcoats."

Mexican Gas Sales Zoom

AUSTIN, Jan. 14. (AP)—Texans and other Americans who can't get it in the U. S. A. are saying "fill 'er up" in some Mexican border towns, investigators for the motor fuel tax division of the state comptroller's department have been informed.

They report three filling stations in Nuevo Laredo, which were selling an average of 200 gallons a day before gas rationing in this country, are now dispensing more than 1,000.

Heaviest trade is on the week end. In Matamoros the figure has also jumped to 1,000 gallons and in Reynosa, where outlets are fewer, it averages 575. Many cars with Texas and other U. S. license plates were noticed in the border towns, they said. The price is usually about 16 cents a gallon in American money.

Department officials pointed out that this is not a "black market" operation and that under present law it is permissible to bring 30 gallons into the country in the vehicle's tank, but tax must be paid and report made on any gas entering in containers.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—The other day the University of Illinois hockey team had to call off a game with Minnesota because it had only seven players available after they had met once. It also called off the rest of its schedule.

Gordon Gilmore of the St. Paul Dispatch provides further information that both teams wanted to let the Illinois use freshmen so the second game could be played as an "exhibition" but the Western conference faculty representative said to because of the Big Ten freshman rule. . . . This, Gilmore points out, caused Minnesota to waste some 17,000 man miles of transportation. It also leads us to wonder what kind of rains were meant in those high-frown speeches we've heard about the valuable "trainings" offered by college athletics.

Ricks appeared in the sports section with one black eye, one swollen cheek, one split lip and assorted bruises. . . . "We've got one lightweight that's pretty good," he mumbled. "I know that. But you'll have to take the coaches' word about the rest of them."

Causing no little confusion in local fight circles is the fact that California Jackie Wilson, who meets Jake LaMotta Friday, isn't a native of California and isn't named Jackie. He's George Dudley Wilson, born in Spencer, N. C., and brought up in Cleveland. . . . And no matter what happens in the Chalky Wright-Joe Feralta fuss, it'll be a Mexican standoff. Both were born in Mexico. . . . When Montana U. lost its second basketball coach of the season, the job was turned over to Eddie Chinske, Missoula high school pilot. Chinske handles the high school team in the afternoon and the university at night, making him probably the only college coach with his own farm system.

Bears Trip Aggie Quint 66 To 58

By The Associated Press
 The University of Texas Longhorns remain unbeaten in Southwest conference basketball campaigning, having come from behind last night to put away Southern Methodist university's Mustangs, 41 to 37, while the Baylor Bears surprised with a 66 to 58 win over the Texas Aggies.

Neither the Longhorns nor the Mustangs were hitting the basket well, but Texas pulled away in the last four minutes after SMU had taken an early lead of 10 to 4. The Mustangs were in front, 16 to 15, at the half.

The Aggie-Baylor game went overtime and Baylor gathered eight points during the extra period as the Aggies lost their first conference game of the season.

Frankie Edwards scored 24 points for the Bears, while Pete Watkins was racking up 15 and Lee Huffman 14 for the Cadets.

Johnsons Set Scoring Pace

Special to The NEWS.
CANYON, Jan. 14—The two Johnson brothers, Clark and Charles, are making points for West Texas State at a pace which makes them as one of the greatest brother combinations in current basketball.

They alternated as top scorers in three straight victories, two over Hardin-Simmons university (69-38 and 68-40) and one over the University of New Mexico (60-47).

Clark Johnson, 6 foot 4 inch center who probably will be a forward when 6 foot 9 inch Ray Ellefson becomes eligible shortly, hit a high mark as he scored 23 points against Hardin-Simmons.

Brother Charles, who made 16 points on the same night, got even hotter against New Mexico and scored 25 points. He is a guard.

Captain William Stockman continues to be a consistent scorer from a guard position. Ledra Jacobs, ace forward who has been out with a leg injury, is once more available although in need of practice.

A feature of recent games has been the insertion of a freshman (Sam averaging 6 feet 4 1/2 inches in height. These giants have played the opposition on even terms before retiring while the regulars went in for the kill.

Three more games are on the schedule of the Tall Texans before they leave for Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia on their major road trip of the season. They are being coached by Gus Miller to attain maximum strength for that journey, with all hands eligible and all cripples recovered. Early season reverses gave a picture which was not displeasing to Miller, who likes the underdog status in any sport.

Pampa Fighters Are Invited To Enter Boxing Tournament
 Amateur boxers from Pampa and vicinity will be given an opportunity to secure information and also to enter the Amarillo Golden Gloves Boxing tournament Saturday when a tourney representative will be in Pampa. He can be contacted by telephoning 1507-W. Tournament dates are Jan. 27, 28, and 29.

The tournament is open to anyone over 16 years old who has never boxed for money. Entries between 16 and 21 must have a release given by parent or guardian before they can enter.

Since there will be no Golden Gloves tournament held in Pampa this year, boxers in that area will be eligible to participate in the Amarillo tournament.

Some of the top boxers of past years in the Panhandle have come out of Pampa, LeFors, Miami and Canadian and more are expected this year.

The tournament representative will have entry blanks and AAU membership applications with him Saturday.

A number of entry blanks have been mailed to the Pampa Advanced twin-engine bomber field and it is expected that a full team of soldiers will enter the tournament to battle soldiers in arms from the Childress bombardier school, Amarillo six forces technical school and the Dalhart glider school.

Only cost of entering the tournament is 25 cents for AAU membership, which is compulsory before a boxer can participate. All out-of-town boxers will be furnished hotel accommodations in the Herring or Amarillo hotels and meals free of charge as long as they remain in the tournament.

The bouts will be held in the auditorium USO which has a seating capacity of 3,500.

Individuals, clubs, or schools may send entries. Shamrock has already entered a full team. Follett has registered four entries and other towns have applied for blanks.

The Amarillo tourney will be the only one in the Panhandle and winners in all divisions will be eligible to compete in the state tournament at Fort Worth with all expenses paid.

DiMaggio Will Enter Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—Baseball fans will get their usual quota of major league games during the 1943 season, unless present plans fall through, but they may have to tour the globe for a glimpse of their favorite stars.

The baseball world still was waving goodbye to Pete Reiser, the slugger center fielder of the Brooklyn Dodgers, yesterday when Joe DiMaggio, who operates in a similar capacity for the New York Yankees, decided to follow Pistol Pete into the armed forces.

There, in the service of their country, these two valuable performers who once wore the batting crowns of their respective leagues will join such diamond greats as Enos Slaughter and Johnny Beazley, standouts of the last world series, Ted Williams, Hank Greenberg, Bob Feller and dozens of others.

His marital problems solved, DiMaggio announced in Reno, Nev., where his wife had taken up residence for the usual reason, that "everything is straightened out," and "I'm going to try to get into the armed forces in the near future."

With Reiser, the Dodgers have sent 15 men into the service and are topped in that respect in the National League only by the Philadelphia Phils, who have watched 17 of their players march off to war.

The latest count disclosed a total of 201 major leaguers now actually in the Army, Navy, Coast Guard or Marine corps, 116 of them from the American League.

Detroit Is Out Of Doghouse

DETROIT, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Detroit Tiger finally got out of Commissioner K. M. Landis' doghouse today after doing a three-year stretch for irregularities in farm operations.

That's what the judge called it on Jan. 14, 1940, when he cracked down on the Tigers in a momentous decision unmatched in baseball annals that set 90 players free on any strings held by Detroit.

Furthermore, the white-maned commissioner nixed a three-year embargo on Detroit dealings with a dozen or more minor league affiliates involved in the decision and likewise prohibited the Tigers from making any passes at the emancipated talent. The time limit was set at today.

With Hank Greenberg and 17 others in the nation's service, the Tigers could use some reinforcement, and General Manager Jack Zeller would derive personal satisfaction from getting back some of the 90.

Jimmy Dykes Pays $300 Of $500 Fines Collected By A. L.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14 (AP)—The American league, taking inventory of baseball fines assessed in 1942, has concluded that times are very tough indeed.

"We didn't take in over $500 in fines last season," said President Will Harridge, "and Jim Dykes (Chicago White Sox manager) contributed $300 of that total."

He laughed and added "it's terrible how tough times are getting."

AUSTIN, Jan. 14 (AP)—State and regional competition for Texas high school athletes is being planned despite abolition of county and district track and field meets. It was announced by E. J. Kidd, athletic director of the Interscholastic league.

Under the new plan schools will have their own eliminations, sending those who survive to regional meets at designated centers.

The Colleges Join Up

The nation's colleges and universities have been doing a good job in aiding the war effort while attempting to educate their students academically.

Now, under a plan announced jointly by the war and navy secretaries, a selected group of such institutions is to be mobilized into what might be described as total war effort.

Contracts will be made with these schools to provide instruction in technical courses prescribed by the army and navy to young men in active service, wearing uniforms, paid by the government and under military discipline.

Inevitably this is going to interrupt the placid progress of liberal education. As long as these institutions remain training agencies for the fighting services, so long will Latin and Greek, pure logic and philosophical ethics, contemporary economics and the appreciation of literature and art and music be subordinated to the intensely practical sciences.

That is unfortunate, but War Secretary Stimson has given what seems a completely satisfactory reason.

"The immediate necessity is to win this war, and unless we do that there is no hope for liberal education in this country. The necessity of limiting (liberal) education in the colleges during this war is very painful. It has been accepted as a necessity."

Where totalitarianism controls, there is no liberal education. There is no education at all in the true sense. There is only propaganda outside the field of natural sciences.

The choice, in baldest terms, might well be between two or three years of liberal education for a few—and then intellectual slavery for all—or the temporary partial suspension of the aesthetics so that thereforward truth may be free.

Also, getting down to the very practical, there are more than a few economically weaker colleges which might not be able to survive the war but for the financial support which the military program will give. At least some of these are of high academic caliber, and worth saving.

So we can join with Mr. Stimson in the hope and belief that after the war many of today's soldiers will return to school, to become students and eventually leaders in the field of liberal education.

Here's How, You Thumbers

Emly Post has placed her imprimatur on the thumbing of noses by "lady defense workers" from "gentlemen motorists." The practice has become good etiquette. Mrs. Post has informed the Office of War Information, because it has become good patriotism.

But—the lady mustn't thumb. She should display her defense identification tag. She should "tag" only B and C gasoline ration cards, preferably with several vacancies so that more than one lady can ride. She should thumb (or tag?) only at trolley or bus stops. And talk should be confined to the lovely weather or the charming scenery. Nothing personal, please!

And, all kidding far, far aside, nothing about the job. Casual tips help the Nips.

Jugoslavian Split

Apparently there is serious trouble between two anti-German groups in Jugoslavia—the Mikhailovitch army recognized by the refugee government in exile as well as by all United Nations except Russia; and the so-called Partisans sponsored and led by the Communists.

We are asked, because the Soviet cause and the Anglo-American cause are one, to accept the Stalinists as trusted bedfellows.

When such proposals sound most innocent and enticing, let's remember how much of Jugoslavia's inadequate strength is being dissipated in guerrilla friction instigated by Moscow to serve its own ends.

The Nation's Press

Final returns of last month's voting, reported yesterday by the Associated Press, confirm the conclusion that defection from the Democratic party was the decisive factor in the outcome of the congressional elections. The Republicans came within nine votes of capturing a majority of the house of representatives. But they did not do so as the result of any absolute increase of popular support for Republican candidates. Actually, the total vote polled by Republicans in the house elections was 3,000,000 less than in 1940 and nearly 3,000,000 less than in the last off-year election of 1938. What decided the issue was the fact that the Democrats suffered even heavier losses. They were down 14,000,000 votes from 1940 and nearly 4,500,000 from 1938. As a result, they polled fewer votes in the country as a whole than the Republicans, even though they succeeded—because of their dominant position in the south—in retaining a slender hold on the house. The percentage of the total national vote cast for Democratic candidates was 47.4. That of the Republicans was 50.6. Minor parties got the other 2 per cent.

Sectionally the final figures offer the basis for some interesting comparisons. In the 12 eastern states from Maine to West Virginia Democratic candidates actually polled a larger percentage of the popular vote than they did in 1938, when they had a whopping victory in the house. Where they did badly this year was in the middle west and the far west. In both these sections the falling off in their vote was sharp enough to restore Republican control in many normally Republican districts. There will be 103 midwest Republican in the new congress, compared with the 80 elected from these states in 1938, and there will be 23 far western Republicans, compared with nine. Between them, the midwest Republicans and the far west Republicans will have a comfortable majority in the congressional councils of the party.

POINT SYSTEM FOR FOODS

Our Washington planners think they have something wonderful worked out in the line of ration cards for food. The brain trusters have decided that canned goods that are scarce will require more coupons than canned goods that are more plentiful. Now they think they have the whole problem of food rationing worked out.

When I heard this brainstorm, I wondered why we needed to discard the system that has been in operation for 150 years; why things that were scarce should not take more dollars to buy than things that were abundant. Higher prices stimulated production for the scarce things. When we use money alone to buy things then higher prices both stimulated extra production and curtailed consumption.

But now when we have coupons, or ration cards, the extra coupons required to get scarce things will retard the consumption of these things but in no way increases their production. It is only half as good as letting money prices be the real guide of what people want to consume and what they want to have produced.

But our theorists in Washington never seem to have learned this lesson. If we followed the way that has made America develop, there would not be a lot of extra "WPA jobs" for the office of Price Administrator. If we taxed people in proportion to the cost of the service the government renders to each individual, then these theorists in Washington might find themselves out of a soft, easy job and might be obliged to take a back-breaking job in helping raise the food that is scarce.

Of course, as long as the people will stand for having these theorists in Washington, who produce no wealth stay on, they will stay there. But when people come to learn that they are only parasites and produce no real wealth, then we can vote them out of their soft jobs and let them go back to work and help supply our food shortages. When we do that, most of our food shortages will be a thing of the past. It is from government over-head and bad management of the government, permitting certain groups to produce so little and draw so much money, that we find ourselves so short of food.

We can remedy the situation when we go back to the American way and use the wisdom of all the people in directing what we should sow and what we should reap, instead of following the theories of dreamers in Washington. We must work from both ends—increase production, as well as curtail consumption, on the necessities of life in order to end the war in the shortest time and bring about justice for all mankind.

THE VAGUENESS OF PUBLIC WELFARE

Nearly every law is passed under the claim that it is for the public welfare. Usually, however, those who are advocating a law claiming it would promote the general welfare want to be the final, arbitrary judge as to whether or not the law would work for the general welfare. They can not set down an impersonal rule to measure the general welfare.

About the only rule that can be used to determine whether or not an act will promote the general welfare is whether or not it discriminates against a single individual. If it does, all history is evidence that laws that discriminate against even one man lead on and on until there is gross oppression and tyranny to certain groups of people. Under these circumstances, the general welfare is never promoted.

As John Marshall Harlan remarked, "The welfare cannot be promoted by abridging the freedom of speech." He might well have said the public welfare can never be promoted by abridging any inherent right that belongs to any individual. Any law that abridges any right of an individual is a step towards a dictatorship.

MR. JEFFERS APPEALS TO THE PUBLIC

For the second time in recent weeks William M. Jeffers, the rubber administrator, has found it necessary to appeal to the public that the synthetic rubber program, which is without exception the most important of the war projects, is being delayed. The first plant will open 30 days late because equipment has been diverted to other uses.

Mr. Jeffers is a capable executive and an astute student of human nature. He knows as well as any one that under normal circumstances the fellow whose job is being held up because he can't get the things he needs to do it gets them quickest by going to the boss and asking for them. In this case the boss is Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Roosevelt has appointed many lieutenants but he remains the boss of everything.

Is Mr. Jeffers forced to take his complaints to the public because Harry Hopkins and his emerald bedecked bride, Henry Wallace with his milk bottle campaign, and the rest of the wordy patterers have barred the approaches of the White House to the doors? The evidence certainly points that way. The nation seems to recognize a lot better than the city bankers in the capital the vital necessity of synthetic rubber. If the plan fails, the blame will not be lightly assessed, nor will it stop at Mr. Jeffers. It will go where it belongs, to the President, whose agent he is.

ITALY HIT IN THE STOMACH

When Winston Churchill said that the north African invasion by the Allies would expose the "soft under-belly of Nazi Europe," he said plenty.

In his saner moments, when Mussolini hadn't degenerated into a rapacious hog, he was doing a constructive job, developing agriculture in Libya. A considerable part of Italy's spaghetti, bread, olives, citrus fruit and other products came from Libya, Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco.

Even before the war the average consumption per individual was only 2450 per head daily, compared with 3050 in Germany. During the war this intake has been reduced greatly. The average consumer now gets 37 ounces of bread daily compared with the German's 80. He gets only from 3% to 5 ounces of meat weekly.

With African supplies cut off, Italy is hit in the epigastric region. It just can't go on very much longer on a starvation diet.

Those black-buster bombs hitting the large industrial cities are producing a terrific reaction in the Italian alimentary canal. And when Tunisia is completely taken over by General Eisenhower, the real trouble for Mussolini will start. He has only begun to realize how the poor barbarian chiefs left when chained to the chariots of the Roman conquerors, and this particular chariot was made at Berchtesgaden, not in Rome.

"THEY ASKED FOR IT AND THEY ARE GOING TO GET IT!"

News Behind The News

The National Whirligig

CAPITALISM: American businessmen, under the auspices of conservative Cabinet member Jesse H. Jones, have launched a program of domestic postbellum reconstruction and reemployment for strictly selfish and protective reasons.

They won't admit it, but unless private industry justifies itself after the conflict two calamities are anticipated: Complete national socialism in accord with F. D. R.'s leftist advisers' theories; or a Fascist state controlled and managed by ten million disillusioned war veterans.

These are the considerations which lie behind the ex-officio creation of the Committee for Economic Development. The agency consists of the country's most intelligent experts in the field—all practical men. They know that if they don't make good with jobs, wages and prices in the post-armistice period they and their establishments are doomed.

There will be a complete revision against the old-fashioned free enterprise system. Either the politicians or the soldiers will take over the first by propaganda, the second by violence.

Capitalism in the United States is on trial as never before. It will be victorious in the military struggle. But equal importance is its necessity to win the peace and make it enduring in bread and butter terms. Otherwise the commanders in the coming economic battle may be President Roosevelt or a "Joe Stalin."

POOLED: The Republicans' lack of sufficient funds to hire a political publicity man with the impish roguery of a "Charley" Michelson may cost them the 1944 presidential election. They have their best chance to get to the White House in a generation, but they may go foomph for want of a few thousand dollars.

The most anti-New Dealish incident in a decade was the dinner Bernard Baruch gave to the Harry Hopkinses. The most American gesture went without the "Wall Streeter served epicurean dishes to the permanent guests of the White House. Lord Beaverbrook, former British supply minister, is reported to have given five hundred thousand dollars worth of emeralds to Mrs. Hopkins. But the G. O. P. did not send out one line of chatter on this enchanting episode, which should lose votes for the champions of the forgotten man.

It was by playing up such seemingly trivial matters that Michelson discredited Herbert Hoover—"two chickens in every pot," "grass in city streets," "noble experiment," etc. Little, peevish things count more in partisanship than large issues.

But so far neither National Chairman Spangler nor House Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., seem to recognize this fact, although they have fooled around in party affairs long enough to have caught on. However, between now and 1944 the Democrats have been permitted to organize the lower chamber and elect Sam Rayburn as chief, the story may be told.

REBELS: G. O. P. representatives have played one of the smartest games in American political history in the last few months. Now that the Democrats have been permitted to organize the lower chamber and elect Sam Rayburn as chief, the story may be told.

The Republicans could have won a dominant membership in the House by capturing approximately eight more seats. They might have gained that number if they had expended a few extra dollars in certain close districts where enemy candidates came through with less than a thousand votes each. But "Joe" Martin, and carry "Bill" Dietrich, chairman of the Congressional committee, withheld the necessary

NIA Service Staff Correspondent. Off the sound track: Oscar Homolka, who plays Ambassador Litvinov in "Mission to Moscow," was showing Mme. Litvinov, wife of the Russian diplomat, around the sets at the Warner studio the other day. On one set Mme. Litvinov pointed to an extra and said, "I know that man."

Homolka beckoned the actor to join them. He did and engaged in a rather lengthy conversation with the ambassador's wife. After she left a fellow actor asked the extra, "How come Mme. Litvinov wanted to talk to you?" The actor confessed that he'd never seen her before. "But I couldn't embarrass her when she was so sure she knew me. So I reminded her that I was Gregor Giganovitch, and that I also knew her husband. We had a nice chat." Giganovitch is an ex-vaudevillean with a sense of humor who should have been a diplomat himself. His name is Mike Keegan.

McLAGLENS COME BIG

The same physical prowess which made it possible for Victor McLaglen to fit on his age and qualify for Army service as a lad of 12 in the Boer war, has disqualified his son, 22-year-old Andy, in World War II. Andy is 6 feet, 7 inches tall, which Uncle Sam says is an inch too tall for his fighting men. The boy will continue his job at Lockheed.

Promised and hoped for: Red Skelton in white tie and tails, and Eleanor Powell sharing a sophisticated dance sequence in "I Dood It."

The boys at Douglas Aircraft can't do enough for new employee Marjorie Arnold, since they discovered she's Betty Grable's sister. Unfilled drama: A sailor customer at the Band Box cafe gift-giving Lou Costello with a highly polished bullet. "The bullet was inside me, one," said the sailor. "I got it aboard the San Francisco. I've been keeping it as a souvenir but you're such a swell guy I want you to have it."

ANOTHER EDDIE CANTOR

Didn't know before that screen scenarist Edward James' name originally was "Eddie Cantor." Says James: "I was raised Eddie Cantor. The other guy was born Izzy Iskowitz. When I first came to Hollywood I resented his use of my name. I went to him and said, 'Mr. Cantor, either you change your name, or else.' I said it very belligerently. He just smiled as I got off the floor. He was so nice about helping me to my feet that I decided to compromise. 'All right,' I said, 'I'll change mine! And I did.'"

Elyse Knox can't seem to escape nurse roles. Universal discovered her when she appeared as a Red Cross nurse on the cover of a national magazine. She played a nurse in a sketch with Grocheo Marx on the Hollywood Victory Caravan. She was a nurse in "Don Winslow of the Coast Guard" and now she's playing a nurse again in "Oh, Doctor."

Better Living Is On The Way

By PETER EDSON
Pampa News Washington Correspondent

A surprising array of new, post-war industries may be a-bornin' in—of all places—the war plants that are now devoted to turning out tons of poison gas, incendiary bombs and the non-toxic smokes which will play an increasingly important part in this global ruckus.

Take the gas masks themselves. At least 10 million of them will have to be made for the armed services, to smoke, nothing of the millions made for civilians. The important part of the gas mask is the filter—the stuff that goes in the can that hangs below the mask—is activated carbon.

In the last war, that filtering element had to be high-grade charcoal and it was a considerable problem to produce this gas absorbing material in sufficient quantities. Today this activated carbon can be made from almost anything, including coal or sawdust, and there is no shortage.

When the war is over the plants making this activated carbon may be kept right on going, say the chemists, in a new peacetime industry. The thought is not to provide every cook with a gas mask to protect her from the fumes of her own sauerkraut, kidney stew or fried onions, but it's along that line.

Since this activated charcoal will absorb gas, chemists say it is entirely possible to make a handy little kitchen dingus that will absorb kitchen odors, make a mussy cellar smell as sweet and clean as a mountain top, or even be able to kill those fatal post-party night-club fumes concocted of face powder, stale perfume, in-cosma sweat, cigar smoke, cigarette butts and spilled Bourbon.

Yea and moreover, the chemists say this activated carbon stuff will even take the stink out of a gymnasium locker room, than which there is nothing huskier this side of a skunk.

BOON FOR GROWERS

New smoke-producing units designed to throw smoke screens over war plants or whole cities to camouflage them and spoil the aim of enemy bomber pilots may find a practical application in peace-time as frost protectors for orange groves, early vegetable patches and the like.

The old method of beating a sudden freeze was to light smudge fires and rouse every man, woman and child in the countryside to keep the smudge pots going all night long. Orange growers are simple to burn old rubber tires because they produced a heavy black smoke that protected the trees like a blanket.

These new smoke-producing units, however, will make the job of protecting an orchard, an orange grove or a vegetable patch as simple as a cigarette lighter. A small battery of machines will smoke up a square mile or more, and, being practically automatic, only a few men would be required to keep the fires going all night.

A large part of the poison gas manufactured is chlorine or chlorine compounds. Productive capacity for chlorine manufacture has been stepped up tremendously, and new processes have been developed for its more economical manufacture.

Heavy machinery for the war won't be just a war baby. Manufacturing chemists are looking ahead to a big boom in the chlorine bleaching business, and in further purification of water supplies, whether you drink it or swim in it. Brand-new cleaning agents that will revolutionize the dry cleaning business are to be found in the chlorinated hydrocarbons which also have a role some place in the complicated chemistry of synthetic rubber, and of course that may be the biggest of the war-born industries.

LIGHTER, STRONGER METALS

Thermite, or iron oxide, used in some of the incendiary bombs, has already found wide use in manufacturing as a welding agent, so there's nothing new in that. But in magnesium, the element used in incendiary bombs, there is a whole new light metal world waiting to be born. U. S. production of magnesium has soared by the thousand per cent since the start of the war, and the price has been dropping accordingly.

Magnesium being lighter than aluminum, its uses in manufacture are almost without limit. Alloyed with other metals, it has the strength of steel, with much less volume. Your new post-war automobile may have a lot of magnesium in it and will consequently be lighter and much cheaper to operate.

15 Japs Killed For Each Yank In Guadalcanal

By WILLIAM HIPPLE
ON THE WESTERN FRONT OF GUADALCANAL, Dec. 30 (Delayed) (AP)—American patrols have killed an average of 15 Japanese to each one of our men lost in the last two weeks in a series of bitter actions in the soggy jungles.

But there is a slow, difficult fight ahead before Guadalcanal is clean of Japanese. This is the inescapable conclusion reached after three days at the fighting fronts five miles west of Henderson field.

"It is just a question of time," said Maj. Gen. Millard F. Harmon, commanding general of the U. S. Army forces in the South Pacific. He estimated it may be a matter of months—not days, not years, but months—for our men to be extremely skillful in the use of covering terrain, and don't surrender.

The Japanese have certain advantages now that they are on the defensive. The enemy is dug deep into slit trenches and at tree bases, and sometimes they are extremely skillful in the use of covering terrain, and don't surrender.

Our men must be constantly moving and stalking, and therefore, enemy usually gets in the first shot with machine-guns or rifles. But fortunately many Japanese are poor marksmen and their equipment is of inferior grade.

TOOL MAKING GROWTH

During the year ending Sept. 30, machine tools were produced at the rate of $100,000,000 worth a year. Now more than that amount are produced in a single month.

300 MACHINE TOOL PLANTS

Machine tools for the U. S. numbered about three hundred, each employing 200 to 250 men and representing an investment of up to $1,000,000. Usually each plant specializes in one or two particular tools.

Guadalcanal Natives Kill Japs For Candy

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13 (AP)—Handfuls of candy in reward for dead Japs have won the native warriors of Guadalcanal to the American cause, reports Capt. Irving C. Caswell, 24, of marine corps intelligence.

"It's a game with the natives out there, who hate the Japs for their mistreatment," he said.

"The Solomon Islanders, who had their gardens robbed—the No. 1 sin—first thought the Americans and Japs were fighting together, but they soon learned differently.

"One day several natives were found after having killed some Japs for personal reasons. The marines gave them candy.

"The next day an outrigger canoe came across from another island bearing four or five dead Japs and several grinning natives. They wanted to trade the dead Japs for more candy.

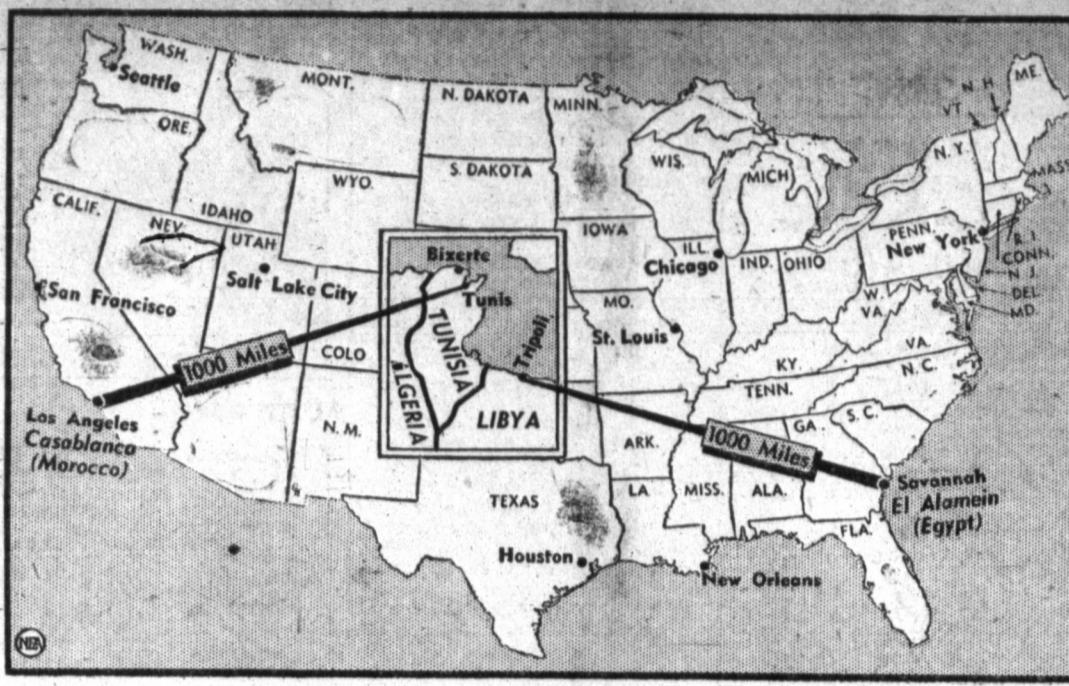

"It was a game. They liked it and so did the marines."

Lafayette Escadrille Flies Again In Africa

AT A U. S. FIGHTER BASE IN AFRICA, Jan. 12 (Delayed AP). The head of an American Indian war chief—the emblem adopted over a quarter of a century ago for the Lafayette Escadrille—flew over the Tunisian battlefields for the first time today, once more the symbol of the United States and France united in a war on Germany.

How Africa's War Would Look in United States

The Tunis-Tripoli battlefront would be deep in the heart of the U. S. A. if Casablanca were at Los Angeles and El Alamein at Savannah. American-British-French forces have occupied North Africa from Casablanca to vicinity of Tunis, while British troops driving from El Alamein are near Tripoli.

Lafayette Escadrille, composed of half years ago.

This squadron, which also calls itself the Lafayette-Storks, got a warm greeting from the ordinarily undemonstrative American pilots and ground crews.

These men, who seldom waste a glance at the sky unless they think enemy raiders are coming, dropped their work to wave heartily as the group which had fought for France in two wars circled the field and came in.

Overpayments Of New Tax To Be Refunded

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—The Treasury gave assurances today that any overpayments of Victory taxes taken out of pay envelopes by employers this year will be refunded to wage earners next year.

The withholding provisions of the tax, under which employers are holding back five per cent of all wages over $12 a week, is "a collection device rather than a tax in itself," the treasury said, "designed to help the taxpayer pay his 1943 Victory tax when it falls due."

29-Year-Old Officer Heads Kelly Field

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 14 (AP)—Lt. Col. Samuel B. Knowles, Jr., 29, who is thought to be one of the youngest men ever to assume the position, today had become commanding officer of Kelly field here. It was announced by the Army Air Forces Gulf Coast Training Center.

He succeeds Lt. Col. Sidney D. Grubbs, Jr., who has been transferred to Dalhart to assume command of the Army Air Forces Advanced Glider school there, army officials said.

Lt. Col. Knowles, a native of Bruceville, was born in 1913. He graduated from West Point in 1935 and from the advanced flying school at Kelly field in 1936.

Since his graduation he has been stationed at Wheeler field in Hawaii and has been stationed at Kelly field since 1938.
