Pampans Told PAFB Opening 'Not In Plans'

Rep. Walter Rogers and Pampa officials were told again last week that World War II Pampa Air Force Base is not being included in the Air Force's present expansion plans. This came direct from Undersecretary Defense Harold Stuart who added: "We hope the world situation will not require reactivation of the Pampa base and many other bases. But should the situation change, of course, it will be considered along with the rest."

Man Plunges From University Tower; Is Fifth Death Fall

AUSTIN — (AP) — A man tentatively identified as Harry Julius Rosenstein, 20, student from Fort Worth, was killed Saturday when he leaped or fell from the 21st floor of the University of Texas Tower. The body landed on the ledge which forms part of the room of the library, five floors up. Pete Hickman, student, said he was on the campus about 4:15 when he saw the body falling. Another student, Jacob Colvin, was in the library studying and heard the body hit.

Graham Offers Compromise For Building Of Rural Roads

AUSTIN — (AP) — Rep. Callan Graham of Junction offered a compromise way Saturday for building rural roads out of surplus funds in the state highway department. Graham said it would guarantee that $22,500,000 would be available for farm-to-market roads each year.

It would repeal the present appropriation of $15,000,000 a year taken out of the state's general revenue for rural roads. The compromise would allocate all the surplus highway funds to the counties. They, in turn, could use their share for paying off county road debts or construction of rural roads, or both. Actual construction of rural roads would be done by the State Highway Department, but it would be on recommendations of the commissioners court of each county.

RFC Abolishment Demanded By Solon

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Kem (R-Mo.) called the Reconstruction Finance Corporation "corrupt" Saturday and demanded Congress abolish it. He declared President Truman is "apparently unwilling to clean up" the agency.

The Missouri lawmaker said in a statement the RFC has "survived its usefulness" and should be put out of business "lock, stock and barrel." The current investigation of the RFC by a Senate banking subcommittee has made it clear, Kem said, that "as a result of political pressure many unsound loans in large amounts" have been made by the agency. He added that "the people take the loss."

Marines Stab Reds In Mountainous Lair

Drive Pushes Near Headquarters Town

TOKYO — (AP) — U. S. Marines stabbed at the Chinese Red army in its central Korean mountain lair yesterday, driving within nine miles of the Red headquarters town of Hongchong. The leatherneck infantry and tanks, moving north from allied-held Hoengsong along a narrow canyon road, were running into resistance. Hongchong, headquarters of the Chinese 66th Army (corps), is the center of a road network the Reds need to mount their threatened spring offensive. It is 22 miles south of the 38th Parallel.

Farther east, artillery fire and bayonet-charging infantrymen of the U. S. Seventh Division shattered one North Korean Communist division Saturday. British and South Korean troops also slashed forward with a bayonet action to gain more than a mile Saturday in the Ninth Corps sector, west of Hoengsong.

Huff Has Opponent: Real Estate Dealer Running For Mayor

A race for the mayoralty of Pampa developed late Saturday morning when B. E. Ferrer, Pampa real estate dealer, filed as a candidate for the chief executive post against Mayor C. A. Huff, who is seeking reelection. Ferrer filed his affidavit of candidacy and signed his loyalty oath shortly before noon, just a little more than half a day before the deadline for filing of candidacy. This makes three of the present commission to have opposition — Mayor Huff, and City Commissioners W. E. Ballard and Fred Paronto.

NPC Says Tax Cut Would Boost Fuel

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A National Petroleum Council (NPC) committee said Saturday that the proposed cut in special tax incentives for the petroleum industry would result in higher gasoline and oil prices. The committee also said in a report to Secretary of the Interior Chapman that reduction of the "depletion allowances" under which oil producers are allowed special tax deductions would seriously curtail exploration for new oil pools.

Treasure Reserve Board Settle Feud New Bond Is Issued

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The U. S. Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board announced a settlement of their fight over ways to halt inflation. It calls for issuance by the Treasury of billions of dollars of a new type of non-marketable bonds, bearing more interest than the old type. The hope was expressed that banks would exchange these bonds for certain outstanding treasury issues which total $19,000,000,000. Since the bonds cannot be cashed in until maturity, the idea is that curbs will thus be placed on inflationary tendencies.

Cats Difficult Says Trainer

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — As far as handling cat actors is concerned, Frank Inn would just as soon work with a coyote.

Frank is trainer, handler, friend and confidante of a rough-looking feline named Orangey Murray. This Murray character is well on his way to being the first starring cat in Hollywood history. Dogs and horses have made the grade, but never cats.

Orangey is playing the title role in "Rhubarb" and animal handler Inn says it's his hardest job.

"I've got a coyote who's easier to handle than cats," he remarked. "At least you can train a coyote to do tricks and he'll do them. You never can tell about cats."

Rather than get the cat lovers of America down on him, Inn explains that Frank likes his cats. But as a trainer, he finds them difficult.

"You can't teach them tricks," he claimed. "They won't respond to your voice or hand motions. The only way you can get them to do things is to run through it many times. Then they'll do the same thing by habit."

"I really don't think they're dumb. It's just that they react according to how they're feeling at the time. That's why they're so unpredictable. If they're hungry or sick or upset somehow, the slightest noise might make them claw your skin off."

"That's another reason why cats are the hardest to train. They not only have those sharp teeth, but four sets of claws as well." As evidence, he exhibited two handfuls of scratches.

Cat lovers can rest assured that Orangey is getting the best treatment. Unlike human stars, who have merely one stand-in and one double, Orangey has a dozen.

Johnson Gets 12-Year Term

Virgil Johnson of Texas and Oklahoma, ex-convict, drug addict, and burglar, walked out of a federal penitentiary last week only to start a trip to Hunstville Penitentiary for a 12-year stay.

Johnson, who served a minimum term at Leavenworth on a narcotics charge, was sentenced to 12 years Friday by a Hale County district court jury for the burglary of the Cobb Department Store at Plainview.

The slim ex-convict was convicted several months after his partner, Carl Ash, Pampa, was given a five year sentence for the same burglary of the store in December, 1949.

Chief of Police John Wilkinson, who served as a witness for the state, reported Saturday that Johnson entered a plea of not guilty. The trial lasted less than four hours. The jury was out less than 10 minutes and handed Johnson the maximum penalty.

This was the last of the court trials for a string of burglaries over the Panhandle that broke when local officers solved the case, sending Carl and Alvin Ash, both of Pampa, Van Leach Finburn, Berger and Johnson behind bars.

Reds May Suggest China Peace Pact

PARIS — (AP) — Western diplomats speculated Saturday that Russia may suggest a peace pact with Communist China and a peace treaty with Germany at Monday's Big Four deputies conference.

Seeing Double:

Wheeler Has 'Twins' Quota

WHEELER — (Special) — Wheeler may not have more sets of twins in ratio to its population than some other towns its size but it seems like it. Two new sets were born during February, Robert and Richard Davis, born Feb. 18, and Dean and David Rogers born Feb. 27.

Robert (5 pounds, 14 ounces) and Richard (6 pounds, 6 ounces) Davis were born on the birthday of another pair of Wheeler twins, Robert and Richard Norman, who now live in McLean. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis, now live in Amarillo but the twins were born in Wheeler Hospital.

Dean (5 pounds 14 ounces) and David (6 pounds) are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers. Joe was passing out "It's a Boy" cigars at the Veterans Business School he attends. Last year two of his classmates became fathers of twins, Jack Garrison's twin girls, Patricia and Pamela are now a year old and Bill Meek's twins bear the distinction of being the only mixed set in town. Their names are David and Dana.

Last year twin girls seemed to be in the majority but this year the four boys put that sex far in the lead.

Crowds were turned away on the second performance Friday night when the auditorium filled up almost an hour before curtain time.

Church At Wheeler Is Group Project

By MRS. H. W. COFFMAN

WHEELER — (Special) — The 528 members of the First Baptist Church here will soon hold services in the new auditorium they are adding to their church. The 40 by 125 foot building due to be completed by the last of March has been built on a 'pay as you go' basis by using the building fund amassed over a period of years and by donations from the people. T. M. Bowman, manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Yard, has superintended the building of the yellow brick and glass block annex since the first ground was broken on June 14, 1950 on lots owned by the church for several years.

The auditorium which measures 40 by 80 feet will seat 500 people. Its acoustics are as nearly perfect as rounder plaster corners and properly placed doors can make it. The concrete floor slopes gently from the double entrance doors to the two shallow steps that mark the space for the pulpit and choir. The baptistry is above and behind the choir space and has its own fluorescent lighting. Fluorescent lights are used throughout the building. The auditorium will be heated by twin ceiling furnaces whose heat will send hot air through ducts down to and under the concrete floor and up through vents. An opening in the back of the building will allow installation of an air conditioner at a later date.

In addition to the auditorium the annex contains the pastor's study. Rev. M. B. Smith was shellacking the wood slab doors used in the building the day The News photographer was in Wheeler. He said that he shouldn't be photographed because he hadn't really done much labor on the building but it shows the spirit that has made the addition possible.

The nursery to the right of the entrance doors is well lighted by one of the glass block panels that are featured at the front of the building. Each of these panels has fluorescent tubes behind it which will make welcoming lights for gathering congregations. The hall which joins the annex to the former church building also holds the church office, the lounge, and a Sunday school room.

The lot south of the church will be cleared for parking space for the new auditorium. The four shallow steps into the building will have a total rise of only fifteen inches so that the people who have difficulty climbing steps will have no trouble. The old auditorium will be converted into classrooms for the Sunday school.

Gray Team Takes Second At Amarillo

The Gray County 4-H Club grass judging team captured second place in tri-state competition held at Amarillo Thursday. The Gray County team, composed of Joe Keel, Jimmy Keel and John Lloyd Carruth, scored a total of 455 points out of a possible 540 to take second place in competition with 25 teams.

Teams were entered from Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Jimmy Keel was also second high-point man in the contest.

The boys were required to know four things about the grass: whether it is annual or perennial, warm or cold season grass, its grazing value, and whether it was climax, invading or introduced grass.

Foster Whaley was in charge of the team.

Amarillo Man Is Injured As Van Overturns

Lee M. Dowlem, 26, Amarillo, was taken to Highland General Hospital Friday afternoon with leg and head injuries after his truck overturned three miles west of Kingsmill on the Amarillo Highway.

Dowlem was transporting furniture for the First National Bank from the Southwest Stationery and Supply Co., Amarillo, when a large gust of dust laden wind struck the truck. The blow made Dowlem swerve, rolling over the truck.

An unidentified woman drove Dowlem to the First National Bank from where a Duenkel-Carmichael ambulance was called.

At the hospital physicians learned he had received bad bruises around the left knee and hip instead of a broken leg as was first thought. He also received a severe bump on the right side of his head. Physicians detained him in the hospital for the night.

LUMAN W. HOLMAN

Freedom Topic For Speech To Kiwanis Club

Speaking on the Kiwanis International's theme for the year, "Freedom Is Not Free," Luman W. Holman, governor of the Texas-Oklahoma District of Kiwanis International, told Pampa Kiwanians and their guests and visitors that "Kiwanians should set the pattern of right living by giving of themselves."

Gov. Holman spoke to a group of 250 persons in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church Friday night. The meeting was a ladies night meeting with guests from the Boren, Stinnett, Wellington, Wheeler, Downtown Amarillo, North Amarillo and Boise City, Okla., Kiwanis Clubs in attendance.

"Freedom must be earned; it can't be plucked from the air," Holman said. "We are facing decay from within. We have the answer of how to reclaim freedom. We have the answer in a man who walked the earth more than 2,000 years ago. His principles were powerful and we know what they were. We must earn, accept and use these principles to maintain freedom."

"Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice. Peace will come only when we go to the Prince of Peace for it. Peace is the presence of justice, not the absence of war," said Holman.

"Greed is the reason for the chaos in the world today. We are molding for the future generations. We mustn't make a selfish choice today at the expense of posterity. The greatest use of life is to spend it so you can outlive it. The contribution of any life cannot be measured by its duration but rather by its donation," Holman told the group.

Holman also stated that the Pampa-Kiwanis Club was in line for an international award for its fine record of 100 percent attendance during the 1950 year.

Gov. Holman was introduced by L. N. Atchison and he was also presented a hat by Fred Thompson, former district governor. Herman Whitley, immediate past president of the Pampa club, introduced the guests.

A special program was presented by the dancing class of Mrs. Jeanne Williamson. Four-year old Susie Filman presented two numbers. Sami Sue Cook did an acrobatic number, and a comedy dance, "Goofus," was presented by Barbara and Carol Arney. June Guill accompanied on the piano.

Keep Your Eye On KPDN

By PHIL SOLBERG

This week we want to start out with some program changes and new additions to your radio listening notebook. The program, "Froudy We Hall," featuring Roy Tracy with a new and exciting story, has a new time — it will be aired 9:00 to 9:30 a. m. every Saturday. And if you like waltzes, you'll not want to miss the new program, "Three-Quarter Time," new on the air 11:30 to 11:45 a. m. Monday through Friday.

Now here are two other new programs. You Eddie Arnold fans will be glad to hear that he is back on the air once again every day over KPDN at 12:45 in the afternoon. This is in capsule form, with a full half-hour Eddie Arnold show winding up the week end on Saturday, 12:00 to 12:30. You people have been asking for a program of this type, and now it's available for you at 9:15 a. m. — just following Jan Olson's "Around the Town" program.

It's appropriately titled, "The Chapel by the Side of the Road," and consists of well-loved and familiar hymns of all churches. The highlight of next week's good-listening on KPDN will welcome into Pampa, in grand style, Bob Willis and his Texas Five-boys in person. Bob Willis will make two appearances over 1340 on your dial. The first time will be at the Bob Willis Talent Discovery Show, 8:05 Monday night, from the Junior High School Auditorium. This will be someone's chance to make good, win a fifty-dollar war bond and go to the next lap of the Bob Willis Talent Show to be held in Dallas — time again, 8:05 p. m. — 1340 on your dial.

Bob Willis will be playing for the happy throng out at the Southern Club Monday evening, and KPDN will broadcast a portion of Bob Willis dance music, direct from the club.

I'm in hopes that you caught the "Staff Breakfast" program last Thursday. Kay Fancher really had himself a time during the interview. The guests were plugging the senior class play, "Cheaper by the Dozen." They assumed the identity of their roles in the play because, you see, the guests were the cast of the play.

And it turned into quite a confusing issue as Kay would address each one as "Mother," "Father," etc. The subject turned to how it would be to have twelve in the family and other things, but old Father Time ran out, and Kay was saved by the bell before he got too involved.

I understand the complete cast had dyed their hair red and was really a sight. All in all, it was typical of the program. "Staff Breakfast" with Kay and Marge always finding something of current interest which will really hold your ear for a solid half hour — 9:30 every morning, Monday through Friday.

You'll not want to miss Rudy Marti and the program "Variety Time" — this coming week especially. Of late, Rudy has been kind of in a world of his own. You see, he just received his new sound-effects library, and you know what that can mean on "Variety Time!" He has a couple of give-away ideas, also, for the best joke of the week, so don't miss "Variety Time" — 10:30 to 12:00 nightly.

And speaking of give-aways, be sure and catch the program, "Around the Town." Jan Olson has a wonderful award to offer with practically no effort on your part — listen for the simple details, 9:00 a. m. every week-day morning.

Before signing off for today, remember KPDN is YOUR station with programs for your liking. Our only contact with you is through your cards and letters, which are gladly accepted. Send in your likes and dislikes, and just between you and me and the lamp-post, we will always have good listening on KPDN. See you next week, and every night at 10:00 on my newscast — with tomorrow morning's headlines tonite!

Canadian High Schoolers Are Initiated For 'C' Club

CANADIAN — (Special) — A week's initiation culminated Friday morning when the "C" club presented its fourteen new members in an unrehearsed program in the Canadian High School auditorium.

W. H. Bryant served as master of ceremonies.

The program opened with Jimmy Waterfield pushing Mary Ellen Tepe down the aisle in a wheelchair. The curtain then opened revealing Bill Flewelling in a tub of soapsuds, praising Lifebuoy soap and singing "If You've Got the Money."

Roy Flowers and Raymond Rameris sang "The Roving Kind," followed by a scene on the desert with Orla Curmuth the thirsty, dying man.

Along the educational line, Anne Rathjen and Jimmie Horton gave a love scene. Jeanie Job and Patsy McMeans gave a rendition of "Tennessee Waltz." Mary Ellen Tepe then sang "Bill Droggins Goo!" and Bill Flewelling and Ronald Betts sang "Lovesick Blues."

Jackie Matthews sang "Truthful Bill" with Bobby Fry playing the piano.

L. H. Webb sang "My Heart Cries for You" while Anne Rathjen and Sandy Wilkinson properly swooning and a collie puppy howling mournfully in the background.

Jimmie Adcock played his harmonica and Jimmie Horton sang "O Suzanna." Orla Curmuth then read a portion of "The Barefoot Boy," dedicated to Mrs. Marion Karr, English teacher. Anne Rathjen and Sandy Wilkinson played an impromptu piano duet.

Coaches John Hanaard, Dee Henry, and Paula Frazier sang "Dixie" and "Bury Me Not On the Lone Prairie."

One of the outstanding numbers was a pie-eating contest. The contestants were blindfolded and were required to feed each other. Taking part were Anne Rathjen, Sandy Wilkinson, Jackie Matthews, Ronald Betts, Jimmie Waterfield, Jimmy Adcock, Daisy Krebbel and Jimmy Horton.

A skit was then given with Ramdel Lemons as Coach Hanaard, and Bobby Fry as Coach Henry. The scene was in the dressing room after playing a football game with Peanut Ridge and the players were considerably battered up, all wearing bandages and limping. The players were the senior boys, Billy Cannon, John Parra, Clay Adcock, Franklin Tepe, and Jack Nix. Randel gave a convincing

WHITE DEER — (Special) — White neighboring cities wait for Negro professional teams to stage an exhibition cage game. White Deer High School stages its own. Under the auspices of the senior class, Monday night, in the high school gym, two groups of "colored" boys took the floor for a game that combined all the best — and funniest — elements of basketball, baseball, and football. Frequent recourse to the "Hadacol" bucket gave the players unusual energy, and referees "Sambo" (Max) Jordan and "Itastus" (Jerry) Foose more than their hands full in controlling the game — and the crowd.

At one time, the squad lined for baseball; at another "Mose" Buchanan tried to convert an extra point, and at still another, Referee Jordan penalized one team 15 yards, then allowed Buchanan to kick a field goal and add three points to the score.

The "Black Cats" were paced by Jackie Freeman, Guy Thornburg, Floyd Travis, James McCoy and Coach George Watson, while the "Globe Trots" were led by Jerry McCoy, Charles Meadows, Bill Cofer, Dale Imel, and Ronnie Buchanan.

The senior class treasury was enriched by about $35.

Mickey Vernon of Washington and Luke Easter of Cleveland led the American League first basemen in fielding during the 1950 season. Each had a .991 mark.

Irish Lassies Drop Playoff Opener To Lockney Longhorns

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock's Lassies, runners-up in the District 2-A playoffs, dropped their opening game to the Lockney Longhorn girls at the regional McLean playoff Thursday night. Lockney won, 40-27.

Big noise in the Longhorn triumph was Velma Seale, forward ace who looped 28 points on nine field buckets and ten fancy one-handed free tosses. The Longhorn star was nearly unguardable, as she faced away from the goal, took passes in the middle, spun and hit net shots. Her 28 points exceeded the Irish total.

Lockney took a 12-10 lead in the first stanza, all on Seale's basket wizardry. In fact, it was nearly half over before any other Lockney girl hit the nets in any fashion. Fans who thought they had seen everything in Dorothy Gudgel, McLean ace, saw her match in the red-headed, bespectacled Seale.

At the half the Irish trailed, 20-13, and were behind a scant eight points, 29-21, as the third canto closed. In the final epic, Seale, who had been held to a mere four points in the second and four in the third, lashed the nets for eight points.

Bernice Close, Irish forward, hit three field baskets and 12 gift tosses for 18 points. Porter had five, Flowers three and Griffin one.

The Irish lassies end the season with 14 won, 9 lost. In the absence of Coach McCall, attending a football clinic at Fort Worth, boxing Coach H. W. Callan was in charge.

Austin Stalls Berger Out Of State AA Cage Tourney; Westerners In Finals

Lubbock And Austin Battle For AA Crown

AUSTIN — (AP) — The Panhandle's last representative in the state basketball tournament, the Berger Bulldogs of Class AA, were stilled out of the tournament Saturday noon by the Austin Maroons, 35-34.

At halftime the score was knotted at 29-29. When the Maroons came back onto the floor they played a waiting game, stalling all the while until the final gun.

Three Bulldog regulars fouled out in the final period. Major loss was center Kieth Lane, who had racked up 22 points in the first half but was held scoreless the second half until he left the game in the latter period — after he had missed a charity toss that would have knotted the game. Junior Brooks and Bill Hamilton also left via the foul route.

Wustin thus moved into the final to face the strong Lubbock Westerners of the South Plains area who topped Texarkana, 49-33, earlier. Berger and Texarkana met last night for third place.

Later Saturday afternoon Cayuga took the Class B championship edging past Big Sandy, 44-38. The Class A title went to Bowie, who topped Brenham, 54-34 in one of the widest margin tilts of the tournament.

Friday some 9,000 persons wandered through Barney Gregory Gym and watched the morning-to-night action. Seven thousand sat or stood for the wild game between Austin and Highland Park of Dallas.

Austin won it, 43-42, after the score had been tied ten times, the lead had changed hands seven times and Phil Miller and Bill Skipping had staged a remarkable exhibition of time-consuming dribbling for Austin in the waning seconds.

Highland Park led most of the way, though there was never more than five points difference in the score. The Scots managed this on the efforts of Arthur Barnes, who sank 11 field goals and one free throw for 23 points.

Matching this game for action was Texarkana's 45-37 win over Fort Arthur. In other Class AA games, Lubbock beat Hartlingen, 56-43, and Berger downed San Angelo, 47-34.

Bowie whipped Gatesville, 70-40, and Brenham beat Sinton, 46-26 to reach the finals of the Bowie-Gatesville game Class A.

The Bowie-Gatesville game produced two Class A records: most points scored by a single team — Bowie's 70 — and aggregate scoring of 105 points.

Cayuga clipped Stanton, 55-30, and Big Sandy smothered Moulton, 56-49.

Port Arthur fouled itself out of the tournament and possibly set a record doing it. The Yellow Jackets had 34 personal fouls called against them. The five starters all fouled out, and the 21 free throws Texarkana made were the winning difference.

Walter Norton scored 23 points to pace Lubbock into the semifinals.

Keith Lane and Red Hooper sparked Berger past San Angelo. Lane scored 19 points and Hooper 15.

Lloyd Giles of Texarkana sank ten free throws against Port Arthur to break a tournament record of nine set only Thursday by Kenneth Hinson of Stanton.

Bud Discounts $50,000 Midland Oil Firm Offer

NORMAN, Okla. — (AP) — Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson asserted Friday night he had received no $50,000-a-year offer from a Midland, Texas, oil firm.

But Dr. George L. Cross, president of the Sooner University, indicated he would not stand in the coach's way if he asked to be relieved from his contract as football coach and athletic director. The contract has two years to run.

McLean Lions Challenge Irish Lions To Battle

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock's Lions Club has accepted the challenge of the McLean Lions to meet them in three battles on the basketball court.

The Irish Lions tangle with the Tiger Lions in the first woolly battle at the Shamrock High School Gym, Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Second encounter is slated for the McLean Gymnasium Thursday night, March 8, and should a third battle be necessary—the Irish Lions say it won't—a coin will be flipped to decide the time and place.

Proceeds from the event will help defray cost of "City Park," a new project for Shamrock recently announced by the club.

Bobby Hill, junior high cage coach, is mentoring the Irish Lions.

Oilers' Contracts Out; Set To Start Defense Of Crown

The first of the Oilers' 1951 baseball contracts came into the Oilers front office last week. It didn't come in the manner in which it left — through the mail — but rather it was delivered in person by the Oilers' veteran and tireless righthander, George Payte. Payte had one of his finest seasons last year and looks forward to the next campaign possibly even better.

Uncle Sam has jolted the Oilers to a certain extent. Clyde Baldwin, a promising looking hurler, has joined upon request, but there is a possibility that he will be given a medical discharge within two months. He won 14 and lost 5 as a rookie with Clarksdale last season.

Also in the service of their country now are lefty Ed Hughes, who was one of the finest prospects the Oilers have had in recent years, and Jim Martin, sensational backstop who was plagued with injury and illness last year, but still had a fine season.

Two other veterans are undecided about playing this season. Stormed the Oilers front office that he doesn't figure to play this coming summer, Nelson Davis, a hard-hitting third baseman who performed for Lubbock in 1949 and finished the 1950 campaign with Amarillo, being purchased by the Oilers during the winter, has also stated that he isn't planning to play this summer.

The right side of the Oilers infield, Virgil Richardson at first and Deck Woldt at the keystone, are going to be back at their posts again.

For the left side the Oilers have a pair of Cuban boys lined up with fine histories behind them. Louis Suarez is figured on for the hot corner. He has played class B ball the past three seasons with Sherman. He is supposed to have a good arm, drives in lots of runs and has a good ball-strike eye at the plate.

In the shortfield, a boy by the name of De la Torre has been picked up from Del Rio. He hit .330 there last year and looks like a good double-play partner for Woldt.

The backstopping chores currently are in the hands of Jerry Squires, the big, raw boned rookie from last season who broke in with a four-master in Amarillo. Squires saw sparse duty last season, but with regular work could turn into a fine receiver. Behind Squires will be another lead, a rookie by the name of Rhody.

The outfield corps will be headed by fleet-footed Dick Dawson, who was obtained from Albuquerque early in the season and came on with a rush after his purchase. Two new names are on the roster. They are Jack Wadsworth, a 6-2, 190-pounder who played for Austin, the Class B Big State League, last summer. The other is a lad named Howell, a limited service man who is undecided about reporting. Homer Matney, veteran glove-gloved centerfielder, is not planning on rejoining the team this year. And Jolfin Joe Fortin was drafted during the winter.

The pitching staff will be headed by Payte, with great support expected by tireless, strong-armed George Matthews, veteran left-hander who played for Clarksdale and Berger in this league before spending last season with Sherman. Matthews threw a doubleheader at the Oilers here two years ago, losing the locals 2-1 after shutting the locals down 1-0 on one hit in the opener.

Another new face will be that of Red Dial, who also played for Sherman last season. He comes highly recommended. Billy Morgan is another new name as is that of Cletus mended to the Oilers as an out-standing prospect by a Brooklyn scout who failed to sign him. Brooklyn scout who failed to sign him only because he figured that he was already the property of the Boston Red Sox. But somewhere along the line the Sox failed to tender Younger a contract, and the Oilers did. Frank Gillespie, whose contract was owned by the Oilers last season but didn't show up because of illness, will not report this year either.

Roy Parker was caught in the draft by Sherman.

One of the brightest spots in the pitching staff is expected to be Ken Faulkner, a Payte-type hurler who likes hard work. He was with the club a short while last season, long enough to hurl a superb contest against the Lamson Lobos. But he was forced to return to his home in Fort Worth because of illness in the family and he never did come back.

In addition to this lineup of VOLUNTEERS TO SAIL — (AP) — THE HAGUE, The Netherlands — (AP) — The Army information service announced last night that 150 volunteers will sail March 19 to bolster the Dutch battalion serving with United Nations Forces in Korea.

ON THE LINE—Workhorse George Payte, veteran Oiler righthander, inked in his signed contract to Grover Selts last week to become the first Oiler player to sign for the 1951 season. The Oiler mound staff will be built around this hard worker. (News Photo and Engraving) material, the Oilers are daily seeking more talent and might even be sitting in on the proposed tryout for Negroes at La Mesa later this month.

Box seat applications are being placed in the mails this week to holders from last season who will want to renew their boxes.

The Oilers have several special season tickets available along that line. All in all, it looks like the defending 1950 champions should be able to make a good break from the post when the gate is lifted on April 20.

Shamrock Mentor Attending Grid Clinic At TCU

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Head Coach Spot McCall is attending the football coaches clinic at Texas Christian University this weekend, in order to prepare himself for spring football training, opening March 27.

McCall expects to use the single-wing some in 1951 grid campaign and feels that Dutch Meyer, TCU coach, is one of the nation's greatest exponents of the single-wing.

McCall is taking notes from both Coach Meyer and J. B. Whitworth, Oklahoma Aggie grid mentor.

He watched an intro-squad battle between spring trainers at TCU Saturday afternoon.

Because he is losing his potent 1950 backfield of Dunnam, Tacket, Kildwell and Lea, and depending on shifter and lighter backs next year, McCall is shifting partly to the single wing system.

His entire line of the 1950 champions will be back in 1951, except for Vaughn Terry, right end. He will have three all-regional linemen back — Mack Terry, Eugene Collinsworth and Billy York.

Spring practice will last for 30 days and conclude with a regulation football game between the graduating seniors and the returning 1951. It would be a lulu, because the seniors have the ace backfield and the others the ace line.

McGowan Tells How Close Ump Comes To Being Killed

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Sports Editor DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. —

(NEA) — At his School of Hard Knocks here, Bill McGowan gives the students Thomas H. Connolly's version of the umpire.

"The umpire is called upon to render decisions by the thousands, giving his answers instantly, with a snap judgment that must be correct," says McGowan.

THIS WAY — Prof. Bill McGowan makes it perfectly clear in a chalk talk.

Tommy Connolly, the American League's umpire-in-chief.

"When a technical point of rules is involved, the umpire is expected to give his decision in the twinkling of an eyelash.

"As a matter of contrast, consider the learned judge. When the attorneys have summed up, he has been known to proclaim: 'I will take the fact and evidence under advisement, and I will render my decision on Tuesday of next week.'"

McGowan, launching his 27th year in the American League, tells the undergraduates how close umpires come to being killed.

Yet 82 completed a five-week course at $88, Feb. 19 with 118 starting another the following day. With the aspirants housed in barracks, subsistence for service veterans runs from $78 to $120 a month, depending on the family.

"When the followers of the home team are howling and threatening," lectures Professor McGowan, "when that close play pops up in a pinch, call it as you see it."

He then relates how Joe Boley saved his life.

"The Orioles had won 28 in a row in 1922, were leading, 4-0, in the ninth in Baltimore, when Buffalo filled the bases with one out. An outfielder named Donaldson hit a line drive to Shortstop Boley's right."

"In a remarkable effort, Boley got his gloved hand on the ball about a foot from the ground, and yours truly, working the bases was the only one in the park who knew he dropped it, so quickly did he trap the ball.

"He tossed it to third base for what to everybody else appeared

Kellerville Tips Shamrock Juniors

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach B. L. Hill's junior high boys fell to the Kellerville juniors here Thursday night, 37-15 in the opening battle of the Little Invitational Junior High Tourney.

Meanwhile, at Lela, Hill's junior girls dropped a thriller, 21-19, to River Road in round one of the tourney. Carolyn Dodds plunged 10 points into the net for Shamrock. Linda Horne hit six and Mary Setzler three.

River Road took a 4-2 lead as the first canto ended, but the Irish Junior Lassies came back to hold an 11-9 halftime lead. Third quarter score was 18-16, favoring River Road, and both teams hit three points in the final stanza.

Day games are held at Lela night contests at the Shamrock gym.

NCAA Asks Tighter College Cage Control At Garden

Bat Champ Says It Pays To Be Man Of All Trades Of Game

SARASOTA, Fla. — (AP) — Take it from Billy Goodman, the American League batting champ, it pays to be a jack-of-all-trades.

"Makes no difference to me where I play," he said. "It's best to learn them all. You can move if somebody else comes along. I don't have any of them now but I can get by."

Goodman "got by" last year by hitting .354 as a general handy-man who played 110 games for the Boston Red Sox. He did everything but mow the grass.

Manager Steve O'Neill gave Billy the regular rightfield job this spring. Maybe you think he's tickled to settle down. Not so.

"I don't care where they put me," he repeated, "so long as I get to play."

"Last year I was the first baseman. Walt Droop was down in Louisville. I never thought I had the job nailed down, because I knew sooner or later they'd come up with that long ball hitter for first base. Then I broke my ankle. Droop came up from Louisville. I was out of a job."

"When Ted Williams got hurt in the All-Star Game, I went to left field. When Ted came back in September, Steve put me on third base.

"I didn't know where I was going to move but I knew I'd get my 400 at bats. All the other fellows were mighty nice to me. Johnny Pesky even volunteered to be benched so I could get my shot at the batting championship."

Clarendon Meets Amarillo JC

AMARILLO — (AP) — Amarillo and Clarendon advanced to the finals of the Region Five Junior College Basketball Tournament Friday night.

Amarillo whipped Howard County (Big Spring) Junior College, 72-46, with Eddie Lee scoring 21 points and Albert Hutchinson 15 to set the pace.

Harold Rosson led Howard County with 13 points. Amarillo had a 38-17 halftime margin.

Clarendon beat Cisco, 70-64. Jerry English of Clarendon scored 25 points for top honors in that department. Billy Rainey of Cisco scored 22.

Amarillo and Clarendon played for the championship Saturday night.

SPORTS MIRROR

CHICAGO — (AP) — The NCAA today had its guard up and a counter-punch cocked for violators of its football television ban. It also recommended tighter collegiate control of basketball at scandal-plagued Madison Square Garden.

In an important session Friday, the NCAA's policy-making council: 1. Said its March 20-22-24 eastern regional cage meet will be held as scheduled at Madison Square Garden, only because of contractual commitments, but that the show would be off next year without "effective control management and supervision" by the NCAA.

2. Threatened to expel any member which deliberately televised football this fall beyond an approved realm of experimental controlled video.

Although cautiously wording a statement of policy to counteract the big fix scandal in New York, the council made it obvious that Madison Square Garden is out for the NCAA cage tourney after this year unless there is a "complete change" in tourney control.

K. L. Wilson, NCAA secretary-treasurer, said this would mean vesting with the NCAA policing and supervising authority which now rest mainly with the Garden.

The council recommended that members hold their athletic competition on their own campuses. If campus facilities are inadequate, non-campus arenas may be used if properly controlled by college sources.

Since the Chicago Stadium, Kansas City Auditorium, San Francisco Cow Palace and other major scenes of collegiate basketball have college tie-ups, the directive presumably had Madison Square Garden as a locale for NCAA competition as its main target.

Even Madison Square Garden, during its regular doubleheader season, has had collegiate affiliation with local schools. But these included OCN, Manhattan College, Long Island University, the Court University, all having present or past players involved in the fix scandal.

The National Invitational Tournament scheduled at the Garden March 10-17 is beyond the jurisdiction of the NCAA which can dictate tourney sites only for its own championships.

On the football video subject, the council acted to put teeth in the vote by the full NCAA convention at Dallas, last January to ban live gridiron television this fall.

In a member "plans" to conduct television on an outlaw basis, it will be branded immediately as a member-not-in-good-standing, barring it from NCAA championship meets.

If the violation actually takes place, the council will recommend expulsion from membership (requiring a two-thirds vote at the annual convention), subjecting it to the same fate.

he went on to warn Maisel that he'd steal again the next time he got on base ... All the time, Ty was inching toward the sack on his knees while Fritz remained there with the ball. Then suddenly Cobb thrust out his hand, grabbed the sack and was safe. Maisel never did tag him.

Approximately 15,000 school men were in attendance at the five-day convention, he reports. The meeting opened Sunday, February 18, and closed last Thursday.

Supt. Breazeale made the trip with a group of Panhandle school men, the party travelling on two special Pullman cars by way of Chicago and New York.

Texas school man W. T. White, superintendent of the Dallas Public Schools, was president of the association this year and more than 500 Texans attended the convention, Breazeale reports.

Among the outstanding speakers appearing on the program were General George C. Marshall, secretary of defense, who spoke on "Mobilization and Education," stressing the need for compulsory military training; industrialist Charles E. Wilson, president of General Motors; General Carlos Romulo, Philippine Islands foreign secretary; University of Pennsylvania President Harold Stassen; and Texas Governor Allan Shivers.

UNUSUAL FORMATION—Pampans who glanced skyward about noon Friday saw what appeared to be vapor trails from a monster plane stretching across the sky. The long, parallel streamers extended from the northeast to southwest. As noted above, the edges were clearly defined despite opposing currents blowing directly into them from the southeast. A short time after this photograph was taken, heavy red dust began blowing into the area and obliterated the scene. (News Photo and Engraving)

Wheeler OKs Power Raise

WHEELER — (Special) — Wheeler has joined the ever increasing number of communities who have approved a raise in electricity rates. The city council approved the Southwestern Public Service Co.'s request for a 10 percent rise in domestic and commercial rates after a report by C. W. Burgess, local manager of SWPSC, on the improvements which have been and are being made of the company facilities in this vicinity. Wheeler has been plagued by frequent short power failures during past years but the Southwestern Public Service Co. has corrected many of the factors that made these delays in service through the installation of automatic switches and other improvements. Further improvements are planned on the main voltage lines leading into this vicinity which will eliminate much of the interference now caused by electrical storms.

Miss Cromwell And Walter J. Wanner Exchange Wedding Vows In Hillsboro

Burning tapers in cathedral candelabra draped with smilax lighted the First Baptist Church of Hillsboro Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Charlotte Cromwell and Walter James Wanner. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Cromwell of Hillsboro and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wanner of Pampa.

The Rev. J. W. Bruner, Jr., pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony at 8 p.m. A large floor candelabra holding white tapers centered the pulpit decoration, with two baskets of white stock and gladioli on either side. Forming a background was a mass of banked palms and smilax. At each side of the steps leading to the altar, graduated candles burned in tall candelabra, which were flanked with lower vases of white flowers from which lengths of smilax fell. The vases were flanked with even lower candles.

Accenting the two aisles of the church, down which the bridal party entered, were tall floor standards holding white tapers, white on alternate pews were bouquets of white gladioli with greenery, and white satin bows with floor length streamers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Phillips of Fort Worth presented the wedding music. As the guests assembled, Mrs. Phillips, at the organ, played "Romance" (Rubinstein) and "I Love Thee" (Greig). She accompanied Mr. Phillips who sang "Calm as the Night" (Carl Böhm), and following the pledging of the vows, as the bride and bridegroom knelt on the white satin pillow, he sang "The Lord's Prayer" (Mastel).

The bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of imported French Chantilly lace over creamy satin. The wide, full circular skirt formed a fan-shaped train and the veil of silk illusion was caught to a satin cap covered with Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her bouquet was of calla lilies showered with white satin ribbons.

Mrs. L. J. Moyers of Knoxville, Tenn., was matron of honor and Mrs. William M. McDonald and Miss Frances Harper, both of Hillsboro, and Miss Joyce Wanner of Pampa, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Susanne Nelson of Hillsboro and Glenda Kay Cromwell of Houston were junior brides.

Mrs. Moyers' gown was of emerald net over emerald taffeta and bridemaids wore identical dresses of amethyst net over emerald taffeta. The bridesmaids wore bouffant skirts worn over shapely pink camellias.

E. H. McElroy of Waco served as best man and groomsmen were John T. Cox of Temple, Roy Cole and Jim Gregory of Dallas. Ushers were William M. McDonald of Hillsboro and Adam Rosson of Milford.

Mrs. Cromwell, mother of the bride, wore a soft rose silk crepe dress, matching turban of Cole and Jim Gregory of Dallas. Ushers were William M. McDonald of Hillsboro and Adam Rosson of Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell entertained immediately after the ceremony with a reception in the church parlors. The bridal party received between tall cathedral candelabra holding white tapers. In the center was a smilax covered arch under which the bride and bridegroom stood. Large vases of huckleberry with white stock and gladioli were placed in the corners of the room.

The bride's table was overlaid with a Belgian lace cloth centered with a white Dresden bowl with cherubs holding white gardenias. Tall white tapers burned in five-branched candelabra on either side. At the opposite ends of the table were the punch bowl and tiered wedding cake. Atop the cake was a nosegay of white lilies and surrounding it at the base were gardenias.

A lace cloth covered a round side table which held the bride's book. Presiding at the table was Mrs. Charles A. Lawrence of Greenville, who designed the book as a gift to the bride. A heart-shaped white Dresden bowl held gardenias. A white taper in a silver candelabra lighted the registry.

Those receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell were Mr. and Mrs. Horton B. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Siddons, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harrell, Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Garrett, Mrs. W. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Qualls, Mrs. E. T. McClanahan and Mrs. A. B. Rivers. Alternating at the punch bowl were Mrs. S. A. Cromwell of Houston and Mrs. Charles A. Garrett. Presiding at the cake were Miss Marilyn Rivers.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. W. C. Davis, Jr., Miss Sue Wilkerson, Miss Cora Wolaver, Miss Zel Sessions, Miss Eleanor Mackey, Mrs. Frank McDonald, Miss Betty Donovan of Cleburne and Miss Virginia Findley of Waco.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Santa Fe, N.M., Mrs. Wanner was wearing a navy blue and white check Miron worsted bolero suit, Moya-gashel linen collar and cuffs with short navy coat of wool flannel. Her hat was of matching straw and velvet. Navy accessories complemented the costume with a corsage of red gardenias.

After the trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wanner will be at home at 1004 N. 7th, Temple.

Mr. Wanner was graduated from Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where he was a member of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity.

Miss Charlotte Anne Cromwell has been honored with a series of parties during the past few weeks. At a bridge luncheon given at the Hillsboro Country Club, the honoree's chosen colors of amethyst and emerald were used in an arrangement of gladioli and heather which centered the luncheon table. A brass container of huckleberry foliage was placed on the mantle in the ballroom and the lounge was decorated with azaleas.

The hostesses, Meses William M. McDonald and W. C. Davis, Jr., Miss Sue Wilkerson and Miss Cora Ann Wolaver, presented the guest of honor with a serving tray.

Mrs. Ewell Murphree entertained with a gift tea for Miss Charlotte Cromwell, at the Murphree home on the Cleburne Road.

Guests were registered by Mrs. W. M. Cogswell.

The honoree's chosen colors were featured in arrangements of gladioli, ranunculus and acacia used in the living room. The tea table was centered with miniature china figurines under an archway entwined with greenery resting on a reflector.

The table was covered with a white lace cloth over green. It was caught at the corners with large bows of amethyst ribbon. On the buffet was an arrangement of stock flanked by crystal candelabra.

Mrs. Kenzie Black presided at the silver tea service. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Ben Spears, Mrs. Earl Corrier and Mrs. J. E. Gilmore.

More than 60 guests called during the afternoon. BUFFET SUPPER. Continuing pre-nuptial parties for Miss Charlotte Cromwell, Miss Frances Harper entertained with a buffet supper at her home near Hillsboro.

Spring flowers in Miss Cromwell's chosen colors decorated the living room and dining room. The buffet was banked with gladioli and an arrangement of stock formed the table centerpiece.

The hostess' gift to the honoree was a set of silver ash trays with matching relish dishes.

Texas' Tidelands Case Is Not Lost Speaker Tells Twentieth Century Club

For the Texas Day program of the year, for the Twentieth Century Club Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. G. W. Gordon, leader, introduced a study on "States Rights" with the quotation from Nietzsche "Do you wish to be a disciple of truth, so be it; investigate." Mrs. Gordon then introduced Mrs. Ray Hagan, who addressed the group.

Mrs. Hagan said "Texas is unique among the states in that she was a republic with all the sovereign rights of a nation for ten years before she became a state. Because of this she was allowed to retain her land rights.

"The Constitution and laws of the state of Texas have divided the 'public domain' into free school lands, asylum lands and university lands. Largely from those lands Texas has a permanent school fund of 151 million dollars and an average annual income of 10 million dollars. Development of the property has just begun. Its potential income in the future is as large as the potential growth of our school system."

Discussing "The Tidelands Oil Controversy" Mrs. Gordon said "This controversy has been going on for over a decade. It is a dispute between the United States and the individual states over ownership of the tidelands and consequently the mineral resources beneath them. It grew out of the discovery of oil in the tidelands off the coast of California, Texas and Louisiana.

"After 15 or more years of drilling by oil companies, who had leased from the states, the federal government asserted doubts that the states owned the land. But according to the annexation agreement of 1845 when Texas entered the union, she was allowed to keep her lands and pay her own debts. The attitude of the government in the dispute seems to be the result of business pressure groups who wish to lease the land from the government at a low rate."

Mrs. Gordon continued "The present threat to state ownership of tidelands has ceased to be a local one. It has become a matter of principle. It is now a fight to stop the over-centralization of power in federal government and its consequent nationalization of property.

"Although the Supreme Court has handed down verdicts against Texas' special title to her tidelands, the fight is not lost, as there can be no federal seizures of the lands unless Congress passes an act authorizing a federal agency to do so."

In conclusion Mrs. Gordon said "No issue today presents a better opportunity for Texans to act than in the tidelands controversy."

Mrs. Raymond Hartah was hostess to the club at her home, 621 N. Frost. In absence of the president and vice president, Mrs. H. R. Thompson was elected temporary chairman. The club voted to make a cash contribution to the Red Cross Drive.

The club voted to recommend Mrs. Allen Hodge of Littlefield, a former member of the club, as a candidate for vice president of the seventh district of the Texas Federation.

Members present were Meses. Guilford Branson, E. L. Campbell, W. R. Campbell, Frank C. Culbertson, J. W. Fitzgerald, J. W. Garman, Jr., J. W. Gordon, Ray Hagan, Lloyd Hicks, Clifford High, V. J. Jamieson, James B. Massa, Roy McKernan, H. R. Thompson, George Vineyard and Robert Sanford.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Eli E. Ethridge of Pampa are announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Jann, and Ralph J. Green, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Green, Sr., of Oklahoma City. Miss Ethridge is attending Oklahoma City University and Mr. Green is a graduate of Oklahoma A&M College. The wedding is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Easter Sunday, March 25.

Mrs. King Honored With Baby Shower. Mrs. John A. King was honored with a pink and blue baby shower Tuesday in the home of Mrs. O. G. Smith, 1004 Oklahoma. Hostesses were Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Chester Williams, Jr., Mrs. Roy Tinsley, Mrs. Chester Williams, Sr., Mrs. Leonard Cannon and Mrs. L. E. Jordan.

P-TA Study Group In Regular Session. The study group of B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher Association met at the school with Mrs. H. M. Stokes teaching the study as outlined by the National P-TA, "Growing Toward Maturity."

Mrs. Paronto Is Honored At Shower. Mrs. Lawrence Paronto was a guest of honor at a stork shower given in the home of Mrs. W. A. York, 515 N. West. Hostesses were Mrs. York, Mrs. Darral Timmons, Mrs. Aubrey Joe Carlton, Mrs. G. Alexander, Mrs. Dorel B. Hogsett and Mrs. Myra Hodges.

Upon the honoree's arrival she was presented a corsage fashioned from colored baby socks. Her mother, Mrs. Ruby Stovall, assisted in opening the gifts.

Federation District Head Speaks At Varietas Tea

The City Club Room was setting for a Varietas Club tea Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. James A. Allen of Childress, president of the seventh district of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs was guest speaker.

Mrs. C. L. McKinney presided over a short business session and introduced the presidents and guests from other clubs.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth over yellow satin, and was centered with an arrangement of stock in pastel shades arranged in a crystal bowl. Other bouquets of flowers were also placed about the club room.

Mrs. Allen, who was introduced by Mrs. McKinney, Varietas president, called attention to the Federated Club Convention to be held in Amarillo in April and to the National Club Convention in Houston in May. She urged as many club members to attend as possible.

Mrs. Allen said "In building a better future for freedom we should recognize that young people have rights and responsibilities, and that opportunity should be provided youth to participate vitally in community activities and planning in order that they may have preparation and experience in leadership and community service."

She said that for the next two years clubs are asked to sponsor projects to give youth this opportunity. Mentioning outlets for youth participation, she likened them to streets of a city as follows: Church Street, spiritual; School Avenue, educational; Residential Drive, the home; Capitol Hill, government; Fine Arts Circle, culture; Leisure Lane, recreation; Industrial Highway, good neighbor policy.

She said that clubs strengthen themselves by becoming federated, that each club organize a new club and each club member add a new member. Hostesses were Mrs. S. C. Evans, Mrs. J. E. Kirchman, Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. J. G. Cargile.

Guests were Meses. George W. Scott, Fred J. Neslage, Gene Fatheree, Robert Curry, Ivan Howard, F. W. Showell, W. A. York, Joe Shelton, Irvin Cole, C. B. Lemons, C. C. Matheny, Willie McClain, E. L. Henderson, M. K. Griffith, Charles Hickman, Jr., John H. Garman, N. Dudley Steele and H. Y. Cornelius.

What's Cookin' In Gray County 4-H Club Work

By MARY ANNE DUKE
4-H CLUB WEEK

Approximately 300 Gray County 4-H Club girls and boys will join with 118,237 4-H Club members in Texas to observe National 4-H Week March 3 to 11.

The purposes of the week are to provide 4-H members a special occasion for checking their own efforts in relation to the needs of their community and country, to acquaint the public with the 4-H theme for 1951—"What's Cookin' for World Understanding"—to inform all parents of the objectives of the 4-H Clubs; to encourage the members to inter-act other young people in enrolling and assisting the new members to get started in their 4-H work; and to enlist more public-spirited citizens as voluntary leaders or sponsors of 4-H Clubs.

Gray County 4-H members and their leaders have been busy preparing radio programs for 4-H Club Week.

Yesterday, the Grandview 4-H boys and girls presented a radio program over KPND at 11 o'clock, Monday through Friday special 4-H Club programs will be presented over KPND at 6:30 a.m.

This early morning radio scheduled as follows: Monday, Pampa High 4-H Girls' Club; Tuesday, Foster Whaley interviews members of his grass judging team; Wednesday, Alanreed 4-H Boys and Girls; Thursday, McLean 4-H Boys and Girls; Friday, a 4-H Girl and Boy and their parents from Hopkins. Two other radio programs on the 4-H Week celebration are: Miss Joy Williams, assistant home demonstration agent, interviewing Mrs. Fred Haiduk, who is chairman of Gray County 4-H adult leaders, at 11 a.m. Saturday over KPND. Also Miss Williams and Mr. Whaley and two 4-H Club Girls and two 4-H Club Boys will be interviewed on staff breakfast, Monday, March 5.

A special tour of various places in Pampa has been planned in cooperation with the Pampa Chamber of Commerce for all 4-H Club girls in Gray County on March 10.

These women give of their time as adult leaders for the following Girls' 4-H Clubs: Mrs. Fred Haiduk, Grandview girls; Mrs. Ernest Edwards, and Mrs. Joe Keel, Pampa High leaders; Mrs. Orphus Tale, McLean Jr. High leader; Mrs. J. D. Harrison, Hopkins leader; Mrs. L. A. Laverly, Pampa Jr. High leader; Mrs. T. D. Anderwald, and Mrs. D. W. Swain, Bluebell leaders.

Palaver de Pampa

THIS HAS BEEN "Smile Week," remember? Seems to me all our Pampa people celebrate this smiling occasion all year 'round but we especially noticed the big grins of Art Rankin (chasing on the street), Rusty Ward (smiling and tousling the hair of his sturdy young son the other evening) and Mrs. Maynard Johnson (always so friendly).

SPEAKING OF MRS. JOHNSON reminds me that she was one of the hostesses at the BKG covered dish supper the other night. Really been having the socials this week. The First Methodist ladies had such a nice crowd at their supper Wednesday, and the Twentieth Century Forum had a wonderful tea the other day.

DO BELIEVE ONE of my favorite corners is at 1012 Duncan. The owners have a neat little house sign near the street and then far back on the lot the house shows above a sunken terrace. The colorful chairs arranged about the terrace have me longing for long summer evenings and a tall, cool glass of limeade in hand. Understand the living room is done in green... such a popular color with us all... and that the whole interior is as appealing as the outside. One thing, the house surely "puts up a good front."

AND REALLY, YOU know that it won't be long until summer. We see splashes of green on the grass (that rain helped) and if you are awfully aware, you've seen the tiny buds just beginning to show on the trees. Spring comes between here and summer 'tho' and we've already got kites flying in our block. Few little gusts of March wind have been real helpful.

OUR GANG IS mad about the revival of those once-so-popular "Our Gang" comedies. We've been seeing these locally, and it surely brought back the other days. It was in the middle 30's that it surely love that little bunch... Spanky, Alfalfa, Frog, Scotty (that was the one still on the screen) and all the rest. Makes me just a wee bit misty-eyed to compare that movie version to our own brood. But there are mornings that I think the days will never end... the days full of scratched faces, bruised knees, and cut fingers. Then comes the night and while we're making bed check and hearing prayers, a kind of remorse and longing creeps o'er me because I know that our own little gang is growing up, too, and there'll be a day when Mama's kiss won't soothe all their childhood, either!

PANORAMICALLY: Everyone has really been on the go this week... The "Better Government" meeting was conclusive evidence of a woman's interest in government... a fairly representative group met (more pretty hats... one red, white and blue job, a tangerine one, and a very stylish cheapeux in beige with brown feather)... but back to the meeting... you'll hear more of this group... Spied the Doug Mills at the Kiwanis Show... liked her burgandy suit... Aubrey Steele there at the door was busy... almost as busy as Mrs. Steele when she was boosting ticket sales for the show... have heard more raves on all of our home talent... The senior play was also a sample of our talent here... Miss Thelma Henslee deserves a pat on the back... Hear the young George Grees are part of a skiing party going to Santa Fe this weekend... Peg will follow this up and see what she can snop out... Mrs. Eddie Moore (always so neat and attractive) was laden with packages at the post office the other day... The Bonnie Rhodes have a pretty lil' lamp with red shade... the apartment decor is one of exemplary good taste... Not far from us in the movies the other evening were the Frank Chapmans... don't believe they saw us. Another evening we noticed the L. W. Tarpley's buying theatre tickets... she has a handsome grey coat... Mrs. Warren Hasse is expecting a visit this week from her sister from Milwaukee... I'm told of a newcomer here who is making friends at various social gatherings and club meetings... she's Mrs. J. Bradley, a Radcliff alum, and a charming little person... she and Mr. B. returned from their European honeymoon shortly before moving here... A real conflict in engagements comes up Tuesday evening... We don't want to miss the all-school band concert at the high school... then the Globe-Trotters play in Amarillo and that's a treat for basketball lovers... The Wade Thomassons, somebody said, are building onto their home...

AFTER MENTIONING Mrs. Grace Brown's unique mailbox last week I got to thinking that all over town you'll find unusual and distinctive mailboxes... all serve the same purpose, but each individual in design, size and color. The G. E. Tinnins have a roomy, gold box that caught my eye, and at 404 N. Ballard there's a dear little copper box with a rack for magazines. The J. D. Schroedel home (like its green siding and red door) has a brass mailbox that's particularly bright and shiny. Those mailboxes like Grandma had on the farm are coming back in many variations. They're especially noticeable near the many country homes popping up hereabouts. Away from boxes entirely, there are those who have their mail deposited through a slot right into the house entry... like the W. Mullinax family... but whatever the way you get mail, it's still a necessary evil and people will go on thinking up new mailbox designs that sort of add a certain flair to your housefront.

SOME FOLKS WONDER how it is that Peg can be so many different places at once... taint easy! Really, I should be a little mouse (as the saying goes) and then I could be a lot of places without being noticed. On the other hand, mice do get caught, and there are times that I get so engrossed in my snooping that I feel like a "rat in a trap," and know that it must be written all over my face that I'm PEG-O' PAMPA.

WOMAN OF THE WEEK

MRS. MILDRED HILL

Mrs. Hill Leads A Very Busy Life As Local Secretary Of The Red Cross. Busy at all times, Mrs. Mildred Hill is even busier right now preparing for the Red Cross Drive which begins tomorrow. Mrs. Hill is Red Cross executive secretary of Gray County, a post she has held for several years.

She has lived in Pampa 25 years, worked at McCarty's Jewelry Store about eight years and was for many years manager of the Pampa Hospital. She is the widow of Paul Hill. A graduate of the Temple High School, she attended Baylor Uni-versity two years and had two years of nurses' training at Scott and White in Temple. Although her job is an exacting one, Mrs. Hill finds time to participate in civic affairs and attend meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club, the National Secretaries Association and the American Legion Auxiliary. She also attends the City Council of Clubs. Mrs. Hill said "If I have a hobby it is people. That is why I enjoy this work so much, and also why I liked my hospital work."

Texas Taters

If you are on the lookout for an idea which will put a little "give" in the food dollar try Texas Taters.

Instead of serving potatoes as a meat accompaniment for dinner star them as the main dish dressed up as Texas Taters. This potato innovation is designed to stretch a quarter-pound of ground beef into six servings. Scooped-out potato pulp is whipped together with milk and fortified margarine to a smooth, rich fluffy mixture. Hot browned beef, drippings, grated sharp cheese and seasonings are folded in to finish off the tasty filling for the potato shells.

Glazed tiny golden carrots, a simple tossed salad, crisp crushed rolls served with margarine for spreading complete a dinner course that is bound to cut corners on your food costs.

TEXAS TATERS

- 6 medium-sized potatoes
- 4 tablespoons fortified margarine
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup grated sharp cheese
- 1/2 cup minced celery
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley

Hot browned ground beef and drippings: Melt 2 tablespoons fortified margarine in a skillet over low heat. Add 1/4 pound ground beef, season to taste with salt and pepper and cook until done. Stir occasionally.

Cut a thin slice off the flat side of the potato. With a spoon remove as much as you can of the potato without breaking the skin. Mash the pulp. Add margarine, milk, cheese, onion, salt, pepper, parsley, celery, browned beef and drippings. Fill potato shells with the mixture. Place 1/2 teaspoon fortified margarine on top of each filled potato. Place the Texas Taters on a broiler rack and broil 4 inches from the source of heat until the tops are delicately browned, about 5 to 7 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

class flower. Mrs. Margaret Howell poured the punch.

Mrs. Delma Field presented Mrs. Johnson, who in turn presented Mrs. Leach. Those in charge for the evening were Mrs. Martha Holt and Bertha Hollis.

Those present were Mmes. James A. Reeves, Harvey Rachelle, Ted Duckworth, Clifford Bixler, Dorothy Hughes, Mike Porter, Raymond Field, Jay Meador, M. W. Rafferty, Douglas Carver, Leland Greer, Jack Stewart, Gordon Bayless, Owen Johnson, Claude Matheny and Floyd Barrett.

U. S. Can Defend Self, Nordyke Tells B&PW Club

"Why should we be frightened of any foe we have to face today?" Lewis Nordyke asked in a talk before the Business and Professional Women's Club here Tuesday night. Mr. Nordyke, political writer and columnist for the Amarillo Globe-News, spoke in the City Club Room on the topic "The Cost of Peace."

In optimistic tones the speaker asked "Why should we fear anyone when we have so much common sense in our background—when our country has the history of strength and victory that it has?"

He continued "If we were facing a nation with our manpower and strength of wealth and natural resources, added to our victorious record, back of it, would we be afraid of it? You're darned right we would."

Mr. Nordyke pointed out that the United States can always be counted on to show great strength in a crisis—that it is quiet and peaceful only as long as it can afford to be so.

The greatest harm that can come of war, Mr. Nordyke said, is for the people to look at it on a basis of "what can I get out of it?" instead of as a freedom loving people.

Mr. Nordyke also talked on the amendments to the Constitution, saying that the statesmen who formed it did a thorough job as it has only had to be amended 20 times in its 180 years of existence. He said "I consider the Constitution the greatest political document ever written."

Mr. Nordyke lent another note of optimism by saying that this nation has pulled itself out of greater crises than the present one. "If we could pull ourselves out of the crisis that followed the Civil War," he said, "we can manage to get out of the present one."

'Cowboy And Buffalo' Theme Of Meeting Of Civic Culture Club

"The Cowboy and the Buffalo" was the theme of a talk given by Mrs. A. D. Hills at the meeting of the Civic Culture Club Tuesday.

Mrs. Hills said "The buffalo were attracted to the plains because of the tall grass and the watering places, and roamed in herds until the cowmen came. The Cator brothers went to Dodge City, Kansas, and heard tales of the buffalo roaming in the Panhandle. They, with other hunters, killed buffalo and became quite wealthy. Other hunters and cowmen soon killed off the herds and made a place for the cows and ranches."

Mrs. Lloyd Rinehart presided over the business meeting. The club voted to give a cash donation to the Red Cross and selected Mrs. Katie Vincent as Red Cross Drive chairman. A gift of warm clothing was collected to send to a family in Greece.

The club members voted to attend the district meeting of Federated clubs in Amarillo April 19.

Henry Meets Up With First Real King While In Rome

By HENRY McLEMORE
ROME — I met my first king last night.
No congressman on election eve was more democratic or friendly. He shook my hand, embraced me, served me my food, asked for my autograph and, finally, did a solo dance in my honor.

This jiggling monarch of 70 years of age was Alfredo the First, King of the Noodles, or, in Italian, "Il Vero Re Delle Fettuccine."

His "palace" is a sparkling new restaurant on the Piazza Augusto Imperatore, and his history as a king, particularly during the last year, is filled with enough intrigue to have delighted the heart of a Borgia.

Briefly, this is King Alfredo's story.
In 1905, Alfredo, an unknown chef then, opened a small restaurant on the Alla Scrofa, and in a few years it was word famous, due to Alfredo's genius at preparing fettuccine, which is noodles with a cheese and butter sauce. The walls were lined with autographed pictures of the world's mighty who had sought out the tiny restaurant on the mean little street.

Fettuccine is as old as the Tiber, but Alfredo's mixing of the dish, breaded the flour, egg and water into something fit for the gods. In 1907 George Rector, in an article in the Saturday Evening Post, hailed Alfredo as a master worthy to stand alongside the geniuses of art, literature, and music.

Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford presented him with a golden fork and spoon with which to mix and serve his noodles. Inscribed on the handles is a tribute to "Alfredo, King of the Noodles."

The money rolled in through the years and Alfredo's moustachios grew in proportion. By 1943 he had all the fire he could ever spend and a set of moustachios that required more and more care.

When war rationing made it impossible for him to get the flour, eggs, and butter he needed to make his famous dish, he sold out lock, stock and barrel to two of his faithful old waiters, and retired. He gave them his pictures, his guest books, his recipe, his blessings — everything except the golden fork and spoon.

A year ago Alfredo, outraged by hearing that the men who had bought him out were styling themselves as "King of the Noodles," forgot all about his abdication vows and went back into business.

Then the intrigue started. King Alfredo claims that the men who bought him out pay cab drivers 100 lire for each tourist brought to their place. The waiters claim Alfredo's price for the same service is 150 lire. Visitors to the original restaurant on Alla Scrofa who ask for Alfredo are sometimes told that he is dead, sometimes that he is ill, but always that the present owners are his sons, who learned his secret at his knees.

King Alfredo (all this was confided to me while we dined last night) claims that the "rascals," as he calls them, even have bought a golden spoon and fork and pawn them off as the precious Fairbanks cutlery.
He also exhibits a callous in the palm of one hand and a callous on the finger of the other as proof that he has been mixing fettuccine for upwards of half a century. "Those rascals who bought me out, and who claim the title of king, have no callouses. Proof positive they haven't been mixing fettuccine long enough, to know anything."

To make the whole thing all the more confusing there are three more restaurants in Rome working under the name of Alfredo's. They too claim to be the only master noodle fixers in the world.

I, for one, am convinced that Alfredo of the 70 years and the mighty moustachios is the true king. He is superb when, with a flourish of the Fairbanks outfit, he mixes the noodles at your table. He is dazzling when, with the lights out, he dances madly in the dark with a flaming omelette in his hands.

And who but King Alfredo would require that all his waiters stand at attention each time he mixes a dish of noodles for a guest.

Long live King Alfredo!

"Exclusive But Not Expensive"

You've asked these questions — you'll want to remember these answers!

- 1 Do pharmacists practice their profession in retail drug stores only?
No, you will find them wherever drugs and medicines are required. Registered pharmacists are located in the staffs of hospitals, the Army, the Navy, the U. S. Public Health Service, and other governmental departments. They also are in the teaching staffs of colleges of pharmacy. Pharmaceutical manufacturers employ them not only to prepare drugs and medicines on a large scale, but also in the laboratories where these products are tested and standardized. Today, there are about 110,000 registered pharmacists employed in various capacities, and of these over 90 percent are women.
- 2 What requirements must your pharmacist fulfill before starting his professional career?
He must be a graduate of an accredited college course in pharmacy, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science, and before entering college he must have completed a full four-year high school course. (2) He must have had at least one year of practical experience under the supervision of a registered pharmacist. (3) He must pass a rigid examination given by his State Board of Pharmacy. (4) He must be at least 21 years of age, of good moral character, and meet certain citizenship qualifications.
- 3 Is there a systematic basis for determining the price of a prescription—or is the cost computed haphazardly?
Yes, there is a systematic basis for prescription pricing. The principal factors involved are the cost of the drugs specified by your doctor, a compounding charge, and the amount of time required to dispense the prescription. Naturally, prescription costs are higher when expensive drugs are required, or when time-consuming procedures are necessary.
- 4 Why is it dangerous to attempt to read or phone a prescription to your pharmacist?
A prescription is a precise document, expressed in technical terms and symbols that can easily be misinterpreted by the public. So, if you attempt to read a prescription to your pharmacist you may lead to interpret it correctly. However, when you give your doctor's written prescription to your pharmacist, you can be sure that you have handed him the information he needs to fill the prescription exactly as the doctor intended.
- 5 Why is your pharmacist permitted to keep narcotics in his store?
Your pharmacist keeps narcotics in his store because he is authorized to act as the legal custodian of these drugs. The supply which he maintains is carefully guarded, and no narcotic drug is dispensed except upon proper medical authorization. Pharmacists strictly observe the regulations set up to prevent misuse of these drugs—a practice that is in keeping with the high ethical standards of the profession.
- 6 If you handed your pharmacist an unlabeled bottle, a prescription container with the number defaced, or an envelope with a few loose tablets, would he refuse your request for "more of this medicine"?
Your pharmacist will always refuse to sell any drug that he cannot positively identify. When you request a medicine and give merely a vague description—or present an unlabeled container—you are asking your pharmacist to introduce an element of chance into his professional work. By declining to take such chances he is acting in the interest of your safety and your health.—Reprinted from a Copyrighted Advertisement published by Parke, Davis & Company, Detroit 26, Michigan.

Cereals Research Expenses Low

WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP)—When it comes to research in cereals, even a penny's worth may produce a bonanza. The annual cost of federal research in cereal crops costs only one-third of a cent per acre cultivated, says Dr. K. S. Quisenberry, plant scientist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The money spent on all federal and state research in soil and agronomy amounts to only 17 cents for each $100 of the total farm value of the cereal crops, Quisenberry declares. From this modest investment has come the use of corn hybrids, which have boosted annual harvests by 750,000,000 bushels per year, and many other improvements in grain.

SOUND OFF!

By KAY FANCHER
A fellow asked a question the other day that made us think a little bit. This fellow was watching a group of National Guardsmen go through a period of tactical training. He walked up to one of the men and asked what was going on. The Warrant Officer answered that this was a National Guard outfit. "Oh!" said the man. "Where are you from?" The answer of course, was Pampa. "Well," said the man, "I'd heard about it but I never realized . . . ! ! ! ! ! The moral of our story is that there are a lot of people in Pampa and the surrounding territory who do not know that there is part of Uncle Sam's fighting forces stationed right here in Pampa, and doing a job for all of the citizens of this area. Just to get acquainted, the outfit that we're talking about is Battery A of the 474th Field Artillery Observation Battalion, with the Headquarters Battery located in Dumas. By the way, the former commander of Battery A here in Pampa, Captain William Ragdale, is now the executive officer of the battalion. The present commander of Battery A is 1st Lt. Charles L. Robison, who we all know as a tireless civic worker in Pampa. Battery A is composed of 68 enlisted men, 3 officers, and one Warrant Officer. The Battery is located at Recreation Park, and is a completely equipped fighting unit. As the name implies . . . this is an observation unit, and its organization and composition are geared to a very technical job and do it right . . . and do it fast. In order to accomplish this with the highest efficiency possible, the unit is broken down into sections. Each one of these sections . . . sound, flash, survey, wire, radio, radar and maintenance. . . is set and trained to do a specific job and do it in perfect coordination with, and yet independently of, each and every other section of the battalion. This battery is a part of a battalion which has its headquarters in Dumas, with other batteries in other cities of the Panhandle, including Dalhart and Shamrock. Battery A was formed on December 15, 1948 with federal recognition and has grown by leaps and bounds ever since. Right now the unit is finishing up 9 weeks of special Sunday training, the climax of which will be an overnight trip to Lake McClellan to put into practice what the unit has learned in the past 5 weeks. Each section within the unit will do its job just as it would if it were under battle conditions. The unit will leave Pampa at about 9 p.m. Saturday, March 30. The unit will assemble at the Junior High School field and then march out of Pampa via Cuyler Street. It will be quite a sight to see the men of Pampa marching down Cuyler in full combat uniform. The men will then board their vehicles and the battery will proceed to Lake McClellan where it will bivouac for the night after setting up installations for observation and communication. Then, after accomplishing its mission, the battery will come back to Pampa. This, as we said before, is a climax to the 5 weeks of previous training out at Recreation Park.

Writer Proposes Organization Making Affairs Less Painful

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) Let's face it, citizens; something must be done about banquets. In the spring, Hollywood's fancy heavily turns to banquets. They blossom on all sides, like poppies on the California hills. There are banquets for awards, banquets for testimonials, banquets for no apparent reason. Now I have nothing against a free meal. But for those who must attend banquets and pay good money to do so, I feel I should strike a blow for freedom. Except for a few glamorous trappings, Hollywood banquets are no different from those in other parts of the country. So this presents a national menace. To begin with, you hire a babysitter (at 50 cents per hour, if you're lucky.) You arrive at seven o'clock, the appointed hour for the banquet. No one is there but the banquet chairman. "Who arrives at a banquet on time?" He laughs gaily. You waste an hour of the sitter's fee and a few bob at the bar until the guests arrive. Seating arrangements are all ways fouled up. Instead of being with the rest of the gang from the office, you find yourself at a table with Mr. Roy Butts of Hermosa Beach, his wife, mother, sister-in-law, godfather and members of the Butts bowling team. After vainly trying to establish some mutual friends, you lapse into silence. Then comes the food. And what food! The fruit cocktail is warm and the soup is cold. The salad is limp from too long association with the dressing. Between each course is a 30-minute interval, during which the waiters appear to hold some kind of meeting. No matter how the main course is advertised, it always turns out to be creamed chicken. It sits lonely-like on the big plate, with only a few peas and potato balls for company. But the prize of the evening is coming—a strawberry parfait. Just as it arrives, the program begins and the goodie is whisked away by a waiter. Despite the efforts of the program committee to "keep it short," the program always runs two hours over schedule. This is due to several factors. The soprano insists on singing three more numbers than the applause warrants. The guest dancers perform until they collapse from weariness. The humorist squeezes out the last possible chuckle. Every officer of the organization must thank each person who contributed to the banquet's success, down to the man who watered the corsages. And the guest of honor insists on explaining step-by-step how he achieved greatness. All this adds up to an awful evening and something should be done about it. How about a National Committee for Painless Banquets? As honorary chairman, I nominate Dr. Robert Millikan. The scientist gladdened many hearts when he walked out of a civic banquet here a year ago without giving his address. Four hours of speeches were enough, he decided. National forests and parks cover 10,000,000 acres of land in New Mexico.

Sound And Fury From Bedlam

In the last year of his term, Herbert Hoover set up what was known then and now as the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, one of the aristocratic among alphabet agencies, a veritable landed gentry among bureaus.

In the past 19 years, the RFC has extended itself into the economic life of the nation and the world. It was a ready-made bazooka which Mr. Roosevelt integrated into his heavy artillery for regimenting the economy of the United States.

It has taken 19 years for the ghostly monster to rise to the surface where it could be inspected by all corners. It turned out to be a repulsive, flabby, gargantuan behemoth with an infinite capacity for corruption and sin.

All might have gone well with RFC had it not been for the over-reaching of a few greedy politicians who were determined to kill the goose rather than to bank the eggs. They loosed up the works and brought on a Senate investigation.

That was the Fulbright committee which dealt lightly and hastily with the RFC. In fact, it was something of a white-wash.

Even so, the RFCers weren't satisfied. They continued to work the same old street with some plain and fancy variations of the old theme.

Finally, things got so bad, there was a demand for a full-dress, public hearing on the RFC.

At that point, Mr. Truman called a senator a "blank blank" and said the preliminary report on the RFC was "asinine."

He charged political favoritism in dispensing RFC loans, stupidity or corruption in such items as Texmess and Lustron and noted that certain RFC officials took jobs with recipients of those loans.

Mr. Truman responded by asking the Senate to confirm the same RFC commissioners under whose guidance these alleged evils had been performed.

Among the changes proposed in Congress would be the policy of making public all applications for loans, to make an inventory of the public as a loan application until it has been granted.

And the Senate would like to provide that no RFC employee could accept a job with a loan recipient for two years after the loan had been made.

One member of the RFC took a $300,000 a year job with Waltham Watch Co. after Waltham had received a large RFC loan. In fact, he took the job less than a week after the loan was approved.

Another RFC employe took a $300,000 job with Texmess Petroleum Co. after that outfit got $15,000,000 loan.

There is a huge political fund under the direction of the Missouri gang. The deserving get loans which they could not get from private lending agencies because their balance sheets are weak and watered.

Waltham, for example, could borrow privately because it was easily proved that the company cannot compete with foreign imports.

The RFC loan was to make employment and "protect" American industry. Do private lender could, or would, make an investment on those grounds. If a bank tried it, it might find itself under the government gun.

The existence of an RFC is going to lead, inevitably, to scandal and injustice because the RFC is, in itself, scandalous and unjust.

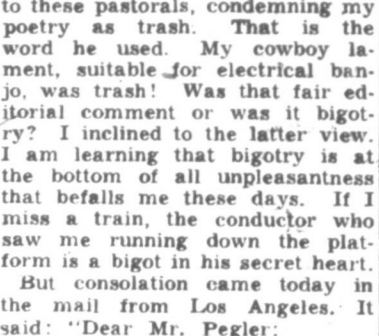

We might get rid of the Missouri crowd, but there'll be another gang right behind either from New York, California or somewhere else.

The RFC is to abolish the RFC—not to fiddle around with the trappings.

Contrary to a thought that has made substantial progress, I am not divine nor even superhuman. I bleed when cut, and pine when my feelings are hurt. And so, a man who would like to be a poet, I should like to be a poet.

There was pathos as well as a jubilant beauty in your tuneful line, and old and hardened as I am, it brought a nostalgic tear to my eye. I thought back to old Wyoming and my old pard of the saddle and I only wish that Thad, and Zeke, and T-Bone Joe, had hands all, were here to read your poem. But they have all gone on to the big bunkhouse now, and I hope — are harmonizing up there.

"God bless you for bringing a high class poem into this otherwise drab world." (Signed) Gene, "Hop-Along" Fowler.

Aw, shucks, old pardner, it wasn't that purdy, were it? I mean, darn it all, pardner, when you was trashed to write a poem about the boys around the chuck wagon in the old wickyup down by the old corral, it don't seem like real poetry like you learned from your dear old mother — 'sleppin' now beneath the willows by the bank of that good old river, Rio Grande."

But maybe you know 'best, old pardner. Maybe it is real beautiful poetry like you done said, although, if I do say so, I venture to say, in my humble opinion, I have wrote better poetry, quicker.

But, say-a-y, pardner! You wouldn't kid an old cowpoke, would you? You wouldn't, would you? Would you?

Either Rev. Gerald Berneking is Unsocial Or I Am. Rev. Gerald Berneking, pastor of the First Christian Church of Colorado Springs, says that "we must support and undergrid our public school system."

I have repeatedly offered my preacher holding a pulpit $100,000 if he would cite a half dozen statements accredited to Jesus and answer questions as he would have to before a court, that would tend to show how these statements sanction tax supported schools. I have never found any preacher who would undertake it. I do not believe it can be done.

And if no one can cite quotations accredited to Jesus that would endorse the state or the majority of the board of education using compulsion to make people pay for what the majority calls education, then certainly no Christian minister should make such a statement as Rev. Berneking has made.

It might be possible that Rev. Berneking can explain how tax supported schools are in agreement with the Golden Rule and the Commandment "Thou shalt not steal" and the Commandment "Thou shalt not covet anything that belongs to a fellow countryman."

If public schools can be harmonized with these great Christian moral guides then I want to about-face and help promote tax supported schools. Rev. Berneking has undoubtedly made an exhaustive study of the subject and do not carelessly be advocating public schools for this reason I will give the First Christian church of Colorado Springs of which Rev. Berneking is pastor $1,000.00 if he will answer questions without evasion and permit another question when I think the question is not being answered.

The question are an attempt to determine whether public schools are supported in agreement with the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule. I will make a stenographic report and make it available to anyone who wants to publish it in whole or in part.

Rev. Berneking does not need to be successful to have the church get the $1,000.00. The interview would not last over two or three hours — and probably not over an hour. I would agree to answer any question on the subject on the same terms except I will do it for nothing because I want to do my beliefs on the subject tested to be sure that I am not advocating anything so unsocial when using the Commandments and the Golden Rule as a guide.

It might be very educational. I might either that tax supported schools are in agreement with these great moral guides or that they are not. Or it should show that the Golden Rule and the Commandments are moral guides for Christian ethics or that they are not. Would Rev. Berneking contend that anything that was not in agreement with these great moral guides was ethical, moral or Christian?

I want to know whether or not any individual has a moral right to use compulsion for creative purposes or initiate force against another individual to get him to pay for the first's idea of education. If one individual does have such a right, then what is the difference between ethics and those of Joseph Stalin, or any other communist, other than degrees?

And if no individual has such a moral right, then I want to know whether multiplying a non-existent right by two or three or 99% makes such an immoral act moral. In short, if there is any way of explaining rationally how public schools can be harmonized with Christian ethics, I want to be enlightened.

What Rev. Berneking advocates and what I advocate are entirely different. Rev. Berneking advocates by way of public schools using compulsion for creative purposes — initiating force to make other people comply with the individual wills of the majority. He states the equivalent of a government with the consent of the individual — or against the basis on which this government was formed. I advocate a government with the consent of the individual — a definite limited government that has no moral right to do anything that each and every individual does not himself have a moral right to do.

So either Rev. Berneking or I are unsocial, unethical, immoral, unjust, un-American and un-Christian, since we advocate such opposite courses of human action. We cannot both at the same time be morally right to be advocating initiating force and not initiating force. Either not initiating force or initiating force is morally right. They both cannot be morally right and ethical and in agreement with the Golden Rule and the Commandments. It would seem that the ethical person is the one who is seeking after truth — the one who is willing to pay a never-ending price for the truth that he is advocating; and the unethical or unsocial person is the one who is doing or advocating something that he is not willing to answer any and all questions about.

National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — The administration's compromise with organized labor over a wage freeze will not end President Truman's difficulties with powerful, political groups which believe that they have been treated unfairly by the Wilson-Johnson-Disalle formula for stabilizing living costs on the rearward front. It will be only the beginning of another battle of the pocketbook bulge.

Professional and Capitol Hill spokesmen for the nation's farmers, especially in the South and the Midwest, now insist, as the Green-Murray-Lewis trio did, that they be given a representative in the war cabinet headed by Charles E. Wilson.

They maintain that no firm agreement on wages, ceilings or profits can be fixed without greater participation in backstage councils than they now enjoy.

LAWYER — Mr. Truman did not satisfy their grievances when, in a recent conference with a congressional delegation at the White House, he argued that the food producers were represented fully and ably among his advisers.

"I'd like my advice on these matters from Secretary Brannan," he snapped.

Now, the Brannan name is extremely unpopular among the dirt farmers and their influential friends on Capitol Hill. Congress has shown its disregard for his theories by refusing to consider his two-price scheme, based on federal subsidies from the farm to the grocery store.

A young agriculturist Mr. Brannan is only a smart Denver lawyer who climbed aboard the New Deal-Fair Deal escalator years ago, and reached his present estate by doing nothing well. In their minds, he is merely a politician.

FARMERS — Once labor has been placated, the farmers fear that they will suffer major blame for behaving as "economic hogs," in view of the fact that their food costs impose on a housewife's budget. And the fact is that Capitol Hill's complex files contain more letters criticizing the farmers than labor unions. This may be natural, since the great majority come from the cities, where the husbands are union members.

The farm leaders' sharpest criticism is that neither President Truman nor Secretary Brannan, nor any of the administration spokesmen, has taken the trouble to present their side of the price difficulty to the public. Indeed, in one of his press conferences, Mr. Truman blamed them for the soaring cost of the housewife's food budget.

He intimated that he would ask Congress to eliminate provisions from the Defense Production Act that prohibit price-fixing on farm commodities until it has climbed to parity with the highest figure reached in the month before the Korean outbreak. But he quickly backed away from this idea after he was warned that it might lose the farm vote for the Democrats.

SMALL — A close-up view of the farm price situation lies behind the belief that no wage freeze, whether it be fixed to permit a 10 or 12 percent advance, can be effective. It will have to be unfrozen sooner or later because food prices are bound to increase by far more than the 5 percent envisaged by Price Stabilizer Disalle.

It also shows why the farmers think they have been discriminated against in the administration's failure to abolish them of responsibility for high retail costs. But if the White House did give them a clean bill of health, it would have to accept primary responsibility for the pressure of food prices on the urban budget.

It is not generally realized, but the administration's food price-fixing program is a pitifully small thing, by the terms of primary response. It fixes ceilings on only 30 percent of a family diet, and most of those are at unprecedented peaks. Twenty percent of foods are exempted by the presidential order and the remaining 60 percent are not affected because present prices are far below the legal parity figure.

A Few Definitions

BY DAVID BANTER

Communism is the conclusion that more than one person, or a majority of persons, have a right to do things collectively that would be wrong and immoral for one person to do.

Communism is the final outcome of Democracy, for pure, unadorned democracy means but one thing — Majority rule. Communism is democracy in action, instead of theory. The United States is not a democracy and its founders never intended it to be one. Democracy, or communism, is the exact opposite of everything the Declaration of Independence stands for. The American way of life was intended, as anyone who ever read the Declaration knows, to provide a maximum of independence to every individual person. It requires no stretch of the imagination to realize that an individual cannot be independent and at the same time be completely ruled over, either by some other man or by a group of men calling themselves the majority.

It is vitally important for every citizen to get this idea down pat if he is every going to have any tried and true moral political principles to base his citizenship and his national life upon.

Any kind of rule, by majority or otherwise, was never provided for in the founding of the United States. Government itself was not to rule but rather was visualized as simply a neutral force mutually agreed upon by the citizens themselves, to prevent anyone from ruling or harming anyone else. Yet today government itself has become a ruler and high-handedly kicks the citizenry around. That is democracy or the communist spirit in action, for certainly the majority are responsible for government.

Democratic communism represents the mob spirit. A mob will get together and do things that no one member of that mob would do by himself. A man who wouldn't dream of killing another man, in a mob, would kill a hundred; a man who wouldn't dream of sticking a gun in his neighbor's ribs and order him to give up his money to pay for something he hasn't wanted, will get together with others, calling themselves a "majority," and vote for things as sure as which will rob other people of their money, or even their lives, for, taking their money or energy from them, or if they have no money, confiscating their property which they have worked for and earned.

This is what we mean by "initiating (starting) force." No man has a moral right to do that — and neither has a group of men collectively. It is a wrong for a million men to murder someone as it is for one individual to do it. It is as wrong for ten million people to steal as it is for one person to steal. Immorally never becomes moral just because a lot of people or "majorities" gang up to commit evil. It is dead wrong for men to kidnap you and use your body for their service. By the same token it is just as immoral, just as much in violation of the laws of God, for 100 million citizens — a majority — to start force through government to "draft" or "conscript" other citizens. It is simply collective kidnapping. In fact, it doesn't even accomplish anything that couldn't be accomplished by citizens volunteering of their own free will, without rulership, to do. What force-starting does is to wipe out the whole American principle of independence.

The fact that the Lincoln and Roosevelt administrations kidnapped or "selected" men for involuntary service (which the Constitution forbids) doesn't make im-morally moral. It doesn't make evil good. For that matter, I find no historical record that the South drafted men in the Civil War, yet the Confederates' armies were equal in every respect to Lincoln's. The very fact of being forced, in violation of their American rights as individuals, probably caused many Southerners to be reluctant, resentful soldiers. The Colonies would not draft General Washington to draft men, even during the Valley Forge set-back. It would have been a violation of the very principle of personal independence the Colonies were fighting for.

All up and down the line, from conscription to taxation, our nation has been getting more democratic and economic. We are getting to be a government by the whim of whoever has the most power instead of "by the consent of the governed" — a constitutional republic based on human rights.

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

Trying to come up with a 200-word reason why this land of ours — with its long record of using horse-sense — should find itself in its present uneasy bed, is today's task. We are in our confused dilemma from listening to outbursts longer than 200 words. Full half hour rosy fire side chats, 2 column columns, have been our menu. After which, we figured we knew under which shell was the pea — but under which, it wasn't.

We have focused our binoculars on an ignis fatuus, which means that to relax, we could have right up on your Latin — ignis for fire, and fatuus for foolish — will-to-the-wisp, for short. Talkative folks come to town in droves — the lunch clubs listen to the reporters listen. We want to relax, we could have prosperity via spending — that the Govt. could make rough roads smooth — that more and more Govt. debt is not important, it is just owing the money to ourselves. Big City editors, who are fonder more than half our citizens lost their equilibrium. We been worn to a frazzle from talk.

Now, nice people, all of you know better — all of you have been around — all of you know that the Barker at the circus is a salesman. He sells tickets. Put 2 and 2 together — and when you amble down to the lunch club or tune-in on some sauer-of-the-Nation, don't be a sucker.

Washington... by Peter Edson

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) Secretary of the Army Frank Pace will soon issue regulations for taking 2,500 aliens into the United States Army.

These alien recruits will be limited to single men between 18 and 35. After five years service and an honorable discharge, the recruit will be eligible to become U. S. citizen.

This action, first of its kind in U. S. history, comes as a result of passage of the Lodge Act last June 30. It has taken eight months for the Department of the Army, Defense, State and Justice to work all the bugs out of a system for handling the recruits.

Biggest road block to overcome has been the McCarran immigration law, which effectively bans many aliens from ever obtaining U. S. citizenship. Another factor that has slowed up carrying out provisions of the Lodge Act has been the need to avoid any idea that we would raid friendly foreign governments of their military manpower.

There has also been considerable reluctance to get the United States started on a policy of employing foreign mercenaries, or building up an American Foreign Legion.

To offset these objections, the Lodge Act has in its favor the fact that it will be the largest relief pressing overpopulation problem. The recruits are obtained from displaced persons, it will relieve the refugee problem in western Europe. It will expand immigration quotas for the United States.

Biggest advantage to the United States is that we will be giving into the U. S. Army men with special skills — like

Once-Muddy Colorado River Is Now Fisherman's Paradise

By BOB BRISTER

ATHENS — (AP) — Oldtimers down around Austin or Eastrop will tell you that the Old Colorado, once a rip-nortin' devil of a river, just ain't what she used to be. And she isn't.

But what she is now—Fishermen dream about.

Back before the chain of flood control dams was built, the Colorado below Austin was, a lot of the time, a reddish yellow puddle in motion. There were cat-fish and drum to be caught, and plenty of gar—but a bass would grate out his eyeballs looking for a lure in such water.

Then came the great dam building spree. The river was bottled up with Buchanan Dam, allowed to meander on through Link Lake, then down to Marshall Ford, through Lake Austin, and finally out the spillway of Tom Miller Dam to rush its way toward the sea.

And a new river was born. Fishermen hooked to the big lakes. Resorts sprang up all along the chain, and crowds grew. The lake chain began to be visited by thousands of sportsmen from all over Texas and the nation.

And all the time, Old Man River was rolling along, virtually unbothered.

It's been just recently, the past few years, that the boys

The board of directors of the local chapter met Friday afternoon and laid final plans for the big drive. A goal has been set for $11,393 and a good start has been made in the advance drive, which brought in over $3000.

Plans are to close the drive on March 18 if the funds can be raised by that time.

DOG NOTES
by PETER BOGGS

PARKING TICKET SAVER
I was walking along the street in Washington, D. C., the other afternoon when I noticed a traffic officer start to attach a ticket to an automobile for overtime parking. As the officer approached the machine I was started to hear the horn begin to blow. There wasn't a human in the car but there was a dog and it was he who was pressing a paw, or rather two paws, on the horn button. I think the officer was purebreds the first ten in order of popularity were: Cocker Spaniel, Fox Terrier, German Shepherd, Scottie, Boston Terrier, Chow, Bulldog, Dalmation and Irish Setter. Popularity of the different breeds differs in different sections of this country. Of course there are more than 9000 dogs in Denver. The same survey gives out a figure that only one out of five of the mongrel dogs in that city are licensed.

THE QUESTION BOX
QUESTION: Is there any difference in the food value of raw horse meat and raw beef? — W. W. F.
ANSWER: No, under normal conditions the nutritional value of both horse meat and beef are the same.
Ancient peoples believed in the existence of "adamant," supposed to be a metal or a stone of impenetrable hardness.

just as startled as I was. A small crowd gathered just as a small man dashed from the doorway of a nearby building. A few quick spoken words by the little man to the traffic officer and the representative of the law walked away good-naturedly, the ungiven ticket still in his hand. I stepped over and introduced myself to the car owner. Here's what he told me:
He said it wasn't the first time his dog had saved him from a traffic ticket. He had trained his dog not only to maintain a lookout for strangers when he parked his car, but to press the horn button whenever a uniformed policeman approached. He claimed such an arrangement had undoubtedly saved him many a ticket. I agreed with him and went on my way, mentally making plans of training one of my own dogs in the same manner. It's not such a bad idea.

A CHILD'S DOG IS HAPPIEST
Not only is a child happy with a dog but the dog belonging to a child is happier than other canines. It has been proved that dogs belonging to young people seldom suffer from nervous symptoms or depression as is the case with some dogs owned by elderly persons. The dogs of fussy old people invariably become bad-tempered, morbidly passive and melancholy.
A dog has a physical need for playing and romping. Evidently they get more of this following their young masters than they do if all their associations are with older people. Yes, I think it is safe to say that a dog living in the same household with children or young people is the happiest and probably the healthiest of canines.

NO TWO ARE ALIKE
I have hammered away, repeatedly, on the need of common sense in training dogs. Nowhere else can it be better known than in studying a puppy's nature. To use harshness on very sensitive pups is to ruin them. Dogs resemble children in that no two of them are exactly alike in temperament. Remember how the worst punishment my mother could inflict on my young sister was to deprive her of a good-night kiss. At the same age the withholding of a kiss was no deprivation to me at all. Nothing but a good whipping would serve the purpose. It is the same with young dogs. You can get less results out of whipping one dog cruelly than by a stern rebuke to another.
And if you lick the wrong kind of pup, you are liable to make him cringing and worthless. Even if he recovers, the memory of it will stay with him. Once I bought a two-year-old pointer. Never did I punish him in any manner. One day, after I had owned him five years, I picked up a stick in the woods, to throw it out of a path. The pointer was with me and the minute I had the stick in my hand he dropped to the ground trembling in terror. No, I had never taken a stick to him, but undoubtedly someone had and most unmercifully before I owned him. For five long years this dog had remembered.

MORE ON MONGRELS, ETC.
Already I am being taken to task for what I wrote last week about the value of a mongrel dog. It seems that every so often some canine periodical or dog writer criticizes me for saying the ownership of a mongrel dog is nothing to be ashamed of. And, why shouldn't I keep saying it? Many a cross-breed dog is worth his weight in gold to the master he serves and loves.
I am not knocking the purebred dog when I write that. Naturally I believe they are one of the grandest animals ever evolved. But why should some people find it impossible to like both mongrels and purebreds? Both may be trained into becoming ideal pets, workers and guards. And after all, isn't it a dog's chief mission in life to be a pet and a guard and a worker?
Again let me repeat that a registered dog is a trained animal to own but so is a plain old mongrel dog.

DOGS IN DENVER
A survey made of the dogs licensed in Denver, Colorado, brought out some interesting facts. Of the 9000 licensed dogs, 8000 were males and 3000 females, all but 500 of whom were spayed. Mongrels accounted for 9000 of the dogs or slightly more than half the total. Among the

Octane Rate Policy To Save Motorists

By MAX SHELTON
HOUSTON—(AP)—Pocketbooks of many motorists may have received a break last week when defense officials decided not to place ceilings on octane ratings of gasoline.

The Petroleum Administration for Defense decided, instead, to allocate tetraethyl lead, a vital anti-knock ingredient for a automobile and aviation gasolines.

This leaves any adjustment in octane ratings to the individual refiner.

Industry spokesmen are confident refiners can prevent to a large degree, a discouraging trend that developed when octane ratings dropped under World War II government orders.

They believe the quality of automobile regular grade gasoline can be maintained to such levels comparatively few motorists will switch to premium grades.

Poor performance of lower quality gasolines was credited with causing a sharp shift during World War II.

An industry survey indicates only 15.2 percent of United States motorists were using premium grades.

Several major refiners termed the proposal arbitrary and artificial. At a Washington hearing, they said such a plan would disrupt competition in the manufacture and sale of gasoline by forcing all competitors to turn out grades identical in octane number.

This, they said, would remove the incentive for refiners to conserve lead.

PAD ordered that small refiners, those using less than 1,000,000 pounds of lead last year, be allocated a similar amount for the year starting March 1.

Major refiners drew 1,000,000 pounds, plus 80 percent of last year's consumption that was in excess of 1,000,000 pounds.

mium grade gasoline in 1942. By 1946, 39.4 percent were using premium, but there has been a sharp decline since the wartime octane regulations were dropped.

Success of the allocation system depends to a great extent upon the ability of the refining industry to prevent motorists from switching grades.

A sharp increase in demand for premium grades would make the tetraethyl lead shortage even more acute.

Such a switch to high quality gasoline would be accompanied by a rather sharp hike in the gasoline budget of the automobile owner now using regular grades.

PAD originally had proposed ceilings of 90 octane premium grade and 84 octane regular.

The national average premium grade rating last fall was 91.0 regular grade 84.4. In the winter of 1947 the ratings were 85.9 premium and 80.2 regular.

Depletion Allowance Pleas To Keep Senate, House Busy

By TEX EASLEY
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senate and House committees will be busy this week with matters vitally affecting the petroleum industry.

Oil and gas men will go before the House Ways and Means Committee Tuesday to fight the administration's proposal that the 27½ percent depletion allowance be cut to 15 percent.

Under existing income tax laws, an operator gets the 27½ percent deduction on his income in recognition of the fact that the irreplaceable natural resource he owns is being depleted; it also is compensation for unusual hazards of the business—such as drilling dry holes at tremendous cost.

Rep. Combs (D-Tex), a committee member and foe of the Treasury Department recommendation, last year accurately forecast that the administration's attempt at that time to get the allowance reduced would fail.

He figures the fight will be closer this year.

"I'm not alarmed about the situation now," he told a reporter, "but it's certainly going to be tougher this time because the proposal. A lot of people think this is a loophole in the tax laws, but it isn't. They're misinformed."

Witnesses scheduled to testify include: Sidney Schwesrud, Pittsburgh, Pa., president of the Gulf Oil Co., speaking for the American Petroleum Institute; Ernest O. Thompson of the Texas Railroad Commission, oil-regulatory body of that state; Russell B. Brown, Washington, D. C., General Counsel of the Independent Petroleum Association of America; R. B. Anderson, Vernon, Tex., president of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association; W. E. Disney, Washington, D. C., counsel for the Independent Natural Gas Association of America; W. Geis, Los Angeles, Calif., and Charlton Lyons, Shreveport, La., independent producers.

The Senate Finance Committee continues hearing testimony early in the week on the reciprocal trade agreement bill, which deals with tariffs.

In passing the measure 225 to 168, the House bucked the administration to tack on two amendments which the petroleum industry wanted.

One of these, the "peril point" amendment, requires the tariff point below which an import duty cannot be cut without hurting American industry.

The other, an "escape clause," would provide for quotas to limit the imports of a product when foreign shipments cause harmful conditions not anticipated when a trade agreement is negotiated.

The administration has asked the Senate committee to kill both.

On Wednesday, Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), and his Senate Interior Committee will sit down around the table with experts from the coal, oil and gas, and hydroelectric industry to discuss a national fuel use policy.

Anticipating a large audience for the open meeting, which will run for two and possibly three days, O'Mahoney has arranged for the committee to use the big Senate office building caucus room.

Involved in the fuel-use policy planning is the controversy between coal mine owners and miners on the one side and the petroleum industry on the other.

Worried about the steady inroads of oil and gas on the coal-consuming market of the East, the former group contends it is in the national interest to prohibit wide-scale use of oil and gas in heavy industries in the eastern coal belt.

Arthur Sandusky, committee counsel, sent out invitations to fourteen industry groups to join in the party. Representatives of all federal agencies concerned with fuel and power also will participate.

English Still Prevails In Israel

TEL AVIV—(AP)—English still remains the most popular foreign language in Israel where Hebrew is the official and prevailing tongue.

Among the more than 200 newspapers and periodicals in Israel, 24 are published in English, nine in French, eight in Yiddish, six in German, five each in Arabic, Hungarian and Bulgarian, four each in Polish and Romanian, and three in Ladino, a language related to Spanish and spoken by Oriental, African and many Balkan Jews.

Texans In Washington

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Seven Texans attended a conference of Grand Masters of the Masonic Jurisdiction of North America.

W. J. Burrus of McAllen, grand master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, headed the delegation. Others were Henry Bell, Tyler, deputy grand master; Leo Hart, Gilmer, grand secretary; Sam Wood, Waco, editor of the Texas Grand Lodge magazine, and three past grand masters — Lee Lockwood, Waco; Bascom Giles, Austin; and Rogers Kelley, Edinburg.

In World War II, Woods was an Army-Air Force officer looking out for 82 newspaper correspondents covering B-29 operations in the Pacific. Now with the Waco News Tribune, he enjoyed getting together with a number of old acquaintances who are in news work here.

The Texas Masons, most of whom had their wives with them,

Wilson S. Stone of the University of Texas Zoology Department has notified Senator Tom Connally that plans for a scientific research project soon will be submitted to the Atomic Energy Commission and naval research authorities. Approval of the plan will qualify the school for a federal grant.

The city of Temple has offered the Air Force the use of Draughton-Miller Airport as a support base for either nearby Fort Hood or Connally Air Force Base at Waco.

The Selective Service System reports that of 33,818 draftees in Texas in the three months of August, September and October, 12,346 or 36.5 percent, were rejected for military service.

Rejected for physical reasons were 4,150, or 12.3 percent of the total, and on mental tests were 7,540 or 22.3 percent. Other factors entered into the rejection of the rest.

In the southern states as a whole those rejected accounted for 40.1 percent of the total. Those rejected for failure to pass mental tests accounted for 34.9 percent of the total examined in the southern states, 18.6 percent for the nation as a whole.

Rep. Ken Regan of Midland, speaking in the House, highly commended Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's announced plan for consolidating several bureaus and reducing personnel.

An opponent of the Brannan Farm Plan, Regan praised the "Brannan Plan No. 2" saying: "Such action on his part will set such an excellent example, and meet with such popular approval, that it may be promptly followed by a Chapman Plan (Interior Department), a Sawyer Plan (Commerce), a White House Plan, and yes, even an Oscar Ewing Plan (Federal Security Administration), from which this Congress may evolve a plan that will bring about a tremendous reduction in domestic expenditure."

Government Won't Sell Mexican Meat

NEW YORK — (AP) — He relies my hobby, rather than busi-ness, Cohan said. "I have a love for show people, and I have the money to invest in show people and in shows. "When show people need help or when they get hurt, I want to pick them up. And I suppose that urge goes back to the beginning of my own career. I started out as an actor when I was a youngster and got a part in Gus Edwards' 'Schooldays' vaudeville act.

Nevertheless, Cohan has invested money in more than 30 Broadway shows during the past ten years. And he would have invested in more than 30 except that he got some bad advice from a few professional Broadway show managers and failed to invest in "Oklahoma," "Finian's Rainbow" and a few other such hit extravaganzas which would have made him a profit if only he had followed his own inclinations.

At present he has a winner in that it is his willing pocket-book which provides the means for the current production of "The High Ground," the hit mystery drama which stars Margaret Webster and Leueen MacGrath.

Theaters and shows are real market for meat barred from the U. S. because of the foot-mouth disease below the Rio Grande.

TRYING HIS LUCK AT ARCHITECTURE — Charles Luckman (left), 41, whose resignation as $300,000-a-year president of Lever Brothers soap empire was big news in business world a year ago, checks drawing with William Pereira, his partner in Hollywood, Calif., architecture firm. They were classmates at Univ. of Illinois School of Architecture.

Time Now To Repair Tackle

ATHENS — (AP) — Now is the time to get things ready for spring. To a fisherman this means tackle.

favorite rod and listening to the tune of the reel again. Look over the rod first. If it's a bamboo, check the finish for scars or cracks. Cane rods need plenty of care. Steel or glass rods need hardly any care, but it's always good to glance at the windings and guides. A cracked agate has ruined many a fishing trip. Your reel, unless you're one in a million, is going to need attention. Fix it up too. Kerosene and disassemble the reel. Wash everything thoroughly, and be sure to clean out gear-clogging grease. Then grease the gears with a lubricant made especially for the purpose, oil all moving parts, and put things back together again. And you aren't really ready until the tackle box has been looked over, repairs made on the smaller items, and a lot of other details taken care of.

President's Visitors Are A Varied Lot

By ED CREAUGH

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman has flown off to Key West and peace of a sort, descends on the White House.

The White House can use some peace. It's been a rugged week. There's a last-day-of-school atmosphere in the executive offices every time the President goes away. This time it was worse than usual. The President's going to be gone three weeks and everybody and his brother wanted to get in a last word.

Most of them succeeded, too. The White House lobby looked for a while like Grand Central Station, New York, with the Shermans leaving and the American Legion just getting into town.

You should have been here. You would have enjoyed it. Waiting to see Mr. Truman at one time were Girl Scouts, Socialists, Negro leaders, half the population of Detroit, well, it seemed like half, anyway, legions with buddies, poppies, and a few quiet types who turned out to be government officials.

By anybody's method of looking at it, the Girl Scouts were the cutest. There were three of them, each 12 years old, bouncing and giggling on one of the roomy brown leather daybeds.

They are just old enough to know the President of the United States is a pretty important fellow, but not old enough to be overly impressed by any mere adult. This was their big day and they were enjoying it. Everybody else was enjoying them, too. Well, they skipped into Mr. Truman's office in due course, attended by some well-groomed lady scouts, and the President gave them a big hello and made a nice speech about Girl Scouts, and pretty soon they skipped out again, grinning like baby foxes.

Then the Negro leaders, a dozen of them, came and went. By this time the White House lobby, with the huge round mahogany table in the center was jumping.

Michigan arrived. Norman Thomas dropped in. He's been running for the presidency, on the Socialist ticket, since late in the middle ages.

Backed into a corner between brass floor lamp and an ashtray, one reporter looked over the confusion in the lobby and delivered a three-word verdict: "Democracy in action."

He wasn't kidding, either.

RESULTS

... To those who wish to sell their property, I submit a selling record that justifies such owners listing their property with me.

... From January 31, 1951 to February 28, 1951, I sold, and have under contract for closing, sales totaling

$210,065.00

... and this represents not one large sale, but 12 separate Real Estate deals—And the month of February is considered one of the slow months of the year as far as buying and selling is concerned.

... There is still an active market in Pampa and the Panhandle, and if you wish to sell your property, would appreciate your giving me a listing on anything that you might want to sell... I have lived in this Panhandle country all my life, and my friends and acquaintances are numbered in the thousands.

... Now lets get started on this months business—The first thing is to congratulate J. C. Daniels on his new radio station—its a honey if I ever saw one—theres nothing I'd like better than to carry a big 30 minute personable talk everyday telling people how I can sell Real Estate, but thats out of the question—by the time I get thru paying the overhead down at the Pampa News theres nothing left—The second thing is to congratulate the First Nat'l Bank on its big beautiful new bank building—thats an asset not only to Pampa, but to the surrounding community—I was a little disappointed in Mr. Schuneman not letting me put my sign over the front entrance, but he has about half way promised to let me put a neon sign on his desk—He also tells me that the interest rate on loans will be 50% until the green glass is paid for.

... Are you in the market for a dairy farm—I have one for sale that can be bought for 16,000 with one half down—theres 320 acres of it, and it has a 5 room modern house, grade A dairy barn, 20 ft. well with pressure pump—its on REA—has a 1000 gal butane tank—200 acres is in grass, and its located south of Pampa—Possession May 1st.

... And heres an 80 acres between Miami and Canadian just off the pavement that can be bought for 40 per acre with 1/2 the minerals—if you wanted to speculate a little this might make you rich—its right next to the Phillips block.
