Brevitorials
GREEN FOOTBALL teams, including the Harvesters, are about as unpredictable as the wheat crop. Big green teams look good before the season opens but appear progressively worse as they meet veteran outfits. A current newspaper practice is largely to ignore green elevens until they show what they can do. Team positions are not won through newspaper notices.

YOUTH ASKS CONSENT TO KILL SELF AS KIN ARRIVE
WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 13 (AP)—Dr. H. B. F. Davis, who performed the autopsy on Evelyn Hoyey, actress found shot to death at the farm of Henry H. Rogers, III, said today that "every evidence pointed toward a suicide." The official report of the autopsy had not yet been made public.

PERRY MARRIES TEXAN AFTER LOSING TO ANOTHER NATIVE

COACH ODUS MITCHELL wisecracks that the team is even greener than the Greens—Bryce, J. R. and Stokes. It is also probably the heaviest in Pampa high's athletic history. A 180-pound line combination is possible. The backfield is not heavy but it is well balanced. But from last year's squad of 35 boys, only 8 are back this term. Such a staggering blow by graduation is perhaps unequalled by any other school in Texas. The reserves are weaker than for several years. If certain huskies should be lost through injuries or scholastic troubles, the team would be shattered. One day it looks good; the next it appears listless. Such is inevitable when green and yellow are used. Some of the biggest Harvesters of '35 have never played football before.

ANNOUNCES FOR SENATE

SAFETY COUNCIL MEETING HERE TO BE ON WEDNESDAY
The Texas Panhandle Advisory Safety Council will hold its first regular meeting here, Wednesday, Sept. 18, at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium at Pampa.

A GOOD GUESS is that the Harvesters will be powerful by Thanksgiving. So, for that matter, will the Sandies, who reserves will be stronger than Pampa's. Pampa may have trouble getting by such teams as Childress, Capitol Hill, Lubbock, and Port Collins. More than anything else, the Harvesters need experience in actual play. They need to learn to love punishment—giving and receiving. Some players are born like a brick wall; others learn only with painful experience.

Tickets To Ball Are Going Well
Hostesses Selected; Costumes Interest Many Women

Preparations for all the all-Panhandle Pioneer ball and square dance to be held next Tuesday evening at the high school gym, beginning at 8 o'clock, had reached the point today where scores of women were either making or seeking costumes to wear to the dance, about 50 other women were reserving tickets, and the men folks had reserved that date for one purpose only—to attend the dance. A prize is to be given to the woman wearing the most attractive and appropriate costume. Judges for this contest have already been selected. The ball will open with the Grand March which will be led by a celebrity yet to be named. The costumes of the women will be shown to best advantage in the Grand March. Thereafter, more than a half-dozen fiddlers will be on hand to furnish music for the squares, the heel and toe polka, the waltz, the schottische, the breakdown and other popular favorites of the last 25 years of the past century.

Prizes Listed
Members of the three music clubs, the Treble Clef, the Junior Treble Clef and the Philharmonic choral, which are sponsoring the dance, will wear costumes. They are also in charge of ticket sales. Admission to everyone will be forty cents each. Mrs. A. H. Doucette, chairman of the costume committee, today urged residents who own old-time costumes that would appear to good advantage to wear them in order to make the dance as colorful as possible. She also suggested that women who do not possess appropriate costumes and who cannot borrow or rent any, could either make them or have them made. She could furnish suggestions as to cut and style.

Dressmakers who would be interested in making costumes for the dance were asked to telephone Mrs. Doucette.

BREAKFAST IS COURTESY FOR TWO FALL BRIDES-ELECT

CLEVER PARTY STARTED WITH MOCK SHOWER

MISS BUCKLER AND FAULKNER ARE HONOREES

Miss Virginia Faulkner and Miss Margaret Buckler, both October brides-elect, were complimented with a clever mock shower and breakfast Wednesday morning when Mrs. C. T. Hankapillar and Mrs. Charles Thut were hostesses. At Mrs. Thut's home.

Each guest had been asked to bring some discarded kitchen utensil or broken dish beautifully wrapped. These were presented before the breakfast, creating first conversation and then amusement as the honorees started inspecting them.

Breakfast was served at two tables, with an honor guest seated at each. Centerpieces were electric waffle irons with huge bows of yellow and green ribbon. Streamers in the same colors led to each plate, ending with hand-made place cards with pen and ink sketches of the young bride in various predicaments—weeping over burnt biscuits, carrying enormous baskets of groceries, or dreaming of household tasks.

Later the cards were used as each guest was asked to write her favorite recipe and present it to the honoree at her table. The centerpieces were also presented as gifts from all the guests.

Each guest told some humorous experience of her early married life during the breakfast. Misses Harriet Hankapillar and Marjorie Buckler assisted in serving the grapefruit, waffles and sausage, and coffee.

Those present were Miss Buckler, Miss Faulkner, Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mrs. Siler Faulkner, Misses Geneva Langens, Mrs. G. H. Walker, Mrs. S. C. Burdett, Mrs. A. Cole, Mrs. Dick Walker, Mrs. T. R. Martin, Mrs. Mel Davis, Mrs. W. A. Bratton, Mrs. George Walstead, Mrs. Clifford Braly, Mrs. A. H. Doucette, Mrs. T. E. Ross, Mrs. W. Purviance, Mrs. J. H. Kelsey, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, Mrs. J. M. Dodson, and Mrs. Henry Thut. Miss Buckler is the bride-elect of Russell G. Allen, and Miss Faulkner's marriage to E. L. Green Jr. has been announced for October 5.

Ward Units Open P-T-A Year

Horace Mann Association Has Many New Members At First Meeting.

Many new members were among the 125 parents and teachers who attended the first fall meeting of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association at the school building yesterday afternoon.

Teachers were introduced by Miss Josephine Thomas, principal, and new members by Mrs. A. L. Burge, president. Mrs. Burge presided for the short business session when it was voted to sponsor a Halloween carnival patterned after the successful one of last year, as the first large project of the term.

Mrs. G. A. Cotton was leader of the program. A talk on The Home, by Mrs. W. Purviance, was the feature number. P-T-A songs were led by Miss Loma Groon with Miss Frances McCue at the piano. Miss Llewellyn Shelby, school health director, spoke briefly of health plans for the year.

Entertainment included two readings, The First Day of School, and Sunshine, by Mrs. T. F. Morton, and a tap dance by Vada Lee Alden and Glenda Stevens, accompanied by Mrs. Kathryn Steele.

The meeting ended in a get-acquainted game, won by Eugene Mann, a new teacher in the school.

Hopkins P-T-A Is Organized After School Program

Opening assembly of the school year was followed by a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association at Hopkins school Wednesday afternoon.

The assembly program was in charge of Miss Margaret Hamrick, second grade teacher. Numbers were as follows:

Assembly songs, led by Gene Cooper.

Billy Boo, and Dirty Hands, by four girls.

Piano solo, Irene Westbrook. Five Little Squirrels, by four girls. Rhyming Words, Wileta Partridge.

Sweeney River, six girls. Mother's Garden, second grade. Thirty parents and the teachers met after this program to discuss plans for the Parent-Teacher association. It was decided to have another meeting next Wednesday to elect officers and formulate plans for next year.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Irene Beckett, Misses LaTrice Quantibaum, and Wilma Jarrell.

Nice Enough

A glorified version of the popular shirtwaist dress makes a suitable co-ed costume for informal parties at the sorority house. Of brown silk bengaline, it is trimmed with buttons of self material and tiny Peter Pan collar of fur.

Young people of the Presbyterian church, several of whom are leaving this week for college, were special guests at the congregational dinner Wednesday evening.

After dinner in the church annex, the program time was devoted to informal discussion of church plans for this year, stressing efforts toward construction of a more adequate building.

Standard Association Is Goal of Year for Sam Houston P-T-A.

Setting their goal at state standardization, members of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association yesterday started a term with a business meeting and program under the leadership of Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, new president.

Membership more than 90 at the beginning of the year, will be brought up to standard requirements at once, the committee in charge of that work announced.

Mrs. Carl Boston was elected vice president when the resignation of Mrs. J. A. Arwood was presented. Mrs. Sherman White was named finance chairman for the year.

Supt. R. B. Fisher was the speaker. His talk on schools and economic conditions in Russia, France and England was based on his summer travels in those countries. He spoke informally, answering a number of questions asked by hearers.

Mrs. Philip Wolfe sang a solo, Goodbye Summer, with Madeline Tarpley as accompanist.

Teachers were introduced, and Mrs. Culbertson also presented members of her executive board.

Empty Lives Are Deplored in Talk To Young People

"The greatest question that comes to youth today is not 'How shall I make a living?', but 'How shall I make a life?'" said the Rev. Algie H. Carleton in his message to a fine crowd of young people and Boy Scouts at the Harrah Methodist Chapel meeting last night.

"There are many standards of success which appeal to youth: physical, financial, and social; but the real challenge comes to be truly great in Christian service. It is our business to convince this generation that we will have courage to face the road of personal sacrifice rather than the easy road of self-indulgence."

Mr. Carleton compared many people today with a powerful car with stripped gears, making lots of noise, with all the apparatus of life, yet not connected to the driving power necessary to real life.

"Thousands today are living for nothing, toward nothing, and will arrive at worse than nothing. For emptiness leads to sin and sin when it is finished brings despair and death. But any one may fill his life with God, remember his creator in the days of his youth, and in so doing find life himself and make life possible for others."

Tonight, Mr. Carleton is to speak on "Spiritual Starvation," and Saturday night on "The Awakened Sinner."

SS WORKERS BANQUETED AT M. E. CHURCH

DINNER AND PROGRAM ARE ATTENDED BY 65

A banquet given by First Methodist church to its Sunday school teachers and officers was attended last evening by about 65 workers in various departments. Girls of the high school department—served the dinner, prepared by women of the Missionary society.

Religious and educational conditions in Russia, Germany, and England, especially as concern young people, were discussed informally by R. B. Fisher, who has just returned from a European trip. He, Mrs. Fisher and their son Brent, appeared in costumes which he bought in Russia and Germany.

The Rev. Gaston Foote spoke briefly, emphasizing the large place of Sunday school training in building lives.

Mrs. C. T. Hankapillar, new chairman of personnel in the Sunday school, acted as toastmaster. She introduced Mrs. Ralph Chisum, superintendent of the children's division; Mrs. S. A. Hurst, superintendent of the young people's division, and Philip Wolfe, superintendent of adults, who in turn introduced their department leaders, teachers, and officers.

B. C. Wallace played two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Brummett. The invocation was by Mrs. C. T. Nicholson.

Twenty minutes of old beloved songs will precede the sermon. The service begins at 8 p. m.

Play Will Be Read At Church Service To Preface Sermon

"Dust," a one-act play written by Archer Fullingim and Ben Gull, will be presented Sunday night as a special feature of the evening service at the First Methodist church. The service begins at 7:57 p. m.

"Dust" is based upon the severe dust storm of last spring and will be presented by Mr. Gull. Following this presentation, the pastor, Rev. Gaston Foote, will preach from the subject, "Stickability."

A special invitation is extended to everyone to be present. Rev. Mr. Foote will preach Sunday morning from the subject, "What Do You Think of Yourself?"

MILLIONS OF POUNDS HAVE BEEN USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

Foes Of Long Begin Attack And Gov. Allen Lashes Back

Officers Shout And Kids Laugh at Funeral

By ED DESOBRY
Associated Press Staff Writer
BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 13. (AP)—Leaderless lieutenant of Senator Huey P. Long turned from the slain dictator's grave today to preserve the power of his dynasty.

Behind a curtain of silence drawn around the statehouse, the divergent interests and ambitions of Long's followers created an impression of confusion in their ranks, and foes of the Long machine seized the opportunity to begin their attack.

"Long is dead but Longism still lives," Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana said.

The committee has sought to have Senator John H. Overton unseated from the United States senate on the claim that he had been elected through fraud inspired by the Long machine.

"In Louisiana absolute tyranny still reigns," Mrs. Hammond said in a statement. "The cruel shackling of the state statute books and corruptionists are still in control, while in Washington Longism lives on in the fraudulent title of John H. Overton to his seat in the senate of the United States."

"The battle of the women's committee of Louisiana has always been based on principles, not on personalities. That fight goes on."

Bitter Statement

To offset the rapidly developing attacks, Governor O. K. Allen, titular head of the organization which Long built into the most powerful machine in America, issued a formal statement bitterly denouncing "those who plotted and inspired" Long's death and declaring "principles cannot be annihilated by murder."

"The principles for which Senator Long stood will survive through the ages," Allen said. "They will be impervious to gun-fire and gangster methods employed by those who hope to achieve political success through their destructions."

He added that there would be no "temporizing" with the "assassins."

There was silence today at the $5,000,000 skyscraper capitol Long built even as there was a move to resume normal activities. It was where he was wounded fatally by an assassin during one of his special sessions to strengthen his "dictatorship" Sunday and it became his monument yesterday.

Inquest Monday

As a crowd estimated at from 100,000 to 200,000 looked on, Long was buried in front of the capitol yesterday afternoon.

While speculation over Louisiana's political future continued, Dr. Thomas B. Bird, East Baton Rouge coroner, laid plans to go forward Monday with the oft-delayed inquest into the death of Dr. Carl A. Weiss, Jr., Long's assassin.

The coroner returned a simple verdict in Long's death. It read: "Gunshot wound (homicidal)."

District Attorney John Fred Odum said new witnesses would be heard Monday but it was not known whether any of the bodyguards, whose presence the coroner has been unable to secure, will testify.

An indirect denial came from Mrs. Weiss today that her husband was involved in any "hotel room plot" to kill Senator Long. At her parents' home in Opelousas, La., she said she did not believe Dr. Weiss was present at a hotel room conference of politicians in New Orleans at which Long once said plans for killing him had been discussed.

Earle J. Christenberry, Long's secretary, had issued a statement saying he believed Weiss drew a "short straw" in an assassin's plot to kill the senator.

Clubs' Fate Uncertain

Along with the uncertainty over the future of Louisiana's politics, there was similar speculation over what might become of the senator's "share our wealth" clubs over the United States. Talk that they might fall behind Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia to support him as a "share our wealth" candidate for president in 1936 was scouted by the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, Long's national club organizer.

Long's funeral yesterday was a memorable event.

Dying Tuesday morning at 4:06 (C. S. T.) of a bullet wound in the abdomen, the senator's body was placed in the magnificent rotunda of the capitol Wednesday where from 3:15 p. m. that day until 4 p. m. yesterday more than 100,000 filed past the bier to see the fallen leader.

With tens of thousands massed on the state house grounds, bringing lunch to spend the day, sleeping under oak trees and milling about double lines were formed so that persons could pass on both sides of the coffin simultaneously.

By actual count, they moved by at the rate of about 100 per minute. Officers kept them almost running with shouts of "hurry up" "get along" and "step lively," but despite that thousands were disappointed when the doors were closed promptly at 4 p. m.

A score or more in the huge crowd were overcome and many were brought into the state house where they were revived.

'Ain't He Pretty'

A child which had been lifted by his mother so he could see the body, exclaimed: "Ain't he pretty?"

Later in the crowd outside as the casket was being carried to the grave, an aged man hysterically shouted:

"I want to throw myself on Huey Long's body."

Just as the body was brought to the grave hundreds broke through police lines and rushed forward. There was considerable confusion before officers, aided by 100 men hastily deputized in the crowd, could push them back.

With the Rotunda closed to the public at 6 o'clock and the hall cleared, Mrs. Long and the Long children, Miss Rose, Russell and Palmer Reid, came in to view his body for the last time.

They followed the coffin as it was carried down the broad terrace of steps to the grave in the sunken garden in front of the capitol. With them was Huey P. Long, Sr., 82-year old father of the senator.

They were followed by other relatives, a United States senate committee of Long's colleagues, the membership of the Louisiana legislature, state officials and others.

The funeral services were conducted under an awning by the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, national organizer of Long's "share-the-wealth" clubs.

Smith Speaks

"The lives of great men do not end with the graves," he said. "His spirit shall never rest as Long as hungry bodies cry for food, as long as lean human frames stand naked as long as homeless wretches haunt this land of plenty. He fell in the line of duty. He died for us."

After a short prayer, the body was lowered into the grave at 4:52 p. m. (C. S. T.) the copper lid of the

HULL APPEALS TO MUSSOLINI TO AVERT WAR

KELLOGG PEACE PACT IS INVOKED BY POWERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—The United States threw its full moral support into the scales against war today in a stirring last-minute appeal by Secretary Hull for a peaceful settlement of the threatened Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

Proclaiming the peaceful ideals of the American people and citing this government's contributions toward the world's collective efforts to avert hostilities, Hull called on all signatories of the Kellogg peace pact to observe their solemn obligations and maintain world peace.

Although the strong plea—made in the form of a public statement last night—was not a formal invocation of the peace pact, it was interpreted by international observers here as lacking only the mechanical details and the added weight of other signatories to make it so. World reaction was eagerly awaited today.

Emphasizing that Italy and Ethiopia—along with 61 other nations—have pledged themselves to settle their dispute by pacific means, Hull declared that since war would have serious and adverse effects on every other nation they had a right to demand that nations threatening world peace live up to their obligations.

"All nations," he said, "have the right to ask that any and all issues, between whatsoever nations, be restored by pacific means.

"Every nation has a right to ask that no nations subject it and other nations to the hazards and uncertainties that must inevitably accrue to all from resort to arms by any two."

The American government's cardinal policy in regard to the Italo-Ethiopian controversy, Hull said, is "the preservation of peace."

Every other nation, including Italy and Ethiopia, he asserted, is committed by treaties to that same high ideal, "and we earnestly hope that no nations will, in any circumstances, be diverted from this supreme objective."

REVOLT SQUELCHED
MEXICO, D. F., Sept. 13 (AP)—Reports in well-informed political circles said today that a plot against President Lazaro Cardenas had been definitely frustrated by the ousting from congress of 17 members of the minority bloc of the chamber of deputies.

Black-Draught's Refreshing Relief

Don't neglect constipation! Take Black-Draught at the first sign you need something to help restore regular elimination.

"I feel like Black-Draught is a mighty good medicine and don't know how I would get along without it," writes Mrs. W. D. Jowers of Minden, La. "I take it for constipation and biliousness. When I get myself get constipated, I feel dull, sluggish and drowsy; can't settle down to my work for that tired feeling. I take a small dose of Black-Draught at bedtime for several nights and soon feel fine. If I bothered with a tight feeling, or gas on the stomach, I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals."

Black-Draught costs less than most medicines for constipation.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
901 North First.

"Substance" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 15.

The Golden Text is: "Ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance" (Hebrews 10: 34).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms" (Deut. 33:27).

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. . . . As mortals begin to understand Spirit, they give up the belief that there is any true existence apart from God" (pages 335 and 283).

"ALL-BRAN FORMS MAJOR PORTION OF MY BREAKFAST"

Delicious Cereal Relieved His Constipation*

Read Mr. Huyghe's voluntary letter: "After suffering for years, I happened to notice in the grocery a box of ALL-BRAN. I determined to give it a fair trial.

"Today it forms the major portion of my breakfast. I cannot say enough for its effect, as I am a man 58 years of age, at the time in life when one needs just what ALL-BRAN does for you."—Mr. Robt. A. Huyghe, 810 Union St., New Orleans, La.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

Kellogg's All-Bran furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines, also vitamin B and iron.

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the "bulk" in leafy vegetables. How much better to use this gentle food in place of patent medicines.

At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

COURT RECORD

May Fix Rate.
It is likely that the county tax rate will be set tomorrow afternoon at a session of the county commissioners.
A recent decision of the court to reduce assessed valuation of grazing land to $1.50 and to cut $1 from values of farm land other than grazing land will likely be discussed from the standpoint of whether such action should be rescinded. Such a cut, said to be below the average of nearby counties, automatically reduced the values for taxation by common school districts. A number of residents of these districts, feeling that the schools will be hurt more than land owners benefited—except absentee landowners—have urged that the basis of assessment be restored to what it was. Shorter school terms would be forced under the new values, it is pointed out.
A. S. Cambren, former county jailer, is serving as county highway patrolman and furnishing a car for the rounds. He makes in cooperation with R. H. Routh, state highway patrolman. Cambren's salary was fixed at $150 per month. He was employed for one month as an experimenter in halting of overloaded trucks, which are said to be damaging the highways.
Suits filed in 31st district court: Alex Smith vs. Wm. Flaherty, note; A. W. Honsinger vs. R. W. Lee, damages; Floyd Hostetter vs. F. S. Brown et al, compensation.

Pampa Phillips Called Surprise Team of Tourney

Bits of this and that from the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament just ended:

Biggest surprise club—Phillips of Pampa.

Biggest surprise player—Lerty Winkler, pitcher for Phillips-Pampa. Most amazing turn of events—Coltoso of LeFors scoring six runs in the 10th inning to defeat Huber of Borger.

Most sensational play—Vic George's one-handed stab and throw to second.

Best baserunner—Brickell, Road Runners.

Most improved club—Coltoso Gas of LeFors, fourth last year, first now.

Unluckiest club—Phillips of Pampa and Coltoso carbon. Both had games "won" and lost them despite the fact that pitchers had wonderful records.

Unluckiest player—Commons, Coltoso Carbon.

Longest hit—Mear, Coltoso-Carbon.

Most popular player—Al Summers, Road Runners.

Noisiest player—Tank Horton, Road Runners (defending champion).

Noisiest fan—Hooks Richardson. Player hit by most pitched balls—Scaling, Road Runners, 4 times.

Player drawing most walks—Scaling, Road Runners, 7.

Most times at bat—Brickell, Road Runners, 37.

Most runs—Neil and Brickell, Road Runners, 8.

Most base hits—Neil, Road Runners, 17.

Most bases—Neil, 29.

Most runs batted in—Neil, Patton and Summers, Road Runners, 9 each.

Best batting average—Littrell, Phillips-Borger, .600.

Leading pitcher—Parker, Coltoso Gas, 9 wins and no losses.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIEZE Associated Press Sports Writer

SPECULATOR, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP)—What impresses you most about Max Baer's come-back efforts is his endurance. . . it used to be he was only good for about a minute and a half of fighting in each round. . . now he can step the entire three minutes at full speed. . . And he has been doing that for nine and ten rounds. . . he thinks he'll dispose of Joe Louis much sooner than that. . . no wonder Manager Ancil Hoffman beams as he motors up and down the country roads.

Max's camp is ideal. . . it is far back in the woods, about five miles from the village. . . once daily Max motors into Speculator for his public workout. . . then he is hustled back to the simple life. . . the rest of the time he is isolated with only his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, and trainer Izzy Kline as company. . . Mrs. Max is at a cottage in Speculator. . . she usually motors out to the camp to have dinner with her husband. . . then right back to town.

There isn't even a radio in the forest retreat. . . Max asked for one but Hoffman turned him down. . . so every time a visitor arrives with a radio in his car, Max deserts his guests to sit in the car and listen to popular music until the visitor departs.

Hoffman says his former unruly charge is being a good boy. . . he hasn't been off the reservation, at night since camp was pitched. . . just the same, Popper Baer is taking no chances. . . he carefully hides the cars every night and sleeps with the auto key under his pillow.

Max turns out at 6 a. m. and with Izzy Kline does six miles of roadwork around the lake. . . Then he breakfasts, puts in two hours of wood chopping and goes canoeing. . . lunch is followed by a nap, then the workout in Speculator and

ALLISON CONFOUNDS CRITICS AND THEIR FAVORED RANKINGS

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP)—For years they've been calling Wilmer Allison the "tumbling Texan." But he stayed on his feet thru-out the 54th men's National singles tennis championship and today, with his feet still hugging the ground, he stands as king of American courts.

Allison gained the championship yesterday when he submitted Sidney R. Wood Jr., of New York to a decisive straight set defeat with the loss of only seven games. After the way Allison dethroned Fred Perry of England on Thursday few anticipated he would have any trouble getting by his Davis cup teammate. He didn't.

Allison's victory in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3, will go down on the dinner at 5 p. m. . . Medtime is 9 o'clock sharp.

records not only as one of the most popular, coming as it did after more than ten years of intensive campaigning, but it ever will be a memorable one as he triumphed in the first joint holding of the men's and women's championships.

To say that Allison's triumph was thoroughly unexpected is putting it mildly. As No. 1 player, he was accorded the honor of topping the seeded Americans. That honor rightfully belonged to red-headed Don Budge who was such a sensation at Wimbledon this summer.

But there was little balm in the honor for the Texan. He was drawn in the same bracket as Perry along with Enrique Mies of Spain, Frank Shields and Frank Parker. Budge topped the opposite bracket with apparently clear sailing to the final. He didn't get beyond the quarter-final due to the granite-like figure

All Star Team Of Tournament

First base—Neil, Road Runners, Huffman, Coltoso Gas (tied).

Second base—Summers, Road Runners.

Shortstop—George, Road Runners.

Third base—Hale, Coltoso Gas.

Center field—Seitz, Road Runners, Surface, Phillips-Borger (tied).

Right field—Moore, Huber.

Catchers—Polvogt, Coltoso Gas; Horton, Road Runners.

Pitchers—Parker, Coltoso Gas; Daney, Road Runners; Chody, Huber; Winkler, Phillips-Pampa.

Utility infielder—Lowrance, Phillips-Borger.

Utility outfielder—Poindexter, Coltoso Gas.

Note—The team was selected by a group of baseball fans who witnessed most of the games played during the tournament. Votes cast were totaled with the above result.

Credit Body to Meet on Monday

A third regular meeting of the Pampa Credit association will be held Monday in the form of a luncheon at the Schneider hotel.

Reservations of those who expected to attend are desired by Saturday noon by Walter J. Daugherty, secretary. Plates will be 50 cents each.

Travis C. Lively is president of the association.

INDIANS BEAT TULSA 5 TO 2 IN 2ND GAME

TWO TEAMS TO CLASH IN SUGAR TILT TONIGHT

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 13. (AP)—On seven terms again after Oklahoma City's recovery with a 5 to 3 victory last night, the Indians and Tulsa Oilers will glare at each other in a "sugar" game of their Texas league. Shagnessy play-off series tonight. The visitors, victims of a 13 to 8 drubbing on their home grounds Wednesday night, put this half of the pennant battle on a horse and horse basis by virtue of the pitching prowess of their ace, "Red" Evans. Evans did what five of his colleagues had failed to do the night before, and held the Oilers to five hits while his mates picked up 11. Al Sheely took the rap for Tulsa being routed in the seventh and replaced by Matuzak. Regardless of tonight's outcome the two teams will return to Oklahoma City for another game Sunday.

With a one-run lead in the fifth the Indians moved out mere safely ahead when Flood, with Brewer's single in front of him, hit for four bases. Tulsa promptly duplicated in its half, with Sheerin's home following Shoap's single. In the seventh, however, Oklahoma City led the game with Myers' single scoring Evans, who had doubled, and Brewer's third single of the game to send Myers home. Again Tulsa came up scoring, but only one this time. Myers' dropped Holman's line to left center. Holman being second and scoring on Shoap's double.

farm clothes he had on Wednesday night when, after hours of drinking and quarreling, he was found, supported by two men, on the lawn of the farm house in an upstairs bedroom of which the girl had died.

His necktie and belt were taken from him last night following expressions of fear that he might attempt to take his own life. "Let me have a gun, so I can kill myself, too," he was quoted by farmer Claude Battin as having said. Battin was present in the farm house when the shooting occurred. It was Battin's story, strongly bolstered by Rogers and Kelly's accounts, that strengthened official belief today that the girl had killed herself.

The girl's parents, however, and many of her friends refuse to accept the suicide theory, despite the circumstances of the gun at her feet and the evidence that she was alone in the room at the time. The Hoey's have engaged Morris Ernst, prominent New York criminal lawyer and well known liberal, to represent them.

A battery of counsel, headed by James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, has been active in the interests of Rogers. Although there was much drinking at the Rogers farm the night of the girl's death, authorities were by no means convinced that Miss Hoey herself had participated overtly in the drinking. Broadway friends said "she liked to drink, but never was known to get plastered."

It was the unanimous verdict of those who knew her well, also, that she was not a girl who would kill herself. She was never moody, they said. It was rather the opposite, "friends added. The belief that the actress, who asked the musical question, "What is this thing called love?" and died without finding the answer, had killed herself continued to be held by several officials.

Fingerprints may give a definite answer—fingerprints on the .45 caliber, pearl handled revolver that lay at her feet on the bedroom floor when officers found her, a bullet hole in her head. Officers would not say whether they had found any man's fingerprint on the death weapon, or if they had taken prints of Rogers and Kelly, both of whom are now free on bond.

McADOO

Wedding plans, members of his staff said, as yet are indefinite. The California senator could not be reached immediately for explanation of where the romance began. His associates appeared surprised at the announcement, saying he had been seldom seen with Miss Cross. Miss Cross, was shown on her records at the public health service here to be born and reared in Santa Barbara, Calif. She was a graduate of La Santa Barbara hospital. Attempts were being made to reach the senator for confirmation. The senator has been married two times before. Senator McAdoo's first wife, whom he married nearly 50 years ago, was Miss Sarah H. Fleming. Following her death, the senator married Eleanor Wilson, daughter of President. The second Mrs. McAdoo obtained a final decree of divorce last year in California.

SANCTIONS
PARIS, Sept. 13. (AP)—Government officials said today France was ready to clamp down economic and financial sanctions the moment Italy attacks Ethiopia. These officials said France had never contemplated military sanctions.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Sept. 13. (AP)—Metal and mining issues turned strong in today's stock market, and most other groups rallied in their wake. U. S. Smelting spurred about 8 points at one time and gains of 1 to 2 or more were scattered throughout the list. Extreme advances were shaded in the last hour of profit-taking. Trading was generally quiet, however; transactions approximating 1,750,000 shares. The close was firm.

ALLRED FLIES TO MARLIN AND CAN'T LAND AND THEN RETURNS

FRANCE

AUSTIN, Sept. 13. (AP)—Governor Allred saw a great deal of Marlin and adjacent territory when he flew over it three times trying to get around a rain storm. Leaving Fort Worth his plane encountered rain and fog near Temple, dodged about the country about Waco, Marlin and Temple for an hour or so and returned to Fort Worth. After a short delay he took off again, arriving safely in Austin. He was in radio communication with land stations at all times. Joe White of San Antonio has resigned after ten years at sergeant-at-arms of the house of representatives to become an inspector in the motor transportation division of the railroad commission. Before he became sergeant-at-arms, he was page committee clerk, assistant sergeant-at-arms and member of the house. Ernest J. Boyett of Kinble county, assistant sergeant-at-arms during the last regular session and house custodian, has announced for the post. Governor Allred still believes firmly in the interstate compact to regulate the production of oil. Prizes will be awarded as follows: Old fiddlers—First, $10; second, $7.50; third, $2.50. Best man and woman square dance; best couple in each of the waltz, heel and toe polka, schottische; best costume (women's), best caller. Hostesses will be long-time residents of this community. Women who acted as hostesses at the Pioneer Roundup programs during the Pre-Centennial were asked to be on hand Monday night to welcome their friends and to make them feel at home. Many of the same crowd who attended the Roundup are expected here Tuesday night. Reports from Canadian, Miami, Panhandle, Clearendon, Wheeler, Mobeetie and other towns indicate that the dance may be another Roundup. The following women have been asked to attend the dance and act as hostesses: Meses, Claude Ledrick, Lee Ledrick, W. R. Ewing, E. A. Shackleton, T. D. Hobart, J. S. Wynne, John Henry, Alex. 6-Year Resident Of LeFors Dies
Mrs. Mattie Lee Foster, 35, died suddenly this morning at her home in LeFors. The family had been residents of LeFors for the past six years. Mr. Foster being employed in the oil field in that section. Survivors are her husband and two brothers, E. B. Mathis of Texarkana, Ark., and Jeff Mathis of Rome, Ga. The body is at rest at the G. C. Malone Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Laval A Friend?
ROME, Sept. 13. (AP)—The speech of the French premier, Pierre Laval, at the League of Nations assembly today was described by authoritative sources as "neither favorable nor unfavorable and certain not to change Italy's mind or line of action." "We noted with satisfaction that the French premier said nothing unfriendly about us," said a government spokesman.

LeFors To Play Sayre's Eagles At Park Tonight

The LeFors high school football team will swing into action tonight at 8 o'clock under the lights at Shaw park, with the fast Sayre Eagles providing the opposition. Seating capacity at the park has been more than doubled for the season. Coach Bill Bronson and Francis Smith will send a green team against the veteran Eagles. What they lack in experience, they are expected to make up in fight and determination. The team showed remarkable prospects in a scrimmage with the Pampa Harvesters two weeks ago. Since then the coaches have been putting the boys through stiff workouts. Sayre's team had an excellent record last year. Eleven lettermen returned to the squad for this season. LeFors had seven lettermen back from last year. The team, however, has been strengthened by the return of two lettermen from 1933 who were not in uniform last year. Probable starting lineups: LeFors—Hearn and Mathis, ends; Driggers and Thomas, tackles; Williamson and Mathis, guards; Simmons, center; Morgan, quarter; Twigg and Moore, halves; Hall, full. Sayre—Giffin and Waddell, ends; Blaise and Bruner, tackles; Goggins and Merrifield, guard; Immanuel, center; Lewis, quarter; Robinson and Cox, halves; Mallouf, full.

Newsboys To Be Guests of Eagle Buffet Tonight

Carrier boys and street sellers of the Pampa Daily NEWS will be guests of Ben Bolton of the Eagle Buffet tonight at 7 o'clock. It is the second annual "treat" for the newsboys. About 35 boys will be present. L. O. Johnson, circulation manager, and Gilmore N. Nunn, general manager, also have been invited.

Softball Game To Be Played Tonight

The Skelly-Schaffer softball team will be hosts and opponents of the Skellytown softballers at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Schaffer plant. The Schaffer boys have defeated the Skellytown team, but by a small score and the usual tight game which is played in that community is predicted.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Banks and son have returned from Terre Haute, Ind., and other northern cities, where they visited friends and relatives. They visited Mrs. Banks' sister, Mrs. McLaughlin in Terre Haute. Laval cited various pacts, including that between France and Russia, as being based upon the league. Applause greeted his assertion that France was working in close touch with Great Britain to maintain peace. Declaring a desire for peace for all, Laval said he viewed with profound emotion the Italo-Ethiopian differences which weighed over the assembly. He spoke with feeling of the records he had made at Rome and at Stresa with Premier Benito Mussolini. Laval said no discord existed between France and Great Britain in their search for a peaceful solution to the Italo-Ethiopian crisis.

with a six weeks period to prove their cases. For rural rehabilitation and housing, the president stated he expected corporate entities to be formed to provide for repayment to the government of the homes to be built by the government. Money is to be provided, he expects, to 100,000 families actually on farms for purchase of necessary implements and for those farmers suffering from effects of the drought. There also is to be an effort, he said, to establish small industries in the farm communities to provide work during the slack season. He is asking Jesse Jones, chairman of the reconstruction finance corporation, and Morris L. Cooke, director of rural electrification, to seek to carry on this undertaking very largely by government loans rather than by direct grants under the four billion works fund. The president also announced a policy to establish permanently the civilian conservation corps but on the basis of a reduced enrollment of 300,000 men. There are now about 300,000 men in the CCC. To meet this present requirement he authorized an additional allowance of $75,000,000. In speaking of the average of $850 per man, the president explained that the four billion dollar works fund is to be divided so that this average will be paid in wages for each person employed under it. He laid down no rule on daily wages. There is no definite period of time specified for the $850 wages. It is an arithmetical problem of dividing the four billion dollar fund for an average wage of $850 per man. KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

ABYSSINIA IS PARADISE FOR FARM PEOPLE

ETHIOPIA HAS GARDEN OF PLENTY FOR FARMERS

BY CHARLES NORMAN (Associated Press Staff Writer)
The shadow of Italy's African legions lies across "the finest piece of unappropriated real estate on the international horizon."

That is the designation given Abyssinia, the largest and most fertile portion of Ethiopia, by Wilfred H. Osgood, curator of zoology, Field Museum, Chicago.

It is a country that abounds in livestock, estimated to number millions; cattle, sheep, goats and poultry are plentiful. It is capable of being converted into one vast granary, said another observer.

The entire surface of Abyssinia shows traces of past volcanic upheavals. Now most of the crater shells are filled with the water of the country's extensive lake system. Iron and coal are found everywhere. Gold is washed from the sand of mountain streams. Godjam is rich in silver, saltpeter, sulphur, and copper deposits. Rock salt is quarried in Taltala. Cotton and coffee are important crops. Medicinal springs abound.

Abyssinia proper is a farmers' paradise.

Perpetual spring weather reigns in many localities, and in these crops are numerous and abundant. Every agricultural product can be raised with ease with the assistance of a bountiful nature, and two and three crops of wheat, barley and maize often are harvested in a year. Only one species of livestock is conspicuously among the missing. The Ethiopians, Coptic Christians since about 300 years after the death of Christ, do not eat pork.

Terrain rough
They like their peppery dishes and raw meat, which is considered a great delicacy.

Between Eritrea and Italian Somaliland and the Ethiopian highlands lie vast, waterless plateaux covered with grass and scrub growths—an uninviting wasteland through which invading soldiers would have to pass.

The mountainous terrain of the interior represents seemingly insurmountable obstacles, and there are few cities which offer effective targets for artillery or air raids. Addis Ababa, the capital; Harrar, center of Emperor Haile Selassie's own province; and Dire-Dawa are the only towns of any considerable size. The rough regions that make Abyssinia proper a turreted castle of a country offer slight opportunities for landing planes or for their take-off.

Brownsville to Hold Celebration

BROWNSVILLE, Sept. 13. (AP)—As the big bridge, Orleans passed the last milepost separating it from the sea and the Brownsville turning basin, and contract for the port facilities here was approved in Fort Worth, plans were launched for Brownsville's greatest celebration at the opening of the Brownsville port.

A mammoth pageant will be a feature of the celebration. Another will be a "parade of transportation." It is practically certain that Vice President John N. Garner will be the principal guest of honor and a speaker at the port opening dedication.

Vice President Garner is considered by Brownsville as the man chiefly responsible for success of the long fight to get deep water. The exact date of the port opening will not be determined for some time.

IN SEASON NOW
BOSTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Not only Adelbert Langtorn, but 22 other fishermen insist they saw a 70-foot, eel-like sea monster raise its crocdile-like head 30 feet out of the ocean on Western Bank. The men, crew of the Gloucester fishing schooner, Imperator, said the monster calmly surveyed their vessel until they reached for the swordfish harpoons. Then, apparently without fins, it swam off along the surface like a water snake.

ROUGH RIDING
PHILLIPSBURG, Kas., Sept. 13 (AP)—The horses and steers had all the best of it at the annual rodeo here.

Horse and steer combined to give Jack Wilson of Fort Worth, Texas, a brain concussion in a bulldogging contest; Joe Faubion of Phillipsburg, was bruised when his horse fell on him; Alfred Clark, photographer, was knocked down by a running horse as he tried to take a picture of a race.

Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the Indian poet and author, was born in Calcutta in 1861.

GASOLINE TAX ROAD FUNDS

The Texas gasoline tax, or part of it, builds new roads, maintains others, and helps to pay for roads built with county participation on designated routes. This tax is one of the most productive and is fairly easily collected. From time to time there are proposals to divert part of it to other purposes.

Extraordinary vigilance may be necessary to prevent diversion in the next two sessions of the legislature. Revenue will be greatly needed. Old-age pensions will be before the solons. Political expediency dictates that some start toward a pension system be made—next year is election year.

There already is talk of increasing the gasoline tax and diverting the increase to some other purpose, such as pensions. Downstate folk would like for the state to take over bonds issued for lateral roads.

It appears to The NEWS that the only excuse for raising the levy would be to rush construction of the main highways for the Centennial year, and let Centennial visitors help pay for the roads through the taxes they would pay. Actually, the gasoline sales tax is already as high as it should be. Moreover, a high-specific sales tax should have a single purpose, which in this instance is the construction of roads.

Any higher burden on the petroleum industry is not justifiable as long as other commodities are not so penalized. The best thing to do to the gasoline tax is to let it remain unchanged and its uses undisturbed.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Plans are being laid in various quarters for attacks, both behind the scenes and in public, on Chairman Jesse Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Jesse seems likely to be in for plenty of trouble unless he can demonstrate that he isn't playing favorites with the Wall Street crowd (the Morgans at the head of the list) and other enemies of the administration. For the gang that has gone sour on Jesse is tough and usually rather effective.

A couple of cabinet members, at last reports, were preparing to tell Roosevelt that "the world's biggest banker" was playing too close with the president's political enemies.

But the chief complaint of the wrecking crew is that Jones is willing to lend a hand—and a lot of government money—to the lawyers, bankers, and managing executives who raked in millions from big railroads now in receivership and are anxious to start the same process all over again at the expense of investors.

The Missouri Pacific is still in the hands of the Van Sweringens, who are in the hands of Morgan. The Vans never put any money in it, but before going bust in 1933 it borrowed $23,000,000 from RFC under their auspices on the basis of a financial statement which RFC lawyers publicly claim was "an amazing act of concealment of liabilities."

Now the Vans, with Morgan holding their holding company shares as collateral for a $48,000,000 loan—the same holding company whose shares it holds controlling Missouri Pacific—come to RFC with a reorganization proposition under which bondholders would get $7,500,000 a year instead of $25,000,000, as now.

It is charged that the promoters, bankers, and lawyers would proceed to clean up at the expense of the bondholders, and the Independent Bondholders' Committee asks "if control is to be handed over to men who have no money in the road, who owe it money and are penniless... to financial jugglers? Fancy bookkeepers? Stock market operators? Promoters? Men who are nimble-footed in escaping government regulation of their aigh finance, nimble-handed in getting overnment loans on statements which do not reveal the truth, nimble-witted in making penniless debtors the masters of their creditors' property?"

Jones must answer that question and also decide whether the banker-lawyer-manager crowd now operating the Chicago Milwaukee & St. Paul (a vast economic power in 12 states, with book value of more than $700,000,000) shall have more RFC millions for a reorganization which parallels a previous reorganization that made millions for lawyers and Wall Street bankers, which Railroad Co-ordinator Eastman predicted would fail and which did.

The St. Paul crowd came straight to Jones to complain against RFC lawyers who had suggested to inquiring senators and representatives that new reorganization legislation be made to apply to pending reorganizations.

The new law required judges to appoint independent trustees, but the House passed a bill which didn't make that apply to current bankruptcies. Senators Barkley and Wheeler, on advice of RFC lawyers, fixed that. Congressman Marcantonio fixed it in the House.

Jesse's attitude toward the Van Sweringens and the St. Paul organization promoters, heretofore considered friendly, may determine his tenure of future employment here. This story is a hot, exclusive, inside tip unless there's some change.

BARBS

According to an Ohio college professor, Europeans contend the World War never ended. The African dispute, then, will be a war to end a war to end a war.

Before the era of pension plan proposals, old people were said to be in their "declining years."

If Ethiopia decides to send Harlem's "Black Eagle" back to this country, he might make a good mascot for the "little NRA" of the coal industry.

According to G. O. P. leaders, in Herbert Hoover 1936 presidential timber has one decided "not."

Defending his nudist colony from criticism, New Jersey camp leader says, "the public must see our side." Isn't that the whole trouble?

'SHORT BUT SWEET' FIGHT OVER LIQUOR IS EXPECTED IN SESSION

AUSTIN, Sept. 12 (AP)—Prohi- constitutional amendment author- repeal and adoption of a ling state old age pensions passed two knotty problems to the legis- lature for solution in a special ses- sion.

A sharp fight is in prospect over methods to control dispensing of liquor. The question of obtaining revenues to meet old age pensions, in view of the heavy deficit and in- creased governmental costs, may prove extremely troublesome.

The struggle over liquor regula- tions is expected to be sharp but it may also be short and decisive. It is probable that after a majority votes for one of two main plans opponents will join to give it im- mediate effect.

One group will propose that sales be regulated through a state mono- poly while another will contend for a license system. The monopoly will find favor with dry leaders, aided by some wets, who would give all profits to the general revenue fund. Leaders in the repeal move- ment will hold out for a system of licenses.

There is doubt among observers which side will be able to muster a majority and strong arguments are being prepared by adherents of the respective plans.

The fact that any bill that fails to obtain a two-thirds majority in each house cannot become effective until 90 days after the end of the session is regarded as sufficient to persuade the defeated faction to support the scheme favored by the majority. Should a liquor regula- tion measure fail to be put into im- mediate effect the state would lose a large amount of revenue.

It is believed that leaders of both groups will have little trouble in agreeing on restrictions on liquor dispensaries after a test on the monopoly and license systems. Pro- hibition repeal leaders have stated they intended to write a bill bring- ing dispensaries under stringent regulations. Dry chiefs have said they would be equally in- sistent.

Both will be looking toward the November, 1936, general election when the question of a mandatory state monopoly will be before the voters.

SENATOR O'NEAL EXPECTED TO RUN AGAINST CONGRESSMAN

AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—If Senator Ben G. O'Neal of Wichita Falls should capture the congressional seat now held by Rep. W. D. McFarlane, in a sense he would follow precedent.

For the second time he would tread in the political footsteps of the Graham congressman, having succeeded him as senator from the 23rd district in 1931. McFarlane served one term in the senate and two in the house.

The senatorial district is composed of Wichita, Wilbarger, Baylor, Archer, Clay, Young, Hardeman, Ford and Knox counties, while the congressional district includes those and Denton, Cooke, Throckmorton, Jack and Montague counties.

O'Neal announced recently, while on a vacation trip to Mexico City, that he would campaign against McFarlane in the election next year.

BANDS WILL BE FEATURES OF TRI-STATE FAIR AT AMARILLO

AMARILLO, Sept. 13.—Bands by the score from far and near next week will come here for the Tri-State fair, which opens Saturday.

Definite schedules already have been received by the exposition management from 19 delegations. Shamrock's green-and-white cied band will be in the vanguard, arriving Monday to share honors with the Amarillo high school band.

Monday, Sept. 16, is Shamrock day and Amarillo day. Schools will be dismissed for children to attend the largest exposition in Texas.

And on Tuesday nobody but the city marshal will be left in Groom. That's the Groom slogan, J. W. Knorr reports.

Wednesday will be banner day. Six bands are scheduled for that day—Plainview, Hereford, Claude, Happy Plainhandle, and Tulla.

This last year won top prize for bringing the largest delegation to the fair.

Six more bands will arrive Thursday. Perryton, Borger, McLean, White Deer, Dalhart and Hooker, Okla., will be represented by groups at the exposition.

Friday is New Mexico day. From the Pecos Valley and other points of the Sunshine state will come large delegations and at least three bands, Tucuman, Clovis, and Portales.

At present the highway patrol is located in the Highway building, while the Rangers are in the capitol. In a short time there will be new bureaus of identification, intelligence and education.

They all will require much more space than now occupied and officials think consolidation of the various divisions will greatly increase their efficiency.

WET COUNTIES IN STATE ARE NAMED IN LIST

14 MAY SELL LIQUOR AND PARTS OF 28 COME UNDER LAW

AUSTIN, Sept. 11. (AP)—A comptroller's department survey disclosed today that sale of hard liquor was legal in all portions of 14 counties and in parts of 28 others. The status of seven counties was not ascertained.

Emmett Morse of Houston, who directed the repeal campaign, presented conflicting information, asserting his survey showed 19 counties were wholly wet and 30 partially.

Morse said he gained his statistics from county judges, county clerk and other sources, carefully checking each to assure accuracy.

The compilation by the comptroller was based on information supplied by county clerks in response to a questionnaire sent to 62 counties in which liquor licenses were issued between April, 1917, and March 31, 1918.

The comptroller asked if sale of liquor was legal in the county as a whole or in parts on July 3, 1919, the date constitutional prohibition became effective.

Upon that basis the department stated the status of counties was:

Totally wet—Austin, Bexar, Comal, Duval, El Paso, Hidalgo, Kendall, Maverick, Menard, Terrell, Val Verde, Washington, Webb and Zapata.

Partially wet—Blanco, Brewster, Burleson (only one precinct dry), Cameron, Colorado (only Rock Island school district dry), Dewitt, Fayette (only two school districts dry), Fort Bend (only one precinct dry), Galveston (largest portion wet), Gillespie and one justice precinct and one school district dry), Goliad, Grimes, Guadalupe (only one precinct dry), Harris, Kerr (only commissioner's precinct dry), Port Bend (only one precinct number eight dry), Live Oak, Llano, Medina (six precincts wet, two dry), Presidio (only city of Marfa precinct dry), Refugio, San Patricia (only justice precinct number three wet), Travis (Austin precinct dry, two possibly some outlying precincts wet), Victoria (only precincts five and six dry), Waller, Wharton and Wilson.

County clerks reported the following counties, in which licenses were issued during the period, were dry on July 3, 1919: Bastrop, Brazos, Calhoun, Dallam, Dallas, Falls, Gonzales, Jefferson, McLennan (dry by election Oct. 20, 1917), Milam, Tarrant, Wichita and Williamson.

Clerks of Karnes, Kinney, LaSalle, Robertson, Starr, Tom Green and Orange counties had not reported to the comptroller.

BUICK MOTOR COMPANY HAS KEPT 10,000 EMPLOYED STEADY IN '35

FLINT, Mich., Sept. 13.—More than 10,000 men will have had steady jobs with the Buick Motor company throughout 1935 at wage rates which are the highest in the company's history and believed to parallel the highest in the automobile industry. It was announced here today by Harlow H. Curtice, president and general manager.

Disclosing a condition of sustained employment unusual in the automotive field, Mr. Curtice announced that:

Buick employment, now at a new high for the year, will be increased during the remaining months of 1935. Several of the company's manufacturing divisions are on two and three shifts daily while other shifts are being added.

Hourly rate workmen on the Buick payrolls have earned an average of more than $140 a month since the first of the year, averaging 40 hours a week during the period.

There have been and will be no sustained or large layoffs this year due to sales fluctuations or other seasonal causes, with the entire Buick working force averaging 11 and one-third months of steady work for the 12-month period.

"The time clock tells an interesting story of employment prosperity at Buick this year," Mr. Curtice said. "At the beginning of 1935 the company launched an earnest endeavor to anticipate retail demand and so schedule production as to maintain a steady rate of employment throughout the year.

"These efforts have met with remarkable success. Employment data covering the period from January 1 to July 31, 1935, shows that at the low point in employment this year a total of 9,912 men were on the payroll as against a previous peak in May, of 10,833. This low point, which occurred in July, represented the major layoffs of the year and was due to the shutting down of the engine and final assembly plants for retooling in preparation for the production of 1936 models.

"The extensive expansion program carried on at Buick during the past 18 months, involving an expenditure of more than $14,500,000, was accomplished with very little loss of time to Buick's productive workers. Operations were ceased temporarily in the sheet metal, foundry and transmission plants to effect necessary machinery, equipment and layout changes. In each instance the shut-down was of short duration, operations being resumed as soon as the changes were effected.

"These and shut-downs of the engine and final assembly plants are the principal items affecting the employment record of the company this year."

Mr. Curtice emphasized that only former Buick employees residing in Flint and its environs will be re-employed. At the same time, he reaffirmed the company's policy of giving preference in all hiring for Buick jobs to those former employees having the longest service record.

"Approximately half of all Buick hourly-rate employees are 40 years or older, and almost the same number have worked for the company 10 years or more," he said. "It is our intention to continue to offer jobs to former Buick men who have served the company long and faithfully."

Louisiana Oil Well Is Killed

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 13. (AP)—After being brought in yesterday making it, was estimated, between 85 and 100 million feet of gas, with considerable oil, which for several hours was allowed to flow into a pit and burn. Pelican Oil & Gasoline Co.'s Section 1, section 14-23-16, was "killed" today preparatory to setting a smaller string of casing after being drilled a little deeper, in the hope of converting it into a big commercial oiler.

Haynes Production company's well in section 15-23-16, a mile southwest of the Pelican well and a half-mile southwest of its Lawton gusher completed last week, which also was added to the completion list yesterday, was reported to be averaging approximately 650 barrels per hour through two-inch choke on casing. Total depth is 6,041 feet in 60 feet of saturated sand.

First Lady Starts Slum Razing

Heralding the day when little Geraldine Walker and thousands of other Detroit Negro children will live in better homes, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt here received a flower from her 5-year-old admirer, the First Lady's visit to the Michigan metropolis to inaugurate the $6,000,000 slum clearance project. Mrs. Roosevelt's appearance was her first after a summer long absence from the public eye.

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic: Timothy (A Christian worker in training).
Scripture lesson: 2 Timothy 1:1-14.

1. Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus.

2. To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3. I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee, in my prayers night and day.

4. Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5. When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8. Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9. Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.

10. But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

11. Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12. For the which cause I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed; for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13. Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

Golden Text: Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth. (Tim. 2:15)

Introduction

"The second Epistle to Timothy is the last letter that Paul ever wrote, as far as our knowledge goes, and it is in many ways the tenderest of all his Epistles. It was written a few months before the great Apostle's death at the hands of Nero, about 66 A. D., and it is dedicated to an amicus in the Mamertine Prison in Rome. John Calvin said of this Epistle, 'For my own part, I know that this Epistle has been made more profitable to me than any other book of Scripture, and still is profitable to me even now; and, if any person should examine it carefully, there can be no doubt that he will experience the same effect.'

"An Apostle of Jesus Christ" v. 1

"It was his joy to realize himself as just this—the emissary apostle of his Lord; it filled him continually and at once with a new quietness and a new energy, animating him for the thousand common days and burdens of the day. He belonged to Another; and in that subtle fact was involved at once a response and motive inexhaustible. And now once more, close to the grave, old, worn out, and in the persecutor's final grasp, he calls himself with the old title and rests with all his weariness upon it. He will never found another church, nor ever plan another tour of inspection and development. He has but to bid farewell and to die, yet he remains to the last in the unaltered possession of the same Sender." H. C. G. Moule.

The first mention of Timothy was near the beginning of Paul's second missionary journey, about A. D. 51, when Paul was travelling through Asia Minor. Timothy was a native of Lystra, a small rustic

Paul on his first missionary journey, and was attracted to him at the time of the healing of the impotent man, no doubt witnessing first the attempted worship of the Apostle, and then the terrible stoning of Paul, by which he almost lost his life. Timothy's father was a Greek, but his mother Eunice was a Jewess. Timothy was associated with the Apostle Paul through a longer period of time than any other co-worker of whom we have record.

Paul's Tender Regard for Timothy

"I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day." 2 Tim. 1:4. "As the cheerless days in the deep prison close and open upon him; as he lies waking the night; as he sits thinking alone or with Luke, when the pale light shines again; he is continually telling the Lord about Timothy, and asking him for mercy and cheer and the drying of a tear, that Paul may see him once again to the perfect joy of his aging and yearning heart. With that instinct of retrospect which is frequently so strong in dying men, he reached back to his 'fathers' and feels their spiritual oneness with himself before their God. Thus, thinking of his 'fathers,' he expresses now a yet tenderer affection towards his 'dear child.' His own soul is faint with a 'home-sick yearning' (the Greek verb means no less) for one more sight of Timothy on mortal shore." (H. C. G. Moule).

Paul's Supreme Faith

"For I know whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed unto him against that day." The word here translated "committed" always implies the situation of one who has to take a long journey and who deposits his money and other valuables with a friend, trusting him to restore it on his return. The committing is always that of the depositor; the duty of the friend is to guard." (Walter Lock). Thus Christ on the cross committed his spirit to God his Father (Luke 23:46), and we commit our souls to a faithful Creator (1 Pet. 4:14). The day here referred to is, of course, the day of the Lord's return. "The sufferer elaborates no fine-drawn theory of his own safety. It lies just in this: 'HE IS ABLE TO GUARD MY DEPOSIT,' to guard myself and my all, always, all along. Through life he will guard it, through death, and 'unto that day,' that unnamed 'day' when at length he will see his Guardian face to face." (H. C. G. Moule).

With Paul in Rome

Whether Timothy was at work with the church at Ephesus or at Corinth or whether he was actually with Paul in his journey to Rome we cannot know. We do know that he was true to Paul all the way. When Paul finally reached Rome we find that he had many friends there already and that the work was organized in such a way that the growth of the church was rapid. Timothy was there with him during that first imprisonment. In every crisis he was found loyal to his old friend. We wish that we might have an accurate account of the days in Rome when Paul in chains continued to preach and Timothy worked among the Christians of the city. It was a great team and God blessed them during the years. Paul wrote letters and referred to Timothy's faithfulness. He wrote to the Philippians: "Ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel." We cannot picture fully the profound impression that this letter (Second Timothy) made on the young preacher of Foesus. It is one of the most precious possessions that we have today. What must it have been for Timothy? It was great to know that his great friend needed him. His friend believed that he would be brave enough to stand for the right in Ephesus and also come to Rome to face probable death at the hands of an infuriated emperor. It is probable that Timothy made the journey rapidly to Paul's side and as a reward for his daring was thrown into prison to suffer along with Paul. We may be reasonably certain that Luke, Mark, and Timothy were with Paul when the axe fell.

LONE STAR GAS FIGURES DON'T JIBE, SAYS COMMISSION REPORT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13. (AP)—A report asserting the Lone Star Gas corporation and subsidiaries of Texas claimed $11,528,516 more in depreciation charges in its income tax returns for 1927-33 inclusive than was written on the company's books was recorded today at a trade commission hearing.

The report, prepared by the commission's investigators, also said that as of December 31, 1934, the system's consolidated fixed capital of $142,547,107 "contained a total depreciation or write-up aggregating $35,678,195.04."

Referring to the "unusual method of handling depreciation and deduction of fixed properties," the report said "that for federal income tax purposes the system claims a total of $21,651,517.98 accrued depreciation and depletion during the years 1927 to 1933, inclusive, while only $19,723,001.25 was recorded on the books of the underlying companies to cover such accruals."

"The excess of the former over the latter, amounting to $5,928,516.73," the report continued, "was augmented by a depreciation adjustment of $5,500,000 recorded on the books of the holding company—Lone Star corporation during the years 1931 to 1933, inclusive."

"In other words, in excess of $11,528,516.73 depreciation and depletion was claimed by Lone Star Gas corporation and subsidiaries for federal income tax purpose over the amounts of depreciation and depletion recorded on the books of the respective companies.

"However, the examiner is advised that federal income tax returns for the years 1927 to 1934, inclusive, have not been closed by the bureau of internal revenue."

The write up of $35,678,195.04 consisted of, the report said, "appreciation of $31,293,288.08 recorded by companies while they were part of the system, and appreciation of $4,384,906.96 recorded by such companies prior to the dates at which they became part of the system."

Chapter 46
GLADY'S STORY

"Your sister is downstairs," said Rex. "I've put her in charge of the woman in the dressing-room, who has taken her into a small salon, which is empty. She is very much upset. Go down to her at once."

He caught Laurie's arm, as she swayed, almost fainting in her relief.

"Steady!" he said gently. "You mustn't give way. Wait for me downstairs. I won't be long."

As she hurried out, trembling, she saw Rex Moore advancing on Jimmy Dallas with murder in his eyes.

Gladys was weeping quietly in the simple, unrestrained misery of a tired child. The tears rained down in a curtain. She had evidently changed her clothes before her flight the night before. She wore a light blue muslin frock and a thin crepe coat over it, and a darker blue crocheted cap on her glorious curls. The dress and coat were crumpled, and looked sorry finery.

Her whole aspect was bedraggled, like a flower that someone has broken off its stem and flung away. She had lost in her defiance, the note of gay selfishness had gone. There was no trace of sullen resistance in the exquisite, tear-drenched face.

Laurie took her in her arms, thanking the dressing-room attendant and intimating that she would go. The little salon led out of a writing-room. Nobody was likely to disturb them at this late, or rather early hour.

"Glad—Glad! My little one, don't cry!" soothed Laurie, like a mother. "You've nothing to cry about now. I've found you, darling! That's all that matters. You're quite safe with me. And Rex is here. Rex found you, Glad. He's wonderful. I'm so happy. I can think of nothing now that you're safe."

The girl cried a little more, but not for long. In the atmosphere of love and selfless devotion with which her sister had always surrounded her, she soon recovered herself. But it was a stricken soul that looked out of the grey-blue eyes.

Child's heart had been sorely wounded, but her self-assurance had received a more crushing blow still. She had thought herself so strong, so independent. She had imagined she could have plenty of fun, and not pay for it. She had put her faith in man in the shape of Jimmy Dallas. And she had had a nasty tumble from the height of romance and adventure into the mire of crass reality.

"Laurie, I'm so wretched!" she said, in a voice hoarse from fatigue and fright. "I thought that love could be a quiet, business-like way. Everything is all right. I have seen Mr. Dallas, and I know that he tricked you into coming here with him, and that you went away last night because you found him out. And in some wonderful way that I don't understand Rex found you."

"Laurie, he can do something to me—I can't tell you what!" Glad confessed, shaking in a sudden paroxysm of fear and shame. "When I'm with him, I can't even think of myself. I didn't know what I was doing. Now it seems I can't have been me who came here with him, and lied to you, and made poor Nelly so miserable, by telling her she must keep my secret."

"Never mind, darling," said Laurie. "It's all right now."

But Gladys had to unburden her poor little heart.

"Now I know I never believed in him at all," she repeated in a strangled voice. "I just wanted to be with him—anyhow. It was all my fault, Laurie. I led him on to think that I knew what he meant. And I thought I did."

"But—when we were back again here last night, after the show and the supper—I just knew that I had been all wrong. I didn't want just a good time. I didn't want to be with him—anyhow. I'm afraid I made a silly scene. I knew what I'd done and I went quite dotty. I think. He tried to make me stay, and I ran away."

Laurie sat with her sister's hands clasped in hers. She did not look at Glad.

"What did you do, darling?"

"I don't know. It was very late, you know. I had to get a porter to

Fugitive From Prison Captured

FORT WORTH, Sept. 13. (P)—"You can't beat the game," concluded L. H. Miller, 30, today as he waited in Tarrant county jail for prison agents to take him back to the state penitentiary from whence he escaped on July 4.

"When you're shot, and broke and wanted in a penitentiary, you haven't a chance," he added. "I found that out when I tried to get back to Huntsville."

Miller, arrested here yesterday with a 20-year old girl, dressed in men's clothing, said he wanted to go back to clear his family name. He already had written a sister and a friend in Paris, Texas, that he was going back to Huntsville, he declared.

He was building a platform in the prison ball park for a Fourth of July celebration when he felt the urge—and walked away. In Denver he decided to return and caught a freight train.

There he met the girl—although he didn't know she was a girl until they reached Amarillo.

He said he worked for a week in a hospital there, trying to get enough money to go to Huntsville. Finally he quit his job and came to Fort Worth. He is under a three-year sentence from Fayette county for Burglary.
