

EDITORIAL ECHOES LINCOLN RECALLED

Lincoln's birthday is February 12. In this day we think more of our leaders who made it what it is than for any other time in this generation.

More than ever does America need great leadership. Soon the great war will be over and we must build again here and everywhere.

Let us hope that we may lead as wisely as our great Lincoln:

Cenotaph of Lincoln

And so they buried Lincoln? Strange and vain! Has any creature thought of Lincoln hid In any vault, 'neath coffin lid, In all the years since that wild spring of Pain? 'Tis false—he never in the grave hath lain. You could not bury him although you slid Upon his clay the Cheops' Pyramid Or heaped it with the Rocky Mountain chain. They slew themselves; they but set Lincoln free.

In all the earth his great heart beats as strong, In all the earth his great heart beats as strong, And burn with hate of tyranny and wrong. Whoever will, may find him, anywhere Save in the tomb. Not there—he is not there. DONALD ROWE.

THERE ARE OTHERS TOO

How many of you have heard of Johnny Jones on Guadalcanal or Bill Green on Wake Island? Remember Colin Kelly, Kagleman, MacArthur and Whelis are not the only heroes in this war. Every day, an unsung hero dies. Bataan, Wake, Guam, and the Solomons with all the other battlefields are covered with unsung heroes. Each dead and dying soldier is a hero. For every Zero that is shot down, there are seven men on the ground that service that P-38 that shot it down. Remember that!

BURKE MORDY

MAYBE IT'S THE ATTITUDE

Do you want a Courtesy Card? The Courtesy Card is as much as the name implies. Courtesy to the teachers and fellow students is one of the main requirements to obtain one.

Courtesy to the teachers and to fellow students. How many are guilty of being discourteous? Most discourteous acts are a result of not stopping to think. Many have the attitude that it is "smart" or "cute."

Being courteous doesn't mean being a "nicey-nice" or of "apple-polishing" the teacher. Rather it means being neat of actions and speech, of being respectful of the rights of the teachers and fellow students.

Teachers and fellow students never appreciate those people who are disrespectful and rude. To be discourteous is to be rude, uncouth, and uncultured.

If one teacher thinks that a student doesn't deserve a courtesy card, because of some act of rudeness on the part of that student, then that student will not receive one. If the student committee thinks that the student does not deserve a card, then he will be refused one.

It is important then to be courteous to all teachers and all students.

In other words: "Courtesy Card" or "Ladies and Gentlemen," the terms are here synonymous.

TOMORROW

He was going to be all that he wanted to be—tomorrow. No one should be kinder or braver than he—tomorrow. A friend who was troubled and weary he knew. Would be glad of a gift and who needed it, too. On him he would call and what he could do—tomorrow. Each morning he stacked up the letters he'd write—tomorrow. And thought of the folks he would fill with delight—tomorrow. It was too bad indeed he was busy today. And hadn't a minute to stop in his way. More time I will have to give other he'd say—tomorrow. The greatest of workers, this man would have been—tomorrow. The world would have known him had he ever seen—tomorrow. But, in fact, he passed on, and he faded from view. And all that he left here when living was through Was a mountain of things he intended to do—Tomorrow.

But with the coming of a new semester, Dee Griffin became ineligible to hold office because he was not returned to the Junior Council. The office of President of the Student Body was declared vacant.

Courtesy cards were presented with a ceremony this week to 63 students from the 31 rooms for outstanding behavior and mannerly conduct.

This is one of the first steps toward entrance in the Victory Corps. The principal, Mr. Winstonsavage, and the superintendent of schools, Mr. L. L. Stone, spoke with congratulations for those who had first merited these recommendations from the faculty and passed on by the junior council.

The Victory Corps is working in Pampa Junior High in all fields. Sunday school teachers report students returning with the mention that they expect to be back next Saturday.

Scoutmasters report old members returning to the troop, and they mention a good attendance for recent meetings. USO executives and Red Cross supervisors send in signed cards that hours of service have been spent with them.

Men don't stop the principal to have him explain the letter for service that has hit Pampa Junior High.

Mr. Paul S. Boyer at Senior has sent in victory cards with points for model planes which several students have completed using his material and following patterns issued by him. Some of the boys met with an afternoon class; others spend hours modeling planes for the navy on Saturday.

A list of students who are first to receive courtesy cards is given: Sixth grade: room 101, Donna Ruth Beagle, Sharon Chapman; room 102, Patricia Cook, Donald Thut; room 103, Cantrell Nash, Billy Marie Gillow; room 104, Joyce Kinard, Arista Lowther; room 105, Ruby Nell Norman, Leona Mills; room 107, William Patterson, Johnny Haynes; room 108, Janet Staggall, Harold Cox; room 201, Gloria Jean Ward, Bonnie Faye Wilson.

WITH THE DOWN THE HALLS

This semester, the ninth grade home rooms have been doing many interesting things. They have settled down again after choosing new home rooms, rearranging home rooms and electing new officers.

Room 112 is taught by Miss Kathryn Simmons, who teaches ninth grade English. On their first home room program, they had a topic on "Manners" which was very interesting as well as useful in teaching students how to act in school.

Miss Durrett is home room teacher of 113. She teaches history. Miss Durrett is ill and Miss Ethelwyn Drennan is substituting until she returns. On home room days, instead of having a program, the time is used as a study period.

Room 118 is taught by Miss Virginia Line. They have two new students, Bernice Brown and Rosemary Hamilton. The student of the week is Maxine Payne.

Miss Line has many quotations on her blackboard. One of them is: "My teachers often criticize me and say I loaf and shirk. I'd do great things and show them, except it's so much work."

Mr. Flaundie Gallman teaches room 211. For four days a week they study math for one hour and 15 minutes. On Friday they have a homeroom program.

Room 214 is taught by Mr. Morgan, a science teacher. They have a "Truth or Consequence" program in the dining room. Helen Hasey and Colleen Voyles are in charge of the program. Imogene Owens gave an imitation of Mae West. Marshall Boswell gave a three minute talk on sharing soap.

Room 218 is taught by Miss Madge Rusk. She says she thinks her homeroom would be the best in the school if they would keep their under-jaw up. They are all working towards a Courtesy Card. Room 215 is taught by Mr. O. Hightower.

Lend-Lease Not Responsible For Food Shortage

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—If Claude Wickard could just keep American civilians from getting stirred up over shortages before general rationing comes, he would breathe a lot easier.

The secretary of agriculture says a good many people are dissatisfied with the food situation. Yet the secretary feels that there is much misunderstanding about food and the way it is being handled. Complaints have reached him to the effect that Americans are being stripped to bare subsistence levels so that immense quantities of food may be sent to the four corners of the globe for Allied fighters and all peoples who profess to be friends of this country. It has been asserted, too, that the best foods are being shipped abroad and that civilians are being put on substitutes.

Secretary Wickard realizes that unless civilian dissatisfaction is held to a minimum, the lend-lease food program may suffer. The nation's war leaders declare it is absolutely necessary that the United States share its food with Great Britain, Russia and other Allies.

What is causing the food shortages?

Enemy propagandists undoubtedly are trying to make Americans believe the lend-lease program is responsible. In fact, it plays only a minor role. So far less than 10 per cent of America's food supply has gone to Allied nations, although more may go to them this year.

1. Demands of this country's own armed forces. Men eat more as soldiers than as civilians.
2. Civilians have more to spend for food than ever before. Their incomes are at record levels, yet there are fewer things to buy, such as automobiles, radios, gasoline, household supplies, and home. Hence, they seek to spend more money for food.

3. Government reservation of some supplies for emergency uses. Last year—civilians had about 87 per cent of a record supply of food. This year they will have about 75 per cent of a supply which is expected to be larger than a year ago.

This 75 per cent should be ample, Secretary Wickard says, to provide every civilian with a good, safe diet—that is, if it is divided equitably.

Many of the local shortages that have developed in recent months to evoke consumer complaints reflected an unequal division of the civilian pool of food rather than a drain by the lend-lease program. In the case of meats, for example, those living in mid-western livestock producing and slaughter areas tend to have ample supplies, while those living in eastern and western seaboard areas have encountered shortages.

Also, those consumers are to go to stores early and often tend to get more than their shares, while others with less opportunities for shopping tend to get less than their shares. Rationing has been adopted as the best method for dividing the civilian supply equitably. However, rationing has been put into effect only in the case of sugar and coffee, two items considered relatively less important. Other commodities—principally canned and processed fruits and vegetables, meats and butter—are scheduled to go on the list by spring.

Until rationing gets under way, it is Secretary Wickard's task to get short supplies distributed as equitably as possible. In this he is depending largely upon the cooperation of the food industry.

That's why your grocer may sell you only so much of some items.

Four Persons Die In Hospital Fire

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Feb. 12 (AP)—Four elderly patients died of suffocation and shock and five other persons were hospitalized last night following fire which swept a two-story home convalescent home here. Three of those in the hospital were reported in a critical condition early today.

Huge Supply of Meat Hoarded in Lockers

CHICAGO, Feb. 12 (AP)—Millions of tons of meat are hoarded in refrigerated country food lockers, John A. Kotal, secretary of the National Retail Meat Dealers association, said today.

Kotal asserted hoarding in the lockers, where individuals may rent vaults to store meat to take care of their requirements for many months, was one answer to the meat shortage in many areas.

Statistics on the amount of meat held in lockers are not available, because government reports of such storage are not required, but livestock men said the figure is much higher than it ever has been. They said their reports indicated the lockers were "jammed."

Kotal said he had informed government agencies at Washington of the meat hoarding, and warned there was a danger of spoilage if there was any interruption in the electric power used by the plants to keep meat at below freezing temperatures.

Nimitz Birth Papers Recorded in Texas

AUSTIN, Feb. 12 (AP)—Indisputable proof that Admiral Chester William Nimitz is a Texan—if such proof were needed—was in the hands of the state vital statistics bureau today.

Abraham Lincoln

HERE WAS A MAN TO BE RECKONED WITH

Humble and peace loving by nature, he had ideals and the courage of his convictions to the point where no effort was too great—no fight too engulfing—to keep democracy strong. Today, on his birthday—we may well emulate Abraham Lincoln's spirit, and give proof of our determination by adding to our purchases of War Bonds and Stamps!
