Twinkles

Well, good rains mean a lot of plowing and planting in preparation for next spring's duststorms, grows the West Foster group.

"Get lower than they do," is the favorite advice coaches to line-men this season. Next thing we know these games will be played underground.

The only really good safety device is the human brain. This oft-spoken truism merits the corollary that a brain functions properly a surprisingly small amount of the time.

Don't get the idea that our school teachers have soft jobs. Most of them are "broke" after a 3-month enforced vacation. What would such a layoff do to you?

When you analyze it, the persons receiving alphabetical checks really need them. Everyone must eat. Alphabet soup is not very thick at best.

Skippy, the family pup, was quite excited and straining at his leash at the fair yesterday. We don't know which was the most embarrassed when a small boy, similarly leashed to his mother, passed by.

Musing of the moment: We dreamed of a dust storm last night—a billowing, choking, burning attack of fine earth driven on a hard wind. Reason: Walking down a dusty mid-way at the Tri-State fair last night choked our sinuses, aggravated our cold, and generally ruined our good disposition today. "Go to bed," says our doctor, after hearing growlings in our bronchials. Maybe.

Visitors Begin Arriving At Noon Today For Pioneer Ball Tonight

COSTUMES, MUSIC AND DANCES TO RECALL ROMANTIC PAST

As in the olden days, persons of the old-fashioned dances, both young and old—the majority of whom are averse to senseless hurly and last-minute rushing—began arriving in Pampa at noon today from other towns for the Pioneer ball and square dance which will be held at the high school gym beginning at 8 o'clock tonight.

Most of those who will come from out of town to the dance have friends in Pampa. Groups from Hemphill, Canadian, Lipscomb counties and from Clarendon had arrived here at noon today. A general exodus of square dancers, both young and old, from half a dozen counties surrounding Gray county, is expected to begin this afternoon.

Hundreds of spectators and dancers from Pampa and this county are expected. Ticket sales, conducted by members of the three music clubs which are sponsoring the dance, the Treble Clef, the Philharmonic and the Junior Treble Clef, took a breath-taking jump yesterday. The sales ladies had no trouble at all in disposing of the pastboards which are priced at 40 cents each. Oil timers of the town are predicting that the crowd tonight will be as large as that at the Pre-Centennial square dances when the old fashioned dances became so popular here.

Mayor Practices. Mayor W. A. Bratton and a dozen other local dignitaries practiced the Grand March which will be held at exactly 10 o'clock. The mayor and a dozen others will lead the march, followed by the other dancers. All women who appear in costumes were urged to take part in the Grand March tonight. It will be in this state's march that.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17 (AP)—Ending an aerial honeymoon trip from Washington, D. C., United States Senator William Gibbs McAdoo and his bride, the former Miss Doris Cross, landed safely here at midnight. Smiling happily, the war-time cabinet member and his 26-year-old bride declined to make any immediate plans except to intimate that they would remain here several days.

Sanctions Mean War And Remaking of Europe's Map

PARIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy asserted in an interview published today in the newspaper Le Matin that "sanctions mean running the risk of remaking the map of Europe."

Nobody now believes that he is playing poker. Il Duce told Le Matin's representative.

"No, it is not a game of poker, but nevertheless Italy holds in her hand the card on which her whole existence is written and she will play that card."

Mussolini turned his criticism upon "attacks, open or stealthy, of those who seek through Italy to humiliate fascism."

He asserted that the rancor aroused by such attacks would be

HOOVER TALKS AS DEFENDER OF 'LIBERTY'

SAYS GOVERNMENT HAS BEGUN TO SAP HUMAN RIGHTS

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 17—Former President Herbert Hoover asserted in a constitution day address here today that some activities of the federal government "are of the same sort of first sappings of human rights that have taken place in other lands."

"Liberty never dies from direct attack," Mr. Hoover declared at the conclusion of 20 years' experience in serving his country at home and abroad dealing "with the backwash of war and revolution."

"No one will dare rise tomorrow and say he is opposed to the bill of rights," he said. "Liberty dies from the encroachment and disregard of its safeguards. Its destruction can be no less potent from ignorance or desire to find shortcuts to jump over some immediate pressure."

"In our country, abdication of its responsibilities and powers by congress to the executive, the repudiation of the government of its obligations, the centralization of authority into the federal government at the expense of local government, the building up of huge bureaucracies, the coercion or intimidation of citizens, are the same sort of first sappings of safeguards of human rights that have taken place in other lands. Here is the cause of anxiety and concern to the thinking citizens of the United States."

Vital principles of American liberty are embodied in the constitution of the United States, Mr. Hoover told an attentive audience in his speech, which he had defined as non-partisan and non-political.

"Our constitution is not alone the working plan of a great federation of states under representative government. There is embodied in it also the vital principles of the American system of liberty. That system is based upon certain inalienable freedoms and protections which not even the government may infringe and which we call the bill of rights."

BURK OIL FIELD WORKERS STRIKE

BURKBURNETT, Sept. 17 (AP)—Two hundred and fifty members of the Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers union walked out of four plants here early today in a demand for a 20 per cent wage increase.

They also asked for a closed shop contract governing working conditions.

Companies affected were Burk Divide, Reno Oil company, Tucker Oil company, and the Bell Oil & Gas company. The vote to strike was originally taken September 3 but action was withheld to seek an agreement with operators.

The operators refused to bargain, picketing started at dawn with the vacuum shut off the wells. Operators feared they would be damaged by salt water at release pressure. The district was confined to the northwest field near here.

J. L. Coulter of Fort Worth, international secretary, led the strikers.

"We will test whether or not we have a right for collective bargaining," he said.

METHVIN TRIAL PROCEEDS

MAMI, Okla., Sept. 17 (AP)—The trial of Henry Methvin, former pal of the late Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker, went ahead today with description by witnesses of the gun battle near Comanche in April, 1934, in which Cal Campbell, Commerce constable, was killed. Methvin is on trial for the murder of Campbell.

JOE SNEED'S WIFE DIES OF PISTOL SHOT

Self-Inflicted Bullet Is Fatal to Wife of Prominent Pioneer Cattleman.

AMARILLO, Sept. 17 (AP)—Mrs. Joe Sneed, 53, wife of a prominent pioneer cattleman of Amarillo, died today of what Coroner Bob Clark termed a self-inflicted bullet wound. She had been in ill health for several months.

Mrs. Sneed was found, a small-caliber pistol nearby, on a bed at her home, and died in a hospital less than an hour later. Her husband, who was at Theford, Neb., on a business trip, was expected to return late today by chartered plane.

Besides the widower, a daughter, Mrs. Harold Pool of Amarillo, survived.

ITALY MAKES SURPRISE BID FOR PACIFISM

WOULD BE WILLING TO NEGOTIATE QUARREL WITH ETHIOPIA

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 17 (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie told the Associated Press today that if the League of Nations recommends a tripartite protectorate of Ethiopia he will reject the suggestion outright.

"As a member of the League of Nations," said the emperor, "Ethiopia will never permit another member or other members to dominate her, whether in the form of a protectorate, a mandate, or any other guise."

"Our absolute sovereignty and independence must be preserved inviolate. That is final."

GENEVA, Sept. 17 (AP)—The Italian delegation to the League of Nations informed the Associated Press tonight that if the League council's report on the Italo-Ethiopian situation is reasonable, it will be made the basis for negotiations by Italy.

"This was considered of the utmost importance in view of Saturday's Italian communique which declared Italy would not accept a compromise."

An Italian spokesman said the words "no compromise" used in the Rome communique did not eliminate the possibilities of negotiations.

He explained that if there were some points in a plan for the assistance of Ethiopia, reported agreed upon by the League's special committee, which were found acceptable to Italy, there were no reasons negotiations should not be undertaken.

Such negotiations, he suggested, might be entered into with certain members of the league council such as Premier Laval of France and Anthony Eden, the British minister for League of Nations affairs.

The announcement given to the Associated Press by the Italians was understood to have been made also to various delegates to the League of Nations.

The possibility of a conference among Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy, Laval, and Eden elsewhere than in Geneva was not excluded by the assembled statesmen.

These suggestions were immediately received in informed quarters as constituting a basis for optimism.

The Italo-Ethiopian committee of the League of Nations was reported to have reached an agreement upon the fundamentals of a plan for the collective assistance of Ethiopia.

Premier Laval, one of the members of the committee, told the Associated Press following a meeting of the body:

"It cannot be said we have finished our report."

Immediately afterward, the committee went into a private session to discuss financial and economic questions concerning with the Italo-Ethiopian situation.

Another committee meeting will be held tomorrow, at which time it was said a definite report will be drafted.

An authority stated the committee is convinced this report will be rejected by Italy.

KIRBY RENEWS ATTACK

BOSTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—John H. Kirby of Houston, Texas, today denounced proposed constitutional amendments which, he said, would make a dictatorship inevitable. He spoke at Boston's constitution day program in Faneuil hall, where the principles of American democracy were first advocated.

HUGHES WILL TELL OF FETE AT TYLER

Dick Hughes has been chosen to represent the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce in the activities contest at the state convention in Tyler this week-end. Each organization in the state represented at the convention will have a member describe its major project during the year. A trophy will be awarded the winner.

Mr. Hughes will tell of Pampa's Pre-Centennial, Pioneer Roundup and Panhandle Oil show. Four minutes will be allotted each speaker. The local Jaycees believe they will win first place this year. Vernon won first last year.

TEXAN HEADS FLEET

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Secretary Swanson today appointed Rear Admiral James O. Richardson as chief of staff to the commander-in-chief of the United States fleet. Richardson was born at Paris, Texas, in 1873 and entered the naval academy in 1898.

QUEZON LEADS IN ISLANDS' BALLOT FOR PRESIDENT

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 17 (AP)—First scattered election returns here today showed senate President Manuel Quezon far ahead in balloting for president of the still uncreated Philippine commonwealth.

Politicians had predicted a close vote in the three-cornered race as Filipinos trudged rain-drenched roads to vote.

Balloting was orderly and no violence had been reported to constabulary headquarters when the polls closed.

Tropical downpours spread over many parts of the islands as the mountaineers of the north, the half-severe Moros of the southern islands and the city dwellers of Manila voted in preparation for inauguration of the 10-year transitional government, designed to lead to the long-dreamed-of republic of the Philippines.

Rumors of disorders and threats of assassination arose with the storm in complicating the election picture.

More than a million and a half literate men were qualified to vote for a president, vice-president and 98 members of the national assembly, but threats and rains lead observers to believe only a fraction of that number would exercise their rights.

Women and illiterates were barred from the polls.

FINANCIAL AID TO BE GIVEN 21 YOUNG MEN THROUGH NYA

Financial assistance will be given 21 young men and women of Gray county in making it possible for them to complete this term of high school work as part of the National Youth Administration.

The maximum that any student may obtain is $6 a month. Obviously, there will be many more applicants than can be helped. Applications are to be made directly to the students' principals. These principals will pass the applications to County Supt. W. B. Weathered, who will be chief administrator, assisted by the principals and the county case (relief) workers.

Applicants must be of families on relief rolls, must not be able to finish the term without assistance, must be unmarried, and must be capable of doing good work. Work projects for them will not amount to more than ten hours a week, nor more than three hours in any one day.

The Gray county quota, like all others, was arrived at by taking 7 percent of the county case load in a given period. Schools to be eligible for the student aid must fill out blanks and answer certain questions satisfactorily.

Only high school students may be assisted.

PILOT SLAYS LEN KOENECKE OF BROOKLYN

SAYS FIGHTING DODGER ENDANGERED LIVES OF ALL THREE

TORONTO, Sept. 17 (AP)—A melodramatic fight in an airplane high over the Long Branch race track in the dark early today resulted in the death of Len Koenecke, 31, outfielder of the Brooklyn National League baseball team.

William Joseph Mulqueeny, who was piloting the plane, and Irwin Davis, his assistant, who said they killed Koenecke in self-preservation, were charged with manslaughter. Koenecke and Mulqueeny were locked in a desperate battle, the fliers stated. Then, with the plane rocking, partly out of control, as the pilot fought to keep one hand on the controls, Mulqueeny struck Koenecke several times on the head with a fire extinguisher.

Koenecke, sent home from St. Louis by the Dodgers, had chartered the plane at Detroit for a trip to Buffalo.

Mulqueeny gave this graphic story to the police.

Fighting.

"Accompanied by a friend, Irwin Davis, we left the Detroit airport about 10 p. m. for Buffalo. During the middle of the trip Koenecke became restless and started grabbing at the controls.

"As he was sitting in the front seat, I advised him to get into the back seat and he did. Davis came to the front seat. Everything went O. K. for a short time. Then he grabbed me by the neck, which interfered with my flying. I asked Davis to get into the rear seat and try to quiet him. After about ten minutes he started fighting with Davis and there was quite a commotion.

"Davis yelled for help. I looked back and saw that Koenecke was fighting Davis. He then tried to hit me. Davis hit Koenecke with a fire extinguisher. The latter knocked it out of his hand. He again made for me.

"Holding the controls in one hand, I picked up the extinguisher and hit Koenecke. He then tried to hit me. I hit Koenecke two or three times with the extinguisher but he kept on fighting so I hit him again.

Police On Field.

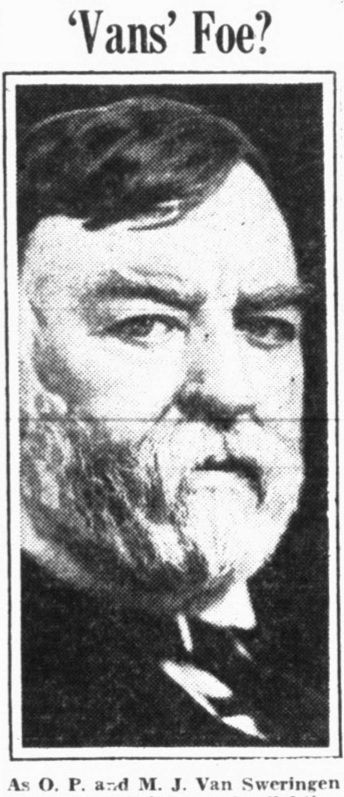

"I circled two or three times and landed in a field. Some people, including the police, were soon on the field and after some little time we were taken to the police office."

A coroner's jury to inquire into the death was summoned by Coroner Warren Snyder. E. J. Murphy, K. C. conferred with Mulqueeny and Davis at the station, where they were held, being booked on a charge of vagrancy before the manslaughter charge was placed against them.

Murphy summoned a photographer to make pictures of Davis' injured arm. The airman said Koenecke had hit Davis with a ball. Photographs also were made of Davis' torn and blood-stained coat.

In Koenecke's luggage was found a check for $680 from the Brooklyn baseball club. He also had an inflated traveling bag in which were his hat and clothing. His name and a watch inscribed "Len Koenecke."

"I had come to a decision," Constable Wethered of the suburban New Toronto police quoted the pilot, "It was either a case of the three

HUBER WILL BE NEW DIRECTOR OF CITY CHORUS

Succeeds Mrs. Carr; Clubmen to Practice On 'Elijah'

Regular practice of the Philharmonic chorus will be held Monday evenings at 8 p. m. in the clubroom in the city hall, it was decided last night. C. O. Huber is the new director, succeeding Mrs. May Foreman Carr, who has left the city.

A membership drive is being directed by Mrs. Powell and her committee. Other committees are assisting in preparations for the music club convention next month. The hospitality committee is composed of Mrs. R. J. Jones, Mrs. C. O. Huber, Mrs. Guy Ott, J. G. Noel, R. E. Gatlin, I. M. Smith, Henry Jordan, Miss Grace Bird, and Mrs. A. L. Pescoc. A finance committee is composed of Mrs. Herman Jones, Mrs. L. Roberts, Mrs. Frances Sturgeon, M. E. DeTiar, R. E. Gatlin.

Mrs. J. M. Dodson is president of the chorus. Mrs. A. N. Dilley is vice-president. Mrs. L. Roberts is treasurer. Mrs. I. M. Smith is secretary. Mrs. John Skelly is representation to the Council of Clubs. Miss Jewell Shaw is reporter, and John Skelly is librarian.

Last night's session was a business meeting. The chorus has chosen the oratorio, "Elijah," for one of its productions this year.

STATE OFFICIAL WILL TALK HERE

School trustees, principals, and patrons generally will attend a meeting in the county courtroom Thursday at 1:30 o'clock at which J. D. Wilson, deputy state superintendent, will speak.

Mr. Wilson will discuss the new school laws and answer questions. He will be accompanied by Dr. Rhodes, chief supervisor of Junior high schools.

BALL TEAMS AWARDED CHECKS BY JAYCEES AT NOON TODAY

Members of the Coltoz baseball team of LeFors, winners of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament, and officials of the Dancler Road Runners, second place team, were guests of the Jaycees at noon today when L. J. Ward, business manager of the Coltoz, received a check for $1,000, first money in the tournament.

Harold Miller, business manager of the Road Runners, received a check for $500.16 for second money. A check for $38.44 has been mailed to Phillips of Borger, winners of third money.

Mr. Ward expressed warm appreciation for the way the tournament was conducted and congratulated the members of his team for their fight and sportsmanship. Sam Hale, veteran manager of the team, introduced the members of his team and spoke highly of the conduct of all players and the excellent way in which the tournament was conducted.

"We'll be back stronger than ever next year," Manager Hale declared.

Mr. Miller and Manager Fred Brickell of the Road Runners also promised the Jaycees continued support.

I Heard . . .

A bunch of baseball fans urging Sam Scalling, George Bulla, and Bill Hardin to put on their "pepper game" immediately after that of the House of David last night. The three Road Runners are entertained by the House of David.

One of the bearded boys has a new trick in the "pepper game" in which he makes the ball do tricks between and around his legs.

I Saw . . .

A police dog down at Burton's filling station on highway 33, which has adopted a duck and when the latter goes for a swim in Charlie's rock garden pool the dog watches anxiously; when the duck dives, the dog throws a first class hissy.

Numerous people in the last two or three days who are interested in polo. . . . Two were Charles Wellington and Ed Stevenson of the Sinclair-Fralter camp; the latter looks like a born horseman. Some have suggested organizing a good polo team here and having a game with a worthy foe as an attraction of the Centennial next spring. Several are talking of selling their car and buying a horse.

Mrs. A. H. Doucette, chairman of the costume committee for the Pioneer dance, about the middle of this afternoon, and she said that many, many old timers notified her today that they would wear costumes tonight. She said "just about everybody" was looking for a dress or making one or talking about one she had.

CAPITOL CHATTER

SALARIES AND SAVINGS STUDIED

Necessity of fixing salaries of fee officers in this state should focus attention on possibilities for economies in local units of government. It has long been noted that some officials of larger counties received many times the sum paid the governor.

There is no logic, no judgment, no justice, in giving a public official a high income merely because he can, under the law, obtain it from fees. There is no reason why an official should receive more money for his services than private industry would pay for similar ability.

Appearances now are that salaries will be set on the basis of population. If this is done, Gray county officials will receive their wages from a bracket lower than many counties having an assessed valuation approximately that of Gray. And Governor Allred has indicated that he will not approve local bills intended to increase salaries in certain counties above the general level.

But while savings should be made through the salary system, especially in the larger counties, these are not the only savings obtainable. Counties of the size of Gray and larger should have a common purchasing agent for supplies, especially highway supplies. Gray county precinct budgets are rising—a fact reflected, in part, in the increased rate for this year. Some commissioners buy supplies for less than others, or have done so in the last few years. The county is not using an economical system in all its purchases. Creation of a unified county highway department could, if left free of politics, save thousands of dollars for the county every year and give the commissioners time to study intensively the problems which confront them, and on which they do not always indicate full knowledge.

AUSTIN, Sept. 14 (AP)—Lee Simmons' resignation as manager of the Texas prison system may provide another interesting topic for the special session of the legislature.

The decision of the veteran manager to leave the position came as a surprise in some quarters but apparently was anticipated in others. Although Simmons gave as his reason for resigning the press of his private enterprises, there are those who believe there was more behind the action than was brought to the surface.

Informed circles have known for months that Simmons and a bloc of the prison board were on "the outs" and had very little in common as to views on proper prison management. Simmons, in frequent appearances at Austin, made no secret of his hostility toward certain of the board members.

Senator Gordon Burns and Rep. A. T. McKinney of Huntsville, staunch allies of Simmons, have indicated they would propose an inquiry into the prison system management. Simmons' word in the past has carried considerable weight with the legislature and its committees and should any grievance be presented on his behalf it might fall on sympathetic ears.

There is, however, the probability that little or nothing will be done in view of acceptance of his resignation. It was noted that he set November 1 for retirement, two weeks beyond the life of the special session.

Simmons took over management of the prison during one of its critical periods and when prison administration was in confusion. Through five sessions of the legislature former Governor Moody attempted unsuccessfully to obtain permission to move the main units of the prison to Central Texas. Simmons was named manager and given wide authority shortly after Moody's last effort failed.

It was largely under Simmons' direct supervision that the prison system was brought to a high agricultural and industrial efficiency. He inaugurated a campaign designed to make the prison as near self-sustaining as possible, his plan including vegetable canning and meat processing plants and clothing, printing and leather products units. He also warmly embraced the es-

IT'S DOG GONE TOUGH
SALMON, Idaho, Sept. 17 (AP)—Salmon has dog catchers but no dog pound, so the business of dog catching has been rather a flop. The first day's catch of 17 dogs was fastened, but not locked up. The next morning the gate was open, the dogs gone. When the lumber yard was used next as a pound a board was found pried loose, and the dogs gone. It happened the third day, too, so the catchers now are keeping the dogs in a cement coal bin back of the city jail. The kids don't know what to do about it.

TRAVELING COMPANIONS

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON—It takes at least five men (from among the nine supreme court justices) to declare an act of Congress unconstitutional.

But Congress itself can produce a situation wherein just one man can keep a law on which both houses have passed from ever going into effect. That was one of the things discovered this year about the conference system under which House and Senate undertake to iron out differences in the bills they've passed on the same subject.

Other things became apparent as to the conference system. It was used, as never before, in the recent session as a face-saving device. Anxious to get away from here, one house or the other frequently—to save time on debate—accepted this or that amendment with the assurance that it would be thrown out by the conference, whereupon Senate or House could gracefully accept the conference report without stultifying itself.

But it seemed much more astonishing when one man, by single-handed effort, for weeks prevented final action on the controversial holding company bill. Congressman George Huddleston of Alabama, opposing his two Democratic colleagues on the conference committee and siding with the two Republicans, held off the Senate conferees in their effort to compromise on the "death sentence."

Huddleston stood in that position of power because a majority of each conference delegation must agree before the conferees can report back a compromise to the two houses.

The significance in such a situation lies in the tremendous pressure to which a man in Huddleston's position is likely to be subjected. Lobbyists in the past have often worked on conferees, sometimes successfully.

H. C. Hopson of Associated Gas & Electric testified victory in the holding company battle was worth at least six billion to the 12 billion dollar industry. If that's true it is quite easy to perceive that a man in Huddleston's position might be worth a billion dollars or so to the lobby.

SOUTHWEST TO PLAY 5 GAMES IN WEEK-END

RICE WILL PLAY ST. MARY'S AT SAN ANTONIO

BY BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. DALLAS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Five of the Southwest conference football coaches will draw curtains aside Saturday and bring their teams out for the first games of the season. Five non-conference games promise to reveal several things to critics and fans. In a battle at San Antonio against Frank Bridges' St. Mary's aggregation, the Rice Owls face an opportunity to bring their all-American William Wallace and all-Southwest John McCauley are the same dangerous halfbacks who tugged the leather enough last season to give Rice the championship with five victories and one defeat. Coach Jimmy Klitz claims Wallace and McCauley will be superior to last year. At Dallas Coach Madison Bell will send his first Southern Methodist lineup on the gridiron to battle the North Texas Teachers of Denton. It should not be a hard game for the Mustangs but it will offer an opportunity to see how much of Ray Morrison's aerial circus Bell has retained at Southern Methodist.

Cocan "Dutch" Myers' Texas Christian University Frogs look powerful on paper, but exactly what they resemble on the gridiron will be revealed Saturday at Fort Worth when they tie into the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets. Led by all-American Darrel Lester and backed by the terrific running power of Jimmy Lawrence, the Frogs can collect many supporters by showing to advantage in their first game. Lloyd Russell, Baylor's outstanding halfback, will have a chance to learn just how much aid he is going to have this year when Baylor ties into the Southwestern university Pirates at Waco. Coach Homer Norton's Texas A. & M. Aggies will take on the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks at Colleton Station. Norton faces a tough assignment in his effort to lift the Aggies out of the second division rut they have been in so long. Here's how coaches drilled their cohorts Monday in preparation for Saturday combats: Norton worked to smooth out minor deficiencies in the Aggies offense and then sent his boys thru a brisk scrimmage. The Texas Christianians got a long afternoon of blocking and tackling. Wilson Groseloc, 215-pound tackle, reported. Baylor suffered a casualty when Randall Mote of Lorena went out for the season with a broken leg. He was a backfield candidate. Starring Bob Masters, the Bears whipped through a stiff scrimmage. The Southern Methodist Mustangs got an extremely long session of aerial work with long and flat zone passes. The S. M. U. line went in for an education in the art of harder blocking and tackling. Routine backfield and line drills featured Rice's workout with Coach Klitz on the alert for any offense or defense weakness. The University of Arkansas Razorbacks tossed passes and practiced end runs. The Porkers are not scheduled to play Saturday.

Two Clubs Will Play At Park Again Tonight. On Sunday afternoon in Wichita, Kan., the Pampa Road Runners staged a ninth inning rally to defeat the House of David. Last night at Road Runner park the bearded nine pulled the same trick on the Pampa team, scoring four runs in the ninth to take the game, 5 to 2. Hits were scarce, the Road Runners getting only six bingles off the diminutive John Daisey, new portside pitcher picked up by the bearded team this year. Bill Hardin, former coach of David and head of Road Runner, veteran, gave his best pitching performance of the year in letting the bearded sluggers down with eight hits. Hardin had yielded only one run and five hits up to the ninth inning. Atwell, House of David shortstop, was the far as Hardin was concerned. The veteran collected a double and two singles, his last hit scoring the winning run. Catcher Fleming picked up a single and double, his two bangers driving in the winning runs in the ninth. The Road Runner hits were well divided, with Lysle leading the way with two singles. George hit for two bases. The Road Runners scored in the second inning. Seitz walked after Patton had popped out. Lysle also drew a base, but was thrown out going to second after Seitz had stolen third. McLary singled, scoring Seitz and then went all the way to third when the pitcher threw the ball away trying to nip him off first. McLary scored on Harland's infield single. Brickell made the last out. The House of David scored in the third inning when Fleming singled, went to third on Anderson's single, and scored on Hanson's fly to center field. Four runs crossed the plate in the ninth inning barrage. Hutson opened the inning with a double. The next two batters went out. Atwell then singled the winning run across. Bass, battling for Talley, drew a walk. Fleming doubled, scoring two. Daisey was safe on McLary's error, another run crossing the plate. Anderson filed out to end the scoring. Horton, batting for Hardin in the ninth, singled after Lysle had singled. McLary made an out in between the hits. The next two batters filed out to end the rally. The same two teams will meet tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Lee Daisey will be on the mound for the Road Runners with his opponent not yet named. The end of the series will be tomorrow night.

Casey Stengel Regrets Death Of Outfielder. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Casey Stengel, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball club, expressed "deep regret" today when he learned of the death of Outfielder Len Koenecke in a midair fight with an airplane crew. "I am very sorry about this," Stengel said. "It was unexpected. I first heard the report and I couldn't believe it. I can hardly believe it now. Koenecke was a good player last year. He was not quite so good this year and was one of those who home so we could try some of our new players. I deeply regret his death and can't explain his actions, for when he left yesterday he seemed all right and in good spirits."

YESTERDAY'S STARS (By The Associated Press.) Lon Warneke, Cubs—Checked Giants with seven hits for 19th victory. Harland Cliff and Ed Coleman, Browns—Drove in four runs against Yankees, each getting a homer. Sam Jones, White Sox—Limited Senators to four hits. Paul Dean, Cardinals—Scored in mound duel over Van Mungo, allowing six hits, fanning six and basing only one base on balls. Sammy Byrd, Reds—His eleventh inning single drove in run that beat Phillies. Bill Brenzel, Indians—Drove in three runs against Athletics. Tommy Bridges, Tigers—He was hit hard by Red Sox but was steady in pinches to record his 20th victory.

CHICAGO CUBS HOLD LEAD OF 2 FULL GAMES

CARDS WIN BUT CUBS BLAST GIANTS 8 TO 3

By ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer. A perusal of the records shows that the steadiness of the Cubs pitchers has been the most salient factor in the meteoric advance of Chicago in the National League. The Cubs have used only one pitcher in each of 12 of the 13 consecutive games they have won while their rivals, the Cards and the Giants, have seen their fingers shelled into the showers on various occasions during the span. In the past 13 games, Paul Dean has gone the distance three times for the Cards, his brother Dizzy, twice and Phil Collins, once. Relief pitchers finished the other games. Hubbell pitched three entire games for the Giants and Schumacher one, but in the other nine the twirlers found the row too tough to hoe and were beckoned from the field. The Cubs subdued the Giants 8-3 behind the seven hit pitching of Warneke yesterday, that pitcher recording his 19th victory of the season. The win kept the Cubs two games ahead of the second place Cards and shoved the New York team 4 1/2 games to the rear. Thirty thousand pennant mad fans howled with glee as the belting Cubs knocked holes in Terry's exhibition of starting a rookie, Harry Gumbert, against the league leaders. The Chicago batsmen, apparently resenting the affront of attempting to stop them with a tyro, another smacking out eight hits for five runs before the former Baltimore hurler was called away. Two other pitchers followed Gumbert and were more effective but the game had been sealed away. The Cards, arising from the dust of three straight defeats at the hands of the Giants, defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 1-0 in a mound duel between Paul Dean and Van Mungo. Dean held the Dodgers to six hits while striking out six and giving but one base on balls. Van Mungo allowed only five hits, fanned seven but gave four batters free tickets to the first station. Sammy Byrd whaled out a single in the 11th inning to break up the mound duel between two rookies as the Cincinnati Reds defeated Philadelphia 3-2. Jim Bivin for the Reds and Lee Grissom for the Phils were the rookies who turned in good performances. Less than 500 were on hand to see Pittsburgh beat Boston 4-1. Detroit pulled out a 9 1/2 game lead over the Yankees by defeating the Boston Red Sox 5-3 while St. Louis was turning back the Yankees 5-2 in New York. Tommy Bridges was credited with his 20th victory of the season although the Sox outbit the Tiger-men 10-8. The St. Louis Browns, beat the Yankees with Harland Cliff and Ed Coleman accounting for four runs with a pair of homers. Cliff knocked in another run with a triple in the second. The Chicago White Sox maltreated a pair of Washington pitchers as Sad Sam Jones was limiting the Senators to four bingles. The Sox won 9-1 as Luke Appling, Chicago shortstop, collected five hits, including a double, for a perfect day at bat. Cleveland took their series opener from the Athletics 8-5 before another meagre crowd of 500.

CHICAGO CUBS HOLD LEAD OF 2 FULL GAMES. BEAUMONT BEATS BUCS AFTER MOORE IS INJURED. BEAUMONT, Sept. 17 (AP)—It will be Beaumont against Oklahoma City for the Texas league championship in a series opening here tomorrow afternoon, and the team which captures four games will represent the league in the Dixie series against the winner of the Southern Association playoff. Beaumont's leading young Exporters became a finalist last night by beating the Galveston Buccaneers, 3 to 2 in a hurler's duel between George Gill and Jim Moore. Moore, who had blanked the Shippers three nights previously, might have scored another victory if a hard drive by Vincent had not struck him in the groin in the eighth inning. He lost his effectiveness, and singles by Ross, Tebbetts and Gill produced the winning run in the ninth. Gill, who turned in his second fine performance of the series, was taken from the box after Perrot opened the last half of the ninth with a single. Joe Hare thus got a chance to save two games in two days and he came through splendidly. Jack Ward, the first man to face him, managed to get a sacrifice, but Hare found Linton and McLeod. It was the Exporters' third straight victory after dropping the first two games. They played errorless ball and contributed several fielding gems. As if the game were not exciting enough, the rival managers and players put on a frenzied-for-a-minute. The trouble started while Ward was at bat in the second. He and Tebbetts, the Beaumont catcher, got into an argument. Managers Mealey of the Bucs and Lorber of the Shippers walked up to support their players. One word led to another and Mealey and Lorber finally squared off. Their charges couldn't long resist the temptation and numerous fists soon were swinging. Although the Buccaneers later lost the ball game, they had a wide margin in the fistfight. Mealey knocked Lorber down, and Linton and Jakucki contributed some telling blows. Clarence "Red" Phillips, who beat Galveston Saturday, likely will open the series against the Indians. Niggeling or Marleau probably will oppose him. The Indians, who finished the season in first place four games ahead of Beaumont, reached the playoff finals by taking three out of four games from Tulsa.

Louis Seeks to Learn Feinting Art in Secret. POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 17 (AP)—Jack Blackburn, coach and trainer of Joe Louis and a veteran of 325 fights, is trying to teach his pupil the art of feinting, a science which the old timers declare is a lost art. Blackburn, not as nimble as he was in his fighting days, donned the gloves with Louis in secret yesterday, attempting to show him how to give false signals to an opponent, make him drop his guard for a blow in the stomach and then get it in the head. Scribes were told that Louis would not box but on sauntering down by the indoor gymnasium they heard the thud of gloves, the animated words of Blackburn as he drove some a point. The earliest specimen of tapestry-work which can be accurately dated was found in 1903 in the tomb of Thutmose IV (1420-1411 B. C.) at Thebes.

LeFors Pirates To Play Canyon Saturday Night. The LeFors Pirates, after a week of practice featured mostly by ironing out rough spots which cropped up last Friday night, will go to Canyon on Saturday night for their second game of the season. The Pirates looked promising in losing to the veteran Sayre Eagles, 7 to 0 on Friday night. Canyon will be opening the season Saturday night. The Eagles have been showing much promise in practice sessions, according to Coach Jones. The eleven has not been working long. Coaches Bronson and Smith were pleased with the work of their charges in opening the season. The fans also liked the appearance of the team and a large crowd witnessed the game under the lights at Shaw park.

Hornsby Signs a 3-Year Contract. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—The home office of the St. Louis Browns announced today that Manager Rogers Hornsby, in New York, had signed a new three-year managerial contract with the club with an increase in salary. The contract was signed after a conference in New York with Louis B. von Welch, president of the Browns. The salary involved was not disclosed.

AGGIE ELEVEN BETTER THAN LAST SEASON

CONFIDENCE IN CAMP MAKES COACHES OPTIMISTIC. COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 16 (AP)—Up from the freshman ranks comes a group of brilliant backs and linemen to bolster Texas A. & M.'s 1935 "mystery" team of the Southwest conference. Confidence, somewhat lacking after several very lean years, pervades the training camp and even Coach Homer Norton has been heard to remark that his Aggies are not to be counted out yet. "Our team should be better—much better than last year," the mentor said. He's counting heavily on a few sophomores, plus a little fellow, Fred Wright, 150-pounder from Red Rock, who started off to be the chief running threat last season but was laid low by injuries. A punter and a passer is the chief concern of Coach Norton and maybe the problem will be solved in Homer (Doc) Pitzer, rugged blocker and running back of last season's club. Percy Reid, a quarterback of Corpus Christi, may do heavy duty as a passer. Pitzer also is expected to quarterback the team. Ed Wicker, one of the fleetest of high school halfbacks while doing touchdown duty at Corpus Christi; Nash Thompson, a letterman from last year; Bob Nesrta, speed merchant from Flatonia, and Dick Vitek of Granger all are capable backs. A power in the line will be Martin (Bomber) Lindsey of Dallas, coaches believe. He weighs 225 pounds, the squad's heaviest man, and played sophomore from Wortham, who specializes in place-kicking and defensive work, seen destined to play regular ends. Contesting their positions will be Bill Seago of Gilmer and Lynn Camp of Lockhart, sophomores; Bill Stages of Port Worth, studman; and Pete Dowling of Houston.

Tickets For Lawton Battle Will Go On Sale Tomorrow

BAER OUSTS FAIR-WEATHER FRIENDS FROM SPECULATOR. SPECULATOR, N. Y., Sept. 17 (AP)—Just how serious is Maximilian Baer, greatest of all the heavyweight playboys, facing this miss-and-out assignment of Joe Louis, the chocolate massacre man from Detroit? Well, a party of the yes boys from Broadway who couldn't let him rest as champion and couldn't remember his name after the Braddock catastrophe, have into sight over the week-end to resume old acquaintances, stir up old memories, and prepare for bigger and better parties in the future—in case he licks Louis in the Yankee stadium just one week from tonight. The athletic association urges fans to purchase tickets at downtown headquarters so as to avoid congestion at the park. Lawton is hoped to give the Harvester some of their toughest opposition of the year. Ten lettermen will be on the field for Lawton, facing a sprinkling of Harvester veterans and a bunch of new boys. Coach Odus Mitchell was to weigh his boys and issue new uniforms this afternoon. The line is scheduled to be about the heaviest in recent years, or since the days of John Pafford, Troy Stalls, and the others from that big Harvester team. The backfield will have more weight than last year, with Chubbie Stewart and Red Fanning leading the way. Bob Drake, W. J. Brown, Woody Woolridge, Roy Showers, and Albert Reynolds are the speedsters to date. Weight in the line will be in Moose Hartman, J. R. Green, and Stokes Green. Other linemen are slightly under the weight of the three big fellows. Some of them should be back in New York, now, but it's doubtful that that they'll ever be the same. They were met with a storm of abuse by camp attaches assigned to cover just such eventualities. They left here arunning, coat tails flapping in the snappy mountain air, words and missiles being about them, while Baer himself led the cheers. "I've got lots of score to even with these guys," said Max today as he planned to get back to work at his boxing chores, edge, weighing 211 and expecting to fight at 208. "I couldn't seat all those good time friends of mine in the Yankee stadium after I knocked out Carrara," he said bitterly. "After Braddock beat me all I had with me in my room was a radio." Baer asks newcomers constantly what they think of Louis, boxing's greatest punching sensation since Dempsey. Some of the boys think he's worrying. Some feel he's just more intent on this fight than ever before in his hectic career. Victory on top of his $250,000 share in a $1,000,000 gate, will mean another $300,000 in radio, movie and exhibition tour profits. "I know just how Louis thinks, what's in his mind," he says. "When I was 21 I was flattening a lot of bums, too. I thought I could lick the world. Then I met a few fighters who didn't do what I wanted them to do. They were smarter, better, I started to learn to fight all over again. "Louis will have to do that too. He's never met a fellow who will take the play away from him, out-game, outsmart, outpunch him. He's just too young, good as he may be, to lick Max Baer when Baer is the real Baer."

FIRST BAPTIST CIRCLES ARE REORGANIZED FOR THE YEAR

NEW PLAN FOR MEETING WILL BE FOLLOWED

CHAIRMEN SELECTED TO SERVE DURING THE YEAR

Circle organization for the coming year was effected in First Baptist Missionary union yesterday when a business meeting was conducted at the church. The plan was made so that the union may attain the standard of excellence during the year.

Seven circles were formed and a chairman named for each. The circle boundaries and leaders were announced as follows:

Circle one, Mrs. W. B. Henry chairman and Mrs. T. L. Anderson co-chairman. Members living south of the Santa Fe tracks and west of South Russell street are included in this group.

Circle two, Mrs. H. L. Watts chairman. Territory is south of the tracks and east of South Russell.

Circle three, Mrs. R. E. Gattin, Residents north of the tracks and east of Wynne street are included.

Circle four, Mrs. E. V. Davis chairman. Territory between N. Wynne and N. Ballard streets.

Circle five, Mrs. C. C. Malone chairman. Boundaries are Hobart and Buckler streets and edge of town north.

Circle six, Mrs. John Jett chairman. Territory is south of Buckler street, between Ballard and Hobart.

Circle seven, Mrs. Ollie White chairman. Streets west of Hobart and north of the tracks are included.

The meeting plan calls for mission study at the church on first Mondays each month, Bible study at the church followed by circle sessions on second Mondays, study of Missionary books on third Mondays, followed by circle meetings, and meetings in the homes of circle chairmen on fourth Mondays, followed by visits and return to the meeting places for reports.

No regular meeting of Priscilla Home Demonstration club will be conducted this week. It was announced today. The next meeting will be on Sept. 27, at the home of Mrs. Norman Walberg.

A Sheer Woolen to Wear Right Now

So Simple that Even an Inexperienced Sewer Can Make It
By ELLEN WORTH

Here's a smart little woolen dress to be thinking about—or maybe you'd prefer it in a wool-like silk or velvet.

It's so very jaunty and tailored looking for school, college or the office.

Made in rust novelty woolen, this little model, that only simulates a blouse and skirt, will be found very practical.

Easy to make for the two-piece skirt joins the blouse'neath the removable belt.

Style No. 450 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38 and 40-inches bust. Size 16 requires 4 yards of 39-inch material with 2½ yards of bias.

Wants to Wed Rothstein's Inez

Hoping to win over his banker-father to approval of the alliance, Thomas C. Neal Jr., 24, of Chicago, blithely planned to marry

Inez Norton, 32, sweetheart of the late gambler, Arnold Rothstein. He's shown beaming her attentively in a New York nightclub.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Writer.

Now come the days of clear sunlight, tempered by a chill toward evening and the family clamor to cook outdoors.

If you humor them—and why shouldn't you?—start the cooking fire an hour or two before appetites scream for sustenance. That is to get a deep bed of coals ready to roast corn, apples, and potatoes.

Make the coffee at home and take it in thermos jugs, for the amateur camper rarely makes really good coffee over a camp fire.

It would pay to get a supply of long handled forks for toasting wieners.

Cook Corn in Husks.
Corn is best roasted in the husk. String the ears, unhusked, on a heavy wire, threading through the heavy end of the corn. Pull this chain of corn into a circle, fastening the ends of wire securely together.

By this time the fire should be burned down to a great bed of coals. Open the coals and in the very center bury the corn. Heap the coals back and roast just thirty minutes. The potatoes are buried around the edge in the hot ashes.

After the corn is buried the heavier limbs that have not burned out are piled back over the fire and these keep the coals alive and furnish heat to roast the wieners or hamburger or chunks of lamb on skewers.

By the time the wieners and rolls are finished the corn and potatoes will be ready. Serve with plenty of butter, salt and pepper.

With a long-handled rake if you have one or a long-forked stick rake the coals away and pull the corn from the fire. Remove from wire and serve in husks with butter and salt. Each ear is put on a flexible paper plate which acts as a shield and prevents many a grease spot on coat or frock.

If you have steak, try what we call kabobs. Cut sirloin steak, three-fourths of an inch thick, into squares of about one and one-half inches. Put a thin slice of onion on each piece and wrap a slice of bacon around the whole. Fasten with a toothpick. Put on the end of a long green stick or your weiner fork, using one or two according to appetite. Broil over a deep bed of coals.

Newlyweds Will Live at Borger

The marriage of Miss Mary Louise Stevenson and R. B. Takewell was solemnized Sunday afternoon in the home of the Rev. Joseph Wanderly, pastor of Holy Souls Catholic church.

The bride was lovely in a tailored suit of black velvet with fall accessories. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Stevenson of Pampa.

Mr. Takewell is the son of Mrs. J. J. Takewell of Monroe, La. He has lived in Borger several years, and is with the Huber Carbon company there. The young couple will make their home in Borger.

Maurice Saunders and Buck Talley left this morning for Austin, accompanied by Sheriff and Mrs. Earl Talley. The boys will enter the state university for the coming term. Maurice is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Saunders.

M. E. CIRCLES STUDY MISSION WORK AT HOME

ZONE MEETING TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK ANNOUNCED

Applying their study to their own locality, women of circle one, First Methodist Missionary society, yesterday afternoon closed a lesson on home missions by discussing welfare and community work done by churches in Pampa.

The circle met with Mrs. J. C. Cargile. Announcement was made of a zone meeting scheduled for Thursday of next week in the Methodist church at McLean. Methodist women here plan to send representatives.

After a devotional by Mrs. Joe Shelton, the lesson from the book, "Toward Christian America," was led by Mrs. Frank Shotwell. Mrs. R. A. Baker discussed the topic, Home Missions Come of Age, and the leader spoke of changes in the distribution of population as it affects mission work in the United States.

Mrs. Shelton discussed local home mission work. Mrs. Luther Pearson listed activities of the Methodist church here.

Refreshments were served to 10 members and a guest, Mrs. E. L. Emerson.

Mrs. White Is Hostess.
Mrs. Sherman White was hostess circle three at her home, where Mrs. Lee Harrah conducted the devotional and Mrs. Paul Jensen directed study of the third and fourth chapters of the mission book.

Mmes. N. F. Maddux, F. L. Stallings, H. L. Wilder, and Harrah assisted with talks on lesson topics.

The hostess, assisted by Mmes. Maddux, Harrah, and Roy Tinsley, served a delicious plate lunch to 14 members and two visitors, Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Ferguson.

Four Guests Attend.
Circle four met at the home of Mrs. Mary J. Purvis, with Mrs. Mathala Fullington as co-hostess. Four guests, Mrs. Polly Deaver, Mrs. Vada Hill, Mrs. J. A. Purvis, and Miss Katherine Bennett, were present with 15 members.

A change in the circle meeting time from 3 o'clock to 2:30, was approved by the members. The study hour followed, with Mrs. C. W. Foote Jr. in charge. The subject was Home Missions Take Stock.

Mrs. Ralph Chisum presented the devotional talk, after an opening song and prayer.

Delegate Tells Auxiliary About State Meeting

Doings of the recent departmental convention at Dallas were reported to the Auxiliary by Mrs. Roy Sewell, Pampa delegate. A business and social meeting was conducted at the Legion hall.

After the business hour, Betty Sue Price and Mrs. Dudley Steele entertained with readings and Clarice deCordova with piano solos.

Members present were Mmes. A. Lawson, G. L. Ott, L. R. Hartell, Ida Burns, Sewell, W. C. deCordova, W. M. Voyles, Frank Wallace. In addition to the program guests, Miss Hartell was a visitor.

Miss Dorothy Gerlach left last week for Dallas to resume her duties as history instructor in Forest Avenue high school.

Mrs. C. T. Collins has returned to her home in Dallas after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Pickens.

Miss Thelma Greer left the last of the week to attend school at Fort Worth.

Mrs. C. P. Buckler and daughter, Margaret, are Dallas visitors for two weeks.

Making the Phone Decorative

A most convenient little gadget is the telephone cupboard built in a wall. It may have an elaborate door, or it may have a simple paneled door, or, if you desire it to be very inconspicuous, you may cover it with the same wallpaper as covers your walls.

The door lets down, serving as a desk. There is storage space provided in the wall for a telephone book and a pad of paper and pencil, and the beauty of the thing is that the door opens not only on this side of the wall, but on the other side also, making it possible for you to phone from either one of two rooms.

Cost of improvements of this type may be paid with modernization credit obtained from a bank or other financial institution which has a contract of insurance with the Federal Housing administration.

Tear Gas Routs Theater Crowd
EL PASO, Sept. 17. (AP)—Brave men shed tears along with hundreds of other persons here last night when a cloud of tear gas drifted into the downtown section.

Presumably released by pranksters, the gas routed a theater crowd, drove persons from one city park and sent pedestrians staggering on the streets.

Movie-goers were forced to flee the theater when suction fans drew the fumes into the ventilating system. They emerged orderly, but with tears streaming down their faces.

Police are investigating.

Caylor Helped by Clinic Treatment

Paul Caylor of Pampa has returned from Kan sas City, where he for three weeks was a patient of Thornton & Minor clinic. He returned Saturday.

Mr. Caylor said that he improved considerably while at the clinic.

WINNERS AT FAIR

Two Pampa women were among the winners in the domestic arts department of the Tri-State fair at Amarillo. It was revealed on the prize list.

Mrs. C. C. Malone took first place with her crocheted purse, and Mrs. J. B. Frey was first in artwork embroidery, first in needlepoint, and first with a specimen of knitting. A large number of women from this county won places in the home demonstration club divisions, also.

TREBLE CLEF CLUB

The weekly meeting of Treble Clef club tomorrow afternoon will be conducted at 3:30 instead of 4 o'clock, the usual hour, it was announced today. Members are urged to be present at the earlier hour.

Troy Payne was an Amarillo visitor yesterday afternoon.

CHILDREN AND MOTHERS ARE PARTY GUESTS

OUTDOOR GAMES AND PROGRAM ARE ENJOYED

Sixty-eight members and guests of the beginners department in First Christian Sunday school were entertained on the church lawn yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. John Mullen and Mrs. Shelby Gantz, teachers in the department, were hostesses.

Out door games and a story were enjoyed, then the group went to the department meeting room and the children presented a program they had prepared for their mothers.

They practiced a promotion ray program before returning to the lawn for a picnic lunch of sandwiches, cookies, and lemonade.

Children present were Richie and Roger Dale Carleton, Patsy Ruth Cross, Tracy Glen Gary, Janita Dittmeier, Billy Ruth and Wanda Walker, Lucille Austin, Johnny Sue Buswell, Rita Cloud, Bobby Dean Mullinax, Alverna Miller, Carolyn Sue Abbott.

Betty Jean and Sut Allston, Elizabeth Ann McGowan, Mary Ann McCo, Doris and Vaucelle Moore, Patricia Yvonne Galla, Patsy Jean Mills, Lilly Altendorf, Ethlyn Jo Shields, Lucile Floyd, Thelma Popplewell, Richard Gee.

Patsy West, Nita Fae Huggins, Don Taylor, Jimmy Warren, Wise, Bobby—Dean—McPherson—Louise Spurlock, Margie Fay Taylor, Darrell Hutchins, Mary Marjory Lawrence, Billy and Don Gantz, Lavelle and Wilma Fleming, Marjorie Sue Mullen.

Mothers present were Mmes. Fleming, C. W. Lawrence, W. F. CARDUI DURING MIDDLE LIFE

While she was going through the changes of life, Mrs. Susan Price of Hillsboro, N.C., was "very weak at times, and had to go to bed," she writes. "I couldn't sleep well and didn't have an appetite. I was so nervous, I was always looking for something bad to happen. I read of Cardui and took it. It helped my nerves so much and gave me strength and built me up. I took Cardui off and on for two years. I have recommended Cardui to other people, hoping they would be helped and given strength as I was with this good remedy."

"Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician." (Adv.)

Quins' Father With Prize Baby

Oliva Dionne, father of the famous quintuplets, just can't seem to keep away from babies. Here he is at the Canadian National Exposition at Toronto, and on his knee is Donald Grant Alexander, 14-month-old grand champion baby of the exposition. Champion baby and champion father just had to get together.

A Typical Scene of the Quins at Play

Being a quintuplet is really the ideal life these days. Here in their snow-white play pen, Yvonne, left, has nothing to do but study the moccasin she holds in her little hand, while Cecile is content to inspect critically her new manicure. But Annette stands up ambitiously.

East Bests West for Beauty Title

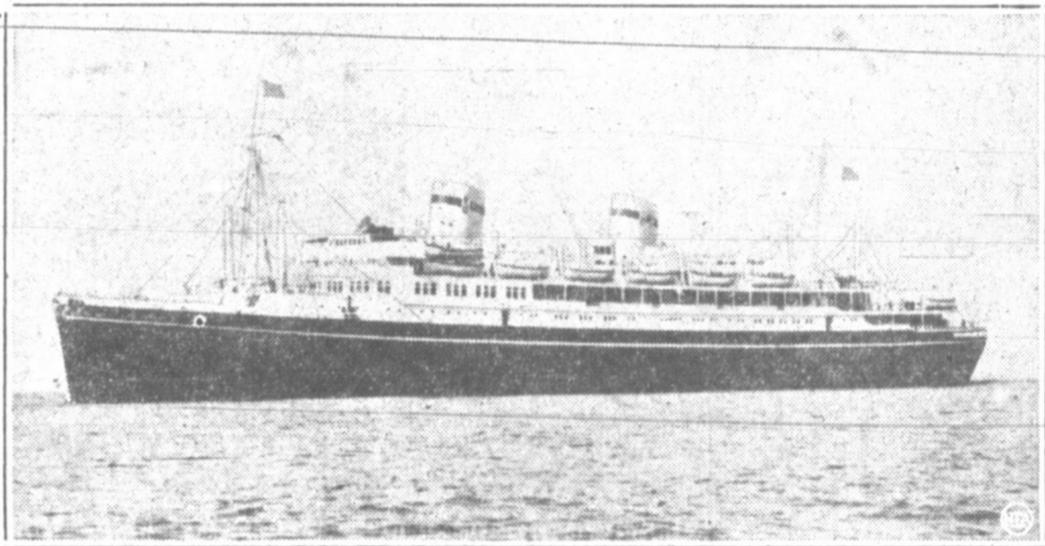

Are Eastern girls prettiest? The judges at Atlantic City who picked the three most beautiful girls in America in a bathing suit contest thought so. They named Miss Vera Heat (center), of Bronx, N. Y., "Miss America"; Margaret Savina King (left), 18, of Bridgeport, Conn., runner up; and Francis Stine (right), 23, of Baltimore, third.

Stepmother Held in Girl's Death

Mrs. Ada Schueler, 25, pictured as she arrived for the coroner's inquest at Bridgeport, Conn., into the death of her stepdaughter, nine-year-old Marilyn Schueler, is reported to have confessed beating the girl to death in their home at Stamford. Hatred for the girl's mother is the motive cited for the killing.

Poland's First Trans-Atlantic Liner Ready to Sail

Symbol of Poland's development from an inland country to an important factor in the world's maritime commerce, the motorship Pilsudski, first trans-Atlantic liner built by Poland since the nation's rebirth, was scheduled to sail from Gdynia, on the Baltic Sea, to New York September 15 on its maiden voyage. Constructed in Italy and paid for entirely in Polish coal, the Pilsudski is shown ready to weigh anchor.

Iowan Is Chosen G. A. R. Leader

Soldierly despite his years, Oley Nelson, of Slater, Ia., is the new commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., chosen by the 3 to 1 vote of his comrades at the 69th annual encampment in Grand Rapids, Mich. Nelson, past department commander of Iowa, is pictured at the encampment.

Ethiopians Point Up Defense

Nottily uniformed and schooled in the ways of the modern fighter, these Ethiopian soldiers are shown at bayonet practice near Addis Ababa, preparing for hand-to-hand fighting if their country is attacked by Italy.

After Cutting Budge Down To Size

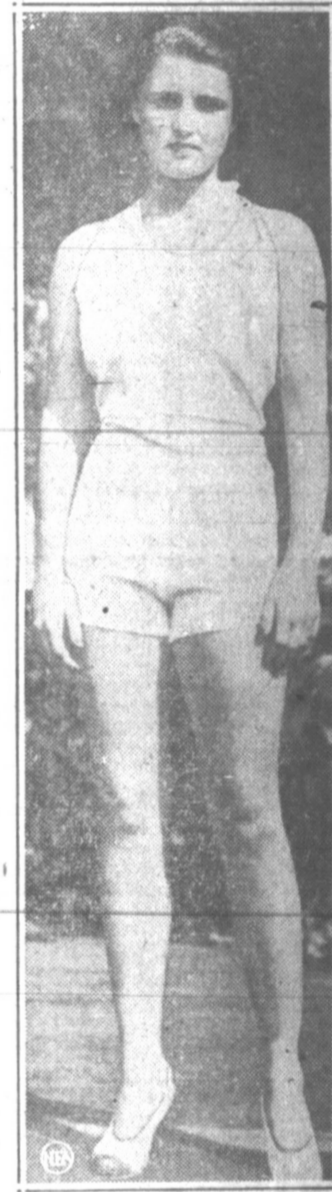

Momentarily weary from the strain of raising himself to the status of a super-star, Bryan M. "Bitsy" Grant of Atlanta, the smallest player ever to reach the semi-finals round of the Men's National Tennis Championships, relaxes and takes refreshment after the match in which he eliminated Don Budge, Davis Cup star, in the tournament at Forest Hills 1.

15-30, But a Love Match

Laura Ingalls Becomes Air Queen

Falling by only 7 minutes and 5 seconds to break all west-to-east transcontinental flight records, Laura Ingalls is pictured chatting with congratulators at Floyd Bennett Field, N. Y., after having established a new women's flying mark for the long trip.

Well, Well! The Waltz Is Coming Back! Would You Recognize It?

It isn't hard now to understand why our elders don't give a fig for modern dances. All you have to do is picture grandma, hoopskirts and all, being whirled about by grandpa in the ziddy manner demonstrated above by Ramon, famed stage and screen dancer, and his partner, Kenta. Surprising as it may seem, this is the old-fashioned waltz, which, according to Ramon, is making a comeback in modern guise. He calls it "The Love Waltz," and, above, reveals three of its phases. At left is the "whirlwind" motif, the girl being whirled about like a discus. There is a brief, romantic interlude titled "The Kiss," in which the partners trade soulful glances. Then comes the "Whirl," in which the young lady gyrates wildly, providing a smashing terpsichorean climax whether or not the male partner lets go.

BAER AT EASE

Represents U. S. In Ethiopia

Representing the United States in war-torn Addis Ababa is Cornelius Van Engert, charge d'affaires, pictured smiling happily as he took over his new duties in the Ethiopian capital. He relieved Perry George.

PEP SQUAD CHOOSES LEADERS FOR YEAR; SIX DIRECTORS ARE SELECTED INSTEAD OF FOUR

Girls Elected Have Good Records in Activities

Pep squad leaders for the year were elected at a meeting of the 175 members of the organization held in the high school gymnasium Friday afternoon.

Leaders chosen were: Flora Deen Finley, a senior, president of her class and most popular girl last year and a member of the National Honorary society.

DeAnn Heiskell, a senior, outstanding basketball player, chosen as Miss Pampa in a beauty contest conducted here during the summer.

Pauline Gregory, a junior, member of the drum corps last year and active in summer recreational work.

Lillian Rice, a second-term junior, member of the cast of last year's junior play.

Mary Adams, a senior, active in dramatics and a member of the cast of the one-act play last year.

Mary Price, a senior, active now in her fourth year of pep squad work.

Other girls who were nominated were: Janice Purviance, Lucille Bell, Evelyn Nash, Sybil Ward, Evelyn Blackwell, Velda Richards, Betty Blythe, Vivian Campbell, Virginia Patton, Elizabeth McAfee, Mildred Tolbert, Colleen Maham, and Ruby Schief.

Formerly the pep squad had only four leaders, but the large enrollment this year made it necessary to increase the number to six.

Because of the possibility that many of the girls cannot be in full uniform by Friday, no definite plans have yet been made. However, it is likely that one or more rallies will be held this week. If so, announcements will be made at assembly tomorrow morning.

Miss Angela Strnad and Mrs. E. L. Norman, sponsors, meet with the girls each afternoon in the gym.

Small Band of P. H. S. Vets To Have Own Club

Are you eligible for membership in the Five Year Veterans' Club? If so, the sturdy group which is said to be forming this organization wants you.

To be eligible, you must have completed five or more years in high school or you must be starting your fifth year. The president of the organization will be the student who has earned the post by spending more years in Pampa High School than any other member.

It is rumored that Tom Rose and Aaron Hunter will squabble over the position of club janitor, since these two are the starting fifth year in high school.

Those in the know say that in another year Jack Price and Revista Harvey will be entitled to comfortable pensions which will enable them to retire from strenuous school life.

Among other members of the club are James Herring, Willard Roff, and James Herring, Willard Roff, the students in the association that the membership is too predominantly masculine. Feminine members, they say, help to lend interest. It has been requested that girls who can qualify for the club get into communication with the members.

Students Start Work on Paper

Active student work in the preparing of copy for "The Little Harvester" was started this week. As yet most of the reporters are members of the Journalism class. However, students who had the courses last year are eligible for staff positions, and any student is eligible to serve as a reporter. Delmer Ashworth, sponsor, has requested that students not enrolled in the Journalism class who are interested in working on the paper report to him. No regular staff will be chosen before several weeks have passed; however, students may be given tryouts in positions to which they aspire.

This issue of the paper was issued by the following students: John Martin, Mary McCullum, Betty Horner, Barbara Kilgore, Louise Roseberry, Mildred Cole, Pauline Stewart, Hampton Stennis, Alta Mae Terrell, Ruth Broyles, Evelyn Kentling, Fred McGahey, Mickey Ledrick, Geo. Lane, Rosemary Hampton.

Jewelers Offer Ring Adjustment

Representatives of the jewelry company from which Pampa High School seniors purchase class rings were here Friday to replace rings which had been found to be defective.

According to Principal L. L. Sone, arrangements were made whereby any graduate who is not satisfied with his ring may return it for its full value. Those who have duplicate rings may pay a small difference and secure a ten-carat gold ring. The rings may be turned in to Miss Zenobia McParlin.

Bandsmen Go to Amarillo Today; To Play at Fair

The high school band, with its director, Winston Savage, is in Amarillo today taking part along with many other West Texas bands in the performances featuring the Tri-State Fair.

The band this year consists of about fifty pieces. It seemed last spring that the band would be seriously weakened by the loss through graduation of such musicians as Ella Faye O'Keefe, Charles Frazee, Tom Sweetman, Madge Tiemann, Tom Sweetman; however, good material coming in from the Junior high school and the return of many of the old bandsmen have made brighter the prospect for the coming year.

The band will be out to do its part in supporting the Harvesters Friday night when they open their football season by clashing with the Lawton, Okla., Wolves.

There has been some stiff competition for the position of drum major. Claudine Jeffries, George Cree, and Robert Kilgore are among the likely aspirants for the place. Possibly all three will see action in leading the band Friday night.

Numerous band members and other students have expressed the hope that in some way new uniforms may be secured to replace the somewhat worn ones now in use by the high school musical organization.

Physical Exams Are Given Girls in Gym Classes

Girls' physical education classes have been started this year by the giving of physical examination by the school nurse, Miss Llewellyn White, and the instructor, Miss Kathleen Milam.

Object of the examinations is to find any physical defects in order that corrective class work may be given. The girls who are in best physical condition will take part in the more difficult exercises and games, while the others will participate in games best suited to their needs.

Miss Milam, with the help of Miss Pickett, is trying to arouse interest in the organization of a girls' golf team. Tennis work will be started during the fall term.

Various games are being offered for the first time here.

Basketball, volleyball, baseball, and other games will be played between classes in numerous intramural tournaments.

Library Changes Announced Today

To acquaint new students with library practice and to inform old students of any changes, a mimeographed library sheet was given every student in his home room today.

According to Miss Gracie Fern Latimer, librarian, students who are taught Spanish here last year, will study in Columbia university this year toward her M. A. degree. She is now visiting in La Porte, Ind.

Miss Josephine Cariker, former English teacher here, is teaching in a school nearer home.

Argus M. Fox, history teacher and assistant coach last year, is working for the Continental Oil company in Beaumont.

Miss Ruth Siddons, former librarian, is now Mrs. Robert Delland, of Pampa. Mr. Smellage is working for the Pampa Office Supply company. He taught in the commercial department here last year.

Harry Phillips is teaching at the Texas School of Mines in El Paso. Roy Wallerstein is in the army and is stationed at El Paso.

Fans Prepare For Trek To Gridiron

"How do the Harvesters look this year?" asked the out-of-town salesman of the merchant.

"When is the first football game going to be?" asked the farmer of his neighbor who was returning from a trip to town.

"Did you watch the practice game last week?" the man on the street inquired of his neighbor on the corner.

"The Harvesters may be green, but it looks to me as if they are going to shape up into a real team," remarked the dentist to his patient.

"Did you get our reserved seat tickets, John?" asked the wife as her husband returned home.

"Boy, I'm ready for that Lawton game to start!" said the student.

These and many other similar remarks and inquiries about the about the 1935 Harvesters were expected after the usual transfers take place and after some of the students who are still out of town return.

Indications are that the rooms will not be overcrowded and that none of the teachers will have classes larger than they should be.

Although it was announced last spring that in the future freshmen would remain in the Junior high school and that only upper classes would be in high school, a change has already taken place in the Junior high school. Seventy freshmen were moved to the senior high Thursday.

GORILLAS HAVE BIG SQUAD OF GRIDSTERS OUT

With one of the largest group of candidates in their history, the Gorillas bid fair to develop an excellent team this year.

Forty boys, most of them in the high school for their first time, are being given a thorough work-out each afternoon under the direction of Coaches Dennard and Anderson. These future Harvesters, although rather small, are fast, and practically every one of them has two more years in which to play.

Several candidates, after practicing for several days, were found to be ineligible and had to leave the squad. More and larger boys are needed, and Coach Dennard has requested that students interested in playing with the Gorillas see him.

As yet no games have been scheduled, but the first game will probably be played within the next two weeks.

Seven Members Of 1934 Faculty Did Not Return

Several teachers who were members of the high school faculty last year are not included in this year's faculty. Advanced study, jobs elsewhere, and marriage account for their absence this year.

Miss Alma Ruth Schulkey, who taught Spanish here last year, will study in Columbia university this year toward her M. A. degree. She is now visiting in La Porte, Ind.

Miss Josephine Cariker, former English teacher here, is teaching in a school nearer home.

Argus M. Fox, history teacher and assistant coach last year, is working for the Continental Oil company in Beaumont.

Miss Ruth Siddons, former librarian, is now Mrs. Robert Delland, of Pampa. Mr. Smellage is working for the Pampa Office Supply company. He taught in the commercial department here last year.

Harry Phillips is teaching at the Texas School of Mines in El Paso. Roy Wallerstein is in the army and is stationed at El Paso.

HARVESTERS' IMPROVED WORK AGAINST THE EXES RESULTS IN BRIGHT HOPES FOR FRIDAY

ENROLMENT IS INCREASED BY NEW STUDENTS

Registration of 46 Yesterday Sets New High

Forty-six students registered for high school work yesterday, bringing the total high school enrollment thus far to 735. More students are expected after the usual transfers take place and after some of the students who are still out of town return.

Indications are that the rooms will not be overcrowded and that none of the teachers will have classes larger than they should be.

Although it was announced last spring that in the future freshmen would remain in the Junior high school and that only upper classes would be in high school, a change has already taken place in the Junior high school. Seventy freshmen were moved to the senior high Thursday.

New Games Are Included in Gym Work This Year

Harry Kelley, who has conducted the physical education courses for boys the past five years, announced Wednesday that the department's program for this year would be conducted in a radically different way in the future. It was announced that there would be sports for every boy to participate in whether he be large or small. Those with physical deficiencies will play some non-strenuous games as horse shoe pitching.

Each boy will have his own individual equipment and will keep it in his own locker. It is hoped that such sports as basketball, softball, handball, volleyball, tennis, table tennis and tumbling will hold the interest of the boys to such an extent that physical education will be one of the most popular classes instead of just another class to be attended or "skipped" as the case might be.

LOOKING AHEAD

Students and townspeople of Pampa need no exhortations to arouse their interest in the gridiron clashes which will feature the 1935 Harvester football campaign. Public response to the reserved seat sale and the attendance at practice games are ample testimony to substantiate this fact, although no such proof is needed. It is an accepted fact that Pampa citizens love football and to a man are behind the Harvesters.

The spirit of loyal partisanship in football is a fine thing, and friendly rivalry is to be encouraged. Nothing is better for the community spirit than loyal adherence to a common cause, whether that cause be civic improvement, social welfare work, or support of a local institution such as the football team. The animation, interest, and loyalty instilled by active support form benefits to the individual as well as to the community.

However, we should remember that the effect of active common support of a cause may sometimes be marred by unseemly extremes to which our enthusiasm may lead us. In football games everywhere refereeing, unseemly remarks, disturbances, and even near-riots are no uncommon features.

Anyone who is tempted to engage in any of these activities should remember that, although he may feel that they are justified, he can only damage his own cause by participating in them. The best support is that which is tempered with the wisdom which places the event in its proper perspective, the satisfaction gained by voicing momentary exasperation.

A frequent excuse given for unseemly conduct is that one is only returning what the other side has given. Turning the other cheek may seem to offer little satisfaction at such a time, yet the fact remains that no high standard of sportsmanlike conduct can be built up and sustained unless someone has the courage to refrain from responding in kind. It is doubtful that there are many instances in which good sportsmanship will not be returned in kind, eventually if not at once.

Since this is being published prior to the opening of the Harvester football season, it should be evident that it has not been inspired by any local occurrences but rather is merely the reflection of conditions which obtain in some degree in football contests everywhere. Pampa has upheld a high standard of sportsmanship in the past. It is to be hoped that that standard will be raised rather than lowered during the coming season.

Tom Sweetman, John Mackie, and Everett Vanderburg will study in Texas Tech.

Lawrence McBea will attend West Texas State Teachers college. Daisyanne Shields will major in physical education at the University of California.

Tough Battle Faces Grid Men This Week-End

In its 13-0 victory over the Exes last Friday, the Harvester squad displayed a much improved brand of football which has given rise to renewed hopes on the part of Pampa fans for a winning team this year. Particularly did the improvement of the gridsters point toward strong chances for a win over the strong Lawton, Okla., aggregation.

The game Friday was the second encounter of the season between the Harvesters and the Exes, the first being won by the Exes 7-0.

Although the Exes displayed some fine football they were unable to stop the plunges of Fanning, and Stewart, and the circling of Brown, Reynolds, Woolridge and Showers.

Big J. R. Green playing his second game at end turned a fine game and the Fanning to Green pass combination has been excelled in Pampa high school only by the Marbaugh-Sullins duet, Leon Nobilit changed from tackle to center position, played nice ball, although his amount of play was limited because of a pre-game injury.

Other linemen who have last year's experience to their credit and who made a nice showing are Philip Nolan and George Nix.

Two men in the Harvester line for the first time this season are Stokes Green and Moose Hartman, men who could fall to be regulars only through lack of effort. Others are Ivan Nobilit, Jack Walstad, Roy Lee Jones, Brice Green, Travis Livey, William Gillis, Glen Maxey, Steve Goodwin, and Arthur Bowsher.

Even though the Harvesters have a fighting and well-balanced team, they are due for a hard battle Friday night, Sept. 20 when they meet the Wolves of Lawton, Okla.

The Wolves have one of the strongest teams in this part of the country, having ten of last season's regulars returning. Lawton has four likely candidates for all-state honors this year, these four being men who received honorable mention last year.

The Student's New Year

This is the scholastic New Year. Students everywhere are entering a new year of work, most of them with interest and enthusiasm which will be sustained, many of them with promises to themselves which it is to be feared will soon be forgotten.

It is a common thing for students to re-enter school with a mental resolution that the year is going to be different, that they are going to do more than just "get by." It is no uncommon thing for those same students to lose sight of their good intentions in the press of events that crowd the school year. It is a frequent occurrence for teachers to see students enter their classes and start their work with an interest that is genuine only to lose that interest as the weeks go by.

This interest with which students re-enter the school year is not forced. In most cases, school comes as a welcome relief from the vacation period which has grown old to them. That students come to school with enthusiasm is a fine thing; that many of them soon relax their efforts is deplorable.

There are many complicating factors which may cause the student to lose his zest for school work. There are few, if any, of these causes which cannot be remedied. It is one duty of the teacher to attempt to remedy these causes; however, the student should remember that it is not only the teacher's responsibility but his own as well.

One phase of the student's interest problem deserves special consideration. For it is likely that it constitutes the chief explanation why many students do as little work as possible.

When school opens, the student commonly has not yet many social interests and many of the students and teachers are new to him. Consequently, he is thrown more upon his own resources than he is later in the term. At the same time, his courses come after the vacation period as something new to him. As a result, he is apt to start out in such a manner as to indicate that he will carry out his unspoken resolution to do better work than he has in the past.

As the weeks pass, he begins to spend hours with new acquaintances and in social activity. While friendships and social contacts may be very valuable, he makes the error of letting them overshadow his scholastic work instead of taking them in his stride. In the meantime, his courses have lost their newness to him. He may, through lack of preparation, have lost the habit of active participation in classes. The result shows up when he falls into the habit of regarding his courses as necessary evils and is content merely to pass—and frequently he fails to do even that.

As long as a student is interested in his work, there is very definite hope for him—no matter what the semester takes place in the gym. Announcements will be made by Supt. R. B. Fisher, Principal L. L. Sone, and Coach Odus Mitchell.

Cafeteria Opens Under Old Plan

High school cafeteria was opened to students and the public yesterday at noon. Mrs. J. J. Patton and Mrs. Fay Purdie are in charge this year, and B. R. Nuckles will act as cashier.

Improvements made in the cafeteria during the summer include two new gas ranges and a new hardwood floor in the kitchen. The cafeteria will be run on the plan used last year, except that football boys are serving all meals. No girls will assist in serving.

New Instructor Assumes Duties

Appointment of Miss Alice Short as a teacher of science in the senior high school was announced last Tuesday when she assumed her duties here.

Miss Short received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from West Texas State Teachers college and she holds an M. A. from Columbia university, where she studied last year. Prior to that she was employed for several years as a member of the faculty at Roy, N. M.

Miss Short will teach courses in physics, biology, and physiology.

Teachers and students in the foods division of the home economics department are congratulating themselves on the installation, during the summer, of an attractive new cabinet.

One of the high school's many new students is Eleanor Patrick, niece of the principal of Sam Houston ward school. She hails from Michigan.

Philip Noland, of the Harvester grid squad, and Wolford Bivens, manager of the Harvesters, were interviewed on the air Saturday afternoon by a KGNC announcer as a feature of the "Street Chatter" period. Subject of the interview was the Harvester football team. Noland and Bivens were in Amarillo to witness the game between the Amarillo college Badgers and the Pirates of the Altus, Okla., Junior college.

Coach Odus Mitchell was kidded a bit by announcers during the broadcast of the Badger-Pirate game about his gloomy replies to questions in regard to Harvester gridiron prospects.

Ralph Hamilton and Edgar Myatt, aspirants for tennis honors are already practicing.

She had to bury her husband—a good idea for future excuses. Miss Angela Strnad, of the home economics department, betrayed a very feminine characteristic the other day upon seeing a mouse.
