U.S. STRIKES BLOW AT GERMAN TRADE

Twinkles Hitler is demonstrating what a sensational journalist can do when he drops his pen and takes up the sword. Many a poisoned pen, however, has started a war.

Football teams are being 'whipped' into condition, but that is about the only kind of whipping left in the schools, says the West Foster coach.

Legislators are trying to find out what an "open saloon" is, although they put the words in the amendment. And the people never have figured out why the legislators didn't read the amendments before they submitted them.

Maybe Mr. Mussolini is trying to find a market for the Italian shoe business.

The Panhandle generally has raised plenty of 'roughage' this year. Added to that which blew in last spring, we ought to be able to assimilate some white bread by next year.

England's Campbell may be the fastest driver in the world, but some of Pampa's motorists would give him good competition. Campbell knows where he is going, and why, however.

Musing of the moment: An American judge denounces Germany's form of government, terms its emblem a pirate flag, and says Hitlerism should end. Communists, in convention, urge workers' governments in all nations. Neither instance is important, but what is come later may be of real moment. Any American who plots against Germany or any other nation is going too far; any Russian who interferes with our affairs is a person to be curbed. It may not always be so; talk is powerful. In fact, Russia is doing American fascist propaganda and bans most of our publications.

DEATH OF Senator Huey Long from an assassin's bullet has aroused much comment. Slaying of any public official is usually construed as an offense against organized society. Abroad, the act will undoubtedly be misinterpreted. We have read, with horror in this country, of the slaying of Oboron in Moscow, and the public leaders in South America, and government officials in Europe. Now we can ponder over a similar outbreak in our own country. But this is not a typical instance, we might say. So were many other instances not typical of politics in the countries affected.

HUEY P. LONG was a United States senator. His filibuster was one of his last and most dramatic acts. It caused bitter comment in Washington. But he was killed by his own people. In a state, a dictatorship such as can exist only in a loose union like ours. He held extraordinary powers, aroused extraordinary enmities. It was well known to him that his life was in danger. He knew why. The country at large will likely never know the full story. The congressional investigation, following his death, will doubtless be tempered by more conservatism than was originally intended.

ONLY IN THE United States can a sub-division of the government set up a dictatorship, defy the federal government and its chief executive, and through force and legislation deny its citizens many of the rights guaranteed by the national constitution. In Mexico, for instance, the permanent commission of Congress and the President can oust such a dictator, as they did in the state of Tabasco recently after declaring that "constitutional guarantees had been abandoned" by the authoritarian. Many nations of Europe were formerly loose federations of provinces headed by feudal dictators. Germany was such a people, and Germany did not achieve greatness until the local powers were decimated and a strong central government set up. States rights can be

CONGRESSMEN ARE KILLED IN MEXICO CITY

THREE WOUNDED WHEN BATTLE IS FOUGHT IN CHAMBER

BY CLARK LEE. Associated Press Foreign Staff. MEXICO CITY, Sept. 12 (AP)—A second national deputy died today of wounds received in a shooting affray in the chamber of deputies last night. The second to die was Deputy Luis Mendez. Two other deputies are suffering from wounds.

MEXICO, D. P., Sept. 12 (AP)—A shooting affray in the chamber of deputies, during which one congressman was killed and three wounded, brought charges today of a plot against the government.

Luis Mora Tovar, president of the majority, left wing group of the chamber, told President Lazaro Cardenas administration opponents planned and executed the shooting.

Mora Tovar said minority members had been meeting secretly for some time planning to use violent means to divide the legislative body. He asserted hired gunmen took part in the exchange of shots last night which caused the death of Deputy Manuel Martinez Valadez, majority member from Jalisco, and the wounding of Luis Mendez, Roman Campos Viveros, and Mariano M. Vertiz.

Members of the minority group denied they had arranged the shooting. They also denied they were supporters of General Plutarco Elias Calles, former president now living in the Hawaiian islands, who retired from Mexican politics after a dispute with Cardenas.

Observers said the shooting grew out of a heated debate between members of the majority and the

Dust Area Tree Belt Takes Form

Evidence that the shelter belt, the government's vast tree-planting project from Texas to Canada, may be practicable in combating dust storms is given by this picture, taken in the 'dust bowl.' The photo shows a row of locusts now standing eight feet high as compared to 12 to 18 inches last April. The ample space left for growth is shown by the wide 'aisle' between the tree rows.

Torch Singer Is Shot Dead; Heir Of Rogers Held

Suicide Claimed But Police Question Young Man

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 12 (AP)—Chief County Detective Francis Grubb said today Henry H. Rogers Jr., held on a charge of suspicion of murder in the fatal shooting of Torch Singer Evelyn Hoy, would not be released on bail, although District Attorney William Parks had inquired earlier Rogers would be permitted to post $1,000 bonds.

IN ORDER to make an impression and show the fair crowds that Pampans are present, local folk are asked to call at the Board of City Development in the city hall and obtain "Pampa" stickers.

Arrangements have been made to take the high school band to the fair Tuesday.

At her feet lay a pistol. On the bed was another. And in a corner of the room, leaning against the wall, was a sawed-off gun. Rogers, 29-year-old son and namesake of the late Standard Oil multimillionaire who died last July, was brought to jail here for questioning and was held on a technical charge

This morning the committee received a letter from Jess Morris, old-time fiddler at Dalhart. He will do his best to come and bring his accompanist. He said he knew the dance would be "grand and wonderful." If he comes he will bring his accompanist, Montoya, a Spanish-American who plays the guitar, and can execute beautiful Mexican numbers. As for Mr. Morris, he sings and plays "Old Paint."

With Mr. Morris entered in the old fiddlers' contest, the number of entrants to date would be about eight. Already ten callers are ready to "call" the dances.

Proceeds of the dance for which an admission of 40 cents will be charged, will be used to aid in financing the seventh district convention of music clubs here in October. Tickets are now being sold by members of the three music clubs in the city, the Treble Clef, the Philharmonic, and the Treble Clef.

GERMANY MUST PAY HIGHEST DUTIES SOON

NEW TARIFF POLICY IS LAUNCHED BY STATE DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—Germany on October 15 will lose tariff reductions granted by the United States in reciprocal trade pacts, official sources made known today, because of asserted persistent and flagrant discriminations against American imports there.

The termination of tariff benefits, attributed to the state department, was intercepted as instituting a new policy in American foreign trade.

Secretary Hull, it was learned authoritatively, has notified Dr. Hans Luther, the German ambassador, that after October 15 all German imports into the United States must pay the highest prevailing duty rates.

By that action, this country establishes for the first time in many years a two column tariff schedule, one with normal rates for countries which grant equality of treatment for American goods, and another higher schedule for countries which discriminate against American goods.

The German-American commercial treaty, the first unconditional most-favored-nation pact entered into by this country, ends by Germany's desire and action on October 15.

The effective date of the new and higher tariff on German goods will coincide with the treaty's abrogation.

Germany, Portugal, Denmark, and Italy have been "on warning" from the president since July that favorable tariff treatment they now receive is subject to cancellation on 30 days notice because of their discrimination against American imports.

Italy is now negotiating a reciprocal trade pact designed to remove many of the discriminations practiced against American goods.

Parents 'Spy On' Teacher

PLOTTING TO OVERTHROW SCHOOL BOARD

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 12 (AP)—The fight for education had become a literal one today at the Carey district school west of here, with middle-aged partisans enrolled "for a little review work" and deputy sheriff dropping by occasionally to see that nobody was throwing erasers.

Professor Henry Plog, slight, mild-mannered principal with a spring steel will—is the epicenter of the educational earthquake which rocked and flagrant discriminations against American imports there.

FRANCE WILL BE FORCED TO REJECT DUCE

ENGLAND RUSHES MORE TROOPS TO FORTS AT MALTA

BY A. E. STUNTZ. Associated Press Foreign Staff. ROME, Sept. 12 (AP)—Well-informed sources said today that Italy will go ahead with her Ethiopian campaign no matter what attitude France may adopt.

Although much anxiety was expressed, on the eve of the projected speech by Premier Laval of France in the League of Nations, these sources said Italy was determined not to swerve from a war regarded as inevitable.

It was stated that Italy would not swerve even though France returned to the basis of cooperation with Great Britain or Italy in the League of Nations assembly Feb. 3 at London—(when the British and French met to promote the peace of the world by closer European cooperation in a spirit of most friendly confidence, and to remove those tendencies, which if unchecked, are calculated to lead to a race in armaments and an increase in the dangers of war.)

GENEVA, Sept. 12 (AP)—A group of Europe's most powerful small nations came out univocally in the League of Nations assembly today against the employment of force as a means of acquiring the territory of others.

Statenmen of The Netherlands, Belgium and Sweden—the last understood to represent all the Scandinavian countries—pledged their nations' loyal support to the League of Nations covenant, thereby backing the British policy pronounced yesterday by Sir Samue Hoare, Great Britain's foreign secretary.

Support of the league, in the face of the threatened invasion of Ethiopia by Italy, was pledged by Jonkneer A. C. de Graeff, foreign minister of The Netherlands, by Premier Paul Van Zeeland of Belgium, and by Richard Sandler, foreign minister of Sweden.

Force was added to Sandler's declaration by the fact that he came here almost directly from a conference with the foreign ministers of Norway and Denmark. It was reported without confirmation that the Scandinavian statesmen would recommend their governments resign from the League of Nations if the league fails to make good in this Italian-Ethiopian crisis.

Premier Van Zeeland told the assembly Belgium "had decided to go the limit" in taking part in the common responsibility of league members.

Many delegates attached deep significance to this statement since Belgium is an ally of France. Shortly after Van Zeeland's speech, Premier Laval of France authorized the issuance of a denial by the press that he had said he would never approve the application of sanctions against an aggressor in the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia.

Russia having publicly committed herself as opposed to the employment of force, league observers had the impression that it would be difficult for France to resist a development of measures of restraint in case war breaks out between Italy and Ethiopia.

De Graeff, coming out clearly against any Italian expansion by force, asserted the world should give in the categorical "no" to any such methods.

Swimming Pool Will Be Closed After Sunday

If the weather is at all favorable, a large crowd is expected at the swimming pool Sunday because it will be the last opportunity to "hit the water" in the Pampa Municipal swimming pool this season.

Mrs. Josie Young, manager, announced today that the pool would be closed after Sunday. The water will be changed tomorrow as usual. Recent rains and the resultant cold weather has cut down attendance at the pool to a minimum, although "they have been going in" this last week, Mrs. Young said. The pool is open every day the sun shines.

PASS TO BE MAIN OFFENSIVE IN SOUTHWEST THIS SEASON

SAYRE ELEVEN PLAYS LEFORS FRIDAY NIGHT

(By The Associated Press.) The forward pass, coaches indicate by their training drills, will be the main defensive weapon in the Southwest conference football battles this fall.

Coach Fred Thompson of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks lost no time in starting the pass offensive-practice, keeping Martin and Ray on the job while the linemen were put through strenuous blocking and drills.

The Aggies opened with passing and running drills. Coach Homer Nogson said that sort of offensive would be the basis of his system this year.

Coaches L. R. Meyer and Raymond Wolf mixed plenty of forward passing and the breaking up of passes with the Texas Christian Horned Frog practice menu.

The Southern Methodist Mustangs, widely known for their aerial circus, decided to give much of their time in practicing the art of breaking up passes at practice.

Coach Jack Chevigny of the University of Texas Longhorns said he was ready to start running plays, but that he would devote much of his daily practice to fundamentals and development of line material.

The Rice Owls decided to color their training period with their second annual football party tonight. Coach Jimmy Klits said that after each member of the squad was introduced to the crowd at the party, the Owls would demonstrate their offensive and defensive plays.

The Baylor Bears were allowed no rest in their practice drills, and seven huskies who turned their eyes on the tackle positions left vacant by Red Weathers and Dan McClasison, 1934 stars, were welcomed.

COLTEXO'S PITCHER PARKER... KNOCKS IN 3 RUNS AS TILT ENDS 9 TO 6

UMPIRE'S DECISION IS MUCH DEBATED TODAY

Coltexo Gas of LeFors is the new champion of the annual Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament. Coltexo won a thrilling 9 to 6 game against the Pampa Road Runners, defending champions, last night in the last of the ninth which began with the score tied 6 to 6.

Relief Pitcher Jim Parker, formerly of the Kansas City Blues, was the big man of the victory when he scored the tying run in the eighth inning and then hit a home run with two men on in the ninth to win his own ball game. Carriers, starting pitcher, was also a factor in the Coltexo victory. He doubled in the sixth to break a tie score and sent Coltexo again into the lead.

Pitcher Jim Parker opened the eighth with a double. McNabb fanned, Huffman singled and Parker started for home. Seitz made a perfect throw to home plate, Horton taking the catch, covering home plate, but not in time to tag Parker, who crashed into him and landed in the dirt about six feet past home plate. Parker returned as if to touch home plate but Horton tagged him. In the meantime, the umpire had ruled Parker safe and the tying run was across the plate. The umpire ruled that Parker touched the plate as he fell over Horton.

The game ended in the ninth inning when Parker hit a home run, the ball landing on top of the Al Lawson sign in center field. Poindester and Dingman scored ahead of Parker.

The game was a thriller from the opening inning, when McNabb led off with an infield single to short and went to third on Huffman's single. He scored on a fly to center field. Take 3-Run Lead. The Road Runners took a commanding lead in the third with a four-run rally. Clowers singled after Horton had fanned. Brickell singled. George went out. Hale to first. Scamling singled, scoring Clowers and Brickell. Nell then hit a home run, scoring Scamling ahead of him.

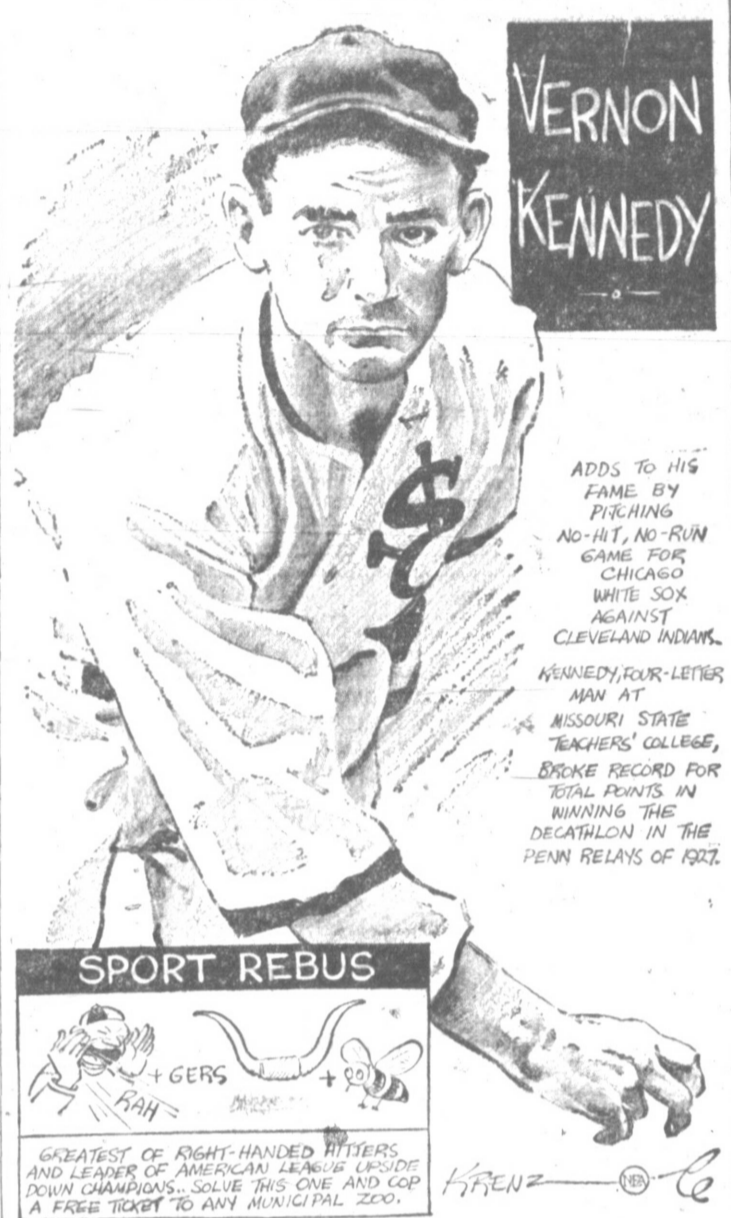

Coltexo came within one run of tying the score in the fourth. Hale singled, Beason fanned, Polvogt went to second. Seitz, Polvogt double, scoring Hale. Sedbrook was safe when Nell dropped his pop fly back of first. Poindester scoring. The visitors tied the count in the next inning when McNabb was given first base after being hit on the hand. He was sacrificed to second by the man from where he scored on Hale's single.

Pitcher Carithers "untied" the score in the eighth by doubling to score Sedbrook, who had singled. The Coltexo catcher pulled the double, next inning when after two were out, Nell singled and scored when Patton got a triple through Poindester, who made a sensational try at a shoe string catch. Seitz singled to score Patton.

Score 15-1 Tied. Parker tied the score on the question play in the eighth and won his own game in the ninth. Poindester beat out a roller down the third base line to open the inning. Sedbrook sacrificed to base. Olinhart was walked intentionally, but the strategy failed when Parker "poked one" on top of the center field sign.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer. The pennant cauldron, which has been simmering for some time, began to bubble over today as the Giants, stuns tentacles for the National league flag although relegated to third place, opened a series with the League-leading Cardinals and the Yankees began a last-ditch fight to overtake the fast flying Tigers.

The Yankee-Detroit affair was "crucial" only from the New York point of view since the Yanks were 7 1/2 games behind at the start but the battle of St. Louis had so many angles that all three pennant contenders had to regard its highly important.

After varying fortunes in the first half of their western tour had left them 3 1/2 games behind the Cards, the Giants needed a clean sweep of the four-start series to show any real progress. That would put them ahead of the Cards, but meanwhile the Cubs might take over the lead by passing Brooklyn and the Giants would find themselves in another struggle for the lead when they go to Chicago next Monday.

TULSA WHIPS INDIANS 13-9 IN FIRST TILT

OKLAHOMA CITY WILL SEND ACE HILLMEN AGAINST OILERS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 12. (AP)—Having given the Oklahoma City Indians an oiling, the Tulsa Oilers Indians are out for home today, but the Indians were determined to avenge the 13-9 whipping they suffered in last night's opener of the Shaugnessy Texas league title series.

As likely starters Manager Bert Niehoff had his ace, "Red" Evans, and sturdy Jack Brillheart, his only hurler not used in last night's battling. Although the run column showed Oklahoma City five runs behind, they were almost even on hits, holding 15 against 17, and there were five Tulsa errors to boot.

The diamond took on the appearance of a batting session in the eighth, when Tulsa, already leading 6-3, loosed a six run volley that served only to get the Indians dander up. But the Tribesmen's rally fizzled with the fifth run, and more than 6,000 customers turned their hopes tonight on Evans and Brillheart.

The Giants, after three straight triumphs over Pittsburgh had moved them back into a threatening position in front of a Paul Warner hitting spree and went down 10-7 as Roy Parmelee failed to go the route for the eighth straight time. The elder Warner scored four runs and batted in six as he clouted a home with the bases full, a triple and two singles. As some consolation for his club, Mel Ott smacked homer No. 30 for the Giants, two doubles and a single.

The Cubs kept their place a game behind the Cards by allowing the Braves 15 to 3. It was Boston's 12th straight loss. Detroit struggled 12 innings against Washington and went down 4-3 when Tommy Bridges let fly a

LITTLE STILL FAVORITE TO RETAIN TITLE

WALTER EMERY, JACK MUNGER CAPTURE MATCHES

BY PAUL MICKELSON. CLEVELAND, Sept. 12. (AP)—That Little man was growing bigger today.

As 15 others answered the starter's call with him for the fifth round of battle in the thirty-ninth National Amateur golf championship, Lawson Little Jr., San Francisco's broad shouldered slugger supreme, was such a pronounced favorite that he was even money to win his fourth amateur crown in succession.

Out of a series of sharp explosions that blew the last of the trenches yesterday, that Little man did a lot of dynamiting of his own to crush two game foes and run his string of consecutive conquests to 27 straight. Blasting par by several blows over the 28-holes he traveled, he mowed down Knox Young Jr., Pittsburgh insurance salesman, 6 and 5, and Bobby Riegel, Southern Amateur champion from Richmond, Va., 5 and 3.

It is the seemingly hopeless job of short circuiting the San Francisco powerhouse, who takes the fight out of his rivals right from the tee with 280 to 300-yard drives, fell to Warrington McCulloch Jr., an automobile supply salesman from Philadelphia, in the first of the last two 18-hole "sudden death" duels today.

All eyes, those of the players and galleries alike, were fixed on Little when he had his second successive "double"—two British and two American amateur championships—but there was plenty of class left in the field. As such sharpshooters as Ross Somerville of Canada, Charles Yates of Atlanta, Dave Goldman and Reynolds Smith of Dallas and Ed White, national intercollegiate champion, were upset yesterday, the hottest series of rounds in the tournament's 39-year-old play were scored.

NEWBY DEATH WAS PORKERS' MAJOR BLOW

COACHES ARE TRYING HARD TO FILL HIS PLACE

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 12. (AP)—The bobbing, blond head of Jack Newby has been stilled.

Perhaps the fate of this year's University of Arkansas football team lies in those words.

Captain-Elect Newby, vicious center of the 1934 team, died in the college infirmary last spring as the student body clustered about the doorstop awaiting word of their idol. His smashing defensive play and stack of bars of encouragement made him a colorful figure in the conference. He never wore a helmet and his cotton head bobbed up in nearly every line play.

His empty post has coaches Fred Thomson and Glen Rose worried. Two squadmen, Kenneth Landry and Tom Rollins, and a promising sophomore, John Donaldson, are being worked into the gap.

Newby was flanked on either side by two great guards last year—Bill Spivey and John Messel. They are gone also—lost through graduation. Only Herman (Red) Ray, a letterman, is left of those that guarded the center of the wall. Sophomores will be used to plug the other guard.

Prospects are bright at the tackles. Two veterans, Jack Haden, 215 pounds of Fort Worth, and Cliff Van Stickle, an Oklahoma product, are back and looking good. Bill Benton, 1934 captain, led a tackle open by his graduation.

HORACE MANN GETS COOKING SCHOOL PRIZE

MOST SUCCESSFUL OF SCHOOLS CLOSES YESTERDAY

Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association received the $10 award offered to the association receiving the most registration votes in the three-day cooking school that closed yesterday under sponsorship of the Daily News and Pampa merchants.

Leading from the first session, the Horace Mann unit was followed by Woodrow Wilson association, which received $5. B. M. Baker and Sam Houston units were close contenders.

Most successful in attendance of any school ever held here, the program also brought the most enthusiastic comments of approval from women who heard Mrs. Beulah Mackey Yates in a series of talks on modern kitchen methods.

Opening day attendance records were broken Monday, and attendance increased on the succeeding days.

In response to many requests, Mrs. Yates left her recipe for Cow-Punchers' Chili, but announced that the recipe for yellow angel food cake, also requested, was not available.

Cow-Punchers' Chili.
 5 pounds chopped chili meat
 1 1/2 cups suet
 1 1/2 cups chopped onions
 1-4 cup chopped garlic
 1 medium can chili powder
 1 can paprika
 4 tablespoons cominos seed
 Salt generously.

Divide suet, fry chili meat in half of it, fry onions and garlic in other half. Combine mixtures, add chili powder, paprika, cominos seed, and salt. Mix well. Add two cups boiling water and cook very slowly 4 to 6 hours. This is real chili, no foolin', from West Texas plains.

At the beginning of a new year, members of Central Baptist Missionary union yesterday studied a handbook, Think We Should Know. Mrs. John O. Scott was leader at the church.

Emphasis was placed on duties of officers, committee chairmen and members, and on the ten points of a standard organization.

Mrs. A. B. Cecil conducted the devotional, and Mrs. Fred Hicks gave the opening prayer. The program was given especially for the benefit of new officers and workers who will direct activities of the year.

COLUMN

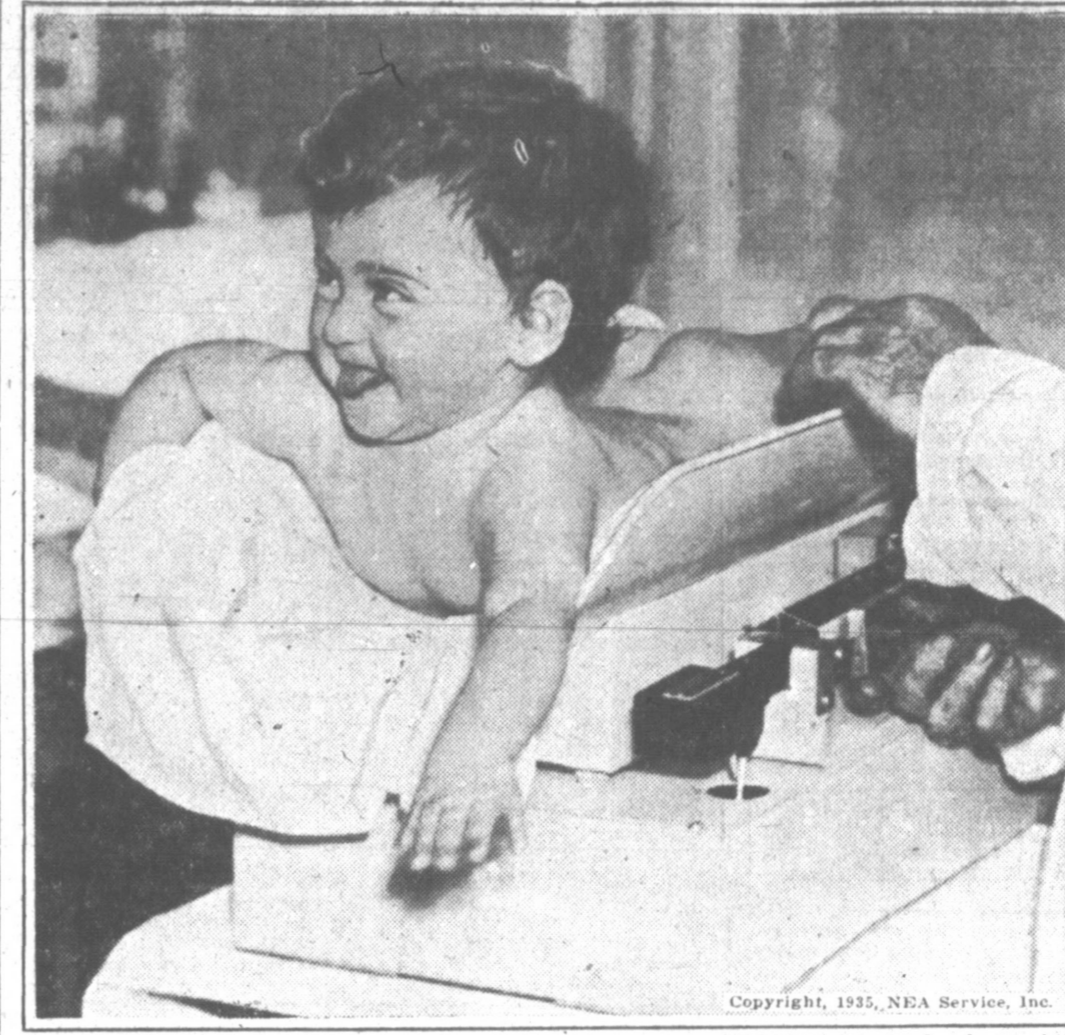

IT IS PERTINENT to remark that abolition of the fee system of remunerating Texas office holders is a step toward centralization of authority within the state. Combining of the state highway patrol and the Texas Rangers and formation of a strong, motorized department is another. In this day of speedy travel, some departments of counties are unnecessary. The offices of the tax collectors and assessors were combined and we have heard no complaint. . . . Now that peace officers are to draw salaries instead of fees, the people will be more critical. Officers who do not earn their money should get no pay. Legislators are considering abolition of the office of constable. This is an outmoded office which would never be missed. . . . Ultimately, one tax assessing and collecting office in a county will be enough. One county will exist where there are now six or more. We have had far more units of government than we need. The tax tree must and will be pruned. And grafting on and in must be stopped. Our forms of government are far from perfect and we are demanding more of them every year.

Maverick Demands Probe Of Navy On 'Meddling' Grounds

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12 (AP)—Questioning its efficiency and accusing it of "meddling" in internal and foreign affairs, Rep. Maverick (D., Texas) wants a congressional investigation of the navy.

The Texan, himself a World War veteran, put forward his demand for an 8-point inquiry in the final edition of the Congressional Record—just released.

"As a congressman," he said, "I am willing to give our arms of defense adequate appropriations for that purpose. I am willing to help them in their morale, in their efficiency and in their discipline.

"I am not, however, willing to make huge appropriations and permit the efficiency of our fighting arms to go down, nor to let the military run the civilian population, meddle in internal affairs, and stick their noses in foreign affairs."

An investigation, Maverick said, would disclose whether the half billion being granted the navy department annually is being wasted and harms rather than benefits the navy.

Maverick said the inquiry should cover:

1. Peace-time espionage of the navy.
2. Connections with foreign affairs in internal affairs, and stick their noses in foreign affairs.
3. Any connection of the navy or any officer—with munitions makers and shipbuilding lobbies.
4. Naval educational policies, including the naval academy curriculum.
5. Discipline, particularly among officers.
6. Number of officers on duty in Washington, officer lobbying, and their distaste for and non-wearing of uniforms.
7. Character of mechanical and fighting equipment.
8. The "navy mind."

Declining to challenge the patriotism of officers, Maverick said, nevertheless, they had acquired what psychologists call the "navy mind."

"Though delightful fellows socially," he explained, "at least a few have straight jacketed minds—heads straight-jacketed with real thick insulation against reasonable thought."

The duty of a soldier or sailor, the Texan asserted, is to fight for his government, not interfere with its affairs.

Yet the navy, he said, is "meddling in foreign affairs" and "secretly and by underhand methods and intimidation," trying to push through a bill to forbid attempts to incite members of the armed forces to dissatisfaction and disobedience of rules and regulations.

That bill, he said, will take away liberties of the people, set up censorship and make the military supreme as in Germany before the war.

The proposed inquiry by senators and congressmen should not be made by individuals subject to the navy's "social lobby" who can be "teamed down" by the admirals, Maverick continued, adding:

"My conclusion is that there should be a dignified investigation of the United States navy, not a publicly hunting affair where naval officers are brought in to be humiliated or embarrassed, where sensational charges are made and where a circus is held for the edification of the public."

YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE REVIVAL GUESTS TODAY

BOY SCOUTS INVITED TO HARRAH CHAPEL SERVICES

Boy Scout troops 23 and 16 and the other young people of both Harrah Chapel and McCullough church communities are to be the special guests at the service tonight at Harrah Chapel, 713 S. Barnes.

Rev. Aisic Carleton who has been conducting the revival during the past week is to speak on "Filling Youth's Golden Bowl." "There are many challenges to young people today," he states. "Is there any real vital appeal which Christianity has to offer?"

Last night, Mr. Carleton described the necessity for a realization of the fact of sin. "The three hardest words to say for any man are 'I have sinned; yet the acknowledgment and confession of sin lies at the very foundation of every real Christian life. Jesus came to awaken our consciences to the terrible results of sin and through his love enable us to win the victory over all sin."

"All of us will confess our sins some day," he added, "but some confess under the strain of suffering or calamity, some acknowledge sin today and go back to it tomorrow, and some confess their sin after the ruin of their lives is apparent. All such confessions are worthless. The only confession that counts is that coming from a heart filled with sorrow and remorse over the course taken, who resolves to go back to the Father, and arises and acts upon his resolution."

These special services continue through Sunday.

NEWSPAPERMEN BARRED FROM CENTENNIAL BOARD SESSIONS

BY HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—Although thousands of dollars have been allocated to publish the Centennial, the control commission continues to bar newspapermen from its sessions.

A majority of the commission meeting here recently voted over the protest of Wallace Perry, El Paso newspaper editor, to continue executive hearings of delegations seeking funds for Centennial celebrations.

Present at the meeting in addition to Perry were Lieut. Gov. Walter P. Wood of Houston, chairman, Pat M. Neff of Waco, J. A. Elkins of Houston and J. K. Beretta of San Antonio.

Perry told the commission that since it had to allocate huge sums of state money, about which tedious might arise, an open door policy was advisable. The views of other members were not made public.

The trend in recent years seems to have been more and more toward conducting the state's business in private, although there was a decided loosening up of restrictions on news with the advent of the present administration.

Governor Alfred's official business is open as is that of Attorney General McCraw. One of the latter's maxims is "It's an open book; read it."

On the other hand, many legislative committees prefer, in frequent instances to exclude the public until cut and dried reports are prepared.

Most of the investigations of the house committee which has studied conditions in the East Texas oil field have been behind closed doors. The committee which investigated the administration of J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, threw its doors open only once, whereupon an assistant state auditor had a fist fight with a witness. A majority of the committee voted to exonerate McDonald and the whole investigation blew up in a storm of statements.

The senate general investigating committee, broken into several one-man sub-committees, have held executive sessions all summer.

It used to be difficult to keep up with meetings of the state board of education but a change of personnel several months ago resulted in a change of policy toward publicity. A legislative investigation of certain investments of the board stimulated the new attitude.

"It is our fault we haven't given the public information as to what we are doing," a member said.

REPEAL MADE LITTLE CHANGE IN TEXANS' DRINKING HABITS AND SALOONS ARE STILL OPEN

Hard Liquor Displayed in Local Option Areas But Sales Show No Increase.

DALLAS, Sept. 11. (AP)—Repeal of statewide prohibition made little change in Texans' drinking habits. Hard liquor was sold and displayed somewhat more openly even in urban areas theoretically dry under local option, but reports in newspaper survey showed little increase in consumption of alcoholics.

In theory Texas was to revert, in case of repeal of constitutional prohibition, to the local option status of 1919 when the dry amendment was adopted. Even that status was questionable, however, with reports to official and unofficial agencies at variance on the question of how much of the state was legally wet.

The comptroller general's office figured 12 of the 254 counties legally wet, and parts of 50 others. R. Emmett Morse of Houston, repeal leader, said he had reports from official sources showing 19 wholly wet and 30 more partially so.

Officers were further confused by varying interpretations of the law. The attorney general's office held that the Dean law, enabling act under the constitutional amendment killed by the election of two weeks ago, was still effective in local option dry counties. A number of other lawyers held, however, that the Dean law died with the amendment when the result of the election was canvassed Monday.

San Antonio

The legislators will meet in special session Sept. 16 to straighten out the legal snarl.

San Antonio, which piled up a big repeal majority, was one of the most open spots for liquor sales, but alcoholics had been openly available there except for brief and rare intervals since shortly after national repeal. Sales were reported as apparently not much increased.

Galveston reported no perceptible increase in sales. Hard liquor displays had taken the place of beer bottles that decorated bars during a recent series of Ranger raids. Houston was in much the same case.

Dallas, theoretically dry, had several new bars, and established ones in most instances had quit pretending they were drug stores. Fort Worth reported little change.

El Paso

El Paso in the far West reported no change in saloons still operating.

In the East Texas oil fields, an area dry by local option but preponderantly for repeal in the recent election, open liquor sales were reported from Longview and Tyler. A recent grand jury at Tyler was ordered to give no attention to Dean law violations except to list infractions for possible consideration.

In the Rio Grande Valley little effect was felt. A few places in Brownsville had liquor on display but no sales otherwise than in packages were reported. Harlingen reported several bars in operation and package sales were made at the San Benito resort.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS.

Beware OF STRANGERS AND PEDDLERS AT YOUR DOOR WARNS CHIEF OF POLICE

To The Citizens and Housewives of Pampa:

THIS IS A WARNING issued for the protection of Pampa homes and citizens from the HAZARDS OF DEALING WITH ITINERANT PEDDLERS and STRANGERS.

OWING TO THE FACT that there have been many cases of High Pressure Selling Schemes reported to the Police recently by the housewives and citizens the following is issued:

STRANGERS SHOULD NOT BE ADMITTED to your homes UNTIL THEIR CREDENTIALS HAVE BEEN CHECKED UP AND VERIFIED—and that you ARE SURE YOU KNOW the party at your door to be a LOCAL PAMPA CITIZEN deserving your consideration.

ONE NEED NOT BE AFRAID of offending the HONEST SALESMAN, living here, or REPRESENTING A LOCAL BUSINESS FIRM. He will have his CREDENTIALS WITH HIM—that is why all are required to carry their identification SO AS TO PROTECT YOU.

DO NOT PAY CASH IN ADVANCE to Strangers on orders, as in many cases the customer has NEVER RECEIVED THE MERCHANDISE—nor has there been any refund of the cash-in-advance payment.

DO NOT CASH CHECKS OR ISSUE A CHECK to a Stranger on an order, often times these checks have been "ALTERED" and later cashed by an innocent party.

IN CASE YOU ARE SUSPICIOUS, PHONE THE POLICE AT ONCE. PHONE NO. 555. DON'T DELAY IN THIS—as it will enable our police to overtake anyone making false representations at your home.

IT'S BETTER TO BE SAFE THAN SORRY—Protect yourself—BE SURE you know who the Stranger is at your door before allowing him admittance to your home. ASK FOR IDENTIFICATIONS.

S. A. HURST, Chief of Police, Pampa, Tex.

Beware of this endless chain selling scheme

It is being worked with all kinds of merchandise—especially hosiery and underwear.

WHO WILL HOLD THE SACK?

The Latest in bargain appeals, as offered by these Hy-Jack Peddlers are the new Chain-Selling-Schemes by which merchandise is promised to coupon purchasers for a small cash consideration and a little work.

DO YOU WANT TO BECOME A PEDDLER

and prey upon your friends—if you do try this one—here is a typical promise—made to you by the real slick peddler—

$10 WORTH OF HOSE FOR $1

Looks Good on the Face of it--What?

TRY and figure this---The Slick Peddler offers you a contract with three coupons for $4.00. Here is where you work your friends. You are to sell these coupons to three friends at $1.00 each and WHEN each of these friends send in $3.00 for similar coupon outfits or a total of $9.00 you are supposed to get $10.00 worth of some kind of hose. NOW you have made PEDDLERS out of three friends—and before they can realize anything for their cash they have that "little bit of work" to do—that is "create more Peddlers among their friends"—so on—so on— indefinitely.

IF you do complete this very simple contract—and your hose are delivered you are out $1.00 net, your three friends are out $4.00 each—or $12.00—and this firm has collected $13.00. WHO really pays for your hose? The firm or your friends?

SUPPOSE the firm fails—after having paid for your $10.00 worth of hose out of the $13.00 collected? How could this firm refund the $12.00 invested by your friends? What about the running expenses of an office and salaries of this firm—

Who Would Hold The Sack?

IF the practice and policy of the Government in barring these Schemes from the mails is upheld by the courts, what might happen to the firm should it be denied the use of the mails? If the firm should quit voluntarily, What Then?

IT IS NOT BUSINESS SENSE to expect a firm of this kind to give each of its customers $10.00 worth of hose for $1.00. You can NOT take out of any business more than is put into it.

AGAIN--Beware of these Endless Chain Schemes—there are several varieties being offered today.
