Twinkles
A national magazine calls the game of football a bubble. But the rabid fans will continue to call it a pigskin.

Representatives are being extraordinarily careful to get over the point that they represent their constituents and wish to do what the latter desire. Reasons: Liquor and pension dilemmas.

Note to high school grads going away to college: Don't exhibit all your knowledge before the professors right at the start — you might embarrass them.

Musings of the moment: What is an oldtime fiddler? We wouldn't know. There are fiddlers, there are "violinists," and of course there are violinists.

OUR NEW WEBSTER'S Unabridged shows that the English saloon is a variation of the French salon, and has an origin from the designation of a room or hall.

FOR THE extreme dry, there is of course no compromise. Moreover, the counties which will be dry are not mainly in the kind of place in which it should be sold in wet counties.

THE AMENDMENT does not commit the legislature to a "dry house" system at the same time it does not imply that the legislature should permit what the public will recognize as an "open saloon."

An important meeting of the newly organized Pampa Polo club will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the commission room in the city hall.

PAIR TO MAKE RACE ON PLATFORM OF HUEY LONG

By RALPH WHEATLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19. (AP)—The political machine left by the late Senator Huey P. Long was split wide open today by announcements of Lieutenant-Governor James A. Noe for governor and Wade O. Martin, public service commissioner, for the United States senate, in the January primary.

General Strike Warning Issued To Dallas Group

DALLAS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Myer Perlsstein predicted today that a general strike of all Texas unions in Dallas might occur unless dress manufacturers and the Dallas Open Shop association change their policies.

Masonic Chapter To Be Instituted Here Monday Night

A new chapter of Royal Arch Masons is to be instituted here Monday night, Sept. 23, at the Masonic Temple.

Rice for Newlywed Perrys

It isn't often that Fred Perry, England's No. 1 tennis amateur, can't give as good as is sent, but, not having a pocket full of rice, he couldn't return his friends' volley of rice as he and his glamorous film star bride, Helen Vinson, left New York on their honeymoon.

Europe Awaiting Il Duce's Action On A Compromise

LONDON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Foreign military observers said tonight a situation was rapidly developing in the Mediterranean where an untoward incident might furnish the tinder for touching off the powder keg spreading far beyond the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

Grand Jury to Probe Slaying

AMARILLO, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Potter county grand jury today was to investigate the slaying yesterday of R. W. "Pat" Graves, a produce company employee, for whose killing H. H. Wachendorf, a former deputy constable here, is charged with murder.

Eleven Senators Introduce Bill To Strictly Define And Prohibit Open Saloon

Dies In Sky

In a mad attack on his guest in a chartered plane careening piloted thousands of feet over Toronto, Len Koenecke, above, outfielder just released by the Brooklyn Dodgers, was killed with a fire extinguisher by Aviator W. J. Mulquency. The pilot, who landed the plane safely, said it was "one life or three" when he struck to halt Koenecke's attack on Parachute Jumper Irwin Davis.

Rare Beauty Even in Ditch Digging

Beauty as well as utility enters into Uncle Sam's great construction projects. Of rare loveliness is this scene, the long arm of an excavator etched against the sunrise sky as it swings its scoop filled with 12 cubic yards of sand to the bank of America's largest irrigation ditch, the All-American canal. This $23,000,000 project has been launched to safeguard the water supply of the Imperial Valley in California and Arizona from diversion to Mexico, water to be turned into the ditch from Boulder Dam.

BIGGEST GUSHER EVER DRILLED IN KANSAS TAPPED IN OLD WELL

RUSSELL, Kas., Sept. 19. (AP)—The black gold of the oil well vies today with the yellow gold of wheat fields in bringing prosperity—or at least hope of prosperity—back to the western Kansas plains. Old oil fields are being worked over and drilled deeper—with amazing results—and a steady leasing and drilling campaign has been under way for months in a great part of the area ravaged by drought and dust in recent months. Oil operators have explored intensively the flanks of the age-old Nemaha granite range which extends from far down in Oklahoma northward through central Kansas. Now they are branching out to the west and northwest until there are few of the 55 counties west of Wichita that do not have some leasing or drilling activities, and in a few counties the lease play is "hot." The chief activity still is centered, however, in central Kansas, with the Oxford and Schulte pools reporting magic results. At Oxford an old field has been found to overlay a far richer horizon which only recently has been tapped. Last week the most prolific well ever drilled in Kansas was completed there by the Amereda Petroleum Co., and the Sunray Oil Co., both of Tulsa, Okla., with an official rated initial flow of 37,564 barrels a day. The extent of the new productive area at Oxford has not been defined. At Schulte a well was completed last week good for more than 12,000 barrels a day. This pool is only about five miles from Wichita. There has been much drilling around Russell, and activity in Pratt, Stafford, Rush and Brooks counties gradually pushing the likely territory northward toward Wyoming's productive regions.

New Orleans and Atlanta Lead in Southern Playoff

(By The Associated Press.) Atlanta and New Orleans, each opening with victories, stepped a jump ahead in the Shaughnessy playoff for the Southern Association pennant today. New Orleans cut loose with a barrage of 20 hits at the expense of three pitchers and blasted Memphis 12-5 in their opener at the Chicks' home park while Atlanta whipped Nashville 6-2 in a night game at the Cracker stronghold. Memphis and New Orleans played a nip and tuck game until the eighth when the Pels cinched the situation with a 3-run blast and added three more in the ninth. Young Bobby Durham, a bit wild at times, limited Atlanta's foes to eight hits, one a homer by Joe Martin, Vol third baseman. Manager Gilbert said he planned to risk his chances in the second game with Memphis today on Bill Thomas while the Chicks planned to use Lynn Nelson who set the Pels down with seven hits and three runs in the last two games he pitched against them. The crackers decided to use the veteran Harry Kelly in their second clash with Nashville while the Pels planned to stake their chances on the hurling of Byron Speece.

MOONEY VIEWS SCRUTINIZED BY STATE LAWYER

Prisoner Declares He Is a Social Revolutionist

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19. (AP)—The state scrutinized closely today the social and political views of Tom Mooney in the final battle of the convicted bomber of a 1916 preparedness day parade for vindication before California authorities. Mooney, who shouted yesterday that prosecution witnesses testified falsely at his trial, launched into his beliefs under cross examination at his hearing on a habeas corpus writ. He was questioned by Assistant State Attorney General William Cleary after relating on direct examination a story of his activities the day of the bombing, a story in which he denied having been within a mile of the fatal scene. "I am a social revolutionist—one who believes all the wealth of the world should be socialized," the prisoner declared after Cleary had questioned him concerning the international moulders union. Mooney has been a member of the union for 33 years, and Cleary asked him whether it advocated overthrow of the government. "The union is absolutely in control of conservatives," Mooney replied adding his denial that it had any "radical or communistic tendencies." Frank P. Walsh, Mooney's veteran New York attorney, immediately objected to "trying the cause of labor unions in the court," and Cleary retorted that there were consistent inferences Mooney was convicted because he was a leader of a faction of "labor radicals." "These inferences have been carried so far," Cleary said, "as to imply that the district attorney and the police became minions of the public utilities. We want to show by this witness' own testimony that the police had reason honestly to believe he did participate in the bomb explosion." The blast, for which Mooney and Warren K. Billings were convicted of murder, killed ten persons and injured 40. Mooney, steadfastly denying the crime and claiming he was "framed," seeks freedom thru the habeas corpus route; on the contention he was convicted through perjured testimony.

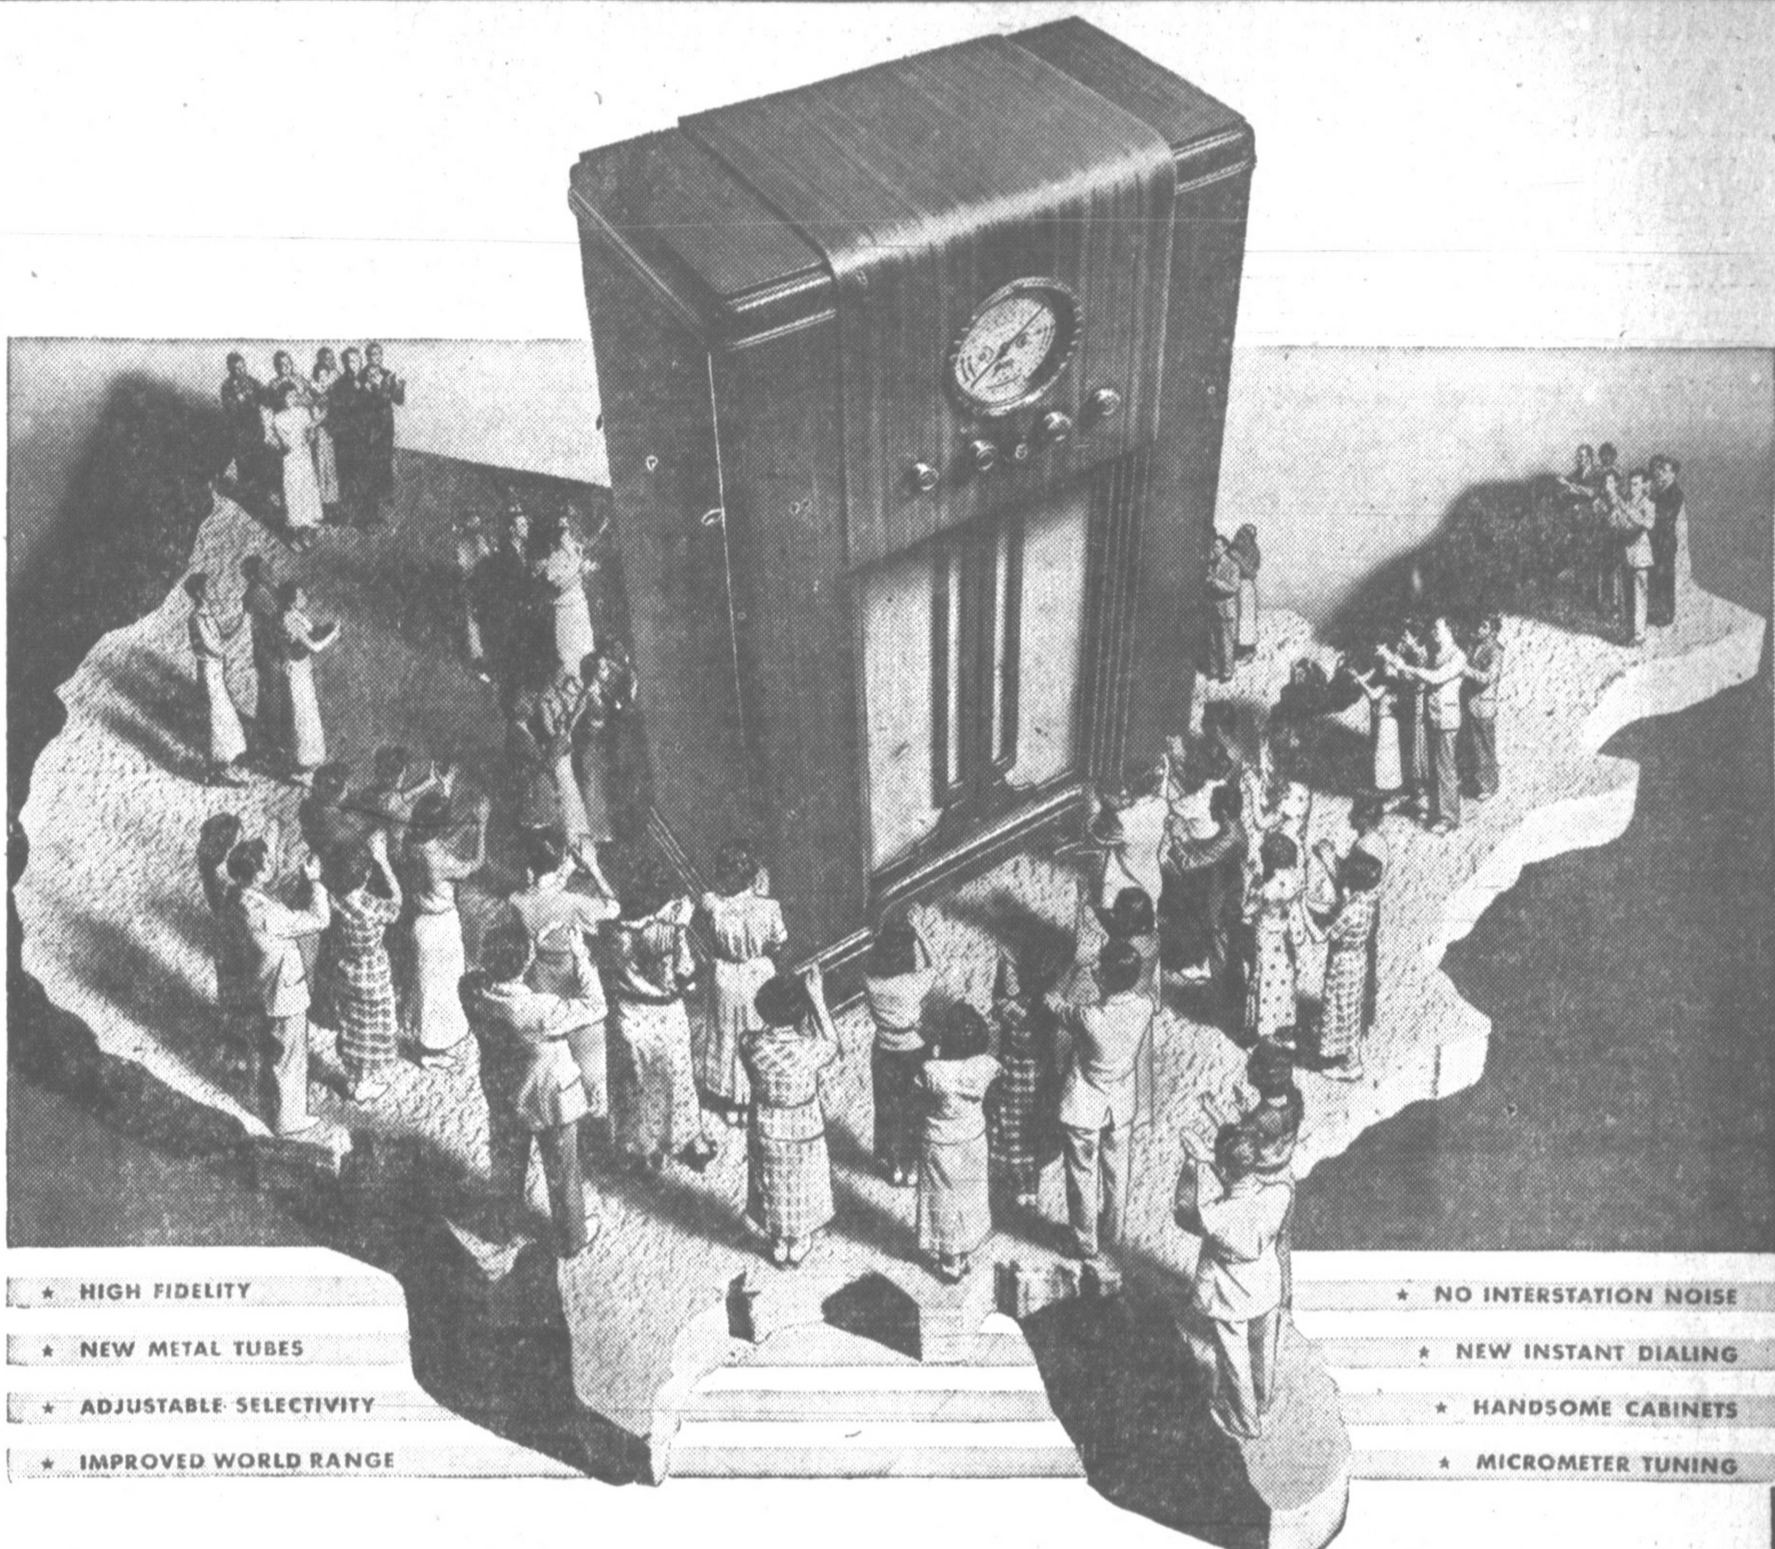

Polish Balloon Appears Winner Of Bennett Race

MOSCOW, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Polish balloon Polonia appeared today to have won the 27th Gordon Bennett international balloon race. It landed in Stalingrad province near the Caspian sea after covering 1,064 miles from Warsaw, where it was cut loose Sunday. All of the thirteen entries are reported to have landed, the French agreements between the two countries. Haile Selassie has rejected indignantly this suggestion as a threat to Ethiopia's sovereignty. Five thousand Ethiopian warriors staged a patriotic demonstration before the imperial palace today appealing to the king of kings for rifles and urging him to declare war. Haile Selassie pacified them by asserting that only bullets made war while strong men made peace. "Keep your powder dry, your hearts resolute and your courage high until I call you," he told the warriors.

Maurice Mallet and the third German bag coming down last, in western Russia. The others descended in various parts of the Soviet Union and in Latvia. The reported winner was piloted by Zbigniew Burzynski and navigated by Wladyslaw Wysocki. They landed on a farm near the town of Tishkino at 5:15 p. m. (10:15 a. m., CST) yesterday, lacking only five minutes of being 72 hours in the air. According to estimates, the following approximate distances have been flown: The Polish Polonia, 1,064 miles. The Polish Warsaw 963 miles.

The Polish Koschusko, 870 miles. The American U. S. Navy, piloted by Lieut. Raymond P. Tyler and navigated by Lieut. Howard P. Orville, 520 miles. The Belgian Bruxelles, 497 miles.

The Belgian Belgium, 497 miles. The French Lorraine, 448 miles. The Swiss Zurich, 381 miles. The German Deutschland, 348 miles.

WOMEN OF CHRISTAIN CHURCH ORGANIZE ON UNIT PLAN

DIVISIONS ARE MADE FOR THE YEAR'S WORK

WELFARE, STUDY, AND PROGRAM GROUPS FORMED

Organizing a unit plan of activities for the coming year was the chief business at a meeting of the First Christian Women's Council at the church yesterday. Unit meetings, a covered dish luncheon, and a council program were included.

Three units were formed, each to carry out one project of the council. These will meet on the morning of the third Wednesday in each month. A luncheon will follow, then the regular council meeting, according to the new plan.

The dramatics unit will produce religious plays for Sunday evening church services and council programs. Mrs. John S. Mullon is chairman and members are Mmes. C. W. Stowell, R. M. Siskel, Dick Rhoades, Bruce Cobb, Ramon Wilson, H. C. Jones, Joe B. Jones, Kathryn Jones, I. M. Fleming, and W. F. Taylor.

Martha and Dorcas unit will engage in welfare work, sewing for the needy here, and preparing food and clothing for children in a church orphanage. Mrs. Tom Eckerd is chairman and present members are Mmes. Hurley Siskel, Don Hurst, G. W. Deezru, M. S. Jenkins, J. R. Moore, C. A. Clark. Priscilla unit will be devoted to study and personal work. Its members are Mmes. O. B. Robinson, A. J. Stages, Emory Nobilit, C. F. Easton, Burl Graham, and Mary Horner.

In the general business meeting, Mrs. Charles Austin was elected delegate to the national convention scheduled for next month in San Antonio, and Mrs. Bill Kinzer was named council librarian.

Group two had charge of the program, with Mrs. Dick Rhoades as leader. The subject was Moments With the Master. Mrs. Rhoades gave the devotional and Mrs. C. A. Clark a talk on the topic.

Members present, in addition to those enrolled in one of the units, were Mmes. Warren Potts, Glenn Potts, Floyd Coffin, Reese, Bessie Martin, Charles H. Mundy, R. L. Allston, Bob Siskel, Mrs. N. J. Graham of Henrietta, Okla., was a guest.

Stephens S. Wise Protests Against Nazis to League

GENEVA, Sept. 19. (AP)—An appeal to the League of Nations assembly against "cruel persecution and defamation of German Jews" was telegraphed to Dr. Eduard Benes, president of the assembly today, by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, president of the committee of Jewish delegations.

Referring to anti-Jewish laws proclaimed Sunday after a session of the Reichstag at Nurnberg, Germany, the appeal said:

"Anti-Jewish legislation in the third Reich represents a regression of medical policy with regards to Jews, and creates in the heart of the Europe of the twentieth century a new ghetto for the purpose of oppressing and dishonoring the Jewish people."

"By outlawing German Jews, by carrying on systematically anti-Jewish propaganda the world over and by spreading racial theories which imply a negation of the very principle of equality of rights for all peoples and races, the policy of the third Reich destroys the basis of modern civilization and the league of nations, as the embodiment of the hopes and ideals pursued by the noblest minds of all lands."

Sunshine State Chief Coming to Tri-State Fair

AMARILLO, Sept. 19. (AP)—A crowd approximating yesterday's peak attendance was expected at the thirteenth annual Tri-State fair today. Bands and delegations came from White Deer, Perrytown, McLean, Floydada, Wellington, and Dalhart. Judges began pinning ribbons on winners in the Holstein and Milkings Shorthorn division, the last in the livestock department to be judged.

Plans were made to extend a rousing welcome to Governor Clyde Tingley of New Mexico, who will lead a Sunshine state delegation to the fair tomorrow.

CANADIAN NEWS

CANADIAN, Sept. 19.—Mrs. Carrie Reeder, Miss Annie Flowers, and J. C. Flowers have returned from Quannah, where they have visited the past two months.

Douglas Jarrell of Amarillo was here yesterday on business.

C. C. Broome of Clarendon, HOLC appraiser, was here yesterday.

Strikes a Military Note

Somewhat unexpectedly the martial motifs have commanded unusual attention in recent additions to the fall creations, thus echoing joyrarily the beat of feet marching by European war clouds. Generally speaking, the military idea is conveyed through hats and decorative touches. The headed passementerie embroidery parades down the front of the afternoon dress, looking as snappy as a company of cadets; of silk crepe with a grain-like surface, it's worn with a velvet toque, trimmed with gay feathers.

WMO SELECTS DELEGATES TO BAPTIST MEET

OTHERS WILL ATTEND TWO-DAY SESSION NEXT WEEK

Delegates and a number of visitors from Central Baptist Missions society plan to attend a meeting of the Canadian Baptist association in Spearman next Tuesday and Wednesday. The society will hold its weekly meeting on Thursday next week instead of Wednesday, it was decided at a session yesterday.

Mmes. John O. Scott, Davis, W. L. Lane, and G. B. Hillman are the official delegates from the society. A large group of members is expected to attend some sessions of the convention.

Mrs. E. Bass Clay was leader of the program yesterday, a Bible study based on the book of II Kings. The meeting was at the church.

Regarding the program of the Spearman convention, J. M. Sibley of Perryton, moderator, has made the following announcement:

"The Canadian Baptist association will hold its twenty-third annual session at Spearman September 24-25. The meeting will begin promptly at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and after a devotional led by Rev. T. J. Gamble of Stratford the organization will be perfected.

"The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. J. G. Brannen of Pollett at 11:30 Tuesday morning. The missionary sermon will be preached by Rev. Blonnye H. Foreman of Corrente, Brazil. The doctrinal sermon will be preached by Rev. M. G. Murphy of Higgins.

"The program will be carried on with the help of Dr. G. W. McDonald of Weyland college, Plainview, Rev. James Howell, district missionary, and Rev. Blonnye Foreman of Brazil.

"Indications are that the churches are going to send the largest delegations of messengers to the meeting and will have completed the best work in the history of our organization."

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY MARY E. DAGUE
Maybe husbands don't leave home entirely because of that, but an irritating tendency to present the too-familiar dish in the too-obvious way certainly will never help family harmony. And the worst of it is, monotony is frequently sheer laziness.

Hamburger steak is a nutritious dish that appears with too little variation in many families. Considering that a beef furnishes comparatively few tender cuts, and these high in price, it's necessary for the home-maker to make the less desirable cuts popular. These cheaper cuts are nutritious and attractive if put through the food chopper and freed from gristle and tendons. But used too often in the same way they fall.

Veal and lamb are good chopped just as beef is and do their bit toward economical variety in everyday meals.

after cooking. Then I cook one side and season it, turn, cook and season the other instead of mixing the seasoning in the meat before cooking.

Creamed veal on toast is good, too. To make it, scald one cup thin cream. Add chopped veal or beef if you prefer it and cook and stir until the meat is colored. Add salt and pepper, pour over hot toast and serve at once.

Peaches a la Monica.
Late Elberta peaches are in their prime now and an unusual and delicious way to serve is to stuff and bake them. If you've exhausted your peach repertoire try peaches a la Monica.

Six large freestone peaches, 6 hard macaroons, 2 eggs, 2 table-spoons sugar, 1-4 cup grated almonds, 1-2 cup benedictine, 1 cup white wine, 2 to 4 tablespoons sugar.

Wash fruit and split in halves. Remove pit. Take out most of the peach pulp, leaving the skin intact and enough of the flesh to keep the halves firm. Chop the peach pulp and add macaroons which have been put through the fine knife of the food chopper. In case your baker can't supply you with macaroons I found some put up in tin boxes at a fancy grocer's. To the peach and macaron mixture add the slightly beaten yolks of eggs, 3 tablespoons sugar, almonds and cordial. Stir well and fill peach halves with the mixture heaping it up. Arrange in a baking dish and add wine with remaining sugar dissolved in it. The amount of sugar will be determined by the sweetness of the fruit. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees F.) for thirty minutes. Chill and serve with or without a sauce.

PRACTICE FOR COMING EVENTS HELD BY CLUB

Benefit Program to Be Given by the Treble Clef

Final practice of songs to be sung in the Tri-State fair contests in Amarillo tomorrow, and in a radio program to be broadcast from the P-T-A fund for purchasing shoes for school children. It will be presented at city hall auditorium.

A brief business session was also conducted. The club is planning to give a program here on Oct. 1, in cooperation with the council of Parent-Teacher associations, to benefit the P-T-A fund for purchasing shoes for school children. It will be presented at city hall auditorium.

For the radio program tomorrow, vocal solos will be sung by Mrs. J. W. Garman, Mrs. Neil McCullough, Mrs. Lorene Thomason, and Mrs. Ray Huling. Mrs. Walter Stain will play a piano solo and will accompany the club chorus, to be directed by Mrs. Philip Wolfe in two numbers. A quartet, Mmes. H. O. Roberts, Frances Stark Sturgeon, Huling, and Thomason, will sing.

Private Home Construction Is Increasing

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Government statisticians said today that America's long idle carpenters, bricklayers and other skilled workers are beginning to find jobs in the construction of private homes.

Increased private construction has drawn the attention of economists who have been watching anxiously for improvement of the long-dragging heavy goods industries. They also found other signs of improvement in this vital field, along with some discouraging features.

Leador Lubin, commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, summarized the situation by saying conditions in the building industry were "very definitely on the rise." He added that "employment in the heavy goods industries generally is improving, though it has a great distance to go to reach the level of non-durable goods."

An inter-office memorandum prepared by the statistics division of the federal housing administration said "the available information indicates that at last the building industry is beginning to absorb its unemployed."

It warned, however, that there was still a "long way to go" because even in 1930, when employment was higher than in any other recent year, it was only 88 per cent of normal.

FLIES INJURED
SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 19. (AP)—Capt. H. M. Turner, 33, and First Lieut. H. D. Williams, 28, Randolph Field officers, were injured, the latter seriously, when their ship crashed from a low altitude at the edge of the airfield today. Captain Turner's home is a Avoca, Iowa, and Lieut. Williams' home is at Monroe, La.

THREE NAMED AS OFFICERS IN AUXILIARY

MISSION PROGRAM AND BUSINESS MEETING ARE HELD

Election of several officers to fill vacant posts in the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary was conducted at the meeting in the church annex yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Ritchie was named treasurer, Mrs. F. M. Dial secretary of stewardship, and Mrs. T. D. Hobar secretary of the spiritual life group.

Mrs. L. C. Neely's report on the Presbyterian conference at Amarillo last week, and announcement that the Men's Brotherhood dinner next Tuesday evening will be an all-church night, were the other business items. Women will provide the covered dish dinner Tuesday.

Mrs. R. Shields conducted the devotional that opened the program. Her subject was the year's motto of the Auxiliary, "If I Be His Disciple." She was assisted by Mrs. S. C. Wilson. Mrs. Harry Lyman sang a solo, Something For Thee.

Mrs. T. W. Sweetnam was leader of the lesson. Her topic was Home Missions, Schools and Hospitals; and Mrs. J. M. McEwing discussed the topic, Are Young People Unfriendly?

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. John Andrews to the 25 members present.

LAWTON, PAMPA'S FOE FRIDAY NIGHT, ONE OF BEST CLUBS IN STATE

THREE WOLVES ON ALL-STATE TEAM IN 1934

GREEN PLAYERS WORRY COACHES OF LOCAL ELEVEN

The Lawton, Okla., Wolves, first opponents of the Harvesters, are reported to be one of the strongest teams in Oklahoma this year. Little specific information about the team has been received, and the Harvesters will have to meet an unknown style of play tomorrow night at 8 o'clock on the new grass at Harvesters field.

The only thing known about the Lawton team is that 10 lettermen from last year will be in the starting lineup and that the team will average 164 pounds to the man, which is about nine pounds per man less than that of the Harvester starters.

Uncensored reports received here are to the effect that three of the Wolves placed on the All-State team in 1934 and that three others received honorable mention. The Wolves opened the 1935 season with an 18 to 0 win over Walters on a muddy field.

The Lawton line is uniform, the lightest player weighing 166 pounds and the heaviest tipping the scales at 180 pounds. The backfield, with the exception of the fullback, will be light and fast.

Coaches Mitchell and Prejean have been working their boys at top speed this week, trying to whip their green material into shape for the opening battle. Although the coaches have not made statements, it is known they are worried about the game. They wonder how the boys will act under fire. Three members of the starting lineup will be playing their first football before a large audience.

Only two members of the Harvester starting eleven were regulars on last year's team. They are J. R. Green, end, and Leon Noblitt. Other starters, who sported Harvester uniforms last year, saw little play.

J. R. Green, Harvester right end, will face Hancock of Lawton across a brief space. Green will have a considerable weight advantage weighing 202 pounds to Hancock's 155 pounds. "Moose" Hartman, right tackle, 198, will be scowling at Read, 175 pounds. Philip Nolan, right guard, 168, will be watching Wilson, 176. Noblitt, Harvester center, and Gentry of Lawton will weigh the same, 163 pounds. Brice Green, left guard, 155, will face the giant, Bailey, 190 pounds. Stokes Green, right tackle, will be across from E. Wilson, 167. George Nix, left end, 151, will give weight to G. Wilson, 178.

Red Fanning, Harvester quarterback, will weigh 170 pounds, compared with Kinzey, 145 pounds. Drake, left half, weighs 153 pounds compared with Mann, 158 pounds. On the other backfield, Ed Brown weighs 152 pounds and Powers 132 pounds. Both teams have big fullbacks. Stewart weighing 190 pounds and Sheppard 180 pounds.

Louis' Manager Tells How Baer Can Whip Negro

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 19 (AP)—Here's a tip for Max Baer on how he can whip Joe Louis at the Yankee stadium Tuesday night and it comes from none other than John Roxborough, manager of the Detroit Bombers.

"The only chance Baer has to beat Joe is to slip over a low left-handed punch in the first round, paralyze Louis and then nail him with a right," declared Roxborough.

"Understand I am not saying that Max will do that," added Joe's manager, "but if he tosses one low blow, it will be just too bad. We will start throwing them, too. We may lose the round but I am sure we can afford to lose more than Baer."

James J. Braddock, who lifted the heavyweight crown from Baer in June, agrees with Roxborough in that Max will be in for the fight of his life next week.

"I won't say for certain until I see Baer work at Speculator Friday, but right now I'm kinda inclined to lean toward Louis," said Braddock after watching the 21-year-old Detroit fighter work out. "Max can hit as hard or harder than this boy, but he's got to watch out. Louis hits faster and often."

Except for another boxing session Saturday, Louis is all through with hard work. He planned to do only light work today, Friday and Sunday.

Bucks Will Play Hornets Friday

MOOREFIELD, Sept. 19.—The White Deer Bucks will provide the opposition for the Mobeetle Hornets, here on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The game is being taken seriously by the Hornets, the Bucks always fielding a strong team.

Coach "Lefty" Fowler is anything but pleased about the defensive work of his team. He has been driving his charges all week, trying to iron out a few of the wrinkles that showed up last week when they were swamped by Shillock. Long scrimmage sessions have featured the workouts.

GROUCHY BAER GETS REVENGE AND CRIPPLES A REPORTER

BY EDWARD J. NEILL, Spectator Sports Writer

Max Baer is a little "edgy" today, a little argumentative. If you take those signs as indications of perfect physical condition, which fight handlers do, then the erratic Californian is ready to duel Joe Louis in the Yankee stadium Tuesday night.

For instance, a reporter from a New York newspaper whose sports editor favors the other fellow, got a little close to the big curly head. Baer casually dropped a short right hand punch on the writer's shoulder.

"Take that back to your editor," he growled.

Now the reporter can't write on a typewriter. He has to dictate his stories.

Baer is getting mean in his training ring here. Down so fine at 211 pounds that some of the visiting trainers and experts crowding his camp think he is overdoing it. Max is evening up for past indignities.

He smashed George Turner of Tulsa around yesterday, after the 19-year-old 190-pounder had made a punching bag of him for a couple of days. He knocked down Abe Feldman, a real heavyweight, for the first time in Feldman's busy career.

Life is miserable now for Baer's housemates in the log cabin four miles up in the Adirondack hills. Lights automatically shut off from the town power plant at 10 p. m. No radio, no smoking, nothing but the right food, road work, training, have made a magnificent physical specimen of the former heavyweight champion, but the unusual ordeal has left the night club favorite healthy to a degree bordering on a nervous breakdown.

"I'm ducking him," says Frank Pacassi, his head conditioner. "He's so mean now you can't tell what he'll do."

Baer will cut down sharply on his boxing from now on, though he plans to put on the gloves every day through Sunday. He will scale about 208 next Tuesday, and there is little chance that he will be allowed to fly down to New York with ticket sales indicating a sell-out and the first million dollar gate since Jack Dempsey knocked out Jack Sharkey.

"Ticket speculators, visiting here, are offering $100 each for choice ringside seats."

'POLISHING OFF' DRILLS ARE IN ORDER AT GRIDIRON CAMPS

(By The Associated Press.)

"Polishing off" drills were in order in the Southwest conference training camps today as coaches sought to round out teams for opening competition this week-end.

Pleased with the work of backfield men in scrimmages, the University of Texas coaching staff turned its efforts to the development of a fast, aggressive forward wall.

The Texas Aggies, conditioned by hard drills, let down to light training.

Cochs Morley Jennings had practice at Baylor university had about brought him to a decision on the starting line-up for the opening game against Southwestern university at Waco Saturday.

Classes started today at the University of Arkansas, and the Razor-backs suspended the two drill daily method, and will taper off for their game against Kansas State Teachers September 28 with one training session daily.

Coaches Matty Bell and Vic Hurt expressed satisfaction with the way the Southern Methodist Mustangs performed in scrimmages.

Rice Institute reported a team of nearly all seniors ready for opening fire and an array of promising sophomores on deck as substitutes.

Leg injuries Jimmy Lawrence, hard-driving veteran back at Texas Christian, received in scrimmage, troubled the Horned Frog mentors. It was feared Lawrence might not be able to play in the first game Saturday against Howard Payne.

ROAD RUNNERS BEAT BEARDED CLUB 12 TO 5

PAMPA AND LEFORS TO PLAY IN AMARILLO ON SUNDAY

With the baseball season gradually drawing to an end, the Pampa Road Runners are still playing the great brand of baseball they have given fans all season. Last night they defeated the House of David, 12 to 5, giving them five wins out of six from the bearded team that has defeated most of the semi-professional clubs in the nation and part of Canada.

Lee Daney was on his toes, limiting the visitors to eight hits well scattered after the first inning when two runs were scored on three hits. Daney was opposed by "Peevee" Bass, diminutive lefthander who formerly was a Road Runner nemesis when he was with Phillips of Berger. Bass was trying for his 35th win of the season, in 41 games, but he failed to smother the Road Runners bats.

Getting to Bass for 16 base hits, including a triple and six doubles, the Road Runners were out of danger after the second inning, as well through the crowd to life in the eighth when he hit a long home run over the centerfield fence, his second of the tournament. Both were terrific wallops, very much like the home runs collected by Gordon Nell last year.

Floyd Lisle, Road Runner catcher who relieved Horton in the first after he had injured a finger, continued his great hitting, collecting a triple, double, and single in four trips to the plate. Lisle got a double and single on Tuesday night and two singles yesterday. Ben McLary also picked up many points in his batting average. He got two singles and two walks last night to add to a double on Tuesday night and a single and walk Monday night. Brickell and Nell each picked up his first home run. The House of David infield had only nine assists, a double and a single each.

Hanson and Flemming of the visitors each managed to nick Daney for a double and single. Anderson got two singles and Atwell hit for the circuit.

Both teams played smart games in the field. McLary made six assists without a bobble and Scalling was only one behind. The House of David infield had only nine assists, but Hanson at second base was credited with five putouts.

The bearded men scored twice in the first and the Road Runners duplicated. The home team went one run up in the second and held it until the fourth when the score was again tied. The fifth saw the Road Runners go one run up. They added two runs in the sixth and five in the seventh to ice the game.

The Road Runners and Colteco Gas of LeFors will give Amarillo fans a treat on Sunday afternoon when they clash at Metro park. Each team has won six games this season in their clashes.

Phillips of Pampa and Phillips of Berger will play at Road Runner park at 2:30 o'clock.

SHIPPERS LOSE FIRST HIT TO SOONER TRIBE

BEAUMONT'S LEADING HURLER BEATEN BY NIGGELING

BEAUMONT, Sept. 19 (AP)—Thanks to a brilliant pitching performance by John Niggeling, the Oklahoma City Indians held a considerable edge today in their series against the Beaumont Exporters for the Texas league championship.

The one-game lead of the Road Runners is now 4 to 1 victory in the series opener was scored off Clarence "Red" Phillips, ace of the Beaumont staff, and in the Exporters' home park. After today's contest, the teams will move to Oklahoma City for three games.

Manager Dutch Lorber of the Shippers planned to send Joe Hare to the mound in an effort to square the series. Hare saved two games against Galveston in the first round of the Shaugnessy playoff. Manager Bert Niehoff of the Indians said he likely would counter with Jack Brillheart or Eddie Marieau, saying "Red" Evans, the league's leading pitcher, for the opener at Oklahoma City.

Niggeling was in fine fettle as he limited the Shippers to two singles. He issued four passes, but no two of them in any one inning.

Phillips was stingy in the pinches until the ninth, when the Indians drove him from the mound and scored three runs on four hits.

Young opened the ninth with a hit through the pitcher's box. On the hit and run, Bilgere lined to the left of Vincent, Beaumont second baseman, and Young made it to third. But for the fact that Vincent had started over to cover second, it might have been a double play. Fitzpatrick singled to center, scoring Young and sending Gilgere to third. He continued to second on the throw-in. Larkin rushed to Phillips' relief and started over to cover second. Myers singled through the box, scoring Gilgere, and Fitzpatrick crossed the plate after Browzer's fly to Cullenbine.

The Tribe made its other run in the third on Easterling's double and Young's single after two were out. Buddy Bates, who walked to start the last half of the sixth, made the only Beaumont counter. He went to second on Cullenbine's sacrifice, took third on a passed ball and scored on Jones' roller between first and second.

Phillips was the only Shipper to connection with one of Niggeling's puzzlers. He got a single to right center in the third.

A crowd of 7,028 persons saw the game.

Daney was opposed by "Peevee" Bass, diminutive lefthander who formerly was a Road Runner nemesis when he was with Phillips of Berger. Bass was trying for his 35th win of the season, in 41 games, but he failed to smother the Road Runners bats.

Getting to Bass for 16 base hits, including a triple and six doubles, the Road Runners were out of danger after the second inning, as well through the crowd to life in the eighth when he hit a long home run over the centerfield fence, his second of the tournament. Both were terrific wallops, very much like the home runs collected by Gordon Nell last year.

Floyd Lisle, Road Runner catcher who relieved Horton in the first after he had injured a finger, continued his great hitting, collecting a triple, double, and single in four trips to the plate. Lisle got a double and single on Tuesday night and two singles yesterday. Ben McLary also picked up many points in his batting average. He got two singles and two walks last night to add to a double on Tuesday night and a single and walk Monday night. Brickell and Nell each picked up his first home run. The House of David infield had only nine assists, a double and a single each.

Hanson and Flemming of the visitors each managed to nick Daney for a double and single. Anderson got two singles and Atwell hit for the circuit.

Both teams played smart games in the field. McLary made six assists without a bobble and Scalling was only one behind. The House of David infield had only nine assists, but Hanson at second base was credited with five putouts.

The bearded men scored twice in the first and the Road Runners duplicated. The home team went one run up in the second and held it until the fourth when the score was again tied. The fifth saw the Road Runners go one run up. They added two runs in the sixth and five in the seventh to ice the game.

The Road Runners and Colteco Gas of LeFors will give Amarillo fans a treat on Sunday afternoon when they clash at Metro park. Each team has won six games this season in their clashes.

Phillips of Pampa and Phillips of Berger will play at Road Runner park at 2:30 o'clock.

SHIPPERS LOSE FIRST HIT TO SOONER TRIBE

BEAUMONT'S LEADING HURLER BEATEN BY NIGGELING

BEAUMONT, Sept. 19 (AP)—Thanks to a brilliant pitching performance by John Niggeling, the Oklahoma City Indians held a considerable edge today in their series against the Beaumont Exporters for the Texas league championship.

The one-game lead of the Road Runners is now 4 to 1 victory in the series opener was scored off Clarence "Red" Phillips, ace of the Beaumont staff, and in the Exporters' home park. After today's contest, the teams will move to Oklahoma City for three games.

Manager Dutch Lorber of the Shippers planned to send Joe Hare to the mound in an effort to square the series. Hare saved two games against Galveston in the first round of the Shaugnessy playoff. Manager Bert Niehoff of the Indians said he likely would counter with Jack Brillheart or Eddie Marieau, saying "Red" Evans, the league's leading pitcher, for the opener at Oklahoma City.

Niggeling was in fine fettle as he limited the Shippers to two singles. He issued four passes, but no two of them in any one inning.

Phillips was stingy in the pinches until the ninth, when the Indians drove him from the mound and scored three runs on four hits.

Young opened the ninth with a hit through the pitcher's box. On the hit and run, Bilgere lined to the left of Vincent, Beaumont second baseman, and Young made it to third. But for the fact that Vincent had started over to cover second, it might have been a double play. Fitzpatrick singled to center, scoring Young and sending Gilgere to third. He continued to second on the throw-in. Larkin rushed to Phillips' relief and started over to cover second. Myers singled through the box, scoring Gilgere, and Fitzpatrick crossed the plate after Browzer's fly to Cullenbine.

The Tribe made its other run in the third on Easterling's double and Young's single after two were out. Buddy Bates, who walked to start the last half of the sixth, made the only Beaumont counter. He went to second on Cullenbine's sacrifice, took third on a passed ball and scored on Jones' roller between first and second.

Phillips was the only Shipper to connection with one of Niggeling's puzzlers. He got a single to right center in the third.

A crowd of 7,028 persons saw the game.

Emmett Dalton And Nemesis to Hold a Reunion

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19 (AP)—A deep hatred, born in 1892, was forgotten today when Emmett Dalton and Charles Gump met.

Maybe, the names don't mean much to the present generation, but they were once in the news.
The scene is Coffeyville, Kas., and the date is October 5, 1892.

The Dalton gang, one of the notorious outlaw gangs of the old west, galloped into town, walked into the bank fronting the town square and started their robbery.

They met last night—both gray-haired and not so quick on the trigger finger anymore—and shook hands.
"Time is a great healer," they said.

lutely inacceptable as a basis for negotiation.
Although previously Baron Aloisi had been expected to go to Rome for a conference with Il Duce, he remained in Geneva, and Italian sources said this indicated that Mussolini saw no need for a conference, a fact cited as a further substantiation of Italy's objection to the league proposal.

Above all, league delegates centered their attention on the naval situation developing in the Mediterranean, where Italian warships moved to strategic points while Great Britain assembled great naval and aerial fleets there.

Eduard Herriot, former premier of France, stated at a luncheon: "I belong to a country which at one epoch in its history heckled England and learned what it cost."

An Italian spokesman said that a decision on acceptance or rejection of the league compromise proposal now must be made by Premier Mussolini.
Most of the delegates expressed the opinion that the concentration of a powerful British fleet in the Mediterranean would result in a more serious development in case of a collective economic boycott against Italy as a penalty for aggression.

TULANE COACH ENTHUSIASTIC OVER ELEVEN

COX TALKS AND THAT INDICATES GREAT GRID TEAM

BY RALPH WHEATLEY, Associated Press Staff Writer. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Big men usually are silent men. Big Ted Cox, Tulane head coach, standing six feet four and weighing 250 pounds, is one of them and sports writers generally have to be content with a few grunts when it comes to discussing his team. But this year he gave voice.

"The old saying among coaches that the flowers that bloom in the spring wilt in the fall does not apply to this squad. So far the cream of the crop of the spring is looking better this fall than they did last spring. I am well pleased with the outlook."

For Cox, this is fluent speech. If he says that much he must be bubbling over with enthusiasm for the 1935 Green Wave. And he has basis for optimism. If his sophomores settle down to a steady pace early in the season there is no reason why he should not stretch a bright light across the football sky.

He has a brilliant passing team, a fast running attack, two good kickers and weight and strength enough for a solid defense. The team has both speed and power and reserve. All it lacks is experience.

The pass, both forward and lateral, will be the main spring of the offense.

The backfield holds three halfbacks who have mastered the technique. Barney Mintz, captain and last year's star; Dick Watson and Troy Odum, the last two sophomores, can throw a football like a baseball, run like a deer, kick like a mule, and block like a wall.

They make the start of the pass. Mintz completed 13 out of 15 in scrimmage and the other two throw accurate bullet passes. To receive them are Fred Preisser, sophomore, of New Orleans, and Hal Memtesa, junior of New Orleans, 175-pound ends who can snag a pass if it comes anywhere near striking distance.

Then there is Roy Ary, 200-pound tackle from Stigler, Okla., who has the speed to get down field if necessary to shift him to end. Dick Fage, the quarterback, can both throw and receive.

The quarterback position may be termed a weakness if there is one. Fage is the only experienced quarter but Wilts Off, of Osyka, Miss., is developing behind Fage.

'SAVAGES' TURN TRICK ON CIVILIZATION

It is probably one of the greatest achievements of the twentieth century that it brought about the breaking-down of the time-honored distinctions between civilized and uncivilized warfare.

The military art hedged about with all manner of restrictions for centuries, has finally degenerated into an ordinary barroom brawl in which everything goes, from gouging to biting. And by a singular bit of irony it has fallen to the lot of the lowly Ethiopians to remind us of the fact.

Milton Bronner, London correspondent for this newspaper, recently discussed the point with a prominent Ethiopian official.

This man told him that the Ethiopians are quite prepared to fight like gentlemen. But, he said, if the Italians take to the use of bombing planes and poison gas and start killing innocent women and children, the Ethiopians are apt to revert to the customs of savage Africa and start torturing their prisoners.

If the fighting is going to be dirty, the Ethiopians know a few handy tricks.

Now this is about as completely damning a commentary on the inexcusable savagery of modern warfare as could be imagined.

Ever since the white nations began to seize the lands of their darker brethren, they have prided themselves on their civilized way of fighting. They had evolved certain unwritten, but binding, rules for warfare. Soldiers did not make war on women and children; they did not bombard undefended towns; they did not subject their foes to cruel and unusual punishments. They fought armed men in the open field and they fought on the level.

So Englishmen fought African blacks, Americans fought plains Indians, and Frenchmen fought Sahara tribesmen, and despised their foe because the savage tribes killed noncombatants and used the arts of torture.

The difference between the two kinds of warfare became accepted as one of the distinctions between civilized men and uncivilized men.

Then along came the chemist and the aviator, and everything changed.

Civilized warfare today is savage warfare. Unfortified cities are attacked, women and children are killed, poison gas sends men off to cough their lungs to bits through long days and weeks of agony. And it is hardly surprising that the barbaric Ethiopians find it a bit hard to swallow.

If the fighting is going to be like that, they say, they'll go savage themselves. And if that happens, who can blame them—or say that the African black carving up his prisoners is any worse than the White Europeans dropping bombs on a village full of women and children?

HOLLYWOOD.—Her English folks think it is "frantically amusing" that Frances Drake is a screen actress, but Frances Drake thinks it isn't "amusing" at all—quite the contrary, it's very serious.

No, she herself is not deadly serious about it all. She is a bright young girl with a pretty face the critics call "interesting" and she thinks it is amusing that her parents and her grandmother think that her working in pictures is amusing.

Frances Morgan-Dean, born in New York of English parents—her father was in Wall Street—grew up in Canada where her parents moved, but when she was 14 she was sent to school in England, under her grandmother's wing. She was meant to make a society debut, get married and settle down, but she would have none of it. When the opportunity came to be partner in a dancing act, she took it, and Grandmother thought it was all right, because it was very graceful ballroom dancing.

Quite A Character
Grandmother, who is about 75, seems to be quite a character. She gets around, writes books and plays, has decided opinions, and is out of a book, as Frances tells her. For instance, when a friend of Grandmother's lost an umbrella, she went down to the editor of a conservative London newspaper and convinced the journalists that something should be done about it. So there was a front-page story about Grandmother's friend's lost umbrella—"and who in the world, except Grandmother, could do such a thing?" is Frances's justifiable exclamation.

Grandmother by now thinks it is quite all right that Granddaughter should be playing in the cinema. But she has seen Frances Drake in some of her pictures. It was after viewing "Forsaking All Others," in which Frances was the smart but unsavory "other woman," that Grandmother wrote "...all right, my dear, but must you play those women one does not meet?"

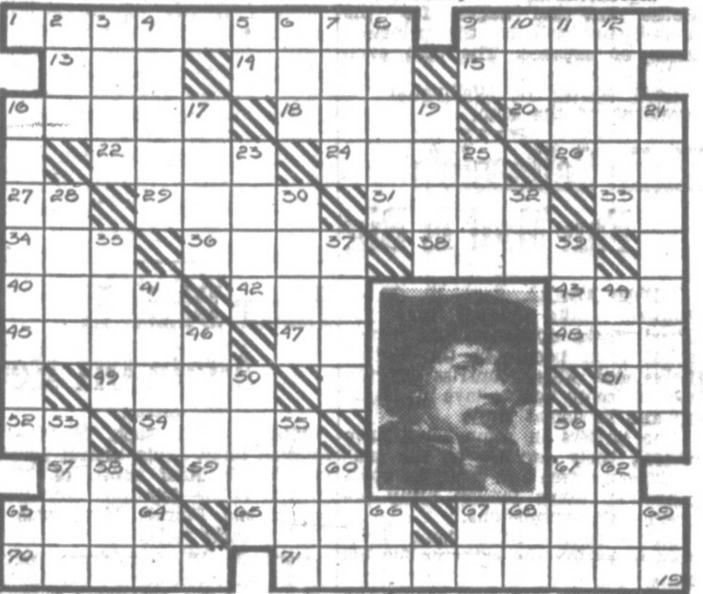

In not quite two years here Miss Drake has played a variety of roles including one or two of those "women one does not meet" by Grandmother's standards. Some of her pictures have been poor, but Frances Drake always gets "good notices."

If Grandmother has a mind of her own, so has Frances. In mid-

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY WILLIS THORNTON

WASHINGTON.—You might think, to read the papers these days, that the State Department was concerned exclusively with war and peace and Ethiopia and neutrality. But not quite.

Slowly, doggedly, and with a skillful persistence that has won the admiration of many who follow the situation, Assistant Secretary Frances B. Sayre and Henry F. Grady have been making real progress with the trade agreements which are the keystone of the administration's hopes for restoring international trade.

Such agreements have been definitely concluded with Cuba, Brazil, Belgium, Haiti, and Sweden. That with Brazil has been ratified by the House and will be put in operation as soon as the Senate acts.

Hearings have been completed on proposed agreements with Spain, Switzerland, Holland, Finland, Canada, France, Italy, Colombia, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua.

Those are hearings to which manufacturers and others concerned are invited, so they may say their say on advantages and disadvantages to them of the proposed agreements.

This completed, negotiations are opened with the countries concerned. That is the state of proposed agreements with the second list of countries.

The trade reciprocity act under which these agreements are being sought was signed only June 12, 1934, and five agreements in a little more than a year, with a dozen more definitely on the fire, is regarded as something of a record for this complex kind of diplomacy.

The first of these agreements, signed with Cuba last August, only two months after passage of the law, is the best proof of the trade pudding. During the first nine months of operation under that agreement, trade between the two countries increased 76 per cent, an increase amounting to $48,000,000.

The far-reaching effect of these agreements is little realized. They are more than agreements between the two countries signing them.

Take the case of the recent Belgian agreement. The concessions made to Belgium are also offered to any other country in the world that will grant similar consideration to the United States. That offer is open and continuing.

How can the United States afford to generalize such concessions? That depends on what is conceded.

Let's suppose that all the shoehorns used in the United States must be imported. Eighty per cent of them come from Country A. The other 20 per cent come from assorted countries B, C, and D.

We go to Country A and say "We'll lower the tariff on shoehorns if you'll lower the tariff on spark plugs." Country A says "Fine!" and it is done.

Then we say to countries B, C, and D, "We'll do as much for you if you want to play the game."

There is no discrimination against B, C, and D, and yet A has concluded with us a mutually advantageous bargain. B, C, and D can still sell us their shoe-horns on the same terms, if they'll take our spark plugs.

Seven ministers of Il Duce's cabinet are Benito Mussolini. Ethiopia might not now be so critical if the dictator had used the same principal in building his army.

Long Aide to Ask U. S. for Peace

Role of envoy of the Huey Long forces to seek peace with the national administration is reported to have been given Representative Paul Maloney, above, one of Long's chief aides in New Orleans. The Long machine is said to be ready to repeal many of the dictatorial laws and support Roosevelt in 1936 if federal probes in Louisiana are halted and federal patronage restored.

BRITISH ROYAL AIR FORCE IS SENT TO SUEZ

ENGLAND DESIRES TO KEEP ITALIANS GUESSING

BY CHARLES P. NUTTER, LONDON, Sept. 19 (AP)—An authoritative source asserted today that the British air ministry was building up the royal air forces at strategic Mediterranean stations for any eventuality which might arise from the present dispute between Italy and Ethiopia.

At the same time, the British admiralty list showed that the admiralty, having virtually depleted its home fleet to reinforce naval stations in the Mediterranean, now is calling on its American West Indies fleet for additional support. In contrast with these naval maneuvers, which now have been made more or less public, the heavy air reinforcements—likewise officially characterized as precautionary—will be kept secret.

A concentration of fighting, bombing, and observation planes, hinted at having taken place in the vicinity of the Suez canal, Egypt, Gibraltar, and the Sudan, is expected to be referred to in general terms in a forthcoming announcement by the air ministry.

This announcement, however, is not expected to give specific details. British strategists explained the element of uncertainty is most important in the present situation and said there was no disposition to weaken the British position by premature disclosures.

One informed source said the present military policy of Great Britain is to keep the Italians guessing until becomes perfectly clear what is going to happen in the Mediterranean's potential powder keg. Certain diplomats said they regarded the airplane movements as of the greatest significance, not as a threat to Italy but as a most distinct evidence that Great Britain is prepared to protect her interests.

The foreign office, meanwhile, kept in close contact with Geneva, awaiting official indication as to how Premier Mussolini would regard the league compromise plan. There was no immediate indication of optimism in Geneva, although in some quarters a faint hope that the situation would shortly ease was expressed.

Eight Farmers Of West Texas Under Charges

DALLAS, Sept. 19 (AP)—Eight farmers here under federal indictments today charging the making of false applications to the farm credit administration for livestock feed loans and alleged fraud in obtaining the loans.

Indicted by the grand jury yesterday were Joseph D. Pruitt and William O. Elliott of the Lubbock federal court district, and Gaston J. Pruitt, J. L. Griffin, Henry A. Bates, William D. Cupps, Oliver Alan Cupps, and Harry F. Shannon, of the Abilene court district.

It was indicated trials would be at Lubbock and Abilene. Joe H. Jones, assistant United States district attorney, said the cases were the first to be pressed under the new criminal code of the farm administration.

Only Picture of Sextuplets in Existence

The sextuplets of Accra, Gold Coast, West Africa, are shown above in what is believed to be the first authentic photograph of sextuplets ever to be published in an American newspaper.

Guarded by a grim native policeman, these tiny babies were seen and photographed by missionaries shortly after their birth, May 10, 1903. They are known to have lived 8 days but their ultimate fate is not known.

Perhaps in some remote jungle of the Gold Coast, these sextuplets are alive today. (Copyright, 1935, NEA Service, Inc.)

ONLY JOB OF LEGISLATURE IS TO DEFINE SALOON CORRECTLY

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—The legislature provided itself, some say by premeditation, with a way out of what was expected to prove a distressing dilemma arising from prohibition repeal.

When legislators first started pondering plans for liquor regulation laws they noted the repeal amendment placed them under specific command to forever ban the open saloon. The question of what is a saloon immediately arose.

Members searched through dictionaries and law books and were unable to find a definition. No one could agree on a definition. Those seeking a sound solution were nonplussed.

A careful perusal of the terms of the amendment, however, was illuminating. It gave the legislature specific authority to define a saloon, ergo, they exulted, a saloon is whatever the legislature says it is, whether it would be so in common acceptance.

Even though designation of what constitutes a saloon will be left to legislative discretion, many words will flow before factious in the house and senate and the houses finally agree on a legal definition. Rep. Emmett Morse of Houston, who directed the drive for prohibition repeal both in the legislature and during the campaign, said he wanted a law that would fit the facts in the liquor problem and would perpetuate the speakeasy and the bootlegger. He said he favored a liberal definition of "saloon."

"I am for the strongest type of law to protect the integrity of dry counties and political subdivisions," Morse said. "But we also should enact a statute that will fit the facts as they now exist. I believe that in communities where the sentiment is overwhelmingly wet liquor should be made easily available. It should be brought out in the open and strictly regulated."

"We should be careful that the state gets the maximum of revenues from the liquor traffic but, at the same time, does not enact a measure that will cause a continuation of the present bootlegging system."

Morse drafted a license bill in collaboration with Elbert Hooper, former first assistant attorney general under Governor Allred.

VEVEY, Switzerland, Sept. 19 (AP)—Jules Cambon, 90, former French ambassador to Washington and Berlin, and one of France's "elder statesmen," died today.

The diplomat drifted slowly into unconsciousness at midnight and died at 4 a. m., with his son and daughter at the bedside. Cambon's brilliant diplomatic career covered nearly 50 years, from 1870 to the World war.

Looks Like Wild Game in Texas Is Still Plentiful

AUSTIN, Sept. 19 (AP)—The bureau of biological survey, U. S. department of agriculture, cooperating with the livestock sanitary commission of Texas and the Texas predatory animal control association, employed 75 men in August when 797 coyotes, 48 bobcats, four mountain lions and 83 wolves were killed.

In addition six unborn coyotes and five bobcats were destroyed. Dan Rhodes in Webb county led with 92 coyotes and three bobcats. J. L. Beavers was second with 86 coyotes in Bee county. George Wimberly in Dimmitt and LaSalle counties caught 72 coyotes and two bobcats.

"For a number of years reports have been reaching us of an increase in the mountain lion infestation in this state and of a corresponding decrease in the deer population in the same areas," says the monthly report. "With the very effective work accomplished by J. E. Hearn with his traps on the Callaghan ranch and Ira Wood with his dogs in various localities in South Texas, together with the occasional capture of lions by our coyote and wolf trappers, we are rapidly getting these animals under control in South Texas and now, with the addition of Fred Moore of Hudspeth county to our force, we hope gradually to accomplish at the same results in West Texas. Mr. Moore has a pack of trained lion dogs and has already accomplished very effective results in his area for the county and for individual ranchmen."

LEGISLATORS IN GOOD HUMOR AS SPECIAL SESSION OPENS

AUSTIN, Sept. 19. (AP)—The custom of convening sessions of the legislature at high noon has a practical basis, it recognizes that members want to shake hands and renew acquaintances before settling down to work.
The current session was no exception. Before 8 o'clock, members, wives, stenographers and employees were about, and as 12 o'clock approached it was almost impossible to walk through the big chambers because of the congestion.
Everyone was in high good humor, in sharp contrast with the frayed dispositions evident when they separated last May 11 at the close of the regular session. So it is always with beginnings and endings of sessions.
Representative Franklin Spears of San Antonio had small sympathy for the contest brought by D. M. West of Bronite to prevent seating of H. B. Sessions of Ballinger. Sessions led West and other candidates in a recent special election by a comfortable plurality but West charged Sessions had not complied with residence requirements.

"If a man can live in your district only one year and beat you he ought to be seated," Spears said.
The new sergeant-at-arms in the house, Ernest J. Boyett of Junction, took the oath, after his unanimous election, with his arm in a sling. He broke his arm recently in an automobile accident.
Boyett succeeded Joe White of San Antonio, who resigned after ten years as sergeant-at-arms to take a job with the railroad commission. The law prohibits holding two state positions at once.
Governor Allred worked on his liquor message until about three hours before the legislature convened, taking out paragraphs and putting them in. He had Ed Clark, his secretary down for consultation before most capitol employes came to work.
"If you think it's so easy," he remarked good-humoredly to press correspondents, who wanted to move the message early over their wires, "you ought to try to write one."

Where Peace and War Hang in Balance

Here you see the arena in which representatives of world powers battle to keep Italy at peace with Ethiopia. EX-DOUGHBOY DESCRIBES VIVIDLY HOW HE PICKED UNKNOWN SOLDIER

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 19. (AP)—Edward F. Younger, the sergeant who selected America's unknown soldier, described that memorable occasion at Coblenz, Germany.
Younger is here for the 36th annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.
He is a member of the Humboldt Park Post No. 690, Chicago, and is a postal employee. Enlisting February 23, 1917, he served in company A, 9th infantry, and was overseas from September 21, 1917, until July, 1919.
"I was at Coblenz, Germany, serving my second enlistment," Sergeant Younger said, "when orders came for me to report to Chaions-sur-Marne with a squad of men. I had no idea what I was supposed to do until I arrived at a little chapel there and saw a large group of high ranking officers.
"There were several generals there, I know, and a lot of Frenchmen covered with epaulettes and gold braid. It was Colonel Harry F. Heibers, I believe, of the army graves registration service, who gave me the flowers and explained I was to select the unknown soldier.
"The room was half dark, and spooky. Suddenly I realized that the casket I selected would epitomize America's dead. It would repose, the colonel told me, in a marble vault in Washington. There world leaders would pay homage as well as America itself survived."
"It may sound foolish, but the responsibility of the thing numbered me. Of course, all the caskets were unidentified. One would do as well as the other. But I couldn't bring myself to make a hasty choice. I kept thinking I might know one or all of these poor boys. I might have eaten, slept and fought with them. How could I choose between them; the one that I selected would repose in an honored tomb, while the others would lie in nameless graves.

"As I walked about those four flagged caskets, each from a different cemetery, with the melancholy cooing of pigeons sounding from the eaves of that little chapel, the tragedy and horror of war impressed themselves more forcibly on me than at any other time of my service in France, though I have seen men falling like leaves from shrapnel and machine gun fire."
Sergeant Younger, alone in that dim chapel, said he slowly circled the row of coffins, reversed his steps and paused. Again he circled the tiny room and paused again, hesitant, uncertain. Suddenly he laid his flowers upon the casket third from his right, saluted and walked out into the sunlight.
"Why did I choose the third from my right? That is something I will never be able to explain, but I can say that the choice was not exactly haphazard. Something seemed to stop me each time I passed that third one's coffin. Something seemed to say, 'Pick this one.'
"As long as I live I will feel that I myself knew the man who sleeps in Arlington's amphitheatre."

RODESS FIELD LESS PROMISING DUE TO ENCRoACHMENT OF WATER

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 19. (AP)—Oil operators saw one potentially great new oil area fall this week while an old one boomed to new life un-dreamed a few months ago.
In Louisiana the Rodessa field appeared far less promising due to encroachment of water.
Oil men had hailed it only recently as possibly as vast in extent as the huge East Texas area.
In Kansas, only about 1,000 feet below the old producing horizon of the Oxford pool, oil men last week completed the largest gusher ever drilled in that state.
This was the Amerada-Sunray well that was given an official initial flow of more than 37,000 barrels a day.
Although the old, shallow pool long had been defined and actually was almost exhausted, the operators had no way of knowing definitely the extent of the deeper producing stratum.
Oil men have been concerned for months over the fact wildcat operations have not furnished new production rapidly enough to compensate for depletion of older fields.
Although present productive areas, if opened wide, could flood the nation with oil temporarily, they would be drained of their last recoverable barrel in short order to supply the tremendous modern demand for oil products.
Hence the persistent intensive search for new proven pools, to assure a future supply.
Hence, also, the unconcern with which the mid-continent area views the open production in California fields. The mid-continent crude price structure has not shown any sign of weakening in the face of constantly increasing coastal output.
The refinery market has shown healthy strength in the face of the customary seasonal decline in gasoline consumption. A temporary flood of third, or low grade, gasoline caused a slight weakening on the Chicago tank car market, but it was steady at 4 1/2-5 cents today. The middle grade was off an eighth in the lower bracket at 5 1/2-6 cents.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Sept. 19. (AP)—The loud speakers in the house of representatives chamber were being tested for the special session.
"I promise every voter a pension, a quart of gin if he wants it, a mule and an acre of land," a gesticulating speaker before the microphone on the floor roared. "Moreover—"
"Never mind," said a voice from up in the mechanical room. "You don't need to promise anything else. The machine's o. k."
The impromptu political speaker was an employee of the house.
Senator John S. Redditt of Lufkin was deluged with messages of congratulation on becoming acting governor during the absence of Governor Allred in Oklahoma and Lieut.-Gov. Walter Woodul in New Orleans.
Some of his friends seized the occasion to urge a little special attention for their section of the state.
"San Augustine friends send congratulations while governor of our great state," one message read. "Call attention state highway department San Augustine county great need of some job being let help unemployed.
"Also call Centennial appropriations committee attention likewise good appropriation San Augustine county cradle of Texas."
Representative Herman Jones of Decatur breezed into town for the special session.
"What bill will you have?" some one asked. "What's your racket this time?"
"Simple," Jones said. "We want to move the capital to Decatur."
"Quit thinking such things," rejoined the other. "Keep on growing them peanuts."

Stocks Splurge In Tokyo, Osaka

TOKYO, Sept. 19. (AP)—The Tokyo and Osaka stock exchanges stayed open until 6:30 p. m. today—three and one-half hours beyond their usual closing time—in a wild bull market based on the war scare.
Transactions reached record highs, the greatest since the establishment of exchanges in 1878.
In the Tokyo market, 1,183,000 shares changed hands; in Osaka the trading was 1,174,000 shares.

NEW TAX BILL DIPS ITS HOOKS ONLY IN 'BIG FELLOWS' PURSE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19. (AP)—Farmers experts appraising the new federal tax system in the congress calm come fresh assurance for the average taxpayer that the "big fellow," and he alone, will pay the added bill.
"Small corporations not only will be assessed nothing extra, but the great majority of them probably will get reductions in the amount they are required to shell out, these experts say after careful examination of the big tax measure expected to bring in a total of from $240,000,000 to $250,000,000. The new graduated corporate income tax, to be applied to 1936 income and payable in 1937, is put at 12 1/2 per cent on the first $2,000 net income; 12 per cent on that between $2,000 and $15,000; 14 per cent from $15,000 to $40,000 and 15 per cent on all above $40,000.
"Small Corporations Pay Less
Under the old plan there was a flat rate of 13.34 per cent. Thus, a considerable fiscal weight has been lifted from every corporation with net earnings below $15,000—and these, under the present available government figures, comprise more than seven-eighths of all corporations making payments, or roughly 75,000 of a total of 82,000.
"Meanwhile, as to the increased individual income taxes—also levied on 1936 earnings and payable in 1937—the ordinary citizen need waste no pencil lead in figuring what they mean to him. The answer is nothing, since no change is made below the $50,000 level. The new rates start at a 31 per cent surtax on income between $50,000 and $56,000 and jump progressively higher until they reach 75 per cent on earnings more than $50,000. The old levy was from 30 per cent to a maximum of 59 per cent.

NYA PROGRAM HAS SUPPORT OF GOVERNOR WILL TAKE INITIATIVE IN MAKING FUNDS AVAILABLE

AUSTIN, Sept. 18. (AP)—Governor Allred has gotten behind the movement to provide the state's youth with employment and better recreational facilities.
The governor pledged the full cooperation of his office to the national youth administration and has promised to support a state appropriation of $50,000 to further the program. With state and federal cooperation it is hoped to give employment to 2,380 unskilled young men from 16 to 25 years old, now on relief, on state parks improvement projects.
Thirty supervisors and 380 skilled workers also will be employed. The average term of employment will be from three to six months. H. P. Drought, works progress administration chief has approved the project.
State funds will be used exclusively to purchase materials and equipment for permanent improvements.
Youths in congested areas of population will be given an opporunity through the program to work in the open.

"The removing of heads of families from the relief rolls with government projects is a notable achievement," Governor Allred said, "but this alone does not take care of the youth problem in Texas. When we stop to consider 123,880 young men and women in Texas thwarted in the very natural desire to establish themselves in the world, we can see the problem facing the national youth administration.
"We cannot ignore these young men and women, we cannot let them starve, we cannot make them go to school forever, we cannot put them in the army and provide a war to put them to work."
Governor Allred estimated the $50,000 state appropriation would be matched by $250,000 in federal funds for labor and administration.
STRAIGHT IRISH TICKET PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19. (AP)—A 34th ward voter named McManus emerged from the primary election voting booth with a broad grin. "I couldn't remember the names of the straight organization ticket," said he, "so I just voted for all the Irish names I saw."
