Industry Members Of WSB Seek Limit On Pay Increases

Lloyd Douglas, Author, Dies

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Lloyd Douglas, 73, author of some of the most controversial and widely read religious novels of the century, died last night of heart disease.

Douglas' greatest books were "The Magnificent Obsession," his first, published in 1929, and "The Robe," printed in 1942. In the period between them were numerous best sellers, including "Green Light," "White Banners" and "Disputed Passage," which were filmed. His last work was "The Big Fisherman," a sequel to "The Robe." Douglas' books caused much discussion because of their personal approach to religion. Douglas, an ordained Lutheran minister, was in his 60s when "The Magnificent Obsession" became an immediate success. It went through 51 printings in little more than a year. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. J. Weldon Wilson, Las Vegas, Nev., with whom he lived in recent years, and Mrs. Howard P. Dawson, Montreal, Que. His wife died in December, 1944. Funeral services will be held Friday. If it comes from a hardware store, get it at Lewis Hdw.—adv.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Industry members of the Wage Stabilization Board, determined to fight off a new round of postwar wage increases, proposed today that the government limit future pay raises to eight percent above Jan. 15, 1950, levels.

The three management representatives on the nine-man board said they hoped to allow only "catch-up inequities" of that size in future contracts. But they would agree to another review of the wage picture next June. Since V-J Day in August, 1945, there have been four or five general pay-boost movements, depending on the point of view.

Airport Group Checks Costs

Spreading two plans for the revision of Pampa Municipal Airport before them, the special Aviation Committee subcommittee of the chamber of commerce began computing estimated costs at 10 a. m. today. Sub-committee chairman, Farris Oden, County Judge Bruce Parker and Bert Howell, with the technical assistance of City Engineer Ray Evans, worked over all cost figures including purchase of land, grading, drainage, relaying water and sewage lines and other expenses involved in resetting landing strips and moving buildings.

South Korea Marines Land Surprise Raid On Sea Port

Other Allied Units Blast Red Assaults

TOKYO — (AP) — South Korean marines landed today at the big North Korean east coast port of Wonsan in a surprise raid under cover of a strong allied naval bombardment. Wonsan is 90 miles inside Red territory above Parallel 38 on the Sea of Japan. On the flaming central Korean front, American, French and Dutch forces inflicted a staggering toll on Chinese and Red Korean divisions striving for a breakthrough along a 20-mile-wide sector. A field dispatch said the allied defenders shattered two Communist divisions "in a welter of blood, bombs and shellfire." It added: "The Chinese dead lay by the thousands on all sides of surrounded Chipyeong. Other thousands were heaped up also in the river valley eight miles west-northwest of Wonsan where they stumbled into a murderous air and artillery ambush."

Connally Rules 'No Delay' For Troops Action

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Connally (D-Tex.) said today opponents of sending U. S. troops to Europe aren't going to be permitted to delay congressional action on the issue. Connally told a reporter Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader, had submitted a prospective list of witnesses "as long as your arm" for hearings which begin tomorrow.

Wherry is author of a resolution which would bar the President from sending any ground forces to Europe until Congress passes on the issue. He is opposed to dispatch of any divisions to join the North Atlantic defense force under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Members of the Senate foreign relations and armed services committees probably will be asked to vote on limiting the number of witnesses before they open tomorrow's hearing with testimony from Secretary of Defense Marshall, Connally said.

The Texas senator, who heads the foreign relations group, is serving as chairman of the combined committees. "I don't want to let this thing drag out," Connally said. "We've got to have action on the matter."

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee decided yesterday to keep the way open for action on the troops issue as soon as the committees have completed their work. Senator McFarland of Arizona, the Democratic leader, said it might get to the floor a week from today but some colleagues thought that was optimistic.

Connally will propose as a substitute for the Wherry resolution that the Senate go on record as approving the sending of some foot soldiers to Europe.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A new napalm fire bomb, smaller but more effective than present type has been developed in Japan for use in Korea, the Air Force said today.

Rites Due Thursday For Samuel Morris

Funeral services for Samuel "Uncle Sam" Morris will be held at 2:30 Thursday afternoon in the Methodist Church in Mobeetie. "Uncle Sam" died at 12:20 p. m. Tuesday in Highland General Hospital.

He was born Jan. 13, 1865 at Milton, Ky. He moved to Gainesville early in 1889 where he was a mailcarrier for 20 years. He moved to Mobeetie in 1910 where he farmed and later managed Long's Mercantile Store. He was a lifetime Mason and a member of the Christian Church.

He married Elizabeth Lee Park on Oct. 13, 1889. Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Willie Fultz of Bucor, Calif., Mrs. R. A. Stephens of Pecos, Mrs. Floyd May of Tongueville, Kan., Mrs. Alta Lou Chism of Borger and Mrs. Jennie Ray Cunningham of Borger; three sons, S. W. of Pampa, Mich., R. P. of Canadian, and R. D. of Pampa; one sister, Mrs. W. L. Cooper of Bonham; 15 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Rev. Vernon E. Willard will officiate and burial will be in the Mobeetie Cemetery beside the body of his wife, who died on May 22, 1943. The Duemmel-Carmichael Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Fall Fatal For Higgins Man

HIGGINS — (Special) — Funeral services will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday for Alex Barton, 83, who died after injuries received in a fall at his home Tuesday night.

Mr. Barton had gone back into the house last night to get some car keys while his wife and two daughters waited outside in the car. He evidently opened the wrong door in the darkness and fell down the basement stairs. He never regained consciousness and died soon afterward, at 8 p. m.

He was born in Mason County on Feb. 15, 1868. He would have celebrated his 84th birthday tomorrow. He moved to Burnett when a child and then went to Dodge City, Kan., with a brother when 16. He lived there two years and then moved to Lipscomb County where he has lived ever since.

He worked for the T-K and Box T ranches. He purchased a ranch 30 miles northwest of Higgins which he has owned and operated for the past 55 years. A few years ago he moved to Lipscomb and then in Nov. of 1948 moved to Higgins.

Austin Boy's Body Found In Ice Box

Washington Sees Little Chance MacArthur Will Get Power He Says Needed For Victory

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Officials here see little chance that Gen. Douglas MacArthur will get the power and authority he considers necessary to achieve complete victory over the Chinese Communists in Korea. The expected dispatch of American troops in western Europe, a wide-spread desire in high places here for a reasonable Korean settlement if possible, the determination to avoid spreading war — all these factors seem certain to work against fulfilling the conditions described by MacArthur as essential to success.

In a Tokyo statement following a battlefield visit, the allied commander yesterday described the situation this way: Recent UN advances have been merely tactical successes; it is academic now to talk about a massive drive across the 38th Parallel into North Korea; such a drive would require offsetting the numerical superiority of the Communists with their protected bases in Manchuria.

From the blunt summary he made and his insistence on the point that there are decisions beyond his province which only governments can make, it is apparent that MacArthur is calling for a definition of United Nations objectives in Korea now and the decision to pay the price necessary to win them. His own estimate indicated that steps necessary to a military victory would require (1) a substantial enlargement of UN forces to more nearly equal those of the foe and (2) authority to bombard positions and communications of the Chinese troops in Manchuria. On the first point, while MacArthur's forces are being given replacements now and brought up to full strength, the State and Defense Department are anxious to build up as fast as possible divisions for assignment to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's new Atlantic Pact command in Western Europe. MacArthur is understood to have sought permission to use Chinese Nationalist troops from Formosa but that has been denied on grounds they were needed to defend that island.

On the issue of bombing by UN planes in Manchuria, Washington sees difficulty on two counts. In the first place this country's allies, notably Britain, are anxious to keep the Korean war in strict limits. They have objected to possible crossing of the 38th Parallel as it appeared last weekend UN forces soon might do. In the second place military authorities here have ruled out bombing in Manchuria because it might bring a Communist Far Eastern Air Force into the field. Obviously, the Manchurian situation would be changed if Red planes from Manchurian bases got into the fight in large numbers anyway. In that event, there seems to be no doubt that bombing of Manchurian air bases would be quickly authorized.

Mac Offers His Superlative Advice To Answer-Seekers

By HENRY McLEMOIRE

It has been called the most successful press agent in the world is Dorothy Dix. She makes millions and millions.

People write her and ask her questions and she writes back and gives them the answer.

Since I have had a columnist I must have had ten thousand letters from people who wanted advice and I never answered one of them, but I want to start answering them right now.

Q: "Dear Henry: I am a 32-year-old woman from Sireveport. I am married to a man whom I don't like. How can I get rid of him?"

A: "Shoot the guy."

Q: "I am 17 years old and my mother does the Charleston better than I do. She tells me I should break her leg so she can't do the Charleston."

A: "Don't send me any letters that I have to pay postage on."

Q: "I am 102 years old and nowhere near the Bonnie Blue flag of Dixie. I live in New York and when I go down Park Avenue I find the flag of the Russians flying above the building where Mr. Malik lives. How old are you, long as Mr. Malik is an accepted member of the United Nations the flag of his country should fly outside the hotel in which he lives. I'm 27 and an outstanding football coach.

Q: "My cat never sleeps. Do you know anything about how to put a cat to sleep?"

A: "What color is your cat? Gray cats sleep better than black cats. Small cats sleep more than big cats. A Siamese will always outsleep a Manx, and a Persian will always outsleep a Siamese. Let me have full details, please."

Q: "My husband is very jealous of me."

A: "You lucky, lucky woman."

Q: "I am 43 years old and can't ice skate. What do you suggest?"

A: "Skates."

Q: "When I was 19 years old I ran away from home, fell in love with a columnist, and bought a boarding house in Portland, Oregon. I'm just as happy as I can be."

A: "No answer."

Q: "Three years ago my husband became a congressman. I didn't vote for him and now I'm sorry that I didn't. Will you tell me how to vote three years later."

A: "Mothers - in - law always have to live with someone. Why don't you accept your burden and let it go at that."

Q: "How tall is Joe DiMaggio?"

A: "My 16-year-old boy has placed a large wager with me, his mother, that he's six feet, one and one-quarter inches. I think he's an even six feet. Please settle this for my own peace of mind."

A: "Joe DiMaggio is three feet tall. You're both wrong."

Q: "My husband objects to my hanging hardware store calendars in the living room. He says they don't look pretty. Do you hang hardware store calendars in your living room?"

A: "My wife feels the same way that your husband does, with the result that I have to buy Ven Gogh's, Picassos, and early Michelangelos. But I agree with you. Our living room is filled with art, but no one knows what day it is. If you will send me one hundred dollars in stamps, I'd be tremendously obliged."

BEAUTY AFTER FORTY

It's the little things that count, that add up to Glamour, Charm and that well-put-together look! The mature woman has need of every extra touch, of things like a smooth up-and-off-the-neck crease.

hairline. A tiny wisp of gray hair, hanging loose, looks more untidy than a stray lock of blonde hair. Don't ask me why, it just does, as you well know!

Everything neat, everything well selected, everything in place, these are your Personality Points. Never wear a touch of white without inspecting it carefully. It must be fresh, gleaming, stark white when you wear it. Pearls and beads of any kind must be sparkling-clean. You can dip any kind of fashion jewelry, including pearls, into frothy soapsuds and dry by gentle friction with a soft cloth. All rhinestone jewelry, and diamonds if you are so fortunate, must be extra clean and sparkling. It's indeed the Little Things that count!

Never wear a veil that has a tear, thinking that you can hide it with a pin. Never wear a flower which is crushed. Never wear velvet accessories that look even the tiniest bit dusty or faded. If you like the soft flattery of lace, be sure that it is immaculate. And if it is old and priceless heirloom lace be sure that it is perfectly mended.

Remember—your accessories are added to give glamour and beauty. These little things put you over as a Personality, a woman of distinction, a woman with know-how. You can select some color note or some accessory as your own particular touch, your plus gesture for beauty and better grooming. For instance—a distinguished woman, known for her perfect grooming, always carries a large chiffon handkerchief in a color to match her gloves. Another wears grey pearls, always, to match her gorgeous gray hair. Another, known for and wide for her mature charm, always wears sheer brown veiling, crisp and lovely. And, by the way, brown veiling does more for your complexion than almost any other color.

So, select a few specialties in color and accessories and make them your very own!

Officers Elected By La Rosas

An election of officers by the La Rosa Sorority gave the following results: LaJuana Garner, president; LaTita Holman, vice president; Jan Dickey, secretary; Rosemary Sheehan, treasurer, and Wanda Forducy, reporter.

Plans were made for a "last chance" dance, to be given soon. Recent events of the club include a rush party to take in some new pledges. Those present were Ann Polard, Carol Sanford, Juanita Cox and Fatsy Walls.

At an acceptance party held on Feb. 4 at the home of Rosemary Sheehan, the history of the club was told to the new pledges and the club song, "The One Rose" was sung by Mary Windsor, accompanied by Wanda Forducy. The pledge oath was then taken and pledging began on Feb. 5.

Those present were Juanita Cox, Fatsy Walls, Marcille Waters and Iris Stockton.

Facial Recipe From The Kitchen

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

If your skin's beginning to look as dull as a cloudy winter day, now's the time to go scurrying to your kitchen to mix a batch of beauty batter.

Ingredients for a complexion-freshening facial will be found on almost every woman's shelf. The recipe is a simple one, calling only for a tablespoon of cornmeal and an equal amount of soap beads, mixed together in a saucer. Blend well and moisten to the consistency of a paste with a small amount of milk or water.

After your mixture's made, prepare your skin for the beauty treatment by wetting it thoroughly. Then rub the meal-and-soap paste onto your face and throat.

Massage lightly with your fingertips, paying particular attention to trouble spots like chin, nose and forehead where there are likely to be blackheads.

When the entire area from hairline to collarbone has been thoroughly stimulated, remove the mixture with warm water cupped into your palms. Splash it over your face and neck again and again until every trace of the grains has been washed away.

A vigorous spanking of icy-cold water should be the next step, followed by a brisk towel drying. Your skin should emerge from this treatment shining clean and glowing.

In order to keep it that way, make a check of your grooming aids. Dirty, bedraggled rouge and powder puffs may undo the good work of your facial, again clogging your pores with grime.

Wash your complexion brushes well before using them on your fresh, clean skin. And try substituting for your old puffs sterile cotton balls which may be discarded after each make-up job.

Shamrock Defends District Cage Crown At McLean

SHAMROCK — Shamrock's Fighting Irish defended the District 2-A crown in the McLean district tournament this weekend. They will be off against the tough Clarendon crew at 9:30 Thursday night. Potent Memphis, favored by a slight edge in the tourney, collides with McLean in the opener, at 6:30 Thursday night. Winner of this battle will tangle with Wellington, who drew a bye in round one. Winner of the Shamrock-Clarendon fracas will angle with Lefors in the second round at 11 Friday morning. Should Shamrock win, they will play Lefors at that time; should the Irish lose, they will go into the lower (loser's) bracket, playing the loser of the Memphis-McLean tiff at 2 Friday. Otherwise it will be Clarendon-McLean (should the Tigers bow to the Memphisites) at 2 Friday.

Winner of the Wellington battle in round two (either Memphis or McLean vs. Wellington) will go into battle against the winner of the Lefors-Shamrock or Lefors-Clarendon second round battle. These winners will then tackle the winner of the second round in the loser's bracket.

Championship conflict will be at 9 Saturday night. While Shamrock, Clarendon and Memphis are rated strongest, it is certainly within the realms of possibility that Wellington or McLean might be in the finals with one of these three titans. Lefors, if it went that far, would have to show sensational improvement.

Shamrock's ace — Vaughn Terry and Vernon Tarbet in scoring — will be pitted against the scoring stars of Memphis, sensational Scottie Grundy, probably the flashiest forward in the loop, and Tommy Messer, former grid backfield star; and Clarendon's Wilson Lane, certainly one of the best scorers in the loop. He hit 24 points against the Irish last time, the margin easily of victory.

McLean has two who are likely to turn in from 12 to 18 points: L. M. Watson, all-around athletic star, and J. N. Smith, generally the high-point, low-turnover player.

Wellington's John "Hoot" Gibson, whose end runs were the main reason for Shamrock's only conference football loss last fall, shifts from fullback to forward. His scoring is also potent, usually 12 to 15 points per game.

Lefors has only Burchfield in the scoring field. They will not likely make the splash that the other five will make.

The boys play a double elimination-fray. Lose once and go to a lower bracket; lose twice, you're out. This team could lose the first and then win the next three in a row. But after the first loss, any other eliminates a team from the title chase.

Girls will play a simple single-game elimination. This replaces the original plan for a round-robin, Wellington and Clarendon drew byes, while the Memphis girls face the dragon, McLean, considered the team to beat, in the opening fray at 5 p.m. Friday.

Shamrock opens against Lefors, but this is considered a breeze, as the Irish have won three previous encounters, 44-3, 46-11, and 65-10. Game time is 8 Thursday night.

McLean will probably take on the Wellington girls in the second round at 8 Friday night. Although Wellington is probably the third strongest in the girls' loop, McLean is likely to handle the Skyrocket girls with ease. Wellington boasts Zada and Vada Cook, forward star twins, and they might hit enough to whip the Tigerettes, but this is doubtful.

McLean has Dorothy Gudeg, forward scoring wizard, and any team to whip McLean must hold her to not more than 15 points. Her usual quota nears 30.

Shamrock goes into the second round (if they beat Lefors as expected) against the Clarendon Broncho lassies. The Irish hold two victories over the Clarendon girls, 29-17, and 28-18. They will likely win again.

Should Shamrock dispose of Lefors and Clarendon, they will probably meet the Tigerettes from McLean at the title finals, 7:30 Saturday night preceding the boys' games in the tourney. Following a finals.

This should be one of the best 80-24 loss to the McLean girls in the season's first three games. Shamrock girls began to improve. They held McLean to a 33-21 victory in January and two weeks ago they dropped a 31-25 game to the Tigerettes here, after the game was knotted at 25-25.

In the boys' final, Shamrock's chances hinge on the scoring of Terry and Tarbet, and the hope that others will join the parade, plus a good defense. The later is Coach McCall's strong need.

Samnorwood Nudges Bucks In Playoff Cage Tilt, 33-31

By SPECK REYNOLDS
News Sports Editor

The White Deer Bucks felt two points short of knotting the playoff game with Samnorwood Tuesday night at White Deer, and the Collingsworth County cagers took the first game, 33-31, in the best two out of three for the championship in District 3-B. The two teams meet at Samnorwood Thursday night, and if a third game is necessary it will be played on a neutral court.

White Deer changed to a man-for-man defense in the final period and held Samnorwood to two free shots, but the Bucks picked-up only seven tallies which was enough to win.

Coach Kenneth Gibson's roundballers missed three long shots in the last minute of play, and center Charles Meadows couldn't get off a final pitch as the buzzer sounded ending the game.

Samnorwood kept the Bucks shooters away from close in shots, and White Deer collected most of the 13 field goals from well out. Samnorwood won the game at the free throw line, hitting nine out of 18 free throw attempts. White Deer out-hit Samnorwood from the field, 13-12, but the Bucks meshed only five free throws out of 14 tries.

Both teams used the zone defense, but White Deer came out of the zone shell at the start of the final quarter.

The home team led 7-6 at the first quarter, but Samnorwood took a 17-16 lead at half-time. It was a torrid third quarter that spurred the visitors ahead. Samnorwood canned 14 points in the third period while White Deer was picking up eight.

The Bucks trailed 31-24 going into the final stanza. White Deer's Ronnie Buchanan, who punched in 11 points for the Bucks, pushed in a side shot and also added a free throw to trim the lead to 31-27. Alexander notched a free toss for Samnorwood, but Buchanan threaded the nets with another mortar shot to cut the lead to 32-29 with six minutes left in the game.

Both quintets lost the ball on bad passes during the last six minutes of the contest. Guy Thornburg brought the partisan crowd to its feet with a long one handed flier to make it 32-31. Samnorwood, with five minutes remaining.

Lawrence Overcast looped in a free pitch at the four-minute mark to make the score 33-31. Samnorwood brought the ball in three minutes, in trying to stall out the clock. White Deer had its chance to knot the game with three long shots in the last

Robinson Shoots For Middleweight Crown Tonight

CHICAGO — (AP) — Welter king Sugar Ray Robinson, a symphony of power and skill in the ring, tonight shoots for the middleweight crown of Jake La Motta, a barbaric roughouser by comparison.

It's a finely-tuned machine colliding with a fireplug—a contrast of fighting styles that promises to be one of the best scraps of the post-war era.

Robinson, who declaimed body-sledding Jake four out of five times when the Bronx Bull was a middleweight contender instead of the champion, rules a 3-1 to 4-1 favorite for the Chicago Stadium showdown, starting at 9 p.m. (CST). Such odds are unprecedented for a challenger of the middleweight bauble.

The International Boxing Club card is expected to draw some 12,500 fans and gross $175,000. Millions of others will see it on television or hear it broadcast.

Robinson's only loss in 123 fights (78 of which he won by knockouts) was to La Motta in the second meeting of their five-fight series. Jake won 79 out of 99 bouts, 28 by kayo-out.

A 10-round kayo over the late Marcel Cerdan in 1949 gave La Motta the middleweight belt. Last year he defended it successfully twice, taking a 15-round decision from Tiberio Mitri and rallying to chill Laurent Dau-thine in the final seconds of the 15th round at Detroit on Sept. 18, his last ring appearance. Robinson, who recently returned from a European tour, has had eight fights in the last 66 days.

Battle-scarred 29 year old La Motta has picked up a number of backers lately. Eyebrows were raised when he shunned a all workouts for five days in an energy conservation plan. It now develops that he shed enough weight to make the 160-pound limit last week and then spent the final days stocking up fresh strength by adding a few pounds.

Thus he was not forced barely to make the grade and can enter the ring with vim.

The trim Robinson, also 29, and regarded as one of history's greatest fighters, has had no weight bugaboo to cope with. Ring followers almost are unanimous that the title brawl will go the full distance.

The rough-hewn La Motta who never has been belted off his feet, and Robinson also believe the winner's arm will be hoisted on a decision. Sugar has never suffered a knockout in his career, but he has been sent to the floor four times, twice by Jake.

Robinson has the reach, the boxing skill and probably the most punishing punch than Jake. But the Bull, has the ruggedness and comeback strength that may be the key to the fight.

Baugh Inks Pact With Redskins

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sammy Baugh has signed for his 15th year with the Washington Redskins, and even though he will be 37, rival passers had better watch out.

For Baugh has the odd habit of being the National Football League's No. 1 passer every odd year. He led in 1943, 1945, 1947 and 1949. How can he miss in '51?

When Baugh steps out on the field next fall, he will be tying the all time record for length of service as an active player in the league.

John Blood, a great back, put in 15 years with Milwaukee, Green Bay and Pittsburgh, from 1925 to 1939.

Baugh already has tied — and will soon better the mark for the most years spent with one club; center Mel Hein put in 14 years with the New York Giants.

Incidentally, Baugh lost on a competitor yesterday when Sid Luckman of the Chicago Bears said he was through as an active player. Sid, who holds most passing records that Baugh has overlooked, played 17 years with the Bears.

Baugh holds 17 league records. He has thrown more passes, completed more, gained more ground on his passing, and had a better percentage on completions than any player in pro history.

Irish Clouters Win Four Bout

SHAMROCK — Coach H. W. Callan's Irish boxers had a date here with the Amarillo team Saturday night. But there were not enough fights, so Callan scheduled some between his crew and boxers from Pampa, Wellington and Lefors to complete the card.

No scoring was figured, although the Irish copped four bouts, and three others in Callan's corner, from Pampa, Lefors and Wellington.

The summary: Barry Ward, Shamrock, dec. Gary Watt, Pampa, 75 lbs. Charles Lane, Lefors, dec. Jimmy Don Keys, Shamrock, 80 lbs. Smokey Savage, Wellington, dec. Bobby Trimble, Shamrock, 80 lbs. Jerry Herring, Lefors, dec. Manny Perez, Lefors, 80 lbs. Ronnie James, Pampa, dec. Forrest Thompson, Shamrock, 80 lbs. Gary Phillips, Wellington, dec. Darwin Testers, Lefors, 90 lbs. Harry Won't Be Fired By Rumor

AUSTIN — (AP) — Coach Harry Stiteler still has his job at Texas A&M — and Vice-Chancellor D. W. Williams says the Aggie mentor is "not going to be fired by rumor."

Williams was quoted in a story published in Houston as saying Stiteler would be fired if his (Stiteler's) version of a beating in Houston last December was found to be false.

"I didn't say anyone was going to be fired," Williams said. "I'm not going to prejudge Harry. He has given us a statement and that's the way it is until I know otherwise."

THE STORY: Lavinia Grenable

Could you get to a telephone?

the calmness in his thin, strong face held her to the only touch of

"Yes," she said, a little less alarmed because of him. "Yes, I could."
"Telephone for a doctor," he said, "and then call the police."

"Certainly. Old ladies in wheel chairs just don't go riding around terraces like these. Hurry!"
She ran toward the house and as she went in the back door which was closest she thought she saw a movement in the shrubbery out-

"I... don't know," Court came out of the shadows, walking like a wooden man, stiffly, almost in

He didn't appear to recognize her or at least if he did it was unimportant at that moment. He walked slowly past her and Angu-

"The man moved then, and Lisa saw with another sense of shock that the man was Court Grenable.
"Court, what happened?" she gasped.

"I... don't know," Court came

A BABY'S CRY - A tiny, ragged Korean refugee cries out from grief, hunger and cold near the central fighting front.

Events in Europe have compelled a drastic slow-down of the Atlantic pact nations' timetable for incorporating Germans in the international army they are building.

No Germans Seen Until '52

FRANKFURT, Germany -- (AP) -- Allied occupation officials estimate there will be no West German soldiers before mid-1952 at the earliest.

For one thing, officials expect that a full year will be needed to reach a settlement with the Atlantic Pact signers about the current inadequate size of western defense forces is another factor discouraging military recruitment in the Bonn Republic.

The biggest immediate barrier is the prospect of a Big Four conference which might air the entire problem of Germany. With Russia bitterly opposing any rearmament of West Germany, decisions at such a conference could make hash out of armament plans already made.

The current inadequate size of western defense forces is another factor discouraging military recruitment in the Bonn Republic. The British and the French already agree that building up a western army from present Atlantic Pact signers should have top priority on the rearmament schedule. Germany's contribution should come later. This view now has the endorsement also of the Atlantic military commander, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Strong pressure from France and Britain against a speed-up in German rearmament is matched here by a reluctance of the Germans themselves to go back to soldiering.

was being brought out of the ravine.
Lisa could see yet the lights of the searching party, the chief of police from Hilton and Dr. Hansen and Lavinia's son-in-law, Phillip Carson, as they came out through the underpass and probed the shifty floor of the ravine for the old woman.

Angus shook Lisa a little, not roughly, but urgently.
"Stop that," he warned. He pushed open the door and led her into the house. Her father came through the study door.

"Come in," he said quietly.
"Elizabeth phoned."
HENRY FARWELL shook hands with Angus, searching his face silently. What he found apparently satisfied him, for he turned and looked at her then and if his face had not been so strained with tension she would have thought he smiled.

It was Angus's strength, she thought suddenly, she had felt it and now her father sensed, too, a kind of inner solidity that would never fail the young man.
"Still hear that scream if I live to be a hundred," she murmured. "It was awful. If I'd been alone..."

Angus's hand came over hers, for an instant she permitted it to stay there, and then remembering Court she took her own away carefully.
With all the terrible happenings of the last hour there was still the undercurrent of her awareness of this Angus Kent. It was an awareness that gave her both elation and confusion.

He handed her the key and they went up the front steps together. Lights burned cheerfully through the picture windows and Martha's gray head was bobbing around the dining room table as she set the plates for dinner.

Lisa began to laugh hysterically. Court had planned to come over for dinner tonight and then they were going back to his place to see Mrs. Grenable. Lisa hadn't talked to her for years. And she wouldn't now, after all.

Court was at home, still talking to the police, and Mrs. Grenable's body, lifeless and broken at last.

Beisenherz Says Interest In Boy Scouts Is Mounting

Paul Beisenherz, local Boy Scout executive, was guest speaker, Tuesday, at the noon meeting of the Pampa Jaycees.

Beisenherz spoke briefly on Boy Scout week, and the annual fund drive, both of which are now in progress.

Mother and Child Praise Hadacol

HADACOL Supplies Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron Which Their Systems Locked

Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Route 2, Fayetteville, Ark., and her little daughter see to it each day that neither of them forgets to take their HADACOL.

It's no wonder that they are so fond in their praise of HADACOL. For HADACOL supplied vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which their systems lacked, and helped them to overcome those deficiency-caused ailments that had troubled them. Mrs. Reynolds sees to it that they continue taking their HADACOL to help prevent those deficiency-caused ailments from coming back. Here is what Mrs. Reynolds says: "I am 29 years old and I had been weak and run-down for some time. I took one bottle of your HADACOL and I feel so much better. I have a better appetite and sleep much better. I also gave HADACOL to my little 8-year-old daughter. She had no appetite and was draggy and cranky. After taking a bottle of HADACOL, she eats better and plays so much better. We are continuing to take HADACOL." Many doctors recommend HADACOL. low and taught how to shoot. Then, at the age of nine, they were given an air gun. Four years later, they started handling an army rifle. All of this, according to the Scout executive, was fun. They joined the Hitler Youth Corps, and it wasn't long before they were in the army itself.

The German youths urged Beisenherz and other Scout officials to never allow the Boy Scouts to get under the domination of the government. "Let it remain under the supervision of volunteers," the youths said, "or it will become just an American version of the Hitler Youth Corps."

Beisenherz said that once the Boy Scouts of America had nearly been taken over by the Federal government, but the resistance had been so great that the project was dropped.

"It could still happen," he said, "but such an occurrence can be prevented if you, the young men of America, donate your individual leadership to the Boy Scouts. That will prevent such domination by outside interests."

Wendt Speaks Here Thursday For K-F Club

Dr. Gerald Wendt, scientist and researcher, will speak at 7:30 p. m. Thursday to members of the Knife and Fork Club, in the high school cafeteria.

The doctor will present a lecture concerning the new articles being produced by scientists for home and business use. Among these articles are some that will appear on the market in the next year or two.

They include new fabrics, plastic materials, industrial metals, the new silicones used for the water-proofing of cloth, for the permanent greasing of baking tins, for the elimination of foam in cooking and stabilizers for furniture.

"We have improved on Nature in a thousand ways," says Dr. Wendt. "But the age of chemical gadgets is just beginning."

Until recently, Dr. Wendt was editorial director of "Science Illustrated" and former authority on scientific and industrial developments for Time, Life and Fortune magazines.

Earlier, he was professor at the University of Chicago and dean of Pennsylvania College. He has directed scientific research for the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana and research in the General Printing Ink Corp. and Coffee Products Corp. His weekly syndicated column is printed by nearly 100 U. S. newspapers.

The doctor's visit is made possible by arrangement with the Associated Club, the national organization with which the Knife and Fork Club is affiliated.

J. B. Massa will introduce the speaker following the dinner. Dr. Douglas E. Nelson will deliver the invocation.

Now—How about traffic on the Santa Fe?

With the cooperation of our officers, and of the employees who remained at work, Santa Fe managed to keep thousands of freight cars and all its passenger trains moving during the "outlaw strike" which began January 30th and which so severely crippled our country's rail transportation. Santa Fe could not, of course, operate at its top efficiency.

Now vital supplies, which have been piling up in freight terminals during the past several days, are starting to move.

A complex situation

There is one point, however, we know the public will understand. So complex a thing as America's transportation system cannot be turned off and on like a water faucet.

Thousands of "car days" were lost due to freight cars standing still. Even though cars are now moving it is bound to take a while before congestion is relieved and delayed cars are unloaded at their destination.

Santa Fe was able to deliver more cars to other railroads than other railroads delivered to Santa Fe. Consequently, Santa Fe now has substantially less cars on its rails than when the "outlaw strike" began. Naturally, this will result in a shortage of cars until this complex situation has been cleared.

A word to our shippers

We are doing everything possible to speed up the return to normal. We ask, however, that shippers who now need cars bear with us during this period.

Santa Fe expresses its thanks to its shippers and passengers for their patience and understanding during the trying times we have all just passed through—and also to all our people who cooperated in this emergency, many of them responding beyond their normal call of duty.
