Houston Rich Girl Turns To Career

HOUSTON — (AP) — The 18-year-old daughter of Houston millionaire and oilman Glenn McCarthy is in the oil business herself — running messages for Humble Oil & Refining Co. here. Humble officials said yesterday that Glenna Lee — now Mrs. George Pontikes — had applied for a job in the usual manner and had been hired the same way. They said she carries messages from office to office and tells workers when there is someone in the waiting room to see them.

Glenna Lee and Pontikes — Rice Institute football player — eloped to Waco and got married by a Justice of Peace last Dec. 2. The secret marriage was not announced until several weeks later.

Rare Copy Shown Of Gray's Elegy

SAN MARINO, Calif. — (AP) — A very rare copy of the first edition of Gray's "An Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard" was placed on exhibition in the Huntington Library today to mark the 200th anniversary of the first publication of the famous lyric poem.

The poem, with the familiar lines, "The curfew tolls the knell of parting day; the lowing herd winds slowly o'er the lea," was published anonymously in London on Feb. 15, 1751. In later editions the name of the author, Thomas Gray, was included in the printing.

Writer Says West Abused

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Did you ever wonder if the West was really as it is portrayed in horse operas?

Well, I have, and at last I found someone to reply to the question. He is A. B. Guthrie, author of "The Big Sky" and "The Way West." The letter won him a Pulitzer prize for the best novel on American life in 1949.

Born in Montana and reared on western lore, Guthrie is considered one of the top authorities on the western scene. He is here to write his first screen play, "Shame."

"It seems to me the movie western and western fiction have fallen into the same pattern of using the old cliches time and time again," he said. "For instance, there is the familiar character of the ranch foreman who is trying to put something over on the boss. And the boss usually turns out to be a beautiful girl."

"And the western sheriffs are made to seem like great men," he added. "But from their records, you can only gather that they liked to kill."

He also punctured the myth that all western characters could plug a goat's eyebrow at 50 paces. "Of course, there were some marksmen, like Wyatt Earp and Wild Bill Hickok," he said. "But being a good shot required not only natural ability but years of practice. Few of the men had time for that."

Glamor girls were lacking in the frontier west, he declared, unless you count those of tainted variety.

"It seems to me that the cleaning up in the West was not done by one strong man, but by many of them. For instance, the vigilantes of Montana, who were organized at Masonic meetings."

Historical figures have taken a beating in the movies, Guthrie added. He pointed out that Billy the Kid was a trigger-happy little punk who neither looked nor acted like Johnny Mack Brown, Robert Taylor, Jack Beutel or Audie Murphy. (All have played the character on the screen.)

WESTFIELD, N.J. — (AP) — Mrs. Katherine Greenwald Lyon will be 104 today, she said, to good food, a little walking and a wee nip of whiskey each night before going to bed. Reached yesterday at the home of her daughter where she lives, the spry old lady said no special celebration was planned — just a few close friends to help eat a large birthday cake.

Senate To Call Insurance Bill

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senate leaders planned to call up today the house-passed bill to give $10,000 of free insurance coverage to all members of the U. S. Armed Forces.

Magistrate Stops Flashy Tie Gag

ASBURY PARK, N. J. — (AP) — A city magistrate flashed a stop signal yesterday on a short-lived police plan to hand out safety-slogan neckties to errant motorists instead of summonses.

In forbidding the practice, to continue, Magistrate Eugene Caplaniano said it was "a mockery of the judicial process."

The ties were liberally covered with brightly-colored stop signs, speed limit signs, traffic lights and highway markers.

Police Chief Fred Lemke said the ties were a gag. He said out of four cravats made up as part of a safety campaign Monday only one was handed out to a motorist.

Benny Has 39th Birthday -- Again

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Jack Benny is 39 again today.

The comic, a Valentine's Day gift to Waukegan, is probably the only 39-year-old who admits he was born in 1894.

He'll celebrate quietly, he says, at home with his wife of 24 years, Mary Livingstone.

His age of 39 has been a running gag for years, but this actually is the one-time boy violinist's 39th year in a show business.

Officer Testing Rifle Uncovers Red Chinese

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA — (AP) — A Marine sergeant stopped one cold day recently on a road here and decided to fire his rifle. "Just to test it out" to see if the bolt had frozen.

He aimed at what he thought was a deserted farmhouse. Chinese Reds poured from the building and took up positions nearby. The Leathernecks finally won out by throwing grenades from a ridge overlooking the enemy positions.

Oldster Is Fined For Parking Plug By Plug

MESA, ARIZ. — (AP) — You can't park a plug by a plug and get away with it if Mesa police have their way.

Jeff Earl, 72-year-old Mesa resident, found that out the hard way.

He rode his horse, Starlite, into town and hitched it to a fireplug.

Lane Splitters Said Local Top Hazard

Automobile drivers splitting the lane create the worst hazard in Pampa, according to John Wilkinson, chief of police. Wilkinson said that in addition to increasing the danger of traffic accidents, lane splitters also slow down the movement of traffic and create dangerous traffic jams.

In recounting the various causes of traffic accidents in Pampa, the chief said that more accidents, most of the minor, are caused by drivers backing away from the curb.

In January of this year, the Pampa Police Department investigated 30 traffic accidents. Seven of the number were misdirection accidents, caused by persons failing to heed stop signals or signs or other reasons.

Three accidents were caused by cars following too close to those in front, five were blamed on the ice. Three accidents were due to turning from the wrong lane and two from defective brakes. Those two were the only ones due to mechanical defects.

Regardless of what we think the accident of Wilkinson said, the real cause of every automobile accident is the driver. If the driver should have taken into consideration and given for it. If it is caused by a driver, the driver should have taken into consideration and given for it. If it is caused by a driver, the driver should have taken into consideration and given for it.

The accident which occurred on Aug. 11 last, when a car was involved in a collision with a truck, was presented in Pampa and a similar accident occurred without any fault and there have been 20 such accidents up to last Wednesday, without one being a traffic violation as such.

The Pampa Police Department is at present when traveled out

Burma Starts New Anti-Rebel Action

RANGOON — (AP) — The Burmese government will impose a system of collective punishment upon specific north Burma areas to discourage support to rebels, says a Mandalay report.

The scheme will begin in areas whose inhabitants have withheld information regarding rebels destroying communications and otherwise engaged in anti-government operations. It is expected to hit hardest at villages along the rail track. These villages are suspected of harbouring rebels engaged in sabotage.

Wholesale Food Prices Climbing

NEW YORK — (AP) — Wholesale food prices continued their four-month-long climb upward this week, the Dun & Bradstreet index indicated.

The index climbed to 77.25 this week from 77.21 last week, and was 23.7 percent over the year ago index of 62.56.

At the new level, the index compares with 85.96 just before the Korean war began — and now is highest since July 20, 1948, when it was 87.30.

Ross Seen As GOP Hopeful

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Walter W. Ross, son of the late presidential press secretary, Charles G. Ross, may become a candidate for a congressional post on the Republican ticket.

GOP leaders said Ross had been pledged 20 of the 29 Republican votes for nomination from Missouri's 11th Congressional District. A successor to the late John B. Sullivan, a Democrat, will be chosen in an election March 9.

Ross, 34, said he would soon decide whether he could accept the nomination.

"The whole thing was a surprise," he said. "Apparently somebody suggested my name and since that time everybody has been calling me and the thing has just snowballed along."

He said he never had participated in politics but that he had always been a Republican.

Edward V. Stephens, Republican national committeeman, said Charles Ross had been a "free thinker" in politics. The elder Ross was one of President Truman's closest friends.

Price Policies Said A Threat

TULSA — (AP) — Unsound oil price policies imposed by government are a threat to the country's defenses, a spokesman for the Independent Petroleum Association of America has charged.

The December action by the Office of Price Stabilization's Petroleum Division in freezing prices of crude oil and refined products was termed by Minor Jameson, Jr., assistant to the I.P.A.A.'s president, as "irresponsible and discriminatory."

Jameson wrote in the Feb. 15 issue of the association's magazine, the Independent Monthly. He cited U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics showing wholesale crude oil prices up only .7 percent since the start of the Korean war, compared to a 13.7 percent jump in all other commodities.

The nation's security depends upon the discovery and production of enough oil and "it is a basic economic fact that an adequate price is essential to provide the funds and the incentive for oil exploration and development," his report said.

"Unsound price policies could disrupt the supply of oil and render this country defenseless," Jameson continued.

Thomas R. Marshall, vice president under Wilson in 1917, is credited with saying: "What this country needs is a good 6-cent cigar."

TROUBLE? YOU AIN'T A-LYIN'—Fagan, a pet lion who is "gentle as a kitten," is a beast of a problem for Pvt. Floyd O. Humeston of Fort Ord, Calif., but the Army doesn't want to get mixed up in it. Humeston used to wrestle Fagan in a circus act, and when he was drafted he boarded the lion at a Venice, Calif., zoo. The zoo evicted Fagan because he ate too much and made too much noise, so Humeston carted the beast off to camp with him in a cage mounted on a truck. Astounded Army officials gave the soldier a 14-day furlough—with orders to "lose Fagan."

Oilman Says Treasury Plans Undue Hardship On Industry

Treasury Department tax recommendations to Congress singled out the oil industry "to carry an undue portion" of the total tax burden, according to an oil industry spokesman.

Russell B. Brown, general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, said in a report to members of that organization that the oil industry is being asked to account for $1 billion in revenue "over and above the proposed increased rates applicable to all other corporations and individuals."

His report to IPAA members was released by G. B. Cree, local vice chairman and information committee member for the association.

Brown said the need for essential mobilization financing is obvious, but added that "the limit of burden that the American people and American industry can carry without diminishing return and incurable injury poses a most serious problem to Congress."

"The assaults on depletion provisions of our tax laws are coming from different sources," he said. "Some are well-intentioned persons who do not understand these provisions and actually believe them to be wrong because someone else has said they were."

"Some seek to impair or destroy the oil industry. They may not understand the merits of depletion provisions as applied to natural resource industries, but are determined to use every possible means of destroying the structural foundation of these industries."

He charged that those who would reduce or eliminate statutory depletion "employ emotional appeals based on untruths and misrepresentation."

"With those who desire the truth we must exercise great care and patience," he said. "Under every test the depletion provisions of the law have proven proper. Thorough reviews of the operation of the law have been maintained by the most competent of congressional committees."

"On the occasions of each successive review the report of the congressional committee favored the retention of the principle of percentage depletion as well as the rate previously fixed and tested by experience."

Brown declared that during the 25 years in which the present depletion rate has been in effect, the oil industry has explored, found and produced ever-increasing supplies of crude petroleum. "Products of petroleum have continuously improved in quality and the distribution and availability of such products have surpassed that in any other country in the world," he added.

He pointed out that Congress established the present rate of depletion because it had to find a method and an amount "that would insure proper tax payments and at the same time not discourage capital investments in such risk industries."

"Oil was of outstanding importance. An assured supply for continued operation of our economy and to protect our national security was essential. A supply sufficient to meet consumer requirements at reasonable prices must be a prime concern of Congress in the consideration of tax legislation."

"A shortage of oil that would impair our industrial or security programs would prove disastrous to our national success. A shortage causing excessive cost to the consumer is undesirable."

Boy Scouts Labeled Fascist In Hungary

BUDAPEST — (AP) — A reader complained in a letter published in a newspaper here that "enemies of the people's democracy" are wearing badges of "ill-famed foreign fascist organizations" to demonstrate against "our People's Republic." The letter singled out youths who have been wearing "reactionary" boy scout badges in Hungary.

Comics Reveal Child's Needs

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Instead of causing delinquency, comic strips are a definite aid to parents who want to understand the mental processes of their children.

That's the opinion of David Cole, Occidental College psychologist who has just completed a study of children's preferences in comic strips as related to their personalities. The professor's findings:

Children who have the greatest liking for adventure comics are likely to be the ones most "tied down" at home.

Youngsters maladjusted in their home relations were found to prefer escapist funnies — interplanetary war, rocket men and other fantasies.

"In many cases," says Cole, "the comics simply provide a harmless medium wherein the child finds a mode of expressing what his home environment has denied him. The delinquency, if any, is not the comic's fault."

Hollywood Making Strong Bid For New York TV Supremacy

BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD — (P) — The "comics" today appear to be hastening Hollywood for big time contention in the television industry. There is no organized rebellion growing distaste on the several top comedians for doing television work in New York. All of the comedians have homes here and most of them are engaged in studio work. They dislike being uprooted for the strenuous life of eastern TV. Furthermore, several of the comedians are against "live" video, preferring to offer their efforts on the Bob Hope is one of those who do not take advantage of the film medium. # Hank Studies Ice Skating For Coming Journey To Holland

By HENRY McLEMORE

If my bump of wisdom was as large as the bump on the back of my head, phenologists would pay me to allow them to run their fingers over my head like a kid learning the scales on the piano.

Not only that, Barney Baruch would set up a park bench in my living room just in the hope of hearing the sage remarks that might come from my cupid bow lips.

How come this monstrous bump on the back of my head? I'll tell you. If I don't tell you there'll be no column.

I got it trying to learn to ice skate.

You see, we're going over to Holland in a few days and KLM, with whom we are flying, said that we would have more fun if we knew how to ice skate.

Jean, having more sense and being a less daring and sporty type than I am, refused to take skating lessons. She apparently values her life above fun.

But not daredevil Henry, who has now finished his third ice skating lesson. I have one consolation, namely, there are more dents in the ice than there are in me. I am giving it back a little better than it gives to me. I may look foolish when I leave the rink, but the rink looks more foolish.

I cannot possibly give any pointers to youngsters taking up ice skating, but I am a limping authority for those 44 years old or better.

First thing to do is borrow a pair of ankles from a 19-year-old boy. Yours won't do. At 44 you might just as well have egg whites for ankles.

While you're borrowing the boy's ankles you might just as well borrow his balance. A man doesn't have any idea of how that mystic juice in his ears has dried up until he puts on ice skates. At real good middle age it is dry as pepper.

Choose soft ice for your lessons. It breaks when various parts of your anatomy hit it, whereas hard ice snarls at you, puts up its dukes, and fights back.

Take your first lesson in your refrigerator. The ice cube trays know you, will be lenient with your efforts, and if you shut the door of the refrigerator when you go in, you can't possibly fall more than a few inches.

Even if it nearly kills me, I am going to learn to skate before I leave. When we were in Holland last summer, admiring the flowers, gasping at the windmills, ohing and ahing over the quaint costumes of the children, we were told by Dutch friends about winter in Holland.

In winter all the canals are frozen over and the Hollanders skate all over the country visiting friends and relatives. Hundreds of them take off for a tour of almost the entire country.

That I am to do. From Amsterdam I intend to link my arm in the arm of a Dutch friend and swing, head down to the wind, to The Hague, to Delft, to Rotterdam (still my favorite city in Holland).

I may be sliding when I pass these cities, feet in air, lungs yelling for help, but I must do

Empty Cigarette Pack Is Singapore Swindle

SINGAPORE — (AP) — With the cost of cigarettes soaring, racketeers here have developed the dummy packet swindle.

SHREWSBURY, Eng. — (AP) — Clifford George Moyle, 20, was not getting enough to eat at his lodgings, so he stole 12 dozen jam tarts from his employers. He ate nine dozen of them.

Then, he told the magistrates that on "how long you pip out" stole a tin of health salts. Moyle was put on probation for two years, ordered to pay $2.10 costs, and the probation officer was told to find him new lodgings.

Lifting Of Controls On Sugar Said Not A Cause For Worry

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Office of Price Stabilization's removal of controls on sugar prices should not cause the budget-conscious housewife any worry.

There is nothing in the sugar situation to justify a noticeable price advance. On this, both the ## sugar industry and Agriculture Department officials have agreed in interviews.

There is no shortage of sugar. In fact, there is so much of it in areas which normally supply the United States that the government must restrict imports lest they depress prices and ruin domestic producers.

If prices start going up too much, all the government has to do is to increase imports. Prices then turn downward again.

Sugar is one of a few food commodities which have gone up very little in price since start ## of the Korean war. Wholesale prices are only about a third of a cent a pound higher now than a year ago. Yet, production costs have gone up much more than that since then.

Sugar also is one of a few items which still is selling for less than the OPA ceilings of the last war.

Letter To Paper Brings Down Wrath Of Soldiers, Families

WASHINGTON (AP)—To hear this fellow C. W. tell it, the boys in uniform never had it so good. Listen to him: Good salaries... small income tax... no worries about medical, dental or hospital bills... gasoline for their personal cars... generous pensions...

"Except for the draftees, practically every man in uniform gets more money than he could in civilian life." That's what the man said, in a letter to the Washington Evening Star. True he wasn't talking about the combat troops... mostly about the military desk-sitters. But that didn't help him when the cries of indignation began to rise.

"A 'The example of subversive propaganda engendered by ignorance and prejudice,' thundered an Air Force major from across the Potomac River in Virginia... where there's a building called the Pentagon... with lots of desks. The writer of that piece of nonsense is either terribly misinformed, drunk or in the pay of some faction trying to cause dissension, smothered another officer."

And from "disgraced wife and mother" came this picture of her husband — 31, a World War Two veteran, now called back into service: "He does not even have enough clothes to wear. He is in a God-forsaken camp here in Virginia, and doesn't know why or what he is in service for."

The Star published portions of 33 such letters yesterday and reported they're still coming. It didn't identify C. W., the author of the letter that started the fuss, but commented that he "seems to have hit the jackpot."

He seems to have hit a lot of sore spots, too. Wrote a Navy wife: "It is hard for me to understand why C. W. is not taking advantage of the many alleged benefits, including being overpaid, by immediately joining one of the armed services so that he, too, can 'live a life of luxury and ease.'" Master Sergeant Patrick D. Smith of the Marines demanded: "where did C. W. get his dope from? 'The Daily Worker'?" An unnamed officer's wife, who seemed to find her lot less glamorous than C. W. pictured it, had only this to say: "I'd like a puff of that stuff C. W.'s smoking. About now, I need it."

Skellytown MRS. ART IMEL

The Order of the Eastern Star met Tuesday night with Worthy Matron Clarence Winkle. Mrs. Juanita Suttle of Pampa, district deputy, was guest of the meeting. Miss Nancy Miller of Amarillo was a guest in the Alvin Smith home Saturday night. Rev. Charity Harris has been called to Cotter, Ark., to try out for pastorate there. His wife and daughters are visiting her parents while he is gone. Mrs. Roy Burgin and children of Borger visited Mrs. Art Imel last week.

Harper Scoggins Is 20-30 Club Speaker

Members of the Pampa 20-30 Club heard Harper Scoggins of Borger at their meeting Tuesday night, on "Prophecies of the Pyramids." Scoggins has done research on the subject. Guests attending the meeting were Cap Jolly, C. F. Kitto and Joe Lee.

Correction
The meeting of Ward 3 for last Tuesday night was called by Mitchell Hill and not by Rev. E. C. Armstrong as announced in Sunday's News. The meeting was to be held in the Harrah Methodist Church, of which Rev. Armstrong is pastor. Weather postponed the session, however.

Baker Pupils Move To New Quarters

First and second grade students of Baker Elementary School are in the process of moving into their new classrooms of the recent additions to the school building.

Six new classrooms have been added to the old building. Each room has dimensions of about 28 feet by 38 feet. Special features of the rooms are color schemes to make for improved lighting; all facilities built on a low scale for the convenience of the children; cabinet and locker space for both students and teacher; and movable desks that accommodate two students each.

The lockers are opened by the teachers only. She can open 16 at a time. Each locker will accommodate four students and will contain their coats and extra parcels brought to the school. The cabinet doors will be closed at all times except when in use because they are magnetized and with the slightest pressure will close themselves. Supplies and equipment of the students are kept in these.

Desks, which are made of the same light wood as the facings and cabinets, are "air plane" style. They feature a small storage space in the center and room for two students to work. A drinking fountain and sink is placed in each room. Only one drinking fountain is placed in the hall.

Borger Is Site Of VFW Meet

AUSTIN — District No. 9, currently leading the entire Department of Texas, Veterans of Foreign Wars, in the state-wide 1951 membership campaign, will hold its winter meeting in Borger Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 17 and 18, with Adobe Walls Post 1789 as host.

J. Warren Hoyt, El Paso, senior vice commander who is scheduled to command the state VFW organization during the fiscal year beginning next July, will represent the Department of Texas at the Borger meeting.

H. E. 'Boots' Todd, Amarillo, commander of the 9th district which includes the top 15 counties of the Panhandle, expects to be able to report to Hoyt during the Borger meeting that District No. 9 has reported 100 percent of its 1950 membership for 1951.

Through February 12th the district had reported 92.3 percent of last year's membership and needed only 213 members to hit the coveted 100 percent mark. Another Panhandle district, No. 13, which includes the 17 counties on an east-west line between Lubbock and Potter counties, is pushing Commander Todd's district for the honor of being the first of 25 VFW districts in Texas to equal or surpass last year's membership for 1951. District 13 needs 338 members to attain 100 percent of its 1950 membership. Posts in the 9th district, all of which are expected to send

Fair Enough-Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER NEW YORK — Senator Joe McCarthy's charges that Drew Pearson served as a stooge for David Katz, formerly of the Communist Daily Worker, have been supported by excerpts from Pearson's daily "column."

I have published in these essays proof that Pearson insisted upon his readers abuse against the War Department... cause it refused to grant commissions to Communists who were not identified by Pearson as Communists. He represented them as young liberals and victims of caste prejudice.

Pearson used his newspaper column to laugh off the notorious Amerasia Case as an inconsequential, indeed, innocent episode. The Amerasia Case involved a theft of secret documents and the delivery of those papers to a small periodical published in New York which was actually a Communist front.

Soon after the Amerasia Case broke on June 8, 1945, with six arrests in New York and Washington, Marsha Field, the ex-cent-millionaire publisher of the pro-Communist New York freak called PM, caused his New York attorney, Louis Weiss, to hurry to Washington to put in the fix for one Mark Gayn, a writer who was employed by Field's Chicago paper, called the Sun. Gayn was one of the men who had been arrested.

One bill would save the city from paying out almost $3,000 every year in taxpayers' money in the form of a state gasoline tax. The bill exempts municipally owned vehicles from paying the four cent per gallon tax. At present time the city pays the state four cents for every gallon of gasoline it burns in police cars, trucks, street department vehicles and other city rolling equipment. Yet these vehicles seldom, if ever, travel state supported highways outside the city limits. In other words Pampa taxpayers are having to pay for something which they do not use. In addition this tax represents Pampa paying a tax to the state to operate our own fire and police protection for which we pay local taxes to support.

Equally unfair is the state grab of gasoline tax collected from our taxi cab and bus companies which also operate virtually within the city limits. These vehicles, too are being taxed for something they do not use. State highways in the open country... The bill now pending before the Senate Legislature would refer the bill to the city and city council to consider. Rough estimates have put that tax collection annually at a total of $10,000, more or less.

This refund, plus the $3,000 the city would not have to pay, would be a healthy shot in the arm to our municipal government. It could be put to useful purposes to many to be listed here. But with it all, City Manager Dick Pepin and Mayor C. A. Huff, who visited Austin to get support for the bills, have little hope that they will become law. We feel the same way even though we are convinced beyond the shadow of any reasonable doubt that they are fair and just bills.

Why won't they pass? The answer is simple. If municipalities were to be given those refunds and exemptions that would cut out a lot of money collected from these three concerns. Rough estimates have put that tax collection annually at a total of $10,000, more or less.

The Commerce Department is gravely for the farm-to-market roads boys in East and deep South Texas. These boys in the majority are in the majority because of the population. These areas are more heavily populated than the Panhandle and West Texas, consequently they hold the influence and power -- Our only hope is a speedy redistricting of the state by the Legislature that will give this section of the state a more weighty voice in Austin.

Better Jobs

By R. C. HOILES Assembled... Replies Trying to Defend Tax Supported Schools (continued) VII

Here are more of Assemblyman Stanley's answers to our questions on how tax supported schools can be in agreement with the Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence. Question No. 32: "How can a tax supported teacher successfully teach a single standard of righteousness--one God--one law for all, when he is practicing that the majority has a right to do what they, as individuals, would not claim they had a moral right to do?"

Mr. Stanley's answer: "There is no conflict here." Evidently Mr. Stanley cannot even read the Golden Rule and the Ten Commandments and understand what he reads. Mr. Stanley would not contend that he as an individual had a moral right to force somebody else to pay for his individual ideas of education. Yet he contends there is no conflict of morals when the majority or the board of education or the state is not willing to pay for something that he thinks is the opposite of education.

Question No. 33: "How can they successfully teach any just and impersonal rule of collecting taxes, when they are denying in practice that government should charge each individual in proportion to the cost of the service the government renders to him?" Mr. Stanley's answer: "They should teach what our law provides and should teach respect for the law."

Mr. Stanley contends that man-made laws are God's laws and that anything that the state, or the board of education, or he as a member of the legislature, believes, is morally right is moral. We are contending that there is no higher law than that which he and his associates make in the State of California. He is exalting his wisdom so high that he needs no eternal principles to determine right from wrong. A just government would be supported as any private business is supported--by charging each person in proportion to the cost of the service he receives.

The government makes some attempts to do this in charging for the cost of building and maintaining the roads. It makes a semblance or a pretense of charging for the post office service and for water when it supplies water. But it makes no pretense of charging in proportion to the services rendered in tax supported law or law as man's right in property.

Question No. 34: "How can they successfully teach freedom when they are practicing that the majority has a right to take away from every man who believes in any other law than that which he and his associates make in the State of California?" Mr. Stanley's answer: "Freedom is a relative term. We don't accept your interpretation, i.e., absolute anarchy."

Of course, freedom is a relative term to every man who disregards the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule. It is a relative term to every man who believes in any degree of socialism. But freedom is simply self-control, no more, no less. It is not a relative term to men who believe there are eternal principles that govern man's relations to each other. The laws governing freedom are just as immutable as the laws that govern the movement of the celestial bodies and the earth's gravity.

Question No. 35: "How can they successfully teach that God's will and not man's will, or the majority's will, must prevail?" Mr. Stanley's answer: "The teachers alone cannot convert the whole population. Not even the clergy can do that. Until it is done, we'll have to have government, and so long as we have government we'll have to have law. It is our responsibility that we teach the principles of morality and justice when they do not recognize that there is a higher power or that there are laws that no man made and that no man can make." Mr. Stanley repudiates these moral laws. They can only teach the will of the majority.

Question No. 36: "How can they successfully teach that they might do no harm when they are practicing that it does?" Mr. Stanley's answer: "Our laws define the majority as being 'right.' What would happen if every one became the law?" If Mr. Stanley's statement is correct that our laws define the majority as being 'right,' then he would never have had the Bill of Rights or the Constitution as laws for human conduct. Our laws do not define the majority as making right. The founding fathers were afraid of the majority.

Treasury Department control, is now subject of hot debate in Washington. President Truman's declaration of national emergency to handle the knotty problems Coast Guard automatically goes to Navy in time of war, but no war has been declared. Coast Guard's new assignment to protect security in the Gulf waters where military goods are handled now gives it more warlike duty. This makes Navy more anxious than ever to get Coast Guard back where it was during World War II.

Government's General Accounting Office has begun to move into its new $25,000,000 building from one of the oldest, post-Civil War period, brick buildings in Washington. But Comptroller General Lindsay Warren is gravely concerned about the effect the new structure will have on his employees. It is a big square building. Most of the inside offices have no windows. The building is completely air-conditioned and has excellent direct lighting. What GAO officials fear is that many employees will get claustrophobia. To help prevent this, many of the inside offices are being separated by glass panels so that workers will be able to see what looks like a window.

Question of whether to put the "D" word under Navy, taking it out from under peacetime

Power In Reserve

INDUSTRIAL MANPOWER U.S. RESERVOIR OF UNEMPLOYED MANPOWER

National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON General Omar N. Bradley's lugubrious warnings of a rearming program lasting twenty years and costing untold billions of dollars to Americans are discounted heavily by many prominent economists, industrialists, diplomats and military colleagues who have attended the re-records briefings at the Pentagon within the last few weeks.

They think that the chairman of the Chief of Staff organization is indulging in a bit of psychological warfare, with the Congress and the people, and possibly Moscow, as his targets. They also believe that General Bradley, although fairly well-rounded and balanced for a military careerist, looks out from the United States from his Pentagon window with a rather narrow West Point viewpoint.

OPINION — Our immediate industrial potential, in the opinion of Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson, exceeds our military prospects. He believes the U.S. has more than enough to rearm ourselves and our allies with only a slight dent in the output for civilian use. Almost every key industry can and probably will expand by twenty percent, not within five years, but within two. His figures apply to every commodity essential to the making of war — steel, motor vehicles and railroad rolling stock, aluminum, electronics, oil, rubber, atomic energy for military and civilian use.

Paraphrasing the musical comedy ballad, there is not a thing built in camp that we cannot make bigger and better. CONFIDENCE — Thus, this anti-Bradley feeling is not one of defeatism, excessive caution or war weariness. On the contrary, it reflects a spirit of courage and confidence that is more prevalent on Capitol Hill than around official headquarters. The optimists are right in their reasoning, it means a big break for the taxpayers. In dollars and cents terms, it means that the proposed pre-1951 budget of $71,600,000,000, or $71.6 billion, will be cut, within five years, to around $55,000,000,000 or $55 billion, possibly less.

FORCE — Here is a summary of the reasoning of the anti-Bradley experts: Assuming that Congress enacts a draft or universal military training that becomes effective next April — the details of the statute are immaterial with respect to the military manpower to be provided — the United States will have all between three and four million men at the end of the year, with an Air Force and Navy proportionately strong. Within two months, or after two or four months, of training, approximately a million youngsters ranging from 20 to 28 years old will go into an organized reserve or National Guard, where they will undergo periodic refresher courses. Thus, by 1956, five years hence, we shall have an active military force of three to four million men and three million hardy reservists who understand army routine and battle. And each year there will be a million more joining their ranks. These will be in addition to many thousands who have returned to civilian life after the expiration of their enlistments.

IMPREGNABLE — Meanwhile, the fleet which the Truman administration virtually scrapped by putting it in the Constitution that there must be an equal number of Senators in every state, has become a laughing stock here because of its ineffectiveness in the present states. This law cannot be changed without the consent of every state. Yet Earl Stanley, who professes to be a legislator, contends that our laws define the majority as being "right." How could a man be more confused?

Question No. 37: "How can they successfully teach that the majority has a right to take away from every man who believes in any other law than that which he and his associates make in the State of California?" Mr. Stanley's answer: "The majority, on certain questions, can make a thing legally right, but it has nothing to do with whether or not it is morally or eternally right." (to be continued)

Roman Democracy

BY DAVID BAXTER PART 5 Continuing the documentation of the Roman Catholic church-state

The Republic of Panama passed a law in 1947 taxing all church property except the Roman Catholic while in Brazil the Roman church is the only recognized one and other churches are often persecuted in Quebec, Canada. In 1947 the premier, Duplessis, declared literature critical of Rome seditious and a crime against the GOVERNMENT, which is Catholic, in America, among other things, Catholic writer Michael P. Breen wrote in TIME Magazine in 1947: "The answer to this problem of mixed marriages will come when we secure enough public control to make marriage by the Catholic church the only one permitted by law." (What Breen says, like other things said by Roman Catholic hierarchy, does not intend to simply separate itself from the public like other cults and refuse to join service clubs, but rather seeks PUBLIC CONTROL.

The Idea is clear. If church and state are NOT separated, but rather the church practically becomes the state or rules it, then any criticism of the church becomes a crime against the government and is punishable as such. The United States Supreme Court, far from finding anything unconstitutional about the public school system itself, ruled that children may be transported to Catholic parochial schools at taxpayers' expense. This could open the door to eventual public financing of private schools right along with public ones. In any event, the Catholic leadership, instead of insisting upon absolute privacy for their schools and denouncing the unfair system that forces Catholics to pay taxes for public school services they do not want or use, have tried to get in on public financing. In those countries where the church controls the government, church schools are the ONLY schools recognized by the state and are supported by the state; that is, all the taxpayers, of whatever religion. The Roman schools naturally teach their pupils 100% obedience and conformity to the state—that is, in reality, the church, which rules through the state. Bishop Nell of Ft. Wayne, Ind. wrote a book some time ago demanding "religion" in schools. He said the lack of "religion" was what was wrong with practically all schools today. He didn't say WHAT religion he knew his church's dogmas well, but he said it was against the law to enter a public school for religious purposes. It seems to me that this sort of thing does more to create chaos and cause a defense mechanism on the part of non-Catholic citizens than any Catholicly "official" school. The Catholic church by those who disagree with it. Again let me remind my Roman friends that the friction between leaders' policies cause, quite as much as the faults of Protestants and service clubs, plays right into Communist hands and can help them reach to conquer all of us.

I wonder how many truly tolerant Catholics have read (and I hope objected to) the book, "Freedom of Worship," by Father Connell, bearing Cardinal Spellman's imprimatur. This book says, "No one has a right to exempt any religion or be a member of any church save the Catholic church, or to practice any form of divine worship save that commanded or sanctioned by the Catholic church." It also says, "The Catholic, convinced as he is that the Catholic religion is the only true religion, is INTOLERANT toward other creeds. No reasonable person can object to such an attitude for if the Catholic religion is true, all others must be false."

More than a million prisoners taken to Russia have not returned. They constitute a million reasons why the people of Western Germany, if treated fairly, will fight for us.

The Nation's Press

"THE ROAD AHEAD" (West Point (Miss.) Times Leader) John T. Flynn, the author of the best-seller, "The Road Ahead: America's Creeping Revolution," which was a staggering revelation of the strides socialism has been making in this country, recently addressed the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons.

He spoke of the menace of socialized medicine. And then he said this: "The point I want to stress is that this is not just a fight for socialized medicine... The field of medicine is just one battlefield in a general war... The war is upon our whole economic and social system... There is another battlefield in agriculture, under the incredible terms of the administration-backed 'Brannan Plan'...

There is still another battlefield in the field of industry where through the administration-backed Spence bill they propose to make the first dangerous step in government-owned and government-planned industrial plants... "The Federal government is now planning to get its hooks into the schools by gradually invading them by means of tax grants... Unfortunately, each of these battlefields is more or less neglected save by the group which happens to be in the driver's seat... I want to impress on you that each of these battles is every man's battle... The coming of socialized medicine will be speeded by the coming of socialized power... The doctor, the educator, the free workman, the banker, the farmer, the manufacturer, the free citizen must each of them realize that no more battles can be lost and that wherever the attack is pressed all must try to the defense."

That is one of the best and clearest statements on American socialism that anyone has yet made. There are no isolated skirmishes in this ideological war. Each is part of the whole—and the whole is found in the clear intent to socialize and regiment all the sources and energies of production. The emphasis may periodically shift from one place to another, but the purpose is never forgotten. And all who believe in freedom and justice must join in the defense if socialist strategy is to be exposed and defeated.

addressed a rally of Catholic "Youth Education Fund" workers in Willard Junior High School on raising funds for the building of Roman Catholic parochial schools in Orange County. No one told Archbishop McIntyre that it was against the law to enter a public school for religious purposes. It seems to me that this sort of thing does more to create chaos and cause a defense mechanism on the part of non-Catholic citizens than any Catholicly "official" school. The Catholic church by those who disagree with it. Again let me remind my Roman friends that the friction between leaders' policies cause, quite as much as the faults of Protestants and service clubs, plays right into Communist hands and can help them reach to conquer all of us.

It also says, "The Catholic, convinced as he is that the Catholic religion is the only true religion, is INTOLERANT toward other creeds. No reasonable person can object to such an attitude for if the Catholic religion is true, all others must be false."

Washington... by Peter Edson

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

General Dwight D. Eisenhower had a special-of-the-record meeting with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee after he reported to the full Congress in an open session. Chairman Tom Connally of Texas invited a few senators who were not in the committee, because of their particular interest in the European arms aid. Among those invited was Senator Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska, Republican floor leader and author of a resolution which would be sending troops to Europe till Congress had set policy.

S Senator Connally cautioned all the guests that this was a super-secret session. Nobody should take notes. During the question period, Senator Wherry asked some rather pointed questions -- and got some sharp answers in reply. But at the end of the session Senator Connally said: "You will note, Mr. Chairman, that I have nothing in my pockets. I am not leaving with any notes. And you won't leave with any information either. Even like laughed TOUGH TIMES"

It was all a mistake, but Rep. Joseph Sabath, Democrat, congressman from Chicago for 22 years, recently got an invitation to contribute to a Cook County Republican souvenir program for Lincoln's birthday dinner. The offer came in the form of a letter from Carlos W. Campbell, chairman of the Illinois Republican Central Committee. It even offered Rep. Sabath a 50 percent reduction if he would take out an ad in the program. But he turned it down, with the comment, "Can it be that the Republican Party in Illinois has reached such a low level financially that it is necessary to call upon me, a lifelong Democrat and socialist in raising funds for a little dinner they are putting on?"

DUCKY CONTEST Senator Homer Capehart, of Indiana has issued a challenge to Senator Virgil Chapman and Clement Price to a wild duck roasting and tasting contest. Vice President Alben Barkley, who comes from Kentucky, has been invited to sit on the side, as a judge. The Hooters-Colonial feud started when somebody sent the Louisville Courier Journal a recipe for picking the duck clean so as not to break the skin, stuffing with onion, apple and sage dressing, covering the breast with bacon strips and baking for an hour.

Senator Capehart replied that in Indiana they shoot the ducks clean, and don't have to pick them. Apple, onion, sage and bacon, he said, would ruin the Kentucky recipe for disgusting ducks not wanted in Indiana. "When we roast a duck in Indiana," says the senator, "we just smother it a duck."

WHO BUT HARRY One of the more lively and raucous political sheets distributed around Washington is "The Southern Conservative." It is a monthly magazine, published, edited and largely written by Ida M. Darden of Fort Worth, Tex. Now starting its second year, "The Southern Conservative" was out of circulation for a couple of months because it was written as a result of an accident caused by our own stupidity. Now back in circulation, the paper leads off with a headline: "Whom Should Stand Wholeheartedly Behind Truman in the Present Emergency — and Throw Him Out."

That's the tone of the whole paper. Most satirical feature is in the editor's column, "My Night, My Day."

which she copyrights and is publishing in book form. GONE FOREVER Just before Dr. Alan Valentine resigned as Economic Stabilization Agency administrator, a new sign appeared in his office, but not too hard to detect. It began: "In Europe, in a Bureau, fixing wages at a teacher, with a slide-rule, name of Alan Valentine. Ciorus."

On dear Doctor, or dear Doctor. On dear Doctor Valentine, John L. Lewis is not buying; Don't be comic, Valentine." SENATORS' HOURS The elderly couple were obviously tourists, visiting their nation's capital for the first time. And they were obviously from the country, because they were out sightseeing at 5 o'clock in the morning, on Capitol Hill. They stopped a guard hurrying to work and asked where the Senate was. They wanted to go in and see the Senate.

"Oh, they won't be in session till noon," the guard explained. "Humph!" exclaimed the woman. "Monday morning! I suppose it is hard for them to get up."

Government's General Accounting Office has begun to move into its new $25,000,000 building from one of the oldest, post-Civil War period, brick buildings in Washington. But Comptroller General Lindsay Warren is gravely concerned about the effect the new structure will have on his employees. It is a big square building. Most of the inside offices have no windows. The building is completely air-conditioned and has excellent direct lighting. What GAO officials fear is that many employees will get claustrophobia. To help prevent this, many of the inside offices are being separated by glass panels so that workers will be able to see what looks like a window.

COAST GUARD? Question of whether to put the "D" word under Navy, taking it out from under peacetime

The Low Down from Hickory Grove

You know folks one thing this Nation could do, is sit down with its chin in its hand, unclax, and think, and make that we cannot make bigger and better.

No don't just look out the window or say Uncle Josephus is not talking to me. And think we been so busy with speed and fun that we had to farm-out our thinking. We need a complete mental over-haul value grain and oil change. Every mama and papa could take a week off, take a squint into tomorrow, figure out at which end of the horn they are coming out if they keep on accepting the ideas of our hired horn-rimmed theory.

So you want to be a career girl?
Well, then, do you know how to be an ideal career girl, and what the qualifications are that appeal to prospective employers?
Recently, Burdett College in Boston conducted a personality search among 800 high schools for the "Career Girl of 1950" and prepared a "check sheet" which high school principals used as a guide in selecting candidates. Use the list to see how you measure up. Give yourself 10 points for each quality you possess:

1. Personal Appearance. You don't need to be pretty to pass this test, but you must be well groomed and neat with clean skin, hair, nails and teeth.
2. Poise. You'll need self-control to meet people easily with dignity in poise and bearing.
3. Voice Quality. It should be well modulated and pleasant with clear enunciation.
4. Initiative. Ability to do things without being told.
5. Dependability. Punctual, reliable, honest. The ability to follow instructions, accept responsibility and to be careful about routine tasks contributes to your reliability.
6. Loyalty. One who is helpful about people, who shows a genuine interest in everything undertaken.
7. Courtesy. Politeness. Refinement. Consideration for the rights of others.

10. Health. Physical fitness, energy and vigor. Ability to work.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

A regular meeting of the Eastern Star and Initiatory work will be held at Masonic Hall at 8 p.m. Friday.

Through an average day without experiencing fatigue. Dance bands are making a big comeback in teen-age circles. Young moderns who have been listening to the Comos, Sinatra's and Haymes boys now are kicking their heels to the latest dance tempo at dance record parties. Dixieland jazz is hot news today, and the Charleston, Black Bottom and Varsity Drag of the twenties are neck-and-neck in popularity with dance fans.

One big series indicating the trend are record albums in a new series called "Here Come the Dance Bands Again" issued by RCA Victor. It includes 17 band leaders and all time hits by fifteen composers. There is an album of Tommy Dorsey playing Cole Porter. Vaughn Monroe plays Victor Herbert. You'll find Tex Beneke playing Hoagy Carmichael and Sammy Kaye playing Irving Berlin. Ralph Faagan plays Rodgers and Hammerstein, Wayne King plays Johann Strauss, Erskine Hawkins gives out with W. C. Handy's St. Louis Blues, Beale Street Blues and Memphis Blues among others. Spade Cooley gives out with Billy Hill's "The Last Round-up," "Wagon Wheels," "Empty Saddles." Spike Jones, as only Spike can, plays "Black Bottom," Varsity Drag, and others.

There is a record for every taste and fancy and a wide variety for party lovers. There is lots of emphasis on waltz and rumba. You can put on a fun party by giving prizes for the best Charleston or Varsity Drag dancer in your set. (If you've forgotten ask Mom or Pop to give you a few pointers.) Play a guessing game of some of these old tunes by having the hostess play snatches from the records. Of course a perfect prize would be the record.

At one recent party an extra fillip was added to the buffet table by labeling the food menu after some of the dance favorites. One menu consisted of Tex Beneke biscuits, Larry Green Salad and Spike Jones chicken. Substitute your favorite band leaders and songs at your own party. Your group perhaps has its favorite orchestras and songs. Surprise them with a dance band party.

BEAUTY AFTER FORTY

BILLIE BURKE

Today Modern Grandmothers are up and doing. They don't sit in the corner any longer and just rust out of life! They are busy going here and there and looking very lovely because they take advantage of all modern aids to health and good looks. Even a "dear" grandmother realizes that she lives in modern times and adjusts herself to the tempo of modern living. Grandmothers sometimes do not approve of the ways of their children and neither perhaps, did their grandmothers approve of them, but be wise and keep it to yourself. Use your influence and your experience with living to aid only when asked to the family councils. Concentrate on yourself. Age is no longer an unhappy time. You can look upon the hectic scene with a knowing eye and chuckle to yourself at all the "tragedies," which so often turn out to be comedies! Naturally, you do not want to look just as you did when you were "the prettiest girl in town." But you can keep your hair, face and throat looking their best for your age. Rich creams, rich cosmetic oils, warmed and smoothed on dry, aging, wrinkled skin, will soothe and relax. A little massage of the scalp will make the hair softer and more attractive. And don't hesitate to wear bright, pretty colors. Wear a little rouge and a touch of lipstick always, I don't care how old a grandmother you are. If your skin has "suddenly" taken on a yellowish or sallow cast, use a rose colored face powder. And, of course, you know that you can always don your "rose colored glasses!" Insist upon pretty hats. Don't just pick up any hat that you see. Wear pretty veils to flatter you. Have a nice perfume with which to spray yourself. For, "Grandma, you smell nice," is a cherished tribute even to the most modern grandmother.

Try Kraut Dish From Pennsylvania

SAUERKRAUT SUPREME is what is getting the concentrated attention of Mrs. Walter Malone, of Soleburg, Pa., and her daughters.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
In Bucks County, Pa., sauerkraut is an important food that is genuinely appreciated in this area of good living. Typical of their favorite kraut dishes are the recipes below, taken from the recently published "Bucks Cooks," an outstanding 328-page cookbook. The book is available for $2.00. Through the efforts of the writers, artists and other residents of Bucks County, this cookbook was compiled to raise money to enlarge the chapel of Trinity Church in Soleburg. The 386 signed recipes reflect the best in Bucks County traditions and were all tested by the women of the church. Roast Goose With Sauerkraut. Put carrot and celery into the bird. Fry onion in fat, add sauerkraut and grated potato. Then add caraway seeds, salt, pepper and water. Turn bird every half hour. After 1 1/2 hours, take out of oven. Take out carrot and celery and stuff it with sauerkraut and potato stuffing. Let it roast for another hour dry, without any juice. Sauerkraut Supreme (Makes 6 servings). One No. 2 1/2 can sauerkraut, 1 cup grated raw potato, 1 1/2 cups sour cream, 1 teaspoon caraway seed, 4 cans Vienna sausages. Heat sauerkraut, add grated potato. Cook, stirring frequently.

She is always looking for something more to spend money on and as it is seems that we have more installment payments than income. She is very easy prey for salesmen who seem to convince her that a small monthly payment will be no burden. The truth is one or two small payments wouldn't be a burden but a dozen of them add up to a pretty big load. She doesn't seem to have the least idea of economy and I wonder if there is anything I can do to teach her. E.J.R.

Dear Mr. R. About all that I can suggest is that you put her on a strict allowance and see that she stays on it. If she contracts for something for which she can't make payments, just see that it is returned to the store. Have you ever sat down with her and listed your regular expenses and shown her how they look as against your income? Sometimes just seeing the figures will bring a spendthrift wife to her senses. It might help if she knows that you have no intention of paying for anything more on time and that it will have to come out of her allowance if she buys. It may seem cruel to send things back to the stores but it is far better that she learn now how far a dollar will go before she has you hopelessly involved in debt.

Casey Stengel was president and manager of the Worcester, Mass., team in the Eastern League in 1925. The team finished last. American League last season were Bob Lemon (288 innings) and Art Houtteman (276 innings). Houtteman, Detroit ace, now is in the Army.

Air Force Again Accepts Medics For Reserve, Duty

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force is again accepting applications for reserve and active duty commissions from doctors and dentists in the top draft classification. They are medical men trained at government expense but who have had less than 90 days active service. The Air Force discontinued voluntary commissioning of men in priority one class last November. Applications are again being accepted, because of a large increase in Air Force manpower resulting from enlistments.

SPECK SPECULATES

By SPECK REYNOLDS

After two days of snooping, reading and asking questions, I've discovered another AAU rule the Chiefs have broken. The red-clad Pampa cagers didn't realize at the time they broke this rule. It so happens that Dowells Cafe AAU roundballers have an ineligible player on their roster. If the Independent Chiefs had known this, the game played here several weeks ago would have been cancelled because the Chiefs don't want to endanger their amateur standing.

If the Amarillo AAU Committee will thumb to page 71 in the Amateur Athletic Union Official Handbook they'll find that two Amarillo teams have ineligible players. All they have to do is give me a ring not collect and I'll list the ineligible players.

I won't publish the names of these ineligible players but I'll gladly furnish the committee with the information. One of the hoopsters plays with Dowells Cafe and the other with the Flowboys. These lads are ineligible if the AAU rule book is correct.

Under general rules Acts of Suspension or Disqualification and Conditions of Reinstatement—Page 71 rule 8.

Any person receiving compensation for acting as an amateur sport tender is ineligible for further amateur competition.

This little rule here should just about knock out every team planning to enter the AAU Basketball Tournament in Amarillo March 5-10. I'm for enforcing the AAU rules, but let's not single out one team — Chiefs and make it ineligible.

If the committee wants to stick to the rules, that suits me fine. But the committee should bear in mind that there's three AAU quintets in Amarillo. I'm in favor of investigating every last one of them. I'm giving five to one odds that the tournament will fold like an accordion if the committee demands every team to meet the rule book requirements.

Miami Squeaks Out 42-41 Win Over Culberson

The Culberson Chevrolet quintet of Pampa fell one point short in its fourth quarter rally against Miami Independents. Trading 12 points going into the final frame, the Culbersons scoring drive ended one point away as Miami took a 42-41 cage decision.

Leon Crump of Pampa scored in 18 points for high honors. Watson of Miami hit 11 points. King looped in five field goals for the Pampa five and Green House canned 10 points for Miami.

District 2-A Cage Tourney Opens At McLean Today

The basketball spotlight shines on McLean for three days as the Gray County city hosts District 2-A Basketball Tournament. The girls games and boys contests are scheduled today. The first game starts at five o'clock this afternoon when the McLean Lassies meet Memphis.

Coach Donald Leach of McLean sends his Tigers up against the tournament's favorite, Memphis at 6:30. Shamrock's girl hoopsters trade shots with Leach's at 8 o'clock, and Coach Call's Irish crew clashes with "London" at 9:00. Coach McCall's roundballers are the defending champs in District 2-A. Shamrock faces a tough test in beginning the crown in the double elimination tournament.

McLean's girls are the strong favorite to annex the lassie title in their sudden death tournament. One loss will seal a fate. Shamrock and Leach receive the boys' honors, and Williamson and Williamson are the girls' favorites to capture the trophy.

Baseball Players Parade To Florida

MIAMI Fla. — Baseball players from high-salaried teams to unknown youngsters who would like to break into the big time — have started their annual parade to Florida spring training grounds.

They've been drifting in, one by one since January. By the first of March an estimated 2,000 players will be working off winter rust under the warm sun.

The major league teams and squads representing nearly all the high-ranking minor leagues will pitch training camps in the state.

Walter Fosch, Texas Christian baseball coach, is going to hold indoor drill until the weather permits moving outside. Most schools will probably have indoor practice until the weather does break.

Golfer With Hottest Putter Is Favored At Valley Open

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
HARLINGEN — (AP) — The $10,000 Rio Grande Valley Open began today with more favorites than you could shake a stick at. The Harlingen Municipal Course with its par 71 is quite short — only 6,000 yards — and the man with the hottest putter probably will be the fellow taking home the $2,000 first money. But the field of 187 — 119 professionals and 68 amateurs — bulges with fellows who are death on the greens.

Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, leading money winner of the year and the only golfer taking two tournaments on the winter tour — is mentioned most prominently as the man to beat. But young Jack Burke, Jr., of Houston, the defending champion, E. J. Harrison of St. Andrews, Ill. and Doug Ford of Blaircliff, N. Y., who tied for first in the Texas Open and 10 or 20 others are named by the touring pros as likely to succeed.

Harrison, winner over Ford in the play off for the Texas Open was considered a very strong bet. The old Arkansas Traveler's putting is quite deadly these days.

Prominent among the missing is Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn. who won the title in 1949, but Middlecoff isn't one of the 10 pros who went to Mexico City to play in the Mexican National Open, eight of them in defiance of the PGA Tournament Committee's order. Middlecoff returned to Memphis after the Texas Open because of the serious illness of his father.

Most of the money leaders are playing here. Eighteen holes are scheduled daily with the field being reduced to the low 80 scorers and ties tomorrow night. Sammorwood took the opening game, 33-31. The two quintets clash tonight at Sammorwood in the second game of the best two out of three games for District 3-B championship. A third game will be played on a neutral court if the Bucks win tonight. Game time is 8 o'clock. (News Photo and Engraving)

LET REDDY'S ELECTRIC RANGE BE THE HEART OF YOUR KITCHEN

... and Valentine's Day will be every day, all day. Reddy and his electric range takes the cook (that's you) out of cooking... keeps you fresh looking no matter how many meals you prepare. You see, there's no unwanted heat escaping from an electric range. All heat created by the high speed electric elements is transmitted directly to the pots and pans by three scientific means of heat transfer. The food alone cooks when you cook electrically... you stay cool and fresh... always at your best. If you're not now cooking electrically, start now, like so many Panhandle-Plains, Pecos Valley women already have done.

Czechs Speeding Up Industrial Training PRAGUE - (AP) - Czechoslovakia is speeding up apprentice training to help overcome a manpower shortage. Apprentices have been serving as much as three years before becoming full-fledged workers. This term is to be cut to two years in some big industries, to one year in other fields and even to six months in still others. Women also are being encouraged to go to work.

Settlement In Ozarks Begun

DONIPHAN, Mo. - (AP) - Three years ago Gustav D'Hase, a native of Belgium, dreamed of pioneering an agricultural settlement in America for 72 relatives.

Today his dream is becoming a reality.

Deep in the Ozark hills of southeast Missouri, the vanguard of his Belgian relatives has arrived to help him prepare a tiny settlement for the others.

D'Hase bought 1,828 acres of rugged land on which to develop the settlement near Doniphan, Mo., in honor of his birthplace in Belgium. He hopes his remaining relatives can begin making the trip to America next year.

His aim is to incorporate the settlement and name it Leda, Mo., in honor of his birthplace in Belgium. He hopes his remaining relatives can begin making the trip to America next year.

What does his brother's family think of this country?

D'Hase said a two-day tour of New York after their arrival from Belgium was as much a revelation to the parents as to the children.

He said they had seen pictures of America but thought them just "story book."

"The women in the party could not believe the foodstuffs in the many stores were actually for sale," he said. "And they were afraid to touch the brightly labeled cans for fear of being arrested."

She knew almost before he spoke what he wanted to say and it was like stirring the depths of imagination within herself to match his mood exactly, to feel his thoughts as a blind person would sense beauty—and she had known him exactly five hours!

Lisa put her head down on her folded arms and cried as she had not cried since she was a child. She felt as she had years ago in her first long party dress when she came down the stairs and her father looked over his newspaper and exclaimed, while her knees went all tremory, "Lisa, you've grown up!"

She lifted her head and looked at herself again in the mirror and suddenly she understood that only tonight had she really grown up. They dug through the medicine cabinet in the bathroom until she found the sleeping pills left over from an old prescription of Martha's, took one, and went to bed.

WHEN Lisa opened her eyes to the first tinge of daylight the following morning she was amazed because she had slept all night and hadn't expected to sleep soundly at all. This morning there was a peculiar peace within her, though actually she had settled nothing beyond the necessity of honesty with herself.

The truth changed nothing, of course. Angus would go back to the city and she and Court would be married. She would forget Angus in time.

She hurried into her clothes to escape the darkness of the tie and went downstairs quietly.

She was on the landing when she heard the unmistakable sound of her father's voice coming from the den. She glanced sharply at the grandfather clock beside her, and when you're rewarded with his proposal—you promptly fall in love with the next man you meet!

The brush clattered to the floor with her abrupt motion of self-condemnation. Courtney Grenable, Angus Kent. Direct opposites. Perhaps that was it.

Courtney, the courtly, the romantic, the exciting, Angus, quiet, calm, self-possessed, completely wonderful, and exciting in his own way.

time to straighten her thoughts, she thought mostly of Angus. Angus and her father had revealed a comfortable acceptance of each other when they met. They were alike basically, she decided, and the decision startled her. In that flash of realization she knew now why it was that she had felt a strange, compelling acquaintance with this man when she first met him on the road that afternoon.

Though they looked nothing alike for her father was shorter and broader and balding and Angus was tall, almost angular and his hair was thick and wheat-colored, nevertheless they were alike. They were of the same mold of man. The knowledge shocked her considerably.

SHE was in her room preparing for bed. Angus had not stayed for dinner because the Ellsworths were expecting him. And Lisa, after a late dinner, had pleaded a headache and had gone upstairs to her room.

She undressed, showered, and went through the routine of face cream and astringent and then in the middle of long, vicious thrusts at her yellow hair she laid down the brush and stared at herself in the mirror.

"You're a fool," she said.

MESSAGE FROM RED CHINA—Mrs. Ernest Reid, Jr., of Irving, Tex., looks at a picture of her husband, a Marine first lieutenant missing in Korea. The picture and a statement signed by 30 Yank prisoners of war was received by the Dallas Daily Times Herald from Canton, China. The Yanks expressed appreciation for "humane, courteous and kind treatment extended by the Chinese authorities" and hope for an "early and peaceful settlement of the Korean situation."

Congress Grants Loan To Spain

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States has granted Franco Spain loans of $12,200,000 — the first grant made from a Congressional authorization of $62,000,000 for Spain.

Against the wishes of President Truman, Congress is giving the credits for Spain to the current year's appropriations for the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA), which handles Marshall Plan aid to Western Europe.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Don't suffer longer with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exercising or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Eighth Army Claims 80,121 Reds Killed

Castor Bean Plant Becomes Necessary

(By The Associated Press) "Ugh," groaned Junior as he swallowed a mouthful of castor oil. "That stuff would stall an airplane."

But it won't, Junior—in fact, Uncle Sam uses "that stuff" in the engines of his high altitude bombers, fighters and carriers.

The national emergency's effect on America's supplies—from rubber and tin cans to castor oil—has begun to create shortages. And the nation is looking to Texas for more help.

Federally-owned synthetic rubber plants in Texas have stepped up production. The government has asked Texas farmers to participate in a guayule plant growing program to produce natural rubber latex. Now Uncle Sam wants Texas to plant more castor beans — for lubricating oil.

Texas, admittedly, is not the world's largest producer of castor beans. In fact, the few the state has are grown solely for shade purposes.

The state, having large areas which rarely have freezing temperatures, has been asked to plant 28,000 acres in castor beans this year. The acreage probably will be centered in Brown and Comanche Counties, with other counties taking some acreage. The U. S. crop last year — concentrated in Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri and adjacent territories — was confined to about 10,000 acres.

The government now wants 30,000 to 300,000 acres more so it has asked Texas and Oklahoma to boost their plantings by some 80,000 acres.

The castor bean is a perennial in continually warm regions, but dies when struck by frost. It has large leaves which sometimes grow more than two feet in diameter. Many Texans use them as shade for poultry.

Also the castor bean stalk is pretty. It is red and green and in central U. S., sometimes gets as tall as 12 feet. In the tropics it attains a height of 30 to 40 feet.

Texas was asked during World War II to plant castor beans, but nothing ever came of the program. Like the guayule plant program, the castor plant's product never got into the war. One region in northeast Texas attempted to plant the castor bean and a county agent in the

THE LUCKIER ONES—In marked contrast to the ragged, dirty, hungry appearance of most South Korean refugees are these chubby youngsters, dressed as well and as warmly as any youngsters along Main Street, U. S. A. With their mother, they are waiting patiently at a South Korean port for evacuation by sea to a haven from Communist forces. (Defense Dept. photo from NEA.)

Anaesthesia Sickness Cut

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — A new drug has been reported by the University of Pennsylvania to reduce sharply the unpleasant after-effects of taking anaesthesia. The university identified the drug as dramamine. It was developed by the husband-and-wife team of Dr. Alan and Dr. Helen Rubin.

In its report the university said: "When dramamine was not administered in advance of anaesthesia, it was noted that a large percentage of patients under observation experienced either nausea or vomiting, or both, as an aftermath of their experiences. "But when dramamine was used prior to anaesthesia, the incidence of such disturbances was reduced to approximately 25 percent."

Children's Play Presented Monday

The American Association of University Women will sponsor the season's second Clara Tree Major Children's Theater production Monday in the junior high school auditorium. The play will be "Old King Cole," based on the ancient verses. Authentic costumes and scenes will be used. Children may obtain tickets from their teachers.

WOMEN!

Are These Signs Warning You Of CHANGE OF LIFE? Menopause, a depressed, irritable, giddy, run-down feeling may be warning you of "the change." If so, worrying won't help relieve such discomfort.
