Eyelashes 'Thicken,' Eyes Grow 'Larger' With Aid of Makeup

Janet Blair: Her eyes look wide apart. By ALICIA HART NEA Staff Writer. Don't bemoan the fact that your eyes are small or set close together. A clever makeup job can create the illusion that they are large and lustrous as you'd like them to be.

Just the subtlest of an uptilted line, drawn with an eyebrow pencil in the other corner of your eye, will do the trick of increasing the size of your eyes.

And, incidentally, if you are on the fair side, use a brown eyebrow pencil. Only girls with raven-black hair can achieve a natural look with a black pencil.

Mexican Labor For South Texas Not Anticipated

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(AP)—A proposal that 5,000 Mexican nationals be moved into South Texas to pick cotton and harvest other crops has been tossed into the lap of Texas' Governor Coke R. Stevenson for further assurance that there will be no discrimination against Mexicans in that area.

This was disclosed in a telegram sent to H. H. Williamson, director of Extension Service in Texas and released by federal authorities to the office of Rep. K. J. Berg (D-Texas), who has urged immediate help for South Texas farmers.

The prospect that any of the Mexican labor would get to Texas was described "not bright" in the telegram, signed by M. C. Wilson, Extension Service official here. The telegram was said to have been approved by War Food Administrator officials handling the problem.

"Your governor has been requested to furnish further assurance that there will be no discrimination against Mexican workers in Texas counties," the message said. "Mexican government has indicated it may not object to its nationals going to Texas provided they are moved from other places where now employed in the United States but may not permit nationals to go directly from Mexico to Texas."

Available rail transportation not sufficient to move 5,000 Mexicans for Texas in addition to 12,000 monthly movement of Mexicans to fill orders for Pacific Coast states.

Employing farmers would resist replacement of established Mexicans with new recruits from Mexico.

Likely to be serious disparity between the high prevailing wages of fruit and vegetable areas of Pacific Coast and the prevailing wages for cotton picking in Texas.

It was then stated that "the outlook not bright for obtaining 5,000 Mexican nationals for Texas on this basis. Suggest you discuss matter with governor. State department continuing negotiations."

More Pampa Men Are Discovered In South Pacific by Archer Fullingim

By ARCHER FULLINGIM
JULY 19.—Yesterday afternoon I was walking beside a road not far from where I am stationed when a vehicle with several people in it passed. I hadn't noticed it when it passed, but I saw it slow down and back up. The driver got out and walked toward me and then I saw and recognized Sgt. Mac Randolph who used to work at the LaNora and Crown theaters in Pampa.

Mac's wife and five-month-old son, Bobby, whom his father has never seen, now live at 1014 East Francis with Sgt. Randolph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Randolph. Mac met his wife after he enlisted three years ago. One impression I had of people who used to work at theaters was that they were always immaculately dressed. Mac was no exception. He never had a hair out of place or a wrinkle anywhere. Mac laughed when I mentioned that. "I wish they could see me now," he said. But he was exaggerating because he looked pretty trim. Mac has done well for himself since he enlisted, and he has a responsible job and gets it done—furthermore, he enjoys it. Of course, he wants to see that son of his, but he's friendly, optimistic and as good-natured as ever.

Mac mentioned two former pals, Billy and Jimmy Frick who used to work at the Crown with him and both of whom are now in the service. Jimmy Frick, Junior Zimmerman and Freeman Sullivan all have the same station, as did Congressman, Eugene Worley while he was in the service. Bill Frick is in another branch of the service.
Yesterday, I also looked up Pvt. Jess Hamilton; he's well and likes his job. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hamilton have moved from Pampa to Oregon where Mr. Hamilton will work in the ship yards. Jess said Jess' living quarters adjoin Pvt. Chester Hunkapilar's. Both Jess and Chester returned recently from a temporary sojourn. Chester had received recently a letter from Mrs. Roy Showers of Pampa, in which she told about her son, Sgt. Roy Showers, Jr. she also sent a picture of herself standing beside her son, and that picture was good to see. I remembered again that Roy and his mother are two of the jolliest people I ever knew. Whenever I had need of being reassured of the joy of living I used to look them up. They are the kind of people you like to think about when you are far from home. I knew the minute that Roy enlisted that he'd star for Uncle Sam just as he used to star for the Harvester football team, and brother he's doing it.

Jess told me that he recently saw Calvin Shaw, now of Borge, but formerly of Pampa, and Don Hughes, son of Mrs. Vertye Hughes, and brother of June Marie Amick.
Two other former Pampans appear on the scene recently. They are Lt. Dee C. Blythe, son of Mrs. Lillian Blythe of Pampa, and J. L. (Buddy) Simmons, Lt. Blythe and Simmons are attached to the same station. I talked with both of them last week. "Buddy" Simmons lost no time in hunting up his pal, Bill Foreman. Both were unaware that they were near each other. The day I visited "Buddy" I had chow at this station, and that chow was something to write home about—fried fish, new potatoes, tomato stew, coconut pie, fresh corn, coffee and ice cream.

"Buddy" is a hospital apprentice, first class, but expects to be advanced to pharmacist mate, third class, soon. Foreman was recently advanced to the latter date. "Buddy" and Bill went through boot camp together. I have known Dee Blythe for 10 years and I never saw him when he was not really enthusiastic about something. He has always been one of the most enthusiastic persons I ever knew. Now Dee is just as enthusiastic about the navy. You will remember that he was stationed in Washington for a couple of years, got tired of sitting at a desk in Washington and asked for sea duty which he got.

The coincidental angle of Dee's recent arrival, is that while I was on my leave last December I visited my brother Henry Will (Hoot) Fullingim, whose legal residence is Pampa, in Washington and also Dee. The last night I was there, Henry Will and I had a long talk together. We didn't think then that we would meet again so shortly. By the way, my brother Hoot who attends law school in Washington and works for a private industry on the side expects to be inducted as soon as they begin taking married men with children. He has two children, one seven and another five. My other brother, Alf, who was graduated from Panhandle High school, who has one child, a son, is now a lieutenant in the army.

One of Dee's enthusiasms now is the publication of a newspaper for his unit. He has complete charge of the paper, and he's doing an interesting job in helping maintain morale of the men through the paper. Dee gave me a surprise when I first saw him. He'd had his hair clipped to the scalp recently, and he looked, but not unusual because a number of people out here keep their heads shaved. Dee is right at home, of course, in putting out a newspaper, since he was city editor of the Clovis News-Journal, Clovis, N. M., before he went to Washington to study law at Georgetown University.

Speaking of New Mexico, every once in a while I run into men from the Sunshine state, and whenever I do I become aware that next to Texas I like New Mexico, not only for its scenery but because of the care of the people of that state. Whenever you hear me praise for the people of Spanish origin who are now in the armed forces it is my observation that they are the most patriotic racial group in America. You will remember that most of the defenders of Bataan and Corregidor were men of Spanish origin from New Mexico. The other day I ran into Pvt. Demecio P. Gutierrez of Route 2, Box 481, Albuquerque, N. M., and it was a pleasure, because he knows exactly what he's fighting for, and it's not a piece of blueberry pie, and he knows how to fight because he wants to.

I can't tell you all I would like to about Joe on account of necessary strict censorship regulations, but you can bear in mind the date and read between the lines. His present station is temporary until he is assigned to another one. His recent station made courageous and heroic history, and the record made by it has evoked cheers and a "well done" in all the United Nations.
Joe and his mates are taking it easy for a few days, and they certainly deserve a rest. Joe is a veteran of several battles, and even if he were to go home now he would have enough medals to satisfy any service man. He was in every surface battle of major importance while attached to his former station. When I went into Joe's tent several of the boys were writing, by request, their experiences of the last two days. Joe's face was slightly sunburned, and he still hadn't got all the oil out of his hair.
I had not been in the tent long before one of the boys, an 18-year-old from Oregon, asked me, "Is there a chapel near here?" "Yes," I answered, and told him where it was located. Then I said, "maybe you want to go to the movies," and I told him where the movies were situated. "No, I'll just go to church—I got good reasons to go." And I knew what he meant. Most people like him feel better about it when they pray in a church. A man may believe before and throughout an action that if a missile has his name on it, that's just all there is to it, but after it is over with if he's still alive and uninjured he believes that the Almighty had something to do with it, that God helped him to Stone is safe, but I suppose the Miami correspondent has already sent that news. Dona's mother, Mrs. Agatha Locke, lives in Miami, and her two and her two sons spend quite a bit of time visiting there.

War is

Today on the Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—If the rest of the country thinks the East is the teacher's pet when gasoline and oil are being distributed, here's the reason:

The East—in gas and oil—is a poor relation to the other sections of the United States.

It is the only section of the country which does not produce enough oil for its own needs.

But the Southwest is the only section producing more than it needs.

The nation is divided into five oil districts. The East, district No. 1, extends from Maine to Florida, and includes West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Long before the war the oil industry recognized in dollars and cents the economic separation of those districts. For example:

Before the war oil for the East coast was moved by ocean-going tankers from the Gulf coast ports.

Peacetime cost of moving the oil by ship was between 1-2 and 1 cent a gallon. By tanker it was about 5 cents.

Since war started and U-boats blasted tankers at random, an adjustment in cost has been made by the government to allow oil companies to move their product— which formerly went by tanker—overland by tanker without losing their shirts.

This was the way the oil companies had made their calculations on district No. 1:

Oil moved into that district by tanker could be distributed inland from the ports by tanker at a profit until the movement reached a point—say the Middle-West—where oil and is in district No. 2—Beyond which further transportation would be uneconomical.

Here are the oil producing states and the districts in which they lie:

No. 1—New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia; No. 2—Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma; No. 3—Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, Texas; No. 4—Colorado, Montana, Wyoming; No. 5—California.

District No. 3 produces more oil than all the other districts put together and is the only one, according to PAW, which produces more than it needs.

So district No. 3, particularly is called upon to make up for the lack in district No. 1.

WASHINGTON—The labor-management committee idea is now getting a pilot motor, a shot in the arm, and a pat on the back.

The war production board is all for more committees, hopes to have more set up in the next five months than were organized in the past 17 months.

The committees are composed of labor and management representatives, usually three or four of each.

Life Was Hard Under Musso

By JOHN A. MOROSO III

SOMEWHERE IN SICILY, July 21—(Delayed)—Talks have had with Italians during the last few days have given me a vivid picture of how hard life was under Mussolini—and they have left me with the impression that Italy will soon quit the war.

Sicilians told me that Italy would be easier to conquer than this island, because the Sicilian terrain is more difficult and because Italy is defended mainly by young soldiers. They said most of the veterans had been sent to Russia and France.

Italian soldiers in Sicily, the natives claimed, were mainly elderly and untrained, or men who had been forced into the army and sent away because they refused to join the Fascist party.

The people said that when Mussolini faced an Allied invasion he flooded Sicily with propaganda and little else. Modern weapons had been sent to Tobruk earlier in the war and never replaced.

The people said that when Mussolini faced an Allied invasion he flooded Sicily with propaganda and little else. Modern weapons had been sent to Tobruk earlier in the war and never replaced.

Sicilians were not told that Tunisia had fallen. Instead they were informed that the Americans lacked courage and were savage rapists.

One man told me he saw German officers shoot down two Italian soldiers.

Farmers in Sicily had a difficult time, although their crops of wheat, olives, fruits and grapes were plentiful. Permitting the farmers to keep a small part of their produce, the Fascists bought much of the rest of it at 75 per cent below market value and took a third of their income as well.

Churchill Praises War Correspondents

LONDON, July 28—(AP)—Prime minister Churchill paid a major tribute Tuesday to the quality and accuracy of the war coverage by war correspondents as he addressed the House of Commons.

"Very complete, vivid and excellent accounts are appearing in newspapers of all operations," he said.

"An immense army of correspondents move with the troops and carry their cameras into the heat of fighting. An immense volume of material of the deepest interest and of a very high level of quality and accuracy fills the public press from hour to hour. And there is at present very little which I could add to this except, of course, to set matters in proportion as I and my colleagues view them and to place the proper emphasis, or what we conceive with our fallible judgment to be the proper emphasis, upon the various facts and factors."

Nazi War Prisoner Is Captured Again

EL PASO, July 28—(AP)—Immigration service officials reported today that Karl Luft, 19-year-old German sailor who escaped from the Ft. Stanton, N. M., detention camp, was captured without a struggle in south central New Mexico late Monday.

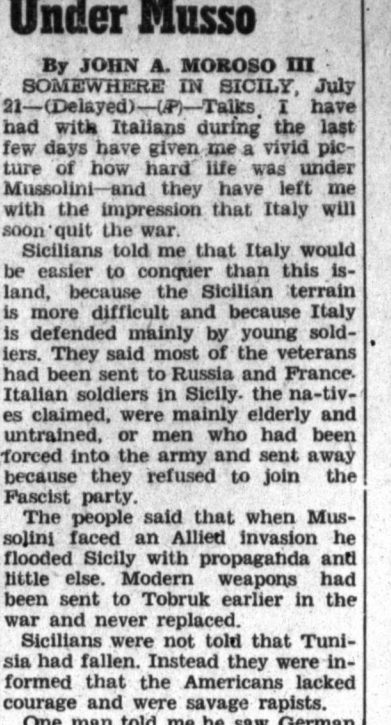

Officers said the sailor, of the German merchant ship Odenwald, escaped from the camp Sunday by burying himself in a weed patch late in the day then digging out under the camp fence after nightfall.

Luft, who had been the object of an intensive search throughout the southwest since his escape, was caught near Hondo, N. M., a small community about 25 miles southwest of the detention camp.

Fascism Ended in Farce With Founders Unable to Agree

BERN, Switzerland, July 28—(AP)—Benito Mussolini's former cronies of the Fascist grand council cut him down in a violent word battle lasting into the hours of dawn Sunday as the dictator struggled in vain to keep his hold, the newspaper Corriere Della Sera of Milan reported today.

Italian Fascism, the paper declared, ended in "a farce in which the founders could no longer agree."

Even Carlo Scorza and Roberto Farinacci, Mussolini's chief subordinates, turned against him as a leader as they strove fruitfully to oppose the council majority assembled to "pronounce the end of the Fascist regime," it said.

The newspaper presented this account of the fateful week-end hours ending with Mussolini's downfall.

The grand council session began Saturday afternoon, was interrupted after six hours of acrimonious debate, and then resumed until dawn after a brief pause.

But its outcome was a foregone conclusion, and before it ended strong concentrations of troops had moved into place in Rome.

Thus, Italian authorities already were taking necessary steps to maintain order while the population was "completely unaware of the historic hour sounding for the nation."

It was not said whether the Duce was present in the second half of the session in which Count Dino Grandi, former minister of foreign affairs and justice, presented the resolution hostile to him that was adopted.

Mussolini earlier had presented a report on the situation—a report violently attacked by Grandi who proposed that the council and government give all power to the crowds, and entrust the king with command of all armed forces. This proposition was supported by Marsilio de Bono, Count Galeazzo Ciano, Giuseppe Bottai, Luigi Pedersoli and several others.

Ciano is Mussolini's son-in-law, now serving as minister to the Vatican.

The Grandi resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 against 7, with one absent.

Mussolini brought to the session a great collection of documents against his former friends and, opening the volume after the first acrid attack upon him, said: "I must read you distresses."

Grandi reacted violently. A wild discussion followed in which Scorza and Farinacci participated. The latter two proposed new orders of the day, but even these were said to be unfavorable to the Duce.

Thus, said the newspaper, ended the fight begun in 1921 between Mussolini and Grandi. It was in 1921 that Grandi violently attacked Mussolini's politics at a congress of the Fascist party in Rome.

The Corriere said that on Sunday morning, Mussolini went to the king to report the situation. After this conversation and "above all the energetic intervention of the Italian military authorities, the end of the regime was a reality."

Demonstrations began in Rome even before the radio announced the departure of Mussolini, and they continued throughout Monday, the account concluded.

Hints for Farmers' Helpers

Tractors are tricky critters—handle carefully! Your first time at showing off may be your last.

Bull pens are good places to stay away from. If you have to go in one, be sure you can exit quickly.

Bossy works only from the right side, and milking is no snap. Bitting flies may upset your plans.

If poison ivy and sumac are anywhere near, wear heavy leather or rubber gloves, just in case.

If caught in a thunderstorm, hit the ground flat and fast. Tall and solitary trees are dangerous.

Stay healthy by drinking lots of water to replace that lost in perspiration. Take extra salt tablets.

Here's some timely advice for lend-army volunteers, who can be additionally patriotic by staying healthy as they help the nation's hard-pressed farmers.

Wheeler County Crop Conditions

Best in 6 Years

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS. SHAMROCK, July 28—Crop conditions in Wheeler county are the best since 1937, when the area realized a bumper crop, a survey just completed by the county agent's office reveals.

"Generally speaking, farmers throughout the area have good stands and their crops are growing," County Agent Jake Tarter said this week, adding that only three clouds appear on the horizon of prospects for maximum production: most sections are beginning to need rain, the flea hoppers are doing damage in certain spots and the number of acres planted to cotton is below the average.

A good general rain would assure Wheeler county of above-normal production, Tarter stated. A few small spots in the county have received plenty of moisture, but as a whole feed is beginning to suffer to some extent.

The Briscoe area is the only section of Wheeler county which could not use a rain to good advantage right now, Tarter said. About two and one-half sections just east of Briscoe were damaged by hail.

Sections around Center, Mebeetie, Wheeler and Locust Grove are the driest spots in the county, while the Davis and Kelton communities received the last beneficial rains.

After replanting in 1942, cotton acreage was below the AAA acreage allotment for the county, and with little replanting in 1943, additional acres, have been left standing. A number of Wheeler county farmers did not plant any cotton this year, the county agent said.

Tarter wants farmers to inspect their cotton for flea hoppers, and dusting with sulphur should be done immediately if limbs are found bearing no forms at the joints.

Yanks Say Duce Was 'Yellow'

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 28—(AP)—Most American soldiers, the service paper Stars and Stripes, reported today, believe that Mussolini could not take it.

The paper made a large number of inquiries among the troops and found that the Duce's sudden disappearance from the world scene was received as great news.

"He turned yellow," said Corp. Charles Joans of Buffalo, N. Y. "He got out while the getting was good," commented Pfc. Arthur Govanna of Revue, Mass.

Sergt. John C. Calhoun of Chilloche, Texas, said it was "a great break for the Italian people."

One infantry company was given the news with great formality, Stars and Stripes reported. It was read as the men were lined up for reveille formation.

Women Regain Stolen Auto

DALLAS, July 28—(AP)—Two young Dallas women sped 70 miles an hour from here to Fort Worth yesterday, pursuing two negroes in another car. Through their efforts the car was caught and the negroes arrested.

The women were Bernice Cohn and Dorothy Heit, employed as laboratory technicians at the Dr. W. Giddon Maddox clinic here. Yesterday afternoon Dr. Maddox's wife noticed her car had disappeared. Miss Herr and Miss Cohn jumped in another automobile and started a search.

A few minutes later they sighted the car and the pursuit started. Near Fort Worth they stopped an instant to tell their story to a motorcycle policeman who took up the chase and arrested the men.

Who are non-essential travelers? You are the judge of whether or not your trip is essential—and your judgment is what our government is relying upon. Please consider these points when you think of traveling on the railroads this summer and for the duration: 1. Your trip may take a Pullman berth or chair car seat needed by men in uniform traveling under orders. 2. Your trip may delay war workers, not in uniform, in reaching their vital jobs. 3. Your trip may deprive men and women in the service of a furlough trip to visit their homefolks. If you do take a trip, plan for it in advance, travel light, consider taking a box lunch to avoid delayed meals in the diners, and make up your mind to put up with certain inconveniences and crowded conditions. WHAT ABOUT VACATION TRAVEL? Vacations should be spread out over the year, not confined to summer months. A vacation trip should be confined to one round trip only, starting and returning on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. Travel in chair cars whenever possible, and please carry only one piece of luggage. Consult your Santa Fe Agent about your travel plans. You'll find his friendly advice helpful. Apollo got the Glory ...the Vitamins did the work

Fortunately, we do not have to depend upon the whims of an Apollo for safeguards for our health. Science has demonstrated over and over again that sensible living and proper nutrition are the first steps toward a robust body and an alert mind.

The entire nation looks eagerly for news about Science's continuous studies of vitamins. One fact that has been determined is that the B Complex vitamins are the least plentiful in the foods that come to your table. Physicians say that your body is quick to feel a B Vitamins deficiency, but unharmed if you get more than enough.

The home of Budweiser is one of the world's biggest sources of B Complex vitamins. They are contained in brewer's yeast, which we supply to leading pharmaceutical manufacturers. From them, our armed forces and our civilian population obtain millions of B Complex vitamin units to supplement the daily diet when necessary. The perfection of this vitamin-rich yeast is one more result of laboratory and research work that has helped to produce the world's most popular beer.

O'Daniel Allacks Labor Racketeers
FORT WORTH, July 28 (AP)—Washington politicians and so-called labor racketeers were inveigled against by Senator W. Lee O'Daniel (D-Tex.) in an interview at his Alamo ranch recently.

He declared that "the first thing in the heart of Washington politicians is winning the '44 election; winning the war comes second."

"The manpower shortage exists," O'Daniel said, "because labor racketeers prefer to have three men on a job that could be done by two. This way they collect additional dues. Politicians refuse to correct this ill because they like the contributions the racketeers send in during political campaigns."

O'Daniel predicted that additional taxes would be passed as soon as congress reconvenes.

Africa Waits by Achmed Abdulloh

Copyright 1943, NEA Service, Inc.

He made cliky noises; pointed into the wilderness. They stopped jumped out of the car, followed where he led, came at last to a hut.

There, where he had been squatting on the threshold, rose a small, ochre-smeared, but with as much pride in his achievement as any great American doctor, he stabbled a finger into the cool shadows of the hut. The man whom he had nursed and called back from the gates of death with his queer jungle craft, lay there, pale, emaciated, but breathing regularly, sleeping calmly.

Momentarily, Nancy felt like throwing her arms about the little savage and kissing him. The Afghan must have read her mind. "What," he inquired, "does a monkey know of the scent of jasmine?"

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that you should give the sweetness of your lips to those who appreciate. To me, for instance, since the babeh is asleep."

She smiled happily.

"I must give the little man something."

"I have a string of beads in my pocket—"

"Beads," she interrupted, "for giving a man's life? I guess there's a drop of Scotch in your Afghan blood."

She drew a diamond ring from her finger and gave it to the Niam-Niam. He broke into joyous, high-pitched laughter; was out of the hut into the jungle.

Zaman Khan followed; and Nancy was alone with Lincoln. The medicine man's shrill mirth had awakened him. He saw Nancy, and he did not seem astonished at all, and his first words were:

"I love you, dear."

"And I love you," she replied. She leaned down. He reached up. He felt her lips yield to him. Then, after a minute or two—as men count time—that seemed an eternity, he heard her voice, husky and with a tremulous laugh. "You know—if you were a gentleman, you'd tell me your name."

Commanding Officer Very Understanding

DENTON, Texas, July 28.—(AP)—An infantry group from nearby Camp Howze had marched the better part of a blistering afternoon, reviewing for a Denton bond rally.

In front of Marquis Hall girls' dormitory, here at North Texas State Teachers college, the company commander called out "right face, at ease," so that the men would not have to face the evening sun as they rested.

But backs to the sun also meant backs to the girl-lined windows of Marquis Hall.

In view of the situation, the understanding commander reconsidered.

With all the dignity due a military maneuver, the group snapped to attention and "about-faced" to smile up at the co-eds.

Shamrock Iceman Rescues Children From Burning House

Special To The NEWS.
SHAMROCK, July 28.—(AP)—A fire of unknown origin destroyed the south side of the duplex at 203 N. Madden street and all the household furnishings belonging to Mrs. D. O. Gilmore and her five children.

The blaze was discovered by Gilbert Jeffers, ice man. He entered the burning house and carried out three of the smaller children, ranging in age from two to seven years, the only occupants of the house at the time, to safety. Mrs. Gilmore had gone to the post office and the two older children were visiting neighbors when the fire started.

Mr. Gilmore is working for a construction company in Canada.

Shamrock's volunteer firemen reached the scene in time to prevent total destruction of the north side of the duplex which belongs to Mrs. Stella Wheeler.

Neither the house nor furnishings was protected by insurance.

FLASHES OF LIFE

(By The Associated Press)
PHILOSOPHY ON THE RUN
BELDING, Mich.—Police pursuing a 25-year-old trusty, who fled state reformatory "at Tonia caught up with him after he broke into the Aynor rural school and wrote on its blackboard the following, signed message for next fall's pupils:

"Never do anything wrong. Always be honest or you may grow up to hate the world and everyone in it. I put eight years in prison doing wrong."

REDWOOD CITY, CALIF.—The bank wrote Herman W. Schaberg, asking him to come and collect his $3,842 interest.

Schaberg, though, had died in 1934, and his widow never knew about the deposit.

She died in 1940.

The bank's letter bestowed her six heirs to inquire—and they found themselves $18,000 richer.

NEW HELPMATE FOR CUPID
LAWDALE, Pa.—Ann Schneider, 17 received her marriage proposal through her future mother-in-law.

Radioman Sam Adams, serving somewhere in the South Pacific, asked his mother in a letter if she'd slip an engagement ring on Miss Schneider's finger and see what she said.

COOPERATION
SALT LAKE CITY—Would-be lassoers were biting their fingernails. They tried repeatedly to snare a buck deer who escaped from the Hogle Gardens Zoo.—But every time he leaped straight over their heads.

It was fine strategy—until he leaped in the wrong direction and landed inside his 7-foot wire enclosure.

been received to requests for the unconditional surrender of Italy.

2. Dispatches from Istanbul told of a hasty and mysterious conference at sea between the Italian and Turkish foreign ministers, suggesting that Turkey might serve as a go-between in peace or armistice negotiations.

3. Madrid heard that Italy would continue the war on the side of the Axis only if Germany gave adequate aid for the defense of southern Italy against the threat of Allied invasion.

4. Swiss dispatches said the Germans were preparing a strong defense line along the Po river in northern Italy.

5. Turkish reports said German troops were massing at several points along the Hungarian frontier, in the wake of Nazi pressure attempting to prevent Hungary from withdrawing from active participation in the war.

6. A Budapest broadcast declared that Athens, the capital of Greece, had been placed under 8 p. m. curfew as a result of "events of the past few days."

7. Reports from the Balkans said Italian troops were being partially evacuated from Greece and Albania.

8. The Algiers radio said Nazi troops in considerable numbers were heading northward through Italy, indicating that Germany was doubtful of the new Italian government's intentions.

The obvious implication was that the Germans were either seeking to escape before Italy should surrender or were abandoning southern Italy as indefensible against an Allied invasion.

9. Swiss Telegraph Agency reports from the Italian frontier declared without confirmation that Marshal Badoglio's regime was "discussing conditions of an armistice" in Vatican City, and dispatches to Spanish newspapers said the Vatican was a hive of extraordinary activity. NBC quoted the Rome radio, however, as saying reports of Italian peace overtures were "unfounded."

10. Travelers reaching the Swiss border from Italy reported serious clashes between die-hard Fascists and regular Italian army troops chiefly in Milan, the birthplace of Fascism.

Turin, Bologna, Genoa and other northern Italian cities reported disorders as the populace cheered the downfall of Mussolini, demanded the ouster of Nazi troops in Italy, and clamored for peace. Many Fascists were placed under arrest.

Elsewhere in the global war:

RUSSIA—Retreating Germans burn villages, force inhabitants to dig trenches and dugouts for last desperate defense of Orsk; Red armies squeeze tighter around Nazi keystone base on three sides, capture 50 more villages and advance two to four miles.

AIR WAR—RAF bombers in great force blast Hamburg in fourth successive night assault, also hit Ruhr valley war targets, 18 planes missing; Germans admit high casualties in "heavy terror attack."

In the battle of Germany, the chaos inflicted on Hamburg must have reached the near-saturation point last night as another huge armada of blockbusters attacked the big port for the fourth night in a row.

Counting two heavy blows by American daylight raiders, it was the sixth time Hamburg had felt the shock of Allied aerial might since last Friday.

5,204 School Children Are Listed in Gray

There are 5,204 children in Gray county between the ages of 6 and 18, the state department of education has notified W. B. Westberry, county superintendent of schools, in certifying the scholastic census taken at the end of the 1942-43 session.

The 5,204 figure represents students for all public schools in the county, including the independent districts of Pampa, McLean, LeFors, and Alamogordo, and is an increase of 102 above the 1941-42 figure.

Per capita allotment of the state department to Gray county schools in the coming school year of 1943-44 will be $25, the highest in history. A surplus in the state fund resulted in the increased appropriation.

This means that Gray county schools will receive, beginning in October this year and extending to August, 1944, a total of $130,100 from the state department.
