THE PLAINSMAN in Lubbock Journal—Ain't Mother Nature wonderful? Thousands of years ago spectacles hadn't been thought of, yet look where she placed our ears.

J. M. NOBLE in Canadian Record—The local post of the American Legion this week displayed some timely posters calling attention to saving school children's lives.

THE APOSTLE in Donley County Leader—A local lady suggests that hog meat be sold in capsule form. "How nice it would be to drop in a 60 capsule into the beans so that we could have pork & beans," she says. Then at breakfast each member of the family could have a No. 2 with an egg, if they are so extravagant as to splurge on the pork basis.

FRED L. WILLIAMS in Clarendon News—Football fans of this section will witness night games at the local gridiron this season! Information was given out this week that, although sufficient funds for the completion of the project had not been raised, enough had been pledged that the athletic association was enabled to make arrangements to order the lights. The order has been placed, and workmen have been busy this week digging holes for the poles. It is expected that the lights will be up not later than September 28.

T. A. LANDERS in McLean News—Senator Long's efforts for the masses may have been worth much more during these changing times than many of us might be willing to admit.

L. D. and MOLLIE SHAW in Higgins News—Tell you the truth, this is a funny country. No other section under the sun can come back quicker and make a feed crop than this Panhandle of ours.

R. B. HAYNES in Miami Chief—Of course nobody has been killed yet, but we wish there was some way to prevent speed demons from driving through town on the paved highway at sixty and seventy per. A serious wreck is going to occur one of these days. No heed is paid to highway signs by many motorists.

WHEELER TIMES—It is generally true that we best serve our own interests when we serve those of the citizens of our community, the business firms and the individuals with whom we deal and who have common interests with us. Home-made dollars have the delightful habit of circulating more speedily in the locality when they know their way 'round.

MACK STANTON in Clovis News-Journal—It is interesting to note the stand of England in regard to securing the support of the small powers of the League of Nations in her diplomatic efforts to prevent Italy from "acquiring new territory by force." I think that a vast majority of the people of the United States are in sympathy with Ethiopia in her troubles with Italy.

JOHN L. MCARTY in Dalhart Texan—One Dalhart man remarks the trouble with his wife is that she thinks she is a greater man than he is.

D. M. WARREN in Panhandle Herald—Not every one who obtains a good education is assured a large salary and a place of eminence in a community. But the effort to obtain a good education is worth while in the way that it enables one to get more out of living.

'Wild Party' Ends in Slaying

believing her a suicide. The tragedy was discovered, authorities say, after a boisterous party in which the attractive blond, Rogers and three other men participated at the Rogers home, where, police say, Miss Hoey had been a guest for a week. Rogers was held for questioning, but later released. Below right is Rogers' estranged wife, Mrs. Vivian Lincoln Rogers, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Pioneer Dance To Recreate Scenes Of Romantic Epoch

Group to Lead Grand March Announced Today

Scenes of a glamorous and romantic epoch will be recreated and the clock will be turned back 40 years and more tomorrow night when the Pioneer ball and square dance will be held at the high school gym.

Dance committees announced today that the only touch of modern civilization at the gym will be the electric lights, for the decorations, the costumes, the dances, the music will be those which made the "mauve decade" or the "purple" nineties a vivid and exciting decade. Literally scores of women will appear in puffed sleeves, bustles, crinolines, and many men will appear in suits and shirts and neckties and especially cowboy costumes that were adored by the feminine admirers toward the latter part of the last century. Several women will appear with flounces on their skirts and "rats" in their hair.

In another way, the dance will be like old times. Dancers will come from long distances, but in cars over paved roads instead of by horseback and in wagons over cow-trails as they did in the '80s. Mrs. H. B. Lovett, in this connection recently remembered, that she used to ride horseback from the Lovett ranch below LeFors to Mobeetle to a dance—an all-night dance. Scores of the old-timers who will be there tomorrow night in their younger days traveled as many as 50 miles to dances.

Texas People Don't Want 'Camouflaged Saloons' Says Allred At Special Session

DEFINITION OF 'OPEN SALOON' IS REQUESTED

SUBTERFUGE NOT DESIRED, DECLARES GOVERNOR

AUSTIN, Sept. 16 (AP)—Governor Allred submitted the subject of liquor regulation to a special session of the forty-fourth legislature at noon today.

In a message personally delivered to a joint session of the house and senate, the governor called for legislation clearly defining an "open saloon" and preserving the integrity of territory dry under local option. He announced he would submit the subject of fixing salaries for county officers tomorrow and within the week that of old-age pensions. It was expected the last would open the broad field of revenue and taxation.

The session was called to make effective constitutional amendments adopted August 24 repealing statewide prohibition and substituting old-age pensions and substituting a salary basis for the fee system of remunerating county officers.

The governor declared no legislature ever had been called in special session to deal with problems of greater importance and the "combined wisdom" of the legislature and executive departments was needed to solve them.

"In my humble judgment, the people want no subterfuge definition or camouflaged saloon, whereby, even though the brass rail bar may be outlawed, yet practically the same evils of open saloon sales will again be upon us," he said.

"I earnestly urge, therefore, a clear-cut, simple, understanding definition and prohibition of the open saloon so as to carry out the letter and spirit of the constitutional amendment."

Governor Allred did not commit himself as to the merits of the state monopoly or private licensing systems of liquor control, saying the legislature had power to establish either.

Revenue Need Cited.

"If regulation of private traffic in the liquor business is determined to be the proper policy, then this legislature must intelligently determine upon what basis liquor shall be taxed," he said. "The state needs revenue, not only for the adminis-

JEWES BACK IN POSITION OF MIDDLE AGES

Drastic Regulations Invoked by Hitler to Completely Crush Hebrew People.

BY LOUIS F. LOCHNER, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

NURNBERG, Germany, Sept. 16 (AP)—The reichstag of Adolf Hitler today relegated Jews in the Germany of the future to their position during the middle ages.

They may not become citizens, intermarry with Aryans, have intimate relations with Germans nor even employ Aryan servant girls under 45 years of age.

The third reich of the future, by unanimous decision of the 600 Hitler followers who make up the reichstag, will be one in which Aryan citizens who "by their attitude indicate they are willing and fit to serve faithfully the people and the reich" will be separated sharply from "belongers to the state."

Legislation embodying these points was passed last night amid scenes of unexampled patriotic fervor and approval for the course Hitler has chosen to pursue strictly along the lines laid down in the original Nazi program.

These acts inspired der fuehrer's followers with the hope that the rest of the Nazi tenets would be translated into practical politics, step by step, just as fast as political expedience permitted.

Before hearing addresses by Hitler and Gen. Wilhelm Goerring, the reichstag itself gave a practical expression of its belief in the authority of the Nazi party, as leader of the reichstag, to summon it into session at will until a new set of by-laws, embodying "leadership" principles, has been evolved and adopted.

SHERIFF TALLEY IS SHOT AT BY MAN; LIGHT HIT

Two Men Are Being Held in County Jail

Two men are being held in the county jail following a shooting at the Y Tavern south of Pampa early this morning. Sheriff Earl Talley was the target of several shots, fired by one of the men. He was not hit but one of the headlights on his car was shot out.

Sheriff Talley reported that he received a call to come to the Y Tavern where two men reported they had been assaulted. The sheriff made the call. As the sheriff stepped from his car, a man started shooting. He dodged back in the car, opened the porthole in the bullet-proof windshield and returned the fire.

One of the men ran around the building and the others dropped, as though shot. The officers rushed the place and found the man not hit. Both were arrested.

County Attorney Sherman White is conducting an investigation preparatory to filing charges. The county attorney stated this afternoon that he would file assault with intent to kill charges against the man alleged to have shot at Sheriff Talley.

BRITISH HOME FLEET MISSING OFF SCOTLAND

REPORT BATTLESHIPS ARE STEAMING FOR MEDITERRANEAN

By JAMES A. MILLS
Associated Press Foreign Staff
GENEVA, Sept. 16. (AP)—Reliable sources disclosed tonight that a preliminary plan for an economic boycott against Italy in case that nation should launch an unprovoked war are being worked out among certain members of the League of Nations.

The disclosure came after a day in the League assembly in which Poland had snubbed Soviet Russia—her delegates walking out on a speech by Maxim Litvinoff, Russian foreign commissar.

The sources in question said the British delegation to the League had suggested the idea of a general economic blockade against Italy in case she attacks Ethiopia and that the plan for such a blockade had already been provisionally mapped out.

The suggestion, regarded as a preliminary and precautionary project, was understood to be a sequel to the pledge given by Premier Laval of France that, if the worst came to worst, France, loyal to the League covenant, would be disposed to participate in collective economic and financial sanctions.

French circles described the policy of France in the present emergency as based upon a desire to limit as much as possible the scope of any measures of restraint which might be justified against Italy.

It was stated that the project, as elaborated, partakes particularly of the nature of a commercial boycott under which the nations would pledge themselves to neither sell nor buy anything from Italy. Those close to the negotiations cautioned that the suggested protective boycott should not be considered tantamount to an economic blockade since, it was explained, the word "blockade" immediately suggests the use of warships to enforce it. The British delegation authorized the following statement:

"The British and French governments have had from time to time conversations concerning what action might be pursued in the event of certain things happening. But the British government has made no definite proposals."

ADDIS ABABA, Sept. 16 (AP)—Friends of Emperor Haile Selassie said tonight that he may be obliged soon to proclaim national-wide mobilization unless the League of Nations finds some way of saving the situation.

PORTLAND, England, Sept. 16. (AP)—The bulk of Great Britain's home fleet has disappeared from here on the eve of its scheduled maneuvers off Scotland. Although no official word has been issued, the present location, the street talk is that these ships are steaming for the Mediterranean.

Previous admiralty announcements said the home fleet was assembling off Scotland in preparation for the autumn maneuvers, but tonight the visible supply of warships on hand appeared to consist of three battleships, one cruiser, 15 obsolete world war ships, and miscellaneous non-fighting and supply ships. The normal strength of the home fleet is about 50 fighting vessels.

The strength of the British navy here is represented by the battleships Rodney, Nelson, and Royal Sovereign, the cruiser Cairo, and destroyers, of which many are listed by the admiralty as on the reserve list.

The harbor Roadstead swarmed with ships until late last week when, one by one, in pairs, or in larger units they began to disappear.

Saturday night, five ships, led by the great battle cruiser Hood, steamed out immediately after the naval police had rounded up all sailors and officers in Portland and ordered them to board their ships.

All the admiralty would say was that the missing ships probably had left for the exercise.

However, residents of this naval center have noted that many ships normally assigned to the home fleet are now in the Mediterranean and they said they believed the others were on their way there.

Cafeteria Opens At High School

The high school cafeteria in the red school building on the main campus opened today, under direction of B. R. Nuckels who had charge of the cafeteria at the close of last year.

The cafeteria will be open from 12 until 1 o'clock on school days. The cafeteria will be open to the public again this year, Mr. Nuckels said this morning in announcing the opening.

I Saw... Stokes Green and Moose Hartman, Harvester footballers, putting out a big washing yesterday.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

The tendency of the times seems to be toward government ownership of public utilities. That idea lurks behind the present fight on holding companies in Congress.

Plausible arguments can be made on both sides of the question. In the case of public utilities, which are in their very nature monopolies, the argument is made that they should be either publicly owned or at least controlled by public authority.

We have reached the point where the necessity for public official regulation is very generally conceded. Even the officials of these public utilities very generally admit this. In fact reasonable and fair public control is a protection to honest privately-owned public utilities. It protects them against unfair competition and grafting chiselers.

While in some cases complete ownership has proved satisfactory, in many cases it has not. It is apt to become the football of politics and whenever that occurs the result is disastrous.

Over in our neighboring country of Canada there are two great systems of railroads, one owned by the government and one privately owned. The Canadian National was taken over when it was in bad shape, overburdened with debt and run down physically. It has been for the part efficiently managed under the officials selected by the Canadian government, but its former debts were repudiated. It has also the advantage of not being taxed, while the rival system, the Canadian Pacific, has to pay large amounts to the general government and to the provinces in the way of taxes. This is a just subject for complaint on the part of the Canadian Pacific.

According to the report of the Interstate Commerce Commission the railroads of the United States during the year 1932 paid taxes to the amount of $275,000,000 while their stockholders received out of the gross revenue only $93,000,000. In 1933 the taxes amounted to $249,000,000 as against $95,000,000 paid to stockholders in dividends. In 1934, the stockholders fared a little better, receiving in the aggregate in the way of dividends $132,000,000 while the governments, national and state, received in taxes $239,000,000. If the roads were owned and operated by the Government, would the public be better served at less cost? The public would lose the quarter billion paid in taxes, but there is nothing gathered from experience that indicates better or even cheaper service.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Although the U. S. Supreme Court will not officially be installed in its monumental new building until it meets there for the fall session Oct. 7, the justices are already "moving in."

Several have brought part of their equipment over from the historic old quarters in the Capitol building, and one of Chief Justice Hughes' clerks is already beginning to get Hughes' suite in order.

The old-fashioned high-backed chairs have been brought there from the old courtroom and they look very odd indeed in the beautiful, new, up-to-date setting. Of course they will be replaced with modern furniture later.

As soon as a huge rug is set and draperies hung in the magnificent court chamber, the central feature of the new building, it will be virtually completed after four years of work.

The Gerry collection of 36,000 volumes, legal reports and treatises, old vellum-bound tomes in Latin and Greek dating back 400 years, and general volumes relating to law and police administration, has already been installed in the justices' library.

This collection was made by the late Elbridge T. Gerry and presented to the court by Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, son of the collector.

It is expected to extend the collection by continuing series of reports already begun. A special act was required to accept the books, and Librarian Oscar Clark is among those who hope that a general law may be passed enabling the Supreme Court library to accept donations generally as does the Library of Congress.

The latter is loaning some 25,000 volumes to the Supreme Court to grace its shelves, which have room for nearly 250,000. Other law collections have already been offered the court.

It is hard to believe that there is anywhere else in the world so utterly dazzling a pile of marble as this building. The exterior is of white Vermont marble, with Georgia marble facing the four interior courts.

About the main court chamber stand huge columns of pink-mottled Siena marble. Marble staircases, marble walls, marble columns and pillars, entablatures, pediments and friezes.

Such wood-carving as graces the heavy white-oak woodwork of reading rooms, dining rooms and private judicial suites has seldom been achieved in this country. Medallions, friezes, borders, bas-reliefs cut into the oak panelings.

It is all very beautiful, very massive and dignified, and very expensive. Total cost of the building will be close to $11,000,000.

When the judges take their seats in October to pronounce their verdict on New Deal legislation, they will sit at the head of what is certainly one of the most impressive chambers in the world. Sculptured friezes run around the four walls at the high ceiling. At the sides of the room march Menes, Hammurabi, Moses, Solomon, Lycurgus, Solon, Draco, Confucius, and Octavian, Justinian, Mohammed, Charlemagne, King John, St. Louis, Grotius, Blackstone, Marshall and Napoleon.

Another baby with an amazing vocabulary has been discovered. In addition to debts the next generation may have to put up with a bumper crop of filibusters. What Germany needs is more humanitarians.

New York minister asks, "How many of us get more beautiful with age?" Offhand, we'd say all women above 30 with a good sense of color.

Just from what is said of them, those barefooted Ethiopian tribesmen are no ones with which to play "this little pig went to market."

Attendance at Tri-State Fair Breaks Record

AMARILLO, Sept. 16 (AP)—First day attendance records topped today at the Tri-State Fair, rated this year as the largest exposition in Texas.

Whit C. Hawk, president of the fair association, predicted Saturday the all-time daily attendance mark of 60,000 will be broken by mid-week. Practically every department is twice as large as in 1934.

Even the rabbit department this year has entries from breeders far beyond the region served primarily by the exposition—the Panhandle-Plains, eastern New Mexico and western Oklahoma. Entries in this department came from Jacksonville, Ill., San Diego, Calif., St. Louis, Mo., Pueblo, Colo., Oklahoma City, Fort Worth and Sedalia, home of the Missouri State fair.

Colorado joined yesterday in the agriculture and horticulture competition. Greenfield entering an elaborate display, especially of fruits.

Conference Ousts Methodist Pastor

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 16 (AP)—The Nebraska Methodist church conference Saturday ousted the Rev. W. L. Russell of Lincoln, because of his refusal to make a final payment of $9 of his allotted assessment into the conference fund for aged ministers, their widows and children.

Mr. Russell said he had refused to make the payment in order to bring a test case. He contended that the members of the board administering the fund "last year received between $4,000 and $5,000 more than the amount paid to the 200 or more claimants."

The Pampa Daily NEWS has been offering trips of from three to five days for the last three years. The last one was five days long.

Carl Baer drove the truck loaded with bedding, tent, food, and cooking utensils to the camping ground Friday, August 23, with Mrs. M. and Mrs. Gilmore N. Nunn, and the cook went to the site at the same time.

The following morning, all four cars were filled with Aromax gasoline and Tagolene motor oil, which was furnished by the P. K. One Stop Station, Paul Kassahke, owner of the station, helped the paper carriers much by furnishing the gasoline and oil for the trip.

A reward of $5 was put up by Cal Farley's Tire shop and The NEWS for the best story of the trip written by a carrier, with second prize of $4 and third prize of $2.50.

The group that made the trip included Tommie Solomon, Ralph Walker, W. C. Stalcup, Basil Stalcup, John Pittman, Adolph Duckworth, J. C. Dollard, Carl Hendrix of Keller, Lloyd Erwin of McLean, Troy Lee Carver of Wheeler, Junior Dart of New Mobeetie, Junior Hoskins of Miami, and Red Boland of Shamrock. Others who went along were Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Johnson and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Green, Jimmie Green, and the group which left the first day.

We stopped in Amarillo a short time, but no other stops were made until we arrived at Tucuman, where we re-fueled and had lunch. At the Waffle House cafe, each person was allowed to take his choice of eats from a menu. Pie a la mode was 20 cents per cut, but we had the privilege of ordering this and anything else desired.

By 12:30 p. m. Mountain time, we were through eating and ready to make many pleasant miles. One point of interest on the way to Camp was a lake near Santa Rosa. Stones that were cast into the far side of it could be seen sinking down into the clear water until it looked as if the stone was sucked by an undercurrent below the surface on which we were standing.

We stopped at a little filling station in Santa Rosa where all the children filled up on candy and pop. Bad road marked the scene of action between Santa Rosa and Romeroville. It was quite slick just before we reached the pavement at the latter.

A driving rain continued until we got almost to Holy Ghost canyon, the place where we were going to camp, but the sun came out on us once more and we could see large pine trees towering 75 feet in the air. On the mountain sides were hundreds of beautiful yellow flowers, while clear cold water rushed over the rocky bottom of the Pecos river. All along the road for about 11 miles from the place we were going to stay in Holy Ghost canyon, a cable car south pulling buckets which carried 1,000 pounds of ore containing minerals, and one going north carrying empty buckets.

Dusky darkness overtook us before we finally reached our destination, however, the tent was up and supper was cooked, and we were soon in bed for a good night's sleep. Talk ran high among the boys for at least 30 minutes before they quieted down.

As soon as breakfast was completed Sunday morning, the ones that didn't need to help the cook spent their time in target practice. Every boy in the group shot at a target, but none showed one shot a high score. Many showed lack of skill with a gun.

The sun came out hot later in the morning, but this didn't stop us from playing a fast game of indoor baseball. Mr. Nunn was pitcher for the side I played on, and Mr. Johnson, circulation manager, for the other side. After we had several close innings, we beat Mr. Johnson's team by an 11 to 10 score.

Swimming also was on the Sunday morning program. Several of the group went to the mountain, where the water was icy cold, and took a plunge. As a result, these were late to meal and were punished by having to help the cook.

Another boy and I dug worms for an hour so we could go fishing, but a group was going mountain climbing and we decided to go with them. For an hour and 25 minutes we climbed until we could no longer hear the roar of the Holy Ghost river that ran behind the sleeping tent. Suddenly one boy got very anxious to go back to camp. He thought he had heard a growl of some kind. Anyway, all of us were tired, so we turned back.

Mr. Johnson told my father and I that if we would cut some pine branches and tie them on the ground before placing our bedding down, we would sleep warmer and more comfortably. This we did and found it worth our time.

Several of the group went back up the canyon and to Mr. Nunn's ranch. Part went canoeing while my father and I fished; however, we didn't catch anything. A fish didn't even so much as nibble my hook. We blamed our luck on weather conditions.

Practically everyone had participated in mountain climbing during the day. Consequently, we were able to have complete quiet early that night.

Monday morning found the boys up an hour before breakfast fixing their beds and washing their faces and teeth.

All day Monday was spent in Santa Fe visiting points of interest. The Palace of the Governors contained several things of interest. I enjoyed seeing the spurs and bridles used by early Spaniards and old stage drivers. In one room was an old plow and a large pot; in another the chief interest to me was an old-fashioned bicycle. In another picture of the governors of New Mexico were hanging along the wall.

Immediately after lunch, we were joined by Mr. Nunn, general manager of The NEWS, and we went to the capitol. There we had the privilege of meeting Governor Clyde Tingley and listening to him talk. He showed us the new road map he was having put out to spread over New Mexico.

Across the street from the capitol is a large home where the governor lives. The rooms are filled with the pictures of interest and beautiful pictures hang on the walls.

The next point of interest was the state penitentiary. We were shown through the kitchen, where enormous pots and cookers were used to fix meals for the prisoners. The kitchen was kept clean and the cookery and pots were new. The men had their own library, barber shop, laundry, and a place to make bricks. They also had a department that made auto license plates and another where they sold souvenirs.

We visited the native shop in Santa Fe where they made many souvenirs and after shopping around over town a while, we returned to camp. To let everyone be satisfied, Mr. Johnson let the boys vote on a trip through the mine and to other places of interest on the way to the Puye ruins. Two cars went on each trip. I voted for the trip to the mine.

The mine was a short distance from where we were staying. The process of separating the ore from the minerals was explained. After taking it out of the ground, it is crushed two times, put in buckets, and carried over the long tram-way for 17 miles. It is then crushed again and floated. During the process of floating, the minerals are separated from the rock. That trip was short; consequently, we decided to go to Santa Fe. We got there in plenty of time to eat our lunches. After eating, we drove about over the city.

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 16. (AP)—Joe Louis' stock had taken another rise today.

He pummeled his sparring partners yesterday as some wise old eyes looked on and they proclaimed him a great heavyweight.

One of the on lookers was Sam Langford, the grizzled old "Tar Baby" of better days. Sam can't see so well. One eye was permanently dimmed by a right hand punch of Fred Fulton and the other isn't so clear. But he saw enough of the panther-like bomber who keeps weaving in, to convince him that his race had produced another great one.

"He's just too much for Mr. Baer," said Langford.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien was there too but although he praised Louis he withheld a prediction as to the outcome of the Sept. 24 battle until he had seen Baer train.

In Seal Circus

Miss Laura Seal is pictured above on Golden Glow, her $10,000 dancing high school horse. She will be seen at both performances of the Seal Bros. circus here Wednesday.

Imagine a town or city of five hundred to fifteen hundred people, their usual run of business houses and all the branches of business it requires to supply them with the necessities of life. Just picture a city that same size traveling about throughout the universe. All the people in one gathering or body and always intact. Then visualize the tremendous problem of feeding a traveling city. That is what Seal Bros. circus does every day in the year. Each day in a different city or town and a different location. Each day the kitchen is set up in some other town, sometimes two hundred miles away. Then try to compare this organization back of it, that has all three meals at a regular time. They seldom miss the hour at the time the meal is called. After you have a fair idea of the terrific task you would have if you were required to supervise the labor of it all. It would seem impossible to do so, but that is exactly what Seal Bros. circus does every day, like all large circuses in America, accomplish from day to day as a part of the usual routine. Buying of the bread, meat, groceries and other provisions and preparing the daily rations for the people of the tented city, as Seal Bros. circus is nothing less than a small city, without itself, as they have their own doctor, lawyer, detective, baker, barber, carpenter, mechanics, nurses, veterinarian, in fact every artisan of a small city.

Tom Brally, Paul Schneider, Clinton Evans, and Harry Barnett left Sunday for Austin to enter the University of Texas. Mrs. Alex Schneider and Mrs. Clifford Brally drove down with the party.

MORE NATIONS TAKE A STAND AGAINST ITALY

PANAMA, IRISH FREE STATE AND HAITI TAKE SIDES

GENEVA, Sept. 16 (AP)—Three small nations—Panama, Haiti and the Irish Free State—urged the League of Nations today to fulfill its responsibilities in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute.

The Irish Free State and Panama warned the league assembly that if it could not fulfill these responsibilities, it should admit its futility and its unworthiness to exist further as a peace organization.

Gen. Alfred Memours, the delegate of Haiti, added the warning: "The colored peoples of the world are watching. . . . The period of colonial wars is closed."

The Irish spokesman, President Eamon de Valera, said the cost of loyalty to the league principles was: "To be thrown into a position of enmity with those with whom we wish to be on terms of friendship, to have to oppose those whom we admire and would welcome an occasion to serve, what more heart-rending alternative can there be to the abandonment of duty and to the betrayal of our deepest convictions and a word solemnly given?"

De Valera continued: "That, however, is the alternative before us and that is the price we may be called upon to pay for that common security without which the peace we need can never be realized."

"It is hard to fight, but harder still more terrible is the future in store for us if we should fail to be ready to pay it."

"The final test of the league and all that it stands for has come. Our conduct in this crisis will determine whether the League of Nations is better to let it lapse, disappear, and be forgotten."

Make no mistake: If, on any pretext whatever, we permit the sovereignty of even the weakest state amongst us to be unjustly taken away the whole foundation of the league would crumble into dust."

Panama's spokesman, Galileo Sols, former minister of the interior, declared his country's vote "will be for the strengthening of the spirit of the league and for an increasingly effective fulfillment of the provisions of the pact and for the service of the cause of peace, without the maintenance of which the league has no right to exist as a political institution."

24 jobs estimated to cost $1,800,000. Additional approved projects included:

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Wanda Steele was buried in England, according to her wishes, and the cable confirmation of her nearest relative, a brother in New York.

After the funeral, Rex Moore learned the meaning of those last words that she had breathed. A number of a firm of solicitors that had been acting for her, who, besides himself, her maid, and her chauffeur, were the only mourners, drove him back from the little country churchyard of the village that her family had originally come from and asked him to come into his office.

Here he revealed the fact that Mrs. Steele had made a friend will the very day before her accident, in which she had left him nearly the whole of her property in California, and securities that would bring him in a very comfortable income.

Rex was overwhelmed. His first thought was that he would be independent of Mark Albery. He felt an inexpressible gratitude to the dead woman who had demonstrated her love for him beyond the grave.

"Everything was in perfect order," the lawyer assured him. He had exchanged cables with Mrs. Steele's men of business in California and with her brother. There could be no question about the validity of the will.

Rex Moore went out, dazed, into the hot July afternoon. He felt humble; so unworthy of the dead woman's great love.

He walked swiftly through the streets; not only a free, but a rich man.

The next day an even greater blessing was bestowed on Rex Moore. On paying a visit to the famous eye specialist, he was told by the great man:

"I can find no more trace of the trouble, Mr. Moore. I am happy to pronounce you completely cured."

Chapter 48
REX IS MISSING
Only on one point did Laurie stand up firmly to Mark Albery. It was about Gladys.

"I cannot be separated from my sister until the time when the supposed divorce will be made public," she said. "Gladys will have to be told the truth, so that she can come and be with me. She is not strong. I don't want her to work for a little while. She would break down. I should be worrying about her all the time."

"It is surely foolish to force her to give up her work," Albery retorted, with a certain amount of reason.

"I'm not thinking of doing that. I'm too fond of work myself. And Glad will be a great dancer some day. I want her to have a chance. I want her to go to the best teacher in the world. I want her to go on working and learning until she is ready. But I want her to have a rest first. She is really ill. And she told me she has the world."

"You surely don't want us to take her on our honeymoon, Laurie?" Albery asked, with his disturbing smile.

Physically and mentally she shrank from him, from the very thought of their married life together. But she must not show it.

"If Gladys is ill," he suggested, "let us leave her in a good nursing home. I will tell my cousin, Mrs. Dent, to look after her. I can think of some plausible story to tell her. She is very simple, kind woman. And then we can decide where Gladys is to go for her training. Anything in the world that is possible I will do to please you, my dear little girl."

So it was settled that way. Laurie had a fairly easy task with Gladys. The girl was really broken. She was in a sense desperately ill. She had a great deal more emotion in her nature than her sister had thought, and more power of suffering. She was listless; she cared for nothing.

Laurie told her that she had to go away on a business trip for her employer. She also told her that she and Rex Moore were going to be divorced. Gladys was not well enough to finish her present contract. Laurie had communicated with the manager of the troupe, and he understood.

Laurie wanted her to go into a nursing home for two or three weeks, so that she could get quite strong again. Mr. Albery's cousin would look after her. Mr. Albery was being kind, as usual. "Because baby, please about you!" remarked Gladys, with that strange divine glance of her's. "When you and Rex are divorced, are you going to marry him?"

Laurie admitted that she was. But it was a dead secret.

"Does he know about Jimmy?" "No, darling. Not from me, of course. And it isn't likely that he'll hear it from Dallas himself. Only Rex knows, and you may be sure that he will never tell."

"You're funny, Laurie," said Gladys. "I can't help feeling that you are in love with Rex all the time. And yet you're divorcing him! But I suppose you've got a reason. Men are all alike."

But she was not really interested. She was too much taken up with her own misery. She fell in with Laurie's plans for her without a word of protest.

Mark Albery went over to France. Not a word about Rex Moore passed between him and Laurie before he left.

Laurie did not communicate with Rex, or he with her. She supposed he was back at Gretton, making his final preparations for the great Pacific flight.

She did not know of Wanda Steele's death. There had been only a brief reference to the accident in the papers, which she had missed.

The day came when, as Laurie told herself, her life would end. Everything was ready. Her modest luggage was on a cab. Gladys was comfortably installed in the nursing home. She had immediately taken to the role of the luxurious patient, and her beauty enchanted the nursing staff, who, one and all, were only too eager to wait on her hand and foot. The rest, and the seclusion from the outside world, were included a boon to the girl, and her sister knew that.

self and said firmly: "I am not going away. How can you expect me to? Where is Rex? Where has he flown to?"

"I can't say for certain. He was going to cross the Alps, to make some tests."

"Why didn't you tell me?" "I didn't see why it should interest you any more. Come, Laurie, don't stand here talking!"

"Nothing will induce me to leave England until I know that he is safe," she answered calmly.

"You are being ridiculous. Everything is arranged for our marriage tomorrow."

"Marriage?" She spoke the words as if it could have no connection with herself. "But if Rex is dead—"

She stopped. The look on his face froze the words on her lips. He was looking at the contents bill. He was smiling that terrible smile. His close-set lips parted in that cruel, triumphant grin of a man revelling in some fiendish satisfaction. She had seen it on his face that morning on the Gretton airfield when she had been about to go up with Rex Moore and he had come and prevented her.

And, all of a sudden, she knew that if Rex Moore were dead, Mark Albery had sent him to his death. She felt it not as a suspicion but as a certainty. She looked at the man beside her with horror in her eyes. "If he's dead, you've killed him," she said tonelessly.

"You are mad!" he retorted, but the madness was in his own eyes, and again he gripped her arm and tried to force her into the station.

But she tore herself away.

Mark Albery went over to France. Not a word about Rex Moore passed between him and Laurie before he left.

Laurie did not communicate with Rex, or he with her. She supposed he was back at Gretton, making his final preparations for the great Pacific flight.

She did not know of Wanda Steele's death. There had been only a brief reference to the accident in the papers, which she had missed.

The day came when, as Laurie told herself, her life would end. Everything was ready. Her modest luggage was on a cab. Gladys was comfortably installed in the nursing home. The rest, and the seclusion from the outside world, were included a boon to the girl, and her sister knew that.

At the Albery offices it was understood that Mrs. Moore had gone on her summer holiday. Laurie was keeping on her rooms for Gladys to go back to. Albery had told her, so that nobody should suspect the truth.

Albery had come back to London yesterday, and was meeting her at the station.

She drove away from her little home with despair in her heart.

Albery was in the station courtyard. He hurried to her and clasped her hand, his eyes devouring her face that looked rarely beautiful today in its pallor and fragility, with the blue eyes, dark and haunted, a light in them not of this earth.

Giants Beat Cards Third Time In Row As Cubs Win

Dizzy Knocked From Mound; New York To Chicago

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr. Associated Press Sports Writer

The celebrated hop from the frying pan into the fire couldn't be much worse than the one the Giants have to take from St. Louis to Chicago.

Triumphant in a great struggle which began with St. Louis in the lead and New York 3½ games behind, the New Yorkers now face exactly the same sort of series against the Cubs. When they came routing the Cards on their own field for the third time in a row, Chicago continued its brilliant winning streak to 12 straight victories by sweeping a four-game series with Brooklyn and now heads the parade by two games over St. Louis and 3½ games over New York.

Bill Terry's wrecking crew apparently proved that its pennant aspirations still were sound when, after losing the first game to the Cards and Dizzy Dean, they came back to win three in a row, including two extra inning encounters. It was the second time they had conquered the Cards at a critical stage.

They showed their strength again yesterday when, after two extra inning victories, they routed Dizzy Dean, who won the first game handily, and hammered out a 7-3 triumph with a 16-hit attack that rocked three pitchers. Three singles in the first inning put them a run ahead and they added pair of tallies in the third, when Hank Leiber hit a homer with Terry aboard, and in the fifth, Carl Hubbell pitched two-hit ball up to the sixth, when Joe Medwick hit for the circuit, then eased up and gave two runs in the eighth after New York had scored its last two.

The Cards had scant consolation in the fact that the attendance of 4,284 set a St. Louis record for a single regular-season game.

Four Brooklyn errors, plus Bill Lee's six-hit flinging, made it easy for the Cubs to increase their lead with a 6-3 victory over the Dodgers.

Gus Shur, Pittsburgh first baseman, equalled the National league endurance record of 618 games, established by Eddie Brown of Boston, when he played one inning in a 5-3 victory over the Phillies. He still trailed the American league "iron man" Lou Gehrig of the Yankees, who took part in game 1,640 of his continuous stretch and helped beat the league-leading Tigers 1-7.

The Yankees triumph only served to reduce Detroit's lead to 8½ games two weeks before the close of the season. Johnny Murphy played the big role, pitched expertly after "White" Bell, who pitched out, driving in the tying run in the seventh and scoring the winning counter.

Cleveland broke its third-place deadlock with the Red Sox by pounding out a total of 35 hits. The scores were 16 to 4 and 6-3. Boston won only one game, trimming the Browns 9-5 with the sixth inning rally after St. Louis had nipped Lefty Grove for five tallies in the first.

The White Sox and Athletics split a bargain bill, Chicago winning the opener 8-2 and Philadelphia the ten-inning afterpiece 7-5 on Pinky Higgins' home run. Cincinnati turned back the Braves twice, 1-0 in the opening pitching duel in which Paul Derringer and Ben Cantwell gave four hits each and 7-6 in a ninth-inning run in the second clash.

Oklahoma City Splurges Into League Finals

JACKSONVILLE WINS SECOND DIXIE TITLE

BEATS JUDGES FROM ARKANSAS IN 5TH GAME

Jacksonville, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Jacksonville Jax won little Dixie championships today for the second year in succession.

The Jax, champions of the West Dixie league, won the 1935 series by defeating the Pine Bluff Judges 4-0 here yesterday. The Judges won the East-Dixie league pennant. Manager Jackie Reid held the Judges to six hits.

Although the series was for four games out of seven, only five were required. The Jax won the first three, and dropped the fourth.

In the final game the first scoring came in the fourth inning. Frank Metha walked and took third when Cy Cashion hit a two-bagger. Both players crossed the home plate after Al Simmons hit a long double to left center. Singlet Althos Sada momentarily sent Simmons home for the third tally.

Metha scored the final counter, which came in the seventh. He was on base by a fielder's choice when Cashion hit a triple against the right centerfield fence, sending him in.

The Jax infield was guilty of four misplays, but none was costly. Skipper Reid tightened in the tough spots, and silenced the Judges' willows.

Cashion led the hitting with his triple and double in three trips. Simmons hit a double and a single out of four journeys to the plate.

Manager Lena Styles and Stanley Pintner each got two singles out of four trips for the Judges.

Tommy Hitchcock Playing at Best

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—Tommy Hitchcock is riding high, wide and handsome again and his Greentree mallet is knocking on the door of the National Open Polo throne room.

Playing with all the dash and reckless abandon that featured his play when he was handicapped at ten goals, Hitchcock has led the Greentree riders to victory over Long Island and Templeton into the final bracket where they will meet Aurora Wednesday.

Yesterday Greentree shaded the favored champions, Templeton, 10-9 as Hitchcock thrilled 20,000 persons on International field with his exhibition of horsemanship, tactics and mallet wielding. He figured in practically every scoring play and tallied three times himself.

Riding with him were George H. (Pete) Eastwick, Gerald Balding and John Hay (Jock) Whitney.

PEWEES ROUT HOOVER TEAM 18 TO 12 IN SLUGGING FEST

The Peewees cut the big boys on the Hoover team down to their own size yesterday afternoon and won a game at Magnolia park by the score of 18 to 12.

Bob Bailey, substitute pitcher for Busby's Indians during this season, was on the mound for Hoover, but the 13 and 14-year-olds knocked him off the mound in the seventh. E. W. Hogan, who followed him, fared no better. The Peewees hit everything either had to offer.

Revisita Harvey pitched for the Peewees and the latter's regular hurler, Amos Reed, was in right field. Harvey gave up 13 hits but scattered them. The Peewees collected 20 singles off Bailey's delivery. Mage Kiser, former Peeewe, played with Hoover but his big bat was not as noisy as when he played with the younger boys. He managed to get two hits, one a homer. Despite their lack of practice, the Peeewe infield performed up to par, although several errors were made in the outfield. Numerous errors marred the work of the Hoover team. Fred McGahey who played third for the Peeewees stole in home while the pitcher held the ball.

Both Doyle Auld and Duane Turcotte caught rather brilliantly behind the bat, considering their age, but Auld had a noticeable edge on his rival.

Every Peeewe got at least two hits each while Harvey, Mills, and McGahey got four each.

The lineup: Peeewe—Grover Heiskell, lf; Billy Morrow, ss; Claude Heiskell, 1b; Harvey, p; McGahey, 3b; Dull, cf; Reed, lf; Auld; Hoover—Turcotte, c; Cole, 2b; Nicholson, 3b; Kiser, ss; Bailey, p; Hogan, 1b; Baker, lf; Felner and Palmatier, cf; Tucker, rf.

Probably the best work of the afternoon was turned in by Claude Heiskell, who made several sensational catches for putouts at first.

House Of David Will Play Road Runners Tonight

Bearded Team Loses To Pampans 4-3 In Wichita

Staging a sensational ninth inning rally, the Pampa Road Runners yesterday afternoon defeated the House of David bearded team, 4 to 3, in a game played at Wichita, Kan., where the teams were guests at a big baseball rally, following the Wichita, Kan., tournament.

The Road Runners were trailing, 3 to 1, going into the closing half of the ninth inning. Gordon Nell, first batter, doubled. Patton dropped a Texas leaguer back of short stop, Nell going to third. Seitz almost knocked the third baseman down with a line drive. He picked the ball up in time to throw to second, but the second baseman dropped the ball and everyone was safe, Nell scoring on the play. Bulla sacrificed Seitz to second. McLary was to be intentionally walked, but he took a cut at a high ball and singled to center field, scoring Patton with the tying run. Horton, who had batted for Stewart and who was doing the receiving, then doubled, scoring the winning run.

Pampa opened the scoring in the second with a single run. The bearded boys sent three across in the fourth and appeared to have the game "sacked" until the last of the ninth.

The Road Runners defeated their old diamond enemy, Pewee Bass who used to dish up slants for the Phillips 66 Oilers of Borger. Bass pitched great ball until the ninth inning when the Road Runners laid down their barrage to win the game.

Carl Stewart started for the Road Runners and excepting for the fourth inning pitched winning ball. Bulla relieved Stewart when he

Dempsey Thinks Louis Will Win

SPECULATOR N. Y., Sept. 16 (AP)—Jack Dempsey, always a roofer for Max Baer, is of the opinion that the former butcher boy is in shape to absorb plenty of punishment but that he would have to improve on his showing of yesterday if he would defeat Joe Louis.

Max, apparently in one of his periods of lassitude, boxed six rounds yesterday as Dempsey and others looked on. In contrast to his savage punching of the day before, however, Baer had little steam in his punches and seemed content to box with Paul Pross, Willie McGee, George Turner and Lou Scozza.

Early in his workout Baer was disturbed by the collapse of a stand holding approximately 400 persons in which several persons were hurt.

BEAUMONT AND BUGS TO PLAY DECIDING TILT

SHIPPER'S WIN FOURTH GAME IN ELEVENTH 6 TO 5

BEAUMONT, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Galveston Buccaneers and the Beaumont Exporters traveled to Galveston today for the fifth and deciding game of their Texas league Shaughnessy playoff series, the winner of which will meet the Oklahoma City Indians for the league championship.

The Exporters carried the series to full length by winning a thrilling 11-inning, 6-5, game here yesterday.

The Bucs will depend on the capable right arm of Jim Moore, recruited from the Oklahoma semi-pro ranks five weeks ago, to bring them victory tonight.

Moore has had ample rest since he blanked the Shippers, 2-0, in the second game. George Gill, the losing pitcher in that contest, likely will oppose Moore by night.

The site for the final encounter was determined by the toss of a coin just before the start of yesterday's eleven-inning thriller at Beaumont.

The 7,144 fans who crowded into the Beaumont park cheered themselves hoarse as the hustling young Exporters made a valiant fight against heavy odds and finally emerged victorious when Don Ross stole home with two men down in the eleventh.

The Bucs jumped into a four-run lead and four runs usually are enough behind Max Butcher, who has chalked up 25 victories this year. The Shippers kept hammering away at Butcher, however, and finally drove him from the hill. Rudy York and Cowboy Jones each hit a homer with a man on base.

Joe Hare's superb relief pitching contributed greatly to the Shipper victory. Charlie English started the tenth with a triple to center but was unable to score. Hare forced McGhee, Perost and Ward, three of the most dangerous batters on the Galveston team, to hit in the air.

Pat McLaughlin was the starting Beaumont hurler but he didn't last long. The Bucs found him on a run in the second and then sent him in the showers in the third with singles by Governor and McGhee and a double by Perost. Before Larkin could retire the side, Galveston had boosted its run total for the inning to three.

Larkin allowed only one more tally until he weakened in the eighth and was relieved by Hare.

Jack Jakucki, who came to Butcher's rescue in the seventh, did a nice bit of relief hurling. He seemed on the way to pitching himself out of a bad hole in the eleventh when Ross caught him asleep and stole home while he was winding up. Ross had singled, gone to second on a passed ball and to third on an infield out. Hare was at bat when Ross darted home.

Dizzy Dean Is Star of Month

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP)—Jerome "Dizzy" Dean, the Cardinals' leading twirler who admits he's good and then proves it, was the outstanding luminary in the major league stars of the fifth month of the 1935 season.

Dizzy earned the designation of "star of the month" by one vote over Eddie Lon Gehrig, the Yankee Juggernaut, on the basis of the daily Associated Press listing of "yesterday's stars." Dizzy turned in seven performances in the month which ended today that earned him the right to be listed as a star. Gehrig was named six times while Jimmie Foxx of the Athletics came in third with five starring performances.

Two of the Detroit Tigers, Hank Greenberg and Schoolboy Rowe were picked four times along with Hal Trösky of the Indians and Paul Andrews of the Browns.

McKinney Shooter Wins Skest Crown

DALLAS, Sept. 15 (AP)—Roy Cherry of McKinney won the southwest-ern skeet crown today.

He shot 198 out of a possible 200 targets in the annual title meet to take the crown away from J. O. Bates of Fort Worth. Bates finished second with a score of 196.

Mrs. James Horton of Eastland again defeated Mrs. Sam Wells of Paris to retain the women's title. Mrs. Horton hit 81 out of 100, and Mrs. Weiss 77.

'Terrible Turks' Beat Hedley

TURKEY, Sept. 16.—The Terrible Turks of Coach Al Duncan opened the 1935 football season with a 20 to 0 victory over the Hedley Owls on Friday afternoon. Wrecked by graduation, the Turks were not doped to be formidable this year, but Coach Duncan has switched and changed until he has a promising squad on the field.

Earl Hill, shifted from the line to the backfield, showed signs of becoming a dangerous ball toter when he side stepped and spun his way through the Owl defense for 40 yards to place the ball in scoring position early in the game.

Jess Lipscomb, another lineman from last year that has been shifted to the backfield, looked natural snagging passes and plowing the line. Captain Buster Mullin and Delton Yarbrough, letter backs from last season, played great games.

The line play of J. Hill, Young, Bell, Cotton, Farley, was encouraging.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press.)

Hank Leiber, Giants—Batted in three runs and scored three in victory over Cardinals, hitting homer and single.

Dusty Cooke, Red Sox—Hit double and walk, both with bases full, sent in four runs against Browns.

Paul Derringer and Jim Bottomley, Reds—Derringer blanked Boston with four hits in first game. Bottomley's pinch hit in ninth inning won second.

Johnny Murphy, Yankees—Checked off Tigers as relief pitcher, drove in tying run with double and scored winning tally.

Bill Lee, Cubs—Limited Dodgers to six hits and fanned six.

Ed Phillips, Indians—Knocked in six runs with three doubles and single in first victory over Senators.

Ralph Birkhofer, Pirates—Scattered eight hits for 3-3 victory.

Marty Hopkins, White Sox, and Pinky Higgins, Athletics—Hopkins batted in four runs in first game; Higgins made four hits in second and won it with tenth-inning homer.

Harvesters Prep For Lawton Game On Friday Night

Sooners Will Have a Heavy Line and Vet Backs

The Harvesters will spend this week, or until Friday, working on plays to use against the Lawton Wolves on Friday night when the 1935 football season opens. The game will be called at 8 o'clock at Harvesters field.

Lawton, with 10 lettermen from last year in the lineup, is expected to prove a formidable foe. The team is well balanced, with a heavy line and left backfield, excepting for the fullback who tips the scales at 180 pounds.

The Wolves will have the advantage in experience, with the Harvesters overshadowing them in weight by several pounds to a man. Coach Odus Mitchell has not weighed his players, but expects to do so tomorrow afternoon.

The Harvesters showed great improvement in a scrimmage Friday afternoon when they drubbed a team of ex-Harvesters by two touchdowns to none. They functioned more smoothly than at any time during the training season.

Unless injuries crop up this week, the Harvesters should enter the game with a full lineup. Bob Drake, injured when struck by a car Friday morning, will be ready for the game, it is believed. Panning and Noblitt will also be ready for duty.

The Harvesters starting lineup will probably be announced within the next few days.

TEACHERS COLLEGE TO BEGIN REGISTERING PUPILS TUESDAY - INCREASE IN BODY LIKELY

CANYON, Sept. 16.—Tomorrow registration of freshmen for the 36th annual long session will begin at the West Texas State Teachers college. On Wednesday sophomores and upper classmen will register, and on Thursday, all classes will meet for the first time.

With the dormitories practically full and with private board and rooming houses rapidly filling, it is expected that the fall enrollment will be the largest in the history of the institution. Transcripts of high school and college work have been arriving in the office of Registrar D. A. Shirley for more than a month, and since September 1 parents and prospective students have been visiting the campus every hour of the day trying to make satisfactory arrangements for the school year.

There will be seven new members on the faculty this year. Leon Lassers, coming from Chicago university and formerly of the faculty of Stout Institute, Menominee, Wis., will substitute for Professor C. W. Batchelder of the speech department, who is on leave this year.

Dr. Arlin Turner comes from the Spanish department of the University of Texas to substitute for Miss Margaret Wiley, who is working on her Ph. D.

Mrs. Florence Fulton, M. A. from Southern Methodist university and late of the faculty of the Teachers college at Commerce, will teach in the department of physical education for women, taking the place of Mrs. Wallace O'Keefe, who will do advanced study this year.

Miss Emil Brewer will teach courses in journalism. Miss Brewer comes from the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri.

From Scarrett college, Nashville and the University of Chicago will come Miss Oessie Sanders, who will teach Bible. Bible courses are being offered for the first time this year and it is expected that many college students will do as much as 12 hours study in this field.

It is likely that two other faculty changes will be announced before the first week is over.

Atlanta Leads Southern League

ATLANTA, Sept. 16. (AP)—The Southern Association wound up its 1935 season Sunday with the Atlanta Crackers six games ahead in spite of a double loss to Chattanooga but the championship is still to be decided in a play-off between the four first division teams.

Atlanta, which lost 6 to 4 and 5 to 1 to the Lookouts in their closing performance of the regular season, opens the series for the title and right to meet the Texas league champions in the Dixie series against Nashville Wednesday. New Orleans meets Memphis in the other bracket and the two winners will fight it out for the Southern crown.

The New Orleans team, finishing in second place, won 5 to 3 over Memphis to wind up its schedule yesterday while Nashville, in fourth position behind Memphis, nosed out Knoxville 7 to 6. Birmingham and Little Rock divided a double. Little Rock took the first 3 to 2 and lost the nightcap 4 to 1.

In the second division the order of finishing was Chattanooga, Little Rock, Birmingham and Knoxville.

Players Will Be Jaycees' Guests

Officials and players of the Coltoxo Gas baseball team of LeFors and officials of the Pampa-Danciger Road Runners and Phillips 66 Oilers of Borger, will be guests of the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce at their noon luncheon in the Schneider hotel tomorrow noon.

At that time the Coltoxo team will receive a check for $1,000, first place money in the Jaycee baseball tournament. The Road Runners will receive $500.16 and the Phillips team will be awarded $333.44.

In Jimmy Hale, veteran of many major league teams, is the pitcher of the Coltoxo club. Fred Brickell, also a former major league star, is at the helm of the Road Runners. Mulrone heads the Phillips team.

An interesting program will be presented and delegates to the state convention in Tyler, Friday and Saturday, will be named.

Tomorrow Will Be Pampa Day At Tri-State

Tomorrow is Pampa day at the Tri-State fair.

Pampans know it, but the problem is how to make Amarilloans and the crowd generally aware of the fact.

The B. T. had two ideas on the subject. The first one was to take the high school band. This will be done. The second is to have Pampans take "Pampa" stickers. This last idea is not so easy to work.

Pampans are asked to call at the B. C. D. office before going to Amarillo, to obtain the stickers.

Gray county has an exhibit assembled by Ralph Thomas, county agent. Gray county women, directed by Miss Ruby Adams, demonstration agent, have entered a number of contests.

The leaders will practice this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the gym.

The Grand March will begin at exactly 10 o'clock. Preceding and following it, the old time dance favorites will be given the best caller. Best women's costume, best dancers of the schottische, New Shoes, waltz, heel and toe polka, and square dances.

Cash prizes will be given the three best old time fiddlers. The best danced at one time. About 10 callers will be available. Another old time fiddler who agreed today to help play for the dance was Bill Ridgeway. About seven old-time fiddlers and their accompanists will furnish the music.

Tickets Selling Rapidly.

The doors of the gym will be opened at 7:30 o'clock. The dance will start at 8 o'clock. The three music clubs which are sponsoring the dance are expecting the gymnasium to be crowded to accommodate about 500 spectators and a hundred or more dancers.

Mrs. Frances Sturgeon was today buying valuable appropriate prizes for winners of the various contests.

The gym will be decorated tomorrow by a committee headed by Mrs. Ethel Taylor. Ticket sellers report that the pasteborders are selling rapidly. Members of all music clubs are selling the tickets. They urged residents to buy tickets now so they would not have to stand in line at the gym. Proceeds will be used by music clubs to finance the music clubs convention here in October.

WALLACE FIGHT WITH PACKERS NEARS RULING Companies Charged With Controlling Prices

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—A fight between Secretary Wallace and meat packing concerns moved a step nearer a decision today.

Government officials looked for a winnow before nightfall of arguments centering on Wallace's formal complaint, made in 1934, that ten major packing companies combined to control retail meat prices from 1927 to 1933.

Before the final arguments opened, Edwin C. Andrews, president of the Jacob Dold Packing company, one of the concerns involved, objected that Wallace "is both plaintiff and judge in the case."

He referred to the fact that Wallace is presiding at the hearings after issuing the formal complaint. Andrews said in Buffalo, N. Y., last night, that his concern had not yet been notified to appear today, although officials said the hearings were to be held.

Officials said that if Wallace adjudged the companies guilty of monopoly, he could issue an order directing them to desist. The fight then could be carried to the courts.

The accusation in the complaint was that the packers exchanged price information in a move to enable them to give "unreasonable preferences and advantages to certain purchasers; to give preferences to certain localities; to discriminate unjustly between certain persons; to force competitors out of business, and to manipulate prices and apportion sales in commerce."

LONG

of East Baton Rouge parish "a murder plotter."

The district attorney came to his feet and in a voice hard to control, replied, "if he or anyone else says I engaged in any plot to kill Senator Huey Long he is a wilful, malicious and vicious liar."

The chamber of the court house was packed. The audience was about evenly divided between supporters of the "dictatorial" Long machine and anti-Long adherents.

"In a cowardly way, Senator Long was shot—," Messina said as he burst into tears and was unable to go further for several minutes.

"When Welas fired the shot I knew he (Long) was killed," Messina resumed.

"I ran up and unloaded my gun into Welas. I ran up and shot the man who had shot Senator Long."

Smith, taking the stand as the second witness—Justice John B. Pournet, the man some say probably prevented a second shot from Dr. Welas' pistol, was the first—declined to be questioned.

"I want to say I respect your court," Smith said, "but I want to say that this district attorney has been named as a 'murder plot conspirator.' I refuse to respect him. I refuse to be questioned."

"When a man who has not shared in the conspiracies asks the questions, I will answer them."

"I worshipped my hero."

"There was applause in the packed room."

District Attorney Odum rose.

"I care nothing for his opinion of me or my acts, but he or anybody else who says I engaged in any plot to kill Senator Huey P. Long is a wilful, malicious and vicious liar."

More applause sounded.

Smith was excused from the witness stand.

The room held a half dozen of Long's former bodyguards who came to their feet during the scene between Smith and Odum. The district attorney's agent, who were there in number, likewise rose on their feet.

Laugh breaks tension.

The tension was broken when the district attorney laughed and called the next witness.

Foster Renews Friendship With Marine Bandsman

J. E. Foster, operator at the Car-ray Gasoline plant west of Pampa, this morning, was proudly displaying a picture of the U. S. Marine band, which played in Amarillo last week, and also a picture of H. H. Flores, drum major of the band, both photographed by Mr. Flores.

The pictures were fulfillment of a promise made by Mr. Flores while in Amarillo to his old buddy, Mr. Foster.

The two men were with the marines in the Hawaiian Islands in 1913 and 1914. They separated in 1914 and did not meet again until 1917 when preparing to leave for France. The two friends had their first meeting since "war days" in Amarillo last week.

POOL CLOSED

The Pampa Municipal swimming pool was officially closed this morning when water was drained and material stored away until next summer. The pool was a popular place all summer.

City commissioners tonight in regular session will discuss the advisability of placing a guard at the pool until its opening next summer.

Hank Breining of LeFors was a Pampa visitor this morning.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your bowels don't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is clogged and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

Calomel is only make-shift. A mass bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmon, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. W.C. © 1935, C. H. Co.

tration of the liquor laws you may pass, but for the general treasury as well."

He asserted the constitutional amendment intended that the people in any territory be entitled to liquor under the same regulations, giving the community which voted dry had an equal right to expect it "shall not be overrun by an outlawed traffic beyond its boundaries."

"It will not be sufficient, in my judgment, to simply prohibit, for instance, the taking of orders, possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors in dry territory," he said. "Every other form of traffic in liquor in such communities should be outlawed. In other words, all needful legislation, such as prohibiting the taking of orders, giving, furnishing, et cetera, of liquor within such communities, should be enacted."

Opposes Agencies.

The governor otherwise recommended: Provision for holding local option elections to determine whether subdivisions now desire to permit or prohibit the sale of liquor of more than 3.2 per cent alcoholic content.

Simplification in regulations to expedite collection of taxes, detection of violations and prosecuting in liquor cases.

Opening the books of any person or corporation engaging in the liquor business to inspection by the established regulatory or tax collecting agency.

Prohibiting ownership of any dispensing agency or store, or the furnishing of any fixtures or financing through holding companies otherwise, by any brewers, or distilling company, or person engaged in any other branch of the liquor business.

Prohibition of sale of liquor to minors or to persons of legal age in places where liquor is sold.

"The people voted for the general principle of repeal of the liquor amendment," the governor concluded, "but they are looking to this legislature to carry out their desires by taking intelligent and clear-cut legislation."

MONROE WRECK

MONROE, La., Sept. 16. (AP)—The death list from the derailment and burning of an eastbound Illinois Central freight train Saturday in West Monroe mounted to ten with the death last night of Pete Griggs, 25, of Calhoun, La., at a sanitarium here.

It was necessary to amputate Griggs' right leg at the scene of the accident after rescue workers had toiled in vain to lift an iron beam off his crushed leg as flames licked at the car under which he was pinned.

Six others injured in the wreck were reported as improved.

Work of removing the debris at the scene of the accident continued today and it was possible other bodies would be recovered.

Two transients on the train, who witnessed the derailment, said that 30 or 40 transients were on two oil tank cars which were derailed and burst into flames and declared that it was hardly possible that all but nine of them escaped death.

None of the other victims of the derailment was identified. Four bodies were brought to a morgue here and immediately buried. What little remained of the other five known victims were buried along the right-of-way.

The citizen would be given a reich citizen letter naming him the bearer of citizen privileges. The date for enforcement of the citizenship law was not immediately fixed.

A third law, entitled "protection of blood and honor," became effective today. It provided that marriages between Jews and Germans were forbidden, and such marriages contracted abroad were declared void.

Extra-matrimonial sexual relations between non-Aryans and Aryans were forbidden under pain of penitentiary punishments. Jews were forbidden to engage Aryan help under 45 years of age, with violations punishable by one year in jail and a fine, or both.

The laws provided further that Jews may not fly the German flag, but only the blue and white Zionist emblem.
