T. A. LANDERS in McClain News—The 34 Panhandle counties from Hardeman north voted dry in the last election only six of the counties returning wet majorities. Oldham had a 14 vote wet majority, Moore 24, Gray 84, Carson 114, Potter 300 and Hutchinson 315. This leaves little doubt as to the sentiment in this section. The fact of the matter is, the vote showed that the state north of Austin is dry—the wets gaining their strength in the large cities down state.

J. M. NOBLE in Canadian Record—Amarillo should give credit to visitors at the Tri-State Fair for at least one other thing besides supporting the fair. It was one of the best behaved crowds of folk that has been our pleasure with which to mingle. If there was any drinking of hard liquor going on, it was not noticeable. Everyone conducted himself nearly 100 per cent perfect, as far as could be seen.

THE APOSTLE in Donley County Leader—There's no separate smoking compartments on the Denver road any more. They let the women smoke any place because they have to, and the men take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy a bit of social equality.

W. W. SIMMONS in White Deer Review—Unfriendly fire—out of control—is one of man's greatest enemies. It destroys property—causing irreparable economic loss. It menaces life. It hampers progress. It threatens community development, and industrial activity and employment.

DAVID M. WARREN in Panhandle Herald—In cooperation with a safety program, Panhandle should stop center parking on Main street. This city has too many blocks of good paving to subject the people to the danger of accidents from double parking.

CHAS. A. GUY in Lubbock Journal—About the only thing the recent hide-and-seek game between John Barrymore and his "protégé," Elaine Barrie, has proven is that she is a young fool and he is an old one.

CHAS. J. HUFFP in Roswell Dispatch—Driving at excessive speeds may, if you get away it, save you ten minutes in a fifty-mile run. If you don't get away with it, it may mean your death, or the death of an innocent party. Passing on hill and curves, weaving through thick traffic and taking other chances may save you a minute or two more—or it may mean a crushed body on the pavement, its bones twisted and broken, its eyes staring and sightless.

MATT FARRELL in Borner Herald—The minorities fear the minorities, and that is why the minorities are so successful. The majority as a whole does not fear any minority, but the majority is not organized as the minorities are. Therefore pressure by any minority can be brought to bear on any member or on any group, of the majority. That such pressure can be brought to bear is one of the evils of American life, and one of the evils of life in other countries.

MORRIS HIGLEY in Childress Index—Before you take anything back to a store, ask yourself if you claim it is reasonable. Merchants of course win favor when they are liberal in such matters, and give people a chance to examine goods in their homes. But they should not be asked to go to added expense because people made errors in judgment.

STRANDED VESSEL IS STUCK FAST IN CALM SEA

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The British steamer Ariguani was standing by in a calm sea today to take off the passengers of the Rotterdam, flagship of the Holland-America line aground on a reef 60 miles southeast of Kingston, Jamaica.
The first attempt to float the liner off the reef was unsuccessful. Captain J. Van Dulken, veteran master of the Rotterdam, reported to the line's offices here that all was calm aboard.
His latest message read: "Grounded west side Morant Cays. First attempt to float her unsuccessful. Weather fine. Making arrangements to forward passengers per Ariguani to Kingston. Passengers very quiet."
The Ariguani is bound from England to Kingston.
The line's office, after re-checking the passenger lists, said the Rotterdam, carried about 450 passengers and a crew of 526.
The Rotterdam was bound back to New York after a cruise to St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands and to Caracas, the capital of Venezuela. She was putting into Kingston after touching for a few hours at Willemstad on the island of Curacao.
In view of the master's statement regarding the calm sea, the reason for the stranding of the liner on Morant Cays—the south of the famous windward passage between Cuba and Haiti—was not known to the line's office. It was first thought the Rotterdam might have been blown on to the Cays by the hurricane which now is sweeping past the Florida coast.
The officers here had no fear for the safety of the passengers.

J. A. PEARSON DIES SUDDENLY OF WAR INJURY

Former Veteran And Legion Official Passes

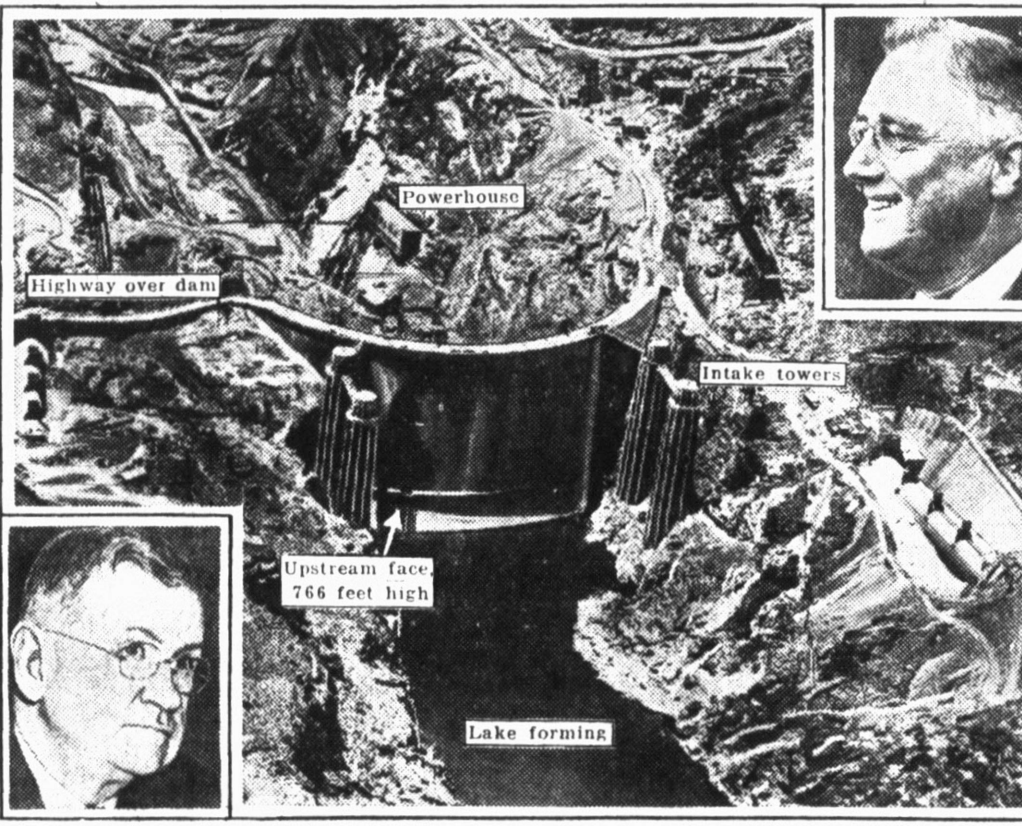

The world war claimed another victim this morning when J. A. Pearson, 58, died at his home in Lincoln, Ark. Gas, one of the instruments of the recent war, was the cause back of the sudden death of the former Pampa man.
The Pearsons moved to Pampa in 1920 and made Pampa their home until last year, when they moved to Boone, near San Antonio. A few months ago they moved to Lincoln, Ark., to make their home. Mr. Pearson had just returned from the national convention of the American Legion when he was stricken.
Mr. Pearson enlisted in the motor transport section of the First division in 1917. He served 18 months in France, returning to America in 1919, a sergeant. He immediately became active in veterans organizations. He was chef de gare or commander of the Pampa post and was later elevated to that post in the state organization.
His ability to lead men and his level headed administration received the attention of the national organization, and he rose to the office of Sous-Chemin de Fer or vice-president of the national body. At the time of his death, he held the post of grand historian of the National Forty and Eight.

Surviving Mr. Pearson are his wife and two daughters, Mrs. M. M. Mitchell, Indianapolis, Ind., and Winnie Pearson, Lincoln, and three sons, Jimmie Pearson, Pampa, and Willie and Dan Pearson, at home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

I Heard...

A group of Pampa's most faithful football fans conclude this morning lamenting the tendency of some of their harvesters to play to the grandstand. That will never win football games. It is the hitting the line and the getting up and going at it again that does the job.

FDR Gives Ultimatum to Business At Boulder Dam

President Roosevelt in dedicating Boulder Dam this afternoon told private industry it must take over more rapidly the finding of jobs for America's unemployed, and also proposed a state power line from this project as a "yardstick" to measure the cost of power throughout the United States. The engineering marvel of the age is shown nearing completion. "Key points" in the mammoth barrier are indicated on the picture. Accompanying the president on his trip was Secretary of Interior Ickes, inset, below, under whose jurisdiction come the great power and reclamation projects of the new deal.

GILMER, Sept. 30 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred has proclaimed the week of Oct. 13-19 "Yam Week" in recognition of the East Texas sweet potato festival here Oct. 18-19. The governor declared it proper to pay tribute to the "merits of the state's products and industries."

VOTING CONTINUES IN MEMEL AFTER RIOTS ON NAZI BORDER

MEMEL, Sept. 30 (AP)—A crowd of puzzled, irritable voters gathered today at polling stations under heavy police guard for the second day of the election between German and Lithuanian candidates for the Memel territory's diet.

The extension of the elections followed a breakdown of the arrangements yesterday when the complicated voting procedure prevented an estimated 40 per cent of the populace from casting ballots. The police reinforcements resulted from yesterday's rioting at Juknaical, near the German frontier, where three policemen were beaten severely.

The entire balloting, it was reported reliably, will be repeated at Juknaical, where voters, exasperated by the delay, smashed election urns, wrecked the polling station and attacked members of the election committee.
Indignant crowds besieged the district's 76 polling stations until late last night, demanding the right to vote immediately. Due to the complicated system, the earliest returns were not expected before Friday.

The hitch which led the Lithuanian cabinet to amend the election law and extend polling into the second day arose from delay by citizens in choosing their candidates for 29 seats in the landtag.
Voters were instructed to tear off 29 sheets, bearing the names of candidates for as many diet seats from a book holding the names of more than 100 aspirants to the diet.

The extension of the polling into the second day stirred bitterness among both Memellanders and Germans who seek to restore East Prussia's oldest city, lost by Germany in the world war, to nazidom.

URGES STATE POWER SYSTEM FROM BIG DAM

'YARDSTICK' PROPOSED BY PRESIDENT AT DEDICATION

BOULDER CITY, Nevada, Sept. 30 (AP)—On the site of Boulder Dam, built here with $15,000,000 government funds, President Roosevelt told private industry today it must take over more rapidly the finding of jobs for America's unemployed.
In dedicating the huge power, flood control and irrigation dam on turbulent Colorado river, the president cited it as an example of useful government work, but declared federal projects were desirable chiefly to "throw in the clutch and start the wheels."
Mr. Roosevelt said:
"It is a simple fact that government spending is already beginning to show definite signs of its effect on consumer spending; that the putting of people to work by the government has put other people to work through private employment, and that in two years and a half we have come to the point where private industry must bear the principal responsibility of keeping the processes of great employment moving forward with accelerated speed."
Mr. Roosevelt declared the public works expenditures by the federal and lesser branches of government had left the credit of government "stronger and safer than at any time in the past six years."
He proposed a state power line from this project as a "yardstick" to measure the cost of power throughout the United States.

In discussing the power "yardstick," Mr. Roosevelt stated: "It is my belief that the government should proceed to lay down the first yardstick from this great power plant in the form of a state power line, assigned in its financing by the government, and tapping the wonderful natural resources of southern Nevada."

The president strongly defended the countless other federal projects of small nature now underway thru the rapid-fire jobs-making works progress administration.
Pointing to the vast use of Boulder Dam in preventing floods, irrigating soil and providing power, he asked, "can we say that a five-foot brush-wood dam across the headwaters of an arroyo, and costing only a millionth part of Boulder Dam, is an

SCOUT PARENTS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND COURT

Two Boys To Be Advanced To Rank Of Eagle

A Boy Scout court of honor is held primarily for the benefit of parents, and the fathers and mothers of boys who participate in the ceremonies that are held periodically, do not attend in the numbers that they should.
Tonight, a court of honor will be held at 8 o'clock in the courthouse, and parents of boys who will be advanced in rank are urged to attend. L. L. McColm, court of honor chairman, will preside.
High points of the ceremony tonight will be advancement of Grover Foster of Pampa and Robert Givlin of Morse to the rank of Eagle Scout. Grover, ace-outfielder for the Peewees during the last season, will attain the rank when he is awarded his merit badge for life-saving. Givlin will journey all the way from Morse to attend the court of honor. As many as 25 or 30 boys will be advanced in rank or given merit badges at the court of honor.
Movies of the activities and scenes at the summer training camp in Colorado will be shown following the court.
Most of the Scouts in this city and immediate area will attend.

A 3 PER CENT SALES TAX WOULD BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL

AUSTIN, Sept. 30 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw ruled today the legislature could prescribe qualifications for old age pensioners in addition to those provided by the constitution and that its provision in a senate pension bill was constitutional.

The opinion was requested by a senate sub-committee drafting pension legislation. The committee had questioned validity of tax sections because of the constitutional provision that revenue measures must originate in the house.

McCraw ruled the legislature could enact property and income qualifications for pensioners not prescribed by the constitutional amendment. The tax provision, he said, was incidental to the main purpose of the bill.

A proposal to levy a per capita tax for pensions would be unconstitutional, McCraw ruled, because it would be a poll tax separate from the existing poll tax. If a tax of this kind is desired, the state administrator's suspension licenses of merchants without judicial review, McCraw held.

The house started consideration of liquor control legislation after disposing of parliamentary technicalities authorizing the state affairs committee from reporting on old-age pension bill without a tax provision.

Rep. E. Emmett More of Houston, repeal leader, admonished factions to agree on a reasonable bill and offered his proposal as a basis for compromise. He said the prohibition repeal offered a constructive chance to solve the liquor problem.

A move to hear an explanation of the report of the hot oil investigating committee was blocked when Rep. R. E. Daniel of Crockett introduced a resolution prohibiting bills. Rep. Augustine Celaya of Brownsville, chairman, told the house the committee found hot oil was being run from East Texas while enforcement officers were issuing statements there was no illegal production.

Resolutions inviting United States Senator Morris Sheppard to address the legislature and granting PWA grants for junior colleges were adopted.

A resolution asking Governor Allred to submit appropriations for increased personnel to survey state land, establish a special court and suspend excessive fees referred to the public lands committee.

Senator W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales introduced a bill extending to counties with 40,000 population or more provision for juvenile boards now authorized in larger counties. Additional compensation graduating from $600 to $2,000 annually, was granted district judges who would be members of the board.

The senate began consideration of a delinquent tax collector bill prepared by the late Senator Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield. It would require a summary sale of property on which levies were past due.

Senator Duggan had estimated the bill would yield approximately $10,000,000 the first year and smaller amounts subsequently.

Death Blamed On Hit-Run Driver

GONZALES, Sept. 30 (AP)—A month ago an automobile knocked Tom Gatlin down. The driver stopped his car and got out, asking the 55-year old victim if he was "hurt bad."
"Yes, my leg is broken," Gatlin told the driver.
As Gatlin lay in the road groaning in pain, the driver climbed back in his car and drove away. That was the last seen of him.

Today, Gatlin was dead. It had been necessary to amputate his leg and complications resulted, fatally last night.

EDITORIAL

AND HERE'S WHY

Several days ago The Herald raised the question why the per man WPA allotment in Texas was lower than other states.

It asked several persons in Plainview in official position to inquire of Texas Senators and the national administration just why this was so and what could be done to correct the injustice.

Senator Morris Sheppard transmits a letter which he received in reply to one he wrote after inquiries from Plainview had reached him. His letter was to Harold Hopkins, WPA administrator. Mr. Hopkins sent the letter to Lawrence Westbrook, assistant administrator. Mr. Westbrook writes Senator Sheppard, who in turn writes those who wrote him, who in their turn give the letters to The Herald, which started the inquiry in the second place and The Herald sent them on to the WTCC, which started the inquiry in the first place.

Says Westbrook to Senator Sheppard: "Mr. Hopkins has requested that I reply to your letter."

"The average amount of money per man year available to Texas from the Works Progress Administration is, at present, somewhat lower than originally because shortly after the inauguration of the program, a large number of meritorious projects such as the Buchanan Dam, running unusually high in man year cost, were approved. As a result, the average man year value of the remaining funds is lower than in the beginning of the program."

And that's why—so they say.—Plainview Herald.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

By WILLIS THORNTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—With war headlines screaming at them every day, the peace societies are redoubling their efforts.

The campaign of the National Council for the Prevention of War to raise a million dollars to propagate peace is only one of several. There is World Peaceways, for instance, whose work is looking up these perilous days.

There are two interesting developments in the peace movement. One is the way the churches are taking it up, particularly the evangelical denominations, which used to be so hot for prohibition.

By Armistice Day the Methodist, Baptist, Congregational, and Christian churches will have completed a member-by-member canvass to determine the attitude of their members toward war under varying circumstances.

The other development is the fact that the National Council for the Prevention of War is preparing to go direct to town in the coming congressional elections, organizing by precinct, ward, and district to defeat candidates who won't subscribe to their peace program. This is the old Anti-Saloon League technique right back again, and presents one more jitter for candidates for Congress.

This "peace action" program is so reminiscent of the days when Wayne Wheeler had half of Congress jumping through his hoop that one wonders whether just such a forceful leader may arise in the interests of peace.

The youthful Senator Holt is about to stomp the country for peace, and arrangements are being made to stage demonstrations next spring just before the party conventions that can hardly fail to influence the party platforms that will be in the making then.

Educating for peace is like all educating—discouraging work at times. The Quaker Frederick J. Libby of the NCPW ran smack into this one during a poll being taken at the Rochester State Fair recently.

The question was "Shall the United States join the League of Nations on terms of the Pope resolution, which provides that we shall not be obliged to use armed force to support the league?" The author of this plan is, of course, Senator Pope of Idaho, currently in Europe and sounding off after each day's crisis.

Two questionnaire-answers had evidently never heard of the senator. One answered, "No, I won't vote. I don't see any reason for bringing the Pope into this. The other opined, "I think the Pope's judgment is very good."

Newton D. Baker has lost neither his adroitness nor his courtliness since retiring from public office. At a recent meeting here of a commission of the American Council on Education to study and make recommendations on a better program for youth, Baker was approached by reporters for a statement.

He demurred, protesting, "If you want to talk to someone really distinguished, you'd better talk to Mrs. Fisher."

He referred to Dorothy Canfield Fisher, author of "The Bent Twig," "The Brimming Cup," and many other novels, who is the latest literary light to turn to public service by asserting that she is willing to give all her time to the work of this commission if necessary.

BARBS

Il Duce rages at league's peace offer of two African deserts. It is possible the Geneva statesmen misinterpreted the phrase, "just desserts."

Vermont writer locks himself upon his farm to write a book. If it's poetry, we'd suggest he also post an armed lookout.

There is a widely shared belief among Italian people in the existence of a war chest. If the one in question is that of Il Duce, it has been thrown out.

"Culinary cruelty" is basis of Worcester, Mass., divorce suit. Maybe the bride should be given a cook-book and another chance.

"Italians buy Iraq oil." Another remedy would be to stop that constant beating of drums.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—Ways and means to provide additional space for rapid expansion in state departments and to house federal emergency agencies is receiving close attention in official quarters.

An appropriation of $200,000 to supplement prospective federal funds for a supreme court memorial building has been suggested. Governor Allred and the Texas Bar association gave their support. A special committee of the bar association has been working for months on the project.

The building would house the supreme court and its extensive library, the third court of civil appeals and the attorney general's department. Their removal from the capitol would release needed space to other departments that are jammed with desks, employees and files and crowded into quarters.

The last legislature added materially to the state's law enforcement agencies but made no provision for housing. The new department of public safety, combining the highway patrol and the Texas Rangers, is so badly crammed that efficiency of the organization is said by officials to be impaired.

The chiefs of the bureau of identification and bureau of intelligence until recently shared one desk with the senior captain of the patrol. They worked at the desk in relays and none knew the probable length of occupancy. This situation has been improved to some extent by rearranging highway department offices to provide additional space.

A similar condition exists in the secretary of state's office. Establishment of the securities division almost doubled the personnel but they were crowded into the same space. Likewise the assistants attorney general are jammed together.

The public safety department hopes to edge into the new courts building if it is constructed. The basement of the building could be made into an excellent headquarters for the department, an official said.

The lack of space is credited with turning gray the heads of members of the board of control. They are constantly harassed by department heads and the cry of "more room" is almost continuously ringing in their ears.

HARVESTERS AND CHILDRESS BOBCATS WILL PLAY ON THURSDAY EVENING

CAPTAIN-STAR WILL BE OUT WITH INJURY

DATE CHANGED FROM FRIDAY NIGHT TO THURSDAY

Comebe Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan, with 31 Harvesters, will invade Childress for their first trip of the 1935 season on Thursday night.

The Harvesters have only two players in good condition, the Harvesters will spend most of this week's smooching on an offense.

After coming out of the game with the Bowie Bears of El Paso in good condition, the Harvesters will spend most of this week's smooching on an offense.

The Harvesters are now pointing to their games with Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City on Oct. 11. Un-defeated in 42 consecutive games, the Indians are expected to be the Harvesters' stiffest competition until they get into the conference schedule.

(BY DOYLE VINSON) CHILDRESS, Sept. 30.—It will be a crippled Childress Bobcat football team that takes the field against the powerful Pampa Harvesters here Thursday night, as Captain James Andrews, all-district end, will be out of the game due to an injury received last week in an automobile accident.

The Bobcats last week were humbled 28-0 by the Wichita Falls Coyotes in the opening district 5 game of the season after winning two warm-up contests. They opened with a triumph over the class B Chillicothe team 52-0, and beat Polytechnic of Fort Worth 6-0.

Coach Joe Gibson may do some experimenting this week in an effort to fill the hole left by the absence of Andrews, but it is considered likely that he will start the following against Pampa: Garland Terrell, 161-pound letterman at center; Poke Coleman, 163, letterman, and Mac Woods, 165, guard; Curley Stephens, 198, letterman, and Leonard White, 165, tackle; J. W. Helms, 165, letterman, and Olin Rainwater, 160, ends; James Brummett, 148, quarter; Captain Paul Carter, 165, letterman, fullback; Carl Lanningham, 155-pound letterman, and Les Kimbrough, 143, halfbacks.

The Cats are entirely without reserves, having only a half-dozen inexperienced hands available for replacements. Gibson is expected to attempt to polish up the blocking and tackling of his men this week, as those two departments proved to be the Cats' weakest points against Wichita Falls.

LOU LITTLE TO BE SATISFIED IF HIS ELEVEN BREAKS EVEN

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Depression that usually follows a couple of lousy seasons appears to have caught up with Lou Little and his Columbia football team. The Big Little, who looks like Ed Wynn and can do almost as many tricks with his players as the comedian does with his hands, says he will be satisfied if the team breaks even.

Warner's Temple Wildcats To Play Aggies At Tyler

Longhorns To Clash With Louisiana State

BY BILL PARKER. Associated Press Sports Writer. Un-defeated in September's non-conference campaign, the Texas Christian Frogs and the University of Arkansas Razorbacks will inaugurate the 21st annual Southwest conference championship Saturday at Fayetteville.

The other members will engage in stiff non-conference games, featured by the intrastate struggle Saturday at Tyler between "Pop" Warner's Temple university Wildcats and Homer Norton's fighting Texas A. & M. Aggies.

Third in ranking will be the University of Texas set to at Baton Rouge, against Louisiana State. In the other games, Rice institute, 1934 conference champion, meets Duquesne university at Houston; Southern Methodist invades Tulsa to battle Tulsa university, and the Baylor Bears will entertain Texas A. & I. at Waco.

The Texas Christian gladiators warmed up Saturday by beating the North Texas Teachers of Denton, 28 to 11. The Christians experienced trouble in getting started but once their touchdown parade got under way it was too bad for the Teachers. Jimmy Lawrence, the Christian's most powerful ball carrier, did not compete but will be ready to go against Arkansas.

Last year graduates robbed the Razorbacks of much power but they demonstrated Saturday they will be worthy of watching when they whip a strong Kansas State Teachers' machine, 12 to 0. Having trimmed Stephen F. Austin, 37 to 6, and the Sam Houston Teachers, 25 to 0, the Aggies are primed for a sweet afternoon of re-venge on the Temple invaders, who defeated them 40 to 6 last year. Officials are anticipating a record crowd of 20,000 people at Tyler.

Coach Jack Chevigny's University of Texas Longhorns face trouble at Baton Rouge. The Longhorns looked good Saturday beating Texas A. & I., 38 to 6, but their stout against Louisiana State is another story, one that calls for a severe test of Texas' power on the ground and in the air.

Confidence was instilled in the Rice Owls Saturday when they met and conquered Louisiana State, 10 and 0. All-American Bill Wallace and All-Southwest Conference John McCauley were the outstanding players. Victorious over the North Texas Teachers, 39 to 0, and Austin college, 60 to 0, Coach Madison Bell's Southern Methodist Mustangs will have an opportunity to prove their real scoring power when they tie the Mustangs first real test.

The Baylor Bears showed promise Saturday by beating Hardin-Simmons, 14 to 0. The Bears will get a stiffer test this week-end when they battle Texas A. & I. at Waco.

WARNEKE WILL PITCH FIRST SERIES GAME

CHICAGO, Sept. 30 (AP)—Lon Warneke, the pride of the Cubs, will oppose the Tigers in the first game of the world series, opening in Detroit Wednesday. This was the decision today of Charley John Grimm, manager of the Cubs. "You can publish that in the paper right now," Grimm said. "And if you want to know some more, Rook will go after those guys on Thursday. And if either of them gets in trouble, Larry French will go to his relief."

The Cubs, who returned to Chicago last midnight after winding up the season in St. Louis, had other things on their minds aside from practice. They planned to meet to agree on a division of the world series bag of gold, and then to pack their bags for their trip to Detroit.

Center TOUGHER GRID GAMES SLATED FOR SATURDAY

TEXAS CHRISTIAN WILL PLAY ARKANSAS IN HEADLINER

(By The Associated Press.) With Saturday's games little more than matters for post mortem discussion, major college football teams prepared today for sterner tests ahead.

In most instances the high rating aggregations turned back the opposition without much difficulty, but many of them will clash this week with opponents not accustomed to being pushed around.

In the Southwest, Texas Christian, with a 28-11 victory over North Texas Teachers in its wake, will tackle Arkansas, the team that Christian bowed to 24-10 last year, while the University of Texas, conqueror of Texas A. & I. on last Saturday, will face Louisiana State.

The defeated Texas A. & I. will play Baylor on the coming Saturday. Stanford meets the University of Tulsa and Temple and Texas A. & M. are due to mix. Rice and Duquesne have another battle slated.

In the far west Oregon State, fresh from a 26-0 victory over Willamette, will meet the University of California at Los Angeles. St. Mary's, which licked Nevada 20-0 Saturday, will battle California at Berkeley.

Santa Clara takes on Washington; Utah university tangles with Oregon; Stanford meets the University of San Francisco at San Francisco; College of the Pacific meets Southern California at Los Angeles, and Idaho meets Gonzaga at Spokane.

Notre Dame, showing signs of return to her old time glory when she subdued Kansas 28-7 on Saturday, will face a team that caused her plenty of trouble even in the height of her power, when she journeys to Pittsburgh to take on Carnegie Tech. Tech was hard put to nose out a 6-3 decision from Case Saturday.

Purdue and Northwestern will engage in another western headliner while Kentucky comes up to Columbus to take the highly rated Ohio State outfit.

Illinois meets Washington university, Carroll and Chicago collide. Centre meets Indiana and South Dakota tags on Iowa. Other games which will bear watching in this territory are: Nichols-Iowa State at Ames, Michigan State-Michigan at Ann Arbor, and Marquette-Wisconsin at Madison.

Reinstatement Of Coach Sought By Houston Team

HOUSTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—San Jacinto high school's striking football team was ready today to confer with Principal T. E. Rogers and Dr. E. E. Oberholzer, superintendent of schools, in an effort to have their coach, Wylie Summers, reinstated.

Summers resigned, in a letter made public by Dr. Oberholzer, because, he said, study for his master's and law degrees was requiring too much time. Spokesmen for the team said, however, they did not resign for other reasons. The players decided to turn in their uniforms rather than see Summers leave as coach.

The opening of the box office window is scheduled for 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Tigers Return To Open Series On Wednesday

DETROIT, Sept. 30 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers returned from the baseball world today for the Armageddon of the 1935 season. They meet the Chicago Cubs Wednesday in the opening world series clash. A joyous, baseball-mad city received them.

The fact that it was Detroit's second world series in as many years appeared to have whetted, rather than dulled, the enthusiasm of fans here, thousands of whom flocked in attempts to obtain advance reservations for the classic.

The Bengals had their last opportunity for unlimited practice on Navin field today, and Manager Mickey Cochrane planned to make the most of it. He called an intensive workout this afternoon to accustom his players to the altered conditions at the park.

Tomorrow the Tigers will have their practice session in the morning to give the Cubs, who arrive tonight, a chance to use the field. Auxiliary bleachers seating 19,000 have been constructed over the left field wall, shortening the playing space and presenting a glare of new wood to the batter's eye. With the additional seats, the field will accommodate more than 50,000 spectators.

The advance guard of out-of-town fans already was arriving today, taxing the capacities of larger hotels to the utmost. Some of the hostesses were converting sample rooms and small meeting rooms into dormitories.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. (AP)—Rose Bowl drums are beating. Tennessee expects to beat Alabama and get a call to the coast. Duke expects to beat Tennessee and ditto. The Cubs used only two relief pitchers in that sensational 21-game streak.

Max Baer is reported to have told intimates after the fight that he was so scared waiting for the bell to start the first round, he thought he would faint. The outspoken Jimmy Johnston says Max quit cold. "We'll take the Tigers over the Cubs."

Nebraska has a coach named Bible and a player named Amen. Well, you can't say they haven't got a prayer. Branch Rickey laughs off stories Pepper Martin will be offered to the Giants in a Big Card Shake-up. Cincinnati chatter has the bout wouldn't draw more than $400,000 and demanded a flat guarantee of $150,000. He got it, but out-fought himself out of a cool $65,000.

DETROIT'S IRON-MAN INFIELD MAY BE ADVANTAGE OF TIGERS

Oklahoma City Is 7-4 Victor Over Southern Champs

Opening Game Won By Texas League Titlists

ATLANTA, Sept. 30. (AP)—The honors rested with the Texas league today after the opening game of the annual Dixie baseball series in which Atlanta, Southern association champion, lost to Oklahoma City, 7 to 4.

The Indians, with the aid of some potent hurling by Long John Niggeling, handed the Crackers their first defeat in eight games since the regular season closed. The Atlantans had come through with a clean slate, except for one tie, in the Shagnessy playoff against Nashville and New Orleans.

The second game of the series will be played here tonight. The teams their move to Oklahoma City for games Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the four out of seven test.

Russell "Red" Evans is slated for tonight's mound assignment for the Oklahomaans, while the Crackers are counting on Jim Lindsey to even the standings. Before 14,000 spectators yesterday the Indians bombarded Bud Thomas for six runs in the first six innings and added their final tally in the seventh before a single Cracker had crossed the plate.

The Crackers came to life in their half of the seventh and got to Niggeling for a pair of runs. Again in the ninth the lanky Indian pitcher weakened as Atlanta filled the bases with none out. Lefty Brillheart relieved him and broke up the rally at the expense of only two more runs.

The Texas league champions were off to a two-run lead in the first inning, added one in each of the second and third, and another pair in the fourth. After their seventh inning tally Bill Schmidt replaced Thomas and checked the Indians for the last two frames.

District 9 Has Only Two Teams

PARIS, Sept. 30. (AP)—The boys in district nine of the Texas Inter-school football league are thinking much about district football competition. It's only a two club district this year, and the result of the single district combat isn't in doubt for a minute. The Greenville Lions, 1934 state semi-finalist, and Paris are the only remaining district nine teams. Sulphur Springs has transferred to the East Texas oil belt district.

Greenville's interest is centered in state competition after winning the district crown, which the Lions expect to do in their game against Paris. The district title will be determined Oct. 25.

Butler Field Tradition To Be At Stake Next Saturday

District I had a not too impressive week, with Amarillo and Pampa, showing most of the ability and Plainview hinting that a strong team is in the making. Amarillo fielded a big and fast-developing team in smashing Ranger, 4 to 0. The Amarillo reserves were scarcely less impressive than the regulars. The 1934 state champions are definitely in the race again this year.

Plainview, in beating Class B Tulsa Hornets 52 to 0, made good use of the wealth of material available this year. The Lions showed a powerful offense but an erratic offense against the Mexicans from El Paso. The big score (38-0) was run up from virtually mid-field through long dashes by Chubby Stewart, big full-back, and Roy Showers, his understudy. Power plays at the start of the game had netted two touchdowns by Red Fanning, quarterback, before the visitors had settled down to their best defensive play.

PAMPANS DEFEATED IN FINAL TILT BEFORE A SMALL CROWD

Baseball bowed its weary head yesterday in Amarillo as bats and balls were packed away for the season. The final flurry was a game between the Pampa Road Runners and Coltexo Gas of LeFors, united, and the Hub Backfaces and Phillips 66 Oilers of Borger, before a handful of fans.

The ever-hungry quins now have meals of delicious oatmeal, sliced oranges and bananas, and will soon be given liver and bacon.

Harmonious Spaciousness Achieved in Old House

A decorating problem which faces numerous American housewives is what to do with the conventional house which looks exactly like its neighbors and in which no structural changes may be made. Any individual with a good credit rating who can prove right of occupancy to a house may obtain any amount up to $2,000 through the Federal Housing Administration to improve his property. This money is obtained from private financial institutions. The Housing Administration does not lend money but insures approved institutions against loss of up to 20 per cent of the entire amount advanced by them for modernization purposes.

Throughout the country there are hundreds upon hundreds of square houses, the entrance and hall on one side, a sun porch at the front. These are frequently built in rows and restrictions prevent any changes in the outward appearance. One housewife with such a problem decided to make the inside of her home so attractive that one would forget that the house had been built too long ago to be modern in outside appearance.

WINTER MENU NEEDS FRUITS AT LOW COST

Problem Is Solved With Canned or Dried Fruit

Menus and Recipes Prepared by Department of Home Economics Texas State College for Women DENTON, Sept. 30. — Fall and winter months bring to the housewife again the problem of keeping some kind of fruit on the table. During the summer months fruit is abundant and the price is low, but in the fall and winter fruit is more scarce and the cost is greater. Yet it is during these months, when the hours of sunshine are fewer, that fruit is needed the most to furnish the vitamins, minerals and cellulose that are valuable in regulating the body.

Two pathways are open to the woman who wishes to keep fruit on the menu and who finds fresh fruit too expensive or unavailable—she may substitute canned fruit or she may make use of dried fruits or citrus fruits. The dried fruits are usually cheaper, but the canned fruit market offers a wider range of selection. Either offers a solution to the problem of keeping the table supplied with valuable substances during the seasons when fresh fruits are scarce.

Waco Man Dies In Auto Wreck In New Mexico

LUBBOCK, Sept. 30 (P)—His chest crushed by the steering wheel of the car he was driving when it overturned near Bluit, N. M., shortly after midnight last night, Charles Melear, 26, of Waco, died while en route to Lubbock early this morning. Melear and three companions were in the car at the time of the accident, which occurred when the front wheels of the car went into a bar pit after leaving the road. None of the others was injured.

The injured man got out of the car, staggered for about ten feet, and fell down. One of the party summoned the man's father, W. D. Melear, who brought the body to Lubbock. Melear and his father had been residing on their farm near Bluit for about three weeks, having gone to New Mexico from Waco to supervise the gathering of fall crops.

Body of the man will be sent to Waco tonight, where funeral services will be held Tuesday or Wednesday. Survivors are the parents; 2 sisters, Mrs. O. R. Lewis of Brownfield, and Mrs. J. C. Larkin of Valley Mills, Bosque county; and one brother, Robert Melear of Waco.

"A MARRIAGE MANUAL," by Drs. Hannah and Abraham Stone; "THE ACHIEVEMENT OF HAPPINESS," by Dr. Boris Sokoloff (both Simon & Schuster).

The cruel difficulty of preparing young people for the duties of marriage is the cause, as most of us know, of a great deal of suffering. The book requires both knowledge and tact beyond the reach of most parents. Beyond most friends, for that matter, and most physicians.

Which is the reason for "A Marriage Manual," by Drs. Hannah and Abraham Stone. Both these physicians, and particularly Dr. Hannah Stone, have gone deeply and seriously into the matter. Their approach has been both scientific and humanitarian; the problems have been attacked with proper detachment, and the solutions have been applied with kindness and understanding to the individual.

The success of "A Marriage Manual" is a matter for the reader's judgment. Certainly no similar book has reached this desk which has been more frank, more serious, or animated by a deeper desire to be helpful. The text is in the form of a dialog between physician and patient.

In a number of books with similar aims the deviations from the normal marriage relation have been so emphasized that the reader almost assumes there was no such thing as a successful marriage. The Doctors Stone taken exactly the opposite stand. Proper discussion is given the tangential situations—but always the feeling is that reasonable people may reach reasonable happiness by the exercise of intelligence.

Dr. Boris Sokoloff's "The Achievement of Happiness" has a bearing on the same question. Dr. Sokoloff discusses his subject in a personal way, but he brings to it a physician's knowledge of the physical factors which enter the search for happiness.

PARADE OF THE PIONEERS. Otho Anne Hanscom. Tardy Publishing company, Dallas, 1935. Reviewed by May Stevens Isaacs. This is a September publication compiled by Otho Anne Hanscom, associate professor of elementary education, North Texas State Teachers college. More than two dozen drawings to illustrate the text were furnished by Kenneth Rudolph Fuchs of the Art Department in the same institution.

The foreword by the author explains that the purpose of the volume is to give a cross section of every-day life in our state; that the book is given over to incidents of the past hundred years; and that it is not so much the history of Texas as the every-day affairs of the pioneers who actually made the history which she wishes here to record.

(By The Associated Press.)
Automobiles took seven lives in Texas over the week-end.

Worley In Warning On Pension Topic

The paragraph which is taken from a letter received by THE NEWS from Representative Eugene Worley:

"It has come to my attention that agents claiming to be able to rush through old-age pension applications are working in the counties comprising my representative district. These agents are fraudulently misrepresenting facts and usually collect some small amount from the old people who will probably be eligible for pensions, when the legislature enacts suitable pension laws.

I could see myself doing extra work for my three months, then going home. But once here, I wanted a real trial. I thought I had some talent. All I was given to do, besides extra roles, was standing in for Louise Rainer.

"My three months were nearly up when I was given a second test, and they extended my contract another six months. That was when I did something I hadn't expected to do. When Rufus LeMaire stepped forward of the extension, I told me boldly and said, 'Look here—'

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

BY ROBBIN COONS.
HOLLYWOOD—Beauty contest winners enter the movie game with two strikes called against them in advance. There have been so many beauty contest winners.

Anita Kurstin determined not to be just another one of those winners who quickly lose. At least, she wanted to know definitely, one way or the other, whether she was to be anything in pictures. She did not want, emphatically did not want, to waste time in Hollywood getting nowhere.

All of which is the why of Ann Loring in pictures today. Ann (erstwhile Anita Kurstin, a slender blue-eyed brunette who shows unusual intellectual keenness) decided her own fate.

"I hadn't particularly thought of Hollywood, except as a place to see," she says. "I had wanted to go into the theater, but not especially into pictures. When I arrived, I was awed by the profusion of glorious girls here. Now I know I'm not more than averagely attractive, and most of the girls are more than that. I could see myself doing extra work for my three months, then going home. But once here, I wanted a real trial. I thought I had some talent. All I was given to do, besides extra roles, was standing in for Louise Rainer.

"My three months were nearly up when I was given a second test, and they extended my contract another six months. That was when I did something I hadn't expected to do. When Rufus LeMaire stepped forward of the extension, I told me boldly and said, 'Look here—'

Became Leading Lady? What she told him was that she knew she could act, and did not propose to waste time as she had been doing. The amazed LeMaire, when she had finished, said: "If I can convince the others as you have convinced me, young lady, you'll get a part right away."

And that was how it happened: Ann Loring, a novice, became Warner Baxter's leading lady in "Robin Hood of El Dorado."

Before she began it, Ann married Louis Eichorn, a young attorney who once worked as an assistant director—on one picture—but is now interested in pictures only because Ann is.

The picture is finished now, and Ann is waiting for the verdict. She wants to be a success, and yet she says "it would be simpler to fail."

WEDNESDAY MORNING WILL BE HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY OF FIRST SHOT OF REVOLUTION

PROGRAM TO BE SENT OVER AIR FROM GONZALES

GONZALES, Sept. 30.—Texas officially will enter into the period of observance and celebration of the centennial year of her fight for independence here Wednesday morning, October 2. A simple ceremony will commence the day which ultimately was to result in the extension of the boundaries of the United States to the Pacific ocean.

On October 2, 1835, a small band of Texas pioneer settlers and farmers, in the rear of a six-pound brass cannon, the Wednesday of Santa Anna's effort to abrogate the constitutional government of the Republic of Mexico. This was less than a month after Stephen F. Austin, speaking at Brazoria on his return from Mexico City, had implored that the Texas army be organized to maintain their constitutional rights and their peace and security.

Gonzales, the "Lexington of Texas" and the scene of the opening event of the opening of the centennial year observance, the Wednesday program will be followed by a 6-day celebration to be opened in Gonzales on November 5 and by celebrations at San Antonio, Houston and other historic points and at Dallas where the state and federal governments are cooperating in the development of a great exposition. The commemorative program here Wednesday morning will be presented on one of the historic plazas of the city and will be broadcast to the state over the Texas Quality network. The 30-minute radio program will be from 9 until 9:30 o'clock.

State Senator Welly K. Hopkins of Gonzales will speak, giving a summary of the events which led to the battle and Peter Moynaux, historian and economist and editor of the Texas Weekly, will repeat over the air the stirring address delivered on the eve of the battle by the Rev. W. P. Smith, Methodist minister and circuit rider, whose inspiring words launched the Texans into the attack on the Mexican cavalry force. Four minutes have been allotted to Gov. James V. Allred or his representative. Mayor S. N. Ainsworth will introduce the speakers and music will be by the Gonzales band.

The Gonzales battle was the immediate result of a demand by Col. Ugartechea, commander of Bexar, for the return of a small cannon which had been given to the DeWitt colonists at Gonzales some years before to be used for protection against Indian marauders. Ugartechea, during the last week of September, 1835, sent an officer and four cavalrmen to Gonzales with an order to take possession of the unmounted cannon and also with an ox-cart in which to carry it back to San Antonio. Andrew Ponton, alcalde of Gonzales, communicated the contents of the order to the leading citizens of the town who urged that he refuse to comply with it. Ponton, to gain time, addressed a reply to Ugartechea saying he could not deliver the cannon without the permission of the political chief of the department of the Brazos, and, as the officer returned to San Antonio, Ponton dispatched runners to Bastrop and other points with appeals for help. At that time there were only 18 men in Gonzales capable of bearing arms. They buried the cannon, moved all boats to the Gonzales side of the Guadalupe river, and erected breastworks near the regular crossing.

On October 1, 1835, a force of Mexican cavalry, numbering approximately 100 men and under the command of Captain Francisco Casteneda, appeared on the river bank opposite Gonzales and again demanded the cannon. The men in Gonzales, reinforced by the arrival of from 80 to 100 colonists from along the Colorado, were determined to refuse to surrender the cannon. The order, delivered by a Mexican messenger who swam across the river, was addressed to the alcalde and Albert Martin, who had been elected captain of the Texans. In an effort to gain time informed the messenger that Ponton was absent from the town. Casteneda, after some parleying, withdrew to a point half a mile from the ferry amid the taunts of the Gonzales force. He later moved on up the river and encamped for the night. In the meantime the Texans had organized their force, elected John H. Moore as colonel, and prepared to attack the Mexicans the following morning. The cannon was dug up and mounted on wheels while bells were manufactured at the wheel-smith shop. The famous "Come and Take It" flag was designed and made by Miss Elaine DeWitt and Miss Cynthia Burns. That evening the Rev. Mr. Smith delivered his historic address and the Texans, during the night, crossed the river, carrying their challenging flag and dragging the cannon. They marched in the direction of the Mexican camp and the first shot was fired early in the morning. The Mexicans retreated and Casteneda proposed a parley which, however, was fruitless and the Texans opened fire, advancing on the Mexican force which fled from the field in retreat toward San Antonio.

HURRICANE IS 600 MILES OFF GEORGIA COAST

Misses Florida And Will Pass Near Bermuda

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 30.—The tropical disturbance, which struck Cuba and Jamaica and threatened the Florida east coast, was 600 miles east of Savannah, Ga., today and is expected to pass northwest of Bermuda this afternoon.

In the wake of the destructive hurricane the Holland-American liner Rotterdam, carrying 600 passengers and 350 crew members, was around 60 miles southeast of Kingston, Jamaica.

The master of the vessel, Captain Van Dulken said in a wireless message, "everybody well and quiet; no danger."

After missing the Florida coast Saturday night the storm curved toward the Bahamas. An aerial survey of that section today showed no lives were lost but property damage was great.

The Jacksonville weather bureau, in its advisory at 10 a. m. (Eastern Standard time) said the disturbance "will pass over probably northwest of Bermuda early this afternoon. Caution advised vessels in path of this severe storm."

The death list in Jamaica was placed at two while the fatalities in Cuba were placed at 35 with more than 300 injured.

Narrowly missing the southeast Florida coast as it swept northeastward into the Atlantic the storm was moving about 20 miles an hour. It still carried winds of full hurricane force.

The heaviest loss of life as well as the greatest property damage was reported in central Cuba. At Cienfuegos 17 bodies were in hospitals and marauders. Three persons were killed at Gibara, Oriente province, two at Cumanayagua, three at St. Sienna, and four bodies were found at Guajimuto. Five were reported dead in Abreus, and one in San Juan De Ullos. Authorities and volunteers searched for other bodies.

Feats were expressed for the 6,200 fisherfolk at Cayman Islands, 178 miles from Jamaica. In the British Bahamas the colonial government expressed concern over 610 residents of Miami, 45 miles east of Miami. There had been no word from the little island, Bimini, in the British Bahamas 45 miles off the Florida coast, escaped without loss of life but the property damage was great, it was reported after an airplane survey.

Charles Lorber, piloting a plane chartered by Governor Bede Clifford of the Bahamas, radioed sixty per cent of the houses were destroyed in a wind that reached 125 miles an hour. All drinking water was reported salty.

Six Tenement Dwellers Dead And 9 Injured

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—Fire Marshal Michael Corrigan started an investigation today to fix responsibility for a fire which caused the death of six tenement dwellers and injured nine others shortly after midnight.

The fire followed a basement explosion in a three-story tenement building in the southwest part of the city. Five of the injured were children.

Al Smith Flays Red Rule of Hate

Playing life under Communistic rule as a "paradise of hate" and pleading for the communion of the Eucharist to overcome red atheistic attacks, Alfred E. MORNING STAR BY MARIAN SIMS

Chapter 11 EMILY LEARNS The arrangement turned out surprisingly well, after all. Emily had never known such uncompromising charity as she encountered in the Charlotte's friends. All her life she had accepted as true the precepts and dogmas of those in authority; these girls accepted nothing until they had proved it to their own satisfaction.

Nothing escaped their scrutiny; religion, government, human relations. They questioned, not scornfully, but thoughtfully, the validity of all the stock phrases on which she had been reared; duty, responsibility, patriotism, selfishness.

"I can't think of anything," Charlotte would decide, "that does more to enlarge the ego of your fellow-man than to be absolutely unselfish with him. He soon gets to be unbearable."

Or again: "It's grossly unfair of parents to remind children of their obligation. The parents are utterly selfish in wanting you; they want something to fuss over, and show their friends, and carry on their name; and you're it. You in turn do the same thing for your children, and that discharges the obligation."

Emily felt vaguely that there was an answer to this. "But how can we know what's good for us as well as they do?"

"Perhaps we can't, but the only way is to blunder ahead and learn by trial and error. Otherwise we'll never amount to a damn."

Emily wondered with a twinkle what Frances would have said to this theory.

Under Charlotte's influence she did better in her studies than she had done the year before. College to Charlotte was not simply a place where you passed creditably until you were ready to marry; it was an intellectual adventure, dearly bought and consequently highly appreciated.

"They had a few classes together and Charlotte's reaction was astonishing. Very gradually David receded from Emily's thoughts. As the months went by the vivid outlines of his personality dimmed. She even succeeded, shortly after the Christmas holidays, in talking about him to Charlotte.

They had gone to walk in the woods behind the college, and had dropped down to rest on a fallen log. The woods did something to Charlotte, softened the incisiveness of her mind.

begin. Commencement this year gave you pause. Emily was feeling happy about school this year; just as she had felt vaguely afraid last year. There had always been something too gay and evanescent for permanence about Judith and David. You sensed from the beginning that keeping them was as impossible as imprisoning sunlight.

Charlotte was different. Charlotte was temperamentally incapable of letting you down. Emily hadn't hoped to have her next year; hadn't even suggested it. The suggestion, she thought happily, had come from Charlotte herself, more than a month ago.

"Any plans for next year?" Charlotte had asked.

She had thought about it for several weeks. "Not yet. Is Jane going to get back next year?" Charlotte shook her head. "It's a rotten shame, too, with a flock of will-o'-the-wisps running around worrying about whether they'll be made to come back."

She had long since learned to understand Charlotte's radicalism. Being poor, or being very intimate with someone who was poor, was a valuable experience. Everyone with money should have the experience.

"I was wondering," Charlotte said, "if you wanted to try it again with me next year."

"I'd love it," Emily said eagerly. "But you don't have to ask me, you know."

Charlotte grinned. "I know it, child. If I didn't want to room with you I'd have made my plans and then told you."

And so it was settled. "After I've had another year with you," Emily had laughed, "maybe, I'll be able to stand alone."

Charlotte looked at her affectionately. "You can now. All you need is a little practice."

Emily wondered suddenly if she would ever learn to stand alone if it involved withstanding her mother. It wasn't so hard to hold your own in new situations and new conflicts as they arose, but a lifelong habit of obedience was a millstone about your neck.

Looking back upon it afterwards, it seemed to Emily that the last year with Charlotte was the most satisfying of all her years at Ardmore.

Her senior year moved too swiftly; it lingered in her memory as a series of brief, vivid pictures—a cinema divided into its component parts; but that second year with Charlotte had a quality of depth and leisure that she had never found elsewhere.

She discovered that she had allied herself definitely, that year, with the Left Wing; but being Frances Pellon's daughter she managed to retain her sympathy and understanding for those who worship the God of Things as They Are.

She hoped fervently that Charlotte and her friends would bring about their millennium, but she knew better than they that the Frances Pellons were entrenched in the seats of the mighty, and that possession, was nine points of the law.

One of the favorite topics, she remembered, was Next Year. Being a junior, she was one year removed from the distressing finality of

HEAVY BOOSTS IN TAXES ARE DENIED BY FOR

BUDGET PLANS SEEN AS REPLY TO CRITICS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt told the nation in a report published today, that federal deficits will not be as large as originally estimated and that his critics are wrong when they say new deal spending spells heavy boosts in taxes.

In a "budget summation" which marks a new departure in American fiscal procedure, he declared that economic conditions have grown "decidedly better," asserted that tax receipts are higher than expected, and estimated that the deficit for the current fiscal year will be $3,281,000,000 or $1,247,000,000 less than his estimate last January.

"The prevailing rate of recovery," he said, "points to the speedy decline of federal expenditures for emergency activities."

Unless the AAA's processing taxes are knocked out by the Supreme court, he argued, the government "will not need new taxes or increases in existing taxes to meet the expenses of its necessary annual operations."

This will be true, he said, despite "erroneous and gloomy predictions" that "heavy increases in taxation will be required to balance the budget and retire our public debt."

His remarks on taxation were regarded in many quarters as a follow-up to his recent declaration that business may expect a "breathing spell."

Of the economic outlook, he asserted: "At this date inventories are low. Industry has shown its strength against the current of seasonal slackness and output and trade are expanding. Capital market conditions are favorable. Crops are expected to be larger this season and to yield farmers more income than in the past year."

Estimating that the deficit for this fiscal year, ending June 30, 1936, would be $390,000,000 less than in the previous twelve-month, he added:

"This reduction can be realized, however, only in the event that no new items of expenditure are added to the year's program."

This was taken in some quarters as a reference to the $2,000,000,000 soldiers' bonus.

The document estimated that revenues for the present (1935) fiscal year would be $4,470,000,000. This compares with $3,991,000,000 estimated in January, $3,800,000,000 collected in 1935 and $3,115,000,000 in 1934.

Expenditures were set at $7,752,000,000, as compared with January's estimate of $8,520,000,000. The total spent last year was $7,275,000,000 and in 1934 it was $7,105,000,000. Last January, the president estimated that on June 30, 1936 the public debt would stand at $34,239,000,000, as against $28,700,000,000 last June. The revised estimates change the $34,239,000,000 to $3,729,000,000, after deducting debt retirements of $551,000,000 and $550,000,000 of national bank note retirements out of gold profits.

Industry has shown its strength against the current of seasonal slackness and output and trade are expanding. Capital market conditions are favorable. Crops are expected to be larger this season and to yield farmers more income than in the past year.

The City Commission and grantee shall submit facts and conditions before this board, and the findings of the board shall be final and shall be in effect for one year after the date of same.

It is provided further that grantee shall not be required to operate vehicles on and over every street into, through and across every section of said City of Pampa, but only shall be and over such street or streets as shall be approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa. It is, however, provided that grantee shall, for one fare, give a transfer from any of its lines to any other line operated by it, where the passenger's destination is on the other line within the corporate limits of the City of Pampa. The form and terms of such transfers shall be approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa.

Provided: That the above fares shall continue in effect to December 31, 1936; thereafter, each year, the City Commission shall, on or before January 10, fix the rate for that calendar year, which shall become effective the first day of February, following, and which shall continue during the year, until a new fare is fixed; provided further that the City Commission of the City of Pampa shall have the right to modify or amend any of the fares and rates charged by grantee after notice to grantee, and hearing, on the matter.

The grantee shall, on or before January 5, 1936, and on or before January 5, of each year thereafter

AN ORDINANCE GRANTING TO THE PAMPA TRANSIT COMPANY, A CORPORATION, DULY INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS, AND TO ITS SUCCESSORS, THE RIGHT, PRIVILEGE AND FRANCHISE OF OPERATING MOTOR VEHICLES IN, ALONG, UPON AND OVER THE STREETS, AVENUES AND PUBLIC GROUNDS AND PLACES, IN THE CITY OF PAMPA, FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF PASSENGERS, BAGGAGE AND EXPRESS, FOR A PERIOD OF 15 YEARS, AND PROVIDING THE TERMS, STIPULATIONS AND CONDITIONS UPON WHICH SAID FRANCHISE IS GRANTED. BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA:

Section 1
The right, privilege and franchise of operating in, upon, along and over the streets, avenues, and public grounds and places of the City of Pampa, motor vehicles for the transportation of passengers, baggage and express for a period of 15 years, from and after thirty days from the last publication of this ordinance and the acceptance thereof by the said Pampa Transit Company, is hereby given and granted to Pampa Transit Company, a corporation, duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, and its successors and assigns, hereinafter styled "grantee," upon the provisions, stipulations and conditions herein set out.

Section 2
All motor vehicles used by said grantee for the transportation of passengers under this franchise, shall be modern type passenger-carrying motor vehicles of not less than 20 seated passenger capacity, and shall at all times be kept and maintained in good repair, suitable for the transportation of passengers, and shall be first approved by the City Commission before being placed in service, and shall be subject to inspection by said City Commission, or by any duly authorized inspector, agent or employee of the City of Pampa. Provided, that said City Commission may permit grantee to operate vehicles of less seated passenger capacity, when and where it is found to be adequate, and for the good of the service.

Grantee shall, at all times, operate a sufficient number of motor vehicles, and maintain a schedule, and give transportation service in such a manner and way as to provide efficient public transportation service to the City of Pampa, that can be supplied over and over paved streets; provided, that grantee shall have the right to select such routes and establish such a schedule for the operation of said motor vehicles within said city, with the approval of the City Commission of the City of Pampa, as may appear to grantee would reasonably justify such service, and will reasonably support such service. The City Commission, in determining and in passing upon and giving its approval to the routes and schedules selected and adopted by grantee, shall take into consideration the sections of said city where the resident population reasonably justifies such transportation service, and will reasonably support such service; provided, that if such determination by the City Commission is not satisfactory to grantee, the matter shall be submitted to a board composed of three impartial persons, one to be selected by the City Commission, one by grantee, and one by these two persons so selected. The City Commission and grantee shall submit facts and conditions before this board, and the findings of the board shall be final and shall be in effect for one year after the date of same.

It is provided further that grantee shall not be required to operate vehicles on and over every street into, through and across every section of said City of Pampa, but only shall be and over such street or streets as shall be approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa. The number of motor vehicles used in the service of the grantee, and necessary to be operated, shall be submitted to the City Commission by grantee for its approval, and the City Commission shall approve, or amend, as it may deem wise and proper, the routes to be traveled by motor vehicles of grantee, and the number of motor vehicles to be operated by grantee under this franchise.

Grantee shall be allowed leading zones within the business district of the City of Pampa, for the purpose of discharging and taking on passengers, between street intersections, which said zones shall be selected and approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa, and shall be marked off and designated as "Bus Loading Zones."

No motor vehicles shall be operated under this franchise unless the same comply with this ordinance, and approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa, and in good condition, suitable for the purpose intended, unless the same shall be properly equipped with brakes and lights, as provided by law.

Section 6
No person shall operate any motor vehicle hereunder in the City of Pampa, for the transportation of passengers, unless he shall be over the age of eighteen years, of suitable experience, and shall have obtained a permit to so do from the City Secretary of the City of Pampa. Permit shall be granted to any person, by the said City Secretary, to operate any motor vehicle hereunder, upon application, by such person, accompanied by evidence of good character and ability, and upon the payment by such person to said City Secretary, of the sum of One Dollar, and such permit shall be revocable by the City Commission of the City of Pampa for carelessness, negligence, or improper conduct in the operation of any such motor vehicle, or for other good cause.

Section 7

For the purpose of aiding grantee, and to assure the success of the transportation system, no franchise tax, except the sum of Ten Dollars, shall be required of grantee, until January 1, 1937.

Section 8

The form and terms of such transfers shall be approved by the City Commission of the City of Pampa.

Provided: That the above fares shall continue in effect to December 31, 1936; thereafter, each year, the City Commission shall, on or before January 10, fix the rate for that calendar year, which shall become effective the first day of February, following, and which shall continue during the year, until a new fare is fixed; provided further that the City Commission of the City of Pampa shall have the right to modify or amend any of the fares and rates charged by grantee after notice to grantee, and hearing, on the matter.

SUPREME COURT, IN FIRST REAL HOME, FACING TOUGH AND HISTORIC DECISION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (AP)—The United States supreme court, without ceremony or even so much as a gesture of dedication, will assemble in its new palace of justice October 7 for what observers predict will be its most momentous session in history.

Whatever the significance of its decisions, the court's term will be historic, marking occupation of its only real "home" since its first meeting in the Royal Exchange at the foot of Broad street in New York in February, 1790.

When the justices file into their new chamber they will seat themselves at a long, simple, mahogany desk which faces a high-ceilinged room flanked by tall, Ionic columns of faintly pink Siena marble.

Fireplaces, too.

Between each of the columns, to right and left of the bench, are gleaming bronze gates, through which are visible sun-dialled courtyards and splashing fountains.

Deep friezes above the columns, carved from large blocks of marble, picture the famous law-givers of the centuries and such allegorical figures as "the power of government," and "the majesty of the law."

Just behind the bench are two open fireplaces which will not be visible to the rest of the room.

In front of the bench are science's latest accommodations.

The huge light which will illuminate the room from the ornate ceiling is designed with a series of fan-like blades to throw a bright light so diffused as to prevent glare in any part of the room.

FDR Cheers Reporters

Even the influence of President Roosevelt's lusty rooting wasn't sufficient to prevent the defeat of White House reporters in a baseball game against Lowell Thomas' team at the Quaker Hill Country club near Pawling, N. Y. Seated in his car on the sidelines, the president shouts encouragement to his favorites while his daughter, Mrs. Anna Bottiger, looks on from the running board.

Lions Guard Haile Selassie

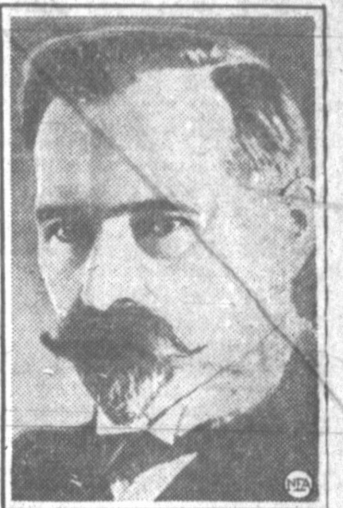

More awesome than the formidable bayonets of royal guards in the palaces of Europe are the roaring, clawing lions that augment the bodyguard of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia. So well trained are the jungle monarchs, pictured here with their keepers, that they are docile until strangers appear at the palace in Addis Ababa.

Film Don Juan Rests After Race

Memel's Fate Rests On Ballot

Louis And His Bride

Married three hours before his fight with Max Baer, Joe Louis is pictured with his bride, the former Marva Trotter, pretty Chicago stenographer, as they read a batch of congratulatory telegrams in the home of friends in Harlem. Louis' bride watched him batter his way to a knockout victory from the ringside.

Mussolini Demonstrates He's a Big Shot

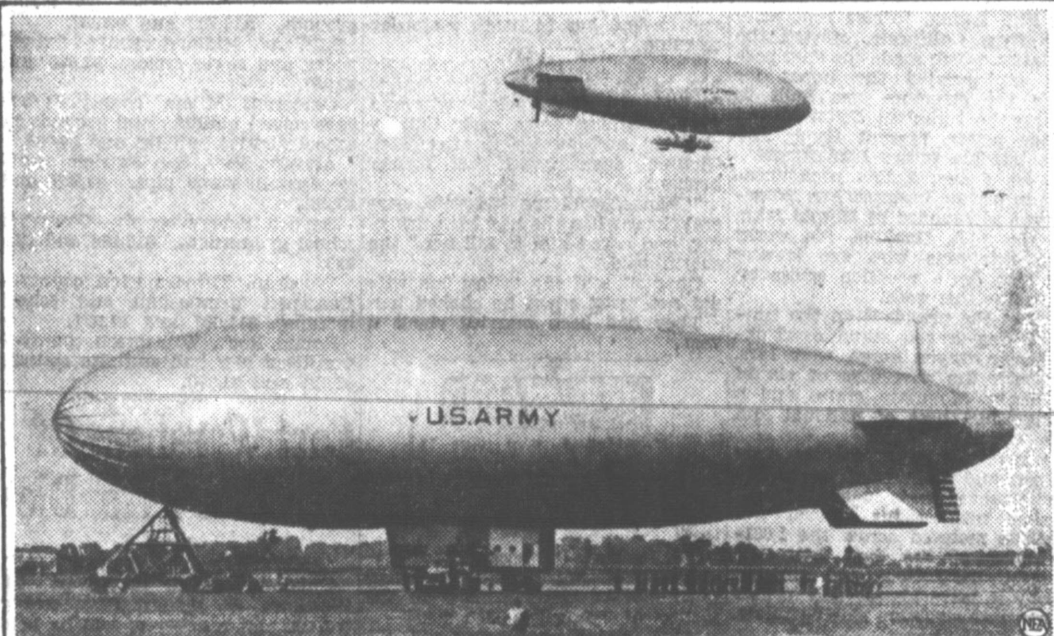

The versatile Italian dictator demonstrated his skill with the rifle when he fired the first round at the international military rifle championships in Rome. Premier Mussolini is pictured in the firing pit, drawing a fine bead on the distant target to set an example of accuracy for his forces awaiting the zero hour on the Ethiopian borders.

Congress Dean to Run Again

It probably has grown to be a habit; anyway Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, above, who has spent 33 of the 60 years of his life in Congress, has announced his candidacy for reelection. If successful, the dean will begin his fifth term in the Senate to which he was first elected in 1913, after serving five terms in the House.

Test of Largest Non-Rigid Dirigible Voted Success

Its test flight declared to be "very successful," the world's largest non-rigid dirigible, TC-14, new U. S. army airship, is shown here after the tryout, moored on Scott Field, Belleville, Ill. Nine army experts composed the crew on the initial hop. The dirigible, built at a cost of $200,000, is of rubberized fabric, has a maximum diameter of 54 feet, and is 235 feet long. Capacity is 348,000 cubic feet of gas. Three air-cooled engines drive the ship 30 miles an hour. Size of the new air giant is strikingly shown by comparison with the small army blimp that floats above it.

Honesty Pays Even Better Than Job

Honesty proved the long sought Open Sesame to opportunity for Albert Coreri, $3.15-a-week New York delivery boy who found $150,000 in negotiable securities and returned them to the owner. A reward and more lucrative job loomed for him.

Poland's First Liner Arrives

Arriving five hours ahead of schedule, the motorship Piłsudski, first trans-Atlantic liner built by the infant Polish merchant marine, is pictured ploughing majestically past the New York skyline at the end of its maiden voyage from Gdynia. This is the ship which was built in Italy and paid for entirely in Polish coal.

Cardinal Blesses Throng

Standing in his car to bestow his blessing on the thousands who viewed the procession, Patrick Cardinal Hayes, archbishop of New York, is shown above as he neared St. John's cathedral for the liturgical reception that opened the Eucharistic Congress in Cleveland. Imposing in his scarlet cassock, white surplice, scarlet cape, and red hat, he waved and smiled and frequently doffed his hat, as he rode between the lines of watchers.

Annette Knows When She's Had Enough

When Annette makes a face like that, Nurse Leroux knows she has had enough. Her "tummy" full, Yvonne, left, lets her attention stray while, in the background, Marie patiently awaits her turn. The ever-hungry quins continually look forward to feeding time, which brings them delicious oatmeal, sliced oranges and bananas. Liver and bacon soon will augment their diet.

POSSIBILITIES OF NEW POOL IN YOAKUM COUNTY GROW BRIGHTER

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 30. (AP)—Possibilities of a new Permian line pool in West Texas were offered today in C. J. (Red) Davidson and Honolulu Oil Co.'s No. 1 Bennett in south central Yoakum county, which filled 500 feet with pipe line oil in 24 hours and showed an estimated quarter-million cubic feet of gas daily from 5,000 feet in the Permian lime. The wildcat shut down there for 8 1/2-inch casing, the hole being open below 4,350 feet.

Location is in the center of the northeast quarter of section 678, block D, John H. Gibson survey, eight miles southeast of Plains, Yoakum county seat. It is approximately 40 miles northwest of the means pool in north central Andrews county, Texas, and about the same distance northeast of the Hobbs field in Lea county, south-eastern New Mexico.

The oil showing shared interest with the Gulf Production Co., No. 1 F. W. Wadell and today west central Crane county wildcat, shut down at 6,075 feet, 3,221 feet below sea level, for drill pipe. Heavy leasing in the area, participated in by Gulf, is causing widespread speculation that cores have indicated a high marker or shown oil, or both, rumors neither have been confirmed or denied.

Gulf is seeking the Ordovician, which produces in West Texas only in the Big Lake field in Reagan county, 55 miles to the east and eight miles to the south, at depths ranging from 8,344 to 9,020 feet.

POLICEMAN SLAIN BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 30. (AP)—Patrolman Wilfred Walker of the Bridgeport police was wounded fatally and Sergeant Thomas P. Kearney critically here early today by a gunman who fired on them as they attempted to arrest him and a companion for stealing radio sets from a music store window.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. (AP)—Strength of automotive issues and scattered specialties today tended to sustain an otherwise wavering stock market.

An early break in New Haven had a temporarily unsettling effect on the list, but recoveries appeared in the final hour. The trading pace slowed, however. Transfers approximated 1,350,000 shares. The close was somewhat irregular.

Van Sweringen Properties To Be Sold Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. (AP)—The Van Sweringen Co. properties, Cleveland and "others" were qualified to bid today for the key securities controlling the $3,000,000,000 railroad empire slated to be auctioned at 3:30 p. m.

This was learned at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co., head of the credit banking syndicate which is auctioning the securities, after the deadline had passed at which time prospective bidders were required to make deposits with the Morgan firm.

Usually well-informed quarters in Wall Street financial and railroad circles, however, expressed the belief that the Cleveland brothers would have little competition in the bidding.

The Morgan offices declined to reveal the identity of persons qualified, or to say whether the Van Sweringen bidder would be the Mid-American Corp., incorporated at Columbus by Van Sweringen lawyers last week.

Bimini Swept By Hurricane

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 30. (AP)—Bermuda, British Islands playground for the wealthy, today was alarmed as a tropical hurricane approached after devastating Bimini without loss of life.

Bermuda expects the storm to strike—or skirt the islands—early tonight.

A message to acting Governor J. H. Jarrett of the Bahamas—British possessions—said: "Bimini devastated. No casualties. Many inhabitants homeless. Commissioner's residence destroyed. All wharves gone. Wireless completely destroyed."

Bimini is a tiny coral island 45 miles east of Miami. It was an oasis for thirty Americans during prohibition. There are 610 persons living there, most of whom are engaged in fishing for a livelihood.

indescribable object or a waste of money." "With it all," he continued, "with work proceeding in every one of the more than three thousand counties in the United States, and of a vastly greater number of local divisions of government, the actual credit of government agencies is on a strike—er and safer basis than at any time in the past six years.

Municipal tax receipts are being paid when the taxes fall due and tax arrearsages are steadily declining.

Proudly detailing the far reaching purposes of human benefit proposed for the new dam, Mr. Roosevelt reiterated his determination to complete similar undertakings in the other valleys of the country—the Tennessee valley experiment already underway in the southeast; the Coulee dam project nearing completion in the northwest; and the proposed St. Lawrence waterways development, although he did not specify the latter three proposals.

"Today marks," he said, "the official completion and dedication of Boulder dam, the first of four great government regional units. This is an engineering victory of the first order—another great achievement of American resourcefulness, skill and determination."

welcomed the reply by Sir Samuel Hoare, British foreign secretary, in an inquiry as to the possible British participation in sanctions against any future European aggressor as an "expression of the will to act coming after a solemn statement of principles a Geneva."

A certain section of French opinion, desiring cast-iron guarantees, regretted nevertheless the absence from the British note of more specific assurances.

Great Britain always honors its undertakings, said the noted French writer, Perlestein, "but at the same time those undertakings ought not to be couched in terms so vague and ambiguous that they justify widely different lines of conduct."

Spokesmen for government circles said they welcomed the British foreign secretary's distinction in possible usage in article XVI of the league covenant, leading to punitive measures against unprovoked aggression.

One of the strongest arguments employed by the nationalistic section of the French press against a strong stand in the event of Italian aggression in Ethiopia has been that Great Britain failed to demand punishment for Adolf Hitler when the third reich re-armed.

GENEVA, Sept. 30. (AP)—The League of Nations passed tensely today on the verge of possible momentous decisions in the Italo-Ethiopian crisis, but indications were that the pause might persist until some outbreak of actual hostilities in East Africa.

The league secretary plunged into the task of preparing a historical summary of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute as far as it has gone, and statesmen exchanged informal views on what, if any, sanctions might be feasible in the event that the dispute developed into war.

A sub-committee of three, delegated to study the feasibility of sending a neutral commission to determine as to the trouble zone to determine any "guilt" on the spot, called a meeting.

Even before their members assembled, however, an authoritative source said "serious practical difficulties" would be encountered if the project would be undertaken.

These difficulties were understood reliably to include Italy's silence on the subject of safeguarding the lives of any neutral observers sent to the theater of the East African conflict.

ONCE FAMED SHORTSTOP VISITS IN PAMPA; IS PULLING FOR CUBS

One of baseball's immortals was a visitor in Pampa Saturday night, en route to Detroit for the opening of the 1935 world series. He was Joe Tinker, the starter man in the famous Tinker to Evers to Chance double-play combination for the Chicago Cubs, "way-back."

The veteran shortstop naturally was pulling for the Cubs to take the series, but he wasn't exactly optimistic. It will be a case of a bunch of veterans facing a team of youngsters with a sprinkling of veterans but, should the youngsters get off on the right foot, it will be the Cubs, he predicted in his slow manner of speech.

Tinker still holds a few records in the baseball world, which is unusual considering the speeding up of the game and the difference in playing paraphernalia and rules. In 1908, Tinker played in 157 games. He led the National league in fielding in 1906-08-09-11, with Chicago, and in 1913 with Cincinnati. In the world series of 1907, Tinker completed two unassisted double plays. Tinker played in the world series of 1909-07-08, with his teammate Frank Chance as manager.

Tinker managed Columbus after retiring from active baseball. Later he acquired the franchise of the Orlando, Fla., team. This writer often sat on the bench with Tinker and thrilled at the stories of "past" days while the Orlando club was going through practice sessions in Orlando in 1926. Joe Tinker Jr., was then playing second base for his father's team. Another son was a member of the pitching staff.

The veteran player stopped here to visit his longtime friend, C. T. Hunkapillar. The friendship began in 1905 in Oklahoma when Tinker was playing ball through that section.

In 1907 and 1908, Detroit and Chicago battled. The story has never been repeated until this year.

Joan Crawford Is Quite Peaved Over Marriage Rumors

NEW YORK, Sept. 30. (AP)—Joan Crawford today said she was "quite upset" over insistent reports that she and Franchot Tone, her leading man who escorted her almost across the continent, are planning to be married. She indignantly denied she had any intention of entering matrimony again.

Tone, who came east on the same train, did not arrive with the actress. He left the train at Harmon, N. Y., she said.

"Can you say if Mr. Tone has any plans of getting married?" she was asked.

"His father and brother are already married," she said, leaving the interviewers with that answer to puzzle over.

The actress said she plans to be in New York a month, fulfilling radio contracts.
