ELEANOR DRESSES UP IN GRASS SKIRT

Japs Are Giving Up Central Solomons

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Japanese are giving up the Central Solomons, pounded into retreat by continuous American air bombardments which left them short of ammunition and sank many of the loaded barges in which they tried to get away.

Press Criticism Of Government Is Non-Partisan

This is the third of a series of articles, originally designed to acquaint our readers with the various functions of the press in a democratic community.

Misconceptions relating to the right of the press to criticize, commend or suggest to government leaders, local, state or federal, is often assailed. For that reason it is essential that the position of the press in its relationship to governmental bodies should be examined.

Many well-meaning people conscientiously believe that the press should express no conviction upon local, state or federal affairs. They assume that to offer criticism is to become partisan. They confuse the meaning of the words "independent" and "neutral." There is a very real and vital difference between the two. To be independent is to reserve the inalienable right of every citizen to approve or disapprove of any public matter without thought of servitude to any particular party or group. To be neutral is to avoid reference to any contentious matter. To sum up the two it would be fair to say that independence was that same privilege of the individual to decide for himself, for which party he shall vote, or which church he shall attend, without pressure from party executives or religious dignitaries. To be neutral is to admit that one is not prepared to come to a decision or make a stand on any matter, and therefore, to leave it alone.

Members of civic bodies sometimes point out that newspapers have such a tremendous influence.

Board Clamps Down on Use Of Gasoline

The gasoline panel of the Gray County OPA War Price and Rationing office is cracking down on the promiscuous use of gasoline.

At a meeting of the panel last night it was decided to clamp tight on "special" rations and hold supplementary gasoline to an absolute minimum.

The board is forced to get tough, Walter Daugherty, secretary, said today. "This is in line with orders from headquarters and the fact that a real shortage of gasoline is staring us in the face."

Daugherty said the panel agreed that no more "special" rations will be issued except in extreme cases of absolute necessity for a trip.

A report that even though the value of B and C coupons had been reduced in value it would not mean anything because more coupons would be issued was denied by board members today.

"The panel agreed last night," Daugherty said, "that there will be absolutely no increase in the number of coupons just because the value had been cut. However, it is the panel's policy to keep essential cars running as they have heretofore."

It was stated at last night's meeting of the panel that too many women are guilty of non-essential driving on gasoline obtained through coupons issued for essential war purposes.

Community War Chest Drive Mapped Here By All Civic Leaders

Members and guests of Pampa's three civic clubs got some down-to-earth pointers Thursday afternoon on how to conduct their combined community war chest drive which opens Oct. 25.

Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions clubs joined at a luncheon in the Methodist church to hear Floyd Wright and Fred DeCoster of Amarillo explain the operations of the community chest and of the United War Chest.

Pampans were interested because for the first time in history, Pampa will conduct all of its annual drives, with the exception of the Red Cross, at one time.

DeCoster is executive director of the Amarillo Community Fund and Wright is district representative of the United War Chest drive for 26 hand-counted counties.

Luncheon guests heard them tell how their respective organizations operate.

DeCoster explained the community funds workings and left many suggestions with the Pampa board which will direct the local welfare fund drives in combination with the United War Chest drive. The local drive will not be affiliated.

Yanks, RAF Blast Four Nazi Cities

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—American Flying Fortresses struck by daylight today at Bremen, Germany's North sea U-boat and shipbuilding center, after a night of heavy attacks on southern Germany by powerful RAF bomber fleets which blasted Stuttgart, Friedrichshafen and Munich.

Four-engine Fortresses in their assault on Germany's second largest port, climaxing the newest forceful burst of Allied air activity.

While the British raiders were sweeping over southern Germany in strength last night, a much weaker force of German bombers struck at London and southeast England with the sharpest retaliatory blow in many months.

Heavy cloud formations prevented full observation of the results of the RAF operations, an air ministry spokesman said, but the German radio announced that "extensive damage" was inflicted on Stuttgart, where the junction of eight mainline railways rivals its industries in importance as a bombing target.

The air ministry said that the Germans were able to push through to London only 15 of 60 raiders which crossed the English coast before midnight and dropped slightly more than 35 tons of bombs on the capital city.

Besides blasting the three important German cities, British planes laid mines in enemy waters, and the air ministry said that seven aircraft were missing from the night's extensive operations.

DNB, German news agency, in a broadcast recorded by the Associated Press said that Norwich, important north of England city was also a target of Nazi bombers during the night.

Lightnings Destroy Parked Axis Planes During Greek Attack

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Battling in heavy rain and mud, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army has forged ahead and reached the Volturno river, the German defense line north of Naples, on a 16-mile front from Capua to the sea, Allied headquarters announced today.

Captured in the advance were Capua, on the south side of the river, where there is an important crossing, and Castel Volturno at the river mouth, 97 airline miles from Rome.

Capua, the main town on the Mazzoni plain on which the first phase of Gen. Clark's battle for Rome is being waged, is 17 miles north of Naples and 106 straight-line miles southeast of the Italian capital. It was taken in a 10-mile advance along the Via Casalina, one of the two main roads from Naples to Rome. The other is the Appian way, nearer the coast.

On the right, where the British Eighth Army was fighting another battle on the approaches to the side door to the Italian capital, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's forces beat back more fierce German counterattacks, took the offensive and occupied an important high area about Termoli along the Adriatic.

Six German divisions were now fighting along the Italian front in fierce action.

In their first sweep into Greece, American Lightning fighters of the Northwest African air forces destroyed a number of parked planes on the ground at Araxos, on the coast of the Gulf of Patras in the northwest corner of the Peloponnese, an official report disclosed today.

The Lightning raid was carried out Oct. 5. On the same day beleaguered, beleaguered American Liberators bombed Eleusis airfield near Athens, shooting down six enemy fighters out of a pack of 30 to 35 which attacked them.

Reds Expand Bridgeheads Near Dnieper

MOSCOW, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Red army, pressing its new surprise autumn offensive all the way from White Russia to the Black Sea, was reported today expanding its three bridgeheads west of the Dnieper river, particularly the one below Kiev which threatened to cave in Germany's entire eastern front.

Front line dispatches to the army newspaper Red Star said the major crossing of the Dnieper south of Poryeslav, 50 miles below the Ukrainian capital city of Kiev, which may prove to be one of the decisive operations of the war, caught the enemy by surprise and was carried out in four hours under the cover of darkness.

Russian forces which formed the wedge in the Germans' vaunted Dnieper line were reported already to have organized at basic points, consolidated ground and enlarged the bridgehead for further crossings.

Dozens of populated places already have been captured on the west bank of the Dnieper at the central crossing and at the two others north of Kiev near the confluence of the Pripiet and Dnieper rivers and southeast of Kremenchuk between that captured city and Dnepropetrovsk, the dispatches said.

The announcement of the crossings was taken here to mean that the Red army positions beyond the Dnieper now are secure and that the battle is under way for the complete liquidation of the German main defense line and the occupation of Kiev. The suburbs of Kiev on the east bank of the river and a city-island in the Dnieper were captured previously.

The Germans' next natural line was the river Bug, roughly 150 miles to the southwest, but a withdrawal there would undermine the entire northern half of the front and if

Hitler Tries to Whip Up Flagging Spirits

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler told Nazi leaders gathered at his headquarters yesterday that the German people must not be permitted to lose morale, for if they did the war would be lost.

In a patent attempt to whip up flagging spirits on the home front, he was quoted by the Berlin radio today as saying:

"Weapons alone will not tilt the scales unless human will backs them.

"The party has never allowed itself to be discouraged by setbacks. Its power of action, hard resolute-ness and extreme readiness to help provides the German people again today with moral backing and support, particularly in the difficult hours of air attacks.

"If the German people preserve this morale which they have shown on the battlefields and at home, the war can never be lost but must and will bring a great German victory."

Hitler promised the assembled leaders to "deal blood everywhere and never falter until our aim is reached."

Sales Tax Talk Growing Louder On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Despite determined administration opposition, talk of a 10 per cent federal retail sales tax, estimated to funnel around $6,000,000,000 into the treasury, grew louder today.

One veteran lawmaker whose judgment on tax matters is highly respected, said today:

"The ride was a part of the city observance of National Fire Prevention week. Winners of special contests in each room of the schools were awarded the rides as prizes. In all 125 students were given rides.

Fire Chief Ben R. White said: "First ride went to a group from Carter (negro) school, who had a ride on the department's Ford truck (Number 5), while the American-LaFrance (Number 4) furnished transportation for the other groups."

Inventory of truck 4 was Sam Houston and B. M. Baker schools, 12:45 p. m.; Horace Mann and Woodrow Wilson, 1:45 p. m.

Chile Supports United States

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Dr. Joaquin Fernandez, foreign minister of Chile, says his government is cooperating in every way possible for a United States victory because that would mean a victory for Chile, too.

Addressing guests at a banquet given in his honor last night by Mayor Fletcher Bowron, Dr. Fernandez declared there would be many things for Chile to buy from the United States after the war.

Pampa Field Executive Officer Praises WAC Officers at Base

"The current nation-wide campaign to recruit candidates for service in the WAC should be given careful consideration by every eligible American woman," Lt. Col. W. B. Maenschner, executive officer at Pampa Field said today.

"From the excellent work being done on this field by the three Women's Army Corps officers we have assigned to us at the present time, we know that the WAC's are filling an important place in our military organization. This station is ready to assign, and quarters have been prepared for a full contingent of WAC's."

Just when a full contingent of WAC's will arrive at PAAP has not been announced by the war department. Three WAC officers arrived here sometime ago and are now serving in important positions. Lt. Eleanor Bibson is the post library officer, 2nd Lt. Kathryn La-Master, assistant civilian personnel officer, and 2nd Lt. Avylon Killebrew, assistant post operations officer.

Lt. Enma Yukina, WAC recruiting officer assigned to the Pampa district, reported a growing need for women to enlist in the Women's Army Corps. "Many women in this district have shown a great deal of interest in the WAC and have made inquiries concerning enlistments," she said. "However, most of them, thus far, have been inclined to hesitate about leaving good paying jobs and a life they have grown accustomed to for something which calls simply for a sense of adventure."

Lt. Yukina said the majority of women she has talked to since coming to Pampa hesitate to join the WAC for two reasons: either they have a good, important job already, or they have a husband in the service and prefer to work where they can be near him, or both.

These excuses fall away, she said, when it is remembered that women who held responsible positions in civilian life are well fitted for responsible positions in the WAC, including those of officers. As for the second reason, it is a very human one but will not aid in winning the war against America's enemies, Lt. Yukina insisted.

"More than one-third of the women in the WAC are married," she asserts, "and it isn't exactly fair to ask them to give up their homes and husbands to work in the army for ALL homes and husbands."

"All women in this area who are between the ages of 20 and 49 and would like to be of real service to their country at a time when that service is very badly needed, are asked to see me or one of my assistants at our offices in the basement of the post office, or to call 2280 for an evening appointment. Our offices are open for business from 8:30 a. m. until 6:00 p. m." she said.

Argentina Sends U. S. New Envoy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Argentina playing a lone game in the Western Hemisphere, aroused new wonder among diplomats today by a sudden switch of ambassadors to the United States.

Fejipe A. Escobar, ambassador here since 1931 and one of the most popular men in his circles, was ordered home. Aurian C. Escobar, former ambassador to Brazil and Spain, replaces him.

The question was: Is this a rebuff to the United Nations?

"Some thought that the action was only part of the Argentine's revamping its diplomatic setup. A decree recently retired the envoys to Mexico and Vatican City, for instance."

There existed though the possibility that the only South American republic refusing to enter the orbit of the United Nations simply was showing again its independence of thought.

The warring relations between the U. S. and the Argentine weren't especially helped recently by Secretary of State Hull's flat refusal of a request for lend-lease materials. Hull made it plain that Argentina could have the same aid as Brazil, for example, only if it followed Brazil's example and broke with the Axis.

British Occupy Island of Simi

CAIRO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—British occupation of the island of Simi, only 25 miles north of German-held Rhodes in the Dodecanese, was disclosed today with the announcement that a German attempt to retake the island was beaten off with heavy losses.

A Middle East communique today told of this operation, but made no mention of the situation of Cos (Coo) in the Dodecanese, which was occupied recently by the Allies and severely attacked over the weekend by German forces who later claimed control of the 23-mile long island.

Simi is about halfway between Cos and Rhodes off western Turkey. The communique telling of the attack on Simi said prisoners were taken during the German assault.

Christian Science Sunday Study Topic

"Are sin, disease, and death real?" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 10.

The golden text is: "I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord" (Jeremiah 30:17).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "For God sent forth his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved" (John 3:17).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If Christian Science takes away the popular gods, — sin, sickness, and death — it is Christ, truth, who destroys these evils, and so proves their nothingness" (page 347).

Revival Meetings Are Planned At Central Baptist

"The Revival We Need" will be the sermon subject of Rev. T. D. Sumrall, pastor of the Central Baptist church next Sunday morning.

On Sunday, October 17, the regular fall revival meeting begins. Rev. Bradley Allison of the First Baptist church, Children, will preach. Having just closed a Training Union Study Course church officials are expecting a full day in the work of the church. In preparation for the coming revival, cottage prayer meetings will be held through next week.

At the evening hour Rev. Sumrall will speak on the subject, "The High Cost of Low Living." Mr. O. H. Gilstrap will direct the music Sunday at eleven and Mr. G. C. Stark will have charge Sunday night. Every member of the church is expected to be in these services which are preparatory for our revival meeting.

Japs Violate Portuguese Area

CHUNGKING, Oct. 8.—An- other violation of Portuguese neutrality was reported today from Macao, Portuguese colony, just across the mouth of the Canton river from Hong Kong, where according to private information reaching Chungking, the Japanese attempted to kidnap the acting British consul, John Powell Reeves.

It is stated that Japanese agents are active in this region, and that the Portuguese government has received reports that Japanese agents have been seen in the vicinity of the consulate in Macao, and that they are attempting to kidnap the acting British consul, John Powell Reeves.

Rev. Carver To Speak Sunday On "Separated Life"

The Rev. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church will be in his pulpit both hours Sunday September 10, using as his subject Sunday morning, "The Separated Life." The topic to be discussed by the pastor Sunday evening will be "The Convenient Season that Never came."

The forty voiced robed choir, under the direction of H. Paul Briggs, associate pastor, will provide special music for both services.

Mr. Aaron Meek, associate Sunday school superintendent, announced Wednesday evening that most of the offices had been filled in the enlarged Sunday school organization, providing a place for each member of the family in the Bible school from the Cradle Roll through the Adult departments.

New people and visitors are cordially invited to attend the Bible school and all the services of the church. Those prohibited from attending public worship are invited to tune in radio station KPDM which broadcasts the morning services.

Major Charles D. Scott will teach the lesson for the Everyman's Bible class which meets in the ladies club room of the city hall.

Germans Using Plastic Mines

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Lieut. Walter A. Reynolds, USCG, of New London, Conn., who was aboard the first coast guard landing craft to enter Salerno harbor, told today of a new type German land mine encountered on the battle-scarred beaches.

He said the land mines were made "almost entirely of plastic and concrete to escape our electric mine detectors."

Lieut. Reynolds pointed out that in the past troops had been able to mine across enemy territory only as fast as the mine detectors could go.

"At Salerno" he said, "that speed was reduced by the necessity of prodding into the ground with rods and bayonets for these non-metallic mines."

"The Germans had some of these new mines in North Africa, but until we got to Salerno did they use them almost exclusively."

Carrier Cheered For Attack On Norwegian Port

By JOHN E. LEE
Representing the Combined United State Press Distributed by the Associated Press

WITH THE BRITISH HOME FLEET, Oct. 6.—(AP)—(Delayed)—Surprised Norwegians cheered and waved when dive bombers and torpedo planes escorted by fighters from a United States navy carrier struck their lightning blow at enemy merchant shipping off northern Norway.

The attack was made by carriers of an air group early Monday and spread destruction and confusion among the targets. (The attack was announced by the British admiralty Tuesday.)

So great was the element of surprise that the Germans were unable to get a single defensive fighter plane in the air while the attack was in progress. The only opposition was from anti-aircraft guns which brought down three bombers and wounded the pilot of one American fighter. The bombers crashed or made forced landings, but the carrier managed to return to its carrier.

Later, two German planes which accompanied a carrier were shot down by fighters before they could complete their mission.

On Tuesday, October 17, the regular fall revival meeting begins. Rev. Bradley Allison of the First Baptist church, Children, will preach. Having just closed a Training Union Study Course church officials are expecting a full day in the work of the church. ## Hoover's Advice On War Relief Asked WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Striking out ahead of postwar planners, a senate subcommittee on foreign affairs has asked former President Herbert Hoover to draw on his World War Belgian relief experience and help devise a plan to feed some of Europe's starving millions now.

The former president, chairman of the commission for relief in Belgium from 1915 to 1919, was invited to testify Nov. 4 on a resolution calling for immediate action to avert "the impending tragedy of mass starvation" in Belgium. The Netherlands, Czechoslovakia, Norway, Poland, Greece and Yugoslavia.

"We have the wheat, and the Swedes have the ships, said Senator Taft (R-Ohio) co-sponsor of the resolution. Allied control for the Mediterranean, Taft noted, might make it easier to dispatch aid to some of the countries of southeast Europe, and possibly even to France.

The resolution's preamble asserts that the plan for sending food to Greece has worked satisfactorily without benefit to the Germans, and calls for extension of the system to other countries, with the aid of neutral Switzerland and Sweden, and the good offices of the International Red Cross.

The resolution specifies there must be no help for the enemy.

Teachers to Wed On Own Time

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Cupid is throwing a wrench into the school system, reports Supt. Viertling Kersey.

"We are having 15 to 20 requests a week from teachers who want leaves to get married. The matter is becoming more than serious."

He said from now on they'll just have to get married on their own time.

100 OCTANE GASOLINE

Adds 5th engine to every 4-engine bomber

ROUND-THE-CLOCK AIR RAIDS over Germany and South Pacific... Every time you read his headlines in your newspaper, remember that United Nations war planes are vastly improved war weapons because their tanks are filled with 100 octane gasoline from the United States.

To say that this super-fuel is equivalent to a fifth engine in every four-engine bomber is actually understating the facts! Compared with German aviation fuel of 87 octane, it improves performance more than 25 per cent.

Colorado Man Raps Women in Services

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(P)—Elderly, bewhiskered E. F. Gimlett of Leadville, Colo., asked congress to put the "Wacs, Waves, Woofs, Weefs and what have you back in the kitchen with the pots, the pans and the babies—where they belong." "My God," he told the house ways and means committee, "you might as well put a hundred tons of dynamite behind the army."

Clad in overalls and describing himself as a prospector, Gimlett said that since he had come to Washington "I have trouble keeping out of their way."

He appeared before the committee while it was considering tax proposals, and his criticism of the women's services was cut short by committee members.

HOT BREADS AREN'T a bit of trouble, if you take this baking hint from Sunrise Camp. Mrs. W. E. Stimpson, who feeds dozens of hungry fishermen all summer long, says: "We have a very fine clientele and a reputation for excellent food. In the morning, cook makes whatever quick bread we're having for dinner, and stores it in the refrigerator. Then, comes mealtime, all she has to do is bake. We do the same with cakes, and I never have a baking failure. Calumet's been our stand-by for years!"

"NO WONDER those fishermen love your place, Mrs. Stimpson," Kate answers, "with your serving tasty Calumet hot breads and cakes so often!" "Of course the reason Calumet's so dependable is because it's the 'double-acting' baking powder. Works once in the mixing bowl, then again in the oven." "I'm enclosing a recipe for muffins made with only one tablespoon of shortening. It's a life-saver sometimes these days. And you'll be surprised what good muffins it makes!"

Chief of Staff

The Army and Navy Journal, which is in a pre-determined position to know what is going on in the service, takes strong exception to a reported plan to name Chief of Staff George C. Marshall to a field command.

Discussions of the proposal, the journal mentions as the existence of "powerful interests which would like to eliminate (General Marshall) from the Washington picture, and place in his stead an officer amenable to their will."

The Washington Times-Herald says that General Marshall has been in conflict with the British. Chief of staff wants to invade from Britain, the English prefer the Balkan route.

This fits in only in part with the known facts. General Marshall did, on good authority, want to invade England as the principal base for smashing Hitler.

In Army circles the chief of staff is almost dead, and is criticized less than most men in such a position. Most of what criticism is heard has been aimed at him.

Whatever may be behind the supposed cabal against General Marshall, we join with others in hoping that either it is non-existent or that it fails.

As chief of staff, Marshall is de facto commander-in-chief of all American forces throughout the world. The most spectacular field command could represent demotion.

More over—and this is not in criticism of Marshall—there is no evidence that he would make a peripatetic field commander.

His reputation arose as a chief of operations—that for the famous First Division, then for a corps when he played a principal part in organizing the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

As a matter of training and planning, strategy and tactics there is no reason to believe that any American officer is his peer.

The military phrases of the war are going splendidly as they are, thanks largely to the work General Marshall has been doing in Washington.

The Nation's Press

Now that a large part of the Italian fleet is in British hands—5 battleships, 6 cruisers, 8 destroyers and 14 submarines, with more coming in—the Mediterranean has been cleared of hostile ships and aircraft.

There has been much speculation about the Far Eastern campaign, who is actually going to run it and how.

It will also be a part of his job, or maybe Gen. MacArthur's, to recover the Netherlands East Indies for whom? For the Dutch, the British, or the natives themselves?

Some onlookers hold that the entire Far Eastern campaign should have been MacArthur's baby, because of his greater experience in that quarter.

It has been suggested that one of the reasons why Mountbatten has been given the command was to push MacArthur into the shade with respect to the presidential election of 1944.

Whoever sits in the White House for the next term is likely to come out of it considerably shorter in stature than when he entered.

Common Ground

By R. G. ROILES

"OUT OF DEBT, OUT OF DANGER?" By JERRY VOORHIS

I have just finished reading another short-cut to Utopia by man-made laws. Rather than by nature's laws or God's laws—it is Jerry Voorhis' book, "Out of Debt, Out of Danger."

Congressman Voorhis is like many rich men's sons—he lives in the world but he is apart from it. He is of a dream world; he is not of the world.

He realizes just enough of the errors in our banking laws to make him dangerous. He sees the absurdity of the government borrowing synthetic credit from the banks and paying interest for it.

He, like most theorists, confuses the vocabulary. He thinks the government can create money by printing it.

In the first place, the government has nothing to create real money with. When it coins money, it just takes the gold that belongs to private citizens and stamps it, guaranteeing a certain weight and fineness.

This whole book is based on the erroneous premise that the government can create new buying power by issuing greenbacks.

Here is an example of his lack of understanding of real money. He writes: "By money we mean, of course, not cash or currency alone, but demand bank deposits of every sort as well, since it performs all the functions of cash money."

When the Prime Minister stated that he wanted to sail aboard one of the two smartest vessels in the British maritime service.

When the P. M. boarded his vessel he was informed that he was to make for a lifeboat on the starboard side.

Here is another example of how he confuses words. He thinks it is possible for politicians to appoint a non-political public body of outstanding citizens whose sole duty it shall be to "coin money and regulate the value thereof."

It is in fact, he has simply advocated a planned, dictatorial economy, a collectivist state like Hitler's or Russia, and evidently he is not even able to see what he is advocating.

Jerry Voorhis graduated from Yale with a Phi Beta Kappa key. This book is just another exhibit of Albert Nock's contention that college is no place to get an education.

NEWSPRINT AND THE QUISLINGS

(The Chicago Tribune)

The war production board is considering a further cut in newsprint use of at least 5 per cent. It announced that the 5 per cent cut had been recommended by the newspaper industry advisory committee meeting in Washington.

The newsprint mess presents the same old story of quibbling bureaucracy that has characterized the management of food, gasoline, fuel oil, and all the other civilian commodities since the New Dealers assumed control of our economy.

They do not believe in producing more and do not know how to produce more if they believed in doing it.

Newsprint production could be expanded to meet any need if private enterprise were free to do it and if the Washington planners had not created a deliberate scarcity of working men by their sly mismanagement of man power.

The Nazis continue to boast of a secret weapon. It would be rather odd if it turned out to be unconditional surrender.—Kansas City Star.

Did You Buy That Extra Bond?

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

SWABBED—When Winston Churchill was making preparations for his latest trip to Washington, he went into a huddle with First Sea Lord Sir Alfred Dudley Pound regarding the detailed arrangements.

The Prime Minister stated that he wanted to sail aboard one of the two smartest vessels in the British maritime service.

When the P. M. boarded his vessel he was informed that he was to make for a lifeboat on the starboard side.

Mr. Ickes announced a couple of days ago that black diamond production was lagging to such an extent that at present we have only seventy-five million tons above-ground and our stocks are thirty million less than at this season last year.

The quota for our armed forces—a military secret—will not make a noticeable dent in our pile. Should Welsh coal, now shipped to Canada, be diverted to Badoglio or to liberated countries, we could fill every bin in the Dominion in less than a fortnight.

REBUTTAL — "Honest Harold" Ickes, Uncle Sam's stand-in boss of the mines, has so enraged operators with what they charge are "sham statement and filmflam figures" of a coal famine that they plan to lash back.

Admittedly one of the most diligent and fearless officials in Washington, the Cabinet member is also a perpetual calamity howler. His latest bugaboo stampeded householders. They are pounding on dition to that over 1.25 million farm lads have gone into the armed services, so the total reduction in farm labor force over the past three years is better than 4.35 million men.

In the face of figures like these, the recent confusing statements attributed to War Manpower Commission experts—that there are now a million surplus farm workers who could be transferred to the armed services or war production—look just a little silly.

Behind this WMC reasoning, however, there is a bit of interesting background. Last February, at the request of Senator John H. Bankhead II, of Jasper, Ala., county agricultural agents were asked by the Department of Agriculture to make a survey of what they thought farm production would be in 1944.

Peter Edson's Column: FARM FIGURES DISPROVE A MYTH

By PETER EDSON

With the peak demand for farm labor only a few weeks away, there are the usual conflicting reports on whether there will be enough hands to take off the crops.

This is another one of those complex questions on which no broad general answer to cover the entire country can be given.

On the basis of these discouraging reports, the farm bloc congressmen went to work to get what they thought agriculture needed for the war food program.

MIGRATION That makes a total of 3.1 million experienced farm hands with-drawn from farm labor, and it does not include the women and children who have accompanied their menfolk in this war migration.

WARTIME HEALTH: Weather Change Has Big Effect On Your Health

By DR. THOMAS D. MASTERS

Written for The News The weather really does have something to do with how you feel. It cannot be said to cause diseases—since diseases come from germs—but the weather can do much to the surroundings in which germs live.

A prolonged spell of steady rain, or a protracted heat wave present forcibly the subject of weather and its effect on health and morale.

Several physical components go to make up the term "weather." Temperature, humidity, motion of the air, and pressure all enter into this complex subject.

BODY REACTIONS Apart from the popularly known fact that persons afflicted with arthritis and rheumatism are extremely sensitive to weather changes, even perfectly well people are aware of the cold, moist air, that seems to "chill the bone," and have observed that pneumonia flourishes in such conditions.

People generally are most comfortable in a temperature of about 72 degrees F., or about 88 degrees if they are generally in the circulation of the blood through the tissues, whereas high temperatures speed up circulation and the flow of blood to the arms and legs.

In "muggy" humid weather, the perspiration of the body cannot evaporate readily, and the humidity is low, the body-water evaporates very rapidly and causes a chilling sensation.

The weight of the air as it presses against the earth varies greatly according to altitude, the lowlands meaning an increased amount of pressure.

AIR ABSORBS MOISTURE The motion of the air cools the skin by absorbing the moisture. From one to three miles an hour velocity of air motion avoids a draft and cools the body satisfactorily, as well as carrying bacteria to higher levels so that the sun may kill them.

WILL MACARTHUR ultimately lead the conquering Allied forces into Tokyo as generalissimo? I think we had better confine our ideas to what we can see in the present—that he will continue his operations in much the same way he has been doing.

Help Your Busy Doctor... By keeping well—Read Dr. Masters' health column every day.

At one stage of the battle, the agent used this argument: Agent—Why, insurance is the greatest thing in the world. No man should be without it. I even carry a $50,000 policy, payable to my wife.

Harrassed Prospect—Its too much. What excuse can you give her for living?

Notre Dame, Navy, Texas, Tulane, Texas Tech Picked By 'Expert'

Pennsylvania, Cornell, Army Also Chosen

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—Confronted by what figure to be three of the best games of the season, involving six unbeaten teams, we give you the following football selections for this week-end with the hope that the final figures will be something better than the identical record for each of the first two weeks (22 wins, eight losses and one tie).
Notre Dame-Michigan—Tempted to toss a coin after comparing Bertelli's piking with Daley's running. But off the Irish's 55 points against Georgia Tech as compared to only 21 scored by the Wolverines on Northwestern we'll pick Notre Dame.
Duke-Navy—Two strong teams well fortified in reserves meeting their first big tests. Calling on a slightly prejudiced fortune-teller we give you the Middies in a close one.
Dartmouth - Pennsylvania—I'll take Pennsylvania.
Cornell-Princeton—Capt. John Welch, navy coach, is the authority that Cornell has a good first team but no reserves. Neither has Princeton. Realizing we haven't yet called the Tigers correctly one vote is cast for Cornell.
Illinois-Wisconsin—The Badgers have too much for the weak Illinois squad.
Indiana-Nebraska—Off the Hoosiers showing against Northwestern two weeks ago it's Indiana.
Georgia Pre-Flight-Georgia Tech—The engineers to come back after being showered with touchdowns at Notre Dame.
Rice-Tulane—The Greenies from Tulane are stronger than they showed in losing to Memphis Naval ATTC last week. Tulane.

Johnny Lindell Shows He's Good Blocking Back on Ball Diamond

By SID FEDER
ENROUTE TO ST. LOUIS, Oct. 8—(AP)—This was strictly an American League laugh party that headed for the Missouri flatlands today and the final fling of the 1943 World Series, all because Jumpin' Johnny Lindell showed that as a baseballer he's a pretty good blocking back.
The Yankees took an important—almost a vital—2-1 edge in games with them into the enemy's backyard for the opening game of the series stretch run starting Sunday in St. Louis. And since their five-run eighth inning spree gave them a tremendous psychological lift as well as a 6-2 win yesterday before a series record get-together of 69,990 customers, all the heat now was on the Cards in defense of the world championship they won a year ago.
There wasn't a man, woman or child aboard this series-bound fling, including the engineer and the fireman, who didn't point to Jumpin' Johnny's head-on crash into Whitey Kuroski in that big eighth-inning plurge as the standout "break" of the afternoon. The collision not only shook the walls of Yankee Stadium but it caused Kuroski to drop a perfect throw that left Lindell safe at the hot corner with none out. After that, the Yanks hit only bing-o on every number including the three-run triple Rookie Bill Johnson unloaded shortly afterward.
It was a heart-breaker for Alpha (Bet) Brazle, the gangling lefty, to blow after mowing down the Yanks like the weeds in a victory garden up to the time that eighth inning time-bomb went off. And it was especially tough for the stringbean southpaw to lose the job because of a fielding collapse behind him in which his mates made four errors. Just who will pitch in the fourth game still is in the tea leaves. Manager Joe McCarthy says he'll start Lefty Marius Russo, who won 5 and lost 10 during the regular season, "unless I change my mind." In that case it could be Spud Chandler, winner of Tuesday's opener; Billy (The Kid) Southworth wouldn't let the folks in on his Cardinal chucking choice until he got back home; but it almost has to be Max Lanier, portside husky who dropped a close decision in the first game. If it isn't, however, it might be sore-armed Ernie White, the lefty who blanked the Yanks a year ago, or Harry Gumbert, a right-hander, who turned in a couple of commendable jobs in the late weeks of the '43 campaign.

It puts a particular trademark on this series that it was Lindell who made the break to change what looked like a second straight loss for seven innings, into the win that may mean the whole works. For if there has been one weak spot in the Yankee lineup up to now, Jumpin' Johnny is the leading candidate for office.
Then, leading off that eighth frame, he looked at one ball and picked the next pitch on a line into center for his first series hit. He rounded first and legged it to second while Center-Fielder Harry Walker got completely tangled up trying to get the ball for the throw in.

George (Snuffy) Strinwieser, the Yanks' reserve shortstop, then was sent up to hit for Hank Borowy, who had turned in a fancy five-hitter up to there even though Danny Littwiler's single had knocked home both the Cards' runs in the fourth. Snuffy had the word to bunt, and everyone in the house knew it. The St. Louis first-stacker, Ray Sanders, was practically standing on Snuffy's toe to take the tap and throw to Kuroski.
Even though there was no force play on Lindell he just put his head down and lit out for third. The play had beat him but he took off and dived head-first into the bag. His cranium bounced into Kuroski's, and Whitey had no further interest in holding the ball.
Strinwieser, naturally, got a free ride to first on the fielder's choice. Then, after Frankie Crosetti's Cards' chief pest, was intentionally passed, Johnson brought all the ducks in off the pond with his 460-foot money-shot that got away from Walker in left center.
The rest was just icing on the cake as Charley Keller walked and Joe Gordon, Bill Dickey and Nick Etten singled for the other pair of runs. In the confusion, Brazle was succeeded by Howie Krist, who faced one batter, then moved over to let Harry Brecheen face the mush—which was strictly jive by this time.

Harvesters Journey To Oklahoma

Pampa's Harvesters left for Lawton, Okla. today to tangle with their third Sooner opponent in three consecutive Fridays.
The Harvesters are all even with the neighboring state eleven and hope to take the Lawton boys into camp tonight for an edge in the series.
Hollis dropped Pampa by a narrow margin in the opening contest here two weeks ago, and the Harvesters retaliated the following week by trouncing Weatherford.
(By The Associated Press)
There's one less undefeated-united team to contend with today in the Texas high school football race. Previously unbeaten San Antonio Tech fell 28 to 7 yesterday before Brackridge of San Antonio. Two others of the perfect record class came through with victories by big scores. Masonic Home (Fort Worth) defeated Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) by 34 to 0. Sunset of Dallas defeated Adamson, also of that city, 30 to 7.
In other Thursday games, Milby defeated Sam Houston, both of Houston, 27 to 0; and Palestine edged by Nacogdoches, 14 to 13.

Notes from the Series Games

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—A quick summary of outstanding positive and negative factors in the first three World Series games:
Greatest hero—Joe Gordon on all-around play; the Cooper brothers when considering the strain under which they toiled.
The goal—None outstanding, although Max Lanier might qualify with the error and wild pitch which helped Yanks beat him in the first game.
Greatest catch—Danny Littwiler's one-handed shoestring stab of Gordon's drive—the toughest kind of catch—in the third game.
Most costly error—Whitey Kuroski dropping ball, under extenuating circumstances, and allowing Johnny Lindell to reach third safely in the eighth inning of the third game, thus lighting the fuse to the Yankees' big rally.
Biggest break—Martin Marion's foul drive into the left field stands which would have tied the score in the seventh inning of the first game had it been a foot to the right.
Hardest hit—Charley Keller's triple to left in the ninth inning of the second game.
Oddest hit—Frankie Crosetti's bunt which looped into right field for a single.
Oddest play—The vanishing ball incident in the first game when Lanier's wild pitch rolled up Walker Cooper's arm, shot into the air and dropped 20 feet to the right of the plate, permitting Frankie Crosetti to score from second as Cooper searched in the wrong direction.
Best freshman—By all odds, Bill Johnson.
Most surprised—The Cardinals when Crosetti stole second with none down in the first game, Walker Cooper throwing the ball into centerfield in his haste.
Toughest luck—Alpha Brazle, who held Yank hitters in check for seven innings and then saw two consecutive errors behind him set the stage for the New Yorkers' winning rally.
Oddest injury—Johnny Hopp, Cardinal bench warmer, who applied himself as he leaped up to shout the location of the vanishing ball to Walker Cooper on—Lanier's wild pitch.
Most killing blow—Johnson's base-clearing triple in the eighth inning of the third game. The Cardinal chances died right there.

Notes from the Series Games

Most inoffensive batter—Nick Etten.
Most astonishing sight—A ground ball going directly through the usually lawless Martin Marion.

Fifteen Teams Join Soldiers' Bowling League
More than 30 teams are expected to post entries in the Pampa Army Air Field bowling league for enlisted men when final entries are tabulated after the deadline Sunday, according to Capt. James Livingston, PAAF athletic officer.
A total of 15 six-man clubs were entered as of Thursday and the athletic department at the post expected another 15 to get under the wire.
"The great interest shown by the enlisted men in bowling will make it necessary to form two separate leagues for competition this winter," Capt. Livingston says. "As yet, we've received no entries for the officers' league we planned to operate and it may be there will be no bowling for officers this winter."
The following teams had posted entries as of Thursday for league play, which will get under way about Oct. 18:
Two teams from the 83rd TEF squadron, Air Inspector's office, Classification, Motor Transportation, Band Squadron, 852nd TEF squadron, 1101st No. 1 and No. 2, Public Relations office, Ordnance, Post Headquarters, Finance, Photographic Laboratory and Post Technical school.

Southwest Elevens Engage Outside Clubs on Saturday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Only four of the six teams will be in action but close to 65,000 fans are due to see Southwest Conference teams play outside opponents tomorrow.
Texas meets Oklahoma at Dallas and Rich tackles Tulane at Houston in day games while Texas A. & M. engages Louisiana State at Baton Rouge in a nocturnal affair.
Arkansas goes outside the conference but not for an inter-sectional joust as the Razorbacks entertain Arkansas A. & M. of Monticello.
WVTO had been given until 10 a. m. today to make an approachment for reinstatement of the game after it said it was asking the navy department to allow it to play at the Memphis municipal stadium. A transportation ruling which would not allow the center to travel from its reservation to the stadium was the reason for calling off the game.
"We have cancelled transportation and all other arrangements and would not now consider an offer for reinstatement of the game," Stewart said.

Canadian Trounces Pampa Juniors 14-0

The Canadian Junior High school football club trounced the Pampa Little Harvesters 14-0 yesterday, scoring all their touchdowns in the first six minutes of the initial quarter.
The Pampans drove down to the one-foot line in the last period, but Canadian held.
Star for Canadian and the boy who carried the mail, end Jimmie was Washburn, shifting back.
Starting lineup: Pampa—LE, Mays; LT, Long; LG, Carey; C, Allen; RG, Schleg; RE, Griffin; QB, Latoon; LH, Brooks; RH, Morley; FB, Williams. Canadian—LE, McGraw; LT, Mathers; LG, White; C, Hill; RG, Nix; RT, Arnold; RB, Morris; QB, Cross; LH, Nix; RH, Washburn; FB, Ramsey.

Bowls 770 In Three Contests

CHICAGO, Oct. 8—(AP)—A Chicago bowler posted a three-game total of 770 in league competition to claim the highest score for the new league season.
Joe Aubert started his series heading for a perfect game, getting 10 consecutive strikes before he blew his chance to get 300. But he finished with 288, and then rolled games of 285 and 247.

Some Leaves from a War Correspondent's Notebook

AN AMERICAN AIR BASE IN ITALY... There is a conspiracy in the army against keeping clean...

In Tunisia there was a shortage of water... It is still the perennial shortage of laundry soap.

"Do you take your pride in your hand and in your hour of need you approach the mess sergeant..."

"Morning," he answers suspiciously. "How'd you sleep?"

"I can't stand these rations, and besides I ate too much again last night."

"That's too bad. How're things at home?"

"Worse. Mom needs a new pair of glasses. My nephew has the chicken pox and my girl quit her job in a war plant."

"I'm afraid so." "Do you realize I need that stuff to clean my stove and make wash water for all you guys' mess kits?"

"Yes, Sergeant." "Do you think that stuff grows on bushes?"

"No, sergeant." "You know I have to fight like hell to get that soap?"

"Yes, sergeant." "What'd you do with all of it? Wash your ears? Well, here's some more, but don't tell the other guys I got any more in and don't waste it."

"With that he scrapes his finger across a bar of soap and gives you all that sticks to the nail. You take it gratefully and go away and wash two suits of underwear, a pair of pants, three wool shirts and four handkerchiefs in a helmet full of cold water."

British Hold Jap War in Second Place

LONDON, Oct. 8 (AP)—Agreeing with U. S. Navy Secretary Frank Knox that the Pacific war holds second place in the minds of Britons...

"After all, it was not the Japs who bombed London," Morrison said at a luncheon of the Anglo-American Press Association...

Recalling that Prime Minister Churchill plainly stated the British government's attitude toward the Pacific war, Morrison asserted that "some Americans, however, think that though the attitude of the government is clear the point of view of the British citizen is less so."

"This obviously was a feeling among the British public that the 'real war is in Germany and the other is a side show.'"

Reduction of Cows In Texas Advocated

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 8 (AP)—Reducing the amount of protein feed needed by individual cows is not the answer to the feed shortage...

Reducing the feed ration would cut milk production, towering the dairyman's profits, Eudaly said.

Surviving the feed crisis, Eudaly said in a statement that Texas as generally would have as much corn and grain sorghums as last year...

With but distribution would be uneven. With hay production 12 per cent less than last year, most counties will not have enough unless sufficient rain and good weather stimulate growth of good pastures this winter.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK Oct. 7.—(AP)—The stock market suffered another sell-off today on the largest volume in about three weeks. Reasons for the retreat varied. Accounts were trimmed here and there because of persistent doubts as to whether the measure even if it halves part of the treasury's proposals. International news hardly was heard but some cautious stock sales to await the forthcoming three-power conference at Moscow.

Prominent on the retreat were Dow Chemical, Chrysler, Youngtown Sheet, Santa Fe, General Motors, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Sears, Roebuck, United Aircraft, Speer, American Smelting, J. C. Penney, General Electric, Westinghouse, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, J. E. Case, International Telephone and International Business.

Resistant were Pan American Airways, United Air Lines and Allied Chemical.

At Chicago which was up 1/4 to 5/8 of a cent a bushel, cotton in late trade, was unchanged to off 30 cents a bale.

THE STORY: Capt. Raymond Imhof, U. S. Army, assigned to follow a lead on a mission, is sent to a town in Germany. He is unable to bring out of Germany. The plane from which Imhof was to parachute into enemy territory is forced down. He discovers the pilot is a girl. They make their way toward Coblenz.

LOOTERS
CHAPTER XII
IMHOF turned east toward New Coblenz and the stores there, then halted at sight of a great fan of red glare ahead beneath a pillaring tower of smoke.

The first encounter with people came at an air-raid post farther along. Pat drew closer to Imhof. It was her first sight of Nazis in their lair. No one paid Imhof or herself the least attention.

Soon civilians began to appear in the streets, singly or in small groups—stunned, dazed people, still numb from the suspense and dread they had endured. When they spoke it was in hushed, strained voices. They looked at Pat and Imhof with dull, uninquiring eyes.

Evidence of the RAF's work multiplied swiftly: buildings blasted or collapsed, fires of greater or less intensity still burning unthought, eyes unwatched.

This was devastation, and for Pat and Imhof the going became slow and hard. Time and again they had to backtrack, to by-pass blocked streets or to pick a way around great bomb craters, over piles of debris, under tottering walls or between raging fires.

Imhof became anxious. Time was precious. He would be wasting it looking for clothes in Old Coblenz. He turned right and headed for New Coblenz, turning a right corner that of muck-believe turned and a raincoat. Retiring

Many of Naples Art Treasures Are Undamaged

By REILMAN MORIN
NAPLES, Oct. 2.—(Delayed) (AP)—World famous art treasures in Naples, with a few tragic exceptions, have safely survived the bombing and fighting around the city, the celebrated scholar, Professor Amadeo Maturi, said today.

The national museum is unscathed except for broken windows and shrapnel hits and priceless volumes which were packed and hidden are believed to be intact.

The worst destruction occurred in the ruins of Pompeii, the professor said.

"The newest excavations are irreparably injured," he said. "The Strada Dell'abbonanza is ruined beyond restoration and the famous house of Marcus Lucretius Tiburtinus is completely smashed."

The professor said that Herculaneum was untouched by bombs, however.

He almost paid with his life in an attempt to devise means of protecting the Pompeii excavations. He went there after the first Allied bombs were dropped on German military installation nearby hoping to be able to signal the planes away from the actual excavations. While returning to Naples a bomb fragment broke his leg and the famous classicist is still unable to leave his bed.

Although in great pain he forced the hospital and had himself carried into his beloved museum.

Only a few of the heaviest Greek statues and works of art are actually left in the museum.

Within Naples itself there was some destruction of priceless historical structures, he said. The fourteenth century church of San Filippo Neri was hit by a bomb. The even

Roosevelt Asks Quick Freedom For Philippines

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—President Roosevelt has asked congress for authority to "proclaim the legal independence of the Philippines as separate and self-governing nation as soon as feasible."

July 4, 1946, is the date for independence now set by law and by votes of the Filipinos, but Mr. Roosevelt told congress in a special message it was possible that for some of the war will permit an earlier consummation of this joint will of the American and Filipino peoples.

The Japanese have held the Philippines since early 1942 and have taken steps themselves which they say are intended to give the islands independence.

President Roosevelt said not only an advance in the date for independence but also three other steps were due the Filipino people in recognition of their heroic role in the war, their political ties with this country and bonds of future friendship.

He recommended that congress make provisions for:

1. The president and President Quezon of the Philippines to "enter into immediate negotiations and take the necessary steps to provide for full security for the Philippines for the mutual protection of the islands and of the United States, and for the future maintenance of peace in the Pacific."

2. Determining the necessary adjustment in laws pertaining to American-Philippine economic relations so as to assist in making the islands, as an independent nation, economically secure wherever possible.

3. Physical and economical rehabilitation of the Philippines necessitated by the war.

"Such action on the part of congress," Mr. Roosevelt said, "would assure the Philippine people again of our sincerity of purpose and of our resolution to accord them as feasible the legal status of complete freedom, independence, and nationhood to which, as a member of the United Nations, they are entitled."

Germans Moving More Troops To Northern Italy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson gave his press conference Thursday this terse survey of the war's battle fronts:

Germany still is increasing its strength in Italy and its forces there now probably number between 20 and 25 divisions.

The future intentions of the Germans in Italy are still not clear, but the Allied command expects them to fight a series of delaying actions as they retire northward. At present, resistance is stiffening in the east, where the rapid advance of the 8th Army threatens to outflank the Nazis.

Native patriots, aided by French troops from North Africa and by American Rangers, expelled or destroyed the last remnants of the Nazi garrison on Corsica, giving the Allies potential bases from which northern Italy and southern France can be attacked by air and sea.

In the Dodecanese islands in the eastern Mediterranean-Aegean area, the Germans landed with considerable strength on Cos against a relatively weak British and Italian garrison; they have taken the airfield there, and have local air superiority. Allied planes from North Africa and Italy are heavily attacking German air bases in Greece and Crete in an attempt to restore the balance of air power.

The bomber offensive from Britain against Germany and occupied Europe continues, with the raids on Emden and Frankfurt being particularly notable.

Comparative lull exists on the Russian front due both to the rapidity of the German withdrawal and the torrential rains. The Germans still are holding the Dnieper line, but apparently are withdrawing from their bridgehead across the Kerch Straits into the Crimea.

In New Guinea, General Douglas MacArthur's offensive continues "with great speed and success."

In the Solomon Islands, the Japanese are attempting to evacuate their outflanked forces on Kolombangara island, suffering in the attempt the destruction of a large number of troop-laden barges.

There has been considerable air activity in China. The Japanese air strength has been increased, but Major General Claire L. Chennault's 14th air force still holds the initiative. From India, daily air raids are inflicting heavy damage in Burma.

with the National Community Chest but will operate its own affairs on a similar plan.

The local drive will run from Oct. 25 through Nov. 8.

A tentative budget of $38,000 has been set for the Pampa and Gray county combined drive which will include the United War Chest, whose goal alone is $19,000; Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, and American Legion.

J. W. Garman and Frank Smith will be co-chairmen of the general drive.

One of the biggest jobs of the drive will fall on the shoulders of R. C. Hughes and his advanced gift committee. The committee directed by Hughes will start its portion of the drive on Monday, Oct. 18, one week in advance of the regular drive opening.

It was announced at yesterday's meeting that 50 per cent of the entire fund must be raised by the advanced gift committee. Suggestions were made by DeCoster that all employees of various stores and firms be asked to contribute at least two dollars. The amount he pledged and be collected through payroll deductions.

"Your drive depends entirely upon the cooperation you get from your businessmen," DeCoster said. "Therein lies your success or failure."

DeCoster said that in a city the size of Pampa there should be at least 1,200 individual pledges in addition to the pledges from companies and business establishments.

It was also announced that the United War Chest itself has 17 participating agencies. The USO gets 48 per cent of the contributions, United Seamen, 3 1/3 per cent; War Prisoners Aid, 1.85 per cent; Russia, 8 per cent; China, 7 per cent; Greece, 4 per cent; Poland 3 per cent; Yugoslavia, 1 per cent, and France, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, and Belgium each less than 1 per cent; Refugee Children and care of children received in the United States from foreign countries, 3 per cent. By these per centages it will be seen that the armed forces get 54 per cent plus a 10 per cent contingent fund of all the money raised in the United War Chest portion of the campaign.

It was made clear that the drive coming up will do away with all other welfare drives in Pampa with the exception of the Red Cross in the spring. The Red Cross always operates separately because of their organization set-up.

When you contribute during the campaign between Oct. 25 and Nov. 5, you will know that there will be no other drives, with exception of Red Cross. The United War Fund, USO, Foreign Relief, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and American Legion all will be included in the one drive.

The local drive to be known as the community's United War Chest drive will be supervised and directed solely by local men and women.

In addition to the co-chairman of the advanced gift committee, others in the drive include: Original committee—W. B. Weathered, rural chairman; Mrs. G. Schmidt, treasurer; Wayne Phelps and Tex Weese, publicity.

Executive committee—J. W. Garman, chairman; E. J. Dunigan, co-chairman; J. M. Collins, Boy Scout; Arthur Reed, Salvation Army; A. J. Beagle, Girl Scouts.

Committee-at-large—E. J. Dunigan, Jr., J. E. Murfee, Jr., Jack Hanna, S. D. Stennis, R. G. Hughes, W. B. Weathered, and Garnet Reeves.

in the community, and that their circulation is so wide-spread that they have an advantage over those with whom they disagree. This is true only in so far as the individual refuses to take advantage of the privilege granted by almost every newspaper publisher of the columns of the press, to express his or her views. There is however a much more important angle to this question. Newspapermen are equipped to give more adequate study to municipal affairs than most individuals. As their fingers they have information that is not so readily available to every citizen. Their representatives attending meetings of civic bodies, and therefore have the opportunity of getting a better understanding of municipal affairs than the average voter. Of even greater importance is the almost universal attitude of the public to expect advice and leadership from the press. The newspaper is often the only medium through which citizens may keep abreast of the affairs of the community. They expect, and have the right to expect, that their newspaper will keep them advised of what is going on, and will also, through the information at its disposal, endeavor to interpret the news. The newspaper which fails to do this, is failing in what often amounts to its supreme task in the community.

Another assumption of some men and women in public office is that any criticism offered in a newspaper is personal rather than objective. That is not true. Newspapers have been known to conduct violently personal campaigns, but it is the exception rather than the rule, and if any criticism violates the laws of defamatory libel, the individual always is free to take the courts.

The newspaper which comments on public affairs, far from being presumptuous, is but fulfilling one of the most important and vital functions of the press. If it is genuine in its desire to be of service to the community, it will open its columns to signed letters from those who disagree with its editorial opinions, but, all too often those who have this privilege fail to avail themselves of the opportunity, preferring to carry on a street corner or platform feud against the newspaper. By intelligent comment on public affairs the newspaper prevents the rise of unscrupulous men

Fast Texas Aggie Team To Play LSU

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 8—(AP)—Coach Bernie Moore's bolterous Bengals will try again Saturday night to keep football "alive" at Louisiana State and at the same time the Bengals hope to retard the game for Texas A. & M.

Moore announced last summer that it was Louisiana State's aim to "keep football alive at the war school during the war and make the sport pay its own freight."

The Bengals' 34-7 win over Georgia and 20-7 trouncing of Rice indicated that there's nothing dead about the way his team plays the game. Approximately 50,000 fans have marched through the turnstiles, which wouldn't be bad even in peacetime.

All parties concerned at Baton Rouge say Texas A. & M. is much tougher than either Georgia or Rice and that Homer Norton's Aggies have 11 men who do 100 yards in 10 seconds flat. If true, that would make the Aggies one of the fastest outfits in history of college football.

Louisiana State has Steven Van Buren, the southeastern conference's leading scorer, who does everything at a football game except take tickets at the gate. And he has capable assistance from freshman backs Bill Schroll, Carroll Griffith and Gene Knight.

11,478,000-Bale Cotton Crop Seen

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—The agriculture department today forecast this year's cotton crop as 11,478,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, based on condition of the crop on Oct. 1.

A month ago 11,679,000 bales were forecast. Production was 12,824,000 bales last year and the average production for the ten years, 1932-41, was 12,474,000 bales.

lion plant. The city, which lies on the shores of Lake Constance across from Switzerland, was last bombed by the RAF during a shuttle raid to Africa on June 21.

Munich, bottleneck of rail transport to the Brenner Pass and birthplace of the Nazi party, suffered new destruction in a visit from light Mosquito bombers. It had been bombed by British and American heavy bombers twice before during October.

Other Mosquitos ranged into northwestern Germany to attack additional war targets during the night, the announcement said.

The night's far-flung operations constituted the RAF's fifth major assault on German cities since the start of the month when the current heavy offensive roared on for four night without stop and then was resumed after a lull of two nights.

A Swiss communique said that foreign planes had violated Swiss neutrality during the night and that material damage resulted to the neutral country from German anti-aircraft shells.

Later, the Berlin radio said that British bombers had attacked localities on the Bay of Heligoland, suggesting the possibility that the targets of the Mosquitos ranging into northwest Germany might have been Wilhelmshafen or Bremerhaven.

It was stated authoritatively that last night's deep penetration into southwest Germany was made in a roundtrip operation from Britain and that the lengthening nights provided sufficient cover for the return home.

The raid on the British capital came early while streets were still thronged with people. The air ministry announced an unspecified number of casualties from bombs dropped over a wide area of the metropolis.

East Anglia and southeast Britain also were visited by the German bombers. Two enemy aircraft were shot down—one in the London area.

The last large scale German attack on London was on May 5, 1941. While last night's raid was sharp, neither damage nor casualties were comparable to the toll exacted almost nightly two years ago.

American soldiers and civilians recently arrived in London stood on street corners to watch their first raid "in force." Britons and others who have been through previous heavy aerial attacks headed for shelters.

As great searchlights swept the sky and the defense barrage increased in intensity, British night fighters went up to meet the enemy. High overhead formations of the big RAF bombers headed for the searchlights.

Although crowded residential areas in London suffered damage from enemy bombs, there was no report of military targets being hit.

SALES TAX

respected, said he believes a majority of his colleagues on Capitol Hill consider this form of levy the most accessible vehicle for gathering in new billions to finance the war, but they are not yet sure how their constituents back home feel about it.

Those who have taken definite positions for the tax include Rep. Taber (R-NY), ranking minority member of the house appropriations committee and Sen. Byrd (D-Va) member of the senate finance committee.

The sales tax bounded into the forefront of discussions on possible substitutes for the administration's $10,500,000,000 new revenue program which called for heavy rates on individual and corporate incomes and on such luxury items as liquor and tobacco. Congress is in no mood to accept the administration's plan, especially as it relates to heavier burdens on individual income.

A representative of the New York board of trade, M. L. Seidman, put the sales tax issue formally before the ways and means committee saying:

"If ever a federal sales tax is justified now is the time. I propose for the duration a 10 per cent 'victory' sales tax on all sales to the ultimate consumer. I estimate that such a tax would yield an annual revenue of $6,000,000,000. I would allow no exemptions."

Nazis Promise New Submarine Warfare

LONDON, Oct. 8—(AP)—Admiral Karl Doenitz, supreme commander of the German navy, declared in a Berlin broadcast today that submarines still are Germany's greatest threat to the Allies and promised a new naval war "greater than anything witnessed so far."

"It is my firm and final intention to carry on the war against the enemy's tonnage to the highest level of perfection and with all means at our disposal," he said in a war summary broadcast by the German news agency DNB.

force which tried to beat off the raid.

The Allied air command announced that 190 disabled enemy planes were found on captured air-dromes at Caporicchio and Fomigliano, which constituted the two principal airbases for Naples. This brought the total of planes captured on fields in Italy to 692.

Of those found in the Naples area, 14 were giant six-engine Messerschmitt-323 transports and 54 were standard JU-52 transports. Forty-five of the remainder were Italian planes, some of which the Germans had been operating.
