Foreign Aid Faces Revision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may revise its future foreign military aid program to put more emphasis on a drive to promote European political and economic unity. No firm decision has been made yet. But key administration policy makers are worried over what they regard as a definite slowdown in Western Europe's progress toward unity.

Some American foreign aid experts are reported convinced the United States should condition future money grants on solid European promises to take specified steps within a certain period of time. Whether a timetable for Europe to follow will be included in future legislation appears doubtful. Other equally influential administration planners believe European governments would regard this as a dictation and interference in their sovereign affairs.

But nearly all administration specialists on this problem appear convinced that the United States should forcefully remind Europe of America's continuing interest in European unity. A group of senators and representatives who attended last month's meeting of the European consultative assembly at Strasbourg, France, criticized Europe's failure to move more quickly toward unity.

One of them, Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), told newsmen today that the attitude of some U.S. officials that "we should refrain from guiding the policies of countries receiving American aid is a 'pussyfoot policy.'" Hickenlooper said he was "quite impressed" with the initial steps being taken by the consultative assembly to bind Europe together, but he said "evident reluctance of Great Britain to take part may well be fatal to the idea."

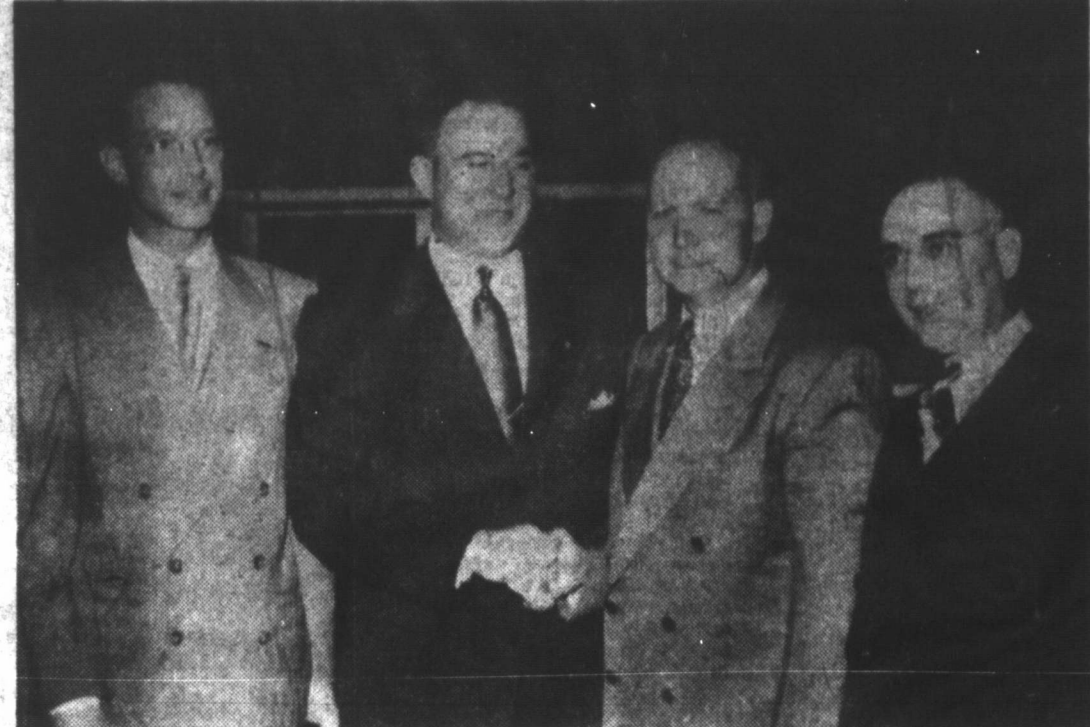

He and the other legislators who attended the Strasbourg session "told the European representatives in effect that the United States would not continue to finance a divided Europe indefinitely. Richard Bissell, Jr., acting Marshall Plan chief, took an even stronger line in a speech before Congress. He blamed the slowdown in progress toward unity in part on the United States, claiming the administration has given Europeans the impression it is now interested exclusively in rearmament.

Rogers Predicts Drive To Stamp Out Malpractice

Additional action against income tax evaders and malpractice by members of the Internal Revenue bureau, will be one of the big items coming before the great Rep. Walter Rogers hinted today in his newsletter. Rogers declared Commissioner Dunlap was "swinging the axe" on every questionable tax department employee everywhere it sufficed evidence warranted it. The representative said, "The subcommittee of the House Ways and Means committee continues to gather evidence of malpractice by a number of employees of the Internal Revenue Dept. As fast as the evidence is gathered, Commissioner Dunlap is swinging the axe to completely cleanse that department of questionable employees and practices. The way to finally stop such corruption is to go after bribe givers as well as bribe takers, and until this is done, the disease will not be entirely cured. It may be necessary to pass new legislation to properly punish such offenders. This is a matter which is now under consideration by several of us here in Washington. You can look for more definite action along this line in the next session of Congress."

Officials More Concerned With Negro Eating Places Than With Segregation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil Aeronautics Administration officials here appeared more concerned today over lack of suitable eating facilities for Negroes at Houston's new airport terminal building than over rest room racial segregation. Washington CAA officials said yesterday the only complaint they had received concerning the terminal was that Negroes had no dining facilities. They asked that Houston make such facilities available and implied federal aid would be cut off if the city does not comply. Some Houston officials have said they received indications from CAA officials that federal aid

Husted Named API President: Thompson Tells API Industry Can Double

General Ernest O. Thompson last night told Panhandle oilmen the oil industry could double its present production of crude by 1975 as long as free enterprise was not hampered by governmental control. Gen. Thompson, member of the Texas Railroad commission, was principal speaker at the officer election banquet of the American Petroleum Institute held in Buna Vista, near Borger.

Clayton Husted of Pampa was elected president of the organization replacing Fred Neslage. Joe Cronin, of Borger was elected first vice chairman, Luther Reynolds, Pampa, second vice chairman and Martin Ludeman, Pampa, secretary-treasurer. The record crowd — over 400 members were present at 20th anniversary of the Panhandle chapter — also saw honored 16 men, who were given awards of merit for their work with the chapter and the area oil industry. Receiving awards were J. Ed Warren, first chairman of the chapter, and Dan Gribben, E. J. Duggins, Jr., Dallas; Earlberry, Max Harrison, Abilene; Seidman, A. E. Hickman, Clayton Husted, Vernon Hobbs and Fred Neslage, all of Pampa; and J. N. Perkins, Polly Parrott, N. D. Bartlett and R. C. Kay of Amarillo and J. R. Phillips and Ralph O'Neill of Borger.

Paving Of Hwy. 70 To Start Friday

Work on paving the 12-mile stretch of State Hwy. 70 north of Pampa from the present end of paving, is slated to get underway tomorrow morning. State Highway Dept. engineers, have reported. Preliminary work of sub-grading, blading the haul road to the caliche pit and setting up rock crushing machinery has been completed. The contractors, Cooper and Woodruff, Amarillo, have located a base material pit about 1 1/2 miles east of the highway, just halfway between the start and finish points of the project. The $142,139.84 job was awarded to the Amarillo concern last month by the State Highway re-commission in Austin. The job consists of laying the base, and a double coating of asphalt. It will leave about four and three quarter miles of unpaved road between the end of paving and Chicken Creek bridge.

Pampa Delegates Await Word On Airline Hearing

Pampa delegates to the CAB hearing on Central Airlines' permanent permit to operate through Texas were still waiting for word from the Oklahoma capital as to when they are to appear. The group had expected to take the witness stand Tuesday or Wednesday but was delayed when other cities took longer than expected to testify. E. O. Wedgworth, chamber of commerce manager, said this morning he was advised by Keith Kale, president of the airline, that Pampa, 35th in line to testify, may not be called until Friday or Monday. By 11:15 a.m. today Wedgworth was still waiting to hear whether the Pampa group should get ready to move this afternoon or wait until Sunday to leave for Oklahoma City. About 16 men from Pampa are expected to attend the hearing.

Rogers To Speak At Borger School

Rep. Walter Rogers will address a joint student body and general public meeting at 10:10 a. m. tomorrow in the Frank Phillips college auditorium at Borger. The affair is being sponsored by the college's government class. Bill Reeves, Pampa, will serve as assistant interlocutor. At 9:30 a. m. a reception for the Pampa congressman will be held in the school by the faculty and students of the government classes.

Funeral Pending For Frank Nabors

Frank Adolphus Nabors, 68, of 820 E. Campbell, died this morning in Highland General hospital. Mr. Nabors was born Jan. 27, 1883 in Alabama. He had lived in Pampa since 1936 and was a retired carpenter. Survivors include his wife, Ola B. Nabors; one son, Ray of Los Angeles, Calif.; six daughters, Mrs. E. L. Lampert, Wilcox, Okla.; Mrs. N. J. Skelton, Casa Grande, Ariz.; Mrs. E. W. Bates, San Bernardino, Calif.; Mrs. K. T. Vicars, Buena Park, Calif.; Maxine and Imogene Nabors, both of Pampa; one sister, Mrs. R. W. Stephens of Amarillo; two brothers, Bill of Corona, Calif.; Tom of Watonga, Okla. Five grandchildren also survive. Services are pending under direction of Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral home.

Pampa Gets Green Light On Bond Sale

It took five minutes of talking and one minute of deliberation Tuesday for the Credit Restraint commission in Dallas to give Pampa the green light in selling $575,000 in civic improvement bonds. City Manager Dick Pepin reported the commission approved all of the bond issues but the rest rooms in city parks before the Pampa group arrived. The doubt over rest rooms arose because the commission, a voluntary credit control group made up of banks and financial houses, thought the $21,000 was to be spent on one rest room. Mayor C. A. Huff used the five minutes to explain the money was for five rest rooms in four city parks, all in residential sections. He explained the parks now have no rest room facilities. The Pampa delegates left the room while the commission deliberated. One minute later they were called back and told the entire issue was approved. This approval means that reliable investment houses will be encouraged to buy the bonds. Had the issue been disapproved, the reliable buyers likely would have remained away from the bidding. Bids on the bonds will be opened at 10 a. m. Tuesday during city commission meeting. Besides the $21,000 for parks, the Pampa bonds will be used for $15,000 in street improvements and bridge construction, $32,000 for water improvements, and $153,000 for sewer improvements.

UN Assembly Deadlocked; To Choose Member Later

PARIS (AP) — Hopelessly deadlocked between white Russia and American-backed Greece, the United Nations general assembly today temporarily postponed the election of an 11th member of the security council. Earlier Chile and Pakistan were elected to fill two of the three vacancies, almost without opposition. After eight inconclusive ballots failed to get either the Russian or American candidates the required two-thirds majority for the third seat, the assembly decided to wait before continuing its voting. The delay was intended to give the opposing factions time to try to line up support which could give victory to one or the other in the later balloting. The United States, in weeks of political maneuvering here, has sought to line up the delegates in favor of Greece, North Atlantic treaty partner which could be expected to vote with the West on critical issues. Russia has vehemently insisted that — according to a 1946 "gentlemen's agreement" — the "gentlemen's agreement" — the (See ASSEMBLY Page 3)

Bombers Back After Historic Training Flight

FORT WORTH (AP) — Six strategic Air Command B-36 bombers — the kind that could carry an atomic bomb 10,000 miles and more — returned today from an historic training flight to Africa. They landed at one of the brand-new American Air Force bases, it is one of several super secret air fields being built around the world for global defense. Maj. L. A. Frenck, intelligence officer of Southbridge, Mass., said it was the first time flights other than local ones had landed at the Sidi Slimane, French Morocco, field. Crewmen shrugged off the actual flying as routine. But today the still couldn't stop talking about the food — for instance the 54 filet mignon steaks for one 18-man crew alone — on the return flight. Several crewmen stepped from the planes wearing bright red faces, characteristic headgear of parts of North Africa. The planes flew non-stop to Africa and non-stop on their return to their home field, Carswell Air Force base here. Distance one-way is 4,984 miles. LEFT SATURDAY

Girl Injured When Struck By Vehicle

A teen-age girl escaped serious injury this morning when she was struck by a car at Browning and Cuyler. She was 13-year-old Sonja White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. White, 709 E. Jordan. Police said the accident happened 32 feet south of the intersection. The girl was crossing the street from the east to the west side and ran directly into the path of a vehicle, driven by Carol D. Rankin, 1617 Charles, according to police. The car had just made a right turn off Browning onto Cuyler when the accident occurred, officers said. Miss Rankin said the sun blinded her temporarily as she made the turn. No charges will be filed, police reported. Sonja will be kept in Highland General hospital for observation. Hospital authorities said she had received only bruises.

Dr. A. R. Sawyer Dies Here Today

Dr. A. R. Sawyer, 72, long-time resident of Pampa, died today in his home at 921 N. Gray after a three-month illness. Dr. Sawyer was born in Dallas county, Feb. 22, 1879. He came to Pampa from Mineral Wells in 1915 and practiced dentistry here since that time. Survivors include his wife, Emma; two sons, Kenneth of Borger and Robert, who is stationed in Amarillo with the United States Air Force; two daughters, Mrs. Chester Drake of Austin and Mrs. Vincent Menier of San Antonio; three grandchildren, Roy Sawyer of the U.S. Navy, Mary Lou Sawyer of Borger and Stanley Studer of Austin; two sisters, Mrs. R. M. Hall of Brownwood and Mrs. Mollie Glass of Arlington. Dr. Sawyer was preceded in death by two daughters. Funeral will be held in Holy Soul church at 11 a. m. Saturday. Burial will be in the family plot in Llano cemetery, Amarillo. Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p. m. Friday in Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral home.

Sabre Jet Leaders Too Good; Can't Be Spared For Rotation

TOKYO (AP) — America's three Sabre jet squadron leaders in Korea — all ace — are so good they have spoiled their own rotation hopes. Normally when a fighter pilot becomes an ace by bagging five enemy planes he is sent back to the United States. But the squadron leaders of the fourth fighter — interceptor wing all became Korean aces within three days. The Air Force can't send home every squadron leader in the wing. Maj. Richard D. Creighton of Baton Rouge, La., became an ace Nov. 27. Three days later, in the Allies' biggest air victory of the war, Maj. Winton W. Marshall of Raleigh, N.C., and Manhattan Beach, Calif., and Maj. George A. Davis, Jr., of Lubbock, Tex., became Korean aces No. 5 and 6. Marshall downed one LA-9 propeller driven fighter-bomber and a Communist TU-2 twin engine bomber to make his score 5-2 kills. He got another MIG yesterday. Davis staged the biggest one man air show of the war that day, downing one MIG and three TU-2s. He already had two MIGs. He sent two more down in flames.

Twilight War Grows Quieter Day By Day

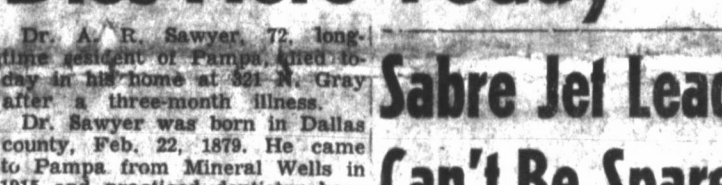

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Allied airmen made 107 attacks on front line Communist field guns today in an all-out campaign to make Korea's twilight war even quieter. The abrupt change in United Nations air support tactics came as American jets tangled with the Reds the 11th successive day — a new record for continued air war. One Red jet was reported shot down, one probably destroyed and another damaged. The Air Force said no Allied planes were hit. Pilots who hit Red artillery said they destroyed 35 guns on the western front. This would be the equivalent of more than a whole Red artillery regiment's guns. Many others were damaged. Red guns have been harassing UN infantry since the twilight war began Nov. 28. "After today," an Air Force briefing officer said, "there is every indication that our close support should substantially reduce the mortar and artillery fire being received by UN forces in this sector." The briefing officer, Maj. C. F. Brown of Tampa, Fla., said photo planes pinpointed the big Communist guns in the last few days. Thursday morning, Allied (See TWILIGHT Page 3)

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The Alexander Ranezays have put a continent between themselves and the home from which they were displaced by war six years ago. The Czech refugees arrived here last night. They reached New York Nov. 13 and Ranezay was feted as the millionth displaced person. They were settled at Midland, Tex., but came from Midland here.

Deal Saves Hereford Hotel.

HEREFORD — (AP) — Hotel Jim Hill, one of the snowplacers of this area, was saved from foreclosure sale yesterday by a new deal with the Reconstruction Finance Corp. The hotel, costing $515,000, was built with $210,000 in RFC money. After the Hereford Community Hotel Corp. became $8,139 behind in payments, the RFC advertised a foreclosure sale. During the first year of operation, the hotel showed a net profit of $9,000. Officials said a minimum net profit of $23,000 annually was needed to meet RFC payments.

Morality in Hollywood Perpetually Under Fire

By BOB THOMAS (Second of three articles on Hollywood morals — Editor's note)

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Any discussion of morality in Hollywood brings up the morals clause. But amazingly little is known about it.

The history of the morals clause goes back to the turbulent '20s. The young movie industry was struck by a series of scandals that rocked its foundations. Wallace Reid, portrayer of the all-American boy, died at the age of 31, a victim of the dope habit. Fatty Arbuckle, lovable comic of slapstick shorts, was tried three times for manslaughter in the tragic death of a San Francisco girl. After two hung juries, he was acquitted. Director William Desmond Taylor was murdered in an unsolved mystery that involved two actresses, Mary Miles Minter and Mabel Normand.

The Arbuckle case is generally believed to be the reason for introducing the morals clause. Since then, most film players have had it included in their contracts. It reads something like this:

"The artist agrees to conduct himself with due regard to public conventions and morals, and agrees that he will not do or commit any act that will tend to degrade him in society or bring him into public hatred, contempt, scorn or ridicule; or that will tend to shock, insult or offend the community or ridicule public morals or decency, or prejudice the producer or the entertainment industries."

That's a lot of words. It should cover any situation concerning immorality. Yet the joker is that the morals clause has never been invoked for immorality.

That's an eye-opener, isn't it? A veteran, top-flight Hollywood lawyer confirmed that fact. To his knowledge, the clause has never been used until the last three years, and then only for political reasons. It was used to fire those workers accused of Communist activities.

"I may be cynical," said the attorney, "but I believe that the producers have never felt the need to cancel a contract because of moral reasons. I think that when a star is involved in a scandal, particularly if it involves sex, the public is generally sympathetic and forgiving."

"But Communism is another matter. If a star gets a Red label, he and his pictures are subject to organized and effective pressure. The producer could well consider him a bad risk and fire him under the morals clause."

Contrary to general belief, not every film player signs the morals clause. At least one studio, Paramount, does not require it. The studio apparently prefers to leave the clause unstated and rely on common law, which might have a broader application.

The legality of the morals clause has never been tried. Some lawyers feel that it might be an infringement of individual freedom assured by the U. S. Constitution. But others claim there is basis in common law.

Rotarians Told Boys Today Surprised At Job Requisites

The recent Explorer Vocational conference sponsored jointly in Borger by Frank Phillips Junior college and the Adobe Wallis council, Boy Scouts of America, proved to a group of teen-agers that top flight jobs aren't as easy to attain as some boys think they are.

J. W. Dillard, dean of the junior college, told this yesterday to Pampa Rotarians in the Palm room, city hall, while reporting on the seminar.

The seminar, second of its kind to be tried in the United States, was attended by 285 senior Scouts and about 80 leaders. The boys met with top men in the different fields they indicated their interest in on a questionnaire.

Dillard said he heard one boy say after a session with an engineer: "Gosh, I didn't know there was that much work to being an engineer."

Another boy talking with a farmer, declared he didn't know agriculture was "that scientific." The dean said too many young boys today don't seem to know

Woman Charged With Murder Awaits Decision

DALLAS — (AP) — A grand jury Wednesday still had not taken final action in the case of Mrs. Rebecca Doswell, 52, charged with murdering her wealthy oil operator husband, Thomas W. Doswell, 55.

The delay in a decision apparently was at the request of Dist. Atty. Henry Wade.

Wade said earlier he would ask the jury not to act until he had presented statements from "a number of fact witnesses in several other states." He said he still was collecting the statements.

Doswell was fatally shot with a pistol as he and his wife were parked in front of the Melrose hotel, their residence here. Mrs. Doswell said the pistol discharged accidentally as she handed it to her husband.

Cabot Officials Attend Meeting Of ASSE In Borger

Three Cabot Carbon Co. officials from Pampa attended a meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Society of Safety Engineers at Borger last night.

They were Don M. Conley, Bert Arney and E. R. Anderson.

Guest speaker was M. A. Park, Stone Webster Engineering Corp., who related experiences during the three years he was in Russia as an advisor on construction work during World War II.

He also showed movies he had taken while in Iran and other Middle East countries.

Plans for a school inspection program to be conducted by invitation from school systems were discussed at the meeting.

The program will consist of a survey for safety and fire hazards.

Conley was appointed chairman of a committee to prepare rules for first aid team competition among Scouts in this area after a suggestion from Vernon Hobbs, Borger Boy Scout executive.

NEW YORK — (P) — Cotton futures were irregular Wednesday. The market displayed strength at times on trade buying and short covering, but the rallies failed to hold in the face of liquidation and hedging. Some selling was influenced by sentiment that the December 10 cotton crop report will not be as low as first anticipated.

A private survey placed the crop at 15,128,000 bales, compared with the November official estimate of 15,771,000 bales. There were also reports that one leading spot firm anticipated a crop report around 15,450,000 bales. Prior to the estimate, only one survey had been reported at 14,857,000 bales.

Late afternoon prices were 50 cents a bale lower to 20 cents higher than the previous close. Dec. 43.56, March 43.15 and May 42.93.

As for imports, the speaker said these were necessary so long as they supplemented the nation's production and not supplant it.

He said the United States' reserves should be drilled and kept available in case of need. The imports could supply residual fuels.

"You cannot depend on foreign oil, come war," he said. We must have an ample defense reserve in oil ready here at the turn of a valve.

HARDER TO FIND

He said oil is getting harder to find and that oil now being produced was found at costs prevailing 15 to 20 years ago. He said since costs were increased and demand was becoming heavier, oilmen would have to have better price for their product.

He said that with increased military demand coming in the face of increased civilian demand, a rise in the price of crude per barrel was inevitable.

Gen. Thompson also pointed out taxes as a threat to the nation and the oil industry. He said the oil industry was now receiving three percent of the nation's income and paying seven percent of the nation's taxes.

RESPONSIBILITY

"High taxes dry up initiative," he declared.

"A sense of individual responsibility and the vocal activity of every citizen will correct this tax situation if we are all active and mean business about getting our taxes reduced," he said.

Third In Series Of Cabot Broadcasts Scheduled Tonight

Third in a series of programs explaining various departments of Cabot Carbon Co. will be presented over radio station KFDN today at 8:05 p.m.

The series usually is presented on Fridays, but this week time was relinquished so the Pampa-Dumas basketball game can be broadcast.

Today's discussion will concern the Cabot credit union.

The credit union is an organization of company employes managed and run independently of company supervision or jurisdiction. Its purpose is to encourage savings among members and provide them a source for loans.

Dead Father's Letter Decides His Son's Fate

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A letter written by a man now dead helped a judge determine custody of his six-year-old son. The letter was written by Maj. George H. Walsh two years before he and his wife were lost on a flight over the British Guiana jungles in 1948. It was presented as evidence yesterday when Mrs. Bertha Walsh, 55, petitioned for guardianship of her grandson, Michael Walsh, 6. She said Walsh had always wanted his son brought up in the Catholic faith, but that Mrs. Edith Jaeger, the maternal grandmother, was rearing him as a Lutheran. The letter, addressed to Walsh's mother after a visit to the Pacific, stated: "I have come to the conclusion that it is foolish to argue about politics, religion or race. That is what makes America. Everybody has his particular idea and when you put them all together you get the melting pot of the world. "It is a combination no nation can beat. I realized that when I looked at the Marine grave markers on Iwo Jima. When it came time to fill in a hole, Negroes, Jews, Catholics, Quakers, Mohammedans, fell side by side. The Smiths, the Kowalkies, Goldblatts, Kellys and

Is Hollywood Immoral? Writer Finds It Average

By BOB THOMAS (First of three articles on Hollywood morals). HOLLYWOOD (AP)—How immoral is Hollywood? With the nation becoming acquainted almost daily with new revelations of immorality in public life, attention is again focused on this great news center of human foibles and follies—Hollywood. Recent headline happenings of Barbara Payton, Franchot Tone, Ava Gardner, Frank Sinatra and others have brought another flood of protest from filmgoers' critics. But what are the facts? Hollywood claims that it is as normal as any other community, the difference being that when its notables misbehave, they make news. The town's critics claim that it is a cesspool of sin. Neither view is correct. Hollywood is neither as good as it claims or as bad as outsiders paint it. Even in this Kinsey age, there is no yardstick for measuring immorality. The film industry often points proudly to a survey made by the Hollywood reporter in 1947. The paper polled the habits of 1,235 of its readers. It reported that 70.1 percent had never been divorced, 61.3 attended church, etc.

Divorce Granted Professor's Wife

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A psychology professor was divorced yesterday after his wife testified she found him and another woman nude in a motel. Dr. Elias Medford Wesley, 35, who resigned from the University of Southern California, before the divorce came to trial, admitted the accusations made by his wife, Gladys, 37. But, he said, the affair was no business of his wife or anyone else because she had already sued for divorce when it occurred. Nonetheless the court awarded Mrs. Wesley a divorce and set a hearing for Dec. 28 on the jobless professor's ability to pay $200 a month support.

TWO DIE IN CRASH

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Clifton Donahue, 21, and Wilma VanTrease 16, were killed near here yesterday when their car struck a culvert. Bacijalupes, majors, colonels, buck privates, lay equals. "Death recognized no race, color, creed or language." The court cited Walsh's tolerant views in deciding to let Mrs. Jaeger retain custody of the child.

Harvesters Meet Dumas Tomorrow

The Pampa Harvesters went through a ninety minute season of ball handling during their lengthy workout yesterday afternoon as a result of the sloppy ballhandling during Tuesday night's opener against Stratford. The Harvesters showed a bad case of the jitters in their opener as they dropped pass after pass, threw others away, and generally mishandled the ball badly. It straightened up considerably the second half, but Coach Clifton McNeely, a perfectionist of the first water, wasn't satisfied and thus the workout yesterday.

Today the Green and Gold will taper off for their second tilt of the season, an engagement at the Junior High school gymnasium against the Dumas Demons. Tipoff time for the main contest is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

McLean Invitational Tourney Underway With 24 Contestants

McLEAN — (Special) — The McLean High School Invitational Basketball tournament for boys and girls opened here at 12:30 p. m. today with 24 teams in the field of play.

The White Deer Does met the Samnorwood girls in the first game of the combined tournament. Clarendon's Bronchos faced the Panhandle Panthers in the first boys' contest at 1:15. At 2 p. m. the Hedley girls met the McLean girls and at 4:15 the White Deer Bucks met the Groom Tigers.

Tonight's schedule calls for the Mobeetie girls to meet Quail at 6:15, Alanreed boys to face Quail at 7:30, Panhandle and Lefors girls to tangle at 8:45 and the McLean Tigers to face Hedley at 10 p. m.

Trophies will be awarded for first, second and consolation teams in each division. Individual awards will go to both the boys and girls for high scoring, defensive play and best sportmanship.

The boys' division will include Mobeetie, Clarendon, Panhandle, White Deer, Groom, Phillips, Canadian, Alanreed, Quail, McLean, Hedley and Lefors.

Teams in the girls' division will be Canadian, White Deer, Samnorwood, Hedley, McLean, Briscoe, Groom, Quail, Mobeetie, Panhandle, Lefors and Claubie.

AP Poll Approves Spring Grid Work

NEW YORK — (AP) — Spring football practice should be continued in the opinion of the majority of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters who voted in the Associated Press' end-of-the-season poll.

However, almost half of those who think that spring practice should be kept believe that some sort of limitation should be placed on it. Of the 110 replies to the questionnaire, 74 thought spring practice should go on, while 36 voted for its abolishment. Of the 74, 36 were of the opinion that it should be regulated.

Most of those who went along with spring practice thought its elimination would not help any de-emphasis program or act to cure any of college football's ills. The main reason for those who want it eliminated is that it interferes with other sports and places too much stress on the gridiron.

Top Golf Pros Open Miami Meet

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — Sammy Snead's record 267 fired last year was in danger of falling today as a classy international field of 168 professionals and amateurs teed off in the first round of the $10,000 Miami Open golf tournament.

After a heavy rain Tuesday, the municipally-owned Miami Springs course was reported in perfect condition and visiting sharpshooters said some really fancy par busting would be required to win the $2,000 top money.

Snead's 267 last year, which gave him the tournament championship for the fourth time, was 13 under par. Slammin' Sammy is back to defend his title, together with five other former champs — Frank Stranahan, Jimmy Demaret, Tommy Armour, Dutch Harrison and Miami's Steve Warga.

For the first two 18-hole rounds of the 72-hole medal event, the course distance will be 6,810 yards and par 35-35-70. Then the field will be whittled to the 60 low pros and 10 low amateurs and the course will be stretched to 7,000 yards for the final two days.

Players are entered from the United States, England, Canada, Cuba, Belgium and Argentina. Some of the top-notch visitors include Harry Weetman of Ireland, holder of the British PGA championship; Max Faulkner, British Open champ; and Antonio Cerda of Argentina, who finished second in the British Open.

Lew Worsham, former U. S. Open champ, shot 33-33 — 66 yesterday to win a pro-amateur warmup event.

Brooke Meets Middies

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — Brooke Army Medical Center's football team will play another game before it meets the Camp Lejeune Marines in the Cigar Bowl.

Brooke will meet the San Diego Naval Training Station eleven here Dec. 16.

The chamber of commerce has agreed to underwrite the game.

Reapers Enter JH Tournament

The Junior High school Reapers will see their first basketball action of the season when they play in a Junior High school tournament at the Horace Mann gymnasium in Amarillo, Dec. 12-14. Entered in the tournament will be the teams in the Panhandle Junior High School Athletic Conference, and the outcome of the tourney will have no effect on the district play.

First round schedule: Dec. 12 — Horace Mann vs. Nixon at 4 p. m.; Pampa vs. Phillips at 5 p. m.; Canyon vs. Borger at 7 p. m.; Price College vs. Sam Houston at 8 p. m.

Finals are set for the night of Dec. 14.

Parker To Temple

COLUMBUS, Ohio — (AP) — F. J. (Salty) Parker, former manager of the Shreveport baseball team, of the Texas League, yesterday was signed to manage Temple of the Big State League.

Proceeds will go to the San Antonio Community Chest.

Shoeless Joe Jackson Dies Denying Guilt In Sox Scandal

GREENVILLE, S. C. — (AP) — "Shoeless Joe" Jackson often said that he'd met only one real trouble in his life. But it was a job died yesterday at the age of 63, still maintaining his innocence of any wrong — doing in the infamous "Black Sox" scandal of 1919.

The one-time star outfielder for the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox was barred for life from organized baseball by the late Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis for his part in the scandal. Accused and banished with Jackson were Oscar Felsch, Arnold Gandil, George Weaver, Charles Risberg, Fred McMullin, Eddie Cicotte and Claude Williams.

Williams hit .275 in the 1919 White Sox — Cincinnati world series, won by Cincinnati five games to three. The exiled players were accused of accepting bribes to "throw" the series games.

"After his banishment, Jackson returned here, citing his acquittal of conspiracy charges in a Chicago court as proof of his innocence. A civil court later awarded him the unexpired portion of his salary from the Chicago Americans.

In the 1920's Joe starred as a player and manager in semi-pro baseball at Waycross, Ga. When his baseball years ran out, Joe settled near his boyhood home here and kept in contact with textile and sandlot baseball.

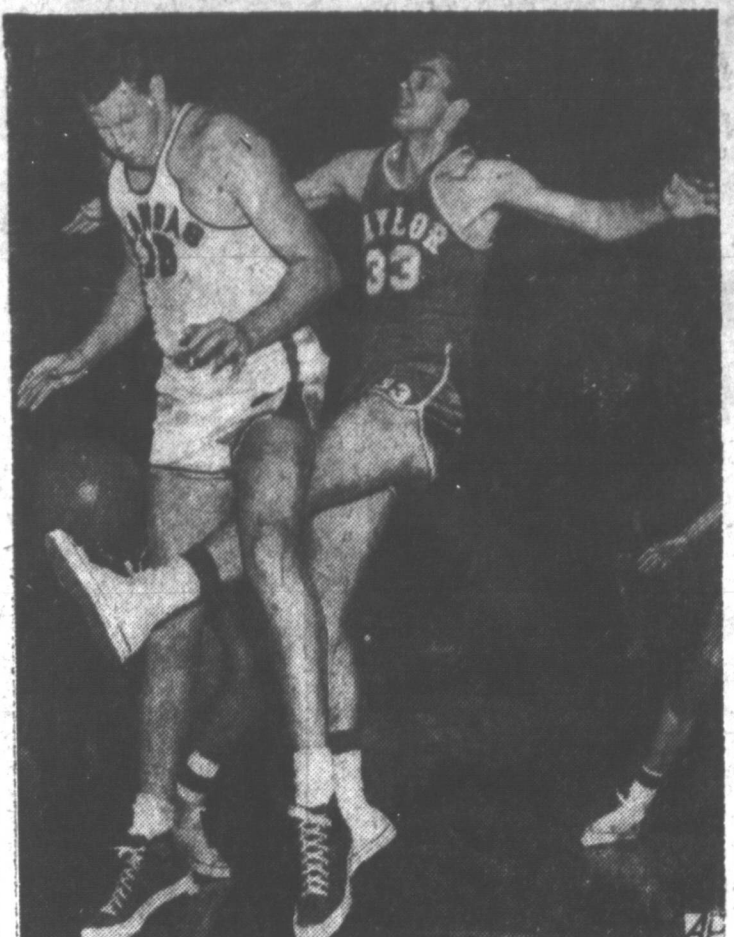

"He owned and operated a liquor store in this textile city but found time to help youngsters hoping to make the baseball big time.

Only a few months ago the South Carolina legislature adopted a bill urging that Joe be reinstated in the good graces of organized baseball. Joe was to have appeared on a national television show in New York Dec. 16, honoring his selection in Cleveland's Baseball Hall of Fame.

Heart trouble had been plaguing Joe in recent years. Last night he died.

Joe had a lifetime major league average of .338 for 1,320 games and was one of the game's most feared and respected hitters.

The "shoeless" tag was hung on him by a story that he once played the outfield without shoes in the minors because of a sore heel.

FIELD GOAL — It looks like Baylor forward Derrell Davis (33) is kicking a field goal between the knees of Kansas star, center, Clyde Lovellette, but this unusual bit of action occurred in the Dec. 3 game at Lawrence, Kansas, as the two men came down from a rebound. Kansas won, 57 to 46. (AP Wirephoto)

Laffoon On All-Conference Eleven; Total Offense King

HUNTSVILLE — (Special) — Charley Laffoon, Sul Ross State College quarterback from Pampa, was named to the Lone Star conference all-star team according to an announcement today from conference secretary Reed Lindsey.

Laffoon, the conference's total offense leader for the year, through his brilliant passing and running, is the conference's only triple-threatener and received considerable notice for his ability at deception as the man down under.

Laffoon was the only Sul Ross griddier named to the team, which had no unanimous selections as coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team.

Bob Boyles, also of Pampa and attending Sul Ross, was given honorable mention at a tackle position.

Irish Cagers Lose To Wheeler

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Van Pennington took high point honors for the Irish in the first game of the season at Wheeler Tuesday night. The rangy forward looped in two field goals and two free shots for six points as the Irish dropped a 21-15 opener.

Bennie Parks hooped two baskets for four points, George Hendrick made one point, while Norrell Perkins and Eddie Tarbet hooped one field goal each to net two points apiece.

Shamrock players were apparently unable to hit so early in the season, after only one practice. They were held up due to post-season football play-offs, but gave promise of developing into strong contestants for the court game.

Quarterbacks End '51 Season

About 80 football fans closed out the 1951 football season at the final meeting of the Pampa Quarterback club this season. It was an open meeting and many wives and friends of members attended to see the movies of the Pampa-San Angelo game, highlights of the Cleveland Browns of 1950, and movies of the Odessa-Lubbock game of this year.

Tickets for the football banquet to be held Jan. 17, were placed on sale.

The Quarterback club will sponsor the banquet this year, relieving the sports committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the responsibility.

Football Banquet Tickets On Sale

Tickets for the annual football banquet honoring the Pampa Harvesters were placed on sale today at Leders, Clyde's, Richard Drug, Malone and Keel, Noblitt-Coffey and the Chamber of Commerce offices.

The banquet is to be held on Jan. 17, in the senior high school cafeteria.

Guest speaker for the affair will be Jess Neely, coach of the Rice Owls for the past 12 seasons.

Highlight of the affair will be the announcement of the winner of the "Fighting Heart" award, a trophy given each year to the griddier adjudged by the coaches as most deserving because of his spirit shown all season long.

Ted Williams Still On Trading Block

By JOE REICHLER
COLUMBUS, O. — (AP) — Owner Ellis Ryan of the Cleveland Indians said today it would not surprise him if the Boston Red Sox traded Ted Williams to the New York Yankees.

"I would say the Yankees have the best chance of getting Williams," he said. "That is, if Boston really wants to trade Ted. New York has more to offer, in the way of good young dispensable players, than any other club."

Ryan denied an oft-rumored story that Williams had been offered to the Indians for ace righthander Bob Lemon and catcher Jim Hegan. He refused even to dignify a more recent yarn whereby the Indians were supposed to get Williams via a three-cornered deal involving Larry Doby and the St. Louis Browns Ned Garver.

RIDICULOUS
"That's the most ridiculous thing I've heard yet," he laughed. "Ted Williams' name has never come up for discussion in any of our talks with the Red Sox," the tall, distinguished-looking Cleveland executive said. "I have no way of knowing whether the Red Sox have ever attempted to trade Williams to any club."

Previously, general manager George Weiss of the Yankees had hinted that his club would be interested in making a deal for the Red Sox slugger if they were sure Joe DiMaggio was not returning to the active list next season.

"We might be interested in Boston's big fellow if we knew just what our big fellow is going to do," is the way he put it. "If Joe decides to play, then I don't think there would be room for the two of them."

STANKY DEAL NEAR
DiMaggio is scheduled to meet with Yankee officials in New York this week. If a Williams-to-Yankees transaction is made, the guess is that the Red Sox will ask for outfielder Hank Bauer, second baseman George Coleman, pitcher Bob Morgan and a young catcher.

The Cardinals' persistent efforts to land Eddie Stanky as manager were expected to wind up successfully. The announcement may come within the next 24 hours.

President Fred Saigh of the Cards and manager Leo Durocher of the Giants hooped for two hours yesterday, then they lunched for another two hours together, hoping to swing a deal that would be satisfactory to both sides.

"I told Mr. Saigh that we still were determined to get Max Lanier (southpaw pitcher) and

Dozen Games Scheduled In Weekend Of Top Schoolboy Play; Lubbock, Baytown Favored

By HAROLD RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

A dozen games this weekend cut the field fighting for four state schoolboy football championships to finalists in the upper classes and semifinalists in the other two.

Class AAAA has Lubbock battling Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) and Ray (Corpus Christi) clashing with Baytown. Undefeated, untied Lubbock is a clear-cut favorite over Arlington Heights but the Ray-Baytown game looks like a toss-up. Baytown should be a light favorite if there is a choice to be made.

Class AAA sends undefeated, untied Grand Prairie against a team that probably will stop its great winning streak — tough, aged, in-the-wood Breckenridge. Temple, the championship favorite, lashes at Brownsville at Brownsville.

TEMPLE FAVORED
Temple is a heavy favorite over a Brownsville eleven that lost to Lamar (Houston), a team Baytown beat on penetrations in a 7-7 tie and Temple fought Baytown to the last gun before losing by a touchdown. Brownsville also has had its eligibility troubles. While no player actually has been found ineligible, two regulars have been lost because their eligibility was questioned. The intercollegiate League says Juventino Cortez, Brownsville wingman, was removed from the eligibility list because his eligibility was questioned, and that Jose Solis, the fullback, was taken off the roster before his eligibility could be questioned. Neither played last week in Brownsville's first round game against Edison (San Antonio).

In Class AA, quarterfinals will be played, with undefeated, untied Chuck Diering for Stanky. Leo added with a broad grin. Durocher and Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, left last night, for New York but vice-president Charles Feeney stayed behind to wait for Saigh's answer.

The "other fellows" are pitcher Red Mungar and catcher Del Rice. The Giants were to throw in catcher Sal Yvars and infielder Jack Lohrke in the deal.

and San Benito. Lamar was beat-out by three teams in its own class.

CLASS A GAMES
Class A also plays its quarterfinals with Aberrantly meeting Wink, Newcastle clashing with Hawkins, Cedar Bayou tackling Giddings and Industrial (Vanderbilt) taking on Pearsall. Wink, the title favorite, faces probably its toughest hurdle in the way to the finals. Aberrantly, 118-6 Wink, is undefeated and untied and is given an even chance of downing the Wildcats. Newcastle is favored over Hawkins and Giddings, which may be the best team of all, is expected to take out Cedar Bayou. Industrial is a strong favorite over Pearsall. Industrial beat Hondo 13-7 and Hondo licked Pearsall 13-7.

An unusual feature of the state race this season is the fact that in four instances teams still left in the running beat teams that had defeated them earlier in the season. In Class AAAA, Baytown lost to Lamar of Houston in early season but downed Lamar in the bi-district playoff.

Boxing Tournaments Set By Boys Club, Area Schools

Officials of the Pampa Boys Club, Inc., met with boxing coaches of Lefors, Shamrock and Wellington at Shamrock last night in a meeting called by Coach H. W. Callan of Shamrock. Shamrock has dropped its district Golden Gloves tournament, but details were worked out for two other tournaments between the four towns represented, under school supervision.

The first will be held in Shamrock, Feb. 13, 14 and 15, and the second in Pampa on Feb. 28, 29 and March 1. At neither tournament will team trophies be awarded, but individual awards will be made to worthy winners and runners-up.

OPEN TOURNAMENT

The tournaments are open to any other teams that may wish to enter.

The schools decided on these two tournaments rather than have inter-school bouts all season long, pairing the same boys

Shamrock Drops McLean Tourney

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach Scott McCall said Tuesday his basketball team would not enter the McLean invitation tourney this week-end, because they have not had enough practice.

Other teams of the area, not dealing with extra football practice for post-season play-offs, have from two to three weeks start on the Irish.

McCall said he would have his Irish ready for entrants in the Shamrock invitation tourney next weekend, Dec. 13-14.

Both boys and girls will be entered in the Irish tourney. Coach Clarence Morris is "B" coach and assistant with basketball "A" boys.

Line Coach H. W. Callan will devote his efforts to boxing and B. L. Hill to junior high girls and boys basketball.

Women should believe in free speech; they are free enough with theirs.

West, Southwest Picture Brightens

NEW YORK — (AP) — College basketball in the West and Southwest after several lean years, is expected to regain its pre-war prominence and rank on an equal footing with other sections of the country.

There is sure to be a good number of fine teams west of the Mississippi. The Pacific Coast boasts at least four well-rounded quintets in Washington, Stanford, Southern California and U.C. Wyoming, Denver, Brigham Young and Utah; the Rocky Mountain area; Texas Christian and Arkansas in the Southwest and Arizona in Border Conference all have exceptional units. Santa Clara and San Francisco are the best among the independents.

WASHINGTON ON COAST

Washington definitely rates as the top team in the Pacific Coast Conference's northern division. Defending champion Washington, with two acres in Frank Guinness and Bob Hodge, probably is the best on the coast.

Stanford, with Ed Tucker, Jim Walsh and Jim Kamatead, all very fine courtmen, rates next. USC's guard, Ken Flower is one of the best on the coast. If Al Lamont, 6-5 center, recovers from a knee operation, the Trojans might take it all. UCLA may suffer from lack of experience.

The Skyline Eight race should be a rough one with Wyoming, defending champion Brigham Young, Utah and Denver engaged in a merry four-way battle.

FROGS FAVORED

Texas Christian, presenting a veteran five paced by George McCleod, star 6-8 center, and Harvey Fromme, has a slight edge over Texas A&M and Kansas in the Southwest Conference. TCU, the Aggies and Texas were tied for the championship last season. Walter Davis, another 6-8 pivotman is what makes the Texas Aggies a solid ball team and seven-foot Billy Hester has about the same value for Arkansas. The Razorbacks boast one of the tallest teams in the country.

Arizona, perennial Border Conference winner, again looms the best there. Coach Fred Enke's Wildcats may encounter trouble, particularly from Texas Tech and probably West Texas State. Arizona (24-6) has three starters — Roger Johnson, Jerry Dillon and Dave Schuff — back from its National Invitation tournament team. Texas Tech owns an outstanding center in 6-10 Bill Nolan and the forward in Bill Alderson. West Texas State has an all-senior starting five that can do a lot of damage.

Shamrock Cage Tourney To Be Held Next Weekend

Miami Warriors On Good Start

MIAMI — (Special) — The Miami Warriors have won four of their six games. They hold wins over Booker twice, Mobettie and Lefors. Higgins has defeated the Warriors twice.

The Warrior lineup with previous experience lists Dewayne Wells, lettered three years, at center; Ramon Cowan, lettered two years and Alonza Mitchell lettered one year at forwards. The guard positions are held by Harold Greenhouse, lettered one year and Gene Hodges lettered three years.

Greenhouse is the shortest man on the team being 5'10". The other four range from 6'1" to 6'4".

Dewayne Wells has led the scoring thus far with 88 points, Hodges has 63 and Mitchell has 52.

The Warriors won the consolation trophy at the tournament last weekend at Booker.

Higgins comes to Miami Dec. 7. The Warriors will be out for revenge having lost two games already to the Coyotes. The Miami team is starting its fourth season without losing a home game.

The other boys on the roster are Charles Clark, Bill Russell, Don Bryant, David Bean, and Carl Williamson.

Houston Grigger Has Best Mark

HOUSTON — (AP) — Just one more game and Gene Shannon will complete his college football career. The feet of Grigger of University of Houston, has the nation's best average per carry.

His last appearance as a collegian comes in the Salad Bowl at Phoenix Jan. 1 when Houston plays Dayton.

He has totaled 1,058 yards on 144 carries this season — an average of 7.3 per run.

The blond senior broke all previous records at the university in ball-toting, scoring an overall average. He has played in 30 games, scored a total of 186 points and ground out a net total rushing of 210 yards on 372 carries for a 5.6 average.

In the three years v Shannon has lost only 92 yards rushing.

SHAMROCK — (Special)

Shamrock will be host to the annual Shamrock invitational tournament here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 13-14-15. Coach Scott McCall announces.

Invitations have been sent to various teams in the area, and brackets will be drawn as soon as the roster of competing teams is complete.

Lefors, Samnorwood, Memphis, Wheeler and others are expected in the contest, possibly Kelton and Briscoe. Both boys and girls teams will be involved, with a trophy for the winner. Shamrock will be the defending champions, by virtue of a clean sweep of the 1950 tourney, beating Briscoe, 30-29, Pampa B, 38-32, and McLean, 47-33.

EXPECT BIG CROWD

Officials said they expected at least 500 visitors from other towns in the area as a result of the tourney. Night sessions are expected to attract large numbers.

Teams like Samnorwood, which have been practicing all fall, will have an advantage over the teams which began after football season ended. Last year, however, the Irish were able to come through to victory.

Coach McCall will probably start Van Pennington, scoring forward. Others are indefinite, but Mack Terry, Bennie Parks, Bill Harris, Dwayne Hager, George Hendricks, Eddie Tarbet, Norrell Perkins, James Henderson, Jimmy Smith, Les Roy and Billy Passons, Bill York, Don Carlton, Bobby Johnson and others are in the running.

Irish players dropped a 24-15 contest to Wheeler at Tuesday night.

In 1950, the Irish won 15 and lost 11, taking second in the District 2-A play-offs at McLean when they lost a heart-breaker to Memphis in the final seconds, 45-43, after leading until the final six minutes.

Irish players were eliminated in the first game of the regional play-offs by the Phillips Blackhawks, 28-16.

Coach McCall must replace Vernon Tarbet, ace, 327-point guard, and Vaughn Terry, 267-point forward. Both graduated last spring.

58 of which were lost in his first two years, 1949-50.

Bob Goode Tops Professionals

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Young Bob Goode is finally producing in the manner expected of the former Texas A&M crusher when the Washington Redskins drafted him from pro football duty.

Goode has hurried his 200 pound frame into opposing team line national Football league team lines 163 times for 736 yards to lead the league in ground gaining. Goode gained an even 100 yards Sunday as his team lost to the Philadelphia Eagles. He now holds a 44 yard advantage over Deacon Dan Towler of Los Angeles.

Towler's 692 yards on 96 carries rates him ahead of Eddie Price of the New York Giants (662-214), John Dettley, Chicago Bears (610-116), and Bob (Hunchy) Hoernschemeyer, Detroit (602-106). Tobin Rote of Green Bay is the league's ninth leading ground gainer, but has the best average of 8.8 yards. Rote has gained 451 yards on 51 attempts.

Norman Van Brocklin of the Redskins has gained 1,525 yards on 84 completions for a 9.3 average. He has thrown 13 touchdown passes.

Childress lost to Shamrock then beat Shamrock in the play-offs. Pleasant Grove lost to Terrell in the opening game of the season but beat Terrell in the bi-districts. Lamar of Rosenberg lost to Brenham 29-6 in the first game of the season but beat Brenham 21-12 in the bi-districts.

Our predicting record in college football this season has been less than mediocre. Let's see what we can do with the school-boys:

Class AAAA
Saturday — Lubbock vs Arlington Heights at Lubbock; a hefty vote for Lubbock; Baytown at Ray (Corpus Christi); we'll take Baytown in a close one.

Class AAA
Friday — Temple at Brownsville; can't see how anybody's going to stop Temple; Saturday — Grand Prairie at Breckenridge; Breckenridge in a scoring duel.

Class AA
Friday: Anson vs Childress at Wichita Falls; Arlington vs Pleasant Grove at Dallas; the last team with the ball will win and that'll be Arlington; LaVega at Huntsville; could be an upset here but we'll ride with LaVega; Lamar-Donna at McAllen; Donna by two touchdowns.

Class A
Friday — Abernathy vs Wink at Lubbock; in sotto voce — Wink; Newcastle vs Hawkins at Denton; we'll take Newcastle; Cedar Bayou vs Gliddings at Cedar Bayou; Gliddings had too many guns; Industrial-Pearall at Pearall; Industrial is the choice.

Mrs. Kretzmeier Honored At Dinner

Mrs. Ellen Kretzmeier, state vice-president of the Ladies Auxiliaries, was honored at a recent entertainment of the 8th Regiment, 2nd Brigade, Patriarchs Militant, I.O.O.F. of Texas. The Pampa Canton No. 11 and the L.A.P.M., its auxiliary, were hosts.

Mrs. Kretzmeier received a gift from the local auxiliary, presented by Mrs. Pearl Casika, president. About 35 members and guests attended the dinner-meeting with representatives from Amarillo, Borger and Memphis. A battalion meeting is planned in Borger February 29. The event will honor the birthday of Brother V. M. Stone of Bakerfield, California, known as one of the fathers of the Borger I.O.O.F. lodge which was organized in 1927. All canton and auxiliary members are to be present.

Other meetings in December include a meeting in Memphis, December 14, at which members of the Pampa Canton and L.A.P.M. will assist in the inspection, and a Christmas party in Amarillo, December 15.

150 Guests Attend First Baptist Dinner

About 150 guests were present for the recent banquet of the First Baptist church adult Sunday School department. Each of the nine classes arranged and decorated its tables and helped prepare food for the event.

The Veta Yeta class had the largest attendance with 42 members present. Teacher of that group is Mrs. Louis Tarpley.

The program was presented by Mrs. C. R. Tooker and Mr. Tooker who gave chalk talks. A trio, Mrs. Mary Jo Langford, Mrs. Katherine Reynolds and Mrs. Nell Turpen, presented musical selections.

Teachers of the departments are Meses. Roy Chisum, S. E. Waters, L. L. Stovall, Homes E. Scherer, A. Z. Griffin, Gordon Bayless, Tarpley and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown.

General officers are Meses. Harvey Downs, Howard Sims, Elizabeth Doggett, Ernest Aray, Owen Johnson, Barney McMullan and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wilson.

Mrs. Aray, associate superintendent, was general chairman of the banquet, and Mrs. Claude Wilson, assistant secretary, was chairman of the food committee.

First Baptist Business Women To Have Dinner

The Business Women's circle of the First Baptist church will hold their monthly dinner meeting today at 5:45 p.m. The dinner is to be held in the church basement.

Mrs. Garman Presides At Amarillo Meeting

Mrs. J. W. Garman, Jr., president of the Diocesan Council of Catholic women, presided at a board meeting of the council held last week in Amarillo. Others attending from Pampa were Mrs. R. E. McKernan, past district president and now acting chairman of youth activities; Mrs. M. F. Roche, past president and now public relations chairman; and Mrs. J. W. Garman, III, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. E. J. Kiser, former Pampa now of Amarillo, attended the meeting. She is a past president of the council and is now serving as chairman of legislation.

Other cities represented were Borger, Lubbock, Nazareth and Hereford. The Diocesan council is composed of four districts, Amarillo, Lubbock, San Angelo and Big Spring.

Activities and study for the year were discussed. Civil defense is one item that is to be studied by the women's organizations. They will be urged to learn the necessary precautions and first aid in event of atomic attack.

Reports on the progress of religious study groups throughout the diocese were made. It was announced that the annual Diocesan meeting will be in Lubbock this year.

Other Fellow's Greener Fields

A great many city people are of the opinion that farmers and ranchers who raise beef are making huge sums of money. But those who have a first-hand knowledge of the meat-producing business take a somewhat different view.

A recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post carried, on its editorial page, a brief article by Bill Best, Jr., who is a comparative newcomer to the Southwestern cattle industry.

In the course of it he says that he has seen a recent ranch which will support 100 cows at a cost today about $55,000. And it's a bargain at that price. If you, as a buyer, were fortunate enough to be able to get bred cows at that price, you will have a calf crop ready for sale in from six to eight months after all the calves are born, or probably a year or more after you bought your ranch. If you are lucky, you'll get a 90 percent crop, or 90 calves. For their sale as weaners at the very good weight—four to five hundred pounds—to eight months after all the calves are born, or probably a year or more after you bought your ranch. If you are lucky, you'll get a 90 percent crop, or 90 calves. For their sale as weaners at the very good weight—

McLemore Finds Football In Mexico is Top Drawer Stuff

By HENRY McLEMORE

MEXICO CITY — Having once seen a zebra, a cross between a snake and a zebra, I am a man who is hard to surprise.

Yet I have been surprised since I arrived in Mexico City by the way this Latin American country has taken up our game of football. The Mexicans had never

Baxter's Views

DAVID BAXTER

BROKEN-HEARTED

My heart bled for poor old Theron Caudle the other when it was announced that he had been dismissed from the Justice Department.

"What a mess," I thought. "Justice is Dispersed (with)." "My heart is broken," he declared in a maudlin outburst of sentimentality when reporters interviewed him. Fired! By the President, too, but he said he still believed in Truman. Caudle's picture in the paper was one of dejection.

Many a heart has been broken when its owner was separated from the public hog trough but most of the boys took the bad news optimistically and decided that it wasn't too late to go to work for a living.

Some other hearts have been broken, too, and not by being kicked off the body politic. I used to wonder whether Caudle and some of his associates HAD hearts. Yet, who can say that justice isn't being done?

Caudle's hot water over an investigation of his record as assistant attorney general in charge of prosecuting the poor taxpayer. HE says he's all right but the President says he's not. I don't mention a congressional group which has been and will continue to check on Caudle's activities.

Well, John Rogge was fired from the J.D., now Caudle is out and there's still one more character I'm waiting for something to happen to. Chap in the Justice Department named William Power Maloney.

Not that this columnist desires revenge for personal harm these three were instrumental in (along with his fellow behind-the-scenes), I've forgiven 'em long since their part in the old Sedition case. It's just interesting to sit around and watch things happen to them, that's all. A few years ago they were big boys who worked in the Deal. Maloney was reprimanded by the Supreme Court for his conduct, taken off the Sedition Case and kicked upstairs. Rogge took over, blew his court case, was fired and finally exposed for what he was, a Communist front, author of the Red Sedition pledge and played the game 15 years ago the first game having been played in 1934.

I'll bet you can guess within 10,000 the size of the crowds that now watch Mexican football games. There are not 10 games in the United States, including the Rose Bowl, that attract as many spectators.

Crowds of 50,000 to 60,000 are common, and when Politecnico and Universidad come together, 85,000 to 90,000 fans are packed from turf to turf.

The only reason the crowd is so "small" when these two schools meet is that there isn't a stadium that will seat any more. I've been told that 250,000 tickets could be sold in one day if seats were available. In Mexico this game is the United States parallel of California vs. Stanford, Penn vs. Cornell, Tech vs. Georgia, and Navy vs. Army.

I was lucky enough to see this year's game, and the football was top drawer stuff. If you think Mexicans can't play the game, I'd like to remind you that in 1947 the Mexican team beat Randolph Field, and in the Randolph backfield were two of the greatest football players America has ever produced, namely, Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard.

Having seen a football game in Mexico, and having heard about earlier ones, I am not at all sure that the players take the game as seriously as the fans. A good half of the games are repeatedly interrupted by major battles between the rival followers, and it is not at all uncommon for the field of battle to extend to the playing field.

When I mentioned crowds of 90,000 I didn't include the gangsters. They surround the field, on horse, in jeep, and on foot. They carry full artillery, including fixed bayonets. If you add the cops to the crowd I believe Mexican football games are ever produced in the States, including the Rose Bowl.

This year's game between Politecnico and Universidad started at 3:15 p.m. At daybreak, when the snow-capped mountains that look down on Mexico City were just warming their faces in the sun, at least 10,000 unreserved seat seekers were in line around the stadium.

They only had nine or so hours to wait for the kickoff. I will not tell you that Mexicans play football for keeps. When they tackle they don't tackle to halt the runner for a moment — they tackle to stop the ball carrier forever, if possible.

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — Impeachment proceedings will probably be brought against Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark and Attorney General J. Edgar Hoover by the Republicans next January as a result of their role in scandals involving allegations of tax manipulations, questionable acceptance of favors, condoning subordinate's unethical actions and failure to investigate the Communist out of hiding in his entourage, he quickly took refuge in executive order No. 9835. He signed this less than three months after the Republican 80th congress convened in 1947. In that order he gave some of his henchmen authority to suppress anything in the files that they chose and to hold the papers fast against any congressional inquiry by the House of Representatives.

This is giving the house investigators the McCarthy treatment, for when Mr. Truman saw that earnest efforts were being made to pluck the Communist out of hiding in his entourage, he quickly took refuge in executive order No. 9835. He signed this less than three months after the Republican 80th congress convened in 1947. In that order he gave some of his henchmen authority to suppress anything in the files that they chose and to hold the papers fast against any congressional inquiry by the House of Representatives.

Mr. King thought Mr. Truman had agreed and made an announcement to that effect, but if so, the President pulled the rug from under him later, for nothing has been forthcoming from the confidential file.

As Phillips Brooks, the young Episcopalian minister, stood in the fields at Bethlehem, the night before Christmas, 1865, he thought of the song the angels sang so long ago.

Later that night he witnessed the Christmas celebration in Bethlehem. He visited, during his stay in the Holy Land, many places connected with the life of Jesus.

But it was not until the Christmas season of 1868 that Brooks wrote the words of the carol that was to become so famous. He wrote it for his Sunday school children. He called it "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

Club Members Get Surprise

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — Four men who said they joined a "crime club" thinking it was a social organization have been freed but four other men and a woman are charged with suspicion of breaking and entering.

Detective Sgt. G. H. Houston said the arrest of three men in a downtown clothing store Sunday resulted in uncovering the "crime club" which had dues and paying members, by-laws and a trial procedure.

The "clubhouse" proved to be an arsenal of weapons, many of them stolen from a roadside hardware store a week ago, Houston said.

Those being held were identified as John Grega, 21; Barry E. Godwin, 21; Charles F. McCarty, 29; Branley P. Moseley, 47, and Ruby Lee McCarty, about 30, wife of Charles McCarty.

Mystery Surrounds Woman's Death

CULVER CITY, Calif. — (AP) — A young and pretty private detective who specialized in Hollywood cases is dead under mysterious circumstances.

Mrs. Shirley Fawcett Kivlin, 24, died in her home here Monday night. An autopsy was conducted Tuesday but further tests will have to be made before the cause of death can be determined.

She collapsed Monday night while in Long Beach discussing a case with her boss, C. N. Druber, operator of a private investigation firm. He said she began "acting strangely" and he drove her home.

Mrs. Kivlin was divorced a year ago and won custody of a 2-year-old daughter.

JOBLESS UP

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The number of jobless persons in the country for the week ended Nov. 10 stood at 1,828,000, an increase of 212,000 over October, the census bureau reported.

Total civilian employment was put at 61,838,000, as compared with 61,271,000 a year earlier.

Scientist Says Present Arms Race To Speed Space Travel

By ROBERT GOLDSTEIN AP Newsfeatures

CHICAGO — The German scientist who made the V-2 rocket contend construction of a bomb-dropping base 1000 miles above the earth "will be the inevitable result of the present armaments race."

"With the tremendous advances recently achieved in aerial defense, it appears to me that in the atomic age the nation which first owns such a bomb-dropping space station will be in a position to control the earth," he says.

This view was expressed by Dr. Wahnner von Braun, now of the ordnance research and development sub office (rocket) at Fort Bliss, Texas, in a new book "Space Medicine," published by the University of Illinois press.

Dr. Von Braun says construction of such a platform is theoretically possible at the present stage of rocket and fuel development and that "it will not be the engineering problems but rather the limits of the human frame that will make the final decision as to whether manned space flight will eventually become a reality."

(An annual report of the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal mentioned an "earth satellite vehicle program" in 1949).

Dr. Von Braun says a three-stage rocket, 65 feet in diameter and 15 stories high, could provide the velocity necessary to reach the 1000 mile height in space.

HOW IT MIGHT BE BUILT

He gives this theoretical picture of how a space platform could be set up:

The three-stage rocket would take off at a speed slightly greater than the V-2 rocket. It would start straight up, but its path soon would start tilting. When the fuel in the first section was exhausted, that section would drop off and the motor of the second section would start into action. The third section, if it were equipped with wings, it could land.

Trips to the moon and nearby planets, Dr. Von Braun said "raise considerably fewer problems" than the design of ships capable of reaching the velocity of an orbit.

Space ships refueling at the space platform, he said, would need to increase their speed only 9000 feet a second to reach the moon.

"It can therefore be stated that once an artificial satellite has become a reality, interplanetary voyages will not be far away," he said.

Other scientists, however, pointed out in the book that medicine has not caught up with problems space travel would raise. There are problems of weightlessness beyond the pull of gravity, the danger of cosmic radiation and collisions with mete-

Third Victim Of Plane Crash Dies

PENSACOLA, Fla. — (AP) — A third victim of a plane crash that took six service men's lives was identified Tuesday night as that of a former flight instructor at Goodfellow, Tex., Air Force base.

He was listed as Second Lieut. Sidney P. Dimmig, 30, stationed at William Air Force base, Phoenix, Ariz.

The plane crashed near here Monday night.

Dimmig was listed as the son of Howard G. Dimmig of the Legendary Hero Of Indian Masses Has People Guessing

By HAROLD K. MILKS
AP Newsfeatures

NEW DELHI — One of India's most popular figures today is a man supposedly dead for more than six years.

He is Subhash Chandra Bose, the revolutionary who fought the British rule of India for many years and then led a Japanese sponsored Indian National Army against this country during World War II.

Bose reportedly died Aug. 16, 1945 — one day after Japan's surrender — in the crash of a Japanese plane against the Takohu hills of Formosa.

Yet to millions of Indians he is as much alive today as is Prime Minister Pandit Nehru and President Rajendra Prasad.

This is especially true in the villages of Bengal where Subhash Chandra Bose was revered almost as a saint. There mention of his name brings cries of "Netaji."

Our Leader, said one prominent Indian leader, "that if Bose should reappear today he would challenge Pandit Nehru as a National leader."

To a foreigner the popularity of the supposedly dead Bose is hard to understand. He led the only army to invade India in modern times, built by the Japanese captured in the fall of Singapore and elsewhere in East Asia.

He quarreled violently with Mahatma Gandhi over the question of non-violence. Bose urged direct and bloody action to throw out British rule, called Gandhi's approach "his appeasement with the evil."

Yet millions of Indians continue to regard him as their saint and leader. His picture is on the wall of thousands of homes, and his name is still repeated with a tone usually reserved only for that of Gandhi.

Wearers of the "INA" shoulder patch — identification of those who served Bose in the Indian National Army — share in the reverence for their apparently dead leader.

THEY GET FREE RIDES

Conductors on trains, trams, or buses, pass them by when collecting tickets. Many restaurants and hotels offer them free meals and lodging. Those who served "Netaji" have been refused posts in India's Regular army but the people give them ready help.

Supporters of the Indian renegade who turned to Japan for help in his fight to oust British rulers from India by force describe him as "a saint who strayed into politics."

Bose was born in Cuttack, capital of Orissa state, on Jan. 23, 1897. He studied and took his degree from Cambridge university then returned almost immediately to India to jump into the freedom struggle under Gandhi's leadership.

Many times in the 20-year period before World War II he was jailed or exiled. Each time he managed to win freedom.

HE GOT NAZI AID

His last imprisonment was in 1940. But Bose escaped, made his way to the Afghan capital, then reached Berlin in May, 1941, under the Italian name of Signor Orlando Maszotta.

In Berlin he renewed an earlier Swiss association with an Austrian woman, Emile Sheinkle. They were married in 1942, just before Bose made his dramatic trip by German submarine via the Cape of Good Hope to Japan to organize the "Azad Hind Fauz" — the 80,000-man Indian National Army.

His wife and their eight-year-old daughter, Anita, live in Switzerland. They have their home — supported in part by a fund of $89,000 raised by the late Deputy Prime Minister Sardar V. Patel and others — at Ferrogasse.

Shouting the slogan "Delhi Chalo" (March on to Delhi), Bose led his Japanese sponsored "Liberation Army" across Burma and into the Indian frontier regions of Kohima and Imphal in early 1944.

HIS ARMY WAS SMASHED

But Japan's power was waning and as Lord Mountbatten's allied forces drove back, Bose's dream of conquering his homeland went with them. His army disintegrated in the Japanese retreat. Bose finally reached Singapore on June 4, 1945, with only remnants of his army.

One day after Tokyo announced capitulation of Japan to the Allies, Bose left Singapore by Japanese plane. It crashed in Formosa, and burned. Of those aboard only Col. Habibur Rah, man, personal aide and secretary to Bose, survived. He reported he saw Bose's body in the wreckage, bruised and burned.

Despite his testimony countless reports of Bose being still alive are still heard here.

India's deputy foreign minister, Dr. B. V. Keskar, told questions in Parliament "The government of India is not in a position to give irrefutable proof of his death."

In the belief Bose is still alive his birthday was celebrated in many places, especially in Calcutta where lavish ceremonies in his honor were held.

Reports that he is in Russia, or in China, or with Ho Chi Minh's Communist forces in Indo-China are heard frequently in many sections of India.

Almost weekly Bose is "seen" in some Indian city or village. Those who make the reports say he always signals them to silence, then fades quietly away.

But the government of India says "the general belief is that Subhash Chandra Bose is dead." There is no reason, they add, why he should remain in hiding. His return to India would not mean his arrest and trial for leading a renegade army against his own land.

It is more likely that because of his popularity in many quarters he could return — if he were alive — to general acclaim and a high place in Indian affairs.

FUNNY BUSINESS

Hoosier Is Named 'Doctor Of Year'

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — After virtually half a century of practicing in the same town, Dr. Albert C. Yoder of Goshen, Ind., has been named America's "family doctor of the year."

The award was announced Tuesday at a meeting of the American Medical Assn.

Dr. Yoder, 84, started answering medical calls in Goshen on a bicycle in 1902 and still handles a large practice.

Four and a half years ago a doctor more than 20 years his junior declined to take the case of five auto crash victims brought into the Goshen hospital late at night.

"You'll have to call someone younger; I'm too tired," that doctor explained. The physician who answered the call was Dr. Yoder.

Dr. Yoder, who will celebrate his 57th wedding anniversary Christmas day, has four children.

OPS Issues New Implement Level

The Office of Price Stabilization has issued a tailored ceiling price regulation covering retail sales of new and used farm equipment and repair parts, the Lubbock district office said.

The regulation, effective Monday, uses the basic price technique but is designed to meet the specific pricing problems of retail sellers of farm equipment.

It is not expected the new regulation will materially affect the general level of retail prices prevailing before its issuance, OPS officials said, since it is based generally on the historical pricing practices prevailing in the industry.

Legalized Cockfights Thrill Those Who Love Real Courage

By HENRY McEMORE
 MEXICO CITY — I hate to brag but honesty forces me to admit that I am a well-rounded man.
 Take my waist, for instance. (I wish to goodness you would.) There was a time when a tailor could use one tape measure on me. Now he has to tie two of them together to get my exact circumference.
 When I am in a foreign country my curiosity matches my stomach. If I were a cat I would have been dead long ago. Since I've been here I have seen cathedrals and cockfights, haciendas and jaijai, parades and parks, cowboys and castles, museums and marimbas.
 Speaking of cockfights, a 20-minute drive from the heart of Mexico City will take you to what is undoubtedly the only legalized cockfight main on the North American continent. I have seen the fierce roosters fight in the United States, but it is such a sly, sordid business that it's not much fun. I speak particularly of the cockfights I have seen in New York and Florida. One attends them feeling like a sneak, knowing full well that the cops have opened their palms to shut their eyes.
 The cockfight main here is as accepted as a movie theater. Just buy a ticket and go in. The building is scrupulously clean and the fights are scrupulously supervised, although for the life of me I don't see why such supervision is needed, because please tell me how you would arrange for a gamecock to "throw" a fight.
 A gamecock knows nothing but to fight to the death. That's all his ancestors ever cared about, and this sport goes back to the dim and misty ages. A gamecock lives only to die in battle. To lead the pampered life of a Rhode Island Red or a Buff Orpington rooster would lead him straight to a chicken psychiatrist's couch. I disagree with those who say that cockfighting is a vicious, brutal sport. To keep a cock from fighting would be the same as to keep a fish out of water lest he get a earache from being submerged so much.

 Practically all the owners are rich ranchers who raise the gamecocks as a hobby. They are as proud of their fighters as Kentuckians are of their horses, and are just as particular as to the breeding.
 There's nothing quite like the moment when two gamecocks are "breasted" and turned loose by their handlers. Magnificently colored, they rise like demiboyant helicopters to battle. Feathers fly, the vivid ruffs of their necks stand out as stiffly as Elizabethan collars.
 Instinctively they fight with the tactics of a human boxer. They feint, they duck, they lead, they employ deception, and they close in for the kill as relentlessly as Louis ever did in his prime. When they are first brought into the arena, the hate in their mean, round, little eyes communicates itself to the uppermost seat in the arena. To increase their eagerness for battle, if possible, a teaser in the form of another rooster is held by a handler to taunt them. But most of the gamecocks ignore the teaser and keep their beady eyes fastened on the opponent across the ring.
 Ho wthey strut! There is a majesty about them.
 Few men or women fail to thrill to solid courage, and that's all a gamecock knows.

Happy Christmas In Store For Ex-Prisoner, Sister

DETROIT — (AP) — This Christmas will be "the happiest ever" for a Detroit brother and sister who have lived under a grim cloud for 27 years.
 For gaunt, balding Vance Hardy, it will be the first outside prison walls since a fateful day in 1924 when a bootlegger was slain here. And for Mrs. Gladys Barrett, the holiday celebration will fulfill a dream kept alive by her firm belief that her brother had nothing to do with the killing.
 Yesterday the 56-year-old Hardy stepped out of Detroit's reformatory as a free man. That was the happy ending to a story full of discouragement and disappointment.
 For the beginning, you go back to the day in 1924 when Louis Lambert, operator of a prohibition era speakeasy, was shot to death as he left a bank.
 Hardy swears he never saw Lambert, but a witness identified him as one of four men who allegedly participated in the killing. He was convicted and sentenced to life in prison.
 Then his sister's holiday began her long battle for his freedom. Partly through a magazine story, his case came to the attention of Detroit and state police investigators and recorder's Judge Joseph A. Gillis. New evidence was found.
 Hardy was granted a new trial, and Judge Gillis directed a verdict of acquittal, saying he was convinced of Hardy's innocence.
 "I'm very, very happy," the ex-convict said quietly when he learned he was free, "but this comes as no surprise. I'm innocent and always have been."
 More exuberant, Mrs. Barrett hugged her brother and cried.
 "Oh golly, I get my dreams, my dreams."
 Leaving the courtroom, Hardy looked around at a much-changed Detroit and remarked that he felt "like a native out of a jungle."
 Then the brother and sister went home to plan their future. First there will be a trip through the South to visit the graves of Hardy's father, mother and wife. All died while he was in prison. Then they plan to go to Lansing, Mich., where Hardy will have a job as first aid attendant. He learned the skill while in Michigan prison hospital.
 There is one more thing in Hardy's future. He is "just another victim of the rough, tough prohibition time," and adds:

 "Things have changed now. I've already forgiven and forgotten.
 "I must show everyone I wasn't a hoodlum and won't be one now that I'm out. Bars and walls can't change a man who shouldn't have been behind them in the first place."
 "Somehow, I've got to repay Gladys for all those years when she was the only one who had hope."
 As for Mrs. Barrett, she feels she feels she already has been repaid.
 "This will be the happiest Christmas ever," she repeated.
HERO HAS COLD JOB
 BOSTON — (AP) — Commander Robert (PT) Kelly, who won fame in World War II as the skipper of an "expedient" tiny torpedo-boat squadron in the hot Southwestern Pacific, now has a much colder assignment.
 He recently returned from the Arctic where the icebreaker Atka, which Kelly commanded, brought supplies to U.S. stations there. The Atka led the "interference" through the icefields for cargo ships which followed close astern.
 In some of the darkest days of U.S. history, Kelly was in command of the lead boat in the four-craft PT squadron which evacuated Gen. Douglas MacArthur, his family and staff from Corregidor in 1942.
 Kelly, 38, was appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy in 1931. He makes his home in Somerville, Mass.
COSTLY SKIING TOGS
 DENVER — (AP) — Plenty of sliders dress for less, but a deluxe outfit can cost as much as $250.
 Let's assume you want a pair of the new Head skis which have become quite popular in the West in the last few years. The cost is about $75 a pair. A new ski boot making its appearance here has a $51.50 price tag. You can pay as high as $40 for ski pants, $40 for a hand-knit sweater, $10 for gloves, $12 for poles, $5 for a hat, 7 for glasses, $3 for socks and $10 for "lonjies."
 Of course, you can always pull on blue jeans or a pair of old wool slacks, tie out a couple of sweaters and then rent skis, poles and boots from a sporting goods store for $2.50 per week.

Kefauver Declares Strong UN Is Only Chance For Peace

SEATTLE — (AP) — In a speech billed as a "reply" to General MacArthur, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee declared that a strong United Nations is the world's "only real chance of preserving peace."
 "The only way to win World War III," he added, "is to prevent the crime-investigating Democratic senator addressed the Western Washington Jefferson-Jackson day dinner.
 Turning to the domestic front, he warned against the danger of "the growth of crime and corruption," and asserted "honesty in government is certainly not the monopoly of any political party."
 Democratic party leaders listed the speech as a reply to General MacArthur's bitter denunciation of Truman administration policies in his Nov. 13 address at the opening of the centennial celebration. The move for a "reply" developed after some Democrats and labor leaders criticized the political tone of the general's address at the civic event, although it had drawn enthusiastic applause from the crowd that heard it.
 The $25-a-plate Democratic night gave its fullest applause to the several bars the senator tossed directly at the former Far Eastern commander.
 Kefauver asserted: "It is interesting to note that the mention of the United Nations in his speech — and yet he for all of us to look at the facts, instead of being misled by the loose attacks of defeatists and Monday morning quarterbacks, even though they may wear five stars upon their shoulders."
 A pathetic display of vanity. This is not MacArthur's war. This is free men everywhere saying to Joseph Stalin: "Thou shall not trespass again."
 At another point, after describing the government's steps in foreign policy as "courageous and effective," he asserted: "It is of overriding importance for all of us to look at the facts, instead of being misled by the loose attacks of defeatists and Monday morning quarterbacks, even though they may wear five stars upon their shoulders."

FRISKY CASINOS
 SAIGON, Vietnam — (AP) — You face being "frisked" if you want to gamble in the casinos of Saigon and the twin all-Chinese city of Cholon.
 At the casino entrances, arrows point the entry way for women and for men. Vietnamese or Chinese attendants sit there, ready to search the pockets of any suspicious looking person, be they man or woman.
 The idea is to make sure that no one enters with a hand grenade or hand-made bomb who might demonstrate his or her loyalty to the Communist-led Vietnam cause by tossing the explosive into the dense casino crowds.
HE WHO HESITATES
 DURANGO, Colo. — (AP) — Bob Reilly, out hunting deer, spotted a mountain lion bound on the same mission.
 "I drew a bead on it and could have shot it three or four times. Then I got to thinking there might be a fine for shooting the things — so I let it go."
