Serving the Counties of Borden, Dawson, Garza, Howard, Lynn & Scurry

Amendment for Rural Texans

One of the nine constitutional amendments which will appear on the general election ballot in November is one which would allow counties of under 5,000 population to use their equipment on private property for a fee.

Amendment No. 7, which was sponsored by Susan McBee in the House and by Senator Ron Clower (D-Garland) in the Senate, is very important in rural Texas. "We would greatly appreciate your interest and hopefully, support," said Mrs. McBee.

The following is some information on the amendment.

The last session of the Texas Legislature adopted a constitutional amendment allowing counties of under 5,000 population to do private road work. It will appear at Amendment No. 7 on the general election ballot in November.

It states: "A county with a population of 5,000 or less, according to the most recent federal census, may construct and maintain private roads if it imposes a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads."

Many organizations and groups have endorsed the amendment. They include Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, the Independent Cattlemen Association, the Texas and Southwestern Cattlemen Association, the West Texas County Judges and County Commissioners Association, the San Angelo Standard Times, the Del Rio News Herald, the Sanderson Times, and Texas State Association of Soil and Water Conservations Districts, Governor Bill Clements, and the Texas State Association of County Judges and Commissioners.

Reasons the amendment is needed:

1. Many counties do not have private contractors to do road work.
2. Farmers and ranchers cannot afford expensive equipment needed for road work.
3. This will provide better utilization of expensive equipment owned by counties and better utilization of county employees.
4. Livestock haulers are reluctant to go to ranches without improved roads.

National Newspaper Week

This is National Newspaper Week, a time set aside for the press to pause and remind the populace of its importance. The chief function of the newspaper, of course, is to provide its constituency with information. Contrary to what many people may think, members of the working press have no more right to the news they gather and publish than any other citizen. They merely make a full-time job of gathering the information, assembling it for publication and delivering it to the subscribers of the newspaper. As purveyors of information, newspaper people are subject to criticism, heckling and just plain second-guessing. One complaint that eventually reaches the ears of every newspaper employee is "you didn't tell the whole story," or "you didn't tell it like it was" in such and such story.

We came across a report on an Indiana editor's reaction to such complaints, and National Newspaper Week seems to be an appropriate time to pass them along. After hearing several suggestions that he might be more specific in some of his news stories, these items appeared in the next issue of his paper:

1. John Coyle, local grocer, is doing a poor business for a good reason. His prices are high, his store is dirty and his clerks are insolent. How can he expect much?

2. The Rev. Bob Jones preached Sunday night on "Charity." He'll need all the charity he can get from his congregation because his sermon was so poor.

3. David Conley died at his home here Tuesday night. His doctor called it heart failure, but those who knew him said whiskey killed him.

4. Married-Miss Sylvia Rhodes and James To. Colvin, last Sunday at the Baptist parsonage by Rev.

The Board reviewed the October bills and passed a motion to pay the bills.

The Board honored the recommendation of Superintendent McLeroy and appointed the following personnel to the 1980-1981 textbook committee: James McLeroy, Chairman, Doris Steadman, Beverly Copeland, Ann McLeroy, Shirley McMeans, Dorothy Gray, Peggy Westbrook, Dolores Wolf, Bill May, Joe Copeland, Sue Jane Mayes, Netta Lou Jarrett, Ben Jarrett, Mickey McMeans

A year-to-date financial report was given by the Superintendent.

The attendance was reported to be 220 students.

A work progress report was given by the Superintendent.

In final business, the Superintendent asked the Board to study school policies as a project was underway to review and update school policies.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Coyotes Collar Bulldogs

The Borden Junior High football team took the Ira Bulldogs by surprise and colored them 18-7 last Thursday in Ira.

Kirby Williams ran all three touchdowns for the Coyotes gathering all 18 points. His longest touchdown run came with 1:12 left in the third quarter. He scurried 51 yards for those six points. Kirby was the leading rusher with 128 yards on 19 carries for an average of 6.7 yards per carry. Dennis Buchanan, leading tackler had 9 assisted and 7 unassisted tackles. The Bulldogs had 106 yards rushing to the Coyotes 186 yards rushing.

The young Coyote team will travel to Grady on October 13rd to play at 6:00 p.m.

Gail Band News

The Coyote Band will be performing in the Texas Tech Marching Festival Saturday October 25, 1980. Competition will be held in Jones Stadium. Friends and parents are encouraged to attend and see the band perform. This contest is a warm-up for the U.I.L. Marching Contest to be held Nov. 4 at Jones Stadium also. There is a $1.00 admission fee for the contest and spectators are asked to sit on the press box side. The Coyote Band will march at 2:00 p.m. Other schools competing are Klondike, Sundown, Loop, Sudan, Rankin, and Wilson. All of these bands are class A schools and will be competing for outstanding band and runner-up trophies! This is an opportunity to see the entire

Coyotes Loose District Game

The Grady Wildcats took advantage of a sore and spent Coyote team last Friday night and beat them in their second district game. The Coyotes are 1-1 in district play. Borden County can still win district, but they need to win their remaining 4 games which includes Trent and Highland.

The Coyotes scored in the first quarter as Sammy Williams crossed over from 2 yards out. Junior Benavidez kicked the extra points.

Grady's Lynn Key ran over on a one-yard run and Larry Key ran the extra points. Lynn then scored on a five-yard run and Larry kicked the PAT.

The Coyotes regained the lead on a 3 yard pass from Jym Rinehart to Bart McMeans, followed by another Benavidez conversion kick. Grady again scored. This time it was on a 20 yard run by Alfonzo Gortez. Larry Key kicked the PAT for a 23-16 lead.

The turning point of the game may have occurred in the second half, according to Coach Roemisch, when a 50-yard pass was dropped by the Coyotes. That, an apparent sure TD, and the possible conversion kick would have put the Coyotes back on the top.

But, Grady scored twice more in the game. Jackie Vining passed to Ron Deatherage on two passes of 20 and 12 yards to put the Wildcats out of reach.

Despite the loss, Roemisch was concerned only with the future. "I think it will help us. We had won four in a row, and after last week's win over the touch Ira team, we might have been over-confident. I think my kids will come back next week. They won't let up because of this."

The Coyotes meet Hermleigh this Friday night in Coach Roemisch's hometown, where he earned All-State honors as a schoolboy athlete.

Booster Club

The statistics of the last ballgame were presented by Coach Roemisch. The treasurers report was given by Van York.

James Telchik, president, stressed the fact that the Booster Club will continue throughout basketball as well as track season. All basketball fans are welcome to attend the regular meeting of the Booster Club. Also, as many women meet with the Boosters as men. Women are urged to attend these meetings at 12:00 noon on Wednesday. Come support your children or your neighbors children.

Other money making projects were discussed by the Booster

Other money-making projects were discussed by the Booster Club, such as a supper with entertainment, a volleyball game, and selling coats and caps. Plans were made to show the Club's appreciation to R.T. Bell, who cooked chili for the Homecoming supper.

A caravan was planned for the Grady game. This caravan was a great success with as many as 14-15 cars. 'It was very impressive' was the definition of onlookers. There will be a caravan for the Hermleigh game. Everyone try to take part in this caravan. Let's show Coach Roemisch's hometown how Borden County stands behind him and all our coaches.

Pep Rally

Bryn Bradshaw and Chip Smith were recipients of the coveted spirit stars during the pep rally last week. Bryn and Chip are both defensive players who showed lots of Coyote spirit during practice last week.

Coach May and his 6th grade basketball team presented a skit and the Miss Fish Beauty Contest followed. The winner was Sammy Williams. Sammy was escorted by Kelly Williams. The Miss Fish Contest is sponsored by the cheerleaders and Mrs. Mayes each year. The girls in the Freshman class dress as boys and the boys as girls during the pep rally.

Belinda Ingram received the spirit surprise for showing the most spirit at the last ballgame. Mike Peterson gave the team talk and presented the spirit stars.

I want to thank everyone who sent notes, cards and letters to me after my surgery. I appreciate the food and gifts brought to me. Thanks to the people who ran errands for me and who did the "jobs" at my house. I appreciate the administration, faculty, employees and students at school for their patience and understanding during my weeks of whispering. I thank Melba Rinehart for being my "Voice" in the classroom.

I especially want to thank a very special group of students - the first graders - for being such good children, when I was whispering.

Most of all I want to thank everyone for their concern and prayers.

Borden County Historical News

The Borden County Historical Society have received the following memorials for the plaque to be placed in the museum. The plaque will hold the names of pioneers who helped in some way to form the county of Borden.

PIONEERS ARE:
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Murphy-donated by Mr. and Mrs. York Murphy

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Long-donated by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Long

Edwin Love-donated by the Love Family

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Smoot-donated by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smoot

Mr. and Mrs. J.S. York-donated by Mr. and Mrs. York Murphy

Mr. R. L. Gray-donated by the Borden Gray's

If you would like to honor a pioneer on this plaque, please call Barbara York at 915 856-4402 or 915 573-4410.

The wooden plaque which is approximately 4'X3' was donated by the late York Murphy and will be placed in the Borden County Museum.

This will be quite a tribute to the pioneers of our county. The cost for a memorial is $50.00 or other arrangements can be made by calling Barbara York at the above number.

Steer Roping Results

There were 22 teams at a steer roping on Sunday, October 20, 1980, at the L.J. Mueller Arena in Snyder. Winners in the average were:

1st Jerry Kincheloe and Mike Swinney, 2nd Jerry Kincheloe and J. J. Kincheloe, 3rd Randy Williams and David Lunsford.

J.J. Kincheloe is the 7 year old Grandson of Dorothy Browne and this was his first time to place in a steer roping.

Thank You

We would like to thank everyone for their thoughtfulness - flowers, cards, food and visits - and all the other many expressions of concern and kindness shown since Larry's accident. We appreciate you all so very much.

This is it folks -- we are down to the wire. Yes, I know -- Chick Little is squawking again -- "the sky is falling" we're all doomed to hell in a peanut shell.

Well folks, I am not the only gloomy Gus this election year. By all reports, election 1980 determines the fate of US. The vote will be tight and Texas very well may determine the outcome.

Your vote may either make history or shut out the United States' place in history. I am going to list just a few of the items that President James Earle Carter has been responsible for -- he and his Democrat controlled Congress. Space won't allow but an infinitesimal number of shameful deed and ramifications.

Health costs have risen 44 percent under J.E.C. Hospital costs increased 43.3 percent since 1976. Candidate Jimmy promised an inflation rate of less than 4 percent -- it hit 20 percent in April, 1980 and is again rising from 12.5 percent. An item costing $1.00 in 1976 now costs over $1.40. Pres. Carter has watched food prices increase 36.7 percent. Interest rates rose from 6.8 percent in 1976 to 20 percent in April 1980. Your real purchasing power has decreased 5 percent under this president. Under farmer Jimmy, farm income has fallen 20.3 percent. Carter raised the budget deficit to 67.3 billion. Carter has not kept his promise to reform taxes and balance the budget. Carter increased taxes by $212 bil.; Carter has out taxed every other president in history -- taxes from all sources in 1979 totaled $357.7 bil -- Carter wants $628 bil in 1982 -- an increase of 103 percent -- more than double the tax level when he assumed office.

Carter completed the Panama Canal 'sell-away'; Carter cut Taiwan loose from protection and recognition by US; Carter turned his back on our allies -- the Shah of Iran -- precipitating the hostage situation; Carter condoned the down fall of Rhodisia; Carter effectively weakened the defense posture of the United States making US second in defense capability.

Carter bull dozed a confiscatory tax on the energy industry (did you catch last weeks press release that the "Windfall Profit Tax may have been a little "stringent" and that a $1,000 credit would be payable beginning Nov. 5th?!); Carter has done nothing to improve energy production in the U.S. -- imports have risen 1 mil. barrels per day since 1976; Carter has backed away from development of nuclear power which has not only inhibited economic growth but has forced US to rely on fossil fuels.

Had enough? Fed up? Only you can make the change. I firmly believe it is now or never -- vote for a change -- a moral change.

Stitchaholics Convention

Over two hundred fifty members of the American Needlepoint Guild attended the tenth annual National Convention in Denver the first week of October.

More than twenty-four states were represented. Among those from Texas were 3 local needlepoint buffs, Modesta Stokes, Dorothy Dennis and Barbara Anderson. Dorothy owns and operates The Needle Point in Snyder and, as was heard in the halls of the Denver Cosmopolitan, "is probably the finest needlepoint shop in West Texas."

The convention included four days of extensive lessons for beginners, intermediates, and those well advanced in the art. Instructors of national as well as International acclaim conducted the classes.

Myrl Good of Ft. Sumner N.M. assumed the office of National president at the 1979 convention held in Charleston, South Carolina and conducted the 1980 convention. Myrl is married to Jeff Good, brother of Modesta Stokes. She travels extensively attending seminars and exhibitions. Myrl is a consistent blue ribbon recipient and has been honored by Queen Elizabeth of England as well as Princess Grace of Monaco.

The beginner in the art works with a printed canvas, often a kit that comes complete with yarn and directions. As a needlepointer becomes more proficient he often strikes out on his own, taking the various stitches that have been mastered and combining them to achieve different textures and effects.

"We think much of what is being done today is fine art," Bets (Mrs. Alfred) O'Meara said, "and we are working to establish it as such."

Attend

The American Needlepoint Guild was established just 10 years ago. Before that it was part of the embroiderers' organization.

While it is predominately a woman's group, more and more men, primarily professional individuals, are joining the ranks.

Whether it's sheep shearing time or the delivery date for shipping calves, we've been assured the three stitchaholics from Borden County will be in attendance at the 1981 Convention in Chicago.

Amendment

With increased costs of trucks and maintenance, this is becoming a much greater problem.

5. Improved ranch roads make it much easier and quicker for fire fighters to get to range fires.

6. The State has spent millions of dollars developing the Farm-to-Market state highway system, and in some cases, ranch roads are so bad that these highways cannot be utilized for the purposes intended.

7. Poor ranch roads hinder delivery of gasoline, butane, feed, windmill repair service and other needed services.

8. Improved roads make schools more accessible.

Borden County is one of the 55 counties of under 5,000 population according to 1970 census.

Tornado season is year-round problem in Texas

COLLEGE STATION — Don't breathe a sigh of relief because you think Texas' tornado season is over, because it's a year-round problem, say Texas A&M University climatologists.

Peak times are between 4 p.m. and 8 p.m. in April, May and June. But 109 twisters touch ground in an average year, with more going unreported in sparsely settled regions. Hurricanes, which remain a threat through October, can spawn dozens of tornadoes as they move inland.

Possee Building To Be Restored

At the Commissioners meeting on Monday October 13, the commissioners agreed to renovate the Sherriff's Possee Building. Along with getting a paint job and new plumbing it will have a new name -- "The Exhibit Building". It will be used for 4-H and Extension Activities as well as General Community Purposes.

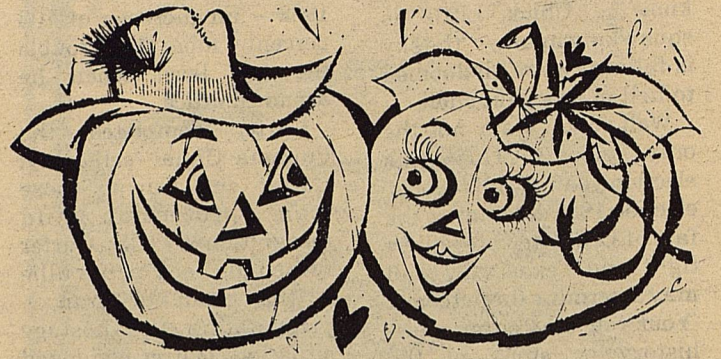

Less than half the population of America sees a dentist once a year or more.

HALLOWEEN OCTOBER 31.

Due to the home football game October 31, official trick-or-treat night in Borden County will be Thursday, October 30.

Halloween is fun for most small children, but it can also be dangerous. Please go with your children to places and friends that you know. Then check their candies and fruit before they are allowed to eat them.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower
U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

The 96th Congress is winding down. It will function for only a few more weeks in a post-election "lame duck" session. During the current recess, we can examine its accomplishments thus far, but, alas, will find little to cheer about.

The 96th was supposed to be an "oversight congress." When it started business some 21 months ago, the American public had told its members they were fed up with ever-bigger government and worsening economic problems. This Congress was going to un-do much of the costly and ineffective over-regulation imposed in other years. It was going to reduce the massive burden of federal spending which threatened to stifle our nation's economy.

Unfortunately, the promises of two years ago lie shattered at our feet. Instead, this Congress added to the size, the cost and the burden of government.

Instead of acting to make the U.S. more energy independent, Congress enacted a far-reaching mixed-up energy program which virtually assures our continued dependence on unstable foreign sources.

The Majority of members of this Congress negated the positive effects of oil price deregulation with the so-called windfall profits tax. The remainder of the energy program -- the synthetic fuels bill and emergency conservation and gasoline rationing measures -- add to the nation's supplies of regulations, but don't add one barrel to our energy supply.

Agriculture policy is almost as disorganized. While more farmers than ever are being driven out of business, Congress has largely acquiesced to the Administration's blatantly anti-producer policy. "Pro-consumer" is the watchword, with little thought to the effect on consumers of economic chaos among producers.

Despite pious promises to reduce the size of government, Congress created a controversial and costly Department of Education. The taxpayers will be coughing up $14 billion for that act alone.

Perhaps the most significant record compiled by the 96th thus far is its failure once again to come to grips with the critical problem of government spending. Interest rates have soared to record rates and remained intolerably high because of the drain of government borrowing on the money available to private business and individuals. Yet, it is clear that when the final spending tallies are made, we will be way over the spending targets set earlier this year, with a record $60 billion deficit.

While Congress has been busily spending money, it has failed to take measures to shore up the economy. Despite the shock of the sharpest recession in history in 1980, we likely will enter 1981 with our people taxed at the highest rates ever. We likely will have no program for encouraging investment to provide jobs and real growth to our economy.

In fact, we still will have the patchwork of unnecessary and often contradictory regulations which taken together keep productivity down and discourage the reindustrialization our economy so desperately needs.

That the November lame duck session is necessary is testimony to the ineffectiveness of this Congress in meeting its primary responsibilities. Only two of the 13 major appropriations bills for fiscal year 1981 have been passed, and the fiscal year began Oct. 1. The Second Concurrent Budget Resolution, spending ceilings which law requires to be passed each year by Sept. 15, has been put off until after the election.

When the 97th Congress starts work in January, it will face the same challenges the 96th did: to bring government regulation and spending under control, and to discipline itself to carry out its responsibilities without waffling or delay. I only hope for the sake of our nation the 97th is more successful in meeting its responsibilities.

Alma Mater

Borden High School, Hail to thee,
Long wave red, white and blue.
We pledge to you our loyalty,
Our spirits brave and true.
We gather wisdom from you halls,
And learn to honor truth.
We find that friendship is for all,
Whatever creed of youth.
Then, we pledge our love to Borden;
We'll ever faithful be.
While colors fly, shout to the sky,
Dear Borden Hail to thee!

Harrell House Featured

The Harrell House from Scurry County will be featured on the 1980 Christmas tree collector's decoration offered by Cogdell's General Store at the Ranching Heritage Center.

The large white ball is the third in the Christmas series, each featuring a different structure familiar to visitors at the Ranching Heritage Center of The Museum of Texas Tech University. The sepia picture of the structure appears on the glazed ball surface.

Earlier Christmas balls featured the Masterson JY Bunkhouse and the Jowell House.

The Harrell House is the house that "grew," serving three ranching families in an era that began with the free range and ended with barbed wire fences separating the cowmen and farmers.

It began as a tiny, one-room, rock structure. Before the turn of the century, a box-and-strip section was added. Before 1917 a second box-and-strip wing was added. This is the front section of the T-shaped house.

Misses Faye and Myrtle Harrell of Snyder rescued the house from deterioration, restored it on their land and furnished it with articles that came as close as possible to those used by early inhabitants of the home.

The Ranching Heritage Center is a 12-acre outdoor exhibit with approximately 20 ranch structures which have been moved and authentically restored to depict the history of ranching in the American West.

The Christmas decorations are sold to collectors with the proceeds going to the Ranching Heritage Association, a non-profit public organization which supports the center.

Gordon. The bride is a very ordinary town girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jackrabbit and never helped her mother three days in her whole life. She is not a beauty by any means, and she has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up-to-date loafer. He has been living off "the old man" at home all of his life and is not worth having. A dim future for the couple is predicted.

5. Died-, aged 56, six months and 13 days. Deceased was a mild-mannered pirate who came here in the night with another man's wife and joined the church at the first chance. He owed us several dollars for his paper, was indebted to almost everyone in town, but you could hear him praying six blocks away. He died singing "Jesus Paid It All" and we think he is right because he never paid anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos casket and his friends threw palm leaf fans in his grave because he'll probably need them.
