Chain Store Tax Passed By Legislature; Sent To Allred

Senate Opens Drive To Push Liquor Act Through

AUSTIN, Oct. 11. (AP)—The Texas legislature today passed finally a graduated tax on chain stores, the house sending the bill to the governor by concurring in senate amendments. The house accepted senate revisions 110 to 33.

Governor Allred has advocated the tax and placed it on the list of "must" legislation.

House sponsors of the tax turned back a sharp effort to send the bill to a conference committee. They admitted the bill as returned by the senate was inadequate and subject to attack but insisted it was the only chance the house had to force the measure through.

The motion to send the bill to conference failed 59 to 81. Its sponsors argued that exemptions as written by the senate made the bill unconstitutional.

The senate wet bloc withdrew a motion to concur in house amendments to a senate bill defining an open saloon to prohibit sale by the drink and consumption on the premises, sending it to a conference committee for revision.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, the author, said the house amendments exempting liquor made from products grown in Texas "nullifies and destroys the bill."

The house "said it wouldn't be a saloon provided they sold liquor made out of Texas products," Small asserted.

Advocates of the graduated levy on chain stores, ranked in the governor's top three "must" items, battered down a stubborn minority and passed the bill, 17 to 5, at the end of a continuous eight-hour meeting.

It was the first tax bill and the first major measure passed by both houses this session. Excitement prevailed at the end. A new legislative

HUNDREDS OF CURIOUS GRID FANS FROM AMARILLO WILL SEE BATTLE HERE TONIGHT

CAPACITY CROWD FOR SEASON EXPECTED AT FIELD

How Pampa and Amarillo compare against a common foe—the Capitol Hill Indians of Oklahoma City—will be seen tonight by a crowd of 5,000 persons or more when the green but improving Harvesters face the team which Amarillo defeated last week, 27-18.

So keenly do Amarilloans desire to see Pampa's chances on Thanksgiving, they have chartered a train to bring the fans here tonight, arriving at 7:15 p. m. Hundreds of others will come by automobile. The unique attraction also has attracted the attention of smaller towns, whose fans will be numerous.

Pampans, welcoming the revenue and the interest which the visitors will bring, will meet the train tonight and help transport the trippers to and from Harvesters park. Cars should be at the station by 7 p. m. The game will start at 8 p. m. It will not be broadcast.

Erection of a 500-seat addition at the north end of the west grandstand at Harvesters park was rushed last night by Cabot Shops Inc. and it will be ready for use at the game.

The Harvesters will be without the services of Leon Nobilit, center, who is out with a hand fracture. Red Fanning, quarterback, is troubled by a boil on his neck but is expected to start. The visitors, victors in 43 games before they met Amarillo last week, have been jarred out of their complacency and are expected to be as tough as any team the Harvesters will meet this season, with the possible exception of the Thanksgiving tilt.

League Votes Arms Embargo Against Italy

Italian Officials Deny Aduwa Recaptured With Massacre Of Troops.

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 11.—(Reuters)—Ethiopian troops were reported today to have stormed Aduwa last night and to have massacred the town's 2,500 Italian defenders.

The forces of Ras Seyoum, Ethiopian commander in the north, numbering 50,800 men, were reported to have surrounded Aduwa, which was captured Sunday by the Italians, and to have killed "every one" of the 2,500 defenders.

The Ethiopian losses were said to be heavy, but Ras Seyoum's fighters were reported to have captured large numbers of rifles, machine guns, artillery, and ammunition.

The Italians were said to be planning a counter attack.

(There was no immediate confirmation from Rome or other sources in Addis Ababa of the reported recapture of Aduwa.)

The Ethiopian fighters, smarting under the loss of the historic city to the Italians, were said to have resorted to age-old tactics, striking under cover of darkness, falling on the enemy swiftly and engaging in bitter hand-to-hand fighting in which spears and daggers were pitted against the modern bayonets of Mussolini's troops.

The battle was reported to have raged throughout the night, neither side asking nor giving quarter.

The Italians were now reported rallying their forces to the north of Aduwa for a fierce counter thrust.

(An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Italian headquarters in Eritrea, however, said Gen. Emilio de Bono, accompanied by his staff, motored into Aduwa this morning and occupied the city officially in the name of the Italian government.

(At the same time, a Reuters dispatch from Asmara, Eritrea, said information received there was that Ras Kassa, another Ethiopian chief, was joining forces with Ras Seyoum and Dadjazmach Barri, northern provincial governor, for a concerted defense against an Italian advance toward Gondar.)

SHIPMENTS TO ETHIOPIA WILL BE PERMITTED

ALBANIA DECLINES TO OKAY SANCTIONS AT GENOVA

(By The Associated Press.)

GENOVA, Oct. 11.—A general arms embargo against Italy and permission for Ethiopia to import all the war munitions she needs were ordered today by the international committee of the League of Nations.

The committee represents every member of the league except Italy and Ethiopia.

At the same time, a special sub-committee undertook to study the possibility of placing a financial boycott against Italy. Such a boycott might cover all loans and credits made by foreign nations to Italy.

Not only does the arms embargo apply to future shipments of war materials to Italy, but it applies to contracts already entered into.

The league's peace, 50 nations strong, struck a sharp blow at Geneva today against Mussolini's legions of war.

The League of Nations sub-committee on sanctions recommended an embargo on arms for Italy. It favored at the same time the lifting of an embargo on arms which has operated against Ethiopia.

The committee favored President Roosevelt's list of "implements of war" for use in determining which material should fall under the embargo.

While diplomacy wrestled at Geneva, the boom of Italian cannon and the shriek of Selassie's spearmen continued to be heard in Africa of Ethiopia's frail emperor told the league today that his kingdom would never capitulate to the armed forces of Mussolini.

Nor would he make any peace, said Selassie, on the basis of Italy's military gains during the week of undeclared war.

To Mussolini's minister at Addis Ababa he again said: "Get out by tomorrow." If he delays longer, said one official, he may be ejected "by force."

TEXAS PORTS' LONGSHOREMEN GO ON STRIKE

PICKETING STARTS AS OPERATORS DEFEY UNIONS

GALVESTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—Three thousand longshoremen went on strike at all Texas gulf ports and Lake Charles, La., today in a stiff demand for recognition of the Lake Charles port in new contracts with steamship operators.

M. J. Dwyer, district president of the International Longshoremen's association, said that dock workers had walked out on scheduled time at 8 a. m., tying up shipping.

Picketing immediately started at Galveston, Houston, Port Arthur, and Corpus Christi but no violence was reported.

Frank Hamer, former Texas rates commissioner, proposed that he head a heavy police detail on the Houston waterfront.

Union dock workers said they would hold out until operators contract with the I. L. A. to include Lake Charles in new contracts for the district. Texas operators countered with statements that they had no control over conditions at Lake Charles and New Orleans. They agreed to wage increases.

Preparations were started to handle cargo with non-union labor. It was believed, however, that some shipping would be halted for several days while operators assemble independent dockhands.

Dwyer expressed appreciation of the citizens' committee's interest in the controversy, but said their efforts were rather belated and that only the steamship interests could effect a settlement, "as they knew what it was about."

Mayor Adrian P. Levy of Galveston headed a committee which tried to effect an agreement between operators and longshoremen.

Holt Ross, I. L. A. official, was here from New Orleans and said docks there were congested with freight and that strike breaking efforts were not as successful as reported.

All the docks were idle here, with the exception of the coastwise Morgan and Mallory lines. Deep-sea vessels had worked far into the night to get cargo aboard before the strike deadline.

Active picketing started at Corpus Christi, steamship operators planned to work non-union men but awaited developments at Houston and Galveston. Longshoremen worked throughout the night to complete loading of Edith, a coastwise Bull line vessel, which planned to sail today. The Kirishima Maru, a Japanese boat, and the Monstella, Italian, remained tied up.

The Beaumont city commission announced that the port there would remain open and that ships would be worked. The commission made it plain that it was "issuing no challenge to anybody" but simply maintaining port facilities for customers.

It was generally believed the strike would not become a serious matter until Monday.

LONDON, Oct. 11. (AP)—An authoritative source said today that British garrisons are ready to lift the arms embargo against Ethiopia the minute the League of Nations approves such action.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 11. (AP)—Governor Martin L. Davey started today to inspect the members of his widely-known football team are now on the state of Ohio's payroll. L. W. St. John, athletics director at the university, promptly retorted, however, that "of course the players are on the state payroll, but they are working for the money they receive, and their eligibility is not endangered by such work."

Keep Traffic Lanes Open To Field, Is Plea

Pampa citizens are being asked by Chief of Police Art. Hurst to cooperate with police in keeping traffic lanes to and from Harvesters field as open as possible tonight. Chief Hurst urges fans residing west of Cuyler street to drive to the field via Hobart street and Kentucky avenue, and those residing east of Cuyler street to use the old Miami street.

Cuyler street, from the gymnasium north, and Mary Ellen street will be used for one-way traffic north, at 7 o'clock.

Buses and cars meeting the Amarillo special train will go to the station and leave for the park over Cuyler and Ballard streets. The high school band and pep squad will march to the station and back to the gymnasium after meeting the train.

WOMAN DESCRIBES SLAYING OF MORSE

"You've been wanting this long enough—now I'm going to give it to you," were the words used by R. W. McQuerry just before he fatally shot E. W. (Dutch) Morse last March 6. It was testified this morning by Mrs. Morse, the widow, at McQuerry's trial for murder.

Mrs. Morse said the shooting occurred at a small grocery store and poultry market at 218 West Craven.

The jury hearing evidence in the McQuerry case will attend the football game tonight in a body, flanked, of course, by deputies. The jury asked permission and Judge W. R. Ewing granted it this afternoon. They said they'd rather take a chance in the case lasting longer than Sunday than in holding a session tonight and missing the football game.

about 5 p. m. She testified that she and her husband were sitting on a counter when McQuerry entered from the rear.

Nothing was said, but McQuerry's eyes narrowed to slits, his nostrils "flared characteristically," and he turned and walked toward adjoining living quarters, she said. McQuerry returned shortly and sat on a counter across the store from Mrs. Morse. He spoke to a patron of the

INDIANS SPEND NIGHT IN A HOTEL AT AMARILLO

Coaches Jim Lookabaugh and Perk Whitman and the Capitol Hill Redskins of Oklahoma City received a shock when they arrived in Pampa yesterday and found they could not get hotel accommodations in the city.

The coach immediately telephoned to Amarillo to secure accommodations for the night, and after a light workout at Harvesters field, coaches and players drove to Amarillo for the night. The team was to return to Pampa early this afternoon to rest up for the important tilt with the Harvesters tonight.

Efforts are being made to accommodate the team here tonight, and at noon it was believed enough hotel rooms would be available.

Every hotel in the city was filled to capacity last night.

REGIONAL SCOUT EXECUTIVE HERE

Mr. Fitch was making arrangements for the big rally at Amarillo November 10 and 11, when national officials of Scouting will be present. He is en route home to Dallas after attending a national conference.

FDR AND TREASURE HUNTERS ON COCOS ISLAND SWAP TALK

WITH PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AT COCOS ISLAND, Oct. 11. (AP)—President Roosevelt took another fishing trip on the blue Pacific today before pointing the cruiser Houston toward Panama Bay.

"Deeply tanned" by his brief vacation, the chief executive swapped views yesterday with British treasure hunters who are following clues to buried pirate gold on this sunny island. He invited them to a beach luncheon.

He discovered the British have strung a telephone line across the steep cliffs connecting the opposite shores of this hitherto uninhabited island.

The chief of the expedition said no treasure had been found during a four-month search, but the hunt is to be continued.

I Saw . . .

John W. Hargrove, a truenest expression, clutched his face, walk up to one of the Harvesters football coaches and demand, "Why can't my boy make that football team?" The coach spared, "Why, I don't know; how old is your boy?" The answer: "He was born last Sunday, name, Roy Wesley Hargrove, weight seven and one-half pounds."

An irate citizen who wanted to get his car out of a parking space on West Foster but could not because a car which had no one in it was double-parked behind his. He looked in several stores and finally found the driver eating a hamburger in a cafe.

'His Majesty' Of Greece Hesitates

ATHENS, Oct. 11. (AP)—Jubilant royalists looked today for word from King George II as to whether he would return immediately to the throne regained in a bloodless coup d'etat.

One unconfirmed report said the king would not return from London until a majority of the nation shouts, "Come home!" A nationwide plebiscite on the question of restoring the monarchy has been set for Nov. 3.

Another rumor had the king winging to Athens by airplane, but still another went the rounds that he feared to become a puppet of General George Kondylis, author of yesterday's swift overthrow of the 11-year-old republic.

(In London last night King George II dined quietly. The aide of the dapper, monied monarch would say only: "His majesty has not yet been invited to return to Greece.")

Adherents of the monarchy in Athens and the rest of the country demonstrated vociferously with cries of "Long live King George." The celebrations continued long after the curfew hour last night.

General Kondylis, former minister of war, who assumed the regency, said his government would be temporary pending the king's return.

From Paris came a report that King George was refusing to return in view of the circumstances under which the coup was effected, saying Greece could get a king in the person of Prince Nicholas, George's uncle and father of the former Princess Marina, now the duchess of Kent.

(In Saragoza, Spain, Prince Eugene Lascares, a pretender to the Greek throne, declared his followers would "convert Greece into a river of blood" unless he was placed on the throne. He termed George a "usurper.")

These diversified reports dampened not at all the ardor of the royalists, whose main theme was that Kondylis had again made them subjects of the king.

The question asked on street corners was, "What are the republicans going to do?"

Premier Tsaldaris made it plain that "We did not resign. We were turned out."

I Heard . . .

A local fan bring up the subject of the Harvesters field tradition which will have to be defended tonight. It seems that the Harvesters have not been beaten on the grass at Harvesters field. The Harvesters goal line has not been crossed this season either, it was also pointed out.

Hundreds of high school students led by the high school band holding a football pep rally on the main streets last night. The pep squad leaders stood on top of the awnings on Cuyler and led the crowd in yells. They paraded the principal streets.

The program yesterday, led by Mrs. R. W. Lane, was on the topic, "Spiritual Development." The Rev. Gaston Foote, Methodist minister, spoke on the cooperation of parents and teachers for spiritual growth of children.

Bundles of clothing for the school thrift room were brought by members. It will be sorted, repaired if necessary, and distributed to students who are in need of school clothing.

Scout Troop to Add Furnishings To Girls' House

Troop five of Pampa Girl Scouts held its first meeting of the fall yesterday afternoon in the Girl Scout house. Purchase of curtains and furnishing accessories for the little house, which was given to Girl Scouts by the Kiwanis club last year, was decided as a troop project.

A candy sale to benefit the furnishing fund is to be conducted Saturday by troop five. The house was moved here last winter, and freshly painted and papered. Then the Business and Professional Women's club added the necessary large pieces of furniture, but curtains, lamps, pictures, and the other accessories needed to make it a home-like place are still lacking.

Carolyn Surratt was elected patrol leader. Visitors at the meeting were Winifred Prestidge, Norma LeMcKinney, and Meribelle Hazzard.

Troop members present were Elizabeth Mullinax, Mary Lynn Schoolfield, Alice Marie McCannell, Betty Lou Batten, Harriet Price, Martha Price, Peggy Stephens, Bobby Lynn Robinson, Billy Kay Coombes, Mary Kate Bonland, Marjory McCollm, Heidi Schneider, Matjie Brown.

Italy Will Not Leave League Of Nations, Report

ROME, Oct. 11. (AP)—A source close to the government said today that Italy will remain in the League of Nations unless sanctions of a military nature drive her out.

An economic blockade backed by naval power would be construed as a military sanction, said this source.

A government spokesman stated that Italy desires to remain in the league but wishes to modify the league's construction so that it will be effective for maintaining peace rather than being an instrument of war as it now is.

An official source asserted that the league was too much under British domination now and was being used as a tool of British hostility to Italy.

The refusal of the British post-office to relay last night's proposed speech by Baron Pompeo Aloisi from Geneva to America was cited by government sources as a proof that Great Britain "does not feel morally strong."

"The least she could do," said one source, "is to let the man who is accused state his case."

An official spokesman said that Premier Mussolini's reply to economic sanctions would be to buy elsewhere.

Hull Discourages Trade With Italy And East Africa

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—From a carefully-phrased statement made by Secretary of State Hull, diplomatic observers today drew the conclusion that the state department seeks to discourage trade with Italy and Ethiopia.

While not saying in so many words that this country aims to do what it can to bring the fighting to a swift close, Secretary Hull expressed the belief that the sooner the war is over the better it will be for world business.

He pictured stable international conditions as "by far the most profitable objective for our people to realize, in contrast with such risky and temporary trade as they might maintain with belligerent nations."

Hull's comment on the American neutrality policy, which some quarters abroad have interpreted as a sort of "sanction" was made as the league of Nations moved toward the enforcement of economic sanctions against Italy.

NIGHT SERVICE OF REVIVAL TO BE POSTPONED

Sermon Tomorrow to Replace It at M. E. Church

Revival services in progress at First Methodist church will not be held tonight but Dr. Burke Culpepper will preach Saturday night from the subject, "The Hounds of Hell."

Dr. Culpepper in announcing this postponement stated that he was doing this because of the football game tonight. The evangelist stated that he always took one night's rest during the week, usually Saturday, but that he was glad to make this change to show his cooperation in the high school activities.

Dr. Culpepper will speak four times Sunday. At 10:15, he will address an assembly of the Sunday school in the main auditorium; at 3 p. m. will speak to men and boys only from the subject, "Speakeasies and Freephones of Pampa"; his subject at 10:30 will be "Christ, the Repairer" and at 7:30, "The Sin That God Will Never Forgive."

The revival will continue throughout next week with Dr. Culpepper speaking each morning at 10 and each evening at 7:30.

A large crowd heard the evangelist last night from the text, "And the Books Were Opened," his subject at 10:30 will be "Christ, the Repairer" and at 7:30, "The Sin That God Will Never Forgive."

During the course of his message, Dr. Culpepper said in part: "There are four fundamental facts connected with a man's life; his creation, fall, redemption and ultimate judgment." His message was based on the fact of the judgment.

"Your church membership is your marriage certificate to Christ," the speaker told his audience. "It is not fair to keep your membership in your trunk or in the old church back home. Jesus never joined any institution except the church and people ought to be ashamed to stay out of the church."

The principal address of the evening will be made by Bishop Robert E. Lucey, one of the most polished and gifted speakers within the church. Bishop Lucey has risen fast in the councils of his church since taking over the Bishopric of Amarillo as attested to by the important part assigned to him at the recent Eucharistic Congress held at Cleveland. In addition there will be other entertainment on the fine program that has been arranged for the occasion.

They will meet in the Dorcas classroom at the church, 30 minutes before morning and evening services. These plans were made after a talk by Mrs. Marvin Lewis on fitting. Sentences prayers closed the luncheon hour, then some members made visits to church homes.

HIDE AND SLEEP

CORPUS CHRISTI.—Willie Hazzel, negro, had an excuse when he was accused of drunkenness after being found asleep beside an empty bottle on the court room floor. "I heard a colored man was looking for me, Judge, and I figured this was the safest place for me to hide," said Willie. Justice O. W. Briggs considered the explanation adequate.

'SECRET SINS WILL OUT,' IS REVIVAL TOPIC

Week-end Services at Central Baptist Announced

"Sins committed in secret usually become public," said the Rev. J. C. Sizemore in a revival sermon at Central Baptist church last evening speaking from the text, "Be sure your sins will find you out."

"Although some sins may be hidden from the public, from friends, wife, and family, none is hidden from God," he continued. He especially condemned Sunday school teachers and church workers whose private lives do not conform to their teaching.

The revival continues next week with two daily services. Both morning and evening meetings are scheduled for tomorrow, and the Sunday services will be at usual hours.

Listeners filled the church auditorium last evening for the sermon and the preceding song period directed by H. E. Pearce. An invitation is extended by the church membership and minister, the Rev. John O. Scott, to the public for all services of the revival. Daily meetings are at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away" (Revelation 21:4).

The lesson-sermon includes also the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The very circumstance, which your suffering sense deems wrathful and afflictive, Love can make an angel entertained unwares" (page 574).

IT'S OPEN SEASON
XENIA, O.—Harry M. Fisher, railroad engineer, wants a bench catcher to supplement his locomotive's cowcatcher. His headlight went out suddenly. He investigated and found a hen pheasant had flown into the light, shattered the lens, and wedged itself in the reflector.

The train proceeded at reduced speed.

WASHN'T THE TRUCK MISSING?
ROCHESTER, Pa.—The fire alarm sounded, but the boys didn't get going right away. They found some one had drained all the gasoline from the truck's tanks. After the fire they discovered the thief also had taken a first aid kit and eight bridge tables from the fire station.

TOKYO, Oct. 11. (AP)—The Japanese navy office, indicating a speeding up of its naval construction program, announced today that the cruiser Suzuya, third new ship in the 3,500-ton class, has been placed in commission.

MOST FANS PICK PAMPA TO ANYTHING MAY HAPPEN AVER GRID COACHES THOUSANDS ANXIOUS TO SEE IF PAMPA IS SANDIE MATCH

Class B Grid Teams Go Into Action Friday

M'LEAN, Oct. 11.—The McLean Tigers will meet their second conference foe of the season when they invade Memphis tonight. McLean will be deserted, it is predicted from the advance sale of tickets for the game.

The Tigers have one conference victory and hope for their second win tonight. Memphis has one of the strongest teams in the district, and the Tigers are expected to be put to the limit to hold the Owls.

LEFORS, Oct. 11.—The LeFors Pirates journey to Wellington tonight for another conference battle.

Capitol Hill's Redskins of Oklahoma City slipped into Pampa yesterday afternoon, donned their grid "feathers" and war paint, and went quickly out to Harvester field where Coach Jim Lookabaugh and Perk Whitman put the Redmen through a long signal practice, getting the feel of Harvester turf for the big game tonight with the Harvesters.

The large squad of Redskins came here with a quiet determination to stamp out a defeat handed them last week in Amarillo when the Capitol Hill eleven lost its first game in 44 attempts.

"The boys are out to get back that loss and show Panhandle football fans that Oklahoma can still put out teams as great as those in the Panhandle, where Texas' strongest teams are located," Coach Lookabaugh announced last night. "There will be war from the first whistle. My boys have lost the over-confidence they displayed last week when the Sandies got the jump on them," declared the coach.

Capitol Hill has won three of the four meetings of the Harvesters and Redskins. Not since 1931 has a Pampa team defeated the visitors.

"It is going to be one of the stiffest battles of the year," Coach Odus Mitchell of the Harvesters remarked yesterday after putting his charges through a signal practice. "We may not beat the Redskins but they will know they have been in a game. The boys are primed to go and we may surprise."

PARKER SAYS TEXAS, BAYLOR, RICE AND TCU WILL WIN AND SMU AND AGGIES WILL LOSE

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. Raleigh Francis may give the University of Texas Longhorns misery Saturday at the Dallas Fair Park bowl when the Longhorns bang into the University of Oklahoma Sooners.

Francis, a senior Oklahoma half-back, appears primed for a few supreme touchdown runs. In Wednesday's scrimmage at Norman, Okla., Francis gave his football cleats a touch of speed when he scampered through the Oklahoma freshman line for touchdown jaunts of 35 and 45 yards. He was considered one of the trickiest ball loggers in last year's big six conference marathon.

Coach "Biff" Jones plans to put big Al Corrotto in front of Francis past two weeks that Noblitt may be switched to tackle position.

"Red" Fanning will be in the starting lineup, but will be playing with a bad boil on his neck. Fanning will take the back position tonight, with Captain Drake calling signals from the short position. Brown will be switched to Drake's position, with Stewart going to the other side. Stewart will also be used in the fullback position.

Should Fanning be unable to play the entire game, Showers and Kitchens will be available. Other members of the team are in good condition. Hartman's hand has healed nicely and Drake's ankle has responded to treatment.

Capitol Hill will enter the game with a full team in perfect condition. The backfield will be led by Cori, quarterback, a tricky ball carrier. The Baker brothers will flank the quarterback, with Kemp at the fullback job to do the passing and punting along with his punting.

Green, 205-pound tackle, and Speigle, center and captain, are the line stalwarts.

BARKER PICKS OKLAHOMA TO TROUNCE TEXAS

BY HERBERT W. BARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Strictly on the assumption that one man's guess may be as good as another's, here's the way this week's football program seems to line up:

Nebraska-Minnesota: Unless Bernie Bierman can pull football players out of a hat, Minnesota definitely will be the victor. Nebraska just as definitely is on the way back to the top with a high-powered offense built around flashy Lloyd Cardwell.

Pennsylvania-Colgate: The Quakers, beaten by Princeton, will have to watch out for the trickiest offense any Yale team has had. Whether the Elis have the line to go with a fine backfield is the big question mark.

A ballot for Penn. Perhaps the most exciting game of the day with Colgate's slight-of-hand pitted against Iowa speed as exemplified by Ozzie Simmons and Dick Crayne. Taking the long trip into consideration, a doubtful nod in Iowa's direction.

Auburn-Tennessee: Auburn's defeat of Tulane plus Tennessee's beating by North Carolina should add up to an Auburn victory, but this observer's mathematics point to Tennessee.

Southern Calif.-Illinois: There's little of the old power in this Trojans outfit. In all things, losers, with Howard Jones for at least another week.

Stanford-U. C. L. A.: Here's the spot, perhaps, for the day's biggest upset, for Bill Spaulding's Uclians look plenty tough. This ballot for Stanford is attributed mostly to lack of courage.

Fordham-Purdue: It's considered good football policy to bet on the Big Ten in its tussles with the east, but Jimmy Crowley has plenty of manpower at Fordham. A timid ballot for Fordham.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Marquette football team is thick with relatives. . . Most unusual is the uncle-nephew combination of Gene Belonga and Lloyd Tappa, a pair of sophomore linemen. . . Then there are the Giepe twins—Art and Al—both backfield stars. . . John and Wallace Lauterbach are cousins. . . and guard Bill Jennings is the son of the athletic director. . . No, Ray Sonnenberg, half, is no kin to Gus, the wrestler.

Mike Jacobs is relaxing in Bermuda for a few days. . . apparently not giving a continental whether he goes into the Garden or not.

Tommy Curtin of Yale, who did not have much luck wearing jersey No. 48, made famous by the ill-starred Bruce Caldwell and Albie Booth, has shifted to No. 11.

Army won't have to live in the past for football greats for long. . . Unless a lot of experts are wrong, big Jim Craig, an ironshod sophomore, is going to make the Cadets forget (well, almost forget) about Jack Buckler, Chris Cagle, etc.

Craig was barely good enough to make the plebe squad last year and to hold a place on the fourth team early this season.

Murray Patrick, 20-year old son of the Rangers' manager, is having a hard time choosing between hockey and boxing for his professional efforts. . . There's a hockey job waiting with the Rangers. . . and he's another heavyweight champ of Canada. Besides that, he's a basketball star and has done some bike racing.

halt reckless public expenditures is to stop asking—all the way to the top. Houston doesn't need an auditorium any more than Pampa; if Houston goes more than a million, we demand nearly $50,000.

The Able News, noting Mr. Doble's condemnation of a monument erected at old Washington-on-the-Bears in honor of the signers of the Texas declaration of independence, says: "Calling this work in 'atrocious taste,' the author of Coronado's Children goes on to the climax: 'Although all the names of all the state officeholders who had anything to do with erecting the monument are there engraved in big letters, there does not appear the name of the 58 Texans who a hundred years ago made the decisive step resulting in the present Texas.'"

"Alas for the soul of a poet in a world of crass materialism! While we can sympathize with Mr. Doble and even cheer him on, we know that it is just another noble impulse gone haywire. You can't lick sentiment with historic facts."

SIX GAMES IN SOUTHWEST ON SATURDAY LIST

ARKANSAS AND BAYLOR WILL BATTLE AT WACO

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer. Seven Southwest conference football teams, keen for action, waited for Saturday's zero hour when they swung into action—offering for the day's entertainment one conference championship and five non-conference combats.

Richly sprinkled with championship and inter-sectional color, Saturday's program follows:

The University of Arkansas and Baylor university in a conference game at Waco under the flood lights. It will be the first night football game in the Razorback's history.

The University of Oklahoma and University of Texas at Dallas where 25,000 people are expected to see them battle in the huge Dallas Fair Park bowl.

The Rice Institute Owls, 1934 conference champions, and the Creighton Blue Jays in an inter-sectional game at Houston expected to draw 12,000 people.

The Southern Methodist Mustangs will display their aerial circus at St. Louis against Washington university. The Texas A. and M. Aggies move into Shreveport for their annual joust against Centenary. Texas Christian left Friday for Tulsa to play Coach "Gloomy" Henderson's Tulsa university eleven.

Thursday was tapering-off day in training camps. Coach Morley Jennings drove the Baylor Bears thru a hard work-out minus scrimmage. Jennings worked his cohorts on new plays he hopes will be successful against Arkansas. Shuford McDonald was groomed to replace "Ox" Parry, big tackle out with a sprained ankle.

The Razorbacks, 28 strong and in fighting trim, departed Thursday night for Waco. Coach Fred Thomson said this week's practice sessions had been few and disappointing and that night play on foreign ground might make it difficult for his boys. Thomson said his team was in fair condition.

The Southern Methodist Mustangs rehearsed their offensive plays. Coach Matty Bell said that all members of the team except Jake Smith and Ken Goodson, backs, would be able to play against Washington. Bell said the Mustang attack would depend on the defense offered by Washington.

Forward, backward and lateral passes are a few things the Texas Christian Frogs plan to show Tulsa university. The Frogs labored long and hard on their aerial game in hope that it will click against the Oklahoma. If the air heaves fall, the Frogs will rely on their powerful ground game.

Miami Defeats Junior High 32 To 0 Thursday

COCHRANE HAS UNDERSTUDIES LEARNING JOB

DETROIT, Oct. 11 (AP)—Mickey Cochrane, sparkplug manager-catcher of the world champion Tigers, isn't hanging up his spikes for some time, but nevertheless he is accumulating several youngsters who may understandy him.

Although Cochrane is only 32 years old, he has done a lot of catching since he entered the American league in 1925, averaging around 120 games a year, exclusive of world series contests. He has participated in more than 30 of these.

Young Frankie Reiber, third string backstop on the Tiger squad this year, has been coming along for a year under Cochrane tutelage. Discovered by "Wah" Egan, Tiger scout, the Battle Creek youngster became a sensation in the Texas league the year before he joined the Tiger squad; and before he put on a Fenigal uniform, the Detroit club scouted at a $40,000 offer for him.

Reiber developed a mental hazard soon after coming up, and lost his throwing accuracy.

Ray Hayworth, who has played second fiddle to Cochrane for the past two seasons, chiefly against left-handed pitching, is established as the No. 2 Tiger backstop, but he

By using first string players nearly the entire distance, the Miami Warriors yesterday afternoon defeated the Junior high team 32 to 0 at Harvester field. The game was originally scheduled for this afternoon but was changed so that the Miamians could attend a district game.

Experience was noticeable early in the game as the fleet Miami veterans tore through and around the Junior high boys for long gains. With Morrison, three-letter man, Alrhart and Locke, two-letter men, leading the way, Miami pushed across five touchdowns and made two points after touchdowns. After putting a few substitutes in the game, Miami was pushed back by the gallant local juniors who fought to the last whistle.

Although outclassed, the Pampa juniors showed up much better than in past games. With more experience the young fellows will be playing—substituting in the game.

Starting lineup:
Pampa (6) Fos (32) Miami
Wagoner L. Arrington
King LT Maddox
D. Smith LG Wilson
Parish C Lord
Stiles RT Webb
Hope RE Pond
Williams RE Meadow
Prator QB Morrison
Esslinger LH Alrhart

is only a couple of years younger than Cochrane.

Reiber overcame his throwing trouble this year, and again the fiery Mike regards him as a strong prospect. Another possibility is Rudy York, Indian slugger who was named the most valuable player in the Texas league last season. York can catch, but dislikes the task, insisting a catcher has to think too much to get any fun out of the game.

RED RAIN HAS GOOD SUPPORT TO WIN BELMONT PARK RACE

BY ORLO ROBERTSON, NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Despite his disappointing performance four days ago, C. V. Whitney's Red Rain rallied plenty of support today as upwards of a score of 2-year-olds were pointed for the $100,000 futurity at Belmont Park tomorrow.

Although severely beaten in the Nursery Stakes, the big chestnut appeared to shake the horns that came from behind to take the Hopeful at Saratoga when he reeled off five furlongs in 59 3-5 seconds yesterday.

He ran down the Widener straightaway over which the futurity will be decided at 6 1/2 furlongs. The son of Pennant stepped the first eighth of a mile in 11 4-5 seconds, the quarter in 22 4-5, three furlongs in 34 2-5, and the half-mile in 46 3-5.

TRIAL

She married Morse August 19, 1933, and moved with him to Panhandle, leasing the store and poultry business—where Morse had owned the building and furnishings and continued to own them to the time of his death. Mrs. Morse, while separated from McQuerry, but not divorced, formed a partnership with Morse in which she owned the stock of groceries and divided profits, 50-50. McQuerry came to Pampa to rejoin his wife in 1930 and had a fight with Morse. Thereafter the profits were not divided and Morse began helping run the business, making many trucking trips to buy produce. Trouble followed she said, culminating in the divorce and her re-marriage. After marrying Morse, she said, she was separated from him on one occasion by McQuerry, who took her to Shamrock. She said she was afraid to disobey McQuerry, but several days later, after McQuerry returned to Pampa, she went back to her husband at Panhandle.

McQuerry Was Suing.
 On the day of the shooting, Mr. and Mrs. Morse had come to Pampa in connection with a civil suit instituted by McQuerry for a partition of property.

At noon, the defense was attempting to break down Mrs. Morse's statement that McQuerry was the aggressor in the shooting. Glenn Calhoun and Claude Williams of Amarillo are special prosecutors. District Attorney Lewis Goodrich was in charge of direct examination.

The jury is composed of J. L. Nance, A. L. Prigmore, Luther Byars, C. M. Carpenter, Dell M. Seafel, E. W. Bunch, J. B. Massa, H. P. Elliott, Tom Clayton, W. D. Waters, W. C. Archer, R. S. McConnell.

CITIZENS URGED TO GIVE OLD CLOTHING AT BENEFIT SHOWS

Pampans who are cleaning out trunks, attics, and closets as part of the Fire Prevention week program are urged to save usable clean clothing and to present it at the Pampa Daily NEWS-La Nora theater benefit shows next Wednesday, Oct. 16.

Everyone who presents an acceptable garment or bundle of clothing will be admitted to the theater to see Lee Tracy in "Two Fisted." The clothing is much needed for distribution to children whose garments are not adequate for cold weather. Some children do not have enough clothing to go to school.

Lee Tracy, after a much too long absence from the screen, comes back to win new laurels in Paramount's "Two Fisted," sparkling comedy romance of the lively adventures of two lowbrows who break into highbrow society.

"Two Fisted" is a rollicking screen adaptation of an original story by James Gleason and Richard Taber and pictures the breezy events of a prize fighter manager and his dumb pug when a chance meeting with a Park Avenue playboy crosses them into the swanky 400 via the butler route.

Tracy is seen in a role cut to his measure as the smart cracking, glib talking fight promoter whose business it is to keep his second rate, dim witted boxer, Rescoe Karns working. Karns and Tracy make a perfect combination of mirth provoking comedians as one merry scene follows another, and give individually noteworthy portrayals. Broke, hungry and quarreling, the two accidentally make the acquaintance of a society man about town, Kent Taylor, much the worse for a night's revelry. Taylor talks to them and brings them into his home, later making them the household's butlers to cover the real reason for their being there, namely to put him into the pink of condition so he can sock at his crooked dealing brother-in-law who has been messing up the family's financial affairs.

Many side splitting scenes occur as the two boys begin to take part in their benefactor's social life. One of the high spots of the fun film is the boxing match put on by Tracy and Karns for the ritzy friends of their employer in honor of his birthday. Proceedings reach a lively and exciting tempo when the master of the house, five year old Billy Lee disappears, supposedly the victim of his father's kidnap plot. A brisk finale brings the comedy to a breathtaking, hilarious close.

teer by Ralph Thomas, county agent.

The program will include home talent music, a dialog on livestock and feed conservation, a talk by County Agent J. F. Ford, and "History of Buffalo Herds," by Cleo Hubbard.

Gray county farmers will be among the listeners.

VINCI MAY BE COMPELLED TO LEAVE AFRICA

HAILE SELASSIE MAY USE FORCE ON MINISTER

BY JAMES A. MILLS, Associated Press Foreign Staff. (Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 11.—A high Ethiopian official said today that the government may be obliged to use force unless Luigi Vinci-Gigliucci, the Italian minister to Ethiopia, leaves within the specified 48 hours.

The Ethiopian government was not informed concerning reports that Aduwa had been recaptured by the Ethiopians with heavy losses to the Italian forces there. The telephone lines from Addis Ababa to the north were broken.

Likewise, government officials said they had no knowledge of any fighting in the Ogaden sector.

Emperor Haile Selassie already had ordered the Italian envoy to leave the country on the charge that his legation was the center for Italian espionage and that the legation radio was being used for unfriendly purposes.

This order was transmitted to Vinci yesterday and the time limit expires at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

Vinci, however, asked to remain until the Italian consular agent from Magalo arrived in the capital.

This plea, however, the government denied on the grounds that the agent's caravan cannot reach here before 10 days more have elapsed.

Other members of the diplomatic corps urged the Italian to depart as ordered, saying his position has become untenable.

Haile Selassie assured Vinci of his fullest protection, not only for himself and his attaches but for the Magalo consular agents as well. The French minister also offered to assume responsibility for the safety of the Magalo staff.

The Ethiopian government was determined not to permit Vinci to delay his departure further.

In the meantime the diplomatic corps offered to take over the protection of the Italian legation but not the general Italian interests.

ARGUMENTS DELAYED
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—Crowded court dockets today delayed until Monday arguments in three District of Columbia supreme court cases involving public works loans and grants to four Texas cities for power plants.

OIL COMMITTEES MEET
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 11 (AP)—Three committees of the interstate oil compact commission, the conservation committee, rules committee and committee on police powers, completed tentative reports shortly after 10 a. m. today as the second official meeting of the commission was convened.

FASCIST ARMY MOVES TO TAKE HARAR GARDEN

Soldiers Delighted With Conquests At Aduwa

BY ANDREW BERDING. (Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press.)

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMIES ON THE NORTHERN ETHIOPIAN FRONT, 12 Noon, Thursday, Oct. 10 (Delayed in transmission)—The Italian field headquarters announced today that a slight advance has taken place on the southern, Somali-land front in the last few days "in order to rectify the frontier."

Gen. Rudolf Graziani sent his troops forward in the Dolo and Wajwal regions, it was announced, but they are now halted and are remaining on the offensive. No resistance was encountered.

It was believed that this was the beginning of a movement intended to result in the capture of Harar, strategic capital of the province by the same name and the "garden of Ethiopia," to unite Italy's colonies of Eritrea and Somaliland and to join the northern and southern armies.

In the Aduwa region, officers worked alongside men today with pick, shovel and dynamite in an effort to push up roads to the advance troops and to keep them supplied with food and ammunition.

The biggest battle thus far has not been against the Ethiopians, but against the tremendous difficulties offered by the terrain. Narrow roads, hastily thrown together on the basis of old caravan routes, are overcoming the huge differences in altitude.

(The following dispatch, also delayed in transmission, was sent from the front at 10:50 a. m., Thursday, Oct. 10.)

The enormous difficulties in constructing roads led officers to believe today that their advance into Ethiopia may be halted shortly.

Italy may be contented to occupy the province of Tigre and part of the province of Amhara, the officer said.

The population of Aduwa was returning to normal life in the historic city while Italians were making a heroic effort to run roads into the town in order to supply their troops with victuals and munitions.

The people of Aduwa, who used to barter in the first days after the occupation Sunday, exchanging chickens for water and eggs for empty tin cans, now use lire, as a medium of exchange. They charge 30 lire (about $4) for a chicken and 50 centesimi for an egg.

The consulate is now used for headquarters for the army air corps.

An officer translated for the Associated Press signs left by some people, tacked to the doors of their houses when they fled, saying: "We have gone away temporarily and beg you graciously not to touch anything with in."

The soldiers were delighted by the richness of the Aduwa valley, where corn is growing magnificently on staves 8 and 9 feet high.

FREDERICK, Okla., Oct. 11 (AP)—Van Smith, 27, Tillman county farmer, was burned to death today when flames destroyed his farm home five miles northwest of Frederick a few hours after his wife had borne a son in a hospital here.

LEGISLATURE

day was ordered when the majority was insufficient to suspend rules.

Several senators left, breaking a quorum, sergeants-at-arms spent an hour rounding up absentees while the senate idled.

To an exemption of lumber yards as approved by the house, the senate added voluntary chains, oil well supply houses, filling stations, dairy products processing plants, wholesale and retail units of manufacturers selling their own products, and utilities paying gross receipts taxes on merchandise sales.

By a two-vote margin advocates defeated a three per cent sales tax and by larger majorities other amendments proposing a two per cent gross receipts tax, exemption of stores with annual gross receipts of less than $30,000 and a sharp reduction of the levy on larger chains.

Opponents charged the tax was a punitive one and would increase the cost of commodities on poor people. They charged the exemption of voluntary chains would permit evasion by large chains controlled by eastern financiers and impose an inequitable burden on Texas-owned groups.

Authors calculated it would yield approximately $1,000,000 annually, but opponents claimed the revenue would be much less. The tax on one store would be $1 annually, increasing sharply with the more stores in a chain to $750 on each store of chains with 50 or more units.

Charges of politics motivating the bill were made in debate and Senator W. K. Hopkins of Gonzales asserted agitation for it emanated from "the campaign for governor of the man who now occupies the office downstairs."

The senate snarled on an amendment to the house liquor control bill proposing confiscation of spirits illegally transported and of vehicles used in the violation. An initial test favored it, 14 to 12.

"This is not a bone dry state any more," objected Senator Frank Rawlings of Fort Worth, while Senator Will Martin of Hillsboro interjected, "we've run this confiscation business to the last ditch."

Senator Olan R. Van Zandt of Toga, the author, said it was copied from federal statutes to provide for "civil enforcement," disclaiming intent to propose a "witch-burning" amendment.

Two other amendments modeled after federal regulations were approved. One classified as a nuisance places where regulations were violated and prescribed fines and jail sentences for operators. The other set misdemeanor penalties for possession of untaxed liquor.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 (AP)—Renewed demand for industrial specialties whittled these issues up to new highs for the past year or longer in today's stock market. The rails were inclined to back up, however, and the list encountered profit-taking around top levels. But most of the leaders were not far under their peaks of the session and the close was firm. Transfers approximated 2,000,000 shares.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 11 (AP)—Active options held around 2 points higher during the morning as the trade and professionals continued to absorb the light hedging in the market.

Traders were watching the European situation closely and with an extra day intervening over the week-end and nearly all were liquidating their commitments because of the general uncertainty.

Dec. sold at 10.88, Jan. at 10.92, Mar. at 10.95 and May at 10.97 just before mid-day with the market generally showing small net losses.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Oct. 11 (AP)—With a double holiday ahead, and many traders showing a disposition to stand aside for the time being, wheat prices sagged late today.

A bearish influence was the fact that demand here for red winter wheat has been disappointing. Talk, too, was current that aside from movies relating to arms embargoes no sensational European diplomatic measures relating to Italy and Ethiopia were to be expected in the near future.

Wheat closed easy, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 lower. Dec. 1.04 1/2 - 1/4; corn, 1/2 - 1/4 down. Dec. 60 1/2 - 1/4; oats 1 1/2 - 1/4; and provisions varying from 5 cents decline to 10 cents gain.

BOSTON, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "Demand has improved over last week or the week before, amounting to more than a normal average in volume of business done. Prices are firm throughout and occasionally the buyer with holders rather inclined to withhold wool for the next day."

HIGHWAY

and action on the Borger-Pampa highway situation. We know, too, that we will be understood, and that the proper authorities will say we are justified in our belief.

Look for Results
Upon return from Austin and Dallas, where delegates discussed the problem with the Highway Commission and the governor's office they reported that every member and individual concerned gave them a most courteous, attentive, and sympathetic hearing but the high-points of the meeting and the hoped-for results are the reports that have been so anxiously awaited by those who are claiming no end of delegations have spent money, made trips, followed official advice, and received promises that have brought us no nearer our goal after three years of earnest effort.

Counties Cooperating
At this hearing the Hutchinson, Carson, and Gray county men composing the delegation stressed the all important point that the three counties have gotten their heads together in perfect accord, agreeing to let no obstacles or petty differences block the building of the road if the state does its part. They further pointed out that the people of this area separately and collectively, are conscious and appreciative of the fact that the allied oil industries which pay a bulk of the taxes in the territory are deservingly of a dependable road, which incidentally is a necessity, through this most important sector of a nationally important oil field. In addition, the commission was assured that the voters of the North-western Panhandle, right or wrong, felt justified in making a determined effort to secure this road.

In answer to the statement that "this area" had received a large amount of state road work, the delegation pointed out that, although some sections had benefited from state expenditures the North-eastern section wherein lies the source of almost inestimable taxation revenues had obtained but little in the last few years, during which time there has been continued stress put on this particular road in one of the most valuable, productive, busiest, and oldest oil fields in the state; a road over which 1,000 cars pass during a twelve-hour daytime period, more than half that many again every night, and approximately as many more would travel every day if they were not forced to take the long, expensive circuitous route because of the terrible condition of the road at the present time; a road that is virtually impassable during any adverse weather conditions, delaying the progress and activity of one of the greatest tax-paying industries of the state.

The fact that the road isn't even on the existing list of state designations is the result of a recent cancellation of all state designations by the Commission with the hopes that they might be taken over by W. P. A. work, which possibility was remote at the time of cancellation, and still is due to the lack of relief labor in this section. Some of the Commissioners didn't know that the state had made surveys for a proposed Pampa-Borger road, or that some of the right of way (based on these surveys) had been purchased, but stated upon being advised of this that the road might already be on the approved list for state construction, when and if, if such is the case, although we are at somewhat of a loss to know why there was no record of approval, the Commission said the project would be in line for construction upon receipt of available funds. At the present all Federal aid funds have been designated, as have all state construction funds, the only unallocated monies being approximately $3,000,000 for lateral roads, which, of course, has nothing in common with the Pampa-Borger situation.

Following the lengthy discussion, after some of the confusing details had been clearly stated, it was with no little pleasure that the delegation heard the Commissioners addressing each other with remarks favoring a conscientious and immediate consideration of the problem.

Members of the group from all three counties went into the hearing expecting all the questions and knowing all the answers. The report wherein the commission itself was concerned seemed to be one of thorough-going appreciation for our problems. The Panhandle delegation of the commission, besides affording an attentive and understanding audience, was sincere in his statement that the problem would receive the continued attention and advice of the entire Commission until the road is a realization perhaps in the near future, which at its earliest is none too soon in the eyes of the Northeastern Panhandle voters who have dreamed, worked, begged, and fought for this road which is a vital necessity, and a deserved one at that.

THAT SCHOOL BUS LAW

Motorists include some of the most thoughtless persons in the world, probably because there are so many of them. No motorist wishes to kill a child. Most of them would regard with horror the possibility — if they thought about it.

There are many kinds of incompetents on the roads. These include drunken drivers, drivers with poor eyesight, drivers with muscular abnormalities, and especially those who are "in a hurry." Hurried persons are not always concentrating on some problem of the moment, but many of them are nervously and unconsciously "stepping on it." Speed mania is a habit. Even persons of the best impulses edge up their speed unconsciously.

There is no reason to be unconscious about some phases of traffic safety. Passing of school buses is the result of either ignorance or carelessness. The buses are too big to ignore. And as to the law, here it is:

Section 400. (301b) Operation of School Buses—All vehicles used for the transportation of pupils to and from any school or college, shall have a sign on the front and rear and on each side of said vehicle, showing the words "School Bus." When any such "School Bus" vehicle stops, every operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle approaching same from any direction shall bring such motor vehicle or motorcycle to a full stop before proceeding any direction and in event such "School Bus" vehicle is receiving or discharging passengers, the said operator of such motor vehicle or motorcycle shall not start up or attempt to pass in any direction until said "School Bus" vehicle has finished receiving or discharging its passengers.

Any party who violates any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) or confined to the county jail not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both such fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that if death results, to any persons caused either actually or remotely by a non-compliance or violation of any of the provisions of this act then and in that event, the party or parties so offending shall be punished as is now provided by law. (Chap. 215, 42nd Leg., R. S.)

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Oct. 10. (AP)—At the midpoint of a senate committee's investigation into his lobbying against a chain store tax, former Senator George Puri of Dallas was not downhearted.

"I feel like the optimist who fell out of a tenth-floor window of a New York hotel," Puri said.

"As the man passed each floor, he shouted in the windows, 'I'm all right so far, boys!'"

Ernest Thompson, chairman of the railroad-commission, finds more difficulty than any other state official, probably in journeying from his hotel to the capitol.

Oil is the principal reason. Persons wanting to talk oil with him wait outside his office, in the hotel lobbies and even along the sidewalk.

Press correspondents were told the other day that "the colonel" had just left his hotel.

"How long before he arrives?" someone asked.

"About an hour and a half," his secretary replied.

It was almost an hour and a half later when he walked in.

Senator Will Page of Tyler had called the senate state affairs committee to order and asked for the names of all persons who wished to testify on the chain store tax.

"If you don't speak out," he told a hundred-odd persons gathered for the hearing, "you can't talk. We've got to have your names."

From far up in the gallery a man shouted his name, and startled committee chairman shouted back an invitation to "come down on the floor."

"I can't," the man replied. "They won't let me in."

It was quite true. The sergeant-at-arms had mistakenly closed the doors of the senate chamber as for a regular session of that body. Committee meetings are open.

Some legislators are cynical about investigations. Also about meticulous work by committees.

A house committee recently was laboriously taking an old-age pension bill to pieces, considering each bit and fitting up a new framework.

"Oh, what's the use?" a committeeman objected. "We might as well remember there will be a committee to investigate it all after the first year."

"Laugh if you will. We had to operate on the relief commission several times."

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Washington, perhaps as never before, feels itself on the inside looking out.

Which is one way of saying that there's very little news here and that all those who aren't off on trips are squatted behind telescopes, peering in every outward direction toward events which interest Washington intensely, but whose scenes are remote.

War is on in Africa and official eyes are strained at the league and a dozen nations, not forgetting Germany and Japan. The world series is so far off that few local boys and girls are attending it, though many seem excited.

Roosevelt has been off at the other end of the country, his speeches and their reception followed breathlessly by his home town. Local necks are craned at Kansas since Hearst declared for the Republican presidential candidacy of Gov. Alf Landon.

Over in Baltimore a conservative federal judge is considering the validity of the holding company act. The American Legion just met at St. Louis and now the A. F. of L. meets at Atlantic City.

The RFC and ICC were all of a twitter while the Van Sweringens were buying back a chance of control over their railroad empire in a New York auction room. Others are wondering what on earth General Johnson, far out west, will be saying next.

Strike threats, local reactions to WPA projects and PWA's eclipse, feeling in the big potato states, resettlement schemes—these and other things keep Washington's mind on matters outside.

The capital distinctly isn't the center of the stage. But the supreme court is back, the president will be returning, and then Congress. So no one here is worrying about possible oblivion.

You could hear almost as much news and dope on the little island of Martha's Vineyard, under Cape Cod, where your correspondent spent his vacation—and found various Washingtonians doing the same thing.

Steve Raushenbush, chief investigator for the munitions committee, was at Chilmark when his New York office telephoned that the coast guard had rounded up Anthony Fokkes, whom he wanted for a deposition as to airplane sales, on a yacht off Montauk Point.

Fokker wanted to come straight to the island to see Raushenbush, which caused no end of excitement among us until Steve decided to take the deposition elsewhere.

Scattered in cottages "up island," bumping into one another only occasionally, were Tom Blaisdell, economist who has supervised various New Deal consumer units here and is now with Tugwell—his hands full defending the New Deal against "reactionary Republican" natives at Vineyard Haven; Jerome Frank of RFC, similarly beset by left wing radicals around Menemsha and Chilmark; Max Lowenthal, chief counsel under Senator Burt Wheeler for the railroad financing investigation; and Guy Emerson, wealthy New York lawyer, who lobbied here for Morgan on the banking bill and seemed satisfied with results.

It was a cockeyed cross-section. But everyone was having a swell time.

That Chicago woman didn't need to warn police, going to arrest her 96-year-old husband that he was a wildcat. It might take a stiff tussle, but the average police squad would eventually have him behind bars, wheelchair and all.

A test reveals that men can put on brakes faster than women. But then the fair sex is naturally reluctant to show it can stop a car in the middle of a block.

Celebrities are usually pleased to receive keys to cities, but nowadays it might be difficult trying to get anybody to accept the Florida Keys.

President of western university announces a surplus of janitor and dining room jobs. The college evidently has no football team.

According to Hitler, a spade is "a gun of peace." Even dictators, it seems, are afraid to call it a spade.

REFRIGERATOR TRUCK WILL BRING FRUITS

STANDARD MARKETS TO BUY ON PACIFIC COAST

Standard Food Markets yesterday added a two-ton refrigerator truck to its fleet, a huge aluminum-painted vehicle which shortly will be used on a loop which will include California's citrus groves and truck farms.

Delbert Brown drove the truck from Oklahoma City, where the body was built by Rathbun body works.

The main body is 20 feet long and 7 feet 6 inches high, made like an ice box, and built for the purpose of rushing fresh fruits and vegetables here under full refrigeration. About 10 days will be required for the round trip, using a relief driver who will sleep in the special sleeping compartment while the head driver rolls over the wide open spaces and through mountain passes en route to or from Pampa.

The big affair has 8 tires and, with air brakes, can be stopped quickly despite the weight of the load.

The drivers, who also are experienced buyers, will select the fruits and vegetables from the best farms and orchards in Arizona and California.

Italians Claim Small Losses In Ethiop Campaigns

ROME, Oct. 11 (AP)—Light Italian casualties and surrender by important Ethiopian chiefs were reported today in an official communique on the fascist campaign of occupation in Ethiopia.

The losses in the first four days of fighting were announced as five Italians and 25 native Eritreans killed, and 20 Italians and 50 natives wounded.

Thirty-three native soldiers were reported missing.

Two important Ethiopian chiefs came through the Italian lines and offered their support to the Italian command, the communique said.

The first was Degiac Halle Selassie Gugsa, chief of a vast eastern Tigre region, who brought with him several thousand followers, the announcement said, and the second was Degiac Kassa Arina, who also brought with him his forces.

These surrenders were said to be "of great importance" as showing that Ethiopians along the Eritrean frontier did not wish to fight against the Italians.

During the first four days of fighting, since which the Italian army has been digging in, the communique said, Italians captured one cannon, one machine gun, 134 rifles and 30 cases of ammunition.

COUNTY AGENT RALPH THOMAS ANNOUNCES REFERENDUM

A referendum on the question of whether there will be a corn and hog adjustment program in 1936 will be conducted among all corn and hog raisers on Saturday, Oct. 26. Secretary Wallace has written County Agent Ralph Thomas the investigation being made by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, which included a hearing held in Washington on Sept. 26 and 27, has shown economic justification for another program, but that the practicability and effectiveness of a program will depend upon the indicated degree of support by producers.

In the referendum, corn and hog producers will vote on the question: "Do you favor a corn-hog adjustment program to follow the 1935 program which expires Nov. 30, 1935?" The referendum will be by secret ballot and will be conducted by county and community corn-hog committees and by the extension service. Community polling places will be open from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m.

All operators and owners of farms which produced corn and hogs in 1935, whether or not they signed 1934 or 1935 corn-hog contracts, are eligible to vote in the referendum. Ballots of 1935 contract signers and of those producers who have not signed a 1935 corn-hog adjustment contract will be tabulated separately.

If a substantial majority of those voting indicate that they favor a program, a new plan for 1936 will be worked out and offered to producers in contract form. Regardless of the way they vote in the referendum, producers may sign contracts or not as they choose, after they have studied the proposed new program.

"The decision as to whether or not another program will be developed now rests with the farmers themselves," Administrator Chester O. Davis said. "The referendum is intended to provide opportunity for full and free expression, both for and against a voluntary adjustment program, on the part of all corn and hog producers."

"Evidence brought out in the hearing and by other phases of the investigation disclosed that in the absence of any program under the agricultural adjustment act, a drastic decline in corn prices would be likely in 1936, with sharp reductions in hog prices commencing in 1937.

"The stage is set for a major downward in corn and hog prices which might reach low levels comparable to those experienced in 1932 and 1933 if no program is put into effect," Mr. Davis said.

"If a program is developed, it should provide for expansion of hog production in 1936 in the interest of both consumers and producers, but it should contain safeguards which will prevent an excessive supply thereafter."

Before the referendum on Oct. 26 county and community meetings of corn and hog producers will be held throughout the county, to permit discussion of the facts of the corn-hog situation so growers may be prepared to express an informed opinion in the referendum.

Instructions for holding the referendum are being sent out to all corn and hog producing states under the direction of G. B. Thorne, director of the division of livestock and feed grains, and Claude F. Wickard, chief of the corn and hog section.

MODERN VERSION
NEW YORK (AP)—The Hero of the occasion was Patrolman Peter Leiber of the police marine division. Leander was a swimming cat. But the waters were those of the East River, not the Hellespont. For three hours Leander, who had jumped from a cattle barge, dodged tug and pleasure craft. Finally Leiber hauled out the swimmer. "Mmmmm baw," commented Leander.

Chapter 21
BIRMINGHAM

"In view of what you've been through," Charlotte said when they were settled at last in the hermit-like room she called home, "you look better than I dared hope."

Emily was reclining on the bed. She had tried Charlotte's chairs and given them up as hopeless. "That's Dr. Wurdie. The man could graft backbone into an oyster."

Charlotte's eyes were anxious. "You aren't falling in love with him, are you?"

Emily twinkled. "It's plain you haven't seen him. He looks like a mouse. And he doesn't know people are really people at all; he thinks they're cases. But he's a grand doctor."

Charlotte relaxed. "Thank God for that. Another complication would make me old before my time. Have you had any dinner?"

Emily's eyes widened, then narrowed into laughter. "I was so excited over coming that I forgot all about eating!"

Charlotte grinned. "What a business woman you're going to be! I haven't eaten either; I was late getting away from the office and I decided to wait, on the chance that you didn't care for railroad food. Put on your hat then, infant, and let's go."

The restaurant was small, and even at so late an hour crowded. When Emily had tasted the food she understood the reason.

She looked about her with interest, and wondered what her mother's reaction would be to the idea of two unattended women in a public restaurant at this hour. In her social code Frances Felton was still in the mauve decade of her girlhood.

"Now tell me," she said when set to work.

When school was out they played and even Charlotte's play was constructive. She belonged to the Open Forum, and to the play-writing group of the Little Theater.

She read voraciously, and Emily began to know once more the joy of matching wits in verbal combat. That, she decided, was why she had let her mind go to seed; half the pleasure of reading and thinking lay in clarifying your ideas in argument. It was hard to know what you believed until you had had to defend your position from assault.

She took a room in the house with Charlotte, and spent luncheon hours hunting French prints, and a lamp whose shade was an old map of Ireland, and a good wing chair.

She bought a few books—old friends and new ones, in the dollar editions that were such a boon to embryo advertisers. It was infinitely better than Ardmore, where you signed your name in a register when you went out and when you came back; here no one knew or cared where you went.

She met Charlotte's friends, and found them as refreshing and as intensely individual as the Left Wing at Ardmore.

There was Anne Campbell, who did illustrating and layout work at Salter's; a slim, blond girl who looked, Charlotte said, like an illustration by herself. She wore beautifully tailored clothes that carried smartness almost to the point of ugliness, and smoked innumerable cigarettes in an ebony and amber holder.

And there was Viola Burwell, who was Salter's consulting decorator, and who shared an apartment with Anne. Viola, Charlotte confided with a twinkle, was a perfect antonym for Anne.

She had a Junoesque figure, a skin like a magnolia, and a mass of blue-black hair that she wore in an unsteady knot low on her neck. Her summer wardrobe was composed entirely of dresses made by herself from cretonnes and chintzes in her own drapery department.

She chose the material solely for their color or design, and looked, Anne told her caustically, exactly like "one of those trick laundry bags that people pass on and on to each other at Christmas." Viola smiled vaguely and good-naturedly at the criticism and went her serene way.

They accepted Emily immediately and without apparent curiosity as Charlotte's friend, and asked her and Charlotte to supper on her second Sunday evening in Birmingham.

The supper was Emily's first experience in Bohemia; not the untidy, unwashed Bohemia of Greenwich village or the Left Bank, but a gathering in which everybody spoke his mind and manifested it beautifully unconcern for his neighbor's private life.

"They keep open house on Sunday," Charlotte explained as they entered the apartment building in which Anne and Viola lived, "and some of the habits belong to the zoo, so don't be alarmed at them."

The door to the apartment was hospitably ajar, and they entered without knocking, stopping first to leave their hats in the tiny hallway.

The living room was surprising; a beautiful room, simply and exquisitely furnished. The rugs were dark green and the draperies a subdued pattern in blacked linen. A grand piano in an alcove supplied the last touch of luxury.

The room was empty save for a long blond youth who was sitting on his shoulder-blades in an armchair, reading. He said, "Hi," and then dragged his eyes from the page and rose.

Charlotte presented him. "This is Jed Latimer. He's the boy wonder of the Evening Post." She addressed Jed. "You holding the fort alone?"

He nodded, motioning with his head. "They're in the kitchen, fixing food. I'm feeding my soul instead."

Anne was in the kitchen, enveloped in a voluminous smock, busy with French dressing. A round, dark young man with melancholy eyes sat like Humpty Dumpty on a high kitchen stool, watching her flying hands.

She greeted them gaily and introduced the young man, whose name was Steve Young. He bowed to Emily without moving from the stool, and she thought fleetingly of a character from "Alice in Wonderland."

Life takes on new charm for Emily, tomorrow.

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: The Story of Jeremiah.

Scripture Lesson: Jeremiah 1:1-10; 6:10, 11; 8:18; 25:1-24; Chapters 36, 37, 38.

1:6. Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, I cannot speak; for I am a child.

7. But the Lord said unto me, Say not, I am a child; for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the Lord.

9. Then the Lord put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

10. See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

26:8. Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the Lord had said unto him, to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9. Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the Lord, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolation without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the Lord.

10. When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the Lord, and sat down the entry of the new gate of the Lord's house.

11. Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12. Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The Lord sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13. Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God; and the Lord will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14. As for me, behold, I am in your hand; do with me as seemeth good unto you.

15. But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for a truth the Lord hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

Golden Text: To whomsoever I shall send thee thou shalt go, and whatsoever I shall command thee thou shalt speak, Jeremiah 1:7.

Introduction

Jeremiah prophesied in round numbers, about one hundred years later than Isaiah. The northern kingdom (Israel) had fallen into the hands of the king of Assyria, and many of the people had been carried into captivity. The southern kingdom (Judah) was rapidly approaching a similar fate. The country lay right between two great rival powers which at this time were struggling for supremacy—Egypt on the south and Babylonia on the north and east. The ruling party in Judah was bitterly hostile to Babylonia. As Jeremiah saw that their only hope of safety was in putting themselves under the protection of Babylon he kept urging this move publicly and privately. For this the king, the priests, and all those in authority proclaimed him a traitor and determined upon his destruction. The times were out of joint, and Jeremiah's life was a prolonged martyrdom.

Jeremiah's Ministry

It was during the last forty years of Judah's history that Jeremiah carried on his ministry, sad days indeed for the people of God. It was Jeremiah's lot to prophesy at a time when all things in Judah were rushing down to the final and mournful catastrophe; when political excitement was at its height; when the worst passion swayed the various parties, and the most fatal counsels prevailed. It was his to stand in the way over which his nation was rushing head-

DOCK WORKERS STRIKE GOES INTO EFFECT

STRIKE MAY BECOME SERIOUS MATTER BY MONDAY

GALVESTON, Oct. 11. (AP)—With the exception of the coastwise Morgan and Mallory lines, all docks at Galveston were idle today as international longshoremen put their strike into effect.

Inasmuch as deep-sea vessels were worked far into the night to get cargo aboard before the deadline set for the strike, there were few ships of this class likely to be affected today at Galveston.

It was generally believed that the strike would not become a serious matter here until about Monday. Galveston steamship officials were expected to try to arrange for the handling of vessels with non-union labor.

Thomas Rice, chairman of the Houston and Galveston steamship men's labor committee, which had conducted negotiations with the international longshoremen's association since last June, has repeatedly declared that no arrangements for loading and unloading ships with non-union labor would be made until the strike went into effect.

The appeal made by a citizens committee to longshoremen and steamship operators, asking them to agree to mediate, apparently will have little effect. Mayor Adrian P. Levy of Galveston appointed the citizens committee which sought to effect a settlement.

Opposing sides have informed the committee that settlement appears hopeless. N. Renfert, temporary chairman of the committee, indicated that the group has no immediate plans for action.

The Norwegian steamer William Blumer, which was under the I. L. A. boycott declared Oct. 1 against ships from New Orleans, completed the discharging of a grain cargo at the Texas Star flour mills and sailed for New York late yesterday.

Both the Morgan and Mallory coastwise lines, which were not affected by the strike, have arranged barracks at their docks for their workers.

to possessed with his mission and his message, to fall a prey to the self-consciousness which betrays men, sometimes even martyrs, into theatrical ostentation." (C. J. Ball).

DESTROYED BY FIRE
NOGALES, Sonora, Mex., Oct. 11.—The United States consulate, a large warehouse and several small buildings were destroyed by fire of the undetermined origin early today.

Flames broke out in the warehouse shortly before midnight last night and as fire fighting equipment from both sides of the border rushed to the scene, spread quickly to the American consulate.
